TECH COMMITTEE URGES CLEAN-UP

Cut Weeds And Prepare For Visit of Locating Board Here On July 24 Is Prayer Of Local Committee

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR THAT DAY

Clyde Payne In Charge of Transportation—Chitwood, Erwin and John T. Johnson Are The Speakers.

CLEAN-UP! CLEAN-UP! CLEAN-UP!

That was the first and last point emphasized at a meeting of the general Tech Committee in the office of the Board of City Development Wednesday afternoon.

Plans for the reception of the Locating Board were gone over in considerable detail and everything arranged insofar as possible. Clyde B. Payne is committee chairman in charge of transportation. All committeemen will get from his car they ride in on that day and drivers of these cars will get the order in which their cars will proceed, with R. M. Chitwood in general charge of the days doing. C. O. Erwin will demonstrate the site and John T. Johnson will take charge of the lake and its building.

According to present advices, the Locating Board will be ready to come to Sweetwater at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday, after lunch in Colorado. They will be brought here in cars and will be taken to the Hotel Wright for a short period, then to the Court House and to the site.

But Clean-Up and Weed Cutting occupied the most attention in the committee meeting. Clyde Payne and Geo. H. Sheppard were named a committee to work on the west side, Paul Sorenson, Harry Bondies and Will Wade the east side, Tom Cowan and C. R. Simmons the south side and S. J. ... M. Chitwood the north side.

At some period during the day, the Locating Board will be taken for a ride around the city and the Tech Committee hope, urge, pray and beseech every property owner, renter and transient to do his or her bit toward making the town presentable on that occasion. It is probable that all portions of the town will be visited during the day at some period and for that reason too much emphasis cannot be laid upon the necessity for everyone getting into harness and cleaning as the town has never been cleaned before.

Prizes offered by the Clean-Up Committee will be awarded the day after the visit of the Locating Board, for the premises showing the most improvement since they were offered.

GOES TO LUBBOCK.

Henry Rogers Leaves Sweetwater To Take Management of Lindsey.

Henry Rogers, manager of the R. & R. Enterprises in Sweetwater since August, 1920, leaves for Lubbock Thursday evening. Mr. Rogers will take charge of the R. & R. Lindsey Theater there, and will make his home in that city.

Prior to Mr. Rogers' affiliation with the R. & R. Enterprises, he was with the Orient Railroad, coming to Sweetwater in 1905.

He is a member of the Masonic Lodge and Royal Arch Chapter. He leaves many friends in Sweetwater.

E. H. Rowley, member of the firm, R. & R. Enterprises, will arrive in Sweetwater Saturday to take charge of the local theaters.

Guy Morris has returned from a vacation trip to Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Las Vegas and other New Mexico points. At Las Vegas he watched the Curtis Brothers. Sweetwater boys win the steer roping contests.

VOTES DRY.

Manitoba Votes Against Sale of Light Wines And Beer In Public.

WINNIPEG, July 12.—The province of Manitoba voted against the sale of beer and light wine in public places by an estimated majority of 32,000 votes, according to returns from the election held here yesterday.

The proposition submitted to voters included the sale of beer and light wine in public places and with meals.

The sale of liquor by the government was recently authorized by a previous referendum.

TALKS OF KLAN

Presbyterian Pastor From West Virginia Says World Would Go To Dogs Were It Not For Ku Klux Klan.

L. E. McEldowney, Ku Klux Klan lecturer, pastor of a Charleston, West Virginia Presbyterian Church, spoke Wednesday night on Third street in front of the Court House to a very large crowd on the subject: "Is America in Danger?"

The speaker stood on the back of a truck drawn out in the middle of the street, and was surrounded by cars and people.

Rev. McEldowney spoke at length of the Ku Klux Klan, and of the work it was doing and he also told of the evils and ruin facing America.

"I am not a lecturer," said Rev. McEldowney, "I am merely a Presbyterian minister speaking on the Ku Klux Klan to pay expenses."

He discussed conditions in the country and declared that the people were "going to hell so fast you can't see them for the dust."

"You can't build a nation on jazz," he declared. "While our boys died in the mud and blood of the battlefields of France, we stayed at home and wrote jazz!"

"Do you know," he asked while preaching against Jesus Christ and how the world was forgetting Him, "do you know what the Klansmen would do if I stood here tonight and denied Jesus Christ, do you know what they would do—and there are plenty of them standing around here—well, it would be the last Ku Klux Klan speech I would ever make."

"The boys and girls of this country are getting to where they think nothing is wrong," he continued. "They think that this is not wrong and that is not wrong and nothing is wrong. If you ask them if going to church is wrong, they will say, 'No, but it is a piece of darn foolishness.'"

"My text is For Ourselves and Posterity, a passage taken from the preamble of the Declaration of Independence. Did you know that the government had counted 300,000 people in this country, paid by Bolsheviki government to come to this country and defame and tear down the United States? Well, when they were counting these people, why didn't the government take them up and give them what they deserved? You can do anything now a days and get away with it. If this is to be our country very long, it will have to be a white man's country. If it is going to be any man's country, it will have to be a white man's country and a Protestant country."

Rev. McEldowney was heartily applauded at intervals throughout his speech, and many citizens clustered around him to shake his hand at the close of the lecture.

His home is in Charleston, West Virginia. He spoke Tuesday night in Big Spring, and will speak tonight at Eastland, from where he will go to Fort Worth.

Your Last Chance

Your Tech Committee has made its final plans for the presentation of Sweetwater's claim to the Locating Board for the Texas Technological College. From the time the brief was prepared and filed, up until now, your committee has carefully and thoroughly studied the situation. They have consulted anyone and everyone regardless of committee membership and have repeatedly asked the public for suggestions. Every move has been planned on the day of the visit of the Board July 24. The cars have been arranged for. The speakers who will present the various phases of the local situation have been named.

And now its up to you. Will the Locating Board see a city free from weeds? Will they see a city whose alleys are clean? Will shop windows be glazing? Will objectionable junk and refuse of every description be removed? The impression that this city makes upon the members of the Locating Board is in your hands, gentlemen. If the vacant lot next to you is covered with weeds, get in touch with the owner. If for any reason he cannot, it is your duty as a public spirited citizen to see that it is cleaned.

Gentlemen. It's Up To You. What do you propose to do about it?

LOW PRICES WILL ACQUIT BERRY IN RUIN WHEAT MEN BARTON KILLING

Farm Bureau Estimates Cost of Production at $1.20 Per Bushel—Price At The Farm 80 to 85 Cents.

LARGEST CROP IN MANY YEARS

Big Carry-Over And Big Foreign Crop Sends Prices Tumbling—Speculators Reaping Big Harvest.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The American farmer stands to lose from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 on the wheat crop if forced to dispose of it at the current market quotations, with wheat prices falling hourly, Farm Bureau officials estimated here today.

With the cost of producing wheat from $1.20 to $1.60 per bushel and the price per bushel at the farm now quoted at from 80 to 85 cents and prospects of going lower, farmers will have to take a big loss unless means are found to hold the crop for better conditions.

Based on an estimated production of 821,000,000 bushels, less 90,000,000 bushels for seed next year, the net production will be 731,000,000 bushels. At 35 cents a bushel, the loss will run about $256,000,000 while at 60 cents a bushel, the figure will be ruinously higher.

The sole hope of the present situation is warehousing the crop until market conditions are better—the storage to be financed by the new agricultural credit machinery provided by the last Congress.

The carry-over from last year's crop totals 300,000,000 bushels for the entire world, which is far greater than any previous carry over.

Then the rest of the world, and especially Europe, will produce more wheat this year than any year since the world war.

Speculators are capitalizing the present situation.

BOAT BY RADIO.

Sweetwater Vulcanizing Company And Geo. Massey to Get Returns.

Mr. Massey said that the static is particularly bad during the summer months, but was of the opinion that he would be able to get a fairly good account of the fight.

Jury Out 16 Minutes And Bring In Verdict of Not Guilty—Killed in Quarrel Over a Cotton Crop.

SON-IN-LAW OF JOHN B. SNEED

Another Episode In Boyce-Sneed Feud That Has Already Accounted For 7 Lives Is Written.

By The United Press.

SEYMOUR, Texas, July 12.—C. W. Berry was acquitted by the jury here today after being tried on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Wood Barton.

The jury returned a verdict after only sixteen minutes deliberation. Barton was shot and killed at Paducah, Texas, November 19, 1922, in a quarrel over a cotton crop.

Berry testified that he fired when he thought Barton was reaching for his gun. Barton was the son-in-law of John Beal Sneed, wealthy Panhandle cattleman, who took up the quarrel and seriously wounded Berry following the Barton shooting. Sneed himself is now recovering in a Quanah sanitarium from buckshot wounds inflicted by Berry on July 2 of this year.

Thus is written another chapter in one of the most striking and sordid dramas of the Panhandle, that have accounted for seven lives and untold wealth since 1912 when young Al Boyce eloped with Sneed's wife to Canada and he and his father died shortly thereafter.

Both Mrs. Sneed and her daughter were in the court room during the trial of Berry.

SAN ANGELO, July 12.—The Tom Green County Commissioners have assessed the property of the Orient Railroad at $1,000 per mile, as requested by officials of the line. This will apply on 59.75 miles in the borders of Tom Green County. Similar action has been requested by all counties traversed by the line in Texas, according to J. M. CLUB WOMEN OF COUNTY REPORT

Joint Meeting of Women And Girls' Demonstration Clubs With Representatives Sweetwater Clubs

HELD THE MEETING AT NOLAN

Work Of Various Clubs Reported—Extension Service Workers Deliver Lectures On Home Problems

The all-day meeting of the various women's clubs of Nolan county held at Nolan Wednesday was attended by one hundred women and girls and many men of the county. Great interest was displayed by all who attended and the meeting was a success in every way.

The meeting was held in the school building a short distance north of Nolan and the morning session began at 11 o'clock.

Miss Spann, Home Demonstrator, for Nolan county, acted as chairman of the meeting, and after calling the house to order she spoke a few words, giving the purpose of the meeting as to bring the different club members into closer contact, and to give every one an idea of the different work the clubs were doing and to aid progress for the future.

The first speaker introduced by Miss Spann, was Mrs. W. Chamberlain, director of Home Economics of John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville. Mrs. Chamberlain is principally interested in domestic science and sewing, and her address was along that line.

"I am going to speak deeply from the heart," stated Mrs. Chamberlain, "on affairs concerning the woman, therefore also concerning the man." She went on to tell of the woman as a spender and declared that it was as important for a woman to know the right way to spend as for a man to be able to make a living.

"It is estimated," she said, "that 95 per cent of the merchandise sold over the counters is sold to woman. A large part of the failures, domestic and otherwise, made in the home, is due to the fact that the women haven't been taught to spend wisely."

She discussed at large some of the work the home demonstrating agents were doing, told of her work done along the domestic lines in John Tarleton. She told of clothes and articles made by the students of discarded materials, as shirts, trousers, skirts, stockings.

"What we are trying to," stated Mrs. Chamberlain, "is to teach girls to cast around the house and find and make things that will make themselves more beautiful."

She told of clothes of all kinds made by the girls out of cast off materials and took up two beautiful hats that were on display with other things and said: "With all due respect to merchants who sell hats, and to milliners, there has been more robbery on hats than anything and women are beginning to realize it."

One of the hats she exhibited was made from the worn out cover of a silk umbrella. The red had been interlaced with some scraps of gold material and decorations had been made with gold thread. The result was a stylish and good looking hat that would have easily sold for eight or ten dollars in a hat shop, and Mrs. Chamberlain declared the total cost had been five cents, and that the gold thread, another hat, similarly made had cost only fifteen cents. It was also on demonstration on exhibit were many artificial flowers, corsages and hat trimmings, all of which had been made of old hats, dresses or other cast off material. One corsage of yellow flowers she displayed and stated that a bunch nearly like them had sold for four dollars in a store, while the cost of the home-made ones had been only a few cents and a little time.

"We are trying to teach the girls to make the home happy," she continued, "and the kind of a home it ought to be. A happy home is a little annex to heaven. Someone has said that the way to get to heaven is to take a little with you, and that can be done by having a happy, loving home."

The meeting adjourned at twelve for lunch, which was spread in the school building. The club members and guests ate and drank, there being many good things to eat and plenty for all.

The meeting resumed at one o'clock, and Miss Spann introduced Mrs. Edith Andrews, extension department worker of A & M College. The main subject of Mrs. Andrews' speech was "A Federation of Women's Clubs." She told of the advantages coming from all the clubs being together and working together and of the good they could do.

"The whole trend of the world today," she said, "is getting together and using more team work. The world is working together as never before."

She urged that the clubs be federated and work more in common, so that more and better things might be accomplished.

"The work can spread abroad when the clubs are working together. It is carried out further and more is accomplished. This teamwork was demonstrated during the world war."

She discussed at length the work carried on in the home, of the work various clubs were doing, of the summer short course at A & M, of cooking, and other matters.

She told of the extension department of the colleges, of the work they were doing and gave a brief history of the department and its rapid growth.

After the interesting address of Mrs. Andrews, Miss Spann called for reports from members of the various clubs over the county.

The first report was from Mrs. Ledford for the Daughters of the Confederacy, which she declared, was the largest patriotic organization in the world. She told of the memorial services held by the chapter on June 3, of the work the chapter was doing and other interesting matters.

Mrs. Hill of the East Ward Parents Teachers Association of Sweetwater states that the Association had paid for their lyceum course and purchased books and pictures for the school.

A delegate from the Maryneal Home Demonstration Club told how that club had been organized with the aid of Miss Spann, how they had purchased a canner and canned 2276 quarts of vegetables, fruits and meats. The club also won two blue ribbons with exhibits, sent one girl worker to the Dallas Fair and one to Short Course at A & M.

Mrs. Willis, in reporting for the Sweetwater High School Parent-Teachers Association said that the club of forty members gave the new teachers a banquet and reception, had a lyceum course, helped served 4000 sandwiches at the Sweetwater Jubilee and other good works. They will put on a membership drive this fall.

Mrs. Withers of the Gleaners Club stated that they had paid seventy five dollars for foreign missions. Paid one dollar per member for a Methodist dormitory at S. M. U., had Bible study twice a month, social meetings and religious meetings. They sent two hundred dollars worth of supplies to the Mitchell county storm victims.

Mrs. Dalvin reports for the Nolan Home Demonstration Club. The club was organized a year ago, she stated and was doing good work. Fourteen members were enrolled, and the members had made hats, dress forms and other things. They had sold $331 worth of eggs, $246 worth of butter and $854 worth of turkey and chickens. Besides that had canned 1328 cans of meats, vegetables and fruits.

Mrs. Ledford of the Sorosis Club, Sweetwater, told of the studies taken up by the club, their study of Eastern literature, and stated that would soon begin the study of Western literature.

Mrs. Calvert of the Cottonwood Home Demonstration Club stated that the club had ten active members, that the club had won 5 blue ribbons and 1 red one. They have canned 693 quarts of vegetables, and 683 quarts of fruit.

Mrs. Withers reports for the Self

Culture Club of Sweetwater. The Club was strictly a study club, she stated, and studied art, music, literature and drama. They are also doing civic work and are aiding in establishing a local public library.

The Blackwell Home Demonstration Club was organized in December, according to the representative, Mrs.

Lots Free Lots Cheap Bradford Addition

We have secured the selling of a portion of the lots in the Bradford addition and are offering you your choice of corner lots at $125.00 and inside lots at $100.00 each on terms of half cash, one fourth January 1, 1924 and one fourth January 1, 1925, with six per cent interest on deferred payments.

Where we have all the lots in any block, we will give a corner lot to the person building a neat five room painted bungalow or an inside lot to one building a neat painted four room bungalow.

With the spending of more than a million dollars on this side of the city by the United States Gypsum Co. we consider this the best buy in Sweetwater as there will be a big demand for houses on this side of town.

These lots are just west and overlook the site offered for the Texas Technological College and the location of the college here should double the value of the lots in this addition.

The lots are offered under their present value, on easy terms and we expect to move them quickly.

Better see us at once and pick your lots. They won't last long at these prices. There is no chance to stage anything but a winning.

Now is the time, while opportunity knocks, to make a start toward that home you expect to own.
