NEEDS COTTON

Great Britain Making Big Play in Asia to Free Self from Dependence Upon U. S.

LONDON, Feb. 12 (United Press)—In her frantic efforts to shake off the cotton yoke of the United States, Great Britain has returned to a supply market of four centuries ago—the fields of Asia Minor.

Liverpool has been all keyed up lately awaiting the arrival of 1,000 bales from the port of Mersina, the first shipment of the kind since the sixteenth century. If the product proves satisfactory, it is anticipated that the Lancashire spinning mills will have added an important source of supply as a further means of becoming independent of the American market.

It was from this quarter of the Turkish empire that Britain first began to draw her cotton supplies. These Turkish imports in England before the days of Arkwright, a father of the industry, and before cotton cultivation in America has assumed serious proportions.

But the march of modern ages with its complex up to date methods, left Asia Minor lagging behind and the old-time Turko-British cotton trade suspended. Its revival has now become possible through the establishment at the scene of growing of the first cotton ginning factory ever to rear its stack in that area. This plant prepares the output for the English market.

The factory is located at Adana, the headquarters of one of the three cultivating areas, and Mersina is its natural outlet.

The two other areas are the hinterland of Smyrna and the valley of Sakaria. It is said that Adana can produce an annual crop of 100,000 bales, her potentiality being estimated at a minimum of 800,000 bales to a maximum of 2,000,000.

Blanton Dress Suit Arousing Capitol Gossip

Congressman Thomas L. Blanton and his dress suit seem to be affording Washington no little diversion these days, judging by the following in the Washington Times: by Billy Price:

Here's where we rise to the defense of Congressman Tom Blanton. His friend Congressman Zihlman of Maryland, "let the cat out of the bag" in open House that the Texan had appeared the night before all dolled up in "evening clothes," and one newspaper goes so far as to print a picture of the silk hat he is alleged to have worn on that occasion.

This writer saw Blanton in the dress suit at the annual banquet of the Firefighters Association of Washington. The writer happened to be master of ceremonies, once called "toastmaster" back in the days when there was something liquid to offer in the way of toasts.

Well, Tom Blanton looked the part of a million-dollar in his fifty suit. He smiled like a million dollars, his speech was of that eloquent, earnest, courageous kind he always makes, and he got a storm of applause from the Washington firemen he has consistently befriended in Congress.

It can't be possible that this thing has been sprung on Blanton to put the cowboys of his Congressional district to kidding him or to have them turn their admiration toward a political rival who does not believe in them durn dress suits." If it was, we don't mind telling those Texas cowboys that their friend Tom "ain't no slouch" in a dress suit and that he is "right there" wherever his duties or obligations call him, even if he does have to put on a "jibswinger" or a dinner coat.

As a matter of fact, all these Texas statesmen are at home either at a social gathering or a stiff poker game and mighty few of them refuse to don evening clothes when the occasion demands. Former Senator Joe Bailey of Texas, was one of the few Texas statesmen of recent years who positively would not take to evening wear, and so kept out of so-called "society."

Blanton is no society leader, either, but he likes to mingle among red-blooded men like the firemen of Washington.

Fighting Tom Blanton doesn't have the right slant as to heavy taxation of District citizens for the upkeep of a strictly National Capital, but means to be fair. The worst thing yet brought against him is this dress suit charge and we hope we have explained that satisfactorily to his constituents.

F. T. A. Sell Packages

Selling packages and the rendition of an interesting program were the chief features of the West Ward School Parent Teachers Association meeting Wednesday afternoon at the school building.

Mrs. Gus Rea presided over the business part of the meeting during which it was decided the Association was ready to make the first $50.00 payment of the year on their plan, which will leave a balance of $75.00. The ladies expect to be able to raise that amount with different kinds of entertainments, before the close of school. The Package Sale amounted to $14.75.

New Shades Of Stockings Will Match Ailments

DETROIT, Feb. 12 (United Press).—Stockings to match any ailment—belladonna green, nux vomica red, caffeine white, syrup or squill blue, balm of gilead brown and mustard plaster pink—are being shown in hosiery shops for spring wear.

How pleasing it will be to Milady when she starts to choose between a digitalls hue or ipecacuanha remains to be seen; also whether a prescription will be necessary for such purposes.

Patrons of the shops have already found that apothecary shades have predominate in spring wear. Pharmacists are reported considering the possibility of including hosiery in the already well-expanded drug store stock as they feel only through service of a registered druggist can proper advice be given as to appropriate shades for spring wear.

Imagine fashionable ladies peering critically through lognettes and murmuring—"which shall I take, that licorice yellow or the cassia acutifolia green?"

Or waste a moment conjuring on the possibilities when the shop girl struggles with the names of such stalwarts of the pharmaceutical world as rhumina purchiana blue.

Old family remedies and cough syrup colors are expected to gain most favor for street wear, while the elusive worded shades of exotic hue will be reserved for grand balls and dinner parties.

MANY AWARDS TO PAY ALL WORKERS

10,000 in the Weekly issues can be clipped and sent in at the same time or can be held until a number of the coupons have been secured. There are several million votes going out in this issue. They will continue to appear in every issue. Save them and vote for someone. It is not necessary to secure a subscription to start accumulating votes. The most votes will win regardless of the number of subscriptions sent in. Fine plan and easy to win a good prize if one will get busy. The neighbors will save their Coupons and those who do not take the Reporter would no doubt appreciate a sample copy for a number of issues and in all probability enroll as a regular subscriber.

Limited Vote for Subscriptions

The drive is not put on with the idea that those who take part go money hunting or ask every one to pay a subscription. The Free Voting Coupon is the largest vote. Everyone will enjoy saving and voting their Coupons for some one. Workers may secure $12.00 in subscriptions and receive a very high vote, up to and including Saturday, February 28. No one entrant can have the high extra vote but for one $12.00 club. The special vote for the first $12.00 club secured by each worker entering the drive is 1,000,000 votes besides the regular votes for each subscription. The regular votes is shown in the schedule published elsewhere. The twelve-dollar club can be made up of all classes of subscriptions for the Daily and Weekly. To secure six dollars in subscriptions the first week up to and including Saturday, February 21st, and the other six dollars for the week ending February 28th, would secure the limit and secure as many votes as anyone will have issued for subscriptions up to and including February 28th.

The twelve dollar club, however, can be secured at one time and turned in and thus dispense with the work of securing subscriptions. Full time can then be given in organizing friends to save the free voting coupons and otherwise arrange for successful campaign.

Formally Opens February 14th

The big drive will formally open Saturday, February 14th and close on Saturday April 11th, eight weeks of voting to determine who will be the owner of the three automobiles and all of the other prizes.

It is not necessary to wait until Saturday to get in your nomination, free voting coupons for first subscriptions. Start today. It costs nothing to enter and it is not necessary to be a subscriber of the Reporter to enter the drive. It costs nothing to vote and almost everyone will be at it in a very short time.

Call at the office, phone or write and get full particulars of the most interesting subscription drive ever attempted. You will like the work for it will be a pleasurable and profitable pastime. Phone 46 or 105. Ask for circulation director.

Rules and Regulations

Ladies, married or single are eligible to enter the campaign, provided conditions set forth are complied with. Young misses under sixteen years should secure a written consent for parents or guardians.

Contestants may nominate themselves or be nominated by friends. The nomination blank must be clipped from the Sweetwater Reporter properly filled out and sent or mailed to the Circulation Department.

The territory will be divided into three districts, for the distribution of the prizes. Sweetwater is district one, Towns surrounding Sweetwater comprise district two, and the Rural and Star Routes and the country generally, district three. One car and set of ten prizes will be awarded to workers residing in each of the three districts. The Sedan Chevrolet car to go to the worker securing the highest vote in any of the three districts. The two Chevrolet touring cars to be awarded to the workers securing the highest votes in the other two districts. The other prizes will be awarded according to the vote standings in each district.

REPORT RANGES NEED MOISTURE

Ranges Generally Dry Especially in Extreme Western Portion—Stock Winters Well.

PRICES ARE IMPROVING

General Outlook for the Industry Best in Past Four Years—Prices Advancing.

HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 11.—While the market for beef cattle begins to show signs of improvement after four years of unsatisfactory prices, range conditions in Texas leave much to be desired at present. With rains very soon, weeds and grass should make sufficiently rapid growth to relieve the situation. A great amount of feeding has become necessary, according to the Houston Bureau of U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

It is believed that beef cattle prices this year should average somewhat higher than last year and those for sheep and goats and wool and mohair should be at least on a par with 1924. The beef cattle industry is gradually working into a more favorable position as a result of the relation of beef to competing commodities, especially pork, improved industrial conditions and in no small measure to the cattleman's own sacrifices. Market receipts will probably be somewhat smaller than in 1924. All conditions indicate that the long time outlook for the industry is even more favorable.

Cattle range condition on February 1 averaged only 70 per cent of normal, whereas a year ago it was 89 per cent the decline this year being 4 points compared with an improvement of 1 point during January of last year. The condition of cattle averages on 74 per cent, or 16 points below that of a year ago, and 5 points less than January 1. Ranges are very dry in most parts of the state and little is to be found. Considering the state of the range and scarcity of feed the condition of cattle is holding as well as can be expected. Up to the present, outside of the coastal section, losses have been lighter than usual. Until it rains, it will be difficult to make an estimate of the spring movement.

The condition of sheep and goats declined 4 points during the month, to 82 per cent and 83 per cent respectively, and range condition went down to 71 per cent, a reduction of 2 points. Conditions lacked little of being normal at this time last year. Sheep and goats have not required as much feeding as cattle but most bred ewes are being fed. Losses among early lambs have been quite heavy in places. A fall is badly needed before the lambing and kidding season starts. There has been considerable contracting of spring clip and of lambs for fall delivery. Many sheep and goats are going to market, the Fort Worth receipts for January being more than double those of last year.

PLAINS—The condition of range and stock is better than in other districts, yet is fully 5 points below that of a year ago. The weather has been cold, but dry, and losses have been light. Small grain pastures have suffered severely. Grass is very short and more feeding than usual is necessary. There is little stock selling, but the feeling is stronger that it is expected that good young cattle will sell $2.50 to $5.00 above last year's prices. Quite a number of cattle are selling for spring delivery.

WEST CENTER—Snowfall in January relieved the situation somewhat, but more moisture is badly needed. Ranges and small grain pastures are very dry and stock-water is low in some places. Most cattle are thin and many are being fed. There are many weeds up, but rain is needed to make them grow. A good demand exists for last year's steer and heifer calves. The remaining few are in strong demand.

Few fat cattle will move before summer.

With good prices for sheep and goats as well as for wool and mohair, a good year of business is expected. Some are lambing now, but the larger flocks will not begin until March. Lambs are being contracted at 10 to 11 cents Oct. 1 delivery, also considerable wool at around 60 cents with long clips at around 60 cents.

With the permission of the Santa Fe Railroad Company and the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, a large crowd of local sportsmen spent Sunday afternoon seining the Santa Fe Lake at the Junction and removing the fish to the city lake west of town. It was purely a case of the "ox in the ditch." The lake is drying and the fish are dying by the hundreds. The banks of the lake are strewn with dead fish of all kinds and sizes. Seven or eight drags made during the afternoon and several hundred fish were transferred to fresh water. Numbers of bass averaging five pounds were in the lot. Seven were moved at one time and in this batch was one seven pounder. In all seven milk cans and two big ice cream barrels of fish were caught and moved to the city lake. —Coleman Democrat.

If Back Hurts Begin on Salts

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Catarrh Relieved Instantly

Catarrh in the head means that germs are attacking the membranes. So with cold in the head. The result is inflammation, stuffiness, discharge. Deal with such troubles locally. Combat the germs where they attack. Apply Ely's Cream Balm in the nostrils and breathe it. Note how quickly its antiseptic fumes bring relief.

Don't wait for internal effects. Get the instant relief. Fight the trouble at its source. Clear the air passages, check the attack. A moment will do that if you ask your druggist for a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm.

Then, she hops into a hot bath, soaks awhile and takes a cold shower."
