Williams, Supt. of Gatesville Schools, a member of the Executive Committee of the Central Texas Teachers Association, urges the teachers of Coryell county to be present at the meetings at Waco High gymnasium on Friday night and Saturday morning of February 15 and 16. A helpful meeting is in store for Central Texas Teachers.

State Curriculum Study

The Executive Committee of Coryell county on Curriculum Study met with Supt. Frank L. Williams, as Chairman, in his office on Saturday, February 9, and divided the county into study districts as follows: Turnersville, Mr. Jones and Lemmons in charge; Evant—Mr. Carter in charge; Pearl—Mr. Tharp in charge; Copperas Cove—Mr. Wagle in charge; Flat—Mr. Teague and Humphries in charge; Oglesby—Mr. Boyer in charge; Gatesville—M. Barr Case Jury Returns Verdict, Assesses 45 Years

The case of the State of Texas vs. John Barr, charged with murder, went to the Jury Wednesday night around ten o'clock, Thursday about 1 p. m. they returned with a verdict of guilty assessing his punishment at forty-five years imprisonment.

The State contended that Barr beat John Mayhew to death with a wagon standard in an angry frenzy following an argument over the digging and refilling of a ditch on the Mayhew place. Witnesses for the defendant testified that Mayhew met his death by accident when he fell from his wagon to a ditch.

This was Barr's third trial in the case, the first trial having resulted in hung jury, and the second jury gave him 50 years, but the case was appealed and the higher court ordered a new trial.

Burl Scott Case Thursday

Thursday afternoon was spent selecting a jury from a special venire for the case of the State of Texas vs. Burl Scott, who is alleged to have shot and killed Herman Wheat on the evening of June 23, 1934, near Scott's home, about a mile northwest of Eagle Springs.

Doc Sheppard seems very happy over his newly erected Neon sign on the front of his place of business. One of Gatesville's distinguished visitors this week was Hon. Judge Sam Scott of Waco. Judge Scott made many new acquaintances while here, among them were Miss LaVerne Wilson, who received a nice compliment from the jurist, and Ned Chapman, who the Judge gave a few pointers as he voyages the sea of matrimony. I noticed Miss Gladys Martin with a cute patch on her face and at the time thought she might have had a "falling-out" with one of those large doors at the court house, but was later informed to see the other fellow. The News is in receipt of a cute Valentine Greeting from Mr. and Mrs. Vernon D. Burt, who announce the arrival of a 10 pound daughter, Patsy Ruth. Many thanks. Since joining the Little Theater, Dr. Otis Ray answers to the name of "Chester." Mar Jones, who is very prominent in civic affairs at Carden, has recently accepted the position as Mayor of that community.

Pledge

I will think—talk—write . . . Texas Centennial in 1936! This is to be my celebration. In its achievement I may give free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be.

The following remarks were taken from the speech delivered by Judge Sam Scott of Waco at the Roundtable Banquet Tuesday evening:

GOVERNMENTAL PROBLEM

Gentlemen I hate to present a dark picture for you young men as you are about to enter life as men of tomorrow, but what is the use of a man that is able to foresee the problems confronting us and then not tell people that are reasonable minded about them.

When the colonies formed the United States there was one particular problem that faced the people. The problem of personal freedom. Later after the States were formed into one Union, there was another problem that stood before the people of the United States. The problem of rights of the States. At one time the Union tried to divide over this difference with the slavery problem playing an important role in this issue, however, the people confronted this matter and over-through it in a most serious manner. Costly in property and human life.

Today the United States is facing a governmental problem that is much more serious than either of the two mentioned above. The problem of personal selfishness in our social and economic life. In your city, our state and all over the United States, selfishness has become a common and universal practice. When men are elected to office they prepare a platform to run on. After elected they are so involved in their personal selfishness, they forget the platform.

Less than ten per cent of the people of these United States control the money in circulation today. Many people high in public esteem content the money should be redistributed in some form. A man that some people consider a joke, has stressed his opinion on this matter, Huey P. Long has said this situation has got to be controlled by some system. (I am not a follower of this man.) however, he is being taken seriously by people of the United States, and has been invited to appear before three Legislatures of southern states and discuss the issue of the day, "Redistributing the Wealth."

In a few years, if something isn't done, the majority of men with their families will become hungry, and the United States will enter a period worse than any period since the organization of this country. Not by any means take a million dollars from a man that is worth more than that and hand it out, but by some system redistribute the money. My confidence in my country and the good sense of the people show it will be only a few years until when a business transaction is made, people will think more of humanity than of the green-backs or gold involved.

Farmers and citizens generally of Coryell County are elated over the copious rains of the past week, amounting to 4 to 6 inches in various parts of the county and this section of the state. Spring branches and seaps in the hills have begun to run which indicates that the soil is well saturated with water.

World Comment

By JOE BURNS

As a result of several border clashes in Africa between Abyssinian and Italian colonial troops, Premier Mussolini has mobilized the nation's army forces and apparently is ready for war with the black empire. There has been talk for some time that Italy would attempt to conquer this rich but undeveloped land of uncounted mineral and agricultural resources as a part of the colonial program being pursued by the Fascist regime. You probably recall that in 1896 an Italian army of conquest was completely annihilated by native Abyssinians and Italy was compelled to recognize the independence of the country. The Italian colonies of Eritrea and Italian Somaliland, bordering Abyssinia, are little more than desert wastes and furnish little outlet for Italy's surplus population. The other Italian colonies are just as bad. The several millions of Italians that have to leave their native country each year in order to keep from actually starving pass out of all control of Italy and are lost to the mother country. Mussolini hopes to remedy this by securing suitable lands where these people will settle and become Italian colonial citizens. And, poor Abyssinia has to suffer as a consequence.

CONGRESS seems inclined to make large appropriations for defense and makes no bones about the fact that the defenses will be directly against Japan. Just another step leading toward the war with Japan, which the NEWS editorially pointed out as coming in the issue of Feb. 12. One representative declared that "One thing we have to fear in the event of war with an Oriental country would be seizure of Alaska." And most certainly the United States is not contemplating war with Siam.

Nevertheless the wisdom of the measures providing for air bases in Alaska and Hawaii cannot be denied. In case of war with Japan, the most effective blow could be struck through the air. The American navy would be at a decided disadvantage against the Jap navy because of the great distance it would have to reveal to really reach striking distance.

Russia's Red Army now numbers 940,000 according to Premier V. M. Molotov, speaking before the All-Union Congress of Soviets. In the last two years the Soviet Government has increased the strength of the Red Army from 562,000 men in 1932 to the present total of 940,000. The Red Army is far and away the largest standing army in the world. Last year a total of $2,500,000,000 was spent on the army and fortifications, and the budget for the current year calls for $3,250,000,000. Yet great as were the increases in the outlay, Russian military expenditures were smaller than those of many other States and only 10 per cent of the total budget. Japan's military budget was 45 per cent of the total for 1932 and Poland's 40 per cent. The Japanese Cabinet recently approved the 1935-36 budget which allots 60 per cent of the national revenue for the army and navy during the next year.

The Literary Digest is conducting a Peace Poll among the colleges of America. The first question on the ballot which has been sent to thousands of students in 115 schools of higher learning asks, "Can the U. S. stay out of war?" Yes! say the students by a 2 to 1 majority. Second question is, "Should we fight if the U. S. is invaded?" 83 per cent reply with an emphatic YES. Third, "Should we fight if the U. S. is the invader?" And 82 per cent say NO. Next, should we have the largest navy and air force? 36 per cent "for" and 62 per cent "against." "Should the government control munitions?" 90 per cent say yes. "Should the government institute universal conscription?" 81 per cent for; 18 against. And, the last and perhaps most important question is, "Should the U. S. join the League of Nations?" 50.17 per cent are for entrance into the League and 49.83 per cent against—almost an even tie.

This is a momentous poll being conducted by the worthy periodical. The students of our schools will have to foot the bills for military expenditures and if war were declared today would have to fight. So some idea of what the future generations of America want can be had from this poll. Next week we'll give you the final returns from the poll. Watch for them.

Let's be prepared and if war does break out, not have to spend billions in frantic haste getting prepared.

Coryell City School News

Final examinations were finished last week and the work of the second term is under way. The last four months' period with county meet work, and preparation for state tests, and closing exercises, promises to offer even more work for every one.

There is only one graduate from Coryell this time, while there were seven last year. However, there will probably be three or four students leaving next year to continue courses of study in neighboring high schools.

Sports

The girls and boys have discarded basketball and are spending most of their time playing volley ball. We are practicing for the games to be played at the district meet. We are hoping our efforts will be rewarded then.

Last week we went to White Hall and played some interesting games of volley ball also playground and basketball. We were victorious in playground and volley ball, but both of our teams were defeated in basketball games.

Home Economics

The Home Economics class helped prepare the refreshments for the party given the sixth and seventh grades and the high school students by Mr. Forrest and Mr. Blackshear. Since mid-term we have resumed our luncheon. Our laboratory work has consisted of making salads and pies. All the members of the class are proud of their growing knowledge of cookery.

Grade News

The fifth grade has started county meet spelling; we are hoping to send on excellent team to represent our school.

We enjoyed our study of famous pictures in our English class. Many of us didn't realize that a picture could tell so much.

The third and fourth grades are working hard with the fact in mind that school is half over and we have a lot to learn yet.

We are happy to welcome a new pupil, Ray Braden, to our school. He will study the third grade.

The second grade has started note books in English. Delores Sadler, Juanita Lee, Irene Bates, Edna Kettler, were given prizes for knowing all the words in a "word drill contest"

The first grade is very proud of the new animal readers. The class is trying hard to have perfect lessons every day.

Source for these facts: Table Service and Decoration, by Lillian M. Gunn.

Did you know that table service and etiquette had a very interesting history?

Finger bowls and napkins come down to us from ancient Egypt.

The common table fork originated in Italy about 1600. The use of forks at table was long considered a superfluous luxury.

People began to use China in the 18th century.

Saxon history tells us that a round table denoted a family party, the long table a public dinner.

Thirty nations ratified the Argentine antiwar pact, to the boom of cannon in the Gran Chaco and the heat of machines in the munitions factories. —Altoona Mirror.

THE STORY OF CANCER CONTROL

Written Especially for Women, with Special Emphasis on Preventability and Cure.

PUBLIC UNDERESTIMATES RESULTS CANCER CONTROL

In 1929 only thirteen medical institutions in the United States had adequate physical equipment, trained personnel and procedure for using present day knowledge in the treatment of cancer, as required by the American College of Surgery. Today there are over 200 such institutions, an increase of 1500 per cent, as announced by Doctor J. W. Cox, field representative of the American Society for the control of cancer. As these clinics for cancer treatment increase in scope, their value to the family physician and to the men and women of the United States will also increase. Even now, reports from the older clinics in the group show an 80 per cent cure in early cases of cancer of the breast and reproductive organs.

More and more of these special clinics are being formed in connection with the state university hospitals. These hospitals, in addition to giving general post-graduate information to the medical profession, can now offer a consultation service to physicians and smaller hospitals that are handicapped by the enormous cost of adequate facilities. This service includes group study, diagnosis and outline of treatment, thus giving the patient the benefit of the knowledge of many specialists. As the program is extended, every physician in every state will be able to secure competent group consultation services for very early suspected cases of cancer of the breast and reproductive organs. This is already true in several states.

For people outside of the medical profession are aware that practically all the state medical societies of the south have adopted active five year cancer control programs. These programs include the establishment of additional cancer treatment clinics. They aim to give to the public the latest knowledge regarding the prevention and cure of cancer of the breast and reproductive organs. They seek to reduce needless suffering. They plead for early cooperation from patients at the time when maximum effectiveness can be secured from x-ray, radium and surgery, and then the cost of hospitalization and treatment can be kept at a minimum.

Will these clinics and hospitals be used? Will the physician be consulted when treatment can be most effective? The issue is squarely up to the cancer patient. He must make full use of every available existing agency.

Austin, Feb. 14.—Relief commission accountants last week wrote checks totaling $1,559,750 for distribution as the first installment of the month's allotment of funds to county relief administrations throughout the state.

These funds will be used to pay general relief and drouth relief costs during February, but will not provide for special programs such as rural rehabilitation, student aid, emergency education and transient relief, funds for which are made available in separate checks.

"At this time we are not able to say just what the total allocations to counties for the month will be because the legislature has not decided how the $1,500,000 of state funds originally set aside for this month should be spent and because the national congress has not acted locally on the President's request for money," said Adam R. Johnson, state administrator.

The Texas relief commission will continue to administer relief funds to the unemployable portion of the caseload as it has in the past, Mr. Johnson said. Indications were that unemployables will be cared for in the usual manner until federal authorities notify the state agency that federal funds will not be available for the unemployable portion of the state's caseload.

—If you have something to sell, you have something to advertise!

MORE RELIEF FUNDS WERE GRANTED LAST WEEK

Austin, Feb. 14.—Rural rehabilitation funds totaling $80,000 were granted 13 Texas counties last week, it was announced by Adam R. Johnson, state relief director. These funds were issued to meet outstanding obligations and to enable rehabilitation officials in these counties to carry on the program. Counties participating in the allotment were: Gillespie, Goliad, Mason, Galveston, Archer, Erath, Comanche, Calhoun, Cooke, Harrison, Grayson, Coryell, Frio.

Friendly Bible Class.

One of the most beautiful affairs of the season was a silver tea given by the Friendly Bible Class at the home of Mrs. J. H. Baldrige, Wednesday afternoon.

Tiny hearts, cupids, red tapers and sprays of silver wild roses were used in decorating throughout the house.

A large silver basket of godetias centered the table, laid with a Normandy lace cloth over runners of silver through the center of which red satin ribbon. The chandelier over the table was covered with red chiffon gracefully caught by showers of tiny red hearts and cupids.

A dainty plate of chicken salad and ribbon sandwiches, olives, heart mints and tea were served from the table where Mrs. J. H. Baldrige and Mrs. M. M. Chunn presided.

Mrs. A. Schloeman gave clever chalk drawings of different class members. Miss Pauline Haney read "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," and Misses West and Gamblin played and whistled several selections.

The hostesses for this lovely affair were Mesdames J. H. Baldrige, Dave Culberson, J. R. McClellan, George I. Johnson, T. M. Davidson, R. L. Powell, W. C. Guggolz, C. M. Crawford, and Tom Lutterloh.

Mesdames J. H. Baldrige, Howard Compton, Dave Culberson, Joyce Ryan, and C. E. Alvis, teacher and officers of the class received the guests.

The contributions of the tea are to go for classroom furnishings.

A PERSONAL MESSAGE

Only once in a great, great while is a Theatre Manager so impressed with motion picture's excellence and superiority, that he is tempted to make a simple sincere statement to his patrons and back it up with his personal signature.

This desire never was greater nor more justifiable than it is now—in the case of "ANNE OF GREEN GABLES," for seldom does a better opportunity to underwrite a picture's sweetness present itself.

"ANNE OF GREEN GABLES" is such a picture worthy of my personal endorsement. "Flirtation Walk" and "Broadway Bill" gave you happiness—"ANNE OF GREEN GABLES" will win your acclaim.

AUGUST SCHOENEWOLF

August Schoenewolf was born in Oberkaufungen near Kassel in Germany on Dec. 15, 1889, and passed away on Feb. 11, 1935, at the age of 45 years 1 month and 27 days. When he was still quite young he came with his parents, Martin and Mary Schbenewolf, from Germany to the U. S. and settled here in the vicinity of Gatesville, where he spent the remainder of his life. When a young man he professed his faith in Christ and was baptized by the Rev. R. F. Fehlberg and united with the German Bethel Baptist church of which he was a member until the time of his death.

Mr. Schoenewolf was united in marriage on Oct. 30, 1916, with Miss Anna Bell Thomas. To this union 6 children, five daughters and one son, were born. The youngest of these children is but 4 years old.

The deceased took sick on Friday, January 25, and on Sunday the 27th, his condition became such that he was forced to his bed where for two weeks his suffering was intense—until death claimed its victim.

The family needed August as a father and provider and we cannot understand just why he was called away so soon, but we yield to the will of Him who makes no mistake.

He leaves to mourn his passing: Sister Anne Bell Schoenewolf, nee Thomas, his beloved wife; six children; three brothers; one sister and many other relatives and friends. May God comfort all the sorrowing in His own way.

The vacant place, the empty chair,

We see them, day by day, And, oh, it fills our hearts with care,

Since our loved one went away.

But though the light has left us here

Like the setting of the sun, We'll trust Thee ever, Father dear,

And say, "Thy will be done." Interment was made in the
