ONE INCH RAINFALL AT ABILENE

Greater Precipitation As Points North And East—Showers Later At San Angelo.

Rain Sunday night varying from one half inch in Sweetwater to one quarter inch at points west and one inch east, gave promise for a season this coming year. Points north reported little or no rain, as did points south. The rain in Sweetwater was very heavy while it lasted and was intermixed with hail of fairly stable quality judging from the noise made when pounding on Sweetwater roofs. Some of the hail stones are reported as large as guinea eggs.

Fecos, west, reported a light shower. Midland got about one half inch, Colorado 35 and Roscoe 25. The storm seemed to increase east, as Abilene reported one inch. Lubbock and Hamlin seemed about the northern limit of the rain. They both reported only slight showers. Snyder received 31 of an inch while Slaton reported nearly an inch. Roy received one quarter of an inch.

Blackwell reported a light shower during the night but indications were for more moisture. San Angelo received no rain during the night but reported a hard shower Monday morning about 7 o'clock.

No rain was reported at points west on the Orient clear to Fort Stockton and Alpine.

The rain was very timely as it will permit farmers to begin spring operations on an extensive scale.

DECLINES REDUCTION HEARING.

"Big Four" Representatives Of Orient Refuse Chicago Meet.

WICHITA, Mar. 13.—Representatives of the "big four" brotherhoods of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway, have flatly declined to attend the hearing before the United States Labor Board in Chicago March 15, when the Orient's petition or a 25 per cent wage reduction and elimination of punitive overtime will be considered, according to A. De Bernardi, vice president and general manager, who left Saturday night for Chicago to attend the hearing, which may play a major part in the Orient's future.

All employees were invited to attend the conference for a full and free discussion of the entire situation confronting the road, he said, but the "big four" have declined to be present or represented.

Charges that the Orient is heavily overcapitalized were branded as ridiculous by De Bernardi, who said the Interstate Commerce Commission record would indicate that the commission itself has been convinced that the so-called "top heavy capitalization" already has been sealed down by two receiverships until the $2,500,000 government loan is the only security of any market value standing against the entire $40,000,000 property, including line and equipment, both in the United States and Mexico.

ENGINE OFF TRACK

Sand Washed Over Rails Causes Derailment in Orient Yards This Morning.

The engine and tender of the North-bound Train No. 4 on the Orient Railroad jumped the track a short distance south of the local depot about 7:30 o'clock this morning. Sand and gravel washed over the rails by the rain Sunday night was the cause of the accident.

The coaches remained on the track and were later transferred over the Santa Fe and T. & P. switches, continuing the trip northward after an hour's delay with an engine, which was sent from Hamlin.

Work of putting the derailed engine was completed late this afternoon by a wrecking crew from San Angelo. No damage resulted from the derailment.

MAY HOLD THREE OFFICES.

No Likelihood Of Woman Being Governor Of Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 13.—Women are eligible to only three elective "high" state offices in Oklahoma, the attorney general's office has ruled. They are, commissioner of charities and corrections, clerk of the supreme court and the office of corporation commissioner.

"There is absolutely no danger of Oklahoma getting a woman governor now like Kansas might," Kathryn Van Beuven, the only woman assistant attorney general in the Southwest, who handed down the opinion said.

ARREST FOLLOWS WILD PARTY

KALAMAZOO, Mich. Mar. 13.—John Duval Dodge, son of the millionaire auto manufacturer, is in jail here charged with driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition and with the violation of the State Liquor Laws.

The arrest is said to have followed a "wild party" which reached its climax when a young Normal student girl drove from the speeding car into the country road. The girl was seriously injured by the car and remained for some time at the roadside before she was picked up by a passing farmer.

WEATHER REPORT

Tonight cloudy and colder; Tuesday fair.

THIRD TRIAL IS ON

"Patty, A Victim Of Circumstances," Says Attorney—Will Be a Fight To Finish.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 13.—The Roscoe Arbuckle, half-slicked back and ice shining, ambled back into court today to go through once more the silent yet leading rôle he plays in the tragedy of Virginia Rapp's death.

For a second time he looked at the face of superstition, refusing to be worried because his trial was starting on the thirteenth. His first trial opened Nov. 13. "I should worry about thirteens and black cats and all that guff," said the big comedian.

And someone recalled that at the first trial he came near being acquitted and at the second, when didn't open on the thirteenth, he almost was convicted.

The courtroom scene, the actors in the drama, and the story all expected to hear, had become familiar.

"This is going to be a finish fight—none of the no decision affairs this time," declared District Attorney Matthew Brady. At the second trial he would have secured a conviction had it not been for one or two persons on the jury. We have a stronger case each time we go into court. This time I believe, the matter will be settled.

There is no doubt as to Mr. Arbuckle's innocence," said Gavin McNah, the chief counsel for the big comedian. "He is a victim of circumstances. We will get a fair-minded jury and prove to its entire satisfaction that Mr. Arbuckle took no life—that he tried to minister to a stricken girl and has been driven near to ruin a able reward."

General understanding was that the evidence at the third trial will be more extensive than at any preceding recitals of the story. It was believed that the past life of Virginia Rapp, whom Arbuckle is accused of killing, will be laid before the jury.

The state will be hampered to a certain extent by the probable absence of Zey Pyron, show girl and star witness against Arbuckle. She dropped from sight in San Francisco immediately after the second trial, turned up in New Orleans and was reported to have gone to Havana. Unless she returns voluntarily, she cannot be forced to appear against Arbuckle.

"CORN" OR SAND?

"Report" Says Wild Ducks Had To Find Landing; Blinded.

CISCO, Mar. 13.—Enroute to town from the farm, Louis F. Barbour noticed the peculiar actions of a flock of wild ducks, flying around in circles, gradually closing the circle, and flying lower and lower, until reaching the ground, and walked toward them. As they did not show signs of flight, he walked into the flock and picked one of the ducks. To his surprise, he found that all of them, twenty-three, had been blinded by the "sand and dust" that had been blowing all day.

Shipped Walnut Logs.—A new industry has been opened up at Camp Wood consisting of the getting out and shipping walnut timber. This is an old industry revived for walnut timber was hauled out of this region to a great extent in the past. Some very fine logs are being brought to Camp Wood and stacked along the railroad for shipment to the east coast where they will be exported to Europe.—Camp Wood Register.

"LIARS" TAKE NOTICE

Newly-Discovered "Truth Serum" Renders Subjects Impervious To Prevarication.

DALLAS, Mar. 13.—Authorities here are planning additional tests with "truth serum," the newly discovered preparation which, when injected into the blood of a criminal, its discoverer says, renders him powerless to lie.

Already two formal tests have convinced many officials that the serum will work. But more tests are planned to demonstrate beyond a doubt the efficacy of the drug.

The active basis of the drug is scopolamin, the substance used to induce "twilight sleep," an aid to painless childbirth. Its mental effect seems to be producing paralysis of imagination, rendering the patient incapable of telling anything but the truth.

Voluntary Subjects.
Subjects for the recent tests in the county jail here submitted themselves voluntarily for the experiments. The tests were carried out under the supervision of prison officials and physicians.

One of the subjects was W. S. Scrivner, convicted of complicity in the robbery of the Jackson Street Postoffice. Scrivner turned state evidence against Albert Rowan.

A dose of the drug was injected into Scrivner's arm and District Attorney Manry Hughes questioned him.

"Did you rob Guy's pharmacy?" the district attorney asked.

"No, I don't even know where it is."

Scrivner was sentenced to prison for this robbery, but always had maintained his innocence.

Scrivner gave the names of five men. While conscious he had refused to give this information.

Denies Murder.
The other test subject was Walter Smith, negro, accused of murder.

The district attorney questioned Smith regarding the murder with which he has been charged. Smith maintained his innocence.

"He told a clearer story under the influence of the drug than when conscious," Hughes said. Witnesses against him did not give more information at the preliminary hearing, and the murder charge has been dismissed.

Physicians who witnessed the tests declare that further tests will reveal startling developments—that the truth serum may be the greatest medico-legal discovery since Bertillon classified finger prints.

"Truth serum" was discovered by a Texas country doctor who refuses to make his name public until the tests are conclusive, because of medical ethics. He was present at the tests.

Explains Discovery.
Here's how he tells of his discovery: "I noticed women under the influence of twilight sleep would tell things without stimulation of the imagination."

"They'd tell only what they were asked and the will to invent things seemed paralyzed. I made several tests. I became convinced of the value of scopolamin as a legal aid."

District Attorney Hughes is optimistic over the outcome of the tests. "While alcohol, chloroform and ether induce talkativeness, the patient only raves in a sort of temporary insanity," Hughes says.

"This 'truth serum' has an opposite effect. Instead of talking at random the patient speaks only when he is spoken to.

"I'm convinced the experiments were of value. If we can buy truth in bottles and inject it into criminals' veins, the lie—the criminal's best defense—will be useless!"

There will be an entertainment at the Elks' Home tomorrow evening in an informal reception.

This photo of Baroness Gabrielle von Rubow was taken recently at the request of Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm. It is reported in European courts that he had proposed marriage to the baroness, but these reports have been denied by members of his family.

MAY BUILD HOTEL

Erection Of "Premier" Hotel At Dallas Will Cost Approximately $3,000,000 Is Rumor.

DALLAS, Mar. 13.—Persistent rumors that Dallas is to have the "Premier" hotel of the South have been in circulation here for the past week. The rumors started with reports that the Oriental Hotel Association has purchased the one-third interest of the Busch estate of St. Louis in the Oriental Hotel.

It is stated on good authority that work on the new hotel will start about the first of May. The present Oriental hotel will be razed and a new 18-story hotel, with 1,000 rooms will be built.

The hotel which will be the most modern in the entire Southwest, will cost in the neighborhood of an estimated amount of approximately $3,000,000.

TRAIN KILLS 3

Children Crushed As Freight Train Strikes Auto—Mother is in A Critical Condition.

FORT WORTH, Mar. 13.—Three children are dead and their mother is believed to be dying today as the result of a crash between an automobile and an eastbound Texas & Pacific freight train three miles east of here late Sunday.

The dead are: Frances Caylor, 9; Cornelia Caylor, 10 and Martha Caylor, 6. The Caylor family had left home for a short drive and as they approached the railroad tracks, Caylor suggested that the car be stopped in order to all the children to watch the westbound train pass. Mrs. Caylor is said to have objected and as the car crossed the tracks, it was struck by the eastbound train which had approached unobserved.

WILL PLANT MORE COTTON CROP 1922

Reports From Texas Counties Show Five Per Cent Increase Over 1921 Crop Is Planned.

FEW COUNTIES SHOW DECREASE

Boll Weevil And Other Pests More Numerous; Weather Falls To Kill Out The Insects.

DALLAS, Tex. Mar. 13.—That the cotton acreage will be increased in Texas this year despite the fact that the boll-weevil threatens heavy damage and the pink boll worm menace continues is indicated by reports from 94 Texas counties to the Texas Industrial Congress.

The increase in land planted in cotton will be about five percent over 1921 the reports show. The acreage last year was 11,522,537 producing 2,971,757 bales of cotton.

Non-resident land owners, merchant and bankers are blamed for the probable increased acreage. Most of the cotton is raised on land tilled by tenant farmers and the land owners are insisting that the tenants plant cotton, according to reports to the congress.

More than 50 counties reported that cotton acreage would be increased this year from five to 100 percent. A few counties estimated the acreage would be decreased from 5 to 30 percent.

The Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association announced that if the cotton crop is normal this year it will control bales and will ask for credit up to $20,000,000 with which to market the crop. John T. Orr, president of the association predicted the organization will have a membership of 100,000 by the close of 1922.

The boll-weevil pest and the pink-boll worm are giving the farmers considerable trouble despite both federal and state aid directed either to exterminate or halt the advance of these cotton crop destroyers.

Because of the spread of the pink-boll worm are giving the farmers considerable trouble despite both federal and state aid directed either to exterminate or halt the advance of these crop destroyers.

Because of the spread of the pink-boll worm certain states last year established a quarantine against Texas cotton. The pink boll worm is believed to have been brought into the state with shipments of cattle from Mexico. Sterilization methods will probably be perfected this year and zones infected with the pink-boll worm will be designated and forced to comply with sterilization and shipping laws.

Oil Development Watched.
Farmers And Business Men Figure Cheaper Fuel Supply.

SAN BENITO, Mar. 13.—Oil developments in the Mexican state of Nuevo Leon and Tamaulipas are being anxiously watched by farmers and business men on the American side of the border, near the prospected regions.

A "strike" in this region, which is not more than 65 miles from the center of the Rio Grande Valley farming region, would mean cheaper and a more plentiful supply of fuel for use in the irrigation plants scattered throughout the district.

With additional and cheaper irrigation facilities in the valley, an influx of new citizens would start officials here astir.

PLANS FOR ADMISSION.

WICHITA FALLS, Mar. 13.—The youngsters of Wichita Falls are to have their "knot hole" grandstand this year. Work on the stand is nearly completed. Boys under 15 years, who will sign a pledge stipulating observance of certain fundamental rules of clean living, will be admitted to the week day games (free of charge). The stand is being erected by the Rotary Club of this city.

RECOMMENDS SMALLER ARMY

House States Proposition In Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—The reduction of the United States army from its present strength of 157,000 to 115,000 has been provided by the House Appropriations Committee in its annual appropriation bill, which it reported to the House.

The action was taken as the result of the objection of President Harding and General Pershing, who desired that the strength of the army be placed at 150,000 instead of 130,000 men.

MAY WITHDRAW TROOPS.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—Congressional demands that all American troops be withdrawn from Europe are expected following the refusal of the Allied Commissioners to consider the claims of the United States for a part of the German indemnity for the main tainance of the Army of occupation on the Rhine.

Mrs. A. S. Mauzey left last night for Fort Worth to visit her sister Mrs. Tom Brazans, during the Fat Stock Show. She was accompanied by Judge Mauzey's mother, Mrs. M. E. Mauzey of Decker.

A CONGRESSIONAL FAILURE.

It was almost a year ago that President Harding called together the 67th Congress. Flush with victory, with the greatest popular vote behind it and the largest majorities present in both the upper and lower houses, with campaign promises fresh on its members' lips, the 67th Congress was looked upon as a welcome physician to heal the nation.

The Democratic party for two years before had been without a working majority in either house. Every effort it had made to change the fundamental economic conditions had been thwarted by the opposition with the view of making campaign material for the fall election. The treaty fight had so consumed the time of the Senate that nothing else could be attempted.

Normalcy was the watch word of the Harding administration. But as month after month has passed by it became more and more evident that the Republican party was without leadership in the conduct of the government business, was devoid of a settled policy toward foreign or domestic affairs, and had forgotten all about its campaign pledges and its election promises.

The result has been that the great powerful machine that rolled in votes in November fell by the wayside when it got in action. It was a great destructive, critical power, but when it came to construction and creative legislation and policies it was lost. It has been afraid to do what it said it would do, and afraid not to carry out under some guise or another the policies advocated by its predecessor. The best that can be said about the Disarmament Conference is that it has put the United States nearer to the entrance of the League of Nations.

There is little doubt but that the present Congress has earned for itself wide and intense unpopularity. Taxes were to be reduced. Republicans spent the months prior to the election talking about the high taxes, yet little has been done to relieve this situation. After months of bickering the 1921 taxes were left at the old schedules and the removal of the oppressive surtax and excess profit tax was left to go into effect in 1922.

The tariff, a Republican specialty, is yet to be enacted. The Fordney bill as it now stands will never be enacted. It is unworkable and in many instances unbearable. The Senate Finance Committee, has not, and will not, report it out to the Senate until radical changes have been made.

The last straw of respect has been lost by the administration during the last few weeks over the bonus question. Without going into the merit of the issue involved, the action of

THE MERRY JOURNEYS OF MARY JANE

How Hungry Henry Stole Mary Jane's Lunch

Hungry Henry had a wonderful appetite—nobody ever had to coax him to eat.

HUNGRY HENRY is a little fat pig that lives out back of the barn at Aunt Susan's house. Hungry had a wonderful appetite. Nobody ever has to coax him to eat.

Well, one day, Mary Jane was going to pick a mess of peas out in the garden, and she thought maybe she better have a nice lunch, in case she got hungry from working so hard.

So she cut two big slices of her Aunt Susan's home-made bread, and put a whole lot of Mary Jane Syrup on them, and put them together, like a sandwich. Then she wrapped them in a paper napkin, and put them on a big rock, right near the fence in the corner of the garden.

Well, it wasn't any time at all before Hungry Henry wandered over to the fence and looked in, to see if Mary Jane might throw him a few peas or something.

Finally he came opposite the stone where Mary Jane's lunch was. He sniffed, and wiggled the end of his nose, and said "oink, oink". Then all of a sudden he grabbed Mary Jane's sandwich, and ate up every crumb. When Mary Jane found out what Henry had done she told him right out he ought to be ashamed of himself. But Henry said "you haven't any right to leave a delicious Mary Jane Syrup sandwich so near the fence, either. So there!"

But Aunt Susan says that "he laughs best that laughs last", and maybe next time Henry will be sorry he was such a pig?

tables were in play and a number of games were enjoyed. In addition to the card games the girls heard with pleasure several piano numbers given by Miss Mary Douthit and Miss Brand sang "The Spirit Flower." Mrs. Don Clayton and Mrs. Joe Boothe played substitute. Plates holding a beautifully arranged refreshment course were passed at the conclusion of the afternoon's fun to the following, including the substitute guests: Misses Peyton Irving, Rita Brashear, Mable Brownling, Tommie Lee Cochran, Mary Douthit, Rozelle and Ella Brand. SELF CULTURE CLUB

Mrs. L. B. Morris and Mrs. Schooler were joint hostesses at the Self Culture club meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morris on Highland Heights.

A business session, presided over by Mrs. F. G. Robertson, was a part of the program, during which a committee on motion pictures was named, in compliance with T. F. W. Clubs request and they are Mrs. Rufus Wright, Mrs. I. S. Focht, Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald and Mrs. F. L. Drago. The "Tourist Camp" at City Lake was discussed but further action was deferred until next meeting. Mrs. D. B. Doak and Mrs. L. E. Mrs. Toler talked of the Political side of the bill; Mrs. Reese of the World War Veteran's side of it and Mrs. Crawford discussed President Harding's attitude toward the bill which was followed by Mrs. W. W. Beall's story of the different amendments and the phraseology of the bill. SELLS MORE HEREFORDS

J. D. Dulaney reports the sale of five registered Hereford cows with calves to J. S. Arledge of Bronte, Mr. Arledge, like many other Hereford men in this section, is using Dulaney stock to start a herd of registered Herefords. The price was not given but is reported as satisfactory. In fact Mr. Dulane, stated the five cows and calves brought as much as 50 good grade Herefords would have brought. This makes 48 head sold from the Dulaney herd the past month.

Mrs. O. E. Hill was hostess at a meeting of the "Gleaners" this afternoon, at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Holland on Locust Street.

IN MEMORIAM.
CHARLES CANFILL.

Charles Canfill was the son of Orson and Phoebe Canfill, who were among the first pioneers to settle Northeast Kansas. He was born April 1st, 1860 in Haddam, Kan., and had the distinction of being the first white child born in Washington Co., Kansas. He was reared and spent most of his life in the same community in which he was born. At the time of his death he owned the land that his father settled and patented from the government.

He was married to Miss Elizabeth Sanders in 1881. She survives him and makes her home in this city. To this union were born two sons, Lloyd Earl was the eldest. He graduated from the Highland Park School of Pharmacy, Des Moines, Ia., and was practicing his profession when death called him two years before the passing of his father. The other son, Dr. A. W. Canfill is one of the honored citizens of this city.

Brother Canfill grew to manhood on the Kansas frontier surrounded with the hardships that always attend the early settlement of a new country. These same hardships temper the steel of upright manhood, hence the worth and strength of his Christian character. It was the year in which he was married, 1881, that he was converted while at his work and from time to his death lived a consistent Christian life. In 1887 he united with the Methodist Protestant Church and remained a faithful member of that communion until he joined the Church Triumphant.

After the death of his son, two years ago, he left his old home in Kansas, and with his faithful wife made his home in Sweetwater near his only living child. He was a man who bore his sorrows quietly and patiently, yet it pierced deep into his soul. He never entirely recovered from the blow of losing his son, but he never complained.

Three weeks preceding his death, he suffered a light attack of influenza. He had practically recovered from this attack when he was suddenly stricken with an attack of heart failure, Sunday, March 5th, and passed from this earth a few minutes later. The funeral was held in the Methodist church March 7th by the Presiding Elder of Sweetwater District, Rev. Stewart, assisted by Rev. Doak, pastor of the Methodist church and Rev. Jackson, pastor of the South Side Baptist church, and was laid to rest in the Sweetwater Cemetery. He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, one son, four grandsons, three sisters and a great host of relatives and friends.

In his death, Sister Canfill has lost a true and faithful husband; his son and grandsons a father whose life has been an example of devout and consecrated manhood, his relatives a kinsman whom all honored and loved; his friends a friendship of sterling worth and humanity one of God's noblemen. As he lived, so he died. When he knew that the end had come, he lifted his hands toward heaven and said: "Blessed Jesus, come and take me."

He had taken Jesus in life and was not afraid for Jesus to take him in death.

Father's gone but not forgotten. Never shall his memory fade. Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger Around the grave where he is laid.

We loved him, Oh, yes, we loved him. But the savior loved him more. So the angels sweetly called him To that bright and happy shore.

The golden gates were opened. A gentle voice said: "Come!" And with farewells unspoken He calmly entered home.

It was hard to part with father. Oh, so hard to see him die. But we will try to meet him Some sweet day, by and by.
