Klan Fight May Go To Convention Floor

Faction Leaders Recess After Speeches Until Tonight—League Fight Also Looms.

COMMITTEE AGAINST NAMING KLAN

Minority Report to Start The Debate—Roll Call For Nomination May Begin at Night Session.

By The United Press.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 27.—David Rockwell, McAdoo's manager, stated at 1:20 that leaders of the different factions had agreed to recess after the nominating speeches this afternoon until 8 o'clock tonight. This report was confirmed by George Brennan.

There is doubt that the platform will be ready for the evening meeting. Rockwell said that if the platform committee was not ready, the McAdoo forces would make no effort to suppress the cessation of rules before the balloting begins. It has not been definitely decided that if the committee is not ready, the convention will adjourn until tomorrow.

The bitter fight on the Klan which has been under cover in the executive sessions of the resolutions committee, may be dragged into the open tonight when the evening session begins.

If the platform committee is ready, the platform may be presented with such minority reports as may be returned.

If the Klan and the League planks are still in the making, roll calls may be started for the nomination.

In either event, the first real test of the strength of Smith and McAdoo will be made, but the more vital test will be brought to the floor when the Klan and anti-Klan forces clash in the platform discussion.

Floor Fights Appear Certain.

The fight on the floor over the Klan issue became certain when the sub-committee of the resolutions committee voted 10 to 4 to submit a resolution denouncing the principles of the order, but not designating it by name.

The quartet demanded that the Klan be named, and will submit a minority report and the floor gates of the debate will be opened.

A floor fight on the league is also certain. Baker will propose that the League be endorsed and the subcommittee will submit the report to the full committee.

Dark Horses Had Day.

The dark horses and favorite sons had their day at the convention as runner up to the show for Al Smith yesterday.

James Cox and others who were presented were accorded demonstrations of varying intensity, but none of them approached the blow-off staged for either Smith or McAdoo.

In the meantime, Tom Taggart of Indiana was moving about, smiling and confident that Sam Ralston would be the nominee.

Taggart has kept out of the Klan to date, letting Brennan, Smith, and the McAdoo leaders tangle in it as much as they pleased.

"We are simply swimming close to shore in quiet water," Taggart said, "but when the break comes, watch out."

List of Candidates.

Following is a list of presidential possibilities in the order in which they have been placed in nomination at the Democratic National Convention in New York, with the names of those who made the nominating speeches:

Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, by Forney Johnston of Alabama.
Joe T. Robinson of Arkansas, by former Governor Charles H. Brough of Arkansas.

William G. McAdoo of California, by former United States Senator Jas. D. Phelan of California.

Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, by Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York.

Willard Saulsbury of Delaware, by Senator Bayard of Delaware.

David F. Houston of Missouri, by Lewis G. Stevenson of Illinois.

Senator Samuel L. Ralston of Indiana, by Frederick Van Nuys of Indiana.

Governor Jonathan M. Davis of Kansas, by William Ayres of Kansas.

Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, by Howard Bruce of Maryland.
Senator W. N. Ferris of Michigan, by A. M. Cummins of Michigan.

KLAN DOMINATES THE CONVENTION

Main Question Now of Denouncing Order By Name—Unable to Draft Klan Plank.

MCADOO MAY BEAT VOTE

Plan His Nomination Before Klan Fight Opens on Floor—May Repeat Parker Coup.

By The United Press.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 27.—The Ku Klux Klan as a political issue completely dominated the Democratic national convention as the delegates gathered for the fourth session of the meeting today.

While the sub committee of the resolutions committee gathered near the garden for another attempt to draft planks on the Klan and the League of Nations, that might be accepted by the convention, it was evident that everything had turned to whether or not the Klan would be denounced by name.

The forces of McAdoo were endeavoring to bring about a situation similar to that developed by Alton B. Parker in 1904, when Parker was nominated. They hope to continue the fight within the resolutions committee to force a ballot in the convention on the nominees before the platform is adopted.

McAdoo has the admitted earliest delegate strength. With a good showing through several ballots, it is believed that he can then force the platform framers to eliminate the Klan reference. Or it is further calculated that if he is able to muster the two-thirds majority and be nominated before the platform is presented, he could demand that reference to the Klan be eliminated, as Parker demanded that a gold plank be written.

Leach Coming Home.

After ten months study of electrical engineering under the General Electric Company of Schenectady, N. Y., Osler Leach, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leach, is on his way home. He hopes to look in on the Democratic National Convention in New York, and will also spend some time in Washington. The last three weeks of his work were spent in special work under the Western Electric of Newark, N. J.

Love Letter Lands Romeo in Bastile, Face Badly Beaten

A man is badly beaten up in the county jail as the result of a love letter he wrote to another man's wife. The letter was placed on the bed while she was sleeping at her home and contained many affectionate lines and endearing terms.

The letter was shown to the husband of the woman who straightaway began a search for the young Romeo. Finding him in town, the fight followed and Romeo appeared to have been a better letter-writer than a pugilist. He was placed in jail, and the husband was instructed by Judge Yantis of the Corporation Court to repeat the dose in case the affair happens again.

CORPORATION COURT BUSY

Family Troubles and Lost Dog on Program.

Corporation Court had a busy session Thursday ironing out family difficulties, members of the colored population of Sweetwater especially seeming to be on the rampage.

A negro girl was brought before Judge Yantis after Chief of Police Johnson had interrupted a stormy debate between several darkies on the street. The negress stated that she had come to Sweetwater from Abilene to see her mother and while here accidentally met her estranged husband. The husband tearfully pleaded for his lost love to return to him, the woman's brother interfered and a near fight resulted. The negress was sent back to Abilene.

A negro named Jackson also appeared in Corporation Court Thursday, being brought in by Chief Johnson and a fighting-mad negro woman who declared Jackson had stolen her dog. Jackson said he found the dog on the streets and the difficulty was settled by the dog being returned to its owner.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 27.—The ax wielded by Mrs. Henry Landes, acting mayor of Seattle, on the police department, was today expected to fall on 100 patrolmen.

Mrs. Landes, the chief executive while Mayor Brown is in New York for the Democratic national convention, removed chief of police Sewyns yesterday, and threatened to remove many patrolmen.

"Your force has not shown the proper zeal in suppressing the liquor traffic," she wrote the chief. The department was today in charge of Captain Mason, acting chief.

BALLINGER YOUTH INJURED

Unable to Tell Details of Serious Motor Wreck.

Special to The Reporter.

BALLINGER, Texas, June 27.—Found unconscious on the Ballinger-San Angelo road near Rowena early Thursday morning, Robert Justice, 19 year old son of J. D. Justice, is in a serious condition and has been able to tell but little of the accident in which his Ford coupe was "hooked" by a car passing on the left, and thrown headfirst in the ditch.

Young Justice told his father that he crawled from his car and attempted to flag another automobile that was approaching. He said that he believed the second car struck him or ran over him, for from that point he has no memory of what happened. The man who picked him up said he met two Fords about half a mile from where he found Justice. Both cars were apparently speeding away from the scene of the accident.

ARREST TRIO FOR DEPOT ROBBERY

"Woman Bandit" in Men's Clothes Took Part in Santa Fe Robbery Here December 31.

LETTER LEADS TO DISCOVERY

Man and Wife Quarrelled After Job—Ill in San Angelo, Received Letter From Tim.

With the arrest of a man and a woman in San Angelo and another man in Brownwood local authorities believe that they have finally cleared up the hold-up and robbery of the Santa Fe depot here the night of Dec. 31, 1923, when night ticket agent D. D. Dixon was robbed of more than $600 in cash.

Those arrested in San Angelo were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Toland, while the man arrested in Brownwood gave the name of George Ayres.

Mrs. Toland became Sweetwater's first "woman bandit," when she took part in the robbery. Dressed in men's clothes, she carried out her part of the hold up successfully, and there was no suspicion here that a woman had taken part in one of the most daring robberies in the city's history.

Sheriff Yarbrough returned from San Angelo late Thursday night where he was present when Mrs. Toland was arrested. Following a severe questioning, she confessed the whole story to him, and the arrest of Dick Toland at San Angelo followed. A wire to W. L. Futch, special agent of the Santa Fe at Brownwood resulted in the placing of Ayres under arrest there.

The three will be brought to Sweetwater shortly where they will be tried in District Court, possibly at the October term. Robbery with firearms, a capital offense, is the charge that can be placed against the trio. The capture is the result of six months hard chase. Many different clues were followed up and at several different times it seemed as if success was about to reward efforts of local authorities and Santa Fe special agents, only to have the case elude them again.

But Mr. and Mrs. Toland, it is reported, had a disagreement and separated. She was taken ill while staying in San Angelo. Toland wrote her a letter which fell into the hands of people with whom she was staying. This letter was turned over to the San Angelo authorities, and Willis Barbee, chief of police there, notified Santa Fe special agent who in turn notified Jack Yarbrough, Nolan County Sheriff. With this slight clue in his possession, Jack Yarbrough interviewed Mrs. Toland Thursday in San Angelo and from information thus obtained, the arrest followed.

West Texas—Tonight and Saturday generally fair and continued warm.

ALBRIGHT REPLY

Blanton Opponent Raises Rumpus Over Proposed Injunction—For Finish Fight.

In reply to a letter from Congressman Blanton notifying county chairmen that he will on July 2 apply for an injunction to keep the name of Ernest G. Albright off the ticket as a candidate for congress against him, and a letter Albright declared was from Blanton asking his resignation from the race, Albright wired Blanton that he would "stay in the race until the last vote is counted."

An error made by Albright in filing his candidacy has kept his name off the ticket in twelve of the 19 counties in the district.

In his telegraphed reply to Senator Blanton, Albright said in part: "In February you stated that the people were so strongly behind you that I didn't have a ghost of a chance. What change has come about that you are now so uneasy over your seat in Congress?"

"Would you deny the sovereign voters their God-given right to choose their Congressman on account of a technical error? I shall remain in the race until the last vote is counted. I dare you join me in requesting the different counties to place my name on the ballot."

SIX SUCCESSFUL MONTHS

Confidence in the community has been the largest single factor in the success of the Sweetwater Luncheon Club for the past six months. Its members have had that confidence, and have worked hard for the thing in which they thoroughly believed.

There are perhaps some who say that lunch is the chief activity of all luncheon clubs; just how far wrong they are may be seen by an inspection of what the local club has done and what it hopes to do.

The trade trip taken last spring did more to put Sweetwater on the map outside of its territory, and to make it solid inside, than anything the citizens of the town had conceived for years. Starting before the other cities of West Texas and the Panhandle began their trips, the Sweetwater delegation established a record trip that was never equalled, running the string of cars in the parade up to 100 before the three-day journey ended.

Concerted effort is necessary if we get anywhere. The mere fact that the Luncheon Club brings together over 75 of the city's business men twice a month for a frank discussion of the best means for the betterment of Sweetwater is alone sufficiently worthy cause for its existence.

A real interest in the work of the club by the members is reported. Realizing that Sweetwater is making great strides, her business men, banded together, are boosting and driving hard for her further success. The spark of divinity in man makes him strive for betterment, and when several small tugs of war are all brought together on one side of the main rope.

the battle is as good as won. An active and intelligent interest on the part of the business men in what the city and county authorities are doing is encouraging and a stimulant to progress. EDITOR OR NEWSBOY?

Oklahoma's Youngest Scribe Marketing Expert.

AMARILLO, Texas, June 27.—J. Paul Gleason, Oklahoma's youngest editor, admits that he is sometimes mistaken for a newsboy when he carries papers under his arm, but for two years he has successfully managed the Southwest Wheat Grower, said to be the largest wheat market publication in the country.

Gleason is just 21. When the big wheat pools were organized and the state was being scoured for an editor of the co-operative paper, he offered his services and was turned down because he was too young. Then he offered to run it without pay for three months to prove that he could hold down the post. He has been on the job for two years now, and is regarded as an authority on co-operative marketing.

LEAVE TELL TALE STAIN

ORANGE, Texas, June 27.—Cafe waiters, soda jerkers, and soft drink stand proprietors are suffering from an increasing peeve, because the flappers of Orange leave red stains on glasses and napkins.

Employees of the leading cafes and drug stores say the rogue and lip stick stains are growing larger and redder every day, and have become a serious problem for dish washers and laundries.

One soda juggler declared he found stain on a glass used by a he-flapper, too. "That's just a little too much," he said, "but it's true."

AMUSEMENTS

Wesley Barry, the genial-faced young screen star, will be with us again in film form, according to the announcement of the R and R Palace Theater. In his latest starring vehicle "The Country Kid" a Warner Brothers classic of the screen, he appears in a distinctly new role, which again goes to prove his versatility and adaptation to various conditions. "The Country Kid" plays for two days, beginning today.

Pepsinated Calomel Is Better than the Old-Time Sickening Kind

It is gentle, imported English Calomel, combined with Pepsin and other helpful ingredients. It is mild but certain, causing no harshness or unpleasantness and will absolutely relieve indigestion, biliousness, bad colds, constipation and sick headaches. And best of all it does it at once—quickly and pleasantly. Take one small tablet at bed-time and you will get up hungry and feeling fine. Recommended by Bowen's Drug Store.

In this picture, he plays the part of Ben Applegate, a young boy, left alone in the world, with two younger brothers to support and take care of. It is a long grim fight that Ben puts up to keep intact the old home and impoverished farm that shelters his orphan brothers, Joe and Andy. Ben is at once mother, father and brother to the younger kids, and is doing his heroic best.

The scenes are laid among the hills and rustic countryside and take in a real old-fashioned farm with its old farm houses, barns, sheds and rolling pasture fields.

They are the kind of scenes that make old memories rise again and bring back the childhood days of every boy and girl that sees them. It will be "back to the farm" for a blessed hour.

At the Queen.
Frontiersmen, Indians, soldiers, trappers, men and women settlers, all the necessary characters called for by Emerson Hough's period story of 1849 will be seen in the tenth episode of Pathe serial "The Way of a Man," produced by C. W. Patton and directed by George B. Seitz. These characters are incidental to one of the most thrilling to reach the screen.

"The Way of a Man" introduces under the Pathe banner Allene Ray and Harold Miller, who promise to silently bring back the good old days at the R and R Queen Theater, beginning Friday, when the first episode will be shown.

Richard Wallace returned Thursday from a ten days' visit with relatives in Fort Worth, Bowie, and Bonham.

A Message from Walter P. Chrysler—

When I say the good Maxwell is the best four-cylinder car at anything like its price in America today, I am thinking of specific accomplishments of the last year.

For instance, vibration subdued to the vanishing point; revolutionary riding and driving results; main bearings rarely if ever replaced; 18,000 miles from a set of tires, and so on.

Maxwell of today is more than the good Maxwell—it has been developed to a plane of superiority far above and beyond the dead level of previous four-cylinder possibilities.

STUDIES CALIFORNIA DISEASE

State Vet Says Rifle Chief Hoof and Mouth Enemy.

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 27.—Dr. Leon Cloud, state veterinarian, has just returned from California where he put in a month of intensive study, of the foot and mouth disease which has been raging there. Danger of spread of the disease to Texas caused the commission to send Dr. Cloud to get first hand information as to methods of combatting the malady. The chief weapon against the disease is a 30-30 rifle, Dr. Cloud said. The only safe thing is to get the infected animal under ground as quickly as possible to prevent spread of the disease.

It is believed birds are partially responsible for its spread in California.

A. S. Kendrick has moved his insurance office from the rear of the First National Bank Building to one of the new buildings west of the Davis drug Co.

Texas Lady Says Her Family Has Been Taking Theford's Black-Draught, When Needed, for Many Years.

Alto, Texas.—"We inherited the use of Black-Draught in our family," says Mrs. Mary Shuptrine, who lives near here on R. F. D. 2. "My grandmother was an old woman when she died about ten years ago, and she had been using it literally ever since I can remember. She gave it to her children and grandchildren for biliousness and stomach complaints, so when I went to housekeeping we just naturally used it, too."

"I give it to my children for a purgative whenever they need one, and we are never without it. Made into tea, it surely is fine. It's the best home remedy for headache and constipation I know of."

During over 80 years of its continued popularity, Black-Draught has become the standard liver medicine in many thousands of homes, where it has been found of great benefit in the treatment of constipation, biliousness, indigestion and other common liver, stomach and bowel complaints. Ten million packages of Black-Draught are now sold a year, as more and more people are learning of the value of this well-known remedy.

Insist on Theford's, the only genuine Black-Draught powdered liver medicine. At all dealers'. NC-154
