Added terms not LULAC's idea

By RICK BROWN Staff Writer

Officials of the Big Spring chapter of the League of United Latin American Citizens said last night they "had nothing to do with" the decision to extend the terms of office of the mayor and two city councilmen, although they said they have "no problem" with the extensions.

The comments were made in a meeting of the chapter at the Spanish Inn.

The extensions of terms of office came as part of a settlement between LULAC and the city of Big Spring to bring more minority representation on the city council.

The extensions were brought under question at Tuesday night's city council meeting when three Big Spring residents, including former city councilman Jack Watkins, asked the council how the extensions came about.

Watkins said later he would support a lawsuit to force councilmen to serve the terms of office for which they had originally been elected if a law or precedent could not be found to justify the extensions.

LULAC secretary Linda Arsiaga told members last night that city officials added the extensions to the settlement after LULAC lawyer Rolando Rios wrote the settlement's first draft.

"Rolando (Rios) was given the go ahead by Doyle (Curtis, city attorney) to make the first draft because (Rios) knew more about these things. He had done them before," Arsiaga said.

According to Arsiaga, Rios wrote the draft and sent it to Curtis. Curtis made the changes having to do with the extensions and returned the draft to Rios, she said. Rios then sent the settlement to federal district court in Abilene for approval, she said.

"A settlement like this saved the taxpayers a lot of money," local LULAC President Pat DeAnda said. "If any of them run again, I would probably vote for them — and work for them," Miss Arsiaga added.

The council was "open to problems they did not know existed," Miss Arsiaga said of the negotiations that preceded the settlement.

LULAC representatives at that time made the council aware of a "perceived intimidation barrier" that exists between the council and Big Spring's Hispanic community, Mrs. DeAnda said.

The LULAC officers said they knew the possible lawsuit brought against the city because of the extensions of terms might delay April's elections.

"We're being deprived of having minority representation again," Mrs. DeAnda said.

The officers said they believed that bringing the lawsuit is within the rights of those who wanted it. "We had the right to sue and they do, too," Miss Arsiaga said.

"We've already waited such a long time," added Mrs. DeAnda.

City plans new animal shelter

By RICK BROWN Staff Writer

Over 200 Big Spring citizens believe the current city animal shelter has big problems, but plans are in the works to build a new one, according to City Manager Don Davis.

The citizens signed a petition that reached Davis Tuesday calling for an improvement of the city pound. The petition asks that the shelter be updated to provide more space and better heating and air conditioning and that the shelter be more centrally located.

"It is up to you as City Manager of our town to correct and solve these simple problems," the petition read.

"By and large, I am in complete agreement with what they are saying," Davis said Tuesday.

Through a combination of revenue sharing funds and money from an anonymous donor, the city is "now in a position to put into effect what has been planned for three years," Davis said.

A start toward the new shelter came when city voters were presented with a referendum three years ago to relocate, reconstruct and modernize the city's animal control program, Davis said.

The referendum was "overwhelmingly defeated," Davis said, but development has continued since the vote was taken.

"Plans are under way, and money is available for the new pound," said Don Bailey, a member of the Big Spring Kennel Club.

Bailey said he could not comment yet on conditions at the new pound

TOO YOUNG TO DIE — These dogs are just a few of the hundreds of animals that move through the Big Spring Animal Shelter each year. The city announced yesterday it is planning a new shelter to provide better care for the stray animal population in Big Spring.

because plans have not been finished.

Among the requests and complaints detailed by the citizens in the petition are:

- that the city hire an experienced veterinarian on a full-time basis to provide better care to animals in the shelter.
- that the hours the shelter is open to the public be changed to be more convenient to working people.
- that owners of pets with identity tags be notified by phone as well as by mail.
- that better publicity be given the shelter using newspapers, radios and television.

"We do the best we can with what's available," Janie Schuller, supervisor for animal control at the Big Spring Police Department, said in regard to the current pound.

"We keep it as sanitary as possible and clean and disinfect it once a day," she said.

Terrorists suspected by FBI

Army general found hanged

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — A note pinned to the body of a two-star Army Reserve general found dangling from a noose at Fort Sam Houston said he had been slain, but the FBI raised the possibility today that he hanged himself.

Pentagon officials who declined to be identified said the note read: "Captured, tried, convicted of crimes by the U.S. Army against the people of the world. Sentenced and executed."

The body of Maj. Gen. Robert G. Ownby, his arms bound behind him with a belt, was found Wednesday hanging from the second-story stairwell of an Army headquarters building, the FBI said.

A FBI statement released in San Antonio this morning said Ownby might have bound himself. "The possibility of the victim having placed the belt around his own wrists has not been ruled out."

Pentagon officials had said earlier today that Ownby's death could have been suicide or it could have been murder, with the note indicating it was a terrorist act only a "diversion."

Ownby, 48, the commander of the 90th U.S. Army Reserve Command, was found about 6:40 a.m. by an employee coming to work, FBI Agent Pat Cowley said. Ownby was described as a hard worker who split time between his reserve duties and his full-time position as an officer of the Delaware Punch Co.

The FBI statement today also said that there was no sign of a struggle.

Leftists kill U.S. pilot in Honduras

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — A U.S. Army pilot was killed by "hostile fire" from Nicaragua after his helicopter made a forced landing in Honduras near the border region where CIA-backed anti-Sandinista rebels are active, U.S. officials said.

It was the first reported shooting episode to cause a U.S. casualty since joint U.S.-Honduran military maneuvers began last August.

In Nicaragua, the leftist government's Defense Ministry said its forces along the border fired Wednesday on an "unidentified military helicopter" violating Nicaraguan airspace. The communique said the aircraft made a forced landing about 200 yards inside Honduras but did not mention the pilot's death.

The Pentagon identified the pilot as Chief Warrant Officer II Jeffery C. Schwab, of Joliet Ill., who had served in the 101st Aviation Group 229th Aviation Battalion at Ft. Campbell, Ky. Relatives in Joliet said Schwab about 27 years old.

The Pentagon said two Army engineers aboard the OH-58 observation helicopter were not injured and were released after being examined at the U.S. military hospital at Palmerola Air Base north of Tegucigalpa, the Honduran capital.

Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger said in a CBS television news interview today that the helicopter was flying a course that would have taken it to an exercise area in Honduras.

"... and the indefensible thing is that the pilot was killed after he got out of the helicopter (and was) simply walking around ..."

Weinberger said.

President Reagan, asked about the pilot's death as he bid farewell in Washington today to Chinese Premier Zhao Ziyang, told a reporter it was "a great tragedy."

U.S. Embassy spokesman Chris Arcos said the pilot was killed about 155 miles southeast of Tegucigalpa on the Las Trojes-Cifuentes road, the same road where two American journalists died June 21 when a land mine exploded. Honduran authorities accused the Sandinistas of mining the road.

Bad beef no worry in BSISD

From staff and wire reports Big Spring school officials said they were unworried when the state attorney general yesterday warned about possible bad beef from out of state showing up on student lunch plates. They said the district purchases its meat from Texas producers.

Texas schools have been asked to check if they have bought hamburger meat from two national beef packers who are accused of providing 19 million pounds of adulterated ground meat to the federal school lunch program.

3 more sign up for races

By KEELY COGHLAN Staff Writer

Three more persons filed as candidates for county offices Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning, heating up the Democratic primary races for County Commissioner Precinct 3 and Justice of the Peace Place 1, Precinct 2.

Two persons filed for the County Commissioner Precinct 3 race in the last two days. Joneil Smallwood of Sterling City Route filed Wednesday, and Neil Fryar of Lomax filed Thursday as Democratic candidates for the position with Howard County Clerk Margaret Ray.

Smallwood is self-employed and owns Smallwood's Western Wear, located at 110 E. Third, while Fryar is a local farmer. Both designated themselves as their own campaign treasurer, Mrs. Ray said.

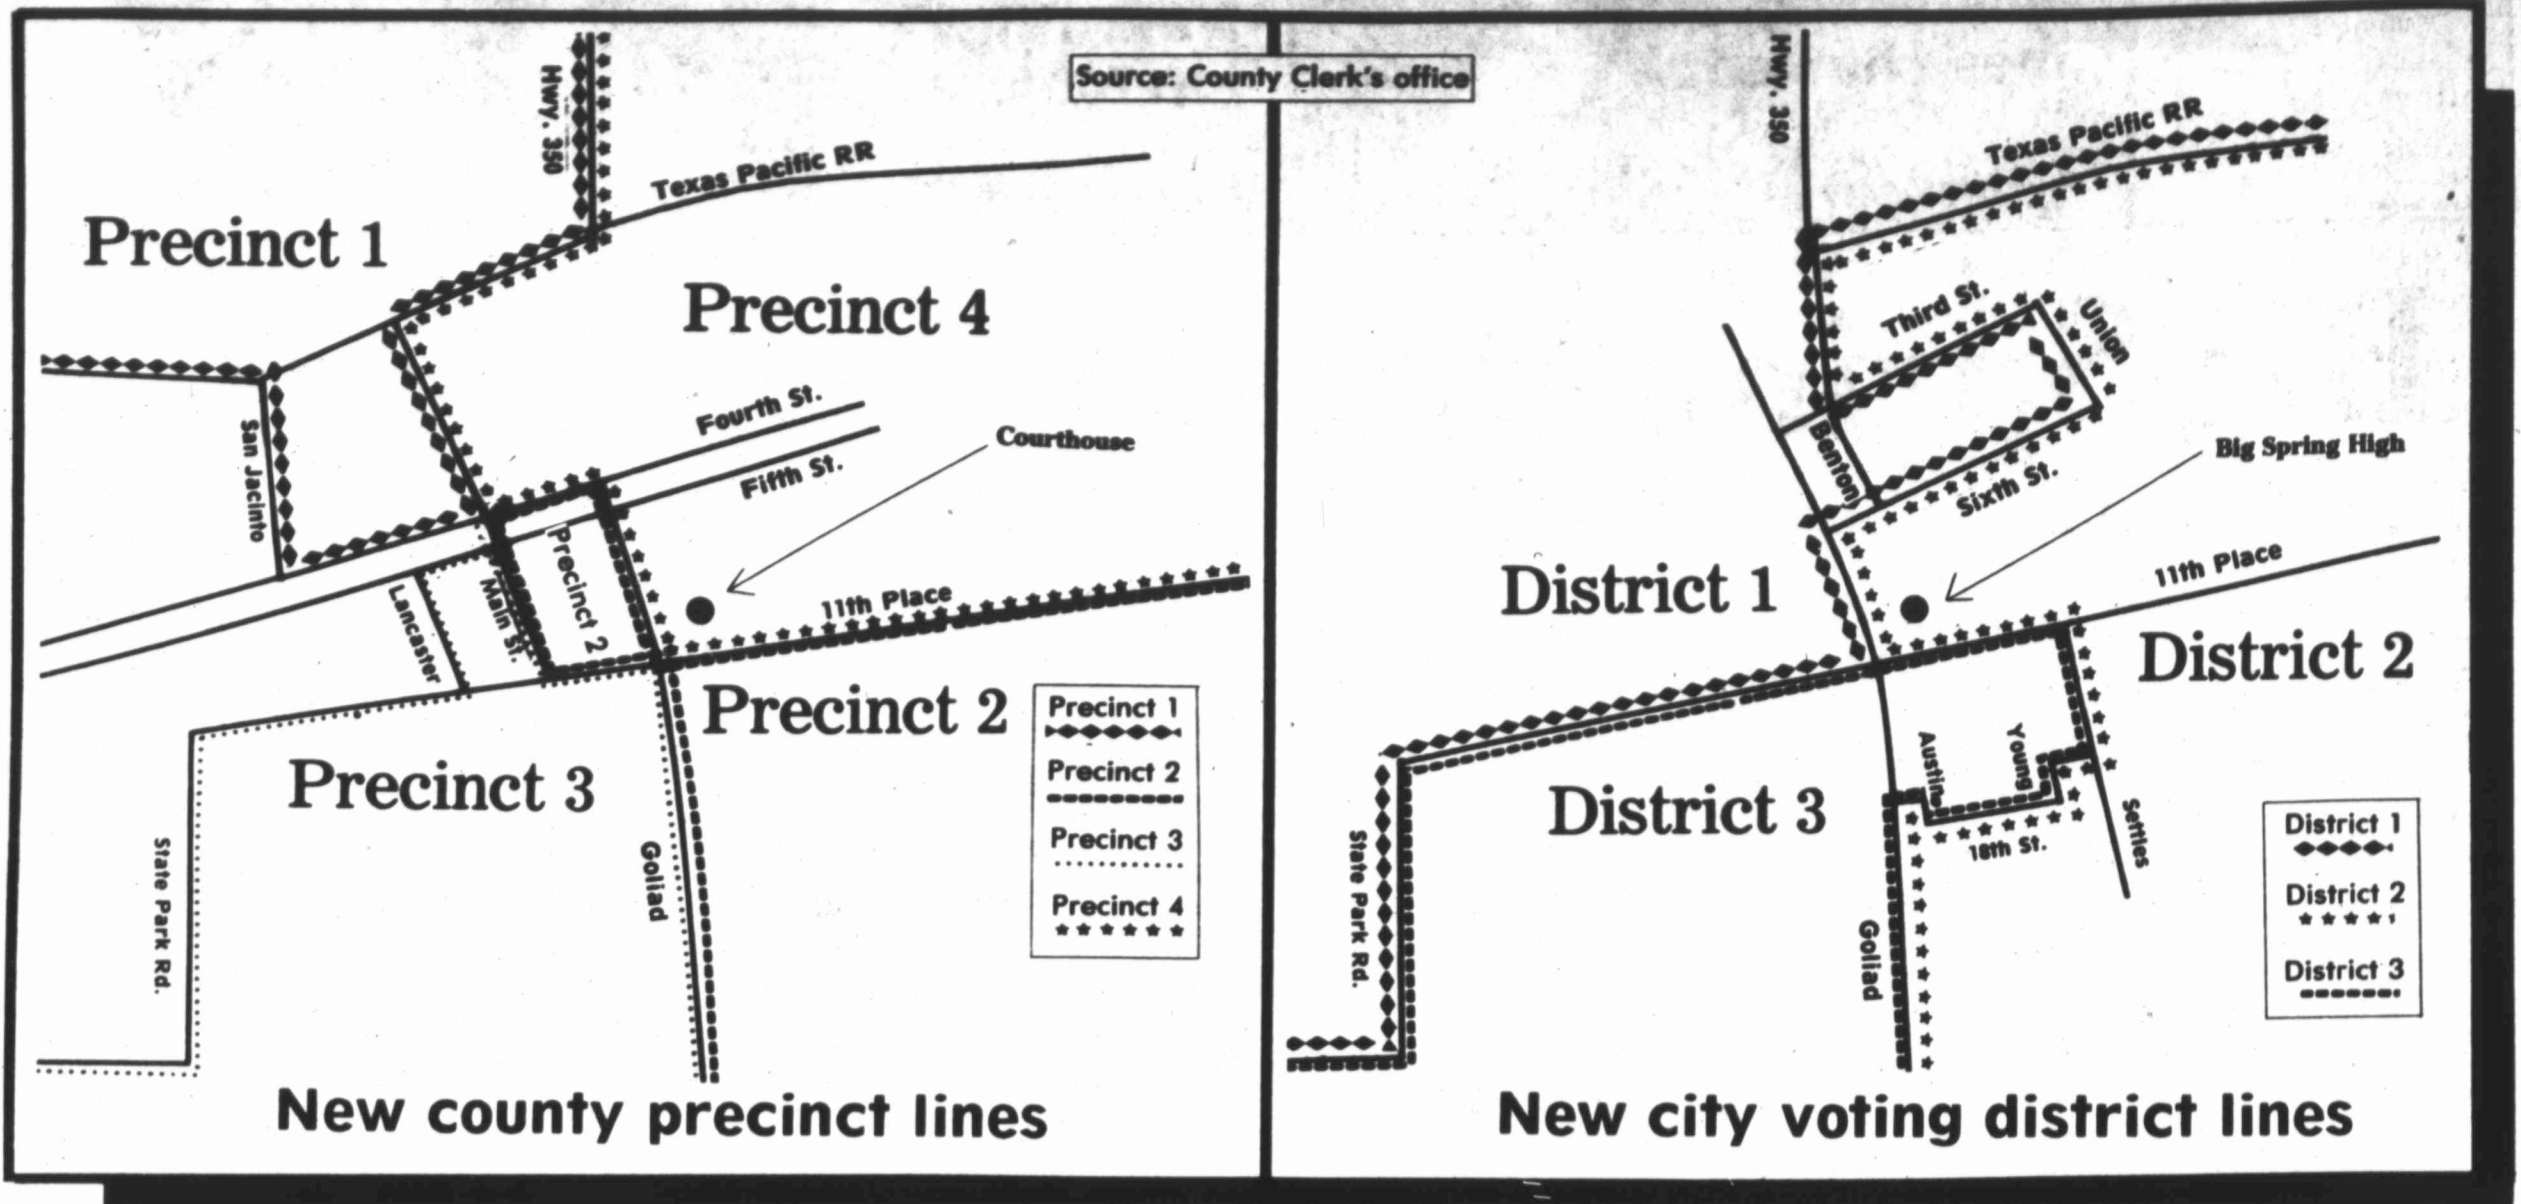

Neither man has ever run for office before, said Mrs. Ray, a member of the county Democratic Club.

The Precinct 3 seat is currently filled by Bill Crooker, the only elected Republican official in Howard County. Crooker, who owns Mr. G's Garden Center at 2301 Gregg, has not yet filed for reelection, Mrs. Ray said.

Robert Stapp, a retired police sergeant who formerly worked with the Big Spring police, also filed today for the justice of the peace seat currently filled by Bobby West, Mrs. Ray said.

Stapp, who filed as a Democrat, also has named himself as his own treasurer.

Doyle L. Lamb, a master plumber and former restaurateur, also has filed for the same position. West has said he will run again, but he has not yet filed.

Election proceedings begun with new voting lines

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer

Howard County officials are proceeding with election preparations on the basis that their "cosmetic changes" of city district lines will be approved by the U.S. Justice Department and federal court.

County commissioners said they were told by an official in the Texas Secretary of State's elections division that the changes probably would be approved if all parties agreed to the proposal.

Local chapter members of the League of United Latin American Citizens agreed to the proposal Wednesday night, confirming chapter secretary Linda Arsiaga's tentative approval at a commissioners' meeting Dec. 28, when the subject first came up.

Big Spring city councilmen Tuesday night formally agreed to the changes, and commissioners agreed Monday. The agreement now needs only Justice Department and federal court approval to become final.

The changes eliminated at least seven small precincts, one containing only one house, that would have required a separate voting site and election workers under state election law. County commissioners estimated that the general elections this year could cost the county an additional $10,000 if the changes are not made.

County precinct lines will remain the same, with each precinct starting at the middle of the County Courthouse. The city has been divided into three single-member districts, whose lines were adjusted to avoid having precincts containing small populations or only a few blocks in an area.

However, the county must add four new voting precincts in this year's general election because state election laws forbid county precinct lines to cross city district lines in the establishment of a voter precinct.

County officials responsible for conducting and assisting in election preparations are going ahead with their work on the assumption that the cosmetic changes will be approved, they said.

County Clerk Margaret Ray is establishing "meets and bounds" for both city and county voting precinct lines and has renumbered the county's voting precincts for general and presidential elections.

Voter registration cards will list both county precincts and city districts for the convenience of the voter, Mrs. Ray and County Tax Assessor-Collector Dorothy Moore said. Mrs. Moore said she is continuing to work on a computer program to mark the new cards with both designations.

Police Beat

Cola caper cans cases

Police reports show that 155 cases of soft drinks valued at $1,026.10 were stolen from a storage locker at 711 W. 4th sometime between Tuesday morning and Wednesday morning.

The locker was being rented by West Texas Vending of Odessa. Reports show that a lock was pried off the storage room door. The incident was reported about 11:45 a.m. Wednesday after the break-in was discovered.

A 16-foot utility trailer valued at $1,050 was stolen from Bill Chrane Auto Sales at 1300 E. 4th between noon Tuesday and noon Wednesday according to police reports.

Police arrested Kayla L. Blake, 23, of Midland on Interstate 20 at milemarker 172 and charged her with driving while intoxicated, driving with an expired license and speeding. Two passengers with Ms. Blake were arrested for public intoxication.

M.D. Ray of 2113 Grace told police Wednesday afternoon that someone had taken a Buolva watch from his residence. The watch, valued at $200, had "Railroad approved" stamped on its face.

H.H. Thames of 1019 Stadium told police that someone had towed away his 1972 Volkswagon while it was parked on the property adjacent to his back yard sometime Tuesday night or Wednesday. The vehicle was valued at $550.

An employee of Furr's Supermarket at 900 11th Place reported Wednesday that a customer had passed a forged check in the amount of $275 at the store Monday.

Shelter

The pound is open two hours daily Monday through Friday, from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. and from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m., and one hour on Saturday, from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m., she said. Shelter workers try to make special arrangements if people are unable to visit the shelter during those hours, she added.

The shelter uses a voucher system for vaccinating, spaying and neutering animals whereby pet owners pay the shelter for the services, get a receipt and then take the animals to a local veterinarian for the actual shot or operation, she said.

Davis said he hopes volunteers for the new shelter to staff an animal adoption program and take care of other administrative duties so the shelter's hours can be expanded.

He added that he doubts if the city will hire a full-time veterinarian since the defeated referendum "gave the city council a message" the community did not want more funds spent on animal control.

day that Texas was allocated 465,000 pounds of the questioned meat. The meat has not been distributed and is stored in the federal cold storage warehouse in Dallas.

However, Mattox said, Texas schools get only about 25 percent of their meat for school cafeterias from the federal school lunch program and buy 75 percent elsewhere, often from national distributors.

Jim Lawless, director of food services for the Big Spring Independent School District, said he buys only Texas beef from the Gooch Corp. in Abilene and Midland-Odessa.

"We usually don't buy out-of-state beef," Lawless said. "All we're buying now is from Gooch."

Big Spring Superintendent Lynn Hise said this morning he had verified with Lawless that the school's beef is being purchased from state producers.

"We've checked that out, and there's no problem here," Hise said.

The attorney general said the U.S. Department of Agriculture has impounded 19 million pounds of ground meat from Cattle King of Denver, Colo., and Nebraska Beef Packers, Gering, Neb.,

Weather

By the Associated Press
West Texas - Light snow mainly north ending by tonight. Decreasing cloudiness tonight. Fair to partly cloudy Friday.

Another cold front arrives

A cold front moved through Northwest Texas today, bringing chilly temperatures and the threat of scattered snow flurries.

Collins is worst-dressed

LOS ANGELES - Actress Joan Collins topped designer Richard Blackwell's 24th annual list of the 10 worst-dressed women - which included male rock singer Boy George.

JOAN COLLINS

Miss Collins, star of television's "Dynasty," drew Blackwell's scorn for being "barely, bizarrely Hollywood" in elaborate outfits that seem to change with every scene.

Boy George, lead singer of the British rock group Culture Club, earned the 10th spot for reminding the designer of "Victor-Victoria in bad drag."

Actress-model Twiggy took the No.5 spot for resembling "Lady Godiva dressed for a Roman orgy." Actress Kathleen "Koo" Stark, sometime girlfriend of Britain's Prince Andrew, was described as "a fashion Frankenstein waiting at the palace gate."

Donna Mills of CBS-TV's "Knot's Landing" won the dubious honor because she looked as if she wore "yesterday's draperies from the Roxy Theatre," while singer Olivia Newton-John was "from nose to toes, a shredded tragedy."

Blackwell's "fabulous fashion independents" included actresses Linda Gray, Shirley MacLaine and Zsa Zsa Gabor; Caroline Kennedy; Joanna Carson; TV anchorwoman Connie Chung; Princess Caroline of Monaco; Priscilla Presley; Princess Diana; Nancy Reagan; and model Cristina Ferrare De Lorean.

Caroline produces show

LOS ANGELES - The press conference was meant as a promotion for a public television special on American art, but the limelight shone on the documentary's coordinating producer - Caroline Kennedy.

CAROLINE KENNEDY

WNED, the New York City public TV outlet which invited Ms. Kennedy to Wednesday's press conference at the Century Plaza Hotel, urged reporters in vain to keep their questions to the scheduled topic.

But Ms. Kennedy, the 26-year-old daughter of the late President John F. Kennedy, said the extra attention was "not really a problem for me."

She appeared uncomfortable only when asked if her mother, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, painted. She looked down and, with a blank expression, said softly: "You'll have to ask her."

The two-part documentary, "New World Visions: American Art and the Metropolitan Museum," will be broadcast in the spring.

Ms. Kennedy, who works for the office of film and television at New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art, did research for the documentary, organized the camera crews, prepared the gallery for the filming, arranged for adequate security and made "sure the technicians didn't harm the paintings," said George Page, the show's executive producer.

Ford dedicates center

SAN DIEGO - Former first lady Betty Ford, San Diego Padres outfielder Alan Wiggins and Teri Shields, mother of actress Brooke Shields, joined forces to help dedicate a new alcoholism treatment center at Scripps Memorial Hospital.

BETTY FORD

Mrs. Ford, 65, said Wednesday's opening of the new McDonald Center means "people may come into treatment much sooner, before they get so ill."

"When I went into treatment, the number of women seeking treatment increased," she said. "This is a progressive disease and unless treated, it can be fatal."

Mrs. Shields and baseball star Wiggins also have overcome alcohol or chemical dependency problems.

Kissinger wants military aid

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congress, which may be asked to put into action many of the recommendations contained in the Kissinger panel's report on Central America, is exhibiting little bipartisan unity toward the document.

After commission chairman Henry A. Kissinger handed the report to President Reagan on Wednesday, much of the comment from Capitol Hill echoed the divisive debate over U.S. policy in Central America that has rumbled through Congress' chambers during the past three years.

The commission, appointed by Reagan, was to reach some kind of accord on the direction U.S. policy should take in Central America. Members of Congress widely praised its attempt and its view that the region was vital to the interests of the United States.

Rep. Dante Fascell, D-Fla., the acting Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, praised commission members "for their dedication and open-mindedness in dealing with extraordinarily difficult issues."

Sen. Pete Domenici, R-N.M., a counselor to the commissioners, said he was impressed by the report's "balanced approach that gives equal weight to America's vital security interests, as well as to the humanitarian concerns involving the poor and oppressed in the region."

And many recalled the bipartisan spirit desired by the late Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington, who was one of the first to call for a "Marshall Plan" for Central America, and to whom the report was dedicated.

Rep. Jack Kemp, R-N.Y., called the report "a milestone in the effort to forge a bipartisan foreign policy," and one of which Jackson would be proud.

But beyond that, there was little agreement - except that the contents of the report is sure to fire the debate over U.S. involvement in Central America when Congress returns from its recess in less than two weeks.

The report calls for a significant increase in U.S. military aid to El Salvador, something Congress has repeatedly opposed.

No specific amount of aid was suggested in the report, though it noted a Pentagon estimate that $400 million was needed for 1984 and 1985. This represents a sharp increase from the $64.8 million appropriated so far, and over which Congress wrangled long and hard.

Druse want curfew dropped

BEIRUT - Government troops traded artillery fire with Moslem militiamen today near the U.S. Marine base, and an opposition leader set new conditions, including an end to Beirut's curfew, for backing a proposed disengagement plan.

Police said one civilian has been killed and four others wounded since intermittent artillery exchanges began Wednesday in the capital's southern suburbs and in the Esaba-Maroufieh hills. A Marine spokesman said today the gunfire has not affected the U.S. base at Beirut's airport.

In Jerusalem, Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir said Israel might pull its forces in Lebanon closer to its border. Israel is "planning ways to leave Lebanon," he said Wednesday.

Shamir reaffirmed Israel's insistence that it cannot evacuate Lebanon unless Syrian forces pull out of eastern Lebanon. He indicated that Israel would not change its stand without the approval of the governments of the United States and Lebanon.

He said Israel was considering a pullback from its positions along the Awali River, 25 miles south of Beirut, to a line along the Zaharani River, seven miles farther south.

Anti-Israeli attacks in southern Lebanon have increased in recent weeks, including an incident today in which an Israeli armed personnel carrier hit a land mine in Sidon. Lebanon's state radio quoted witnesses as saying two Israeli soldiers were slightly injured in the explosion but the Israeli military command in Tel Aviv said there were no casualties.

Walid Jumblatt, the leader of the Druse opposition in Lebanon, demanded the abolition of a night curfew and press censorship before plans could go forth to separate the country's warring factions.

Ex-cop testifies about mistaken shooting

AMARILLO (AP) — A former Borger policeman helping chase an Oklahoma fugitive says he didn't know that officers had mistakenly shot a ranch foreman until they had handcuffed the fatally wounded man and taken his rifle.

Bailey H. Roberts, who took the stand Wednesday in a $5 million civil rights lawsuit, also testified that he didn't know who shot the foreman, James Grandstaff.

Grandstaff, 31, was shot and killed Aug. 11, 1981, shortly after police had chased a fleeing pickup on the 6666 Ranch property near Borger during a gun battle.

Grandstaff's widow,

Sharon, filed the federal suit shortly after her husband was killed.

The officers, who discovered the ranch house after chasing the fugitive, Lonnie Cox, onto the ranch land, mistook Grandstaff for the fugitive when he drove his pickup from the house toward them as they were gathered along a road near the home, Roberts said.

Several officers opened fire, Roberts said.

Roberts and another officer whose testimony was taken by deposition, Mickey Davis, said Grandstaff, lying on the ground with his arms under his stomach when they found him, was handcuffed because they thought he was Cox.

Grandstaff kept trying to get up, had to be restrained several times and was still alive when he was placed inside an ambulance about 20 to 25 minutes after he had been shot, the two officers said.

"He just cussed us," Roberts testified. "He wouldn't tell his name or anything. It was not until I checked his rifle that I decided this was not the man I had been chasing."

In opening arguments Tuesday, defense attorney William Sturdivant of Amarillo, representing the city of Borger, admitted that lawmen shot and then handcuffed Grandstaff. But Sturdivant told the jurors the officers were chasing a dangerous fugitive and were "fearful for their lives."

The suit was filed against the City of Borger; Gray, Carson and Hutchinson counties; Borger police officers Robert Alonzo, John Ray, Roberts and John W. Turner, and Hutchinson Deputy Sheriff Ricky Morris.

Many kinds of hepatitis

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: This is my second letter to you regarding hepatitis. I am now down from 40 milligrams of prednisone to 10 milligrams daily and my blood tests have been nearly normal for the last eight weeks. I have chronic active hepatitis (Non-A-Non-B type) with cause unknown. This is a very confusing, frustrating illness, and even my doctor hesitates about the future, etc. According to my liver biopsy I do have some liver damage.

I had an appointment with my dentist today and on the questionnaire I circled "hepatitis." The dentist immediately asked, "Type A or B?" When I told him neither, he said, "We'll just be careful and use gloves." Will you please discuss hepatitis, hopefully answering my questions and educating the public on the danger of any hepatitis and the need for prompt treatment? — Mrs. M.R.

You're quite right. There are many kinds of hepatitis and causes of it. Mononucleosis, for example, is a possible cause. Hepatitis means liver inflammation, but the kind most people are familiar with is serum hepatitis, which is also called hepatitis B. It can be gotten in a variety of ways, such as through contaminated needles.

Hepatitis A is another kind. It results from water or shellfish contamination with the hepatitis A virus. Your kind of hepatitis, non-A-non-B is another viral liver infection, but it's due neither to the A nor B virus. We don't know which virus or viruses are involved, so the matter is left open as Non-A-Non-B.

However, the Non-A-Non-B as well as the hepatitis B infection can cause ongoing liver cell destruction, so prednisone is sometimes used in treatment to limit that. I am sorry you are having unpleasant side effects from the medicine, but I am elated to hear about the improvements in your blood tests. And now that the dosage has been reduced, you won't be having the side effects to such a degree.

If and when it can be stopped entirely, the side effects will disappear. Be assured for now that those effects are a small price to pay for improvement of your blood tests.

Hepatitis Non-A-Non-B can be transmitted through blood. We do know that much, although we don't know the other ways it may be. Your dentist was simply taking wise precaution to avoid exposure while working on your teeth and gums with needles and drills. I hope that you continue to show improvement and that whatever liver damage may have occurred is minor.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My friend and I have a bet. Please help me out. I say that if my sister and I have the same mother, but different fathers, we are full sisters. But if we have different mothers, but the same father, then we would be half-sisters. My friend says that we are only half sisters, no matter which of the above is true. He says that in order to be full sisters, we have to have the same father and mother. — V.S.

The biological answer is that "full" brothers and sisters are ones who have the same father and mother. Otherwise, full sisters are those who love each other as much as I am sure you and your sister do. That's as full as you can get. Biological fullness is not as important a relationship as loving fullness.

PUBLIC NOTICE

In proceedings pending before the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC), local exchange telephone companies are requesting authority to charge AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., for use of their facilities. These proposed charges are higher than AT&T Communications can pay at current Texas long distance rate levels. To position itself to be able to implement rates that are sufficient to produce revenues that will recover the costs facing the company, AT&T Communications must now file for rate relief to be able to implement rates that reflect the costs of access that are ultimately imposed on the company.

While AT&T Communications does not want to increase its Texas rates, an increase would be required to recover the increased access charges AT&T Communications will have to pay to the local exchange telephone companies under several proposals pending before the Commission. These access charges at the proposed increased levels represent more than 80 percent of AT&T Communications' operating expense in Texas.

Accordingly, AT&T Communications, in accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act and the rules of the PUC, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of rates for long distance calls within Texas. The proposed rates will be effective January 28, 1984, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. All customers and classes of customers would be affected by AT&T Communications' proposed rates.

If higher access charges are ordered, AT&T Communications has no recourse but to pay these charges and recover the costs from its customers as a cost of providing long distance service within Texas. AT&T Communications has filed rates which would mean a maximum overall increase in adjusted test period revenues of $301.4 million, or 27.85 percent. This amount would help recover cost increases due to the proposed level of access charges now pending before the PUC.

A complete copy of all tariffs and rate schedules is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with every municipality in Texas.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Dear Abby

Blood donors give themselves for life

DEAR ABBY: I just donated blood to the American Red Cross Blood Center in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and I'm enclosing a piece that was handed to me on my way out.

I hope you will print it. So many people are not aware of how important it is to give blood — especially now that our blood bank supply has become critically low. Thanks!

EW YORK BLOOD DONOR

DEAR DONOR: You gave more than blood. You gave me an item that will (I hope) inspire more blood donors. Bless you.

WHAT GOOD IS A BLOOD DONOR?

A blood donor is good for people who go through windshield and red lights. For somebody with leukemia.

For people being operated on. For barefoot kids who aren't careful. For people into feudin' and fightin'.

For hemophiliacs so they can be as normal as possible.

For daredevils. For people undergoing dialysis while waiting for a kidney transplant. For people who fool around with guns. For little kids who manage to uncup a bottle of something poisonous.

For people who are burned pretty bad. For new mothers needing a transfusion. For new babies who need a complete change of blood supply. For people having open-heart surgery. For cancer patients. For people with a severe case of hepatitis. For kids who fall out of trees or whatever. For anybody any age with bleeding ulcers. For people in the wrong place at the wrong time. For the very tired with severe anemia.

For people who run into things. For people who are in a lot worse shape than most people you know.

A BLOOD DONOR IS GOOD FOR LIFE

DEAR ABBY: How do you feel about women shaking hands with other women when they meet or say goodbye? How about women shaking hands with men?

I suppose a woman in business does this automatically, just as a man shakes hands with another man.

Don't you think a handshake is somewhat masculine? Whatever happened to the warm smile and friendly hello?

PITTSBURGH

DEAR PITTSBURGH: In my view, offering a hand to shake is a friendly gesture whether it's woman to woman, man to man or woman to man.

And nothing "happened" to the warm smile and the friendly hello. Both men and women use them — alone, or accompanied by a handshake.

Thursday Notes

We are right in the middle of basketball season and there is plenty of basketball action. For openers, the Steve Belvin Never Say Die Award goes to the Lady Steers junior varsity and coach Elaine Stone for their 67-57 victory over Odessa Monday night.

With only nine players on the squad most coaches would be worried about depth, especially when the roster is narrowed to seven because two of the players miss the game.

One might start to worry more when two players foul out of the contest, and one starts to panic when a third fouls out with four minutes remaining in the game — not the cool-headed Stone who promptly instructed her troops to play a 2-2 zone and go into their stall game.

The fearsome foursome of Teresa Pruitt, Monica Lockridge, Tabitha Green and Sheri Myrick held on for the win. The Lady Steers also proved that you can't concentrate on one player and stop them. Odessa held leading scorer Monique Jones to only four points but Pruitt and Lockridge answered with 28 and 19 to up the Lady Steers' district record to 3-1.

Stone also showed her versatility by snapping photos for the Herald during the varsity game. It's never a dull moment when Lady Steers basketball is in town.

The freshmen girls are also having a good year under the direction of coach Susan Sharp.

Monday they evened their record to 4-4 with a 42-38 victory over Snyder as Lynnette Smith scored a season-high 22 points. Paula Jolley chipped in 8.

Connie Swinney leads the team in scoring with a 9 point average. Shelia Chatman follows with a 8 point average while Smith is averaging 6 points per game.

The freshmen will be in hosting a tournament this weekend at Steer Gym.

The Runnels eighth-grade boys are also making their presence known on the court. In the Big Spring Eighth Grade Tournament the Runnels A team came away with third place while the B team was defeated in the consolation finals.

The A team defeated Snyder B 49-11, lost to Lamesa 55-49 and defeated Sweetwater 45-22 for third place.

Brian Mayfield led Runnels averaging 23 points and 8 rebounds during the tourney. Charles White and Michael Rubio was credited by coach David Drake as having good games.

After losing its opening game to the Snyder A team, the Runnels B team rallied for a 39-18 victory over Andrews B. They were defeated by the Andrews A team 32-23 in the consolation finals.

Jerry Smith had a good tournament for the B team averaging 9 points and 10 rebounds. No doubt these future Steers will bring a few smiles to BSHS mentor Mike Randle.

The Big Spring freshmen mopped the floor with my homeboys, the Colorado City Wolves this past week by a score of 64-31.

Cedrick Banks led the Steers scoring charge with 14 points, John Olson followed with 13. Victor Pruitt and Charles Young scored eight points each while Young dished out five assists.

The win ups their mark to 5-3 for the year. Shame on you guys for mistreating the Wolves.

Coahoma seventh grade coach Donny Wiley claims he has a group of seventh graders that can hold their own with anybody, although Colorado City seventh grade coach Mark Merrell might argue with that since his team sports a 7-0 record as compared to Coahoma's 4-2 slate.

Switching from basketball, Coahoma's Jeff Dever who played defensive tackle and noseguard for the Bulldogs this season is being wooed by numerous colleges for his services on the gridiron.

This weekend the 6-2, 255-pounder will be visiting the University of Texas campus. Who knows? We might have a future Longhorn in the area.

The Big Spring Boxing Club is gearing up to go defend its Golden Gloves title in Odessa the latter part of the month.

Coach Jamie Baldwin plans on taking seven boxers and bringing back the title. Here's hoping the BSBC will be a smashing success in Odessa.

RUNAWAY WINNER — Tennis champion Martina Navratilova was a runaway winner as the Associated Press Female Athlete of the Year. Navratilova received 82 votes. Track star Mary Decker was second with 44 votes.

Navratilova named top female athlete

NEW YORK (AP) — With the same ease and dominance she displayed on tennis courts all over the world last year, Martina Navratilova was a runaway winner as the 1983 Associated Press Female Athlete of the Year.

A native of Czechoslovakia who became an American citizen in 1981, Navratilova garnered 82 votes in nationwide balloting of sports writers and broadcasters announced today. Track star Mary Decker, the 1982 winner, was a distant second with 44 votes.

Finishing third was Tamara McKinney, a downhill skier, who had six votes. Distance runner Grete Waitz of Norway received two votes, while volleyball ace Rita Crockett, college basketball star Cheryl Miller of Southern California and golfer JoAnne Carner received one vote each.

Capturing The AP Male Athlete of the Year award on Tuesday was track and field star Carl Lewis.

Navratilova was magnificent in 1983, winning 15 of the 16 tournaments she entered and posting an 86-1 record in matches. Her only loss was to Kathy Horvath in the French Open.

The athletic left-hander has won her last 51 matches, just five shy of the record of 56 set by Chris Evert Lloyd. In 1983, Navratilova won $1,456,030, second only to male tennis star Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia, while her career earnings of $6,394,089 are the most by any tennis player, male or female.

"I'm glad that I got it," Navratilova said when told she had won the award. "But to be honest, I thought I should have gotten it in 1979."

Tennis has dominated the Female Athlete award over the years, with Chris Evert Lloyd winning in 1974, 1975, 1977 and 1980. Tracy Austin took the honor in 1979 and 1980, while Billie Jean King won in 1967 and 1973, and the 1971 winner was Evonne Goolagong of Australia.

"I'm honored with the award," Navratilova said. "I'm really glad because it's people that vote on it."

For the second straight year, Navratilova has finished No. 1 on the Women's Tennis Association computer.

"I was lucky enough to have good year. But I had so many people helping me."

Among her victories in 1983 were Wimbledon for the fourth time, the Australian Open for the second time and the U.S. Open for the first time.

Football deaths go down

DALLAS (AP) — The number of deaths directly attributable to football fell to the lowest total since 1979 last year when four athletes, all high school students, were killed playing the game, according to a American Football Coaches Association survey released Wednesday.

The survey, conducted by University of South Carolina professor Fred Mueller, also found nine indirect deaths, seven of which were blamed on heart failure.

The number of direct deaths hit nine in 1980, 1981 and 1982 after falling to four in 1979, said AFCA spokesman Dick Herbert. The total of direct deaths reached highs of 29 in 1964 and 1970.

The 1983 survey was made public Wednesday during the third day of the AFCA's national convention.

Herbert said the number of direct fatalities has fallen over the years because of an emphasis on correct tackling procedures.

The AFCA convention will conclude Thursday when national coaches of the year for 1983 are announced.

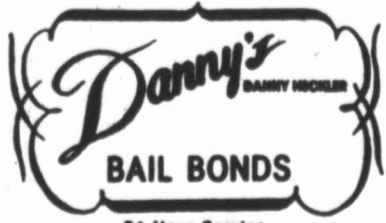

Former UT coach dies

AUSTIN (AP) — Berry Whitaker, who coached the University of Texas to its first Southwest Conference football championship during his brief tenure in the early 1920s, has died at the age of 93.

Funeral services were scheduled today. Whitaker died Tuesday in San Antonio.

Whitaker started coaching at Austin High in 1914 following a collegiate career at the University of Indiana, where he was an all-state college halfback.

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

"Come on, Mommy! Richard Simmons said to keep exercising while the commercial's on!"

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGHTEA INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1984

GENERAL TENDENCIES: There are some changes to place in your financial affairs today, and you would be wise to use your intelligence to accept these new arrangements and turn them to your advantage. Be very practical.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Any misunderstandings with persons in business can be cleared up by having a quiet discussion with them, but be objective.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Use tact in dealing with associates and get rid of tension between you. Study your appearance. Don't permit others to downgrade you.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Sit down with a money expert and get good advice for the future. Become better organized. The evening can be pleasant.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Get busy at your ideas, and don't permit a bickering mate and friends to deter you. Strive for that feeling of security.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Don't listen to what a family tie has to suggest otherwise you can ruin your present position. Take no risks with your credit.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You want to apply new ideas to present dealings, but they would not be workable at this time. Be explicit.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Show your capabilities to a powerful person and gain support for them. See what it is your mate needs and try to help. Be happy.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You may be thinking of breaking up an alliance, but think it over well before you do. Be wise.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Get to work at your duties early and don't make any changes that could prove detrimental. Try to better understand co-workers.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you contact a good friend early, you can arrange recreation you have not enjoyed before this. Be careful in spending money.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You have to be more thoughtful of kin if you want things to go right at home. More effort can bring you greater security.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Get to work on some worthwhile matter and be careful in conversation and driving. Avoid a silly person who could get you into trouble.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be someone who will be very capable at worldly matters, particularly in dealing with important persons. Start education along financial and business lines. Teach good manners early in life.

Blackwell, Mayor Whitmire to meet

HOUSTON (AP) — Mayor Kathy Whitmire is looking forward to talking fashion later this month with designer Richard Blackwell, who put her on last year's 10 Worst-Dressed Women list but dropped her this year because he "found somebody who did worse — Boy George."

Blackwell branded the business suits, ribbon bows and large glasses that have become the mayor's trademark as "Betsy Bloomingdale discards" and said he was considering conducting a "public critique" when he visits Houston on Jan. 22 for a benefit establishing a cancer research fund in Mrs. Whitmire's name.

"If she is still wearing those pussycat bows, something has to be done," Blackwell said in a telephone interview Wednesday from his California home after his list was unveiled.

Blackwell also said he is tempted to bring some scissors to cut off her bow ties and plans to have "six boys in drag present to her the kind of dresses she should wear."

Mrs. Whitmire, often compared with the main character in the movie "Tootsie," and actor Dustin Hoffman, who played the leading role in drag, tied for 10th place on Blackwell's 1982 list.

When the Hollywood designer released this year's list, the mayor wasn't included. But that doesn't mean her appearance improved, Blackwell said.

Police officers flee after drug charges filed

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Two veteran policemen were considered fugitives after federal indictments were handed down charging them with trafficking in drugs and offering paid protection to undercover agents posing as major narcotics dealers.

One of the policemen abandoned his patrol car on a city street Wednesday, said U.S. Attorney Edward C. Prado. The other officer was also considered a fugitive, Prado said.

A team of local officers was helping agents from the Drug Enforcement Administration in the search today for the officers who, a federal grand jury said, used their badges and guns to facilitate and protect the acquisition and distribution of large quantities of cocaine and marijuana.

The hunt for Officers Paul Lopez, 37, and Jesus Gonzales Jr., 30, began late Tuesday, moments after the return of an 11-count indictment against them.

"This is more than just smoking a little marijuana," Prado said in announcing the grand jury charges Wednesday. "They're talking about some large-scale dealings."

Gonzales, who joined the force as a patrolman a decade ago, worked part of his 5 p.m. shift while the arrest warrants were being prepared.

Prado, in explaining why no arrests had been made, said Gonzales fled at about midnight when he arrived for a meeting with a sergeant at a downtown doughnut shop.

Gonzales saw through the window that his arrival would be met by a host of law officers, Prado said.

"He just got spooked and slipped through our plan," the prosecutor said.

Gonzales' patrol car was found abandoned at 9:45 a.m. Wednesday.

Lopez, a 14-year police veteran, was on vacation this week.

He had told friends he would remain in San Antonio, but Prado said he had "not been hanging at his usual places" since word of the indictments began leaking out.

Gulf Corp. settles with ex-employees

HOUSTON (AP) — Gulf Resources & Chemical Corp. has agreed to pay $8.5 million in severance benefits to 10 former executives fired when a rival management group gained control of the company.

The 10 were among 21 executives who sued for $13 million when they were fired after British investor Alan E. Clore gained power in the company in the spring of 1982.

Under an agreement established in 1981, the group was to receive severance benefits "under specified conditions" if control of the firm was to change, Gulf Resources attorney Lawrence Mehl said.

In 1982, Gulf Resources reached an agreement with 10 other former employees named in the original suit, Mehl said. According to the agreement, the firm was to pay the former employees $1.8 million in cash over three years, Mehl said.

He said the firm also has settled with one other former employee, but declined to disclose the details of the settlement.

Costs of the recent settlement will be charged to the firm's fourth quarter 1983 earnings, said Robert G. Boulton, chief executive officer.
