SWEETWATER, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1922.

NO. 139.

CITY B. OF D. HELD MEETING TUESDAY

Quarterly Report Read And Approved—Meeting Had Been Postponed Since Monday; Officers Absent.

COMMITTEES HAND IN REPORTS

Work Of Placing Signs On Highways Going Forward Rapidly—Some As Far South As San Angelo.

The reading of the quarterly report of the business of the Board of City Development, the report of Mayor Sheppard in regard to the recent meeting of the directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Brownwood, the decision of the Board to finance a free picture show for the benefit of the Home Demonstration clubs of the county and various committee reports constituted the chief events of business at the meeting of the Board of City Development Tuesday night.

The meeting had been postponed from Monday night, the regular date, and was suddenly decided upon at the return of the president R. M. Simmons, who had returned from a trip through the north part of the state and in Oklahoma.

The quarterly report was read and approved. The Board decided to finance the picture show, which will be given at one of the local theaters Saturday with the members of the County Home Demonstration Club girls as their guests.

Mayor Sheppard and J. H. Snell were appointed as a committee to confer with A. S. Maussey, county judge, in regard to the improvement and completion of the four-mile stretch of road extending north from Sweetwater to the Ister County line.

The committee appointed by the Board, composed of J. H. Snell, M. C. Manroe, reporter upon their work. The Sweetwater Vulcanizing Company donated their services in placing two boards along the various highways leading into Sweetwater. The City paid for the painting of the signs and for the posts of the boards, which were placed on the highways as far south as San Angelo.

There are still some of the signs to be located, but these will be put up in a short time.

Mayor Sheppard reported upon the meeting of the directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which met at Brownwood Monday. Approximately thirty of the directors were present. The chief matters up for discussion was the question of a West Texas A. & M. College, to be located somewhere in West Texas and the subject of irrigation and reclamation of land. Efforts at flood control for the different sections of the state are being made, some of the sections requiring irrigation and others needing protection against the superfluous flood waters. The directors were entertained at the county club following the business session, where the Brownwood military band, which recently won first prize at the Plainview convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, helped pass the time away and was greatly enjoyed by the entire assembly.

GOING TO NEW YORK

H. T. Whitten will leave Sweetwater for New York Thursday morning on a buying trip. He will be gone about two weeks.

WORK FOR FLOOD PREVENTION

By The United Press. MERCEDES, July 12.—The first concrete step in the program of flood prevention mapped out by Rio Grande valley towns following the recent disastrous floods in the Rio Grande River will begin here soon.

Work will start soon on the construction of a concrete flood wall which will completely encircle the town, according to present plans.

The wall will be at least four feet higher than the recent flood levee and will be about 20 feet wide on top. County commissioners plan to make a driveway on top of the wall and plant grass on it, which will materially add to the attractiveness of the city.

Costs of the wall are being figured now and an election will be called soon to vote bonds for the project, it is said.

CALLS BANKERS TO MEET

Special to The Reporter. PECOS, July 12.—State Bankers of the Ninth District here called by W. H. Browning, Jr., to meet at the Rialto Theatre here July 15 to discuss matters of general interest to bankers. The ninth district is one of the largest in the state. Thirty-five banks are listed in this territory. Practically all will send representatives.

MAY RUN MIXED TRAINS

Special to The Reporter. RISING STAR, July 12.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad company at this time does not contemplate the inauguration of an exclusive passenger train on the Cross Plains branch. It was stated today by officials of the company. However, the company has promised the local chamber of commerce that a better freight service will be installed as soon as strike conditions ameliorate.

WEATHER REPORT

Tonight and Thursday partly cloudy. Probably local showers.

TRADE TRIP IS UP

Reports Of Committees And Reading In Lunch Club Program For Thursday.

Final plans for the "Get Acquainted" trip in Sweetwater Trade Territory will be the principal topic for discussion at the regular session of the Luncheon Club Thursday at noon at the Wright Hotel.

There will be a formal report of the two committees appointed at the last session as to the number of men who have signed the agreement to go and of the other committee on arrangements.

In addition to those who have already signed up not already mentioned are Myres Saddle Shop, Gordon and McCall, Sweetwater Cotton Oil Mill, Dr. A. W. Canfield. There are doubtless many others with whom the committee has as yet been unable to get in touch with and also some who are delaying until sure whether their business affairs will permit a two day absence from the city.

A joint meeting of the two committees was held Tuesday night and the tentative route and dates, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 19-20 discussed together with the schedule to be followed.

Miss Elizabeth Stamps will give a reading in addition to the above program. D. A. Clark is chairman.

FATE OF ORIENT IS BEING DECIDED

Interstate Commerce Commission In Consultation With Southern Pacific.

By The United Press. WASHINGTON, July 12.—Absorption of the Orient by the Southern Pacific system will be taken under advisement this afternoon at a conference between Chairman McChord of the Interstate Commerce Commission and representatives of the Southern Pacific and allied carriers of the southwest.

Rumors of a merger between the two systems has been current for some little time, fostered perhaps by the reported survey of the Orient system by S. P. engineers from the records at Austin.

It is pointed out that the S. P. could use the Orient to advantage in that it would give the former lines a connection to Kansas City and other points that it does not now have. The S. P. with one terminal at New Orleans, borders the southern extremity of the United States, and circles up around the Pacific Coast with trackage and connecting lines that put it in to Dallas, Houston and other Texas cities, as well as considerable mileage in old Mexico.

One of the disadvantages from the S. P. point of view, is perhaps the money that would have to be spent completing the Orient into Kansas City and also on the southern extremity of the line into old Mexico.

The present western terminal of the Orient in the United States is at Alpine, which is also a point on the S. P.

The Big Brotherhoods and the Switchmen's Unions protested to the railroads against the operation of the trains where troops are protecting strikebreakers and also against operation of trains with defective equipment.

THE PRINCE OF PEACE.

Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The PRINCE OF PEACE.—Isaiah 9: 6.

BOOST

Boost your city, boost your friend; Boost the church that you attend. Boost the street on which you are dwelling. Boost the goods that you are selling. Boost the people round about you. They can get along without you. But success will quicker find them if they know that you're behind them. Boost for every forward movement. Boost for every new improvement. Boost the man for whom you labor. Boost the stranger and the neighbor. Cease to be a progress blocker. Cease to be a chronic knocker. If you'd make your town much better. Boost it to the final letter.

YOUR FEARS.

What are you most afraid of? May be your supreme dread is poverty. Or it may be a loaded gun. Or a certain disease. Frequently fear centers unexplainably on some simple thing that has little or nothing in it to excite terror.

Out here in West Texas about the only thing that should cause any fear is the lack of rain. Perhaps the thought of no rain does make the rancher shudder and when he sees the sun go down day after day in a spotless sky he may wonder when the rain clouds will come again, but old timers will tell you that this country can promise less and do more and promise more and do less than any country under the sun. So why worry or why have fears?

Brave Julius Caesar shook and chattered at lightning. He fled to the dark jerths of caves when storms gathered.

Alexander the Great was deathly afraid of cats. The sight of a harmless, purring pussy caused him to throw fits.

Fear, of all kinds, is believed by scientists to be due to chemical abnormalities of the adrenal glands, small capsules attached to the kidneys.

The adrenals of some people react peculiarly in certain situations or in the presence of certain objects. The nervous system, emotions and even mental balance are upset by failure of the adrenals to harmonize with the encounter.

Another peculiarity of the adrenal glands is their close connection with violent emotions, such as fits of anger. The person with a bad temper has defective adrenal glands. Here's what an eminent authority has to say about fear and glands:

"Aroused by passion, the adrenals generate chemical substances known as hormones. These are shot into the blood. They make the heart beat

THE WOMAN WHO HAS LIVED

BY MADAME ROCHE

We must raise our sons as if they were going to live; if God leaves them to us, we shall make men of them; if He takes them back, we have perfected them for Him.

Surround them with order and calm.

If they laugh every day, they will sleep better.

Never quarrel before them.

Be just always in the tiniest details. The child is usually logical and injustice wounds him.

Choose the proper time for scolding children, and first always make sure that no physical need or discomfort is making them naughty.

Accustom them to both practical and mental charity. Egotism is ugly in a child and makes a tyrant of a man.

Teach them that one may be at home anywhere; that it is not the position which does honor to a man, but the man who can do honor to any situation.

Protect them from foolish vanity; give them a horror of the false in everything.

Do not flatter—encourage. When they have done well or evil, tell them so simply.

Punish them according to their sins; impose silence on the chatterbox; deprive the greedy of sweets; make the lazy work; and when they are stubborn, be more stubborn than they.

Do not work their small brains too hard; let them grow strong first in an atmosphere of calm; make no premature demands. Little prodigies are odious and later often become imbeciles.

Accustom them to win a victory over themselves every day.

rapidly, the hands shake, "a red film" come over the eyes. You have observed these symptoms in people overcome with rage.

"Do the adrenal glands cause outbursts of temper? Or does temper upset the workings of the adrenals? Take your choice of the two. No matter which you select, you will find scientists ready to back you up. This much is certain—that the will power can be called into play as a brake on the emotions, especially anger.

"People who are subject to outburst of temper should know that giving way to these emotional impulses literally tears their health to pieces. Anger wrecks the nerves, strains the heart, upsets the digestion. A fit of anger shortens life.

"A great deal is being written these days about the adrenals and other endocrine glands. It is important that people should not accept glandular theories as an alibi for personal deficiencies such as anger. That is the easy way, for it is human nature to seek an alibi as an excuse for individual defects.

"Meet your glands half way. Keep the body and emotions under the control of will power, as much as possible. Barring geniuses, the glands constantly are trying to be normal. The mind has definite powers in assisting them to perform normally."

He is resting as well today as could be expected but had a bad night's rest. While the little fellow is only six years old he is bearing his troubles like a soldier.

EFFECTS MRS. COOGAN

As a general rule mothers are pretty good judges as to whether their children are in real trouble or are shamming tears for the purpose of gaining some object. Once in a while however, a juvenile actor really happens and such is Jackie Coogan, who plays the title role in "The Kid," the special Associated First National attraction at the Queen beginning Thursday.

The picture contains one of the most pathetic scenes ever filmed, when the authorities insist on separating Charlie and the Kid, on the grounds that Charlie is not a fit guardian for him. The Kid bursts into tears at the idea of the parting.

Mrs. Coogan, mother of the boy was invited to a special showing of the picture and left the projection room in the midst of this scene.

"You may tell me it is only acting," she said outside with tears streaming down her face, "but I know better than that. Jackie would never cry like that unless his heart was broken. Although I know he is at home his minute and probably up to some mischief, I can't stand to see pictures of him, when his heart is being torn right out of him."

COMEBACK IS SENSATION

Maxwell Company Has Emerged Among Six Largest Firms in U. S. The sensation of the motor world is Maxwell. No motor company ever came back with such a rebound as has Maxwell since the recent reorganization under the direction of Walter T. Chrysler, Chrysler's successes with Maxwell but paralleled his successes with Buick. As president of the Buick Company, Mr. Chrysler has received credit for that car's nationwide popularity and tremendous sales. There is every indication that large as was his success with Buick, it is to be overshadowed by the record he is making with Maxwell.

Mr. Chrysler took hold of the Maxwell plant in August, 1920. They closed the factory the day he took over the company's affairs. He had a new car designed. He built a new manufacturing organization. He reorganized the selling and the distributing. The new Maxwell met instant popularity.

Whose its predecessor had given sixteen and seventeen miles per gallon of gasoline, the new Maxwell gave twenty-two. Where the old Maxwell had given 12,000 miles per set of tires, the new Maxwell showed 18,000 on road work test. It is handsome in design and pliable with more mechanical balances and harmonies than have ever been put into a low priced model before.

Today, Maxwell ranks among the six largest producers in this country. The company is operating at the maximum capacity of 7,500 cars a month. Next year it plans to increase its output to the 100,000 mark and shortly thereafter, Maxwell plans to be second only to Ford in the volume of its output.

A BUSINESS COUPE FOR BUSINESS MEN

This car represents a new and important achievement in commercial transportation.

For the first time in motor car history, business men are enabled to buy a closed car, the body of which is built throughout of steel.

The advantages of this all-steel construction—reserved until now to open cars—are particularly marked in a coupe built to weather the wear and tear of hard commercial usage.

Immediately you will be impressed with the beauty and lightness of this coupe. Time will convince you of its unusual stamina. The doors snap neatly shut. Body squeaks are eliminated. Dodge Brothers enamel is baked on the surface of the steel—a permanent lustrous finish, impervious to wear.

The interior is roomy and thoughtfully equipped with every appointment necessary to the owner's comfort and all-weather protection.

Business houses that equip their salesmen with motor cars have been quick to recognize in this coupe a very unusual investment.

SWEETWATER NOTES.
By "Humpy."

The Eagles, after flaying the life out of Stamford for six out of seven attempts, motored over from Abilene at noon all set to continue their murderous attack. We shall see what we shall see.

No, we do not have the slightest idea who Mearland is, 'cept that he is a finger. 'Sal.

J. McAllester Stevenson certainly pulled a ten strike when he grabbed Charlie O'Day to pilot his skidding birds. All the Eagles ever needed was a capable skipper and O'Day, on his record, is the said C. S.

Taking their tem, man for man, and they compare favorably with most any class D outfit. Burch, with his head up, is a class A performer; the pitching staff is delivering with a vengeance; Ross Lyall is one of the most valuable utility men in the business and a rattling good first sacker. Grady White excels all West Texas middle guardians and Sain is a real comer at short. Whitehead is apparently the class of the far corner occupants. That infield is probably the best offensive and defensive quartet in the circuit. With Kink, Etheridge and Hornsby patrolling the outer works O'Day has a well balanced aggregation, one that will trouble Amarillo all the way, in spite of the vast difference in the monthly payroll.
