School Faculty Members Recognized In New Series Beginning in Star this Week

Column Left. . .

Those who yet do not recognize this is the garden spot of the nation could do well to compare some of the local irrigated crops with the meagre stands noted this year from one side of the nation to the other.

For instance, the Drake boys have some maize that is a sight for even us folks here - heads measuring 13 to 14 inches in length and yielding over 100 bushels per acre on a large tract.

And just a little earlier you could see some phenomenal corn yields here - for instance the "city" crop of Dick Habbingae. Many of you drove by his yard and saw this tall corn, no doubt. We have pictures of it here and will run them a little later when we will run representative pictures of all our bumper crops.

Noticed the marked-off plots of ground on the school yard just north of the Agriculture department

The Vocational Ag. students under director of J. T. Gee have planted there a score of grasses for study in identification of the pasture grasses of the area. Looks like a lot better method than trying to memorize the book descriptions.

The Legion-sponsored circus to show here Friday will be set up on the flat in the south section of Friona on the Chitwood lots, Legion Commander Paul Fortenberry informs us.

Hats off to the local volunteer firemen who tonight are organizing into compact companies for specialized training in their fire-fighting job. These men deserve much, much credit for their availability at all times and for the many other services they render in the community.

Did you see the recent practice where they studied fighting oil fires? C. S. Baintum, chief, put the boys through with some very graphic examples of oil-fighting techniques.

Members of the Friona MYF attended the Amarillo District MYF meeting held in Panhandle Monday night.

Making the trip were Shirley and Elezabeth Coccoanaugher, Patsy Anthony, Louis Gore and Mr. and Mrs. Opal Jones.

Mother of Ralph Shirley Dies at Hereford, Mon.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning in Hereford for Mrs. Nora Z. Shirley, mother of Ralph Shirley of Friona.

Mrs. Shirley, 68, had been ill for several months and died Monday night in the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at the Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. H. V. Fields, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. S. E. Eldridge of Big Spring.

Surviving are four sons, Jim and Lewis of Hereford, Edd of Richmond, California, and Ralph of Friona; six daughters, Mrs. Emily Lallis, Wewoka, Okla., Mrs. Jewel O'Neil and Mrs. Thelma Malloy, both of Amarillo, Mrs. Lester Thompson and Mrs. Rota Stevens, both of Hereford, and Mrs. Nadine Lutz, Borger; 25 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and two brothers and one sister.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Mrs. John Bengler

Initiating a series of word portraits of teachers in the schools of the county, the Star this week is featuring Mrs. John Bengler, First Grade teacher in the Friona Public Schools. Mrs. W. A. Tinney, staff member, interviewed Mrs. Bengler, and her article follows:

Mrs. John Bengler (Ethel Bridges Bengler) was born of real pioneer stock in the early settlement days of Oklahoma; she was born in a sod house in Beaver County, where her parents were settlers "proving up" a homestead in that No Man's Land area of Oklahoma.

For years after her birth, there was not even a school in that thinly-settled country, and an older brother and sister were compelled to stay away from home to attend school for a few months out of each year. By the time Ethel reached school age, a one room frame building had been built, and she attended there for eight terms. Then later on graduating from the Beaver High School as salutatorian in 1924, she continued her education with college attendance at Panhandle A. & M. College, Goodwill, Oklahoma, and at Northwestern State at Alva. She taught in the winters and attended school in summers for a number of years.

Her majors were Elementary Education and Home Economics, and she was awarded the B.S. degree in 1939 from the Alva college.

Mrs. Bengler taught 17 years in Beaver County, Oklahoma, and during this and her 9 1-2 years of teaching in Friona she has taught all grades from one through eight-but her first love still is the first grade, in her words "possibly the hardest to teach but certainly the most inspirational; more can be accomplished there than in any other grade it seems."

Deeply appreciated by the local parents and students alike, Mrs. Bengler's philosophy of teaching may well be summed in the following anonymous quotation:

It's wonderful for men to build, With hammer, drill, and forge, A bridge to span the cataract. That rushes through the gorge. It's wonderful to build a town Where massive buildings tower, Where giant engines pull and puff And motors spin with power. It's wonderful to write a book, To paint an amber sky, To give the world those deathless things That never fade or die; But still more wonderful to build The women and the men, Who build the cities, span the floods, Or wield the brush and pen. More wonderful to build a soul, To have a teacher's part In molding dreams and hopes that stir The adolescent heart; And when they win through stress and strain, More wonderful to be The faithful teacher who can say: "They went to school to me."

UNDERWENT MAJOR OPERATION

Word was received here late Tuesday afternoon that Preach Cranfill is resting easily after undergoing a major operation at Scott & White Hospital at Temple Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Cranfill went to Temple Sunday.

He is expected to be hospitalized for two or three weeks. In Preach's absence, the elevator here is being supervised by Mac McGowan, associated with one of the Polishman interests, the Rock Island Grain Company of Fort Worth.

Music, Safety Program Features P-TA Meet Here

Choral music will feature the meeting of the local Parent-Teacher Association meeting this Thursday night in the high school auditorium. Music director Frye will present a variety of numbers by music students.

"Safety" will be the program subject for the meeting, and speakers will include Mayor Charles Allen, Fire-chief C. S. Baintum, Principal John Parish, and Bert Neelley, local editor.

The membership drive for P-TA is underway and will continue until October 30th; the community is urged to actively participate in this organization.

F-M Road West Is Official Now

The Farm-to-Market road west from Friona to the "cross-roads" moved much nearer to reality Tuesday when the local commissioners court, Judge A. D. Smith, and commissioner-elect Forrest Osborn met with District Highway Engineer S. C. McCarty in Lubbock.

McCarty noted that this road, some 9 miles, would be first project in the 1953 Parmer County road program.

Local Firemen Organize Into Compact Group

The regular third Thursday meeting of the Friona Volunteer Fire Department is being held this Thursday evening, with considerable business up for discussion.

A constitution and by-laws will be approved, providing for a total membership of 27. The department will be divided into organized companies, and officers will be elected.

A "build-your-own" sandwich supper will be held in conjunction with the meeting.

In a farwell meeting of the previous week, the local commissioners agreed to follow the 1948 agreement whereby the Friona road was to be the first project following the Oklahoma Lane road north to the cross-roads.

Commissioner E. R. Day stated that he and the county judge, together with commissioners Ivy, Jefferson and Billington had been working on this particular project for some time.

Actual money for the project is scheduled for release December 1st, with the contract to be let in 1953.

TEACHER INDUCTED

Mr. Tom Jarbo, 6th grade teacher for the second year in the local schools, left Tuesday for induction into the Armed Forces at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Mrs. Jarbo accompanied him.

Jarbo was well-known and popular here, and Principal John Parish states that his leaving will be a loss to the school and the community.

Lyndon Sanders will assume the Junior coaching work formerly supervised by Jarbo.

"Hut" Hutson, Amarillo cartoonist is shown here at his drawing board, having just completed one of the caricatures for which he is noted. Hut has visited Friona on frequent occasions and last week he made over a dozen drawings of local personalities. These caricatures appear elsewhere in this paper in conjunction with the new "Trade at Home" feature.

Novel Trade-at-Home Feature Has Caricatures of Local Men

Something most unusual in the "Trade-at-Home" campaign ideas is being launched in the Star this week - that of a page message in which twelve merchants of the town cooperate in sponsoring. Beside the advertisement of each firm is a caricature of the firm manager, drawn by Hut Hutson, Amarillo cartoonist.

Together with the individual messages is a center cartoon centered around the "Trade-at-Home" theme and a "Get Acquainted with Texas" feature that will change each week for the thirteen weeks which the page will run.

The messages of the individual merchants will be altered from week to week - so it will pay you to scan this page closely each week for new money-saving ideas that make trading at home more profitable and pleasant.

The Star is happy to welcome these advertisers, who join with the many already listing their ads throughout the paper, all of whom recognize that Friona is their home - and it is the home folks who must be served in order for the community to grow and prosper. The Friona merchant and advertiser is due a lot of credit for the type community we have. Let's lend him our support.

Cooperators in the special cartoon page are the Houser Grocery with its partners Orville and Cotton Houser, the North Plains Gin Company, Wright Williams, manager, the Phillips 66 Station operated by Pete Cornelius; Raymond Adams Garage, the Cunningham Helpy Selly Laundry with Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cunningham on the job there, the Maurer Machinery Company, Carl Maurer, owner-operator; Allen's Jewelry, Allen Stewart owner, the Friona Lumber Company, Weldon Dickson, manager; Thornton's locker and Cold Storage and Poultry & Egg, Feed & Seed house, S. T. Thornton, owner-operator; Joe B. Douglas Real Estate located just east of Blanton's on Highway 60; Pudge Kendrick and his Phillips 66 wholesale business, and the City Drug, O. J. Beene, owner.

Know Your Organizations

Friona Woman's Club Had Its Birth Back in 1909 - Has Served 43 Years

Every wonder about the beginnings of social clubs, civic organizations, etc., that now are active in our community and have played a great part in the formation of the town and its growth?

Then you no doubt wondered about the background of the unusual float entered by the Friona Woman's Club in the fair this year.

In the words of a club member, one sunny afternoon early in September way back in 1909 a group of progressive-minded local women met on the front porch of the Friona Drug Store to discuss the organization of a "woman's club."

Friona was then truly in its infancy, a small village set on the barren plains of West Texas.

The women present, all were representatives of an older and more developed section of the country; they had come with their husbands and families to begin a new experience in life - the building of this new and promising country. They were women of education and culture who would have adorned and strengthened a woman's organization in any locality.

Mrs. Todd of Mansfield, Ohio, was chosen and the first president.

The club decided to launch its work with the study of "Vital Questions," and meetings were scheduled every second and fourth Wednesdays in mid-afternoon. The first meeting was held October 13th, 1909.

Much, much later - in 1940 - the dream of a near half-century was realized with the construction of the stone structure - the now well-known and widely-used Friona Clubhouse.

The float pictured above won first award of $15 at the recent fair parade. On the float beside the early members were the present officers of this one of Friona's more active and civic-minded organizations - a group that this paper is happy to salute in our series of early day and present-day outstanding people and organizations.

Friona Broncs Have Games with Hereford Bovina Coming Next

A Junior football game will be played here next Tuesday afternoon at 12:20 with the local boys taking on the Hereford junior team.

On Thursday the boys will play Bovina here at 7:30 in the evening.

HONORS TO O. LANGE

Hats off to the winner! Os Lange didn't receive a movie "Oscar" this week, but did win an "Oscar of sorts" in the form of a loving cup handed him Sunday as champion of the Hereford Golf Club Flag Tournament. That's right, old Os just walked off, batted that little ball around fairly left the whole field of contenders behind.

Each entrant was handed a flag with his average score marked upon it - 89 in the case of the local lumberman; the players were to progress as far along the course as possible on this score. Well, Os passes the 18th hole with a 77 score and plays on until the 21st hole!

The tournament was sponsored by the Hereford Golf Association for the benefit of the United Cerebral Palsy Fund.

MEETING NOTICE

An important meeting of the grade school room mothers has been called for next Monday at 4 o'clock. The group will meet in Room 4 of the grade school.

Don Clements broke two fingers in football practice Tuesday.

LOCAL STUDENT RECOGNIZED

The Mountaineer, Schreiner Institute publication at Kerville, this week featured the work of the Crack Platoon of which Johnnie Parker, Friona student, a member.

Parker was cited with other members for their work, the paper reading in part: "... for those of you who do not know what a crack platoon is, it is an organization composed of a group of spirited and eager boys working as a unit toward military perfection in the execution of maneuvers."

Johnnie is the son of Mrs. Tommie Parker of Friona.

Sure, Recreation Is Needed - in Friona

Last week, in keeping with immediate events, we discussed the discipline situation in our town.

This week, in keeping with an EVERY-PRESENT youth demand, we feel that the entertainment side of the picture should be given due consideration.

Needed entertainment for the young folks always has presented some problems, especially in little but growing communities. And most certainly Friona is no exception.

True, we have many social, class, and athletic functions during the school year, to say nothing of the church youth activities. But good as each of these may be - the observation is frequently made that each function appeals only to a certain group - with the probable ideal situation being some activity that would attract the mass of young folks - RIGHT HERE AT HOME.

WE ARE FOR MORE LOCAL EFFORT IN THIS DIRECTION - 100%.

As long as the young folks must drive elsewhere for their fun - along highways travelled too often by their drunken elders and too often by the speed demons - parents and students alike - and as long as the "out-of-town entertainment" often is unwholesome - as long as any or all these prevail we shall blow the trumpet for an adequate local program.

Some suggestions? Surely you have some. We think of one or two ourselves. Why could not a corner or side of the local park be designed as a recreation area - and at little expense we believe - providing added and NEEDED tennis courts, even a shuffle-board and croquet courts - and ultimately a swimming pool?

Maybe we cannot launch a pretentious program now - but we must make an effort - a visible one - to provide something more.

The Revised Word:

We like the new Revised Standard Version of the Bible which has been given so much publicity upon its recent release.

Not being a scholar of Hebrew or Greek, we of course cannot say for ourselves if any of the meaning has been altered or lost - but we do have the word of eminent Biblical scholars.

We do know, however, that the new version is very readable and more easily understood with its usage of modern diction.

Some of you who have found difficulty with the King James Version might do well to read some passages in the new writing - certainly you will find nothing obnoxious!

A Good Day:

A lot of panhandle and south plains folks have seen General Eisenhower. We were in the crowd, conservatively estimated at 10,000, who heard the statesman speak at Lubbock Tuesday, and though the appearance there was doubly interesting to his supporters, the event was one that was probably unforgettable for anyone attending.

We personally could in no way estimate the size of the crowd. We made an actual count of 600 people lined side by side along the front row of spectators - and in places the crowd was as much as 70 people in depth - so we believe the 10,000 estimate actually lower than correct.

Talked with Vance Johnson, old time acquaintance of the News-Globe who now is Washington correspondent for the San Francisco Chronicle. He and a Philadelphia Inquirer reporter, both of whom flew in with the company of writing press that accompanies the general, were remarking on the view as they neared Lubbock. They said that for at least 30 miles in every direction the highways were lined with cars heading for the Lubbock airport.

First visible indication of the general's approach was the landing of two hugh chartered Eastern Airlines Constellation planes carrying a load of some 120 persons, representatives of the major press syndicates, the writing press representatives of individual newspapers, radio personnel, and television and newsreel cameramen. These two planes preceded the Eisenhower special by about 20 minutes.

Greeting the specially painted red, white, and blue Eisenhower special plane was a group of horsemen, members for the Crosby County and the Lubbock mounted patrols - colorful reception well-suited to this area. And as Mr. Eisenhower's smiling face emerged through the plane door, the entire delegation of spectators joined with the two bands present in singing "Happy Birthday to You" - for it was the 62nd birthday of the honored guest.

We agree with many more in that Mr. Eisenhower makes much better impression in a personal appearance than over the radio. Likely this is due to his serious countenance and the ease with which he can talk to one person or a group, leaning slightly forward to talk directly at the listener with his extremely keen eyes expressing his point almost in comparison to his words.

We were fortunate in being adjacent to the speaker as he alighted from the plane and, as he spoke - we could note his appropriate tan suit and white shirt and his smart military-type brown shoes. He looked like a West Texan to be specific.

We'll comment little on the text of the address - it was adequately carried in the dailies and over the radio. Some points especially impressed us however:

First, the general spoke, not fluently as a practiced politician, but rather as a sincere man with a worthy message, and this impression was shared by practically every observer with whom we talked.

He very aptly handled one situation:

Stating that political promises were popular, yet he was making none. "These have been over-worked for the past twenty years - some were fulfilled to our satisfaction, some were not. I am going to conduct my administration, should I be elected, in such a manner that I will want to come right back here in four years to this same platform, look you good friends straight in the eye, and give an account of my services." We like this approach.

Referring to the Texas vote which has traditionally been packaged with the Democratic votes of the Solid South, the candidate remarked, "As long as I can look Texas in the face, I can see that no vote is in a packaged bag, for no Texan can deliver his vote except himself - he is not the type man to hand over votes in the manner of a Pendergast machine."

Of course his speech also touched on the tidelands, which he stated had belonged to the states for 100 years and should continue to belong there; he talked against growing centralization of power, a bungling foreign program and a farm program 'now governed from Washington rather than by the farmer,' bureaucracy, etc.

Quoting from Governor Shivers, he urged Texans to "caucus with their conscience" in this election and in their demands to Washington.

Throughout his speech in the windy open spaces of the municipal airport, a wisp of hair blew uncontrolled in the wind and sand, seemingly not bothering him in the least; we were surprised to note he had so little hair, much less than the artists often place in the pictures.

With practically all eyes glued upon the general, it was interesting to note that the company who came in on the planes, from the north and the east, spent much of their time eyeing the horses and talking with the "cowboys" who rode them. And there were the two little boys who made a hit with their placard, "If we could vote, We'd vote for Ike." And there was a little negro boy, some 5 years old, who had a smile for everyone - his new hat was ringed with "I Like Ike" buttons, and he wore a big button, about 3 inches in diameter, upon his coat.

Most everyone attending will probably remember the warm reception and the good time had by the huge crowd, and we hazard a guess that many of them will have occasion to remember the general's parting words in which he pledged a "government to work WITH the citizens, and not to work citizens, a government to serve and not to rule."

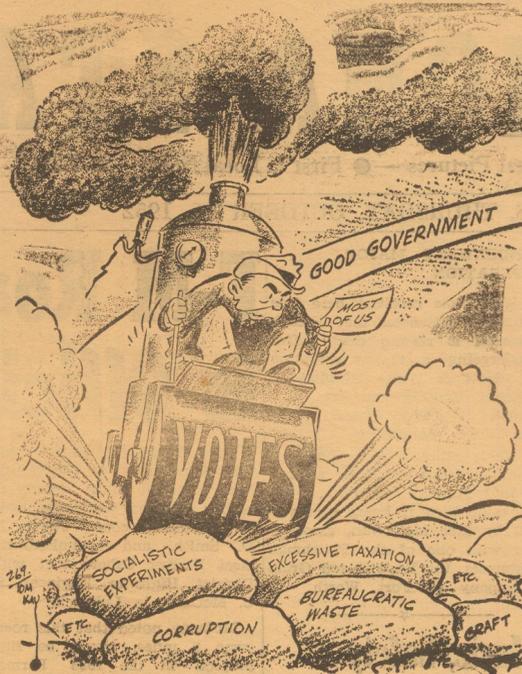

—MMM—

Attended a meeting and barbecue Tuesday noon in Lubbock of the Democrats for Eisenhower wing of the party. And we were possibly surprised yet happy to see so many of the old stalwart Demo party workers at the helm of this movement.

—MMM—

One thing for sure, however you vote, however you think, and whoever wins, there's lot's of election talk and more votes than every before will in all likelihood be cast in this presidential election. And that's the only course we would promote - one with the majority ruling.

THE AMERICAN WAY

A Needed Steam Roller

WASHINGTON AND

"Small Business"

—By C. WILSON HARDER

In Washington bureaus the interest is not in the presidential election, but rather in the many Congressional contests.

There was more interest in the remaining conventions than the election because there was a chance that the entire situation would be changed by one, or both, conventions.

Due to the fact that the salaries of foreign aid program were afraid to lose, or both conventions, W. Harder might follow the recommendations of Herbert Hoover.

Now the feeling is both tickled and headed by men committed to internationalists.

European leaders also feel confident, U. S. observers who attended the World Bank and International Monetary Conferences in Mexico City, report European delegates were quite open about the new plan they expect to be approved by the White House around March, regardless of who is living in it.

This new plan makes even past and present multi-billion dollar plans look like small change.

Huge European industrial monopolies no longer want so many U. S. tax dollars poured directly into their countries in the form of goods. With U. S. billions, they've hit all time record production themselves.

The new plan calls for American billions to Latin America, Asia, other non-European nations, to buy goods with.

Here is the pay-off for Europe. Instead of U. S. dollars going to Europe, Europe will receive U. S.

cash so that they can buy from Europe as well as the U. S.

Everybody wins but Uncle Sam.

Astonishing as it seems, this plan is already in effect to some degree. The MSA is now letting nations receiving U. S. aid buy from other sources.

For example, MSA Bulletin No. 156 announces on that day another $5,000,000 was given away $2 million of the total was for petroleum products for the United Kingdom from Latin American and British Trinidad, Canada, Germany, Japan, and France, started in the truck and rubber shipments made to Yugoslavia, and China, amounting for another $2 million.

This plan which European monopolies will be approved also provides for world-wide price fixing with the U. S. supporting prices.

Washington also expects that to carry out this plan, new controls and new taxes will be imposed on the nation's small business and middle class.

Washington now thinks this world-wide gravy train will be detailed only by two events. The first will be the election to Congress of men opposed to U. S. giveaway programs.

The second event will be an organized, aggressive public opinion to support the views of those Congressmen. This public support will be needed to bolster the stand of these rebelling Congressmen as they will be targets of a heavily financed propaganda barrage. Therefore, Washington bureaucrats are painfully sensitive to the reactions today in small towns, as they feel the issue could be decided there. Sentiment in the big cities can be controlled, they believe.

The Law and You

By Robt. (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW how long you may keep a judgment active

When a judgment in a law suit is secured, this does not immediately secure payment of the debt established by the judgment. If the one owing the judgment does not pay the same voluntarily, then it is necessary that legal process be issued to the Sheriff to go out and attempt to collect the Judgment. This is done by the Clerk of the Court issuing what is called an Execution, which is an order to the Sheriff to go levy upon and seize property of the judgment debtor to be sold at public sale to satisfy the Judgment. Such property which may be seized and levied upon by the Sheriff, must be over and above that property which is exempt the laws of the State to an individual. If when such an execution is issued, the Sheriff is unable to find property, other than exempt property, he makes his report of this fact on the execution and returns it to Court.

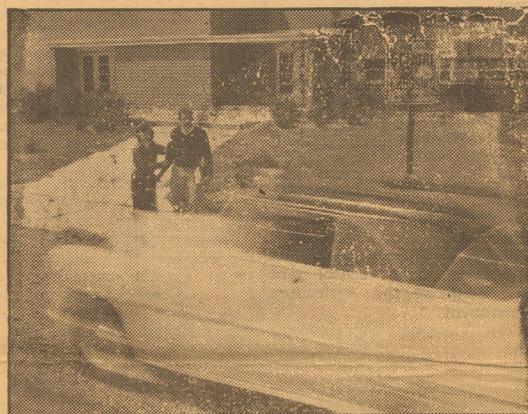

If an execution is issued within one year of the judgment, and no property found, then the Judgment is kept alive for a term of ten years from the date of the Judgment. If prior to the termination of the ten year period, another execution is issued, then the Judgment is kept active for an additional ten year period. Each ten years just before the preceding ten year period since the time of the preceding execution has been issued, the Judgment lien may be extended by the issuance of a new execution.

If the Judgment is not kept alive, by the issuance of these executions, it will become unenforceable. Thus, by the issuance of an execution within one year after the date of the Judgment, and the issuance of an execution within every ten years succeeding a period of time, the Judgment may be kept alive and active indefinitely, and will draw interest, usually at the rate of six per cent (6%) throughout the entire time until the same is paid.

Students Censure Adult Drivers

Chevrolet checked 5,000 high school students on their opinions of adult drivers and found Disregard of Traffic Signs (enacted above) a prime target for criticism. Recklessness was worst fault in poll.

DETROIT—If an adult driver could look at himself through the eyes of the younger generation he'd see a person who is inconsiderate of others, who cheats a bit on speed laws and who believes he can solve traffic jams by getting mad.

At least this is the picture given by a Chevrolet Motor Division survey which asked 5,000 high school driving students what they thought of their elders. Here's the way the juveniles ranked adult driving faults:

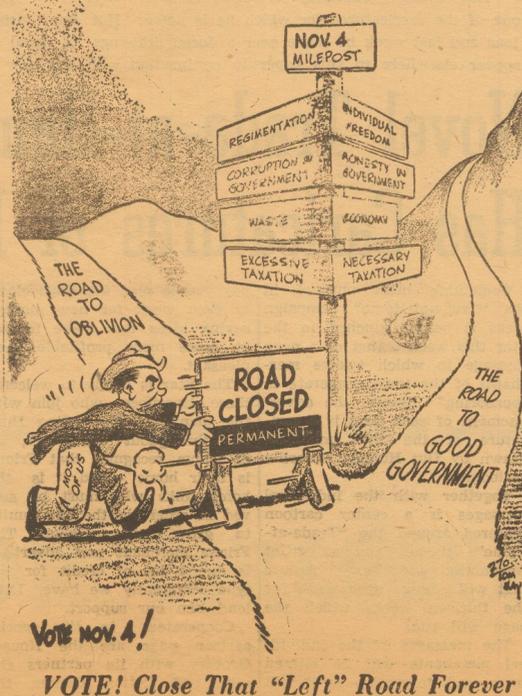

- No. 1—Recklessness. ("Lots of times we ride the bumper of the car ahead.") No. 2—Poor Sportsmanship. ("He thinks the road belongs to him.") No. 3—Speeding. ("Dad goes just as fast when there's traffic as when there isn't.") No. 4—Failure to Signal Properly. ("We got hit once when pop stopped too quick for a hamburger.") No. 5—Impatience. ("My father thinks he can untangle traffic by just swearing.")

- No. 6—Disregard of Signs. ("Some speed up when they see 'Slow School Crossing.'") No. 7—Inattention. ("Mom talks too much when she's driving.") No. 8—Neglect of Car's Safety Features. ("All of us cross our fingers when dad steps on the brakes.")

No. 9—Ignorance of Laws. ("When two drivers meet at a corner they eye each other like in a duel. Neither of them knows who's supposed to stop.") No. 10—Lack of Skill. ("She can't get out of skids.")

The Chevrolet survey gave a cross-section of national opinion. Cities covered included Baltimore, Los Angeles, Miami, St. Paul, Atlanta, Dallas, Denver and Pittsburgh among others.

A Day in the Life of A Student at F.H.S.

By Don Lewis

You drowsily arise in the morning in plenty of time, you think. Then you glance at the clock - "eighty-three, gad, I'll be late!" You grab a bite of breakfast and rush through the door and out to the car and speed to school. There you are greeted by Mr. Kelley's smiling face and, "Where is your excuse?"

Well, after the ordeal at the office you finally get to class. You just get settled when, squak, squak, squak heavens, what is that? Is it some monster they let out of biology? No, that is just the band tuning up.

Those first periods go by and you come up to the fourth period. All through class you wonder what you will get for dinner. Beans? Maybe saurkraut. Well, whatever it is, my stomach feels like my throat has been cut!

Finally the bell! Rush, rush you only have forty-five minutes; you are home by 12:25 and you eat and are out of the house by 12:30 and back to school by 12:40 in time to see our favorite students, the Freshmen, perform their antics.

Again the bell rings. The rush isn't quite so great to get back to class as it was to leave it. The evening passes by without any eventful happenings and then the last period. What a period! I often wonder if students learn anything in that period.

Then that last bell, the one that sets you free for awhile. Stamped! The students are coming out. Then with a loud clatter of noise and locker door slamming and griping words about how many lessons you have, the hall is clear. So that ends the day of a student at F.H.S.

School Underway

By H. V. Rockey

Yes, school is under way. The whole first six weeks zipped by so fast that we hardly knew what was going on. And then came that horrible reminder, "this is six weeks." Of course we all knew what that meant, test, test, test, and study, study, study.

Well, that week is over now and we can resume our normal activities.

During the first six weeks there has been five football games played with four victories. The band and chorus has been organized under the direction of Mr. Frye. The girls basketball team under Mr. Ford, F.F.A. under Mr. Gee.

We hope that this next six weeks will go along as smoothly as this one did.

Girls Enjoy Weiner

Roast, Slumber Party

By Wanda Beaty

Miss Shirley Fields feted a small group of girls with a weiner roast and slumber party at her country home Friday night. After roasting weiners and marshmallows over a cozy fire the girls succeeded in keeping each other awake almost all night. Girls attending were: Onieda Coffman, June White, Shirley Cocanougher, Wanda Beaty, and hostess Shirley Fields. Fun, but oh how sleepy the next day!

Meet the Teachers

Six Weeks End - and New Faces Are Pleasingly Pleasant in Friona High

By Deann Buske

Six weeks tests have just passed and we are ready to stand another. However, there is one thing in particular that helped this six weeks fly by. That was the new teachers. Yes, we think we have the most wonderful school system ever. The following are a few of the reasons we think so:

A band? Yes, that is what we have and hope and know we will keep improving. Mr. Frye also teaches choir, and I'm sure we will win sweepstake in both at contest.

Even if we did have a hard time passing history six weeks test, Mr. Ford is a very good girls basketball coach. Don't be surprised when you hear he takes the Squaws to state!

Good looks! We have those too in F.H.S. and Mrs. June Clevinger is a very good example. The kids all like her in typing and shorthand very well, also 5th period study hall.

English? Yes, we are learn-

Outstanding Declamation Given in Speech Class

By LaNora Fallwell

Recently one of our Speech students gave "My Creed" by Dean Alfange as a declamation in class. We like it so much that we want to pass it on to the rest of the school.

I Do Not Choose to be a common man. It is my right to be uncommon—if I can. I seek opportunities—not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the state look after me. I want to take the calculated risk; to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. I refuse to barter incentive for a dole. I prefer the challenges of life to the guaranteed existence; the thrill of fulfillment to the stale calm of utopia. I will not trade freedom for beneficence not my dignity for a handout. It is my heritage to think and act for myself, enjoy the benefit of my creations, and to face the world boldly and say, this I have done.

All this is what it means to be an American.

Basketball
Tuesday night at 7 o'clock the Friona Squaws met the Bovina girls in the Friona Gym for 2 practice games, A & B.

The B girls played the first game, running off and leaving Bovina in the first half, but in the last half it got rather exciting. The final score was Friona 34 and Bovina 33.

Following the B game was the A game. The Friona girls were ahead the entire game. Everybody was really playing ball. The final score of this game was Friona 69 and Bovina 60. This is the first time we have beaten Bovina in 3 years.

Next Tuesday night the girls go to Sudan and play. Please come and back our teams.

FOOTBALL

Thursday night the Junior football team met the Farwell boys on our field. In the first half Farwell was ahead nearly all the time but in the last half our boys started playing like they should and ended up the score with—?

After this game the sixth and seventh graders played Farwell's sixth and seventh graders. This score ended with Farwell on top with 7 to 6.

These were Coach Jarbo's last games and I know the boys hate to see him leave. Mr. Jarbo is leaving soon for service in Uncle Sam's Army.

Friday night the Friona Chiefs tangled with the Petersburg Buffaloes. This was both teams fifth game, with Friona's one loss and Petersburg's one win of the season. This was Friona's first conference game so they really wanted to win.

In the first half D. O. Robason, Darrell Robins and Virgil Phipps made touchdowns and Wayne Cribbs, run one extra point. At the end of the first half the score was 19 to 0 in Friona's favor.

In the last half Mr. Cook let nearly all the boys play. Darrell Robins and Wayne Cribbs made touchdowns and Wayne run the extra point. The game ended with Friona 32 and Petersburg 6.

Several Friona people went down to back the boys, let's keepup the good work.

Friona plays Bovina at Bovina this Friday night, let's everyone go to this one and all the rest and back the boys.

Friona F.H.A. Girls

Host to Area Officers

By Jane Phipps

The Friona F. H. A. girls had the privilege of entertaining the F.H.A. officers of Area I with a dinner last Saturday Oct. 4 after an executive council meeting held in the agriculture department. The dinner was served in the homemaking room after the meeting adjourned at 12:15.

The harvest theme was cleverly carried out both on the v shaped tables and bulletin board. The F. H. A. emblem, a rose, and the eight purposes centered around the Friona Chapter's year book were displayed at the back of the room.

Officers from seven towns were represented at the meeting. Gay Ann McFarland, president; Gayle Silcott, vice-president; Jorene Ashburn, corresponding secretary; Helen Ann Norris, treasurer; Shirley Womack, palamentarian; Sharron Moore, reporter; Rexell Smallin, historian; Jan Moungar, sergeant-at-arms; Mary Marcon, song leader; and area supervisor, Miss Ester Sorrensen, area mother, Mrs. J. G. McFarland and Mrs. Lois Sanders, area sponsor.

Hostesses were Jane Phipps, Oneda Coffman, Shirley Fields, Marie White and Cieta Rea Stowers.

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY CLASS:

By Mary Joyce Renner

Want to be a happy class that's right on top

Then here's the recipe the Seniors have got:

COOKIE our President is quite a fixer;

he's the chef that runs the mixer;

Take two cups of SUE for the main part of the dish,

She's got brains and looks;

what more could you wish?

To this dash DARRELL best seasoning by far,

For something to talk about, there's always his car!

Now mix separately H. V. and GEORGE.

two agreeable guys the whole class adores.

Next stir these ingredients together with SHIRLEY FIELDS she's as sweet as the red rose that appeals;

Now mix ONEIDA right after this gal, for who could separate from one's best pal?

Add a lot of ARNOLD who grows in these parts, He once made a speech that went right to our hearts;

Shake in PATSY; there's none here to waste, She's our gal with the Western taste.

Here we heat one can of SHIRLEY C. and WANDA BEATY they're just plain sweet and we don't mean maybe.

Make room for DAVID he plays football,

Someday in pro he'll be best of all.

Now stir in CALVIN and FLOYD but not for riot,

We turn to them for peace and quiet.

Let's start our dessert with KATHERINE BRAND, she's the gal with the artistic hand.

Measure two cups of WAYNE and ROY for two comedians they'd furnish the joy.

Add one of BEN and D. O. each.

They're our pick for life-guards on a beach.

Add as many of M. C. and IRA as you can, both of them would make a handsome man.

Work together with IMOGENE she's our treasurer,

to her, work is a pleasurer;

You can't get too much of ETHEL and LANORA, they're not very loud, and girls like these make us proud.

Next add LAVONA and PEARL two fairly blooming lass they're macoing right along wito all the class.

For a rich topping SUE N. is ou gal

To anyone, anywhere, she'd make a pal.

Now mix me in or leave me out, just suit yourself, I'm MARY JOYCE a Senior of '33 still on the Pantry shelf.

The North Plains Gin Company was organized in 1951 for the purpose of serving Farmer County cotton growers and particularly the area in the Friona-Hub-Lazbuddie-Bovina vicinity where no cotton gin was located.

Everything possible was done to provide an adequate and modern gin for ease and efficiency in handling the greatly expanding local cotton crop, and this preparation paid off for the customers who used the facilities of this gin in the 1951 season and have returned in 1952.

We erected one of the finest gin plants in the panhandle - a modern Hardwick-Etter 4-Stand Gin that we believe most suitable for this locality. Complete Cleaning and Drying equipment was installed.

So, this year as last, we were ready to go when the first bale was brought in, and our service will be maintained throughout the years at the highest level that we know.

Your trade, confidence, and patronage is invited - it is a pleasure working with you in the agricultural development of this area and in the physical progress and growth of our community - a community in which we believe an area with a future.

UNCLE JOHN WHITE TELLS OF VISIT OF ED NEW

One afternoon during the past week, as I was ambling along the street on my way home, early in the afternoon, so that I should have time for a good long rest before going to work; as I was passing the front door of one of our prosperous business concerns, the door opened gently and a cheerful voice called: "Come in here you old—and I obeyed the call.

It may be that in times past, I have been to ready to obey the call to "come in" when a door was opened, but this was not one of such occasions, for when I was inside the door I was happily surprised to behold the beaming, friendly countenance of one of my dear old friends—Ed New, whom I had not seen for many moons.

Ed is one of that kind of fellows, whom I always enjoy meeting. He never, in any way, by word or mien, creates within one, the feeling that he is built of any better clay than his fellow man. When one has known Ed once, he should always know him, for he is ever the same, regardless of place or circumstance. A man, whom it is always a pleasure to meet.

Ed has been residing in Oklahoma for the past few years, and when our jovial greetings were over, I asked him if his stay in Friona is to be permanent or just temporary. He said he hoped it is to be permanent, and as he stated it, he is "Office Boy" at the office of Buske-Magness, local dealers in livestock, real estate and insurance, where he invites all his Friona friends to call on him at any and all times, suiting their convenience.

Jodok.

We Believe

- that in order to justify its existence, a bank must provide the reasonable credit requirements of its trade territory as well as serve as safe depository for customers' funds;
- that extension of credit to salaried and wage earning individuals, as well as the self-employed businessmen and farmers, on a sound basis is an economically important part of such service;
- that while recognizing the importance of volume in the reduction of loan cost, a bank should endeavor to assist people to get out of debt rather than into debt;
- that a bank must determine whether it will offer its services directly or through others, but that no bank should uphold or assist others when they indulge in unfair or questionable business practices;
- that a bank which extends credit to individuals and firms under these standards of practice will merit the good will and support of the community in which it operates.

HIGH PLAINS POLL

Mark your preference for President and return to the office of this newspaper.

FOR GOV. ADLAI STEVENSON

FOR GEN. DWIGHT EISENHOWER

Voter preference for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower is running four to one over that for Gov. Adlai Stevenson, according to the first roundup report of the High Plains Poll.

Nearly 1,200 votes were tallied for the first report of the poll. The vote for Eisenhower was 943, compared to 243 for Stevenson.

The poll, conducted by weekly and daily newspapers in the Tri-State area, is by means of straw vote ballots printed in the various publications.

And while most polling experts will agree that straw votes are not conclusive, the report of the High Plains tally shows at least this:

Ike backers are more vigorous in their support of the General than are the folks boosting Stevenson.

Twenty-three newspapers participated in the first roundup report. And in only one instance was Governor Stevenson leading in the straw vote.

This was at Shamrock. But the tally there was made earlier last week than at most other polling stations. Editor Arval Montgomery of the Shamrock Texan, indicated the vote might be closer at the next report on October 23.

The High Plains Poll will make two more reporting—on October 23 and again on October 30.

The heaviest balloting was reported at Guymon, Okla., where Raymond Fields, of the Guymon Daily Observer, tallied 179 votes. The split there was 157 for Ike, 22 for Adlai.

Fields report to The Amarillo Daily News, which is co-ordinating the High Plains Poll, was perhaps indicative of the shift of some Democrats in the High Plains to the GOP candidate.

"Texas County registers Democratic by almost three to one, although in the 1950 governor's election, Murray won over Ferguson by less than 400 votes.

A number of the ballots returned to the Herald office had these comments: "and I'm a Democrat, too... here Truman loses a Democratic vote."

Several of the signatures on Ike ballots were by women who said their husbands were voting for Stevenson.

Here are some of the samplings, with figures for Ike being given first:

Lockney Beacon, 65-11; Olton Enterprise, 10-7; Curry County Times (Clovis) 22-9; Texhoma Times, 7-0; Borger Herald, 28-12; Childress Index, 20-4; Tucumcari Daily News, 62-18; Spearman Reporter, 9-4; Groom News, 12-2; Hereford Brand, 73-17; Memphis Democrat, 57-28; Muleshoe Journal, 15-10; Boise City

Euler Previews 1953 Polio Drive; Attended Oklahoma City Meet

The sharp, unexpected increase in polio cases this past Summer has made urgent early organization to insure that the next March of Dimes drive will be the greatest in history, Raymond Euler, County Campaign Director declared today.

Returning from a regional pre-campaign meeting of March of Dimes chairmen, directors and workers held in Oklahoma City, Euler said:

"We heard both good news and bad news at the meeting. A staggering total of around 4,000 new cases a week at summer's end piled up a burdensome total. There are indications 1952 will have over 50,000 cases of polio far exceeding the record breaking year of 1949.

The summary of the situation is reported as follows:

The bad news: Polio is rolling up a much higher total of cases than in 1951. The figures are:

As of September 27 a total of 39,146 cases compared with 20,505 for the same period last year.

Total for the week was 3,538 cases.

The good news: National Foundation headquarters is assisting hundreds and hundreds of chapters that have exhausted their funds. To date this year funds to aid chapters total $5,389,047. Emergencies have been met with 1528 iron lungs, 429 hot pack machines. Nurses sent to critical areas now total 1,066, with many more needed.

The crippling effects of the disease have been greatly reduced due to prompt diagnosis and improved treatment sponsored by the March of Dimes.

The fight against polio at last seems on the road to scientific

Paramount importance of early organization was stressed at the meeting.
