Forsan faces rate hike General Telephone wins recommendation

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau
AUSTIN — A proposed agreement to raise General Telephone Co.'s basic residential rates by about $1 a month immediately and another 20 cents on Jan. 1 won the recommendation of a Public Utility Commission hearings examiner Monday.

In Forsan, the monthly residential bill would go up 90 cents, while the business rate would increase by $2.05. However, a final decision comes Thursday when the three-member commission takes a final vote on the compromise.

The agreement, reached last month and finally signed by the last of the rate case participants on May 15, calls for GenTel to receive a $32.5 million annual increase in revenues, compared with the company's original request of $85.5 million.

Among those participants are the Texas Municipal League and the cities of Bryan, Brownwood and Sherman.

Under the compromise, local rates would increase in two phases, with the biggest coming in late May or early June. However, another 15 to 20-cent increase is scheduled for January to offset expected revenue losses when GenTel begins offering optional local measured service in the Dallas and Houston areas.

Under that plan, local calls are charged on the same basis as long-distance calls — by duration, distance, frequency and time of day.

Possible expansion of optional local measured service to other areas of the state, including the San Angelo, Bryan, Del Rio and Corpus Christi areas, would require commission permission and is not expected in the near future.

In addition to an average monthly residential increase of less than $1 instead of the original request of about $4 a month, the compromise calls for:

- The number of free calls to directory assistance to remain at 10, rather than being reduced to three as requested by GenTel.

- A new service charge of $11.20 for residential and business customers who disconnect or move their service and need a recording set up to give out a forwarding number or message.

- A $20 increase for residential customers and $28 for business customers needing repair of their phone wiring. The current charge is $5 for both residential and business customers.

Examiner Angela Williams also recommended that a task force be established to "study, evaluate and

Big Spring girl, Natalie Ryan, remains in serious condition

A 17-year-old Big Spring girl remains in serious condition at a Lubbock hospital where she is being treated for injuries received in a pickup accident here Friday.

Natalie Ryan of Gail Route Box 203, daughter of George and Virginia Ryan, is suffering from a broken back and a possible broken neck, according to her mother. Natalie is in the surgical intensive care unit at Lubbock General Hospital on the Texas Tech University campus.

Natalie was injured when the pickup she was driving failed to make a turn near her home on FM 669 10 miles north of Big Spring.

Mrs. Ryan, who witnessed the accident, said Natalie was thrown through the back windshield and was probably struck by the truck as it rolled over. Natalie's back was broken in three places, she said.

Mrs. Ryan said her daughter's life was saved by emergency personnel and the Malone-Hogan Hospital staff, who initially treated the teenager and had her transferred to the Lubbock facility.

Natalie is conscious and can speak but is not allowed visitors or phone calls, Mrs. Ryan said. She can receive mail, however.

"There's no use going all the way there if they can't see her," Mrs. Ryan said.

Mrs. Ryan said her daughter, a junior at Big Spring High School, is paralyzed, and doctors are unsure whether she will fully recover. "But she does have a chance of walking again," Mrs. Ryan added.

She said the family has been deluged with phone calls from persons interested in Natalie's condition.

"I didn't know she had so many friends," Mrs. Ryan said.

Natalie's grandparents are Alden and Zan Ryan and Jack Wilson, all of Big Spring.

SHAKEN UP — Shaffer Ambulance technician John Korrell, kneeling, examines Pete Jones, who sits on the front bumper of his car which flipped this morning about 8 a.m. on Highway 87 north of Big Spring. Jones and his son, Johnny, a passenger in the car, were admitted to Hall-Bennett Hospital where they were listed in stable condition. Department of Public Safety trooper Dean Richardson said the car, which was towing another vehicle on a trailer, went out of control and flipped on its top.

PARTICIPANT — Roy McKendree, a member of the Suez Shriner's Temple, sits in one of the cars which will be in the Pro-Am parade tomorrow in Big Spring.

McKendree is the leader of one of a group of Shriner's who will drive vehicles in the parade.

Pro-Am parade Celebrities highlight Wednesday celebration

The 1983 Shriner's Pro-Am Tournament Parade will feature the stars, a moon walker, heavenly bodies and brass bands.

The first annual tournament parade on Wednesday at 4 p.m. will have all the celebrities appearing at the golf tournament, according to parade organizer Bill Nehls.

Some of those celebrities include Pittsburgh Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, country singing great Faron Young, former Dallas Cowboy Golden Richards, country singer Charlie Walker and rodeo legend Larry Mahan.

Four of the Houston Oiler cheerleaders, the Derrick Dolls; Olympic weightlifter Sam Walker; rodeo cowboy Toots Mansfield and one of the few men to have walked on the moon, Colonel James B. Erwin, are also scheduled to appear.

In addition, three beauty queens, four bands and the Shriners will be out in force from several area towns, Nehls said.

About 60 entries are planned for the parade that will begin at Fifth and Main. The parade will travel north to Third Street, circle the courthouse and then south down Gregg to Gibson Discount Center, Nehls said. Miss West Texas Stephanie Oates, Miss San Angelo Felecia Ford and Miss Texas Gloria Gilbert will be appearing. Miss Gilbert represented Texas in the Miss America contest.

Big Spring's high school and middle school bands will be marching along with the Hardin-Simmons College Cowboy Band, Nehls said.

Twelve Shriner performing units are expected to appear from Odessa, Midland, San Angelo, Sweetwater and Brownwood, Nehls said. The Big Spring Shriners Motor Patrol and the Tin Lizzies — a go-cart troupe — will also be in the parade.

The Big Spring Motor Patrol is currently ranked No. 2 in the state, Nehls said.

Other parade highlights include a lunar module model from the Space Center, a 1924 antique tanker truck and possibly a racing hydroplane, Nehls said. Several civic and commercial groups are also planning floats for the parade including the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts of America, Nehls said.

The expected weather forecast for Wednesday's parade is cool with temperatures in the upper 70s.

Hereford farmers oppose dump site

HEREFORD, Texas (AP) — A Panhandle farmer says that this small agricultural town could erupt in guerrilla warfare, if federal officials decide to bury high-level nuclear waste under some nearby farmland.

"There are people, ordinary God-fearing people, who will fight you to their final breath to keep the dump site from opening here," Dale Kleuskens told U.S. Energy Department officials at a hearing Monday night.

Farmers and cattlemen in this rich, agricultural region oppose the waste site, and about 600 area residents attended the hearing in the Hereford High School auditorium.

The Deaf Smith County site is one of nine the Energy Department is considering for the $8 billion project, which would be used to bury almost 1.5 million pounds of nuclear waste each year a half mile underground.

A second hearing is scheduled today in nearby Tulia, which is also under consideration for a waste site. The government plan would bury the waste in shafts drilled near the Ogallala aquifer, which supplies irrigation water for the High Plains.

Kleuskens is a member of People Opposed to Wasted Energy Repositories, a Hereford group fighting selection of the Deaf Smith County site.

"There are a few words that will have to become a part of your vocabulary in 1987 if the test shaft and

Action/reaction: County cable

Q. What are the obligations for Big Spring Cable to provide service for the county?

A. None. Big Spring Cable TV Vice President Jim Lancaster said the company has a franchise with Big Spring and not with the county. The cable service also has a separate franchise with Coahoma, Lancaster said. Expansions into the county occur when economically feasible to add on to existing locations, he added.

Two Shaw bills clear committee for House okay

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau
AUSTIN — Two seemingly unrelated legislative proposals — broader rights for veterans in federal courts and expanded flexibility for protecting historical or wilderness areas — were recommended Monday by legislative committees.

The two proposals share the same sponsor, Rep. Larry Don Shaw, D-Big Spring.
Under current federal law, veterans making a claim for Veterans Administration benefits or appealing an adverse decision are permitted to pay a maximum of $10 in legal fees.

In effect, the limit on legal fees denies veterans the right to hire an attorney and violates constitutional guarantees of due process under law, Shaw said. Decisions by the agency are final and not subject to review by any federal court, Shaw's proposed House resolution said.

If approved by the House, Shaw's resolution would lend support to a bill before Congress to repeal the law. The House State Affairs committee unanimously recommended the bill to the House.

Shaw's proposal aimed at closing legal loopholes obstructing voluntary conservation easements won approval from the Senate Natural Resources Committee. Conservation easements are restrictions which property owners voluntarily place on their land to protect wildlife habitats or maintain historic buildings or sites. The restrictions apply to current and future landowners and are monitored by an independent party.

The House-passed legislation would allow private property owners greater flexibility in restricting development rights on their land.

Under current Texas law, private landowners are limited in their ability to preserve their property in its natural state and thus take advantage of tax breaks designed to encourage private conservation efforts.

Most major environmental groups have endorsed the concept. U.S. Secretary of the Interior James Watt also has supported conservation easements to encourage voluntary, private preservation efforts.

Aerial spraying begins to stop fire ant march

KERRVILLE (AP) — Texas Department of Agriculture officials began on Monday aerial spraying operations of PRO-DRON, a non-poisonous chemical used to kill imported fire ants, officials said Tuesday.

Don Williamson, the Kerr County auditor who handles the manual spraying of the fire ants with another chemical, AMDRO, said planes loaded with the PRO-DRON took off Monday about 1:00 p.m. and returned late Monday evening.

He said the spraying would probably not continue Tuesday because of bad weather.

The spraying will cover some 500,000 acres of fields in Kerr and Kendall counties. The TDA sponsored project has been stalled for more than a week because of bad weather.

TDA entomologist Terry Mitchell said planes loaded with the chemical were ready to lift off from the Kerrville Municipal Airport early Monday.

The Sierra Club complained in a statement out of Austin about the spraying.

It expressed concern about "important unanswered questions about plans to spray most of Kendall with PRO-DRON"

J. J. Jacobsen said that "many biologists" were concerned that any wide use of pesticide, not specifically made for imported fire ants would actually increase the pests numbers.

Robber shoots manager of high school cafeteria

DALLAS (AP) — A masked gunman shot and critically wounded a high school cafeteria manager as she handed over more than $1,000 in cash, police said.

Thelma Katherine Rowe, 64, was in critical condition after undergoing surgery Monday at Presbyterian Hospital, officials said.

The robbery and shooting at Lake Highlands High School, in northeast Dallas, took place at 2:05 p.m., about 40 minutes after the last lunch period, police said. No students were present at the time, according to investigators.

Paula Sanders, a 28-year-old co-worker who was helping Mrs. Rowe count the cash, was not injured. "It happened very, very quickly," Mrs. Sanders said. "It wasn't more than a minute and a half that he was in there."

Mrs. Rowe was helping the gunman put money into a sack when the gun went off, Mrs. Sanders said. "To me it didn't look intentional," she said. "Obviously it wasn't going quick enough for him, and he was very nervous."

Police said they did not know how the gunman knew the school's procedure for handing cash. "He evidently had figured out what he was going to do," said investigator Charlie Royal. "While the woman was gathering up the money, he just shot her, apparently without any real motive at all."

Task force members would include commission staff, GenTel personnel and representatives of three cities currently plagued by telephone service problems — Garland, Irving and Plano. A task force report would be filed within nine months under Ms. Williams' proposal.

Among those cities where the monthly rate for one residential phone line would increase by $1.15 is San Angelo, Bryan and College Station. One business line there would cost $2.45 more each month.

Those exchanges where the residential bill would increase $1 a month include Brownwood, Hughes Springs, Linden and Lone Star, with a business line in those cities to increase by $2.40 a month.

The San Angelo-based phone company filed for the rate hike in February, asking for 20 to 50 percent increases in the cost of basic phone service.

Proposed residential rates would have ranged from $11.20-$12.20 a month under the company proposal, depending on the size of the city. Current residential rates range from $7.45 to $7.90 a month, while basic business rates for one phone line now range from $19.75 to $20.95. Those amounts do not include the cost of the phone instrument.

The company received a $46.8 million rate increase last July, after requesting $110.6 million more in annual revenues.

Man treated for knife wounds
Tano T. Chavarria, 34, of 505 W. Sixth was treated and released this morning from Malone-Hogan Hospital emergency room for knife wounds to his left shoulder and left hand.

Chavarria told police he was attacked by a man he doesn't know at 5:30 a.m. on the 400 block of N.W. Fourth. He said he had been conversing with another person and was trying to leave the area when he was knifed.

No arrests have been made in connection with the assault, police Lt. Alvis Jeffcoat said.

Police reports also show the following:

• Sirilo Nieto of 1400 Dixie told police yesterday that an adult male and a juvenile male threatened his 16-year-old daughter's life with a rifle Sunday evening outside the Town and Country Store on Lamesa Drive.

• Norman Webb Jr., 19, of 710 Galveston was arrested at 12:04 a.m. today on suspicion of making alcohol available to a minor and public intoxication. At the same time, police arrested Lloyd Patterson, 18, on suspicion of being a minor in possession of alcohol. They both were released after posting bond.

• Felix Hilario of 1501 E. Fifth told police that four gunshots struck his van Sunday morning during the shooting in front of Mary's Disco Palace on the 200 block of Runnels.

• James Smith, owner of Bob Smith Enterprises at 3911 W. Highway 80, told police that two young black men stole $85.78 in cash and checks yesterday from his business. Smith said the men came to his shop at 10 a.m. with a vehicle to be worked on and that while the two were in his office using the phone, they took the money from a bag on a desk.

• Barbara Taylor of 1408 E. 14th told police someone stole a kitchen table, three chairs, box springs and a door from 407 1/2 Bell between Thursday evening and Monday morning.

• Oscar Solis, 21, of 1208 Marijo was released on bond yesterday after his arrest on an assault warrant.

Sheriff's Log

3 released on bond
Three persons were released on bond Monday in connection with the shooting incident at Mary's Disco Paradise Sunday.

Richard J. Nunez, 21, of 710 N. Scurry and Eugene Dennis Deleon, 21, of 1504 Mesa posted bonds totalling $20,000 in connection with unauthorized carrying of a weapon and aggravated assault.

• Armando Deleon, 25, of Route 1 posted $15,000 bond in connection with an aggravated assault charge. Bonds were set by Municipal Judge Melvin Daratt.

Syrians block Lebanon's roads

By The Associated Press
Israel and Lebanon signed their U.S.-mediated troop withdrawal agreement today in a two-stage ceremony spanning their border, and Syria retaliated by blocking Lebanon's roads to the rest of the Arab world.

Lebanese security officials and travelers reported the Syrians cut the main Beirut-Damascus road cut at the town of Sofar, 13 miles southeast of Beirut, at the Syrian frontline in the Bekaa Valley.

They said the Syrians also blocked the main coastal highway between Beirut and the northern port of Tripoli near Helweh, 22 miles north of the Lebanese capital.

In addition to the blockades, the Lebanese security officials, who asked not to be named, said telephone and telex links between Beirut and Syrian-controlled Lebanese territory were cut.

The sources said the Lebanese-Syrian border had not been closed, but that no travel was being permitted in or out of Syrian-held territory inside Lebanon. Syria had threatened to blockade Lebanon's land routes if it went through with the signing.

The Syrians claim the accord jeopardizes Syrian security and Lebanese sovereignty. An estimated 35,000 Syrian troops have been in Lebanon since snuffing out the 1975-76 Moslem-Christian civil war.

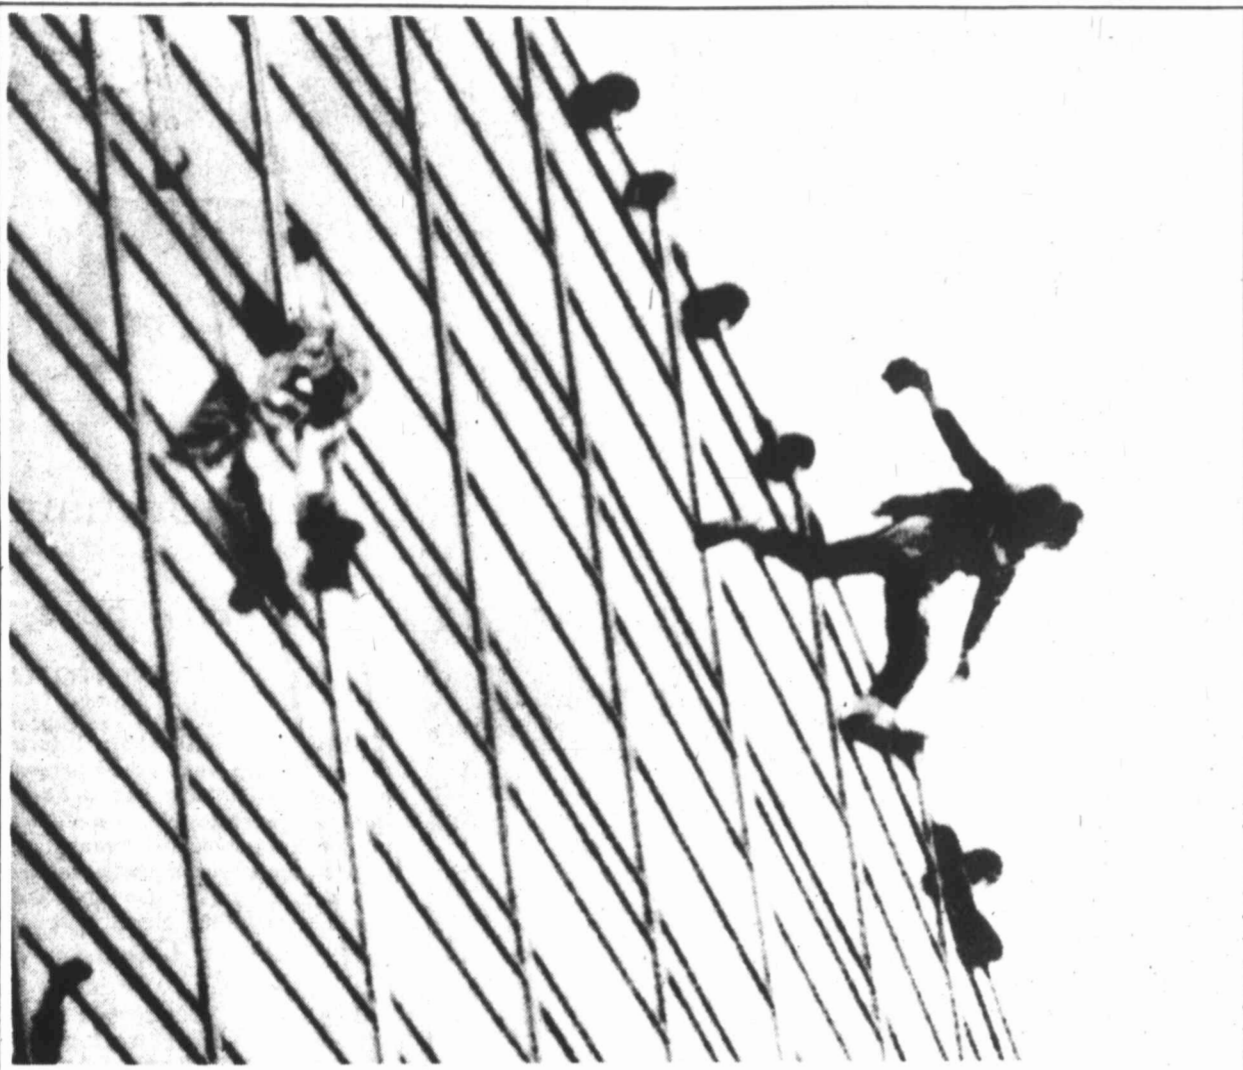

About 25,000 Israeli troops have been in Lebanon since invading June 6 to smash the Palestine Liberation Organization.

The Israelis say they will not withdraw their troops from Lebanon unless the Syrians and the estimated 10,000 Palestinian guerrillas also leave.

The French and Arabic texts of the 37-page withdrawal agreement were signed in Khalde, Lebanon by negotiators Antoine Fattal of Lebanon and David Kimche of Israel, and then by U.S. special envoy Morris Draper as a witness. The ceremony took place at a seaside hotel where the withdrawal negotiations began Dec. 28, and Israeli and Lebanese troops ringed the building to provide security.

The delegates then flew by helicopter to the northern Israeli border town of Kiryat Shmona, the site of other negotiating sessions and a former target of Palestinian guerrilla shelling in the 1970s, to sign the Hebrew and English texts of the pact. Schoolchildren carrying balloons and signing songs lined the streets to welcome the negotiators.

In Khalde, the heads of the three delegations shook hands and posed smiling for photographers at the end of the 50-minute signing ceremony, which came nearly five months after the withdrawal negotiations began in a bid to remove all foreign armies from Lebanon.

BANDIT JUMPS — The "Blue Bandit," a man later identified as 21-year-old David Adcock, leaps from the platform he made on the 68th floor of the Allied Bank Plaza which he climbed using suction cups

Monday. He unleashed a parachute which is in his trailing hand as he jumped away from authorities on the roof waiting to arrest him for trespassing.

Who was that masked man? Bank climber jumps to safety

HOUSTON (AP) — A masked man attempting to climb the glistening 71-story Allied Bank Tower stopped three floors from the top, unfurled the U.S. and Texas flags, then opened a parachute and floated safely to ground.

The climber, identified as David Adcock, 21, of Dallas, landed near a downtown parking garage a few blocks away.

Adcock ran into the garage and was arrested by four police officers who whisked him through a crowd of hundreds of spectators chanting "Let him go, Let him go."

Adcock, whose name was not known until after his arrest, was charged late Monday with evading arrest and criminal trespassing, said Kay Burkhalter of the district attorney's office.

Bond was set at $10,000 on each charge because Adcock was serving 18 months probation for a similar offense last year on the West Coast, Ms. Burkhalter said, adding that details were not immediately available.

Ms. Stanley said she offered bail her son out. But he refused, saying he was grown up, she said.

Adcock was the second such "urban mountaineer" here in less than three months. On March 14, Ron Broyles, a Hollywood stunt man, scaled the 75-story Texas Commerce Tower, the tallest skyscraper west of the Mississippi River.

Beside the wig and mask, Adcock wore a blue and white cap with a Texas flag on the front and a blue jumpsuit.

Ms. Stanley said her son told her he was making the suit for a masquerade. "I guess maybe his home ec (economics) teacher would be proud," she said.

The climber used three suction cups in his assault on the city's second-tallest building, which is under construction but partially occupied.

The cups — two on his hands, attached to a harness around his waist, and a third which he used as a stirrup, were the type used by glass handlers and that a vacuum is created by pumping with one's thumb, said property manager Tom Laughlin.

'Lebanon's friends' asked for support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Without mentioning Syria by name, President Reagan called on "Lebanon's friends" today to support the Lebanese-Israeli agreement under which Israel would withdraw its troops from Lebanon.

"This opportunity shouldn't be allowed to slip away," the president said.

Reagan made his comments just hours after representatives of Israel and Lebanon signed the agreement, negotiated with the help of Secretary of State George P. Shultz.

However, the Israeli withdrawal is tied to the departure of Syrian and Palestine Liberation Organization forces from Lebanon, and neither Syria nor the PLO has agreed to such a withdrawal.

The president spoke from typewritten notecards, taking advantage of a photo session at the start of a meeting with Republican congressional leaders to congratulate Israel and Lebanon on reaching the agreement and to prod Syria to join it.

The signing of the agreement, Reagan said, "will initiate a process which will culminate in the withdrawal of all external forces from Lebanon and in restoring Lebanese sovereignty, independence and control over its territory."

"This will enhance the security, I think, and well-being of Lebanon and all of its neighbors," the president said. "It deserves the support of all of Lebanon's friends in the Middle East and around the world."

"The way is now clear for others whose forces are in Lebanon to agree to withdraw as well," he said, adding:

"The risks if withdrawal fails are far greater than the risks of completing the withdrawal."

He said the United States would "stand firmly beside Lebanon."

Mattox will investigate deaths

AUSTIN (AP) — State Attorney General Jim Mattox says his office will investigate the deaths of four members of a Mexican-American family struck by a soldier's car during the Wurstfest celebration in New Braunfels.

Mattox' office released a statement Monday evening saying if he determines additional prosecution is necessary for Army Pfc. William Dale Savage, he would assign lawyers under his supervision to do it.

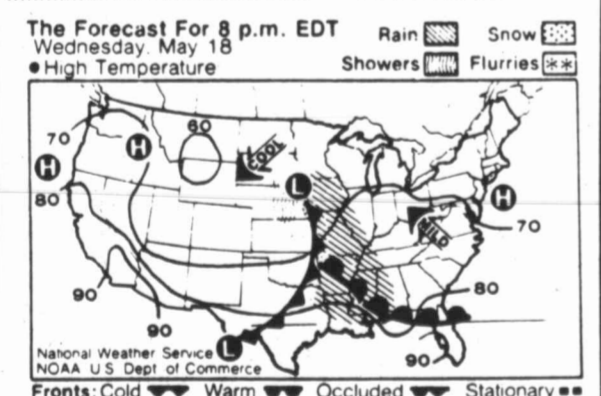

The four members of the Ruben Saucedo family were killed Oct. 30 as they crossed a New Braunfels highway, about 35 miles north of San Antonio.

Savage had just left some Wurstfest festivities, an annual event celebrating this city's German heritage, when his yellow Volkswagen plowed into the Saucedos.

Savage was tried and convicted of involuntary manslaughter April 14 in connection with the death of the father. The next day, a jury sentenced the Fort Sam Houston soldier to 10 years probation and a $5,000 fine.

The local district attorney then angered Hispanic leaders by refusing to try Savage for the death of Ruben Saucedo's pregnant wife and two young children.

Editorial Exports must be revived

America's balance of trade has deteriorated badly during the last two years. It now is running record deficits.

There are many reasons for the negative balance of trade. Among these are obsolete plants, high labor costs, export subsidies by foreign governments and inefficient industrial management.

Writing in The New York Times several months ago, former Vice President Walter Mondale suggested some practical ways to reduce the deficit.

Among these are less emphasis by American business managers on immediate profits, and more emphasis on new product development.

Mondale suggests restoring full funding to the Export-Import Bank and using its resources to match export subsidies by foreign nations.

He also advocates taking strong steps to encourage increased investment in new business and new products. Only by doing this, Mondale says, can we ensure economic growth and security and end the recession.

In addition, Mondale points out that corporate mergers and acquisitions are not economically productive. They divert funds from new plants and technology, and thus they inhibit economic growth.

His points are well-taken and deserve serious consideration by the president and Congress.

Around the Rim

Fear of barbers

The musical Sweeney Todd was about an English barber who murders his customers and then has his wife bake them into little sausage pies.

I don't know if there is a worldwide organization dedicated to preserving barbers' rights, but you'd think barbers would stop putting up with this type of thing.

They have been used and abused in the public eye for a long time now. When was the last time barbers were treated as the skillful professionals they are supposed to be?

It was a long time ago. I am not going to remedy that situation, but maybe I can explain it away.

Women's hairdressers have been able to gain reputations as serious artists, but men's hairdressers have not. That is not just because women provide more hair to work with; we're talking lack of respect — we're talking abuse.

MY OWN ABUSE of barbers dates back to when I was 10. At a barbershop in Illinois I was told I parted my hair on the left side — the same side most girls part their hair on.

For me, haircuts became very traumatic after that. I sneak down to the barbershop and sit in the chair frozen. I don't want my barber to talk to me; I want him to concentrate.

Never get a barber mad at you.

My sister cut my hair once and she did a marvelous job (Note sarcasm). So I went to the barber for repairs.

About five minutes after he started he screamed. "What the — is this, boy? You use a lawnmower for a hat?"

Never anger a man who is holding scissors to your neck and ears.

I'm not normally a vain person, but neither am I very confident of my looks. I don't want to pay for something that will make my lack of confidence any more justified.

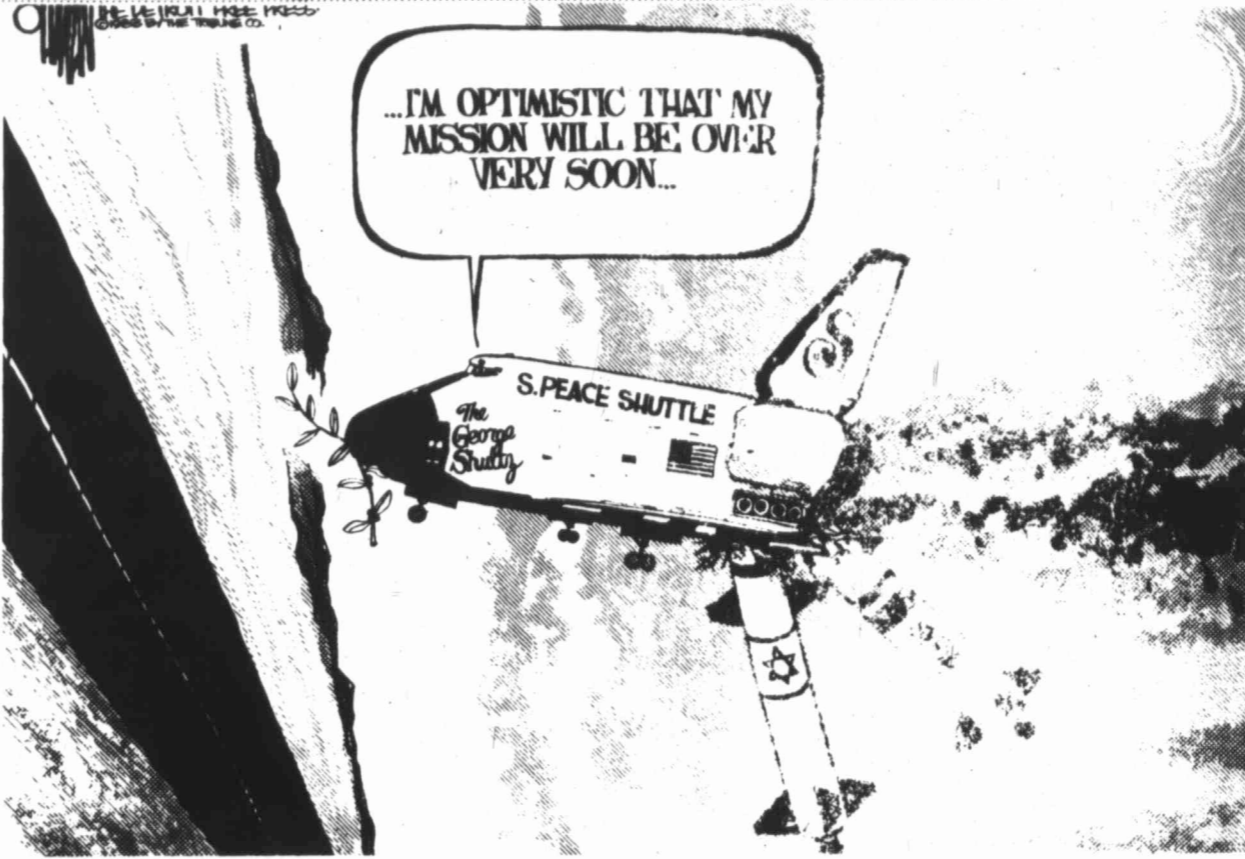

One day I was in such a good mood that I leaped into the barber chair and said, "Make me look like Robert Redford!"

The barber laughed... and laughed... and said, "Well, well, a barber can only do so much. Ho, ho, ho, ho..."

After haircuts, I would go home and my father would stare at me throughout dinner, like he thought that Illinois barber may have actually figured out my problem. He never likes my haircuts — they're never short enough.

MY PHOBIAS have not changed. Today we have unisex hair salons. I never go to them because for the money they charge I want something that will dramatically alter my existence in a positive way.

I've come to the conclusion that haircuts are not capable of that.

Art Buchwald

The company never lies

"I saw your advertisement in the Sunday newspaper and I wish to join the CIA."

"We're happy to have you. Please repeat after me, 'I swear to uphold the Constitution, and all the laws of the land.'"

"I do."

"Sorry, you can't have the job."

"Why?"

"Because sometimes in the agency it's impossible to uphold all the laws of the land and still do the mission."

"Then why did you make me take the oath?"

"Just to test you to see if you had what it takes to be a member of the company."

"Give me another chance. I'd be willing to say no to the oath in a shot."

"How do you feel about congressional watchdog committees who are always prying into our covert affairs?"

"I guess in a democracy they're a necessary evil."

"You can leave now. We don't think we have an opening."

"That wasn't the answer you wanted?"

"Covert activities are too serious to be left to the politicians."

"I agree 100 percent, sir. Congressmen and senators should stop prying in what we're up to."

"What do you mean 'we'?"

"I just meant 'we' in case you changed your mind and gave me the job. I assure you, sir, if I become a member of the 'company' I'll lie to Congress through my teeth."

"The agency doesn't OFFICIALLY approve of lying."

"Neither does my mother. But I lie to her all the time."

"That's a good answer. Maybe you have the makings of a CIA agent after all. As you know we have two functions here. One is to gather intelligence and information from all over the world, and the other is to instigate covert operations to destabilize governments that threaten our national security. Which branch would you prefer to work for?"

"I'd like to get into covert operations. I've always wanted to see Nicaragua."

"How do you know we're in Nicaragua?"

"The president said we are, and he's real mad that the Senate will only let us stay there until September."

"That information happens to be classified."

"I read it in The Washington Post."

"If you work for us everything you read in The Washington Post is classified. Is that understood?"

"Yes, sir. I'll shred it every morning after I read it."

"Let's say we sent you to Nicaragua, and we weren't able to destabilize the Sandinista government by September. What would you do?"

"Come back to Langley."

"No you wouldn't. You would become a member of the U.S. Agricultural Mission in Honduras."

"I don't know anything about agriculture."

"You don't have to know anything about agriculture. Your job would be to smuggle arms to the Nicaraguan freedom fighters."

"I get it, sir. The agriculture title is my cover. Boy, whoever thought of that one is a genius."

"Now sooner or later some smart-aleck newspaperman is going to get wind of what you're up to, at which point we're going to have to deny to Congress any knowledge of having agents in Nicaragua after September. We'll have to say you were a former CIA agent who left the agency in disgrace and you were acting on your own. We might even have the Justice Department try you for gun-running."

"It sounds like a neat job. When can I start?"

"As soon as you take your oath to uphold the Constitution and the laws of the land. By the way, when I give it to you the answer is, 'Yes and no.'"

"What do you mean, 'Yes and no'?"

"Yes for your personnel files, which Congress has access to, and no to assure the people you will be working for."

Billy Graham

He may have to get welfare

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I have always been a very proud person, but recently I have had a lot of financial reverses. Now I have lost my job and it looks like I may have to go on some type of public welfare in order to survive. Do you think there is anything morally wrong with doing this? — J.S.S.

DEAR J.S.S.: Our society has a system of social welfare or assistance which is meant for people who are in genuine need. Yes, I know there are probably those who abuse it or use it as an excuse to avoid working — but the abuses of the few should not make you think that there is something wrong with the system as a whole. If you sincerely need the kind of help that our nation's welfare system is meant to bring to people, then you should not let your pride stand in the way. The ancient society of Israel has definite ways to assist those who were poor, and that is true of virtually any modern society today. The Bible says, "The righteous care about justice for the poor, but the wicked have no such concern" (Proverbs 29:7).

There are two other things that I would like to mention concerning your question. First, although I know we live in difficult times economically, I hope you will continue to seek employment. We all hope that there will be more jobs available in the future.

The other thing has to do with your reference to your pride. Elsewhere in your letter you indicate that you have never really had very much to do with the church or with God. I wonder if perhaps your pride has been a major reason for this — believing that you did not really need God because you were able to run your life quite satisfactorily without him.

But you need God. You need him right now in the midst of the problems you are facing, and you need him for the future — both for the rest of your life and for eternity. Sometimes the hardest thing for someone like you to admit is that you need God — and sometimes God allows things to happen to us that show us we are not nearly as able to run things as we thought we were.

Brazel attacks Gilstrap credibility

Dear Editor:

Reference here is made to most recent outburst by Cecil Gilstrap, the muttering nabob of negativism. Here he objects to taxes and alleges his freedoms are being abused as well as that of a former fireman who was terminated. He blames much of these problems on the City Council and City Manager. I wonder why he did not blame the voting electorate of Big Spring?

Mr. Gilstrap made attacks on these and also the School Board several weeks ago prior to elections for each of these bodies and I suggested he offer himself as a candidate for either of these bodies. What did he do? He solicited a Well Service Contractor to run for the City Council and offered his wife as a candidate for the School Board. Is this not quite typical of this loud mouthing anti-individual? The people spoke at the election and each took a sound thrashing. This did quiet him temporarily.

I must at this time challenge the credibility of Mr. Gilstrap when he recently made a personal attack on me. He said when I ran for County Judge in 1970 that I received only 20 votes. That is a deliberate lie and records will sustain my remark. I had been solicited by many to run for this office, even though I was not well known since my work required me to be out of town most of the time. I did not know many people here even though I had lived here several years. I did have a program to save taxpayers money and I did get beat, but many things I had in my platform have since been adopted by the various County entities.

Further derogatory remarks by Mr. Gilstrap about me in this article said I had "lived off the boys at Cosden and had never been engaged in productive work." This also is a deliberate lie and is further evidence of his lack of credibility and knowledge. I have never received a penny from any Cosden employee at any time nor from Local No. 826, the Local Union of Operating Engineers that represents them and I was never employed by them. I was employed by the International Union whose headquarters are in Washington, D.C. I represented many local unions in West Texas and New Mexico when they requested my services as an International Representative to assist in any of their problems. The opposite of what Mr. Gilstrap said are the facts in this matter. His remarks are 100 percent false.

When I came to West Texas Local No. 826 owned no property and had no paid employees. I first encouraged them to buy some land with the idea of building their own home some day. They followed my advice and purchased several acres across from Cosden Refinery. I then encouraged other local unions in West Texas and New Mexico to vote to surrender their charters and merge with Local No. 826, put their money and strength together and build a Union hall. They all complied, and I assisted the representative they chose to represent them. They selected Arlo Suggs, a local Union Contractor to construct the building; plans were drawn by the local Union. This strengthened all Operating Engineers in this area and the charter of Local No. 826 was expanded to cover all West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

I then assisted the local Business Representative in securing an appointment to Michigan State University for further training under a program known as "Nile", the initials for National Institute of Labor Education. I had become personally acquainted with one of its directors before being transferred to Texas, and he honored my request for the appointment of the representative of Local No. 826.

The Local honored me for my services by presenting me with an engraved gold pen and pencil set when I retired and has since given me a lifetime paid-up membership.

These untruths previously made by Mr. Gilstrap and printed by the Herald are libelous and more care should be exercised in printing remarks by this negative thinking Mr. Gilstrap.

Mr. Gilstrap is always concerned about his rights and freedoms but consistently criticizes all those elected by the true democratic process which always appears to be in opposition to his negativism. His alleged concern over the inquiry and suspension of a local fireman for allegedly using his job and City property as a base for illegal gambling does no good to any one.

The police were only doing their duty when they and fire department personnel interrogated the employees at that location. It is not uncommon for innocent people to be interrogated when seeking a violator of the law. The innocent should not resent such actions. The taxpayers want enforcement of the law with the exception of a few who seek to use its violations for personal gain.

I have been advised by Texas Monthly that they have interviewed Mr. Gilstrap for a story re his letters to the Editor. Could it be that his ego has overcome common sense in his desire to get more publicity for his muttering negativities? His utterings must be questioned as to their credibility.

Sincerely,
D. A. BRAZEL

MORE TO SMILE ABOUT — Mrs. Maureen McVicker is shown in this photograph on the left before she had an operation to help her regain her smile which was changed by a paralysis as a result of surgery to remove a tumor in her face. The photo on the right shows her recently in her home near Pittsburgh after the corrective operation was completed.

A reason to smile

Corrective surgery helps woman regain smile

PITTSBURGH (AP) — After two operations and months of therapy, Maureen McVicker is gradually recovering something she lost 7 1/2 years ago — her smile.

Mrs. McVicker was physically unable to smile after the left side of her face was paralyzed during the removal of a brain tumor. But doctors re-animated her face by grafting a muscle that controls chewing to an area under her left cheekbone.

"It won't ever be perfect, I know. But it's getting there," said Mrs. McVicker, 34, who underwent a 4 1/2-hour operation Feb. 10 as a followup to surgery last August.

"You have to practice. You have to get the strength back into muscles that you haven't used in 7 1/2 years. It's like lifting weights to build the muscles back up. They're a little out of shape," she added in a recent interview.

"I have a sign that sits by my phone at home that reads: 'Please be patient with me, God isn't finished with me yet.'"

The left side of Mrs. McVicker's face drooped uncontrollably after her facial nerve was severed during the removal of the tumor.

But with the muscle graft, she can simulate a smile by clenching her teeth. She strengthens the muscle by chewing on a cork and practicing in front of a mirror.

"Not everyone gets an opportunity to recreate a face," said Mrs. McVicker, a former bank clerk with five children. "It's almost like a sculptor taking clay and making a whole new face. It's recreating an image. It's like a totally different person."

Her husband, William, said the transformation has been more than physical.

"It's a miracle what the doctor has done. You can see the difference. It's going to help her go out and be with people," McVicker said.

The two operations were performed by Dr. Mark May, an ear, nose and throat specialist at Pittsburgh's Eye and Ear Hospital who has done 45 similar operations since 1976.

"Generally, the concept is to substitute a muscle system that has its own blood supply and nerve supply for one that's dead," said May. The surgery helps people psychologically as well as physically, the doctor said.

"With a facial paralysis, people change their whole personality. They withdraw," said May. "Before the operation, they have no opportunity to move the face. Their face is dead. Their personality is dead. Some of these people conduct their lives as if they had died."

"Making their face move restores their personality and literally restores their life," he added. Mrs. McVicker didn't like going out in public or having her picture taken. But now she feels more outgoing.

"I am less self-conscious. I'm more secure with myself," she said. "I have absolutely no regrets. Even if it didn't work, I wouldn't have any regrets. I feel you have to try. I'm a mountain climber."

"I have a sign that sits by my phone at home that reads: 'Please be patient with me, God isn't finished with me yet.' And that's the way I feel."

Preacher strangles wife, child

HOUSTON (AP) — A self-professed preacher with a "twisted" interpretation of the Bible allegedly strangled his wife and fatally beat his infant son, hoping to cleanse them of evil spirits and watch them rise from the dead, a detective says.

Benny Hamilton was charged with two counts of murder and held in the Harris County Jail without bond, said Kay Burkhalter of the district attorney's office.

His 27-year-old wife, Marilyn Ann Hamilton, and their 10-month-old son, Steve Christian Hamilton, were found slain Friday at a southeast Houston motel where the family had lived for eight months, said homicide detective Ken Johnson.

"He believed they possessed by demons and under the influence of witchcraft and was convinced the Lord wanted him to kill them to get rid of the evil spirits," Johnson said.

"He said the Lord also assured him that they would rise from the dead on May 16 and that it would be the miracle of the 20th century," he said.

"He believed his actions were justified because the Lord had given him a command," he said.

Let's talk.

Information about your changing telephone service from Darlene Gifford, Community Relations Manager

The Future of Telephone Rates

As Southwestern Bell prepares itself to be a stand-alone company in 1984 — separate from AT&T — many of you, no doubt, have been wondering what's going to happen to telephone rates.

Will they go up? How much? Will you have to pay twice as much for phone service as you now do?

While it's impossible to answer those questions definitively, it is possible to give you an idea of where rates are headed... and why.

Local service rates will probably go up

For example, the rate you presently pay for local service will — in all probability — go up. This is primarily due to the fact that local service, for the most part, has been priced well below its cost. The average statewide cost to Southwestern Bell for keeping a residential line in service is about $30 per month.

On the other hand, the average monthly rate our customers pay ranges from $7.85 to $10.75. This $20 or more difference between cost and rates has been made up primarily by revenues from long distance service and telephone equipment.

However, since most of those revenues will not be available to Southwestern Bell after divestiture, local service will have to be priced more closely to its cost.

In turn, though, the rates of long distance and other services which have subsidized local service may go down.

Other factors which will contribute to higher local rates include our need to more quickly recover our investment in equipment and facilities, and the effects that are still being felt from past inflation.

To help offset the rise in local rates, Southwestern Bell wants to offer customers more pricing plans so that they will have more control over what they pay for local service. We are working closely with regulators not only to develop pricing options that will fit almost every pocketbook, but also to keep telephone service one of the best consumer values around.

Effects of divestiture to be studied by PUC

As you may be aware, the Texas Public Utility Commission next month will begin general hearings to examine how divestiture will affect Texas ratepayers. There are a lot of questions and potential problems to be solved. But by cooperating and working together with regulators, we feel we can work out the best solutions. In the long run, for all concerned.

... If you'd like additional information on this topic or have any questions, I'll try to help you find the answers.

Celebrities highlight parade and tournament

By TINA STEFFEN
Lifestyle Editor

Several celebrities from entertainment, cheerleading, professional football and aerospace fields will be among the entries and golfers in the First Annual Signal Peak Shriners Pro-Am Golf Tournament and Parade. The parade will be at 4 p.m. Wednesday. The tournament will be Wednesday through Friday.

Celebrities riding in the parade include:

- Col. James B. Irwin, Apollo 15 astronaut
- Charlie Walker, country western singer of "Hee Haw" fame
- The Houston Oilers Derrick Dolls
- Terry Bradshaw of Pittsburgh Steelers Football Team
- Faron Young, country western singer
- Sam Walker, 1976 Olympic weightlifter from Coahoma
- Russell Erxleben of the New Orleans Saints Football Team
- Gloria Gilbert, Miss Texas 1982
- Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band.
- Stephanie Oates, Miss West Texas
- Larry Mahan, World Champion Rodeo Star
- Golden Richards, former Dallas Cowboy receiver
- Toots Mansfield, Big Spring Area's World Champion Rodeo Star.

Irwin, retired from the United States Air Force, is founder of High Flight Foundation, an organization he established in 1972 to share his faith and serve his fellow man. A graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, Irwin was commissioned in the Air Force as a test pilot, and in 1966 was selected as an astronaut by NASA.

He served as lunar module pilot on the Apollo 15 mission in 1971. As the fourth manned lunar landing, this mission was distinguished by the first use of the Lunar Rover Vehicle and the exploration of Hadley Rille and the Apennine Mountains of the moon.

Irwin wrote an autobiography "To Rule The Night." His career as a speaker, lecturer and good-will ambassador has taken him to more than 50 foreign countries.

Charlie Walker has earned a reputation as one of "Grand Ole Opry's" finest interpreters of "country blues" in the tradition of the late Jimmie Rodgers. A good natured Texan, he has recorded more than 20 country music albums and has seen about 47 of his single records on the hit charts.

Walker is best known for such songs as "Tell Her Lies and Feed Her Candy," "Pick Me Up On Your Way Down," and "Don't Squeeze My Sharmen." He has toured all states, England, Germany, Japan, Italy and Canada. He also headlines in Las Vegas and Reno clubs and appears in several television shows. Walker is an avid outdoorsman whose favorite hobby is golf. Playing in the Pro-Am Tournament will be up his alley. He shoots in the 70's and his skill has earned him invitations to play pro-celebrity circuits every year. Among the tournaments he's competed in are the Jackie Gleason Inverry Classic, the Sahara Invitational in Las Vegas, the Southern Open, the Texas Open and the Nashville Pro-Celebrity Tournament.

Young, a country music entertainer for 26 years, continues to be a drawing card wherever he performs. He maintains a busy schedule doing television shows, dances, fair dates, concerts and amusement parks.

Young is always willing to lend his talents for charitable benefits. Between personal appearances and recording sessions, he finds golf relaxing and plays in several tournaments each year. Two tournaments he's played in are Jackie Gleason Inverry Classic and Disney Classic.

The Houston Oilers Derrick Dolls have been an added attraction to the Houston Oiler games since the 1978-79 football season. Since the first year, the organization has changed, developed and blossomed.

Forty women are selected primarily for their dancing ability. Intelligence, poise, charm and beauty are also considered by judges. These factors are important because of many appearances the Derrick Dolls make throughout the year.

Some of their appearances, in addition to Houston Oiler Football Games throughout the United States, are the NFL Cheerleader of the Year contests and a USO tour, which took them overseas.

The Derrick Dolls will act as hostesses of the VIP party Wednesday evening at Brass Nail Club. VIP's and players of the Tournament will attend the party, which will begin at 8 p.m.

Gloria Gilbert, Miss Texas 1982, also is one of the honored guests for the Tournament and Parade.

Miss Gilbert, of Millsap, Texas, was a non-finalist Talent Award winner at Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N.J. in September 1982. Prior to that, she was a preliminary swimsuit winner in the Miss Texas Pageant 1982, preliminary talent winner and first runner-up at the Miss Texas Pageant in 1981, and National Miss Sweetheart 1981 in Hoopston, Ill.

The Hardin Simmons University Cowboy Band and "Six White Horses", featured in the Christmas Parade last December, also will be featured in the Parade.

Sam Walker of Coahoma, member of the 1976 Olympic Team in weightlifting, will participate in the tournament. Walker broke the high school world record for the shotput 11 times in 1968 at Samuell High School in Dallas and World Junior Champ in 1968. He played football and threw shotput for Southern Methodist University in Dallas. He was a four-time Southwest Conference Champion in shotput and an All American.

He placed 9th in Super Heavy Class in weightlifting against Alexeev, in the Montreal Olympics. Walker also is 12-time Texas State Champion in weightlifting. He consistently ranked in the top ten in the world in both shotput and weightlifting during the 1970s.

Walker owns and operates Wildcat Service and Supply, a local mud company.

Russell Erxleben, No. 14 of the New Orleans Saints Professional Football Team, attended Seguin (Texas)

High School and University of Texas in Austin. He was a no. 1 draft choice for the Saints in 1979. He does punting and placekicking for the Saints. In 1981, he punted 66 times for 40.5-yard average in 1981. This All-American shares the NCAA record for longest field goal with a 67-yarder against Rice University in 1977.

Erxleben was player representative for the New Orleans Saints during the football strike in 1982.

Erxleben is a par golfer. He owns an investment company in Austin, is married to Kari Erxleben, and lives in New Orleans.

One of the commercial entries in the parade is a 1929 Gulf Oil Corporation tanker, in mint condition. Gulf is delivering the tanker from Port Arthur, Texas, to Big Spring for the parade. The tanker even has the old crank handle on its front.

Dr. Donohue

Cataracts and aspirin

Dear Dr. Donohue: My husband has the beginning signs of cataracts. His doctor tells him his glasses are about as strong as he can make them, and that making them any stronger wouldn't help or prevent the cataracts. There was an article recently about taking aspirin to retard their growth. Do you know if there is any truth to this? If there is, do you know the recommended dosage? — Mrs. R.A.

I want to be very careful about this answer. The aspirin story for prevention of cataracts is not completely written, but I can tell you how it began. It is well-established that diabetics are more prone to development of cataracts, which is actually the clouding of the lenses of the eyes. A sharp doctor treating many diabetics who were taking aspirin for control of arthritis note that they seemed to have fewer cataracts than those who were not required to use aspirin. It was natural for him to suggest a possible association between the aspirin use and the apparent protection against cataract formation.

Right now, all that can be said is that there may be an association. The matter is being studied. Questions about dosages and how aspirin might work in prevention are still part of the unwritten story. It will be wise to wait for the last chapter.

Dear Dr. Donohue: We know it takes either burning up 3,500 calories or cutting it out in our diets to lose a single pound of body weight. The system seems to demand either one. However, it seems a pound of weight shows up on me when I know I haven't eaten that many calories since the last time I weighed. Why? — E.J.

I get the picture. It happens to me. I know for sure I haven't eaten that many calories to gain a pound of weight in a day. But there are the scales that tell me in the morning that I have. Why?

It happens because much of that overnight weight gain is fluid, not fat. If you eat salty foods, you will retain water and that adds to the weight you see on the scales. The other side of this coin is the weight loss reported by the person taking diuretics for reducing. He loses a pound and is elated. He shouldn't be, for he has not lost fat, but water.

Other factors you and I have to consider about these "ghost" pounds include how the digestive system works. Some foods are less immediately digestible than others. So we have to wait. In time they are eliminated.

You have to watch your calories, no double of that. But you have to remember that not all your weight is in the form of fat, and it's the fat-weight we want to get rid of. The booklet "Lost Secrets of Reducing," which you ask for, is on the way. Other readers may order a copy by writing me in care of the Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 11210, Chicago, IL 60611, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope adn 50 cents for printing and handling.

Dear Dr. Donohue: I am 18 and have a real fear of going to th doctor for examination of my female system. Everyone tells me that there isn't anything to worry about. Every time I think about it I can't eat or sleep. I really do need some advice before I fall to pieces. I'm depending on your help and advice. — Worried.

You're not alone in this fear. Many young girls have expressed the same anxiety. The answer is to meet the problem head on. Sure, I mean talk to the doctor first, even if it's only a phone call to make the appointment. He will be responsive to your sensitivities, and you can be sure you will not be the first young patient to have expressed anxieties to him or her.

Take your mother with you, and if you still feel you would be uncomfortable, perhaps a woman doctor might be selected. None of us likes to face situations we think would be embarrassing. Examinations are not supposed to be traumatic experiences, and once we've had the experience, we realize how our imaginations hve enlarged our perceptions way out of proportion. I know you will find that's the case after you have an examination.

Jackie Steen wins 4th Cookie award

Jackie Steen of Big Spring, a Junior Girl Scout, won her fourth consecutive "Council Cookie Pusher" award for selling 93 1/2 cases of Girl Scout Cookies during the West Texas Girl Scout Council's 31st annual cookie sale. She topped her previous sales records.

A "Council Cookie Pusher" was named for the most outstanding cookie salesgirls from each of four levels of the Girl Scout program.

Martha Wittie, Troop #210 of Snyder, is the "Council Cookie Pusher" for the Brownie Girl Scouts.

Three Abilene Girl Scouts received top honors for the Cadette and Senior level. Kathy Blair of Troop #55 was top Cadette. Maureen and Kathy Lakely of Senior Troop #1 shared Senior level honors.

Girl Scouts who participated in the cookie sale received a certificate of appreciation from the West Texas Girl Scout Council. Some proceeds help maintain and improve facilities at Camp Boothe Oakes in Sweetwater, the council-owned camp.

Girls in third to sixth grades are eligible to earn camperships of 1/2, 1 or 2 weeks duration by selling 9, 16 or 25 cases of cookies, respectively.

The girls who received camperships were Amy Beck, Rebekah Gerstenberger, Kim Godfrey, Tasha Rock, Jennifer Tilley, Linda Salgado, Marlo Brown, Misty Brown, Stacey Maulden, Jenny Moore, Joy Petty, Heidi Richardson and Laura Spalding.

Other girls are Lori Chambers, Natasha Gilstrap, Melanie Glickman, Ginger Harrison, Melanie Knows, Tammi Mason, Christy Miller, Katrice Mince, Gloria Robles, Brandy Russell, Crissy Savell, Sonia Scarlett, Leah Sedinger, Jackie Lynn Steen, Mary Kathryn Terrazas, Teresa Vigus and Kendra Williams.

Kitchen can be garden center

Mrs. Adele Tibbs presented a program, "Your Kitchen Can Be Your Garden Center," at the Planters Garden Club in the home of Mrs. Paul Guy, May 3.

Mrs. Tibbs gave tips for using household staples to cope with gardening problems.

One tip was a home cure to stop Red Spider-Mites from causing yellowing and stripping of foliage and twisting of leaf tips. For ornamental and fruit trees, mix 1/2 cup of buttermilk and four cups of wheat flour in five gallons of water. Spray the mixture on the trees and the buttermilk and wheat flour destroys a high percentage of mites as well as their eggs.

Mrs. Tibbs said muskmelons that taste flat can be sweetened by spraying the vines, when they begin to run, with a solution of 3 1/3 tablespoons of household borax, plus 6 1/2 tablespoons of Epsom in five gallons of water. Later, spray again when fruit is two inches in diameter.

Another tip Mrs. Tibbs had was soapsuds will kill soft-bodied pests such as aphids. Dip plants in soapsuds and use your dish water or laundry water on shrubs and garden during dry spells to get rid of pests.

Mrs. Tibbs also said to get rid of tiny black flies, which are probably fungus gnats making their home in the soil of your house plants, make suds of bar laundry soap and pour 1/2 cup to 1 cup around the top of the houseplant pots.

longer was mix two tablespoons of white vinegar and two teaspoons of cane sugar in a quart of water.

Another tip to put a gloss on hard-leaf foliage plants such as snake plant and philodendron put a few drops of glycerin on a cloth and swab leaves.

The clean-up campaign was discussed at the Council meeting. Planters Club gave a memorial to "The Living Christmas Tree" of the First United Methodist Church in memory of Mrs. S.P. Jones.

Crime protection discussed

Mrs. Lucretia Ashley spoke on "Personal Protection" at the Center Point Extension Homemakers Club meeting at Kentwood Older Adults Center, May 10.

Mrs. Ashley said rape is one of the fastest growing crimes in America. She acquainted members with various methods of preventing this crime.

Mrs. Lucille Petty and Mrs. Jen Davidson were elected delegates to the THDA State Convention meeting on September 20-23 in Lubbock.

Items for the new yearbook were discussed. The next meeting will be May 24 with Joyce Orr and Hazel McCrary as hostesses.

The Casbah

Heart of Algeria's capital is rat-infested slum

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) — The legendary line "Come with me to the Casbah" has lost its glamour and mystery. The ancient heart of Algeria's capital has become a derelict, rat-infested slum.

The government of President Chadli Bendjedid has allocated the equivalent of $180 million to preserve the crumbling labyrinth of alleys and courtyards described as a "citadel of the nation's culture and history."

But experts from UNESCO — the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization — who spent two years drawing up plans for saving the Casbah, concluded that 10 times as much money may be needed for the job.

The chronic housing shortage and the drop in Algeria's oil revenues have severely limited the funds available for safeguarding the nation's cultural heritage.

An estimated 100,000 Algerians, many among the poorest of Algiers' 2.5 million inhabitants, live jammed together in the 1,700 buildings of the Casbah. Families of eight or 10 often live crowded in to a single rented room in primitive, unsanitary conditions.

Before the derelict houses can be demolished and rebuilt, accommodation must be found for the occupants. Since 1975, more than 200 four- and five-story Casbah houses, many of them at least two centuries old, have collapsed. There is no public record of the deaths or injuries. The survivors are housed in tents, sometimes for months, awaiting accommodation in outlying suburbs.

To the visitor approaching Algiers from the sea, the Casbah is a cascade of white-painted terraces descending steeply to the harbor, seemingly as solid as when they were built in the early 18th century following a disastrous 1716 earthquake.

The Turkish dey, or viceroy, ordered the reconstruction as proof against further tremors, and the houses were built more solidly than was customary at the time. But the materials have not withstood the damp and rain of centuries. Housing Minister Ahmed Ali Ghazali says most of the houses are beyond repair, though he adds:

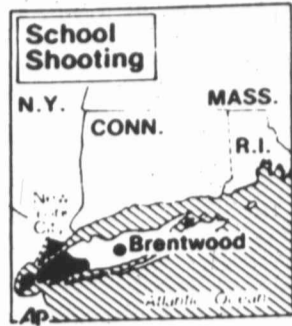

"We intend to demolish only what is really irretrievable."

Fired teachers' aide kills himself after shooting two

BRENTWOOD, N.Y. (AP) — A mentally ill man who shot and wounded a student and principal, then held 18 students hostage in a social studies classroom before killing himself, was a loser seeking revenge for his dismissal two weeks ago, officials said.

Robert O. Wickes, whose troubled life ended a few minutes before midnight Monday after a siege that terrified students and their parents, had also been watched by the Secret Service for making threats against the Reagan administration, his lawyer said.

Dressed in Army fatigues and carrying a .22-caliber rifle, Wickes held police in this Long Island community at bay for about nine hours. Many of his student hostages became sick or faked illness to gain permission to leave.

Others were released one at a time in return for a local radio station agreeing to play song requests — including the Beatles' "Penny Lane" — and his own "epistle to the world."

CONSTRUCTION UNDER WAY — Wal-Mart Discount City, a new discount store which will open in Big Spring in late summer or early fall, is under construction now at Coronado Plaza. The new store will be housed in what was once Thornton's Department Store. Several hundred feet of new store space is being added on to the new facility.

British imports lead Tony nominations

NEW YORK (AP) — Two British imports on Broadway led this season's Tony award nominations — "Cats" and the Royal Shakespeare Company's "All's Well That Ends Well." The nominees were announced Monday.

"Cats," the hit Andrew Lloyd Webber musical based on T.S. Eliot's cat poems, got 11 nominations, two more than its closest American rival, "My One and Only," a new musical wrapped around old George Gershwin songs.

In drama, the RSC's Edwardian-era version of "All's Well" won seven Tony nominations. A new British play, "Plenty," got four nominations, as did two American entries, Marsha Norman's Pulitzer Prize-winning "night, Mother" and Neil Simon's "Brighton Beach Memoirs."

England's Trevor Nunn, who shared a Tony award last year for his direction of the RSC's "Nicholas Nickleby," was twice nominated this season — as the director of both "Cats" and "All's Well."

The two actresses in a two-character play — Kathy Bates and Anne Pitoniak of "night, Mother" — each received best-actress nominations, with the other nominations in that category going to Kate Nelligan of "Plenty" and two-time Tony winner Jessica Tandy of "Foxfire."

The voting was conducted earlier Monday by a 14-member panel chosen by the League of New York Theatres and Producers. The panelists had to make four selections in each of 19 categories of theater. Twenty-four plays and 11 musicals were eligible. Sunday was the last day of eligibility for the 1982-83 season.

Ballots now will be mailed out to about 660 theater professionals and critics, the winners to be announced during the 37th annual Tony awards show that CBS is televising live on Sunday, June 5.

"Cats" a hit from the start, was one of four productions nominated as the season's best musical. The others were "My One and Only," "Merlin," the musical with magic that stars Doug Henning, and "Blues in the Night," which closed earlier this season after a short run. The Gershwin music from "My One and Only" wasn't eligible in the best-score category because the songs came from earlier Broadway shows.

Best-revival nominations went to "All's Well," Arthur Miller's "A View from the Bridge," "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial" and "On Your Toes." The Tony awards administration committee declared the revival of "Porgy and Bess" ineligible because it was too similar to a 1976-77 production of the Gershwin opera, but allowed nominations for individual performances.

In the best-play category, nominations went to Lanford Wilson's "Angel's Fall," Miss Norman's "night, Mother," David Hare's "Plenty," and Harvey Fierstein's "Torch Song Trilogy."

Fierstein, who plays a former drag queen in the 4½-hour "Torch Song," also was nominated as best actor in a play, sharing the honor with Jeffrey De Munn of "K-2," Edward Herrmann of "Plenty" and Tony Lo Bianco of the revival of "A View from the Bridge."

Russian ballerina Natalia Makarova of "On Your Toes" was nominated as the best actress in a musical, with the other nominees Lonnette McKee of "Show Boat," Chita Rivera of "Merlin" and England's Twiggy, the leading lady of "My One and Only."

Twiggy's tall, lanky co-star, Tommy Tune, a three-time Tony winner, got three nominations from "My One and Only" — for choreography and direction with his colleague, Thommie Walsh, and as best actor in a musical.

His competition in the last category: Al Green of the revival of the gospel musical, "Your Arms Too Short to Box With God;" George Hurn of the flop "A Doll's Life," and Michael V. Smart of the "Porgy and Bess" revival.

The Tony awards, established in 1947, are named for the late Antonette Perry, a leading force in the American Theatre Wing during World War II.

Rutledge, Valenzuela win top honors

Coaches, players take spotlight at banquet

SPECIAL SPORTS AWARDS — Shell Rutledge and Jinx Valenzuela won the prestigious Wanda Ferguson and Obie Bristow awards, respectively, at last night's spring sports banquet at Big Spring High School. About 400 parents, students and school officials attended the event in which numerous awards were handed out for athletic accomplishment.

By BOB CARPENTER
Staff Writer
Seniors Shell Rutledge and Jinx Valenzuela were named the year's top athletes at the annual spring sports banquet at Big Spring High School last night.
Shell, a participant in basketball, track and volleyball, was presented the Wanda Ferguson Award by last year's winner Carla Jackson. Shell recently placed fourth in state in the 200-meter dash, and she was named to the District 4-5A basketball team earlier this year.
Jinx, a letterman in basketball and baseball, was named winner of the Obie Bristow Award by Tom Koger. Jinx was on last year's district-winning baseball team and has won All-District honorable mention honors in District 4-5A basketball this year.

ABOUT 400 persons attended the ceremony to see awards handed out for baseball, basketball, track, golf, tennis and swimming. Master of ceremonies was Athletic Director Ron Logback with head football coach, Quinn Eudy, as guest speaker.
Throughout his talk, Eudy stressed a positive mental attitude to ensure a proper self image.

"A person needs to develop a proper attitude by the right thoughts and a positive attitude can be achieved with good thoughts," Eudy said. "Mohandas Gandhi said 'Man often becomes what he believes' and the only limits on ourselves are the ones we put there."
Eudy also said young people should set high goals and work hard to achieve those goals. "If you don't believe good things are going to happen, and if you aren't prepared to work for them, they won't."

In other special awards, Stacey Bott won the Fellowship of Christian Athletes award, and Shell Rutledge and Jerald Wrightsil won scholar-athlete awards from the U.S. Army. Special trophies given out last night were sponsored by Gamco Industries, Perco, Parks and Co., First National Bank, Big Spring Athletics, Security State Bank, State National Bank, Walker Auto Parts, R & R Theaters and Wayne Henry.

Trainer Everett Blackburn and coaches Annette Fowler and Elaine Stone also received appreciation awards during the ceremony.
Some of the athletic feats highlighted during the night were:

'A person needs to develop a proper attitude by the right thoughts'

— Coach Quinn Eudy

- The boys basketball team's third place district finish. Jerald Wrightsil was named District 4-5A Most Valuable Player, Tony Randle won All District honors and Jinx Valenzuela was All-District Honorable Mention.
- The girls basketball team's third place district finish. Shell Rutledge and Monette Wise won All-District honors.
- Valenzuela and Tom Cudd were named to the All-District baseball team. Teammate Alan Trevino also received honorable mention.
- The girls golf team won a trophy in every tournament but one this year. The team also won second in district and placed seventh at regional.
- The girls 200-medley relay consisting of Carol Davey, Rita Fleckenstein, Hartley Newell and Amanda Gauer won sixth place in regional competition.

• In girls track, Rutledge placed fourth at state in the 200-meter dash.

Islanders hope to end NHL fight tonight

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Bob Bourne would like it but he isn't placing any special emphasis on it. Neither is Billy Smith, though he'd certainly love to display it in his home.
Duane Sutter hasn't even considered the possibility, Denis Potvin and Ken Morrow are campaigning for each other and Mike Bossy, Bryan Trottier and Butch Goring already have one piece — not that they'd be disinterested in another, mind you.

What all these New York Islanders covet — aside from a fourth consecutive Stanley Cup, of course — is the Conn Smythe Trophy, awarded annually to the Most Valuable Player of the National Hockey League playoffs.
The past three springs, as the Islanders stormed to the championship, one of them won the Smythe.

Honeycutt's sinker slams Indians

ARLINGTON (AP) — Rick Honeycutt had a good sinker and the San Diego Chicken working for him, and the combination may just be unbeatable.
Honeycutt stymied the Cleveland Indians Monday night for a 3-1 Texas victory. The right-hander, second in the American League in earned run average at 1.33, allowed just five hits to raise his record to 5-2.
"The last time I pitched with the Chicken was against Boston in 1981 and I shut them out," said Honeycutt. "Maybe I ought to have him more times. It was a lot of fun tonight."
While the yellow and orange cheerleader badgered umpires, attacked the Cleveland bullpen and put hexes on Indians' hurler Len Barker, Honeycutt retired 11 in a row and didn't allow a ball out of the infield for 7 2-3 innings.
"Overall, this is the best stretch I've ever thrown," said Honeycutt, who finished last season at 5-17 with a 5.27 ERA.
"With the matchup (Honeycutt against Barker) we had, I knew we had a better than even chance," said Texas Manager Doug Rader. "I hope I get real used to (strong pitching from Honeycutt)."

American League

A's 7, Twins 0
Wayne Gross hit a home run in the top of the ninth inning to give the Oakland A's a 7-0 lead over the Minnesota Twins. What appeared to be just icing on the cake turned out to be the ingredient the A's needed to hold off a six-run rally in the bottom of the ninth that included four home runs.
"They sure did a job on that 7-0 lead," said catcher Bob Kearney, whose three-run homer off Minnesota's Brad Havens in the second inning started the scoring. "I haven't seen that in a long time, if ever. What are those guys eating over there?"
Oakland's Mike Norris and Matt Keough blanked the Twins on five hits until the ninth, when Dave Beard took over and was greeted by consecutive home runs by pinch hitter Dave Engle and Bobby Mitchell. Gary Gaetti hit a two-run, two-out shot with John Castino aboard via a walk and, after Beard walked

Strawberry's shot helps Mets in win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Darryl Strawberry is batting only .138, but the New York Mets think he's anything but a below-average prospect.
The 21-year-old rookie outfielder belted his first major league home run, a two-run shot, as the New York Mets blasted the Pittsburgh Pirates 11-4 Monday night before only 1,970, the smallest crowd in Three Rivers Stadium history. The only other National League game Monday, San Francisco at Philadelphia, was rained out and rescheduled for Sept. 1.
Another New York rookie, 19-year-old shortstop Jose Oquendo, had two hits and drove in three runs. That brought a smile to the face of Mets Manager George Bamberger, who hasn't had much to smile about this season.
"I can't say enough about the way these kids are playing," Bamberger said, referring to Oquendo, Strawberry and second baseman Brian Giles. "They're doing a great job. When the big boys (George Foster and Dave Kingman) start hitting some home runs, which they haven't been doing, we'll be all right."

National League

hitter in the minors, Oquendo has been batting almost strictly right-handed in the major leagues and has driven in five runs in his last two games.
"If I keep hitting like this, I'm going to forget about batting left-handed," Oquendo said.
The Pirates' Jim Bibby, 1-4, would just as soon forget about his last two starts, when he hasn't lasted past the second inning. Bibby, 38, is attempting a comeback from a shoulder injury that forced him to miss the 1982 season.
"He has his velocity," Tanner said. "Even the umpire (Dick Stello) said he hasn't seen Bibby throw the ball as hard. He's just not getting the ball down."
The Mets, who split the four-game series with the Pirates, knocked Bibby out of the game with a four-run second inning that included a two-run single by winning pitcher Ed Lynch, 2-1.
New York built the lead to 7-1 in the fifth and added four more runs in the sixth on a two-run single by Oquendo and a two-run double by Hubie Brooks, who drove in three runs.

Walker works hard, but Panthers rip Generals 31-24

New Jersey's Herschel Walker and a five-game winning streak by the Michigan Panthers brought out the crowds at the Pontiac Silverdome.
They got what they wanted — a good show by Walker and a better show by their own Ken Lacy.
"I think Lacy got tired of hearing that 'Come see (Herschel) Walker run' stuff," Michigan Coach Jim Stanley said following Monday night's 31-24 victory over the Generals in one of three United States Football League games. "I think he wanted them to come see Lacy run."
While Walker ran for 87 yards — and caught passes for 105 more — it was Lacy who generally won the hearts of the 32,862 Panther fans, chalking up 156 yards and a touchdown as Michigan came back from a 17-3

Sports Shorts

Elks got seven hits to the Eagles' eight.
For the Eagles, Ashli Erikson hit a double and Kayla Roberts, Gloria Robles and Tessa Olague each hit two singles.
The Eagles fell to the Angels 18-16 on Thursday. J. Cranford got the pitching win this time out and Tessa Olague the loss.
The Eagles picked up three hits, the Angels 2.
A bases loaded triple by Olague turned into a home run on an Angel error, but it wasn't enough to hold back the Angels.

USFL Roundup

John Williams also made the crowd sit up and take notice with a fine second-half performance, scoring two of the three TDs in the Panthers' rally to help them extend their current winning streak to six.
"It was very intense out there in the third quarter," said Williams, who finished with 79 yards on 16 carries. "I had tears in my eyes when I was out there. It just awed me that our winning streak was on the line and

Oilers even record

OZONA — The Cunningham Oilers evened their record to 2-2 by splitting a doubleheader against Ozona Sunday.
In the first game, John Carr scattered five hits and gave up three runs on the way to a 4-3 victory over the Royals. The Oilers banged out 11 hits.
John Wilson got the game-winning hit in the top of the seventh. Dennis Iker went 3 for 4 with a pair of doubles. Joe Justice and David Barbee both went 2 for 3.
In the second game, John Wilson had a 3-0 lead going into the fifth. But three errors and six unearned runs led the Royals to a 8-4 win.
Kurt Salisbury hit a solo homerun and a double. David Barbee hit a single.
The Oilers have their home opener here next Sunday with the Snyder A's.

Breakers 17, Gold 9

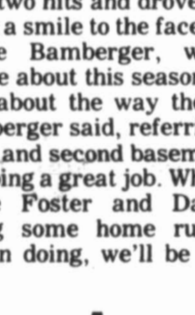

Marcus Marek raced 85 yards with a recovered fumble for a touchdown midway through the first quarter, and Tony Davis scored on a one-yard burst late in the fourth period as Boston beat Denver in game played entirely in a heavy rain in Boston.
The Breakers took a 10-0 halftime lead on Tom Mazzetti's 36-yard field goal with one second left in the second quarter. The Gold cut the lead to 10-9 on a 40-yard field goal by Brian Speelman in the third quarter, and a one-yard run by Harry Sydney early in the fourth quarter. But Speelman's extra point attempt sailed wide to the right with 11:06 left in the game, and

Invaders 34, Federals 27

Fred Besana threw four touchdown passes to lead Oakland over Washington. Besana, in raising his TD pass total to 15, hit Wyatt Henderson twice and Gordon Banks and Jerry Aldridge once apiece.
The Federals drove to the Oakland 2-yard line in the closing minutes, were pushed back to the 7 by a damaging delay-of-game penalty, and Washington quarterback Mike Hohensee was stopped at the 1 as he tried to score on a quarterback draw play with 1:22 left.
Oakland, 5-6, moved into a tie with Los Angeles for first place in the Pacific Division. Washington lost its seventh straight game and dropped to 1-10.

Aggies, Brewers do battle over player

HOUSTON (AP) — A Texas A&M football recruit said alumni and assistant coaches of the school had given him a car, credit cards and $200 a week during his last year of high school, a Milwaukee Brewers club official has testified in federal court here.
Dan Duquette, the Brewers' administrative assistant for scouting and player development, testified Monday before U.S. District Judge Gabrielle McDonald that Kevin Murray told him Sept. 3 that his benefactors gave him a 1980 Buick Regal.

Yankees 7, Tigers 0

Ron Guidry pitched a three-hitter and Ken Griffey collected three hits and scored three times. Griffey singled off Dan Petry with one out in the first inning and scored when left fielder Larry Herndon lost Steve Kemp's drive in the lights for a two-base error. He tripled in the third and scored on Dave Winfield's grounder and the Yankees made it 3-0 on four walks in the sixth. Steve Kemp's two-run triple highlighted a four-run ninth.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1983

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Pay close attention to details today. Work through problems with tact. Attack big projects this afternoon. Continue with important project that means much to you.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You can make those creative ideas of yours work out well. Don't commit yourself to heavy expenditures.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 21) Stop feeling you're being slighted and carry through with some matters agreeably. The future looks brighter.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Forget that secret anxiety and contact those in business who can assist you. Get approval of those in authority.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Don't listen to a friend's advice on money matters. If you must discuss something, do so with family.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have a personal wish that someone in authority can interfere with, so avoid this person for now. Socialize tonight.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Some dealings with a new contact can work out well. Confide in one who admires you and gain any assistance you might need.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A close tie could deter your progress, so rely more on your friends at this time. Retire early; you need your rest.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You find a partner will not agree to a plan for your advancement made by an advisor. Socialize this evening.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Don't let annoying little jobs keep you from accomplishing a good deal in the outside world. Heed friends.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Don't let some desire for amusement get in the way of planning a new campaign for success. Study your environment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Study your deals with others and find ways of becoming more successful in them. Make loved one happy.

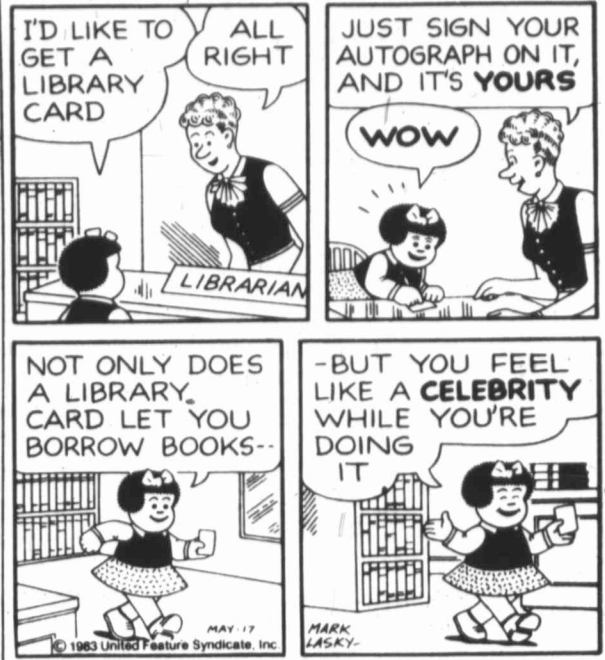

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Listen to suggestions given by the influential. Your surroundings are not right, so get busy and change them.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... He or she will handle big projects very well and the influential will soon notice this amazing ability and provide backing. Do not stifle self-expression. This child should have the finest education. Don't neglect ethical training.

"LOLLY, THE PLANTS IN MY OFFICE ARE DYING FROM LACK OF WATER. YES, YOU'RE RIGHT. WOULD YOU WANT TO SEE THE PRESIDENT OF A BIG COMPANY WATERING THE PLANTS, WOULD YOU? NO, SIR, I WOULDN'T. I'LL LEAVE THE ROOM. THEY DON'T MAKE SECRETARIES LIKE THEY USED TO."

"AND I'LL TELL YOU SOMETHING ELSE, OLD TREE, YOU'RE A VERY GOOD LISTENER. EVEN THE TALL AND MIGHTY NEED PUMPING UP EVERY NOW AND THEN."

"I DON'T KNOW... I'M IN THE MOOD FOR SOMETHING A LITTLE DIFFERENT. YOU'RE IN LUCK, EVERYTHING IN HERE IS A LITTLE DIFFERENT."

"WHAT'S AILIN' YOUR OL' HEN, LUKEY? DURNED IF I KNOW. BUT IT SHORE IS CATCHIN' AWK CACKLE CACKLE."

"TENTH-FLOOR DOOR AHEAD... OFFICER COBIA, STAY BEHIND ME! CHECK, BUZ... KIESEL, YOU STAY BEHIND HIM WITH THE CAN TEAR-GAS CANISTERS! I'LL PROTECT THE REAR, BUZ, SINCE WE DON'T KNOW WHERE BARRACUDA MIGHT BE HIDING! GOOD, SGT. RETTIG!"

"SO YOU KNOW THE PEOPLE MOVING IN NEXT DOOR? YES - I'M THE ONE WHO TOLD 'EM THE MASTERSON PLACE WAS UP FOR SALE. A VERY NICE FAMILY WITH SEVERAL CHILDREN, ONE OF THEM HONEY'S AGE - OF COURSE, ONE OF THE KIDS DOES HAVE A CRIMINAL BACKGROUND."

"Is Judy never coming out of my study? It's noon! Let her sleep. Wait! My pipe is in there... my book is in there... Wait, the lady is here with my new suit! Will you write her a check? ...my check-book is in there! Judy! Time to get up, dear!"

"I WANT SOMETHING SUITABLE FOR THE KING. THIS IS THE ROYAL SUITE. DO YOU HAVE ANYTHING BIGGER? THEY'RE ALL BIGGER."

"I CAN'T FIGURE IT OUT, MISS PIGGY. ALL MY HOUSE PLANTS ARE DYING! MAYBE YOU'RE WATERING THEM TOO MUCH."

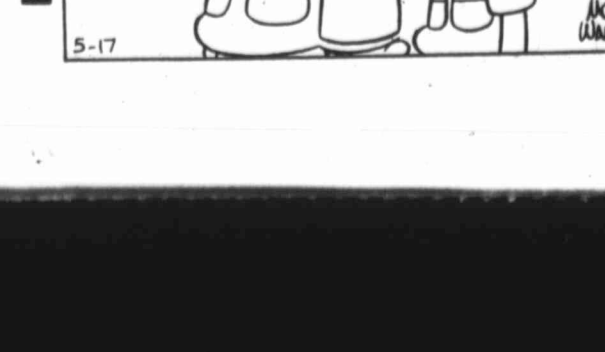

"PET, BEFORE YOU UNPACK WILL YOU IRON THIS SHIRT? I'M WAITIN' FOR IT. GIMME A BREAK, MAN! I'M WHACKED! THEY SAY THAT SWITCHIN' FROM ONE JOB TO ANOTHER IS A GOOD WAY TO OVERCOME TIREDNESS. THERE'S ANOTHER VERY GOOD WAY - IT'S CALLED 'REST!'."

"COOKIE PROMISED US A REAL HOME-STYLE MEAL TONIGHT. JUST LIKE MOM USED TO DO IT, RIGHT? Gone to the movies. Here's a can of beans. Hot dogs in fridge. Cookie."

"WHAT'S THIS? THE OL' RABBIT HOUND IS IN ACTION, HUH? HAVE YOU SEEN ANY RABBITS? WHO DO YOU THINK IS CHASING ME?"
