AIDS PARALYTIC TO REACH CHRIST

Evangelist Rayburn Draws Strong Parallel Between Unsaved and Sick Aided by Friends

MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Pleasure Seekers Scored—Nation Headed the Same Way as Nations of Old Prior to Their Ruin

Wednesday night, the fourth night of the union revival, proved undoubtedly the biggest service of the meeting as yet. Rayburn delivered a sermon of sermons, and not only did the audience show a marked increase, but the choir also, joined in with a large addition, among whom were several high school choristers.

The collection plates were again passed for the benefit of the general fund, the first time since Sunday.

Moreover, the improvement was not confined to the evening service, for at the afternoon Bible study 125 people were present, an increase of 44 for the second meeting. Today at the Bible class Rayburn lectured on "The Salt of the Earth."

At the evening hour, reading his text from the story of the Paralytic who was brought through the roof to Christ, Rayburn drew parallel comparisons between the physical paralytic and the unsaved, the spiritual paralytic. He compared the helplessness of the one afflicted with paralysis, and his utter inability to help himself and the spiritually afflicted saying that both are such that some one must act for them.

"Both kinds of paralytics must have some one to make provisions," said Rayburn, "the physically diseased had stretcher bearers to carry him to Christ, and the sinner is dependent on the Christians. Even the church members are not always responsive."

"In the case of the paralytic a large multitude prevented him from reaching Christ, and so it is with the unsaved. The kickers, fault-finders, knockers, unbelievers, grumblers, lazy and careless in the church are dead weights and an obstacle in the path of the lost. They fill up mere space, that is all."

"The People of the United States are pleasure crazed, and that is the cause of dead church members. They pack the Sunday shows, the ball games, etc., but the churches are poorly filled. And it is the younger generation that is chiefly affected. The nation is headed the way of Babylon, Greece, Rome, and others. Home life is weakening, and when home life is destroyed the nation will be destroyed. To commercialize amusements is a quick way to do the job, and when Charley Chaplin, Fatty Arbuckle, Mable Normand, and their lot become the heroes of our children, God save our grandchildren." (And Rayburn gave assurance that he had more to say about Charley Chaplin.)

Continuing, Rayburn discussed the craze for fads among American people, especially the religious fads. "The present fad," he said, "is to attack the truths of the Bible, and the lecturers lecture it; the moralizers moralize it, and editors edit it."

Then Rayburn discussed the new ideas advanced as to the trouble of the church, the remedies, etc.

Returning to the lesson, Rayburn explained that the stretcher bearers realized two things and those caused them to realize a third. They knew the helpless condition of the afflicted, said Rayburn. Christ was the only hope. Then they determined to reach Christ, and to do so they went through the roof. The church members too often stick to old methods. If they can't go through the door they won't go at all. But after realizing the first two conditions they must often, in order to succeed, change methods to suit the occasion. If you can't make it through the door, go through the roof. It is the salvation of souls that counts, not the method."

Rayburn will preach of "Promises of God" tonight, while "Christ an Agitator" will be his theme for Friday. At 2:30 Sunday evening he will speak in the tabernacle to men and boys only on "Big Business."

A fact which is always stressed by Rayburn is that the meeting is in the interest of no particular church, but for the whole community in general. Every church is affected, and in none of the services is denominational doctrine touched upon in any way.

Side of House Removed to Bury 700-Pound Woman

By International News.

TULSA, Okla., April 24.—When funeral services were held here for Mrs. Pearl Gardner, 700 pound woman, who died last week from fatty degeneration, one wall of the room in which she had died had to be removed. Removal of the wall was necessary so that the large casket containing her body could be removed.

A special casket had to be ordered from Fort Smith, Arkansas. The casket was 42 inches wide, 32 inches deep and 70 inches long. It is believed to be the largest ever used in the entire southwest. All interior fittings had to be taken from the motor hearse before the casket could be placed inside. It required eight strong men to carry the casket, which had been fitted with specially bolted handles.

BALLOONS RACE NORTH IN WIND

Big Gas Bags Which Left San Antonio in National Contest Seen Over Oklahoma and Arkansas

FRENCH START FLIGHT

Hop Off on First Leg to Constantinople in Competition American and British Aviators

Man's attempts to conquer the upper atmosphere are enlivened today by France's entry into the race to encircle the globe by airplane and the balloon race which started from San Antonio.

Cities of Oklahoma and Arkansas reported the big gas bags drifting northward at the mercy of the prevailing southwest winds.

France is following the trail of the English fliers east, and although starting late, is planning to make Constantinople with the first hop, 1950 kilometers away. (A kilometer is about five eighths of a mile which would make the distance from Paris to Constantinople about 1220 miles.)

France Enters

By The United Press. PARIS, France, April 24.—France today entered the race for long distance flight.

An airplane took off from the Dilla Goubly field headed for Japan.

The fliers hope to establish a record for sustained flight. The first flight was to be an unprecedented one—a non-stop flight to Constantinople—1950 kilometers away.

The air ministry did not announce the departure officially because it is planned unless the planes reach Constantinople in one jump, to call it a false start.

At Shawnee

By The United Press. SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 24.—Aeronautics officials here reported that word has been received from Shawnee, Okla., of one of the National Elimination Race entrants passed over that city at 9:41 today.

Drifting Northward

ELDORADO, Ark., April 24.—A balloon believed to be one of the participants of the National Elimination race held at San Antonio, was sighted three miles from here, drifting northward, according to information received here today.

Sighted at Chickasha

CHICKASHA, Okla., April 24.—One of what appeared to be an entrant in the National Elimination race balloons started from San Antonio Wednesday afternoon, passed over this city at 8:01 this morning.

The altitude was estimated at about 7,000 feet and the big bag was drifting northeast, being aided by a strong wind.

Mrs. Roy White is improving, after being in a critical condition several days at the local hospital, following an operation.

R. R. Hampton, traveling salesman, with headquarters at Waco has been visiting his parents several days and will leave for San Angelo on the evening train.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—The "defense" continued to pile up points in the Senate investigation of the indictment of Senator Wheeler of Montana.

Wm. G. Seeley, a Washington attorney, gave Wheeler a "clean bill of health" so far as his alleged appearance before the Interior Department in land permit cases as far as Gordon Campbell, of Montana, was concerned.

Seeley said he had never been retained by Campbell to look after his permit case with the Department here, that he had never consulted Wheeler in any way about them and that he had never seen Wheeler at the Interior Department.

OIL PROMOTER IS GIVEN FIVE YEARS

Pat Marr, Eldorado Oil Man, Sentenced to Long Term in Leavenworth Penitentiary Thursday

EXECUTES $50,000 BOND

Judge Youmans Alludes Feelingly to "Crippled Old Men and Women" Who Lost Life's Savings

By The United Press. TEXARKANA, Texas, April 24.—Pat Marr must spend five years in the Leavenworth penitentiary and pay a fine of $1,000 for his oil stock operations in the Eldorado and Smackover fields.

Judge Youmans today gave the Eldorado promoter the maximum penalty following his conviction in Federal Court here of misusing the mails in promoting a dozen stock companies.

On motion of his attorneys, Marr was allowed 100 days to prepare an appeal to be heard in the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

The promoter's bond was fixed at $50,000 which was at once furnished by C. H. Murphy, banker, and A. J. Alpine, oil operator, Eldorado friends of the defendant.

Judge Youmans in sentencing Marr briefly reviewed the case, declaring the evidence clearly showed that Marr was guilty of "deliberate scheming to defraud honest people of their money."

The Judge alluded feelingly to "crippled old men and women" who testified they had lost life's savings as a result of Marr's guarantee to make them wealthy.

DITCH GRAFTERS URGES WHEELER

"Such Unfaithful Servants as Daugherty and Fall Have Made Many Bolshevists in America"

ANSWERS DAUGHERTY

Must Make Washington Unsafe For Jesse Smith's and Mannington Type of Grafters, States

By The United Press. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—"Such unfaithful servants as Daugherty and Fall have made more Bolshevists in America in a few weeks than 1,000 Soviets could have made in a decade," Senator Wheeler, Montana, declared today, replying to former Attorney General Daugherty's "defense speech" in Columbus, Ohio, last night.

Wheeler's statement to the United Press was provoked by what he termed "Daugherty's cunning and base insinuations" that Senator Brookhart was "inspired" by associate officials to investigate the Department of Justice.

"In his array of discarded troops," Wheeler said, "Daugherty would take refuge behind the last resort—modern knives driven desperately to divert the public mind from their own corruption. When all else failed they put out the 'red peril' bugaboo. His pitifully absurd smoke screen will only meet with ridicule."

"But this discordant officer does not exaggerate the danger threatened the republic if the Daughertys and Falls are not driven from office."

There is a rising discontent in America that by blackmail and the private sale of the public domain have been brought to the danger point.

"Washington must be made unsafe for grafters of the Jesse Smith and Howard Mannington type—Daugherty's bosom friends. It must be made impossible for another Daugherty to dispense Czarist Russian justice in the legal department of this government."

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—The "defense" continued to pile up points in the Senate investigation of the indictment of Senator Wheeler of Montana.

SHRINERS GOING

Local Shrine Club Members Announce Intention Attending National Convention at Kansas City

Sixty-eight massed Shrine bands will respond to the baton of Lieut. Com. John Philip Sousa at Muehlbach Field, Kansas City, when the annual Shriners' convention gets under way on June 4.

At least a quartet of Sweetwater's Shriners will attend the great convention. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Manroe, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCorkle, Joe H. Boothe and Henry Bartlett have announced their intention of attending and it is possible that this number might be augmented by other members before the get-away.

The convention, in many respects, will be the greatest of its kind ever held. Particularly from a musical standpoint will the Shriners command national attention. Many of the most famous bands in America will be on hand and it has already been stated that no contests will be permitted.

Among the nationally known musical organizations that will furnish band music is Aleppo Temple band, said to be the biggest in the world and one that plays every known band instrument; the famous Syrian Temple band of Cincinnati, of which Henry Fillmore is leader and the equally famous Moslem band of Detroit.

Mrs. Clyde Tuindull of Route B is at the Sweetwater Hospital for treatment.

COUNTY SCHOOLS HAVE GOOD YEAR

Terms of Many Coming to Close After Most Successful Year in History It Is Said

INCREASE TAX RATE

Many School Districts Vote Increased Taxes to Better Schools of County—Want Union Type

But a few weeks remain until students in rural schools in Nolan County will be allowed to drag out the old cane pole, dig some angle worms and forget all about "readin', writin', and 'rithmetic."

Already the Plum Creek and Weaver schools have closed for the term and before the last day of April those of Bitter Creek, Cottonwood, Valley Creek, Brownlee, Collins, Stamper and Summers will have "called it a day" insofar as studies are concerned.

Other rural schools, with longer terms, will close their doors in May, following probably the most successful term in the history of public houses of learning in Nolan County. Those to close in May include:

Blackland, Barnett, Nolan, Dora, Hylton, Ada, White Flat, Brooks, Champion, Goode, Rock Crossing, Wastella, Mesquite, Blackwell, Maryneal, Fairview, Antelope, Bolin and Decker.

Miss Minnie Fowler, superintendent of public instruction, announced Wednesday that marked progress had been obtained during the term about to end. Better teachers, more interest manifested by pupils and numerous other important features had resulted during the 1923-24 term.

Six new school buildings have been constructed, a splendid attendance throughout the session and continued discussion for a consolidation of several schools for high school purposes, adds interest to rural schools in general.

Many schools, desirous of becoming eligible for state aid in 1924-25, have voted to raise the local tax to 75 cents—not to exceed one dollar—to supplement school funds. Among the schools that have already held successful elections are Bitter Creek, Blackland, Barnett, Nolan, Dora, Hylton, Plum Creek, Valley Creek, Ada, Brownlee, Brooks, Champion, Goode, Wastella, Blackwell and Collins.

EDUCATE PUBLIC

Parent-Teacher District Head to Co-Operate With Producers in Effort Create Better Films

By The United Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, April 24.—Mrs. C. J. Moore, acting head of the visual instruction division of the University of Texas, who has been appointed chairman of the better films committee in the seventh district of the Parent-Teacher Association, is supervising the efforts of the association in co-operating with theater managers and heads of the public schools in creating a public demand for better pictures.

It is Mr. Moore's opinion that good pictures cannot be forced upon the public simply through a process of censorship, but through co-operative measures with producers and theater managers to educate the public to a demand for better films.

RAYBURN SPEAKS AT LUNCH CLUB

Says Booster Citizen is Ideal Type—Emphasizes Need of Churches in Community Life

MAUZEY TALKS ROADS

Tells of Progress Being Made in Building County Roads—Focht is Toastmaster—On to Brownwood

Evangelism, roads and Trade Trip figured largely in the regular meeting of the Sweetwater Club at the Hotel Wright Thursday at noon with John Focht as toastmaster.

Visitors included County Commissioners from Glasscock, Martin, Howard and Scurry Counties as well as Commissioners' Court of Nolan County, J. W. Butler, service manager of the United States Gypsum Co., from Chicago, W. K. Miller of the Gene Morris Paint System was a new member introduced. E. J. Darley passed cigars for the crowd.

The program was opened with an enjoyable song by Orr A. Cheek of the Rayburn force. Mr. Cheek's smooth, robust and well-trained baritone voice was so well received that he responded to an encore. He was accompanied by Newton M. Bogges, pianist, whose accompaniments were of great beauty.

Judge Mauzey went into the local road situation in some detail, telling the present status of the road building plans and advising patience.

"Nearly three years will be required to build the main highways of the county," he said. "We do not intend to use a day's unnecessary time. We are as anxious to complete this road program and get it out of the way as you are to get the new roads. But we also intend to build the best possible roads that the money provided will buy. And we are going to take just as long as it may be necessary to build this kind of road."

He said they were waiting for the State and Federal engineers to approve plans for the ten mile strip of road west of Roscoe now completed. In the meantime the engineers are at work preparing plans for a 15 mile strip on Highway No. 70 south of Sweetwater. Work on the lateral roads has begun and a one mile strip on the Nolan road completed.

Attention to the Brownwood trip was directed and W. E. Wade, chairman of the committee in charge of Pullman reservations, said two were reserved and a third started. The special train is arranged for the second day and will leave about 5:30 in the morning, returning after the close of the day's events. All ladies organizations of the city as well as Boy Scouts, American Legion, and other organizations will be represented on this special.

The essential feature of a good town is citizenship. Rev. Rayburn told the members present. The evangelist approval of the Brownwood trip, and said that it was essential that this town be well represented in this all West Texas gathering, in spite of the fact that the Brownwood trip will break right into the big middle of the last week of the tabernacle meeting.

"There is nothing I like to see better than a man who is a booster for his town and who will co-operate in everything for the good of the community," he said.

The evangelist emphasized the need of churches in a city, strong, vigorous churches, so that the coming generation would have protection.

"The war drained the moral strength of this nation. It is up to us to restore these standards," he said.

H. M. Rose advocated a trade trip east and Gus Farrar, H. M. Bryant and Ney Sheridan appointed a committee to make arrangements and report back to the club.

PRODIGAL

Years ago folks thought there was timber enough to last this nation forever. Farms were cleared and the timber burned to get rid of it. Hemlock was useful in tanning leather. Whole forests of hemlock were cut down, the bark stripped from the logs, and the timber left to rot. We are paying bitterly for that profligacy today. And the year is not far distant when the wood supply of this nation will be completely exhausted.

Coal mines are another example of wastefulness. It is estimated that only 50 per cent of the available coal is mined, with the balance left in such condition that it can never be mined. The cost was a little greater, and might decrease coal companies profits.

Many other instances of wastefulness in natural life might be cited—but they all pale into insignificance when compared with the wastefulness of farming methods. Millions of tons of fertilizer, more than ever existed, would be required to restore the fertility robbed by feverish one crop production year after year. Eastern states are full of farms abandoned because a living can no longer be made upon them. West Texas will be in the same shape if care is not used.

FERTILIZER

One reason for the interest shown in West Texas lands is that it is new land, and in many instances has never been under the plow before. In rare instances has it been under cultivation for a long period of time. That means there is ample plant food in the soil, in the shape of nitrogen, potassium, etc. But unless farmers practice crop rotation and fertilize under the direction of the county agent, in years to come this land will become as exhausted as the lands back east. Untold tons of fertilizer are needed back east to restore land that was once as fertile if not more so than any in West Texas. And unless land owners mix intelligence with their cultivation in West Texas, conditions will be as they are in the east now. Every crop takes fertility, in the shape of nitrogen, potassium and other needed plant food, from the soil.

There are certain crops which restore part of this fertility. With proper rotation and proper fertilization, this condition can be avoided.

OPEN MIND COLUMN

I would like to call your attention to the fact that Nolan County has no organized County Singing Convention. Practically all of the counties in this section of West Texas have County Conventions, and the majority of them are live organizations. A county convention creates a demand for better Gospel singing, which, in turn, has a wonderful influence for good that radiates to all parts of the county. Every town and community in the county needs an organized singing class. And Nolan County needs a County Singing Convention. We Roscoe people believe in good singing. We have Prof. Alvis O. Thomas of Fort Worth with us at this time, teaching an eighteen nights school. He has 200 pupils in this school, and is creating a splendid interest in singing in our town. The school will close May 3rd. On May 4th (first Sunday) we are going to have an all day singing here in Roscoe. We want to invite all classes and class leaders to be with us on that day at which time we want to discuss the organization of a County Singing Convention, and possibly organize the convention at the time. Come on folks! Let's put this over! Nolan County needs a singing convention, and we believe the time is ripe for the organization of one.

Prof. Thomas and his Male Quartet will be with us on that date. Other good singers will also be here. A good time is assured all who come. Don't forget the date. First Sunday in May.

Yours, truly, O. D. Peden,

Editor Reporter: Since I have been living inside of the city limits, I have found out a few things that I did not know before moving there. First, it cost me $119.50 to lay pipe from the nearest water main to my residence. I have found out there are hundreds of people who own lots that would would on those lots, if they didn't have to pipe the water from 100 yards to 600 yards. Real estate men miss the sale of many fine lots on account of no water mains being close to the lots. It is not every man that comes along that is able to pay for a lot close in and build on it. What this town needs to put it on the right kind of a building program is to have $50,000 worth of new water mains laid around the different parts of Sweetwater, then you will see some thing doing sure enough. People are tired of paying water taxes and getting no relief. Many a poor man would build himself a home, if he could buy a cheap lot and get cheap water, now the quicker this subject is taken up the better it will be for every man that wants to build and have cheap water, for without water there will be nothing doing.

Social and Calendar Club Meets
 Mrs. R. A. Carter, representing a month and four weeks—Mrs. Tom Crutcher, Mrs. Jim Butler, Mrs. Jim Dulaney, and Mrs. F. G. Robertson, members of the Woman's Missionary Society, were hostesses Monday afternoon, in the basement auditorium of the Methodist Church at a meeting of the social and Calendar Club. Members of the Gleaner's Missionary Society was responsible for the program, over which Mrs. Roy Scudday presided. Mrs. G. E. Ramsey read the scripture lesson and was followed by an earnest prayer from Mrs. S. Z. Williams.
 A duet was sung by Misses Verna Sheppard and Ina Lee Eley, pupils of Mrs. Carl Ragland. Mrs. Scudday played their accompaniment. Leona Ruth Butler gave pleasure with a musical read, "A Perfect Little Boy," with Mrs. Butler at the piano. Another pleasant feature of the meeting was the capsule drawing when names were drawn to whom they will play "big sister" for the next three months. The packages left over from the girls tea party, last Wednesday were sold by Mrs. J. T. Hughes and Mrs. M. A. Belcher, the proceeds to go toward defraying the expenses of their delegate to the Missionary Conference at Vernon.
 Delicious ice cold fruit punch was served by Mrs. Carter and her "Weeks."

Big Spring to Ship Gypsum
 Mining of sheet gypsum in hills near Big Spring promises to add about twenty-five carloads daily to westbound tonnage of the Texas and Pacific Railway, according to C. D. Johnson, general agent at El Paso. The mining company, which has invested $1,500,000 in facilities has located a half dozen different grades of gypsum. It is used extensively on the west coast in movie structures to be dismantled after pictures are made.—El Paso Herald.
 Of course, we appreciate this publicity, which is partly true, as there is any quantity of gypsum in the Morita section, but the mining company referred to is probably located about seventy miles east of Big Spring.—Big Spring Herald.

Married; Injured; All In Same Day At Angelo Shows

SAN ANGELO, Texas, April 24.—Friday was an eventful day in the life of Miss June L. Wheary, equestrienne with the Golden Bros. Circus that showed in San Angelo. At 10 o'clock Friday morning, just before the parade formed at the circus grounds, she and Clayton Lowrie Johnson, a member of the circus troupe, hurried to the court house, secured a marriage license, and were married by Justice of the Peace J. O. Frink. At the evening performance of the show, Mrs. Johnson fell from her horse when mount failed to clear a hurdle, and was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were given a place of honor at the head of the parade when it passed through the city Friday morning.

The afternoon performance passed without any unusual incident in the daily routine of the circus people

At the night show, another lady rider with the troupe fainted as the riders lined up for the opening spectacle, but she was caught before she fell from her horse, and carried from the tent.

After the dancing horses had performed, they were put through the hurdling exhibition. Mrs. Johnson's horse failed to clear the barrier, stumbled, and the rider was thrown to the ground.

Dr. W. W. Cobb, who attended Mrs. Johnson, said that she was unconscious for about ten minutes, and that her back was injured. No bones were broken, and the extent of her injuries were not definitely determined before she was taken to the circus train. A ring on her finger tore the flesh when she struck the ground. Had she lit on her head, the force of the fall was considered hard enough to have caused her death.

The progress of the performance was halted only long enough for Mrs. Johnson to be taken to the dressing tent. The ring master blew his whistle, and the next horse cleared the broken hurdle.

CALLS ELECTION
 Roscoe To Build New $20,000 School Building

ROSCOE, TEXAS, April 24.—The board of trustees of the Roscoe Independent School District has called an election to be held May 10, for the purpose of voting on a bond issue of $20,000 with which to construct an additional school building. The new building will be erected just north of the present building and will contain five class rooms, 20x30 feet, a study hall 40x30 feet and an auditorium 50x90 feet that will seat 750 people. Very little opposition to the bonds is expected since the building is needed so badly, and the fact that it will not raise the tax one cent. The only way that the bond issue could cost any more taxes is by the raising of the valuation of property. The tax rate in this district is already the maximum.

PRAISE TRIPPERS

Press of Towns Visited Unanimous in Saying Good Things About Sweetwater Delegation Visit

Echos of Sweetwater's gallant trade trippers continue to ring throughout four counties and is reflected in numerous editorial remarks printed in newspapers in the towns visited.

The Hamlin Herald says: "A big band of royal boosters from Sweetwater swept into our midst Tuesday and pepped us up wonderfully; they were real live wires and displayed a spirit that has done so much for the West in years gone by and one that will go far toward its upbuilding in the future. Hamlin is glad to have had those fine fellows come among us, scattering good cheer. We want them to come again, again and again."

The Roscoe Times, Lorraine Leader, Colorado Record, Scurry County Times of Snyder, Roby Record and Blackwell Times commented favorably and at length on the wonderful results to be obtained from such booster invasions. Each of the editors complimented highly the Sweetwater Trade Trippers, and, without exception, pointed out the fact that friendship was cemented and outstanding results were noticeably achieved.

An article appearing in the Rotan Advance dwelt at length on the arrival and action of the trippers and among other things, said: "That happy crowd of fellows visited this city and spread good cheer among our business men, they patted us on the shoulder and chatted gayly, leaving the impression that they were as glad to be with us as we were to have them; there was not a pessimist among them and we, for one, were sorry to see them leave town. We hope they repeat the excursion at least once a year; it helps Sweetwater and it helps Rotan and every other town visited. It's the spirit that counts, after all."
