ORGANIZATION OF LUNCHEON CLUB IS PERFECTED AT HOTEL WRIGHT

Representative Men of Sweetwater Guests of Rufus Wright In Gathering Of Great Potential Possibilities In Community Building

TO CAPITALIZE NATURAL ADVANTAGES OF CITY

Speakers Pledge Support To Movement—First Meeting Will Be Held Thursday, April 6—Strong Committees Named

The organization of the Sweetwater Luncheon Club was effected Friday night at the Wright Hotel, when approximately sixty business men were the guests of Rufus Wright at a banquet, of a kind that is making the name of the Wright Hotel and "good eats" a synonym in West Texas. Speeches were made by out-of-town visitors and a general discussion of the Luncheon Club idea, after which the organization was adopted unanimously. Officials of the organization were elected and the date of the first meeting set for 12:15 o'clock Thursday, April 6. A permanent program committee and plans for the regular attendance of the membership were provided for. The individual cost of each luncheon is to be fifty cents, which may be tendered at the separate banquets. Each member was assessed fifty cents to provide a fund for publicity purposes for the organization.

R. M. Chittwood was selected temporary chairman and S. A. Barker temporary secretary by Mr. Wright. The motion being in order for the election of permanent officers for the organization, the following officers were elected unanimously: President, Rufus Wright; first vice-president, C. E. Mays; second vice-president, John Hubbard; secretary, S. A. Barker, and treasurer, J. H. Snell.

WRIGHT STATES PURPOSE

As the plates were cleared away, Rufus Wright stated the purpose of the gathering, i. e. the formation of a Luncheon Club. He told of the advantages that Sweetwater has at present, some of which are not as yet fully realized. Progressive business men of the city should capitalize these advantages, he said, and mentioned a tourists camp and other things which should be undertaken. He cited a tourist camp at Clayton, New Mexico, as being worthy of emulation and also mentioned that other towns were finding luncheon clubs as valuable aids to progress. In closing, he named R. M. Chittwood as temporary chairman of the organization.

Mr. Chittwood first called on three visitors to the city, one of whom, Professor Rives who has just been elected superintendent of Schools, will make his future home here. The others included W. T. Carter, Jr., of the National Department of Agriculture who is taking charge of a soil survey of 31 West Texas Counties in co-operation with the State Agricultural Experiment Station, and B. F. Bennett, Field Secretary of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Rives Endorses Plan

Professor Rives was called on for the opening speech from the visitors. He spoke in part as follows: "I think that all of the business men of a town should be interested in its progress. I am, in a certain sense, a future business man, for my business is to spread and develop the educational program of this community. Man's greatest allegiance should be to the community in which he lives."

"I heartily endorse the idea of the Luncheon Club, which will line up the best talent of the town for its common development."

Mr. Carter, the next speaker, voiced his appreciation at being a guest at so auspicious an occasion, told of his liking for West Texas and how he had long looked forward to being located here. He then described in a brief way the purpose and some of the results of the soil survey that is being undertaken and of the information that would thus be rendered available for agricultural interests.

Bennett Lauds City

Mr. Bennett, who, although a visitor is not a stranger to Sweetwater business men, secured eighty memberships to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Sweetwater last year and has been in the city for the last few days renewing the memberships. Although the number secured last year has not been equaled to date, Mr. Bennett is hopeful of obtaining a greater number this year. Mr. Bennett spoke in part as follows: "I have been connected with and interested in the West Texas country for several years and I have come to the conclusion that the people of this section of the State have more grit and backbone than those of other parts of the country. West Texas really begins at the crossing of the three trunk line railroads, namely Sweetwater. When I recall the development of the State in the past and think of the rapid rise of Los Angeles, Denver and Salt Lake City, which arose on far more unfavorable locations, I am struck by the favorable opportunity which Sweetwater has of becoming a greater city. The strategic position of Sweetwater foretells a greater prosperity and a larger development."

Mr. Bennett has organized Luncheon Clubs in several West Texas cities and towns, where they have been unusually successful.

Mr. Bennett continued: "The value of a gathering, such as a Luncheon Club, is of inestimable value to a city. The exchange of ideas and the rubbing of elbows around a table of eats will lead to the development of the community. A Luncheon Club was organized recently at Coleman and sixty-seven business men met at 7:30 o'clock in the morning for their session. This is the first and only Club in my knowledge, who meet in the forepart of the day. I have traveled over a large part of West Texas recently and in every community the people are keeping their eyes on Sweetwater. They expect Sweetwater, as the result of her strategic location to be the dominant city of West Texas. Sweetwater is your home and your duty is to make it the center of this section of the State."

Sweetwater had a large proportionate membership in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in 1921 than any city in West Texas and in some instances a larger membership than Bennett.

Work of forming the Luncheon Club was then started by Mayor George N. Sheppard who stated the need for such an organization and put a formal motion before the house for its organization. Other speakers took occasion to endorse the idea following Mayor Sheppard, who spoke in part as follows:

Go Forward O' Quit
"Gentlemen, Sweetwater can either go forward or quit. The Board of City Development and the City Com-

FLOOD IS MENACING

Portions of Levee Washed Away At Memphis and Helena Arkansas

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 1—Flooded men worked feverishly here Saturday to prevent a break in the levee at Old Town, ten miles south of here, where the flooded Mississippi threatens to inundate thousands of acres of lowlands. High waters late today for the second time in two days washed away the crest of the levee, but the break was repaired with sand bags.

Flood Endangers Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 1—Flood dangers in South Memphis are increasing hourly, the Weather Bureau warned. The crisis is at Old Town, Ark., where the Mississippi washed away portions of the front of the levee.

Additional rains caused several Arkansas rivers to leave their banks and thousands of acres of lowlands are inundated. Two hundred workmen labored frantically to raise the levee a foot in order to save more than a million dollars worth of cotton stored in a nearby cotton yard. Lines of guards, patrolling the levee near the danger zone, have difficulty in holding back curious on-lookers.

The break of the levee would do an estimable damage according to engineers. Hundreds of homes and great amounts of farm machinery, livestock and personal property would be swept away. Hundreds of families have refused to leave their homes and loss of life would possibly occur. Refugees from the flooded districts continue to pour into the surrounding towns as the backwater from the swollen streams continues to sweep over thousands of acres of farming land.

FORMER AUSTRIAN EMPEROR IS DEAD

Charles I, last of Hapsburg Rulers, Dies An Exile in the Maderia Islands

WAS ILL ONLY ONE WEEK

Pneumonia Was Cause of Death—Survived By Zita And Five Children

FUNCHAL, Maderia Islands, April 1—Former Emperor Charles of Austria, who has been in exile since the downfall of his throne in 1918, died here today after a weeks illness of double pneumonia.

Oxygen treatment was administered Friday to keep the exiled ruler alive and early Saturday his condition rapidly grew worse. Former Empress Zita and five children, who had accompanied him into exile were with him at the time of his death.

Charles I, former Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary, was born August 17, 1887, the son of the late Archduke Otto of Saxony. He married the Princess Zita of the Bourbon House of Parma in 1911.

When the assassins bullet ended the life of Archduke Francis Ferdinand at Sarajevo on June 28, 1914, Charles became the heir-apparent to the Hapsburg throne. At the death of the aged Francis Joseph in December 1916, Charles became the ruler of a factional war-weary empire, which was destined to soon fall apart.

The course of the new ruler was regulated largely from Berlin and for the first six months Austria-Hungary was regarded as a mere German state. Temporary successes in the field with the army against the Russians in Galicia enabled him to retain his grip upon the government.

Numerous peace overtures and maneuvers characterized his diplomacy, caused largely by the "diplo-macy" of maintaining Austria. Unable to maintain his pledge to the German Emperor to continue the war to the end, Charles communicated with the French Government with the idea of entering the war.

Conditions in the dual monarchy grew rapidly worse and there were many cabinet changes and assassinations. Charles was unable to stem the rising tide of revolt. At the close of the war, allies ordered him to leave Austria. He refused to do so, but was forced to flee to Switzerland. He was later incited by the Empress Zita, Charles and his family were exiled to the islands of Maderia less than a year ago.

MAY FORM THIRD PARTY

Miners To Join With Railroads And Farmers in Political Arena.

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, April 1—The rise of a powerful third party, which is purported to represent twenty-three-million workers and ten million farmers, into the political arena is reported.

The definite decision to form a new party comes at the moment of the beginning of the great coal strike. The fact that the six hundred miners, who are quitting their work throughout the country, have joined hands with the railroads and farmers, which forms the backbone of the new organization, is considered most significant, according to Fred G. Howe, Secretary of the National Committee.

The day will be celebrated with a big barbecue picnic which has been the talk of the residents of the town and county for the past two weeks.

Tireless in their efforts to make the celebration a big success great credit is due the representative citizens who have not only given freely of their time but money as well.

MINERS WALK OUT

Strike Reported One Hundred Per Cent Effective—6,000 Mines Closed

DIANOPOLIS, April 1—The coal strike, which started Friday night at midnight, is one-hundred per cent effective. Union leaders at the headquarters announced here Saturday.

Six thousand mines are said to be tied up and approximately 600,000 miners are idle. "All of the half-million miners responded to the call with the exception of the pumpers, engineers and firemen, who prevent the flooding of the mines," said President Lewis Saturday.

Thousands of non-union miners are reported to have joined in the walkout. Fifteen hundred mines in the open-shop fields are being worked feverishly in heaving the nation's sixty-five million ton coal reserve. This surplus, with the non-union production, will enable the country to endure the strike 6 weeks longer without feeling the pinch of a fuel shortage.

"NO BLOODSHED" HARDING

WASHINGTON, April 1—The first domestic crisis of a serious nature to face the Administration is the nationwide coal strike now in full swing. Emphatic orders however, have been issued Attorney General Daugherty, to prevent outbreaks with a firm hand "These must be no bloodshed," stated the President.

BORAH WORKS ON BILL

Public Ownership of God's Monopoly Favored By Borah.

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, April 1—The public ownership of all of "God's Monopolies"—coal, oil, gas and water power—is included in a legislative program now being worked out by Senator Borah of Idaho, Chairman of the Senate Labor Committee.

The coal strike may cause Borah to lay the program before Congress earlier than he had intended. In the event of a strike, the creation of public opinion favoring such a program other than now in control, will be forced as the national reform for the existing evils, according to Senator Borah.

History of Sweetwater Churches PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The history of the Presbyterian church in Sweetwater dates as far back as early in 1850. The present Presbyterian congregation is the result of the federation or union of the Southern and the U. S. A. Presbyterian Churches in 1918-1920.

Almost the entire Cumberland membership agreed to go into the U. S. A. federation. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Skiles, and daughter Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crossman and daughter, Miss Josephine, Mrs. Mrs. J. Corbett and Mrs. A. G. Goble still retain their membership in the Cumberland church. The following history of the Southern Presbyterian church will be taken first.

Church services were held in the old school building by Rev. O. F. Rogers of Colorado at intervals during the year, though the church was not really organized until 1859.

In 1859 the church was duly organized by Rev. J. A. Croighton and Rev. W. P. Dickey in the Christian church Rev. Croighton of Abilene held regular monthly services for the church for some time.

Only four members of the original church are left and they are: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bardwell, Mrs. B. Bardwell, Mrs. William Wright.

In 1891 the Texas and Pacific Railroad gave the church a building, lot on which stands the present house of worship. The church was erected before the close of that year. The railroad company had already given the other organized churches building sites and the Baptist, Christian and Methodist congregations had already built on their lots.

Rev. J. H. Zivley was pastor during the erection of the church and served four years. He was followed by Rev. H. M. Smith, Rev. J. L. McAdams, Rev. C. E. Anderson, Rev. R. M. Hammock, Rev. C. A. Engle and Rev. E. W. McLaurin, the present pastor. He succeeded Rev. C. A. Engle, who served the church seven years and resigned to enter a larger field of work at Groesville. At present he is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Keyser, West Virginia.

Four of these pastors served their second pastorate. Rev. J. H. Zivley, Rev. J. L. McAdams, Rev. C. E. Anderson and Rev. R. M. Hammock.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church was organized in 1852 by Rev. J. L. Elliott, who remained its pastor for some time. The congregation worshipped in the Southern Presbyterian Church building for seven years. The two pastors using alternate Sundays.

They built a church in 1859 on E. Second street, which was bought $5,000 and transformed into an apartment house.

The church building was dedicated to the Cumberland Church December 1902 by Dr. Jerry Ward, of Avoca.

From the time of organization until the time of federation with Southern Presbyterian church the following ministers had served as pastors: Rev. J. L. Elliott, Rev. Percy Rev. A. B. Johnson, Rev. Kirby, Rev. Bryant, Rev. J. M. Youree, Rev. George W. Beck. Rev. Beck was pastor when the union of the two churches was effected in 1918.

During the life of the church all kinds of usual church activities were carried on. J. E. Beall was Superintendent of the Sunday school and Mrs. D. A. Myers was president of the Ladies Aid Society at the time of the union. J. E. Beall was also Clerk of the Society.

The Cumberland had entered into a federation with the U. S. A. Presbyterian under the pastorate of Rev. A. B. Johnson in 1906 before they united with the Southern Presbyterians. After the union in 1918 both were known as Southern Presbyterians.

In February 1918 the two Presbyterian churches federated for two years, and at the end of that period they voted to affiliate with the Southern Presbyterian Church. Rev. C. A. Engle was pastor of the church and guided its interests wisely and well, through those experimental days.

The church numbers 160 members, who are planning to build a new house of worship at the very earliest possible moment.

Sunday School
The first Sunday School was organized by a union with the Cumberland Presbyterian church, who at that time had no church building. Dr. R. E. Moody, father of Mrs. Robert Calvert and Mollie Moody was the first Superintendent. The Sunday school union continued until the Cumberland Presbyterian built their church on E. N. Second Street in 1859 when the churches united in 1918 the Sunday Schools were included in the union.

The Sunday School as it exists today was organized in Jan. 1906 with Mr. Harry Hughes as Superintendent. The present membership numbers 111 with a teaching force of 8. This includes the Primary Department which numbers from 35 to 50 children. Mrs. Ella Douthit is Primary Superintendent, with Mrs. Oscar Pate acting as Assistant.

Young Peoples Work.
The Christian Endeavor society was organized in 1918 by the Rev. C. A. Engle, pastor of the church, with 20 members. Fred Shugart was elected President; Mrs. D. A. Myers, Vice-president; Miss Willie Owens, Secretary.

A few months later during that year a Junior Endeavor was organized by Miss Winifred Shugart, now Mrs. J. E. Beall, of the Christian Mission Union. Her home is in Dallas. At that time she made her home in Sweetwater for several months and became very much interested in the Juniors who continue a strong support to the church. Miss Annie Wright is Superintendent, and Miss Mary Douthit, Assistant Superintendent. Miss Irene Hatcher is President; Miss Lena Shaffer, Vice-president; Miss L. W. Secord, Secretary-Treasurer. Meetings are held regularly at 2:30 each Sunday afternoon at the church.

Women's Activities
The ladies of the church have been organized for active work since the second year of the church's organization. They organized in July 1859 for the specific purpose of assisting in raising funds with which to build a church. This organization continued for three or four years of the membership.

The present Aid and Missionary Society was organized May 4, 1906, at the home of Mrs. Will Berry. Mrs. William Wright was elected President and Mrs. Sam Glass, Vice-President; Mrs. Annie Berts, Mrs. Mike Rogers, secretary; Mrs. J. E. Freeman, treasurer. Other members were Mrs. Elizabeth Helmes, Mrs. Will Berry, Mrs. J. S. Douthit, Mrs. Lee Glass.

Mrs. R. K. McAdams is now president of the Society as a whole. The present Society has grown until it was decided beneficial to divide into two circles on Bible study days. They unite on the fourth Monday afternoon in giving their missionary program. Each circle has their own officers. Circle A: President, Mrs. Wright; Vice-president, Mrs. Wilkins; Secretary, Mrs. K. M. Hodges.

Circle B: President, Mrs. Oscar Pate; Vice-president, Mrs. Ellis Douthit; Secretary, Mrs. D. F. Johnson; Treasurer, Mrs. Roy Rev.

As during the first year of its organization in 1890 the Ladies Aid Society are still actively engaged on a Church building fund. It is largely due to their efforts that the new fund is gradually growing into an encouraging sum. The new church will occupy the site of their present building.

It was also decided during the business session to hold the next club meeting on April 6th, which will be at the home of Mrs. Joe Boothe.

Mrs. Ellis Douthit and Mrs. F. M. Poffenbach will attend the Sixth District meeting of T. F. W. C. to be held April 13-14 at Ranger. Mrs. Mays and Mrs. Pate are delegates. Mrs. Poffenbach is Sixth District chairman on Americanization. Mrs. E. W. McLaurin was elected to membership in the club.

Mrs. L. E. Epperson led the lesson on Augustus Thomas' drama, "The Witching Hour." Mrs. Pate gave a description of the drama; Mrs. R. C. Crane gave a comparison of Clyde Fitch and Augustus Thomas' work. Both talks were very interesting.

Miss Hopkins, a gifted reader, of Abilene will read the "Great Divide," at an Open meeting of the club on the evening of April 20th. Mr. Turner head of the piano department of Simmons College will also be present and give a number of piano selections.

This delightful affair will be held at the home of Judge and Mrs. Ellis Douthit. The club will invite a number of their friends to share this rare treat with them.

The hostess served a salad course at the conclusion of the program.

B. & C. THE ONLY LAXATIVE ASPIRIN

San Angelo Firm, The Originator Of The Laxative Aspirin Formula.

Have Received Their Patent

Company Announces It Will Prosecute Any Infringements on Their Trade-Mark or Product

B. & C. Laxative Aspirin has been officially recognized by the United States Government, through its Patent Office, as the original and only laxative aspirin in the United States and have issued patent rights to Butler & Cosgrave of San Angelo on their trade mark name and their formula.

B. & C. Laxative Aspirin, a proven cure for headaches, colds, influenza and a preventive for rheumatism, pneumonia and similar affections, has been manufactured by Butler & Cosgrave for three years and has met with unusual success. In the year 1921 18 million tablets were sold by this firm, largely to Texas druggists, and by them to their trade, which has used this medicine-preventive with increasing success.

The application of this firm for patents rights has been before the patent office for over a year. The company is expecting to prosecute any infringements attempted against their trade mark, product or package.

What Kind of a Battery Would You Sell?

Would it be a cheap battery that the manufacturers wouldn't stand back of?

Or a high-priced battery that made no attempt at economy?

Or a sound, well built battery that sells at a fair price and that gives the most miles of uninterrupted service per dollar, as does the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery?

Experience has proved our wisdom in choosing the Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

Come in—and we'll tell you how it will save money for you.

PEACH CROP INJURED

More Than Half Of Fruit Killed By Cold Spells.

By The United Press. AUSTIN, Tex. April 1—The Texas peach crop suffered seriously from the freezing weather of March 1 and estimate is made by Commissioner of Agriculture, G. B. Terrell, from reports received from his inspectors and also from private sources that in the Jacksonville district where the bulk of the Elberta peaches is grown that from 50 to 60 percent of the crop has been killed. The Elberta peach is the principal fruit crop of Texas and in normal years approximately 1,500 cars of this fruit are shipped. This year the total shipments will fall below 750 cars, Commissioner Terrell estimates.

In the Rio Grande valley, where all kinds of citrus fruits are grown, there has been some damage done by the recent freeze, but Commissioner Terrell's reports are not complete enough for him to base an estimate of the damage done. He has heard from an official source that the damage may run as high as 15 per cent.

Pears, and apples which are grown in some sections of the state but not in large quantities have not been injured reports received by the department of agriculture indicate.

A LUNCHEON CLUB

Nearly sixty representative men of Sweetwater were guests of Rufus Wright at the Wright Hotel Friday night. It was unanimously voted to form a Luncheon Club and every man interested in Sweetwater and its future will be invited to join.

The purpose of this Club will be free, frank discussion of plans for the development, advancement and promotion of Sweetwater to the end that united action may be secured along these lines.

Need for such an organization is very apparent. The great natural advantages of Sweetwater with its three trunk line railroads should prove the nucleus around which a great city will be built.

Such a city will not be built unless present citizens build it. A man may make a better mousetrap than his neighbor but unless he advertises it largely and persistently, his neighbor will make the sale. And so it is with municipal building. Why did New York overcome the lead of Philadelphia in the early days and become the first city of the Western World? Why did Detroit become the leading automobile city of the world? Why did Cleveland outstrip its neighboring lake ports of Astabula, etc.?

There is a boom in West Texas for perhaps one large city. It may be Abilene, it may be Angelo, it may be Sweetwater. It may be Westbrook or it may be a town as yet unborn. It will be the town that builds its own destiny.

In the race for supremacy Sweetwater has the edge of natural advantages, but in the long run it is the people that count, and their ability to rise above the petty jealousies and enmities of business rivalries and to work for the common good of the town.

At the close of the session, the company paid a graceful tribute to the host of the evening by extending Rufus Wright a rising vote of thanks for the courtesies extended them. An earlier speaker, C. J. Brand of the City National Bank, voiced a general sentiment when he referred to Mr. Wright as one of the "great builders of Sweetwater."

It was altogether fitting that the permanent chairmanship of the Luncheon Club was tendered him. For in addition to the great hotel that bears his name and the other permanent structures that stand to his credit, there is something else even more important though invisible for which he must answer, and that is the definite responsibility for a movement that is going to make of Sweetwater the metropolis that its position as the Western Gateway of Texas entitles it. He cannot do it alone.

WILL HOLD RATES DOWN

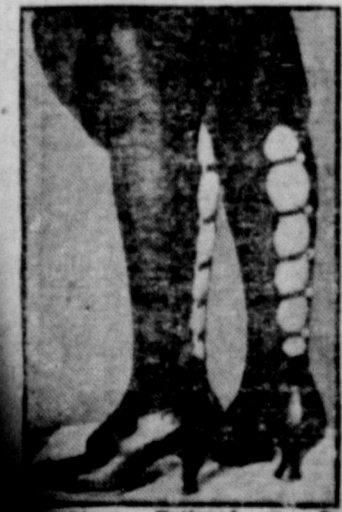

Orders For Hike Suspended.—Effects These States.

By The United Press. WASHINGTON, Mar. April 1.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has reduced the rates on coal shipments from certain Illinois bituminous mines to points in Arkansas, Texas and Louisiana.

Previous orders which raised the rates on the Missouri-Pacific and Southern Illinois Railroads to the three states, has been suspended, making the previous reductions effective.

Married Millions--Breaks Down From Overwork

NEW YORK, April 1.—Andrew Carnegie's son-in-law is sick from overwork.

Roswell Miller, who shares the advantages of the late ironmaster's millions with his wife, Carnegie's only daughter, has taken a $2,000-a-year job so seriously that he broke down under the strain, finally being stricken with influenza. Now he is at Palm Beach, Fla., with his wife, recuperating and hopes soon to be back at work.

Miller's job is instructing New York University students in the mysteries of mechanical drawing and internal combustion engine. Besides his work in the classroom he assists in laboratory experiments.

Miller's Motives. More interesting than Mr. Miller's choice of his vocation is the inside reason or motives that dictated his decision.

Immediately after his marriage to the girl who was one of the world's heiresses despite the ambition of her father to give away all his wealth for philanthropic purposes before his death, Miller was offered several opportunities for a business career.

Charles Schwab, J. Pierpont Morgan and other captains of industry and finance invited him to associate himself with them. But Miller, according to close friends, took this attitude:

"These offers are generous and well meant, but they never were made to Roswell Miller before his marriage to Margaret Carnegie, and therefore I must believe they would not be made to him now if it were not for this marriage.

Future Embarrassment. "If I were to enter into such associations, the time inevitably would come when I would be embarrassed by passing in some manner on my wife's investments, through influence, advice or otherwise.

"I never was a fortune hunter. I married Miss Carnegie for love, not for money. Her father with his great foresight placed sufficient safeguards around his daughter's inheritance. And I am content to be my wife's husband, without being her business manager."

Teaching Ambition. Besides, Miller's lifelong ambition has been to teach.

"Teaching," he has said, "is one of the greatest services a man can perform. Mr. Carnegie was a great organizer of industry, a great philanthropist, but his greatest work was in the teaching he did indirectly through the establishment of libraries and directly through his own writings."

So he applied for a position at New York University. No title goes with the job. He has a flat-top desk in the room of a professor. Each morning he drives to work in a roadster from the $250,000 mansion off Fifth Avenue in which the Miller and Mrs. Carnegie live.

Students Like Him. He's a hounddog, says one of his students. "When we see him coming alone, we pile on the running board of his car, and he's glad to give up a lift. He's surely popular with all the fellows."

Miller is not much older than some of his students, being 27. He is the son of the late president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, who left $700,000 to his wife and three children.

The war interrupted his studies at Princeton. He served in the ambulance service in France and later as an ensign in the navy. After the war he resumed his studies, receiving his degree last June.

What Is A Chiropractic Adjustment?

Some folks who first thought that CHIROPRACTIC was everything but a wonderful, modern health method, have gained peculiar impressions of what a CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENT really is.

An adjustment is primarily given with only the Chiropractors' two hands. How he does it; why he does it; what part of the spine, does he do it to, are all a part of his Science. The expert knowledge is acquired only after a number of years of intensive study and practice.

After analyzing the spine, and finding out the defects that impede nerve energy, and result in disease, the Chiropractor adjusts the movable bones of the spine back to their proper normal positions. THE CAUSE is removed; the pressure on the nerves is relieved, and normal function is restored. With complete nerve energy restored, the natural forces of the body build up the weak and diseased tissues and organs. Health results.

CHIROPRACTIC

is in full accord with the laws of man's being. Chiropractic is being endorsed by authorities everywhere from the scientific standpoint, because the principles are right. Its marvelous record of accomplishment recommends it to all who are not up to the mark in health and efficiency.

Give CHIROPRACTIC a trial. Investigate for your own satisfaction the merits of this modern health science. There is no charge for a complete examination at our office. Or, send your name, and literature will be sent.

We Heartily Endorse The Newly Formed Luncheon Club

One man cannot build a town, a few business men cannot build a town, banks cannot build a town—in fact no one can build a town ALONE. Building a town requires the united co-operative effort of every individual in it. It is essential that a plan of action be formed, and then every one work and work on that plan until it is completed. Then tackle the next proposition.

The Luncheon Club is a common meeting place where everyone interested in Sweetwater and its future should meet as regular as the week rolls around, take a part in the activities that are needed and stay with them until completed.

Sweetwater has the fundamental requirements for a great town. It will be just what we make it. WILL YOU BECOME A MEMBER?

LUNCHEON CLUB ORGANIZED

mission both need the co-operation of you men present here tonight and also of the men of the town generally. We have several propositions before both bodies that will mean a lot to the town and they should be supported. Great things are in sight for us, and great possibilities lie just around the corner. We have had more business men located here in the last thirty days than in a long time previous. We have also had more inquiries. People seem to like West Texas and Sweetwater. There is a distinct possibility of Sweetwater securing the 1923 convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce if we will go after it. But just one or two representatives at Plainview will not get it for us. We must go after it strong.

Other speakers who followed the Mayor included Attorneys C. E. May, Judge R. C. Crane, E. C. Brand, D. A. Clark, J. H. Beall, Jr., Judge Maus and Dr. Rosebrough. Mr. May said, "I am heartily in favor of a luncheon club. What we need here is co-operation and energy in carrying out plans for the betterment of the city. At present we are aimlessly wandering about with no definite idea of just where we are going. Other towns have these clubs, if they accomplish good things there, they will here."

Crane Quotes History. Judge Crane, "Sweetwater did not just grow. It is the results of the efforts of just a few people. It is a different generation now. Will you gentlemen see the vision as these other men did and carry on as the old timers? I want to quote a leaf from the past. I have here a bill of fare and program of the First Annual Banquet of Sweetwater Commercial Club." It is dated February 10, 1903 and the organization must have dated back one year, or 20 years ago. Of the 75 members listed there 45 are dead and gone. Of the 15 men on the program 10 are gone or dead. The citizenship has changed and now it is up to you."

D. A. Clark, "A luncheon club that will not just talk but will capitalize its energies and find an outlet for them in work."
J. H. Beall, Jr., "The real fault with Sweetwater citizens has been a lack of co-operation and petty business jealousies. We must boost each other and not criticize. We must get off of the small town idea and prepare for the big town. A luncheon club can solve the difficulty." The speaker referred to Carl England, J. N. Dulaney and himself as the only native born sons of Sweetwater present.

Pays Tribute To Wright.
E. C. Brand said, "I consider Rufus Wright the greatest builder in Sweetwater in my day and time. Judge A. S. Mauzey holds that "Sweetwater must be advertised. Boost the business men of the town and the help to the city will be incalculable."
"My shoulder is against the wheel for the interests of Sweetwater," said Dr. C. A. Rosebrough.

At the conclusion of the meeting, by a unanimous rising vote, the thanks of the assembled guests were tendered the host, Rufus Wright.
