

ROOSEVELT SPIRIT LIVES IN PINCHOT

Winner In Pennsylvania Already Working On Program of Progressive Government

NOT A ONE MAN GOVERNMENT

Newly Elected Governor Declares He's Not Grooming Self for Presidency Despite Talk

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY
MILFORD, Pa., June 3.—The spirit of Theodore Roosevelt lives again. His disciple, Gifford Pinchot who startled the country by upsetting the rock-ribbed boss system of Pennsylvania and winning the Republican nomination for governor, is already working on a program of progressive government that unquestionably had its inspiration 19 years ago in Roosevelt.

"One of the most delightful things" Pinchot said, "was the practically unanimous support given me by the people who were behind T. R. in 1912."

Pinchot, who came to "Grey Towers," his Pike county home, to rest after the campaign, told me of his plans.

"A most powerful factor in the campaign," Pinchot said, "was that the appeal for better government was made directly to the individual man and woman in all parts of the state. The result is proof that it was heard." This is an old Roosevelt doctrine.

Pinchot's first thought in mapping out his program is the welding together of the fragments of the split Republican party. His most spectacular act was sending word to his defeated opponent, Atty. Gen. George Alter, inviting him to "Grey Towers" to consult on plans for the fall campaign. Every body is climbing on the Pinchot bandwagon and it is believed he will have little difficulty in defeating the Democratic candidate.

"Mine is not going to be a one-man government," Pinchot said. "The fellow who plays a lone hand, under such circumstances as exist in this state, is bound to fail."

"I want to be in touch with the best thought in the state on all questions. I'm going to spend the summer here working out that program. I've won, but I haven't got the swelled head. I'm not going to get the idea that I know it all. I want other fellows to help me."

Pinchot said very decidedly that he was not grooming himself for the presidency, in spite of the nationwide talk of an eventuality.

"When a man gets the presidential bee buzzing in his bonnet it's all over," he said. "I've seen too many good governors ruined that way. The governor job will keep us busy."

High up on the Pinchot program is setting the state finances straight.

"I'm going to put the budget system into effect," he said. "And I don't intend to lose any time about it. Within a few weeks I will appoint a volunteer committee of men and women, the best equipped in the state, to examine the situation and suggest a financial plan that can be submitted to the legislature next January. We'll work all summer on this job."

"The whole state government has to be reorganized. Think of it—there are no less than 102 separate bureaus and departments not responsible to anyone under the sun but the governor. The governor is the foreman and he's supposed to keep all those organizations in order. He couldn't if he were six governors! It is an impossible form of government as far as efficiency is concerned."

"My program will be to change that. Nine-tenths of what is needed at Harrisburg is a question of executive action, and not legislation. I've got a real job ahead."

Pinchot gives a big share of credit for his victory to the women.

"You can't dictate to women politically," he said. "They won't stand for it."

"JUST AS GOOD"

"Just as good as a new one" is a statement often made and seldom true. The need is for the good battery of honest construction but many battery men have fallen for the dream that they can build a battery as well as a car cheaper than the manufacturer who uses volume production methods and who has the pick of the market for supplies.

"The rebuilt battery," says Mr. Wither's local Willard service station, "is often made of parts from discarded batteries which have just enough more life in them to get by the purchase date. A few new parts may be added, a new case and a lot of new paint and then the said refrain, 'just as good.'"

The car driver who wants satisfactory battery operation is advised by Mr. Wither's to go to the authorized battery service station representing a standard make of battery. He is then getting more than a battery, he gets a battery with the reputation of a manufacturer who has thousands or millions of dollars invested in plant and equipment behind it. Adv.

MORE BEAUTIFUL ROSES

Roses and more roses are found every day. Sweetwater has never had an opportunity to be half so proud of her roses as she has this spring. More beautiful rose tresses are being discovered every day. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Heath are the proud possessors of a trellis of those rare white varieties and a number of other kinds also.

The front porch of the F. J. Neal home is another of those beautiful pictures, outlined with climbing roses of all colors, and in full bloom in the city, making one almost believe they are gazebos at a home in California.

The rose garden of Mrs. D. Dudgeon contains some of the finest to be found in the city and many beautiful obseques have found their way to the homes of her less fortunate friends.

TO REBUILD BRIDGES

Sweetwater Man Gets Contract To Replace Bridges Washed Out.

J. E. Martin has secured the contract to replace three bridges on Plum Creek, which were recently destroyed by high water. One is five miles west of Sweetwater, one near Eskola, and the other near Trent.

Work has already been started on the bridge near Sweetwater. Mr. Martin is being assisted by his sons, Oiler Roy and Raymond and W. C. Haley, and brother Leland.

GIRLS WIN SCHOLARSHIPS.

Misses Drago Each Win Scholarship, Only One Can Be Given.

Misses Wanda and Wilda Drago were each declared winners of the Theodore Presser Scholarships at Texas Women's College at Fort Worth where they have spent the past year studying violin and piano.

The scholarships are given annually to the best all around and most talented pupils in the Music Department and they were awarded them by a unanimous vote of the faculty, but on account of both being in the same family, only one could be accepted.

Miss Wilda was awarded the one in violin as that was the first one mentioned on the list and in case she does not return there in September she will present it to the girl making the next highest grade. The scholarships carry a cash value of $100.

ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS

Coleman county, with practically unanimous accord, will welcome the announcement that Mrs. J. B. Dibrell Jr. of Coleman is a candidate for Congress from the 17th Texas District, the position now held by Mr. Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene.

Mr. Dibrell has, upon several occasions, been importuned by friends to offer for election to a seat in the National Congress. If elected, he will serve the State and district with distinction, and his wide acquaintance in the district and well known ability makes him a formidable contender for the position now held by Mr. Blanton.

Mr. Dibrell is the Junior member of the law firm Snodgrass & Dibrell of Coleman.—Coleman Democrat-Voice

COAL SHORTAGE LOOMS

Nations Supply Half Consumed Since Opening Of Miners Strike.

By The United Press.
WASHINGTON, June 3.—The indis-trial activity of the nation will be curbed within three weeks on account of the shortage of coal according to the Government fuel experts, who are working upon the estimates of supply and demand.

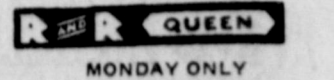

Predictions are that within twenty days some plants will be forced to discontinue operations. Half of the amount in the nation's bins has been consumed since the nation-wide walk out of the miners eight weeks ago. There were sixty-four million tons of coal in the bins April 1, when the strike orders went into effect.

LOVE MASTERS FEAR

—There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear.—John 4:18.

STARTING THE FLIGHT

Flourishing diplomas the annual crop of graduates from schools and colleges are returning home. From our local schools many boys and girls have earned and received their first ginkins.

Into the cold, cold world this army comes. The rest of us—sophisticated and more or less disillusioned—josh the new recruits a lot—much as seasoned veterans josh the rookie who is sent to the firing line.

The diploma army comes in the nature of a yearly wave of re-inforcements. With all our joshing of the "commencement orator" who thinks he has the world in the hollow of his palm, we realize that the new-comers are badly needed.

They bring into the general world a wonderful stimulant—pep, enthusiasm, ambitions, determination and, most valuable of all, youth. We wish the youngsters a safe and speedy voyage to success. In charting their course, these horse-sense rules will help:

First: Follow the line of work you like best, regardless of obstacles or the objections from others. Rising to success when one's heart is not in his work is like trying to swim with a ball and chain.

Second: Remember that an individual, like an army, can lose many battles and still win the war. Do not let temporary setbacks discourage you. They are sent, in the wise scheme of things, to develop your potential powers, to bring out the best that is in you. Babe Ruth fanned the air thousands of times before he "got the hang of it."

Third: Plan far ahead. Youth can take chances. Starting "for next to nothing" where the future looks good is far better than a beginner's job that pays three times as much but has an uncertain future.

Fourth: "There is no short-cut to success. As with our ancestors, success in most cases is the fruit of hard work, patience, everlastingly keeping at it, and recognition that he prospers best who serves others most. Platitudes? Yes—but, truth eternal!

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

The Athletics broke the American League record and equalled the major league mark by hitting seven home runs.

Mrs. Malla Mallory and William T. Tilden reached the final round in the hard court tennis championships at St. Cloud, France.

Miss Cecil Leitch successfully defended her title as British woman golf champion by defeating Miss Joyce Wethered in the final round.

Odds were posted at 3 to 1 that Dem Jsey would win from Carpenter.

Walker batted in six runs for the Athletics with a homer and a double.

LIVES IN POVERTY

Neice Of Jefferson Davis Dependent Upon $8—Allowance for Nephew's Wounds in Great War.

HOUSTON, June 3.—With one of the most illustrious ancestors in the history of the Southland, Grandma Martha Elizabeth Elliott, 85, living here temporarily, is in poverty.

Grandma Elliott is the neice of Jefferson Davis, former President of the Confederacy, spokesman for the South before the Civil War and Secretary of War under President Pierce.

The aged woman's mother was Frances Darnell, sister of the Confederate President. There were two branches of the Davis family. The one to which the great Jeff Davis belonged is still prosperous and is scattered through the southern states. The branch to which Grandma Elliott belongs, was impoverished by the Civil War. Not one of that branch now owns a foot of land, Grandma Elliott said.

Mrs. Elliott, one of the Southern beauties in her younger days, had been married only two years when her husband, Thomas, was killed in the war. She has been a widow 66 years.

"We had one mu' left at the close of the war," Grandma Elliott said "but the Yankees came through and took that. From that day until now, I have had no work yard."

Two years after the war Mrs. Elliott moved to St. Augustine, Texas, where her home is now. She sold six pigs and some sweet potatoes, her worldly goods, to get funds to visit Houston to be with her nephew, Levi Lankford, 11 at Camp Logan, Lankford was gassed, and shot in the arm and leg in France, and may be helpless for life. He was one of the first to volunteer in the world war. He receives $8 a month compensation from the government.

"Unless the government raises Levi's compensation, we will have a hard pull," Grandma Elliott said.

Stevens, president of the school board. The D. A. R. gold medal was awarded to Miss Mary Hufford, a senior, for the best theme. The Harbour medal for boys declamation was awarded to Lenon Redding. The Overall medal was awarded to Miss Susie Lewis for the girls declamation.

CARE AT CROSSINGS IS AIM OF DRIVE

Safety First Campaign Starting June 1 Has Backing of Railroads and Motor Traffic Bodies.

ACCIDENTS HAVE INCREASED

Public Education As Regards Evil Only Way Out—1,907 Killed In Year.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Cross crossings cautiously! That is the slogan adopted for the Careful Crossing Campaign, which begins June 1 and ends September 30.

During that period the American Railway Association wants to educate the public to think and act SAFETY FIRST. Backing the campaign are the United States Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the Na-public education because they declare total elimination of crossings is impossible.

Preventive Work Costly.
There are 251,939 highway crossings in the country. Of this number only 399 were eliminated in one year. Each elimination cost $50,000, making the cost of eliminating all crossings $12,599,900,000.

The association pledges co-operation by the railroads in keeping crossings in good condition for travel, giving reasonable notice of the existence of crossings, and seeing to it that flagmen do their full duty in warning of the approach of trains.

The value of safety first campaigns is shown, railroad officials say, by the reduction in deaths from accident among employees from 4,354 in 1907 to 2,578 in 1920.

Safety engineers urge automobile drivers to form the habit of shifting gears into low speed at all crossings. This practice causes drivers instinctively to pause at crossings, and also reduces to a minimum the risk of stalling on the tracks.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Theodor's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Get a package today, and keep it in your house. See that the package bears the words, "Theodor's Black-Draught." NC-141

Tremendous increases in the number of fatal accidents at railroad crossings, in most of which automobiles were involved, brought about the campaign of education.

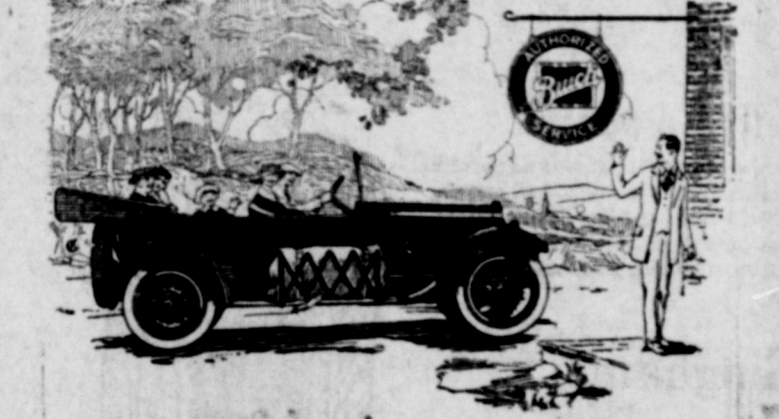

Accidents Increase.
Since 1890, statisticians of the American Railway Association point out, the population of the country has increased 68 per cent, while crossing accidents have increased 345 per cent in fatalities and 522 per cent in injuries!

The United States Bureau of Standards has not yet announced the figures for 1921. But in 1920 automobiles were involved in 76 per cent of all crossing accidents. Persons killed (death resulting in 24 hours) totaled 1,791, while 5,097 were injured, 116 of the latter dying subsequently.

Here are the figures for automobile accidents at crossings:

Accidents	Killed	Injured
1918 ...	2,270	1,131	2,169
1919 ...	2,571	1,232	2,558
1920 ...	3,012	1,273	2,977

The Question Was, How?

He was just a little fellow when he decided, that somehow, he must go to college. The question was how? Paw, he worked hard, and so did the rest of the family, but some way or another, there never seemed to be any money left over. They had a fairly good farm, but there was always money owing to the bank. Time for spring planting, and it seemed as though they had to borrow money to make their crop. By the time they got the crop in, and paid out, what they owed at the bank and maybe a bill at the grocery and feed store and got a few clothes and things, somehow there just did not seem to be money enough to go around.

And then, there was the time Paw and he had gone to hear that fellow talk at the Schoolhouse. And heard him tell about making money from chickens. Sure they had a few chickens, but they never laid any eggs except, maybe a few in the spring when eggs were so cheap that one couldn't give them away. But this fellow told about some purebreds that laid over 200 eggs a year. Just think of that! And there were other things he told about—stuff that could be raised besides cotton. On the way home, Paw didn't think much of the fellow's talk—"It's easy enough to talk," was the way he put it. But the little fellow had been doing some reading on his own account and he later on persuaded his father to let him have a little ground of his own that he worked at odd times. And when he sold the bale of cotton from it, he bought some of those pure bred chickens; learned how to take care of them and made money. To make a long story short, he deposited his poultry money at the First National Bank in Sweetwater, where they paid him four per cent interest, which means four cents on every dollar every year. This interest did not amount to much at first of course, but when he had finished school, he had more than enough money to take him part way through college. And he earned the rest of it while going through. Of course, he is a grown man now with a nice farm all paid out, a car, and some young fellows of his own. But he still keeps a good balance at four per cent at the France Retires Old Provincial Paper Bills—New Issue Recognized Throughout Country.

By The United Press
PARIS, June 3—By the end of the present year the Ministry of Finance hopes to have gathered in all the various clippings in circulation as currency in Paris and throughout the departments of France and to have replaced them by solid metal coins.
Already there are quite a large number of the new copper coins in circulation of a denomination of 1 franc, 2 francs, and 50 centimes, but they have not as yet been circulated outside of Paris.
Since the war the Chamber of Commerce in each of the 83 departments of France have been printing their own currency which is only valid in the department itself. As these clippings were printed in all denominations varying from 50 centimes to 5 francs, there are over 350 kinds of clippings in circulation in France at the present time.
A traveller now going from one department to another is obliged to change his clippings in the same way as a traveler going into another country, unless he has the notes of the Paris Chamber of Commerce which are honored throughout France.
The government is now striking off 10,000,000 francs of metal coins a month and from July will increase its output to 24,000,000 francs of coins a month. Since the total amount of paper clippings put into circulation by the Chamber of Commerce is about 300,000,000 francs, the government hopes to be able to redeem them all by the end of 1922.

TO STOP SPEEDING

Commissioners Put Ban on Fire Department Recklessness—30 Miles An Hour The Limit

DETROIT, June 3—A permanent ban on speeding by fire equipment has been placed on the department by the fire commissioners. This order follows the recent removal of all horses from the Detroit fire fighting force.
The speed regulations were the result of several serious accidents in the last few weeks. The first of these was on April 30. Two men, including a battalion chief, were seriously injured. Another followed six weeks later, in which 19 firemen were badly hurt. Both accidents were collisions between fire apparatus.
William E. Meazger, member of the commission thus explained the decision of the board to force all equipment to maintain moderate rate of speed going to fires.
"The commission decided that it is time to put a stop to such risk of life and limb.
"The few minutes saved in getting to fires is not worth the risk to which both the public and our men are exposed. The terrific speed can only be made with reckless driving, unsafe for all on the streets.
"The motor driven equipment some times speeds forty five and fifty miles an hour on a straight-away. It is ridiculous to endanger lives by driving the heavy equipment at such a speed.
"The commission ruled 20 miles per hour for ladder wagons, 25 miles per hour for engines, and rescue squads may travel 30 miles per hour.
"We are going to enforce these regulations rapidly," Meazger stated; "We will also constitute ourselves as judges as to whether the speed is maintained in such a way as to be termed reckless driving."
The chief cause of the reckless driving it was stated out at the meeting of the commission, was the professional pride of the apparatus crews in being the first at the scene of the fire.
