

"Wait till next year!"

OH, PLEASE NO! Even the Brooklyn Dodgers don't have to use that one anymore. So you can imagine how surprised I was when Andy McNaughton, our town's biggest auto dealer, said... "I can't join the chamber of commerce right now. Maybe later."

THERE WASN'T ANY REASON. Nor was there any reason why we couldn't talk it over... so we did! Andy told me he thought the chamber did a great job... supporting civic improvements, backing local business activities, promoting new industrial sites... contributing to growth and prosperity all down the line. But as for him... he just couldn't spare the time!

SO I SHOWED HIM HOW... "Other cities are active now. Other chambers are nibbling at our trade area now. Many business heads are considering expansion today... and your 'maybe later' may be too late." We were on solid ground and Andy knew it...

THE REAL WAY to convince your fellow businessmen you're with them... is to give the chamber your financial backing right now. They want your time if you can spare it, but every dollar you put in the chamber is an investment from which you get a high return. And everybody in town loses when you put it off. Why not act now?"

TO PROMOTE PROSPERITY—to make your community a better place to live and work in—is a responsibility of every businessman. And if you don't think Andy McNaughton believes it, just drop by and see him. If you want a car, chances are you'll wind up joining the chamber of commerce first.

COMEBACK?

Terry Cattle Industry Shows Upswing

There are signs indicating that the cow may once again take its place as the most important agriculture product of this county. In fact when you stop to consider that $271,358 worth of calves and cattle were sold by Terry counties in 1954 it is evident that it is an important part of the county's economy even today.

Almost 8,000 cattle and calves roamed dry Terry county in 1954 and according to oldtimers that outnumbered the cattle population back when this was known as "cattle country" and cotton was yet to be introduced.

In view of this fact it would follow that the cattle brand business should pick up. But such isn't the case according to County Clerk Wade Vandell. He only handled five brand registrations during 1955, and none so far in 1956.

The modern brands, much as those of former years, are relatively simple in Terry county. For instance W. C. Bell was satisfied with the initial B on the left, differing from the B registered by John Bill Wameth back in 1944 by being on the opposite hip.

Winston Adams and Hazel Parker were a little more artistic with their brands. Adams uses an I on top of a 5 and the Parker brand has an inverted V over a P.

We aren't attempting to trace the history of the Terry county cattle industry, but thought it interesting that while the number of cattle has increased, fewer brands are being used. It might also be of interest to note that while cattle are increasing, the barbed wire fence is decreasing in the county. This is due to the sand hills a fence will cause.

There have been some interesting brands registered since County Clerk W. T. Dixon started the brand book in August 1904 by taking all of the Terry county brands registered at the former county seat at Stanton.

Two registrations on Sept. 17, 1889 appear to have been the first. J. L. Quinn and Ira J. Cowden each registered brands that day. The Cowden brand was DOV. The Cowden brothers were already well known for the familiar JAL brand at that time. Jal, N. M., later derived its name from the brand. They registered the JAL brand in 1882, but not for Terry county.

Many of the old brands were transferred two or more times. For instance, the Delmont Brothers registered a brand in 1889 that was transferred in '91 and then again in '99.

The fact that Terry county was organized from Bexar territory before Yoakum is evident from the number of Yoakum ranchers who registered brands here in those early years. Not many months before the county was organized in 1907 Arthur Cotten and S. J. Dixon registered brands and designated their homes as Yoakum County.

W. T. Littlefield registered the WTL brand here. John and Scott Wolforth both have brands entered. The old Brit Clare brand was registered in January 1907 and sold to Burris and Hooker eight months later.

The saucer block is one of the best-known local brands. Registered by M. V. Brownfield on January 8, 1913, the brand is still owned by his son, A. R. Brownfield though there are no cattle under that brand today.

Branding goes on into other types of livestock, with one woman cutting the right toe off each of her turkeys.

But the romantic part of the cattle business appears to be or the road to extinction . . . that's the horse. Of course where you had a horse you had a cowboy according to the movies. Terry county had about 322 horses in 1950 and less than 275 in 1954.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Some like it hot and some like it cold, but whatever their choice, winter vacationers are on the move in record numbers. Winter vacations have become increasingly popular, and 1956 will find more people than ever before taking advantage of them. These travelers move mainly in two directions—north or south—for skiing or sunbathing, the open hearth of the sandy beach.

If you're fed up with snow and ice, the warmer climes will get your business Florida, which anticipates entertaining five million visitors this year. It is high on the list of popular spots. The fantastic hotels lining the shore in Miami Beach never cease to fascinate me—and there seem to be new ones every year. Arizona and Southern California attract seekers in the West.

More and more, the hotels are getting competition from the tourist's haven—the motel. Many of the newer motels boast such "luxuries" as air conditioning, swimming pools, supervised nurseries and playgrounds for children and even nightclubs. Motels are a natural, too, three out of four vacation travelers go by car.

If you'd rather go north where the thermometer goes south, you'll pack ski equipment into the car and head for the wintry slopes. A skiing vacation is fun for the entire family. Many resorts offer special attractions for children—Instructors, for example, who teach the youngsters on gentle slopes while the parents are off on the steeper hills.

South or North—whatever your winter vacation destination—a word if you want to be wise: have your local Shell Touring Service plan the trip. It can save you time and money, add to your vacation enjoyment.

Home Hints

By MILDRED COX
Terry County HD Agent

Chances are you have been longingly admiring the beautiful materials displayed in local stores. Such an array of lovely plaids, stripes and checks as well as prints and solids!

Many Home Demonstration club women are busy at the sewing machine these days whipping up a new spring dress. You may be interested in some sewing tips they have discovered that give a garment that "professional" look.

First of all, if you choose a plaid, stripes, or check material, take care. These are the fabrics which must be matched at all seams lines. It takes careful workmanship to do this matching.

Buy a fourth to a half yard more material than stated on the pattern when designs are to be matched. For very large plaids even more will be needed.

For a professional look, "press as you sew". 4-H girls have as a sewing motto, "When you sew a seam, press it". The most meticulously handled dart or seams can look home-made if it is not properly pressed.

Pressing technique is important, too. In general, work on the wrong side of the fabric. Occasionally this is impossible and you may have to press such things as pocket welts on the right side. For this, use a press cloth. Always smooth material carefully under the iron and press on the straight grain of the fabric whenever possible.

In sewing cotton or linen, press when dampened or use a steam iron with high heat.

MAKE YOUR OWN BELT. . . . Your belt is an important accessory to your costume. If it is well made and the correct type for your figure proportions, it will add a professional touch to your costume, according to Extension clothing specialists.

A narrow belt tends to diminish the waist line while a wide one tends to increase it. A belt of contrasting material tends to decrease the height of the figure.

If you are tall and slender, yet well proportioned, choose a wide belt of self or contrasting material. If you are thin and short select a narrow belt of self or contrasting material. If you are short and stout

FISH AT LAKE THOMAS

Lake Thomas lured quite a few Brownfield fishermen Sunday, even if the fishermen did not "lure" too many fish. Seen on the banks were the following men and their wives, and some children; Truman Dubose, Loyd Hahn, Lawrence Dean, B. N. Flanagan, Howard Hurd, Bruce Salmon, Dewitt Stafford, Clyde Bond, Charlie Price, Lee Loftis, Eunice Jones and Leonard Isaacs.

Best reported catch by Brownfieldites, and we don't know who they were, was three boys who hooked 21 bass weighing from 1 1/2 to 3 pounds in a two-hour period.

You will want to wear a slightly narrow belt of self material.

Study your figure proportions and select the best type belt for you. A belt 3/4 to 1 inch wide of self material is a safe choice for most figures. This width may be increased or decreased according to the figure proportions, fashion, and design of garment.

For directions for making your own belt, ask at our office for a copy of the leaflet, "MAKE YOUR OWN BELT."

Want something different to serve TV fans or friends who drop in? Try a "dip" and "float".

AVOCADO-CHEESE DUNK
1, avocado (medium size)
3/4 cup Neufchatel or 2, 3-oz. packages of cream cheese
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Pare, pit and mash avocado. Add cheese that is at room temperature and remainder of ingredients to avocado. Mix well. Serve with crackers, cucumber, celery or carrot sticks, potato chips or corn chips. Approximate yield, 1 1/2 cups.

LEMONADE FLOAT
Place a scoop of ice cream or sherbert in bottom of tall glass. Add 1/2 cup of cold lemonade; mix slightly. Add more lemonade. Top with another scoop of ice cream. Serve immediately.

Lemonade
6 lemons
1 cup sugar
6 cups water
Make a sugar syrup by heating 1 cup sugar and 1 cup water. Cool. Squeeze juice from lemons; add the sugar syrup and 5 cups of water. Pour over ice in tall glasses. Garnish with mint leaves, orange or lemon slices, fresh berries or pineapple chunks. Serves 6.

Showing off may be part of growing up

... but when you're old enough to drive IT'S KID STUFF!

Remember shouting, "Watch, mommy, watch!" and, later, as you hung by your knees or skinned the cat; "Watch this, gang?"

It was a real thrill to do a new trick, and better still when mother praised, or the gang acknowledged.

You expect this of kids. It's part of growing up.

But what do you think of adults who use their cars to show-off—who call attention to themselves by squealing tires, speeding, taking chances, fighting traffic?

Most people say that's kid stuff. Real juvenile. Silly.

They're right. Careless driving is kid stuff. How many lives would be saved—how much sorrow avoided—if drivers would only realize that careless driving is kid stuff—and that care, courtesy, and control at the wheel are the true marks of a man.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

For centuries everybody believed the world to be flat; and for generations many fishermen have believed that a fish should be strung by both lips. The idea behind this is that a fish can't breathe through his mouth and out his gills if his mouth is held open by a stringer through the lower lip only—it must be put through both.

You can disprove this for yourself by trying the following experiment (courtesy of Jason Lucas, angling editor of Sports Afield): Fasten your lips shut with adhesive tape, and pack your nostrils tightly with cotton. How well can you breathe, pal?

Now, remove the tape and cotton and clip a clothespin on your lower lip. Hamper your breathing any? Not noticeably.

The whole argument for fastening a fish's mouth shut with a stringer through both lips is silly. Those who contradict Lucas say if a fish strung by the lower lip is towed fast alongside a boat, water pressure holds his mouth open so that he can't breathe properly.

Maybe—but who in heck wants a string of fish dragging alongside when he's running fast with the motor? And who wants them out there when he's rowing far, the drag during the boat sidewise? Any fishermen I've ever seen lift the fish in when he's moving from one fishing spot to another, or running in to dock. If he's going far, and the day is hot, he'll stop occasionally and drop them out a while

Sawyer Grahams Hosts To Tuesday Night Club

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer Graham entertained members of their Tuesday night bridge club March 20. Pineapple ice box cake and coffee were served to Messrs. and Mrs. Jerry Stoltz, J. L. Kemper, J. O. Burnett, Jr., and Ray Edgemon. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Christian.

High players were Mrs. Christian and Mr. Stoltz. Mrs. Christian and Mrs. Kemper binged.

The News in Brief

Mrs. J. E. Shelton of Oklahoma City is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright have been visiting in Weatherford and Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hoy spent the week end in Aspermont, visiting relatives and attending the 78th birthday celebration of his father, J. W. Hoy.

J. T. Hoy, president, and Joe Satterwhite, manager, of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce attended a chamber banquet at Tatum, N. M. last week.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hurd this week are her mother, Mrs. Arch Holmes, and sister-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Holmes and daughter, all of Seymour.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Thomason were her nephew's wife, Mrs. T. D. Baldwin, and son, Larry, of El Paso.

"Conscious" is that silly thing inside which hurts like a toothache when everything else feels, looks and tastes so good!

to regain their vitality.

A fisherman generally uses the motor only for going from one promising spot to another, and the oars to paddle around quietly while he casts. Then he's not rowing fast enough for the drag alongside to matter much, so he leaves the fish out. If they're strung by the point of the lower lip only, with a wire snap, they swim quietly alongside breathing normally. Such fish can be liberated with what is, in effect, no more than a pinhole, which will heal.

Drouth, Flood And Other Disasters Not To Affect Payments

In reply to questions propounded on the Senate floor by Senator Price Daniel, leading members of the Senate Agriculture Committee gave assurances that drouth, flood and other years of natural disaster will be excluded in the computation of Soil Bank payments under the new farm bill.

Daniel had offered an amendment for himself and Senator Lyndon B. Johnson to state that "average production" in disaster years would not be considered "normal production" within the meaning of the Soil Bank law.

Has Prolonged Drouth
He pointed out that the Southwest had experienced a prolonged and severe drouth, making the financial condition of farmers "even more precarious than that in other farming areas of the United States."

"At least some of these farmers would like to participate in the acreage reserve program," the Texas senator continued, "but they will be penalized further if their return is figured on the average production in recent years."

Assurance Is Given
Daniel was assured by Senators Ellender of Louisiana, Agriculture Committee chairman; Aiken of Vermont, ranking Republican member; and Humphrey of Minnesota, a leading Democratic member, that it is the clear intent of the Soil Bank legislation to exclude disaster years and that Agriculture Department officials had agreed to follow this interpretation.

"When we were formulating the bill, the matter was discussed in the committee with the officials of the Department of Agriculture," Senator Aiken, chief spokesman for the Soil Bank plan, reported.

"It is thoroughly understood that if a community suffers from drouth or other disaster, and if it has a crop failure or almost a crop failure, full allowance will be made, and that year will not be counted in arriving at the average production over a period of years," explained Aiken.

Daniel then withdrew his amendment, pointing out that his colloquy with Senators Ellender, Aiken, and Humphrey would be printed in the Congressional Record and would accomplish the same purpose in clarifying the matter.

TESAN, Kay Billings, Editor, 1008 E. Lons, Brownfield, Texas.

Mrs. Billings has just taken over the editor's helm from Alma Cade, who recently moved to Odessa. Working with her is Ruby Nell Hopkins, co-editor, and of course acting in true ESA spirit, there's plenty of help available from the other 17 Brownfield members. The Tesan is only three years old, and had its beginning in Fort Worth under the editorship of Marjorie Irby. The first issues were mimeographed and distributed to state chapters. Last year the Iowa Park chapter published the Tesan, with Mildred Mills as editor. Only chapters in high standing are eligible to publish the Tesan, and Beta Theta distinguished themselves last year in order to receive the editorship this year. When local Beta Theta chapter of the ESA began publication, there were some 130 subscribers to the Tesan. Now the Brownfield chapter proudly acknowledges that there are more than 400 Tesans mailed to subscribers in Texas, as well as other states, each month. Since each chapter must bear the expense of publication, the Beta Theta launched a massive subscription drive. Now subscriptions pay most of the expenses, although the chapter is sometimes called upon to solicit advertising to make up the difference in expenses. Beta Theta uses all proceeds from projects for philanthropic work in Brownfield and Terry County and to quote some of the members, "We prefer to use our money for welfare. That's why we use other means to raise money for the publication of the Tesan."

Thus far, the members of Beta Theta chapter of the ESA in Brownfield have not had to use one cent of money from their welfare fund. With three more months to go before the state convention, when a new chapter will be named to take over publication, they feel confident that they will be able to publish the Tesan under its own steam. "We've managed so far," Editor Billings said calmly, "and we know the Tesan will manage to sustain itself for the remainder of the year."

Bell P-TA Plans Guidance Program

The Frances Bell Parent Teachers Association will hold its next regular meeting April 5 at 4 p. m. in the cafeteria at the new Colonial Heights Elementary School, located in the 1100 block on E. Reppito. Dr. Robert Hoey will direct a panel discussion on the subject, "The Guidance Program of Elementary Level."

An important meeting of the Executive Committee will be held at 3 p. m. in the cafeteria, preceding the regular meeting. Mrs. Roy Timmons, president, urges all members to be present.

Mrs. Roy Herod Hostess To I-Deal Bridge Club

Mrs. Roy Herod entertained the I-Deal Bridge Club March 14 in her home.

Three tables were placed for bridge. Mesdames Wilson Collins and Otis Lerner scored high. Mrs. Joe McGowan was low. Angel food cake and lemonade were served to Mesdames Collins, Rebecca Ballard, Chris Hafer, Lerner, Bob Land, Earl Layman, A. M. Muldrow, McGowan, E. Y. Wilder, Bruce Zorns, and Grady Goodpasture.

Delphian Study Club Members Learn Ways of County Soil Conservation

"Ways of Terry County Soil Conservation" was the topic of study for members of the Delphian Club when they met at the Seleta Jane Brownfield club house March 21. Hostesses were Mrs. Virgil Bynum and Mrs. Crede Gore. Mrs. Weldon Callaway was program chairman and introduced Mr. Henry Williamson, head of the Soil Conservation office in Brownfield. Mr. Williamson showed a group of colored slides explaining practices of soil conservation in Terry County.

In a business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Nathan Chesshir, the members were told that packages of clothing and other essentials had been sent to Mary Miranda in Sanatorium, Texas. The projects committee announced that they would make place mats to be used Easter Sunday at the hospital. The projects committee also reported that they had purchased material to be made up into clothing for Gail Young, and that they had helped in addressing 3500 envelopes in which Easter seals were mailed to Terry Countians and had helped place some 90 containers for the crippled children's campaign.

Mrs. Chesshir reported on a letter she had received pertaining to the Terry County Cancer Society, and announced that members would meet in her home March 28 to make cancer dressings.

Three new members were received into the club: Mesdames K. B. Sadleir, Alvin Hallbauer, and Jon Cowser. Other members present were Mesdames, Ralph Kerley, Claude Buchanan, Crawford Burrow, Sr. Tim Faulkenberry, W. H. Moore, W. T. Pickett, K. D. Snedeker, Paul Ward, and E. E. Preston.

The serving table was laid with a linen cloth and was decorated with an Easter motif and bouquets of roses. Sandwiches, chocolate Easter eggs, and coffee were served.

GEE GEE'S Chit Chat!

Meant to mention last week that I went up and looked over the new Colonial Heights Elementary School and put my stamp of approval on it. It's certainly one of the most fabulous educational plants I've ever seen, and a far cry from the little red school house our older kids attended.

Incidentally, be sure to notice the calendar of events at the various churches in the paper this week. I've tried to cover everything, and if I've passed up your church, I'm sorry.

Big things this week end at Kyle Grocery, when they introduce their new Amiana Plan for Better Living to you. It's a plan in which you can buy both your freezer and the food on the very same finance plan at low, long terms. We're running a page ad in this week's issue explaining the plan and we've met Ed Sided, the Amiana representative from Lubbock, who's a fine boy and will be at Kyle's to give you first-hand information.

As the Easter season approaches, we get all immersed in eggs, bunnies, new frocks, frilly hats and end up the week in a dead heat. And as I think of Easter, I wonder if we all really get the true spirit of Easter for trying to have a finer Easter outfit than the Joneses down the street have. Certainly have your new Spring outfits, and certainly, wear them.

Miss Gladye Faye Followell Becomes Bride of Glenn W. Reppond March 25

In a double ring ceremony read in the First Baptist Church at Wellman at 3:30 March 25, Miss Gladye Faye Followell became the bride of Glenn W. Reppond of Brownfield. Parents of the couple are Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Followell of Wellman and Mr. and Mrs. Benjie Reppond of Brownfield.

The father of the bride performed the rites before an archway of greenery flanked with baskets of white gladioli.

Plenty of Easter egg hunts is the offering this week, and my sons all agog over Easter. He's been visiting his "cussants" over in Tahoka, but is getting primed for the big day come Sunday.

Incidentally, be sure to notice the calendar of events at the various churches in the paper this week. I've tried to cover everything, and if I've passed up your church, I'm sorry. These preachers are busy fellows, you know, and sometimes they just can't be located. But I certainly appreciate their co-operation in giving me their church news to pass along to you. Hope you're enjoying reading about them.

Hello again!
Another week has come and gone and only about seven weeks of school left. Our students are really working hard these last few weeks to make up for some of those low grades. Some of the high school students and teachers went to Meadow Friday. The following students won places in the Interscholastic League events: Jerry Carmichael, extemporaneous speaking-slide rule, first place; Loen Abbott, slide, rule, first place; Jenelle Hulise, number sense, third place; Pat Runnels, junior girl's declamation, second place; Larry Sims, junior boy's declamation, third place; Sabra Welcher, senior girl's declamation, second place;

Martha Goza, girl's poetry reading, second place, and spelling, third place with Danny Lowe; Charles Goza, boy's poetry reading, first place. Mrs. Akers, Mr. Ansell and Mr. Goza took the students.

The sophomore class had a skating party Monday night at Seagraves. Those who attended were Martha Goza, Billy Rich, Jimmy Rex, Sue Sanders, Norma Marley, La Rue Rex, Bill Adams, Kenneth Taylor, Karen Hamm, Gano Sanders, Loen Abbott, Dan Neal, Ross Betcher, Johnny Gaston, Clyde Bolen, Charles Goza, Jimmy Goza, Ethelyn Buris, Margaret Ingram, Sammy and Danny Rex, and Diana Goza. Mr. and Mrs. Goza, Miss Hines, Mrs. Charlie Rex, and Mrs. Shelby Sanders, also went along.

We noticed Tuesday morning that some of the kids who want to the skating party weren't getting around very well. We wonder why? But Johnny Gaston who took most of the falls, was ready to go skating again Tuesday Morning.

The boys and girls went to Union Monday afternoon to play volleyball. The boys won and the girls lost.

up for the days school was dismissed during the bad weather.

During public school week, a Science Fair was sponsored by the Wellman P. T. A. The grade school and high school science and biology classes participated. In grade school, the first prize of $3.00 went to the 5th grade room for their project of "King Cotton." The second prize of $2.00 went to the 4th grade room in their display, "How Plants Grow." In high school, the first prize of $3.00 went to Margaret Ingram, a biology student, for her balanced aquarium display. The second prize of $2.00 went to Joe Roy Golden, a science student, for his project, an electric fence. These prizes were presented after the P. T. A. program.

A track meet was held at Wellman, March 27th, at 3:00 p.m. Union, Meadow, Plains, and Wellman participated in the meet. We don't know as of yet who won. The winners will be recognized in next week's column.

Texas
"Texas" was originally an Indian word meaning "friends", and was used as a greeting. It still is even today, as in "Hiya Texas!" Texas has the distinction of being the only state that is the largest.

I Promise
Several hundred teenagers in Chicago recently took a pledge under the leadership of U. S. district judge William Campbell. The pledge reads I promise:

To respect my parents and act so as to bring them honor.

To cherish my school, for it gives me the tools to think and work by.

To serve God. To be a credit to my country. And to make my country, and my community, a better place to live in.

This is a wonderful pledge for all of us to live by. Will you take the pledge?

See you next week with news from "Down Wellman Way."

Margaret

Mrs. H. T. Carr will have all her children home with her for Easter. They are Hiram Thomas home on leave from the Navy; Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Standley of Canyon; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer of Brownfield.

FOOT SAVING EDUCATION

by Barney Doss

Does sleeping posture effect walking habits?

I have heard only one lecture that touched upon the subject. It was the opinion of this authority that there has been an increase of cases of pigeon toes and splay-foot (like a duck) since it has become popular to train babies to sleep on their stomachs. The speaker pointed out that other animals that are anatomically similar to humans sleep on their sides.

My experience in the shoe store has been that almost all pigeoned toed children sleep on their stomachs with their toes turned in. Three mothers who retrained their children to sleep on their sides have commented on improvement in walking.

It is interesting to note that the left foot of a righthanded child is more likely to toe-in than the right foot it.

Following their marriage, the couple plan to make their home in Abilene, where Mr. Evans is employed.

One of the staff had a wonderful jolly surprise Tuesday morning when Mae Jones (Mrs. Earl) arrived on the scene bearing all the makings of a fine tea-party coffee pot and all. Not to mention a super devil's food cake with thick white frosting. It seems that Mae, on behalf of the Alpha Omega Study Club, wanted to show their appreciation for our co-operation in helping their club to win second place on their Publicity Book at the district Federated Women's Club convention at Plainview recently. Although many of the various organizations have expressed their thanks for our giving them publicity, mostly we get beefs for misplacing names, etc. It is certainly a rarity for us to be recipients of a party, and speaking for all of us here at the News-Herald, we deeply appreciate Mae's thoughtfulness. Naturally, kind words are always gladly received, but for such a lovely party, we are exceptionally grateful. Thanks, Mae and your sister Alpha Omegas. And while I'm on the subject, I would like to make this a sort of special thank you for the rest of you who are so co-operative in giving me your news. It's a great time-saver for me when you write out your club news and bring it in to me. I would also like to thank the secretaries of the various churches, who are pretty well loaded with their own work but still take time to give any and all news available to them, no matter when I call them. It is particularly gratifying to me when the clubs can win awards on their projects through any publicity I can give them. And please don't feel that you have to make a special effort, as Mae did, to show me your thanks for anything I or any of the staff do here, do for you, although we like it! A kind word tossed our way occasionally makes all our efforts worthwhile. And of course, we're always See CHIT CHAT, Page 3

by Barney Doss

Why do shoes have heels?

To assume that our feet need heels one must assume that God gave us a heelbone that is too short. It is hardly a safe assumption to make. Children get around beautifully in their bare feet. Their heelbones are just as long in winter as they are in summer.

Primitive man had the best of Mrs. Primitivo made his foot covering of skins, as we do, except that the only way they had to tan the leather was to chew it. In no time at all the heel wore through and once it was worn out it was difficult to patch.

Some jaw-weary caveman put the patch on when he made the shoe and when the patch wore through he still had a shoe that could be fixed. From that common sense beginning we have drifted upward until we raise the heel of a three year old a half inch, a six year old an inch, and the really stylish shoes for women hit three inches.

One and a half inch heels used to be considered as necessary as a good strong corset. Fortunately young people have their feet on the ground. They wear heels for dress occasions but most of the time they are in their stocking feet around the house. They will miss the exquisite torture of bunions, corns and hammer toes. It is too bad that boys do not go for freedom of feet as the girls do.

willing to admit our mistakes when they are called to our attention. I must have had half a dozen souls call my hand this week for mentioning Mrs. Cruce's tulips last week. I've been informed they are everything from "rocus to some long-sounding horticultural name, and if I'm wrong, I concede. But, whatever they are, they're still pretty and I absolutely refuse to refute that. And whatever they are, the Bruce Knights have a lawn full of them, too, and that, too, is a charming light.

Noticed that the redbuds all over town are about to pop their buttons. The fruit trees have been in full bloom all week, and I'm sure you enjoy seeing them as much as I. Sorry if I seem rick on the subject of Spring, but it really does something to me every year.

While mulling around, I've noticed that many people are digging in their yards, and that, among others, Virgil Crawford, Bruce Zorns, Mrs. Addie Miller, and the Marson Apartment have scraped off the tops of their lawns down to sidewalk level in preparation for the cool green, (Grass hat is.) The Joe McGowans have obviously gotten Spring fever, as they've remodelled their home, bricked it, and installed an underground watering system. They are just a few of the majority of local citizens who take pride in having beautiful grounds and homes.

Billie Craig (Mrs. M. J. Jr.), local housefrau, club woman, and optimist, is certainly the latter. She can find a bright spot in sand storms that all of us could find if we'd only admit it: at least when the sand blows, no one expects a housewife to clean house, so she can lie on the divan and watch TV or read a novel or do anything that she desires with her time — all with a perfectly clear conscience.

Many of our local gentry are now making an exodus toward their favorite fishing holes and all times that they can get away. Over the week end, it must have been old Brownfield week at Lake Thomas, near Snyder. There were scads of Brownfieldites there, fishing and loafing. Charlie Price was in earlier this week and was telling me that he and Lee Loftis have parked their trailer house close together down there and have run a concrete patio between them. Sounds like they plan to have some pleasant times together, and I hope they do. The best tonic for a busy businessman is to get away from it all, even if it's only for a few hours.

Nick's Cafe and Sid's Cleaners are on the "turn up" list this week. Sid is busy chopping off the front of his tailor shop to make room for the new highway going through... and is still open for business despite the fact that his front yard is simply a mess. Will soon be fixed up, though, so please bear with them. Nick's Cafe is adding a foyer to their front. Of concrete block, which will be painted (match) and will have glass brick to let in the light and two doors to let in the customers. Just a couple of our progressive business men in whom we take great pride.

Our local Brownies (Guiding Girl Scouts) will launch their cooky sale this week. Today, in fact, I believe. These delicious cookies sell for just 50c and I'm sure you'll be glad to greet those cuties when they ring your doorbell and will buy several boxes from them.

Easter is just around the corner and everyone seems to be getting in a high gear. The old Easter bunny is busy grinding out eggs and other goodies for the kiddies. Mamas are putting the finishing touches on the Easter frocks, and church secretaries are sweating over whether the cantata is going to be all right or if the soloist is going to wake up with a sore throat the day before Easter. Marie Reed (Mrs. Nowel), secretary at the First Methodist Church, falls in the last category. Every time I've talked to her for the past week, she's threatened to do away with herself again. However, busy as she is, she found time to write up several notes for me and to bring them by the office. And yes, she's definitely one of those I was referring to in the second paragraph. Anyway, she is directing the church choir in their Easter cantata, "He That Liveth," and I'm sure you'll not only want to hear it this Sunday night at 7:30 but will want to listen over KTFY at 3:30 p.m. Easter day for their presentation.

Not slighting (intentionally, at least) anyone, be sure to read all the news about the local churches

Betty Criswell Pledges Club

ABELLENE, (SpI)—Betty Criswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Criswell of Brownfield, has been invited to pledge a social club at McMurry College.

Miss Criswell, a freshman at McMurry, is pledging Kappa Phi women's social club organized in 1938.

Miss Phil Chappell, dean of women at McMurry, said that the purpose of the college's nine social clubs for men and women is to promote social and cultural growth among their members, and to boost school spirit among McMurry students.

A 1955 graduate of Brownfield High School, Miss Criswell was a member of the F. T. A. pep squad at McMurry. She is majoring in speech, and minoring in education.

and organizations and their Easter plans.

I did want to give you some good fashion tips this week (since the service is paid for, I hate not using it), but have been so long-winded that I'll only have room for one or two. When may one wear a Spring straw hat? Any time even if snow is on the ground, according to the experts. A spring hat is a must, they say, and no calendar date can be established as correct. Also, fashion experts say hats are definitely "the look" this season, and particular attention should be paid to eye make-up, with the "Oriental" look the very thing to bring out the beauty of both hat and face. Also tops in fashion are the empire waistslines and boxers. And that should hold you until next week. And those of you who went out with.

Here is another week that has come and gone. Everyone is looking forward to the time when school will be out. Especially the seniors.

Monday afternoon the high school "kids" saw a movie. It was entitled "MacBeth."

The Seniors have received their invitations. We all have smiling faces now.

Here is a little poem we thought the Seniors would like:
Who said sedate Seniors?
Why, of course we are the stuff
We run things like we want Them.

We're sedate but we're happy.
We're also full of fun;
We like to tease the Sophomores
And make the Fishes run.

Here is another week that has come and gone. Everyone is looking forward to the time when school will be out. Especially the seniors.

Daters that were seen driving through the neighborhood are: Rodney Herring-Carl Ann Beavers, Doris Howell-Claud Chambers, Janice Newsom - Kenneth Hancock, Eddie Powell-Judy Land, Peggy Herring-Robert Wilks, Carol Ann Garner-Nolan Cornett, David Jabe-Barbara Bishop, Joyce Foster-Billy Harlan, Veneta Ray Wayne, Metcalf, Wanda Hunter-James Ervin.

We'll sign of with this last shout:

Cub Golfers Win Pecos Tourney

Mike Hamilton, Don O'Neal, Glenn 40-44-84, Danny Powers and Preston Glenn teamed to give the Brownfield Cub team a 3-1 victory in the first Annual Pecos Invitation Golf tournament for High School teams Saturday.

Brownfield's team total of 317 was 13 strokes ahead of favored Monahans. It also beat highly regarded Hobbs, N. M. although they were entered without two of their better players. Other teams in the tournament were Hobbs 333, McCamey 337, Pecos A 335, Wink 343 and Pecos B 430.

Hamilton fired a 36-39-75 for second low honors of the day. Other Cub scores were: O'Neal 41-37-78; Powers 43-37-80 and

Picking Off

Dub Helleman, Cos Hamilton, Cliff Jones, Eldon Cornelius, Ches Gore and George Collier caught over 500 pounds of catfish on the Conchas River west of Presidio last week. They put in eight nights of fishing and got home Saturday night.

Troy Noel and son fished at Colorado City without much luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gage, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Line, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Machen, Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Line of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Line of Midland and Misses Gladys and Wari Swain also fished at Colorado City over the weekend.

Lawrence Barber, well-known Segraves athlete, is taking entrance examinations for the Air Force Academy. He's been appointed by Cong. George Mahon.

Lloyd Hunt, the coach who built Meadow into a football power before moving to Dalou about five years ago, has resigned. He didn't announce future plans.

You also probably noticed where Elmer Wilson, who resigned as Meadow coach awhile back, is now an assistant at Plainview.

Joe England, Monahans coach for the last three years, got off a solid blast at some of the fans when he announced his resignation. The gist of the whole thing is "if groups who find fault would bend their efforts towards helping remedy the faults instead of just being critical, coaching would be lot easier.

Anonymous phone calls and similarly unpleasant acts are unalloyed for but that was the type they England put up with.

Speaking of Monahans, the Lobo golfers were touted "as probably the best in state high school circles today" prior to the tournament at Pecos Saturday. Hamilton was in a hot duel with Paul Gene Arnold of Pecos for medalist honors that wasn't decided until the last hole.

Both were even par through the front nine and were even going into the 11th. Arnold got a par over to drop a stroke back.

Peace will take his team to Odessa Friday for the annual West Texas Relays golf tournament.

Track Team Wins Points At Monahans

Brownfield finished eighth in a 14-team field at the Monahans Invitational Track meet Saturday afternoon with four men sharing in 6½ points.

Jackie Meeks placed jumped 21 feet 2 inches to place second in that event. Ellis Cox high jumped 5' 8" for a second place tie and Bob Wilkinson tied for fourth in the Broad Jump with a 19' 11¼" leap. The same three boys with Gerald Jenkins as fourth man placed fourth in the 440-yard relay.

Coach Charley Jones will take his foursome and perhaps some others to the West Texas Relays in Odessa this weekend. Jones also expects Johnny Raybon to start working out next week. Raybon had a minor operation on a leg muscle and has been out since the start of the season.

Seminole Pair Adopts Four of Same Family

With the filing of final decrees, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Graves of Seminole recently became the adoptive parents of four children brothers and sisters, June, 4; Carolyn, 6; Jerry Don, 8 and Ernie, 10.

Court officials said the quadruple adoption probably is the only one in Gaines county history and possibly, the only one in the state.

Graves is the son of the late Dr. G. W. Graves, who practiced medicine here for many years. Mrs. Graves is the sister of Shorty Hayhurst, one of the first coaches at Brownfield High School.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Keating

It has been proved scientifically and times without number that neither civilized nor primitive men have any homing instinct or a compass in their heads, such as displayed by migratory birds and fish. An Indian cannot find his way through country he does not know. On a one-day trip he might be able to find his trail home, but he couldn't do it on a longer outing.

Occasionally we hear an old woodsman say he can find his way anywhere, that he never gets lost, and does not need a compass. He may honestly think so, but on careful investigation we find that he subconsciously obeys one rule.

The rule? It's as easy as falling off a log, according to Col. Townsend Whelen, camping editor of Sports Afield magazine: Always keep track of the directions and distances of your wanderings. You know where you have gone, therefore where you are. At first this requires that attention be given to directions and distances, but after a time it becomes automatic.

Actually, this rule may be translated: Use common sense. This involves always taking the precaution to keep yourself oriented which means that you are sure of your directions at all times. It also involves remembering how far you have gone in a certain direction.

Keeping oriented is easy in clear weather — being able to see the sky, the sun, moon and stars will tell you the points of the compass. But a compass is essential on a cloudy day or night, when there are no recognizable landmarks. Put one of those guys who boast that they have a compass in their heads adrift in a small boat on a large lake in a fog, and see where he comes out!

Knowing how to gauge distance is very important if you are not to get lost. In most rough countries the distance you travel in any recorded direction is best kept track of by time. On level ground and a good trail you cover about three miles in an hour.

Hi! From Junior High

The Brownfield Junior High Band went to Plainview Friday. Approximately 90 pupils made the trip and were accompanied by Mr. Williams and Mr. Smith. Plans for this trip had been made only since Monday. Therefore the band practiced from 8:00 to 8:30 every morning, 4:30 to 6:00 every afternoon, and every evening at 7:30 to 9:30. This was all for the best because they won first place in the playing and second place in the sightreading.

Winners in the eight grade contest, sponsored by the Brownfield Junior Woman's Study Club, were Don Cary, Ann Patterson, and Isable Cabrera. Entries in the contest were themes on "What America Means To Me". Mrs. Bob Campbell presented cash prizes to the winners on behalf of the study club in assembly Thursday.

Also in assembly on the same day was the Brownfield Junior High Chorus. They sang several songs of different varieties. Their teacher is Mr. Brette. Our congratulations for a wonderful program.

The seventh grade track team has been selected for Brownfield Junior High. They are: Adams, Tankersley, Boots, Davis, Crites, Prewitt, Mason, Steen, Clark, Reddler, Gutierrez, Hill, Bradley, McDugal, Murphy, Collins, Holland

Irrigation Continues To Expand in Texas

An estimated 6,200,000 acres of Texas crop and pasture lands were under irrigation last year. The figures were obtained by R. V. Thurmond, irrigation specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, from the county agents of the state and was completed in September 1955.

Thurmond received reports from 238 counties which showed that 5,867,000 acres were irrigated by gravity and just over 350,000 acres by sprinkler systems.

Total farms using supplemental irrigation numbered 39,213. With 42,674 of them, supplied the water for 4,940,000 acres.

As to crops and pastures receiving the water, Thurmond said almost two million acres of grain sorghums and only a slightly less acreage of cotton were irrigated to lead all other crops by a wide margin.

More than half a million acres of vegetables and just under a half million acres of rice were also irrigated. Pastures, temporary and perennial, totaling more than 250,000 acres were followed by alfalfa, orchards (mostly citrus) and a long listing of other crops.

IS AN ANNUAL SHOWING

Seagraves Monopolizes Win In Gaines County Livestock Event

Grand champion honors in the big swine division of the annual Gaines County Livestock Show, ended March 10, went to Jimmy Westbrook of Seagraves FFA, who showed his Hampshire barrow. Westbrook's animal, termed by many as "the best ever exhibited in the annual event" and bred by E. S. Ballew of Clarendon, was entered this week in the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show at Lubbock.

Another Seagraves FFA youth, Charles Ward, took reserve champion ribbon with his Hampshire barrow, which was bred by Irl Dowstern of Seagraves.

Grand Champion Gilt
 The grand champion gilt, a Chester White—this animal was shown by a third Seagraves FFA member, Jack Prestidge. The reserve champion gilt, a Poland China, belonged to Don Faulkenberry of Loop FFA.

Westbrook also showed the first-place pen of three market hogs, while David Adams of Seagraves FFA placed first with his sow and litter.

Other placings in the swine division were as follows:
 Chester White barrows— Jimmy Westbrook, Seagraves FFA, 1st; Wayne Mann, Seminole FFA, 2nd; Joe Hughes, Seminole FFA, 3rd.
 Duroc barrows— Carl Anderson, Seminole FFA, 1st; James Stanley, Seminole FFA, 2nd; Irl Dowstern, Seagraves FFA, 3rd; Wayne Anderson, Seminole FFA, 4th.
 Hampshire barrows— Jimmy Westbrook, Seagraves FFA, 1st; Charles Ward, Seminole

FFA, 2nd; Billy Harris, Seagraves, 3rd.
 Duroc gilts— Charles Ward, Seagraves FFA, 1st, 2nd and 3rd; Charles Welch, Seagraves FFA, 4th.
 Hampshire gilts— David Adams 1st and 2nd, Jimmy Westbrook, 3rd; J. R. Light, Loop FFA, 4th.
 Poland China gilts— Don Faulkenberry, 1st and 2nd; Jimmy McCleskey, Loop 4-H, 3rd; Dean Faulkenberry and Douglas Floyd, Loop FFA, 4th.
 Sow and Litter— David Adams, 1st; Jimmy Westbrook, 2nd; Eugene Riggs, Seagraves FFA, 3rd; David Hill, Seminole FFA, 4th.
 The barrow and gilt classes were bred classes this year for the first time. In previous years, there were only two classes of barrows and two of gilts, lights and heavies, regardless of breed. This year, the only classes in which there were more than one breed were the championship classes and pens of three.

School Lunch and Milk Program Increase Note

Both the school lunch and school milk programs continued to expand during the first half of the current school year.

The number of children eating complete lunches under the National School Lunch Program is up 10 per cent over last year, and the number of schools approved for the Special School Milk Program is up 48 per cent.

Tomato acreages drop in East Texas areas
 Austin—Farmers in East Texas are abandoning the growing of tomatoes because the crop is ceasing to be profitable, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

In 1944 a total of 13,130 growers planted 33,592 acres, but by 1954, there were only 4,794 growers and 8,832 acres.

The Bureau's monthly report on agriculture shows Texas farmers' cash income continued to decline during the first month of 1956, dropping 17 per cent from the January 1955 level.

SIGNS OF LIFE

Accidents Are So Often Avoidable

Willful disregard for traffic signs and signals by motorists and pedestrians is the greatest contributing factor to the alarmingly high Texas traffic accident toll.

Special emphasis this month is the year-around campaign for traffic safety is knowledge of and obedience to traffic signs and signals, the "Signs of Life" for motorists and pedestrians.

There is no way of knowing just how many traffic accidents can be traced to disregard for traffic signs and signals, few people admit such a traffic violation . . . and some of them don't live to explain it. But there is definitely a close tie-in between traffic violations and traffic accidents.

Most common violations accounting for traffic accidents are exceeding the posted speed limit, improper passing (these two resulted in the death of the two Lubbock people at Hobbs Saturday evening), failure to keep to the right of the center line, failure to yield the right-of-way and disregard of stop and warning signs.

Traffic signs and signals were put there to protect human life on our streets and highways, but unless they are faithfully observed they will prove of little value in preventing accidents.

It all goes back to the same old story . . . if the violator could only hurt himself few people would care if they killed themselves off in a few months, but it doesn't happen that way. No, it is usually the innocent, law abiding driver who suffers most. Let's not forget those signs are there to protect you and others in modern traffic.

ALL FOR ONE . . .

That One Is "A Bigger, Better Brownfield"

In as much as the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce has shown amazing growth in such a few short years, and due to the fact that local interest has correspondingly increased it might be well to look into the history of this type organization.

No less an authority on the subject of Chambers of Commerce than the United States

Chamber points out that one reef upon which the ship of state of many Chambers of Commerce have foundered is the failure to realize that the membership of the Chamber of Commerce includes all types of business endeavor and that the best interest of none of these groups can be served if each tries to serve itself to the detriment of the others.

It was and still is, difficult for many to realize that each line of industry, or business, or the professions, is in the Chamber of Commerce, not for direct benefits—aside from certain direct services—but for what it can contribute in the way of brains and energy to the broad community situation, the condition of which spells success or failure for any and all of its participants.

Over and above this, however, is the fact that the Chamber of Commerce is essentially an American institution, well supported by a large segment of the business community, and with a real record of devotion to public welfare and of genuine achievement to its credit.

A CHALLENGE

Wildlife Face Extinction

This is National Wildlife Week. The theme and purpose, according to the National Wildlife Federation and other sponsoring groups, is "Save Endangered Wildlife." So we are learning about the survival problems faced by the whooping crane, the grizzly bear, the prairie chicken and other animals that have been backed into corners of their original living space.

Why save an endangered species?

The late Aldo Leopold, teacher of wildlife management and philosopher of the conservation movement, said to do so was another proof of man's superiority over other animals. His words, while dedicating a monument to the extinct passenger pigeon:

"For one species to mourn the death of another is a new thing under the sun . . . we, who have lost our pigeons, mourn the loss. Had the funeral been ours, the pigeons would hardly have mourned us. In this fact, rather than in Mr. DuPont's nylons or in Mr. Vannevar Bush's bombs, lies objective evidence of our superiority over the beasts."

We think there is a challenge here for the intelligence as well as the heart of man. It is a task for the scientists, and for the rest of us who claim proudly to progress by the findings and the rules of science, which are nothing more than the rules of nature.

If we cannot figure out how to save some wilderness for the grizzlies, how to check the soil erosion and pollution that are wiping out the grayling, how to manage the grasslands so as to keep the prairie chicken around, how can we be certain of our own future on the face of the earth?

In short, if man cannot save the bighorn and the condor from extinction, how can he hope to save mankind?

Ridiculous, to Put It Mildly

THE AMERICAN WAY

THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW

By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

A Federal Judge—Frank A. Picard—handed down a decision in February of this year that would seem to re-open the way for business corporations to make contributions to political campaigns. He dismissed an indictment which charged the United Automobile Workers Union with having violated the Federal Corrupt Practices Act in the 1954 Michigan primary and general elections. Specifically the union was charged with having illegally used union dues to the extent of $5,985 from its general fund for telecasts to influence votes.

While it is common knowledge that many times the amount of $5,985 was expended by the UAW in political campaigning, that was the amount of the specific case cited in the indictment.

George Peck

In his opinion expressed in dismissing the suit, Judge Picard wrote:

"According to the authorities, the union was not making an expenditure on behalf of a political candidate. It desired to inform its members and others of the position of the union on those seeking certain federal offices."

"It was exercising the right of free speech. The question then might present itself as to whether or not what the union did was in fact 'make a contribution.'"

"This might be important if the union were charged with 'making a contribution.' It is not."

In commenting on this ruling, the Ithaca (Michigan) Herald said in part in its February 10, 1956 issue:

" . . . It would seem to us that the Judge is drawing a pretty fine line of distinction between the exercise of free speech and a 'contribution' to a political cause through broadcasts.

"Under such a ruling we wonder whether the way is not open for large corporations to make their 'contributions' to political campaigns through exercising their right of 'free speech' through TV broadcasts. Corporations are prohibited by law from making any political contributions."

"To most impartial observers, there is little difference between a well-heeled and powerful union and a well-heeled and powerful corporation entering the political arena. Either should be kept out or all restrictions removed and both given an opportunity for free debate of issues and candidates."

The Romeo (Mich.) Observer-Press in an editorial on the same date as its Ithaca contemporary, had this to say:

" . . . Judge Picard ruled — to the real surprise of few who have followed similar cases in the past — that there was no cause for

LOOKING AHEAD

Russians Say Socialism 'First' Step Toward Communism

One of the key strategies in the Communist conspiracy to enslave the world's 2.3 billion people in a brutal dictatorship was clearly set forth in the pronouncements of Red leaders at the 20th Communist Party Congress held a few weeks ago in Moscow. The leaders stressed that Communists must work for Socialism first — in the nations not yet in the grasp of the Reds. This has been heralded as a "new line" by many high officials of other nations, including some in America.

"Socialism first," as a strategy line for the Communists, is not new; it is as old as the Communist Party. Karl Marx wrote in the Manifesto 108 years ago that a program of Socialism was the first step. Lenin and his band of murderous revolutionaries made their first move in Russia helping Kerensky establish a Socialist government. In fact, wherever the true Communist strategy is published the Party conspirators are told to work for Socialism first.

"Line" For America

The "line" which the Red bosses in Moscow restated at the 20th Congress was dutifully echoed in the February 28 issue of the Communist Daily Worker, published in New York. One of the top American Communists wrote these words: "The Communists advocate and desire a peaceful path to socialism . . ." In the Daily Worker these words constitute merely a renewal of old instructions to the thousands of hidden Reds in the U. S. A. who are infiltrated into all walks of life, including political parties.

Unless the Reds can swing a nation into Socialism, and thus get their secret agents into key positions of power, they do not resort to revolution. Their special strategy in our nation is to disguise the Socialism they are advocating, give it the flavor of liberal "social reform." The scheme, Marx wrote, is to gradually transfer ownership or control of the production facilities from private citizens to the government. This "public ownership" is a strategic step in the Marxist program. The program, Marx wrote, "cannot be effected except by means of despotic inroads on the rights of (private) property."

Twinship is Official

There are still a great many people who do not understand the inter-relationship of Socialism and Communism. I have two documents on my desk which I wish every American over 12 years of age could carefully examine. One is an official campaign publication of the Socialist-Labour Party of England; the other is a "special edition" of the Communist Manifesto. The special Manifesto was published by the Socialist-Labour Party of England as a token of appreciation and brotherly regard for the Communists. "Who can doubt our common inspiration?" asks the Socialist-Labour Party in a foreword to the Manifesto.

Perhaps the most significant facts about the Socialist-Labour Party's campaign brochure and the Manifesto are the two platforms, one Socialist, the other Communist. Here are the official platforms (the Socialist planks numbered 1-2-3 etc., and the Communist planks A-B-C etc.): (1) Public, or government, ownership of the essential industries. (F) Factories and instruments of production owned by the State. (2)

Government ownership of the railroads and other transport. (B) Centralization of the means of communication and transportation in the hands of the State. Identical Aims

(3) Government ownership of the Bank of England. (C) Centralization of credit in the hands of the State, by means of a national bank with State capital and an exclusive monopoly. (4) Government ownership of the land. (D)

AUSTIN, Tex. — A long battle for interposition action begins in Texas next week.

At its Tuesday meeting in Houston the State Democratic Executive Committee will answer Gov. Allan Shivers' proposal to place the interposition question on the primary ballot.

Reports also are to be made by the party's legal subcommittee and the Texas Committee on School Segregation. Both have been studying the suggested interposition referendum.

Governor Shivers is expected to ask voters to join his crusade against federal encroachment by giving the legislature a mandate for interposition. He will address the committee at a night meeting to which all Democrats from the Houston area are invited.

Later, Shivers will visit various parts of the nation. He will talk to leaders, without regard to party, and make speeches to gain nationwide support for interposition movement.

Also on the executive committee's agenda will be the laying of groundwork for the upcoming convention battles. Liberal-loyalists have indicated clearly that they intend to fight the conservative party leadership at precinct, county and state meetings.

Favorite Son Approved

Speaker Sam Rayburn's proposal that Texas Democratic convention delegates be chosen who will support Senate Leader Lyndon Johnson as the favorite son candidate for presidential nomination, won general approval.

Texas GOP Plans Strategy

Texas Republicans will bypass the holding of primaries this year. They will concentrate on the general election.

At their Austin meeting the State Executive Committee agreed (1) to nominate by convention; (2) to hold precinct conventions May 5, county conventions May 8 and the state convention May 22 in Houston; and (3) to focus efforts on the reelection in November of President Eisenhower and Dallas Congressman Bruce Alger, Texas' only Republican congressman.

Texas' delegation to the national GOP convention is expected to be solidly pro-Eisenhower, but the touchy question of a vice presidential nomination has been carefully avoided.

Vaccine Stretching Debated

Public health officials are in disagreement over a proposal to delay third polio shots in order to extend the dwindling vaccine supply to more people.

A two-shot plan was endorsed by the Public Health Service in Washington. Such a plan would stretch the still-short supply of vaccine to cover 25 to 30 million persons, officials said.

Dr. Henry A. Hollie, Texas health commissioner, turned thumbs down. He said the difference between two shots and three "could be the difference between having paralytic polio and not having it."

Texas' supply is almost exhausted. However, a rush order of 150,000 cubic centimeters of the vaccine is expected to arrive before the end of the month. One cubic centimeter is sufficient for one inoculation.

Meanwhile 11 new cases of polio are reported in Texas, bringing the year's total to date to 121.

Christmas comes as a reminder, to nations as well as to individuals, that the promise of peace on earth is coupled with good will toward men.

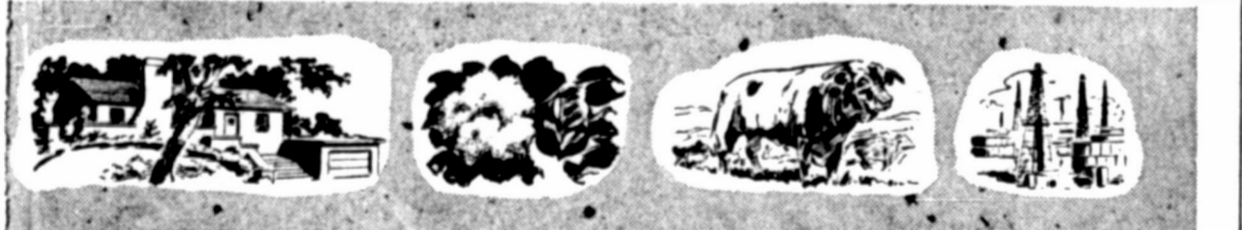

action against the union.

"As we understand it, that still leaves the so-called Corrupt Practices Act right where it was before—it applies to business concerns, especially corporations, but not to unions . . ."

"We have no quarrel with the judge's ruling. It is his job to interpret the law as written, not to decide what the law should have been. We must assume that Judge Picard has carried out his function to the letter . . ."

And the Observer-Press goes on to point out that business concerns are organized to further the economic aims of their participants and that unions are organized to further the economic claims of their members. "Why then," it asks, "should it not be just as corrupt for unions to contribute from the common pool of funds toward the election of a candidate for public office?"

To this I would like to add that there is one more and most important reason why unions should not be permitted to make political contributions: As long as workers are forced by the "union shop" to join a union and pay dues to that union in order to hold their jobs, that union should have no legal right to use one penny of those dues for political purposes. If for no other reason than to protect union members themselves from being deprived of their political freedom, to insure that protection there ought to be a law.

IF TRENDS CONTINUE

U.S. Cotton A Thing of the Past?

If present trends continue, there will be no export cotton business from the United States in three years, while in 20 years there will be no need for any U. S. cotton production.

Harold Ohlendorf, president of the Arkansas Farm Bureau, made the foregoing statement Feb. 21 in Texarkana.

Approximately 600 cotton farmers from the surrounding four-state area were attending the meeting, which was sponsored by the state farm bureaus of Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Other speakers at the sessions included Jack Lynn, Washington AFBF legislative director; and M. K. Horne, chief economist of the National Cotton Council.

A price reduction of two to three cents a pound, plus vigorous research and promotion programs were recommended as ways to overcome the present cotton situation by experts at the meeting.

The cotton producers in attendance were told that there is already on hand a 17-month supply of cotton for domestic consumption even before the 1956 crop is planted.

10 Million In 1960
Lynn told the group that by 1960 the nation's allotment could be cut to 10 million acres. He said that rayon is selling from five to nine cents cheaper than cotton.

Horne said a moderate reduction in cotton prices is needed. He Both take power from the citizens and concentrate it in government. Thus it is sound strategy for the Communists to work for Socialism first. They are of the brotherhood of Socialism, and with power in the hands of a few they can more easily take over.

germination and final yields are dependent upon available moisture, Ben Spears, extension agronomist, says farmers can't afford to gamble with planting seed of questionable quality.

Certified seed usually are the best of a particular variety available. Seed with a "blue tag" come from fields that were inspected during the growing season, properly handled at harvest time, cleaned and tested for purity and germination.

Certified seed may cost slightly more, but the added cost is good insurance, says Spears. He

Management Of Mineral Rights Subject of Book

A research report now available attempts to answer some of the problems Texas landowners encounter in managing their mineral rights.

"Mineral Rights Management by Private Landowners" is the title of a publication issued jointly by the agricultural experiment stations in 13 states where mineral rights usually are a consideration in land ownership.

Information and guiding principles are so outlined that a landowner may answer for himself such questions as: How may I lease my land to best advantage?

Should I sell some of my sub-surface rights and at what price? Should I reserve mineral rights when I sell my land? Under what conditions should I buy land with no mineral rights or with only part of them?

Management of mineral rights is a growing problem, with 33 percent of all land in the 13 states under oil or gas lease in 1954. Texas alone had 72 million acres under lease. Income from sub-surface rights in the 13 states since 1950 amounted to about 3 percent of the annual gross cash income from agricultural production.

advises farmers to buy now the seed needed for planting this year's crops. Seed supplies generally are adequate but last minute shoppers find local stocks depleted.

If the planting seed has not been treated chemically for seedborne and seedling diseases, Spears recommends treatment. He points out that farmers have found this practice profitable

ARTIST AT WORK

It's the day before Easter, and Johnnie is dyeing eggs. Like most little boys he finds the task pretty fascinating, and he revels in small seas of yellow and red and blue and green.

Easter morning, the eggs will have been hidden by his parents and he and his sister will excitedly hunt for them. Probably they'll stumble across some chocolate bunnies and candy chickens, also. But that will not be all of Easter for them.

Johnnie and his sister will be going to Church, too. They may not understand the complete significance of everything they hear and see... but they are old enough to know something of what Easter means. And with each passing year they will learn a little more.

Johnnie's parents have started early to train their children in spiritual as well as physical values. Easter eggs, yes. But Church, by all means, too. Not just on Easter, either... but on every Sunday in the year.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Overwintered Boll Weevil
Seed treatment such as this will replace the first two early season applications of insecticides, but will not be effective against the overwintered boll weevil.

Application of a recommended insecticide should be made before the squares are one-third grown to protect the young fruits from weevils or other insects.

Individuals can not purchase Compound 3911 because of the hazards involved. Severe toxicity to man calls for extreme caution, and all seed containers must be burned.

Farmers must transport their seed to and from the treating plant. There are two companies in Texas equipped for treating seeds, both at Waco. Seeds can be treated at a cost of about $3 an acre.

Advantages Are Cited
Advantages of the systemic insecticide are four to six weeks protection against certain insects, and elimination of the first two poison applications by spraying or dusting. Adverse weather conditions cannot destroy the effectiveness of the poison in the plants, report the entomologists. Loss of time for transportation of seed and $3 an acre as compared to $2 when dusting or spraying is employed offer some advantage.

Fastest-Ratio CRUISING AXLE

GMC brings you the most impressive improvements of all 1956 trucks

Now we can show you these great new GMC's that are further than ever ahead of all others. Their advances not only clinch power supremacy—but reach into fields still unexplored by other truck-makers.

For example, GMC's Road Shock Damper Suspension*—plus a unique new stabilizer—produces in half-ton models a ride comparable to the finest passenger car.

An optional new fast-ratio cruising axle in light-duty GMC's gives you an overdrive's pace and economy without its cost.

Sharply increased engine displacement in both sixes and V8's gives you a power family unsurpassed in the light-duty field. Specifically, we offer 14.4%

GREATER displacement on 6-cylinder models, 16.2% on V8's than our nearest competitors. And GMC V8's, mind you, match the shortest stroke ratios in the truck industry.

Styling is well into the future—panoramic windshield to sand-tight tail gate. Tubeless tires, of course. And a 12-volt electrical system is standard.

These are some of the strides presented in new 1956 Blue Chip trucks we now have on view. The values are even more notable. Come in and get the facts!

In preparation for this inspection period which began on September 15th, 1955, and ends at midnight April 15th, 1956, each mechanic-inspector attended a school conducted by the Department of Public Safety and made a passing grade on a written examination before being placed on the Approved Mechanic-Inspector list for the 1956 Inspection period, according to Inspector L. W. Wilhite. If, when you present your vehicle for the 1956 Inspection, you find your mechanic-inspector a little harder to get along with than you did on the 1955 inspection, don't argue with him or try to tell him how to inspect your vehicle. He knows how and he knows what the requirements are that your vehicle must meet before he can place the 1956 Inspection Sticker on it. He also knows that for the improper inspection of a vehicle or the placing of an Inspection Sticker on a vehicle that has not been inspected by him makes him liable to a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than two hundred dollars and costs of court. Percentage wise, 35% have been done in four and one half months, leaving 65% to be done in the remaining one and one half months. Wilhite also warns that in this one and one half months there are four Sundays or holidays which leaves approximately twenty six days to get your 1956 Inspection Sticker. Remember, too, that enforcement will begin on April 16th for those who don't have the 1956 Inspection Sticker. A very good thing to remember, if you put off your inspection until the last week, is that your inspection station has been ready and willing since September 15th, 1955.

"Our soil is our country—to save the one is to serve the other."—Anonymous. Louis Bromfield, noted farmer-author-lecturer, died Sunday night in Columbus, Ohio, at the age of 59. Bromfield, who wrote dozens of best-selling novels, scientifically cultivated his famous Malabar Farm near Mansfield, Ohio, in Richland county. "I can think of few things more important than teaching both children and grown-ups the value of the soil. The good earth is not only the foundation of a nation's economy; it is the basis of civilization itself. "It is a simple matter to trace one after another the histories of those nations whose power, prosperity and culture declined when their soil became impoverished. Meeting at one of the 'capitals' of the four counties comprising the association—Terry, Dawson, Gaines and Yoakum—the association counts probably the best breakfast attendance of any other group in this area. Important matters relating to agriculture are discussed by well-known authorities at each monthly session. "Sure, we believe in soil conservation—it's just good common sense."—Anonymous. A total of 14 nationally known cowboys are slated to appear here April 29 for the matched contest roping contest of the Terry County Sheriff's Posse. The event will pit the former world's champions, world's champions and some of the most famous ropers in the rodeo field—it is the biggest ever scheduled for West Texas. Two disgruntled farmers liked to grouse each other. "Never did see hay grow so short as mine last summer," sighed one. "You think yours was short," answered the other. "I had to lather mine to mow it!"
