Heat Wave Continues

Farm operations are in full swing this week with irrigation taking precedence in the minds of most farmers. Feed may twist and curl into scorched yellow leaves elsewhere, but in Parmer County, it remains green due to the water flowing from the wells into the fields. Temperatures in Texas reached a peak of 114 degrees in some cities this week. The parched countryside is offered no hope other than a few isolated thunder showers. Hot and dry days are forecast for the remainder of the week. Scattered showers were received in the extreme north and east of the county with neighboring Deaf Smith County reporting one inch of rain at Hereford, Tuesday night.

Parmer Voting Heavy; 500 Registered at Friona Box

Friona and Parmer County voters turned out in the "off-year" election Saturday to poll even more votes than were cast last election. Five hundred voters were registered in the Friona box alone, this being even more remarkable with only one contested county-wide race, that of County and District Clerk. Voting here and over the county followed the trend of state-wide returns, though giving a heavier return to Governor Shivers than most counties.

Comparing local voting interest with last election, it is noted that highest number of votes tallied for any one candidate in 1952 was the 1371 for uncontested post of county clerk. Brewer receiving 1371 at that time. This year in the uncontested sheriff race, Lovelace piled up 1375 votes as the heaviest of any race.

Vote for Shivers in Parmer County this year topped that of last election, 1097 to 965, an increase of 132. Yarborough total this year was 474 against 250 of last Democratic primary.

Friona, Hub, Parmer EAS Service Due, 1st

Extended Area Service between local Friona phone subscribers and the rural connections on the West Texas Cooperative lines finally has reached the announcement stage with tie-in scheduled for August 1. This service, enabling communication from town to country and vice versa (for the Hub and Parmer exchanges) comes after over two years of negotiations between the Co-op and the General Telephone Company of the Southwest, formerly General Associated.

Calls from Friona to Hub will be made by dialing "8" followed by the Hub telephone number desired. Calls from Friona to Parmer will be made by dialing "7" followed by the Parmer telephone number desired.

Hub and Parmer are telephone exchanges of the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative. The Friona telephone exchange is operated by the General Telephone Company.

The present and new monthly rates for Friona are:

Just received a clipping and cartoon from The Louisville, Kentucky Courier-Journal, criticising President Eisenhower for his handling of the TVA question. And some good points were brought out, though we cannot agree wholeheartedly that the president is "giving away" the TVA to favored monopolies. Rather we see it as a lessening of government control, giving industry back to the private operators.

At any rate, we'll hazard a guess that the unsigned clippings came from our good friend and political whet rock, Jake Lamb, who is vacationing in Kentucky. Only thing that might indicate Jake did not send this, however, was a crossword puzzle on the back of the cartoon, and the puzzle had been solved. Now we know Jake never took enough time out from his fishing and politticking to learn the finer points of crossword puzzle solution; if this did originate with the celebrated Frionan, we'll give credit for the puzzle to his long-suffering wife.

Light voting in the wheat marketing quota elections held last Friday in Parmer County gave nod to the quotas, carrying by small percent.

A good turnout was noted at the Democratic Precinct Convention, Saturday afternoon, with 24 delegates elected to the county convention this Saturday. Attendance at all the party conventions is stressed this year, with important issues at stake, including control of the Texas branch of the party by either conservative or liberal wings of the party.

Considerable absentee balloting and write-in voting was noted this election. Leading the write-ins was Walter Lovelace for Justice of the Peace of the Friona Justice Precinct 2. He received 191 write-ins, with scattering votes going to T. J. Crawford, S. T. Thornton, Erwin Johnson, Jim Roberts, O. C. Jones, Ralph Smith, Will Osborn, Charles Allen, George Treider, Bill Han-noid, F. W. Reeve, Bill Buchanan, John White, Johnny Bengner, George Baker, Elroy Wilson, J. D. Hamlin, Kenyth Cass, V. C. Krueger, Denver Smith and A. W. Anthony, Sr.

Precinct Democratic Committeemen throughout the county were re-elected, with only token votes for any opposition.

Voting in the Democratic Primary in Parmer County is tantamount to election, with the November General Elections so far paralleling this vote.

No run-offs will be voted in the county in the August election, with all candidates winning by clear majority. Henry Ivy, with two opponents for commissioner in Precinct 4, carried with a few votes to spare, receiving 154 to a combined total for his opponents of 124.

Voters of Precinct 3 elected a new commissioner, J. H. McDonald getting 242 votes against 215 for incumbent, E. F. Billingsley. The Friona commissioner, Forrest Osborn, was unopposed.

With the county clerk race wide open, Brewer not placing his candidacy, Hugh Moseley secured the best ever County Clerk's honorarium of $52. Moseley's heavy vote was well scattered throughout the county.

a profit of $105,000,000; this proposed raise would increase the cost of using this service and provide an additional $159,000,000. It was widely felt that this was an undue imposition on that part of the Post Office that is already paying its own way and has for some time. Others opposed the bill because it provided a method by which the Postmaster General could write certain rules and regulations, and if these were not vetoed by the Congress within a specified time, they would become law. This, to me, was one of the worst features of the entire bill. It is actually legislating in reverse. Our founding fathers never intended any such procedure, and because they knew that such a policy could easily result in dictatorial practices by persons and small groups who were not elected by the people and not answerable directly to them.

To the People of the 18th District:

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE POSTAL PAY BILL

Briefly, here is what happened when an attempt was made to force the passage of a cross-breed postal bill that did not have prior committee approval. The history of the legislation this session is that the Post Office Committee had considered several bills, each of which dealt with a separate and distinct subject. One of these bills having to do with postal pay increases was reported out favorably by the committee and sent to the Rules Committee. There were only two ways that the bill could come before the entire House of Representatives for final disposition. One was for the Rules Committee to grant a rule on the bill and send it to the House for consideration. This the Rules Committee did not do, and obviously did not intend to do. The other way to get the bill up for consideration was to obtain the signatures of 218 members of the House on a discharge petition. This is an almost impossible procedure and very few bills have ever been voted out under the discharge petition route. However, since it appeared that the democratic processes were being thwarted, many of the members who very seldom sign discharge petitions came forward, as did I, and signed the petition to bring the bill before the House. When it appeared that there was a possibility of obtaining the 218 signatures, the majority leaders got together and decided to prepare a new bill that tried to do everything for everybody and did nothing for anyone, to by-pass the committees and force the bill down the members' throats, whether they liked it or not. To limit debate to 40 minutes and prohibit any amendment of the bill. In order to do this, it was necessary to suspend all of the rules of the House. To suspend the rules, the consent of two-thirds of the members voting is required. In one of the House Manuals concerning rules, the following statement is made about suspensions, "Suspension of the rules is not a normal legislative procedure. In a sense, it is a trifle unfair, in that it limits debate and does not permit the right of amendment, but there are times when suspension of the rules is vitally necessary to dispart public business, and the Chair must use his discretion when he believes it is in the interest of a large majority of the House." This statement was made by Speaker Nicholas Longworth on February 28, 1931.

THE INDO-CHINA TRUCE

Where Russia will move next is anybody's guess, but move she will. She has gained ground and saved face in the last two attempts. Whether we like it or not, we must admit that the Korean truce released certain men, material, and equipment for the Reds to use in Indo-China. That they did use it to put on the pressure in Indo-China is a foregone conclusion. Now that the pressure is off of her in Indo-China, the question is not whether Russia will move, but where she will move. It is my frank opinion that it will either be in the Near East or Europe. Recent events would indicate that the Near East will likely get the nod.

Congratulations to local voters for the record turnout at the polls Saturday. We believe any candidate must admit that his election or defeat came from a representative majority vote in Parmer County.

Guess we can clean out the windows now of all campaign bills excepting that of the Governor.

PUBLIC DUMP HEAP
(Ochiltree County Herald)

This past week, on a hot afternoon along highway 83 north of Perryton, a couple of employees of the Texas Highway Department trudged along through the dust, picking up beer cans, cardboard boxes, assorted papers and other junk, filling the back of a truck with this debris.

With every step, we are certain, these two men had unkind thoughts about the carelessness of motorists who throw things out of car windows.

Crusades are being conducted in many states to educate travelers not to litter on the roadsides. Laws have been enacted, but enforcement obviously is difficult.

We note with interest that the industries that contribute to the littering up of the countryside have decided to help in a campaign to prevent further dumping along the roadside.

Among the packaging industries combining to keep the country beautiful are food, steel, tobacco, forest products, rubber and petroleum. Also, automobiles, chewing gum, soap, soft drinks, candy and dairy products.

How to change the habits of many millions of persons is a problem of psychology, in law enforcement, and in education of individuals through organized effort.

People who wouldn't dare spit on their floors at home will dump trash in a public park without a second thought. The same people think nothing of dumping trash along a highway. It is these people that this campaign is designed to reach.

We wish the campaign much success.

THE PEOPLE SHRINK!

A famous pre-Soviet Russian historian, writing of the Tsarist era, said: "The state swelled, and the people shrank."

That has been true of every all-powerful state since time began—whether communist, socialist, monarchist, or clerical. In every instance, individual rights are destroyed one by one till none are left, and the individual himself becomes a cipher.

When the state swells the people shrink!

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The annual report of the House Small Business Committee, headed by Rep. William Hill of Colorado, furnishes interesting facts on current economic problems.

This report shows effect of taxes, government procurement policies, and other factors on independent business, but one of the most interesting facts is analysis of working capital of manufacturing corporations according to size determined by assets.

our present antitrust laws... those laws would therefore be considered very detrimental to small business."

Branching antitrust law enforcement inadequate, report also discusses make up of Attorney General committee studying antitrust laws. Of 59 members, 33 are lawyers, 8 are law professors, 8 economic professors and 2 are general corporation counsels.

Small Business Committee notes there has been criticism because many of Attorney General's Committee have appeared as large corporation counsel in antitrust litigations.

But report also fails to state obvious fact about committee.

Although loaded with corporation lawyers and college professors there are no members engaged in business who daily face problems of attempting to compete with monopoly practices.

Therefore many feel report will be as valid as could be expected from a group of boys reporting on truant officers.

This same tactic, appointing a heavily loaded committee was tried with Randall Commission on U. S. tariff laws. As expected, report opposed protection against cheap foreign products. On basis of report, Congress was asked to further abolish tariff laws.

But Congress didn't believe Randall committee findings.

And when this special committee reports, Congress may ask Justice Department why so much pre-occupation with weakening antitrust laws rather than more occupation with all out attempts to enforce these laws, neglected for 20 years. Economic findings by both Senate and House Small Business Committees show little time left if free American independent enterprise is to survive.

C.W. Harder

A comparison is made between first 1951 quarter and 1953 third quarter. Total corporation working capital in 1951 was $51 billion, with almost half of total controlled by few corporations with assets of $100 million or more.

Yet by 1953's third quarter manufacturing corporations with assets under $250 thousand lost $40 million in working capital, and those in next bracket, $250 thousand to $1 million in assets lost $43 million in working capital. But few $100 million or over corporations in 15 months increased working capital almost 25% or $5 1/2 billion. The Committee report places major share of blame for this inequity toward independent business on the present tax laws.

It is then interesting to note Committee comments on Attorney General's Committee to Study Antitrust Laws expected to issue report this year.

The report states, "The Committee desire to reemphasize the importance to small business of any proposed changes in the antitrust field which would have a tendency to weaken or eliminate..."

Narcia Finney - Steve Messenger Nuptial Vows Spoken Sunday

Marriage vows were exchanged last Sunday afternoon for Miss Narcia Evelyn Finney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Finney, 1506 Portland, Plainview, and Steve Messenger of Friona, in the chapel of First Baptist Church, Plainview. The Rev. W. Neil Record, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before a bank of greenery, seven branched candelabras holding lighted blue tapers, and large baskets of white gladioli and mums tied with blue bows.

Miss Jeannine Greene, organist of Plainview, played the traditional wedding marches, nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Billie McCann of Alamogordo, N. M., as she sang "Through the Years." Miss Lorene Gunter of Plainview gave a reading, "Why I Love You," preceding the ceremony. As a benediction, the bride sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

Bride Chooses Blue
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an ice blue satin and nylon tulle dress of waltz length. Around the wide V neckline was applied linen lace and seed pearls. Shirred tulle was caught at the short sleeves of satin. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a lace Juliet cap and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, showers of satin streamers and lily of the valley.

Hospital Report

By the Hospital Management

There can be no doubt as to the need of a new hospital when one stops to consider the amount of care given in the last two-year period. There have been in the past 22 months (definite records not established before that time in a form readily assimilated for publication) a total of 1,358 patients in the hospital. This does not take into consideration new born infants. A remarkable thing concerning these figures is the increase of patients which reflects the increased population in general. These past few months, even up to the present summer months which are supposed to be a slow period, have found the personnel hard-pressed to care for so many patients. According to the American Medical Association and the American Hospital Association, there is an average of 2.4 persons per 1,000 population hospitalized while there should be 3.4 beds per 1,000 population available for use at any one time. Remembering that these figures are only average what is to happen when an epidemic or emergency of any sort should prevail? If something out of the ordinary were to occur which required three or four beds we would have to put patients in the hallway.

Dr. Lee Spring has joined our Medical Staff at Parmer County Community Hospital. This will result in people not having to wait so long plus being able to have the added knowledge of another qualified medical doctor. He will do general practice and surgery when Dr. Smith is not available.

Work has progressed on the new Dentist office and it is felt certain he will be able to start practice around August 10. Dr. Shackelford and family have already arrived to make Friona their home.

We are confident that these additions to the Staff are going to add to the medical and dental care deserved by you. Won't you keep in mind the need for a new hospital and help us when you are asked? That is the only factor which is holding Parmer County from having the best in health care—a new building with facilities capable of keeping up with the technical knowledge of its Staff. The funds available to build a new modern Hospital for Parmer County now stands at $18,203.24 cash and $10,152.50 pledge, making the total $28,355.74. This leaves us still $21,644.26 short of our anticipated goal of $50,000.00. It is felt that the amount will be raised with no great amount of trouble if the crops make a good yield this fall. After all in a project this large, the amount lacked is not so much, considering the many persons whose responsibility it is to help and whom it is to benefit.

Did you know that farming ranks as the THIRD most hazardous out of eight major industries? Did you know that falls account for 25% of all farm accidents... machinery accidents add up to 13% and 62 per cent are due to burns, shock and other mishaps! To this add manhour lost — deaths — costly medical bills and more — and you find that SAFETY is a good investment — for the farm, and your future.

The careful farmer is a safe farmer, and the safe farm is a profitable and productive one. Observe National Farm Safety Week by taking a safety inventory. Are your machines in good repair? Gen. Bradley and JDF Services Are Important To Tomorrow's Leaders of Democracy

Through the services of United Defense Fund agencies we, here at home, keep in touch with our young people in uniform, we make them aware that we appreciate and have respect for the job they're doing, and we let them know that, meanwhile, we are doing everything we can to strengthen democracy here.

By providing adequate health and recreation services through our own united efforts, we are helping to avert that feeling on the part of service people that they are cut off, that they are an isolated group. We can make it possible for them to continue, in some measure at least, to enjoy our standards and to take part in the life of the community where they are stationed.

This, in my judgment, is tremendously important. We are engaged in a fight to preserve our way of life. We are defeating our own purpose if we do not help our young people, tomorrow's leaders of our democracy, to keep on from that way of life during those years that are vitally important in their development.

A SINCERE WORD of THANKS

I count it as a very distinct privilege to have been chosen County and District Clerk of Parmer County in the Democratic Primary last Saturday, and I am looking forward eagerly to this opportunity to enter into public service.

It is through this means that I am expressing my profound appreciation to every person who in any manner assisted me in winning this race. Without your wonderful support I would not have made this achievement.

I sincerely hope that I will continue to enjoy your good will, and I pledge you my best efforts toward a sound county government when I take office next January.

Nation's 4-H'ers Seek to Cut Death Toll of Farm Folk on Rural Highways

Look out, young fellers!

CHICAGO—(Special)—"Make Safety Your Number One Crop," the slogan of several million rural boys and girls throughout the nation since its introduction in 1945, continues to be fostered by more than 615,000 4-H Club members. They are taking part in the 1954 National 4-H Safety Program being conducted in 46 states for the tenth consecutive year. Participants receive training in farm accident and fire prevention, which includes checking and removing hazards of every conceivable nature.

These surveys are credited by safety experts as being a valuable contribution to the nationwide campaign to reduce the tragic annual toll of 15,000 lives and 1,225,000 disabling injuries to farm folk.

In conducting their surveys, the 4-H'ers look for such safety hazards as loose or floppy clothing worn about moving farm machinery, cluttered stairways, oily rags, frayed electric cords, broken ladder rungs and sharp tools.

What is becoming an increasingly serious problem is that accidents to farm people caused by motor vehicles now account for nearly one-fourth of all deaths and injuries that occur on rural highways. Also, 700 of the fatal farm accidents reported last year involved wheel tractors. One of the fatal tractor accidents reported involve persons under 20 years of age. One case in ten was a child under 5.

To help correct this problem, the 4-H'ers are giving highway safety demonstrations before farm groups and over local radio stations, as well as putting window displays in town stores and booths at county fairs.

The 1954 National 4-H Safety Program is conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. As incentives for outstanding records in the program, General Motors provides medals of honor which are presented to four county winners, and an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago to the state winner. Eight of the latter will be selected as national winners, each receiving a $300 college scholarship.

It's the Hit that's writing New History

Take a look, if you please, at the car and the styling that are changing historic sales standings.

Take a look at the beauty and the buy called Buick—the car that is forging ahead to new sales heights in the 1954 market.

Take a look at the new best seller that has moved into the "Big Three" of the nation's top sales leaders—into that very exclusive circle that for two decades has held only the so-called "low-price three."

For today, as national sales figures for the first five months reveal, Buick is outselling all other cars in America except two of these "low-price three." And each new month firms Buick's new position.

It takes solid worth to bring this about—a lot more automobile per dollar in Buick than in other cars.

But it also takes the glamorous new tomorrow styling that is Buick today. It takes the highest V8 horse-powers, Series for Series, in all Buick history. It takes the room and comfort and ride and handling that are Buick's proud tradition.

And it takes a range of cars to satisfy a wide range of people—with prices that most people can well afford. So you find the low-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER—the four big reasons for Buick's tremendous sales success.

Come in for a demonstration and you'll see what we mean.

With the years-away styling of this glamor car, you'll be way ahead at resale time. And right now you're money ahead with the big trade-in allowance our volume sales can bring you. Drop in this week.

Twenty-two Cubs Camped at Harrington

"Let's go camping," cried the Cub Scouts. So, Scoutmaster Judge Barker, 22 boys and 14 fathers left Saturday, July 17, for Camp Don Harrington for an overnight camping trip.

The evening of their arrival, the group enjoyed a weiner roast. The next morning, J. T. Gee conducted early morning worship services. Breakfast was in the mess hall. Swimming was an added attraction to the entertainment.

Sunday, the mothers brought lunch, consisting of a chicken dinner with all the trimmings. That afternoon the campers returned home.

Honors To The Baby Sitter

Mrs. Charles Holmgren, who is affectionately and devotedly known to many children as their "baby sitter," was guest of honor at a birthday party, Saturday morning, in the O. J. Beene home. Hosts for the party were Jay and Ramey Beene.

The serving table was covered with an array of attractively wrapped gifts which were brought by the kiddies, and was centered with a large angel food cake which had the inscription of "happy birthday Holmgren." The cake was decorated with blue and pink rosebuds and was a gift of Tommy and Cindy Crump.

Refreshments of pink lemonade and cup cakes were served to the guests. Each cup cake was covered with white frosting, and was centered with the letter "H" in pink.

After the gifts were opened by the honoree, the kiddies splashed and played in plastic pools which were filled with water.

Those attending were: Tommy and Cindy Crump; Gib and Greg Beene; Stevan Thornton; Berkeley Smith; Becky Wilson; Celia, Shirley and Delores Phipps; John Bill and David McFarland; Kenny and Chloe Ford; and Sheldon Sanders. Mesdames T. M. Smith, Bonnie Wilson, Bud Crump, Benthel Beene, Betty Phipps, B. E. Sanders, S. T. Thornton, O. J. Beene, the honoree and the hosts.

Commission Given Lt. Tim Magness

Second Lieutenant Tim T. Magness was one of nineteen Air Force ROTC Cadets to receive his commission at March Air Force Base, Friday, July 16. Magness is a recent graduate of Texas Technological College and has completed four years study of air science and the month summer camp at March to fulfill the requirements for commissioning.

Brigadier General C. B. Westover, Commander of the 12th Air Division, presented the cadets their commissions at the final parade and review of the AFROTC encampment.

Magness will be called to active duty and assigned to one of the Air Force primary training bases to begin pilot training within the next few months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Magness of Friona.

During his 28-day tour at March AFB he has become acquainted with the actual operation of a large Strategic Air Command base and familiar with the things he will encounter as a second lieutenant. Each of the cadets made a flight in a C45 and a KC97 with regular Air Force crews as part of their indoctrination at March.

In four years of air science study Magness covered such varied subjects as political geography, principles of navigation, weather, basic flight principles, aerial firepower, aircraft structure and engines, military law and justice, supply, maintenance and organizational structure within the Air Force, in addition to regular courses which led to his degree in music.

Book Review Given At Fellowship Meeting

The first session of a book review, "This is India, Pakistan, and Ceylon," was presented by Elizabeth Cocanougher, Sunday evening at the weekly Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting. The interesting and colorful book tells of ancient history, pictorial settings, odd customs, the comment evoking dress, and the social distinctions in these countries.

All young people, as well as anyone else who might be interested in the study of this book review, are invited to come for the second session Sunday evening at 7:00, in the church basement.

SCD Newsletter

We have reached the time of year when it is very easy to tell what kind of a job of irrigation a farmer is doing. The kind of weather we have been having sure makes it show up.

In nearly every field the crop is suffering to some degree from lack of moisture. In many cases this is caused by not having enough water to irrigate as often as it should be watered. On the other hand a lot of the time the cause is poor use of the water that is available. It sure looks bad to pass a farm and see the crop suffering from lack of moisture and at the same time see tail water running off the farm and running for miles into some lake. That causes a person to wonder what the dryland farmer would be willing to pay for this wasted water if he could use it on his farm.

Tail water is not the only loss of water. Many farms have rows too long. In order to get the water out the lower end of the row, the water has to stay on the upper end longer than necessary. The result is that the upper end is wet deeper than the roots will go. All water that goes deeper than the root zone is wasted.

Many fields have a good crop at the upper and lower end with a poor crop in the middle. The poor crop in the middle is probably due to lack of moisture. More than likely had the water been used properly there would be a uniform crop throughout the field. In other words, enough water is being wasted at the upper end to properly irrigate the middle.

There are many types of systems that can be used to conserve our underground water. A few methods are: proper length of rows, level to prevent loss of rain-water and to get uniform distribution of irrigation water, water when needed and apply amount of water needed. If anyone is interested in the kind of job they are doing irrigating, the Soil Conservation Service, would be glad to go over your irrigation system with you and let you decide. This can be done by digging a few holes to see how deep water is going by determining the amount of water being applied and how much of that water applied is being used.

The last issue of "Soil and Water" has a good article on the irrigation of the high plains. It has some good information and is presented Wednesday. "Soil and Water" is a monthly magazine published by the Texas Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors.

SWIMMING PARTY

The Claude Millers were hosts to a swimming party at their pool Sunday night, July 18.

Those present were Charles Allen, the Bill Sheehans, the Leonard Coffeys and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Parr.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobson Harrington and son spent the week-end at Buffalo Lake, fishing and camping out. They reported a catch of a dozen fish.

Mrs. E. E. Taylor and Helen and Mrs. T. A. Williams left Sunday for a trip to Indiana and Illinois where they will visit friends and relatives.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lewis of Clovis and Mr. and Mrs. Hop Lewis, Jr., of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dean of San Jose, California, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hop Lewis, Sr.
