

Meeting Called Monday Night In Interest Of Placing Locally Owned Gin in Friona

COLUMN LEFT

Friona Lions club will meet Friday night this week instead of Thursday.

The rural communities are the bulwark of democracy and community welfare, we still maintain.

Did you ever see the enthusiasm that has been shown in rural Parmer County during the recent March of Dimes campaign? Have you noted the wide-awake and hustling workers for the county-wide Farm Bureau organization? Have you read of the good meeting held at Rhea last week? And the telephone discussion meetings in every community were well attended, with intelligent questions being fired from every corner of the floor by the rural residents. The P-TA meeting at Lazbuddie Monday night was well attended, as was the Farm Bureau meeting there Tuesday night.

This editor enjoys attending the group meetings whenever and wherever they are held throughout the county. We were privileged to talk with the Lazbuddie Parent-Teachers group Monday evening on the subject of "Good Citizenship" a topic that should be near to the hearts of every American citizen.

Not only do we like to see individuals performing their duties as good citizens, but we like to see their business conducted on the same lines. We like to think that the Star has a personality; did you ever think of that? In fact, we believe that the only excuse for the existence of any newspaper is its capacity for service as a good citizen, working for the enlightenment, adequate news presentation, and analytical discussion of the daily factors affecting the lives of the readers. With your help, this paper hopes to be even a better citizen in years to come.

All tracts advertised for tax sale at the Parmer County courthouse this week were sold. Local buyers included Frank Spring, Friona FFA, and Mrs. Fallwell.

Three sub-stations for payment of automobile license fees have been set up by Hubert Cole, county tax assessor-collector. What will the announcement in the Friona Star be regarding license sales in Friona? It's up to the county tax-collector.

Despite rumors and allegations that substations are illegal this paper has on file a letter, dated January 5, and signed by E. J. Amey, director, Motor Vehicle Division, Texas Highway Department, reading:

"Under Texas statutes, license are issued by each County Tax Assessor-Collector who acts as designated agent for each department. The matter of branch offices in any county is wholly within jurisdiction of the County Tax Assessor-Collector. Signed, E. J. Amey, for D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer."

More about this in the editorial columns on page 2.

The Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has passed on a release from the National Better Business Bureau telling of many women being upset by salesmen peddling cooking utensils on a house-to-house basis, the men telling the housewife that aluminum cooking utensils are bad for their health and should be thrown away. The salesmen are reported even making misleading boiling tests to show an apparently clouded condition of water boiled in aluminum.

The Bureau and the American Medical Association both point out that there is no truth in these assertions or tests.

Moral: Don't throw away your aluminum cooking utensils on advice of some salesman who tries to sell you a competitive utensil!

Large Acreage Assured By Recent Surveys

With over 11,000 acres of cotton indicated in the immediate vicinity of Friona for 1951, various groups have been quite busy the last few weeks exploring methods and means of placing a cotton gin here. Several ginners have made inquiry about the location here. The Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has spearheaded the drive for a local gin.

Latest development is a plan advanced for a new gin to be built by a local corporation. A meeting has been called by Leo McLellan and others to be held at the high school in Friona next Monday night, with all cotton producers and others interested in securing a gin here urged to be present.

Under the corporation plan, the gin would be bought outright from the manufacturer. One factory representative was in Friona early this week, telling of his ability to place the latest type gin and compress here, with substantial financial aid of the manufacturer. His type gin would compress the bales without having to ship them elsewhere to a compress, thus saving freight and handling charge, and permitting easier and faster movement of the cotton.

Founders Day Will Be Observed By PT-A on Thursday

"Founders Day" observance by the local Parent-Teacher Association will be observed next Thursday evening with a very full program.

The program and social will be held at the Methodist church annex at 7:30 p. m.

Local speaker for the evening will be Stanley Ockhart, minister of the Church of Christ.

The "History of PT-A" will be told by Mrs. Elmer Patterson of Hereford, district officer and vice president of the four-county area organization embracing Parmer, Deaf Smith, Castro and Swisher counties.

Mrs. Claude Osborn has charge of the program.

Hostesses for the social are Mrs. Weldon Dickson, Mrs. Mack Bainum, Mr. Bruce Parr, Miss Fern Barnett and Mrs. Steve Struve. Assisting will be the past presidents and founders of the local organization which was 23 years old in December.

A giant birthday cake will be a special attraction at the social.

Basketball Game Monday Night for March of Dimes

You haven't seen anything in basketball games, according to the Sophomore class at Friona schools, until you see the game Monday night between the girls and the boys in the high school gym.

The girls high school team is playing the boys high school team, and the game will be on the girls' rules! Starting at 7:30 p. m., there will be possibilities of a later game, the sophomores said.

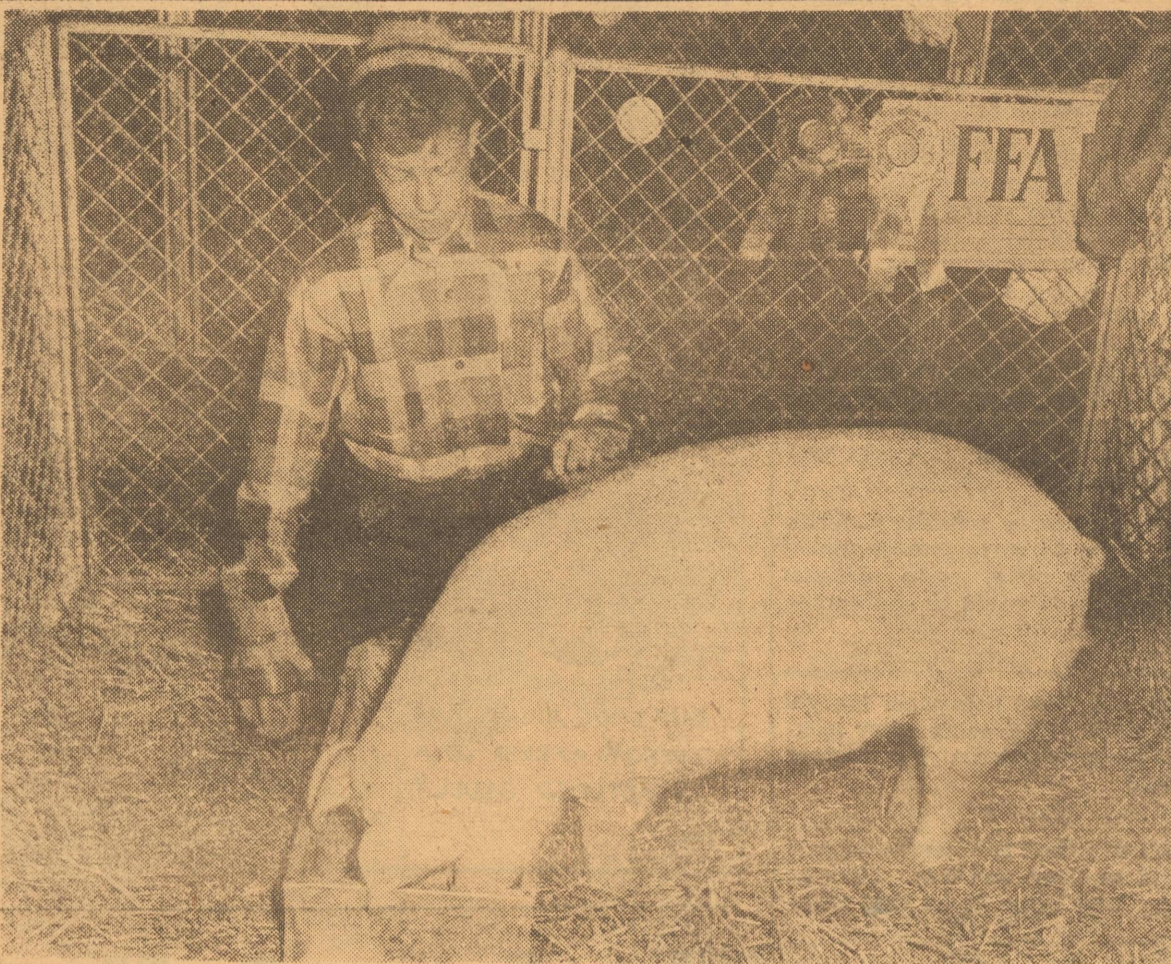

Minimum admission price will be 25c, and all donations will be appreciated, with proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

Between games a cake auction will be held.

Cari Maurer is all smiles this week after the big turnout at his movie program on Tuesday.

Tickets are available at the Star office for Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre production at the Hereford High school on Feb. 16 at 7:30 p. m. They are 75c and $1.

Also available are tickets to the Jim Hill Hotel Anniversary dance on Feb. 16. Denny Beckner and his Happytimers are playing for the occasion. Prices are $5 per couple, plus $1 tax.

Lazbuddie Entry Takes Reserve Championship at Fort Worth

Irrigation Day Program Will Be Held on Thursday

An Irrigation Day program will be conducted in the district court room at Farwell on Thursday, Feb. 15, beginning at 10:00 a. m. and ending about 4:30 o'clock. This meeting is sponsored jointly by the County Soil Conservation district and the Extension service.

The program will include a talk and discussion on soil fertility by Duke Thornton, agricultural chemist with the extension service at College Station; and discussion of level irrigation and the part the soil conservation service plays in this line, by Miles Kelley, engineer of the SCS at Hereford.

W. L. Edlmon, president of the local SCS board of supervisors, will discuss "The Soil Conservation District."

Joe Camp, Parmer PMA secretary, will outline the 1951 PMA program.

Bob Thurman, irrigationist of the extension service at Lubbock, will conclude the program with discussion of water application.

Awards Were Given "Children of the Year" By Regal Theatre Here

Winners have been announced in the recent "Child of the Year" contest sponsored by the Regal Theatre, a promotion involving showing of children's pictures on the screen here.

First prize of a $25 War Bond went to Scott Cummings, 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cummings of Rt. 1, Friona.

Second award was received by Celia Fay, 1 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Vestal, Jr. It was a 3-way panel picture.

A 2-way panel picture was given Becky Lou, 5 months old daughter of Leonard Coffey as third prize.

Fourth prize of a 5x7 picture went to Therman Walker, 9-year old son of Mrs. Elman Walker.

Fifth prize of a 3x4 picture was received by Eryea Robinson, 8 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robinson.

Dr. Hanlin Addressed Record Crowd at Church

Dr. Harold F. Hanlin, returned missionary from the Carolyn Islands of the Pacific spoke to a record congregation at the morning worship hour of the Congregational church Sunday. Dr. Hanlin also spoke and presented colored pictures of his work following the church family dinner held at noon. Mrs. Edd Uri Luttrell was the soloist of the morning worship hour. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Terry and son Lee, who are leaving for their new home this week, were given "God-speed" by the church through Mrs. Meyer.

The next church family dinner is scheduled for March 4 when the Hollywood made sound movie "The Eleventh Hour" will be shown.

Largest Group Takes Physicals Next Tuesday

Seventy men, the largest group ever to leave from the Hereford draft board area, will go for their army physical examinations Tuesday morning, February 13. The group will go by chartered bus.

Parmer county men going are: Friona: G. A. Collier, Jr., Loyd George Messenger, James Loyd Pope, George Lawrence Jesko, Haskell Allen Dufur.

Farwell: Melvin Dwight Venable, Marion Glenis Hughes, William Halbert Graham, Jr., William Ray Magness and George.

Draft Takes Three From Parmer County For Feb. 15 Induction

Three Parmer County men will be among those leaving for induction into the armed services Thursday, Feb. 15. They are Clarence E. Veazey of Friona, Stacy Queen, Bovina, and Edwin R. Hart, Farwell.

They will leave Hereford by regular bus at 9:07 a. m. on Thursday for induction at Amarillo, and they will be sent immediately to camp from there.

Seventeen from the Hereford board are being inducted.

Lazbuddie Youth Takes Award At Fort Worth Show

Jerry Don Gleason, FFA boy in the Lazbuddie community, probably is one of the happiest fellows in the area this week, having copped Reserve Championship awards in the Fort Worth Boys Livestock show with his Chester White Barrow entry.

Gleason is taking vocational agriculture at Lazbuddie, and he entered his barrow as an FFA entry. He has four more barrows, planning to enter two at the Hereford show and two at Amarillo.

The Fort Worth entry came from a dam that Jerry Don obtained through the Sears award program.

Ross Stuard is vocational agriculture supervisor at Lazbuddie.

Banquet Slated For Farm Bureau Members - Wives

Parmer County Farm Bureau directors and officers met in the county agent's office in Farwell Friday to work out last minute details for the membership drive that begins Friday, February 9. Thursday night at 8:00, a kick-off banquet is being given for the fifty two workers and their wives in the Friona Legion hall. The Friona Legion Auxiliary is to serve the meal and Marvin Carter, state organization director of Waco, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

"Parmer County Farm Bureau has grown steadily in the three years since its organization," said President Bruce Parr, "and we are appreciative of the fact that farmers from just about every section of the county are taking an active interest in developments supported through their organization."

Directors of Friona, Farwell, Bovina and Rhea communities are getting their teams lined up for a concerted one-day coverage of the county February 9, to be followed by clean-up drives during the following week. Those working in the county will be instructed to encourage farm people to support the Rural Telephone Cooperative with their applications and remittances.

Tuesday night, February 20, Johnnie Lynn, commonly called Uncle Jay, will be on hand to help give life to the "Victory Party," a county wide affair to be held in the Friona High school auditorium. This promises to be an evening of enjoyment for everyone.

Charles A. Ragan Funeral Service Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Charles Arthur Ragan were conducted here Wednesday morning at the Friona Methodist church, with Rev. T. B. Allen, Baptist pastor of Aspermont, officiating, assisted by Rev. James E. Tidwell of Friona.

Mr. Ragan, retired farmer, died at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon on Monday, his 76th birthday.

Surviving are his wife, four daughters, Mrs. A. F. Wendt, Dallas, Mrs. S. A. Ellis, Plaska, Mrs. Bertie Stowers and Mrs. Joe Collier, both of Friona. A son, W. C. Ragan of Clarendon; 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Charles A. Ragan was born Feb. 5, 1875 in Alabama. He was married to Miss Nora Whitfield, and they moved to McLennan County, Texas, in the late 1890s. They moved to Friona from Hall County in 1942.

Burial was in the Memphis cemetery, where graveside services were conducted Wednesday afternoon.

Public Poll

What is your opinion about a library in Friona?

Mrs. C. L. Bracken: I think it would be awfully nice to have one if it was modern and kept up.

Mrs. E. B. Brannon: I hadn't thought much about it, but I think it would be all right if that is what the people want.

Mrs. Lester Harrelson: I think we need one and I think people will donate books and I believe women would donate their time to help run it. I think it would help the town very much.

Mrs. A. E. Crump: I think it would be very nice. I like to read and think I would enjoy it and know many others would.

Mrs. Herman Ness: I believe a town of any size needs a library.

Mrs. Weldon Dickson: It would be a good help if we could get one started.

Mrs. L. R. Dilger: I really think it is needed, but so far it hasn't been too successful. I think Friona needs one, though.

Mrs. Arthur Drake: We need one, and people should take advantage of it; that is what will make it progress.

Mrs. B. E. Sanders: I think it would be a good thing. It would certainly help the town.

Style Show Is Slated, Bovina Tuesday, Feb. 20

Members of the Bovina Half Century club met at the A. B. Wilkerson home, planning their annual Spring Style Show to be held Thursday evening, Feb. 20 at 8:30 in the Bovina American Legion hall.

Committees appointed included: Refreshments and decorations: Mesdames Art Mast, Vernon Estes, Jimmy Charles, R. L. Douglas, Jr.

Clothing and Models: Mesdames Truman Ford, Aubrey Tucker, W. L. Liles, Lillian Mahan, Don Rountree, Howard Looney.

Publicity: Mrs. A. V. Warren, Mrs. Jimmy Charles.

Entertainment: Mrs. Aubrey Tucker.

Construction Assured Only Upon Immediate Signing of Consumers

In a conference Tuesday at Hereford between officials of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company and the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, agreements were reached whereby each organization will serve areas designated "economically feasible."

State regulations prohibit a formal division of territory, but informal agreements indicate Bell will serve an area about 3 miles around Hereford, with the Western Deaf Smith County left for development by the cooperative.

The Belle officials professed no plans for the future line construction in the Dawn, Black and Summerfield areas.

With these understandings reached at the Hereford meeting, the future of the cooperative plan serving Parmer County appears much brighter, with go-ahead orders contingent upon early signatures and fee payments by a sufficient number of consumers desiring service.

Leo Forrest, manager of the local REA said the co-op probably will let an engineering contract soon and work can go forward rapidly on other contracts just as soon as the membership fee and stock is paid in. Release of federal funds previously granted is contingent upon the number of members signing.

Committees which first reach their quota on the required number of subscriber contracts, probably will get telephone service first, he said.

Numerous community meetings have been held in Parmer County at which time the plan was explained in detail with a number of contracts being signed for service. With a concentrated drive now necessary, the Parmer County Farm Bureau has taken steps to contract the farmers of the county, hoping to raise their quota at a early date.

Among those attending the Hereford meeting for this area were Harold Carpenter, Oklahoma Lane, F. T. Schlenker, Friona, and Bruce Parr of the Farm Bureau.

Under terms of the agreement reached this week, Bell will recognize the cooperative as a connecting company, granting it the privilege due such.

Denny Beckner To Play at Jim Hill Hotel, Hereford

Anniversary Dance Tickets Now on Sale

Hailed as one of the finest entertainment bands in the entire country, Denny Beckner and his Happytime Music group will be on deck at the Hotel Jim Hill in Hereford on Friday, February 16.

The Hereford Community Hotel Corporation, consisting of local stockholders, is sponsoring this dance for two purposes, celebrating the first anniversary of the hotel, and to secure funds for payment of outstanding bills incurred in the construction and equipping of the hotel for opening.

Tickets are on sale at the Hotel Jim Hill in Hereford, and at the Friona Star office in Friona.

Featured with the band will be "Miss Twinklitoes" Betsy Ross, a petite and dynamic singer and dancer of distinction.

Known to theatre goers over the nation as one of the more popular comedy dancers of the vaudeville circuits, Denny Beckner is coming to the panhandle after holdover engagements at the Roosevelt Hotel in Washington, D. C. and the Hotel Park Central in New York City.

A patented metronome provides a definite dance beat, satisfying all types of dancers, the advance publicity releases reveal.

Got a Favorite Recipe?

So you like to cook!

Beginning next week the Star will print a number of recipes in each issue of the paper. We want you to send in your favorite recipe, which we will print below your name. After all, there's nothing like home proven cooking and home proven recipes!

The recipe need not be elaborate; it may be of anything from corn bread to fillet mignon or caviar. Submit as many as you desire, those not printed next week will follow at a later date.

These recipes will be kept on file at the Star, and we hope every one will prove of benefit to the housewives of this area. Don't wait, send yours in right now! Or call them in; our number is 3172. Send them by pony express or telegraph, just get them in!

Will the Service of Vehicle License Issue in Friona Be Worth the Effort? This Paper Says "Yes," Emphatically

Few of us need worry about the problem of carrying SERVICE too far. Though often it is hard to draw the line between obligations and service, few men or businesses or institutions have found the price for community service prohibitive.

This, we believe especially true for elected officials of any unit of government.

Some fifty residents of east Parmer County, according to O. J. Beene, called at the City Drug store last week, inquiring if they might pay their poll taxes there. Many made the inquiry on the last day, and having no transportation to Farwell, will not be privileged to vote this year.

In the light of this instance, and after repeated requests by taxpayers of this area, we must insist that attention be given to the sale of automobile license tags in Friona, serving the many vehicle owners of central and east Parmer County.

the writer with Tax-collector Onas. Lovelace, who has rendered us many favors and services. Though he has not promised any definite action on the license sale here, we hope and insist that he give this service to us.

We heartily agree with Mr. Lovelace in his statement that he is overburdened, and cannot foresee developments which might prevent his personally issuing license here on designated days. But we cannot agree with him in desiring the matter tabled, ignored, or kept out of the press. When the public, year after year, asks for a service, I believe that public might have a mighty good point worth listening to. In fact, were we holding public office, we would consider it mighty good business to cater to the wishes of the public and certainly so if these wishes were repeated year after year.

We are confident that a solution is forthcoming, and we hope to carry announcement from the tax-collector's office as to definite action. This announcement would be appropriate only at a very early date.

"Born to Trot" Is Written for Those Who Love Horses; Well Recommended For Grownups and Juniors Alike

Rand-McNally $2.50

For those who love horses, Marguerite Henry has written a new story, "Born to Trot". It is one that grown-ups will enjoy reading to their family or one the older juniors will like to read themselves.

The author is a favorite in the telling of horse stories, with "King of the Wind", "Musty of Circoteague", and "Sea Star" preceding this one. Wesley Dennis has done a fine job of illustrating the book in an unusual manner.

"Born to Trot" is a true story of Rosalind, who took part in a colorful world of harness racing to become a world champion, and of the boy who owns her, Gibson White is the boy's name and he is the son of Ben Franklin White. Gibson's father was a dean of colt trainers which enabled Gibson to grow up with the tap, tap, tap music of trotters in his lood. At the age of fourteen he became a driver on the Grand Circuit.

His very first race proved the kind of boy and driver he was, as things did not follow the usual event. In the author's own words we feel the thrill of it.

"At the first turn with the race barely begun, Gibson felt his right arm jerk violently backward, saw the rein go slack in his hand. It had snapped in two! He had no control over the horse. His hand froze to the useless line and a cold knife of fear twisted within him. He glanced around and saw the whole field converging down on him. A bad pile-up flashed in his mind. Locked wheels. Sulkies capsized. Drivers tossed high. Horses on top of men. His father among them Step by step we learn how Gib becomes owner of the colt, how his father trained her, how she became the champion trotter, and how he shares her triumph in winning a coveted trophy.

As one of the characters in the book says, "I like to remember that America originated harness racing. Horse racing may be the sport of kings, but harness racing belongs to the people. To England the Thoroughbred, France the Percheron, to America the Trotter."

Some of our own forefathers, not too far off in our family tree, perhaps had a part in this development; and towns in the Texas Panhandle today train for and carry on such races. They particularly will enjoy this new story by Marguerite Henry.

The Law & You

By Robt. (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW how to get a person off of property rented from you, who refuses to move?

Should a person living on property owned by you refuse or fail to move from the premises when his rent is due, you as an individual do not have the right to go into the rentor's house and throw his belongings into the street or road. You could be sued for doing this.

A law suit must be filed for you in the proper Court, setting up the fact, among others, that you are entitled to the possession of the property sued for. The case is then set down for hearing, and a notice issued to the rentor. On the day set for hearing, if the rentor does not appear, the court will order the trial to proceed. Assuming the judgment is in favor of the owner of the property several days must elapse before the Court can enter an order to the Sheriff to deliver the premises to you. This proceeding will normally take several weeks.

Should it be imperative that you have the premises immediately, you can make bond when the suit is filed, and the Court will immediately issue an order to the Sheriff to place you in possession of the premises.

Nothing Better Than Good Food, Says Ohio Man

If a man isn't able to eat the foods he likes he's in mighty sorry shape—imagine going through life without being able to enjoy a fine big platter of bacon and eggs. That is the way Joseph N. Damillot, 3414 E. 5th Street, Dayton, Ohio, used to be, but since he has been taking HADACOL, he says he feels just fine and is able to enjoy lots and lots of fine foods. Mr. Damillot found that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Damillot's statement: "My first bottle of HADACOL convinced me that HADACOL was what I needed for the gas on my stomach at night. I could not keep food on my stomach, but after the first bottle I was going great. Now I eat bacon and eggs, and other foods that never would stay with me. I also can sleep well at night. Thanks to HADACOL, I will never be without it, and can recommend it to all who suffer with the above ailments that I had. I know because I have suffered for quite some time."

Rhea Farm Bureau Elects Officers; Plans Are Made for Membership Drive

Work Program Started With Committees Named

Sixteen farmers of the Rhea community met for their scheduled Farm Bureau meeting last Thursday night, despite the bad weather, going to work on a program designed to net real benefits to the community in 1951.

The group voted to sponsor an improvement program regarding the rural mail boxes in that area. Plans are to make available through the organization, but at the owner's expense, name plates and uniform poles for every mail box. A committee headed by L. H. Hoffman and Charlie Calloway was appointed to handle this project, finding the material, which could be passed on at minimum charges. Election of officers for 1951 was held, with Melvin Sachs remaining as president for another year, E. M. Wagner succeeds L. H. Hoffman as vice president, Miles Roberson follows J. D. Stevenson as secretary - treasurer; and Herman Herzog was elected reporter, a new office in the organization.

Carl Schlenker, county legislative representative, told of the recent statewide meeting of the county legislative committees in Waco.

Floyd Schlenker, director of the local rural electric cooperative, told of the developments in the proposed telephone service for which money has been allocated; but he warned that early signing of applications by

Hereford Junior Livestock Show To Be Feb. 16, 17

More than 430 individual entries are expected to be shown at the Hereford Rotary club Junior Livestock show on February 16 and 17, according to Hugh Clearman, Deaf Smith County agent.

Entries from Deaf Smith, Oldham, Castro, and Parmer counties will be competing for approximately $350 being offered as cash prizes.

Judge for the livestock event will be R. C. Mowery, head of the animal husbandry department at Texas Tech.

Clearman said he expects about 300 chickens, 50 calves, 55 pigs, and about 23 lambs to be shown at this annual farm event.

Ann events will be larger than last year's except the calves, which will be about five exhibits smaller.

Three highlights of the two-day event will be the barbecue at 11:45 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 17, the parade at 1:30 p.m., and the sale of livestock following the parade.

Schedule of events for the show are:

Thursday, Feb. 15

1 p.m. All pigs in place

9 p.m. All poultry in place

Friday, Feb. 16

10 a.m. All calves in place

9:30 a.m. Poultry judging

10:30 a.m. Lamb judging

1 p.m. Swine judging

Saturday, Feb. 17

9:45 a.m. Light calf judging;

poultry awards will be made following this judging; 10:45 a.m., judging of heavy calves;

11:15 judging of groups of three; 11:45 a.m., barbecue; 1:30 p.m. parade.

A sifting committee comprised of representatives of each of the four participating counties will sift the calves on Friday before the show.

All desiring the service would be imperative to insure the project.

A drive for new members of the Farm Bureau will be conducted in February, it was revealed.

WHO'S Crippled?

Although he is only 22 years old, Paul Mitchell of Dallas, Tex., born with cerebral palsy, has successfully overcome his handicap, and is today entirely self-supporting and on his way to a promising business career.

Paul Mitchell

In recognition of his indomitable courage and outstanding achievement, the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its state affiliate, the Texas Society for Crippled Children, recently awarded Paul the "Who's Crippled?" citation. Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas presented the citation at ceremonies held at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

This monthly award is conferred by the National Society, the Easter Seal Agency, through its state affiliates to courageous persons like Paul Mitchell who, in a delicate termination to live a happy, useful life, outwit a severe physical handicap.

With the encouragement and help of his devoted mother, Mrs. John P. Mitchell, who started her son on a rigid schedule of treatment and training at an early age, Paul was learning to walk at eleven years of age, although he could not stand alone at seven. Mrs. Mitchell bought books and taught Paul at home during his grammar school years.

On his ninth birthday, Paul's parents gave him a typewriter. Since he couldn't hold a pencil, they hoped his writing problems would now be solved. But when he tried to type, they discovered he lacked the strength in his fingers to press down the keys. Mrs. Mitchell worked with him day after day, guiding his fingers again and again over the typewriter keyboard.

Well organized fire prevention and protection programs in Naval districts reduced the number of fires in Naval shore establishments by two-thirds of the 1949 figure in 1950.

Benjamin Franklin became the until finally he could make a dim impression on paper. After more practice, he mastered the typewriter, using one finger on each hand, and began publishing a neighborhood newspaper which he distributed from door to door.

When Paul became of high school age, he took a board of education test and Dallas school authorities were amazed at his ability to learn. They suggested that he enter North Dallas High School, but since he still couldn't use a pencil, he continued the home training with his mother as teacher and his typewriter substituting for a pencil.

When he was only 12, Paul opened a magazine subscription agency, and before long he built up a profitable business. Today he has 3,500 annual subscriptions.

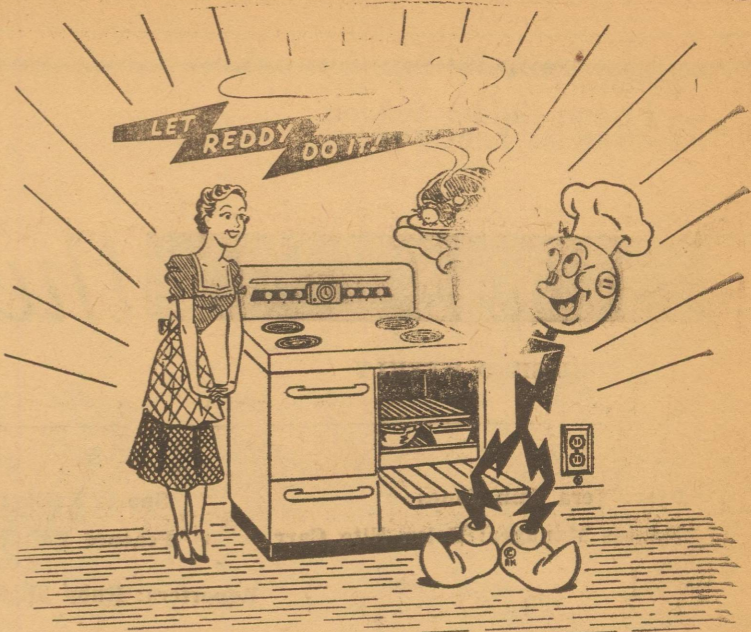

Since people didn't seem to read as much in the summer as in winter, Paul decided to supplement his magazine business with an ice cream route. Early in his business career, he bought a motor scooter for $500 and paid for it out of his $5.00 a day profits. His business increased to such an extent that he purchased a Jeep station wagon and a freezing unit large enough to keep a day's supply of ice cream at home. He recently purchased a 1950 automobile from his earnings and now travels throughout Dallas.

During the 1947 Easter Seal campaign, Paul heard about the Sheltered Workshop sponsored by the Texas Society for Crippled Children. Feeling that occupational therapy could improve his muscle coordination and perhaps teach him a craft that could be useful in earning a living, he enrolled and remained for a year.

Paul's association with other handicapped persons facing problems similar to his own renewed his courage and will to live a happy, useful life. His story inspired the 30 members of the workshop for it has given them the determination that they, too, can become self-supporting and take their rightful place in society.

LINCOLN

There's no more fitting time, than Lincoln's birthday, to be reminded of the fundamental precepts of our great democracy; that any man, no matter how humble his beginnings, may one day be president. There's no more fitting tribute to the memory of Lincoln, than the simple phrase . . . all men are created equal.

Senior Play Is Selected To Be Given in March

"Surprise by Request" has been chosen for the Senior play. A three-act farce, the play centers around the family of a missionary in Alaska. The main theme of concern is the coming back of the sun. Two Eskimos, Ahmogah and Mrs. Chukuk, provide an interesting sideline. The characters are as follows:

Rev. Mr. Seils—Gaylord Maurer.
Mrs. Seils—Mary Lou Miller.
Georgenne—Vera Ann Jones.
Ariene—Helen Nita Carr.
Sylvia Mae—Ruby Mae Shaffer.
Mrs. Achukuk—Jean Knight.
John Baird—J. Vonne Fulks.
Ahmogah—Keith Brock.

The play will be presented about March 2 or 3.

Glen Cunningham and Raymond Cook are directing the production.

FHS

Senior of the Week:

The Senior of this week is a friendly, likeable boy around FHS who always has something to say. His name is Keith Brock. He was born February 18, 1933 here in Friona. Keith is a member of the local F. F. A. chapter, is on the annual and Arrow staffs, and was a flag-bearer for the Sr. Band during football season.

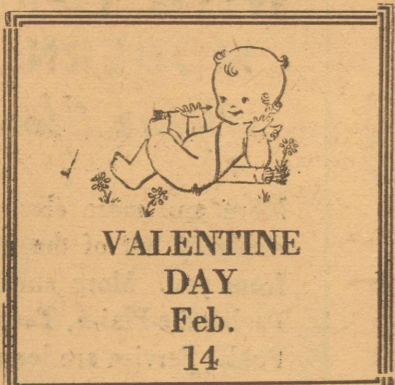

His favorite subject is agriculture. He likes to eat barbecue, enjoys flying, and dislikes two-faced people. His favorite song is "There's Been A Change In Me."

After graduation Keith plans to attend Texas Tech, majoring in animal husbandry—that is if he's not in the army.

Valentine Lament

Your eyes are inviting,
Your lips are exciting,
But put it in writing
I won't!
Should I be so stupid
(According to Cupid),
It may mean I do
When—I don't!

—June Brown Harris

FHS

When you give your sweetie a little token of love through flowers, candy, or cards, containing witty verse, did you ever wonder just how this long-time tradition began?

It was once a custom to draw lots to decide which young men and women should be each other's "valentine" for the coming year. The couples would then exchange gifts and sometimes even become engaged or married. This idea was taken from accepted actions on the feast day of three Saint Valentines—a Roman priest and doctor, a bishop, and a martyr—who lived between 269 and 273 A. D. So, when February 14 rolls around this year, send your sweetheart a valentine and who knows, every you may become engaged or married!

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortenberry spent the weekend in Happy visiting their parents. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Fortenberry and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vernon.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tally and son had dinner Wednesday night with the Paul Fortenberrys.

TOTEM POLL

We questioned several FHS students the past week on "If a Student Operated Youth Center was organized in Friona, do you think the students would participate. Would you do your part in running it?"

Oneida Coffman — I think they should. Sure I'd help.

Joyce Miller — If everyone would participate. Yes, I would help.

Walter Haws—I doubt if it would function, or if I could help.

Beverly Sue Jones—I think they would and I would help.

Patsy Reed — I think they would and I would help also.

J. Vonne Fulks—I think they would. I would help organize one. You would have to have an organized student body to do it.

Mary Lou Miller — Certainly, that's what they have been wanting for a long time. I know they would. If I had time I would help.

Gay Ann McFarland—I certainly think it would and I would help run it.

Darrel Robbins—I don't know. It didn't when they had that other one. I doubt if I would help much.

Ira Holt—I imagine so. I'd do help much, I might.

my part.

RoMona Neff — I don't know whether they would or not but I would.

Mr. Caffey—Well, I think they would. There would have to be something continuously to hold their interest. Students will go to a place where they can hang out together. I would do my part whatever that would be.

Editor's Note—If gasoline and tires were rationed, making it impossible for young people to seek entertainment in neighboring towns, what could Friona offer them? We wondered if, with adult backing, there would be enough interest to justify action. The preceding comments gave us a pretty fair picture of the probable reaction to such a plan as the youth center. How about it, citizens of Friona and community? It's something worth thinking about!!!

Grade School News

Second Grade—
Miss Hanson's second grade pupils are now in a new seating arrangement. They have been sitting facing north, but are now facing west.

Third Grade—
The third grade pupils are having an interesting February unit. We are studying the life of Lincoln and Washington. On Mondays we listen to the story hour over our radio. We heard the story of Robinson Crusoe last Monday morning.

Fourth and Fifth Grade
Mrs. Edelman's room is being patriotic by saving notebook paper. Each child hands in 25 sheets of paper and is given one sheet each time it is needed. Each child used seven sheets of paper the last two weeks.

Fifth Grade
The Good Citizen's club met on Friday, February 2. We answered roll call by naming something famous that Franklin D. Roosevelt did.

Sixth Grade
The sixth grade will have a party some time in the next few weeks. On the food committee are Willie May Edwards, Marvin Jasper and Phyllis Treider.

Seventh Grade
Tuesday night, January 30, a farewell party was given by the seventh grade in honor of Eugenia Ray Landrum. Games were played, refreshments served and everyone had a good time.

Glenna May Pope has the mumps.

Roberta Reed seems to get along pretty well with Danny Mac Bainum.

FHS

Pow-Wow

You can't tell the FHS girls from the FHS boys, at least their boots. They surely are getting some snazzy ones.

Bessie, why are you worrying over a letter?

We were glad to see Junior bring Maridee to our ball games. It seems as if Gay Ann and Ben Wayne are getting up quite a case. Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Rose sure looked downhearted Thursday morning after her boy friend went to the army.

Ralph Reed and Laura Nell are sure going together a lot. But that is what we like to see—Sammy was showing off a new coat Thursday. Was it from Ray???

Mr. Cook, do the boys in 4th period study hall have a hard time with their watches???

Max C., how do you like to watch the girls play basketball the 5th period? Okay??

Mr. Cook and Mr. Cunningham are hoping they never have another Senior play cast as crazy as the present. But we all have fun.

Jack is now officially "Mr. Reader." We take off our hats to you.

Do you find much from notes in Study hall, Mr. Smith???

We heard rumors of Garry Crow going over to Bovina, also Ira Holt. How about that, girls? Are we going to let them get by with it???

Deann was with Joe Baxter Saturday night, and Sunday afternoon. Did ya have fun?

D. O. and Lamona were seen together Saturday night. Did you have fun???

Merl and Ray F. were seen Tuesday night after the ball game. They sure looked snazzy together.

Sunday night after church a car load of boys sure had fun. Or so it seems, anyway.

Rex and Onedia were over at Adrian Friday night, also over at Clovis Sunday. There's nothing slow about them.

Speaking of Clovis, Jay Cobb was seen over there three times Sunday. He must have had important business.

Darrell and Margie are also getting up a case. Saturday night and Sunday afternoon....

Just what are Jimmy R's and Roberta R's names doing at the Baptist church?

Jack London, Sue Jones, Harold Joe Wells and Rose Williams were all seen together Sunday afternoon.

Joyce Ann and M. C. Osborn were also seen together Sunday night. At church and after church....

Valentine Party Held By Black Study Club

A valentine social was held by the Black Study and Social club Thursday in the home of Mrs. Altha Presley. Roll call was answered by each member discussing some chosen topic.

Mrs. Helen Fargman talked to the group on the subject of "Southwestern and Modern Architecture."

Attending were Mesdames Grace Parr, Maxine Price, Beulah Deaton, Lucille Rockey, Altha Presley, Anna Mae Hays, Emma Elmore, Mildred Barnett, Helen Fargman, Louise Robertson, and one guest, Eleanor Prewett.

Teams Wind Up Conference Play

Basketball play for Friona this week found the Chieftains losers to Vega and Springlake, with the Squaws losing to Vega, but winning over Springlake opponents.

Engaging Springlake Tuesday night, the girls took first half lead of 2 points, maintaining a winning margin until the final gun sounded with Friona leading 22-21 in an exciting game.

Vega held a game-long lead to win 40-30 in the Friday night game.

The Chieftains lost 46-36 in their Springlake melee which saw some brilliant playing by both teams.

Score for the Chieftains Vega game was 48 to 32, favoring Vega.

The boys will attend the district meet at Vega his weekend.

Millionth U. S. Soldier and Millionth Traffic Casualty Both Expected in 1951

First Minute Man Died 176 Years Ago In Battle of Lexington

A new Unknown Soldier—"GI-X"—will soon fall on a Korean battlefield as the millionth soldier to die in all wars in U. S. history, should hostilities continue there with heavy losses, the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies said today.

The death of "GI-X" is expected within the next few months, 176 years after the first Minute Man died in the Battle of Lexington on April 19, 1775. It will precede by a few months the death of "Victim X", his unknown civilian counterpart, who will be the millionth person to be killed in U. S. traffic accidents since 1900. With traffic deaths also nearing the million mark this year, the Association expects "Victim X" will die next December if street and highway fatalities continue at the present high rate of 35,000 a year.

"GI-X" may be killed during the spring or even sooner if Korean casualties become heavier, according to the Association. Military deaths in all American wars, including Korea, reached a total of 994,000 near the end of January, it is said. At that time the 50-year toll of traffic deaths topped 966, or 28,000 fewer than the aggregate of all war deaths to date.

All U. S. wars had cost 986,000 lives when the Korean action started last June, according to Department of Defense reports. During the first six months of the Korean war, 6,200 Americans were reported dead of all causes. Continued heavy U. S. losses since December have edged the total of all war dead closer to the million mark, with 7,303 confirmed deaths reported as of January 12. "GI-X" will die when that total is nearly doubled, the Association said.

Both "GI-X" and "Victim X" will remain unknown, their identities buried in a maze of statistics. Both deaths will be significant historically, however, particularly since they may occur in the same year, the association said. It pointed out that while an unexpected truce of evacuation of U. S. forces from Korea might delay the death of "GI-X", an intensive highway safety campaign in 1951 could save enough lives to postpone until next year the expected death of the millionth traffic victim in "Accident X".

The Association added that although the total of U. S. military deaths from all causes is slightly higher, automobiles to date have killed far more than twice the number of soldiers killed in action since 1775. Nearly a third of the nation's war dead are accounted for by nearly 284,000 deaths from disease in the Civil War among Union and Confederate soldiers. This total, although huge, is 500 less than the 284,300 traffic deaths which have occurred since Pearl Harbor.

Comparing war wounded with traffic injuries, Julien H. Harvey, manager of the Association's accident prevention department, provided a more striking contrast. He estimated that between 299,500,000 and 30,000,000 men, women and children, including pedestrians, have suffered non-fatal injuries in traffic accidents since 1900. This total, he said, is 25 times greater than the 1,250,000 men wounded in all U. S. wars up to the present time.

Last year's toll of traffic injuries alone nearly equalled the total of non-fatal casualties in every war to date, including Korea," Mr. Harvey said. "Accidents on streets and highways took an exceptionally heavy toll during the last six months of 1950, with 19,500 killed and 65,000 injured. These injuries in the short span of a half year were more than two-thirds of the total for the entire year.

MONUMENT TO THEIR FUTURE . . . Two young Americans from New York's East Side stand under a "dead end" sign and gaze hopefully toward the uncompleted United Nations headquarters building.

soldiers wounded since the start of the Spanish-American War in 1898."

The veteran safety expert attributes the big rise in traffic deaths last year to speeding. Automobile accidents in 1950 cost 3,500 more lives than in 1949, he said, with the year's total reaching 35,000. This represents the largest annual loss of lives in traffic accidents since 1941, when 39,969 deaths set an all-time high.

Urging a nation-wide anti-speeding campaign as the first step to reduce traffic deaths, Mr. Harvey pointed out that two and a half times as many people are being killed in accidents in rural areas as in urban sections of the nation. Nearly all of these rural deaths are occurring on the open highway and are caused by excessive speed, he said.

Explanation Is Given For Naval Recruiting Restrictions, Quota

Navy recruiting officials are emphasizing that the current restriction in recruiting is not a "freeze" but a quota system brought on by limited facilities at recruit training centers.

Quotas will be increased as more facilities become available, Eighth Naval District headquarters announced.

The Navy also pointed out that no quota has been placed on enlistments of persons with enough previous Navy, or other military, service to make recruit training unnecessary.

The recruiting quota for the week ending Feb. 3 was 3,600 recruits, it was announced.

Navy recruits are being sent to training centers at San Diego, Calif., Newport, R. I. and Great Lakes, Ill.

To increase recruit training capacity, the Navy said it was reactivating the naval training center in Balmdridge, Md. and enlarging the center at San Diego.

The More He BREAKS The More He MAKES

Texas motorists, Texas highways and Texas taxpayers should be protected against the ONE PER CENTERS.

ONE PER CENTERS are truck combinations weighing, loaded, 20,000 pounds or more. Only one of every 100 vehicles registered in Texas pays a license fee for 20,000 pounds or more. FEWER than three out of every 1,000 are registered for more than 40,000 pounds.*

Our highways should be SAFE for ALL the people—individuals, commercial users and the military alike.

Texas highway tax dollars should be conserved and used wisely. This can be done

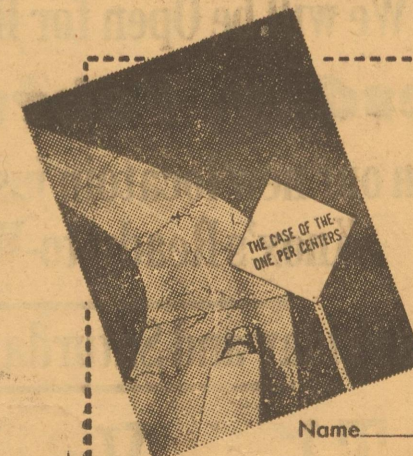

- (1) by limiting the weight (gross load and axle load) that may be transported legally by the ONE PER CENTERS and
- (2) by enforcing the law against those who persist in overloading.

*"The Case of The One Per Centers," an article in The Texas Tax Journal, July-August, 1950

Texas highways are paid for by and belong to ALL THE PEOPLE. Highways adequate for 99% of Texas users—individual and commercial—can be constructed and maintained for about ONE-THIRD of the cost made necessary by the weight of the ONE PER CENTERS.*

This is your problem. Send for your copy of the booklet, "THE CASE OF THE ONE PER CENTERS," which tells you, among other things, why

THE MORE PAVEMENT HE BREAKS,
THE MORE PROFIT HE MAKES.

Lenten Program Of Congregationalists Outlined by Meyer

The Lenten program of the Congregational church as announced by the pastor, Rev. George E. Meyer, has as its central feature the morning worship hours of the season. The pastor is to give a series of sermons entitled, "The Ladder of Light." The series is to be "Beatitude Centered," according to Mr. Meyer. The titles are:

February 11—THEIRS is the kingdom.
February 1—THEY shall be comforted.

February 25—THEY shall inherit the Earth.

March 4—THEY shall be Filled.

March 11—THEY shall Obtain Mercy.

March 18—Palm Sunday—THEY shall see God.

March 25—Easter—THEY shall be called the Children of God.

The services are to be held at 11 a. m. There is to be special music.

Midweek services are to be held each Wednesday evening during Lent at 8:00 p. m. The plan is for a study and discussion of: The basic Facts and Ideas of Christianity.

This week's special meeting is to be the church's observance of Women's Day of Prayer with Mrs. Meyer in charge.

The benevolence program of the church is to center in, "One Great Time for Sharing" as being promaeed cooperatively by many denominations with the great networks of the airways promoting the plan on their programs. The initial gift of the program is to come Sunday the 11th and is for the "Relief and Re-construction Work" of the denomination around the world.

County Teachers Met At Bovina Wednesday

The Parmer County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association met at the Bovina High school Wednesday evening for its regular business meeting and social. Bovina cafeteria staff and Bovina teachers served the meal.

Superintendent W. H. Wiloughby, president, conducted the business session.

A musical program was conducted by high school students. Several numbers were rendered by a choir composed of Lavelle Pounds, Clara Derrick, Irma Joe Kelley, Jimmy Ware, Billy Ray Derrick and Mark Charle. Band numbers were given by Charles Derrick, Ware, Alverson and David Everett. Don Alverson concluded the program with two piano numbers.

The sixty teachers attending divided into discussion groups and compared progress and notes after the program.

The church issues the usual community wide invitation to all of its services.
