FAIR COMES TO SUCCESSFUL END

Crowds Jam Grounds on Sweetwater Day, Acclaim Nolan County Fair Best in History.

PRIZES ARE AWARDED

Winners in Culinary, Art and Canning Departments Named After Displays Are Judged.

Acclaimed by thousands of West Texans as the best fair ever held in Nolan County, and given an endorsement by out of town visitors that places it on a par with any exposition held recently in this section, the First Annual Nolan County Fair came to a successful close Saturday night after more than 7,000 persons had visited the grounds during Sweetwater Day.

Wonderful exhibits, clean entertainment, and a minimum of unpleasant occurrences kept the fair throngs in the best of spirits during the three days of the Nolan County exposition. Approximately 5,000 persons visited the grounds on Thursday, the opening day, 4,000 on Friday and 7,000 on the closing day.

Final awards were made in the various divisions of the exhibits Saturday. The prize winners in the woman's culinary department, the art department, and the canning division follow:

CARNIVAL FREAKS

Presbyterian Church is Decorated With Picture Poster.

In spite of the Fair and Carnival attractions, a number of boys did not forget that Friday night was Halloween and there were several items misplaced when morning came. A large poster advertising a current film at the R and R Palace was entered with decorative effect around the pillars of the Presbyterian Church. Express trucks were found in very much unaccustomed haunts. Perhaps the heaviest damage was reported by Otto Carter. A new galvanized iron tank, too large to go into his shop, made to special order and awaiting delivery, was rolled into disrepair.

County officials were busy the latter part of the week distributing ballots to the election judges of the various voting precincts in the county. The ballots were late this year owing to the delay in the certification of nominees from the Secretary of State, due to the Ferguson injunction proceedings.

DAVIS WARNS OF GOP DANGER

Democratic Nominee in Powerful Speech in New York City, Tells of Split in G. O. P. Ranks.

MUST DEFEAT COOLIDGE

Failure of Congress and President to Work Together Means Stagnation or Chaos.

By The United Press.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 1.—In one of the most powerful speeches of his campaign, John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for president, tonight flayed the Republican administration for corruption in Washington and prophesied national danger in the event of the re-election of President Coolidge.

This danger exists in the split in the Republican ranks, Davis said, and the failure of Coolidge and Congress to work together.

"The contending forces that have split the party will not be reconciled merely by a Republican victory," Davis said. "Their struggle will be but begun on a new battle ground and renewed more fiercely than ever before. Stagnation or chaos or an alteration of the two will reign in Washington," he declared.

Mrs. Ben L. Cox and children and Mrs. Earl Hoppe of Abilene came over to spend the week-end as guests of their parents, Judge and Mrs. H. C. Hord.

Mrs. J. H. Snell has returned from a Temple Sanitarium very much improved in health.

LET OIL LEASES

Test Wells to be Drilled Following Leasing of 12,000 Acres on Ranches.

Possibility that one or more test wells for oil or gas will be drilled in Nolan County in the near future is seen in the leasing of 12,000 acres of land south of Sweetwater by Pittsburgh interests recently.

The leases were blocked out on portions of the Walter Boothe ranch, the J. H. and E. W. Withers ranch and also upon that of William Wight, some eight or ten miles south of the city.

The leases were taken by K. W. Ingram of the American Natural Gas Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa., with the provision that drilling be started within 90 days from date of the leases. It is understood that a test well will be drilled somewhere on the acreage as soon as machinery can be assembled for that purpose.

Major John B. Hawley, Fort Worth consulting engineer, inspected the Sweetwater filtration plant the end of the week and expressed satisfaction with the proceedings. SCOUTS BEAT ROSCOE

The Sweetwater Boy Scouts beat the Roscoe Rinky Dinks 12-0 in a hard fought football game on the gridiron at Swatter Park before a good sized crowd of fair visitors Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The game was close from start to finish and was anybody's game up to the last quarter when Roscoe weakened and the Scouts were able to put across their two counts. Sweetwater lost to Blackwell in basket ball.

PLAGUE BREAKS IN LOS ANGELES

Most Dreaded of Major Plagues—Claims 13 Mexican Victims—Disease Spreads From Funeral.

BELIEVED UNDER CONTROL

Rigid Quarantine Effected by Authorities—Bodies of Victims Are Cremated, Those Ill Isolated

By The United Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 1.—A pneumonic plague has developed in this city. Thirteen Mexicans have fallen victim to the scourge during the past ten days while at least five others are expected to die.

Diagnosis of the swift striking disease which developed among 17 mourners who attended the funeral of October 19 of Mrs. Luciana Samarano was revealed today to the United Press by Dr. Elmer R. Pascoe, acting City Health Officer.

"We have definitely established that the ailment is Pneumonic Plague, a very terrible disease," Dr. Pascoe said. "The plague is a form of double pneumonia. Both lungs become infected and the temperature goes to a high mark. Death follows swiftly, usually within four days after the disease appears.

"The mortality is very high," Dr. Pascoe continued. "In the case of the 17 Mexicans who have contracted it, we feel that the death total will be 100 per cent. Armed guards have been placed around the district where the victims reside. Those now ill are in the isolation ward at the general hospital.

"The Pneumonic Plague is the same disease which struck London in the 15th century. We do not know how it originated and as far as we can determine, Mrs. Samarano was the first victim. I think, of course, that the others contracted it from her presumably while attending the funeral services over the corpse."

Officials believed tonight that the disease was under control. Rigid quarantines have been established. The bodies of the 13 victims have been cremated.

Pneumonic plague is considered the most dangerous of the three major plagues. It grips the lungs, strangulation resulting. The malady is similar to the Spanish influenza that swept the country during the world war.

AYERS BOND SET

Judge Places $5,000 Bond on George Ayers, Held in Robbery.

A bond of $5,000 was set by district Judge Leslie for George Ayers, charged with Dick Toland of robbing the Santa Fe station here last winter. Ayers was tried here in this term of court and the trial resulted in a hung jury. He has not yet made bond.

No appeal was taken in the Toland case, and Dick Toland is remaining in the county jail awaiting transfer to the Huntsville prison to serve a 7 year's sentence on the robbery charge.

Glenn Del Trammell of Waco is spending the week-end visiting Mary Ford and other friends.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Sweetwater Reporter, speaking for Nolan County and this section of West Texas generally, is glad to extend congratulations to the individuals, communities, and organizations that made the First Annual Nolan County Fair the success that it has been.

Beginning with little in fair equipment and attractions that are sometimes considered necessary for the success of a fall celebration, the executive committee has worked hard with an appreciative and responsive people, and the results of their labors have been indeed gratifying. Nolan County had a successful fair in 1924 and this will be substantiated by the thousands who visited it.

Perhaps the greatest achievement of the present fair will be the boost it is to give future celebrations of its kind. With the start we now have, we will be able to build and add to our initial success until Sweetwater, the logical location for the greatest fair in West Texas, will some day be host to the entire Southwest during the fair, as it was this year host to Nolan and surrounding counties.

We have everything here to make the greatest fair in the west possible. Nolan County has productive fields to fill our exhibit halls, stock and poultry that will rank with any in the west, citizens of towns and residents on farms working together for the best interest of the entire county, the location by rail, highway, and air that will bring thousands here, and a spirit of welcome and hospitality that always makes visitors enjoy themselves in Sweetwater.

Here, then, is to the Nolan County

A SAN ANTONIO CONNECTION

According to reports in Texas Chamber of Commerce circles the Santa Fe railroad is considering tapping its main line between Sweetwater and Brownwood with a line to San Antonio, to give San Antonio a direct route into the heart of West Texas, and to furnish this territory with an outlet into the Southern part of the State.

San Antonio business men and Chamber of Commerce officials are behind the move, it is understood. The probable connecting point with the Santa Fe is given as Coleman.

Business interests in San Antonio appreciate the value that this arrangement would be to them. In opening up a direct trade route from West Texas to the largest city in the state, it would also be a welcome addition to our commercial relations.

Sweetwater's position as a rail center is of course one of the primary considerations in this proposal. This city adequately serves a vast and productive land. Reciprocity in trade between Sweetwater and San Antonio will add more business and traffic to this thriving community.

This entire section of West Texas would be greatly benefitted by connection with the very thriving wholesale and jobbing interests of San Antonio.

The Santa Fe does not now get any closer to San Antonio than Temple and could use the new connection most profitably as could San Antonio itself.

Of course the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission would be required as well as numerous other difficulties necessarily overcome before such a line could be consummated. But with so profitable an arrangement in prospect, it is a project that can well be taken under most serious consideration by all directly and indirectly concerned.

J. B. Sowash Replaces Cicero Holder at Palace.

Cicero Holder, who made many friends while organist at the R & R Palace Theater here, has been transferred to Laredo. Jay B. Sowash has taken Mr. Holder's place at the Palace.

Mr. Sowash is a very experienced musician, having come here from Dallas where he had a musical comedy act with the Wortham Shows at the State Fair. Prior to that he was organist at the Strang Theater, Creston, Iowa, and also at Albia, Iowa. He served three years with the 12th Cavalry Band in the U. S. Army. He played in a band at the age of 8 and now plays all different instruments used in orchestra and band including the novelty instruments such as xylophones, song bells, etc.

Playing the pictures requires a knack of its own, Mr. Sowash says, and many highly trained musicians are unable to fit the music to the various scenes as they appear on the screen. A wonderful organ for a town the size of Sweetwater is Mr. Sowash's comment on the organ at the Palace.

The things one stands for are called convictions, the things one fails for are called flappers.

WICHITA, Kas., Nov. 1.—The highway is winning its battle with the railroad, and is an easy victor in the competition for short haul traffic.

Receipts at the union station here show a big decrease since 1920, much of it coming within the past year with the extension of the good roads system in this part of Kansas.

In September, 1920, union station receipts here totaled $225,000. In September, 1923, the total had dropped to $180,000, and September of this year only ran $140,000.

SHIP POULTRY

West Texas C of C. Issues Statement From Eastern Market on Quarantine Regulations.

The following statement concerning poultry shipments from West Texas to Eastern markets, and the quarantine regulations brought on by the hoof and mouth disease outbreak in this state, has been issued from the general offices of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Stamford, Texas:

Since New York and Pennsylvania are two of the principal cities to which poultry from West Texas is shipped, and since the various states quarantined against Texas commodities because of the hoof and mouth disease has caused general misapprehension among a number of shippers in the promulgation of rules by various states, we desire to state that so far as New York and Pennsylvania are concerned the following will apply:

New York: Dressed poultry from Texas may be shipped into or through New York State if accompanied by certificates issued by Federal or Live Stock Sanitary Commission inspector of Texas certifying poultry originated outside areas to be packed accordance amendment number one.

Pennsylvania: Dressed poultry originated in Texas permitted into or through Pennsylvania if fowls are slaughtered under inspection of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry and have passed such inspection and marked accordingly.

It will be observed that the regulations of Pennsylvania are much more drastic than those of New York; and as all practical service for this class of traffic require movement through Pennsylvania it will be necessary for us to comply with the Pennsylvania regulations in order to move through that state.

Mr. J. E. Boog Scot, Texas Livestock Sanitary Commissioner, and Mr. J. S. Hershey of the Gulf Colorado & Santa Fe railway, are both actively interested in this matter.

ATTACKS BROOKS

J. Frank Norris Asks Baylor President to Answer Questions in Evolution Row.

HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 1.—Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University, Waco, has become the center of a state-wide attack because of his alleged approval of the theory of evolution.

The Rev. J. Frank Norris, Fort Worth antievolutionist leader, now conducting a series of religious meetings here, has demanded that Dr. Brooks answer to eight questions on the theory.

The evolution controversy, which began three years ago, burst into new flames eighteen months ago when C. S. Fothergil, history instructor at the university, expressed a belief in evolution. He resigned early this week, under pressure, it is said.

The Rev. Dale Crowley, former student at Baylor, now a pastor at Sugarland, was expelled from the school after making charges against Fothergil without being given a hearing by the faculty, it is charged by the Rev. Norris.

The Reverend Crowley is at the conference that opened at Fort Worth Thursday, and is expected to defend himself on the conference floor.

ANNUAL BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Members of Wednesday Bridge Club
Entertain Husbands.

Following their usual custom, the members of the Wednesday Bridge Club invited their husbands to share an evening of rare pleasure with them Tuesday, at their annual Halloween reception and bridge luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mays.

A color scheme of orange and black was carried out in the decoration of the reception rooms where the seven tables were placed for the games. Jack O' Lanterns were placed on both sides of the door with a big black owl between them, and here the guests were welcomed. A number of yellow and orange autumn blooms were combined affectively with the chosen color scheme.

When the games were closed it was found that Mrs. Oscar Pate had won the high score prize for the ladies and Recently ground was broken for the foundation of a new $350,000 church building, the gift to Dr. Settle and his flock of grateful horse players. The new church is to be known as "the horsemen's church." The minister has already been presented with a $12,000 residence from funds raised at the tracks by horsemen.

Tetraethyl Lead and Gasoline Gas Mixture Brings Death and Insanity to Men Exposed.

By The United Press.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 1.—Sale of ethyl gasoline which caused five deaths in the Bayway plant of the Standard Oil Company has been stopped by the Gulf Refining Co., until it is demonstrated beyond a doubt that it is safe.

By The United Press.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Although the Standard Oil Company denies that tetraethyl lead when mixed with gasoline is dangerous, other states were today expecting to follow the lead of New York and New Jersey in prohibiting the sale of gasoline mixed with tetraethyl lead, the manufacture of which caused the death of five men and partial insanity of 32 others.

The Board of Health of New York barred the sale of gasoline treated with the lead as a public menace and similar action was taken in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The Standard Oil Company admitted the danger of the gas and that it collected a previous toll of death and insanity before 49 men were exposed to it at the Bayway, N. J., plant, which resulted in five deaths. The plant remained closed as the investigation of the tragedy continued today.

CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN

Many Parties Given in Sweetwater Friday Night.

The annual celebration of Halloween among the younger society set of Sweetwater was conducted with all the gusto and fun usually found in the annual visitation of spooks and ghosts, Friday evening in a number of homes.

Doris Homer Entertains First.
Doris Homer ushered in the Halloween season Thursday evening with a most enjoyable party for ten couples of her friends. Halloween emblems and other colors of the season were used in pleasing decorations for the parlor and living room. The guests were in fancy costumes of various kind and wore masks which were removed about 9 o'clock.

A musical program for dancing was given on the Victrola. The chief source of the evening's fun came from visits to the "Witches' Cave," formed in the cellar, where Mrs. Homer masqueraded as a witch and gave out fortunes. Chocolate and cake were served at the close of the festivities.

Zelma Shook Hostess.
Miss Zelma Shook was hostess at a jolly Halloween party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Phillips on E. N. 3rd street. Combining Halloween colors of black and orange and the emblems of the season were beautifully tinted autumn leaves and stalks of different kinds of grain, all woven into a beautiful color scheme as unique as it was clever. Jack O' lanterns were also included in the decorations, and light shades. Games and dancing formed the evening's diversions, with a trip to the fair grounds after refreshments were served.

Assisting Miss Shook were Vaudine Wilson, and Zelma Farris, wearing costumes of orange.

Halloween Celebrated.
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Simmons, assisted their daughter, Mary Emma, in giving pleasure to about thirty-five of her boy and girl friends with a Halloween party Friday evening that was filled with thrills from the first to the last minute. The decorations of the home furnished the proper setting for the fun program which began after all the guests had arrived and had been securely blindfolded and were taken on a ride to "Spookland." They were driven over some of the roughest streets in the city and taken back to the Simmon's home after it seemed to them they had driven across "no man's land." They were made to walk over old bed springs and down the steps to the basement and back again and by then they had no more idea than a spook where they were. They were allowed to remove their blindfolds at this juncture and enjoy the games, ducking in tubs of water for apples, biting them suspended from a string and a number of "sells" chief among them being riding the "whip."

Miss Morrow Entertains Friends.
Miss Margaret Morrow was hostess at a merry Halloween party Friday evening to the junior circle of the social set. The usual Halloween decorations were used in a color scheme in keeping with the occasion. The center of most attraction was the "witches' Den," in a dark room, with dim spooky lights, where "all the fiends of torment" came back to scare the life out of the assembled guests, who were shivering from the noise of popping guns and flashes of red lights. A number of guests were busy handing out fortunes, which were numbered for the prizes which were won by Bernice Sheridan, Thelma Lee Carter, Jimmie Chenshaw, and Mary Jane Mitchell. Members of the house party were: Thelma Gordon, Merle Patterson, Thelma Carter, Tresa Johnson and Fanny Levy.

Faculty and Seniors Entertained.
Miss Allolene McQueen assisted by her mother and aunt, Mrs. B. L. McDonald, Mrs. W. H. Whaley and Mrs. B. H. McLain, entertained eighty high school seniors and members of the high school faculty, including ten special guests from last year's junior and senior classes and three out of town guests, Friday evening with a very elaborate Halloween party.

The reception rooms were artistic pictures with their decorations of all kinds of Halloween emblems on curtains and walls and a clever use of orange and black colors. A "witches' Den" was presided over by a "Queen of Witches," known in the school room as Miss Lelia Poe. She dealt out fortunes like a veritable Gypsy fortune teller of the old school. Her huge pot was kept "a boiling" by a big red fire underneath which added to the ghostly light in the den.

The guests came in either spook or fancy costumes, but all were masked and many guesses were made as to their identity. Unique refreshments booths were presided over by Tresa and Ena McQueen and Vernice Hawthorne, where red lemonade was served the thirsty ones, and in another Glenn Dell Trammell and Mary Ford served delicious ginger bread and buttermilk. Halloween lollipops were given as guest favors. Many beautiful American beauty roses and chrysanthemums were used in the living room and dining room, where a witch pot centered the table, under the care of a miniature witch and brownie.

Out of town guests were: Maurine Bower and Glenn Dell Trammell of Abilene and Martha Acker of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Scudday Entertains.
One of the most enjoyable Halloween parties of Friday evening was the one with which Mrs. Roy Scudday entertained about seventeen girls, friends of her sister, Miss Georgia Sheppard, and members of the juvenile social set.

They wore ghostly costumes and were masked. The rooms were beautiful in their Halloween adornment. After their masks were removed they made candy and played games. Refreshments were served in the dining room where a big Jack O' Lantern centered the table which was laid with a Halloween cover. From the big pumpkin ribbons led to each place and were fastened to lovely favors for each guest. Ice cream was served in Halloween cups with dainty cakes.

J. C. Patterson, formerly in charge of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., interests in this section, spent the latter part of the week in Sweetwater. Mr. Patterson is now in Fort Worth in a more responsible position with this company.

Mrs. Gus Bethney is convalescing nicely, after being brought home from the local sanitarium, where she was recently operated on for appendicitis.

The ladies of the First Baptist Church will meet Monday morning for an all-day "quilting party" at the church. At 3 o'clock they will be called into a business session, following which they will continue quilting.

Mrs. A. I. Hyde of Houston left Saturday on her return to her home at Houston, after spending a month here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard.

Lighting the Bath Room

Have you ever watched your father shave? Does he try to keep shadows away by turning his face this way and that? Or can he shave comfortably and easily with a smile on his face like the man in the second picture? Shaving is really the best test of lighting in bathrooms. A man shaves each side of his face and under his chin, and if he is to see well, he needs a light on each side down low enough to light beneath the chin.

Lighting the mirror in the bathroom is exactly the same problem as lighting the mirror in the bedroom, and two bracket fixtures are needed for good lighting—one at either side of the mirror at eye level or a little above. The fixtures should point upward and should have long dense milk-white shades open at the top to conceal the 50-watt "bulbs" inside.

If the bathroom is large, you may have a fixture in the center of the ceiling just like the fixture used in the kitchen. If this is properly put in and equipped with a bulb of 75-watts or more, it will furnish good general lighting all over the room on occasions when the mirror is not being used.

When sister goes to curl her hair in front of the mirror, does she find it necessary to take the bulb out of the light to connect her electric iron?

If she does, she probably does not curl her hair in the evening, because many bathrooms are lighted by only one fixture. And if your bathroom has two fixtures, and sister uses one for a curling iron, then she must twist and turn her head because she cannot see well when only one is used for lighting.

That curling iron of sister's is just one of the handy little electric appliances which should be provided with an outlet of their own—a convenience outlet 36 inches or more above the floor, so that good lighting is always ready when it is most needed.

LIGHTING THE SUN ROOM

In the sun room we usually want a ceiling fixture to give us general lighting and to flood the whole room with warm, soft light and an atmosphere of cheerfulness; we also need lighting from portable lamps for reading or sewing, or as decorative spots of light and color around the room. Do you remember the lesson which told how to light the living room? It was much the same as this, for the sun room or sun porch is really another living room in most homes.

In the sun room, however, the furniture and decorations usually require lighting fixtures which will look well with wicker and cretonne and which will make the sun room feel like a sun room even after dark.

Runaways Are Found at Play After Dangerous Journey

After leaving home and making their way across railroad tracks, the business part of the city and heading toward Roscoe, the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Compton of Orange street are safe at home Friday, feeling none the worse for their thrilling adventure.

The little tots, 2 and 4 years old respectively, left their home late in the afternoon, and hand in hand they found their way across the dangerous tracks, on through town and would probably have been Roscoe-bound if another child on the west side had not seen them and asked them to stop and play.

Here they were found several hours later, after the whole neighborhood of Orange, Bowie and Neuces streets had been aroused, and the officers notified.

AMUSEMENTS

At The Palace.
 Betty Compson is supported by a unique cast in "The Female," her new Paramount starring picture directed by Sam Wood. The story is an adaptation of Cynthia Stockley's "Dalla, the Lion Cub." All of the scenes are laid in South Africa.

There are other featured players who get no credit in the advertising, but they don't care. They are an assortment of lions, fourteen in number, ranging in size from tiny cubs to grown ups. All the zoos in Southern California were scoured by Director
 Wood and his assistants to find African lions of just the right size and temperament.

"The Female," which will be shown Monday at the Palace Theater is a story of a beautiful young Boer girl who knows no life outside the African veldt. She meets and falls in love with a handsome young Englishman far above her station in life. Men before always flocked to her, but this one is different. He is strangely cold, and ignores her, and his people, the "Englishers," insult Dalla (Miss Compson). The rest of the picture is a gripping and unusually entertaining story of the carrying out of this girl's plans for revenge—against all the ultra-smart of the English colony in general.

At The Lyric.
 The vivid career of El Vivillo, most romantic of all Spanish bandits, is practically revived by Antonio Moreno
 in his role in George Melford's "Tiger Love" in which he is featured with Estelle Taylor.

"Vivillo," recalls the Paramount luminary, "was most active when I lived in Madrid. One of his greatest exploits was the abduction of the wife of a magistrate who ordered his execution. The woman was Vivillo's former sweetheart and it was his love for her that caused him to commit the murder for which he was outlawed.

Instead of harming the wife, Vivillo sent her home with a heavy guard and much eclat. This, in view of the fact that he had sworn vengeance on her former husband made Vivillo a most popular figure among the masses of Spain.

As the "Wildcat" bandit extraordinary in "Tiger Love," Moreno has a similar situation. His men seize the coach of Marcheta, a daughter of the aristocracy, whom the Wildcat hates as a class. After disciplining Marche-ta, played by Miss Taylor, in an effort to tame her, the Wildcat sends her to her father unmolested.

"Every notable bandit of Spain was the descendant from the nobility or a member of some fine family," says Moreno. "This breeding evinced itself in instances such as these and in a sense relieved them from being categorized as simply blood-thirsty looting villains."

"Tiger Love" comes to the Lyric Monday and Tuesday.
