EASTER

The word holiday was originally derived from the Word Holy Day. Most holidays have changed considerably from their erstwhile character, but Easter has, if anything, assumed an enlarged significance in its poignant meaning to Christianity.

Early Christians were not above borrowing from their pagan forbears and neighbors and like Christmas, Easter was originally celebrated as a pagan holiday. It meant the return of Spring. Now the coming of Spring meant much to those frozen northlands of Europe. It meant release from the biting cold, and restraint enforced by the elements.

meant growing crops to replenish ladders that did not always last over the winter.

To Christianity the great significance is the commemoration of the rise of the Christ from the Tomb upon the Third Day after He was crucified. Upon His resurrection is founded the whole creed of Christianity, with life after death dependent thereupon. For if that story be false, then Christianity itself has no foundation. Easter, then, is the day when Christianity renews its reverence, and reaffirms its faith in Resurrection Morn.

NEEDLESS

Death by typhoid is needless; so is the disease itself. Its presence shows that the laws of health have been violated with the very distinct possibility that city ordinances providing for certain standards of sanitation in at least one local dairy have been violated as well. Where health and possibly life itself is at stake, there can be no compromise. People of this town look to the properly constituted authorities to enforce the law and will co-operate with them to see that it is done.

And in the meantime, there is definite reason for the "clean-up" call, not only in the spring but perpetually. Sweetwater is too large a city to permit negligence in sewer connection. Flies breed in filth of that character, as well as in garbage and persons who do not keep the alleys in the rear of their premises clean are not only menacing their own health but that of their neighbors as well. Flies carry typhoid as well as other germs. They should be killed ruthlessly, with screen protection of the most careful nature.

Remember always that if we don't clean up, the undertaker will.

BANKING PUBLICITY

This paper has long maintained that advertising for banks is as important to them as it is to any other business. The correctness of this view seems to be established in the advertising campaign now being formulated by Texas bankers between farmers and banking institutions.

We know of no movement inaugurated by the bankers of Texas, within their history, that will have such far-reaching effect as this campaign. There is no disposition among banks not to advertise, but it seems that their efforts have not been concerted. The messages to be run in this campaign will surely give a better understanding of the banks' functions, their true relations to the community.

SIGNALS OF SERVICE

YOU'VE noticed the lines of telephone poles as you speeded by on trains or in automobiles. These communication lines which stretch along the roads, streets and alleys are the outward signs of the little seen service you so greatly depend upon to make your home and business what it is today.

Holes alone represent a big investment in your behalf. Placed end to end the holes dug for telephone poles would make a tube reaching to a distant planet.

Then there are the cross-arms, the wires, the insulators. Add to these visible signals of telephone service the expensive intricate plant equipment that is back of the receiver and the total investment reaches a big figure. Yet the cost to the average family for telephone service is insignificant compared with the value received and the investment involved.

T. E. L. Class Enjoy Party

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed an interesting meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Silas George. This meeting was postponed from last week. Mrs. W. B. Crenshaw read the scripture lesson and W. H. Stamps led in prayer. The class song was sung with Mrs. Stamps at the piano. Mrs. Crane, class president, presided over the business part of the meeting, during which it was decided to postpone the May meeting on account of the revival. All "Capsule" names were turned in and new names drawn. Many surprises were expressed as to who had been their "Capsule Sister."

During the social hour clever contests and other entertaining features planned by Mrs. Cooper were enjoyed. "A Brain Puzzler" consisted of advertisements to be named and classified. "A Flower Courtship" was another puzzler. As a concluding pleasure Mrs. George served ice cream and cake.

Club Enjoys Blue Bonnet Party

Mrs. J. R. Henry and Mrs. G. E. Ramsey were hostesses Friday afternoon to the members of the Self Culture Club with a "Blue Bonnet Party" honoring the State Flower of Texas. The reception rooms were a-bloom with Blue Bonnets in baskets and bowls. An especially pretty basket of blooms adorned the president's table and they were given as guest favors.

The first half of the meeting was devoted to business and many items were disposed of among which the club voted to order Blue Bonnet seed and plant them at the City Park and other favorable spots and in every way encourage their growth. The club also voted to make the Blue Bonnet celebration an annual affair. The club endorsed the idea adopted at the T. F. W. C. meeting at Colorado, that each club plant a tree honoring Mrs. Reagan president of Sixth District, and February 22, was the time set to plant the Self Culture Club tree at the City Park.

They also voted to co-operate with Mrs. Willard Gibson in beautifying a small park at the T-P Station and to accept an invitation to assist in beautifying the plot allotted to the Ladies Auxiliary of the Board of City Development at the City Park.

They voted to endorse "The Little Theater" movement, the work to begin in the fall for the Public Library benefit, and to assist in securing high school scholarships for Nolan County rural school pupils. Mrs. F. G. Robertson was elected to represent the club at both the Centennial meeting and to take part in organizing the West Texas Historical Association at Abilene Saturday. It was decided to ask the chair to appoint a club historian. Mrs. W. W. Beall, Mrs. Will Morton, Mrs. I. S. Focht and Mrs. Willard Gibson were appointed to revise the club's by-laws. The library chairman reported $118.77 in the treasury and 1808 books in the Public Library. Every member subscribed for the "Federated Club News."

Mrs. Ray Hickman directed the program on "Texas Blue Bonnets" and told the story of the Blue Bonnets as seen by the botanist and artist.

Roll call responses were: Original tribute to the Blue Bonnet; Introduction to the Blue Bonnet of the Botanist, Mrs. A. Levy; reading, "Legend of the Blue Bonnet," led by Mrs. Affleck of Brenham, formerly poet laureate of T. F. W. C., given by Mrs. Robertson. "Texas Blue Bonnets," Mrs. Roy Scudday; "The Texas Blue Bonnet," by John Sjoland was also read by Mrs. Robertson; round table, "The Blue Bonnet Plan" from San Antonio.

"Is it practical for the club to follow this plan?" This was one of the most interesting features of the whole program. Mrs. Will Morton, club delegate to the District meeting at Colorado gave her report which renewed the enthusiasm of the entire club. The club voted unanimously to dispense with all meetings for the duration of union revival services.

An elaborate luncheon was served at the conclusion of one of the most pleasant meetings the club has enjoyed this year. Blue Bonnets adorned each plate.

Abilene Takes Game on Local Field by Score 6-1 Friday Afternoon—Errors Figure in Scoring

Six glaring errors, coupled with Fitzgerald's inability to control that of agate with the bases populated, enabled Abilene to walk away with the first clash between the Abilene-Sweetwater high school clubs Friday.

The score was 6 to 1. The visitors got away to a two-run lead in the opening inning on wild heaves by third baseman Carroll and Catcher Sheppard. They added a trio of tallies in the sixth frame on combination of boots sandwiched in between a couple of clean drives.

The local's lone marker came in the sixth stanza as a result of three in-field scratches. Loose base running in this inning shattered what appeared to be a worth-while rally.

Southpaw Daniels apparently had nothing on the ball but the seams but proved more or less of an enigma to the local nine. His slow dinky dew-drops came up to the plate as big as a toy balloon, yet he managed to whiff half a dozen Sweetwater boys and emerge on the long end of a top-heavy score.

Except for a pronounced nervousness with men on the sacks, Fitzgerald hurled a steady brand of ball but his support was far from air tight. He sent four visitors to the bench via the strike-out route.

Shortstop Crutcher was the defensive star while Carroll and Bishop were the hitting aces.

With the exception of the sixth round both clubs fielded in sensational style and in spite of the miscues of the locals, the contest was snappy, but one hour and thirty minutes being required to finish the game.

OPEN MIND

EASTER

The word "Easter" occurs in the Bible only one time. It is found in Acts 12:4. So far as the King James translation of the Bible is concerned, "Easter" is the translation of the Greek word "Pasca." But why conclude that "Easter" is the correct translation of "Pasca," seeing that "Pasca" does not mean "Easter?" "Pasca" in Mark 14:12 is translated the "Paschal lamb," in 1 Cor. 5:7, applied to Christ, in Mark 14:16, the "Paschal supper," and in Math. 26:2, the "Pass-over feast." In fact, the word "Pasca" is nowhere translated "Easter" in the Bible except Acts 12:4.

Smith's Bible Dictionary says that the occurrence of this word is chiefly noticeable as an example of the want of consistency in the translations. In the earlier English version "Easter" had been frequently used as the translation of "Pasca." At the last revision "Passover" was substituted in all passages by this.

"Easter" is from Ostara and not from "Pasca" and signifies "Goddess of the Morning Light, or of the return of the sun and the spring time."

Of the word "Easter" Webster says: "Originally a festival in honor of the Goddess of Spring." So far as many of the churches are now concerned, "Easter" is a festival observed annually in commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. If "Easter" originally was observed in honor of the Goddess of Spring and of the return of the sun in the spring, why not observe the day now, for the same reason contrary with the original? In fact we find no reason in all the Bible for professed Christians to observe the Lord's resurrection at all.

One of the strange things of life is this; to see people observe the Lord's resurrection, a thing they are not required to do, and fail to observe the Lord's death, a thing which Christians are required to do. If there is anything stressed in the Bible it is that Christian, on the first day of the week, observe the Lord's death by partaking of the emblems that represent his body and blood.

MASTERPIECES

Confections Compared to Music and Art

The making of confections is a fine art compared to music or painting. Instead of eight musical notes or seven primary colors, the confiseur employs four basic tastes and an infinite variety of delicate aromas. With these the master confectioner produces combinations of taste and flavor which to the cultivated palate open up new worlds of enjoyment. His exquisite compositions are no more to be compared with ordinary sweets than a musical classic is to be compared to the beating of a tom tom. For eighty-three years, Park and Tifford have experimented, tested and produced candies. Their experimenting days are over and they now offer you the results in their fine candies which are guaranteed to please through Maner's Three Convenient Drug Stores in Sweetwater, Texas. 681c

Easter Parties

Quite a number of the younger citizens of Sweetwater looked forward to visits from the Easter Rabbits Saturday and Sunday, and the teachers of the various Sunday schools took advantage of the occasion to entertain their pupils with Easter egg hunts.

The teachers of the First Christian Sunday School entertained the primary and all intermediate classes Saturday afternoon at the East Ward school lawn. The First Baptist Sunday school children were divided. The Primary department hunted eggs on the parsonage lawn and surrounding grounds, in charge of Mrs. Morony and Mrs. Tom Farris, while Mrs. W. K. Beall and the intermediate teachers entertained their departments on the vacant lot near her home.

The Methodist primary and junior children and the Presbyterian Sunday school children also enjoyed visits from the Easter Rabbits.

Program Given by School

The pupils of the South Ward School gave a very creditable program Friday afternoon in their new auditorium, which was witnessed by 25 or more mothers and friends.

Miss Lelie Poe, school principal, made a few opening remarks and presided over the program which was given as follows:

Song, "America the Beautiful,"—School.

Song, "Little Boy Blue"—Sybil Stewart.

Chorus, "Alice Blue Gown"—Six little girls dressed in blue.

Piano solo, "Maytime Song"—Sybil Stewart.

Piano Duet—Miss Florence McKissick and Winston Foy.

Musical Reading, "The Youngest in the Family"—Elizabeth and Olivia McKissick.

"John Rock the Baby" was given by Olivia McKissick as an encore.

The American Creed was given by the school in concert.

Chorus, "North, South, East and West," sung by a dozen boys in Scout uniform ready for a hike. Miss Florence McKissick had charge of the music and played all accompaniments. Dr. J. E. Steele, accompanied by Supt. Rives were visitors. Dr. Steele on behalf of the State Health Department gave the children a short address and obtained their promise to co-operate with the local health department in a "swat the fly campaign" and other health precautions. Each number was heartily enjoyed and each participant was vigorously applauded.

Permits

A building permit was Friday issued to Walter Carter to erect a $8,000 residence on Crane Street. T. Copeland was awarded the contract.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
CITY OF SWEETWATER
I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct report for the quarter ending the 31st day of March, 1924. Given under my hand and seal of office, at Sweetwater, Texas, on this 7th day of April, A. D. 1924.
W. H. BARTLETT, City Secretary.
Approved, JOE H. BOOTHE, Mayor, City of Sweetwater.

R. M. Simmons presented Father Campbell, resident Catholic priest, a Dodge Coupe Saturday.

Mrs. E. V. Grogan plans to leave this morning for Dallas on a visit.

Operetta
The operetta, "The Enchanted Woods," played by about 50 pupils of the East Ward school Friday evening in the school auditorium was a great success. The door receipts were $86, and the auditorium was well filled with friends and parents of the participants.
The stage setting was very realistic with transplanted trees, grass and flowers forming "The Enchanted Woods." Mrs. Benjamin Robinson had charge of the music, with special piano numbers rendered by Betty Simmons, Thelma Carter and Bonnie Beth Wade. Miss Wilma Shivers sang "Who Knows?" Miss Dorothy Rives read "The Village Gossips;" Miss Helen Davis read "Christopher Columbus;" "Blue Beard" was given by Mary Bennet and aunita Holland gave a musical reading, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." The school orchestra surpassed all their previous efforts and their choruses added much to the program.

The pleasure of the audience was shown by the generous applause given each number and the East Ward faculty received much praise for the merit of the program.

Sorosis Club Meets
Mrs. R. C. Ledford was hostess Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the Sorosis Club when Mrs. R. C. Crane led an interesting program on "San Jacinto," the keynote being "A Lone Star Gleams O'er San Jacinto's Field."
Roll call: Response, "What the name San Jacinto should mean to every Texan. Mrs. Frank Morgan read "Texas," by Ellen Hudson Day of Rotan, one of Texas newest verse writers. Mrs. Ledford told the story of "San Jacinto, Then and Now." She had visited the old battle field and was able to add much personal interest to her story. Mrs. E. L. Frost read "San Jacinto." Mrs. Poffenbuck followed with an interesting talk on "What Texas is doing today."

Mrs. R. C. Crane, who represented the club at the recent meeting of the Sixth District of T. F. W. C. at Colorado, gave her report in full, with all the high lights of the meeting. Her message gave an insight of the service rendered by West Texas women and plans for broader work for 1925.
During the business hour presided over by Mrs. Tom Hughes, the president discussed the coming district meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association and voted to pay their $5 pro rata into the expense fund. The club has been encouraging tree planting among its members and 130 trees have been planted during the past six weeks. The club voted to plant a tree on Arbor Day honoring Mrs. William Reagan of Cisco, president of the Sixth District of T. F. W. C.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Ledford served a delightful salad course with iced fruit punch. Mrs. Ledford was appointed to represent the club at the Abilene meeting Saturday at both the Centennial Celebration delegates and the West Texas Historical Association. Mrs. R. C. Crane will also attend.

Morelock Accepts
President H. W. Morelock of Sul Ross Normal at Alpine has accepted an invitation to address the district meeting of the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations to be held in Sweetwater, April 29-30.

Easter Greetings

We hope that you are among the many who have arranged a Wilson Baked Ham Dinner today, after a breakfast with Wilson's crisp bacon. Baked ham for Easter Sunday is a fine old custom that can hardly be improved upon. We know that it cannot if Wilson's is used. For there is such a tender zesty flavoriness to all Wilson products that no epicure can wish for more.

We have a full line of all Wilson products for you—either here or at your grocer's or meat dealer's. Ask him for them, for the tinned meats, etc., that also have that inimitable Wilson flavor. You'll like them.

That Weiner Roast

When you take folks out for a picnic supper some place, be sure that you include a generous supply of our fresh home-made weiners. We said "generous," for when folks bite into them, with appetite sharpened by the open air, make sure that there is enough. Folks just can't seem to get filled up under such circumstances.

Did You Know That

Wade Market is one of the best equipped, with the most modern refrigeration system, of any market between Fort Worth and El Paso? Drop in some time and let us show you our cold storage, that keeps your meat so perfectly for you until you call for it.

We will consider it a pleasure to show you through.

Aid Society Raises Money
The members of the First Christian Church Ladies Aid Society enjoyed a special meeting Thursday afternoon at the church when a final count was made in the recent Money Making Contest. The results as reported at the meeting showed a total of $128.50 raised during the month. A number of others were unable to attend and it is believed that collections will bring the amount to $150.00.

The ladies told in clever rhymes how the money was made. One member made $5 beginning with 15 cents worth of Irish potatoes and ten cents worth of lard, which she converted into potato chips; another made $10 using sugar, butter, eggs and flour and one-half of the other was made up of determination. One other reported cheating her wash-woman out of the family washing, while another confessed her husband was glad to donate $10 to have the money question silenced at home and that he did it "joyfully."

This enables the Ladies Aid to complete their last payment on the new church furnace, which cost $670.00 and the money has been raised since last fall. The society voted to discontinue all meetings for the duration of the revival.

More Good Evidence—

Just this past month 524 dealers began selling Gates Super-Tread Tires.

Pretty good evidence that quality pays—and a reason, too, why our factory is oversold.

Naturally, dealers want to sell the tires that give you more miles because that's the best way to sell you the next tire.

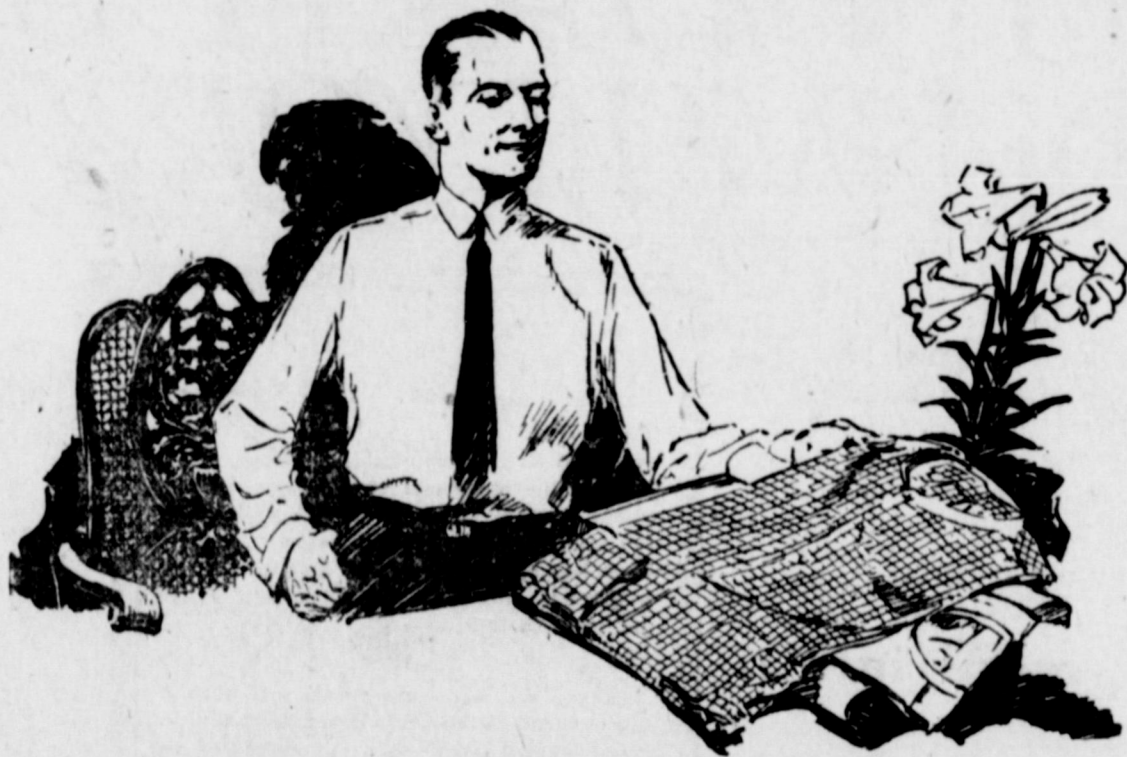

That's why you find more dealers every day recommending the tire with the wider and thicker tread—the Gates Super-Tread Tire.

HE WOULDN'T SMILE—

no, not even if Venus stooped to kiss him. He was so rarin' mean he just couldn't smile at anything. But lil' old Cupid shot a dart or two and Jiminy Crickets how love will change a man.

The most delicious—enticing morsel of entertainment that ever hit our Screen.

THRILLING days of America's youth are recreated in this remarkable photoplay—when the stars and stripes were raised at the prow of the first steam boat—when the foundations of the American nation were laid by the brave men and women of a glorious age gone by—when men lived and loved to the full—

Romance and adventure crowd each thrilling moment of this truly great motion picture. Marion Davies as the heroine of a charming love story will capture your heart completely.

If you liked "When Knighthood Was in Flower," you'll love "Little Old New York."
