

INJUNCTION HEARING SET FOR 9 A.M. WEDNESDAY

Cross-Action Filed In Commissioner Dispute

A petition in cross-action was filed here Friday in 106th District Court by Mrs. B. R. Lay Harrison, sometime commissioner of Precinct 3.

A petition of intervention, signed by 29 plaintiffs, all living in the precinct, also was filed in the court Friday.

Defendants in both filings are Terry County commissioners, as a court and as individuals.

By her action, Mrs. Harrison seeks to have the court enjoin the commissioners from interfering with her in any way in the conduct of her business as commissioner of Precinct 3.

Mrs. Harrison was elected last November as the precinct commissioner. Her office was declared vacant Aug. 5 by County Judge Herb Cheshir, who declared that he had vacated her office by moving to Petersburg. Mrs. Harrison, the former Mrs. B. R. Lay, was married May 11 to Ed Harrison, Petersburg farmer.

Judge Cheshir appointed and swore in Eulice H. Farrar of Route 4 in the precinct to fill the vacant office until the next general election.

Mrs. Harrison and the other plaintiffs also are seeking to prevent the commissioners from "spending the taxpayers' money to oust her from office."

Suit was filed last Monday in the district court by Terry County commissioners and Judge Cheshir, who seek a temporary injunction to prevent Mrs. Harrison from hindering them in their conduct of the county's business.

Hearing of the petitions was scheduled for 9 a.m., Wednesday by Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa. The county will be represented by County Atty.

Morgan Copeland and by Burton Hackney and H. B. Virgil Crawford of the Brownfield law firm of Hackney & Crawford. Mrs. Lay and the 29 other plaintiffs will be represented by Calloway Huffaker, Tahoka attorney.

Terry County commissioners are E. S. (Red) Tankersley of Precinct 1, Carl Stephenson of Precinct 2, Bob Burnett of Precinct 4 and Farrar of Precinct 3.

Two Coaches Signed To BHS Football Staff; Season Will Open September 13

Two coaches have been added to the BHS football staff, bringing it to full strength for the upcoming season beginning Aug. 30, according to Doug Cox, head coach.

Don Hendley was signed as varsity assistant line coach after two years as head coach at Abilene South Junior High.

Bill Curry, who joins the staff as freshmen line coach after one year at Floydada, will be working under Cox for the second time within the last three years. He played center on Cox's 1955 McMurry Indian team.

Hendley will assist Charlie Keese in shaping the Cub line this fall. Cox said, "Based on his record under Chuck Moser at Abilene, he should be able to do a good job for us." He compiled an 18 won, 1 lost record during his two years at Abilene.

Hendley-coached teams took Abilene city championships in football, eighth grade basketball and freshman basketball two straight years.

The 24-year-old mentor, who received a physical education degree from McMurry in 1955, resides with his wife and 2½-year-old daughter at 206 West Cardwell.

Curry, a 1956 McMurry physical education graduate, has been assigned duties as freshman line coach in football and track mentor. He will fill the slot vacated by Arnold Baldwin, who resigned last spring for a full-time teaching job.

The 23-year-old coach compiled a 7 won, 2 lost record while heading the Floydada "B" team last year. His junior high team finished the season with 2 wins and 5 losses.

Curry lettered two years in football at Plainview High School and three years at McMurry.

He will reside at 908 East Main with his wife and 13-month-old daughter.

Search Pressed For Wellman Wildcats To Begin Football Practice on Monday

The Wellman Wildcats will open their drive for District 2-B Six Man football championship as they begin twice per day drills at 8 a.m. Monday, according to Coach James Daugherty.

The Wildcats, who compiled a 3 won, 6 lost record in conference play and a 3-7 record for the season, will have eight returning lettermen including five starters from the 1956 team.

Daugherty, who is assisted by Jerry Shaw, said he expects some 23 youths out for tomorrow's first practice session. Drills will be held 8-9:30 a.m. and 8-9:30 p.m. daily.

The American Farm Bureau Federation last week expressed alarm at recent development which might jeopardize the proposed Japanese purchase of American farm products.

Said H. L. (Hub) King of Brownfield, Texas Farm Bureau director:

"We do not want to subsidize the U. S. maritime fleet. This the farmers will be doing if the fleet has to transport the wheat to Japan which that country has purchased."

King went on to explain that American law requires that such products be transported in American ships, which means, he said:

"Japan could save herself nearly $2 million in transportation costs if she were allowed to pick up and take the wheat which she has bought to her own country in her own ships."

"She has made it clear that she would spend that $2 million in buying more wheat if such were allowed. It isn't, and we don't like it."

Canada and Australia are reported to have made attractive offers to the Japanese in the matter, said King.

Rumors were rife here last week that such a transaction had been completed.

Cotton Classing Will Be Altered in Fall By Lubbock Office

Lubbock Cotton Classing Office plans to institute a program of segregating South plains cotton into three divisions this fall, reports Bill Franklin, manager.

Franklin said counties north of Lubbock will be segregated into one division; Lubbock and counties east and west will be placed in another division, and counties south of Lubbock in a third.

A recently installed humidifying machine will allow the office to humidify cotton 24 hours before it is classed.

The manager reported that any farmer who is dissatisfied with the class assigned his cotton has two alternatives. "He may send the cotton to Lubbock for re-classification or he may send it to Memphis, Tenn., for classification by a review board," Franklin explained.

PHS REPORT CONCERNS TERRY COUNTY RESIDENTS

Cigaretts and Lung Cancer...

NEW YORK (Special) — How many Terry County persons die of lung cancer each year? How many of other kinds of cancer? How does the local rate compare with that in other areas?

Amid the controversy raging over cancer, especially as to the role played by smoking, some new light is thrown on the local picture by official federal data.

The new light is in the form of vital statistics report just issued by the U. S. Public Health Service, covering every part of the country.

It shows that there were nine deaths from cancer of all types among Terry County residents during the year ending Jan. 1, 1956. Of these, however, lung cancer was responsible for only two, or 22.2 per cent.

Nationally, lung cancer accounted for 12.4 per cent of the cancer deaths. State-wide, it was 13.2 per cent.

Despite lung cancer's relatively small toll when viewed against the 240,681 lives taken by cancer as a whole in the year, it has become a matter of great concern to heavy smokers.

Although the tobacco industry denies there is any association, the American Cancer Society and the Public Health Service have released statements that there is strong evidence that excessive cigaret smoking is a causative factor in lung cancer.

More research is needed, say health officials, to identify the harmful substances in cigarets as the first step toward eliminating the impurities.

Terry County had a lower death rate from cancer in all its various forms than did most areas of the United States, the PHS report shows.

The toll among Terry residents was equivalent to 57 deaths per 100,000 persons, compared with the nationwide rate of 145 per 100,000.

The Terry rate also below that in the state of Texas, 108 per 100,000.

Substantial gains in the fight against cancer have been made in the past few years, according to the society.

With present knowledge, it declares, one-half of all cases can be cured if medical attention is sought early enough and if the latest and best means of diagnosis and treatment are made more generally available.

September Schedule Is Set at SP Health Unit

Schedule for the immunization clinic during September at South Plains Health Unit will be from 1 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., Sept. 4 and Sept. 18.

Snyder Water Show To Be Held on Labor Day

The annual Snyder Water Sports Show will be held at 2:30 p.m., Labor Day at Lake Thomas.

The event was announced Friday by Grady Elder, Snyder Chamber of Commerce manager.

Admission: 90 cents for adults and 50 cents for children.

The "spectacle of speed and skill in skiing and boating" will be furnished by members of the Lubbock Water Ski Club and by racers throughout the area.

Lee Allen Jones To Be Among Football Aspirants at TWC

Lee Allen Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elrey Jones of 1116 East Hill, will be among some 50 Texas Western College football candidates beginning practice Sept. 1.

The junior transfer from San Angelo Junior College is listed among eight halfbacks competing for starting berths on the 1956 Border Conference championship team.

Coach Ben Collins, starting his first year as head man after replacing Mike Brumblow, said the team will hold a two-day workout for two weeks, then will slack off when the orientation and registration of students begins Sept. 14.

Collins will have a talented group of players with which to defend the Border Conference title. Sixteen letterman, including three all-conference players will report for practice. The all-star players are End Dick For-

VFW Post Will Host Fall Event

By DENNIS FAIRBAIRN
NEWS Staff Writer

The annual fall encampment of District 7, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held Oct. 26-27 in Brownfield, and will be hosted by Hand Bros. Post 6794.

The October event was discussed Thursday by post members, and plans made for entertainment and food. A memorial service will be held. Fees for the two-day session are $3.50 both days or $1.50 one day.

In other Thursday business, the VFW members prepared kits containing a pamphlet on Americanism, a miniature American flag and a pencil. The kits will be given to Brownfield school children.

Pony Is Prize

Said Lejeune Lincoln, Americanism committee chairman: "We merely want to bring to our school children a new awareness of the basic American freedoms, freedoms secured as much as any other means by American soldiers."

The post also will give as door prize to its Sept. 13 bingo game a pony, complete with bridle and saddle. Winner of the animal may receive $100 cash instead, if he prefers.

For his "praiseworthy achievement of increasing his post's 1957 membership by 10 per cent or more," Post Commander Jack Aldrup received a citation.

the farmer's wife

by rose jean henson

Dear Cousin Agnes,
Since I need to write my column and you, too, I thought I'd just kill two birds with one stone and save a three-cent stamp doing it, so I am writing you by way of the press. Like the idea?

By the way, how do you like the Farmer's Wife? Mrs. Helen Johnson of San Francisco wrote me for her handwriting analysis and ask me if I really were a farmer's wife. Are they suppose to be different from any other wife? Those who know me say the column sounds just like me... whatever that is. I just couldn't be anything but "me" if I tried. Whenever I write of a shower or wedding, I actually feel rather foolish saying "The table was laid with a pol-blm-kp-lace cloth over cool mint." I would feel more comfortable saying it like it actually was. The table was covered with a factory woven lace cloth (borrowed from Mrs. Blop's aunt) laid over a green sheet. A vase of flowers was set in the center of the table. Punch was served on one side and as the guests walked by they picked up a cookie and finally, as Charles Maple put it, "A good time was had by all."

How did I get off on that subject anyway? You remember how provoked I always got because I didn't have any etiquette? Well, I still haven't improved any and don't suppose I ever will. One thing, for sure, I don't worry too much about it. Life is too complex as it is, without fretting over the proper spoon or fork.

Terry County has the best crops I have seen in years. Hubert came in today and said we have some leaf-worms. As usual, he gets all excited so I guess he will poison for them. We put down an irrigation well this year... just a small one... evidently there isn't much underground water on our land but one would be surprised just how much can be watered with a small well. He plans to put down two or three more next year so there go the profits from this crop. I think this well cost about $2,000 completed.

Maretta (Gandy) McCutcheon, of Denver City, spent part of this week visiting Tootie. It is the first time they have been together and for cousins they got along remarkably well. She is 10 years old now and the most amicable little girl I have ever seen. They were no trouble at all. Naturally, my shoes, dresses and make-up got a good work-out, but you know how little girls play.

I have canned 20 quarts of green pinto beans this week and am sore from picking them. I think pinto beans are about the best tasting bean there is to can. I do plan to can some garden beans and black-eyed peas later. The rest I will freeze. Say, I bought me a new pressure cooker and was surprised to learn that it cost only $18.95 or so. That is not very much higher than what I paid for the first one I bought in 1943.

School On Sept. 2

Are you ready for school to start? Meadow school starts Sept. 2. I bought several pieces of material for school dresses and skirts. I know you are smiling to yourself and wondering why I didn't use some of that material I have stacked away instead of buying more. Even my husband ask me that and, to have me, I have no answer. I guess I keep telling myself, "Rosie, someday you will need material and then you will have it."

Have you had any trouble with yellow clothes in your automatic washer? I have and I especially noticed it since the "New Tide, with the reserve cleaning power" came on the market. Don't

by Bob Bartos
Prominent Dog Authority

A dog's intelligence is rated by scientists behind the ape, monkey, elephant and raccoon. Yet how many of these animals hold such responsible jobs as hunter, sheep and cattle

Dog of the Week: WHIPPET

Hound dog. Average weight: 20 pounds; shoulder height, 20 inches; coat, smooth and short, firm in texture; color, any color.

herder, guard, sled puller, guide for the blind, TV, stage and movie star? How many won medals for bravery in World Wars I and II?

Your dog might not qualify for any of these romantic roles, but he has a very important job in life nevertheless. He's your pal and companion and the more you teach him the better job he'll be able to do. One dog is said to have understood four hundred words. Yours may not be able to compete with this canine genius, but he can easily be taught a respectable vocabulary.

There's no great trick to teaching your dog to understand various words. It's a matter of repetition and getting him to associate words with objects or activities, one word at a time. His guide will be words of praise and a pat when he's right and words of disapproval when he's wrong. First, always show him what you want him to do. If you want him to sit on his bed, lead him over to it; lift him onto it, all the while repeating the word bed. When he has come to associate the word bed with the action of sitting on it, you can safely embellish the command... say "how would you like to go to bed?" bed is the only word he'll recognize, but using a whole sentence makes him look even more intelligent.

Feeding Tip: If your dog's appetite is poor, and he doesn't get between-meal snacks, he may be suffering from a Vitamin B-1 deficiency. Feed him an all-purpose dog food such as Friskies, which contains liver and other sources of B vitamins, and you'll be sure that he's getting an adequate supply of this all-important vitamin.

Byes Son Car

My son is in "high heaven" since yesterday. His Pa footed the bill and he is now the owner of a 1954 Nash Rambler. Why do (suppose to be) sane people buy a car for a 15-year-old boy? I guess the main reason is convenience. Football practice starts next week and from now until January they will be staying after school for practice and games, so it was either let him buy one or drive ours. I also learned just lately that it is sort of a disgrace to drive the pick-up on Saturday nights. Convenience is not always a sane reason so I issued one sane ruling (and I hope I can make it stick), "You still have to ask if you can drive your own car."

TIME TO DRAG SHOTGUN FROM CLOSET

Reports Indicate Largest Dove Crop in Recent Years Ready

Austin—It's time to drag the shotgun from the corner in the closet and wipe off the lint. The 1957 shooting season will begin Sunday noon, Sept. 1, for mourning dove in the north zone, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game & Fish Commission.

Thirty days later the season will open in the south zone.

The seasons extend: north zone, Sept. 1 to Oct. 17 inclusive; south zone, Oct. 1 to Nov. 17, inclusive.

The white wing season has been authorized for the Rio Grande Valley area for Sept. 13, 15, 17.

The dove bag limit is 10 per day, with 10 in possession.

Shooting is allowed from noon until sunset.

Under federal and state regulations all shotguns must be plugged to three-shell capacity. Shooting from vehicles or across the highways is prohibited.

The director issued warning to shooters to make arrangements with land owners for their hunts.

Three East Texas counties, Jasper, Tyler and Newton, will have no open season. In a local bill, these counties were excluded from the general laws and a special season was set up. This special season is in conflict with the federal laws.

Reports from all over the state indicate the largest dove crop in years. It is estimated that some 600,000 whitewings will be available for the Valley hunt.

Mourning doves are plentiful now in every area. Unless there is a drastic change in weather conditions before Sept. 1, they are expected to remain in the local areas.

Cooler weather or rains could change this condition. Water hole shooting also can be affected greatly, especially if heavy rains fill new water holes, providing too much water in various areas where food is available.

"Every safety precaution should be used," the director said. "Hunting season usually brings on several accidental deaths, due entirely to carelessness."

He also warned that all persons between the ages of 17 and 65 need licenses when hunting outside their home counties. These licenses now are available from wardens and other authorized license dealers throughout the state.

SPOTLIGHT ON BEAUTY
by PAMELA CRAFT

Ever consider un-matching your eyebrows? It lends enchantment, intrigue. Don't believe it? Check photos of top magazine models.

For best results with lipstick, start fresh. Cream off any traces of old lipstick first. Wipe lips with tissue. Then surround area lightly with powder. Instant even coverage.

Traveling? Protect your face by day with foundation; clean thoroughly at night with cream. Stop occasionally to rest. Move eyes up and down, right and left. Turn head from side to side and stretch your neck. Relaxes you.

For a soft, natural-looking set, pin-up your hair before the evening. After bath, remove pins, brush hair, and re-set it.

Got bug bites? Athlete's foot? For these—and other skin problems—try Ting, a medicated cream that dries to a powder and quickly relieves irritation, aids healing.

All tucked out? Try lying on the floor or couch with legs propped high for ten minutes. Does wonders!

Cultivate a happy mouth. It "talks" even when it's shut. Don't bite lips or press them together in a thin, disapproving line. And don't droop the corners. Makes you look sad.

The Hill County reunion will be held in Lubbock today at Mackenzie State Park, according to W. H. Anstead of Ralls, secretary of the group.

Collins' biggest job will be to develop the depth he feels is the key to the Miners' chances in 1957. Many of the players on the reserve units are untried, and squadmen and freshmen must come through quickly, he said.

The Miners expect some 15 freshmen to report. These will join a group of approximately 30 squadmen from last year and some junior college transfers who enrolled at Texas Western this year.

The team will find it difficult to match last season's accomplishments. In 1956 Texas Western won 9 of 10 games, defeated all other teams in the Border Conference, won the championship and went on the Sun Bowl.

Texas Ranked First In Registration Of Trucks and Trailers

AUSTIN — Texas ranks first in the nation in number of registered trucks and trailers, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Some 1,016,100 trucks and trailers are in use in Texas today, doubling the number registered in 1946, writes Robert H. Drenner, Bureau research associate.

Trucks serve each of the 783 incorporated cities in Texas, and there are 1,788 Texas communities exclusively dependent upon trucks for shipping service. In addition, 43 county-seat towns and 17 entire counties have no other means of shipping transportation available, Drenner reports.

Industrial expansion and growth of Texas urban areas have increased demand for the flexible freight movement which trucks offer.

"Growing markets in growing communities mean that manufactured articles must move across new routes for relatively small distances — distances often too small for rail to provide competitive transportation," Drenner explains.

Chief users of Texas' trucking industry are dealers who must ship their goods "to many, often small, outlets over the entire state, and trucks are the only type of transport with a high-enough degree of flexibility to make such shipment and transfer economically feasible."

Truck shipping of food is second in freight volume. The construction industry and agriculture tie for third.

So important are trucks to the petroleum industry—hauling oil field and refinery equipment and refined petroleum products—that "without motor carrier transportation... the petroleum industry in Texas would not have evolved into anything like its present form."

DESPITE OBLIGATIONS TO WORKERS AND STOCKHOLDERS

Shadow of Killing Strike Forces Some Employers To Sign Union-Shop Contracts, Despite, Their Very Crippling Effects

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Maurice R. Franks, writer of the following article, is president of the National Labor-Management Foundation and editor of its official publication, "Partners.")

In my last article, I pointed out that the selfish and racketeer labor leaders are the principal beneficiaries of compulsory unionism, with an occasional unscrupulous, avaricious employer benefitting at the expense of his employees.

However, there are employers who are compelled by economic circumstances to sign a union-shop contract in lieu of experiencing a strike of such devastating proportions as to threaten the very existence of a business.

That present labor laws allow a strike to be called to enforce a union's demand for compulsory unionism presents many an honorable employer with a dilemma that can be resolved only by accepting for his employes a condition his deepest nature abhors.

Owes Moral Obligation
Consider such a dilemma: To have a strike on such an issue, especially if the employer in point is experiencing stiff business competition, would throw his workers out of their immediate livelihood and would cut off his stockholders from the profits they were counting on when they invested in his business.

The employer in point owes a moral obligation—and a large one—to both his workers and his stockholders. And that obligation weighs heavily on his mind as he looks over and balances the full schedule of union demands.

He sees that to stand firm on the union-shop issue could mean a long-protracted shutdown of his plant and an indefinitely continuing boycott of his products in a highly competitive market even if he were somehow to "win" the strike and resume some measure of production.

Pumping Itself Up
That's how this union-shop Frankenstein got going and pumped itself up to the point where it can boast inclusion in 70 per cent of union-management contracts. It had its agents and promoters, its suckers and sorrowful servants.

It still has them, one and all. And out of their combined contributions a wretched pattern took shape—a pattern the labor leaders now point to with academic pride, as they seek to grab the remaining 30 per cent.

There are the workers who have lost their American pride and independence, along with the very democracy that once made their unions their own. There are the workers who see their hard-earned money fattening the estates of criminal hierarchies.

Used to "Educate"
There are the workers who learn how their hard-earned money is used to "educate" them away from the very institutions that made of America a land of opportunity and lifted them out of economic slavery. There are the workers who see the organizations they are compelled to support being run by the rankest of incompetents.

There are all these and other workers who have lost their last chance of making their leaders toe the mark and serve the will of the members—for under a union-shop set-up they can no longer completely sever relations with the union that displeases them and shop for a union whose leaders are less corrupt, radical, lazy or juvenile in their direction of union affairs.

Today the average worker is stuck with the union he's in, be its leadership fair or foul or fumbling.

productive techniques. There are employers who daily see the climate they work in shifting from one of free enterprise and business incentive to one shadowed by socialism—which when guided by the full power of "free for all" social-unionism will spell the very end of the profit system.

And when this happens, we can add to the list of victims the entire American people—lost, like other peoples before them, in a thick maze of bureaucracy under a canopy of tightly woven formulas that blocks each other's effectiveness and leaves the consumer of goods and services—Mr. John Q. Public—standing in line for his basic necessities.

There Is Answer
There's an answer to the problem. It does not lie with the workers, nor with the employers.

The real answer lies in the strong arm of the American people as a whole, if enough of us can be sufficiently awakened to perceive the irresponsible strength Big Labor has gained and to what lengths in the direction of national catastrophe it has pushed us.

And that job of an awakened adult constituency is to see that our representatives in Washington and in every state capital enact laws that will fully and properly discriminate between organized labor and organized labor leadership.

And topping the list should be one that will strike at the very roots of union tyranny—at the point where that tyranny got started in the first place. Needed are state and Federal laws that will ban the evil of compulsory unionism in every manner, shape and form.

Only in a universal "right to work" law work" law lies salvation—lies final release from bondage—for the VICTIMS OF THE UNION SHOP.

IN CANDLELIGHT VOWS

Miss Hamlett Is Wed

A candlelight setting in The Community Church of Kermit at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, August 24, formed the background for the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Hamlett, and Tracy Glen Cary of Lubbock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hamlett, 728 South Poular, Kermit, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Cary, 921 East Tate, Brownfield.

The Rev. Joe S. Allen, pastor of First Baptist Church, Kermit, read the double ring ceremony. Forming the wedding setting, the altar and choir loft were graced with colonial columns on which were sitting large sun-burst baskets of white gladioli and blue babies' breath and lighted with tall blue tapers in candelabra.

Frank Wharton, organist, played a prelude of chimes and struck the hour of seven o'clock. He accompanied Charles Reynolds of Kermit as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Sister Is Attendant

The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Beverly Hamlett of Kermit, as maid of honor; her cousin, Mrs. Gaines Garland Jr. of Odessa, matron of honor; and the groom's sister, Miss Lynn Cary of Brownfield, bridesmaid.

Her attendants wore princess gowns of Copen blue silk organza styled with Empire bodices of lace and flaring ballet-length skirts. They wore matching bandeaux of lace petals and long tapering lace mitts which ended in points over the hands. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart colonial roses.

Wear Formal Gown

Approaching the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a formal gown of white rose design French lace and tulle. The portrait neckline was complemented by soft tulle folds and lace scallops. The brief sleeves were enhanced by long tapering lace mitts ending in points over the hands. From a slightly elongated bodice of lace her triple tulle skirt with insects of scallop-edged lace fell into a full sweep chapel train over satin.

Her tiered veil of French imported illusion fell from a plateau of matching lace and tulle petals. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids.

Groomsmen Listed

Sherwood Gaines of Lubbock served his friend as best man. Ushers were Dane Grant of Lubbock and Robert Johnson of Lubbock, cousin to the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Larry Byrd of Lubbock and Ronnie Avery of Andrews.

MRS. TRACY GLEN CARY

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a sheath dress of mauve lace accented by a matching chiffon cummerbund and hem-length drape. Her hat was of matching mauve lace. Mrs. Cary, mother of the bridegroom wore an antique blue dress of silk shantung with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenia.

Reception in Parlor
Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the Church Parlor. Miss Nancy Hall of Kermit served the four-tiered white wedding cake which was topped with bride and groom figurines. Miss Barbara Shillingburg of Kermit presided at the punch bowl. Also assisting with the hospitalities were Miss Eva Garza of Lubbock and Mrs. A. B. Johnson of Kermit.

Frank Wharton at the piano provided background music.

Live in Lubbock

When the newlyweds left for a wedding trip, the bride wore a sheath dress of purple cotton and silk tweed with a matching elbow length cape which was adorned with an orchid corsage. A black velvet picture hat, suede shoes and handbag and black gloves completed the costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary will be at home in Lubbock at 3018-20th Street after September 5.

Mrs. Cary graduated from Kermit High School and will receive her degree from Texas Tech in 1958. At Tech, she is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Junior Council, and Pi Beta Phi, social sorority.

WANT TO GET NEWS IN THE NEWSPAPER?

Approaching Season Will Be A Big One for Clubs, Group News

With the upcoming rush season of increased club and organization activities, we feel now is the time for a brief note to publicity chairmen who want stories in the NEWS.

Apparently many chairmen are not familiar with their duties nor with the requirements of newspaper publishing. Some wait until the day before the paper comes out, usually after the deadline, to frantically phone a report of a forthcoming activity.

As a result, the paper is unable to devote more than a few lines, if any at all, to the project.

Or worse yet, they wait for the paper to call, and if no contact is made, a report is not carried. The usual response to that one is, "I waited for you to call, but..."

No paper, whether it be the Brownfield NEWS, Lubbock Avalanche or Dallas News has a staff able to cover every event going on in a community. It is a simple matter of time and economics.

For this reason, it is up to the publicity chairman to work hand in hand with the newspaper if he is to fulfill the function of his position.

Where possible, the NEWS will provide staff coverage on projects or events. However, from necessity these will be screened and the chairman will have to "carry the ball" occasionally.

The key word in reporting for the NEWS is "before." That is, get the news into the paper before the upcoming event — and in plenty of time. This will give the editor time to get an advance story into the paper and place a note on the calendar for a follow-up story.

Earlier we noted the paper has certain deadlines to meet concerning whether news gets into the paper or not. This is necessary to provide enough time to put it together and get it to your front lawn Thursday and Sunday mornings.

Deadlines for society, club and church news is 10 a.m., on Tuesday for the Thursday paper and 10 a.m. Friday for the Sunday paper. General news must be phoned or brought to the NEWS office before 10 a.m. Wednesday for the Thursday edition and 10 a.m. Saturday for the Sunday edition.

If these deadlines are observed, chances for the story to get into the desired edition are greatly improved. If they are not observed, chances are slim that it will see print until the following edition.

Pity the Poor Congress!

THE AMERICAN WAY

CLIPPING TVA'S WINGS

By George Peck

On May 22, Senator Edward Martin (Rep. Penna.) introduced S. 2145 in the Senate of the United States.

This is a bill to amend the Tennessee Valley Authority Act of 1933 in order to authorize the TVA to undertake certain financing activities, to require it to charge just and reasonable rates, and to require certain payments to the United States, and for other purposes.

The Bill would require TVA to pay interest on the Federal investment in its power facilities, to pay Federal income taxes on its earnings as well as state and local taxes and to place its rates under regulation by the Federal Power Commission.

It would authorize TVA to finance future expansion, as approved by Congress, by the issuance of revenue bonds, not to exceed $750 million outstanding at any one time and would also limit TVA to its present service area.

Senator Martin read into the Congressional Record a tabulation showing the proportionate share borne by each State of the funds appropriated and property transferred to TVA from its beginning in 1934 through 1956.

Out of a total of nearly $2 billion, he said: "The people of my State, Pennsylvania, have furnished over $147 million—almost six times as much as Tennessee's less than $25 million."

In addressing the Senate, Senator Martin said that the most serious situation confronting the American people is "the astron-

BEHIND SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS

Grain Trade Survival Depends on Government's Returning To Private Firms 'Rightful Role' in Selling Products of Farm

By REYNOLDS KNIGHT
Economic Analyst

NEW YORK, Aug. 22—Stashed away in bins, tents and even in the holds of World War I merchant ships are government-held surpluses of farm commodities that keep getting bigger and bigger.

A non-profit organization engaged in research on government spending and taxation, Tax Foundation Inc., figures that if these stockpiles were divided among the nation's 43 million families, here's what each family would get:

Nineteen and a half bushels of wheat; the same amount of corn; a pound of wool; nearly six pounds of dried beans; four pounds of dried milk; four and a half pounds of cheese, and a pound of butter.

The latest calculation put the Commodity Credit Corporation "net realized loss" on price-support operations at $1.2 billion for the first 11 months of fiscal 1957. For the like 1956 period the loss was $844 million.

OVERSTRETCHED ARM—To aid in disposal of U. S. surplus grain, a new export elevator was opened recently in Norfolk by Cargill, Incorporated.

A somber note was sounded during opening ceremonies by John H. MacMillan Jr., chairman of Cargill, who said that survival of the grain trade depends on the government's giving back to private firms their "rightful role" in the marketing of farm products.

"The problem today," he said, "is that the Commodity Credit Corporation, merchandising arm of the Agriculture Department, has far overreached its original functions to the point where it exercises virtually complete control over every aspect of the grain business. In many areas CCC is in direct competition with private firms."

MacMillan asked that government take steps "to enable the grain trade once again to exercise its traditional skill and efficiency" to help solve the surplus problem.

THINGS TO COME—Walkietalkies are carried by bell boys in a Washington hotel so directions can be flashed to them while they're away from the bell captain's desk... A new shotgun arrow is aimed at making archery competitive with firearms for small game hunting. The arrow shaft is tipped with a hollow cylinder containing eight steel darts for a scatter pattern... A new type ball-thrower for tennis practice fires 40 balls at five-second intervals to any place on the court.

ALL PALS TOGETHER—Domestic ceramic tile manufacturers are actively supporting the plan that is rapidly gaining favor among industries affected by foreign competition able to undersell because of low foreign wage scales.

A recent poll of the Tile Contractors Association of America showed 94 per cent to be in favor of a plan that would regulate tile imports according to the relative differences in foreign and domestic wage rates.

Contractors, keenly aware that only domestic sources of tile are reliable in quality and service, were quick to hop on the bandwagon after hearing E. D. Mann, president of the Tile Council of America, warn: "If tile imports continue to jeopardize domestic manufacturers, then the entire industry has a very depressed future ahead."

The manufacturers have the problem of competing against foreign tile producers able to undersell domestic tile makers because of wage differentials that show workers in other countries being paid as little as one-eighth of what their U. S. counterparts earn.

IT'S UP TO CONSUMER—Hopes for a fall upturn in metals hinge largely on how car buyers react to the new models.

The auto industry's prospects of surpassing last year's output have improved considerably in recent months. Sales still lag behind last year by a slight margin, however.

The Big Three are already in production with new models, and the restyling is said to be extensive—much more so, because of the intense competition.

The Bill was referred to the Committee on Public Works, which body it is to be hoped will, after due deliberation, bring the Bill out on the floor of the Senate.

The wings of the TVA most certainly need clipping and the enactment of this Bill would accomplish just that, with benefit to all and harm to none.

Raider Basketball Ducats on Sale Now

Orders are being taken for Texas Tech's home basketball schedule, according to Jimmie Wilson, business manager of athletics.

Tickets cost $16.50 plus a 25-cent mailing fee for 11 home games. Individual game tickets sell for $2 each. Season ticket orders will be delivered after Oct. 1, game tickets after Nov. 1.

"Because of the large number of student activity tickets to be sold this year, it is doubtful whether general admission tickets will be available to the public," Wilson said. "In fact, our supply of individual game reserved tickets will be very limited since such orders are filled after season tickets are sold."

Last year Tech drew about 65,000 to 14 home games in the Lubbock Coliseum on the Tech campus.

Tech's home schedule includes Dec. 2 — Abilene Christian, Dec. 7 — Hamline, Dec. 11 — West Texas State, Dec. 20 — Santa Clara, Jan. 7 — Texas Christian, Jan. 10 — Southern Methodist, Jan. 25 — Baylor, Feb. 15 — Arkansas, Feb. 18 — Texas, Feb. 25 — Texas A&M, Mar. 4 — Rice.

Polk Robinson's Red Raiders will compete for the Southwest Conference title this season.

Thirsty?

Sure, he's thirsty; that's a hot dry job, but the lemonade will soon slake his thirst. The only trouble is, he will thirst again. Man's spirit is like that too. So long as he drinks only from earthly fountains, he will thirst again because he needs living water from the fountain of eternal life.

Man is made for God and his spirit is dry and thirsty unless it is God-related. The dry spirit is restless, searching eternally for something to satisfy. Go to the Church and hear the good news of a fountain that gives living water which if a man drinks, he will not thirst again.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.
Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God.
Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

Texas Cotton Crop Set 11 Per Cent Less Than Total In 1956

The Crop Reporting Board has forecast a 1957 cotton crop of 11,897,000 bales—11 per cent less than last year's crop of 13,310,000 bales and compares with the 1946-55 average of 13,669,000. An average loan rate of 28.81 cents a pound, basis Middling 7/8 inch, also was announced.

Handicapped by unfavorable early season weather, crops made an exceptionally good response to favorable late June and July weather. However, lateness of crop in northern areas of Central Belt, Oklahoma and Northwest Texas, which was only partially overcome, remains the limiting factor.

The expected yield per acre for the U. S. of 416 pounds per acre is only one pound less than the 1955 record high and compares with the 1946-55 average of 300 pounds. Record-high yields in other states.

Dallas will be the caller. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Calling to greet the Jaffords were Messrs. and Meses. Johnny Kendrick, Dip Pemberton, Ted Hardy and George O'Neal.

Weaver Booted Out By Tulsa Field Goal

Charlie Wynes of Tulsa University literally kicked Texas Tech's DeWitt Weaver out of the "top 25" football coaches in the nation.

Bob Hoobing's recent Associated Press rankings of coaches whose teams have played 60 games showed Navy's Eddie Erdelatz in 25th spot with a mark of 35 wins, 22 losses, and seven ties in seven years of coaching. Hoobing discounted ties in arriving at a percentage of .614 for Erdelatz.

Weaver's six-season career mark is 37-24-4, a percentage figure (again discounting the draws) of .606. But if the Tulsa game had ended in a 7-7 deadlock instead of the 10-7 Hurricane victory resulting from Wynes' feild goal, Weaver's record would have included 37 wins and 23 losses for a percentage of .617, three ahead of

IN CANDLELIGHT VOWS

Miss Hamlett Is Wed

A candlelight setting in The Community Church of Kermit at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, August 24, formed the background for the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Hamlett, and Tracy Glen Cary of Lubbock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hamlett, 728 South Poular, Kermit, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Cary, 921 East Tate, Brownfield.

The Rev. Joe S. Allen, pastor of First Baptist Church, Kermit, read the double ring ceremony. Forming the wedding setting, the altar and choir loft were graced with colonial columns on which were sitting large sun-burst baskets of white gladioli and blue babies' breath and lighted with tall blue tapers in candelabra.

Frank Wharton, organist, played a prelude of chimes and struck the hour of seven o'clock. He accompanied Charles Reynolds of Kermit as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Sister Is Attendant

The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Beverly Hamlett of Kermit, as maid of honor; her cousin, Mrs. Gaines Garland Jr. of Odessa, matron of honor; and the groom's sister, Miss Lynn Cary of Brownfield, bridesmaid.

Her attendants wore princess gowns of Copen blue silk organza styled with Empire bodices of lace and flaring ballet-length skirts. They wore matching bandeaux of lace petals, and long tapering lace mitts which ended in points over the hands. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart colonial roses.

Wear Formal Gown

Approaching the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a formal gown of white rose design French lace and tulle. The portrait neckline was complimented by soft tulle folds and lace scallops. The brief sleeves were enhanced by long tapering lace mitts ending in points over the hands. From a slightly elongated bodice of lace her triple tulle skirt with insets of scallop-edged lace fell into a full sweep chapel train over satin.

Her tiered veil of French imported illusion fell from a plateau of matching lace and tulle petals. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids.

Groomsmen Listed

Sherwood Gaines of Lubbock served his friend as best man. Ushers were Dane Grant of Lubbock and Robert Johnson of Lubbock, cousin to the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Larry Byrd of Lubbock and Ronnie Avery of Andrews.

MRS. TRACY GLEN CARY

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a sheath dress of mauve lace accented by a matching chiffon cummerbund and hem-length drape. Her hat was of matching mauve lace. Mrs. Cary, mother of the bridegroom wore an antique blue dress of silk shantung with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenia.

Reception in Parlor Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the Church Parlor. Miss Nancy Hall of Kermit served the four-tiered white wedding cake which was topped with bride and groom figurines. Miss Barbara Shillingburg of Kermit presided at the punch bowl. Also assisting with the hospitalities were Miss Eva Garza of Lubbock and Mrs. A. B. Johnson of Kermit.

Frank Wharton at the piano provided background music. Live in Lubbock

When the newlyweds left for a wedding trip, the bride wore a sheath dress of purple cotton and silk tweed with a matching elbow length cape which was adorned with an orchid corsage. A black velvet picture hat, suede shoes and handbag and black gloves completed the costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary will be at home in Lubbock at 3018-20th Street after September 5. Mrs. Cary graduated from Kermit High School and will receive her degree from Texas Tech in 1958. At Tech, she is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Junior Council, and Pi Beta Phi, social sorority.

dent, was chosen for Who's Who in America Colleges and Universities, was a member of Delta Sigma Pi and Phi Delta Theta, social fraternity. He is now associated with Great Southern Life Insurance Company in Lubbock.

WANT TO GET NEWS IN THE NEWSPAPER?

Approaching Season Will Be A Big One for Clubs, Group News

With the upcoming rush season of increased club and organization activities, we feel now is the time for a brief note to publicity chairmen who want stories in the NEWS.

Apparently many chairmen are not familiar with their duties nor with the requirements of newspaper publishing. Some wait until the day before the paper comes out, usually after the deadline, to frantically phone a report of a forthcoming activity.

As a result, the paper is unable to devote more than a few lines, if any at all, to the project.

Or worse yet, they wait for the paper to call, and if no contact is made, a report is not carried. The usual response to that one is, "I waited for you to call, but..."

No paper, whether it be the Brownfield NEWS, Lubbock Avalanche or Dallas News has a staff able to cover every event going on in a community. It is a simple matter of time and economics. For this reason, it is up to the publicity chairman to work hand in hand with the newspaper if he is to fulfill the function of his position.

Where possible, the NEWS will provide staff coverage on projects or events. However, from necessity these will be screened and the chairman will have to "carry the ball" occasionally.

The key word in reporting for the NEWS is "before." That is, get the news into the paper before the upcoming event — and in plenty of time. This will give the editor time to get an advance story into the paper and place a note on the calendar for a follow-up story.

Earlier we noted the paper has certain deadlines to meet concerning whether news gets into the paper or not. This is necessary to provide enough time to put it together and get it to your front lawn Thursday and Sunday mornings.

Deadlines for society, club and church news is 10 a.m., on Tuesday for the Thursday paper and 10 a.m. Friday for the Sunday paper. General news must be phoned or brought to the NEWS office before 10 a.m. Wednesday for the Thursday edition and 10 a.m. Saturday for the Sunday edition.

If these deadlines are observed, chances for the story to get into the desired edition are greatly improved. If they are not observed, chances are slim that it will see print until the following edition.

Pity the Poor Congress!

THE AMERICAN WAY

CLIPPING TVA'S WINGS
By George Peck

On May 22, Senator Edward Martin (Rep. Penna.) introduced S. 2145 in the Senate of the United States. This is a bill to amend the Tennessee Valley Authority Act of 1933 in order to authorize the TVA to undertake certain financing activities, to require it to charge just and reasonable rates, and to require certain payments to the United States, and for other purposes.

The Bill would require TVA to pay interest on the Federal investment in its power facilities, to pay Federal income taxes on its earnings as well as state and local taxes and to place its rates under regulation by the Federal Power Commission.

It would authorize TVA to finance future expansion, as approved by Congress, by the issuance of revenue bonds, not to exceed $750 million outstanding at any one time and would also limit TVA to its present service area.

Senator Martin read into the Congressional Record a tabulation showing the proportionate share borne by each State of the funds appropriated and property transferred to TVA from its beginning in 1934 through 1956.

Out of a total of nearly $2 billion, he said: "The people of my State, Pennsylvania, have furnished over $147 million—almost six times as much as Tennessee's less than $25 million."

In addressing the Senate, Senator Martin said that the most serious situation confronting the American people is "the astron-

BEHIND SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS

Grain Trade Survival Depends on Government's Returning To Private Firms 'Rightful Role' in Selling Products of Farm

By REYNOLDS KNIGHT
Economic Analyst

NEW YORK, Aug. 22—Stashed away in bins, tents and even in the holds of World War I merchant ships are government-held surpluses of farm commodities that keep getting bigger and bigger.

A non-profit organization engaged in research on government spending and taxation, Tax Foundation Inc., figures that if these stockpiles were divided among the nation's 43 million families, here's what each family would get:

Nineteen and a half bushels of wheat; the same amount of corn; a pound of wool; nearly six pounds of dried beans; four pounds of dried milk; four and a half pounds of cheese, and a pound of butter.

The latest calculation put the Commodity Credit Corporation "net realized loss" on price-support operations at $1.2 billion for the first 11 months of fiscal 1957. For the like 1956 period the loss was $844 million. OVERSTRETCHED ARM — To aid in disposal of U. S. surplus grain, a new export elevator was opened recently in Norfolk by Cargill, Incorporated.

A somber note was sounded during opening ceremonies by John H. MacMillan Jr., chairman of Cargill, who said that survival of the grain trade depends on the government's giving back to private firms their "rightful role" in the marketing of farm products.

"The problem today," he said, "is that the Commodity Credit Corporation, merchandising arm of the Agriculture Department, has far overreached its original functions to the point where it exercises virtually complete control over every aspect of the grain business. In many areas CCC is in direct competition with private firms."

MacMillan asked that government take steps "to enable the grain trade once again to exercise its traditional skill and efficiency" to help solve the surplus problem.

THINGS TO COME—Walkie-talkies are carried by bell boys in a Washington hotel so directions can be flashed to them while they're away from the bell captain's desk... A new shotgun arrow is aimed at making archery competitive with firearms for small game hunting. The arrow shaft is tipped with a hollow cylinder containing eight steel darts for a scatter pattern... A new type ball-thrower for tennis practice fires 40 balls at five-second intervals to any place on the court.

ALL PALS TOGETHER — Domestic ceramic tile manufacturers are actively supporting the plan that is rapidly gaining favor among industries affected by foreign competition able to undersell because of low foreign wage scales.

A recent poll of the Tile Contractors Association of America showed 94 per cent to be in favor of a plan that would regulate tile imports according to the relative differences in foreign and domestic wage rates.

Contractors, keenly aware that only domestic sources of tile are reliable in quality and service, were quick to hop on the bandwagon after hearing E. D. Mann, president of the Tile Council of America, warn: "If tile imports continue to jeopardize domestic manufacturers, then the entire industry has a very depressed future ahead."

The manufacturers have the problem of competing against foreign tile producers able to undersell domestic tile makers because of wage differentials that show workers in other countries being paid as little as one-eighth of what their U. S. counterparts earn.

IT'S UP TO CONSUMER — Hopes for a fall upturn in metals hinge largely on how car buyers react to the new models.

The auto industry's prospects of surpassing last year's output have improved considerably in recent months. Sales still lag behind last year by a slight margin, however.

The Big Three are already in production with new models, and the restyling is said to be extensive—much more so, because of the intense competition. See GRAIN, Page 3

The Bill was referred to the Committee on Public Works, which body it is to be hoped will, after due deliberation, bring the Bill out on the floor of the Senate.

The wings of the TVA most certainly need clipping and the enactment of this Bill would accomplish just that, with benefit to all and harm to none.

Raider Basketball Ducats on Sale Now

Orders are being taken for Texas Tech's home basketball schedule, according to Jimmie Wilson, business manager of athletics.

Tickets cost $16.50 plus a 25-cent mailing fee for 11 home games. Individual game tickets sell for $2 each. Season ticket orders will be delivered after Oct. 1, game tickets after Nov. 1.

"Because of the large number of student activity tickets to be sold this year, it is doubtful whether general admission tickets will be available to the public," Wilson said. "In fact, our supply of individual game reserved tickets will be very limited since such orders are filled after season tickets are sold."

Last year Tech drew about 65,000 to 14 home games in the Lubbock Coliseum on the Tech campus.

Tech's home schedule includes Dec. 2 — Abilene Christian, Dec. 7 — Hamline, Dec. 11 — West Texas State, Dec. 20 — Santa Clara, Jan. 7 — Texas Christian, Jan. 10 — Southern Methodist, Jan. 25 — Baylor, Feb. 15 — Arkansas, Feb. 18 — Texas, Feb. 25 — Texas A&M, Mar. 4 — Rice.

Thirsty?

Sure, he's thirsty; that's a hot dry job, but the lemonade will soon slake his thirst. The only trouble is, he will thirst again. Man's spirit is like that too. So long as he drinks only from earthly fountains, he will thirst again because he needs living water from the fountain of eternal life.

Man is made for God and his spirit is dry and thirsty unless it is God-related. The dry spirit is restless, searching eternally for something to satisfy. Go to the Church and hear the good news of a fountain that gives living water which if a man drinks, he will not thirst again.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure. Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redemption to us. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

Texas Cotton Crop Set 11 Per Cent Less Than Total In 1956

The Crop Reporting Board has forecast a 1957 cotton crop of 11,897,000 bales—11 per cent less than last year's crop of 13,310,000 bales and compares with the 1946-55 average of 13,669,000. An average loan rate of 25.81 cents a pound, basis Middling 7/8 inch, also was announced.

Handicapped by unfavorable early season weather, crops made an exceptionally good response to favorable late June and July weather. However, lateness of crop in northern areas of Central Belt, Oklahoma and Northwest Texas, which was only partially overcome, remains the limiting factor.

The expected yield per acre for the U. S. of 416 pounds per acre is only one pound less than the 1955 record high and compares with the 1946-55 average of 300 pounds. Record-high yields in other states.

Dallas will be the caller. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Weaver Booted Out By Tulsa Field Goal

Charlie Wynes of Tulsa University literally kicked Texas Tech's DeWitt Weaver out of the "top 25" football coaches in the nation.

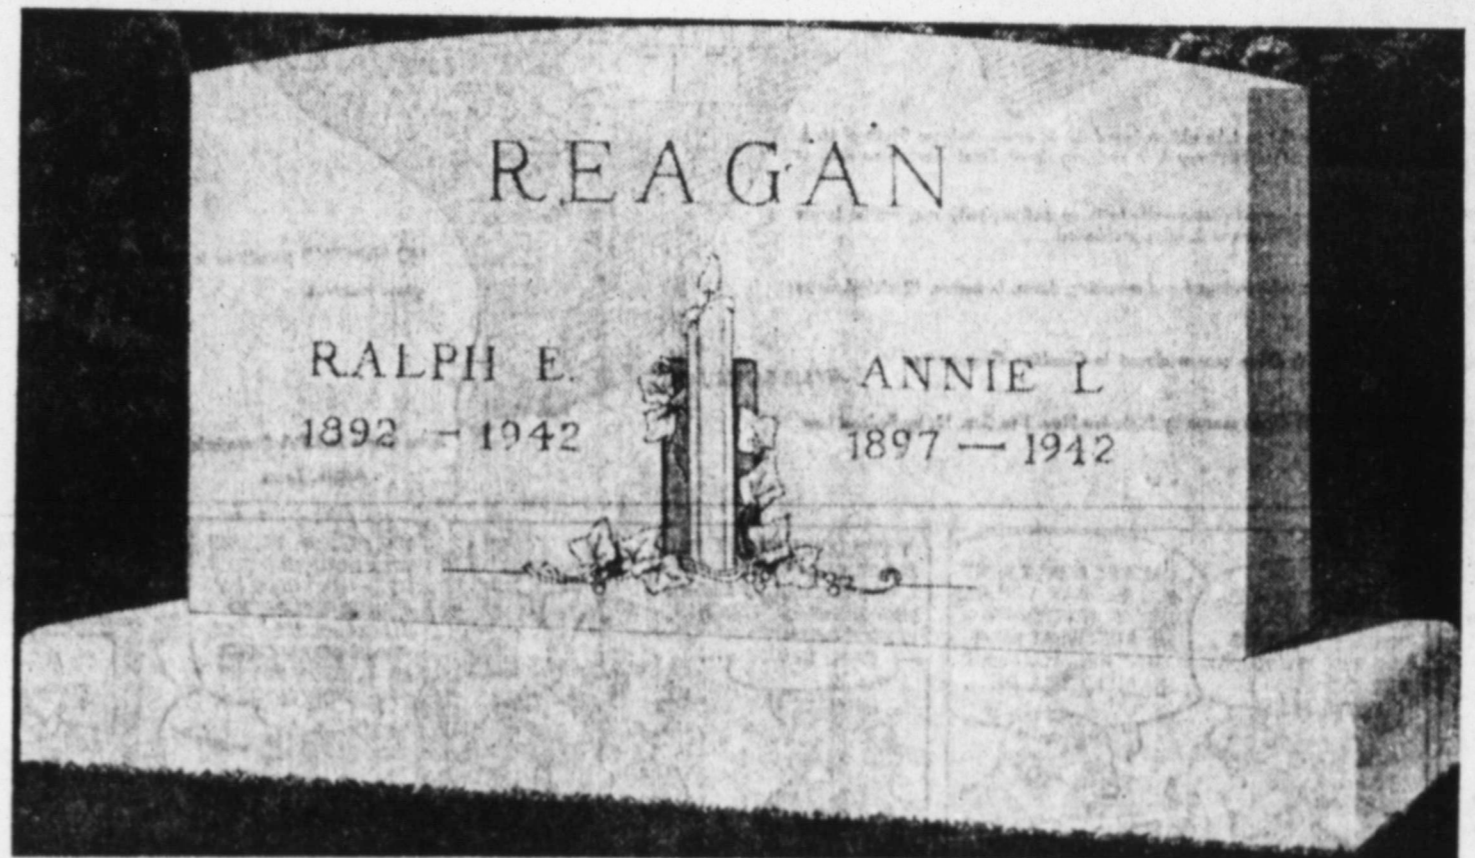

Bob Hoobing's recent Associated Press rankings of coaches whose teams have played 60 games showed Navy's Eddie Erdelatz in 25th spot with a mark of 35 wins, 22 losses, and seven ties in seven years of coaching. Hoobing discounted
