THREE CASES OF TYPHOID IN CITY

Latest Case of Fever Develops in County Jail—Health Officers May Remove Prisoner.

CONSIDER MILK ORDINANCE
City Commission, Mayor and Health Officers Favor Law Requiring Grading of Dairies.

The number of typhoid fever cases in Sweetwater and community has advanced to three, according to local physicians, two in town, and one just outside the city limits.

The latest case has developed in the County Jail, but great care has been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. A prisoner named Samples is ill from the disease at the jail, and efforts are being made to locate his relatives. Dr. Leach, county health officer, stated that the patient would be removed from the jail as quickly as possible.

None of the three cases is likely to become serious, it is stated, the gravest danger at present being the spread of the disease.

The Mayor, City Commission and health officers are considering the adoption of the milk ordinance discussed at a Commission meeting some time ago, and the possibilities are that the ordinance will be adopted. The ordinance is put out and approved by the State Health Department, and has met with satisfaction in many cities where used. If the law is adopted, it will call for the testing of milk from all dairies and other places where milk is sold, and the milk is graded according to the results of the tests.

A probable grade of from grade A to grade D will be used, it is expected. The grades A and B will be the milk found to be in good condition, free from germs and other impurities, while the grade D milk will be the lowest grade and naturally will not be desired by milk purchasers. The grade of the milk will be printed or stamped on the bottle or lid, and customers will have their choice of pure or impure milk.

According to city officials, it is probable that this ordinance will be in effect by the first of the year.

WORKING ROADS

Detours Make Route Rough While County and Contractors Do Best To Care For Traffic.

Work is progressing steadily along the Bankhead Highway between Sweetwater and Roscoe and on to the Mitchell County line. Detours have been provided around the area where work is going on, and although the roads are rough, these detours are necessary in order that construction work for better roads can be carried on.

"The public's attention is called to the detour between Sweetwater and Roscoe," Judge A. S. Mauzey stated Thursday, "so that they may know that the county and contractors are doing the best that can be done to build roads and at the same time take care of the traffic. It is impossible to maintain a smooth and graded road, either on the regular highway or on the detours, while the highways are under construction. We can only provide a reasonable way to go around the projects under way.

"It will be to the best interests to all concerned," Judge Mauzey said, "if the public will follow the detour markings between points. We were all warned before voting road bonds to build roads, of the trouble and inconvenience connected with road building program, so let us all take our own medicine, following the detour signs, and making the best of the situation."

The jury dismissed all the counts in the indictment against Representative Hill of Maryland, charged with the unlawful manufacture of 11.64 per cent wine and 2.7 per cent cider in his home. In the El Paso territory labor has been plentiful and picking is progressing rapidly; farther west, many farmers are thru gathering. Setting gin days has begun in some counties. Most of the bolls are open, except in the bottoms. Bollworms have damaged the late crop. There was freezing weather in some localities. About 15 per cent remains to be ginned in the West Center and 40 per cent in the West.

ESCAPES DEATH

Woodruff Baby Unconscious Two Hours After Trapped Between Mattress and Bed Railing.

Nancy Lou Woodruff, nine months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Vard suffocation Wednesday afternoon when she slipped between the mattress and the bed railing in which she had been placed by her mother. The child was unconscious for nearly two hours.

Mrs. Woodruff put her little daughter in a room by herself, and pinned a blanket over her. She looked at the baby every few minutes, and stated that not more than ten minutes elapsed between the time she last saw Nancy Lou safe in bed, and when she found her wedged between the bed railing and the mattress.

Only the top of the child's head was visible. She had evidently attempted to pull herself up on the bars of the bed, and fallen feet first into the pocket formed by the mattress and bed clothing. Her nose was pressed tight against one of the bars, and breathing through her mouth was made practically impossible.

The child's body had turned black. She gasped as Mrs. Woodruff snatched her up and rushed her into the fresh air, and was breathing normally when a physician arrived. She was unconscious for nearly two hours. Nancy Lou rested well Wednesday night, and was apparently on her way to complete recovery Thursday.

"Medianski" Leaves U. S. For Europe—Murder of Teresa Mors and Hatz Give Clues.

By The United Press.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—A gigantic international gem smuggling plot, said to be the greatest in the history of crime is under surveillance by U. S. Customs Officers and action to block it is expected momentarily by Treasury Department officials. "Medianski" has fled abroad but most of his confederates are known and their arrest has been postponed only in the hope that their actions may lead to the trail of other of the gang members.

For several years customs authorities have been attempting to discover the source of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of gems known to have been smuggled in. Then with dramatic unexpectedness, the murder of Mrs. Teresa Mors in Los Angeles, for which "Kid" McCoy now awaits trial, uncovered the first clue.

Some of her jewels had been smuggled in by Harry Hatz in disguise. Last year Hatz supplied the link that enabled agents to trace in on conspirators.

CHECKING TUBERCULOSIS
The Texas Public Health Association has just announced that the tuberculosis death rate in the United States Registration Area has declined almost yearly since 1900. During 1917 and 1918 there was a rise, and there was also a slight rise in 1924. In 1922 the death rate was 97.0. In 1924, when the National Tuberculosis Association was formed, it was 200, or over twice as high as the rate. The death rate has been more than cut in half, which means a saving, at present time, of approximately 40,000 lives a year. Tuberculosis is at present the leading cause of death. Organic heart disease and the pneumonia take more lives. The credit for this reduction in tuberculosis death rate must be given to the anti-tuberculosis organization throughout the United States. The organizations are almost entirely financed by the annual sale of tuberculosis seals. The sale will be held in Texas, from December 1 to Christmas.

SCHOOL BOARDS
Frequent and abrupt changes in the personnel of the majority of city school boards in Texas is condemned by Dr. George A. Works, director of the Texas School Survey. He declares that a frequently changing board has no opportunity to develop constructive policies, and that such changes are expensive financially to the community, and costly to the children in educational achievements. Texas cities at this time have school boards of seven members, elected for two year periods. Four are elected one year, and three the next year.

This is the state of affairs which Dr. Works condemns, and believes that changes should be made immediately. Constitutional changes will probably have to be made to get rid of this weakness. He suggests, in the first place, that the law might be changed to allow boards to consist of five members with a five year term of office for each, with only one term expiring each year. Or, secondly, a membership of seven with terms of seven years each, and one going out each year. Both of these would, in all probability, require constitutional changes, with provision that the legislature be empowered to fix the term of office.

A third suggestion is that the membership of the board be fixed at six, each to serve six years, and providing that one third of the terms expire on alternate years. Dr. Works says there is a possibility that this could be done without changing the constitution, though opinions differ on this. The director prefers either of the first two arrangements to the third.

Galveston, Texas—"One year ago I was suffering with indigestion. Everything I ate hurt me and I had almost constant headache. I tried several remedies which did me no good. Then I decided to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which was highly recommended for stomach trouble, and the 'Favorite Prescription,' a celebrated feminine tonic, and I improved right from the start, and by the time I had taken a few bottles I was well."

AMUSEMENTS

At The Lyric. Suppose, hopeful reader, your dearest ambition was realized—you were made a star in the movies? Supposing a little further—you were a modern Venus, with dark, dazzling eyes, delicious dimples, a perfect 36 figure, and an all-around prize beauty? And, while we're at it, suppose your first starring feature was a howling success? What then?

Wouldn't you go simply wild with expectation? Imagine the bundles of mash notes that would come pouring in your morning's mail, accompanied by photographs of your handsome admirers. Wouldn't it be wonderful? "No, it wouldn't," says Mary Alden, star of Will Nigh's latest masterpiece, "Notoriety," at the Lyric Theater today. And Mary ought to know, because everything we have just said happened to her. When she was just graduating from her middy blouse stage, her idea of heaven was the inside of a studio, with the director taking the place of St. Peter and a handsome leading man substituting Angel Gabriel. She was too happy to eat on the day when her first chance as a star came, with the production of "The Argyle Case." Mary pitied the mail-carrier when she thought of the carload of mash notes that would be coming her way when her picture was shown in the movie theaters.

Veterans of the Civil War, gray beards of sixty-three, grandfathers who remembered the day Lincoln was shot, and a collection of fathers of large families—these were the admirers that filled Mary Alden's mail. Isn't it horrible?

When Fighting Men Meet—

CURTIS BENTON'S Romance of the Sea Adapted and Supervised by MAX GRAF

with ANNA Q. NILSSON WM. T. CARLETON MITCHELL LEWIS RAYMOND HATTON ALEC. B. FRANCIS GEORGE MacQUARRIE FRANK DARRO

A stirring, dramatic yarn of the sea, with a tang of mystery and the touch of youth.

Also "UNCLE SAM"

Why Is This?

If you're modest and mind your own business, nobody pays any attention to you.

—BUT—

If you get mixed up in a society scandal or in some sensational crime, the papers are full of your life and your photograph.

If you get married respectably, not a word is said.

—BUT—

If you elope, and marry secretly against your parents' wishes, you're the talk of the town.

If you're eighteen and marry a man of twenty-one, you attract no attention.

—BUT—

If you're eighteen and marry a man of eighty, the whole world goes wild about it.

If you're married to the same man all your life, nobody takes any notice of you.

—BUT—

If you divorce six husbands six different times in six years, you're on the tip of everybody's tongue.

WHY?

NOTORIETY

"You can't be good and be talked about." A fearless exposure of the fever for fame.

Such popularity must be deserved

To convert critics into enthusiasts, whether for a new school of music or for a cigarette, requires something more than luck. There's sound reason for every big swing in popular taste.

So, to account for Chesterfield's swift rise, look to the cigarette itself, its tobaccos, its blending—in short, its taste. This one thing alone—its decidedly better taste—explains why thousands of smokers are changing from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.
