BROWNFIELD JAYCEES ANNOUNCE ANNUAL AWARDS

B. F. Hutson Outstanding Young Man of 1956, Vernon Farrar Chosen the Outstanding Young Terry County Farmer of 1956

The Outstanding Young Man of 1956 is B. F. Hutson. The Outstanding Young Farmer of 1956 is Vernon Farrar. The honors were announced last Friday to climax the annual banquet of Brownfield Chamber of Commerce.

Principal speaker for the event was the Rev. Leon Hill of Amarillo, Baptist minister who pelleted his audience with some 30 minutes of laughter-provoking jokes.

When he was serious for some four minutes, the Rev. Mr. Hill declared "planting the common man on a pedestal." He urged, instead, the "aristocracy of the uncommon man."

Hutson was presented as OYM by Alvin Davis, on whom the honor fell last year. Davis is agricultural advisor and vice-president of Brownfield State Bank.

Here is a partial basis for Hutson's award, said Davis: Hutson was the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce president in 1955, and president of the Jaycees in 1954. He currently is vice-president of the Brownfield Lions Club. He is a member of First Methodist Church choir and of the Sand Tones, popular singing group.

Hutson is an Air Force veteran of World War II and is a 32nd degree Mason. He has lived here five years, managing Pioneer Natural Gas here and for one year elsewhere.

Introducing Farrar was H. L.

Brownfield Officer Receives Promotion In U. S. Air Force

KELLY AFB (Special) — John V. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of 221 North 11th, Brownfield has been promoted to first lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force.

He also recently qualified as a transport navigator in the Military Air Transport Service (MATS). Lt. Thompson is a navigator in the 57th Air Transport Squadron, Continental Division, MATS. Air transport is a major command of the AF, composed of the Air Force and Navy personnel.

Thompson was graduated from Brownfield High School in 1952, and received his bachelor of science degree from Texas Tech in January 1955. At Tech, he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and a three-year letter man in football. He was head freshman coach at Tech in the fall of 1954.

Lt. Thompson entered the Air Force in April 1955, and received his navigator's wings at Ellington AFB, Houston, in May 1956. Since then, he has been assigned to MATS, Kelly AFB.

Soil District Major Change Is Announced

By MARVIN WHITMIRE
Soil Scientist
Brownfield SCS Office

Terry Soil Conservation District has been approved for conversion from the Soil Conservation Service's Farm Plan Soil Survey to the new Standard Soil Survey.

The conversion means that the Brownfield SCS office henceforth will be part of a gigantic, single source of soil information throughout the United States.

In the past, information about soils has not been obtained from a central source. Persons interested in getting such facts either maintained their individual surveys — usually considered inadequate — or such information was developed to fit an individual need.

For example, petroleum industries now may draw upon the Standard Soil Survey for information relating to soil depth, hard rocks and catclay for laying a pipeline to fit their needs.

The Standard Soil Survey will be used by the SCS to furnish soil district cooperators information that they might be better able to carry out proper conservation measures.

Full responsibility for mapping physical features, development of initial and final reports, description rests with SCS.

Currently, TSCD, bounded by the county lines, is working to convert to the Standard Soil Survey by 1960.

Other soil districts where similar operations are under way are Hockley, Dawson, Yoakum, Gaines and Andrews. Lynn has been converted, and the Martin-Howard Districts are converting.

Dates Scheduled On 24th Annual South Plains Stock Show

Dates for the 24th annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show at Lubbock's Panhandle — South fairgrounds have been set for March 18-19-20.

O. L. Byrd, Ralston Purina manager at Lubbock, was named general chairman. Dixon White of Lubbock Cotton Oil Company is the vice chairman.

The South Plains show has become one of the finest regional exhibitions of livestock in Texas, with nearly 1,200 animals shown each year.

The number of hogs shown in 1956 was the largest outside of the State Fair show in Dallas. More than 700 4-H and FFA youths from a 29-county area showed barrows, lambs and steers in the last event.

Farm Labor Days Will Be Held This Month

Brownfield office of the Texas Employment Commission will continue to sponsor "labor days" each Tuesday, from 9 a. m. until noon.

The interviews, said Aubrey T. Jones, TEC manager here, will be held in the northeast basement of the courthouse. "Here's the chance for the farmer looking for hired help. Here's the chance for the hired hand looking for a job," explained Jones.

(Hub) King of Brownfield, state director of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Farrar is one of seven brothers, four of whom are farming here: Vernon, Cecil, Eulice and Jim. Paul is regional director for General Telephone, with offices here. S. B. and Alton Farrar farm near Vernon, Texas.

The OYM produced 2 1/2 bales — lacking 2 — per acre last year on his 54-acre cotton allotment on the quarter-section where he lives north of Brownfield with his wife and 5-year-old son, Momy.

Farrar began farming in 1949. He also rents a quarter-section west of Foster Gin. A member of the Methodist Church and a World War II veteran (Army), Farrar is on the board of directors of the new South Gin, Inc.

He gives much credit for the 2 1/2-bale yield to fertilizer and water, explaining that he put down 275 pounds of 13-39-0 and pre-watered heavily.

Other banquet entertainment was provided by the Sand Tones, comprising Dale Travis, Jim Williams, Hutson, Joe Cullum, A. V. Wall and Pianist Leonard Elling.

School Census Drawing To Rapid Close Here

Close of business Friday is deadline for registering youngsters who'll be entering school for the first time next year.

Delwin Webb, coordinator of curriculum at Brownfield High School, explained this morning: "Parents of pre-school children should complete the necessary form at the school where the children will attend — Jessie G. Randal or Colonial Height. "The work should be completed Friday."

GRAINS, FEED AVAILABLE

Terry Named Disaster Area

Terry County has been designated a major disaster area (drouth) for assistance under the federal government's emergency feed, grain, hay and roughage program.

The designation was announced Tuesday in separate telegrams from U. S. Senator Lyndon Johnson and Cong. George Mahon. The wires were sent to County Judge Herb Chesshir and TFB Director H. L. (Hub) King.

"To get sufficient supplies of feed to carry your foundation herd through Feb. 15, you must file application with Farmers Home Administration at 106 North Fifth."

Terry thus becomes one of the nearly-254 Texas counties in the disaster area. Application for the designation was made several weeks ago by the following committee:

Chesshir; R. J. Purcell of FHA county committee; J. S. Smith of FHA county committee; Paul Blackstock, vice-chairman of the Terry County ASC committee; and Jim Foy, Terry County agent.

TAG, MISTER — Marion Bea Perry won't be on hand to greet buyers, but she would like to remind all automobile owners that the annual sale of car tags begins at 8 a. m., Friday in Don Cates' courthouse tax office. Terry tags will run in two series this year, BY10 and BX8550. Marion Bea is the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Perry of 605 South Ninth. Deadline for placing the 1957 tags on cars is midnight March 31. Tax Assessor-Collector Cates explained this morning that buyers must have with them their car title and their 1956 license plate receipt. Cash or check will be accepted. A total of 5,363 sets of tags have been sold at Cates' office since Feb. 1 of last year. (Staff Photo)

IF THEY HAD A CHOICE

Here's What Some Residents Want Most To Have Observed

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Six Brownfield adults answered writer Don Noble's question, "What event in history would you, like most to witness?"

BILL COPE of 909 East Oak: "I would like most to have been present when Jesus delivered the Sermon on the Mount. I think it would have been wonderful to have been in His presence that day when He spoke the words which have world power it is today."

KENNETH BROWNING of 1021 East Hill: "There are many events which have had more effect upon the world, but the building of the Sphinx in Egypt always has held a certain fascination for me. I would have enjoyed very much watching it being planned and built."

"To carve a statue 240 feet long from solid rock, with a head 70 feet high, as long as 5,000 years ago, must be more of an engineering feat than we of today can imagine."

MRS. FRANK WIER of 911 East Lake: "I would like to have heard President Woodrow Wilson speak as he outlined his famous Fourteen Point Program before a joint session of Congress in January 1918."

"Those 14 points presented in his speech were designed to prevent war and to help nations all over the world live in peace with each other. And now, 36 years after his presidency, Wilson's aims and ideals for the nations of the world have been proven to be not just ideals but practical politics as well."

MRS. AL MULDROW of 321 South Club: "I think that one of the most interesting and inspirational events in history for an American was the signing of the Declaration of Independence."

"The men who produced and signed the famous document were come to mean so much to Christian people and which have had such a profound influence on all mankind."

MRS. C. W. DENISON of 1006 East Repto: "I would like most to have witnessed the signing of the U. S. Constitution. From our dedicated to God and their country, and must have been aware to some extent, that they were creating a new, democratic form of government capable of growth and progress to such a degree as to make the United States the modern day vantage point, it is obvious that it was an epoch."

Seven Brownfield men returned late Tuesday from Fort Worth, where they conferred with officials of the Civil Aeronautics Authority concerning the recently approved City-County Airport 4 miles east of town.

With the group was Ralph Douglas of Littlefield, civil engineer who will begin surveying the site Monday for construction. Others who flew to Fort Worth were Joe Satterwhite, Earl Jones, Pete Harris, Don Cates, Bob Burnett, Buddy Norris and Kelton Miller.

Henceforth, there'll be no telephone in The Little House, center of activity for Brownfield Girl Scouts. The service was discontinued this week after the house was turned over to Caprock Girl Scout Council.

Community Chest officials this morning reported that the current drive — rapidly coming to a halt — was some $3,000 short of its $1,000 goal. President Earl Jones urged that donations still be made.

When Brownfield Girl Scouts went under control of the new Caprock Girl Scout Council, a total of $500 in Chest money, given to the Scouts from last year's funds, was turned back.

It looks as if there will be a classing office located south of Brownfield, and I am guessing that it will be here in Brownfield. We have attended two long, drawn-out sessions during the past seven days, and it certainly is a compliment to our farmers to have selected such outstanding leadership to get the thing done.

It also is inspiring to hear these progressive farmers express themselves as to what they would like to see happen. If we ever get a normal rainfall to go along with these ever-improving irrigation farmers, we will be getting cotton

Financing Plan Is Announced, Request To USDA Scheduled

A cotton sub-classing office in Brownfield fast is nearing reality.

The decision to locate such an office here was reached Tuesday night, when more than 100 Terry farmers voted to ask 50 cents an acre from all farmers.

The 50 cents an acre, part of the plan for raising necessary funds, would apply to the county's current 150,000-acre cotton allotment. The plans also call for assessing 20 cents annually for each bale classed "until all debts are repaid."

The decision to see the office situated in Brownfield was reached when the farmers met for more than four hours in 106th District Courtroom.

H. L. (Hub) King, heading the committee seeking the unit here, explained that "Some $35,000 to $40,000 probably could be raised in such a manner. The remainder might be borrowed from the banks."

The Tuesday night action was a direct result of a Jan. 23 meeting here of Terry, Gaines, Yoakum and Dawson farmers, during which everyone was notified that Dawson wanted the office in Lamesa "or nowhere."

Gaines, Yoakum and Terry representatives apparently were as determined to have the sub-unit in Brownfield.

In a Wednesday night meeting in Lamesa, Terry representatives informed the other three counties of their plans and sought backing from them. It appears that Gaines and Yoakum counties, at least, will take a major role in the Brownfield office.

Next major step now appears to be that of requesting the U. S. Department of Agriculture to approve the office here. The request will be made through John R. McCollum of Dallas, manager of the seven-state Southwest Area, Cotton Division of the USDA.

McCollum repeatedly has told the area farmers that USDA would give careful consideration to any request for a sub-office. "If it is a justifiable request, you'll get the sub-office."

King explained to the Tuesday audience that "Estimates place cost of the office at a minimum of $40,000, which would include a 5,000 square foot, equipment and furniture."

Kenneth Purcell, president, told the Terry farmers Tuesday that "This classing problem belongs to the farmers. The method we have chosen for financing it will leave the office in the hands of the farmers."

The audience also heard a request from J. Y. (Jake) Fulford that Terry County Farm Bureau be allowed to underwrite the project.

One result of the meeting is that a non-profit farmer group will be organized to push through the project and take care of it in the future.

Effort will be made to have Gaines and Yoakum county farmers join in the financing. If they fail to do so, it was explained, those farmers will be charged a rental fee.

In other business Tuesday night, two district directors to represent Terry County with the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., were elected. They are Chairman Charles Kersh of Kersh Implement Company and Secretary R. D. Jones Sr., Terry farmer.

The group also heard a report from Leo Miller, manager here of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation.

Miller outlined in some detail the Acreage Reserve Program of the Soil Bank for 1957. The details: Terry County ASC office will begin executing 1957 cotton acreage

Brownfield 'Hams' Are At Sets In Emergency

Shortly afterward, the pumps at the wells were started, and hourly reports concerning the flow were transmitted to the Brownfield fams.

During the 48 hours of last Sunday and Monday, four Brownfield amateur radio operators sat at their transmitter-receivers handling emergency communications during the weekend ice storm.

Principal traffic comprised messages to and from the Andrews-Midland area for Magnolia Petroleum Company.

Brownfield "hams" taking part in the emergency were Lewis Simmonds of Station K5GEC, B. W. Young of Station K5EUV, E. C. Pool of Station W5NFO, and Glen Cullum of Station W5JMS. All are members of Terry County Radio Club.

reserve agreements at 8 a. m. Monday. Final day an agreement can be filed is March 1.

The County Committee has received $965,300 for the '57 program. (Agreements under the Acreage Reserve program are for one year.)

Funds will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. Applicants who sign agreements while there are funds available will have a guaranteed contract, while applicants who file requests after the allocation is exhausted will execute a contract at a later date if funds are available.

Operators who call at the office during the application period, Feb. 4 through March 1, will receive a numbered card so that their applications will be taken in order they came into the office. Requests for numbers made by mail or telephone will not be honored. Operators may designate 10 acres or 30 per cent of their farm allotment — whichever is greater — on the original agreement. The operator also may designate any additional acreage up to the total amount of the allotment if funds are available at a later date.

If an agreement is signed during the application period and the operator decides for any reason that he wishes to cancel before March 1, he may do so. No agreement may be canceled after March 1.

Operators who designate acreage above the original 30 per cent agreement are not obligated to include this extra acreage in their agreement if additional funds are available. He will be given a 10-day period to revise his acreage if he desires.

Acreage designated to Acreage Reserve will be under contract from the date of the agreement through Dec. 31, 1957.

Acreage Reserve land cannot be grazed unless authorized as a drouth provision. No crop can be harvested from the land. Crops which can be planted on See TERRY FARMERS, Pg. 2

Brownfield Wins Four of Five Awards At Recognition Banquet in Tahoka

Brownfield won four out of five of the Scout honors presented at the annual Recognition Scout Banquet of the Quanah Parker District. The banquet was held in the high school cafeteria in Tahoka, Jan. 24 at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Emil Prohl of Tahoka, who made the awards presentation, called attention to the fact that the Quanah Parker district won five of the 25 awards given in the entire South Plains Council. South Plains council consists of 26 counties. Quanah Parker district consists of the counties of Terry, Hoekley, Dawson, Gaines, and Yoakum.

Scout Troop 74, G. L. Kahae, scoutmaster, had had 47 per cent of its boys advance in rank during 1956.

Individual awards went to Mrs. Paul Ward of Brownfield for outstanding service as a Den Mother. Mrs. Ward works with Cub Scout Pack 74. Harold Wilson, cubmaster for Pack 74, received an award for a three year training program for Scout leadership. J. C. Powell was presented a beautiful plaque for meritorious service as chairman of the Quanah Parker district. Rudy Winchester, scout master of the Presbyterian Church troop, received an award for work identical to Wilson's.

Powell gave the final challenge on the program.

Boards of elders, deacons, deaconesses, and trustees will then meet with the other group at 4 p. m. to award the contract for the construction.

Plans are by Atcheson, Atkinson, and Cartwright, architects, of Lubbock, who designed the original structure, as well as the new high school auditorium, Colonial Heights elementary school, and many other local buildings.

Upon completing this measurement, if the county office finds that the operator has planted 73 acres, payment will be made for only 27 acres. The operator will be required, however, to destroy the cotton acreage in excess of 70 acres. If this excess cotton is

HEREFORD BREED PREDOMINATES

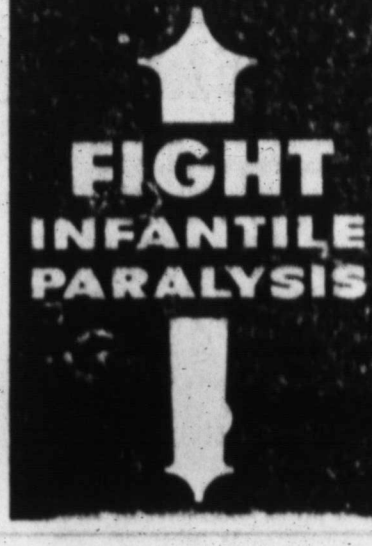

Average Daily Gain of 2.38 Pounds Is Reported for Balmorhea Cattle Tests

The 14th annual beef cattle performance and progeny test at the Balmorhea Station reports an average gain of 2.38 pounds for 119 young bulls and 1.72 pounds for 20 heifers during a 140-day period, according to A. A. Melton, station superintendent.
One hundred and fourteen Hereford, three Santa Gertrudis, and two Charbray bulls were used in the tests which ran from October 14, 1955 to March 2, 1956. Hereford heifers were used.
Initial weights in sire groups of three or more progeny ranged from 447 to 711 pounds, and age from 209 to 359 days. Range in daily gain for the 103 young bulls in this group was from 2.12 to 2.72 pounds. This .60 pound difference indicates a high degree of selection, Melton said.
Weights per day of age averaged 2.08 pounds at the outset of the test and climbed to 2.17 pounds at the close. Average increase was .09 pounds. Progeny groups registering high weights per day per day of age had a tendency to show above average scores for condition.
Progeny groups making greatest increases, in weight per day of age were below average in that respect at the outset and even though they made above average gains during the test period, were still below the others in weight per day of age at the close.
Ground heifer bundles were full fed in the tests, while ground alfalfa hay and cottonseed meal were limited fed in equal amounts. Salt was free choice. All feed was of excellent quality and the ground heifer contained about 25 percent grain by weight. Average ration, according to Melton, was 3.94 pounds of cottonseed meal, 3.06 pounds of ground alfalfa hay and 15.6 pounds of ground heifer bundles.
Forty-two of the tested bulls were sold at auction in three sale price groups. The top 30 percent averaged $490 per head, the middie 40 percent, $236, and the bottom 30 percent, $167.

Prices were affected by absence from the sale of some of the test's better bulls and fear of dwarfism in pedigree. The complete report is available in Progress Report 1899 and may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

HOW VALUABLE

... Is Local Newspaper Advertising To Local Business People?

Here's what the American Bankers Magazine, a publication which represents a traditionally hard-headed profession, has to say:

"No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns."

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town . . . it's the best town advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town."

Champion Better Government Bills
Rep. John Lee of Kermit and Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock, left to right above, were among the first of many Texas legislators to introduce one of the "Better Government" Bills sponsored by the Texas Press Association. TPA has prepared 15 Bills for legislative action. Each bill is designed to correct evils that exist in present Texas laws. "Had the TPA bills been in effect there would have been no veterans land or Duval County scandals," said Senator Smith. "Loopholes in present laws have made possible the scandalous events of the past few years, wherein public monies have been misappropriated," stated Representative Lee. The two Legislators are urging the public to back them in their determination to effect passage of the TPA Legislation. Lee's bill is HB-38. Smith's bill is SB-55. Both bills are known as The Mandatory Publication Act. They do not create any new publication requirements. But they do call for removal from office of any public official who refuses to publish financial reports called for under existing laws.

PASSENGER CAR STYLING comes to the trucking business in Ford's 1957 Style-side Pickup. It typifies revolutionary changes in new Ford trucks which Ford dealers display February 1. Full-width styling has more than just "eye appeal." It widens the truck's load area by 20 inches, and adds 25 percent more load capacity than old-style models offer. This pickup is one of nearly 300 models in the 1957 Ford line which ranges upward to huge extra heavy duty models.

Everyone has been enjoying the weather down Wellman way, especially Mr. Z. Z. Zigler. He says, "It may be cold enough to curl Grandfather's whiskers, but isn't it a nice change?" The Juniors have selected "Moonlight and Roses" as the theme of their Junior-Senior Banquet. Their colors are blue and white; their flower is the white rose; their motto is "Success Await at Labor's Gates." The banquet will be April 12, in the "Top of the Plains Restaurant" at Lubbock.

Baby, it's cold outside, but the calendar doesn't lie, and we all know that Spring is just around the corner. And it never gets too cold to kill your enthusiasm for the wonderful new Spring dresses and suits that are arriving almost hourly at SHELTON'S.

Especially delightful are the new things for the younger girls. Monday, Pat was just unpacking some delectable batiste dresses, fashioned with full skirts and round necklines, daintily pleated and edged in lace. In lucious pastels and dazling white that will make the perfect Easter outfit for that prissy missy of yours. And don't forget that you'll be able to find all the necessary accessories for your little ones at the store. Hats, purses, gloves, undies, and anklets—all sealed to their size but turning them out just as "dressed up" as Mommy.

Also just unpacked are butcher linen dresses for the younger ones, in jewel tones, with self-material buttons down the front and the very smart tab belt in back. And wait until you see the darling dacron outfits with crisp white blouse and permanently pleated navy skirt for the younger set!

Sub-teens haven't been left out, either, and one of the cutest is of polished cotton print in princess style with rounded neckline that does a turn-about-face by having the keyhole in the back. These are just $10.95 and come in sparkling yellow, blue, or pink. Just one of the many charming sub-teen cottons that have just been unpacked at SHELTON'S.

Ida Mae and her staff remind you that their clothes look smarter on healthy, straight young bodies. Support your March of Dimes!

CASHES BONDS — Ralph Yarborough, candidate for U. S. senator in the up-coming special election, cashed the last two war bonds he bought with soldier's pay overseas in World War II. Yarborough used the money from one of the bonds to make his candidacy in the April 2 election. He gave the $50 from the other bond to Austin's lagging March of Dimes polo drive.

Sesame Crop Is Grown Here By A. J. Hartman

A. J. Hartman, who farms 7 miles west of Brownfield on U. S. 380, has helped introduce a new crop to Terry County.

The crop is sesame. Although Hartman is a first-year grower of this oilseed, which first was produced commercially in the Southwest in 1953, he already has added a special new technique of his own to sesame growing. Hartman used a sprinkler system to produce his first sesame crop on 60 acres of his good 629-acre sandyland farm. The results were satisfying, because he averaged 715 pounds of clean seed an acre, grossing about $71.50 an acre.

"I tried sesame to see if it would make more money than feed, and it certainly did," said Hartman. "Since 1956 was my first sesame year, I don't know all, there is to learn about growing and harvesting it."

"The Texas Sesame Seed Growers organization at Paris has promised to give me the benefit of their wide experience, and this year I will plant 100 acres and hope for better yields."

Hartman averaged approximately 14 bales on his 220 acres planted to cotton, but realized only about $14.20 an acre from 340 acres dryland farmed to miko.

"This experience," says he, "certainly gives sesame a good edge over miko, particularly since I can encourage it along with my sprinkler system."

He farmed his sesame land in the same manner as his other crops, cutting old stalks, breaking and listing the land, watering the beds with the irrigation system. The land then was knifed again and cultivated twice, and two more sprinkler applications applied during the growing season.

When the sesame was mature, he cut it with his three-row binder, and had it placed in shocks. Cost of these two operations was $3.50 an acre. After the sesame had dried thoroughly, it was combined from the shock.

Hartman says that sesame is a relatively cheap crop to grow and to harvest, and estimated his total per-acre costs at $25.

Profits High On Forage With Fertilizer, Rainfall

A recently released Texas Agricultural Experiment Station publication, "Influence of Rainfall on Profits from Fertilizer Applications to East Texas Forage," indicates that the odds for a profit are good with forage valued at $15, $20 and $25 a ton and when fertilizers applied cost $13.70 an acre.

The research authors, Dr. R. J. Hildreth, an economist and Dr. A. G. Caldwell and Flake L. Fisher, both agronomists, point out that the response of forage to fertilizer depends largely on how much rainfall is received during the growing season.

By studying forage response in relation with past rainfall conditions and current prices of fertilizer and forage, they have been able to calculate whether future fertilizer applications may be profitable.

Figures for 25 locations scattered over the East Texas area have been calculated and were based on tests conducted on upland-native pastures containing common Bermudagrass, brownsesed paspalum, little bluestem and lespedeza.

The soil series of the test pastures were Lufkin and Bowie, which are common to East Texas. The odds were figured on the basis of an application of 60-30-30 fertilizer. Forage was valued on the basis of air-dry forage produced from the test plots.

The average profit an acre when forage is $20 and fertilizer costs $13.70 was $14.16 at Bon Weir; $9.65 at Clarksville; $2.61 at College Station; $6.34 at Jefferson; $10.24 at Liberty; $4.57 at Mt. Pleasant; $7.62 at Nacogdoches and $1.72 at Trinidad. The profit was correspondingly higher when forage was valued at $25 a ton and correspondingly less when figured at $15 a ton.

4-H CLUB

Notes

By BOB ETHEREDGE
Assistant County Agent

Officers for 1957 were elected Jan. 23 by Brownfield Junior High School 4-H Club. They were James Riley Davis, president; James Handy, vice-president; Ronnie Smyri, secretary, and Duane Steen and Lonnie Crumley, 4-H council delegates. Safety and etymology were discussed as club projects.

A 4-H Club was organized Friday in Jessie G. Randal School, and plans were made to elect its 1957 officers at the next meeting. Approximately 60 boys, from 8 to 11 years old and displaying much enthusiasm, attended the organizational session.

Union, Wellman and Meadow 4-H Clubs will meet Tuesday at their schools. Our thanks to all the persons who presented awards to the 4-H boys and girls at the 4-H Awards Program Jan. 21. Alvin Davis of Brownfield State Bank did an excellent job as master of ceremonies.

Pete Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Green of Route 5, bought two Spotted Poland China barrows, which he will exhibit in the April livestock show. Pete moved back to the farm in December, and now is attending Union School. He was an active member of 4-H clubs before moving to Lubbock. We certainly are happy that he has returned to the county.

The Terry County Junior Livestock Show has been scheduled for April 18 by Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce, its sponsor.

Funeral services for Robert H. Goldston, 45, of 419 North First, were held here Sunday in Northside Baptist Church, with the Rev. A. J. Franks, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. E. L. Cave of Brownfield.

Burial was in Terry County Memorial Cemetery, under the direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

Goldston's survivors are his widow; five sons, Leon Goldston of 1003 North First and Robert Goldston of the home address, Dick and Gerald Goldston of the U. S. Navy, and Donald Goldston of Fort Worth; and Three daughters, Joyce, Judy and Lorene Goldston of the home address five sisters, Mrs. Lucy Lewis and Mrs. Annie Lewis of Earh, Mrs. Lelia Whitener of Amarillo, and Mrs. Mary Hodges and Mrs. Virgie Miles of Campbell, Calif., and one brother, Dick Goldston of Muleshoe.

Goldston was pronounced dead on arrival Friday at Treadaway-Daniell Hospital, where he was taken after suffering a heart attack about 8:35 a. m., at Goodpasture Grain & Milling Company, where he was employed.

He was a member of Brownfield Odd Fellows Lodge and of Northside Baptist. He had been a Brownfield resident since 1949, moving here from Sudan.

An evening with Johann Strauss" will be offered for West Texas music lovers, Feb. 2 in Lubbock's palatial Municipal Auditorium.

Persons attending may look forward to an exhilarating tour through the outstanding operettas of Strauss, presented by five extremely personable and intelligent young artists.

The quintet has been put together by Vienna-born Thomas Martin, conductor of the New York Opera Company, and his wife, Ruth. The Martins have become famous as arrangers - composers of opera in English.

First in order of appearance among the stars is Michael Steele, handsome young blue-eyed blond from Pennsylvania, who serves as host and narrator, introducing the other artists and providing story background for the operettas.

The soloists are Marlys Watters, coloratura soprano; Beverly Silis, lyric soprano; John Drury, tenor, and Ted Scott, baritone.

The choral ensemble is a double quartet chosen for the quality of their individual voices and for their blend as a group. These artists have been selected individually by Martin for an "Evening With Johann Strauss," and developed as a group by him for this production.

Tickets to the Feb. 2 event are $3, $2.50, $2 and $1. They currently are on sale at the auditorium box office, or by calling Porter 2-4616.

AMERICAN LEGION TRADITIONAL BULWARK

Against 'Pinko' Liberalism

Something is happening in America. The smartness is wearing off the so-called pinko "liberalism," revealing its inherent Made-in-Moscow ugliness.

In its place the ferment of patriotism — of nationalism, if you please — is working visibly. Impetuous college youth who, since the depression of the thirties, have been so generally ledizened by socialist sophistry, one-world hogwash and Communist doubletalk, finally are rising in resentful wrath against those sly mentors who have been playing the intellectual hypodermic.

It again is fashionable to speak up and stand up for the principles to which our forefathers pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.

In The American Legion, for nearly 39 years the nation's bulwark against subversion and Constitutional erosion, record-breaking membership is expected for 1957.

From the largest posts to the smallest, from coast to coast and from border to border, and more particularly in grass-roots America, new members are joining the AL. In mid-December, the national headquarters reported that 600,000 more Legionnaires had paid their dues for the ensuing year than at that date in 1955.

In his speech of acceptance last September, National Commander W. C. (Dan) Daniel urged all Americans the following creed:

"I believe in my God, I believe in my country, I believe in myself, and in that order."

He recited the 11 goals of the Legion, the things it is FOR. Most significantly:

1. For a vibrant, living Americanism, and against the despotic evils of Communism.
2. For a virile, free-enterprise or profit-motivated system, and against the crippling paralysis of socialism.
3. For a strong, national sovereign government, and against world government.
4. For self-determination among state and local governments, and against excessive centralized power.
5. For an impregnable national defense, and against spending ourselves into bankruptcy in an attempt to buy friends.
6. For an honorable, forthright foreign policy, and against a policy based on fear and vassilation.
7. For Constitutional law, and against treaty law.

This, said Commander Daniel, is "a time of danger." Americans, in and out of the Legion, must have been listening when he urged that we "rededicate our lives to God and country so that our children may enjoy this blessed heritage of freedom won with the blood of so much of the flower of the knighthood of America."

He WOULDN'T UNDERSTAND!

THE AMERICAN WAY

By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

From a long-time friend, A. F. Davis, vice president, Lincoln Electric Co., Cleveland, Ohio, comes a letter regarding the Future Farmers of America. Knowing of the time, energy and money that Davis has devoted over a period of years toward furthering the progress of this organization, plus the fact that he has clearly, simply, and briefly stated its impact on the nation's agriculture, I'm passing his letter on to the readers of this column:

In this letter I'm giving you further information regarding an organization that is very close to my heart. I do so in the hope that you will do as you have previously done, pass some of it on to your readers.

"Learning to do; doing to learn; earning to live; living to serve— is the guiding philosophy for this organization, a group of approximately 400,000 young men, all of whom are still in or just out of their teens. A pretty good philosophy, I think you'll agree! Members of this group take it seriously and have been doing so for 29 years. The result, a solid core of American citizens entering adult life, has been a far reaching influence in the development of our country.

This organization, The Future Farmers of America, is comprised of young men studying vocational agriculture in high schools. The Kansas City Star, commenting on its organization in that city said in an editorial on November 21, 1953, "Its purpose is to advance vocational education in agriculture through the public schools and to create and develop interest in agriculture and country life. From this group will come a body of men thoroughly grounded in their profession. They will be capable not only of maintaining American agriculture as a business, but as an occupation which will attract the most competent to it." FFA has more than borne out this prophecy.

Through individual and group activities on local, state and national levels, boys receive incentive and opportunity to develop not only their farming talents, but also character and citizenship. Each FFA member must have some active farmer enterprise on which he receives guidance from his vocational teacher. He also must participate in other activities through which he gains knowledge of farm mechanics, soil conservation, safety, electrification, and other related matters. Certain group activities are required: meetings are held; public speaking contests are conducted; and community activities are developed to meet local needs — all of which are initiated, governed and completed by the boys themselves. They share the experience of democratic rural living.

Senator Preston Smith

The first hint of agreement between Gov. Price Daniel and House Speaker Carr came out in the open when the governor made public his list of first problems to be faced by the 55th Legislature.

Like Carr, the governor pointedly avoided the question of integration in Texas schools.

Carr had suggested earlier that integration be postponed until the latter part of the term, because of the amount of discussion which undoubtedly will become a part of any action concerning integration.

"Any practical solution of the school problem can be put into effect next September," said Carr. Carr, furthermore, promised all segregation bills a fair and full hearing.

While the integration problem has been prominently excluded from much public comment by men and women of the 55th Legislature, there's little doubt in anyone's mind here that segregation problems are going to be discussed with plenty of feeling, fireworks and friction.

Much the same situation surrounds a lobby control bill. There's not much talk about it, but the tension is there. One newsman described the lobby bill as "boiling underneath."

Meanwhile, regular business goes on within the Capitol. Appropriations, taxes and financial matters dominate the chambers, and committee organizations are being set up.

Incidentally, I was elected vice-chairman of the Military and Veterans Affairs committee, and was appointed to serve on committees dealing with agriculture and livestock, education, finance and public health...so if any of you at home have some ideas along these lines, let me hear of them. Just write me in care of Capitol Station here in Austin:

By Vern Sanford Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — A number of the "Better Government" bills requested of the Legislature by the Texas Press Association have hit the legislative hopper.

Outstanding among those introduced are:

1. A Mandatory Publications bill, designed to force public officials to print public notices as called for by present statutes. Requiring removal from office of any public official who refuses to publish financial reports called for under existing laws, this bill would eliminate such occurrences as have happened in Duval County in recent years. Introduced by Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock and Rep. John Lee of Kermit.
2. A bill to provide for public notice of applications of veterans applying for loans under the Veterans Land Act. Notices, to appear in the veteran's home town newspaper, would specify name of the veteran, describe the land, and quote the price he will be paying. Sen. Charles Herring of Austin and Rep. Louis M. Anderson of Midland have introduced companion bills in the Senate and House.
3. Rep. Virginia Duff of Ferris and Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro have introduced measures which will require publication of annual financial statements by school districts and other official bodies. Again, a measure to help prevent situations similar to that in Duval County.
4. Sen. Otis Lock of Luckin and Rep. Howard Green have introduced bills in their respective houses which would make it unlawful to bar newspaper reporters from precinct conventions. Object: To prevent instances when newsmen are unable to report convention facts to their readers because they are refused admission to such political meetings.
5. Meetings of public bodies would be open to the public, including newspapermen, if a bill introduced by Henry R. Gonzalez of San Antonio and Rep. Don Kennard of Ft. Worth is passed. This bill will insure the "public's business" being kept public.
6. A measure providing for removal of officials who refuse to testify concerning their duties. By Sen. Doyle Willis and Rep. Howard Green both of Ft. Worth.
7. Two bills introduced by Rep. Jack Welch of Marlin would require insurance companies to publish financial statements annually, and provide a penalty for furnishing false information to the insurance commission.
8. Sen. Culo Krieger of El Campo has introduced a measure calling for publication of the full text of ordinances, rather than merely the caption. Publication of captions only, as now allowed by law, frequently does not give the public sufficient information as to what the ordinance contains.

9. Another bill by Rep. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi would require each treasurer receiving or controlling funds of a school district to keep a full account of all funds, and to file an annual report of those funds each school year. Present laws do not provide after state protection at the local level for such accountings.

Among other items in the still-abundant flow of suggested legislation are bills which would:

1. Require voters to register by parties. By Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio.
2. Provide paid investigators to assist grand juries. By Rep. John T. Cox of Temple.
3. Refund state taxes on gasoline paid by cities. By Rep. Robert W. Baker of Houston.
4. Exempt widows, old age pensioners, injured veterans and others from state property taxes on the first $5,000 in value. By Rep. D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur.
5. Place liquidation of insurance companies under supervision of Travis County district judges rather than the Insurance Commission. By Sen. Charles Herring of Austin.
6. Make Texas Thanksgiving the same as the federal holiday. By Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.
7. Re-organize the Industrial Accident Board and increase workmen's compensation benefits. By Reps. Kennard and Wade Spillman of McAllen.
8. Provide for annual sessions, boost legislators' salaries to $7,500 a year and the speaker and lieutenant governor to $12,500. By Rep. Truett Latimer of Abilene.

MONEY HERE MONEY THERE—House and Senate committees now are neck-deep in hearings on the paramount issue of the 55th session of the Texas Legislature — how much money to appropriate and to whom.

Facing them are these requests:

1. A $2,000,000,000 appropriation bill submitted by the Legislative Budget Board.
2. A bill to increase public school salaries.

 1. Teachers' basic salaries from $2,905 to $3,204. Introduced by Sen. A. M. Aikin and Rep. James A. Turman.
 2. A bill to give state employees a 15 per cent raise on the first $3,000 of their salaries. By Sen. Charles Herring, Reps. Charles Sandahl and Wilson Foreman of Austin. Another bill by the other Travis County member, Rep. Obie Jones, asks a 25 per cent raise.
 4. A bill to appropriate $3,000,000 to aid the totally disabled. By Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria.
 5. A bill to raise judges' salaries, from $9,000 to $16,000 for district judges, from $12,000 to $20,000 for civil appellate judges, from $17.50 to $24.00 for Supreme Court and Criminal Appeal judges. By Sen. Doyle Willis.
NEW WATER PLAN—With two previous plans junked, a third recommendation has been made for buying state water storage space in federal reservoirs. Earlier plans included, first, a fishing and boating tax, and then a water users tax. Both met strong opposition.

 Now Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, water program leader, has substituted a plan to finance storage—buying with a $100,000,000 bond program. This is separate from another $100,000,000 bond proposal to aid local governments in financing water conservation.
SHORT SHORTS—Butane fuel is not "gas" as far as the state gross receipts tax is concerned, the Supreme Court ruled. It ordered the comptroller to refund taxes paid by a Rankin butane company. State draft quota for February calls for 695 men, a drop from the January call of 861. A total of 65,094 men registered with Texas draft boards last year, according to State Selective Service Headquarters. Governor Danies has re-appointed William L. McGill as director of Texas Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters.

Mrs. R. N. McClain Speaks To HD Club In Behalf of Cancer Education Plan

Gomez - Johnson Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. N. Key.

Roll call was answered with "a safety rule I always practice." Among the safety practices named were "always see that lighted matches are completely out before dropping in the waste basket!"

"See that fires in stoves are out or safe before leaving home" and "pick up planks with protruding nails in them."

Recreation was directed by Mrs. Anna Bell Lay.

Mrs. Key, president conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Key Martin was appointed to send flowers and cards to the sick and bereaved.

A cancer education program was given by Mrs. R. N. McClain of Brownfield, chairman of the Terry County Unit of the American Cancer Society, and Mrs. Lewis Simmonds of Brownfield showed a film entitled "Traitor Within."

In explaining that, if present rates continue, more than 40,000,000 Americans now living will be stricken with cancer this year, Mrs. McClain said "although cancer is primarily considered a disease of middle and old age, in 1955 more children of school age up to 15 years died from cancer than from any other disease." Of the 3500 children who died, leukemia killed more than half, Mrs. McClain explained. This program was one of a series of eight to be presented to home demonstra-

AUSTIN (Sp)—Three "heavy meals a day" is no guarantee of good health. It is "what you eat" and not "how much" that counts. Strangely enough, in the richest agricultural nation on earth, an alarming percentage of the population is deficient in consumption of vital nutrients, such as calcium and Vitamin C. Even overweight persons who high-calorie foods rarely get a really balanced diet.

The current popularity of high-calorie foods only tends to make some people fat, according to recent diet studies. A danger point is approached when these rich but unbalanced eating habits prevent a person from getting enough protective foods necessary for good health.

It generally is accepted that people should maintain in later years the weight that was ideal for their height and bone structure at age 25. Yet, regional studies show that a large number of older people seriously are overweight. The problem today is to encourage people with low energy requirements to plan diets that eliminate surplus calories but do not curtail essential nutrients.

For example, the National Research Council recommends a daily intake of .80 grams of calcium as necessary for good health, yet, only about one person in six takes that much calcium daily—and calcium is abundant in eggs, milk and cheese.

GEE GEE'S Chit Chat!

What could be prettier than all the trees and shrubs shimmering in pristine beauty of coats of ice? Even the lowly tumbleweed took on aspects of grandeur when Saturday's weather frosted it. And what could be more typical than to have a sandstorm Monday? Ah, West Texas.

Any of you red-blooded Terry Countians willing to give up a pint of your corpuscles to help a neighbor? Kitty, Mrs. Roy Fleming, underwent surgery last week and had to have some blood transfusions. Now the blood bank needs replenishing... any type will do, just as long as you donate it. You can either get in touch with Rev. or go to the blood bank on 19th street in Lubbock and replace the blood. And thanks, kids.

Speaking of blood, we were in Lampasas last week for the funeral of my uncle, who died of leukemia (cancer of the blood-stream) early Monday. As you probably know, cancer is one of the largest killers of Americans, and leukemia is one of the types which is absolutely incurable.

Many people think that leukemia strikes only the very young (and it did kill about 18,000 youngsters under 15 in 1955), but age is no barrier to leukemia.

In fact, cancer is no respecter of persons, striking some 46,000 Americans a year. Cancer will strike one of four Americans this year and will kill at least two of the four. In many cases because of negligence on the part of the victim. That's why you are urged to give to the cancer fund... to further research so that cancer can be detected earlier in persons and thus save many more lives. That's why the local unit of the American Cancer Society is stepping up their educational program, taking the news of the latest research and treatment of cancer to every organization they can reach in order to educate the public to the dangers... and the possibilities of prevention... of cancer.

Monday is Dollar Day in Brownfield again. You'll find in the Trade Journal this week a variety of values to prove to you that your dollars spent in Brownfield are the best dollars you'll ever spend anywhere.

Members of the PTA at Jesse G. Randal school are desperately in need of good used clothing for boys and girls, ages 6 to 10. If you have anything for these children to wear, take them to the office at the school. The PTA group has already clothed several children this year, but the demand is larger than the supply.

If you are interested in making polo a thing of the past... TURN ON YOUR PORCH LIGHT tonight for the Mothers' March on Polio. Give as generously as you can to stamp out this dread disease. Support your March of Dimes!

PLAY BINGO FOR MARCH OF DIMES — Brownfield VFW post this week handed a total of $650 to R. V. Moreman, chairman of the Terry-Yoakum March of Dimes committee. The money was raised last Friday night, when VFW played host to more than 185 persons who played bingo. Moreman told Post Commander Herschel McKay this morning. "MOD is highly pleased with what VFW has done to further the current fight against the ravages of polio. The money will be well spent." Caller during the Friday session was Jack Aldrup, publicity chairman for the post. Some 45 Brownfield business firms contributed money and services to winners. (Staff Photo)
