FINAL PROGRAM AT CHAUTAUQUA

Dr. Ellis, Author, Traveler, War Correspondent, Will Deliver Closing Lecture.

JUNIORS ENJOYED WEEK

Gilbert's Band Gives Splendid Program—Next Year's Guarantee Looks Doubtful.

The Redpath-Horner Chautauqua will officially close in Sweetwater tonight with Dr. W. T. Ellis, internationally known traveler, author and lecturer with Clemens' Marionettes opening the program. This clever entertainment, with a special feature for the children, was given this afternoon.

One of the largest audiences of the week was in evidence Tuesday when Gilbert's All-American Band appeared for two performances, afternoon and night.

From the educational program of light classics, with explanatory remarks by Director Gilbert given in the afternoon to the medley of patriotic airs with appropriate tableaux that closed the evening entertainment, the applause was frequent and liberal, indicating the large audience was very appreciative of the merits of this band.

Ellsworth Gilbert proved himself a most capable bandmaster indeed. His readings were eloquent, restrained and yet with a thorough knowledge of the matter in hand. He kept his forces well in hand at all times.

The organization reflected his knowledge of men, musicians and instrumentation. Most noticeable perhaps, was the splendid quality of tone achieved, with unusual color range for an all brass organization. The nuancing was fluent, the phrasing accurate and a marvellous unanimity evidencing careful discipline.

Junior Chautauqua.
Opening with a down town parade the first day of the Chautauqua, and closing Wednesday with an outing and picnic at the City Lake, the Junior Town organization in connection with the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua was active during the entire week under the direction of Miss Elizabeth O'Rielly, of the Chautauqua, assisted by Miss Verna Sheppard of Sweetwater.

A Junior Town is organized in each city visited by the Chautauqua, and is composed of boys and girls up to the ages of fourteen years. This organization proves educational and interesting to the children, teaches lessons of Democracy by playing the game, and during Chautauqua week carries out activities on each day for civic betterment.

Election of officers for Junior Town was held the first of the week, with the following officers elected: Maurine Risinger, mayor; Dorothy Davis, clerk; Louis Bradford, treasurer; Ralph Anderson, sheriff; and Marvin Hampton, health officer. There are about fifty "citizens" in the Junior Town.

Stories and games have been the programs for the morning meetings, while musical appreciation, citizenship talks and recognition contest programs have also been held.

Women Interested.
Members of the Sorosis Club, Parent-Teacher Associations and other club women met this morning to discuss plans for bringing the Chautauqua back to Sweetwater next year. According to Mr. White, manager of the Chautauqua here, the chances for a return engagement here next year are very uncertain, unless the women of the town organize and plan a ticket selling campaign. Sweetwater business men, it is stated, do not favor signing the guarantee as long as they are required to handle the ticket selling sale. Definite plans will be announced after tonight's performance as to whether the Chautauqua will be back next season.

FIREMEN INJURED

Fire in Frame Dwelling Burns Two, Injures Several.

DALLAS, Texas, June 4.—Two firemen were burned and several others escaped death or serious injury in a fire that destroyed a frame dwelling here early today.

The fire was discovered by two patrolmen, who turned in the alarm and entered the building to rescue the occupants. A gas explosion during the fire caused injury to half a dozen firemen.

WORK AND PLAY AT SHRINE MEET

Convention City and Outer Guard to Be Named Today at Annual Convention.

SOUSA DIRECTS BANDS

Master Leads 2,600 Pieces as Crowd of 50,000 Cheer Stirring Strains.

By The United Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 4.—Shriners here for their annual gathering paused in their play long enough today to transact important business. Between the joint concert of 60 bands, directed by John Philip Sousa, and the second big parade, short time was taken for the election of the Outer Guard and the selection of the next convention city.

San Francisco or Los Angeles seem to have the inside track in the race for the 1925 meeting place. Milwaukee and Denver are also contenders, but it is believed that they will shortly begin their campaign for the 1926 convention.

Among the announced contenders for the Outer Guard, which in 12 years carries the holder of the office to Imperial Washington, Dana S. Williams of Lewistown, Maryland, and John N. Sebrell, Norfolk, Virginia.

Sousa conducted a 2,600 piece band before a crowd of 50,000. The bands assembled at Muehlbach Base Ball Park, and although they had never before appeared together, and had had no opportunity to practice, intense enthusiasm was aroused by their stirring melodies.

Weather.

Tonight and Thursday generally fair.

NEW FARM RELIEF

Substitute For McNary-Haugen Measure Submitted For Approval of Coolidge.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4.—House Republican leaders today laid before President Coolidge a substitute farm relief measure for the defeated McNary-Haugen bill, and asked his opinion on it.

If the President indicates his approval, they will attempt to take the bill through both Houses of Congress. If Mr. Coolidge does not like the bill it will be dropped.

The measure would utilize the resources of the War Finance Corporation to finance the exporting of surplus farm products.

Mrs. Fred Howe has returned from Post where she spent the past week nursing a patient.

WANTS NO BOOM

Senator Ralston Asks Indiana Friends Not to Encourage His Candidacy For Presidency.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 4.—Senator Samuel N. Ralston is not encouraging the Democrats of Indiana to launch a boom for him for president.

He has opposed a move to get the state convention here tomorrow to endorse him for the nomination. He stated that he was not a candidate, and did not seek to pledge delegates in his favor at the national convention.

As the result of his stand, it is probable that the Indiana delegation will go to the national convention officially uninstructed, but ready to work for him.

DEMANDS PROOF FRANKS MURDER

Clarence S. Darrow, Defense Attorney, Claims State Has No Written Confession of Crime.

STENOGRAPHERS TO TESTIFY

Those Who Took Notes on Statements of Leopold and Loeb Will Be Called to Stand.

By The United Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 4.—The State in its attempt to hang Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb for the murder of Robert Franks, must depend upon positive evidence of the crime, Clarence Darrow, chief attorney employed for the defense, said today.

Darrow, who has a $15,000,000 legal staff retained, said that he was "interested" in the statement made by State's Attorney Crowe that the State had no signed confession. Although he admitted that they "might spring some surprise yet," Darrow indicated that if the state had no signed confession, the defense would be greatly strengthened.

In admitting that Leopold and Loeb had never signed a confession, Crowe said that the stenographers who took notes on the statements of Leopold and Loeb will testify, thus taking the place of a confession.

Leopold and Loeb, once supercilious and haughty, have adopted themselves to the routine of prison life. They took their "setting up" exercises, and have apparently become accustomed to the prison food.

RECITAL FRIDAY

Some of Mrs. Gray's Pupils Will Give Program.

Work on this church is progressing rapidly and the contractors promise its completion by August 1.

Telegraph Co., Will Start Business Soon.

Fixtures and equipment for the Postal Telegraph Co., are being installed in the Bradford building on West North 2nd street, and this company will open their office here shortly. A manager and operator has not yet been named for the local office, but one will probably be sent out of Dallas, the head office of the company for Texas.

The Postal Telegraph Co., is building extensive lines into this part of the county, and the line through Sweetwater will go to El Paso and across to Los Angeles, making the third line this organization has across the United States.

MILWAUKEE GETS WOODMEN NEXT

Week's Session Will Open June 21—Three Organizations Will Meet It Is Stated.

EXPECT 20,000 PRESENT

Headquarters in Milwaukee Auditorium—Foresters at State Fair Grounds.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin, has been awarded the 1925 quadrennial Head Camp or national convention of the Modern Woodmen of America. This decision was made at the recent meeting of the Executive Council of the Society at the Head Office in Rock Island, Ill. The sessions will take place during the week beginning Sunday, June 21, 1925. Encampment of teams of Foresters, the uniformed rank, and deliberations of the National Camp Clerk's association will be held at the same time. It is estimated that the three meetings will bring 20,000 visitors to Milwaukee during the week.

Other cities which have asked for the Head Camp were Chicago, Colorado Springs, Cedar Point (near Toledo, Ohio), Portland, Oregon, and Los Angeles. An invitation from Omaha was received too late for consideration. Selection of a central meeting point was made to hold the expense within reasonable bounds, and to permit of more general participation of Forester teams in the national encampment.

Head Camp sessions will be held in the municipal auditorium, owned by the city of Milwaukee, and the Forester teams will encamp in the state fair grounds, free use of which was tendered by Governor John J. Blaine, himself a Modern Woodman. Foresters will go into Camp on Sunday, June 21. The Head Camp will open Tuesday, June 23.

All but two states in the Union, and four Canadian provinces, are represented at Head Camps of the Modern Woodmen of America. There will be approximately five hundred and twenty-five delegates next year, on the basis of one for each 2250 members. About five hundred Camp Clerks will take part in the deliberations of the National association, while the number of uniformed men in the Foresters' encampment will be between 3500 and 4000.

Milwaukee is one of the few cities to be twice honored with the Head Camp of the Society. The 1905 meeting was held here. The last one, in 1921, was held in St. Louis. Selection of the Head Camp city is made by a special committee appointed by the Head Consul and composed entirely of members holding no other official position, acting in co-operation with the Society's Executive Council.

GOOD ADVERTISING

Every summer, Sweetwater is visited by thousands of tourists who remain in the city for periods of time ranging from a few hours to several days. The impression that they receive of the city and its citizens is carried back with them to their homes, and may become the source of valuable advertising for Sweetwater.

"Sweetwater? Sure, stopped off there on the trip last summer. Mighty good town. Nice tourist camp, clean little city, everybody was glad to see us and treated us right. Sweetwater's a good town."

Hospitality is the best advertising a city can have, and you can't buy it. Travelers are inclined to be more or less critical. The city that makes a bad impression will never be forgotten, just as the hospitable city will remain a pleasant memory.

Sweetwater's city park is ready for the tourists. Accommodations have officers more courteous than ours in the directing of travelers can not be found anywhere. Let's treat the visitors as we would want to be treated; it's the proper spirit, and it's good advertising.

SUNDAY AUTO RACES

Commenting editorially on the Sunday auto races in Ballinger, the editor of the Banner-Ledger of that city says in part:

"Some unusually good races were witnessed Sunday afternoon, and considering the splendid time that some of the young auto racers knocked down, it is indeed remarkable that there were no casualties, all due, perhaps, to the work of kind providence, and the cautiousness of watchful mothers who kept their children off the track during the heat of the race."

"A daily race program is carried on on the Ballinger streets, but the special matinee program on Sunday afternoon is the most thrilling. All the most popular cars take part in the races, and girls are not barred as drivers. Of course, the races are more or less hazardous, but what is a life, or a limb? The undertakers need the business and the hospitals are open to take care of the broken bodies. Automobiles and gasoline are cheap, and what is more thrilling to the young driver than throwing the throttle wide open and stepping on the gas?"

"There are some who object to using the streets as race tracks, but the knocker we have always with us. The people should get together and appeal to the officers whose duty it is to protect us in our rights, and not let the knockers interfere with the Sunday afternoon racing schedule. We say let the races go on, call out the ambulances, and be prepared to take care

Can She Pick Her Child?

Fannie Lockwood, 17, St. Louis, Mo., must answer this question: Can a mother pick out her own 4-month-old baby if she has not seen it since it was a week old? Her baby was taken from her when it was a week old and abandoned. It is alleged by a man now under arrest, the baby wound up in an orphanage. There are three babies at the orphanage. One of them is Fannie Lockwood's. Can she pick it out after four months? The court has given her the chance.

THE HISTORY OF SWEETWATER

By FANNY ELLEN BOYD
S. H. S. 1924.

The city of Sweetwater derived its name from a creek of the name that flows adjacent to the city. Along in the early part of the seventies it is thought that a Texas Ranger unaware of its previous name called it Sweetwater Creek from the character of the water.

James Manning, a land surveyor of Shackelford County, it is said, was the founder of Sweetwater. According to R. C. Crane, an authority on West Texas history, Manning built a store, tavern, and Post Office about two miles from the present location of the town along the banks of the creek of the same name.

This little village was then known as Blue Goose, and Manning was its postmaster. People came in from Taylor County and located in Blue Goose.

In 1876, Nolan County, which was then a part of Palo Pinto land district and Shackelford County, was created by the State Legislature along with other counties of West Texas, but was not organized. These counties were west of Taylor County, and were blocked out thirty miles each way. The county was named after Philip Nolan, who appeared in Texas about 1815.

About 1882 the first court house was constructed in Nolan County, which was very poorly built. Just before the court house was built, the Texas & Pacific railroad came through. When the county was organized Blue Goose was selected as the county seat. Soon an election for county seat came on, and the present site was chosen, on the railroad. The first term of court was held in the open. J. C. Montgomery was its first sheriff. The town grew rapidly because of the railroad and was incorporated in 1882. Its first city marshal was W. A. Corbett.

The first church held in Sweetwater was in a school house, the first Sunday school was a union Sunday school. Then the Baptist people built a church in 1882, which is still standing. The Methodist and Presbyterian followed soon after.

In the year of 1884 the city government died. The law provided for Sweetwater to go under certain laws and by those it began to build. The first permanent school was a summer normal built in 1887, on the site of the present East Ward building.

A railroad was organized, in 1887, with a railway scheme. The road was to be built from some point on the Texas and Pacific by Robert Lee to San Angelo or Ballinger or some place on the Santa Fe. He and the citizens of Sweetwater entered into a contract for him to built his railroad from Sweetwater through Robert Lee to some point on the Santa Fe. This proved the people had nerve to undertake this large proposition to raise a $100,000 subscription, and only 500 or 600 people in the town.

Wheatcroft began the railroad in 1897 and graded 20 miles. Then the Spanish-American War came on and the proposition failed. After a little while the people were so interested in their little town and wanted to see it built, so they got the Orient company to take it over and by that way the Orient came through Sweetwater in 1897. By the spring of 1905 the Orient was opened up as far north as the present town of Sylvester. But the town's incorporation was revived when the Orient railway came thru the town. The people then voted $10,000 worth of bonds to put in some waterworks. The city lake north of town was constructed on 31 acres donated by J. F. Newman. Judge H.

C. Hord was at that time mayor of Sweetwater. The ditches were being dug for the main waterways, when, for some reason, their plans failed and the town had no waterworks yet.

Then came a contest in court as to the validity of Sweetwater's incorporation. The court killed the validity of it, the city government went out of existence, but in 1902 in the winter, by the vote of the people, Sweetwater was re-incorporated.

Soon the Santa Fe Company came along, the people made a trade for a railroad through Nolan County to connect the road in California to the east coast of Texas. In 1910 it was completed and Sweetwater became a freight and passenger division point and the Santa Fe shops were located here.

This gave the town three railroads and people began to pour in the town, took on a proud spirit and began to build. The Christian Church had been built just a few years before this. It was the first stone church in Sweetwater. Then in 1911 the present Methodist Church was constructed and the High School building, which is now standing, was built in 1912.

The people organized to put over the waterworks that failed in the 90's. They managed to install the works and to locate an ice plant. This company was the Sweetwater Ice, Light and Water Company. Soon the people learned it was not sufficient water and unsatisfactory, therefore efforts were made to get an outside capital interested, but it was unsuccessful. During this time Sweetwater was laughed at and mocked because of its water supply.

When the Home Rule Act was passed in 1913, authorizing the people to adopt their own charters and issue bonds to equip their own water systems, Sweetwater citizens appointed a committee to make a city charter. R. C. Crane, F. G. Roberson and Judge H. C. Hord wrote the charter to conform to the Home Rule Amendment, or construct a waterworks plant. Geo. T. Wilson was the first mayor and A. H. Fitzgerald and Thomas Trammell were the first commissioners under the amendment.

From the beginning Sweetwater was different from other towns in that it had some men like Thomas Trammell who had the nerve and energy to go out after things to up-build Sweetwater. Bonds of $320,000 were voted by the people to construct Sweetwater's waterworks. The water supply of Sweetwater is the best of the west.

In 1916 and 1917 the present court house was constructed, which was during the Great War, but is a strong one and one of the best court houses in West Texas.

Such popularity must be deserved

OLD records to break, new ones to make! Grilling tests of speed, stamina, power! And for the winner—popularity, hard-won and deserved. So with everything else. To win popularity even a cigarette must deserve it. Chesterfield, for example, has long been winning an average of over 1000 smokers a day.

One thing alone—Chesterfield's better taste—can account for such popularity.

For Matinee

This wide white crepe collar looks like what would be a very simple alpaca frock and makes it appropriate for the matinee or afternoon tea as well as for morning. Since both collar and cuffs are detachable they do not detract from the practical use of the garment. The very long tunic and the jet buttons are very up-to-the-minute touches.

Chrysler Six Awakens The Motor Car Industry

The Phaeton

Its air cleaner is typical of the Chrysler's advanced engineering. It accomplishes one of the vital things for which automotive engineers have long striven—the exclusion of foreign matter which usually enters through the carburetor. The Chrysler oil filter assures the continuous use of clean, fresh oil, with resulting protection of bearings and all moving parts. All the oil in the crankcase is passed through the filter once in every 25 miles.

All prices f. o. b. Detroit; tax extra.

The Chrysler Six
Pronounced as though spelled, Cr-f-ol-er

The influence of the Chrysler Six on motor car engineering is inevitable. Before many months you will see many attempts to duplicate the performance and economy of the Chrysler. The fact is, that this realization of a low priced car weighing only 2705 pounds (touring type), that affords the riding comfort of a two-ton car; a high gear range of 2 to 70 miles per hour, and gasoline mileage well over 20 miles to the gallon, has startled and awakened the entire automobile industry. Nothing about the Chrysler is untried or unaccepted—nearly everything about it makes it a most remarkable advance in motor car engineering.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan.

FEELS GOOD OF KARNAK TO HIS FINGER TIPS

OLD TROUBLES GONE AND HE CAN WORK ALL DAY WITHOUT FEELING EXHAUSTED NOW, SAYS FT. WORTH CITIZEN.

Still another well-known Ft. Worth citizen to come forward with his unqualified endorsement of Karnak, the sensational new medicine, is Mr. M. L. Hunter, who resides at 719 West Third street. "The results I have obtained from two bottles of Karnak is nothing short of astonishing," stated Mr. Hunter. "I had been in poor health for ten years and was so weak at times I would have to leave my work and sit down for a while. I had no appetite at all; in fact I had about forgotten what it was to be hungry, and everything I ate soured on my stomach and formed so much gas that I could hardly bear for my clothes to touch me. I had to take purgatives all the time, too, and always felt bad and worn out. While I managed to stay up, I was really a very sick man and nothing I got hold of seemed to help me a particle until I began taking Karnak.

"Now my digestion seems perfect. I no longer have to take purgatives, I am stronger than I have been in years, and can eat, work, play and sleep with my old-time zest. It is a genuine pleasure to recommend Karnak."

Karnak is sold in Sweetwater by the Sweetwater Drug Co.

CONFINED TO BED

Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully run-down," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weakness.

I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it. "About four years ago, change of life came on me. I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days. I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal.

"I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once. From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life."
