Brownfield Rainbow Girls Will Feed You Breakfast on Wednesday!

C-C Banquet, A Fine Get-Acquainted Vehicle, To Attract Some 400 Guests

The 1957-58 directors of Brownfield Chamber of Commerce expect to greet and seat some 400 guests at the organization's banquet, 7 p.m., Tuesday in Junior High School cafeteria.

The annual event has attracted more Brownfield and out-of-town guests each year, and has proved to be a fine vehicle for presenting the chamber to the city and to its members.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Frank Junell, vice president of Citizens National Bank at Lubbock.

Other speakers for past C-C banquets have been (1956) Dr. E. N. Jones, at that time vice president and now president of Texas Tech; (1951) Fred Husbands, then and now executive vice president of West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Abilene; and (1952) John Ben Shepperd, then Texas secretary of state; (1953) Boyce House, famed Texas author-humorist; (1954) Charles Karsakoff of Washington, D. C., world traveler and humorist; (1955) Dr. Gaston Foote, pastor of First Methodist Church at Fort Worth; (1956) Dr. Alexander J. Stoddard, retired superintendent of Los Angeles public school, and (1957) Will Wilson, Texas attorney general.

Although he assumed office in early January, Dennis O. Lilly, vice president of First National Bank, will be presented to the guests Tuesday as the chamber's 1958 president, succeeding J. L. (Dusty) Kemper.

The C-C directors for this year are Charlie Price, Sammy Jones, Coleman Williams, Lal Copeland, O. R. Douglas, Charles Kersh, Earl Jones, D. L. (Dip) Pemberton, Curtis Sterling, John Hansard, Burton Hackney, C. E. Ross and V. L. (Pat) Patterson.

Retiring directors who will be recognized Tuesday are Morgan Copeland, George O'Neal, Cliff Jones, Myron Fenton and J. T. Hoy. Manager of the Brownfield chamber is Joe Satterwhite, and secretary, Miss Nancy King.

Tickets to the Feb. 11 banquet — probably the year's dressiest social event—are on sale now. Price: $2.50 each, and they may be bought at the cafeteria door. C-C members also are selling the ducats now.

Tuesday menu: baked hen and dressing, with gravy, candied yams, English peas, cranberry salad, hotroll s, butter, cherry pie, coffee or tea.

Junell was born in 1914 at Sulphur Springs, and was graduated from Abilene High School and the University of Missouri at Columbia.

RE: QUOTES

Letter For The Editor

Editor, Brownfield NEWS:

It was never the intention of this writer to speak FOR the various organizations which were invited to have a representative at the last meeting of the School Board (Jan. 27 as herein meant).

A citizens committee wanted some answers about what, if any, long-range planning had been done for our schools, and a representative from various organizations which would be interested was invited to hear the discussion—just as a representative of the newspaper was invited.

After the article came out in the paper (NEWS edition of Jan. 26) quoting my thoughts, I wondered if someone would interpret that I was speaking for the various organizations.

I called the reporter who wrote the story the next day to tell him that he had misunderstood my intention and must be glad to have the newspaper print what retraction it thought was necessary.

However, I didn't see in the paper where any mention was made that I called.

Again, let me say that I never had any intention of speaking FOR any organization. I believe all peoples should be interested in long-range planning for our schools instead of piecemeal patch-up.

If every person would think for himself, I believe he could see the fallacy in spending little over half as much for educational facilities as for athletic facilities. Shouldn't the ratio be the other way? Is this what is wrong with our schools today?

CEC Names Committees

D. L. (Dip) Pemberton of 1104 East Buckley Thursday was elected president of the Citizens Educational Committee at an organization meeting in 106th District Courtroom.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Jack Bendler of 1316 East Reppito, vice president, and Mrs. Don Hewitt of 1197 East Buckley, secretary.

Pemberton urged some 35 persons attending the meeting to take part in an investigation of the school system. "We need to get some facts together to present to the school board," he said.

The group also set up four standing committees to begin study in the near future. Committees include curriculum, academic facilities, athletic facilities and school zoning. Pemberton said he will name committee members before the next meeting of the group.

School Expansion Will Be Voted On Tuesday

By CHARLIE MAPLE
NEWS Staff Writer

Brownfield-voters will have their first opportunity to use their new poll tax receipt when they ballot for or against a proposed $300,000 classrooms and athletic plant expansion here Tuesday.

Only one ballot box, located in the county school superintendent's office in the courthouse, will be available for the election. Normal voting hours, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., will be observed.

The ballot will include three propositions.

Proposal No. 1 deals with the bonds' submission under Senate Bill 116 of the 55th Legislature. This proposal must be approved if the other two proposals are approved.

Proposal No. 2 deals with the issuance of $110,000 worth of bonds for adding eight classrooms to Colonial Heights School.

Proposal No. 3 concerns the issuance of $190,000 worth of bonds for a new athletic plant at the northeast edge of Brownfield.

Possible confusion may arise on the first proposition, which quotes Article 2784e-1 of Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes instead of SB 116, said O. R. Douglas, Brownfield school superintendent.

The proposition, designed to save the district money by putting the bonds in a more favorable bond market, must be approved if either or both of the other propositions are approved.

"If proposition 1 is disapproved and either of both of the others are approved, all three are disapproved," said Douglas.

The superintendent said SB 116 (Article 2784e-1) allows trustees to adjust the tax rate to meet bond payments without re-evaluating city property. "Under this bill we are sure we can sell the bonds at 25 per cent lower interest rate than under the old law," he said.

Poll Tax Receipts
Douglas reported more than 280 elections have been held under SB 116 since its passage in the 55th Legislature. Some of the South Plains school districts which have used the provision are Lubbock, Plainview, Hale Center, Big Spring, Lamesa, Idalou, Ballis and Crosbyton, he revealed.

J. D. (Jot) Akers, county tax assessor-collector, advised voters to present their 1958 poll tax receipt or exemption when they vote. "We will attempt to compile our poll tax roster by Tuesday," he said. "However, voters should present their receipt in the event the roster is not ready by then."

Douglas also noted that voters must be property owners to ballot in this election. "Taxable property must be on the district's rolls before a person is eligible to vote," he said.

Jim Miller, Buddy Teague and Leonard Ellington have been named to judge the election.

A BROWNFIELD NEWS EDITORIAL

School Bonds Result of Sincere Efforts; Rate Approval Tuesday

Arguments for and against the expansion of Brownfield school system's athletic facilities at this time appear to be mounting.

And . . . the time is here — so we are told quite volubly — that the citizen who has not declared himself is being just plain onerous, the NEWS being no exception.

We definitely do approve both bond issues, namely, $110,000 for classrooms and $190,000 for athletic plant. (Either or both may be approved or disapproved at the polls Tuesday, you know.)

The basis of our thinking? Well . . . what with Sputniks 1 and 2, the high cost of living, the struggle to pay the bills, fighting off this week's cold, and merely going about the daily routine of earning a living—why, we're much content to give the OK sign to a group of able trustees and administrators who are trying to cope with our school problems.

We don't feel that we have the background, experience and knowledge which come from long and serious study of the situation to let us oppose in any way the planned athletic system.

Excellent points have been brought out in the many arguments for and against the issue, points which hardly can be denied. And yet, in the face of our immaturity and lack of knowledge concerning the issue, we confidently repose our trust in the school board.

We are deeply aware that the ever-rocky road to education is becoming more so in the American way of life and that the problems encountered in Brownfield schools are no exception.

We see our American system of education as being on the first, wavering steps toward major changes, both in principles and philosophies and in practice.

We do urge that our citizenry express itself at the polls next Tuesday and again in April, when three school trustees will be elected. Only in this way can the majority of us make the decisions for all of us.

Is there any other way?

New Grasses and Legumes Must Stand Rigid Tests Before They Can Be Accepted For Important Roles in Soil District

By MORRIS FARROW
Soil Conservationist

New grasses and legumes must stand rigid tests of performance in Terry Soil Conservation District before they can be accepted fully to pay an important role in the all-out fight for soil and water conservation.

Just as individuals must prove their worth and dependability before they are assigned to positions of trust and responsibility, a plant also must prove its worth in the fight against soil and water losses.

Additionally, plants must prove their ability to fit into the cropping system or the grassland economy of the district.

It might be considered that a grass or legume is on trial for its life. High praise and claims made for a plant in another locality may mean little here.

The newcomer must prove adequate under local conditions. It must be valuable in fighting erosion losses and must be a profitable plant to grow, fitting into the general plan of operations.

Farmers, ranchers and agricultural workers in TSCD have watched the performance of many new grasses and legumes in an effort to evaluate their adaptability to the district.

Some new plants have been tried and proven valuable. Others have failed to live up to the claims made for them. Still others are on trial now to see if they will be accepted or rejected and forgotten.

Have Stood Test

Among plants under observation now are Sorghum Alum, Perennial Sweet Sudangrass and Coastal Bermudagrass. Though many claims have been made concerning these plants' good qualities, many questions remain to be answered.

Weeping Lovegrass, Vetch, Winter Peas and Blue Panicum already have stood the test and are considered to be highly valuable in erosion control here.

Other highly acceptable plants include Switchgrass, sandlovergrass, Little Bluestem and Indiangrass. Each is capable of fitting into a coordinated soil, plant and water conservation program adaptable to the needs of any farm or ranch in TSCD.

New plants are being introduced to this area annually as farmers, ranchers and soil conservation men attempt to find a better plant to control water and wind erosion.

The search for newer and better plants will go on as long as man is dependent upon soil, water and plants for his existence.

Cubs Drop 75-62 Tilt To Andrews; Out Of Crown Contention

Despite a strong bid in the first two periods, the Cubs fell before a hot-shooting Andrews quintet, 75-62, in a District 2-AAA contest here Friday night.

The loss eliminated Brownfield from title contention and stamped the Ponies as favorites for the crown.

The Cubs jumped to a 6-0 lead in the first minute and one-half with the aid of a tip-off crisp shot by Andrews' Roy Perrin. The home team held their lead until the final two minutes, when Perrin connected on three successive shots to take a 14-12 lead with one minute to play.

Gordon Whitworth cashed in on two gratis pitches to give the Cubes a 16-12 lead before David Ivey countered with a tip in shot.

Andrews added two points to their margin in the second period to take a 33-29 lead at the half. A 23-point spurge the third frame moved the Ponies out to a 10-point, 54-46, lead at the three-quarter mark.

Kenneth Cason kept the Cubs in striking distance the final period before he fouled out mid-way in the quarter.

Andrews hit a sizzling 57 per cent of their shots from the field the first half and 44 per cent the final 16 minutes to outdistance the Cubs' 27 and 30 per cent.

In the "B" game, Brownfield edged the visitors, 49-44, led by Leon Clark and John Eldon Jones.

Which colors do you choose for your automobile, your clothes, your home furnishings? To an expert's eye, your taste in colors tells what kind of person you are.

Psychologists delve deep into people's color preferences nowadays. Recent discoveries show that a person's innermost nature sometimes is shown by his choices of different hues and combinations.

Time was when the infant and even teenagers wore the delicate colors, pink, blue and orchids, for their Sunday best. In the last few years, the infant's wear has become acceptable in darker hues.

It is not uncommon to see the small tot diked out in dark brown, navy or black. I have not learned to like some of the modern day infant apparel. There is nothing prettier than snow white on the tiny baby—boy or girl—and I somehow feel a little remorseful when mothers put pants on the little boys by the time they go home from the hospital.

Now that I am getting older, I am glad that the woman reaching 40 is no longer expected to wear only navy, black or drab gray. I think red is a striking color for even the very old woman if she has the skin tones to wear it.

In short, the twentieth century has brought about a transformation in many things. People's taste for colors have changed—maybe not changed but they have become bolder and more at ease in expressing their choices.

Scientists drifted into this field of color research almost by chance. Dr. Felix Deutsch, famous physician, noticed that a change in the color of bedroom walls and furnishings often helped his patients get well. He found that different colors had different effects on their mood—even on their heartbeat and blood pressure. Some patients reacted well to one color, some to another.

Dr. Deutsch wrote of his discovery in a medical journal. Other scientists began experimenting. One psychoneurologist found that women who were troubled by dizziness got worse if they wore red dresses—but got better if they wore green or blue.

Still another doctor found that patients in an army hospital were helped by watching a flow of colored lights from a machine called an Auratone which he developed. The Auratone—soon became used widely in hospitals.

However, the doctors who tried color treatments noticed striking differences in the reactions of various patients. They found that these differences were symptoms of deep difference in character. Thus from this detection the now famous Rorschach inkblot test came into being.

I have taken the Rorschach test and it is very interesting, indeed. Sploches of various colors of ink, some large, some small, are splattered on paper. The person taking the test is asked to tell what he sees (if anything) from these spots.

Sometimes they may resemble a flower garden to one person while another may think the same picture portrays something quite different. Experts record the response and after a summation of all the given answers, psychologists are able to learn a great deal about one's personality.

Since the Rorschach test came into being, about 55 different tests have been used to analyze character through color. The results from these color tests are so complete that specialists in color psychology say that "Color preference is a clue to personality."

If you notice people often, you usually can figure out their real preference after a while. What colors do they wear around the house when company isn't expected?

What colors do they choose for pajamas, blankets, bathing suits? What colors keep turning up often in their neckties and sport shirts, or their handbags and scarves? The oftener they choose the same color, the more reliable it is as a guide.

I have a friend who most always chooses brown or tan. That's the colors she likes but there are many other colors which would be far more becoming to her skin. Another friend is building a new kitchen. She painted her walls flamingo red. They are very pretty but my own personality could never adjust to that particular color scheme.

Perhaps as one reaches maturity, his or her taste for colors change. I know when I first started keeping house, I liked the brighter, flashy colors in furnishings.

I mean I liked the pictures, since I started out almost 18 years ago and was not able to start as most of the young marrieds do today. Now I find that I really feel more comfortable with the plain, uncluttered type of surroundings—even in clothing. I choose more and more of gray, brown and tan and I really like them.

Next week I plan to bring a color test in this column and the analysis to your answers. For a sample: Visualize a drawing of two notebooks—one red, the other black. You are buying a notebook for addresses and phone numbers. Which of the two would you choose?

Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you. Happy birthday, George Jr. Henson, Happy birthday to you.

A total of 3,740 Terry residents will be eligible to vote in at least five city, county, state and national elections slated to be held this year, according to figures released this week by the tax assessor-collector's office.

The total, which includes 200 tax empotions, shows an increase of 1,223 over last year's mark.

"Apparently the approaching school bond issue brought a lot of the purchasers in," observed Mrs. Tommy Hamilton, deputy collector, "because sales jumped considerably when people began talking about the election."

"Screening of contestants will begin at that time in BHS Auditorium," said Lewis. "We must screen entries down to 40 acts to appear on the two-night program."

Contestants may register at the following places: Herb Chesshir, county judge's office; A. J. (Jake) Geron, City Hall; J. E. Smith, Smith Machinery; R. N. McClain, Brownfield State Bank; L. J. The "Fatfields," headed by Sheriff James Fulford, and the "Mulloys," headed by Ed Wilder, will be "feuding and fussing" the next two weeks to sell the most tickets to the annual affair, noted Lowery.

The president added that tickets may be purchased from any member of the Lions or at the door on show nights. Price of the ducaats is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Proceeds will go to Lions civic projects this year.

Healthy 25 Per Cent Increase Is Noted for TSCD Practices Last Year; Sound Financial Condition Recorded in Report

Conservation practices in Terry Soil Conservation District took a healthy 25 per cent jump during 1957, according to the annual report released this week by supervisors.

The addition of 55 new cooperators during the year pushed conservation program total to 47,783 acres here.

Highlights of the year's activity included the annual TSCD farm tour Sept. 19, and a visit by USDA officials in August.

Approximately 250 businessmen, farmers, students and other residents attended the tour which covered most of the county. Air-conditioned buses and a barbecue lunch were furnished by 15 Brownfield business firms interested in conservation work.

In August, national and state agricultural leaders made a stop to observe soil and crop conditions here in relation to the Great Plains Conservation program.

Included in the group were Ervin Peterson, assistant secretary of agriculture; Don Williams, administrator for Soil Conservation Service; H. N. Smith, Texas conservationist, and W. S. Goodlett, area conservationist. TSCD supervisors conducted a rapid tour of the district.

Supervisors pointed out proper land use still is a major problem here. However, they pointed out the Great Plains Conservation program and Soil Bank program should help solve the problem.

The district received a total of 24 inches of rain in 1957, compared to about 7 inches the year before. Large amounts of rain in October caused widespread crop damage and materially decreased quality and quantity of crops and farm income.

Other activities included furnishing 3,000 church bulletins and 40 books of sermons for Soil Stewardship week. Brownfield Ministerial Association cooperated and 15 churches participated in the event, said the supervisors.

A tour for district ministers was planned in conjunction with the observance, but bad weather forced its cancellation, they added.

TSCD also aided Brownfield vo-ag students set up a district land judging contest. Aid also is available to Boy Scouts working on soil and water conservation merit badges.

Supervisors expressed thanks to agencies, banks, businessmen and other individuals who have assisted the district during the past year. "Local businessmen have made radio time and newspaper space available for conservation news and activities," said Bruce Zorns, district chairman. "The Brownfield NEWS has been very cooperative in taking pictures and publishing news articles relating to TSCD."

Zorns noted that TSCD is in good financial condition. A condensed financial statement: Cash on hand, $5,189.32; trust fund balance, $503.33; total, $5,692.65; Rental equipment, $6,694.47; visual aid equipment, $1,231.33; less depreciation to Aug. 31, 1957, $4,480.97; total net worth, $9,137.48.

Conservation Practices
Cover crop — 11,333 acres. Crop residue use—25,133; Rotation hay and pasture — 2,069. Fertilization (Soil improvement crops) — 2,992. Sprinkler irrigation systems — 2,256. Soil improving crops (summer legumes)—4,000.

Four Tech Athletes Dropped by Grades

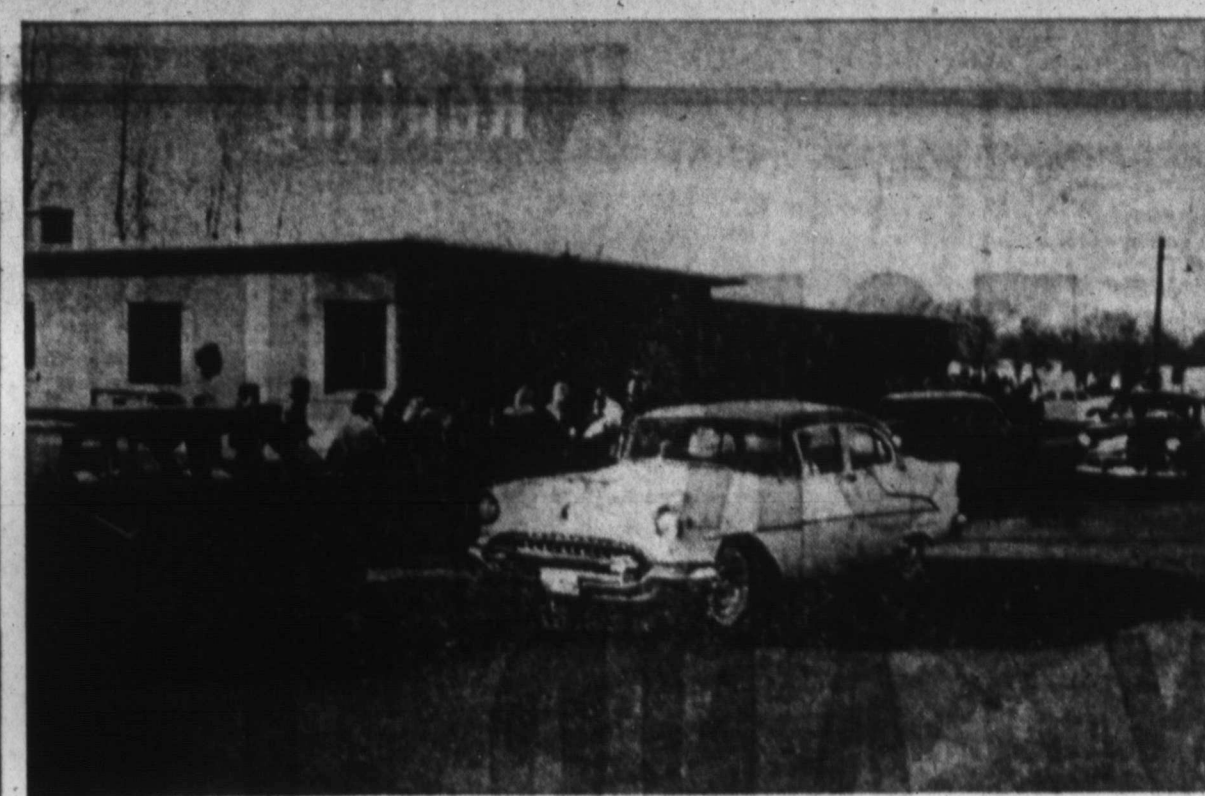

Four of Texas Tech's track and field men who placed in the freshmen division of the Southwest Conference meet last spring were mid-term scholastic casualties.

They included Charles Bode of Brady (first in the high hurdles, second in the lows), James Harvey of Sweetwater (third in the highs, fourth in the lows), Jan Percy of Sundown (on fifth place mile relay), and Bobby Cline of Belton (fourth in shot put).

Although Coach Delmer Brown's plans for a shuttle relay team will have to be scrapped, he still has Tommy Patterson of Waco, who set a new Southwest Conference record in the low hurdles and finished second in the highs.

Red Raiders' Chuck Key Shooting 61.5 Per Cent

Forward Chuck Key of Lubbock is averaging 61.5 per cent on his field goal attempts in Southwest Conference play for the Texas Tech Red Raiders. He has hit 8 of 13 attempts. Key's best night in conference games came in the 57-55 win over Georgia Tech, a head 37-32 at halftime. Southern Methodist turned the tables, winning 84-80 after trailing 35-30 at intermission.

SHOT DAY — Another immunization clinic of 667 persons received immunization shots will be held Wednesday at South Plains Health Unit from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. for persons who did not receive shots last week. A total of 667 persons received immunization shots Wednesday before vaccine supply was depleted. (NEWSfoto)

SECOND HALF NORMALLY TELLS THE TALE

Halftime Gap Apparently Means Little Where Raiders Concerned

Texas Tech basketball fans have learned not to give up too soon or to mentally chalk up a victory too quickly, regardless of the half-time score this season.

Actually, the Red Raiders' 57-55 victory over the Texas Aggies last week was only Tech's second triumph after overcoming a half-time deficit and the Raiders have lost only one such contest — but there's been many a slip between the intermission and the final buzzer in other contests.

A&M had a 34-28 lead. Tech's other second half comeback win was a 67-64 overtime triumph over Georgia Tech, a head 37-32 at halftime. Southern Methodist turned the tables, winning 84-80 after trailing 35-30 at intermission.

Leads Mean Little
Even the biggest halftime leads can mean nothing during the second period, Tech fans know. The Raiders had the SMU Mustangs on the run in the South West Conference tournament, leading by 16 points, 46-30, but SMU pulled even and the Raiders had to win on Pat Noakes's basket with 10 seconds remaining in the first overtime, 72-70.

Two tournament games later, it was Tech hopelessly behind by 16 to Arkansas, 40-24. The Razorbacks finally won by a scant four points, 71-67.

Even before that, Louisiana State seemed well out of the game at the half, trailing 40-28. But the Tigers pulled to within five points throughout the second period before losing 79-72. Santa Clara, behind by three-39-36, at halftime, rallied to lead as late as 58 seconds to play before sophomore Gene Arrington sank a long shot for Tech's final lead in a 68-67 victory.

For their part, Polk Robison's Raiders looked completely out of the running in Fayetteville when the Arkansas Razorbacks increased a three point, 31-28, halftime margin to seven points in a slow moving game. Tech rallied, however to gain a deadlock, 53-53, with only three minutes left before succumbing, 58-55.

Even two of Tech's apparently lop-sided victories — 83-70 over Texas Christian and 74-60 over Baylor — weren't that way during the hottest part of play. TCU pulled to within one point in the second half, and Baylor trailed by only four points just three minutes to play in the game.

Three Texas Tech Red Raiders are averaging in double figures in scoring—center Leon Hill of Sudan, 17.0; guard Gerald Myers of Borger, 15.5, and guard Charlie Lynch of Sudan 10.3. They have started all 15 games played by the Red Raiders.

A PLEA FOR THE YOUTH OF TODAY AND TOMORROW

Organized athletics in Brownfield under the supervision of technically trained and highly qualified coaches is facing a crisis in the Bond Election to be held Tuesday, Feb. 11th. Please consider the following facts:

I. Organized athletics has survived in our school district without bonded cost to the district.

II. Health conditions in the present field house are unsatisfactory.

III. The safety of spectators at athletic events, particularly on the visitors' side of the field, is endangered.

IV. We are training our younger ones in Little League baseball and then denying them facilities to further such participation when they enter High School.

V. We now have NO facilities for track and field events.

VI. The proposed plan, as a result of careful and intelligent planning, has the endorsement and support of the school administration and school board, true to the traditions of our representative form of government.

VII. The following public spirited organizations of our area have by their retractions appearing in a recent issue of the Brownfield News refused to oppose the athletic program:

ALL P.T.A. GROUPS IN BROWNFIELD
BROWNFIELD MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION
THE GIRL SCOUTS
THE FEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUBS

VIII. The proposed athletic improvement program, under the present evaluation schedule would only increase the average taxpayer's tax by approximately $3.75 per year.

IX. These proposals are presented under authority contained in SB 116. It will therefore be necessary to vote for such Legislative article as it appears on your ballot for either of the bond proposals to be approved.

Let's support our school district in its effort to provide adequate, safe, efficient facilities for our youth. Let's endorse the actions of our school board and rely upon their ability and judgment in their recommendations to us as taxpayers. They work tirelessly in the interests of our schools and can be relied upon to plan for the future development of our school system.

DURING THEIR 48th ANNIVERSARY YEAR

Boy Scouts Will Promote Safety

The Boy Scouts of America observes its 48th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, Friday through next Thursday, by launching a year-long, nationwide Good Turn.

The Safety Good Turn, undertaken at the suggestion of President Eisenhower, will find 4,700,000 boys and leaders engaged in promoting traffic safety, outdoor safety and home safety.

members, and in cooperation with other organizations, you can alert the public to the urgent need for reducing the tragic toll of accidents."

We congratulate the Boy Scouts on past achievements and wish them well as they undertake this great public service to the community, state and nation.

IT HELPS OCCASIONALLY

Check of Mental Status Urged

The average citizen of Terry County would not be hurt at all by a careful analysis of his or her mental status.

While most of us usually like to boast of our intelligence, the fact is that few of us ever try to do more than assert our opinions, many of which were picked up years ago and never tested since that time.

Seekers after truth, if such there be, should resolutely attempt to master the new facts that detailed research has revealed in all important lines of human thought. Philosophical inhabitants, if still conscious, should, it seems, reset their theories in order to conform to recently discovered facts.

Carelessly read headlines are responsible for as many mistakes as carelessly written articles.

We are accustomed to great achievements from our Boy Scouts. Their outstanding work in the 1952 and 1956 Get-Out-the-Vote campaigns, their Conservation Good Turn in 1954, their collection of nearly two million items of clothing, foodstuffs and supplies for the needy in 1934, and other activities on behalf of their fellow Americans have given us approximately 20 million past and present Boy Scouts who have learned the real meaning of service.

Calling the Safety Good Turn "an opportunity for service to your country in the highest tradition of the Boy Scouts of America," President Eisenhower said, "We must seek new ways to save the basic resources of our Nation: its people."

He told the Boy Scouts that he was encouraged by the splendid results of their Conservation Good Turn. "I now urge you," he wrote, "to adopt Safety as your service project for 1958. Through the concerted action of your

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

More than 4,700,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, marking the 48th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Boy Scout Week sees the launching of a yearlong Safety Good Turn suggested by President Eisenhower, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America.

In cooperation with other organizations giving leadership in safety, the Scouts will promote traffic safety in March, April, and May; outdoor safety in June, July, and August; and home safety in September, October, and November.

CALLED UNDISPUTED LEADER

Food Retailers Prove Newspaper Ads

By WELDON CALLAWAY
NEWS-HERALD Advertising Manager

The newspaper is undisputed leader throughout the country as a medium for food advertising.

Or, as David J. Swann, a former sales manager of Kroger Stores, has stated, "The food retailers of America have proven the newspaper to be the number one medium for merchandizing national or local products. The food retailer knows the local newspaper has as equal as a medium for developing immediate traffic and sales."

This position is supported by the practices of great food stores in all parts of the United States. The giants of the food business, Krogers, A & P, Acme, Colonial, among others, use the newspaper as a basic selling medium. The same is generally true of the more successful independent food stores.

Nothing could be a stronger testimonial for newspaper advertising than its universal acceptance by the nation's leading grocers.

The grocer, perhaps more than any other retailer, is in a position to test the effectiveness of his advertising. He knows almost immediately how good his advertising is. The speed with which items move more gradual, decline as more people take the vaccine. Shots are not likely ever to stamp out the disease completely, they said, since the vaccine does not prevent non-paralytic polio.

COME AND SEE US — Texans can garner many millions in out-of-state dollars by learning to be good hosts to tourists.

Said Tom Taylor, manager of information and statistics for the State Highway Department, "The tourist industry is one of the easiest in the world to promote. Every community has something to offer. But many Texans don't know enough about their own communities to give directions."

Considering the scarcity of promotion, said Taylor in a speech to the Texas Motor Transportation Association, it was surprising to note that Texas is fifth among the states in number of tourists. It was a $500,000,000 industry in 1957, he said, bringing Texans more income than cotton, cattle and wheat combined.

But, Taylor noted, competition from other states is getting stiffer, and Texans will have to work harder to get out-of-staters to spend their vacation money here.

SCHOOL QUESTIONS TO GO OUT—Some 25,000 manuals are to be mailed to counties by Feb. 15 for use in a massive study of Texas public schools.

Study guides are being sent out by the Hale-Aikin Committee which is to report to the next Legislature on school needs. County leaders will distribute the 44 page study guides to the local school districts. It is hoped that answers and suggestions will be worked out in a series of group meetings in each area.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale, vice chairman of the study committee, said local groups should feel free to add more topics of their own. Study guide has 167 questions.

If people all over the state respond with facts, ideas and suggestions, the committee will have some 42,000 replies to serve as basis for its recommendations.

erlogged soil prevents root aeration."

Panhandle grain farmers need sunshine to prepare for spring planting and Valley vegetable growers to harvest the winter crop.

FLU UP AGAIN—Number of flu cases in Texas climbed in January, but was no where near the October peak.

Commission is to have recommendations on this later.

At present, says Dr. Green, Texas' 18 state colleges have some 77,913 students. By 1962, he predicted, they will have 102,000.

Statewide, the possibilities are even more overwhelming. There are some 160,000 students in both state and private colleges now, said Dr. Green, but by '62 there will be an estimated 320,000 prospective college students.

Exact figures are not possible, of course, he said, but "there's no getting around it, the kids are there. It's almost frightening to foresee this tremendous volume and know, too, that standards must be raised to meet demands for improved scientific and technical training. But with good planning, we can do it."

POLIO PLUMMETS — Best news from the State Health Department recently is the 1957 polio figures—lowest in a decade.

Total for 1957 was 734 cases, just a little over half the 1956 total 1,307 and less than one-fourth the peak year of 1952 (3,984.)

ISLAM, BY REV. NILSSON

Youngest of Great Universal Religions Is Discussed Tuesday at M&M Meeting

The Rev. Marion W. Nilsson, pastor of First Christian Church, spoke on "Islam" when Maids and Matrons Club met Tuesday afternoon in Seleta Jane Brownfield Clubhouse.

The talk was one of a current series of programs the club is having in study of "Religions of the World."

Basic concept of Islam, said the speaker, is the unity of God, as affirmed in the "Word of Witness" which is the constant slogan of the faithful. "There is no god but Allah." This has been a powerful thrust against idolatry, atheism and, possibly, communism.

Islam is the youngest of the great universal religions and is second in number of adherents to Christianity, said the Rev. Mr. Nilsson. The growth of this new faith in the first century of its existence was phenomenal, at that time, 732 B. C., exceeding the territory of the Roman Empire at its zenith.

DOORS OF HOPE

New doorways are fascinating, especially strange exotic doors. They are so because they promise unexperienced wonders, untasted experiences. Old doorways are friendly because they promise the security of the known and the comfortable.

The doorway to a church is of still another kind; it is a doorway to hope. Man works and plays with great zeal, but in the end he knows that something greater than work or play is the real meaning of life and so he goes to Church. There he worships the Giver of meaning Our Father in Heaven. Be sure you open this doorway and let hope shine into your life
