FRIONA PARMER COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1934

Cogitations & Aphorisms of Jodok

I hear various and sundry remarks both favorable, otherwise and neutral, concerning the license imposed upon truck and foot peddlers by the city's recently passed occupation tax ordinance.

Practically all the expressions from local citizens have been highly favorable to the law, although a few say it will have the effect of hindering Friona citizens from securing fruits and vegetables as cheaply as they otherwise would, as they say the trucks sell cheaper than the stores.

One man who has been accustomed to come in and sell from his truck for several months past, and who was heard to say that Friona is the best town on the plains to peddle in, said when paying his tax, that it is just what should have been done years ago, but that the city commission had made the tax too high.

Personally, I am of the opinion that the tax was intended to be protective as well as for revenue, since it will serve to protect local merchants, who pay city taxes and otherwise help the city in meeting its financial obligations, against the itinerant salesman, who drives in, sells out and goes without so much as spending a penny in the city unless for meals and lodging.

Another man, who has been making this city for several years past, who is one of the shrewdest auctioneers that I have ever heard talk, and who handles practically everything from a mouse trap to a complete wardrobe, went around to see the city secretary one day last week. He would like to have a permit, but was out of money, and being a stranger, he would not ask the secretary to accept his check. He finally decided to go to the bank and see if he could cash a check there and would return and pay for his permit.

He did not return so it is to be presumed he did not get his check cashed. He did not commit himself as to whether he thought the tax too high or too low. That is he did not do so in so many words; but I have my guess about it.

Two other men from some other county came in to sell other produce from their truck, and when they found they must contribute to the city's finances, they backed out and departed.

Now, it is my opinion, that the city commission had no intention of tyrannizing or oppressing anyone, but the city needs funds in order to meet its obligations and operating expenses, and if its streets afford a good market place for people who live away from here and who carry our people's money away with them when they leave, they should pay something for the privilege of peddling here. Just good fair logic I call it.

That was a nice story in the Amarillo Daily News one day last week about Dr. and Mrs. A. P. McElroy and the pictures of them were very good. I especially enjoyed it as I have been intimately acquainted with these two saintly elderly people for the past six or seven years, and have been permitted to share in their joys and tribulations and I realize fully how much better off this old world would be if all people were like unto them.

I have just been cogitating that Friona is especially blessed with a number of couples of these splendid and saintly elderly people; three couples of whom have celebrated their "golden wedding" anniversaries here in our midst within the past three months, and I think it is a truly wonderful circumstance that our little city can count so many of them within her citizenry.

Of those who have just celebrated their fiftieth anniversary of wedded or connubial happiness and usefulness, the first were Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Pearson, followed within a few days by that of Dr. and Mrs. McElroy, who were followed on Saturday of last week by Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Weir, who celebrated their anniversary in much the same style as the others had done with an informal dinner from four until six o'clock in the afternoon.

Fifty years of dedded happiness and usefulness? Yea, verily, for if all the kindly and helpful acts and words that have been performed and spoken by these good people were written, hardly would the world hold the books that would contain them. Passing gracefully down the river of life, always radiating the

Further Relief Funds Requested Of State Group

At a meeting called at the Buchanan-Rosson store building Monday night the members of the local appealance board were asked to take some action in an effort to secure the appropriation of added relief funds for the city and county.

There was a large number of citizens present and the subject was carefully discussed, with the result that a petition addressed to the State Relief Administrator, praying that he use his every effort in providing such relief, until the need of such relief is not needed.

This petition was circulated Tuesday for the signatures of our citizens in all classes, whether unemployed or not. A copy of the petition follows:

Honorable Lawrence Westbrook, State Relief Administrator, Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir: We, the undersigned citizens of Friona, Texas, in Parmer County, beg to call your attention to the serious situation of the unemployed in our community.

The timely help of the CWA has been of great service since the 15th of November. The local management has succeeded in making a little go a long way by dividing some 140 men, who signed up for relief work, into two or more shifts, laying them off and putting them on, in order to give all, if possible, a chance.

At present about 47 men are at work, leaving 90 or more unemployed. The allotment for such work seems to be nearly exhausted. Friona is without funds available for such emergency. The city commission has cooperated with the CWA in furnishing equipment for the use of the CWA workmen, which is paid for my the use of delinquent city taxes.

In about three weeks there will be 140 or more men looking for work and none in sight.

We unite in urging your body to secure, if possible, our proper quota of expected relief work money, which, we understand is being requested by our governor, and which will extend this form of relief until the emergency passes.

The present situation would not be so tense if Friona with Parmer County had shared in the drought stricken group of counties. As it is, Friona is two months behind other towns in securing her quota of relief work under the CWA. Our own laws deny the CWA, in other words owing to the limitations of the law being enforced in this CWA plan of relief. Not only the 140 or more mentioned, but dependent farmers and tenant farmers are thus restricted from employment outside of the territory where they reside. This is a seeming injustice.

Therefore, because we are faced with a real emergency, and families will suffer, who need the simple necessities, if the bread-winner is out of work, we urge your immediate consideration and instant assistance. In this appeal, not only the unemployed, but all our residents unite in asking further aid, adequate to this situation, such as has been given to other towns and surrounding counties, and until this form of relief is no longer needed.

VISITING IN BOWIE

Misses Lometa Thompson and Daisy Parr have gone to Bowie to visit for a few days with relatives and friends.

Sunshine of cheer, good-will and comfort to all with whom they have come in contact. And so gently and quietly has this been done that it has been unknown by any save themselves and the recipients of their kindly ministrations.

Then there are a number of other couples of dear old souls, one, whom, I am told, has passed the fiftieth milestone of connubial bliss several years ago, in the persons of "Grandpa and Grandma" Smith; and still others who, perhaps have not been thus favored, but have attained a ripe and honored old age, in the persons of "Uncle Jerry" and Mrs. Blackwell, "Uncle Andy" and Mrs. Wentworth, and our good friends Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Ballard, and Henry and Mrs. Warren, and probably others whom I cannot call to mind just now; but all having the right to share in that greatest of all blessings, the knowledge of a long life spent in the good of serving and comforting their fellow men.

Now in my modest opinion that is a wonderful heritage for so small a city as is Friona. And I am just wondering how many of my readers will agree with me. If you do, tell others. If you do not, tell me. If you do not know me, you can send the message by Floyd Reeve, or Jerry Blackwell.

FRIONA WOMAN'S CLUB

The Friona Woman's Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Minnie Goodwine, with Mrs. Fred White as joint hostess, Wednesday afternoon, January 10th.

Mrs. Travis Brown was welcomed as a new member. Special mention of the two following responses is given: Mrs. Floyd Reeve followed a previous response, on the beneficial effect of soft music on the milk flow of cows, with a picture of a Carnation milk cow kneeling in a listening attitude to which she does for hours when the radio is played in the barn.

Mrs. Minnie Goodwine tested the members' familiarity with Bible short stories for the afternoon.

Mrs. Fred White summarized the lives of a few noted short story writers, followed by reviews of short stories by Misses E. B. McLellan, Howard Morris and J. R. Roden. Mrs. Kinsley made us feel we had gone to a party with her clever entertaining stunts and the prize winners, Mesdames Sam Taylor, Bert Shackelford and Minnie Goodwine, lped by sharing their rewards of boxes of chocolates and nuts with all the members. Refreshments added another festive note.

Fan Dance Will Be Given Saturday At Clovis Theater

Some people who have seen the Fan Dance at the Chicago World's Fair pronounced it vulgar, in fact blase New York refused to allow the dance.

Miss Sally Rand, the most famous exponent of the fan dance, says the dance is art and is patterned to resemble the movements of a bird.

Miss Bobby Young, who will perform the sensational World Fair Fan Dance in Clovis says, "I certainly agree with Miss Rand in that the fan dance is art and not vulgarity. A similar form of dance was performed by the ancients."

The World's Fair Fan Dance will be presented in the stage attraction "A Century of Progress Revue" with Don Pablo's Victory Recording "Rhumba" Orchestra at the Lyceum Theatre, Clovis, Saturday matinee and night.

For obvious reasons no one will be allowed to sit in the first four rows of seats nearest the stage.

THE G. A. REPORT

The G. A. met Tuesday evening, January 9th. We had the reading of the minutes and business and Mrs. Magness read the 9th chapter of Mark. Then we had the following program:

"The New Year"—Edith Mae Frost.

"His Lessons of Queenliness"—Mary Shouse.

"Promises of the Kingdom"—Othelia Hart.

Scripture Reading—Louise Suler.

"Happy and Gay in Nazareth"—Edith Mae Frost.

"When the World was Turned Upside Down"—Othelia Hart.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Sunday school, 10:00 a. m.

Public worship, 11:00 a. m.

John White will have charge of the services, as the pastor will preach at the Lakeview school house at that hour.

The program of the services will consist of an address by Professor Eubank on the subject "Dreamers," and Prof. Strain will render a concert solo with Prof. Davis as accompanist.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the evening services at 7:00. All are cordially invited to attend all these services.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Beginning with January 19th, the City Commission will no longer accept the payment of Delinquent City Taxes in Labor, unless the taxpayer shall, at the same time pay his Current City Taxes to CASH.

By Order of City Commission. F. W. REEVE, Mayor.

LAKEVIEW YOUNG PEOPLE'S ENDEAVOR

The meetings are held every Sunday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Last Sunday night the lesson, "Foundations," was discussed with Grace Miller as leader.

New officers were elected as follows: President, Alton Guinn; vice-president, Ruth Melton; Secretary and treasurer, Elaine Manderscheid; reporter, Helen Maagard; janitor, Claude Miller; song leader, J. W. Alexander.

After lessons are discussed and business transacted, the song services is conducted by Mr. Alexander.

CARD OF THANKS

Words are inadequate to express our appreciation and thanks to our good friends and neighbors, who have so faithfully helped us during the sickness and death of our dear father. Especially do we thank the good men who sat up and ministered to his wants during the long hours of the nights. Also we want to thank Dr. R. R. Wills for his services rendered as a doctor and as a friend. May God's richest blessings rest on each and all. We also express our thanks and appreciation for the many beautiful floral offerings, and for each kind word and deed that was said and done during our hours of anxiety and sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Fawcett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hart and children.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hart and family.

Mrs. Grace Hart and family.

BRAND MAN HERE SATURDAY

N. C. Voegle, representative of the Hereford Brand, was a welcome visitor in Friona Saturday afternoon, he having come over to see the large number of people whom he had heard were likely to be in Friona Saturday afternoon, and incidentally to do a little business and gather some news for his paper.

WILL HOLD PUBLIC SALE

The heirs of the L. H. Hart estate a mile and a half north of Friona, have decided to dispose of all the personal property belonging to the estate at a public auction to be held on the farm on Wednesday of next week, January 24th.

It is reported also that neither of the sons of Mr. Hart will occupy the premises, but will be let to other parties. These gentlemen, Leon and Vay Hart, who have been cultivating the farm for the past several years, have not made known their intentions for the future. Their sale ad appears in another column of this issue of the Star. A lot of good property will be offered at this sale.

W. M. S. REPORT

The Adult Circle of the W. M. S. met January 8th with Mrs. Furlong, and eight members answered to roll call.

The program topics were taken from the Missionary Bulletin. The Circle presented Mrs. J. L. Gore with blocks for a "friendship" quilt. These were pieced by members and other friends as a token of love and remembrance, as she leaves us for a new home in East Texas.

It was decided that the Frances Van Pelt Circle should have charge of the joint missionary program to be held at the M. E. Church, Jan. 15. Everyone invited to attend.

The W. M. S. Zone meeting will be held in Hereford January 31st.

BRIDGE SHOWER

Mrs. Carl C. Maurer was hostess to a lovely "bridge shower" for Mrs. Ralph Roden, on the afternoon of January 5th, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Maurer.

Four tables were laid for bridge, and after the games, the bride was very much surprised when three little private, Misses Shirley and June Maurer and Master Dale Treider entered and invited her to follow them for the "treasure chest." She was escorted to another room where, piled high on a table were gifts for Mr. and Mrs. R. Roden from their many friends.

A most delicious salad course was served by Mrs. Maurer, after which the guests departed, extending many good wishes to Mrs. Roden.

L. H. Hart Dies Friday at Home Near Friona

Lyman Henry Hart was born July 29th, 1856, at Ashton, Ogle County, Illinois, and died at his home north of Friona, Texas, on January 12th, 1934, having lived 77 years, 5 months and 14 days.

On September 6th, 1883 he was married to Miss Lucy E. Early, and to this union were born five children, three sons and two daughters, of whom three, two sons and a daughter, Mrs. L. B. Fawcett of Floydada, and Leon and Vay Hart of Friona, are still living.

His beloved wife and faithful companion, passed away on April 17th, 1929, just three days after the death of their eldest son, Charlie who died on April 14, of that year, which fact will be well remembered by their many Friona friends. The other daughter also passed away a few years previous to that date.

Mr. Hart was a native of Illinois, but early in life moved to Kansas, where he remained until 1906, when he moved his family to Floydada, Texas, where he lived until 1929 when he moved to the home where he died, a mile and a half north of Friona.

Thirty-seven years ago Mr. Hart gave his heart to God and united with the Methodist church at Burlington, Kansas, and has lived a consistent and conscientious Christian life ever since. Eight years ago he placed his membership with the Methodist church of Friona.

He was a devoted husband, a loving and indulgent father and a faithful friend and neighbor. To know him was to be his friend.

In addition to those named above, Mr. Hart leaves to mourn his death sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren, one brother, H. M. Hart of Lawndale, California, who is now 85 years old, and one sister, Mrs. Louisa Nettleton of Minnesota, 92 years old and a host of sorrowing neighbors and friends at each place where he has made his home.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, at the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Thurston, following which the remains were laid to rest in the Friona cemetery.

Friona Child Dies After Falling Into Boiling Water Vat

CLOVIS, N. M., Jan. 17.—Five-year old Johnny Jasper, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jasper of Friona, died early tonight from scalding burns suffered when he tumbled into a vat of boiling water about noon today.

Attending physicians reported third degree burns covered three-fourths of the child's body. He was wholly submerged in the boiling water that had been used to scald freshly butchered hogs.

Funeral arrangements were not announced here tonight.

RETURNED TO HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Fawcett, of Floydada, who were here at the bedside of Mrs. Fawcett's father, L. H. Hart, returned to their home at Floydada Monday. They were accompanied by their niece, Miss Othelia Hart, who will visit with them for a few weeks.

Mrs. Fawcett has been at the bedside of her father ever since he was taken ill, making her stay here of about four weeks duration. They will return here again in about two week to attend the sale of the personal property of Mr. Hart.

Euel Sullivan Dies Suddenly Of Heart Failure

Word was received here Wednesday morning of the sudden death of Euel Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sullivan of this city.

This fine young man, who had been in Friona on many occasions and was well and favorably known here, was apparently in perfect health when he was seized by an attack of heart failure. His death occurred at Wichita Falls.

RECENT BRIDE COMPLIMATED

Honoring Mrs. Howard Rawling, who before her recent marriage was Miss Beulah Cummings, a lovely miscellaneous shower was given by the women of the Church of Christ at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings.

The shower was introduced when a large basket was ushered into the room by little Misses Masie and Beverly Watson and Masters Paul Horton and Carl Gene Thompson. The basket was filled with gifts which were opened and displayed.

The guests were served attractive plates containing cake, coffee, and fruit.

Attending were: Mesdames Howard Rawlings, F. N. Welch, J. J. Horton, Arr. Hinds, Lawrence Bracken, J. H. Foster, Earl Watkins, G. B. Hinds, J. L. Lee, Anna Lemons, Clifford Thompson, Jesse Hinds, J. M. Watson and L. D. Cummings; Misses Edna Falwell, Ruth Lee, Estella Welch and Margie Bracken.

Couple Wed By Slaton Pastor

Jack Adair and Miss Opal Wimberly of this city were married on November 12 in Slaton with the Rev. James Rayburn, Presbyterian minister there, officiating, according to an announcement made here Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Adair are to leave the first of the week for Nashville, Tenn., where he is to attend the University. He will also represent the Baldwin Piano company there.

Mr. Adair has his master's degree from Texas Technological college and a bachelor's degree from Trinity University at Waxahachie. He is the son of Rev. Lockett Adair.

Mrs. Adair, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wimberly of Friona, is a graduate of Lubbock Sanitarium Nurses school and is a former student in the West Texas State Teachers college.

The above announcement was taken from the Lubbock paper, and will come as a surprise to very many of the bride's largest circle of friends at and near Friona. As is stated in the clipping, Mrs. Adair is the daughter of our esteemed citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wimberly, and is a talented and accomplished young lady and highly esteemed by all who know her.

The Star joins her many Friona friends in wishing the excellent young couple a long, happy and useful wedded life.

Mr. Jennings, manager for Wick's Modern Hatcheries, was in town Saturday of last week arranging to open the local hatchery for the coming season.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

The United States Building and Loan League forecasts there will be an upturn in real estate values early in 1934, and that when the building wave starts the small one-family home will lead the way.

Improved employment, at better wages, among millions of workers, is opening up a construction field that has been dormant for years. In addition, various plans are now under way to loosen mortgage money, and reduce the burden of carrying charges. Estimates place the American home shortage at around 1,500,000—and the public's desire for better and more modern housing has never been keener.

At the moment, it is still possible to beat the game of rising costs. Material values have risen, but, with the single exception of lumber, advances have not been startling. The quantity of brick and tile which cost $1,000 a year ago would cost about $1,100 now. Structural steel worth $1,000 then, would command $1,060 now. And the amount of cement $1,000 would buy twelve months ago, will cost $1,153.

Consequently, the construction of homes of the rigid type today will cost comparatively little more than it would have in the immediate past. A very genuine opportunity is still open and unless all the indexes are wrong, it won't be open a great while longer. The boom is due, and once it starts, costs must inevitably soar.

LITTLE WHITE CARD

A little white card is now the Nemesis of the crook who attempts to prey upon casualty insurance companies. Though the card is an ordinary index record, it gathers and disseminates sufficient information to provide an effective stumbling block for thieves and dishonest claimants, who, until recently, operated successfully enough to steal millions annually from insurance companies and other corporations.

The little cards come home to roost in a nationwide system of Index Bureaus located at strategic points throughout the United States. Every liability, burglary or property damage claim presented, not only against member insurance companies but also against a variety of other interests such as municipalities, traction and railroad companies, public utilities, etc., is recorded. The name, address, occupation and age of the claimant, his doctor and lawyer, if any, the nature of his claim, and other pertinent facts are given.

In this manner, "claim repeaters," unethical doctors, shyster lawyers and others who make a dishonest business of liability insurance claim work, are brought to light. An example of how this system operates is the case of a woman in a northwestern state who started out in a second-hand automobile on a quick tour of the nation's department stores. The lady's business was not strictly shopping. Instead, in each of the stores, she either tripped over what she said was a torn carpet or fell down stairs. Her claims for damages were quickly paid—until the Index Bureau cards carrying her description and nature of activity caught her en route.

This and similar work carried on by the casualty insurance industry, is naturally in the public interest, for it is the public which pays the bill run up by the claim crooks. In taking a united stand against the depredations of thieves, the companies are saving their policy holders vast sums which are reflected in the premium charges for insurance.

Miss Alice Guyer accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. McElroy motored to Amarillo Tuesday on a shopping tour.

Cecil Waddell of Tennessee, who has been here the past few weeks visiting his father C. S. Waddell, returned to his home last week.

Mr. Ben F. Ridge, Oklahoma, was a visitor here a part of last week. Mr. Ridge is owner of the Friona Gin and was looking after business matters.

MUSEUM GETS COIN PIECES AT HEREFORD

Collection Loaned To Historical Society

Canyon, Jan. 18—A coin collection including pieces dating from Macedonia, 359 B. C. to the United States coins of the present time is the latest addition to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum of this city.

There are 358 pieces in the collection, which is loaned by Elmer Patterson of Hereford.

The Patterson coin collection is displayed in a case which contains nothing else, and each coin can be seen and each is carefully labeled for the benefit of those who are interested in Numismatics. There are coins of copper, nickel, silver, iron and gold.

Children who have read and dreamed of Pirates' gold will find in the collection "Pieces of Eight," Spanish coins of 1799.

Few people know that there were minted in the United States gold coins worth one quarter and one half dollar, but such was the case, for in this collection are such coins of California gold, minted in 1854, shortly after the great gold rush. On the face of these coins there appears an Indian head; the reverse side carries the figure of a bear. A gold $3.00 piece is also of interest.

A note accompanying the collection calls attention to the fact that many early coins, and especially those of the Roman Empire from

A. A. Crow, local manager for Friona Consumer Co., accompanied by Chas. Brownlee and Jack Stanley of Friona attended the funeral of Frank Turner at Amarillo Tuesday. Mr. Turner was manager of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Co. at Amarillo.

On January 11 an automobile driven by V. E. Whitley and J. W. Lacey was struck by Santa Fe Motor car No. 9157 at road crossing one mile west of Friona about 3:20 p. m. The automobile was badly damaged and the occupants, it is stated, badly shaken and bruised. The motor car was in charge of Trainmaster R. W. Prentice and motor car maintainer A. H. Hibbler. It is reported.

The Friona Gin is closing the season with approximately 2400 bales ginned and approximately $115,000 paid for cotton and labor. Manager Waddell is well pleased with the season's work.

41 to 340 A. D. were highly artistic, but this quality was largely lost during the years of the Byzantine Empire, and handsome coins did not reappear until the reign of Queen Elizabeth of England.

People who have felt a shortage of cash in 1933 will be interested in "Jackson's Hard Times Tokens," issued from 1853 to 1842, when the United States was going through a period of terrific depression and suffering.

At least 44 different countries are represented in the collection, including places as far apart as India and Norway, Japan and Brazil, Persia and the Philippine Islands, Rumania and Nova Scotia.

Naturally there are more coins from the United States than from any other country, and it has been observed that most people know very little about the designs on money which they handle every day.

There is one coin from Palestine on which there appears three different languages.

Most coins are not extremely valuable, and such value as they have is determined by the State of preservation and the number of the identical coin in existence. Coins are classified as proof coins, which are especially struck for collectors and are available only during the year of issue; unrecirculated coins, which are just as they come from the mint; fine coins, these that have lost their original luster but show no signs of wear; and good, fair, poor and mutilated coins.

Counterfeiters sometimes attempt to reproduce rare coins, as well as those of recent or current issue.

Besides the Patterson collection, the Panhandle-Plains Museum contains several other coin and paper money collections.

Whooping Cough Becomes Dangerous Disease

Austin, January 15—Whooping cough was formerly regarded as one of the infectious diseases of minor importance. According to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, this is not so. Each year many children die of this disease; in fact it causes more deaths than scarlet fever, measles and smallpox combined.

Whooping cough is a treacherous disease. It resembles the proverbial wolf in sheep's clothing. Illness begins gradually, causing parents to feel that the symptoms are those of an ordinary cold, until the characteristic whoop appears. Unfortunately, the disease is most infectious during the early stages. Children in the first years of life are in the greatest danger of developing pneumonia, the most severe complication.

The chief hope in controlling epi-

B. Y. P. U. REPORT

The B. Y. P. U. meets at seven o'clock each Sunday evening. Due to a scheduled program that the Glee Club was to give at Farwell last Sunday evening, there were only about 34 on time to be counted. Better next Sunday.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

The Friona Consumers Company held its annual business meeting and election at the school auditorium last Saturday afternoon.

A large attendance of stock holders was reported and universal satisfaction expressed as to the business and conditions of the company and all old officers were re-elected for another year.

demies of whooping cough lies in those measures which help to prevent the spread of disease. Children with the disease should remain at home and in isolation for a period of twenty-one days. Children with the disease should be reported to their family physician or local health officer.

Dr. Brown further urged parents to do everything they can to protect their children from whooping cough. Keep them away from playmates who have colds, especially when whooping cough is prevalent. Teach children not to put things in their mouths that have been handled by others and to wash their hands before meals. In spite of all precaution, if your child seems to be catching whooping cough, call your doctor at once. He can do much to relieve the patient's distress if treatment is begun early and will advise about diet, rest, exercise, and fresh air for the patient.

Why You Should . . . Buy and Bank Here

MONEY that is banked and spent here means more prosperity for all of us. It means more employment of local labor—better prices for local farm products—more business for local merchants. Whatever will increase the flow of money here will also increase the welfare and prosperity of people here.

LOTS of local money in this bank means lots of local prosperity. Every dollar that is hidden—is kept out of your local bank—or spent far away—makes all of us here that much the poorer.

No More Customers Wanted!

"Why not place a sign on our door 'No more customers wanted'," suggested the manager of the store smilingly to one of its owners, after he had been warned "to keep down advertising expense."

"Or, we might stand out in front and direct our customers across the street to our competitors, Dow & Dow." An absurd suggestion, wasn't it? But it changed the policy of that establishment from fear into courage. The owners saw the point immediately. It brought forth startlingly the fact that in relaxing advertising efforts they were, in fact actually turning customers away.

Think this over: There never has been a time when you have had better values to offer; there never has been a time when you had more compelling news to put into your copy. Customers are beginning now to buy the things they have denied themselves for the past year: necessities, luxuries, everything that has worn out or depreciated during the year 1933. Buying habits of long standing will be changed during this period; Patronage will be diverted to new channels. The alert, the courageous see the opportunity and will take advantage of it.

Advertising is the greatest single influence in keeping old customers and making new ones. Its power never has been greater than at the present moment.

In Friona, advertisers have a medium which at a reasonable rate will carry your message to practically all your present customers and to practically anyone else you might hope to attract as a customer. The FRIONA STAR is that medium. Remember, it is easier to strengthen your position than to regain lost ground. Place your dependence in Star advertising and you will immediately strengthen your position.

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

FOR JANUARY 21

General Topic:—Jesus Begins His Ministry.

Scripture Lesson:—Matt. 4:12-25

12. Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee;

13. And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

16. The people that sat in darkness saw a great light, and to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, to them did light spring up.

17. From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18. And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.

And they straightway left the nets and followed him.

21. And going on from thence he saw two other brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22. And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23. And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.

24. And the report of him went forth into all Syria; and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, possessed with demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them.

25. And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from beyond the Jordan.

Time:—April, May, A. D. 28, the second year of Christ's ministry.

Place: Capernaum, Sea of Galilee, Galilee.

Parallel Passages.—Mark 1:14-20; Luke 4:14-31; 5:1-11.

Introduction

"After our Lord's temptation followed an entire year of ministry spent chiefly in Judaea.—A. D. 27, and recorded only in John's Gospel, the Gospel which is chiefly occupied with what the other Gospels omit, but yet is closely connected with them throughout. The chief events described by John (1:15-5:47) are the calling of the first disciples—the working of the first miracle—turning water into wine at the marriage feast of Canan in Galilee, the first cleansing of the temple, the first recorded discourse—the conversation with Nicodemus, the summer and autumn spent in evangelistic work in Judaea, the talk of the Samaritan women at Jacob's well, the healing of the nobleman's son in Capernaum, and the healing of the cripple at the pool of Bethesda in Jerusalem. Then Jesus left Judaea for his great ministry in Galilee."

And Jesus Left Nazareth. v. 13.

"And leaving Nazareth." We learn from Luke 4:16-20 why our Lord left his home town. He had returned there, after an evangelistic tour of Galilee, a famous man, renowned for his wonderful teaching and for the miracles that he had worked. On the Sabbath he preached in the synagogue, and all "wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth." They were eager to witness a miracle, but he refused, since he never worked miracles merely for display. Thereupon their admiration turned instantly to rage. They seized him and bore him to a lofty bluff near the town from which they were ready to hurl him headlong; but he passed through the mob, those angry men falling back before him, and so he left Nazareth with a sad heart.

He "Dwelt in Capernaum." v. 13.

Capernaum is not mentioned in Scripture outside the Gospels, but is the most important town associated with Jesus' ministry. Its location has been disputed, but is now usually identified with the present Tel Hum (Tel, "ruin"), on the north shore of the Lake of Galilee, a couple of miles west of the mouth of the Jordan. On this site the ruins of an ancient synagogue may have been the one referred to (Mark 1:21).

The usual supposition is that Joseph had died and the Nazareth home broken up. We think of other reasons why Jesus no longer regarded Nazareth as his home (Matt. 13:54; Luke 4:21). It has been thought that in Capernaum he lived in Simon Peter's home. Jesus, like Paul, sensed the opportunity of the big town for his gospel. It must be preached where the crowds congregate.

The Land Where Jesus Preached

"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali." v. 15. Centuries before the Messiah came it had been predicted by Isaiah that his ministry should be located "in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali."

Isaiah 9:1, 2, and the particular spot should be on the road by the lake, for the way of the sea was a great through-trade route. It was to include the country beyond Jordan as well as that west of the river and the sea, for Jesus was to do some of his greatest work in Decapolis and Peraea.

The Sea of Galilee. v. 18

"And walking by the Sea of Galilee." The Sea of Galilee (called also the Sea of Chinnereth, the Lake of Gennesaret, and the Sea of Tiberias) is the largest body of water in the Holy Land, except the Dead Sea. It is twelve and three-quarter miles long and seven and one-half miles broad. It is a fresh-water lake fed by the Jordan. Its surface is 682.5 feet below the level of the Mediterranean, and it is surrounded by ranges of hills one thousand feet high, and more, on the east and the southwest, and so its climate is semi-tropical. Its waters swarm with fishes, moving in closely packed shoals. Much of Christ's ministry was associated with this sea.

Two Brothers, Peter and Andrew

He saw two brethren. Among the twelve disciples were two and possibly three sets of brothers. "Simon who is called Peter." Simon was a very common name in Palestine. It means "hearing," and the Hebrew form is Simeon. "Peter" was added to his name when Christ, a year before this called him to discipleship (John 1:42). "Cephas" is the Aramaic form, "Peter" being Greek and Latin, and both meaning "rock," a name given him in prophetic anticipation of the rock-like character which the disciple would attain, confessions such as his forming the rock-foundation of the church. He was probably the oldest of the little band. "And Andrew his brother." Andrew (which is a Greek name meaning "manly") was a quiet, modest man, associated in the Gospels with the discovery of others and bringing them to Jesus. It was he who in the first place brought Peter to Jesus (John 1:40, 41).

James, The Son of Zebedee, and John His Brother. v. 21

"He saw two other brethren, James the son of Zebedee." He became the first martyr among the Twelve. "And John his brother." This was the John who became "the disciple whom Jesus loved," the writer of the fourth Gospel, three Epistles, and the Revelation. He was probably the youngest of the disciples, and far outlived them all, dying at the age of about one hundred. "In the boat with Zebedee their father." We are told nothing about Zebedee except that his wife was Salome. Comparing Matt. 27:56 with Mark 15:40; 16:1, and John 19:25, it would seem that Salome was a sister of Mary the mother of Jesus, and that therefore our Lord was a cousin of James and John. "And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him." They did not leave their father alone to do the work, for he had hired servants with him (Mark 1:20), being a man of some substance. John, as we learn later, was able to take Mary to his own house in Jerusalem, and he was acquainted in the family of the high priest.

Multitudes Follow Jesus. v. 25.

"And there followed him great multitudes." Not the plural; not just one crowd, but crowds and crowds. No political campaign was equal to this outpouring of the people to hear Jesus and to be healed by him. Prof. A. T. Robertson. "From Galilee and Decapolis." Decapolis was the region east of the Sea of Galilee. The name means "the Ten Cities," because the region contained ten prominent towns. "And Jerusalem and Judaea." From the farthest south of Palestine they brought their sick up to Galilee. "And from beyond the Jordan." That is, from the region to the east of the Jordan and the Dead Sea. Peraea, a country joined with Galilee to the east of the Jordan and the Dead Sea, Peraea, a country joined with Galilee in the tetrarchy of Herod Antipas. From all parts of Palestine, and from beyond Palestine to the north, the sick were carried to the great merciful Healer. His miracles were great bells summoning men to the gospel which he preached, and so also are all the deeds of loving kindness which his Spirit enables his followers today to perform.

LAST SATURDAY AUCTION SALE

One of the largest crowds of people that has ever been present in Friona at one time, barring the county fairs or rodeos, was to be seen here last Saturday afternoon, the date of the first regular "community auction sale."

There is always a large number of people here on Saturday afternoons when the weather is fair and mild, but the crowd here last Saturday was beyond that of the fondest expectations and the only unusual part of the program was the community sale, which was conducted by Col. Ray Barber.

The people responded by bringing in a large number and variety of articles to offer at the sale, and then proceeded to respond further by lively bidding on each article offered. The articles offered for sale covered a wide range in variety, with household goods, farm machinery and live stock in the lead. Several head of horses, mules, cows and hogs were disposed of at fair prices and Col. Barber and those offering the goods, were well pleased with the results of the enterprise.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Following Sunday school, Brother Thurston began his sermon by reading the scriptures from the 11th chapter of Corinthians, using "I have delivered unto you."

To close his sermon he changed his text to "This is my body that is broken for you," and gave an invitation to those who wished, to partake of the Sacrament.

Epworth League started at 7:00 o'clock with Juanita Crow substituting as leader. The topic for discussion was "Estimated Values of Work." These gave interesting talks: Rev. Thurston, Maurine Furlong, and Daisy Dee Parr. The subject for next Sunday night will be: "Present Day Values in my Work." We invite you all to come and help make this an interesting program.

Putman Gives 1934 Political Calendar

For those interested in politics, Congressman Wright Putman has compiled the last of events which must take place in Texas in the process of nominating and electing public officials.

Beginning with the final day for payment of poll taxes and going right through the Democratic party's final report on September 4, of campaign expenditures, the list is presented herewith. Clip it out and save it. The information will be invaluable to voters.

January 31—Last day to pay poll tax.

February 12—Election judges appointed by commissioners' court.

April 1—On or before this date tax collectors furnish county election boards with list of poll tax payers and exemptions.

June 4—On or before this date, candidates for party nominations for state and district offices shall file applications for place on primary ballot.

June 16—On or before this date candidates for party nominations for offices to be filled by voters of a single county or portion thereof and candidates for county chairman shall file legal applications with the county chairman for places on ballot.

June 18—County executive committee meet at county seat to determine by lot the order of names on primary ballots, estimate the cost of printing ballots and other expenses incident to holding election, and apportion cost among candidates (except candidates for state office); name a sub-committee of five members to make up ballot; decide whether the nomination of county officers shall be by majority or plurality votes. If committee fails to decide, then the nomination shall be plurality of votes cast. (Run-off for state or district officers is mandatory if no candidate receives a majority in first primary.)

June 25. On or before this date candidates must pay ballot fees.

June 28—First day to file first statement of campaign expenses.

July 3—Last day to file first statement of campaign expenses.

July 5—First day for qualified voters, who are away from county of their residence, to make application for absentee ballot.

July 9—Subcommittee appointed June 18 shall meet and make up official ballot for primary.

July 14—First day to file second statement for campaign expenses.

July 18—Last day for qualified voters who are away from county of residence to make request for official ballot.

July 18—First day any qualified voter within county expecting to be absent election day may appear before county clerk and vote an absentee ballot.

July 20—Last day to file second statement of campaign expenses.

July 23—On or before this date tax collector shall deliver to the chairman of the county executive committee list of qualified voters in each precinct in county, arranged alphabetically and by precincts.

July 24—Last day for one within county expecting to be absent election day to vote absentee ballot.

July 28—Primary election day, also precinct convention day. Election upon from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m., except in counties over 150,000 it is open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

July 28—Third and final statement of campaign expenses in first primary must be filed. Last day allowed, August 7.

August 1—Presiding judges of election will make returns of first primary on or before this date to county chairman.

August 1—Not more than 30 days nor less than 25 days before second primary, first statement of campaign expenses must be filed. This is the last day for that statement.

August 5—Qualified voters outside county of residence expecting to be absent on election day shall arrange to vote absentee ballot in the same manner as required in first primary under date July 8.

August 7—Final statement of campaign expenses in the first primary election must be filed on or before this date.

August 15—First day for absentee balloting by those within county of resident but expecting to be away on day of election.

August 15—Last day for those outside county of residence to make requests for absentee ballot.

August 21—Last day to vote absentee ballot by those within county of residence, but expecting to be absent election day.

August 25—Second primary election day (run-off), also district convention day.

August 29—On or before this date presiding judges shall make returns to county chairman.

September 1—County executive committee meet and canvass returns of second primary election.

September 4—On or before this date final report of campaign expenses must be filed. State convention day to announce platforms of principles and nominations.

J. J. Horton was in Amarillo Tuesday and Wednesday purchasing furniture to add to his stock.

Steps to Nowhere!

Authorities estimate that the average housewife, in preparing three meals a day, takes 578,434 unnecessary steps every year. Just think of it! . . . over half a million steps that lead to nowhere! Is it any wonder that some women are always "worn out" at the end of the day? . . . that, try as they will, they are never able to find time for the things they'd like to do?

The biggest step you can take to save steps is to install a Modern Gas Range in your kitchen. You'll be literally amazed at the difference it will make . . . in steps . . . in time . . . in actual money savings. If you're the least bit inclined to doubt, call on your gas appliance dealer today, and see the new 1934 Gas Ranges. You'll need no further proof.

BEEF CANNING AT FARMS

OVER PARMER COUNTY

Meat killing, cutting, curing and canning demonstrations will be given during the next 3 weeks. These demonstrations will be held in the following locations.

January 22 and 23 at the home of Roy Daniels, six miles east and two miles south of the Syndicate Hotel.

On January 24 and 25 at the home of L. F. Lillard, six miles north and two miles west of Friona.

On January 29 and 30 at the home of A. H. Boatman two and one half miles south of Hub. On January 31 and February 1 a demonstration will be arranged in the south part of the county in Jesko or Plainview community. One other demonstration may be arranged in Black for the first week of February.

Other demonstrations have already been given in Rhea at the home of Charles Schlenker, in Bovina at the Lane at the home of George T. Watkins.

Locations for these have been made so that any man or woman in the country who wishes to learn how to kill, cure and can meat the improved A. and M. way may attend one of these demonstrations. These are the only meat demonstrations that can be arranged this winter.

On the first day of these meetings the men will begin work at 9:30 in the morning. They will kill two hogs and several 250 pound hogs under the direction of Alex Bateman, farm demonstration agent. On the second day both men and women will begin work at 9:30 in the morning. The men will cut the meat for canning and curing and the women, working under the direction of Rozelle McKenney, home demonstration agent will can a variety of choice meat products.

Everyone is invited to come to these demonstrations, bring your large knives and saw. We will put them in good condition.

ROZELLE MCKENNEY.

CIRCLES HAVE JOINT MEETING

At two o'clock Monday afternoon, the W. M. S. and the Frances Van Pelt Circle met at the Methodist church for their monthly joint program, which is taken from the "The World Outlook."

Mrs. George Miller had charge of the program. Those taking part were Mesdames. Furlong, Miller, Williams and Rayböh. Echoh. They discussed the subject, "Making Sacrifices." Following the discussion, Mrs. M. Lacy and Mrs. Ed White sang a duet, which concluded a very interesting program.

The circles wish to extend an invitation to those who would like to join, to meet with them next Monday. The W. M. S. will meet with Mrs. A. A. Crow at 2:00 o'clock. The Frances Van Pelt Circle will meet with Mrs. George Miller at 2:30 o'clock. We invite you to be with us.

R. F. Fleet made a short visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Fleet, of Tecumseh, Oklahoma, last week.
