OUR SCHOOL TEACHERS

Starting Saturday our public school teachers will start pouring back to Lubbock for another year's work.

Lubbock appreciates her public schools. She is proud of her credit rating with the recognized universities.

But Lubbock woefully neglects her teachers as individuals. Truly the life of a teacher in Lubbock public schools is a hard one.

But Lubbock woefully neglects her teachers as individuals. Truly the life of a teacher in Lubbock public schools is a hard one.

If you want absolute quiet, relaxation, rest and oblivion—don't go to the mountains, the forest or the seashore—For Nature is always active, at work, up and doing and you are certain to be disturbed.

WHERE ARE THEY GOING TO STAY

Next week is Teacher's Institute Week. Several hundred teachers will be here.

Week after next the West Texas Retail Druggists meet here for a three day convention.

By the last of next month more than a hundred families will move to Lubbock to take part in the movement of the big cotton crop.

Lubbock is entitled to ask for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention—and there is no doubt but that it would come here without argument.

In September next year from 350 to 500 students will come to Lubbock to attend the Tech College.

If Lubbock ever had a problem since its first settler pegged down the North East corner of his canvas tent, she has one today in her housing situation.

Plans for the National Test Mobilization Day have been distributed and the fat is in the fire.

If it is safe to bet that none of their sons were offered as a bloody sacrifice upon the altar of Unpreparedness during the late war.

LUBBOCK COUNTY POLLS BIG VOTE IN 2ND PRIMARY

Brown Wins Over Pevehouse in Most Important Run-Off in County, Results Show

With more than 3,500 votes cast the second Democratic primary was run off here last Saturday without the slightest semblance of disorder.

With 993 votes, Walter Orice defeated W. S. Clarke for cotton weigher in the first precinct.

Mrs. Miriam Amanda Ferguson, although elected as the gubernatorial nominee by a majority of more than 92,000.

Dan Moody, with 2,440 votes in Lubbock county, lead the ticket, beating his opponent Ward here badly.

LAY TECH PLANS

Will Try to Hold Corner-Stone Laying Ceremonies Here on Armistice Day

In addition to the regular Armistice Day celebration to be held here on November 11, corner stone laying services for the first building of the Texas College of Technology will probably be held in Lubbock at that time.

Prior to his leaving for Fort Worth, where he is attending a meeting of the Board of Regents of the institution, President Paul W. Horn appeared before the directors.

R. A. Ramsey, of Ramsey Brothers, the construction firm in charge of the erection of the administration building, stated that if it were at all possible to get the material on hand in time the corner-stone laying would be held on Armistice Day.

FORTY BOYS AND GIRLS HERE FOR FARM CLUB CAMP

The annual farm boys and girls club encampment was held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at the county fair grounds and recreational park with 40 present.

The Lynn county boys and girls, who were to have entered into the encampment, did not arrive, due to the bad weather, which also held down the attendance of the Lubbock county club members.

The boys and girls were under the tutelage of County Agent David F. Eaton and County Home Demonstrator Mabel Marsh.

Former Governor James E. Ferguson, of Temple, Bell County, whose pleas for vindication were heard by the voters of Texas last Saturday when his wife was made the Democratic nominee.

RECENT GENERAL RAINS MAKE BIG SEASON CERTAIN

Rain Drops Turn to Dollars as Cotton and Feed Crops Fall Under Its Spell

"Old Man Opportunity won't pound your door down," is a sentence carried by a wide awake firm in a recent piece of advertising copy.

These last few general rains certainly have smothered a smile over the entire creation out this way.

A $3,000,000 baling programme is under way in Lubbock—and that is just half as large as we need to keep pace with the demands and needs that are being created with the continued growth of the city and section.

"It's going to be a great cotton year for the Plains," stated Joe Flaig Thursday as he pointed out to a Journal news hound the improvements under way at the Lubbock Cotton Oil Company's big plant in the South-East part of the city.

And if you have never visited the mill you have the surprise of your life coming. It is already one of the most complete, best constructed and largest mills in West Texas.

The seed house is being increased 50 percent—which is to say that the new addition will cover about three acres of ground—more or less—and will hold up like Mount Tompkins.

Two new presses have been installed bringing the total to ten in operation in the plant and a new cooker to replace the old cooker is being installed to bring the total daily capacity of the plant up to 150 tons per day—that is a mere item of seven car loads of seed per day that will flow thru the mill and come out in the form of stock feed, cottonseed oil, and increased pay roll for Lubbock.

In short the Lubbock Cotton Oil Company's plant is a credit to the city and section and a vital factor in the development of the cotton industry on the Plains of Texas.

The rodeo troupe under the direction of "Hackberry Slim" Johnson will furnish a large part of the entertainment and two baseball games will also be features of the two day stand.

Fair Pageant Heads Hold First Meeting

As a beginning of "King Cotton" the huge pageant to be staged here in connection with the 1924 Panhandle and South Plains Fair and Short Course, a meeting, entered into by Mrs. W. G. Loman, director; Mrs. W. H. Mendor, president of the city federation of women's clubs; Mrs. W. L. Baugh, president of the county federation of women's clubs; and R. E. Overstreet, superintendent of the pageant, representing the Lubbock county cotton farm bureau association, was held yesterday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The Singing Convention, which was scheduled for this coming Sunday at the Acuff schoolhouse will not be held there but in the municipal auditorium at Lubbock.

Davis Calls To 1924 Gridsters For First Work

J. (Mule) Davis, director of athletics at the Lubbock Senior high school for the coming school term, has arrived in the city and the first thing he did after he got here was to issue the call for fall grid training to begin Monday afternoon, September 1st.

Meadow Entertains With Big Barbecue

The citizens of Meadow are now entertaining the populace of the entire South-Plains tomorrow and Saturday when a big free barbecue will be held in the thriving Little Terry county community.

Lubbock Man Is Back Of School Loan Fund

John Dalrymple, president of the Panhandle Construction Company, the concern in charge of the Lubbock paving and sewer projects, recently made a gift of five hundred dollars to the West Texas State Teachers College.

SELLING STOCK

Albert Taylor left Friday for Kansas City with six mixed cars of cows, calves and yearlings, to be sold in the stock yards of the Missouri metropolis.

ENTIRE PROGRAM MADE PUBLIC ON LABOR DAY HERE

Stores Will Not Close At All Because of Trades Day; Big Day Is Planned

Although the stores of the city will not close the program for the biggest and best Labor Day in the history of Lubbock will be observed here next Monday, according to statements issued by heads of the various labor organizations in the city.

Because of the fact that Monday is Trades Day in the city, following a second conference between heads of the labor unions and the retailers association it was decided not to close the stores of the city because of the handicap it would make on both the merchants and the farm people who depend much on that day.

DISTRICT COURT GETS UNDER WAY

Grand Jury Is Empaneled and Machinery of Justice Goes Into Six Weeks Action

With the personnel of the grand jury made up and that investigating committee already started to work, the regular August term of District Court got under way on Monday.

The regular civil docket, which will occupy the first three weeks of the term following this week, will be begun on Tuesday morning. After the trying in of civil cases for three weeks the criminal docket will be reached.

A meeting of the Lubbock County Bar association was held beginning at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning, the greater part of the day seeing that body in session setting the cases. Some twenty-five attorneys were present at the meeting.

JUNIOR CHAMBER GOING AHEAD ON PLANS FOR TRIP

With a committee appointed to put the proposition up to the merchants of the city the Junior Chamber of Commerce is going right ahead with the plans for a trade trip, or a series of booster jaunts by Lubbock citizens.

Prizes Are Awarded In Guesses On Beans

With a guess of 4, 466, Billy Ledford won first prize, a $100 in West-haven, in the bean guessing contest staged by the West Texas company, development engineers in charge of the new addition, last Saturday night.

LAWYERS TO MEET

A meeting of all the attorneys of the Seventy-second Judicial District will be held in Lubbock on September 12, at which time plans for the division of the district will be made.

TO OBSERVE DAY

Legion Post Will Take Part in National Defense Day; Judge Mullican and Mayor Help

Lubbock will enter into the National Defense Day program outlined by President Coolidge and Governor Pat M. Neff, although no definite plans have yet been compiled, Judge Clark M. Mullican, a Colonel in the United States Officers Reserve Corps, stated here yesterday.

Every member of the reserve corps in the city is in receipt of information sent out by Major General Hines, commanding officer of the Eighth Corps Area, at Fort Sam Houston, which tells the idea of National Defense Day and what it will do for the nation to observe it every year.

LUBBOCK HAS AN OPPORTUNITY TO ENTER CONTEST

Woods and Maxwell, Local Fire Insurance Firm, To Help in Nation Wide Stunt

An opportunity will be given to the people of Lubbock to participate in a nation-wide Fire Prevention Slogan Contest. Prizes of $2,000 will be divided among 100 winners. The Contest is open to everyone, except to agents or others directly or indirectly connected with the Glens Falls Insurance Company, which is offering the prizes. The purpose of the contest is to rid the National Fire Protection Association in its Fire Prevention educational work throughout the country. All the slogans submitted will be turned over to the Association at the close of the Contest, and all contestants, whether prize winners or not, will have the satisfaction of knowing that they have helped in some degree in the battle to cut down the appalling annual loss of life and property from fire.
 The contest here will be under the sponsorship of the local Glens Falls agents, Woods and Maxwell to whom all local contestants should send their contributions.
 "Every one should enlist in the fight against fire," said Mr. H. D. Woods in announcing the contest. "Over 15,000 lives are lost and more than $500,000,000 worth of property is destroyed by fire every year in the United States. One of the great needs of the National Fire Protection Association in connection with its educational work is effective and thought-provoking slogans. The Contest is open to everybody and every one is urged to participate. I would like to see every school child and every parent in the community join in the Contest. Full information as to the rules governing the contest will be supplied by the Journal."

Mayor Gives Lubbock Site for Water Well

Mayor F. E. Friend has presented the city with two acres of land adjoining the townsite on the west, where one and possibly two city wells will be sunk and already the derrick and drilling machinery is being moved to the new site. It is the Mayor's opinion that the city needs the site for the water wells and also hurried work in drilling and connecting them with the city system and to facilitate the work he presented the city with the land.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.
 "Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is based on the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger."

TESTED RECIPES

Four recipes, which should meet with the approval of South Plains families, are home-made ice cream, Tapioca creamed salmon, macaroni salad and escalloped baked beans, spaghetti and tomatoes. The recipe for the pineapple ice cream was compiled by Mrs. Fred Hines, who it can be safely said, is without a peer in the making of home-made ice cream in Lubbock. The others were gotten up by Miss Floy Pryor, who has taken charge of the Woman's Department of the Plains Journal. Tested Recipes will be a regular feature of the Plains Journal's Woman's Page from now on. This week's list follows:

- Pineapple Ice Cream
  - 5 egg yolks.
  - 3 cups sugar.
  - 7 cups fresh milk.
  - 2 cups fresh cream.
  - 1 tablespoon full of corn starch.

Let it come to a boil. Then if canned milk is used cook with custard. If fresh cream is used add just before putting in freezer with the well beaten whites of four eggs and one can of grated pineapple. Freeze until hard and serve.
- Tapioca Creamed Salmon
  - 1/2 cup milk.
  - 1/2 cup water.
  - 2 level tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca.
  - 1/2 cup Salmon.
  - 1 tablespoon butter.
  - 1 egg (if desired).
  - Salt and pepper.

Heat the milk and water in a double boiler, add the quick-cooking tapioca and cook for ten minutes, stirring frequently. Add the salmon, flaked with a fork, cook for five minutes and all butter, seasoning and egg well beaten. Serve hot on toast or crackers. Enough for six portions.
- Escalloped Baked Beans, Spaghetti and Tomatoes
  - 1 can baked beans.
  - 2 cups left-over cooked spaghetti.
  - 1 1/2 cups stewed tomatoes.
  - 1-3 teaspoonful salt.
  - 1/2 teaspoonful pepper.
  - Browned bread crumbs.

Put a thin layer of spaghetti into a baking dish, next a layer of beans, then more spaghetti and so on until all have been used. Heat the tomato, add the seasoning and pour this heated sauce over the beans and spaghetti. Cover thickly with bread crumbs which have been browned in left-over bacon fat, bake fifteen minutes in a moderate oven and serve with an accompaniment of baked cheese.

Three Wed Licenses Are Issued In City

ABILENE BOOSTERS ARE FIRST OF WEST TEXAS TO INVADE THE EAST

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN NEIGHBORING CITY IS AWAKE TO OPPORTUNITIES TO DRAW PEOPLE FROM EAST TEXAS TO WEST TEXAS

A decided innovation in Civic Programmes is being staged by the Abilene Chamber of Commerce with a special Trade Trip into East Texas. This is the first time that West Texas invaded the sacred precincts of the East and it is our prediction that the experience will give the cities and sections invaded a slight feeling of dengue fever. And incidentally, it will focus the attention of all Texas on Abilene in such a way that it can not help but add materially to the substantial growth of the city and surrounding country.

When you come right down to brass tacks that Abilene bunch just simply out new ideas and build a real city. From a cowman's supply headquarters and a shipping post of the early days the pioneers of the city have grouped around them a loyal bunch of progressive business men and are building an industrial, commercial and education center that stands out with distinct credit to all West Texas. And no town in West Texas has cause to be jealous of the growth and development of Abilene. They have attained their present prominence strictly by staying on the job and slipping over, every year or so, some BIG new idea like this East Texas Trade Trip and brains always pays—whether it is in the individual, the company or civic intelligence.

Abilene has built one of the greatest District Fairs in the Southwest and are still building. They are building homes, and schools, and hospitals, and churches and every thing else that a progressive city needs to lead. Incidentally Abilene was the first city in West Texas to wire congratulations to Lubbock when we won the Tech College and has always maintained the friendliest spirit and relations toward this city.

The Journal congratulates the Abilene Chamber of Commerce upon their vision in planning and executing this Missionary Trade Trip and feel that they are not only going to reap a

NEW SCHOOL

ODONNELL.—The brick and carpenter work on the $50,000 addition to the high school building has been completed and the contractors have notified the school board that the building will be ready for occupancy by Sept. 16. The board has announced that school will open on the 15, with prospects good for a nine months term.

Provisions have been made to take care of 500 pupils on the opening day. At the opening of school last year the attendance was 137, but the number had increased to above 400 by the close of the term.

LIGHTNING BOLT HITS

TAHOCA.—As Earl Gray living 15 miles northeast of Tahoka, was un hitching his team lightning hit and killed one of his mules he was working with and knocked the other one down.

As the boy did not happen to have his hands touching either one at the time, he didn't even feel a shock.

ROB FILLING STATION

WACO.—It was reported to the police Saturday night by J. K. Griffiths, that two young white men, whose faces were partially hidden by handkerchiefs, held him up while on duty at a filling station on North Fifth street. Griffiths claims that the men, while pointing pistols at him, secured $70 from the safe and cash register.

Miss Bonnie Jennings, Electra, Texas, who has been visiting Miss Blanche Bacon and Miss Francis Conley here, returned to her home on Sunday. Miss Jennings was roommate of both Misses Bacon and Conley at Ward-Belmont, Nashville, Tenn. Miss Jennings will attend the University of Texas this year.

BABY BADLY HURT

FORT WORTH.—George Sistrunk, 9-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sistrunk of Justin, is in All-Saint's Hospital with a fractured skull as the result of an automobile accident at Twenty-Fifth and Chestnut streets at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning while riding with his parents and J. W. McKinney, also of Justin.

The party was on its way to visit relatives here when the radius rods of their automobile became loose, causing the car to strike a telephone pole. Mr. McKinney sustained a laceration of the arm. The infant was reported by hospital attendants as being in a critical condition.

GAS DROPS IN PRICE

FORT WORTH.—An apparent gasoline war among Fort Worth dealers, similar to that of last summer and fall, is being viewed by Fort Worth motorists with delight. Within the last week or so prices have dropped to as low as 11c at some stations, while the majority have cut to 12c, 13c and 14c.

Navy gasoline, the standard motor fuel, is selling at Wichita Falls refineries at 8c a gallon wholesale, which, with the 1c tax, makes the fuel cost the dealer 9c a gallon f. o. b. the refinery. By the time the dealer gets it to his station present prices leave him no profit or even an actual loss, local filling station men declare.

Both were released by District Attorney, R. K. Hanger after he taken to police headquarters.

Judge Latimore admitted that he had given out a candidate's card to election zone, but said he was unaware of the fact that he was within the limits.

"I thought nothing about it at the time, as I did not realize I was within the limits," said the Judge. "I gave out only one card, and would not have given that one if I had realized my position."

MANY FOLKS ARE ASKING JOBS ON LUBBOCK FARMS

Davis Asks Farmers to Give a List of Workers Needed So He Can Supply Wants

Every day the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce is receiving letters from people all over Texas concerning farm and crop conditions in West Texas, especially on the South Plains, and the majority of the inquirers have ideas concerning locating in this section. A. B. Davis, secretary of the local chamber of commerce stated yesterday.

Many of these people are asking about renting farms, buying farms, cotton picking work and other farm labor this fall. Many of those asking for work are doing so with the idea that they can come here, get work and at the same time look over the country with a view of settling here, Davis said.

In order that the Chamber of Commerce can better answer these inquiries Davis requests that everyone wishing to hire cotton pickers and other farm laborers this fall get in touch with him so he can supply them with the means of those parties asking for work and for crop and farm conditions.

This plan is a good one, Davis pointed out, because he can put the farmers here in touch with prospective Lubbock county citizens in the years to come and will form an aid to increase the population of the South Plains, which in turn will place more land under cultivation, all of which will greatly enrich this section of the state.

If you need any kind of farm laborers—cotton pickers, hired men, anything like that, write A. B. Davis, secretary Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. He'll put you in touch with what you want.

Business School To Have Big Term This Fall, Says G. M. Witt

Four new students have been added to the rolls of the Lubbock Business College, Guy M. Witt, president, stated yesterday afternoon in forecasting a great fall term for the institution.

The new students, all enrolled within the last few days are: Miss Helen Johnson, Aeuft; Miss Pauline Shelby; Station; Mrs. Maydelle Curb, Lubbock; and Miss Helen Blanton, Rails.

The new fall term of the Business College will begin on Monday, September first, Witt stated. A total of forty-five students are now receiving instruction in the local institution and new term startswhen about 1500 many more are expected to enter when the new term starts next Monday.

Miss Minnie Lee Cardwell has accepted a position with the Walker-Smith Wholesale Grocery Company, Miss Charley Jackson is now employed with the Leader Store and Miss Elanice Brock left this week to assume her duties with a Plainview real estate firm.

Newsome Farm Lands

LUBBOCK, TEXAS

MR. TENANT FARMER,
JUSTANYWHERE, U. S. A.

Dear Sir:—

Would you like to own your home and farm? Then it is right up to you.

Under the NEWSOME CROP PAYMENT PLAN you can now own a fine farm near Sudan, Texas. You have no doubt heard of the splendid farms and bumper crops around Sudan. It's all true and then some.

These NEWSOME FARMS are in the famous cat-claw country, good red soil and deep, plenty of good shallow water, location good, in fact, just about what any farmer would want, land selling at a price and under terms that puts a good farm in reach of any man.

The NEWSOME RANCH has recently been subdivided into farm tracts, about 177 acres to each tract. Mr. Newsome is desirous of turning over these farms to ACTUAL SETTLERS. In order to do this, he has decided upon a CROP PAYMENT PLAN which will be attractive to the man behind the plow. This is what he says:

"I will sell you this fine cat-claw land at $25.00 an acre. You pay me $5.00 an acre cash, I will then give you twenty years to pay me the balance OUT OF YOUR CROPS. You pay me one third and one fourth of your crops for the first three years, you then pay me one third of your crops until your debt is paid. You pay simple 6 per cent interest. The land lord's part ought to pay you out in five or six years, still, you have twenty years. No note or interest which has to be met. If the crop makes—you pay, just like any tenant farmer, if the crop fails—you don't pay. If you want to you can pay the whole amount at any time." Can you beat it for a safe and sure plan to own a home? You simply can't lose your farm.

Furthermore, if it is not convenient for you to pay the full first payment now, Mr. Newsome will allow you to select your farm and hold it for you until Jan. 1st, 1925, without interest, if you will put up $1.00 an acre as earnest money and pay the remaining Four Dollars an acre by Jan. 1st. Isn't that fair?

Write, or better still, come and see for yourself and do it now!

Yours truly,

BUSTIN & MOSBY,
1006 Broadway.

SPOKES — IN THE — HUB

HERBERT F. STUBBS
 Herbert F. Stubbs, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stubbs, pioneer people in this county, was born in Lubbock, June 12, 1895. After attending the local school until he was a junior, he went to Tyler Commercial college for a year and upon his return worked for five years in the county clerk's office. He then joined the army and was absent from this city for two years. At the time of his discharge he was a sergeant.

In the recent Democratic primary Mr. Stubbs was the successful candidate for county clerk, which practically assures his election. He has held this office since he was appointed to fill an unexpired term in January, 1922. He is prominent in all civic affairs here. He is a member of the junior chamber of commerce, is a director in the tourist park committee, and belongs to the Kiwanis, Masonic, Elk club and to the Eastern star. He was an adjutant in the American Legion in 1923 and the same year he was secretary of the Kiwanis club. He is a member of the Methodist Church. Four years ago he married Miss Jewell Barker of this city and they have one child, Aileen.

Mrs. S. T. Hall, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce has returned to work after a short illness.

COMFORTING THE HELPLESS GIVES NURSES REAL JOY OF LIVING, SAY AUTHORITIES IN HOSPITALS HERE

Living always with the sick, listening to their groans and cries of pain, cheering them when they are discouraged, comforting them and in every way forgetting one's self in the service of others is the life that nurses leads after she decides upon her profession. But, talks with local nurses from the two sanitariums shows that to them life is not drudgery, it is not so dreary and full of sickness and sorrow that they lose interest in it, or see only the dark side of things. Instead, to them there is a fascination in the work. They derive real pleasure from binding up wounds, cooling fevered brows, soothing wrought up nerves and helping those who are unable to help themselves. "Social life does not call to me," said one nurse. "It seems like such an empty existence. I just feel that I am doing something for some one else."

Hours for the nurses in local sanitariums are not so long or hard as people generally suppose, for under ordinary circumstances they go on duty at a certain hour in the morning, have an hour off at noon, a half day once during the week and four hours off on Sundays. They may spend their hours off in recreation as they see fit, forgetting the file that they see during the day. Off duty they are just ordinary American girls, doing the things that every other girls does. They may even be flappers when they take off the conventional blue and white and low heeled white shoes and don civilian clothes, for all flappers are not devoid of a purpose and of usefulness in life.

Requirements for entrance in the training schools of the two sanitariums here differ in some slight respects, but the essential requirements are the same. Talks with the head nurses of the two institutions show. A prospective nurse must be eighteen years of age, and must have good health. Each institution has a training school that is in session nine months in the year. Students recite lessons and in connection with these recitations do practical work as a nurse. They learn to take temperatures, give baths and medicine and do what is called floor duty. That is, they stay on certain floors and answer calls that come from the patients, learn to apply nursing ethics and practical nursing.

Subjects studied at the West Texas Hospital are anatomy, hygiene, materia-medica, practical nursing, dietetics, nursing ethics, eye, ear, nose and throat disease, surgical nursing, obstetrics, bacteriology and physiology. The list of studies for the Lubbock Sanitarium includes anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, materia medica, obstetrics, pediatrics, contagious diseases, fever nursing, medical nursing, surgical nursing, practical nursing, history of nursing, nursing ethics and dietetics. After a student passes an examination on these subjects here, she is required to stand an examination under the state board for her R. N. The course of study is three years, and at the end of that time a girl has had some practical experience in all phases of nursing.

difficult catch of a hot liner. Jack Wells, who played at second base for Manager Allen the last time the club showed here, was shifted to short and Gaither placed at second base.

The Lamesa Club will arrive here Sunday for a two game series with the locals, one to be played on Sunday afternoon and the other on Monday afternoon, Labor Day. Both games will be staged in the afternoons of the days on which they are scheduled. Merrill park will be the scene of action and Empire Jimmie Doyle is to officiate.

LAMESA TOSSERS RALLY IN NINTH FOR 7 TO 6 WIN

Miscues Feature of Spasmodic Tilt at Neighboring City; Clubs to Play Here

Undimmed by their defeat at the hands of the Lubbock team Sunday previous, the Lamesa team, bulwarked in their own ball park, turned back the Allen aggregation last Sunday by a score of 7 to 6. Coming into the ninth inning the run behind the Lamesa hitters coupled base-hits with errors and bad judgment and counted twice. The reversal leaves the Hubbers trailing Lamesa on the season's total, two games to four.

Davis, the off-hander, who opposed the Hubbers here on August 16 and whose offerings that day were duck-soup to the Lubbock hitters, yielded behind the home hurrier at crucial ten hits to Terry's seven but misplays times and two circuit smashes by E. Smith and G. White cost the decision. Errors were frequent throughout the tilt, Lamesa fielders committing eight and the Lubbock players six mis-cues during the afternoon's entertainment.

Inability to clout the agate with the bases occupied spelled defeat for the Hubbers, the score book showing eight local players marooned on the bases throughout the game. Jackson, Lubbock leftfielder, lead the attack on Davis with three hits in five trips, while Karr, who cavorted in center, hit safely twice in four trips to the plate. Gaither, at second-base, scored two runs without making a hit.

Frank Jones, scintillant Hubber short-fielder, was not able to make the jump, due to an injury received here a week ago when he hurt his left shoulder as he fell in making a fallen comrades in the late war—victims of unpreparedness, or faulty equipment, of broken-down organization—the entire plan of an annual Test Mobilization Day, a well organized National Guard, an efficient Reserve Army, and an enlarged system of summer training camps is seen as a form of national insurance against future wars, future needless slaughter through unpreparedness and a material improvement in the morale and appreciation of citizenship on the part of the growing youth of our nation.

Lubbock will observe the Test Mobilization Day to the very letter.
THOSE TRADE TRIPS
Within a few weeks The Annual Trade Trips will again be in order.
To some this announcement means as outing, an opportunity to get out with a bunch of good sports, to be a good sport, to work for Lubbock and boost for the fair. To others it will mean a grind, a duty to be shirked, lied about, dodged or flatly refused.

If Lubbock is not willing to accept the responsibilities of a city, of her much boasted position as "The Hub of the Plains" and to perform all of the functions of a high stepping, hard hitting progressive city—why it is time to throw up the sponge and call it a day.
But that is not the Lubbock spirit.
From twenty-five to fifty cars will turn out to make each trip. Every car will be filled full of fun, noise, pop and enthusiasm. In every town where a stop is made, which means every town on the South Plains, the Lubbock bunch is going to cover that town like sorghum leaves out of a busted jug on a hot day, and when the signal sounds to move on those bewildered neighbors of ours where we have visited are going to say,
"Gosh—There is no wonder that Lubbock keeps growing and going. With that much pep any town could do anything."
And that is the idea of the Trade
Trips. The Whole World Loves a Lover! It is said—but it is doubly true that success seeks the successful.
If Lubbock throws her whole heart into this job of building a city, developing a great fair, promoting friendly relationship between her neighboring cities and herself—there is nothing this side of Gabriel's horn that can stop her. And if you live in Lub-

President Chris Harwell of the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association announced this week that the catalogue and premium list would be off the press, in the next few days, and that every one interested would be mailed a catalogue on request. A postal address to the Fair Association, Lubbock, will get a catalogue by return mail.

The South Plains Fair and Short Course, which has been named "The Show Window of the Plains," will be held at Lubbock, October 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th, and bid fair to be the biggest exposition of its kind held in Texas
this year.

Already the majority of the Plains counties have signed up to display county exhibits, and an effort is being made to get every county to have a worth-while exhibit that the products of its soil may display to the world, through this "Show Window of the Plains" just the opportunities waiting the home seeker and investor.
The premium list this year also, is bigger than ever offered before and is far ahead of the premium lists offered by many other regional or sectional fairs. This assures a wealth of exhibits and at the same time makes it worth while for every county and individual to show at this year's fair.
The amusement, attraction, entertainment and show features this year will also, be bigger and better than ever before, consisting of one of the biggest carnival companies in Texas, a gorgeous fireworks display for the nights, three foot ball games, a mammoth pageant, and many other free attractions too numerous to mention.

Clarice Phillips, W. D. Benson, Junior and John Dupre will return Sunday from Austin where they have been attending the summer session of the state University.

Miss Gladys Pryor, who has been attending the College of Industrial Arts, at Denton, Texas, has returned from the summer session.

Mrs. Auty Willis, of The Style Shop,
Lubbock's newest women's wear establishment, is in Dallas where she is contracting new stocks for the Lubbock store.

Mrs. Ross Edwards and daughter left Thursday for a visit with relatives at Post City, Texas.

CITY CHURCH OF CHRIST BACKING
2 WEEK REVIVAL

Reverend C. A. Dunn to Preach
Twice Daily at Auditorium
Beginning on Sunday

The Reverend C. A. Dunn, one of the most forceful pastors of his denomination in the state of Texas, will open a two weeks evangelistic campaign here on Sunday under the auspices of the Church of Christ. Reverend T. M. Carney, pastor of the church announced yesterday.
Accompanying Reverend Dunn will be Ira Y. Rice, who will lead the song services. Mr. Rice is a song leader of experience and in his chosen field of evangelistic work ranks with Reverend Dunn, Carney said.
All of the meetings will be held in the city auditorium, which is under going a general cleaning up and which is being enlarged from a standpoint of seating capacity to take care of the large crowds which are expected to attend. Two meetings will be held every day, one in the mornings, beginning at 10:00 o'clock, and one in the evenings, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.
Speaking of Reverend Dunn, Pastor
Carney stated:
"Rev. A. Dunn is one of the best evangelists in the Church of Christ and his brethren here feel fortunate in securing his services for this series of meetings. He is truly a bible scholar and at all times his speech is clear and forceful.
Mr. Rice is an experienced song leader and we are expecting a feast back and are not willing to make at least ONE of these trips—why you need to take a pretty close study of your general conduct and if it can't be removed you should move back to some FINISHED town back in the sticks and proceed to die of the dry rot. Your usefulness as a citizen is over and the air you breathe is wasted.

Farmers in the vicinity of Plainview have found wheat to be a good Plains money crop. And it will be the same thing in the vicinity of Lubbock.
You plant wheat and then forget about it until it is time for harvest. And your harvest is over early and does not interfere with your cotton picking.
Plant some wheat this year. Wheat will give you some winter pasture and yet make you a crop at har-

MIDLAND THINKS REAL ESTATE TO MOUNT IN VALUE

Next Few Weeks will See Many Transfers of Farm and City Property There

MIDLAND—Real estate transfers in Midland county and adjacent counties are expected to increase materially during the next few weeks. Prospective buyers by the dozens have come to Midland lately and are being shown land in this vicinity. Some of them have completed transactions whereby they will be permanent citizens. Some of them have deals pending and are merely awaiting the clarifying of titles to close their trades.

The advertising campaigns that are being carried on by the legitimate real estate men are doing a great deal of constructive work toward acquainting the other parts of the country with Midland and its possibilities. They are preparing exhibits of fruit and crops actually produced here, and are displaying them over the country in such a way that prospective buyers of good farming land are attracted to the Midland trade territory.—Reporter.

DISASTEROUS SMASH

MIDLAND—J. T. Poole, prominent local ranchman, was killed and ten persons were injured in an auto collision near Midland Saturday night. Harry Neblett, Don Davis, Byron Bryant and Charles Goldsmith, all suffered serious, though not fatal, injuries. The Gibson family of six members, occupants of the other car, were bruised badly.

They reside in Colorado, Texas. Mr. Poole's body accompanied by his widow and young daughter, was taken to Waco for burial.

Potash Is Found At Midland When Trial Gas Well Being Dug

MIDLAND.—Texas Development Company drilling what started out to be an oil well, but which continues to be a potash well, gets another rich vein of potash this week.

The bit went into a vein of potash at 1420-foot Wednesday, which, according to S. F. Johnson, manager of the company, is richer than the 8-foot vein struck at 900 feet which analyzed 11.6 potash. The drill has gone in to 15 feet of this vein and its depth is yet unknown.

Four rich veins of potash have been struck in this well. The first was a 20-foot vein at 700 feet, which assayed 5.4. Then, came the 10-foot vein at 900 feet, at 1075 which assayed 9.7 and after that the 15 plus-foot vein at 1420.—Reporter.

Orders Placed For New Plainview Gin

PLAINVIEW.—R. C. Malone, of Abilene, and associates, Chas. A. Malone, of Farwell, P. J. Woodruff, of Plainview and W. H. Richardson, of Wichita Falls, have just placed an order with the Murray Gin Company, of Dallas, for a complete new 5-stand 80-maw gin plant, and the system throughout will be equipped with the best cotton cleaning appliances that money will buy, also the latest equipment for the handling of bollie cotton.—News.

KILLED BY TRAIN

PARIS.—J. M. Pinson, struck by a southbound Frisco passenger train Thursday, died Friday night as a result of the injuries sustained in the accident. Pinson was walking along the Frisco right of way, the accident occurring about 50 yards from his home of Graham Street.

Pinson was 59 years of age, and had lived in Paris for the past 50 years. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. John Roden of this city.

SUMMER TERM OF DISTRICT COURT AT TAHOKA ENDS

Crowley - Hock Case Is Put Off Until Next Term; 2 Liquor Cases Are Ended

TAHOKA.—The work of the district court was completed Tuesday, with the exception of the Grand Jury, which continued its labors until late Wednesday afternoon, when it made its final report and was discharged.

On Tuesday of this week, H. Jolly entered pleas of guilty in two cases wherein he was charged with the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors, and the jury assessed his punishment at one year in the penitentiary in each case. Two other cases against him were continued to the next term of court.

On the same day Tony Padillo pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with the possession, transportation and sale of intoxicating liquor, and the jury gave him a five-year suspended sentence.

On Wednesday the cases against J. P. Crowley, charged with the murder of A. E. Hock, was continued to the next term of court upon motion of the defendant, on the grounds of sickness in defendant's family.—News.

HELD FOR MURDER

HOUSTON.—Three Houston youths charged with murder in connection with the death of a negro girl will go to trial Monday in Criminal District Court.

The youths are charged with throwing rocks at Druthella Robinson, 13, Feb. 16, 1924, as she was alighting from a street car. One of the rocks is alleged to have caused her death.

Crops At Clarendon Now Herald Biggest Yields of History

CLARENDON.—Those who recognize the potency of crops in the growing stage and who know the Panhandle country, more especially Donley County, the heart of the Green Belt, are unanimous in their opinions that right now this county presents the most marvelous prospects for a wonderful harvest that it had had for many, many years.

The intermittent rains of recent weeks have furnished an abundance of moisture, and most of it falling in the night time has interfered with farm work to a minimum degree. The feed crops are in all stages according to time of planting and the late sowing gives promise to producing just as much as the earlier, and both promise in the neighborhood of a ton to the acre, with corn of equivalent yield.

Cotton is developing into a strong healthy stalk and is so full of squares and bolls that another one of those typical Donley County average yields is confidently expected.—News.

WOMAN SLAYS 16 LARGE RATTLES

Wife of Farmer Near Lake At Tahoka Uses Hoe to Kill Dreaded Reptiles

TAHOKA.—Armed with a hoe handle, Mrs. J. O. Whisenant, living four miles southwest of Tahoka, whaled the life out of sixteen rattlesnakes near the south end of Lake Tahoka Tuesday morning. The largest one of the reptiles had ten rattles and was 44 inches long. The others were smaller but varied considerably in size. The remarkable thing about it was that so many of them were found together at this time of the year.

Mrs. Whisenant is engaged in raising turkeys and when the turkeys encounter a rattler they invariably gather around it and make much ado about it. For this reason, Mrs. Whisenant always goes armed with a hoe handle or some similar weapon when following the turkeys out in the pasture, and due to this peculiar turkey trait, the Whisenants have discovered and killed nine other big rattlers within the past two weeks.—News.

First Bale Brought Into Howard County

BIG SPRING.—G. W. Chapman of the Fairview community brought the first bale of cotton of the 1924-25 season to Big Spring Wednesday evening. This cotton was ginned at Price Bros. gin Thursday morning, making a 440-pound bale. The bale is to be sold at auction today.

A premium of $130 was raised for the two first bales of cotton. Mr. Chapman will secure $86.50 and the one bringing in the next bale will get $43.50.—Herald.

BUYS MIDLAND LAND

MIDLAND.—W. McCarty Moore of Dallas is the latest entrant in the land selling contest at Midland. Mr. Moore bought nine and one-half sections thru the Wallace Land Company. He will open an office here shortly and will sell out the land in 140-acre cotton farms. The land is only three miles north of Midland.

Another tract of 561 acres sold by the Wallace Land Company for Henry M. Half to B. F. Winter of Blue Springs, Miss., is to be cut into eighty-acre cotton farms. The subdividing of these lands during the total arranged during the past two weeks, subdividing up to forty and one-half sections.

Overstreet To Visit Floyd County People

FLOYDADA.—R. E. Overstreet, field representative of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association, will visit Floyd county on August 28th and 29th. It is announced by Will Simpson, county field man of the organization, and wants to meet all the members of the association, either in Floydada or Lockney on those dates in a conference.

The conference in Floydada will be held at 2:30 on August 28th and in Lockney at 2:30 on August 29th.—Hesperian.

TULIA TO DEMONSTRATE

TULIA.—E. G. Banks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce says Swisher County intends to make a Jersey cow demonstration during the West Texas Chamber of Commerce day at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo.

The demonstration will be made with two Jersey bull circles and several good pure-bred cows. The development of the Jersey bull circle idea in the Panhandle has been one of the notable movements in dairying during the past several years, and it has proved a practical plan wherever the development is sufficiently large.

A BUSY DAY

PARIS.—A woman with twelve children, residing twelve miles south of Paris in the Birdstown community, called on a physician and had the tonsils of all of them removed, and all of her teeth extracted. This was the biggest one day's experience that the doctor has ever had in family practice.

Mysterious Fire In Ballot Box Follows Whittaker's Call For Official Counting

AMARILLO.—The discovery of fire in one of the ballot boxes from Precinct 2 (city hall) after the boxes had been removed to the county clerk's office for safe keeping and the announcement by Sheriff Leas Whittaker that he would demand an official recount of the ballot were the aftermaths of the run-off primary held here Saturday.

Whittaker was defeated for reelection by Wiley Pollard by a majority of 18 votes according to the returns.

The fire was discovered by County Chairman Grover B. Hill and others who were in the clerk's office at the time. Mr. Hill opened the box and extinguished the fire.

It was said that none of the ballots in the box were injured in any way, since the fire was confined to a cloth sack in which the ballots were. Witnesses state that the fire had apparently smoldered for sometime owing to the lack of air in the box, which is made of galvanized tin.

The theory that the fire might have been caused by some passerby carelessly tossing a match was exploded when it was learned that the box is equipped with a metal flap, with a string. This flap must be pushed open in order to insert anything in the box.—Amarillo News.

Mrs. Harry Smith and children of Wichita Falls, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McSpadden.

Annual Lamb County Fair To Be Held On September 25 and 26

PLAINVIEW.—The second annual Lamb County Fair, which will be held in Olton Friday and Saturday, Sept. 25-26, promises to be a very successful one, and will bring together large crowds of people from all over this section.

There will be exhibits of agricultural products, livestock, school work, boy and girl club work, community and individual farm exhibits, etc., also many amusements and entertainment features.

The officers of the fair association this year are: Prof. W. P. Webb, president; Gus Shaw, Littlefield, vice-president; C. C. Cover, Olton, secretary; W. H. Bohner, treasurer. Directors: E. C. Cundiff, Littlefield; Lester La Grange, Amherst; Geo. Liville, Springlake; Mr. Mayfield, Sudan, Committee on grounds and concessions; C. C. Cover, Jack Silcott and Marshall Cavitt.—News.

New Gin At Slaton Is Near Completion

SLATON.—The Slaton Gin Company new gin is going up very rapidly. The office building has been completed and the frame work on the main building that will house the ginning machinery is just about completed. Work is being rushed so as to have it completed in time to start when the ginning season opens up.

When completed, this will be one of the best equipped gins on the South Plains. All of the machinery will be located on the ground floor. When this gin is completed it will make five gins for Slaton.—Slatonite.

W. M. Smith was in Lubbock Friday, prospecting. He visited J. I. McDonald while in the city.

DATES MADE AND SLATON FAIR IS WELL UNDER WAY

September 26 and 27 Set For Big Community Fair In the Neighboring City

SLATON.—All committees are busy making plans for the big Slaton Fair to be staged at Slaton on September 26 and 27. Meetings are being held daily among the various committees and things are rounding into shape and it has begun to look like we are going to have one of the biggest fairs on the South Plains.

The publicity committee met Monday at the secretary's office and laid plans to give the fair wide publicity.

County Agent Eaton and Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Marsh, of Lubbock county, were in our city Monday conferring with Mr. Ross about our fair and pledged their support and cooperation in any way possible. They expressed themselves as being that the fair would go over big and that and that they were ready to be commanded in what ever way they could assist us. Mr. Ross will call on these people from time to time and during the fair. They are on several important committees.—Slatonite.

SCOUTS TO CAMP

AMARILLO.—Boy Scouts of Amarillo will go into their Fall camp late next week, according to plans made by the local council. The outing will be held on Palo Duro Canyon.

Permanent buildings to house the boys have recently been erected on the site. Fifty scouts are expected to enter the camp.

About All Set!

We are about all set for the biggest fall's business ever known on the Plains in the cotton industry. The mill has been overhauled from seed house to oil tank, from the top of the smoke stack to the bottom of the fuel tanks, from the office to the trash pile--any way and every way you want to look it over.

The machinery has been inspected, tightened, adjusted, cleaned, repaired, repainted, where it is needed, parts replaced, and within a few weeks will start to being tuned up ready for a long season of day and night work.

All of this preparatory work is a necessary part of the service, and function of a mill of this size and importance in the cotton industry in this section. Efficient operation means increased volume of business, enabling us to always pay the top price for cotton seed and deliver highest quality feed.

The Driving Power of Industry is ELECTRICITY

Behind every industry in America today are the vast resources of the public utility companies. Millions of dollars, the product of thousands of the world's best brains, the highly technical forces of detailed organization---it takes all of these to deliver power, light and electric current service to the homes, the factories, stores and homes of industry in America.

Each day and hour and minute the service must be available in sufficient quantities to meet the demands made upon it by the people of the communities it serves.

More than that---the service must be provided in advance against the growth of demand by increased uses and larger populations.

This company has always anticipated the growth and needs of Lubbock and the South Plains and our equipment is just a little in advance of the requirements of the section at all times.

Editorially Speaking

In Appreciation

If with pleasure you are viewing
Anything we may be doing,
If you like us, or our business
Tell us now!
Don't withhold your approbation
Till the parson makes ovation
And we lie with snowy lillies o'er our brow!
It is with the above lines in mind that the following article is presented in appreciation to the real workers of the 1924 Panhandle and South Plains Fair and Short Course.
Again the fair officials have stepped out! This time they have contracted for a real pageant which will feature King Cotton, the monarch that we all kow-to. One thousand persons, residents of the South Plains, will appear in the pageant. It will be directed by a professional director who has put it on successfully before and it is being backed by the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association. It will be put on in only five counties in Texas—those cities having been designated by the Texas Farm Bureau Association and each one being in a different part of the state. In short—the pageant will be a big event and will be one of the main reasons why the 1924 Panhandle and South Plains Fair and Short Course will be the greatest thing of its kind in West Texas history.

Another reason why the 1924 fair is going to be a howling success is because of the innovation of the lectures and short courses which will be delivered by specialists and authorities of state and national note. Still another reason is because everybody that is behind the South Plains and wants to see it progress is going to get behind the fair and work for it.

But the main reason that West Texas fair records are going to be smashed on October 1, 2, 3 and 4, is because there are ten men who are unselfishly giving their valuable time and talent to make it go over big. They are the main springs of the fair—the power behind the whole movement. Here they are—give 'em a boost—help them help Lubbock:

Cris Harwell, R. W. Blair, Gib Jackson, W. O. Stephens, T. B. Duggan, Louis Moore, George Benson, A. B. Davis, Frank White, Walter Myrick, Jr.

And while we are passing bouquets it would be an injustice not to mention the others who are doing big things on the fair. They are County Demonstration Agent Mabel Marsh; County Farm Agent D. F. Eaton; Mrs. Jewel Hall, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; and R. C. Parrish, advertising manager of the fair catalogue. They're all for Lubbock and the South Plains. Lubbock and the South Plains should be all for them.

The Mysterious Message

Recently two telegraphic experts announced the receiving of code flashes which they attributed to be from Mars. Both men are well versed in all known codes and both of them insist that the strange message which they could not decipher was from some other planet. Mrs. was chosen as the other planet because it is the one logical sphere which is thought by scientists to be inhabited.

Whether the code came from Mars or not is of little importance. The fact that it is thought by experts to come from some other planet than our own is the important part. Perhaps scientists are on the road to close discoveries concerning life on the neighboring spheres. Perhaps, in the hurry of the world today the scientists have over-looked a planet which has better life possibilities than has Mars. We can't tell for sure, but who knows?

Why Worry?

The boast of heraldry, the pomp of power
And all that beauty, all that wealth ere gave,
Await alike the one inevitable hour,
When paths of glory lead but to the grave.
Thomas Grey had the right recipe when he penned the above lines. And they hold just as good today as they did when he wrote them. A hundred years from now will find them equally as forceful.
Many of us are foolishly and needlessly worried sick most of the time. We worry over our futures. We worry over our pasts. We worry over what other people think and we worry over our creditors and our debtors. The worst part about it is it doesn't do any good to worry. It's just a whole lot of discomfort all for nothing. In the vernacular of the commonplace, worry is the bunk.

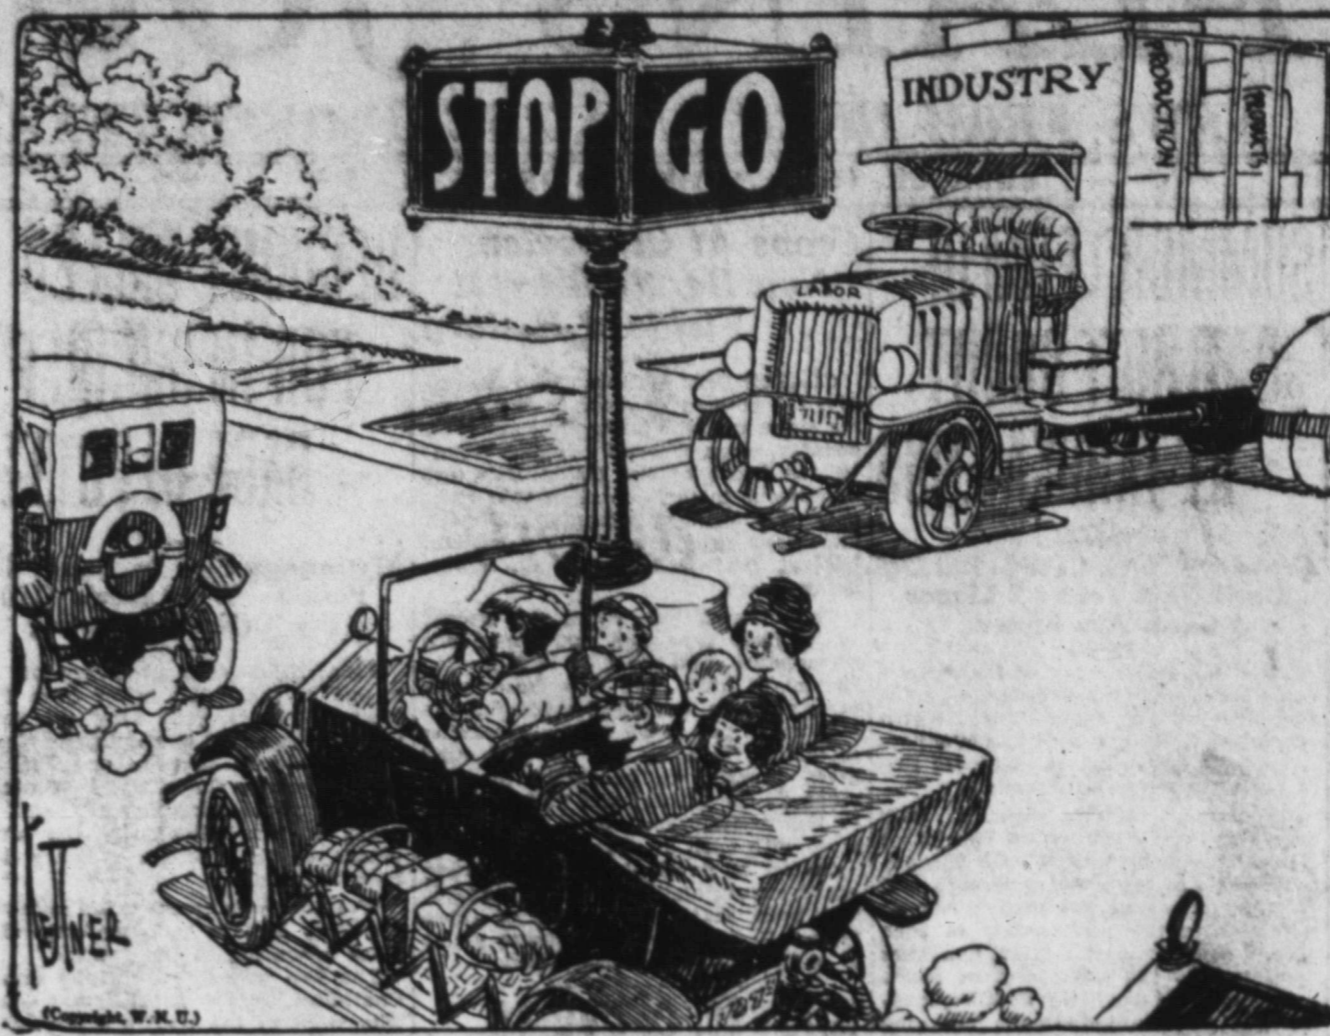

No matter what we do today, what we did yesterday, or what we plan to do tomorrow, it is not going to make a deal of difference to the world as a whole. A hundred years from now no one will know the difference. We might just as well forget our troubles now instead of tomorrow or some time in the future. It will save us much discomfort.

The main difficulty with most of us is that we think we are the center of everybody's glances as we are in our own plans. Conceit is one main reason for worry. The brutal truth of the matter is that no one really cares a great deal what we do or say, providing, of course, that we leave them alone when we do it or say it.

Inasmuch as it is a useless proceeding let's cut out worry. It won't do anybody any harm and it will do most of us a heap of good.

Why worry, anyway?

Labor Day

Again, Let's Forget It

The hand of Time has closed the incident, which up to last Saturday was heralded the second Democratic primary. As the primary passed into history the ill-feelings that went with it should also pass.

If your pet candidates were defeated and your neighbor helped defeat them, don't hold it against him. You voted as you believed right. He did the same. The way to heal the wounds of the recent campaign is to get behind the surviving candidates and forget the unpleasantness of last week.

"All the world loves a lover" but the world does not love a lover like it does a good loser. Grin and admit you voted wrong if you lost.

On the other hand, however, losing with grace will not heal the wounds if the winners do not win with grace. If you rode the winning horses don't get swelled up over the fact that your judgment has been upheld by the majority of the voters in Texas. Maybe you just lucked into being on the winning side and after all you probably didn't spend an hour in concentration over how to cast your ballot.

The main thing we've got to do is to forget our personal differences and all get friendly again. No matter who is elected Lubbock and the South Plains must go on down the broad highway of progress. The only way this can be accomplished is for everybody to work with everybody else in a congenial way.

Post-Mortem

The second Democratic primary has passed into history and for the first time in the annals of the United States a woman bears the credentials of the greatest political party in existence for the office of governor of the greatest state in the Union. Her nomination has made history. May her term make even greater and brighter history.

Through the campaign the Plains Journal took no active part—chose no side, feeling that there was not enough difference in the two candidates to draw the line of commendability.

Now, however, it has all changed. Mariam Ferguson is the candidate of our party and the Plains Journal, like all good Democrats should be, is behind her candidacy as the nominee of the Democratic Party.

The talk of attempting to discredit the overwhelming victory of Mariam Ferguson by the few malcontents who would tie the election in the courts is all wrong. If there was court action to be taken it should have been before the primary election. The expressed hopes by some displeased voters that an independent candidate be placed in the field against her in November is likewise wrong. Mrs. Ferguson won her nomination. The people of Texas have spoken. The will of the majority, to further the rights of American government, must go on.

Because the Plains Journal remained non-partisan in the primary elections this publication feels that it has the right to swing into the Ferguson column at this time and feels that in doing so the principals of the Democratic party may be better furthered. The Plains Journal is making no effort to climb on any band wagon, expects nothing for its late support and looks for no commendation from the early supporters of Mrs. Ferguson or no condemnation from the supporter of Judge Felix Robertson.

Hooray for Pat Neff

Hooray for Pat Neff! He's not going to be governor very much longer, but he is going to be governor long enough to see that Texas observes National Defense Day on September 12th. President Coolidge is for it. The American Legion is for it. In fact everybody's for it but Brother Charles Bryan, and he's way up in Nebraska.

Whoever thought of National Defense Day had a happy thought. It is as essential to the welfare of the country as fire drills are to our city schools and band practices are to our city band.

National Defense Day does not mean curtailment of business. President Coolidge, with his Yankee love for every dime, has seen to that. It does not mean expense on pomp and luxury for celebration. What it means is preparedness and that's just exactly what we were found to need not so very many years ago and were up a stump for awhile until we remedied it.

Preparedness is the logical way to keep peace. Nobody ever heard of Jack Dempsey ever being attacked. National Defense Day means practically immunity from attack. The whole nation needs it.

And we're going to observe it in Texas!

The Real Labor Day

Next Monday is Labor Day. It is the one day in all the year when the nation stops to do homage to the workers, the real builders, those who are the trail-breakers and pathfinders, the pioneers of prosperity. Men, real men, who help make up the backbone of the nation—who with their hands and their brains construct.

This year Lubbock is making a greater observance of Labor Day than ever before. Many interesting events are being planned and a gala occasion will in all probabilities result.

There is one thing, however, that we must not forget. Labor Day should be a time of frolic for the toilers. It should be a time when everyone enjoys themselves to their fullest extent.

A group of Swiss Alpinists are planning to climb Mt. Everest and perhaps find a filling station on top.

Senator Edge says Coolidge will get New Jersey, but all we can say is Cal has the Edge on them.

Imagine the surprise of a presidential nominee when he is officially notified of it several weeks later.

Japan is buying big bombing planes built in Italy so she can slip something over on someone.

Newfoundland premier has moved to end prohibition there where it is getting hot enough to make beer taste good.

Polygamy has been forbidden in Turkey, except in unusual cases, which, perhaps, means when a man sees a new dizzy blonde.

A chorus girl was discharged from a New York show because of notoriety, so shine your shoes for the millennium.

A man wanted for counterfeiting in St. Louis has been arrested in Honduras, which was making money go a long ways.

Five robbers got $5,000 at noon from a Tuscola, Ill., bank, but $1,000 each is poor pay for running in the hot sun.

A San Francisco woman killed a deer with a bow and arrow, no doubt much to the surprise of the woman and the deer.

Divorces are increasing in Germany where two can starve more quickly than one.

The two Chicago boy murderers played chess, but this is not the grounds upon which their insanity plea is based.

Philadelphia woman has recovered her memory after four months, so maybe her first words were, "It's hotter than it was last summer."

Grasshoppers are ruining the Oklahoma apple crop, but maybe there weren't enough jugs to hold it anyway.

Los Angeles doctor claims thousands have died from kissing. We claim many more are dying to be kissed.

Funny things happen every day. We ship spaghetti to Italy.

Wives don't throw rolling pins as they once did because they don't know where to find them.

Some towns are so lucky. In Indianapolis a movie organist broke his arm.

About the only thing the modern girl is shy of, according to the Hale, Mo., Leader, is shyness.

Aerial Argosies

Henry Ford is building an aviation field near his tractor plant at Dearborn, Mich. He will experiment. Possibly he contemplates producing cheap airplanes by the millions.

The time is almost ripe for that. Ford in business imagines nothing but fact. In a recent interview in Collier's Weekly he said: "Airplanes can be commercially developed as soon as we know as much about them as we do about automobiles—and that will not be long—then they can be built by the thousands or by the millions."

Henry apparently realizes that the airplane industry is on the wrong track. Its main goals are speed and long flights.

For that reason, the airplane is not being developed and brought into popular use a hundredth part as fast as if the main objects were safety and cheap manufacturing.

People will buy airplanes when they are safe and fool-proof.

They will buy airplanes when planes give cheaper service than autos.

Ford has uncannily far vision in his particular industry. Does he sense that the number of autos in use in America has about reached the saturation point or possible limit—and that the time is ripe for another means of transportation?

Primitive man could move about only by his legs. Then he tamed the horse and camel and elephant to carry him.

Next came the steam railroad and electric street car, then the auto. These did not displace the horse, as was the early fear. Time demonstrates that we need as many horses as ever. The ob of transportation simply got too big for the horse alone. He needed help.

Similarly, the ob is getting too big for the auto. Traffic congestion is becoming unbearably acute in cities, where autos are needed most. The airplane is the logical solution. Its "street" is not curbed by sidewalks and blocks or buildings. Where autos are limited to roads, planes have the entire atmosphere—and many levels. Also, no roads to pave and repair.—Abilene Reporter.

The Best in American Verse

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,

And our hearts, though stout and brave,

Still, like muffled drums are beating

Funeral marches to the grave.

In the bivouac of Life,

Be not like dumb, driven cattle!

Be a hero in the strife!

Wise and Otherwise

A careful investigation of the subject by the Erie, Kas., Record, shows that no woman can talk for more than fifty seconds over the telephone and not start giggling, and talking foolishness.

"Ever notice," asks the Alton, Kas., Tribune, "that the fellow who says he already takes more papers than he has time to read hardly ever looks it?"

Phone girls, jeweler's account books, hotel registers and newspapers can tell you more "signs of the times" than your favorite prophet, suggests the Concordia, Kas., Blade.

An Emporia woman, who the Gazette says is already several pounds overweight, has given up her vacation trip because she heard someone say that "travel broadens one so."

Kurrent Komment

Last week the news was broadcast that William Jennings Bryan was recovering from injuries received in an auto accident. As luck would have it, Mr. Bryan was not seriously injured. But it makes us think William Jennings Bryan, while one of the most honored men in the Democratic party is also one of the most abused—abused because he conscientiously works all the time for what he really believes the betterment of the party. Bryan is an old man. Some of these days he will die and when he does, not only the Democratic party and the United States will lose a great, good man, but the entire world will be bereft. Think it over when you criticize Bryan.

Some unthinking Lubbock county people are using a very poor method to rid themselves of their trash and garbage. It's a mighty fine thing to get rid of these undesirable things in the city but the correct way to do it is not by driving out some country highway and tossing the refuse to the side of the road. The city has a scavenger system. Everybody should use it.

It is doubtful if ever before in the history of the nation that so much crime was being committed as it is at the present time. Any newspaper one picks up is given over to the tales of crime and criminals. The newspapers carry the reports because the people want to read them, not because the editors need something to fill up the papers. The sooner interest in crimes and the doings of criminals, the attempts to worship some regilded outlaw and the feeling of pity given by many citizens to these law-breakers are all squelched there will be a marked decrease in crime over the country.

You can't go wooing without courting trouble, discovers the bachelor editor of the Hastings, Neb., Tribune.

New Cab and New Country Car Will Be Placed Into Operation In The Fall

Five years in the taxi business in Lubbock is the record of C. W. Abbott, owner and manager of the Checker Cab company. And the Checker Cab company is growing stronger as the years roll by, so much stronger in fact that this fall Abbott expects to add one more cab and another cross-country car. He said so yesterday.

At present the Checker Cab company operates three cars. One is the special built town cab, the other two are touring cars. The cab, with the special body, one of the prettiest and most efficient cabs being operated anywhere, is a Reo six. The other two cars are Studebakers. The cab is used only for city service, but the other two cars are used in city service and country service, both.

Four men are employed by the company, which boasts of its sudden service. No matter what time of the night or day it is, just call 999, the Checker Cab number, and the car will be rushed to you—pronto!

Up until the first of this month G. C. Abbott was half owner of the Checker Cab company, but on the first day of this month C. W. Abbott purchased the entire interest in the business, when his brother became one of the owners of the Sunset Stage line, which operates between this city and Clovis, New Mexico.

Guns, Curling Irons, Skates and Sewing Machines All Are Simple To Him

Everybody's heard about the big Irish picnic, where they served ice cream, cold cream, vaseline and shaving soap, fish balls, snow balls, cannon balls and skipping rope. That's an old story. But no matter how much one has "been around," as the saying goes, there never was a man who can fix more things in less time — and fix them right, than can J. T. Stanfill, owner and chief mechanic of the General Fixit Shop.

It doesn't make any difference to Stanfill what article you have which is out of kelter. He can fix it no matter what it is. In fact he's never seen anything that he couldn't mend—unless it was a soap bubble, maybe.

Guns and curling irons, sewing machines and safes, smoothing irons and electric fans, graphophones, locks, keys, safe combinations, computing scales and roller skates all come under the jurisdiction of Stanfill and he's not a bit proud—he'd just as soon fix one as the other.

Stanfill has been in Lubbock almost six years and is well known here as a mechanic of exceptional ability. For a time he was in the second hand furniture business but most of the time he has been in the general repair field. His shop was originally at the corner of Ave. H and Broadway, in the Broadway hotel building. He's now located at 1105 Avenue G.

A GOOD LOSER

FELIX ROBERTSON MEETS DEFEAT WITHOUT MALICE TOWARD VOTERS

DALLAS, Aug. 24.—To the press: "In search for the cause of my defeat in Saturday's primary, I am met with irrefutable conclusion that I failed to get enough votes. I fought the best fight I could, and have preserved my self-respect, which is essential to my future. I gave blow for blow, never struck below the belt. No malice lingers in my soul. I hate no man. Where men have misjudged and slandered me, let that rest with their conscience. Where intolerance has struck I have hoisted the flag of tolerance. Where ignorance stalks I throw the spotlight of wisdom. To my thousands of devoted friends and supporters in Texas I extend my heartfelt thanks and gratitude, and to all the people I say without hesitation, my motives were pure and lofty and inspired by a single desire to render a great service to my native state. To my home folks here in Dallas County who accorded me the signal honor of a splendid majority, I am deeply grateful and appreciative, and with my wife who has stood by my side so nobly, pray God to bless you all. We humbly bow to the decree of the people and leave our destinies in the hands of "Him who rules in the affairs of men."

Felix D. Robertson.

City of Lubbock

Your Town--Your Business

Where ever you travel you are proud to register as being from Lubbock. You are proud of your town, its growth, reputation for progress and standing among the cities of Texas.

Your Public Utilities, Light, Water and Sewer, City Owned, has done more to make Lubbock's growth and expansion possible than possibly any other one factor in its growth. "No City Can Be Greater than Its Public Utilities," and Lubbock removed all limits to her greatness when the city took over the life giving utilities of light and water.

SUPERIOR SERVICE --- LOWER RATES

Your Public Utilities have more than kept pace with the demands of the city--they are anticipating the demands of tomorrow. Industry, Commerce, the Tech College, additional homes--all of these are coming to Lubbock secure in the public utility service that is City Owned.

RYE

For Winter Pastures

We have found from several years experimenting on the Sunshine Ranch that Rye planted during September, October or the first of November will make a better winter pasture than wheat, barley, speltz or any other cover crop.

CAR OF RYE SEED

As a result of our experience we are buying Rye Seed by the car and will be in a position to supply every farmer on the South Plains with all that he needs. Come in and talk with us, get names of other farmers who are growing rye and try this winter pasture crop this year.

"HOUSEWIVES!"

—short cuts to the Easy Chair

"MAN WORKS FROM SUN TO SUN, BUT WOMAN'S WORK IS NEVER DONE"—SO RUNS AN OLD COUPLET.

THAT WAS WRITTEN MANY, MANY YEARS AGO—BEFORE WOMEN'S PATH TO THE EASY CHAIR HAD BEEN CLEARED BY THE MANY AND MODERN LABOR AND TIME SAVERS THAT ARE PRESENTED IN THIS CITY-WIDE MOVEMENT IN THE INTEREST OF HOUSEWIVES.

AND ON THIS PAGE THE MERCHANTS, WHOSE WARES ARE NOTED HAVE COMBINED TO ELIMINATE THE DRUDGERY OF HOUSEWORK BY OFFERING SCORES OF LABOR-SAVING DEVICES, EACH MORE COMPETENT TO PERFORM ITS MISSION THAN BY THE OLD MEANS.

AND A WORD TO THE MAN OF THE HOME—COME TO US AND WE'LL GIVE YOU A PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION—SO CONVINCING THAT YOU'LL WONDER WHY YOU NEVER HAD INVESTIGATED BEFORE.

Home Comforts Around Home Cooking

About half of a woman's life is spent cooking.
About three-fourths of a man's life is spent eating.

WHY NOT MAKE THE COOKING EASIER AND THE EATING BETTER?

The Western Electric Stove

For those with electric service nothing approaches the comfort, convenience and general satisfaction of the Western Electric Stove with the full cooking equipment that we regularly carry in stock.

The New Perfection Oil Stove

For those without electric service the New Perfection Oil Stove is the leader for comfort, convenience and general satisfaction. Quick, economical, safe, without smell, smoke, or heat, coal dust and ashes of the old cook stove.

SHORT CUTS TO THE EASY CHAIR MEANS LONG LIVES FOR OUR HOUSEWIVES

Every cooking utensil, kitchen convenience, home aid that a hardware store could ever carry—we have. Save a dollar and spend your health or spend a dollar and save your happiness? Which?

SHORT CUTS To Home Comfort

Are found in the special preparations for house cleaning and the lotions that keep the hands soft and white in spite of housework.

Our SPECIAL No. 6 DISINFECTANT

Is a marvel for use in the bath, the kitchen, back porch, around the house and yard. Ten times stronger than carbolic acid as a disinfectant and yet its milky mixture positively will not burn the hands or soil the clothing. You owe it to home economy to give it a trial.

LIASOL, The Housekeepers Friend

Is the perfect hand lotion to keep the hands smooth, white, soft and cool even after the hardest housework. A real contribution to the comfort chair at the end of housecleaning. O'Cedar Polish, Liquid Veneer, Floor Wax, Sani-Flush, Old Dutch Cleanser, Bon Ami—every known housekeeping preparation is regularly carried in stock by us.

All of these labor saving preparations are instantly available thru our prompt and efficient free delivery service. Phone us the job you have on hand and we will recommend the preparation best suited for doing it.
