SANITARY LAWS TO BE ENFORCED

Health Authorities and City Officials Open Drive Against Unsanitary Conditions

IN SESSION TUESDAY

Plan of Action Outlined at Meeting—Urge General Clean-Up Over City—Fight Flies

Plans for rigid enforcement of all city sanitary laws were outlined in a meeting of the City Commission, Mayor, health authorities and officials of the Board of City Development late Tuesday when discussion centered in the form of a typhoid epidemic.

Although rumors are said to be prevailing in some sections that in the neighborhood of a hundred cases of typhoid fever are in Sweetwater, in reality there are less than half a dozen cases and the reports are greatly exaggerated, it was declared.

One official declared, however, the number of cases of typhoid in a city is "usually taken as an index of that city's intelligence and sanitary condition. The only excuse for typhoid is ignorance and carelessness."

One case of the disease can start the epidemic, however, it was pointed out, and spread to other families who may take the fever through no fault of their own.

The first steps to be taken to combat a spread of disease of all kinds in the city will be enforcement of sanitary ordinances, the sewer ordinance and a general clean-up campaign, it was declared.

The City Commission, as the results of the meeting Tuesday, will give the sewerage system a thorough inspection, and check up on the number of houses not tied on to the lines. A survey on the latter situation is already under way, and a report is expected shortly. A city ordinance requires that residences within 200 feet of a line must connect, although officials stated that that regulation was commonly violated here.

Another ordinance which officials said would be strictly enforced hereafter in efforts to halt the spread of disease, and especially breeding of flies is that requiring dealers of fruits and vegetables to keep the same enclosed or covered. The city commission announced that this regulation would be enforced, and that grocery stores and fruit stands would be required to keep vegetables and fruits protected from flies.

The water in lakes in the vicinity of Sweetwater will be tested regularly it was announced. Efforts will also be made to kill mosquitoes in the vicinity of City Lake by oiling the water and cutting weeds around the lake, it was indicated. In this connection, health authorities urged that the general clean-up campaign over the city be continued and that weeds be cut. Flies and mosquitoes can be combated by removing all weeds and trash from premises, it was pointed out. Officials also stressed the necessity for keeping garbage cans covered in the residential and business districts. This is a common oversight at many homes, it was declared, and is in a measure responsible for flies, germs and disease.

Dr. G. Burton Fain, city health officer, Dr. N. Leech, county health officer and Dr. R. R. Allen, chairman of the sanitary committee of the Board of City Development, were at the meeting. Mayor John J. Ford, commissioner Walter Trammell, J. P. Majors, president of the B. C. D., John McCurdy, secretary of the board and other members were present.

It was indicated that physicians in the city would make a close study of typhoid cases now in the city in efforts to trace the origin of each.

Farmer Held for Fatal Stabbing at Dance—Girl Looks on While Lover Is Killed

By United Press.

WINFIELD, La., Aug. 12.—J. W. Snelling, 51, farmer of St. Maurice, is held in jail here today in connection with the fatal stabbing of Walter Leyers, 22, slain at a dance while the girl he was to have married tomorrow looked on.

The girl, a Miss Wright, accused Snelling of the stabbing.

Snelling denies killing Leyers. The trouble is said to have arisen over a previous fight between Leyers' father and Snelling.

You get what is coming to you. The roll called up yonder is a payroll.

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—Five full and 18 conditional pardons and 3 restorations of citizenship were granted today by Governor Ferguson, bringing the grand total of clemency proclamations issued by the woman governor to 816, of which 143 were for full pardons, and 366 for conditional pardons. Four prisoners serving terms for murder and one for rape were conditionally pardoned.

OFFER REWARDS IN TRIPLE KILLING

Governor Ferguson Offers $240 for Murderer of Engler Family. Brings Total to $1,000

RELEASE THREE SUSPECTS

Aged Man and Two Mexicans Released—Relative of Slain Woman Attacks Man in Jail

AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—At the request of Sheriff W. D. Miller, Governor Ferguson today offered a reward of $240 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of the Engler family, found dead near here Sunday.

Rewards now total $1,000 of which $500 has been offered by friends and relatives of the murdered family. $250 by Sheriff Miller, and $10 by a local Justice of the Peace. At this time State Rangers have not been working on the case.

Relative Is Fined

AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—A Fieldman of Houston, brother-in-law of Mrs. C. E. Engler, murdered with her husband and adopted daughter last Saturday night, was fined $5 and costs by an Austin Justice of Peace on complaint of Sheriff Miller who charged Field with having assaulted the elder John Sternald while Fieldman and officers were questioning Sternald in the county jail.

Fieldman is said to have struck Sternald several times with his clenched fists. He pled guilty.

"You can kill me, but I didn't do it," Sternald cried after the blows had been struck.

Following the assault, Sternald was released by the sheriff. His son, however is being held for further questioning.

Two Mexican suspects have also been released.

IS COLLECTOR

Man Aboard Ship of MacMillan Expedition to Gather Rare Specimens On Trip

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Aboard the Bowdoin of the MacMillan arctic expedition is Dr. Walter N. Koelz, fish and bird expert who will make studies and collect specimens of Arctic land and water fauna for the National Geographic Society.

Going off to the Arctic to collect fish, birds and mammals is not like an afternoon jaunt near home with gun or rod. Dr. Koelz took hundreds of pounds of special supplies and equipment along on the trip and worked out detailed plans on getting specimens safely back to the United States.

When fish have been "pickled" in a limited supply of alcohol and formaldehyde that was stored aboard the Peary, flagship of the expedition, the scientist plans to commandeer empty gasoline tanks in which to preserve his finds.

Preservation of his bird specimens will be an easier matter. The skins will be split and slipped off with the feathers still in place and hundreds of them can be stowed away in an ordinary packing case.

Skins of land animals will be removed by Dr. Koelz and be brought back to taxidermists to be given a life like mounting.

Deny Consolidation Application

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Because of the uncertainty of projected consolidation plans in the southwest, assistant director Burnside of the Finance Bureau of the Interstate Commerce Commission recommended in a report to the commission today that the application of the Chicago and Pacific railroad for control of the St. Louis and Southwestern line be denied.

THE GALLERY

Edward W. Browning narrowed his list of applications for adoption to five "eligibles" after he advertised for a girl, before he finally picked Mary Louise Spas. And now since the girl admitted she is 21 years of age, the courts have prepared New York's modern Cinderella and her foster father. The photo shows the millionaire real estate operator in his home surrounded with letters and photographs from applicants.

OPEN WAR ON BIG NARCOTIC GANG

Federal Authorities, After Arresting Three Narcotic Agents in New York, Follow Trail

TONG WAR LOOMS

Guard Chinatown After Seizure of Weapons—Believe Dope Ring Has Agents in Orient

By United Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Federal agents followed Chicago's "million dollar dope trail" to another nearby city today as police and extra soldiers guarded Chinatown to prevent warfare among Tong.

Colonel William Gray Beach and the three other Federal narcotic agents arrested here in the smashing attack on what authorities declare to be the inside ring for wide distribution of narcotics, had lieutenants at work in Cincinnati, Minneapolis, Indianapolis and other cities, according to Patrick T. Roche of the Federal Intelligence Unit. In some instances, "the Beach gang" had connections in the Orient, Roche declared.

Search for a $5,000 jade vase, said to have been owned by Beach, presumably a gift from some wealthy Oriental operative, led officers to scour Chinatown, seizing firearms in the course of their hunt.

Officers said they were to have been used in a new outbreak between the On Leong and Hip Sing Tong. The police department immediately rushed reserves into the district. Invasion of officers threw both Chinese districts into an uproar.

KILLED IN WRECK

Prominent Breckenridge Oil Man Found Dead Under Wrecked Auto on Highway Today

By United Press.

BRECKENRIDGE, Aug. 12.—Walter M. Lamb, well known drilling contractor of Breckenridge and Tulsa, Oklahoma, was killed instantly early today when his automobile plunged off an embankment on the Throckmorton road 5 miles northwest of Breckenridge.

Lamb left Breckenridge about 4 a. m. for Woodson where he had oil interests. He was found dead beneath his wrecked car at daylight by a service car driver. His body was badly crushed.

Lamb was prominent in oil and Masonic circles here and at Tulsa.

Cow Saves Man's Life

MERCEDES, Texas, Aug. 12.—A short-horn Texas cow took some of the fight out of a Missouri mule the other day, and incidentally saved her master from being masticated by the hungry, vicious mule that not only didn't want a drink but didn't want to be led to water.

E. Sprague, farmer, was trying to lead the brute to the watering tank, and he was balky. When he forced the issue, the Missouri mule took a kick at him and broke two ribs with a terrific south jab. Sprague was too near out to counter, and the mule followed the body blow with a pusillanimous tactic that are taboo even in the prize ring. With one bite, he severed Sprague's ear from his head and spit it out.

At this juncture, the cow, who was no cowheart, saw red and entered the fray. The mule was quickly put to riot and the muley heifer declared the winner by default.

GREEKS ATTACK BULGARIAN POSTS

Unconfirmed Report Today Says Greeks Open Warfare on Bulgarian Frontier Posts

DESCRIBED AS SERIOUS

Rumor Situation Alarming—Result of Murder of Greek—Believed Pacific Settlement Reached

By United Press.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—An Exchange Telegram, Constantinople message, unconfirmed from any other source, quoted newspapers as declaring that the Greeks had attacked the Bulgarian frontier posts at Cara Tepic. The fighting was reported to have continued until nightfall, and the incident was characterized as serious.

The situation between Greece and Bulgaria arising from the killing of a Greek by a Bulgarian was regarded last week and for some time, as offering possibilities for international complications in the Balkans.

However, later advises indicated that a pacific settlement was being reached, and that the Greeks would not send the proposed ultimatum to Bulgaria.

Main Cotton Producing Counties on Plains Represented—Lubbock Services Luncheon

LUBBOCK, Aug. 12.—The Plains Ginnery Association composed of thirty-one cotton producing counties on the plains went into annual session here this morning at ten o'clock, with one hundred and seventy-six members present.

Rufus Harberger of Lubbock, president, called the meeting to order.

Pink L. Parrish welcomed the visiting ginnery men in the opening address and R. R. Gilliland of Quanah made the response. A general discussion of cotton conditions followed with the consensus of opinion that the plains will produce more cotton this fall than has ever been produced here.

The Lubbock Ginnery Association served the visitors at noon with a luncheon. The session will close late this afternoon. Election of officers will be held at that time, according to Ray Grisham of Lubbock, secretary of the ginnery.

Insanity Caused By Collars

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—An international "collar war" reputed to have started in Paris and London, has reached San Francisco, and has reached the point where organizers of the Anti-Collar Club have permitted them selves to be photographed, sans neck decorations.

Dr. J. M. Sear, superintendent of the Napa state insane asylum, is president of the club. "There are many men in prisons unbalanced by their heads in collars," he declared. "I will wear no collar."

REJECT REQUEST FOR LOW RATES

Outside Points Will Not Reduce Railroad Rates on Feed Stuffs for Drouth Stricken Area

COMMISSION CONSIDERS

Will Issue Formal Statement Later—May Ask Texas Roads to Reduce Rate on 65 Counties

By United Press.

AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—The outside connections of Texas railroads rejected the request of the Texas Railroad Commission and the Texas Drouth Relief Commission to grant reduced rates on feed stuff from outside points to Texas drouth areas. Notice of the flat refusal was being considered today by the Railroad Commission and the committee selected when the drouth relief work was organized in Austin.

Later in the day the commission will issue a formal statement. Requests will probably be made of Texas carriers to provide low rates to move feed stuff into the 65 drouth stricken counties.

If that fails, the Texas Railroad Commission will be moved to adopt a low emergency rate to Texas points in the unfortunate sections.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor Shutt and family have returned from an extended trip in the states of Ohio, New York, and Pennsylvania where they visited relatives and friends.

IS IMPROVED

Condition of Roy Bardwell Reported Greatly Improved—May Be Removed to Home This Week

Roy Bardwell, pioneer Sweetwater citizen and water commissioner of this city, may be removed to his home here the latter part of this week from Temple where he has been critically ill in a sanitarium, according to report from there today.

Communications to Glenn Bardwell from Temple today indicated that if the condition of the commissioners continued to improve, he would probably be removed to his home here this week. Last week it was believed that there was only a slight chance for Bardwell to live, it was stated, but he began suddenly to improve and is much better now.

His wife, and daughter, Mable are at his bedside, and have been with him since he was taken to Temple. He became ill June 3 and was taken to Temple the latter part of June.

Objected to Ducks

DALLAS, Aug. 12.—A flock of ducks was the responsibility for a court scene the other day, when one person was charged in a complaint of several neighbors with maintaining a nuisance.

Their early morning hours continually disturbed, they decided that the place for a farm and a flock of ducks was in the country and told Judge Graves so.

Trivially that comes along. He refused to hear court action, and urged that it be settled out of court.

Well, if Darwin is right the survivors at Dayton are the fittest.

BODY UNDER CULVERT

Corpse Discovered Today—Youth Arrested as He Drove Into Town in Bloody Auto

By United Press.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 12.—Finding the dead body of A. R. Clawson, Cedarhurst, N. Y., under a culvert near Lamonte, Mo., today revealed Clawson's murder by Everett Adams, 17 year old Wilmington, O., school boy, who is under arrest in Garden City, Kan. Adams was arrested several days ago when he drove into Garden City in a blood spattered automobile.

He first denied knowledge of how the blood stains got on the car, declaring he purchased the automobile in Terre Haute, Ind. Last night, however, he confessed to Garden City authorities that he shot and killed Clawson and hid his body under a culvert between Jefferson City and California, Mo.

He murdered the man, he said, after Clawson had given him a lift in his car. Desire to get possession of the automobile was given by the youth as his reason for killing Clawson.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The coast guard cutter, Bear, 50 year old veteran of the coast guard fleet, is ashore on the shoals one mile off Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska, the Navy Department was advised today from the San Francisco naval headquarters. The old vessel is pounding slightly against the hard sand bottom in 2 1/2 fathoms of water. The current is steadily driving her upon the sand. Efforts to pull the ship loose failed.

Japan and Spain Meet

BALTIMORE, Aug. 12.—Headed by the flashy Alonso brothers, Manuel and Jose, the Spanish Davis Cup team opens its elimination match here at the Baltimore Country Club today against Japan.

Critics considered that the match was even choice, figuring that Manuel Alonso's game may be weakened by a severe injury he suffered to his shoulder in a fall last winter.

The winner of the match will meet the winner of the Australia-Canada match starting today in Montreal.

GROUSE SEASON IN ENGLAND OPEN

All England Catches Up Shot Guns as Grouse Season Opens Today—Society Goes Hunting

IS FESTIVAL OF ST. GROUSE

Annual Event for Society, Millionaires As Sportsmen from Nation Flock to Isles

LONDON, Aug. 12.—Shotguns from every quarter of the globe were booming today through Scotland and the North of England.

At one minute past midnight the annual grouse shooting season commenced.

Today is the long waited "Glorious Twelfth" the "Festival of St. Grouse." It marks the beginning of a four-months' open season in which millions of birds are slaughtered every year. London itself is desolate. A few belated dances last night put an end to the 1925 social season in the metropolis. By the time dawn had touched the east with its first grey streaks this morning, virtually all society had gone north.

Millionaire ship owners and bankers, statesmen and stockbrokers, officers on leave from India, China, Egypt and other far-flung stations of the Empire, plutocrat businessmen from the East, from the continent and North and South America, butterflies from the feminine upper sets of New York, Paris and London—these and their multitude of guests have all shouldered arms for the fray.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars are involved in the expenditure already made or still to be made in preparations and entertainment. grouse who hugs Mother Earth as mere popular sport in Britain. It is almost sacred as a society rite. Every body who is anybody entertains house parties at fashionable "shooting boxes" on carefully preserved moors. Game keepers and dogs drive the birds from cover. The prey is only shot while on the wing, so it is a wise grouse who hugs Mother Earth as long as possible. And it will be a lively bird that can dodge the stew pot between now and mid-June, December 11, when the season closes.

Many of the real sporting enthusiasts arrived in Grouseland yesterday or days ago, in innumerable armed forces but were being disgorged at the various "fronts" by automobiles and trains late last night and early this morning.

There is scarcely an estate in the shooting area which has not been leased for the occasion. Americans figure prominently among those who have rented vast tracts of land where guests may be lavishly entertained. E. H. Litchfield, an annual visitor from the States has this year taken the Erchless shootings of about 12,000 acres, which provide good mixed bags including a wealth of grouse.

Horatio Shonardi of New York, is host at the Glenrumm estate of more than 4,000 acres, where there is a certain bag of 300 or more brace of grouse besides other game.

Fifty-five thousand acres are encompassed in the gigantic plot leased solely by the Duke of Westminster. It comprises the Reay Deer Forest, and the Glendhu Forest combined, in Sutherlandshire. This preserve alone is good for about 100 stags and 800 brace of grouse.

Other individual rentals cover 30,000 and 34,000 acres respectively. Dunachton, an excellent sporting place belonging to The Macintosh, extends over only 10,000 acres but gives an average annual bag of from 2,000 to 3,000 brace of grouse.

Until fox-hunting begins in October, the wild birds of Britain will have a wild time indeed.

TAXPAYERS

In Colonial days American taxpayers were not patient. Some of them started a riot by way of showing what they thought of a trifling tax on tea. Their objection to a system that taxed them without representation was really the thing that brought on a revolution and later, independence.

Modern Americans are more submissive to the tax gatherer. They submit, without organized complaining to the most unjust and excessive levies, merely that swarms of tax eaters may be kept in easy jobs and that profiteering interests may have the pleasure of spending the billions that are pumped from the earnings of industry, and the people into the public treasuries.

Cinderella had her Fairy Godmother and many people have a "Little Fairy in their homes" (see Pears Soap adv.) but little Frances Joseph Yoder of Plainview has an honest to goodness Godfather right here in Sweetwater. Just ask him.

Francis Joseph had to stop over in Sweetwater on his way home, and he chose C. S. Boyles, Jr. to look after him while here. The entire Reporter force agrees that as a Godfather, Mr. Boyles is an A-1 editor.

CLEANLINESS

Cleanliness must go hand in hand with health and without one, the other cannot be. Sweetwater has always been a city of health, and it is up to the residents of the town to keep it so. One sure way is for every citizen to make sure that his premises are as clean and as sanitary as is possible to make them. The proper disposing of trash and garbage, the cutting of weeds and the removal of filth are ways in which disease and unsanitary conditions can be fought.

When the cause of disease is removed, there can be no sickness, and clean, spotless premises are the best insurance against disease germs.

Gleaners Meet

The Gleaners of the First Methodist church met in the parlors of the church Monday afternoon with a large attendance present. All members are urged to attend as the meeting is very important.

Forest Cabin of Well Known Houses Editors for Conference

MR. LONG (left) AND MR. CURWOOD (right), AT THE AUTHOR'S CABIN.

James Oliver Curwood, the well known author who writes of the out-of-doors, lives in the woods. He writes in a cabin deep in the forests of Michigan. That they might not only see his workshop but for a time the life of which he writes so vividly, Mr. Curwood, recently invited two well known men to share his forest solitude with him for a few weeks, and to talk over with him a new novel, which Mr. Curwood says he thinks is the best he ever wrote.

The men were Ray Long, editor, and Roy Howard, newspaper owner. The author evidently "sold" both men, or Long, at least, for this is what the latter says of the trip: "I have just returned from a week's visit with James Oliver Curwood at his cabin in the forest near Roscommon, Michigan," said Mr. Long. "We planned a fishing expedition, but the weather was so cold that, as Roy Howard said, all the trout in the Au Sable River were 'in conference.'"

MAKE YOUR FACE AS LOVELY AS YOU ARE

All most people see in anyone is what is on the outside. Naturally, those who are handicapped by pimples, blotches, "breaking out" eczema, etc., on their skin are not going to get any attention. You can "make the frame as lovely as the picture really is" by simply getting rid of those skin diseases, if you will just use Black and White Ointment and Soap. Then your good nature and sweet ways will stand with out any drawback, and folks will want to be around you. They are economically priced in liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap. (adv)

FASHIONS

By HEDDA HOYT NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Fall trimmings ring woe to the home dressmaker. Frocks are to be more sophisticated than they have been in years and trimmings range from metal embroideries, colorful appliques, gilded leatherings and fabric dangles to gorgeous beaded and sequin effects. Afternoon costumes are dressy rather than tailored. Materials included are velvets, brocaded chiffons, moire silk, kasha in ombre effects, broadcloth crepe satin andorgette. Fur metal appliques and colorful embroideries are favorite trimmings. Shades for the day wear are royal blue, gray, wood browns bluish green, beige and black. Where black is used it is invariably enlivened by colored fabrics or metal decoration. Plain colored fabrics are more in evidence than printed ones. Evening shades include yellowish greens, pale shades of pink, scarlet and yellow. All greens from apple green to deep bottle green are chosen from evening and yellowish greens predominate. Evening materials include chiffons, velvets, tulle, satin and crepe remain. Velvets are just a trifle smarter than sheerer materials for evening wear. Lace frocks are
