"The Legislature is now involved with its most difficult task; making its spending fit its income" is the quotation of a recent release from Austin. We suggest they consult some of the multitude of taxpayers for suggestions, not for sympathy! We still maintain government is bound by the same economic principles applicable to the individual.

COTTON GIN
In answer to those who have inquired as to the actual gin situation, we repeat that a locally-owned gin HAS BEEN PURCHASED, as announced in the Star last week. Wright Williams, Pete Buske and others made the purchase as correctly reported in the Star, and construction of an all-new metal gin will be commenced to house the equipment just as soon as a location is determined.

One of the most interesting programs I have attended was that of the Friona Lions club last Thursday. Special speaker on that date was Ulrich Hunsberg, German student attending the Amarillo high school. Speaking with clarity and apparently all sincerity, he told of the blessings of America, citing many very human experiences of his own in getting acquainted with the American way of life. Answering questions from the floor, he told of conditions in Germany to the enlightenment of those present. So fitting that this talk should be made following World-Brotherhood week.

CL
Dr. Harvey district governor of Lions International, shared the program, giving a direct-to-the-point outline of Lionism, which was acclaimed as really an outstanding address in itself.

Mr. Williams was born May 6, 1881 in Monroe County, Kentucky, the son of W. T. and Belle Williams. In 1906 he married Miss Mary Weaver Johnson in Celine, Tenn. They came to Texas in 1918, living in Wellington until 1930, at which time they moved to Friona.

Bronze Star Awarded Pfc. Rex Marshall

Private First Class Rex H. Marshall, member of Hqs Co. 2d Battalion, 38th Inf. Regt., distinguished himself by heroic achievement Nov. 29, 1950 in vicinity of Kunu-ri Korea, recent army orders reveal. They read: "On that date, after successfully penetrating an enemy roadblock, he volunteered to return to the roadblock area in an attempt to recover abandoned vehicles and equipment. Pvt. Marshall was proceeding thru the hills, accompanied by three comrades, when he observed an enemy machinegun preparing to fire upon the men who were working on the vehicle. He immediately opened fire upon the enemy position and, with the aid of his three comrades, killed the entire machinegun crew. Due to his quick action he undoubtedly saved the lives of several men and enabled the recovery of much valuable equipment. The heroism displayed by Pvt. Marshall on this occasion reflects great credit upon himself and the military service."

"Award of the Bronze Star Medal with 'V' device for heroic achievement in connection with military operations against an armed enemy of the US has been authorized."

Public Poll

Do you plan to plant a garden this year? What vegetables will you plant?

MRS. C. L. BRACKEN—
Yes a small one. We plan to plant tomatoes, cucumbers, and beans chiefly. I like to work in a garden and I think it cuts down on expenses and you can also have fresh vegetables. Also, I just enjoy working in one.

MRS. H. H. WEIS—
Oh yes, I don't intend to have many vegetables but have lots of flowers. I plant a garden to see it grow and to be outside.

MRS. JOHN BURROW—
We usually have a small one. There's too much work to one for working people seems it needs tending to every day to get the best results.

MRS. JOE B. COLLIER—
Yes I do, I guess I'll plant peas, beans, lettuce and an assortment and also a flower garden. So that I may have fresh vegetables and also ones to put in the locker.

MRS. WESLEY FOSTER—
I don't know. Wesley always does that. I don't know what he has planned to do.

MRS. JOHN GADE—
Yes I do, I plant vegetables and we certainly enjoy the fresh vegetables.

MRS. J. T. GEE—

Local Servicemen Meet At Pusan Base, Korea

Jack Moseley writes his parents here that he and Dean Hall met on March 4 and spent four hours together.

Jack is aboard the U.S.S. Repose, a hospital ship which at this time is serving as a hospital base at Pusan, Korea. Dean had brought a truck load of POW's to Pusan from Taegu; he knew Jack was aboard the Repose so he looked him up. Having spent their school days together in Friona and graduating with the class of 47, it was quite a reunion far from home.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Moseley, and Dean is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hill all of Friona.

COMMISSIONERS REVERSE PLAN

Assessments Will Be Made via Zone Method

Reversing decisions made and announced February 26, the Parmer County Commissioners Court stated this week that the old system of property valuation with the previous zone value system would be used this year rather than the announced change in assessments.

Values would be determined between $4 and $7 per acre according to the zone with zones determined on distance from the county seat of Farwell.

This reversal for 1951 was reportedly made after the group discovered the tax rolls of the tax assessor-collector already were being computed on the old zone method, and change at this late date would necessitate additional work in that office.

However, the court is working on a change of systems for next year assessments.

STUDENTS EXCELL

Friona took their share of the honors at the Annual Junior Federat on Music Festival held in Hereford, Saturday. Towns represented included Friona, Bovina, Borger, Dumas, and Hereford.

SPECIAL CHURCH PROGRAM

City Hall, Paving Again Spotlighth

Two bids for construction of the city hall were submitted Monday of this week, both considered unsatisfactory by the city officials.

Likely bids will again be called at an early date with some revisions in specifications, a spokesman for the group stated.

Also, the city engineer is expected in Friona this weekend to work on the paving situation. In a telephone conversation this week he stated that bids were assured on the paving. Due to the large number of larger projects in the area at the time previous bids were announced bidders evidently were holding off for the larger jobs.

Commissioners Sell More Oil Royalty

County Commissioners court in a Monday session authorized sale of another one-fourth of the mineral royalty on 1062.6 acres of Parmer County school land located in Gaines County, Texas. Computed on a basis of $0.00 per acre for 100 percent royalty the one-fourth interest $13,282.50.

The commissioners have stated their intentions of retaining one-half of all royalties, a spokesman said Monday. The royalties just sold will mature in 15 years and are non-participating.

RTC Will Apply For Phones On April 1st Here

Directors of the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative met Monday night with the engineers of the local telephone project, and plans were made to submit applications for approval on April for Deaf Smith and Parmer counties. Castro county still is behind their quota.

Though the total needed subscribers has not been secured in this area, it is believed that a sufficient number of equities have been paid to secure release of the funds for construction. Should this be true construction should be commenced at an early date.

Anyone still neglecting to sign for the phones, and who wish to do so, should get their applications in at a very early date to the Hereford office, officials emphasize.

A meeting is in the offing during the next week between RTC officials and the Mountain States Telephone Company called to make working agreements applicable to the Farwell territory similar to those worked out with Southwestern Bell and Southwestern Associated companies.

War With Greenbugs, Cutworms, Takes Spotlight in Local Farm Operations

Jones Clarified Story Printed Last Week

County Agent Joe Jones has called to the attention of the Star the possible need of some clarification of the last week report on greenbug and cutworm control.

Jones states that he is not appealing for bug control, but that he merely is citing methods should the individual decide to fight the pests. He says that, it of course up to the individual farmer to determine if the situation is serious enough to warrant putting additional money into his crop in form of pest control.

Parathine and Tepp, used for greenbug control, are the deadly poisons that must be handled with the strictest precautions; anyone can handle DDT, Chloride or Toxaphene which are for cutworm control, with very little or no precautions, he points out.

Romich Proposes Lady Bugs
Chamber of Commerce and Agricultural Manager A. Romich has announced that he has made inquiry into the aphid (green bug) situation that is doing near wholesale damage to the local wheat crop, and he has found that the lady beetles are being used very extensively in some localities as the most successful means of controlling this insect.

The beetles are gathered in California in the only known central area where they are found in large quantities, and they are packed in excelsior and placed in containers for shipment to Phoenix, Ariz., where Spring Clean-Up Is Not Far Away; Isn't the Proper Starting Point Right In Our Own Businesses?

Soon many of us will turn our thoughts to Spring Clean Up of our homes, premises and business establishments.

Perennially the first signs of spring stir some latent enthusiasm and ambition in ourselves, prompting us to burn the unsightly growth or trash, rake the leaves, painting the house, washing the windows a bit more often, etc. Well and good.

And a lot of business firms, being on their toes will as in years past offer special inducements on spring clean-up material, tools, etc. Appeals will be made by civic organizations to clean up the town.

NOW HERE IS THE POINT: Where is the place to start?

The proper beginning place for all this is right in our business establishments in Friona. Specifically, I refer to attractive store fronts, spotless and beckoning interiors, and improved sidewalks. In the one year we have been in business in Friona many civic changes have passed in our review. Latest has been the new street lighting which would be admirable even in a much larger town. But few businesses have capitalized on the growth and attractiveness of the town in general by beautifying their own houses of business.

We urge that in appealing for a Spring Clean-Up of the residential sections, we first look at our own establishments, doing something to make them more attractive to those we serve.

We think new store fronts would help the appearance of Friona as much as any one improvement. Then possibly the existing fronts could be altered or at least cleaned free of unsightly bills and announcements, some far outdated.

Like the idea?

Is This as Surprising to You as To Ourselves? Someone Accused the Star of Being Weak-Kneed, Even Throttled in its Task of Giving the News

An assertion was made recently that was very surprising to us here at the Star, though possibly not so much to our readers as we had hoped to think.

Referring to a recent exposure made in our columns of the auto license situation in Parmer County, we have heard the comment, "You (the Star) hit the nail on the head for a couple of weeks there, but someone sure throttled you, for we haven't seen another mention of the deal." And we actually had trouble convincing the speaker otherwise!

Specifically we are referring to the above incident and generally we are referring to the policies of this paper which we will reiterate, as evidently there are some who even yet haven't caught on. The Star is a free, non-partisan newspaper, publishing in our news columns the facts as they occur, commenting in the editorial columns on any situation which we believe merits more than usual public consideration. We are not rabble-rousers; we merely wish to point out the facts; if these facts merit individual or group action, we hope the public will act accordingly; we consider it our purpose to point out the unwholesome conditions on one hand or outstanding accomplishments on the other hand.

Just as we do not week after week, heap commendation on any citizen or group for a job well done, neither do we abuse the rights of the free press by making the Star a scandal sheet!

Our tax collector was approached in a gentlemanly manner, questioned as to his intentions regarding the license issue in central and eastern Parmer County. Receiving no satisfaction whatsoever, we editorialized upon the matter, still refraining from abuse and simply asking for a statement with reasons directed to the public, which he is supposed to serve, why he could or could not issue the licenses. The request was ignored.

Nothing else was said in our columns, as we believe the public knows the score by now. And ner. Our immediate job was completed when we the public will handle it in a democratic man-brought the matter to light.

And if anyone thinks any successful pressure was brought to bear upon us to muffle this or any other happenstance, they are positively mistaken in the degree of one-hundred percent!

As was pointed out editorially some weeks ago, and is demonstrated weekly, we believe a newspaper may be forgiven for some errors of judgment, but never for lack of courage.

There are no sleeping cars on the road to success.

The perfect man doesn't drink or smoke or swear; doesn't borrow from his friends and doesn't steal; doesn't make love to all the girls and overlook the men. In fact, the perfect man doesn't exist.

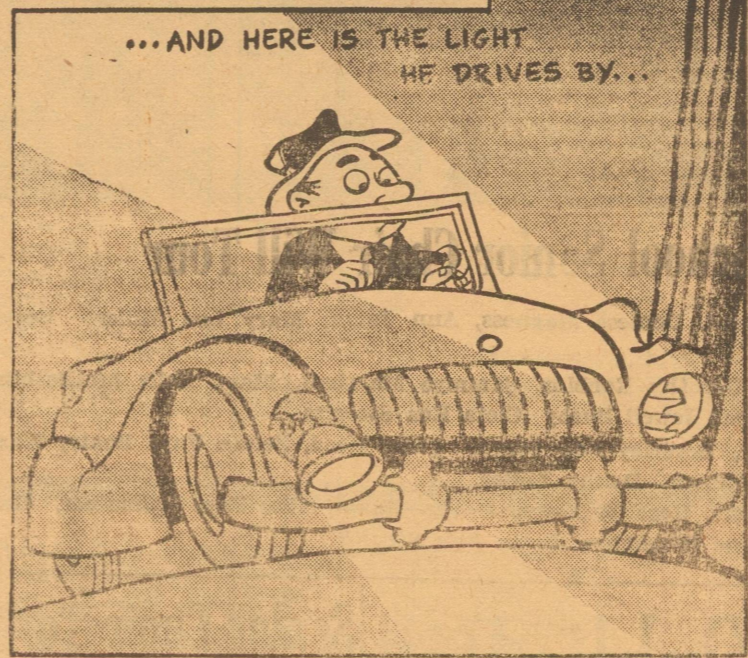

Doctors are so busy nowadays that lots of people get well before the date of the appointment arrives.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead; who's never ever turned his head—and sed—"Hmmm, not bad!"

Too many people who won't stop at anything are behind the steering wheel of automobiles.

Mrs. Jessie McSpadden, former supervisor of the local telephone exchange, had resigned to accept employment at Clovis. Mrs. Winnie Wilkerson was president of the Friona Woman's club.

"The Petrified Gesture" Promised To Live Long in Minds of Those Loving Similes and Poetic Touch of Author

J. B. Lippincott $2.25

From a poem by Santayana, Mary Fanning Wickham had her inspiration for the title of her newest novel, "The Petrified Gesture." In part it reads, "Life is compelled to flow, and things must flow with it or, like Lot's wife, in the petrified gesture of refusal, remain to mock their own hopes."

Evidently a lover of poetry, the author has instilled a strong poetic touch throughout the story both in words and ideas. Besides this quality which alone makes it worth reading there is an unique story contrasting the old south and the north.

Readers, who love similes, will find many like the opening sentence which reads, "The tide was coming in, thrusting back the muddy waters of the two rivers that met beneath the city's chin like the paws of a cat beneath a brooding face."

Strangely enough as the story ends the tide is going out but there are days and many events between. A story of love not of two people but four, where lives are so interwoven that it is difficult to rumise the solution of that which involves them all.

"Lovers watched the lengthening shadows with foreboding, because lovers forever caught in paradoxical equations, seek to hurry time until they are together, then when alone, perversely yearn to hold time still."

is one of many such musings of the woman, Camille.

Some of her other thoughts ran, "Girandoles lighted with candles reflected what might have been, and silver trays were laden with camellias—drawing rooms memory panelled with cypress, and hung with damask brocade . . . the aroma of old Bourbon mingled with the perfume of beautiful women." This and much more ran through her mind on her return to her old home in the south after living so long in the north.

Why she has come home again is explained by "Low sunlight was warm. Its fingers touched her shoulders, instinct with life and earth and human companionship. The doctors must be wrong. She felt at peace and, for the first time since receiving her death sentence strong and unafraid."

Of one man, "He walked with the rhythmic stride of a young man in good physical trim. But on the canvas of his mind, superimposed like a double exposure, were constantly shifting of war memories, triangular, garish and ugly. Through them roared the life of the city, the motors, the crowded trolleys, the smell of gasoline . . ." Then suddenly Lucy Linnard ran like a line of gold across the jumble of his emotions" introduces the other woman of the story.

The fourth, a man who is strong yet some will consider him weak, he knew too well his craving for solitude a craving like other men's need of drink. It hit him at unpredictable moments. Wanting to be alone was considered by most people not only odd, but negative, as if one were purposely avoiding responsibility. He would not admit they were ways he ought to feel, or man-made rules he ought to follow. To him scientific details of the universe and sense impressions were all important, "thus the clue to a nature in contrast conflict with itself and always with others."

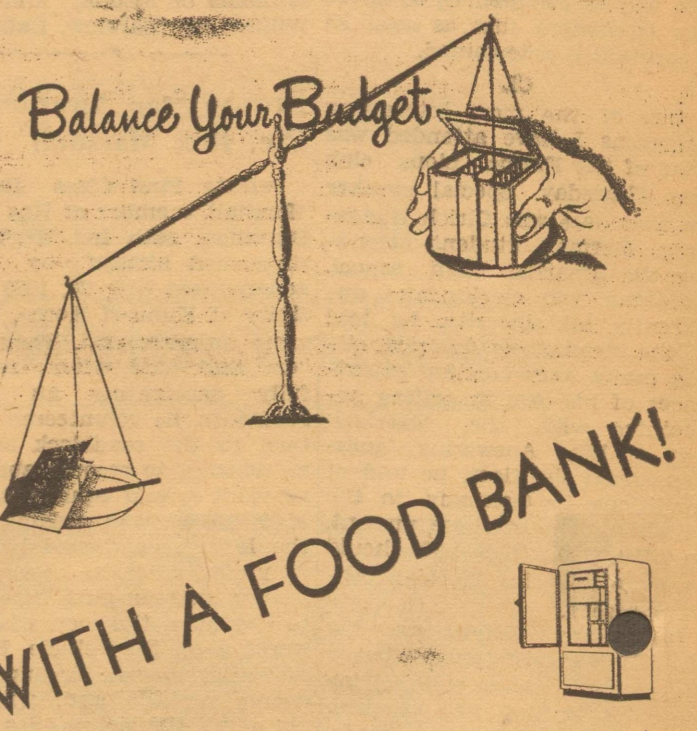

The sheer beauty of this novel will remain in the mind of the reader for a long time.

We couldn't understand how he kept so fat, when everyone said he ate like a bird, until we discovered he ate a peck at a time.

The Law & You

By Robt. (Bob) Kirk

Do You Know whether the Defendant can be forced to testify as a witness in his trial?

The defendant in a criminal case does not have to take the witness stand, if he does not want to. This is entirely up to him and his attorney. He may testify if he desires to do so. Having become a witness he may be cross-examined by the prosecuting attorney. If the defendant does not take the witness stand, the prosecuting attorney has no way of making him do so, and thus has no way of asking questions of the defendant.

Should the defendant not testify, this fact may not be commented upon by the prosecuting attorney, either directly nor indirectly. Should the prosecuting attorney make any reference whatsoever to the defendant to testify, the prosecuting attorney would thereby commit an error, which would cause the trial court or appellate court to grant to the defendant a new trial.

For further information on this subject, see your local attorney.

Next time misfortune strikes, remember that the dog who lost his tail has one consolation. He holds no fear of tin cans.

FARM NEWS

Prepared Weekly by the Soil Conservation Service

LAKE FILLED

Sloan Osborn, four miles west of Friona, had a small lake filled and levelled which he intends to put in alfalfa and use for hog pasture. There are probably a hundred or more such lakes in Parmer County which could be handled in this manner. The cost is high, but in the long run it means an economic advantage to the farmer. It usually takes three generations in an irrigation district before farmers realize that water should be applied on the dead level. With all the leveling work that has gone on it looks as though Parmer County may be getting ahead of itself.

Directions Given

R. E. Sneed who lives at Hub had us check his Bastrum-Brady level. Although S.C.S. is not habitually in the level checking business, we would like to remind farmers to check their levels at frequent intervals. It is rather easy to check a level and a farmer may gain confidence in himself if he trusts his instrument. In checking and adjusting Bastrum-Brady levels, follow these steps:

- 1—Set the instrument on the tripod and sight on the rod at 600 feet. Set the target.
- 2—Remove screws which allow the turret to revolve.
- 3—Turn the turret upside down and sight on the rod again.
- 4—If the cross hair hits in the center of the target, the level is correct. If not, adjustments should be made.
- 5—Adjustments screws are on the front end of the turret. Loosen one and tighten the other until adjustment is made.

New Signer

Billie Sudderth five miles southeast of Bovina, signed his place up with Parmer S. C. D. last Thursday. An old cattle trail runs across Billie's place which has an interesting history. It starts at Bovina and runs on an angle to southeast all the way to the old V.V.N. headquarters southeast of Muleshoe. The old trail looks like a gully and is about as deep as a pickup truck. At one time Bovina was supposed to have been the biggest cattle shipping center in the Panhandle. The trail was beat out at that time and went almost unnoticed until irrigation started.

An other interesting thing about Bovina is brought out in the district program and plan. According to the History Committee, Bovina was once called "Bull Town." This name came from early railroad engineers whistled to stop their locomotives, get out and chase the bulls

David Smith left Monday to return to Camp Cooke, Calif., where he is stationed, after visiting with his friends and relatives for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Day were shoppers in Amarillo last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Slagle returned from California Saturday where they had been visiting for about two weeks.

Maynard Agee returned Saturday from South Dakota

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Day visited with their daughter, Tila Rue, in Amarillo Saturday, and also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dodson.

off the track before they could pass.

Map for Shulk

A topographic map was made for Lloyd Shulk last week. These maps are indispensable when it comes to laying out ditch lines and row directions. An irrigation system was planned and laid out for Ray Sudderth last week. This would not have been possible to do without the aid of a topographic map.

Visitors

Farmers in S. C. S. office last week: R. E. Sneed, Hadley Reeve, Billie Sudderth, Erick Rushing, Roscoe Irie, Joe Jesco, Burle Beene, Mary Boggess, Ernest Englant.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Agee and family went to McLean Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henley.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Robbins were guests in the J. W. Baxter home for Sunday dinner. M. Shirley visited in the afternoon.

Firemen Stream Water Onto Pentecostal Tabernacle Fire

Fire swept through the Pentecostal tabernacle in Friona Wednesday of last week completely razing the building. With a brisk southwest breeze fanning the flames, the fire was out of control before the water could be applied, with dense smoke enveloping the entire southwestern part of Friona. The volunteer fire department arrived on the scene early and likely prevented its spread to adjacent lots and buildings.

Nomination Made Of Local Man For State Award

J. T. Gee, local vocational agriculture supervisor, has been nominated for consideration in the awarding of the Hoblitzelle Achievement Award to be given this year for outstanding advancement of Texas rural life. His name was submitted by several local farmers and other interested parties. The award consists of a $5,000 cash prize and will be given to someone later this spring.

A state-wide committee and five regional committees has been set up to begin the intensive canvass of agricultural achievements of this type throughout every county and community of Texas. Dr. C. L. Lundell, director of the Texas Research Foundation at Renner, near Dallas, has announced.

Terms of the award specify that the contributions considered for this award and medal must be in fields other than scientific, and they must have been achieved during the two-year period from January 1, 1949 to December 31, 1950.

The award will be made each two years, commencing with the public announcement of the first winner, through the Karl Hoblitzelle Agricultural Laboratories of the Texas Research Foundation, at the annual open house at Renner in May.

The committees, which may accept nominations either from their own membership or from any other agency or interested workers, farmers, ranchers and others, working in Texas, irrespective of creed, color, nationality, branch of agriculture, and affiliation with agricultural organizations.

Fred M. Shaw, who heads the agricultural relations department of the Foundation, has been assigned to the promotion and administration of the Hoblitzelle awards in Texas, and will work closely with the various committees in setting up the machinery for the discharge of their duties.

Fields listed as eligible are: Farm men and women ranch men and women, tree farmers, livestock breeders and other specialty groups; Soil Conservation service field men; county agricultural agents; home demonstration agents; home economics teachers; farm organization workers such as the Farm Bureau or Farm Grange; agricultural field representatives of industrial or commercial firms, including banks, railroads, etc.; farm publication editors or agricultural writers; field men at experiment stations not assigned to formal research; radio farm directors; chamber of commerce agricultural workers; forestry workers; farm service organizations and others.

Nominations are not confined geographical limits, but may be received by each Regional committee from its own or from other regions. After screening all nominations, these committees will each forward to the Texas Research Foundation the five most meritorious nominations, listed in order of merit and with supporting evidence on a date not later than March 1.

These 25 regional nominations will be referred by the Foundation to the State-Wide committee which will choose the best five and submit them to the Texas Research Foundation's advisory committee on Hoblitzelle Awards, at Renner, by April 1.

The Achievement Award is one of three, all carrying a cash sum of $5,000 and gold medals to the winners, created by Mr. Hoblitzelle.

JOINT SERVICES Dramatic Service

A dramatic service in costume is to be presented by the young men of the Congregational and Methodist churches of Friona on the evening of Good Friday, March 23 at 8 p. m. in the Methodist church.

The presentation is to be directed by Jane M. Gallagher, daughter of the Reverends Mr. and Mrs. George E. Meyer of the Congregational church. She also designed and supervised the making of the costumes to be used.

There are seven characters in the presentation, all young men. There is to be a guest soloist featured in the service.

Rev. Meyer will have charge of the introductory worship service of the evening.

The service is a part of the cooperative Holy Week observance by the Methodist-Congregational churches.

Did you know that Nancy Messenger is quite good at drawing? It was only recently that we discovered her artistic talent. We trust we won't arouse your curiosity too much by saying that we hope to show you a few samples of her work later on.

FHS
Here's a note from one of our neighboring schools. The Dimmit concert band will present a concert at the Dimmit High school auditorium on Friday evening, March 10. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A forum on Citizenship was held recently in the two Biology classes. Although we see no apparent connection between Biology and Citizenship, we feel that the discussion was a good thing. Possibly no world problems were solved, but the time thus spent was certainly not wasted. Hats off to such teachers as will set aside a little time to discuss practical, down-to-earth topics outside the regular lesson assignments.

A few of the points brought out were: a good citizen (1) obeys the law; (2) remains open-minded; (3) has a sense of responsibility; (4) is progressive; and (5) thinks. It isn't a bad code for all of us to follow!

FHS
Our trusty almanac tells us that Saturday March 17, is St. Patrick's Day—the time for shamrocks and “the wearin’ of the green.” Here's hoping that FHS may be blessed with the luck of the Irish during the district Interscholastic meet to be held at Farwell in the very near future.

FHS
PS—Good luck to the Sr. Farm Demonstration team at the State contest in Huntsville.

FHS
Our most humble apologies to Edmund Schlabs! We are still a trifle puzzled as to how the writeup of our “senior boy of last week” came to read, “Mr. Smith is Edmund's favorite when it come to food.” As far as we know Mr. Smith has not been sampled by any of our fair students, and we feel reasonably certain that Edmund has no cannibalistic blood in him. A typographical error no doubt.

FHS
We hope our parents were pleased with the picture they viewed of Democracy in Action last week as they visited FGS and FHS. We enjoyed having visitors. It's really a novelty these days to have a parent visit school. Kinda nice on the students though—the parents hear only one side of the story.

One teacher remarked that her students were behaving exceptionally well until the mother of one of the students walked into the room. The result was much giggling and fidgeting, a poor exhibition for visitors. Can it be that you parents bring out our true adolescence?

Pow-Wow

Ruby and Dorothy saw their first wrestling matches Saturday night. Did you like them? Johnny and Joyce Ann were spotted in Clovis Saturday night. They were also seen in Friona.

Gaylord are you taking up Junior's habit—going to Clovis every night?

Did you know that David Patterson can laugh? (At Junior). Couples seen over in Clovis at Baptist party:
Walter—Joyce
D. O.—Lamona
Ben—Margie
Ross—Dorothy
Jack—Rose
Frank—Helen Nita
Ralph—Laura Nell
Ben and Gay Ann were seen at the Royal theatre Sat. night. Did you have fun?

Sue J. is mighty happy this week. Seems that Jack London came home over the weekend.

M. C., just what color is your hat? Will it attract girls?

Jack and Rose just love to dream about the new “sun.”

Darrell, Laura Nell, Ben and Margie were all spied at Hereford Sunday afternoon.

WANTED—by Wayne Cribbs—One SUE. But which is it?

We have hidden talent in F. H. S.—Jake Rife.

Eugene and Patsy were seen together Saturday night, Sunday afternoon and Sunday night.

We haven't heard much out of Jerry C. and Betty A. What happened?

Wayne, why not bring your courting car to school? There are some cute girls around here.

How do matters stand these days, between Bettie D. and Jimmy?

Mary Lou that's a mighty attractive hair-do you're displaying.

We seem to have some new library assistants. This couldn't have anything to do with grades—or could it?

Lamona, the shade is pretty snazzy—but what is it?

Play-practice promises to be quite interesting—for some people!

Getting dates ahead requires technique—eh, Laura Nell?

TOTEM POLL

Question: Are there High School subjects, which the students are now taking, which should be dropped, or others which you think should be added?

Jean Knight—I definitely think typewriting II should be offered, and more commercial subjects should be talked up, so students would be interested.

Merl Gray—Just two years of Math.

Ralph Reed—Less English and more Math and P. E.

Mary Lou Miller—Foreign languages such as Latin, French Italian, etc should be offered and more science subjects in the same year.

Ed Spring—I think that a Driver's education should be included.

Bill Nazworth—I don't think they should drop any. None should be added.

Rex Blackburn—Yes, less history.

Frankie Allen—I think there ought to be more of a variety of subjects to choose from, but I don't know about adding or dropping which subjects.

David Patterson—4th year English ought to be dropped, woodwork for the boys and leather craft for the girls should be added.

Mrs. Carr—A greater variety of subjects would be a distinct advantage, but, due to the fact that the number of our teachers is limited, I think that we have a very nice set up.

Miss Jennie Abdullah of Amarillo, Beauford Haynes of Dallas visited with Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Habbinga over the weekend.

One-Act Play

Members participating in the one act play “Honor” which is to be given at Farwell for the Interscholastic League meet, the weekend of the 22, 23 and 24, are:

Vera Ann Jones—Elizabeth Barbour.
Helen Carr—Susan Winslow.
Joyce Miller—Janette Ames.
Frank Reed—Eben Parsons
Jim Dixon—Paper Boy and Stage Manager.
Gaylord Maurer—David Barbour.

Meet The Seniors

DALE HOULETTE

Dale Houlette, the little Senior with the nice physique, was born August 19, 1932, here in Friona. He has attended high school here the past three years. Dale played football and basketball, belongs to the F. F. A. and is F. H. A. Sweetheart. His favorite subject is agriculture. He likes to eat fried chicken. His favorite song is “The Tennessee Waltz.” He particularly enjoys listening to the radio to pass time. He doesn't have any peevish, but has a pretty even temperament. After he graduates, Dale says he will probably join some branch of the armed services. He doesn't have any preference as to which.

NORMA JEAN KNIGHT

Norma Jean Knight, better known as Jean, was born November 4 1933 at Ranchville, New Mexico. This is Jean's first and last year at Friona High school. The rest of her school days were spent there and at Clovis. Jean was a pep squad leader, is a member of F.H.A., the Arrow Staff, and annual staff, plays basketball and volleyball, and was the Eskimo woman in the Senior play. Her favorites are: subject, book-keeping; teacher, Mr. Tyler; food, steak (however, she says she eats anything that doesn't eat her first); song “If” pastime, listening to a radio. Jean dislikes having someone ask her to repeat what she has already told them once. Jean isn't sure just what she will do in the future, but she probably won't attend college.

Jessie Mac Roberts and Neil Floyd are out of school with the mumps.

F. H. A. Meeting

The F. H. A met Thursday, March 8. The program was on “Grooming,” given by Patsy Reed and Gay Ann McFarland.

The business was taken up, and we elected Ruby Shaffer to be representative from our chapter to vote at the area meeting.

The Area meeting will be held March 31 in Amarillo. Most of our members will be away on the choir trip, but the girls will go to represent Friona.

FHS

We have been learning to do writing, and Friday was the first day that we have written our spelling lesson in cursive. This week, we are making Dutch windmills tulips and an Easter Parade of animals.

Those visiting in our room last week were Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. A. W. Wood, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. Frank Spring, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Longmire, Mrs. Anthony, Mrs. Ceell Bass Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Dalton Caffey, Mrs. Bud Heaton, Mrs. Gee and Mrs. Walter Mabry.

Sue Cranfill is out of school with the mumps and laryngitis. Roberta seems still interested in Ernie Kuykendall. Phyllis Fairchild and Roy Lee have developed an interest in each other. Also, we saw Jerry Houlette and Phyllis Trieder at the show Saturday night.

Second Grade

During Visitation Week, Mar. 5-10, the following persons called on us: Mesdames Parker, May, Talley Gee, Douglas, Lovelace, George Jones, Balls, Fulcher, McKee, Struve, Carlton and Cunningham. We are glad they came to see us work and play.

TRIBUTE

Mrs. Opal Hand Mears

By Mrs. Emmett Day

Mrs. Opal Hand Mears was born April 16 1909 in Selling, Okla. She moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hand to Friona in 1927. She attended school in Friona and Selling.

She was married to J. H. Mears on January 6, 1928, and to this union was born two sons, J. C. who is in the U. S. Navy at San Diego, Calif., and Sam who is at home.

She was a true loving wife and mother and neighbor. During her illness she was always smiling and had a kind word for all that visited with her.

She will be missed by her family and loved ones, her neighbors, whom she was always lending a helping hand.

To those we can only say:

A precious one from us is gone. A voice we love is still. A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled. We love thee, oh, dear mother, with love and tender care. But God saw best to call thee to be with him on high and sing around his great white throne where all is peace and love, and pain and suffering no more.

Opal departed this life on February 28, 1951 after all medical and loving hand could do. She was at the home of her mother, Mrs. Pearl Hand.

Beside her husband and sons, she leaves her mother and three brothers, D. G., L. R. and John and one sister, Mrs. Rifford Shirley, a host of friends and loved ones to mourn her going.

She gave her life to Christ at the age of 12 and rededicated her life to Him before she passed away.

Funeral services was held at the Methodist church at Friona, Friday at 2:30 with Rev. Jimmie Tidwell in charge, assisted by Rev. H. V. Fields of Hereford.

Burial was in the Friona cemetery.

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION

Whether judged from the beauty of her steeple or the far reaching influence she exerts upon society, the church is accepted as the most influential institution on earth save maybe the home.

The church's one foundation is Jesus. She has in the past and is still serving the nations of the earth to the maximum. In her pews gather congregations of many tongues and tribes seeking an outlet for religious expression. She is a mighty bulwark in defense of all that is good.

It makes no difference whether her architectural lines be simple and her pews cheap, she is still a place where people may go and worship in a free and unrestrained manner.

Be sure to serve your church with both your time and means. Attend regularly. Your minister expects you.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" — from a combination for good.

SCOUTING WEEK

the first leader and Mrs. J. C. Wilkinson and Mrs. Wright Williams were assistant leaders. Five of the 20 girls that started finished to their first class girl scouting, that is as much work as they could complete here.

The five that finished were: Jane Ann Warren, Jaquelyn Wilkinson, June Maurer, Waynell Thompson Frances Buchanan.

As the scouting has grown it has had to branch out and divide the age groups. There was a few years it dragged but in 1945 new interest was taken in the Scouts and since that time it has been quite active. In 1945 Mrs. Ralph Wilson and Mrs. J. G. McFarland organized a troop of intermediates with about 15 girls attending; 1946 there were two brownie and two intermediate troops and they joined the Amarillo area; 1947 the Friona troops were transferred to the New Mexico area and a council was organized at that time in Friona. Mrs. J. G. McFarland was elected chairman of the council; 1948 Friona contributed more per registered scout to the Juliette Low fund than any other troop. The Juliette Low fund is an offering sent overseas to help other scouts; 1950 was the first time the scouts have had a day camp, it lasted six days and was at the Methodist church annex. The girls did outdoor cooking and handicrafts and there was an average attendance of 44. Last year the intermediates had a weekend of troop camping at Camp Kiwana and also at the park in Hereford. Each troop has an over night camping excursion once a year.

At the end of the Scout year in May the troops have joint meetings and the girls are awarded their proper badges for their outstanding service for the year and special recognition is shown the leaders.

National History
Juliette Low, the founder of girl scouts, had been abroad in 1912 and as she boarded the ship home she sent a cablegram to her friends, reading "I am bringing home the biggest thing yet," that is how she described the idea for girl scouting. The founder was sure that through this promising program, girls could learn to be useful, homemakers and citizens in their communities, and help for international peace. In the year 1912 Juliette Low organized a troop in Savannah, Ga. the idea was so great, so full of meaning and so broad in its scope that the girl scouts spread and are now an organization of more than a million members.
