Preparing for the future

We parents are very careful to teach our children thrift and industry so that like this little girl they begin early in life preparing for the future. We sometimes are not so careful though to point out that there is a great deal more to the future than "a penny saved is a penny earned" or "early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

We need the Church to remind us about the real values of life and to help us teach our children what life is really all about. Your nearby Church will be glad to answer any questions, religious or otherwise, you have about your child's spiritual training. The Sunday School is maintained to help you help your children. Use it!

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.

Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

ROLLS UP FIRST WIN

Murphy Leads Frosh Past Seagraves, 45-12

Brownfield Frosh rolled to an easy 45-12 victory over Seagraves Freshmen here Thursday night, scoring at ease in every period.

Johnny Murphy began the scoring rout early in the first period as he dashed off tackle for a 45-yard run.

Minutes later he added to his total with a 50-yard sprint around left end. In the second period Murphy added a 40 yard TD dash. Delbert Hadaway rolled up Brownfield's fourth tally with a 10-yard cut around left end. Junior Knox added the point to give the future Cubs a 25-0 lead at half-time.

With the aid of a key downfield block by Robert Pruitt, Murphy again broke loose in the third frame to race 80 yards for his fourth TD.

Richard Collins added insult to injury by plunging for two more touchdowns in the second half from five and eight yards out. Knox converted on both attempts to finish Brownfield scoring.

With Brownfield reserves in the game, Seagraves came back in the final period to score on a 50-yard pass play and on an 80-yard kickoff return.

Glenn Koch and Pruitt provided defensive punch for the young Cubs as they teamed to throw Seagraves backs for losses on numerous occasions.

Shell Official Tells Of Vital Dependency on Oil

"There is nothing we use, wear, drive or handle that is not dependent upon oil or oil products in some way," said John W. Hughes, who spoke at Brownfield Lions' luncheon Wednesday in The Party House.

Hughes, an automotive engineer for Shell Oil Company in Midland, said two-thirds of U.S. power energy comes from oil or petroleum products. "Our oil needs will climb an estimated 68 per cent within the next 10 years," he said. "This means we must continue searching for new fields and sources for that increase."

New methods of recovering oil from underground pools were noted by the speaker to indicate how oil producers are reaching to meet increased demands.

"One of the latest methods is by pumping oxygen underground and setting fires," said Hughes. "These fires reduce the viscosity of oil and create pressure to move it to the pump, where it can be brought to the surface."

The engineer said this and other recent developments have upped recovery rate of oil from 25 per cent four or five years ago, to approximately 50 per cent now.

$73 Billion Scheduled

Despite this improvement, Hughes pointed out oil companies still will spend more than $73½ billion in the next 10 years to find enough oil reserves for U. S. consumption.

Hughes' speech was the kickoff to Oil Progress Week starting here today. Featured activities during the week include a banquet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Junior High cafe.

Brownfield Youth Is Named To Tech's Dairy Judging Team

Max Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Miller of Route 1, has been named as a member of Texas Tech's four-man dairy industry judging team which will test its skill Oct. 21 in San Francisco.

The quartet will match taste buds with 19 other teams from throughout the nation at the 23rd Collegiate Students' International Contest in judging dairy products.

The team will leave Oct. 15 for the contest that offers Fellowships of $1,800 and $1,650 at schools of the two highest ranking teams. Co-sponsoring the annual contest are the American Dairy Science Assn. and Dairy Industries Supply Assn.

In the international contest, 10 samples of milk, butter, cheese and ice cream—ranging from poor to excellent quality—are judged by each contestant. There are 81 decisions on fine points of quality to be made and entered on special scorecards for each sample of milk and ice cream and 80 for butter and cheese.

According to the Dairy Industries Supply Assn., Texas and California will have the largest number of students competing in the contest.

Carrying the banner of the Lone Star State to California will be the Texas Tech team and one from Texas A&M College.

Dr. J. J. Willingham is the team coach.

The banquet, which is sponsored by Brownfield businessmen, will honor the oil industry and their queen, Miss Gretchen Sloan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sloan of Seagraves Highway. Miss Sloan is a contestant for HF queen.

SCOT Board of Directors is Expected To Study Firearms Training for Youth

Outline of a coordinated firearms training program, jointly sponsored by public and private agencies, will be considered at the October 11 board meeting of Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas, reports Cecil Reid, executive secretary.

Reid said high public officials and conservationists already have indicated interest in helping initiate the program through a statehouse conference and that, subject to board approval, the parley will be held in early winter.

"This proposal developed too late for actual crystallization before the current hunting season," said the secretary. "But our board might want to move the project along for informal discussion by individuals and agencies during the fall wildlife harvest period."

Reid said the plan is designed primarily for teenagers and as a major part of SCOT's youth program which includes harnessing up energetic young Texans to supervised outdoor routine, through Boy Scouts and other such organized groups.

"The new statewide movement," said Reid, "would hinge heavily on gun safety but it naturally would comprise emphasis on handling of modern weapons, some of

SAYS SUPERMARKET MAGNATE

'Newspaper Ads Help Us Sell Foods'

By WELDON CALLAWAY

Retail advertising carries benefits which may be just as important to some merchants as increased sales volume. One valuable effect of good advertising is the increase in efficiency of retail operation.

The manager of a booming chain of supermarkets in Ohio says that he would have to more than double his employment costs if newspaper advertising were not available.

"The supermarket would not be an efficient method of retailing if advertising did not carry a big part of the sales burden. The housewife is able to buy with little assistance because she is acquainted with our products and prices when she arrives," the grocery executive said.

"When we evaluate our advertising, we always consider the fact that it would take an army of salesmen to handle the questions which can be answered in one newspaper advertisement."

These comments do not apply to supermarkets alone. Advertising reduces selling time in any type of store. The potential buyer of an advertised product is always partially sold when he enters a store; he knows what he wants and where he can get it.

In fact, when man-hours are converted to dollars, newspaper advertising is practically free as compared to the cost of personal selling.

No wonder the consumer expects to find the best prices in stores that advertise. The stores which cut costs through advertising are able to pass the savings from modern selling methods on their customers.

STATE FIRE MARSHAL WARNS

Children's Holiday Clothing Often Is Target For Fires

AUSTIN—State Fire Marshal William A. Harrison today urged parents to use extreme caution to make sure their children are safe from fire during the approaching holiday season.

"During the period from Halloween through Christmas we receive frequent reports of children being burned to death when flammable costumes and party decorations catch fire," said Harrison. "Parents should insist that costumes and decorations be fire-resistant, and should not use candles at children's parties."

"Remember your child's clothing can burn, so know what he's wearing," Harrison cautioned. "Don't dress your children in such fast burning materials as sheer, fuzzy, long-napped materials, or flimsy nets and gauze. Safer materials are wools, and medium and heavy weight smooth fabrics."

"Remember that just about any clothing will burn if the wearer is careless. So train your children to be careful in the presence of open flames, heaters, stoves and other sources of ignition," he added.

Children's clothing most frequently is burned while playing with matches, playing around stoves and heaters and too close to outdoor fires. Parents should provide a metal box for matches and keep it in a spot out of the reach of children and away from the heat of the stove.

With the approach of cold weather, parents should have the complete home heating unit checked, and should always carefully supervise outdoor fires.

"Youngsters are so curious about everything they somehow expose themselves to every possible fire hazard," said Harrison.

Last year over 4,000 children in the United States under 14 years of age burned to death. Each year over 300 children fall victim to fire in Texas. Of the 800,000 building fires which occur in the U. S. each year, 29,000 are caused by children and matches.

Harrison outlined six points for parents to remember in keeping their children safe from fire and in training them to be fire prevention conscious.

1. Keep very young children—two and under—in sight and in mind all the time; they need 100 per cent protection from fire.

2. Teach the older child to respect fire and how to use it safely; remember the child learns best by your example.

3. Keep the child's home free from fire hazards by cleaning out cellars, attics and closets frequently; by avoiding the use of flammable liquids for cleaning, by not overloading electrical outlets and by promptly replacing worn cords; and by being careful with matches and smoking. A "Home Fire department. Your fireman is an expert on fire prevention and is always willing to advise you.

4. Know the right way to escape from any building in an emergency; and train the child to be as ready to do the same.

RAMBLES OVER THREE-WAY, 55-0

Fourth District Win Is Tallied By Union 'Cats

The Union Wildcats racked up their fourth district win as they trampled Three-Way, 55-0, Friday night at the loser's home field.

On the third play from scrimmage, Alfred Newsom broke through the left side of his line to tally from 30 yards out. The try for point was not good.

Minutes later Wylie Kay broke loose on a 37-yard TD jaunt around right end and then he passed to David Cabe for the extra point to give the Wildcats a 13-0 lead.

Late in the first period Newsom again slipped off tackle for a 12-yard scoring dash to cap a 43-yard drive by the 'Cats. Newsom passed to Jimmy Sargent for the point.

Jimmy Howell added Union's fourth tally to the scoreboard early in the second period with a 30-yard sprint around his right end. Newsom flipped to Kermit Shults for the extra point.

Newsom out-distanced his opponents midway in the second quarter as he reeled off a 45-yard dash to paydirt. Newsom tossed to Cabe for the point that gave the 'Cats a 34-0 half-time lead.

Though Union played their reserves the final two and one-half periods, the Wildcats continued to claw for three more TD's the second half.

Danny Huddleston plunged three yards for the only tally in the third period and then added the point on a run. The plunge capped a 36-yard drive in six plays.

Weldon Bell sprinted to paydirt from 12 yards out to run the total up and then ran the extra point early in the final frame.

Darwin Cheatham completed scoring as he plunged six yards. Gene Hungerford passed to Phil Montgomery for the extra point, giving Union its final, 55-0, tally.

Three-Way's lone sparks, Tom Coffman and Robert Sandlin, were snuffed out as Wildcat linemen swarmed them under. Union held Three-Way to a total gain of 73 yards while they rolled up 380 yards rushing and passing.

Hardin-Simmons University Homecoming Program Is Listed To Begin On Friday

Hardin-Simmons University ex-students from across Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana and from as far away as California are expected to travel to Abilene for the H-SU homecoming Oct. 18-19.

Truett Latimer, alumni director, is general chairman of the annual event.

Ex-students will begin arriving on the campus Friday for a collegiate pep rally coupled with a coffee-doughnut session at Rose Field House. The Cowboy Band, directed by Marion B. McClure, will play for the coffee at 10 p.m.

Friday's activities will be climaxed by a bonfire at the H-SU rodeo ground. Cowboy Coach Sammy Baugh will give a pep talk at the rally.

The Cowboys meet the University of Wichita, Kan., in the homecoming football game at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Homecoming activities will get underway early Saturday with a breakfast at 7:30 a.m. for exes of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, at Mack Epley's restaurant.

A coffee will be held at 10 a.m. for all former H-SU queens. The coffee will be held in South Hall, women's dormitory.

An ex-student association officer's meeting will be held at noon at the Hotel Wooten in downtown Abilene. Ivan Flynn of Abilene, president of the exes, will preside.

A lettermen's luncheon will be held simultaneously for all exes who lettered in baseball, basketball, track, baseball, tennis, and golf.

All other exes are invited to a special luncheon in the dining hall, Latimer said. A special section will be reserved for ex-students, he stated. Former members of the Cowgirls, a service organization on the campus, will meet at 1:30 p.m. for a Coke Party in the Student Center.

The homecoming parade will be held in downtown Abilene at 3 p.m. The all-student parade will feature floats built by various organizations on the campus, decorated cars, and the Cowboy Band led by the famous six white horses.

Open house in all campus dormitories is set for 4 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. Otto Watts, sponsors of Alpha Chi, national honorary fraternity, will host a tea for former members of that organization at their home at 1442 Lowden St. Class meetings will be held at 5 p.m. in Abilene Hall, major classroom building.

The barbecue dinner will be served in Rose Field House at 5:30 p.m. Plates will be 50 cents.

Broncos Fall Before Antelope Speed, 20-13

By TERRY LOCKETT
NEWS Correspondent

The scrappy Meadow Broncos fell, 20-13, before a speedy Whiteface Antelope attack in the final period in a District 4-B game fought before 700 Whiteface homecoming fans Friday night.

James (Wally) Smith gave the Broncos an early lead as he plunged over from the one to climax a 65-yard drive.

The Antelopes went ahead a few minutes later as fullback Billy Cox sprinted for 20 yards after Whiteface took a Bronco punt that traveled only four yards. A scoreless second period left the score, 6-6 at half-time.

Neil Allen gave Whiteface its first lead as he took a pitchout and raced 50 yards for the tally early in the third quarter. Cox plunged for the point to give the Antelopes a 13-6 lead. A 60-yard drive Pendergrass plunged one yard for Meadow's second touchdown to cap a 60-yard drive. Pendergrass then plunged for the point to tie the score going into the final frame.

The clinching tally was racked up by Kenneth Welch as he sneaked 11 yards after the Antelopes recovered a fumble on the Bronco 11 yard line. Don Arnold cut over the final point, giving Whiteface its victory.

The game, decided primarily by two breaks, was hard-fought all the way. Two scoring thrusts by the Broncos in the final period were stopped just inside the 20 and the other inside the 10.

Meadow out-rushed and passed the home team but fell because of fumbles and hard-charging Antelope linemen.

The loss gave Meadow a 1-1 record in conference play and a 2-3 record for the season.

Guest lecturer for the series will be Dr. Donald L. Katz, University of Michigan chemical engineering department chairman. Dr. Katz will lecture Oct. 15 at 2 p.m. and Oct. 16 at 2 p.m. The lectures are open to the public.

Dr. Katz, well known in the petro-chemical industries, will lecture on "Phase Equilibria at Low and High Pressures," covering both the fundamentals as well as the practical aspects of phase equilibrium.

IS FILMED IN HONG KONG

MGM's 'The Seventh Sin' To Be Seen Tuesday and Wednesday at the Regal

Somerest Maugham, who has written some of the world's most exciting and colorful stories, wrote the plot on which MGM's "The Seventh Sin" is based.

He has created a group of absorbing characters, portrayed in the CinemaScope film by Eleanor Parker, Bill Travers, George Sanders, Jean Pierre Aumont and Francoise Rosay.

"The Seventh Sin" will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday at the Regal.

The film is the drama of a beautiful woman, Carol, who has married English bacteriologist Walter Carwin out of expediency rather than love, and who, bored with her life in Hong Kong, where her husband is stationed, becomes enamored in an affair with Paul Duvalle, also unhappily married.

"The Seventh Sin" was produced by David Lewis, with its screen play written by Karl Tunberg. It is an adult drama dealing with a strong emotional force, and it theme and force make for absorbing entertainment.

SERIES FINAL . . .

SEEKS UGLY TITLE — "These are the bare facts, and they should be enough to win the title, 'Ugliest Man,' in Rotary's 11th annual Harvest Festival." So said H. L. (Hub) King, who is the Jaycee entry in the event. Others are Ralph O'Dell of Rotary, and John Hansard of Lions. The Ugliest Man will be named night of the Festival in Cub Stadium, Oct. 17 — or, next Thursday.

With a sigh of relief, we turn again to the football season at hand a week of mass hysteria over the World Series. The Braves, who probably had the majority of backers here, came through on the strong arm of Lew Burdette. The "big fellow" put on an almost one-man show as he won three of the Braves four games, the last one with only two days rest. With the exception of the third game, undoubtedly this was one of the best pitched series — on both sides—in quite some time.

MORE ABOUT THE CUBS . . .

For those of our readers who thought we were too rough on the Cubs in Thursday's Huddle—and there were several of them! — we want to add this footnote:

We never attempt to be critical of a team—what sports columnist is in a real position to know more than the coach? Our main purpose in writing here is to be constructive, and to try to bring to our readers some of the many side angles to BHS sports which they might not have available from other sources.

Since last spring, we have worked closely and in fine harmony with the Cubs, and feel that we enjoy a good relationship with all of them.

Though we do not intend purposely to stir up controversy over hometown sports, we do sincerely feel that a columnist should discuss in some measure what he thinks might be any team's weaknesses — just as he should laud their performance.

When a sports columnist fails to perform all of the traditional functions as such, he is insincere with his readers, and with the team he supports. For after all, it is only in a news column that such things can be discussed, and not in a news story.

In this same vein, we feel that a special accolade is due one of our readers who came to the NEWS to present his views on Thursday's column. He disagreed quite wholeheartedly, and minced no words in telling us so. And . . . We appreciate it and thank him.

We're in complete agreement with him, and have known all ways, of course, that the Cubs are not professionals, who are being paid to play football. They are young high school men who are taking part in a major program which should attract most such students. And, never in this nor in any other column in any paper should high school football players be thought of on the same plane as are the professionals.

These columns are open to our readers at any time. We feel every person should have his say, whether he disagrees or agrees with this writer. We ask only that the letters be signed.

TALKING TERRY . . .

Wellman, Union and Meadow are smack in the middle of their district races. All three tackle district foes this weekend (after this column was written) and at least two are expected to add wins to their belt. Wellman is given only an outside chance to upset Pettit.

Meadow's Broncos, who were co-champs in District 4-B last year, still have a rough row to hoe before they can claim the flag this year. Though they stampeaded past Cooper, 40-0, in their first district go, they hit three tough ones in the next four games (including last Friday's tilt with Whiteface).

Union should have little trouble with their schedule until they meet Bula, last year's champs in 2-B Six-Man, on the last day of the season. However, there is many a slip can crop up in the final six games. We only hope they don't try to let their press clippings do their scoring in any of their remaining games.

Coach James Daugherty's Wildcats at Wellman, hampered by inexperience and a thinly-manned squad, have been hurt even more by injuries and the flu. However, they have the spark and desire so we think they will pull a few upsets before the season is over.

OPEN DATE . . .

The Cubs will take a rest from the football wars this coming week as they hit an open date. No matter what the outcome in Friday's Colorado City game, we are sure Coach Doug Cox and his staff will have a hard week of training sessions on tap for Cub athletes as they prepare to host Pecos here Oct. 25 in the opening District 2-AAA battle.

Pharmacists To Meet In Lubbock

South Plains pharmacists will gather for their first University of Texas pharmacy management conference in Lubbock Oct. 16-17.

The two-day session will be conducted by the university's pharmacy extension service and sponsored by the Lubbock County Pharmaceutical Association.

Principal speaker will be Lois P. White of Cleburne, chief investigator for the State Board of Pharmacy since 1933. He will explain "Pharmacy Law."

Four University of Texas staff members will be on the program: Dr. Charles O. Wilson, pharmaceutical chemistry professor, "New Prescription Specialties;" Wallace L. Guess, pharmacy assistant professor, "Five Systems of Prescription Pricing;" and Mrs. Pauline W. Burkrink, distributor education research director, "Public Relations." Joseph H. Arnette, pharmacy extension service director, will award certificates to pharmacists at conclusion of the conference.

Registration will begin daily at 9:30 a.m. in First Federal Savings and Loan Association conference room.

Arnette explained that a "repeat performance" of the Wednesday program will be given Thursday, in order to allow more pharmacists to attend the conference.

Similar pharmacy management conferences will be given over Texas this year to give pharmacists a chance to learn about advances in their field so they may better safeguard the public's health.

by rose jean henson

Round and round she goes and where she stops nobody knows—the Russian satellite, I'm speaking of. If you knew anything about what satellites are and just exactly what they are suppose to mean, then you are one up on me. I don't.

The Farmer's Wife is complimented that so many of you noticed that my column did not appear in last Sunday's paper. Several called to ask if I were sick and others wanted to know if I had retired. No, to both questions. As you probably noticed, there just wasn't room to squeeze it in, and even in Thursday's edition the editor had to cut it short.

That boy Weldon Callaway is really on the ball and bringing home the bacon (ads, I mean) and just in case you don't already know it, ads are what makes the "mule go" in the newspaper business.

Weldon declares he doesn't appreciate this column and if I didn't know him so well, I would be inclined to think he is attempting to "crowd me out." If things get too serious, I may just have to get a sponsor.

Who is it that is not glad when fall arrives and we begin to harvest the crops? Everybody except the school teacher and do you know why? The Harvest season in the West Texas area really places a hardship on the school systems.

For example, in the fourth grade alone at Meadow, there were 47 pupils enrolled Friday. Monday morning there may be 57 and by Wednesday still more. As Mexican families move into our county to gather the crops, more of their children will enter school.

Last year I substituted for the teachers in Meadow grade school and I know from experience of what I speak. This problem is not only annoying but it is serious. In the first place, 47 children in one room all day is unhealthy. And in the second place, no teacher can expect to do more than keep order—if they do that, they are doing well.

The Latin children are usually disturbed and attempt to congregate. Most of them speak English but among themselves they speak their own language. It is difficult to hold their attention for any length of time. Tomorrow they may move and that means another new school. All Latin children enjoy art and are usually good in arithmetic. It is amazing how well they read since many of them do not understand enough English to know what they are reading. Indeed I am in sympathy with

Group Will Meet In New Church Edifice

The Church of the Living God will hold the first worship service today in the recently-completed building at 901 South Ninth with C. F. Neighbors directing the service.

Morning worship will begin at 10:30 a.m. and evening services will be held at 7:30 p.m.

The group, organized a month ago, has been meeting in homes of members while awaiting completion of the building.

the Latin child.

And indeed I am in sympathy with the parents of children who need and deserve the attention of the teacher who's salary they help pay. (I suppose you got a pink slip from Mr. Akers this week telling you how much should contribute by way of school taxes.)

Any child who does not get a good foundation in the lower grades is handicapped for the rest of his school years. Since this particular problem seems to affect the first five grades the most, it is not hard to see what damage is being done to our children.

I don't know what could be done about it, but I do know that the Texas school laws should provide some solution for the Latin labor rush on our west Texas schools.

As it now stands, it is not fair to the teacher; it is not fair to the Latin child; and certainly it is not fair to our own children who live here, attend school regularly, and want to learn.

Well... the World Series is history, and I'm glad the Braves won. For one thing, I think it does everybody good to lose a battle every once in a while.

Harvest Coffee Held Thursday Morning

A traditional fall harvest theme was carried out in the decor used at the annual Alpha Omega Harvest Coffee held at the Seleta Jane Brownfield Clubhouse Thursday morning.

The serving table was laid with a brown linen cloth, centered with an arrangement of fall flowers and berries. Mrs. Curtis Sterling presided at the coffee service.

Winner of the silver service offered by the organization as a door prize was Mrs. Charles Kersh.

Mrs. Tommy Hicks greeted guests who attended during the Brownfield residents who were among the 2,000 persons attending the Norman Corwin, dramatization of the Lincoln-Douglas debates, "The Rivalry", presented in the Lubbock Civic Auditorium, last Wednesday evening were, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baumgardner, J. O. Gillham, Earl Jones, Ben Monnett and Mrs. Tom May.

Ever hear about Jose, the little man from Mexico who won a trip to the United States to see the World Series. Upon arriving here, he found he had no reservation, and so a seat was made for him at the top of the flagpole in centerfield.

When he returned home, naturally all of his friends wanted a report of his experiences here in the States. He said: "Here in Mexico, I am Jose. I am nobody. But in the United States, I am somebody."

"They were very concerned that I should see the game. Each day all the people stood and saluted me at the top of the flagpole, and they all said, 'Jose, can you see?' In Mexico I am nothing. In the United States, yes."

Orders for Tickets To Circus Accepted

Mail orders are now being accepted at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum for Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus performances on November 11, 12, and 13. "The Greatest Show on Earth" will play five performances, showing on Nov. 11 and 12 at 3:30 and 8:00 p.m. and on Nov. 13 at 4 p.m.

The big show no longer plays under tents, but instead in major or large arenas and outdoor grandstands. This will be the first time that a Circus has played the Lubbock Coliseum. In place of sawdust the show will play on a foam rubber surface.

The four production numbers this year are "The Coronation of Mother Goose," "Cherry Blossom Time," "Saratoga Racing Ball of 1913" and "Carnival in Venezuela." In all there are twenty-five displays and acts.

The show to be seen in Lubbock is the same one that earlier this year played New York's Madison Square. In New York the top price was $6.50, but the Coliseum has announced that the top price for Lubbock will be $3.60. Other prices are $3.00, $2.40 and $1.80. Children will be admitted at half price to any section at afternoon shows only. Night prices are the same for adults and children.

Mail orders are filled in the order they are received at the Lubbock Coliseum, 90 City Hall, Lubbock, Texas. Patrons sending orders should enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope or 25¢ for handling charge.

ORDERLY EXIT — Brownfield school children observed National Fire Prevention Week by participating in fire drills. This group—Mrs. James G. Bragg's fifth grade class at West Ward—participated as the school was emptied in 1:05 minutes. There was an average of nine school fires per day across the United States. Texas fire losses totaled almost $1 million in 1953, the last records available. (BHSfoto)

Easter Seal Group Sets Convention at Galveston

Marking completion of two decades of volunteer service to crippled Texans, members of the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults in all parts of the state are preparing to converge on Galveston for the Easter Seal organization's 20th annual convention, October 18-19.

"New trends in all phases of service to the crippled will keynote the 1957 state meet," said Euclid Hudson, Port Arthur civic leader and TSCCA president.

"While we share the public pride and pleasure over the great advances made recently in aids for the crippled, especially during the past 10 years in which 21 Easter Seal treatment centers have been established in Texas, we are confident that new knowledge and new techniques hold vastly more promise for the crippled in the 10 years now opening before us," said Hudson.

The hundreds of parents, members of the medical and educational professionals, welfare and volunteer workers, students and others interested in the handicapped who attend the annual TSCCA meet will hear of recent progress against crippling conditions from an impressive array of national and state leaders in the battle.

Dr. Irving S. Cooper, assistant professor or neurosurgery at New York University and originator of a new brain operation which holds great hope for many victims of cerebral palsy, will be a featured speaker at the convention.

The story of Dr. Cooper's process and what it may mean for CP sufferers was first told

Hello Everyone:
We wonder why everyone looked so sad around W. H. S. this week. Confidentially we think it was because Mr. Six-Weeks Test visited us for the first time this year. But if you think everyone looks solemn this week, just wait until next week when the grades start rolling in!

The Wildcat Pep Squad again put on a good performance Thursday night when Wellman played Union at Wildcat Stadium. When they play Pettit here Friday night they will have a special attraction, Miss Maxine Green, will perform at the half. Come on boys, we need a victory.

At assembly last Thursday Dave Workman put on a program for Wellman School. He played the "Pageant of the Bells," "Jazz on the Baritone," "Cercero of the Cow Bells," and the "Thistle Whistle Solo." It was different, as well as interesting, and everyone enjoyed it very much.

Bill Adams and Kenneth Taylor went to Brownfield last week to sell ads for the annual. Carroll Parker went to Lubbock Saturday to see his Granddad.

Clyde Bolen and Ray Sansing went to Lovington over the weekend.

The Juniors, who sold the most ads received their prizes Wednesday, Sept. 9.

The annuals are going to be sold for $3 this year, but they will go up to $3.50 after Christmas. So you had better hurry and buy one now.

School will be dismissed October 17, for the Harvest Festival at Brownfield.

We are very sorry to hear about Bette Brubaker, who is in the Hospital at Brownfield, recovering from an appendectomy. Get well soon Bette!

The F. H. A. boys were initiated Monday night, October 7. How was the initiating boys?

We are happy that Jerry Carmichael made such good grades in English at Texas University on his placement test. He is exempt from two freshman English courses.

DOINGS IN ELEMENTARY
Glorea Stevens, a second grader, has a birthday this week.

The second graders are studying the duties of a policeman. Mrs. Daugherty took them to see a film and afterwards they drew pictures.

11 MILLION MEMBERS SOUGHT FOR 1957-58 SCHOOL YEAR

October is Parent-Teacher Membership Enrollment Month

The Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, which welcomes newcomers throughout the year, will extend a special invitation in October which, by tradition and proclamation of Governor Price Daniel, has been designated as Parent-Teacher Membership Enrollment Month.

Local units throughout the state, with a present membership of 607,544, will seek to recruit others to a program of concern for all that affects the happiness of the child in home, school and community.

Membership enrollment month in Texas is scheduled to coincide with the general observance of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Already the largest voluntary service organization in the world, the National Congress hopes to reach a membership of eleven million for the 1957-58 school year. State activities are being guided by Mrs. W. D. deGrass of Amarillo, state president, and Mrs. L. P. Shafer of Tornillo, state membership chairman.

Figuratively knocking on every door with an invitation to membership, the Texas Congress will respond to the following proclamation by Governor Daniel:

"On Oct. 19, 1909, a distinguished organization, now known as the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, was founded in this state; its aim was, and is, 'to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community.'

"Since the call of that first memorable meeting, hundreds of thousands of men and women over the state have joined hands each year to carry on the Congress program. More than 600,000 were enrolled in Texas last year.

"Few, if any, other organized groups have enjoyed such

'I Now Declare This Church To Be Open'—Bishop Martin

Bishop William C. Martin will direct consecration services for First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the sanctuary.

The program is as follows:
Prelude.
Processional—“Holy, Holy, Holy.”
Hymn No. 2—“Come, Thou Almighty King.”
Call To Worship—The Rev. James E. Tidwell. Invocation—The Rev. Dallas D. Denison. Lord's Prayer (congregation).

Responsive Psalm—Fifty-second Sunday, pp. 621—The Rev. H. L. Thurston.
Gloria Patri (congregation).
Scripture Lesson.
Declaration—Bishop William C. Martin.

In the name of God and in the presence of this congregation, I now declare this Church to be open for the worship of God and the service of men. May it be a house of prayer for all people. Upon you as a congregation there rests the solemn responsibility to see to it that all liability of a financial character resting upon this property be speedily lifted so that this Church may be dedicated to God in the name of the father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Let us join in an act of consecration to God and His Church.

Responsive prayer (Let the people bow).
Minister: Almighty and everlasting God, in Communion with the saints in all ages, and remembering the heritage that has been given us, we offer Thee our praise and thanksgiving.

People: O Lord, hear our prayer.
Minister: Help us to accept the privilege and responsibility of this fellowship of faith; here may we keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.

People: So may we fulfill the law of love.
Minister: Enable us, Thy grace, to dedicate ourselves this day to the great task which Thou dost lay upon our hearts and consciences.
People: In all that we do, be Thou, O Lord, our strength and help.

Minister: Reveal to us the beauty of Thy perfect law, the joy of our living Lord, so that with glad hearts we may move forward in paths of high devotion and great achievement.

People: Be Thou, O Lord our guide and help forevermore. Amen.

Prayer of consecration—Bishop William C. Martin.
Anthem—“The King of Love My Shepherd Is”—Choir.
Worship in Tithes And Offerings.
Offertory.
Baptism of Infants—Bishop William C. Martin.
Words of Consecration.
Minister: Having been prospered by the good hand of the Lord, our God, and being ever mindful of our duty as stewards of the talents that He has entrusted to us,
People: With joyous and grateful hearts we consecrate this House to our God, who has loved us, and has blessed us, and led us thus far in the completion of our cherished task.

Minister: Believing in God our Father, in whom we live and move and have our being, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift,
People: We consecrate this house to His worship, and to the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Minister: “Knowing that there is none other name under Heaven, given among men, whereby we must be saved.”
People: We consecrate this Church to Evangelism; to the bringing of the saving knowledge of our Lord and Master to the unconverted.

Minister: In obedience to the command that has been given to us to go into all the world and make disciples of all nations,
People: We consecrate this house to the worldwide program of the Christian Church, till all the Kingdoms of the world become the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

Minister: Realizing the obligation to bring up our children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord,

People: We consecrate this church to the purposes of Christian education, that the boys and girls of this and coming generations may here study God's word, make confession of Christ, and be led into the paths of purity and usefulness.

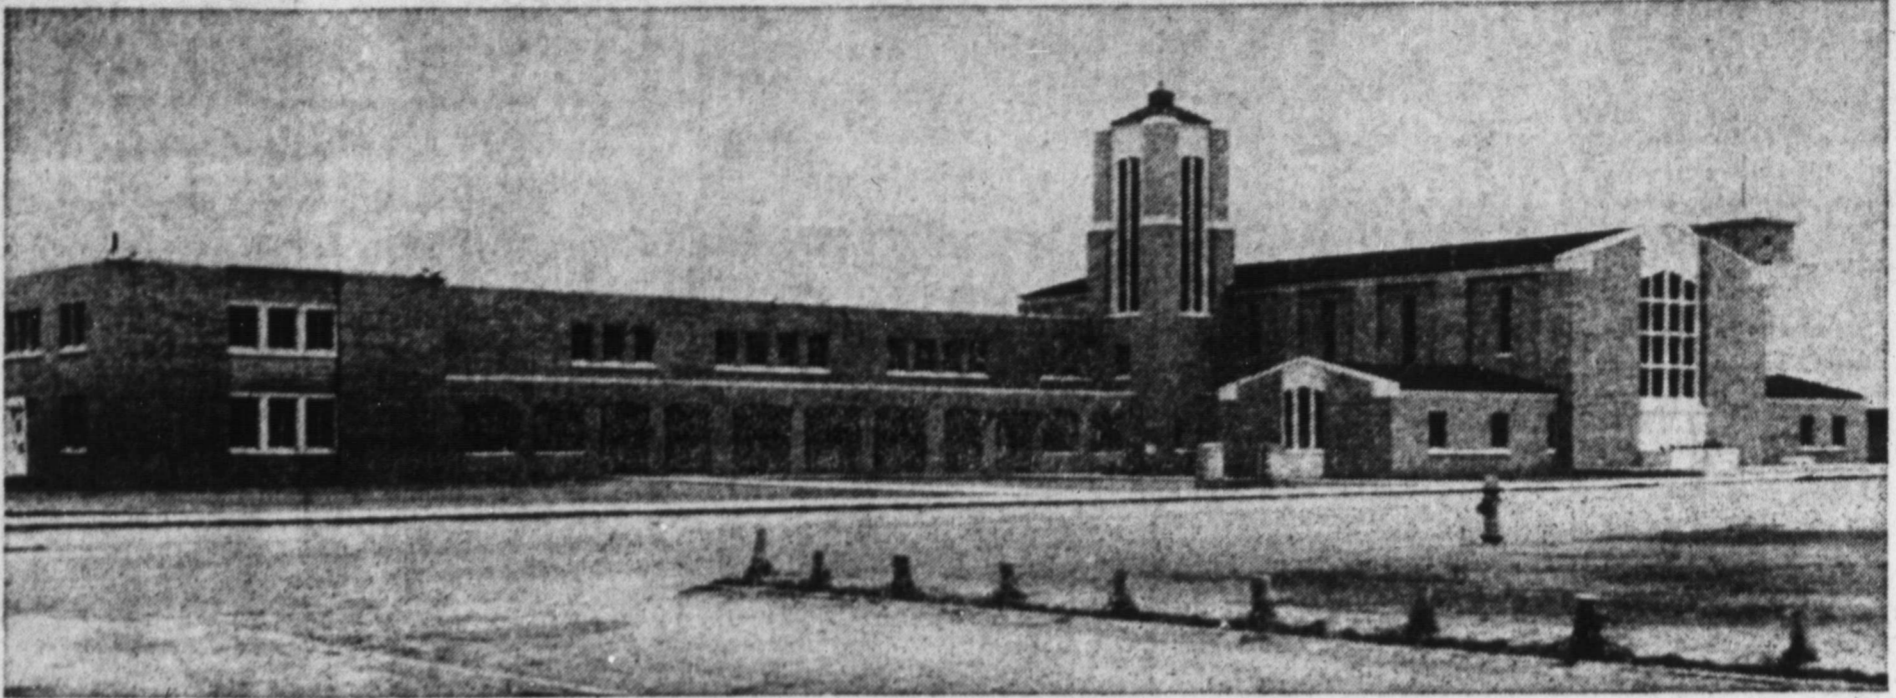

Minister: In accordance with the commandment of Christ that we love our neighbors as ourselves,
People: We consecrate this building to the service of Christian fellowship, to the promotion of the brotherhood of all men.

Minister and People: And unto Thee, our God, we, the people of this church and congregation and all those who are here met with us, do consecrate ourselves anew, beseeching Thee that Thou wilt not leave us; that Thou wilt incline our hearts unto Thee, to walk in Thy truth, and to keep Thy commandments all the days of our lives, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Sermon—Bishop William C. Martin.
Hymn No. 557—“God Be With You.”
Benediction—Dr. Vernon N. Henderson.
Postlude.

First Methodist Progresses From One-Room School House To $300,000 Edifice in 52 Years; Membership Is Now 800

"From a one-room school house to a $300,000 church edifice in 52 years" might well summarize the story of the success of First Methodist Church in Brownfield as they observe a service of consecration Monday evening.

Bishop William C. Martin of Dallas, bishop of the Northwest Texas and North Texas conferences of the Methodist Church, will officiate at the service in which the building will be consecrated to the furthering of the work of God in this community and the world.

Visitors and participants in the consecration service and open house will be reminded as they view the imposing structure at 1004 East Broadway that it is the reward of the labors of many, from the first 12 charter members in 1924 to the 800 members now on the church rolls.

Those first members met with the Rev. J. A. Sweeney who was sent to Brownfield to organize a Methodist church in 1924. During the next several years the fast-growing congregation purchased the school building that had served as their church home, added a bell tower and moved it to the site of the present Masonic Temple. In 1928 the first resident pastor, the Rev. P. E. Riley, was assigned.

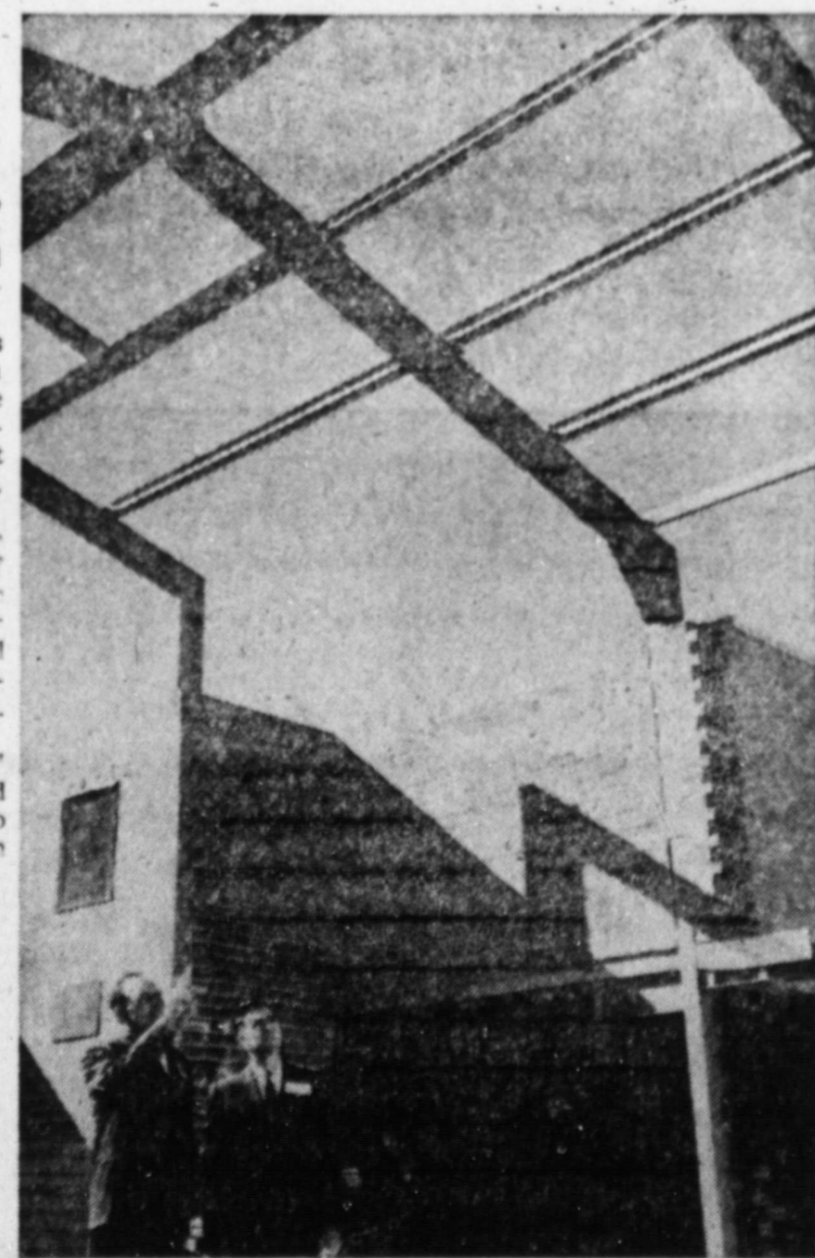

Growth in the congregation necessitated the erection of another building in 1924, while the Rev. J. W. Watson was minister. The educational building was added later under the pastorate of the Rev. H. Hanks.

Early in 1953 a group building ceremony initiated construction of the structure to be consecrated Monday. Soon for a 24-hour period as they moved the pulpit and Bible as symbols of the spirit of the church into their modern building.

Fellowship Hall, the auditorium on the east end of the educational unit, served as the sanctuary until the present one was completed earlier this year, and the first worshiped the moving of the church into its new building that year, when the educational plant was completed. Members gathered in the old church building at 7 a.m. Sunday morning on the anniversary of their 50th year, and held a continuous vigil

The present plant contains classrooms, offices, a kitchen, Fellowship Hall and the recently completed sanctuary, which seats 750 persons.

IN 1955 — The duo above looks above to the unroofed sanctuary of First Methodist. They're R. J. Purtell, left, and John J. Kendrick. The completed First Methodist will be consecrated at 7:30 p.m., Monday.

VETERAN—Pictured above is R. J. Purtell, veteran of many years of service in First Methodist Church. He currently is superintendent of the Sunday School Department, and has served as trustee and steward for several years.

Brownfield District Has Rapid Progress; Superintendent Goes To Amarillo Church

At the annual session of Northwest Texas Conference in June 1952, authorization was given to form a new district of the following counties:

Terry, Hockley, Cochran, Yoakum, Lynn and Gaines, in addition to parts of Lamb, Bailey and Dawson. The territory was to comprise 27 pastoral charges of 34 churches, with total church membership of more than 8,000. It was known as Brownfield District.

Brownfield was designated as headquarters of the district, and the Rev. Vernon N. Henderson was named first district superintendent, coming to the district from Phillips.

The Rev. Mr. Henderson will become pastor on Nov. 1 of San Jacinto Methodist Church in Amarillo, succeeding the late Dr. Orrin W. Carter.

The Rev. Dallas D. Denison was appointed to the position of superintendent of Brownfield District.

On June 18, 1952, a called session of the Brownfield District met in First Methodist Church in Brownfield, at which time a board of trustees was named, in addition to six other required officials.

Initial act of the board was to buy the John Portwood house at 604 East Tate as the residence for the superintendent. Hobart Lewis, formerly of Brownfield and now of Spur, was the first district lay leader, and J. O. Gillham of Brownfield was an associate district lay leader.

Mrs. Thomas Burrows of Seminole was the first president of the district.

REV. VERNON HENDERSON

Society of Christian Service, and Miss Grovenda Coleman of Wilson was the first president of the District Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The first five years of Brownfield District revealed that the organization of a district in this area was well advised, because progress has been made in all departments of the church life.

The following congregations have constructed new sanctuaries during the period: Brownfield, First Church and Parkview, and at Amherst, Bledsoe and Whiteface. New educational buildings have been erected by Brownfield's First Church, and at Plains, Morton, Amherst and Denver City.

New parsonages have been erected at Seagraves, Wellman, and Wilson.

ALONZO J. BETTY

Alonzo J. Betty Did Not See Completion Of First Methodist

Builder of new First Methodist Church was Alonzo J. Betty, who died last May, before the structure was complete.

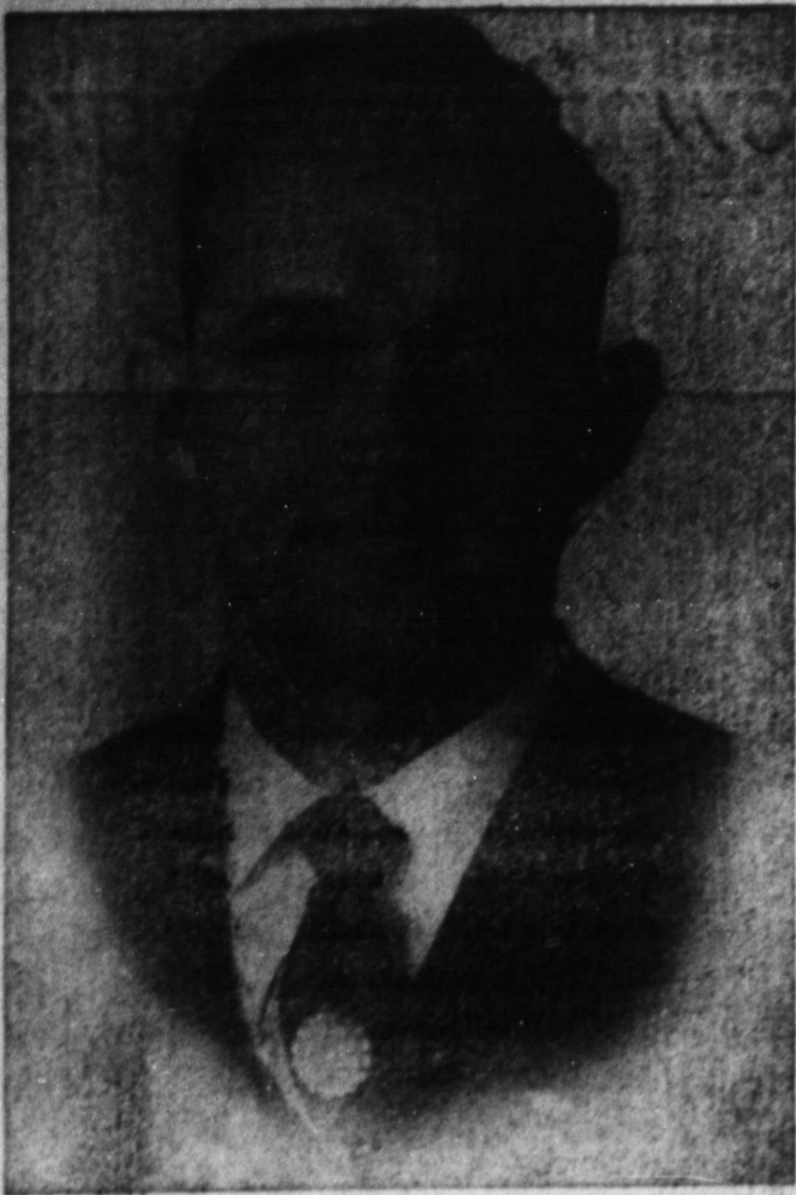

Betty, a native of Crestline, Kan., had lived in Colorado Springs, Colo., since 1924. Until his death, he was an active contractor and builder. He took great pride in building churches, and the church here was the last of six which he erected in Texas.

Betty is survived by his wife, Mrs. Charlie Betty; one daughter, Miss Joyce Betty, and four brothers. A son, Alonzo Jr., was killed in World War II.

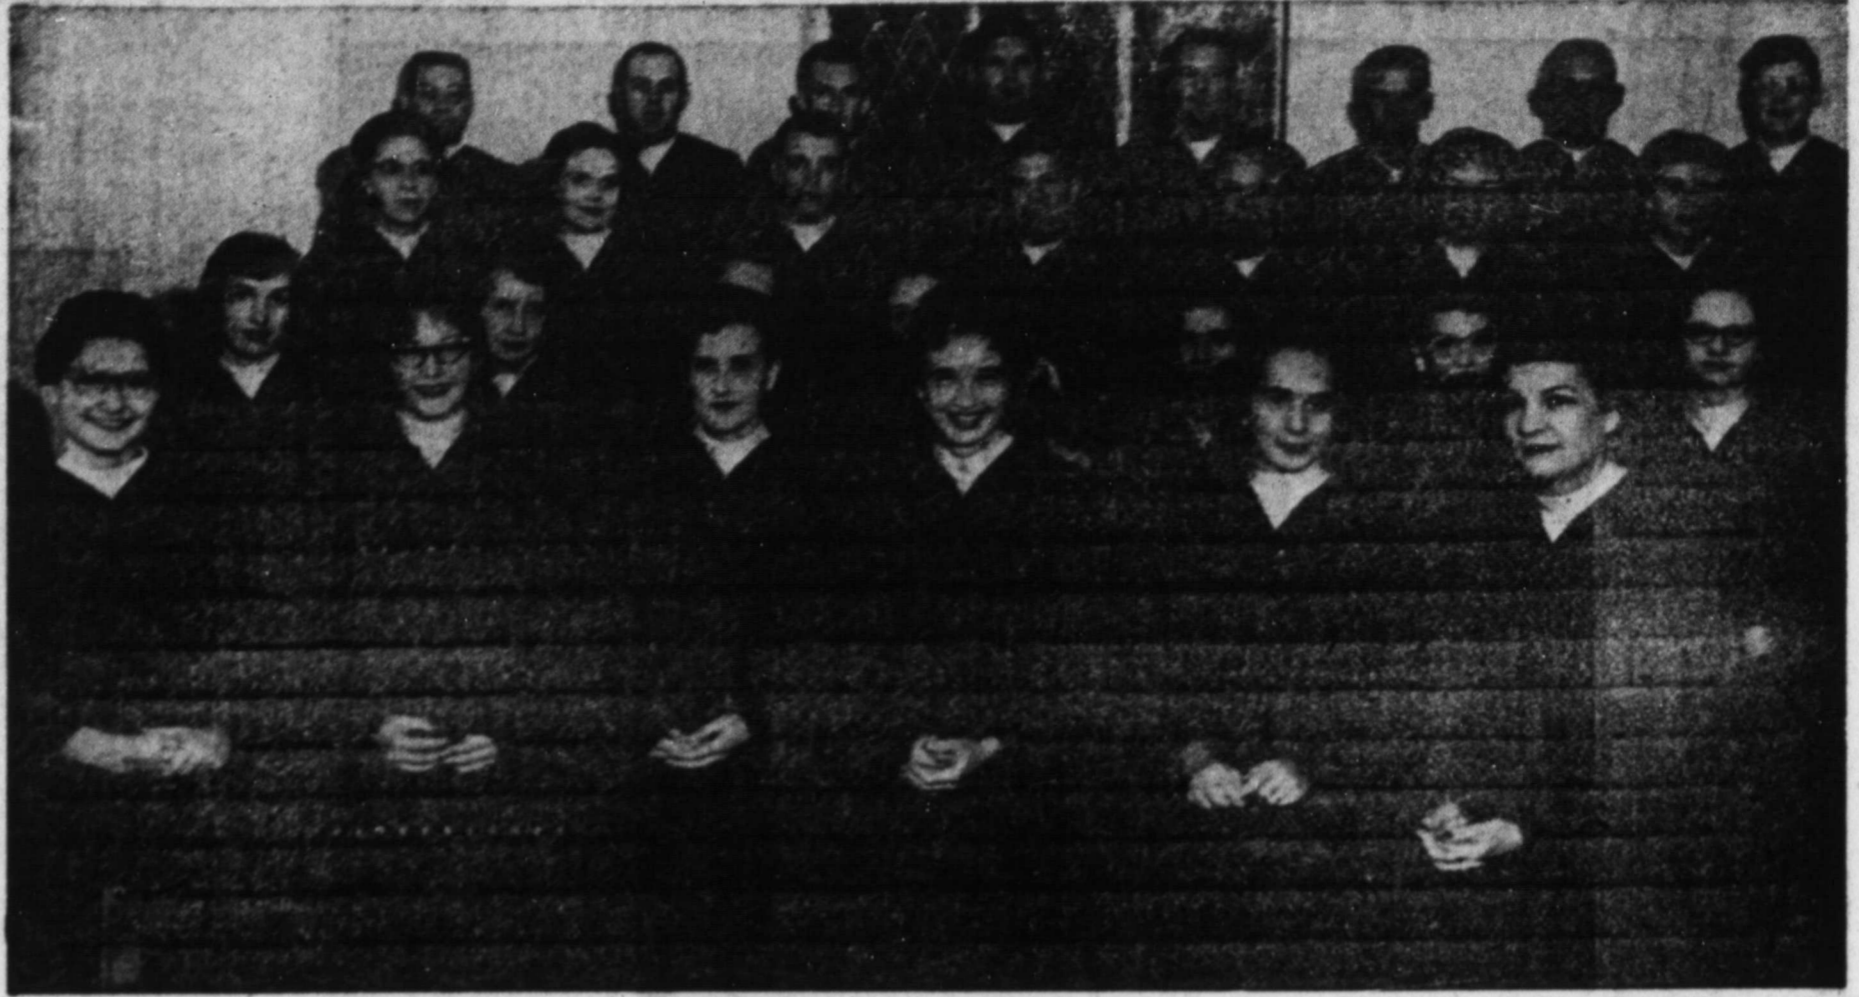

Betty was a member for many years of Colorado Spring Lodge 104, AF&AM.

To our members and many friends:

This is a day in which we are challenged to be a part of a great church. Churches are made great, not by their members, nor spires, nor simply by a marvelous heritage, but by the people of God who open up their hearts and lift up their hands to meet the challenge of their day. The First Methodist Church of Brownfield is such a church, and I am proud to be a part of it in this opportune hour of its history.

I want to commend our Official Board and building committee for their vision, outstanding leadership, and many hours of work to make this day a reality. Also to the loyal church members who have cooperated with these men, we want to express our gratitude. We know the First Methodist Church is a great church, not because she has had many trials in former years, but because she has come through these trials with an unbroken spirit. This gives us courage as we meet the present challenge without reserve. We know it has been done because "God is with us," and "with Him all things are possible."

The desire in the hearts of man to worship God is native to all mankind. In all ages men have sought to build an altar, a place where heaven and earth meet, a place where men meet God. We sought to build such a place in our new sanctuary. May we have more of the love of God, who is our Father, and of His Son, and the presence of the holy Spirit to lead us to an hour of victory, in His name.

Your pastor,
James E. Tidwell

Afterthought . . .

I'm glad I went to church today;
 I'm glad I took the time away.
 From life's concerns and clamoring stress
 To worship there is quietness
 To let material thoughts take wings,
 And set my mind on spiritual things;
 To worship, meditate, and pray—
 I'm glad I went to church today.

What Is Charity?

"It's silence when your words would hurt.
It's patience when your neighbor's hurt.
It's deafness when a scandal flows.
It's thoughtfulness for other's woes.
It's promptness when stern duty calls.
It's courage when misfortune falls."
