COLUMN LEFT

Do you read the Soil Conservation news furnished weekly by Bill Kennedy of the local SCS office? The report this week is quite interesting and informative, we believe, and we suggest you note the references to the local soil types and the "eleventh commandment."

The first program for the raising of funds for the March of Dimes will be held at the Rhea parish house Friday night. A pie auction and social will be held in conjunction with the regular Farm Bureau there.

You can depend on the Rhea community to pitch in on all the worthwhile enterprises, more often than not being the first to meet all quotas.

Labor preserves us from three great evils - weariness, vice, and want.—Voltaire.

We see where the first official candidate for political office in Texas to announce for the 1952 elections is John C. White, young Wichita County incumbent as the Commissioner of Agriculture.

It won't be long until the press and air will be full of politics, and our guess is that the mink coat deal will be mild compared to accusations yet to come on the national level as office-seekers warm up. We are glad to note that Texas politics has been relatively quiet for several years. What 1952 holds, only the foolish would predict.

Among the personal items in this issue are mention of several new families to the area. To some of you older residents who would like to be good neighbors, we suggest that you let us know of any new citizens here so that we may help them get acquainted and acclimated in this growing community where they will soon take an active part. Know your neighbors!

We have chuckled a number of times at the publicity given Willis-Overland by the Texas Supreme Court, and the manner in which the Jeep manufacturers are making the most of it. It seems that in a recent court description, Chief Justice Hickman referred to the Jeep as a "rugged, uncouth vehicle without beauty of line or body!" Well, we admit it does have a personality in its own right.

Mid-term final examinations will be held at the local schools next Wednesday and Thursday. The big invitational basketball tournament will be held here next Thursday and Friday.

The public is invited to a program to be given at the Friona school auditorium next Monday at 10:30 a. m. The choir from Eastern New Mexico University will present a variety of musical selections in a one-hour program.

Apologies plus to Rev. Meyer of the Congregational Church. Mr. Meyer, who has been very faithful in supplying us with the news of his church, this week handed us a sheaf of papers on the street, outlining coming church events, no doubt. And now, just as we go to press, we cannot find these anywhere! So - all we can say is: attend all the church meetings, they are worthwhile.

Paul Truman Peavy son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Williams is spending this week here. He will return to Wayland College Sunday.

SNOW AND ICE GRIP COUNTY

Everyone Had Guests!

Visiting in the J. D. Sanders home this week is her mother, Mrs. Cook from Iowa.

Miss Iola Richards visited in Lamesa over the holidays.

Miss Joe Phillips went to Denton to visit with her mother over the holidays.

Mrs. Steinbock Funeral Was Held Sunday, Lazbuddie

Final tribute was paid to Alma Wilhelmina Steinbock in services held Sunday, Dec. 30, in the Lazbuddie Baptist Church.

Mrs. Steinbock died in a Muleshoe hospital Friday, Dec. 28, after suffering a stroke three months ago. She was well-known throughout this area and was a lifelong member of the Lutheran Church.

The services were in charge of Rev. H. L. Anderson. Pallbearers were J. R. Clark, Raymond Trieder, E. A. Parham, Elbert Nowell, Roy Jordan, and Jimmie Seaton. Honorary pallbearers included Bill Mathias, O. M. Jennings, Robert Bledsoe, Roy Krueger, Sam Layman, and Edgar Broyles. Arrangements were in charge of the Muleshoe Funeral Home.

Survivors include one step-daughter, Mrs. Anna Pyrtz of Muleshoe; eight sons: Willie, Alex, Ed, Walter, Rhinie, and Alfred Steinbock, all of Muleshoe, and Johnnie Steinbock of Flagstaff, Arizona, and Carl Steinbock of Springfield, Oregon; two daughters: Mrs. Frances Oliver of Muleshoe, and Mrs. Alma Winn of Slaton; 23 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Alma Wilhelmina Pyrtz was born in Signst, Germany, Oct. 8, 1876. She came to America in 1898, settling at Marlin, Texas.

There she was married to John F. Steinbock on February 23, 1900. In 1901 the couple moved to Frederick, Oklahoma, remaining there until 1925 when they came to Parmer County where their home has remained since that time. Mrs. Steinbock was preceded in death by her husband in June, 1932, and by a step-daughter, Mrs. Theresa Mehl of Frederick, Oklahoma, in August of 1951.

New Postal Rate Increases, Effective January 1st, Explained by Postmaster

A number of changes in postal charges went into effect January 1st, most advertised of which has been the abandonment of the 1c postal card. Friona Postmaster Sloan H. Osborn reminds the public this week.

Persons having a supply of 1c post cards may put a 1c stamp on them to continue using them, Osborn noted. For 60 days after the new law is effective the post office is authorized to forward 1c postal cards, where there is no return address, and collect the other penny at the destination of the card.

Drop letters, for delivery in the local post office, will require 2c postage, and rural routes will require 3c.

There is no change in rate for first class mail or air mail, and the parcel post regulations are the same for the Friona post office. Some changes in parcel post rates have been made for first class post offices.

Special delivery rates go from 15 cents to 20 cents on first class letters, and from 2c to 3c on parcels.

The minimum on registered mail is 30 cents, formerly 25 cents. It now costs 7 cents instead of 5 cents for a return receipt.

The minimum on COD mail is 30 cents, instead of 20 cents. An increase has been made on third class mail, for books and catalogs. The rate is 2 cents for the first 2 ounces.

Mrs. Lem Miller Was Injured in Kansas

Mrs. Lem Miller of Friona has been hospitalized in Winfield, Kansas, suffering a broken leg incurred in an automobile accident last Friday when she and her son-in-law, David Russell of Friona, were en route from Wichita, Kansas, where Mrs. Miller's husband died Friday.

In a letter received by Sloan Osborn from Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Miller was reported in good spirits. Friends are invited to write her at the Newton Memorial Hospital, Room 216, Winfield, Kansas.

A press release from Kansas reported that Mrs. Miller and Russell were travelling in a 1951 Hudson driven by Russell which was not hurt. The car was extensively damaged in the two-car accident. The other car was reported considerably damaged but the occupants received only bruises.

Clothing Taken From Newly-Wrecked Car of Tulsa College Students

One of the lower forms of vandalism was exemplified this week in a report given the Star of someone taking clothing and a battery from a newly wrecked car along the highway.

Two college students at Tulsa University had spent the holidays in New Mexico and were returning eastward Wednesday when their car hit icy pavement near Parmerton, turning over one and one-half times and almost completely demolishing the 1942 model Oldsmobile. Frank Bongivani of New York was driving, and the occupant was Zuhayr Mughrabi, student from Lebanon studying in the states for his second year. While the young men were gone in search of assistance the vandalism occurred.

Bongivani was thrown clear of the car, but early examination showed slight injuries to each of the youths. They returned immediately to meet their Tulsa classes, leaving the wrecked car at the Reeve Chevrolet Company.

CAMP ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT AS CANYON POLICE CHIEF

M. L. "Doc" Camp, former city marshal and nightwatchman at Friona, assumed his duties January 1st as police chief in Canyon. He submitted his resignation here in mid-December, effective the first of the year.

High Plains Water District to Elect First Board of Directors January 8th

On Tuesday, the 8th of January, an election will be held electing the first permanent Board of Directors of the High Plains Water Conservation District No. 1. This district is the largest of its kind in the United States, with almost five million acres of land within its bounds. It includes all and parts of 13 counties and 19 incorporated cities.

All people who are concerned with underground water, including farmers, municipalities, industries, and hydrologist, are watching the progress of this infant district for it is the feeling that the outcome of this district will help govern a lot of water regulations and laws in the years to come.

It is necessary for the irrigation farmer, the municipal water engineer, and the industrialist, to combine efforts in making this resource serve the greatest number of people for the longest possible time. Tom McFarland, board president, points out. The temporary Board of Directors urges a full vote on Tuesday, January 8th. The polling places, the presiding judges, and the clerks in Parmer county are as follows:

FRIONA, American Legion Hall, T. J. Crawford, F. W. Reeve, Clyde Goodwine, and George Baker.

BOVINA, American Legion Hall, C. L. Calaway, Wilbur Charles, Ed Ross, Troy Armstrong.

FARWELL, County court room, Albert Smith, Mrs. O. B. Pipkin, Mrs. Harry Whitley, and Mrs. Felix Monroe.

LAZBUDDIE, Schoolhouse, Roy Daniel, George Crain, Joe Jesko, and C. C. Matthews.

Roads Hazardous Over Area; Icy Undercoating

With intermittent snow falling early Wednesday night, turning into a steady fall soon after midnight, Friona residents this morning awoke to find the second heavy snow of the season - from 5 to 6 inches on the level. Sleet and light snow continued through much of today, though winds were quite light.

Roads throughout the area continued hazardous today, with an undercoating of ice lying under the deceptive snow on many stretches of highways and streets. Cars parking at Friona curbs today seldom made the street on their own power alone, with crews stepping out from the business houses to give a helping push.

Two or three smash-ups were reported along the Parmer County highways, involving out-of-county cars. No injuries had been reported early this afternoon.

School officials in Friona made no definite announcement regarding Friday classes, stating that all depended on the weather tonight, with announcement to be made over the radio Friday morning. Local busses ran today, though school dismissed at 2 p. m.

The Farwell schools remained closed all day.

Forecasts for the area indicate temperature continuing in the middle and low 20's tonight, with warming and clearing weather following late Friday.

Wheat farmers on the whole welcomed the added moisture, though some cotton farmers still have cotton in the field and will be stopped in their pulling for a few days. The local gin has weighed over 3400 bales to date, with a large number yet expected.

Over the entire southwest, the wheat picture is brighter than usual, providing the better-than-normal weather conditions continue. Total acreage for 1952 is heavier than usual, and the Santa Fe crop report of January 1 indicates a crop of 918,305,000 bushels, the third largest of record. However, the railroad adds that predication of the wheat crop this early in advance is as tricky as trying to negotiate a peace in Korea!

Texas wheat production in 1951 was 17,307,000 bushels, with the early estimate for 1952 being 39,922,000 bushels. The 1951 December cotton estimate from the same source places Texas production at 4,100,000 bales against 2,946,000 in 1950.

Bovina Student Is 1952 Homecoming Queen at Wayland

The queen was selected by the Wayland student body from among six nominees chosen by the Men's Student Government. Dr. J. W. Bill Marshall, president, presented the queen to the homecoming crowds at the half of the Wayland-University of Corpus Christi basketball game December 14.

A mission volunteer, Miss Bradshaw is a member of the Wayland Volunteer Mission Band. She also played on the girls basketball team, the Hutchinson Flying Queens, last year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bradshaw of Bovina.

Besides her college work Miss Bradshaw is employed in the public relations and photography departments at the college. She is majoring in English and minoring in education.

While in high school in Bovina, the homecoming queen was editor of the high school paper, "The Yucca," senior favorite, carnival queen and captain of the girls basketball team.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillie Kelly and Neal spent the holidays visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hightower in Waco.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Osborn spent last week visiting in the home of her brother, C. W. Norwood and family of Lubbock.

March of Dimes Workers Are Named for County

Community chairmen of the March of Dimes drive have been named by Raymond Euler, county drive chairman, as follows:

Friona, Bill Sheehan; Farwell, Sterling Billington; Bovina, Mr. R. E. Everett; Rhea, Mrs. Paul Koltzow; Lakeview, Mrs. Otho Whitfield; Lazbuddie-PTA, Mrs. Joe Jesko; Lariat, Charlie Felts; and Black, Mrs. Walter Fangman.

The Rhea community is holding a pie supper in connection with its next Farm Bureau meeting for the benefit of the drive, Mrs. Koltzow has announced.

Special Venire Of 120 To be Called For Livesay Trial

Thomas C. Livesay, charged in the recent murder of Josh Blocher, Muleshoe, will be tried in district court at Farwell on February 4th, it has been announced. Judge E. A. Bills has ordered a special venire of 120 names for the jury.

Livesay will be represented by Billy Hall and Bill Street of Plainview; district attorney Joe Sharp will represent the state.

Visiting in the Marvin Lawson home is her mother, Mrs. Chitwood of Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis spent last week in Greenville and Dallas. They visited with his father, E. D. C. Lewis.

Editorially Speaking . . .

Citizenship Month is Proclaimed

January has been designated by Governor Shivers as "Good Citizenship" month.

The official memorandum issued by the governor contains much food for thought — during all the year and not merely one month. It follows:

GREETINGS:

Democracy and our American way of life are being seriously challenged and threatened by the world-wide spread of Communism and other related doctrines.

America is the last great bulwark against tyranny, the hope and inspiration of stout-hearted men everywhere who are interested in preserving and perpetuating for all mankind the liberties and privileges enjoyed only by free men in a free society.

Every American has cause to realize and appreciate that the great privilege of being free is possible only in a society where all share in the duties and responsibilities of citizenship.

The people of Texas should always be conscious of the duties as well as the privileges of being a citizen, in order that the rights of each will remain unimpaired and in order that constitutional governments of free men shall not perish from the earth.

The State Bar of Texas has sponsored and is sponsoring an educational program to emphasize to the citizens of Texas that our great heritage as Americans and as Texans can be preserved only by the full and complete participation of each and every individual in the duties and responsibilities of that citizenship.

This program of the State Bar of Texas deserves and merits the full support of our entire state, and to the better functioning of this program a month should be designated and set aside as "American Citizenship Month," that all may join in perpetuating our American way of life, in emphasizing the significance and dignity of the individual as a citizen of a free and democratic nation, and in meeting and conquering the communistic threat—the greatest challenge of our time.

Therefore, I, as Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby designate January, 1952, as throughout the State of Texas. And I do hereby encourage every citizen of our state to join in this month of dedication to the great principles of American Democracy, and call upon all groups and organizations of our state to cooperate with the State Bar of Texas in making "American Citizenship Month" a tremendous success in mobilizing the thinking and actions of our people toward a perpetuation of the principles and freedoms which have made America great.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 20th day of December, 1951.

Allan Shivers
Governor of Texas

Monday Morning Musings

Possibly we go overboard on the theme of good American citizenship, but in such an all-inclusive responsibility we will continue to hammer on the subject, adding some comments to the above proclamation.

American citizenship is peculiar to the world in that it is based on Freedom of the individual — a concept of life precious to each of us but too often neglected.

The daily responsibilities of citizenship might well be practiced in 1952 in several areas of our existence: the home, the school, the church, the political state, on the job at our work, and in the press.

The citizens of Friona are above-average good citizens we believe. In fact, West Texans have never been known to give much trouble with subversive or un-American attitudes. We are a patriotic group. Visible example of local patriotism was the enthusiasm with which the businessmen purchased flags and displayed them this year. We are in hopes the mayor will proclaim a week in January as "Good Citizenship" week, with a day designated to again fly these flags.

And we hope the schools will stress more than ever principles for which our flag stands.

And in the homes — there is the real realm of good citizenship — homes where the child is taught to be self-respecting, self-reliant and responsible. As Henry W. Grady has noted, the man who kindles the fire on the hearthstone of an honest and righteous home burns the best incense to liberty.

And in the church — let us not forget that our continent was developed by brave men who were of strong convictions, recognizing that God moved in the affairs of men in a powerful method.

At work — there is a prime field for the practice of good citizenship — there is where we can to the greatest degree test our citizenship fiber, practicing the American standards of sportsmanship, decency, and ethics.

As for citizenship of the press — we conscientiously ponder on this topic as each paper is prepared for the press — carefully designing its pages to present full and fair facts about the happenings, good and bad, in the community. It is quite a responsibility, exercising the liberty of both exposing and opposing arbitrary power and speaking and writing the truth.

More About the Road Situation

The Texas Highway Department has an enviable record of clarity of thought and forthright action based on its own surveys and facts as presented by the citizens of the state to be served.

And there have always been individual citizens and pressure groups alike who have tried to sway this body known for its integrity.

Only last week the department approved a Deaf Smith County road for 5.3 miles of Farm-to-Market surfacing during 1952, to be located north from FM 1412. Though running through a sparsely populated section of the area, we are sure the department knew its business, evidently visioning the linking of the roads running north from Odessa to Muleshoe, Friona, and northward to Highway 66.

Groups, representing both the pro and con attitudes, no doubt have arisen in every affected county. We just trust that the state department continues its sound program in the future that has been exemplified in past instances.

As for our own county, readers of the Star are well acquainted with the road problems and the maneuvers of some commissioners. The Farmer County Commissioner's Court even called in the Deaf Smith commissioners at a Farwell meeting recently to attempt thwarting of a road north from Friona financed by Friona people! We understand the coup didn't congeal as planned.

The Law and You Personals

By Robt. (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW what tax saving you may make under the new tax law on the sale of your residence?

Under the Internal Revenue Laws in force up until the year 1951, a person who sold a residence at a profit, even though the profit was a paper profit due to inflationary prices, the profit was taxable, even though the individual turned around and took the same money and purchased another residence.

Under the 1951 Revenue Act, Congress has recognized that there may be circumstances requiring a person to sell his home, and turn around and buy another one, and that actually there would be no gain in valuation of the property replacing the old property, even though the inflationary price was larger than the original purchase price. Under the 1951 Revenue Act if you sell your home, and within a period of a year re-invest that money in a new home, either by purchase of a home, or building a new home, you may not be subject to paying a tax on the sale of the old residence. If you sell your old residence, and build or buy a new one, you would have taxable gain only in case you pay less for the new home than you sold the old one for.

This is a very important item to anyone who may have sold their home, or be contemplating the same.

To come within this rule, only the actual residence of the taxpayer may be considered. Any portion of the residence which is used for business or income producing purposes, will not be considered under this rule.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

From every quarter there pours into Washington indications that small business is gaining increased support in the battle to keep alive free enterprise.

Despite every possible delay, and every possible obstruction, the Small Defense Plants Administration, an agency ordered by Congress, has started functioning, located in the Old Washington Post Bldg., 1337 E. Street N.W.

The first major action of the new agency throws into public view a long existent skeleton in the closet.

Telford Taylor, head of the Small Defense Plants Administration, calls upon all government procurement agencies to prohibit prime defense contractors to put so-called "set-off" clauses in the subcontracts they in turn award to small firms.

The defense program lag rapidly shapes up into a public scandal. Taylor brings into limelight a major cause of the delay.

The facts are that in these times said to be fraught with grave national peril, huge corporations receiving most of the prime defense contracts, are using the defense agencies of the United States Government as a common collection agency.

These prime contractors have been permitted, in awarding subcontracts to independent businesses, to provide that before any payment is made on the defense contract, the prime contractor can deduct any amounts owed by the small business to the big prime contractor on past civilian production relations.

©National Federation of Independent Business

Thus, defense contracts are being used by some huge corporations to enforce collections of past debts that have no connection with defense efforts.

The delay in defense production because of these "set-off" clauses has been tremendous. The small plant securing a subcontract usually must get financing to handle the contract.

And while a sub-contract on defense work is considered adequate collateral for a production loan, banks have understandably shied away from loaning production funds on sub-contracts that permit the corporation holding the prime contract to hold up payments for amounts claimed due resulting from past relations on non-defense work.

This practice has long been opposed by the American Bankers Association, as contrary to much purposely "planted" propaganda, the nation's independent bankers are most anxious to finance small business.

The fact that they have not done more in this direction during the past decade is due to "booby-traps" that big corporations, and jerry-built emergency agencies, often headed by "loan-ees" from these corporations have set up for small business.

Between the newly organized Small Defense Plants Administration, and the Senate Small Business Committee, headed by Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, many facts such as this will be brought to the public in the near future. While much is being made of mink coats and deep freezers, these will become quite petty by comparison.

Disclosures such as just made by Taylor involve billions, not thousands.

Prescription for Citizenship: Ballots Listed Paramount by Canadian Editor

What can you, as a private citizen, do about your government?

Former Congressman Martin Dies, who has been making a series of public addresses in the Panhandle area, has one answer: Vote. Vote intelligently. Vote independently.

"You can do everything if you recognize the gravity of the problems before us," Dies says. "But if you sit smugly by, if you spend your waking hours in pleasure or in business to the exclusion of everything else, then you are a citizen in name only."

"Those who love deeply or hate deeply will leave their mark on this nation, but the jellyfish who does nothing is of no value to himself or to his country."

There is one small item which, in Texas, is a pre-requisite to voting. You must pay your poll tax. Next January 31 is the deadline. Don't forget it.

Don't be a half-citizen in 1952. Arm yourself with the ballot, and use it effectively.

Democratic flag just as Maine follows the Republican candidate.

The Senator made a sporting proposition to his listeners: Name a sound, sane Democrat for President and he would take the stump in every part of the nation in support of the candidate. Naturally Mundt made some qualifications; that is, he would support the Democratic nominee, provided GOP did not nominate Taft, Eisenhower, MacArthur, or some one of the calibre.

While Senator Mundt is most capable, we are of the opinion that he is a Republican, and could not be induced to campaign for any Democrat.

There is certain to be real battle in 1952. Get your poll tax receipt ready for action.

Too Much Talk Is Conclusion of Perryton Publisher

The United States Chamber of Commerce totaled up the figures the other day and discovered that President Truman has collected more taxes than all other presidents combined, most of the taxes being collected since the end of World War II.

This calls for much more than tongue-clicking. It calls for positive "doing" by every citizen in the United States.

Getting people to do more than talk about the government spending is another proposition, however. Especially when a lot of the federal spending is done to benefit one group or another of our citizens, who naturally can't quite bring themselves to cut it off.

To cut down the unnecessary domestic expenditures, Americans must refrain from pushing pet federal projects in their area. Americans must assume responsibility for federal economy at the local level, since big government spreads as quickly as a contagious disease.

People in the 48 states must quit pressuring for "matching grants" from the federal government. Washington may promise to match every dollar paid by the states, but it is the taxpayers' money coming back, minus deductions.

People should write their congressmen every time they see an example of federal waste and inefficiency.

Another good remedy would be to charge the administration shaking out some of the dead timber that has laid in Washington for 18 years. Americans will have a chance to do this in 1952.

Canyon Editor Writes on Angles of Nat'l Politics

We listened with a great deal of interest to Senator Karl Mundt of South Dakota at the Knife and Fork Club in Amarillo last week. The Senator is one of the most brilliant thinkers of the nation, and the fact that he comes from a thinly populated state should not be held against him. Not all of the brains of the nation are centered around the great populations.

Mundt has made several speeches in Texas. His plea is that Texans forget the tragedy which has developed by voting the Democratic ticket straight regardless of who the candidate may be.

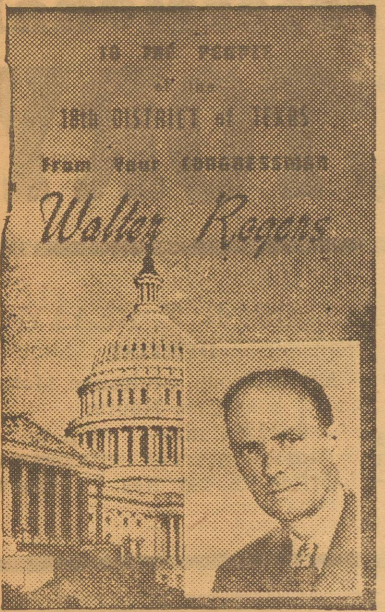

Mundt lays a pretty sound proposition to the voters of Texas: That if they will be independent in thought and support sound candidates, whether they be Republicans or Democrats, the predominant party will come to Texas seeking aid. As it is now, the Democratic bigwigs simply say that Texas and the other Southern States will vote Democratic, regardless of the candidate. This is the reason Truman is giving the people of Texas a kick in the pants upon every occasion. He knows pretty well that the South will be for him, regardless of how the voters are treated.

There is a standing joke about Maine always going Republican. Mundt does not want to see Texas, the greatest state in the Union, continue to follow the

This Christmas season brought great happiness to many and deep sorrow to others. The list of prisoners released by the Communists meant so much to those people whose loved ones were included in the list, and of course came as a terrific shock to the loved ones of those whose names were not listed. All of these people had spent many months hoping against hope that their loved ones had not paid the supreme sacrifice. If the list furnished by the Communists is not correct, it is one of the cruellest things that could be done by one human to another, a cruelty that could perhaps be conceived only by the mind of a people versed through the centuries in the school of cruelty and torture. Should this list prove to be incorrect, the wrong must be laid not only on the doorstep of Red China and North Korea, but also on the doorstep of Russia, there to be counted among many other half truths, misstatements and falsifications that can be charged against the Communists since the conception of their insidious scheme to bring disaster to the entire world.

TIONS. The Christmas season brought about only a short cessation of the continued investigations into corrupt, illegal, immoral and questionable practices. The wholesome effect of these investigations is amply evidenced by the reduction of the usual large flow of lavish gifts to Government officials, state, county and local. This gift practice that has been employed so extensively in the past has been reduced to a mere trickle. It is a practice that should have been stopped many years ago. The departments of the Federal Government, and I understand many departments in many of the state governments and local governments have placed a ban on the acceptance of gifts by the officials or the employees, further developments are daily accumulating, and the cleansing process is moving forward with devastating effect. This will not only serve to cull the culprits, but it will certainly be a means by which the innocent and faithful can be singled out for just rewards.

THE EUROPEAN ARMY: The proposed European Army for the protection of Europe is in keeping with the principle advocated by many of us here in supporting the Poage Amendment that I explained in a prior newsletter and have discussed in many speeches. This amendment was offered upon several occasions during the past session of Congress but was never approved. It is interesting to note that the European Army now being advocated and pushed by General Eisenhower has not met with the approval of a number of nations whose freedom is primarily at stake in a world conflict, but has not been approved by England. Although England through Mr. Churchill and Anthony Eden has stipulated that it will furnish support to such an organization, there has been no commitment forthcoming to furnish troops. In fact, England has turned thumbs down on the proposal several times in so far as furnishing troops is concerned. England is on the front lines again in this possible world conflict, as she was in World War II. This country has pulled the fat out of the fire for England too many times. I do not believe that the people of this country regret any assistance that we have given England in the struggle for world peace. I do believe that reciprocity is a virtue and that England should be happy to furnish her proportionate share of the troops for a European army, as her defenses must depend primarily on the defense of Europe. It is my opinion that this country should pursue the demands for England to furnish her proportionate share of the troops for this army with the same tenacity that England always pursues such propositions as she might desire. The traditional persistent attitude of the British in reaching their desired goals is indeed laudable, and by the same token such a persistent attitude by this country would be equally laudable. We cannot as a nation furnish all of the troops and all of the equipment. We are all proud of our allies and want to help them all we can but these allies must not lean too heavily upon Uncle Sam.

May the New Year lighten the burdens of all of you and bring happiness to you and your family. May it also open

Spent Week-End In Mountains

The Sloan Osborn and Claude Osborn families, together with a number of college students, spent the week-end at Tres Ritos. Those making the trip included the elder Osborns, Robert, Sally, and M. C.; Joyce Miller, Marcie Albright of SMU, Charles Osborn of Texas A & M; Tim Magness and Dorothy Guinn of Texas Tech, Mary Drinkard, Fort Worth; and John Crow and Joe Osborn of the University of Texas.

As Joe Osborn reported the jaunt, "The group returned weary and foot-sore from the ski trip where the "experts were separated from the novices!" Snow two to three foot deep confronted the group at Tres Ritos, and the party packed almost a mile to the cabin. They reported a new ski run had been finished at the Agua Piedra winter sports area with a new type of ski lift in operation.

Star Recipes

As Told to Betty Blake
BOB HOPE is the country's leading expert on pies. He's had more pies thrown at him than any other comedian, and he's tasted them all—while wiping them off his chin. Bob, who is soon to be seen in Paramount's "My Favorite Spy" has a favorite pie—vanilla custard. It's a delicious pastry and economical too. "Make one," suggests Bob, "and try it on your husband." Serve it, of course. Don't throw it! Here's the recipe:

VANILLA CUSTARD PIE

Plain pastry 1/4 teaspoon salt
3 eggs, slightly beaten 3 cups bottled milk
1/2 cup granulated sugar 2 teaspoons Borden's Pure Vanilla

Roll the pie crust to 1/8-inch thickness and 2 inches larger than the diameter of the plate. Line a 9-inch pie plate with this pie crust, fitting it loosely. Fold back the edge of the pie crust all the way around and bring this double fold to an upright position. Flute the double fold of pie crust in the following manner: Place the floured tip or knuckle of the index finger of the right hand against the fold on the inside of the pie crust rim, so that it is between the tips of the thumb and index finger of the left hand, which are on the outside of the pie crust rim. Pinch gently, then remove the fingers and continue this same fluting motion around the entire rim of the pie.

Combine the eggs, sugar and salt. Add the milk and vanilla, and pour into the pastry shell. Bake at 450° F. in a preheated oven for 30 to 40 minutes or until a silver knife inserted in the center comes out clean.

Bargains Or Boomerangs?

A five-point shopping guide, designed to protect U. S. housewives against "price-jugglers," has been made public by the Bureau of Education on Fair Trade.

It describes price-juggling as a technique used by some stores to attract customers by offering as "bait" a few national brands at slashed prices. Consumers purchase these bargains, the Bureau points out, but at the same time many are overcharged on other less familiar items which they are led to believe are also "bargains." To guard against "bargain-blindness," housewives are urged to adopt the following shopping rules:

1. Don't be "switched" to a brand of unknown value and quality, if you are told that the store is sold out on the bargain-priced famous brand you came to buy.
2. Resist sales pressure to sell you an item said to be "just-as-good" and "much cheaper" than the national brand.
3. If you're able to buy the advertised bargain, be cautious about purchasing so-called "essential parts" at an additional price.
4. Don't lose your shopping judgment when you're urged to "pick up some of our other good buys first, because we'll be out of stock on the sale brand for an hour."
5. Don't become an accomplice of the price-juggler, by refusing to patronize your regular store-keeper because the latter does not offer the same "bargain" bait. If he did offer it, he would be forced to make up his losses, as the price juggler does, by overcharging on other items. Fair trade prices of national brands are the lowest at which a store can sell and stay in business.

SOIL POTENTIALS

V. H. Smith, a former teacher of business in Friona, has asked for information on soils in the Friona area.

Smith is now bookkeeper for the Hobbs, New Mexico, school system and is in the process of writing a thesis for his masters degree, entitled "The Business Potential in Friona, Texas".

Since the soil potential is of interest to all businesses, we will pass this information on.

Businessmen in Friona, Farwell and Bovina would probably be the first to admit that if it were not for agriculture, grass would grow in the streets.

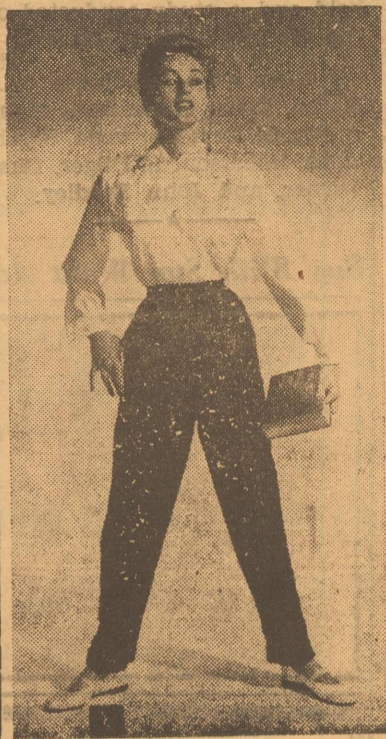

Parmer County has four land classes. Friona is in about the center of 275,000 acres of predominantly Class II land which is explained as "Good land that can be cultivated safely with easily applied conservation practices".

The soil itself is described as deep, dark, heavy, tight; slopes up to one foot per one hundred feet; takes water slowly; high water and fertility holding capacity; responds well to conservation treatment.

The adapted cash crops include small grains, sorghums, cotton, corn, sudan, and non-root truck crops. Adapted legumes include alfalfa, clover, Austrian peas, dixie peas mung beans, soybeans, and vetch.

Irrigated pasture grasses are orchardgrass, fescue, rhodesgrass, ryegrass, crested wheat, sand love, weeping love, blite panic, and brome. Dryland pasture grasses include buffalo

NEW STENOGRAPHER

Mrs. Cynthia Bell is the newly-employed stenographer at the Farm Bureau office in Friona, assuming her duties the first of the year.

Farm Bureau officials point out that she is on the job to give extra service, and any farmer wishing help with typing, letters, execution of forms, etc. is invited to visit the office.

The Bill Sheehan family spent the Christmas holidays in Dallas visiting Mrs. Sheehan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayers.

Visitors in the Taylor Green home during the New Year holidays included Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Lovin of Prince Rupert, British Columbia, Canada. Mr. Lovin is the brother of Mrs. Green.

The A. L. Glasscock family are newcomers to the community, moving to the Green farm near Hub from Greenville, Texas. Two of the boys are in school here: Dannie Mac in the second grade, and Gary Kent in the 5th grade.

Gaylord and Sherley Maurer left Sunday for Eugene, Oregon, after spending the holidays in the parental Carl Maurer home.

tion. Water erosion will occur on long gentle slopes. Air circulation is reduced when over tilled or clean tilled too long. A plow pan forms easily. The soil will run together, bake, and crust, and this problem is most severe at planting time.

A survey completed in September, 1949, showed that the average soil of the Friona type is deficient in phosphorus, nitrogen, and organic matter.

SCS ACTIVITIES

During the past week contour lines and terrace lines were run for John Armstrong. Contour lines were run for Donald Watkins and a survey was made to determine the size and feet of concrete pipe needed on the D. S. Anderson farm.

THE ELEVENTH COMMANDMENT

A few years ago, while studying erosion in the Holy Lands, Dr. Loudermilk wrote the eleventh commandment as he felt Moses might have written it had he foreseen man's abuse of the land. It follows:

SHOWS HOURS WORKED ON EVERY JOB

... with the new Ford Tractor and PROOF-METER

The great Proof-Meter—available only on the new Ford Tractor—automatically indicates the number of tractor hours worked, by an hour meter on its dial. This can help you save money and make money in a number of ways . . .

It's easy to cut the operating cost and increase the life of your tractor—when you know hours worked! You know exactly when to take care of vital servicing . . . changing oil . . . checking spark plugs . . . renewing oil filter, etc. This helps avoid costly layups! It helps keep your tractor on the job, working at its best.

Because the Proof-Meter indicates tractor hours worked it lets you keep more accurate records. You can figure costs on every tractor operation, on every crop you raise! Thus it enables you to plan intelligently to raise over-all farm profits.

5 Instruments in ONE! In addition to Hours Worked, the Proof-Meter shows you Engine Speed, Tractor Travel Speed, P.T.O. Speed, and Belt Pulley Speed. Nothing else like it.

Only the Ford Tractor has the Proof-Meter!

SEE FOR YOURSELF! Let us show you, right on your own farm, the dozens of ways in which the versatile Ford Tractor and Dearborn Farm Equipment can help you cut costs, get better results, and help make more money for you.

NAVAL ENLISTMENT QUOTA
All men who have received their pre-induction physical examinations now have until March 31st in which to enlist in the branch of service of their choice, word is received this week from Chief Liechty of the Clovis Navy Recruiting Station. Chief Liechty announces that he has a quota of twenty-four for his station during January.

PROBABLY WIDES TWAINS
A Sunday School class was composed of three-year-olds. The teacher asked the tots: "Do any of you remember who St. Matthew was?" No answer. "Well, does anyone remember who St. Mark was?" Still no answer. "Surely, some of you must remember who Peter was?" The little faces were full of interest, but the room still remained quite. Finally, a tiny voice came from the back of the room: "I fink he was a wabbit."
