Scouts will be among 50,000 of their friends from the United States and numerous foreign countries. Leaders say one thing is certain: When the Scouts return, they will be old hands at old-fashioned horse trading for souvenirs. Basis of the negotiations is to get something of equal or more value than the item being traded. Brownfield Scoutmasters traveling with the group are Harold Wilson of 403 Tahoka Road, R. T. Wilson of 1403 East Cardwell, and Ralph Bailey of 915 East Ripley, and E. B. Gaither of Takoha. (List of Scout on the trip were printed in the June 30 edition of the NEWS.)

MRS. RETHA MARSHALL AND SON, DOYLE WAYNE

Funeral For Wreck Victims Held Here

Funeral services for Mrs. Retha Nell Marshall, 18, and her 2½-year-old son, Doyle Wayne, were held Tuesday in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Otho Stegall officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. Billie Hatch.

Mrs. Marshall and her son were killed Friday in an automobile accident that claimed five other lives near Farmington, N.M.

The pair, residents of Tokio Community, were among six passengers of a 1957 sedan that collided with a pickup truck on U.S. Highway 500 about 10 miles east of Farmington.

Investigating officers said apparently the sedan had a blow-out which caused the car to swerve to the shoulder, whip to the other side of the road and then skid down the road sideways. It was hit broadside by the pickup.

The accident was described as the second worst in New Mexico history.

Survivors include Mrs. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson of Tokio; two

Scholarship Is Won By William H. Smyrl

William H. Smyrl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Smyrl of Route 1, was named this week as one of 85 top high school students who will be offered 4-year Opportunity Award scholarships to Texas A&M, according to Dean W. W. Armistead, chairman of the faculty committee on scholarships.

Winners of the Opportunity Awards were chosen by the faculty committee on scholarships for the college following statewide competitive examinations given to more than 600 candidates this spring.

Opportunity Awards are valued at from $800 to $1,200, recipients receiving $200 to $300 per year for four years plus part-time employment provided by the College.

Winners were chosen after consideration of each candidate's scholastic record, character, evidence of leadership in high school, and financial circumstances.

pounds of almost pure marijuana found in a car owned by Guastava A. Garza of San Angelo touched off an investigation that uncovered business burglaries in San Angelo, Hale Center and Plainview within the past few weeks.

Garza and three juvenile Mexican-American accomplices were arrested here June 26 and charged with the burglary of Model Dry Goods Store, 611 West Main, after they were stopped for a minor traffic violation.

San Angelo juvenile officers picked up the suspects Saturday for violation of their probation. While here the officers told Brownfield police that two of the youths, both 16, were known narcotics users.

With this information, officers R. L. Bartley, Bob Thomson and Larry Beauchamp made a second search of the suspect's car.

Bartley took out the ashtray on the back of the front seat and found a Hale Center bank's money bag containing a quantity of marijuana. Further search uncovered a .32 caliber pistol and several packages of keys within the seat and three paper sacks of marijuana behind door panels.

Capt. Skeet Forrester, of the Lubbock Police Department's detective division, made a trip here to confirm the find as marijuana. "This is some of the purest marijuana I've seen in this area," reported Forrester. Chief Tippit added that the narcotics would be worth about $3,500 if retailed on the local market.

The investigation, conducted by Terry County Sheriff's officers, Texas Ranger Razz Renfro and city police, revealed that the trio of juveniles had broken into at least two business houses in San Angelo, one in Hale Center and one in Plainview prior to their arrest with Garza here June 26.

The youths told officers they had taken about 20 pistols, an electric clock and a billfold from one business in San Angelo and got about $100 from a safe in an auto parts store.

A safe burglary in Hale Center netted about $100, a diamond ring and a watch for the youngsters. Only a box of miscellaneous tools was obtained from the Plainview break-in. Garza was not implicated in any of the burglaries in the three towns.

After questioning the youths about their recent activities, officers pieced together the following story: The boys took part of the loot from the San Angelo burglaries to San Marcus, Mexico, and purchased the narcotic.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—State highway patrolmen are on the lookout for careless drivers.

Ten Texans are scheduled to die on the highways during the holidays, according to Homer Garrison Jr., Department of Public Safety director. Twelve died on July 4 last year.

DPS fatality predications usually are frighteningly accurate. However, state law enforcement officers are doing their best to cut the traffic toll and thereby prove themselves wrong in their estimates. Gov. Price Daniel has made a personal appeal to Texans to join together to "curb the senseless slaughter on our streets and highways."

Colonel Garrison reports 120 extra units will be added to the patrol for the holiday "Operation Deathwatch." Their job will be to spot the speeders, drunken or reckless drivers and take them off the roads before accidents occur.

Texas Safety Association has joined in the push for better citizenship on the highways. TSA says last year's traffic accidents in Texas cost $275,000,000, took 2,611 lives and injured another 115,000 persons.

GRAND JURY DIGS IN—Travis County grand jury touched off a rash of speculation by issuing summonses to a new group of witnesses.

What they found out about the affairs of the bankrupt ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas and former Ins. Chmn. J. Byron Saunders will not be known until later in the summer when the jury reports.

Colorful ex-Ranger Manuel T. (Lone Wolf) Gonzaulas was the headliner witness. Gonzaulas once was vice president of a Ben Jack Gage enterprise, making purse-size alarms for women to summon help. He said he had nothing to do with ICT, also managed by Gage.

Others called to testify were Mrs. Mae Swainder of Dallas, longtime secretary to Saunders; Paul B. Kelly of Austin, personal friend of Saunders; and Dick Mallard Tyler CPA who was asked to bring Saunders' financial records.

CAGE PROMISES TO RETURN—Meanwhile, Ben Jack Gage, kingpin of the controversy, announced from Brazil that he'll come back to Texas "in about a month" and straighten everything out.

Cage, former manager of ICT, is under indictment in Dallas for embezzlement of the firm's funds. Governor Daniel had tried to get Cage forcibly returned to Texas for trial, but found the U. S. has no extradition treaty with Brazil.

Cage terms the Texas talk "hysteria," blames his successors at ICT for the company's collapse. But, he said, he plans to set up a corporation under which 75 per cent of his earnings for the rest of his life will go to repay ICT shareholders. "NEW LOOK" LAUNCHED—Texas' long heralded "clean slate" Insurance Commission is finally a reality.

The "New Look" was officially launched with the appointment of Assistant State Auditor William A. Harrison as Commissioner of Insurance. Under the reorganization law passed by the last legislature, the commissioner is to be a $200,000-a-year executive who will run the department.

Although it will be one of the highest-paid posts in state government, Harrison is serving without pay. Through oversight the legislature neglected to make the commissioner's salary effective until Sept. 1.

Harrison, who was named "temporarily" until September, is reportedly serving "on faith" that the Legislature will make some adjustment when it next meets.

TEACHER MONEY ASSURED—Teachers, who've had state officials scraping and scrambling for months, are now apparently assured of receiving their $399 a year raise beginning next fall.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled that $4,000,000 can be made available for this purpose on Aug. 22. A bill authorizing transfer of this amount from the permanent school endowment fund becomes effective 90 days after adjournment, said Wilson.

Earlier, doubts had been raised whether wording of the bill would permit the transfer before the end of this fiscal year, Aug. 31.

FIRST WITH THE WORST—Cost of Texas' severe weather damage in 1957 will probably top $100,000,000, says William L. McGill. Official total is already more than $91,000,000. McGill, director of Texas

This total represents payments to 14 wheat farmers and 23 cotton farmers, noted officials. Another 12 cotton raisers will receive checks totaling $18,159.20 when requirements of the reserve agreement are met.

ASC officials said the acreage reserve program should not be confused with longer term Conservation Reserve program.

The latter program, which runs for 5 or 10 years contracts, covers feed or non-cash crop land. However, both programs are included in the administration's Soil Bank Act.

Smuggling the contraband back to San Angelo, the youths contacted Garza, who told them he knew where they could sell marijuana in Brownfield.

Apparently before a contact was made here, the quartet burglarized Model Dry Goods Store and took two portable radios, a razor, $25 and a .45 caliber pistol, investigating officers said.

Within moments after the alleged break-in, Officers Bartley and F. D. McClintock halted the group for violation of the anti-noise ordinance. Search of the car revealed the stolen items, a set of burglary tools, the tool box from Plainview and an illegal knife, known as a "Dallas special" in police circles, reported officers.

Garza, who faces charges of burglary and narcotics possession here, also is on probation from 51st District Court in San Angelo for a similar charge.

Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters, said this year has brought the "most far-reaching and widespread destruction the state ever has known."

Texas always has had the "dubious distinction" of leading the nation in catastrophes, he said, recalling the Galveston flood, New London school explosion, and the Texas City disaster.

But 1957, he recounted brought, in just four months, 120 tornados that hit the ground; major floods in 13 riv-

Dear Friend:

Texas has taken the lead in building highways under the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1956, which became law just a year ago. Less than two months after the President signed the highway bill enacted by the 84th Congress, the Texas Highway Department received bids on the first Texas contract under the program.

Today, 287 miles of super-highways are under construction or soon will be under construction in Texas. Bids are now being asked for construction of 278 miles more.

Texas will receive some $270 million of Federal funds in the next three years to build and improve the State's section of the Interstate System. In addition, Texas will get about $122 million to spend on primary, secondary and urban road systems. Over the next 13 years it is estimated that more than $2 billion in Federal highway aid will be received by our State.

Future growth of Texas will be vitally affected by this vast highway construction program. Economic benefits of the program will spread out widely. I consider the Highway Act one of the most progressive pieces of legislation enacted by Congress since I became a member of the House of Representatives 20 years ago.

Drought and floods have cost Texas heavily. It is estimated that the last five years of the drought cost the State's farm interests $2.7 billion. Property damage done by the Spring floods approximated $70 million. In addition, Texas lost some 25 million acre-feet of water into the Gulf of Mexico. Value of the topsoil washed away is incalculable.

An effective water development program would have prevented much of the loss. We er basins; and, for good measure, the worst blizzard in history in the Panhandle.

As McGill spoke at a statewide Civil Defense Advisory Council conference in Austin, hurricane warnings were posted on the Gulf Coast. "That," said McGill, "is all we need."

HIGHWAY PLANS EXPLAINED—State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer is trying to soothe riled East Texans who learned that a proposed new interstate highway would bypass them.

Plans show that "Interstate 2," designed to extend from Shreveport, La., to El Paso, would miss both Wood and Upshur Counties.

Greer promised that present U. S. Highway 80, which runs through those areas, will be improved to a 4-lane artery. It will serve the purposes of the area better than the controlled-access interstate road which does not permit easy cross-traffic, said Greer.

SHORT SHORTS—State Supreme Court paid tribute to its "walking dictionary," Legal Secretary Francis J. Renz, who retired after 38 years service with the high court. Maria Ruth Alejandro of San Antonio and Glenn Lightfoot of Gholson were certified by the governor's office as Texas' nominees for the Young American Medal for bravery. Both are credited with heroic rescues at the risk of their own lives. No point in trying to avoid being fingerprinted. Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has ruled officers may use "reasonably necessary" force to fingerprint a person legally arrested. Employment by new Texas businesses dropped 3,656 during May, reports the Texas Employment Commission. But the number still was considered fairly stable—107 new firms hiring 1,552 people.

Rain And Deferred Grazing Aids Grass

Most areas of the state have enjoyed good rains, but the resulting range vegetation may be undesirable weeds rather than good grasses, which are making a slow comeback on most rangeland.

To help nature along and give the grasses a chance to re-establish themselves, make leaves, build a strong root system and make a seed crop. A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, suggests a program of resting or deferred grazing.

A grazing and management study conducted by the Sonora Experiment Station over a period of nine years, shows that pastures stocked 12 months and rested 4 months had more and better grass at the end of the nine years than those that were completely rested the entire period.

The Deferred Grazing Program Bill has been passed by Congress, but so far no funds have been approved to sustain the program. But regardless of whether or not this bill is activated, the specialist recommends the practice to those ranchmen suffering from poor pasture, for this is the cheapest means of range recovery.

Walker advises ranchmen to make a close observation of pasture vegetation. Examine the topgrowth. Take an even closer look at the rootgrowth, for good top growth does not necessarily indicate vigorous growth in the future. Roots are the food and water suppliers.

Grass is your crop if you are in the livestock business, says the specialist, and the management you give it now will largely determine the kind of plants you have in the future.

Be it ordained by the city council of the City of Brownfield, Terry County, Texas:

SECTION 1: Deposit Required: That from and after the passage of this ordinance no extension of water lines and/or sewer lines shall be made to serve areas within or without the City Limits of the City of Brownfield, Terry County, Texas, until the owner or owners of the property to be served have deposited with the City of Brownfield, Texas, the total estimated cost of the water and sewer lines extensions required to serve the area, including in such figures all cost of work to be done including cost for designing etc. The design of the sewer and/or water facilities to be installed shall be approved by the City Council of Brownfield, Terry County, Texas, or by its City Engineer, as said Council shall direct, shall be so designed as to adequately serve the area to be developed, and such adjacent areas as would be served by the main feeder water lines, and the main collector sewer lines, so to be installed.

SECTION 2: Cost Adjustment: After the facilities have been designed, and the design approved by the City Council of the City of Brownfield, Texas, or at the direction of the City Engineer of the City of Brownfield, Texas, the City Council or its employees, at its direction shall prepare an estimate of the total cost of the construction of such sewer and/or water line extensions, and the owner and owners shall deposit with the City Council of the City of Brownfield, Texas, the amount of the total estimated cost including engineering and design fees, as estimated by said City. When the plans have been so prepared and approved, and if the final cost is more than the original estimate, the owner or owners shall pay to the City as a deposit under the terms of the contract hereinafter provided for, the difference, before the water or sewer facilities are put into service. In event said owner or owners are unable to pay the amount of the difference, and it is determined that any such facilities so installed under the terms of this ordinance shall be and become and remain the property of the City of Brownfield, Texas, and refunds or repayments will be made to such person or persons for such facilities in accordance with the terms of this ordinance, and in accordance therewith only.

SECTION 3: Provision for refund or refunds under the terms hereof are as follows: A. Such expense shall be born as follows: The whole amount of the line or lines so laid, water and/or sewer, shall be as provided in this ordinance so deposited under the terms hereof with no interest allowed, and the City agrees to refund such difference in cost of an 8 inch line and the line actually installed in five equal annual installments, with no interest allowed, the first installment being due and payable on July 1st of the City's next fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the installations are made, and the balance on July 1st of each succeeding fiscal year thereafter, until fully refunded, and no interest shall be paid by the City of Brownfield, Texas, on these deposits so made.

B. Fifty per cent or one-half of the total amount deposited by the owner or owners of the land to be served by such water and/or sewer lines shall not be refunded to the said owner or owners, but shall be retained by the City of Brownfield, Terry County, Texas, for its sole exclusive use and benefit.

C. The other one-half or fifty per cent of the amount so deposited shall be refunded on the following basis: When 10% of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension have been developed and are connected to the water and/or sewer lines then 20% of such one-half of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension shall be refunded to the said owner or owners so making the deposits; When 30% of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension have been developed and are connected to the water and/or sewer lines then 40% of such one-half of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension shall be refunded to the said owner or owners so making the deposits; When 40% of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension have been developed and are connected to the water and/or sewer lines then 50% of such one-half of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension shall be refunded to the said owner or owners so making the deposits; When 50% of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension have been developed and are connected to the water and/or sewer lines then 60% of such one-half of the total number of lots served by such water and/or sewer extension shall be refunded to the said owner or owners so making the deposits.

D. In no case wherein deposits are made under the terms of this ordinance shall more than 20% of the amount to be refunded under the terms hereof be due and payable in one fiscal year, and the refunds shall be due and payable on July 1st of the City's fiscal year following the year in which the deposits are considered to be earned by such owner or owners, and for example, if during one fiscal year 40% of the money shall be due and payable by the owner or owners as a refund under the terms hereof then a maximum of 20% shall be due and payable by the City of Brownfield, Texas, until fully discharged, and the balance shall be carried over and become due and payable on July 1st of the next succeeding fiscal year, and the same carrying shall be and become an obligation of the City of Brownfield, Texas, until fully discharged.

St. Louis Cardinals
Slate Try-Out Camp

The St. Louis Cardinals will stage a baseball tryout camp at Lobo Park in Lamesa, Texas on July 9, 10 and 11, it was announced today by Farm Director Walter Shannon.

Scouts will be on hand each morning at 10 a. m. to eye the young hopefuls. The tryouts are open to all players between 17 and 23.

"This is a big break for the players in the area to show their baseball ability and get a start in professional baseball," commented Shannon, a former player and scout.

"We don't expect polished players to show up at the Lamesa camp, but we're looking for young fellows with definite big league potential. The Cardinals have the baseball know-how and many years of success in developing players into big leaguers. An ambitious, talented player will get every chance with us to make the big time if he has what it takes and really works hard," continued Shannon.

A player must bring his glove, baseball shoes, and a uniform if he has one. All other equipment will be furnished by the Cardinals.

"Don't underrate the value of these tryout camps," added Shannon. "We've found some great stars that way. Why, on the Cardinals right now are Ken Boyer, Don Blasingame, and "Vinegar Bend" Mizell. Who knows, a few years from now the baseball world could well be talking about a player who got his start at the Lamesa camp. That's one of the things that makes this game so interesting."

Expenses incidental to attending the camp will be refunded to a player signed to a contract with one of the Cardinal-operated clubs. To take part in the tryouts an American Legion player must have a letter of approval from either his legion coach or post command—make a hole of the same shape.

'The Spirit' Slated Here

"The Spirit of St. Louis," a dramatization of Charles A. Lindbergh's historic transatlantic flight, premieres Sunday at the Rialto Theatre after almost two years in the making. In CinemaScope and Warner-Color, the Leland Hayward-Billy Wilder production for Warner Bros. is based on the Pulitzer Prize book by Lindbergh, who spent more than 14 years in preparing his fantastic adventure story for publication.

With James Stewart in the starring role, the picture was filmed over half the world on a location tour that took the company almost 20,000 miles for air and ground shots. It tells the story of the young Lindbergh's daring flight, alone and non-stop, from New York to Paris in 1927 an achievement that opened up the skyways for modern aviation.

The company filmed scenes in New York, New England, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, France, England, Ireland, Italy, Spain, Egypt, and Greenland. Exact replicas of the famous Lindbergh monoplane were built especially for the production and flown on Lindbergh's route.

For Stewart, the role of Lindbergh is a high spot in his distinguished career. A civilian and World War II flier himself, he was especially qualified to enact the man who has been called the world's greatest, and certainly most famous, aviator.

Grain Sorghum Variety, Strains Tests At Research Foundation Are Under Way

The grain sorghum variety and tests conducted at the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation at Halfway are designed to determine which varieties and hybrids are best adapted to the High Plains conditions. Major items to be studied are (1) production, (2) maturity and (3) standing ability.

One hundred ninety varieties and strains of grain sorghum are included in the research program at the station, R. G. Peeler, president of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association announced, after conferring with the station staff.

Fifty varieties have been planted in four-row plots 100 feet long with each treatment repeated four times. The two center rows of the four in each plot will be harvested to determine the yield. The average of the four separate plots will be used in determining the value of the variety.

One hundred forty-six varieties and strains of grain sorghum are included in the observation tests. Each of these 146 has been planted in four different sites at the 310-acre farm. Included are many new or untried varieties and hybrids that have not been used extensively in the High Plains. The most promising of these will be selected for further plot testing in the future and may turn out to be better than varieties and hybrids now planted. Ten varieties have been planted in field acreage for comparison. These are the ten grain sorghums in most common use in the High Plains. All the plantings listed are up to a good stand.

TECH FACES FOUR

Brownfield's 47 Boys Scouts embarked early Tuesday morning for the Jamboree to be held in Valley Forge and the only one who almost missed the bus was Scoutmaster R. T. Wilson, whose alarm failed to go off!

The throngs of relatives and well-wishers gravely shook hands with each Scout, since kissing would have been ostentatious, and they were off for possibly the three most thrilling weeks of any of them have ever experienced. Which is one of the things that makes Scouting so wonderful.

Know all of you will be sorry to know that Cities Service's Ralph Kerley is out of commission for awhile. Ralph being the sort of quiet, slowmoving type who doesn't say much but gets a heck of a lot done, he has scads and scads of friends. If you'd like to write him, his address is in care of McKnight Sanatorium, Building 16, Sanatorium, Texas. He'd sure like to hear from you, I know. And we're all hoping he'll get "sprung" real soon.

For the first time in the history of the local Presbyterian Church, they have a Christian Education director, in the person of a petite and charming Miss Ellen Griffin. Whether you're a Presbyterian or not, I hope you'll make it a point to meet her and make her welcome to Brownfield, which she already professes to love. I know the youth here will particularly cotton to her sparkling personality and I think the older "youths" will, too.

What the ravages of water and hail hadn't already done to the young cotton in Terry County, Monday's raging sandstorm did at least to a great deal of it. Howard Hurd plucked a handful of his little six inch cotton and took it in to the Green Hut Tuesday morning and it's pretty sad looking stuff. Too bad we can't all hit oil and forget about farming, huh what?

Shower Courtesy To Recent Bride

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Stafford, who were married June 8, a miscellaneous bridal shower was held Saturday in the Party House from 2 to 6 p.m.

Hostesses for the occasion were Meses. Cecil Davis, Jimmy Mackey, Wayne Kirby, Houston Hamilton, Bob Whitney, William Clements, J. B. Mackey, E. D. Duncan, Charles Smith, D. R. Smith and Will Terry.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Stafford and their parents, Mrs. Lee Crabtree and Mrs. D. R. Stafford; and the honoree's sister, Mrs. Lester Duncan.

The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth and featured a tiered cake topped with red confection roses and inscribed "Best Wishes, Mary and Arvin" in green. The hostesses alternated in serving cake, coffee and cold drinks.

Miss Retha Kirby registered guests at a table marked with a gladioli corsage. Gifts were displayed on a table covered with lace over green.

Approximately 35 guests called. Mrs. Stafford is the former Miss Mary Crabtree.

Mariners Club Has Steak Dinner

The Mariners Club of the First Presbyterian Church held their first social meeting Friday night.

After an outdoor steak dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hedrick, 402 East Repto, a dance was held at the Boy Scout House.

Members and guests attending were Messrs. and Meses. Jimmy Billings, Bill Coats, Billy Hamilton, Hedrick, Jerry Kehoe, Paul Morgan, Joe Morris, Ralph O'Dell, Gerald Perry, Jim Stutteville Barney Vaccal, Jon Cowser, Charles Bright, and Mrs. Shirley Reed and Doug O'Dell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson returned Sunday from Estes Park, Colo., where they attended the 19th annual Cruise of the Mariners Club June 24-28 as delegates from the Brownfield club.

FATHER OFFICIATES

Miss Priest Is Bride

Crescent Hill Church of Christ was the scene of the marriage of Miss Joan Roylain Priest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Priest, 1005 East Lake, and Charles William Gunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gunn, 1005 Tahoka Road at 8 p.m. Friday.

The double ring rites were performed by the bride's father before an archway of greenery, gladiolus, and ribbons flanked with baskets of white gladiolus, palms and double candelabra. Aisles were marked with cathedral tapers and streamers.

A pointet, composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Wall, Mrs. J. E. Eakin Jr., Mrs. Harley Starnes and Bob Leggett, sang wedding selections. The bridegroom sang "Because" as the bride was escorted down the bridal aisle by her uncle, Ernest Finley.

Wears Original Gown

The bride wore an original model gown of white imported French lace and nylon tulle ruffles over net and satin. Designed with a portrait neckline framed with scalloped lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls, the fitted bodice had small sleeves completed with gauntlets worn over the hands. From this stemmed a voluminous skirt made entirely of tiny tiers of ruffled tulle topped by circular pleplum of lace with scalloped edges cascading into deep points at sides and center back. The immense fullness of lace, ruffled tulle and satin swept into a full train at back and was enhanced with hoops and crinoline worn underneath.

Her veil of tulle edged with lace depended from a coronet of satin embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias centering a shower of Stephanotis and streamers tied in love knots atop a white Bible, a gift of her grandfather, the late A. B. Finley.

Attendants in Pink

Maid of honor was Ginger Gunn, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. James R. Burnett was lady-in-waiting, and bridesmaids were Marilyn Miller of Carlsbad, N.M., Doris Sharp of Cleburn, and Kathy Finley of Wichita Falls, cousin of the bride. Anne Lois Finley of Wichita Falls and Virginia Lynn Priest of Greenville, cousins of the bride, were flower girls, and the bride's sister, Jane Priest, was ring bearer.

The attendants wore gowns of pink crystaletta fashioned with scalloped necklines and white cummerbunds tied in back sashes with streamers extending to the hems of their floor length gowns. They carried nosegays of gumpaste-roses atop blue fans. Miss Gunn's nosegay was centered with an orchid.

Paul Vertz was best man, and ushers were Ken Muldrow, Jack Cobb of Tokio and Mike Black. The bride's twin brothers, John and Joel Priest, lighted the candles.

Reception For Couple

A reception honoring the couple was held at Seleta Jane Brownfield Clubhouse and was hosted by an aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Priest, of Greenville.

They were assisted in receiving by parents of the couple; Mrs. A. B. Finley of Wichita Falls, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. E. C. Clifton of Nashville, Tenn., grandmother of the bridegroom; Miss Willie Jo Priest of Greenville, great aunt of the bride; and the bridal attendants.

The wedding cake was designed and baked by Mrs. Jack Toombs of Irving and Mrs. Ira Wolfe of Brownfield. Mrs. Finley served the cake and presiding at the punch tables were Mrs. Francis Priest of Greenville and Mrs. R. R. Roberts, aunt of the groom from Nashville, Tenn.

Registering guests were Ann Patterson, Jo Bess Boston, Carol Ann Hester, Wanda Corneli, Dorothy Patton, Jacque Aaldrup, Sharon Kennedy and Bennie Hester. Sherry Don Spears played piano selections during the reception.

Assisting with hospitalities were Meses. Leonard Lang, Johnny Criswell, Claude Merritt, Preston Hester, J. R. Hisom, Leonard Stephenson of Carlsbad, Murry Reynolds of Carlsbad, Milton Addison, Bill Blackstock, R. O. Black, Earl Brown, C. A. Winn, James R. Burnett, Paul Cobb, T. A. "BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS"

Manufacturing of Nuclear Energy Equipment Is Growing; Small Business Administration Says Sales To Hit $27 Billion

By REYNOLDS KNIGHT
Economic Analyst

NEW YORK — An industrial equipment manufacturer, large or small, casting about for a new product line would probably find it worth his while to take a second glance at making equipment for nuclear energy enterprises.

It takes a lot of equipment to make electricity, even when it's produced by conventional plants. And to produce it from nuclear energy demands equipment of special materials and design. As a result, a huge market is opening up.

Sales of this new equipment are expected to amount to $27 billion a year by 1960. This is based on an estimate just made by the Small Business Administration as to the nation's annual output of atomic-energy generated power in 1960—227 million kilowatts.

There should also be a market for facilities for disposing of nuclear energy waste, if the SBA is correct in its estimate.

CARTON MILK FLOOD—Production of paper milk containers by the industry is expected to reach an all-time high of some 14 billion units in 1957, according to American Can Company, which made the first successful milk cartons in 1934.

Use of the carton has grown from one billion in 1940, six years after its development, to five billion in 1949, to 13 billion in 1956, Canco said.

The company noted the convenient container also is being used to package a widening variety of foods other than milk. Some of these include chilled orange and grapefruit juices, lemonade and pancake batter mix.

Half of the nation's fluid milk now goes to market in paper containers, Canco said, and noted that 95 per cent of all milk sold through retail stores is packaged in paper.

THINGS TO COME—To eliminate costly extension of central heating systems to added rooms, there's a new base-board glass radiant heater unit three feet long that can be installed without being recessed and extends only an inch and three-quarters from the wall.

Added to the wash-and-wear, no-ironing wardrobe for men is a shirt of pima cotton that will not yellow when washed with bleach or detergent and is said to have shrinkage held down to one per cent. . . . A packaged "home protector" system provides fire detection by monitoring temperatures in as many as 30 separate areas of the house, and also has an emergency alarm to frighten away prowlers or summon outside help.

RESORT TREND—Resort operators generally expect motorists this summer to make briefer stays, stop at more places. One reason, those who spot business trends in the resort picture say, is that the new toll superhighways are making longer-mileage vacations possible.

More Midwesterners will motor east this year, and more Easterners will essay longer trips into the Midwest and West, according to tour directors of motor club travel bureaus.

Florida is looking forward to its biggest summer ever. One airline alone plans to fly 100,000 "package" vacationists into Miami. Increasing popularity of the big Florida resorts easily reached by plane means that, generally speaking, resort rates will be cheaper on the Sunshine State's West Coast than on the East Coast.

Some Atlantic Coast resorts may feel the pinch this summer because their traditional customers can get farther faster, i. e., to Florida and the Caribbean. At least one Cape Cod resort offers cut rates for the last half of August.

MORE WHITE COLLARS—As technology improves our ability to transfer repetitive manual or mental tasks to machines or electronic devices, great numbers of people will be released from the boring routine of unskilled and semi-skilled jobs. How will business and industry keep these people productively employed? They must be educated for new jobs, for many more "white collar" jobs which our new technology will require, says Paul B. Wishart, president of Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co.

"We expect a gain in the proportion of technical, scientific, sales and managerial jobs relative to mechanical and clerical jobs," according to Wishart. "The very machines and devices which take over the routine jobs will require an even greater number of people in their production, setup and us. The fundamental requirement will be more capable, better trained people."

Industry's most important single need, Wishart believes, is to "find capable people, to train them, and to help them plan their work experience so that they will be equipped for responsible jobs in the future."

BIT O' BUSINESS—Of the $45 million the 15 railroads operating in New York State paid in local real estate taxes last year, New York City pocketed the lion's share, $21.7 million. After dropping in March to an eight-year low, private housing starts rose through April and May to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 990,000 units. . . . Output of man-made fibers in 1956 totaled 5.9 billion pounds, a new world record, up 5.5 per cent from 1955.

Mrs. W. V. Carter of 716 North Second is recovering satisfactorily in West Texas Hospital following surgery for an eye cataract last week. When released from the hospital, Mrs. Carter will spend a week with a sister, Mrs. Searcy Andrews, in Lubbock before returning to her home here.

Among those from Brownfield attending the annual Lynn County pioneer reunion at Tahoka Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bucy, R. L. Holly, Tommie Davis, Mrs. Beulah Atkins, and Mrs. J. J. Atkinson.

EXPLAINS TERRY COUNTY AGENT JIM FOY IN THIS ARTICLE

Farmers Should Not Drop Guard Against Insects To Offset High Cost Of Replanting

"Cotton farmers should not drop their guard against insects to offset this year's high cost in planting and replanting," reports Jim Foy, county agent. "The late planting and extremely wet season are a perfect situation for a large insect infestation this summer," continued Foy. The agent said thrips, fleahoppers, cabbage loopers and aphids already have been found on many farms in the area and that even more may be expected once the insects start appearing. Foy urged Terry farmers to begin early season control as soon as insects are evident in their fields. "Don't start spraying insecticides without first inspecting the plants," he said. "It's just a waste of money to 'kill' insects that aren't even there."

Foy listed four benefits of early season control measures: 1. It causes early blooming. 2. More cotton can be harvested in the first picking. 3. It gives a better grade and staple. 4. It increases an early build-up of beneficial insects.

If insect infestation is evident Foy said treatment should be initiated while the plants are in the four-to six-leaf stage. "Two to four applications may be necessary, but, unless there is still a heavy infestation, treatment should be stopped to allow sufficient build-up time for beneficial insects," he noted.

The agent warns farmers treating plants to use only the recommended dosage for good control. "If one-half pint per acre is recommended, a larger application will not help the crop one bit more," noted Foy.

Eight types of insects are normally a problem to cotton farmers here, according to the county agent. "They are the bollworm, grasshopper, fleahopper, thrips, red spider mite, leafworm, lygus and aphid." He listed identification and control measures for the insects as follows:

THRIPS—Are small, slender insects about 1/20 of an inch long, varying from light straw color to almost black. The insect is visible to the naked eye and upon close examination can be seen along the veins of the bottom sides of the leaves. Distorted and spina-like leaves are a sure sign of thrip damage.

To control thrips spray or dust at first appearance at 7-day intervals.

GRASSHOPPERS — The young resemble the adult hopper except they have no wings and are not so brightly colored. Grasshopper infestation has been noted here recently.

Best control measures are attained by dusting or spraying white 'hoppers are still feeding on the hatching beds.

COTTON LEAFWORM — Another August and September attacker, the leafworm destroys plant foliage and stains lint of open bolls. Fully grown worms are about 1 1/2 inches long and are yellowish-green in color with two rows of black spots on the back.

Control is urged when populations reach threatening stage of foliage damage and before worms produce moths for future generations.

FLEAHOPPERS—Adult fleahoppers are small, oval-shaped insects about 1/8 inch long and pale green in color. Nymphs, resembling the adult are normally found in the terminal rosette of the cotton plant where they pierce the young squares and suck out the juices. When the juices are taken out, the squares "blast" and fall off.

Control measures should be applied when weekly inspections reveal 15 to 35 fleahoppers per 100 terminals. Applications are recommended at 7 to 10 day intervals.

COTTON APHID — These slow-moving insects, varying in color from yellowish-green to dark green and black, are conspicuous by the presence of "honeydew" on the leaves, which the aphids produce. "Honeydew" is a sticky substance that glistens in sunlight.

Plant damage is sustained by the secretion which hinders normal functions of the leaf and a sooty mold which grows in the "honeydew," causing leaves often to shed from the plant. Demeton, Parathion or Malathion is recommended to control the insects as they become apparent on plants.

BOLLWORM — Infestation of bollworms is indicated when small pearly white eggs are found on the terminal leaves and when small worms are found feeding on the buds of plants. The worms attack terminal foliage, squares and bolls as they work their way down plant stalks.

Control is advisable when eggs and four or five worms are found in terminals. Apply poison at 5-day intervals as long as necessary. At least three applications are normally needed.

RED SPIDER MITE — August's hot weather normally brings on spider mites, a small "chiggerlike" creature which varies from brick-red, brown, yellowish to green. Leaf damage is evidenced by a blotched sickly appearance. Heavily infested plants will shed leaves.

Treatment should be applied when leaves begin to turn yellow. Two applications, at 7-day intervals, normally are necessary.

LYGUS—The lygus and other similar insects normally appear in cotton situated near alfalfa fields. They are about 1/4 inch long, shaped much like a fleahopper though they are two to three times as large. These insects also attack terminals by sucking the sap and causing them to fall from the plant.

Dust and spray treatment is recommended when eight to 10

inial buds, squares and small Lygus or plant bugs are found per 100 sweeps with a standard sized insect sweep net.

CABBAGE LOOPER — A ninth enemy of cotton made its appearance in Terry County last year and again this year in the form of the cabbage looper. Regular applications of toxaphene-DDT or 3-5-40 for bollworms usually prevent heavy looper damage.

'Peace, Freedom, Justice, Brotherhood' Should Be Labor Keystone, Says Editor

By MAURICE R. FRANKS
(Editors' Note: Maurice R. Franks is president of the National Labor-Management Foundation and editor of its official publication, "Partners.")

Emblazoned over the platform of the last United Auto Workers convention, held last month in Atlantic City, were the words: "Peace, Freedom, Justice, Brotherhood—at Home and in the world."

Be it said in all fairness, no four words could have been chosen that would better and more forcefully sum up what organized labor should stand for.

In the world, peace has come to mean little less than survival. It has become the prime necessity of nations, if any of us are to go on living, raising children and preparing a place for them.

At home, too, peace is our only security against disaster. And that means labor peace—the calm creative approach to labor-management relations. For strikes and other forms of union militancy undermine our delicately balanced economy.

Labor peace means production, employment, purchasing power and a decent standard of living.

But peace begins with an attitude, on the part of both labor and management, and cannot be had when one side or the other or both enter negotiations with a skin full of rough demands, a basket of chips on the shoulder, a big stick under the table and a determination to push over or slug it out.

In the world, freedom means self-determination, the dignity of the individual and his right to choose his leaders. It means the end of mass coercion and room for volunteerism—the most dynamic principle in man.

It means people responding with full initiative to life's manifold incentives, as opposed to people as a driven herd.

And at home, freedom means precisely the same thing—and most patently in union circles.

It means no coercive bans to employment, no tolls for the right to earn a living, no deadly price to pay for union leadership.

Freedom expressed in unionism means members who shout from the housetops, "I belong to this union because I want to belong!"

—not members who growl in their beer, "I carry a card only because it's my ticket to a job."

Freedom as applied to unions means the right of the individual to join or not, according to the dictates of his own conscience and the right of union men and their officials to sell the uninitiate on the virtues of their organization.

Freedom where unions are concerned sees in the so-called "free rider," not an outcast, not a victim, but a prospect, a challenge—a test of a union's competitive accomplishments and therefore a goad to creative effort.

In the world, justice means treating the other fellow as we would have him treat us. It does not mean expediency or power politics.

It means honor and integrity among nations that are nations, as opposed to slave states run by gangsters.

And at home, justice means just that. It means recognition of mutual investment in an effective way of life—and refusal to exploit the other fellow even as we refuse to be exploited by him.

In labor circle it means full See No. 1 Page 7

DODGE TRUCKS most powerful of low-priced 3

Dodge matches reserve power against truck "C" and truck "F" in this test for safer passing ability. All three are comparably equipped and loaded with 1000 lbs. A skilled test driver is behind each wheel. Here's the flag, they're off!

Dodge takes an early lead and at 30 m.p.h. is widening the gap. Truck "C" and truck "F" are straining to deliver their peak performance. But that Dodge 204-hp. V-8 keeps gaining easily. Its added power means less wear, fewer repairs, too.

In just one quarter mile Dodge is five-lengths ahead of truck "C", seven lengths out front of truck "F". And this is but one of a complete series of actual road tests that prove Dodge the outstanding value of the low-priced three.

Westerns Not Like They Used To Be— They're Better, As Proved by This One

Where, oh, where has gone the Western hero of yesterday? The immaculate, sinless, rough rider of the plains, who rescued demure, pure maidens and fought whole armies of evil-doers single-handed. They smoked not, neither did their lips touch the fermented juice of the grape.

But all that is changed now. A revolution has swept the great cinematic outdoors—the heroic gun-toters of the Old West have suddenly taken on the stature of men who are men more akin to reality and

WEATHER MAP CHARTS GREATEST VIOLENCE IN HISTORY OF TEXAS

TORNADO TOLL:
 Property Damage $16,745,833

Prepared by: Division of Defense and Disaster Relief, William L. McGill, State Coordinator

IN UNPRECEDENTED WEATHER FOR STATE Record Floods, Tornadoes And Severe Storms Mark Worst Toll of Death and Property Destruction in History of Texas

AUSTIN—Unprecedented floods, tornadoes and severe weather during the first five months of 1957 have taken a property toll in Texas estimated at $91,106,224. These are the figures submitted in a report to Governor Price Daniel by State Defense and Disaster Relief headquarters this week.

Preliminary estimates place the flood damage at $69,700,000. A new survey of crop damage now being conducted may raise this estimate.

The Weather Bureau estimates damage by tornadoes, hailstorms, the March blizzard and other severe weather from February 16 through May 31 at $16,745,833. This does not include floods and loss of livestock.

State agencies' contribution to disaster operations is now placed at $3,360,391. In addition, the cost of Red Cross assistance in meeting eligible needs of individuals and families is now estimated at $1,300,000.

A tornado, which struck near Harlingen February 16, touched off a chain of weather violence unequalled in the history of Texas. This was followed by the worst spring blizzard (March 19) ever to hit the Texas Panhandle. With thousands stranded, the death toll was held to a surprising seven.

Then came the disastrous Dallas tornado of April 2 that claimed nine lives. This was followed by the devastating Lampasas flood on May 12 that destroyed 90% of the business district, smashed 310 homes and killed five persons.

Following close on the heels of this disaster, a roaring funnel descended out of black clouds just before midnight May 16 and destroyed Silverton, killing 19 people.

It was on May 24 that 22 tornadoes churned across Texas.

Willingham Promoted To Marine Sergeant

er pure as the driven snow. Sidney Salkow, who directed "Gun Duel In Durango," observes: "Now at long last we have the actual men who fought for and won the West. They 'chawed' and spat, they smoked cigarettes and cheroots, and they had an eye for an attractive gal. They were two-fisted drinkers too, and history has no record of a fighting Western man who would break into song at the slightest provocation."

truth than the synthetic figures of yesterday's Western epics. And the latest to make the break with the emasculated past is George Montgomery in "Gun Duel in Durango," the Peerless Production for United Artists release in which he stars as a notorious two-gun leader of a ruthless gang of bandits. The picture opens today at the Regal Theatre.

True, as Will Sabre in this realistic drama of the early West, he does quit his gang of cut-throats and go straight, but he does not manage this transition until he fights it out in a savage gun-fighting climax.

Revolutionary Trend
 This revolutionary trend in Western heroes had its most significant upsurge when Gary Cooper appeared in "High Noon." The tremendous box-office response to this production encouraged other Western stars like John Wayne, Jimmy Stewart and others to demand and get more meaty roles.

Others followed: Clark Gable in "The Tall Men," Richard Widmark in "The Last Wagon," Jimmy Stewart in "The Man From Laramie," Spencer Tracy in "Bad Day At Black Rock," and a long list of other outdoor thrillers in which the heroes were no long-

MAKE NEAT, FLUFFY, HEADS-UP WINDROWS

When you cut your crops with a John Deere Power-Driven Windrower, you do the kind of job that means more and better grain from every acre. Windrows are laid high on the stubble with the heads exposed for faster curing and more uniform ripening. There's plenty of room for air circulation under the windrow to hasten the drying of weeds and green material. What's more, windrows made with a John Deere hold their shape better and are easier to pick up. Shattering is reduced to the minimum.

Come in and let us show you the full line of big-capacity John Deere Windrowers.

Justice here means a union end put to featherbedding and goldbricking. It means union insistence upon respect for the job itself as well as for the wages it pays.

It means creative effort on the part of labor no less than management. It means lifting not leaning, on the part of both partners in production.

In the world, brotherhood means heart behind the helping hands of nations—good will among neighbors and solidarity based on creative acts of peoples and of governments in their various associations.

And at home, brotherhood means all this and more—for only at home, where language and customs impose no barriers of misunderstanding, can brotherhood strike firmest root.

In labor circles, where bonds are already most clearly formed, it means the gateway to all mutuality—the goal, the way and the light. It does not mean an exclusive fraternity; it means man's large humanity to man.
