Princess Mary Is An Official When Boat Is Launched

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 17. (AP)—Princess Mary, Viscountess Lascelles, officiated today at the launching and christening of the warship Rodney in the shipyard at Birkenhead.

The Rodney, which was commissioned in 1927, will be the largest battleship in the world. Under the Washington treaty its displacement is limited to 35,000 tons.

The Princess performed the christening ceremony with a bottle of empire wine, which was suspended from the lofty bow of the vessel by a red, white and blue streamer. She missed the first two throws.

Interchanging Of Students Planned

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17. (AP)—An interchange system whereby American students will be sent to South America for study of domestic conditions and South American scholars will come to this country for similar study was announced today by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Plans for inauguration of the system are being worked out by a committee of the federation on the basis of scholarship awards.

Marriage Fails To Come Off As First Scheduled

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Dec. 17. (AP)—A romance which began during a trip around the world two years ago, failed to materialize here yesterday when the wedding of Miss Mildred Dern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Dern, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and niece of Governor Dern, of Utah, and Harold Nester, son of Mrs. N. J. Nester, of Geneva, New York, was cancelled one hour before the time set for the nuptials.

The wedding has been definitely cancelled. The young people themselves have agreed to disagree. The wedding will not be held at any time in the future. Further than this there is nothing to say.

The announcement from Mrs. Dern, mother of the bride-to-be, is the only explanation thus far.

The wedding was to have been one of the most brilliant of the southern California social set. Guests were gathering in Frances' Chapel in Balboa, when the telephone message from the Dern household announcing there would be no wedding came.

BRIDGE HONORING VISITORS HIGH NOTE IN SOCIETY WEDNESDAY

Honoring two former Lubbock girls, Mrs. C. S. Gates of Austin and Mrs. A. M. Martin, Jr. of Houston, and Miss Evelyn Posey, one of the very prettiest parties of the festive season, was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. H. T. Kinbo and Mrs. Walter Posey, at the home of the latter.

The receiving room was compelling in gorgeous red carnations and pot plants of livid green, while the key note was highly emphasized at the mantle and fire place, that was a beautiful border of rich autumn leaves.

Tables were placed for bridge and score pads and tally cards were emblematic of the approaching Christmas season.

The honor guests were given rich cordovan leather card cases containing a deck of cards. Mrs. Neal Wright won high favor and Miss Alice Johnson low.

An appetizing and delicious repast of pressed chicken, cranberries, cheese wafers, pear salad, fruit cake, coffee and whipped cream was passed to Mrs. Fluke, Mrs. Fields, Mrs. Ernest Conley, Mrs. McAvey, Mrs. Lee Dugan, Mrs. Krueger, Russell Myrick, Mrs. Germany, Mrs. Byron Dickenson, Mrs. Chrysler, Mrs. Chas. MRS. W. O. STEVENS OPEN HOME TO WESLEY CLASS AND FRIENDS

Wednesday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. W. O. Stevens, 1406 Avenue O, the ladies of the Wesley Class of the Methodist church poured tea to their class mates and friends from three to five.

The house so spacious and inviting was a Christmas revelation with cut flowers of pink and white carnations in places quite conspicuous and Christmas emblems gave a merry atmosphere that added to the beautiful scene.

Mrs. C. B. Middleton, president of the class, whose untiring efforts have helped to bring the class to its present high plane, made an address of welcome that was harmonious with the class spirit, and Mrs. O. B. Trinkle and Mrs. Carl Stogdins sweetly sang during the afternoon that added much enjoyment to the occasion.

Mrs. E. E. White gave two appreciated readings, and Mrs. Raymond George and Mrs. A. B. Ellis played a piano duet that pleased, as their performances always do. At various times Mrs. W. O. Stevens played piano selections that charmed.

At a table beautifully laid in linen and silver, Mrs. Hess, Mrs. Eastin Wolfarth, Mrs. Rodger Pierce and Mrs. W. L. Baugh poured tea, assisted by Mrs. Harry Hall, Mrs. Snyed and Mrs. Sneed, who passed plates, to the guests, consisting of dainty chicken salad sandwiches, olives, hot tea and tiny sticks of Christmas candy in red and green.

Many guests called and one afternoon passed as one memorable to the Wesley class.

Irish Sentries In Belfast Are Stern

BELFAST, Ireland, Dec. 17. (AP)—Armed sentries, posted by the striking "A Special" constabulary, patrolled the entrance to Prince's dock barracks, sternly warning strangers away.

The men, angered over the decision under the London boundary agreement to disband them immediately, are demanding a bonus of 200 pounds each free of income tax. The government yesterday offered two months leave on full pay and transportation home, but the men declared it unacceptable.

Swiss President Chosen By Votes

BERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 17. (AP)—Henri Haebelin, vice president and minister of justice for the last year, today was elected president of the Swiss confederation for 1926.

The new president was born in 188 at Weinfelden, in the Canton of Thurgau. He is a lawyer, a former premier, and was elected to the federal council in 1920.

Congress Not To Permit Cuts For Taxes On Gifts

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17. (AP)—The house refused today to place a gift tax in the revenue bill.

Representative Frear, Republican Wisconsin, proposed continuance of the gift tax created two years with rates equal to the inheritance law, but his amendment was rejected without a record vote.

The amendment offered by Representative Green, Florida, to kill the entire inheritance tax section of the bill was thrown out on a point of order.

Reductions in all cigar levies as written in the measure were accepted without debate.

France Shivers In Intense Cold

PARIS, Dec. 17. (AP)—France is suffering the most intense cold spell in 30 years. The thermometer in Paris last night dropped to five degrees above zero.

Even the favored Riviera is feeling the bite of winter. The best its prognosis is saying is that "it is warm in the sunshine."

Cottonseed Meal Very Effective In Poultry Ration

The use of cottonseed meal in chicken rations has been found to be very effective, and may be substituted for meat scraps in egg production with good results, according to David F. Eaton, Lubbock county Farm Agent, who has received information from the Co-operative Extension Department of the Texas A. & M. College that experiments over a period of four years proves without a doubt that the meal is just as good, and much more economical.

Several cents on each one hundred pounds of feed seed may be saved by using the cottonseed meal, the bulletin stated, which over a long period and in large flocks may effect a great

Railway Man Has No Feelings For Holiday, He Says

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 16. (AP)—Fred D. Underwood, president of the Erie Railroad, has little use for the person who always observes holidays.

In a statement he asserted that government employees are not entitled to holidays and attacked the recent decision at Washington giving postoffice employees a holiday on Christmas.

"Why is any one day any different from another?" he demanded. "Suppose all the locomotive engineers decided to take Christmas off—what would happen?"

"Somebody ought to say something about this subject of government employees taking a holiday. The postoffice should be in operation every day, and night in the year. There is a proposal to make a holiday of the late Woodrow Wilson's birthday. If we do this often enough, when the nation reaches a certain age, every day will be a holiday. Spain broke up because it had forty or fifty holidays a year.

"No day is better than any other. I have a great amount of fault to find with the fellow who exalts his birthday.

TOWN PRIDE

There is in many towns a conflict between people whose first thought is to make money, and those whose first thought is to make an attractive home town. The first named people are constantly seeking chances to make money through some kind of development enterprise.

These people are apt to show enterprise, and if they only had more sense of fitness and taste, they would do a lot of good. In a town where there is not much pride or community spirit, people of that type have things about their own way.

Let in a city with live community spirit, these money makers find that it pays to conform to a higher standard. They learn that the average run of people take pride in their community, and want it made attractive and beautiful.

What particularly stirs Rosika is a hint by Elmer that somebody probably made a rake-off out of the trip, which cost upwards of half a million, so that there was room for a little gray on the side.

CHRISTMAS FOR ALL

Any doubt as to the inherent generosity of the people of the United States should be dispelled by the events of the Christmas season. Even those misanthropes, who see only the avarice and greed in life, can not ignore the sacrifice, charity and magnanimity exhibited at the Yuletide.

American men, women and children see in a conspiracy to make Christmas merry for every needy adult and child. On Christmas day the country over hundreds of thousands of Christmas baskets will be distributed by individuals and organizations. Every basket will contain the very essence of a traditional and idealistic Christmas.

Between those that have the Christmas exchange of gifts is a pleasure but sacrificing for those who have less is a joy that gratifies the soul. People who give generously to the needy poor at Christmas time know that charity is its own reward.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

FORD'S PEACE SHIP BOBS UP AGAIN

By CHARLES P. STEWART, NEA Service Writer. WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Elmer Davis, the novelist, was in the other day to swap Ford Peace Party reminiscences with me.

Between Elmer and Mrs. Rosika Schwimmer, who inspired the expedition, a red-hot controversy has been raging lately in the press.

The row started over a book by Louis Lechner. Lochner was prominently identified with the peace party management and his book is a history of it.

Elmer, in a review of the volume for an eastern newspaper, allowed that she did. Angered, Mrs. Schwimmer came right back at him with a challenge to prove it, so now it's Elmer's turn.

Mrs. Schwimmer, in answer, scores the point that the expedition's disbursing officer was Gaston Plantiff, Henry Ford's own New York sales manager, whose probity isn't questioned, even by Elmer himself.

And, indeed, I venture to say, such a case would be difficult to make out, by any such hard word. Yet it is indisputable that Gas Plantiff had to pay a lot of bills he'd have turned down if he could have helped himself.

It should not be necessary to pass laws forbidding people to stick their hands in the fire, or their heads under the drive-wheels of a locomotive as these acts bring their own sure punishment. But laws of the same character—such is the stupidity of man—are constantly being demanded.

AN OLD MAN IS ENTERTAINED.

A company of London actors gave scenes from the great play, "Tess of the d'Urbervilles," the other day in the living room of a small home in Dorset England.

The play was put on for the benefit of an old man bent with years and in poor health.

The old gentleman expressed himself as well pleased with the performance; he cried often, and was stirred to an emotional pitch by Tess and her troubles.

It was the first time he had seen the play, though it has been on the stage for years and is accounted one of the world's best.

Somehow, he never had got around to seeing it on the stage, and this special performance was arranged for his benefit.

He was Thomas Hardy, who wrote the book.—Ablene Reporter.

PROSECUTION IN LAST APPEAL IS BRUTALLY FRANK

DEPOSED OFFICER TELLS COURT HIS VIEWS AS TRIAL NEARS END

(By The Associated Press)
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Dismissal of Colonel William Mitchell from the army was asked today by prosecution counsel in opening arguments before the general court martial trying the air officer under the 95th article of war.

In asking the maximum sentence prescribed for offenses triable under that article of war, Major Allen Gullion, assistant trial judge advocate, declared Colonel Mitchell "had been proven guilty of disorder to the prejudice of good order and military discipline and of conduct being discredit to the military service."

Is Harshly Criticized
 The prosecution counsel bitterly arraigned the defendant and severely condemned several witnesses who had testified in his behalf, among them Rear Admiral W. S. Sims, his particular target for barbed thrusts. Representative Frank R. Reid, of Illinois, chief defense counsel, also became noticeably mentioned in this connection.

"We ask the dismissal of the accused," Major Gullion said, "for the sake of the army, whose discipline he has endangered and whose fair name he has attempted to discredit. We ask his dismissal for the sake of those young officers of the army air service, whose ideals he has shadowed, and whose loyalty he has corrupted. We ask his dismissal in the name of truth under whose aegis he has sought protection but whose face he does not know. Finally, we ask that the name of the American people, whose fears he has played upon, whose hysteria he has fanned, and whose confidence he has beguiled, be restored to its former position."

Evidence Analyzed
 Major Gullion analyzed only the evidence which pertained to Colonel Mitchell's charges against the navy department and which had been offered the court by defense witnesses. Some of these he referred to by names and types. They included:

Admiral Sims, described as the "opinionated, narrow minded, hobby riding egomaniacal" type; Major William N. Hensley, army air service, "the shifty type"; Lieutenant H. W. Sheridan, air service, "the half truth type"; Lieutenant Orville Anderson, air service, "the pseudo expert type"; Captain Robert E. Oldys, air service, "the reviving memory type"; Lieutenant Colonel William G. Shauffler, air service reserve, "the slipshod type"; and Major General Brant, General staff, "the gay, glib, lovable type."

Raps Laguardia
 Of Representative F. P. Laguardia, socialist, New York, Major Gullion said: "He is beyond my powers of description. Thank Heaven! He is sul-generis."

The prosecution counsel selected numerous quotations made during the trial by Representative Reid, attributing some to "amicus" and terming others "taunts" and "stunts." He asserted Mr. Reid had made "unfounded claims as to the illegality of the investigation" and "went on in an extravagant way that it seemed as though counsel thought that the preliminaries of the trial were an unholy thing."

Referring again to Colonel William Mitchell, Major Gullion summed up his attack on the "Mitchell formula" in his way: "First, exaggeration of national defense matter closely approaching falsehood. Second, untrue and misleading statements for the deliberate purpose of discrediting army and navy officers, thus:

"Third, creating distrust in the minds of the people as to war and navy departments.

"Fourth, egotistic self description as to experience and qualifications, coupled with:

"Fifth, protestations of absence of self interest and expressions of willingness to be, and expectation of being, a martyr, all leading to:

"Sixth, a united air service, with:

"Seventh, William Mitchell as the only logical need of it.

Sought Aggrandizement
 "That," the major said, "is the formula he had followed. Every denials sought protection but whose face he does not know. Finally, we ask that the name of the American people, whose fears he has played upon, whose hysteria he has fanned, and whose confidence he has beguiled, be restored to its former position."

Court Studied Methods
 "This court has had opportunity to study those methods, not only as revealed in his statements of September 5 and 9, but also in his former statements, which the counsel read into the record. All of these statements made over a period of years follow what we may term the Mitchell formula."

Stating why he believed Colonel Mitchell could be dismissed from the army, Major Gullion said:

"There are certain elementary principles of loyalty and subordination, which every organization must maintain if it is to remain a going concern. These elementary principles are really laws of organization and are strictly observed by corporations and religious bodies. Not one of these would tolerate such conduct as the accused Mitchell from the army for such conduct is therefore positively indicated."

Discipline May Be Hurt
 Major Gullion admitted that it was not known "just how seriously the accused's conduct has actually prejudiced discipline," and told the court "it need not be known" to enable it to reach a finding.

"Our soldiers are watching this case," he said. "Fall to displease him and you weaken the authority of ever non-commissioned officer in the service. Dismiss him as he deserves and you strengthen the arm of every single officer commanding a unit-company post from Marfa to Noales."

Mitchell Makes Statement
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. (AP)—Colonel William Mitchell told the army court martial today that his trial was "the culmination of the efforts of the general staff of the army and the general board of the navy to depreciate the value of air power."

The air crusader said he had directed his counsel to "entirely close our part of the proceedings without argument."

Colonel Mitchell's statement to the court follows:

"My trial before this court is the culmination of the efforts of the general staff of the army and the general board of the navy to depreciate the value of air power and keep it in an auxiliary position, which absolutely compromises our whole system of national defense."

Efforts Long Dominant
 "These efforts to keep down our air power were begun as soon as the sound of the cannon had ceased on the western front in 1918. When we saw the battleships off the Virginia capes in 1921 and again in 1923 and proved to the world that air power had revolutionized all schemes of national defense, these efforts were redoubled and have continued to this day.

"The truth of every statement which I have made has been proved by good and sufficient evidence before this court, not by men who gain their knowledge of aviation by staying on the ground and having their statements prepared by a numerous staff to bolster up their predetermined ideas, but by actual flyers who have gained the knowledge first hand in war and in peace.

Speaks Of Letter
 "I wish to invite particular attention to the letter of Secretary Weeks, to the President of the United States, asking that I not be reappointed as assistant chief of the air service on account of information given by me. I testified that the air service had only 15 modern airplanes fit for war and that all others were obsolete and many dangerous. The evidence before this court bears out these facts in its entirety. It has been shown that at present we have only one standard plane in the service.

"Secretary Weeks, and indirectly the President, were wrongly and untruthfully informed as to the condition of our aviation and our national defense by the persons furnishing the data on which his letter was based.

Truth Not Ruled
 "This court has refrained from ruling whether the truth in this case constitutes an absolute defense or not. To proceed further with the case would serve no useful purpose.

"I have, therefore, declared my counsel to entirely close our part of the proceedings without argument."

The prosecution counsel at once offered to forego its foregoing arguments likewise, but the court ruled that the regular order should be followed and ordered Major Allen Gullion, assistant trial judge advocate, to present the closing plea of the prosecution.

Both for the sake of discipline in the army and for national interest, Major Gullion asked that the air officer be stripped of his army commission because of his repeated denunciations of government aviation policies and those responsible for them.

GROWING OF NEW FRUIT IS URGED BY LANHAM

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Dec. 11. (AP)—Jubilee trees may be grown anywhere in Texas, W. B. Lanham, chief of the division of horticulture, Texas Agricultural Experiment station here, said. The Jubilee tree is apparently little affected by drought, will grow in fence corners, and provides a hardy succulent addition to the Texas fruit family.

The Jubilee is of Chinese origin and is more of a bush than a tree. Its fruit ranges in size from a cherry to a plum, and makes a delicious concoction. It is said to taste much like the fruit of the date palm.

Mr. Lanham said the Jubilee has been grown extensively enough in Texas to indicate it is a dependable producer in practically every section of the state. The tree responds to cultivation, which tends to increase the size and better the quality of the product.

"When green the fruit is greenish in color, not unlike a green plum," Mr. Lanham said. "As it ripens, the color changes from green to white, and next brown or purple spots appear, the fruit, when fully ripe having a skin of a chocolate color."

"The tree, while deciduous, is ornamental during the spring, summer, and into the late fall. It resembles some evergreens in foliage. The tree is erect in form. It does not grow to a large size, and is desirable in landscaping. Its beautiful glossy, green foliage and numerous fruits give an attractive appearance."

The Jubilee blooms late, escapes damage from spring frosts and seems adapted to a wide range of moisture and temperature and to almost every type of soil. It begins to bear in the first or second year and no crop failures have been noted in Texas.

A few trees have been producing fruit in Texas for more than 40 years, though they are not of the improved types introduced about 18 years ago.

"Jubilee should be planted in the winter or early spring just as any other deciduous tree. For the first few years, the Jubilee should be given the same care given any other young fruit trees. Because of the certainty of the crop and its hardiness and wide adaptability, the Jubilee offers opportunity for every one of the 465,000 farm houses in Texas to have some fruit about the place."

"The fruit is eaten fresh, pickled and preserved. Canned, the Jubilee are known as the Chinese dates, for they look and taste much like candied dates. The fruit is not highly flavored and when eaten raw is delicious."

"It is probable that the Jubilee when better known will become more and more popular as a fruit and food. It compares favorably with the fig and date in food value. Dried Jubilee carry more protein than dried figs or dried dates, more sugar than dried figs and about the same amount as dried dates."

Downtown Parking In San Antonio To Be Permitted

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Dec. 11. (AP)—San Antonians may park their cars on downtown streets, whenever they can find the space. Phil Wright, commissioner of fire and police, has declared for continuing the practice until traffic congestion makes its prohibition imperative.

With the growing traffic on busy streets, there came suggestions that conditions would be improved if no parking was permitted downtown. But San Antonio is not yet ready for such drastic action, Mr. Wright said.

One way streets, however, are likely to be designated some time as a means of speeding up traffic, he said. To relieve traffic conditions on Houston and Commerce streets, several downtown thoroughfares are to be widened. Market street, for one, will be widened, and eventually Delamorosa and Buen Vista will be, also.

QUEER TRIANGLE FINDS EX-MAYOR AS LEADING MAN

WIFE OF ACCUSED TAKES OTHER WOMAN INTO FAMILY HOME

(By The Associated Press) CENTRAL FALLS, R. I., Dec. 17.—A former mayor of this place is under bail for $1,000 and the woman whose affections he is charged with having alienated has been taken by his wife into their home.

Mrs. Bertha A. Jette today is standing by Charles H. Lord, named in the $25,000 suit brought by her husband, Oscar A. Jette, wealthy shoe manufacturer, whom she says barred her from their pawtucket home.

With Mrs. Jette are her two youngsters. She brought them at the invitation of Mrs. Lord. The wife of the former mayor said she wanted to show by her action her faith in the father of their seven children.

The suit is without the slightest foundation, Mrs. Jette told newspaper men. "The charges are silly and absurd and I will be vindicated at the proper time."

The manufacturer's wife expressed fear that an attempt might be made to take the children from her but declared she awaited court action with assurance that both she and Lord would be proven guilty of wrong doing.

Auto Deaths Are Many In Midwest

CHICAGO, Dec. 14. (AP)—Automobile accident deaths in nine middle western states reached the unusually large total of 120 last week. Casualties in Ohio were 23, 18 persons were killed in Illinois, while the Missouri total stood at 16. Other states were: Michigan 15, Indiana 14, Oklahoma 10, Texas 9, Minnesota 4 and Kansas 1.

Three deaths in Chicago, Sunday in automobile mishaps brought the number of fatalities in the city and vicinity for the year to 750, far above any previous year.

RICHARD CAVETT HURT AS TRUCK HITS AUTO

Richard Cavett, former executive in the South Plains Area Council of the Boy Scouts, now a student in the Texas Technological College, suffered a severe gash on his left hand and several bad bruises on his head and body, when a dairy truck, thought to be from Littlefield crashed into the light car in which he was riding at the intersection of Main street and Avenue Q here shortly past noon Tuesday.

Cavett's car was turned completely over, and the top, front wheels and steering apparatus were practically demolished. The driver of the truck who is yet unknown, continued on his way without stopping, and had not been located early this afternoon. The number on his license plate, however, is in the hands of officers.

Cavett was able to be on the street soon after his wounds were dressed.

Heart Attack Is Fatal To Man In Vaudeville Show

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15. (AP)—A heart attack coming at the high point of the performance by a stage magician caused the death last night of Frederick C. Hicks, alien property custodian. Slumping in his chair at the Belasco Theatre just as the magician hypnotized a woman and caused her to apparently float over the stage, Mr. Hicks died before a physician could reach him.

Mr. Hicks, who succeeded Thomas W. Miller as custodian after the latter's resignation, had served in the House of Representatives from New York from 1915 to 1922, and last year was special United States minister on a diplomatic mission to Peru.

Illinois Women Barred In Jury Box To Contest

CHICAGO, Dec. 17. (AP)—Illinois women, barred from the jury box by a state supreme court decision, yesterday, will seek admission through legislative action.

"We perform our civic duties, why not this?" was the question Chicago women leaders asked when the court opinion held them ineligible to serve as jurors.

"It now becomes the duty of women to see that the legislature admits us to juries."

Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill, member of the legislature, advocated discriminating in favor of candidate, favoring passage of such a bill.
