Mom, Dad "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town"

HE'S BIG, GENEROUS AND JOLLY—Brownfield Chamber of Commerce was putting final touches Tuesday and today to the 28-foot Santa which will dominate the downtown scene from now until after Dec. 25. Some 56 Brownfield merchants and individuals have spent more than $1,400 on the project. Santa isn't fully robed in the picture above. He's minus the traditional red-white jacket. To the delight of the tots, he can move his head, talk and write down their "orders." He brought with him more than 450 pounds of candy for distribution "at the proper times." (Staff Photo)

Final touches were being made this morning to the giant 28-foot Santa Claus which has been set up on the north side of the courthouse square. Complete with voice and moving head and arms, the old fellow soon will be accepting "orders" from the small fry. The Santa Claus is a project of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce and 56 Brownfield merchants and individuals. Some $1,400 has been spent in buying, readying and installing the unit.

Here are names of firms which have shared the cost:

- A. W. Turner Insurance Agency, E. G. Akers, Hackney & Crawford, Terry County Farm Bureau, Dunlap's, J. C. DuBose, Wackers Variety, Shelton's, Sonny's Feed & Supply, Cliff's Western Wear, Rex Headstream, Jack Bailey Chevrolet, First National Bank, and

Kansas City Meet Attracts Four Men From Terry County

Four Terry County men will return Friday from Kansas City, where they are attending the 28th annual Convention of Consumers Cooperative Association.

The quartet comprises Grady Dixon, James Thurman, Wood Johnson and J. T. Clement.

Dixon, Thurman and Johnson are directors of Farmers Co-Op Service Station at 1002 West Main. Clement is station manager. They have been in Kansas City since Monday.

Theme of this year's CCA session is "Men and Women of the Soil".

Major highlight of the annual session was the dedication Tuesday of CCA's new headquarters. The association embraces nine states in the Midwest.

The men took with them one-ounce soil samples from each of their farms, the dirt to be combined with samples from throughout the world and used in the dedication.

Tuesday's keynote address was made by the president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture H. H. Hannam of Ottawa, Canada.

Members at the Wednesday session heard the Right Reverend Monsignor L. G. Ligutti of Des Moines, Iowa, executive director of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference.

AT CHRISTMAS

Goodfellows To Aid the Needy

With the advent of each year's Yuletide season, Brownfield Goodfellows move into action.

Already, they are accepting donations of toys, clothing, food or money—any item which will make this Christmas a real event for the city's needy persons.

Although the Goodfellows share in the Community Chest—they'll be given $900 out of this year's fund—they find the money insufficient to do a "real job."

Otis Lerner is chairman. Says Lerner:

"If you have any of the items which have been mentioned, leaving them at J. B. Knight Farm Machinery will be appreciated. You also may give your donations to L. D. Bailey on the second floor of the courthouse."

The chairman continued: "If you know of a needy family, please telephone their name and address to County Judge Herb Chesshir's courthouse office. His number is 3112."

Other members of Goodfellow committee are Coy Jones, John Jennings, T. C. Williams, James Massey.

GLENN SARGENT OF UNION

Nominee for Rotary Fellowship Named

A Union High School graduate who is studying at Abilene Christian College has been named eligible by Brownfield Rotary Club for a Rotary Foundation Fellowship for Advanced Study.

He is Glenn Sargent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sargent of Route 5. He is one of several persons who are eligible within the Brownfield club's district.

Sargent, who is majoring in Greek and minoring in music at the Abilene college, was valedictorian of his graduating class and was selected an outstanding athlete at Union High School.

He is a member of the a cappella choir at ACC and has appeared in two of the school's operas. His was the leading role in one of them. He will receive the bachelor of arts degree in June.

To provide an equitable selection of Foundation fellows from all countries in the Rotary word, a procedure has been set up wherein only designated districts may make application. The Brownfield district has been included in the 1956-57 group.

Candidates for the fellowships are chosen on a rigid basis, both scholastically and personally.

City Officials Move 'To Call the Shots' On All Firecrackers

Plans to "designate an area in which our young people may explode firecrackers during the coming holidays" were under discussion this morning by Brownfield city officials.

Said City Manager Eunice Jones: "The power and force with which modern firecrackers explode has created a serious situation. We're strongly urging that parents cooperate with us to meet the problem."

Jones went on to say that "In all probability, the city council will designate the new park as 'on limits' for firecrackers this year."

Mayor Arlie Lowmore recalled that "... dozens of calls were received last year by city officials, police and firemen—all concerned with the explosion of firecrackers within the city limits."

A 1946 ordinance expressly prohibits the exploding of firecrackers in Brownfield city limits. It also bans the sale of fireworks here.

The ordinance does, however, permit the city council to designate "a suitable area for fireworks."

Jones and Lowmore expressed hope this morning that "everyone sees fit to join the crowd at the park and see the fireworks. That area will be supervised at all times by police." See OFFICIALS, Page 2

CHRISTMAS DUCHESS—Miss Brenda Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck of 310 North Bell, has been chosen by Texas A&M cadets as one of their Christmas duchesses at the school's annual dance in San Angelo. The West Texas beauty also was an entry in the recent South Plains Maid of Cotton contest at Lubbock. Miss Beck is a senior at Texas State College for Women at Denton. She'll be visiting with her parents in Brownfield for the Thanksgiving holidays.

THOSE SHOE PRINTS AGAIN'

Police Solve Theft of Hub Caps

Using tested methods of detection, Brownfield police this week took advantage of well-defined shoe prints at the scene of a theft to "get their men."

It all began last weekend, when E. D. Dancer of Sunrise Trailer Courts reported the theft of four hub caps, telling investigating police that "They left some good tracks."

It was on Tuesday that Patrolmen noticed an older model car with new hub caps parked in The Flats. Imprints of the owner's shoes matched those at Sunrise courts.

After their arrest, Negroes Jimmy Edward Jenkins and Johnny Everidge confessed their part in the theft and implicated a juvenile. Charges were filed in County court against the duo of theft over $5.

The case recalls a similar incident of two weeks ago, when prominent heel prints led Brownfield police "straight to the door of a man" who was charged with burglary.

Police this morning were investigating a break-in and theft at the Thrifty Store, 116 North Sixth. Owner C. D. Wise reported the loss of Honner accordion, valued at $60, and a woman's Benrus wrist watch.

The following monthly (October) report was submitted last week by Chief Nolan Lassiter

1,650 feet from west lines of Section 130, Block D-11, C&M Survey. Project is on a 480-acre lease, 10 miles southwest of Brownfield. Rotary tools will test to 13,900 feet.

Farmers Discuss Use Of Natural Gas Here

Thought to be the first of its kind in Terry County, a cooperative project has been proposed for using natural gas at irrigation wells.

The project was discussed at length Monday night by several farmers who irrigate southeast of Brownfield. The group is seeking to lower the cost of their operating fuel.

A spokesman said this morning that "the plan probably will save each farmer about $500 a year for each well."

Total calls made by department, 193. Total police arrests for the month, 138. Total tickets issued for moving traffic violations, 173; total paid, 140, and dismissed, 6. Others are pending.

Brownfield police also issued 132 parking tickets in October of which 114 were paid and 7 dismissed. Total amount of fines collected in the month amounted to $3,310.50.

The chief of police also filed the following report with the county court for the period May 15-Nov. 25:

Driving while intoxicated—20 arrests, 20 convictions, 3 case pending; Total fines collected $1,594.

Liquor law violations—32 arrests, 22 convictions, 4 cases pending, 3 charges reduced and filed in City Court, 2 cases dismissed, $3,562 in fines collected.

Carrying prohibitive weapons—7 arrests, 6 convictions, 1 dismissed, and $730 collected in fines.

Driving while license suspended—5 arrests, 5 convictions, and $278 collected in fines.

Aggravated assault—2 arrests, 1 conviction, 1 dismissed, and $46 in fines collected. Theft under $50—2 arrests, 1 conviction, 1 dismissed, and $31 in fines collected.

Lassiter pointed out that the total amount of fines and county court costs as a result of city arrests was $6,233.50.

Four traffic accidents this week raise the year's total to 128 within the city. Deaths from traffic accidents remain at zero. Injuries are 6.

PLANT SUPERVISOR—Recently arrived from California, the new supervisor of Prentice Gasoline Plant is pictured above. He's Fred Fuller, who'll live with his and four other families at the plant site, some 28 miles west and north of Brownfield. Fuller's family comprises his wife, Doris, and son Jay, 5, and daughter Marilyn Sue, 3. Fred is with Honolulu Oil Corporation, the same firm which owned the two plants which he supervised at Taff, Calif. He's a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force Reserve, and does much private flying. He's a graduate of Kalamazoo College of Kalamazoo, Mich., and has a year and one-half of graduate work to his credit at Stanford University in California. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller and their children are members of the Presbyterian Church. He explained this morning that production "probably would be started in mid-February at the plant, with some 75,000 to 100,000 gallons of liquid products being made daily." Automation is the keynote at the plant, which will operate about 12 hours daily unattended, said Fuller. (Staff Photo)

Mr. Farmer, would you like to know how many pounds of nitrogen, phosphorous, potassium and limestone it takes to produce 500 pounds of lint cotton an acre? For authoritative figures (concerning cotton and 13 other crops), take a look-see at Goodpasture's advertisement in the Farm Section. Let us suggest that you save this clipping for future reference.

We hope you understand this: The figures quoted will be less the number of pounds of nutrients you already have on your soil.

May we take this opportunity to compliment Texas Farm Bureau for its intelligent and sound resolutions adopted in Houston, Nov. 11-14, for presentation to the American Farm Bureau Federation, Especially do we concur with the following item:

Jaycees Announce Yule Lighting Contest

The annual Christmas lighting contest—it will be sponsored again this year by Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Jaycee Bob Etheredge, chairman, announced last week that the event will comprise two divisions: Most beautifully lighted house door, and most beautifully lighted and decorated house and yard.

First and second place awards will be presented in each division, said Etheredge.

"No entries are necessary in the city," explained the chairman. "However, if persons living in the rural districts want to enter, they should call the county agent's office (4541)."

"Judging will be finished before Dec. 18 so that pictures of winning entries may appear in the final NEWS issue before Christmas." Appropriate plaques will go to the winners.

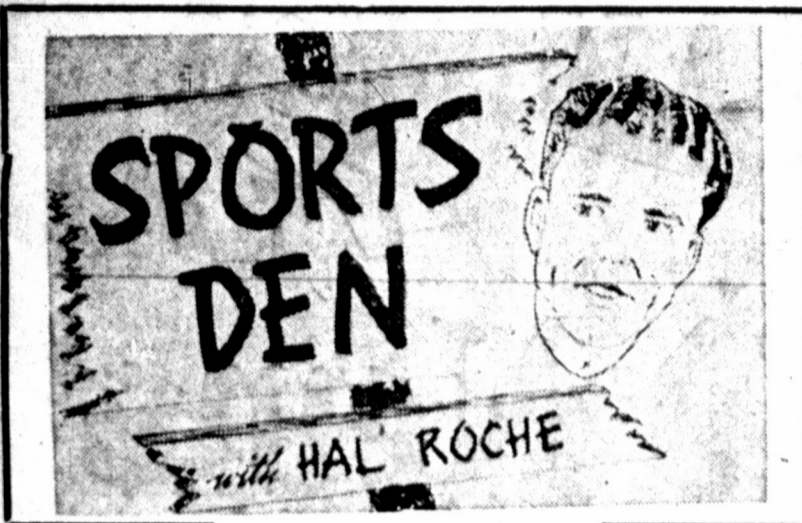

Tension Mounts As The Count of Bales Climbs

Tension mounts, and so does the count of bales ginned to date in Terry's 1956 cotton harvest.

Tally as of Wednesday morning was 86,605 bales, with 8 of the county's 16 gins "incomplete."

The count was made by Aubrey T. Jones of Texas Employment Commission. Some estimates are running as high as 100,000 bales.

HAL ROCHE Sports Editor

There's still a lot of good hunting left. As a matter of fact, quail season officially opens Saturday.

I'll put in with you. Basketball Top Sport There are home pretty good facts to back basketball as being a top flight sports event or it wouldn't have been the most attended sport in the nation for so many years. The National Sports Almanac has shown for a good number of years that basketball has drawn more people than any other major sport in the nation. That's paid attendance too.

Personally I would like to see the high school gym filled to overflow for every home

I know, at the outset, those pictures I mentioned on the hunting page are but a few of the many hunters of Brownfield who daily trek to the wilds in search of game. However, at this writing those are the only hunters who have reported their jaunts and kills.

Hunting is great sport and I know many more of you partake of the wide open spaces in search of deer, duck, geese, rabbit, turkey et al, than are mentioned and seen on the page. How about informing us of the trips and the kills so that they might be mentioned.

game and, when the weather isn't too bad, a good crowd to travel out of town and support the team. After all, these are your boys who are knocking themselves out to provide good, clean, wholesome athletic entertainment for you.

Coach Doug Cox paid some mighty fine tributes to the football team at the QBC meeting. He said, "I've coached some fine boys in my career but never have I coached a finer group of football players."

Coach Cox said that the boys were in excellent condition throughout the entire season and pointed out that to come through as tough a schedule as the Cubs played without a major injury was indicative of that. He said the boys were responsive and eager to learn the mechanics of good football and at all practice sessions were attentive to every detail. Consequently the fans saw some good football and the season record of 5-5 doesn't show the excellent and outstanding play witnessed over the season.

The prospects for coming years are bright and there is no doubt that the Cubs will receive the recognition they deserve. To those who have played their last game for BHS go the well wishes for success and achievement in the future, from all of Brownfield.

Jones said that the firecrackers are especially dangerous from the fire and personal safety angles. "We're plagued at this time of the year with tumbleweeds. They're easily set fire."

"In that connection, the city will be glad to pick up all tumbleweeds which have been stacked. A telephone call will do the job". Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Greenfield plan to spend Thanksgiving day in Odessa with their son, L. O. Jr., and family.

that the squad was expected to give a good account of itself throughout the season and the local hoop fans were going to see some good basketball in the high school gymnasium.

The first practice session was held Monday afternoon and some 30 hopefuls turned out for the opening session.

With the opener less than a week away the squad has buckled down to serious work and already are showing the marks of a seasoned team.

The Cubs will be pitted against the same opposition in the 2-AAA Conference as they were in football, with the first conference game coming Jan. 11, when they play host to Pecos. The final conference game also will be played a home. In that one the Cubs meet Monahans on Feb. 12.

First tournament play comes just 10 days after the opener for the Cubs, when they journey to Snyder to participate in the 3-A-4-A tourney there. It's two-day affair beginning Friday the 14th.

Boxing Card Slated For Next Thursday

Brownfield's boxing director, Clyde Bond Jr., said Monday night that the first card for the upcoming year tentatively was set for next week, possibly Thursday night, if arrangements were completed to secure the Junior High School gymnasium as the site for the fights.

The first bouts will be against a team of boxers from Plainview with from 12 to 15 bouts scheduled, according to Bond. He said, "Matches already have been set with

Rose Mayfield Leads in Guessin' Game

J. E. (Buddy) Gillham of 901 East Lake also had 20 correct answers but was one point further off the score of the Brownfield-Kermit game than was Mrs. Mayfield. Gillham was awarded second prize.

Mrs. James G. Riddle of 1214 North "A" was the low prize winner since she had but 12 correct answers.

Going into the final week the leaders for the grand prize and their scores, are:

CUBS Trounce Kermit Yellowjackets To Second Season With 2-2 Conference Record

The Brownfield Cubs, playing a close and determined game, led to a 28-21 victory over Kermit Yellowjacket last Friday night at Cub Stadium. This was the season finale for both teams and the win gave the Cubs undisputed possession of third place in the 2-AAA conference.

The Cubs dominated play throughout the first half and when the period closed they led the Yellowjackets, 14-0. However, the Jackets quickly erased that deficit in the third period when they roared back to play and picked up two touchdowns. The tie was short lived as the Cubs regained their 14-point lead by scoring twice to take a 28-14 lead.

Those 14-points were enough to wrap up the game even though Kermit did manage to gather 7 additional points before the final whistle sounded.

Plainview and Lovington, N. M., and arrangements are being made to bring boxers to Brownfield from the other surrounding towns.

Assisting Bond with training and managing chores will be Bill Higdon and Dewitt Stafford.

American Legion Post 268 will sponsor the youth program during the coming year.

Workouts are being held nightly in the Boy Scout hut located next to Veterans Hall on the Seagraves Highway and all boxers who are interested in participating in the program are asked to report there for registration and workouts.

Outstanding performances were turned in by backs Mike Hamilton, Jackie Meeks, Mike Browning, Ellis Cox, Bobby Moore, George Fugitt and Lewis Chambliss. The entire Cub squad did themselves proud in the final game as they did throughout the entire season which closed with the Cubs holding a .500 average for 10 games.

CARROLL PARKER

LA RUE REX

... Down Wellman Way ...

Hi!
School will be turned out this Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving. Happy Thanksgiving, everyone!

The senior play, "Great Scotts" was presented last Friday night. They made $70.

The Junior class play has been postponed until Jan. 17 or Feb. 22.

Last Thursday night the Junior high girls played the high school "B" team. The "B" won by a score of 35-13. The high school girls also had an intersquad game. The boys lost to Sundown by a score of 54-24.
The Junior high boys and girls basketball teams played New Home Monday night. Both Wellman teams won.

We were sorry to hear that our former high school principal, Mr. B. H. Baldwin, has been ill. We hope that he will recover soon. Mr.
Baldwin's address is Rt. 2,
Box 15A, Hereford, Texas.
Some of the classes are going to write to him this week.

Since the grades are being filed for the second six weeks

we hope to see a few more students on the honor roll.

Wellman is going to be a quiet place Thanksgiving. Ross and Donald have already left to go to El Paso to visit Donald's parent. Most of the teachers will be gone over the weekend. Diana Graham, Sabra Welcher, and La Rue Rex will visit Glenda Christopher, a former classmate who now lives at Canyon. The Goza family is going to Woodson; Kay and Frank Ross are going to Lubbock; and Miss Hines is going to Houston to visit her sister and mother.

See you next week.

Ex-Resident Dies Of Polio in California

Mrs. Harold Foster, former Terry county resident, died of polio Friday night in an Ontario, Calif. hospital. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hicks of Meadow.

Mrs. Foster, the former Miss Jean Hicks, was 25. She was reared in Meadow and lived at Gomez about three or four years ago. She visited here last year.

Survivors, other than her parents, are her husband and two daughters, Donna Kay, 5 and Linda, 2, all of Ontario; a brother, Herbert Hicks, of Meadow; and grandmother Mrs. M. A. Hicks of Lubbock.

Farm Bureau. His purpose in being in Houston was "to get the trend of our farmer's thinking, and especially of those in our area."

John Odell, local manager of Western Cottonoil Company said this morning that there were 25,000 to 30,000 acres of soybeans grown this year or the South Plains. He expects between 75,000 to 100,000 acres to be planted in 1957. Aside from being a good cash crop, Odell believes that many farmers are getting from one quarter to one-half more bale in an acre of cotton following the soybeans.

Head Coach Doug Cox paid an outstanding compliment to the Cubs and their parents at Monday's meeting of Brownfield Quarterback Club.

Said Cox: "I have never had the privilege of working with a finer group of boys, nor have I gone through a complete season before without having to correct some of the players for breaking training rules."

The coaches and the players are to be commended for an excellent season.

Frances Bell P-TA will meet at 4 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 6, in Junior High auditorium.

We hope everyone has a good dinner Thursday and we know everyone is having fun. See you Monday, kids.

The girls in P. E. are getting to be experts on games. They have been playing them about every day and some of them are as good as the boys.

The home EC girls wrote articles about their pet peeves against the opposite sex and sent them to the Co. Ed. magazine. Brenda Grissom was one whose article was published.

We will try to put the article she wrote in our column in the next few weeks.

The speech classes have started studying for some new plays. We hope to be seeing a show of them soon.

The students of Mrs. Mullins' language arts class wrote paragraphs on What Thanksgiving Means To Me. Here are a few of them.

Thanksgiving is a time to visit relatives. As the custom there is always plenty of food. It's a time to honor the Pilgrims and to think of the hardships they suffered. It's a time to be thankful that we are fortunate enough to have freedom, but also Thanksgiving is a time to be happy and thankful and to enjoy the food.

By Karla Harding
 We always have a very good dinner on Thanksgiving. All the family and relatives get together. We have lots of fun before dinner and after. I always enjoy eating on the drumstick. The thing I enjoy most is giving a poor family food for Thanksgiving.

The day before Thanksgiving our family get a pot full of food and gives it to a needy family. Then I know someone else is enjoying Thanksgiving too.

by Gail Warren
 Our first basketball game will be coming in a few weeks. We're expecting a victory. See you next week.

Chairman Suggests Savings Bonds For That Yuletide Gift

"During October, Texans increased their purchases of Series E savings bonds 3.4 per cent over the same period of last year," J. O. Gillham said this morning. Gillham, president of Brownfield State Bank & Trust Company, is chairman of Terry County Savings Bonds committee.

The chairman explained further that sales for October of the Series E and H bonds "were $5,074 in Terry County."

"Cumulative total for the year in Terry is $124,015. Our 1956 quota here is $300,000."

As of October, the county had filled 41.3 per cent of its quota, the chairman said. "During this season of giving, may I suggest a gift which keeps on giving—U. S. savings bonds."

"Meanwhile, they have a cash-in value of cost, plus accrued interest, at any time after the first 60 days," Gillham concluded.

Terry is in District 5 of the Amarillo Area, the chairman said.

Round Table Discussion of Youth Is Topic for Delphian Club

The Delphian Study Club met Wednesday afternoon, November 21, at the Seleta Jane Brownfield Club House. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Cirigi, Mrs. Virgil Bynum and Mrs. K. B. Sadler, who served party sandwiches, coffee, and fudge squares to Mesdames W. C. Burrow, Weldon Callaway, Tim Faulkenberry, Crede Gore, W. P. Norris, W. T. Pickett, E. C. Pool, E. E. Preston, K. D. Snedeker, George Steele, and Claud Buchanan. The table was laid with a white linen cloth, with a centerpiece of yellow and bronze cristanthemums in a ceramic cornucopia. Mrs. Callaway, president, called the meeting to order and introduced the program chairman, Mrs. Snedeker. Mrs. Snedeker announced the theme for the day, "Is Ours a Forgotten Youth?" and introduced the three members of the panel for a round table discussion, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Bynum and Mrs. Faulkenberry. The topics for discussion were "What needs of youth are we failing to meet?" "How can our community help?" and "What are our present resources for youth, and is full advantage being taken of them?" During the business meeting that followed three new Club House Board Members were elected, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. Snedeker. The club voted to support the Freinds of the Library, a local community project. They also voted contributions to the 7th District scholarship and to Boys' Ranch at Tascosa. A good assortment of cigarettes, pocket novels and homemade candy was brought to be sent to the Veteran's Hospital at Big Spring. The next meeting will be the party for husbands and other guests at 7:30 p.m. on Friday evening, December 7. The next regular business meeting will be December 19, with plans being made for the exchanging of gifts. Billy Mack Herod, Earle Davis, Ronnie Daniell, and Brenda Weathers will spend Thanksgiving holidays with their families, the Roy Herods, the Dr. E. C. Davis', the Dr. A. H. Daniells, and the Rev. Jones W. Weathers'. Rev. and Mrs. James E. Tidwell and family will spend the Thanksgiving weekend in Fort Worth with relatives.

Home Ceremony Unites Miss Janiece Meek and Tommy Dick Proctor Nov. 25

Miss Janiece Meek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Meek of Seagraves Road, and Tommy Dick Proctor, son of Mrs. Cora Proctor of 1009 East Hester, were united in marriage at 4 p.m. Nov. 25 in the home of Mrs. Junior Ratliff, 906 East Broadway. Rev. Howard Smith, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, performed the double ring rites before an arrangement of white flowers flanked with candelabra. Recorded music, including the traditional wedding marches, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest" was played. Miss Venito Shipley of Tahoka lighted the candles. Mrs. Ratliff attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a mauve brocade satin gown fashioned with a high front neckline, dipping to a vee in back, and a full skirt. She carried white carnations. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocade satin dress fashioned with a low scalloped neckline edged with seed pearls, and a long torso bodice ending in a full skirt. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid surrounded with lilies of the valley and baby carnations. James Thompson of Lubbock was best man. A reception honoring the couple was given in the Ratliff home. Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. James Thompson of Lubbock and Mrs. Kenneth Moore of Brownfield. The table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and was decorated with orchid gladioli and white carnations and the three-tiered wedding cake. Guests attended from Lubbock, Tahoka, Bowie, Stanton, Meadow, and Tokio. For travelling, the bride chose a blue velveteen two-piece suit, with white hat and gloves, and gray shoes and bag, with an orchid corsage. Both Mr. and Mrs. Proctor are graduate of Brownfield High School. The couple is at home at 4314-C Canton Street in Lubbock, where the bridegroom is employed with Latham's of Lubbock and the bride is a student at Draughon's Business College.

The play's the thing, but definitely not in the frothy, frothy little "tintype" dresses just arrived at SHELTON'S. These are strictly for pretty, in ruby red or French blue, for your little missy, with their full, skirts enhanced with their own crinolines and flirting dainty lace under the hem and their dazzling white blouses simply foaming with lace at neck and sleeves. But the real thrill of these charmers is their old time "tintype" necklines that look just like the blouses grandma used to wear when she wanted her best beau to "pop the question", complete with demure black velvet ribbon at the throat. Nothing could be sweeter for dress-up occasions. You wouldn't believe the fabulous collection of costume jewelry Ida Mae has unless you saw for yourselves the sparkling and brand new aurora borealis jewelry that picks up the color in the costume you're wearing or the exciting new "black diamond" pieces . . . all in earrings, necklaces, bracelets, and pins in matching designs. For the really chic touch, wear one of the pearl and rhinestone studded fob watches that are so smart. They're so inexpensive, you'll want to give them as Christmas gifts. And the latest teen-age rage has just arrived: new "broken heart" chains for girls and their steadies to exchange . . . each keeps half a heart on its own chain. (These are really going fast!)

are a health hazard, "the specific effect of cigaret smoking on a particular individual cannot be predicted". The society released a 20-page pamphlet entitled "Where We Stand Today on Cigaretts and Lung Cancer", and it said, in part, that "the society has no plans for a campaign against cigaret-smoking . . . the final decision on whether to smoke cigarettes rests with the individual, who will probably make up his mind in consultation with his doctor." And the society certainly should know what they're talking about . . . it's their business to do so.

Tickets are now on sale for a coffee to be given by members of the Junior Womans Study Club at the Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse Dec. 7 from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Any member of the club will be happy to sell you a ticket to this coffee and you won't be sorry you hold a ticket, because the door prize will be a gorgeous flocked Christmas tree. As you well know (if you've ever priced them), this is a wonderful gift, especially with Christmas only four weeks away. Be sure to get a ticket as soon as possible.

All you bingo fans be sure to saddle up and ankle out to Veterans Hall for the big bingo party being sponsored this Friday night by the local VFW post. Games begin at 8 p.m., and admission is free, as are the refreshments. This will be a deal involving the whole family, because there will be gifts to be given away suitable for children, too. Now that the football season is over, here is something to occupy those lonely Friday evenings.

Along the line of the Junior Woman's Study club, I think one of their nicest projects is the sponsoring of a newcomers club in Brownfield. Not only is this an excellent way to be friendly, but it gives all newcomers an opportunity to get acquainted. If you know any newcomers who would like to get together with others one afternoon a month for a sociable card game, please contact Mrs. E. B. McBurnett, Jr., who is club president.

Mrs. Bryan Edwards of Lubbock will review the book of Genesis "In the Beginning" at the First Christian Church here Dec. 5 at 8 p.m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this review . . . and it should prove to be a very entertaining and enlightening one . . . and a nursery will be provided for the wee ones. Miss Ann Toler, James H. Roberson Are Married In Double Ring Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony read Nov. 25 at 7 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, Miss Ann Toler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Toler of Snyder, became the bride of James H. Roberson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Roberson of Brownfield.

The Rev. Jones W. Weathers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and greenery, flanked with candelabra.

Mrs. Pat Ramseur played traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Mary Kate Ramseur who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Give in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of imported alencon embroidered lace over silk taffeta. The trim princess bodice had a high neckline with a pattern of lace cascading through the bodice and long lace sleeves terminating in points over the hands. Rows of lace alternating with illusion net trimmed the billowing skirt, which fell into a short cathedral train. A three-quarter length veil of illusion net depended from her tiara crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with Stephanotis set in satin leaves and centered with white orchids.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Theda Baggett, maron of honor, and Miss Bobby Brown and Mrs. Max Miller, bridesmaids. Their gowns were of pink faille and chantilly lace and they wore headdresses of pink tulle and seed pearls. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Miss Diane Maddox of Dallas and Charles Roberson were candlelighters. The flower girl was Miss Darla Turner, and ringbearer was John Roberson.

Best man was Bob Gibson, and ushers were Hollis Smith and Tommy Roberson. At a reception given in the church parlor, the bride's table featured a four-tiered cake. Mrs. Buddy Orr, Tommy Franklin, and Miss Mary Ann Jones assisted with hospitalit-

Here and There . . . Kenneth Taylor Is Voted 'Sweetheart' Of FHA at Wellman

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hallbauer returned Saturday from Roswell, N.M., where they attended homecoming at NMMI. Their Leslie is a student at the institute and recently has been promoted from cadet to sergeant. The Hallbauers and Leslie attended the football game Thursday afternoon and the homecoming ball last Thursday night.

The Wellman F. H. A. girl met Wednesday in the home-making department. A list of qualifications for F. H. A. sweetheart were presented to the girls. Each girl that nominated a candidate had to tell her reasons why she thought he was qualified for sweetheart. Bill Adams, Carroll Parker, Kenneth Taylor and Bill Elliott were nominated. Taylor was elected. The date for the crowning of the sweetheart had not yet been set.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Auburg will spend tonight in Odessa with their son, Paul, and family. They will eat Thanksgiving dinner with a sister of Mrs. Auburg, Mrs. J. F. Ruehs, in Odessa. Two other sisters, Miss Nell Burdette and Mrs. Minnie Allen, of Lubbock are co-hostesses for the dinner. Also attending from Lubbock will be Mrs. Joyce Auburg and children.

A panel discussion on "Teen-agers and their Parents" was also held. The panel members were Barbara Bishop, Pat Runnels, Danny Loe, Miss Hines and two chapter mothers, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Hawkins. The F. H. A. girls will send

TWO GIRLS, A CHEVY AND A RECORD!

A meaningful achievement in automobile performance

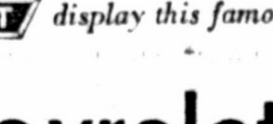

Most automobile performance records are pretty difficult to relate to the kind of day-in, day-out driving most of us do. Running at safe and legal speeds, a '57 Chevrolet recently chalked up an important new coast-to-coast record on the road. And the way it set this record is even more important than the record itself!

A new '57 Chevrolet recently proved it has the qualities most people look for in a car—and proved it on the roads you travel. It set a new record of less than 57 hours for the run from New York to Los Angeles (certified by NASCAR). It was a strictly stock, V8-powered Chevy. It was driven by two young ladies.

When you consider that all the driving was done by 98-pound Betty Skelton and her friend Caroline Russ, the true significance of this record run becomes apparent. It's a tribute to Chevrolet's great-hearted V8 engine and solid road-worthiness that it could travel day and night for 2,913 miles at safe and legal speeds—and better the existing record for the trip by more than three hours.

And when a pair of young ladies step into a car and drive it round the clock to a new transcontinental record, you know that car is easy to drive. Come try a Chevy.

New Publication On Irrigation of Cotton Now is Available

High Plains cotton farmers should find the information in a new Texas Agricultural Experiment Station publication, B-838, Guides in Cotton Irrigation, helpful in setting up their plans for another crop year.

Authors of the new publication are E. L. Thaxton Jr., assistant irrigation engineer at the Lubbock substation, and N. P. Nelson, irrigation engineer, ARS, Lincoln, Neb., but formerly of the Amarillo Experiment Station.

Covered in the bulletin are the results of studies conducted at Lubbock and Tulia on the use of irrigation water by cotton.

The research workers found that cotton yields in pounds of lint per inch of water were about the same for all moisture levels studied but in general, the high moisture levels are the most profitable.

They say that because cotton can use varying amounts of water efficiently, it is an easier crop to irrigate than grain sorghums. They emphasize that the most important irrigation is the one done before the cotton crop is planted.

Getting water stored in the soil for the upcoming cotton crop, they say, can go a long way toward supplying the moisture required for maximum crop production.

Recommendations are listed in the bulletin on water management, cultural practices, along with brief statements on methods of irrigation and fiber quality.

THEY'LL SHOW IN APRIL — Sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Thurman of Route 5, the duo pictured above recently bought pigs and are planning to enter them in the annual Terry County Junior Livestock Show in April. On the left is Danny, a member of West Ward 4-H Club. Other son is Eddie, who's eager to join Colonial Heights 4-H Club — when it's organized in the near future. The pigs are Berkshires. (Staff Photos)

$100 MILLION IN PROPERTY LOST EVERY YEAR

Check Now and Prevent Farm Fires Later, Urges Specialist

Officially, winter is still a few weeks away but colder weather has arrived. When temperatures drop and all forms of heating equipment are brought into use on farms, the chances for farm fires increase.

Every year in the nation more than $100 million worth of farm property is lost to fire, and members of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council say most of this vast loss can be prevented.

W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer and secretary of the council says studies made at many of these destructive fires show that defective chimneys, carelessness with combustible materials or misuse of petroleum products rank high as causes of farm fires. He says the council recommends that a check be made now of all heating equipment used on the farm, whether in the home or in connection with water systems or in other farm buildings. Cracks or other chimney defects should be repaired and rusted or burned out stove pipes should be replaced.

Petroleum products should never be used to start or hasten a fire. Make sure, emphasizes the engineer, that combustible materials are protected and stored away from heat sources. He suggests using a metal or asbestos floor covering under wood or coal-burning stoves and a spark arrester on the chimney to eliminate the risk of a roof fire. Care should be taken to see that stock water tank heaters, brooders and types of farm heating equipment are installed safely and kept in good operating condition.

Make sure, he adds, that dampers in stoves or furnace pipes are never closed so tightly as to force carbon monoxide or other gases out into a room.

Too, he cautions against running combustible motors in closed shops or garages. If farm machinery is being repaired in a closed shop, make sure the ventilation and heating systems are safe and in good operating condition. Keep combustible materials away from heat whether it comes from a stove or a torch being used in connection with the repair job. Care can prevent waste.

Stockmen Warned To Watch for Lack Of Vitamin A in Diet

Feed containing a good source of vitamin A should be provided this winter for cattle on drought-stricken pastures, suggests P. T. Marion, animal husbandman for the experiment station at Spur.

Such feeds as cottonseed meal and hulls, sorghum grain, dry sorghum bundles, prairie hay and weathered Johnson-grass hay contain little or no vitamin A.

Green feed was not available in much of Texas this year and cattle could not store in their bodies enough of this essential vitamin to supply their minimum requirements until grass turns green next spring.

Vitamin A deficiency symptoms in young cattle are night blindness followed by swelling of the joints, watering of the eyes and a tendency toward respiratory ailments. Under severe long-time deficiency conditions, calves, yearlings and two-year-old may become blind, have convulsions and eventually die.

One to four pounds of this year's alfalfa hay will provide a minimum supply of vitamin A, Marion said. Twenty pounds of sorghum silage daily per head will do for cows. Short grazing periods on good wheat pasture or similar crops also are good.

Commercial feeds fertilized with synthetic vitamin A may be fed. Cows weighing 1,000 pounds can be fed fortified cottonseed cake or protein pellets at a cost for the added vitamin A of one cent per head daily, Marion said.

If fish oil products are used, Marion suggests that only a month's supply be bought at a time because this form of vitamin A is not as stable as other synthetic products.

When Voltaire visited England in 1727, feeling ran high against the French. Once he was accosted by an angry crowd yelling, "Kill him! Hang the Frenchman!"

Voltaire stood on the curbstone and cried out: "Englishmen! You want to kill me because I am a Frenchman! Am I not already punished enough in not being an Englishman?"

The crowd applauded his speech, and escorted the great author home in safety. — The Toastmaster.

Watch for much increased activity among the various 4-H clubs in the county.

It's still hard to believe: With as little as 7.96 inches of rainfall this year (U. S. Soil Conservation Service figures), Terry cotton producers have smashed all records for the county. (Latest tally of bales ginned this year will be found on Page 1, Section 1.)

If it doesn't rain any more between now and Dec. 31, the county can boast of having produced the largest cotton crop on the smallest recorded rainfall, with the exception of 1917, in the last 42 years! A measured 8.65 inches fell in 1917.

Officials of Lubbock Cotton Classing office reported Saturday some 1,287,000 bales of this year's South Plains crop have been ginned and classed.

L. O. Buchanan, chairman of the board of cotton examiners, said his office had a backlog of approximately 35,000 bales, which means that more than 1,380,000 already have harvested and ginned this year.

A year ago at this time, only about 700,000 bales had been ginned and classed.

Officials estimate that the harvest now is about 80 per cent complete, based on a total estimated crop of around 1,600,000 bales.

A young doctor and a young dentist shared the services of a receptionist, and both fell in love with her.

The dentist was called away on business, so he sent for the receptionist and said, "I'm going to be away for 10 days. You will find a little present on your desk."

She went to her desk, and found 10 apples. — Financial Post (Toronto).

The South Plains Farmer-Ginner committee, which tries to work out problems in classing area cotton, asked Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., at its last meeting to take the initiative in calling a meeting of all farm organizations to discuss just such problems.

PCG accepted the job, and called such a meeting for 10 a.m., today in the Caprock Hotel at Lubbock.

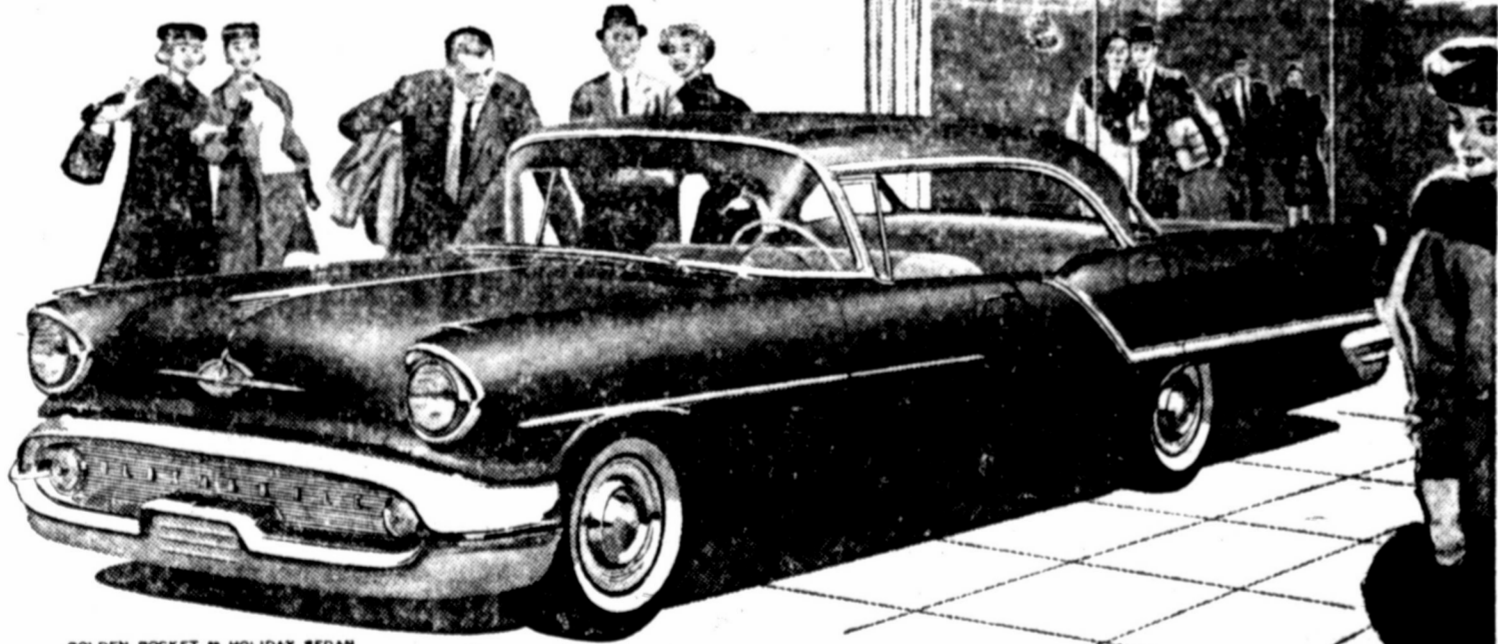

George Pfeifferberger, executive vice president of PCG, said purpose of the session was to get the combined ideas of farmers and farm group representatives on what needs to be done for classing of cotton in the area.

"A good cigar is as great a comfort to a man as a good cry to a woman." — Edward Bulwer Lytton.

Mrs. Dale Carey and son are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Portwood, Mr. Carey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Cary, before moving to their new home in Florida.

THREE MILLION CITIZEN-GUARDIANS

American Legion Stands Watch

A hard core of three million tested Americans is standing watch from one end of the nation to the other—in cities and towns and villages. In 17,000 American Legion posts, our outstanding community centers for Americanism, today's veterans of combat on land and sea and in the air echo the sentiments of that handful of homesick "doughboys" who met in Paris early in 1919 and pledged: "For God and Country we associate ourselves together . . ."

But there should be many, many more to swell the ranks of what has become the most dedicated and the most widely useful veterans' organization that the world has ever seen. For while it is by far the largest of its kind, the jobs it undertakes and stays with, and the stature its members enjoy in their communities, are even bigger! Always a privilege and an honor, membership today is a duty for those who are qualified to join — and capable of serving!

Few remember today that it was the Legion that fought for — and got — a federal Veterans' Administration and the GI bill of rights.

And fewer outside of the Legion know the scope and achievements of its established and perennial programs on Veteran Rehabilitation, Child Welfare, National Security and Americanism. Few know of the thousands of man-hours of devoted toil that go into these efforts, or the millions of dollars that are spent — not out of the US Treasury, but out of the dues of Legionnaires. And on the basis of purely local activities, observances and services, few indeed would want to live in a town without a Legion post.

During the past 31 years, the Legion has spent more than 125 millions to aid children in need. It has bought food, clothing, shelter, iron lungs, crutches and braces and miracle drugs. Fifty thousand Legionnaires and members of the Women's Auxiliary who are trained in this work have given endlessly of their time.

American Legion junior baseball sponsors 20,000 teen-age league teams, has given recreation and training in sportsmanship to 20 million young Americans. Boys' State and Boys' Nation, a national high school oratorical contest and 4,128 Boy Scout Troops across the nation are sponsored by The Legion. And these are but a few of its constructive and largely unpublicized responsibilities.

During the Korean War, the Legion sent thousands and thousands of tape-recorded messages from the home-folks to their far-away sons and brothers and husbands — on which the recipients could record a return message. One grateful GI, who signed himself "Johnny, a True Friend" wrote the Legion: "Sir, it makes one feel grand to know that somewhere someone is giving him a helping hand."

Obviously, it makes the Legionnaires "feel grand" to do the helping. As every veteran knows, there's nothing bigger than being a buddy.

THE AMERICAN WAY

MATERIAL PROGRESS

By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

Together labor and management have given our country all we might reasonably ask for in the way of material progress. Their combined efforts have filled every corner of our civilization with the effects of better living.

Also, most of the advantages enjoyed today came to us within the last 50 years—as our oral dedication found increasing practical application and became the mainspring of our nation's economy.

Actually, the greatest discovery we made in our time did not occur in the area of science or technology. It took place in our human relations—and was the discovery of the Golden Rule as a practical guide to material as well as spiritual accomplishment.

It was when we made room for the Golden Rule in our employment and business relations and, whether consciously or unconsciously, put it to work in our manifold economic affairs that a great new energizing force was unlocked and mountains were moved in our behalf.

Perhaps some of us have forgotten that the pilot streams of our material progress flowed thru moral channels. If so, we can remind ourselves of a few details.

There wasn't much human consideration in industry when this century began. The workers, for the most part, were angry serfs bound to the factory system by long hours and wages enabling them to afford but the barest necessities of life. Small business was very small indeed and its owners were condemned to a frugal existence if not to downright poverty. Wages they paid were slender because their gross profits were slim.

Apart from these drab social groupings and the professions' shabby gentility were the masters of the industrial revolution—the barons of the factory system's economic feudalism, had in their self-esteem, committed only to each other and austere to the claims of humanity. They rolled in wealth and lived incredibly high for their times; but compared with the living standard of today's average family; even they had little enough to show for their huge untaxed incomes.

Their palaces were large and lavish but viewed in retrospect were inconvenient and inefficient in their appointments. As were the cars they bumbled about in. As were the gold-fitted bath rooms they used. As were the kitchens in which their poorly balanced meals were prepared. Their clothing was lumpy and stuffy, and to move from place to place those tycoons of yesteryear had to swallow each other's dust or choke on the smoke and cinders of public transportation. They fought the drafts of winter in their lofty palaces; they sweated in them during the heat of summer. Their health was poor and there was little the medical science of their day could do for them. Many died young or helplessly endured the tortures of advancing infirmity.

So, as poor as were the poor of those times, the wealthiest of their day were but somewhat better off. Indeed, it is not likely that many of us—regardless of our station in life today—

HIGHLIGHTS and SIDELIGHTS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Austin's feud over O. Henry's "Honeymoon house" has people over the state taking sides.

Bone of contention is a weather-beaten frame cottage where the famed short story writer took his bride 69 years ago. History-lovers want to preserve it as a "beautiful tribute." Austin Heritage Society gained City Council permission to move it into a park adjoining an exclusive westside residential area.

Nearby homeowners call it a "vermin-infested junk heap." They say they'll sue.

While park-lovers fumed, history-lovers got the house loaded on a truck, began inching it into the park. Stories went out across the country and brought back a tide of advice for each group. But no solution.

Co-Op case Reopened—Texas Supreme Court has agreed to take another look at a case to decide electric power selling rights.

Issue is whether rural electric cooperatives can continue service in areas after they are annexed by cities. In August the Supreme Court refused to review lower court decisions in favor of the co-ops.

Suit was brought by the attorney general, numerous private utility companies and the League of Texas Municipalities. On the other side is the Upshur Rural Electric Cooperative, backed by 54 other co-ops and the City of Gilmer.

Private utilities contend the law restricts co-ops to towns of 1,500 or less. Co-ops say they can't be thrown out once they have legally entered an area.

No date for arguments was set by the high court.

State Wins Prize Money—Businesses offering prizes to customers must pay a 20 per cent state tax according to court ruling.

Third Court of Civil Appeals so judged in a suit against Mrs. Tucker Foods, Inc. It offered coupons worth 15, 25 and 50 cents with cans of shortening. Attorneys for the firms argued the prize tax applied only to theaters and places of amusements.

District and appeals courts interpreted the statute as applying to "any business enterprise." See HIGHLIGHTS Page 3

Get that man!

We want his support. It's fellows like him who form the backbone of our Chamber of Commerce. Get a man like him interested and the community starts going places. Owns his own business, built it up himself. You'd call him a small businessman, though there's nothing small about his reputation in the street. He's an independent-minded citizen and not afraid to air his opinions anywhere.

A little too independent, you say? Far from it. We need men with minds of their own to get us started in all our worth-while projects. Better schools, playgrounds, parking lots; eliminating firetraps; reducing unemployment; attracting new industries—most of the things that make the community a better place to work and live in.

It won't take him long to find out that every time the Chamber benefits the community, it benefits him too. So grab him and don't let him get away. Ask him to join the Chamber of Commerce.

Hospital Director Resigns—Dr. James Bethea, executive director of the State Hospital System since 1953, has resigned effective June 1.

Dr. Bethea will be 70, statutory age for retirement, next October. He said he submitted his resignation early to give the state hospital board plenty of time to pick a successor.

Board members will take up the matter at their next meeting Dec. 10.

Drought Ups Welfare Payments—Impact of the drought is reflected in climbing old age payments, says the Department of Public Welfare.

In its annual report the department said it added 533 to the old age rolls during fiscal 1956, compared to only 90 the year before. Drought, it said, reduced income, not only of oldsters, but of children and relatives who helped support them.

"Young Texan" Jury—Picking of the five outstanding young Texans of 1956 is under way. Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced the committee which will name the honorees.

They are Ben H. Wooten, president of the First National Bank, Dallas; T. Harrington, chancellor of Texas A&M College; Vern Sanford of Austin, manager of the Texas Press Association; Walter G. Wright, president of the General Telephone Co.; Malcolm Meek, Abilene bank president; Dr.

Stanley W. Olson, president of Baylor of University College of Medicine in Houston; and Tom Sealy of Midland, chairman of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas.

Texas, The Mighty—Texans, despite their reputation for boosting the home state, find they can hardly outdo the latest account by outsiders.

U. S. News and World Report devoted 17 glowing pages to "the new powerhouse of the United States." Post-war industrial boom, says the magazine, has made the state a "Modernized Goliath." It's "an empire that keeps getting mightier," says the report, because it's "so big and so naturally rich."

Statistics cited: factory output, up 690 per cent since 1939; business activity, up 488 per cent; oil and gas production, up 468 per cent; construction, up 303 per cent.

Conclude the editors: "The United States is finding more and more that it cannot get along without Texas."

New Good Roads Exec.—Callan Graham of Houston has been named to succeed Jim Lindsey as executive vice president of the Texas Good Roads Association. Graham is a former Kimble County attorney and legislator. Lindsey is speaker of the Texas House of Representatives and chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Short Snorts: Texas hatcheries produced 9,261,000 chicks in October, a 16 per cent increase over last year. Egg production also rose to 186,000,000, or 12 per cent more than the previous month. Texans paid out more than $165,000 for hunting and fishing privileges during the 1956 fiscal year. William J. Burke, purchasing agent for the City of Corpus Christi, will become executive director of the State Board of Control on Dec. 15. He succeeds Walter Bell of Fort Worth, who retired in October. Texans fattened Uncle Sam's treasury with $2,406,585,000 in income taxes during the last fiscal year. Total U. S. income tax collections for the period totaled $75,100,000,000. Texas now is second only to Mississippi in number of certified tree farms, with 912 farms covering 3,434,853 acres. October draft registrations totaled 6,018. Texas Employment Commission reports placement of 51,172 persons in non-farm jobs during October. Agricultural placements totaled 38,820. Prolonged drought and increased discharge of industrial waste have greatly increased its responsibilities in checking local water supplies, reports the State Department of Health. Accelerated growth of Texas cities created another problem. Officials estimated some 25 to 30 per cent of the 800 domestic sewage units inspected were overloaded. would care to change places with our opposite numbers of the era of industrial feudalism!

But, at the turn of the century, a big change began to sweep across our economy, creating as it spread, a great new class of Americans—a powerful and prosperous middle class to whose expanding wants and purchasing power almost the entire economy would sooner or later be addressed.

A combination of circumstances acting upon each other at crucial points paved the way for the greatest economic discovery in the entire world history—the discovery of the worker as the prime customer for his own production.

Organized labor's gains was one powerful circumstance. Development of mass-production techniques was another. A third was the discovery by progressive employers of the power locked up in the Golden Rule, in the principle of man's humanity to man.

A new economic pattern began to take shape—and one that had to be followed because it proved to be amazingly profitable to both its sponsors and their competitors.

Consider the picture! As higher wages were paid, the demand for all manner of goods steeply increased. Mass production met the demand. Higher productivity justified higher rewards for labor. Profits from mass sales mushroomed and provided the wherewithal for industrial expansion and for expanded technological research.

MYSTERY FARM NO. 60 — Four persons telephoned the NEWS last week to guess that MF59 was owned by four different persons. First to call was Mrs. Orville Hall of 802 South Second. She believes it to be the Wes Key farm, 1 mile south and 1/2 mile east of Gomez. Mrs. Dennis Q. Lilly of 415 East Stewart thinks it is the Eulice Farrar farm, located north of Gomez. On the other hand, Mary Carter of 716 North Second is certain the farm belongs to Cye Tankersley and that it is situated southeast of Brownfield. Jean Pendergrass of Route 2 thinks it is the W. F. Pendergrass farm located on Route 2. Who really knows? We don't. Two tickets to anyone of the Jones theaters go to the first person correctly identifying the MF of each week. If the actual owner confirms the guess, he gets the picture.

Committee Slates Club Activities

The Therapy Committee of the Brownfield Garden Club met Wednesday, Nov. 21 in the home of the club president, Mrs. Leonard Lang. Committee chairman, Mrs. J. O. Satterwhite, conducted the business meeting for the purpose of deciding upon the committee projects and activities. Members present were Mrs. Bill Blackstock, Mrs. Drew Hobby, and Mrs. J. C. Rhodes. This committee decided to promote projects for the local and state hospitals. They will make and give the local hospital two Christmas arrangements to be placed in the patient's reception room and in the visitor's lobby. Christmas door pieces and tray favors will be made and sent to a state hospital.

Members who are interested in supporting these projects are invited to a covered dish luncheon and all day workshop Monday, Dec. 3, in the home of Mrs. J. C. Rhodes at Cedar Lake. Members are to meet at the home of Mrs. Lang at 8:45 a.m. and to drive out together. Departure time is 9:00 a.m..

Hi! From Jr. Hi

By LATRICE TEAGUE and GAYLE SMITH

Hi! Well, football is over for Junior High. We had a fine pep rally last week. The kids seemed to yell better than ever. Mr. Gay gave a pep talk and that night the eighth grade played a good game, but lost by a few points.

"Make that basket" will be the good words in the coming weeks. The boys are practicing and we know they will be having a lot of victories.

Here are a few of the steadies: John Clark and Beth Ches-shir, Johnny Murphy and Toni Lowe, Leonard and Ann Moore, Wody Harbin and Virginia Cooper, Linda Henson and David McGill.

We have been having six weeks tests this week and we think everyone made a pretty good grade. We are looking forward to good grades on the report cards.

See you next week.

Radioactive Waste Disposal Is Being Studied Seriously

AUSTIN — The critical and growing problem of radioactive-waste disposal is being studied at the University of Texas.
 Dr. Earnest F. Gloyna, associate professor of civil engineering, has received a $19,440 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission for support of his research. Dr. Gloyna is studying the possibility of storing highly-radioactive nuclear waste in underground salt formations.
 "Salt formations or domes are immense, impervious masses of virtually pure sodium chloride," Dr. Gloyna said. "The domes do not contain either fissures or water and hence nuclear waste stored there would not enter water supplies or contaminate other usable minerals."
 By 1964, it is estimated that 20 million gallons of liquid radioactive waste will be produced daily, Dr. Gloyna said in emphasizing the need for safe disposal of nuclear waste.
 "The amount of radioactivity in this waste would be 20 times the total supply of radium used in the world today," he added.
 Special advisors to Dr. Gloyna on the project will be Dr. Kenneth A. Kube, chemical engineering professor; Dr. William R. Muehlberger, assistant professor of structural geology, and Dr. Frank Jessen, petroleum engineer.
 The Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies is the only other group studying disposal of radioactive wastes in underground salt formations.

es of 42 were played by the group.
 A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Tyler Martin, president.
 Plans were made for the club Christmas party to be held in December.
 Those attending were Messrs and Mmes. Earl Fox and children, R. H. Jones, H. N. Key, Tyler Martin, Mrs. Anna Bell Lay, and Misses Letha Nell Roberts and Imogene Key.
 The Ruth Sunday school class of the Gomez Baptist Church met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Johnny Berryhill for a social and surprise party honoring Mrs. George Ellis teacher of the group.
 Mrs. Claude Landess, president, was in charge of the business meeting.
 Gifts were presented Mrs. Ellis, and refreshments of decorated birthday cake and punch were served to the following: Mesdames Ellis, Garvin Smyr, Marvin Vest, T. D. Roberts, Homer Barron, Landess, and Raymond Taylor.

Come Double Class Entertains Pendana and Wesley Groups

The Come Double class of the First Methodist Church entertained the Pendana and Wesley Friendship classes at "Ye Olde Sing Song Banquette of Thanksgiving" in Fellowship hall, Tuesday evening, Nov. 20. Approximately 82 members and guests were served a turkey dinner buffet style.
 Tables were decorated with paper pumpkins, turkeys, autumn leaves and berries, pilgrim candles, and a miniature log cabin at the head table.
 Bryan Jones officiated as evening's program. Pendana class president Don Bennett gave the invocation. Jones welcomed the guest class members and other special guests, after which individual introductions were made.
 Following dinner, the group adjourned and moved upstairs to the Youth department for the evening's program. Miss Pat Dillon group singing as the singing teacher, with A. V. Wall as pianist. A parody on Shakespeare's "Othello" was presented. Mrs. George Weiss directed this production with

Don Bynum in the title role, and Mrs. John Badgwell playing opposite him as Desdemona. Johnny Kendrick and Mrs. James Thurman played the supporting roles as Iago and Imilia; Coy Jones was the Friendly Undertaker, and James Thurman and Bob Payne, as the firemen, were members of the cast that Shakespeare knew nothing about. Wall ably supported all the parts as pianist. The "authentic" costumes worn by the cast helped to make it a memorable performance for all who viewed this production.

 An octet of high school students sang "On the Street Where You Live" and "Old MacDonald Had a Farm". The hymn, "Count Your Blessings" was sung by the entire group preceding a candle-lighting service, representing the Full Life. Mrs. James Tidwell was narrator, as Messrs. Alton Martin, Bob Payne, Tim Faulkenberry, W. T. Briscoe, Wendel Guinn, and Leo Wenzel formed a cross with lighted candles in the darkened room. A. V. Wall sang "He" to light the service.

December Plentiful Foods List Released

Potatoes, canned sweet corn and broilers and fryers are featured on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's December plentiful foods list. These products are in the heaviest supply in relation to normal holdings at this season in all of the trade territories surveyed in the southwest as well as on a national basis, says the chief of the southwest food and distribution division, John J. Slaughter of Dallas.

Initial Investment High Changing From Cash Crop To Dairying in the Blacklands

The economic feasibility of changing from cash-crop to dairy farming on a 180-acre central Texas Blackland farm, and to assess the farm operator's ability to repay the debt incurred to make such a change was the subject of recently made study.

Clarence A. Moore and A. C. Magee, agricultural economic research workers of the Agricultural Experiment Station, have reported their findings in B-837, Financing the Dairy System on a Central Blackland Farm.

The research workers report that the study indicates that an initial investment of from $17,000 to $21,000 at 1955 prices would be required to shift from cash-crops to a 36-cow dairy operation with a cow herd capable of producing 9,000 pounds of milk per cow annually.

The good manager, they say, can expect to increase his net returns about $4,768 annually by making the change. The changeover would be profitable to him since the additional returns would equal the costs in four to four and a half years.

On the other hand, they point out, a less efficient operator could expect a lower income from making the shift. A cow herd capable of producing only 7,000 pounds of milk annually per cow would increase the net income by only $1,526 above that obtained by the "above average" cash-crop manager.

The initial cost for a shift to a 7,000 pound cow herd would cost only $3,600 less than that for the 9,000 pound herd, but from 13 to 16 years, depending on the rate of interest paid, would be required to liquidate an amortized debt of 75 percent of the initial cost from the increased earnings.

The research workers emphasize the necessity for a farmer to do some very careful planning so as to determine as accurately as possible the initial expense of changing from cash-crop to dairying; the amount of credit needed; the amount of income available annually for repaying the loan and securing credit terms that best fit that particular conditions.

Mrs. O. D. Kennedy was named to act as co-chairman with county judge Herbert Chesshir to head the ACS fund campaign in the spring.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

The Kid's Learned to "Take Charge"

I was down at Buck Benson's store the other day when a fellow came in with a six-year-old boy—obviously his son.

While the fellow was looking over some stuff on the counter, Buck handed a free peppermint stick to the boy, who promptly tore off the wrapper and went to work on it.

The father seemed quite put out about his son's lack of manners and held up his hand to stop him. "What do we say when Mr. Benson gives us something?" he demanded. "Charge it," replied the kid without hesitation.

From where I sit, children aren't the only ones who "repeat things" without knowing what they're talking about. For instance, I'm convinced that many of those who speak out against the old American custom of enjoying a glass of beer after work are just parroting what they've heard others say. It's better to get the facts—then make up our own minds—and permit our neighbors to do the same.

Surpasses its Own Great Reputation!

You're looking at a mighty surprised man. Almost all of his adult life he has owned Cadillac cars. And so, when he came in to see and drive the new 1957 Cadillac, he thought he knew about what to expect.

Well, here he is—barely under way in the city's traffic—and already he is learning the startling truth.

He is learning that nothing could prepare a man for the new "car of cars"—not even Cadillac ownership itself!

He suspected it, in fact, the instant he caught his first glimpse of this newest Cadillac creation. This was an entirely new kind of Cadillac beauty—brilliantly fresh in line and in contour.

And then he opened the door and swung into the driver's seat. On every side were new miracles of interior beauty and comfort and convenience.

And when he turned the key and put his foot on the accelerator, his sentiment grew to conviction. The car was incredibly nimble and quiet and smooth of ride.

Surprised, did we say? Well, just wait until he hits an open stretch of highway.

That great new engine is incredibly responsive. There is marvelous new balance and ease of motion. And the car is so easy to handle that it seems almost to know the road.

No question about it—this is the Cadillac that surpasses its own great reputation!

We suggest that you come in soon to see and drive this most surprising new Cadillac in fifty-four years. It's an experience you shouldn't postpone—and one you'll not soon forget.
