Personnel Includes Alphabet As Federal Projects Over Country

Foremost in the alphabetical menu for the hospital, are of course, the doctors, both of them, Dr. Dean B. Jones and Dr. Kermit R. Jones, carrying the added weight of "A. B." and of course M. D. These two letters being added to anyone's name, means they are graduate doctors of first class medical schools, and have at least one year's work as internes in some other first class medical school.

Since the doctor can't spend the full time with the patient, it becomes necessary that some other being play a part in this great work of restoring health, changing the facial contour from a scowl of pain or agony to one of joy and good health. Here, comes the part of the nurse. Of course, every hospital has nurses, graduate nurses and undergraduate nurses. So, with the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Dean B. Jones, nee Rose Foster, R. N., from Baylor University in Dallas, will be Chief Surgical Nurse, having done graduate and private nursing in Dallas since graduation from nursing in 1934. During her last years in Dallas, Mrs. Jones has been surgical nurse in the Medical Arts Hospital in the Medical Arts Building in Dallas.

Nurse Ina Beth Fore, undergraduate nurse, is without any letters of the alphabet, however, she has had nursing experience and training in Provident Heights Hospital in Waco. She will be an assistant nurse, confining her duties to the wards and private rooms.

Mrs. F. A. Garrett, another of the undergraduate nurses, was with Scott and White Sanitarium of Temple during the years of 1930 and 1929, where she was in training for the degree of R. N., which is a three year course in standard hospitals. Mrs. Garrett will assist in the wards and as general nurse.

Dave Smith, colored handy man, claims no degree of any sort unless it is E. O., or elevator operator. He lives in the garage on the premises and has in charge the lawns, flowers and general handy man about the hospital. He is one of the hospital's first employees, starting to work before hardly any of the equipment was moved into the building.

One of the nurses, bearing the title R. N. was employed but due to unforeseen difficulties was not able to report for duty. Immediately other nurses were contacted but so far no one has been employed, but will be by the time the hospital officially opens Saturday, August 22.

Milton Powell Memorial HOSPITAL

Official Opening, Saturday, August 22

EDITORIAL

The opening of the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital marks the fulfillment of a long recognized need for facilities for advanced medical service. In years past this need at intervals has been most forcefully impressed upon the minds of some and in not a few instances it has been doubly impressed by the advent of tragedy. One such instance was no doubt in part responsible for the final attainment of what has for years been a vague longing or dream in the subconscious mind of certain individuals of this community.

When some twenty years ago tragedy suddenly swept into the peaceful home of Mr. and Mrs. John Powell, and carried away a brilliant young man, there remained the feeling that under different conditions such a tremendous loss might have been averted. This inspiration, born of tragedy, has remained alive through the intervening years and, coupled with the energy and resourcefulness of ambition and youth, there has developed an organization carefully prepared and laboriously designed to care for those who are in the clutches of relentless disease.

Such an organization lends to a community an atmosphere of completeness which could never have been attained in its absence. There rapidly develops, and rightly so, a feeling and sense of security that succeeds a feeling in security and fear in the face of approaching new birth, advancing age, or the advent of disease.

Such is the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital to Coryell County and Gatesville!

Following is a list of the newest helps:

The Coolidge X-ray tubes, has become invaluable in the practice of modern medicine.

The high-frequency "fever machine" or Inductotherm, which creates artificial fever and is a potent weapon in combating malignant diseases.

One laboratory discovered the first successful way to isolate adrenalin, maintaining 4000 animals for experimental purposes and for the production of antitoxins.—Turbines and Test Tubes, N. W. Ayer & Sons, Inc.

PEEP HOLE GIVES FULL VIEW OF OPERATING ROOM

Inside the main lobby of the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital at the left as you enter there are some French doors with frosted glass. Just about eye-high there is a sliding glass window with clear glass, through which one may see everything that goes on in the operating room.

With the small room afforded by the operating room in the hospital, which is ample for the use of the doctors and nurses actually performing the operation, there is not enough space for friends or relatives who wish to see the operation actually performed.

Consequently, to be in line with other major hospitals, this peep hole has been provided, which in itself shows the planning and completeness so necessary in the building or organization of a first class institution of this character.

Nothing, so far as the close observer can see, has been left out for the convenience of both patient and for the patient's relatives and friends.

Shepherd dogs of Japan are being taught to wear gas masks as an air defense precaution.

Gatesville and Coryell County's newest advancement, the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital, is a place of beauty and one of practical serviceability. As one enters the front portal he finds himself in a spacious waiting room, comfortably furnished in modernistic manner. On his right he sees the doorway to the office of one of the doctors in charge, which contains the usual necessities of equipment of the doctor's office. In the waiting room there is also located a large desk which serves as the business office for the hospital. The second doorway on his right, leads him to the foot of the stairway which points his way to the patients' rooms on the second floor.

On entering the front door, the visitor also sees on his left a spacious doorway with an authoritative sign above, reading, "No Admittance." Were he allowed to pass that barrier, he would find himself in the heart of the technical working space of the hospital. Many of the gadgets there would be of unknown usage to him, but all of the greatest necessities in the business of safeguarding human life and health. This section he would soon realize comprise the operating room and delivery room space, with sterilization apparatus, surgical supplies and instruments. There before him also would be the first-floor entrance to the elevator, designed for the transportation to the second floor of the lame and halt.

Before the visitor had been long within the confines of the building his nostrils doubtless would be assailed with the tempting odor of food in process of preparation in the spic and span kitchen in the rear of the structure. If he were able to pass by the tempting odor of the delicious food, he would again arrive at the foot of the stairway leading to the second floor. At this point, however, should his gaze chance to wander thru an open doorway on his left, his curiosity would be aroused by the presence, in a most inviting room, of two tiny beds placed in close proximity to two larger beds, and he would realize that he was looking into a well appointed maternity ward.

Now, to ascend those stairways that we have been so long in reaching! As the visitor approaches the top, he sees a neatly uniformed feminine figure writing at a desk located at the head of the stairs. On the bosom of her uniform, he sees the graduate pin of the school of nursing from which she received her training, proudly displayed. In another moment the visitor is asking in which room the friend whom he wishes to visit is placed. If his friend were in condition to receive visitors, he is conducted courteously to the room in question. The visitor is happy to

NO, MY DEARS, "MTY" DON'T MEAN EMPTY ALWAYS

On one of the doors at the new Milton Powell Memorial Hospital, which opens Saturday of this week, officially with "open house," there is one room with this sign on the door: "MTY. WARD."

We wouldn't deceive you one bit. Here's a ward that is calculated not to be "empty" in the least. In fact, more noise will probably issue from this ward than all the others.

This is the ward where future young Coryell Countians will stare blankly or interestingly, out on the "kruel, kruel world," because, my dears, this is none other than the Maternity Ward.

In it there are two large beds for the mothers, in brown color, with the usual spotless bed linens, and immediately at the foot of each bed is a tiny bed of regulation hospital size for the "younger generation," who will probably serenade the remainder of the patients in loud and not uncertain terms. On the walls, to cheer, are lovely little pictures of how every mother thinks her latest edition to the family looks, and of course, who could blame her.

Another good thing about the "Mty. Ward," is that it is next to the kitchen, so the cook can hear the younger's frantic appeals for "eats."

see his friend or relative comfortably resting in a quiet attractive hospital room and finds for himself a comfortable chair in which he can relax and enjoy the fellowship and happy convalescence of his friend.

After a few moments' conversation, the visitor becomes aware of a faint, almost inaudible humming sound. On inquiry, he is informed that that sound issues from the X-ray room which is also placed on the second floor. He learns further that that silent shockproof machine has played an important role in the rapid recovery of his afflicted friend.

At the end of his visit, this individual, whom we have so closely followed, leaves with the realization that he and his family now have the assurance of proper care in case of the onset of accident or sudden severe illness—and he rests well that night.

BETTY POLLINGS COOKS FOR PATIENTS AND PERSONNEL OF NEW HOSPITAL

Betty Pollings, an importation from a hospital in Mineral Wells, is the Grand Commander of the Kitchen at the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital. Spotless white, will be her uniform, same as Dave's.

Her domain includes a well appointed kitchen, including mechanical refrigerators, the usual kitchen utensils, a large supply of the necessary groceries.

The kitchen has tile floors, tile kitchen counter, drain boards, which lead up to the two large "bins" for washing dishes, pots, pans, etc.

BITS AND LITTLE BITS ABOUT EQUIPMENT AT NEW HOSPITAL

In rounding up the equipment of this new hospital, a great many things escape the eye. Those colorful little serving trays and dishes for the patients which are designed not only to appease the most neglected appetite, but also to cheer the patient, with their decorative cheerfulness, not being the usual thick, heavy dishes so commonly found in restaurants, hospitals and other institutions of this nature. They are in rose, blue and lavender.

There are ups and downs to every institution, particularly the hospital business, and more particularly, since there has been installed, (for patients only) an elevator, which will take patients unable to walk, to the wards above, and lower the ones recovering, to the ground floor, and in fact, outside where they may rest and recuperate in the shady lawn adjacent, where there is a fountain, water lilies and a fish pond.

In front of the hospital is the lighted sign, advising that the building is the Milton Powell

Memorial Hospital, lighted indirectly, or with the light hidden among the shrubs.

On the east side there is a driveway for bedridden patients to be brought in, in ambulances or cars and put immediately on the "rolling table," and carried or rolled to the operating room, to the wards or delivery room.

Immediately inside is a water cooler for the thirsty and with the usual care in cleanliness in an institution of this nature, paper cups are provided.

HOSPITAL OPENING IS ALSO CELEBRATION OF FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On August 22, Saturday of this week, the Milton Powell Memorial Hospital will open on Leon street, with "open house" for everyone in Coryell County who wishes to see the hospital.

Coincident with the opening, a wedding anniversary will be celebrated, that of Dr. and Mrs. Kermit R. Jones, who were married in Waco August 22, 1931.

The newly married couple immediately left for Dallas where Dr. Jones was at that time an interne in Baylor University Hospital.

HOUSE FURNISHER

Starting with the Maternity Ward, where the Mater has her troubles, and the Pater dashes so madly in to see the young offspring, its a veritable palace for that little being that is going to brighten the household so cheerily.

Duds are even furnished, down to the last triangular appliance, those necessary items in a baby's wardrobe. In a cedar lined chest stored for winter are baby blankets and other these's and those's which this aspiring youngster is going to need, even though he or she doesn't know what to ask for on advent into this world of ours.

This service by the hospital is calculated to increase the sanitary fetures of the hospital, not that anyone's baby clothes would not be sanitary, but also so there will be no lost clothing, bother about laundry, or confusion in the hurry to welcome and take care of this youngster.

Mama will always be in crying disance, since baby's bed is nearby, either at the foot of the bed or alongside where mother can bathe it in her warm loving glances. Incidentally, Mama's bed is also one of those high-up hospital beds, just like littlebits, with a finish of brown, and a soft mattress that makes one never want to leave.

On the walls are two pictures of babies, one already asleep and one awake, an idea of how all mothers want their children to look. Besides the beds are also chairs, tables and decanters with water and glasses. In fact, everything for both mama and the bits.

Then taking the stair or elevator, if you can make it, there is the Blue Room, on the walls is a neat blue palid paper, bluebonnet pictures on the wall, and for contrast, rose curtains. Naturally, the usual bed, dresser and night tables, decenter and water glasses.

Two Green Rooms are available, carrying out a green motif, soft shades of green paper, green curtains and everything for those who prefer green with their hospitalization, in addition to the regular beds, etc.

Then there's the Rose Room, done in rose from the curtains down, and including paper, shades, pictures, carrying out a rose color scheme just exoctly like many folks do in their own homes, beds and other necessities, as found in the other rooms are also in the Rose Room.

The 'Wainbow Wooms' are three in number, to be used in case you haven't decided on any particular color, and have a variety of colors, so if you don't like one you can look at the others. The rose curtains of the other rooms are still maintained, but other items of furniture and accessories in the rooms, which are four in number, are of variegated colors.

A three-room ward opposite the X-ray room, has the appearance of a sun-porch more than a room, but is entirely enclosed, of course, and has a splendid view of the court, fountain and lawn outside. The same equipment used in the other rooms is found here, and the curtains rose, subdued lights, and other accessories make the ward just as desirable as the private rooms. One angle on the wards is the fact that you can "talk about your operation," and have company at all hours, whereas, in the wards, no doubt there will be visiting hours.

CANNING CHICKEN AT HOME

Every chicken raiser should cull his flock four times each year. In August separate the non-layers, early, slow molters, short season layers, excessively fat layers and generally untrifty hens from the layers and to make room for the pullets coming on.

These culls so obtained can be sold to increase cash income or canned to be consumed later.

To kill the chicken for canning cutting its throat gets a good bleed. Before the bird dies stick the back of its brain with a sharp knife and the feathers will be loosened so that it may be pickel dry. This eliminates scalding.

The steps in cutting and draying for canning are illustrated in the Extension Service bulletin by Zetha D. McInnis, "Preparation of Fowls for Home and Market." They are the following:

1. Cut the skin well below the hock joint and remove the shank.
2. Sever the head by cutting through the joint where the head joins the neck.
3. Make a slit in the neck skin along the back of the neck from the shoulders to where the head was severed. Pull the skin back and cut the neck off.
4. Remove the oil bag.
5. Remove the esophagus, windpipe and crop.
6. Cut the skin between the legs and bend the legs back until the hip joints snap.

7. Slip the knife under the shoulder blades and cut up the wings.

8. Pull the back and breast apart. Remove the entrail, open the gizzard and remove the inside sac. Sever ligaments holding the heart and remove the gall bladder from the liver.

9. The white meat is separated from the dark meat. Left in these pieces the tissues of the meat do not shrink as when cut.

Cut and drawn birds are processed in the pressure cooker at 15 pounds pressure for 18 to 20 minutes, depending on age of the chicken. The meat is then removed from the bones in large attractive pieces and packed into the containers. If No. 2 cans are used, pack 18 ounces of meat to 2 ounce of broth.

Preheating is done by placing the filled containers in the pressure cooker, putting the lid on and leaving the petcock open and heating until the center of the container reaches sealing temperature (185 F.)

After preheating, seal and process No. 2 cans at 15 pounds pressure for 50 minutes.

Rapid and thorough cooling is essential. Glass jars must be air cooled and tin cans cooled in running water or several changes of water.

TRAMMELL - MORROW FIVE GENERATIONS MEET

The Trammell and Morrow families held their third annual reunion at Dooley Park, Ireland, August 7th. A number of relatives were present that had never attended before, while others were absent and we missed them sadly. The central figure in all the group was Grandma Morrow who at 87 years is enjoying fairly good health and possesses remarkably the use of all her faculties.

Those present were: Mrs. S. E. Morrow, Gatesville, R. O. Morrow, Dallas; J. R. Morrow and wife, Rising Star; Judge Morrow, wife and baby, Rising Star; Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Brashear and family, Atwell; Mrs. W. H. Gilbert and daughter, San Angelo; Mrs. Roscoe Trammell and son, Kilgore; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brashear and family, Mrs. C. E. Foster, Atwell; Mr. and Mrs. Brack Scott, of Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Trammell and family, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rogers and family, Meridian; Mr. and Mrs. Eual Watkins and family, Ireland; Mrs. Lona Edwards, and children, Hamilton; Mrs. Jesse Edwards and family, Clifton; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trammell, Ireland; Mr. and Mrs. George Griggs and daughter, Evant; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Trammell, Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Powell and daughter, Mansfield, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Anglease Jones and family, Purnela; Mr. and Mrs. E. Dyer and son, White Hall; Rev. G. C. Brashear, Killeen; Mrs. Nancy Mangrum, Killeen; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brashear, Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Colvin and family, Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Maddy, Cisco; Mr. and Mrs. S. Jones and family, Atwell; Mrs. Cora Williams, Eliga; Mrs. Dora Clem and Troy Clem, Killeen; Mrs. Leon Reese and family, Copperas Cove; Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Brookshire and family, Tama; Mrs. Nancy Lindour, Mr. and Mrs. William Brookshire and family, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wolf and Baby, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Sam Dyer and family, Gatesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dyer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dyer and son, Mrs. Len Kemp, Mrs. Herman Lockhart and Joe Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Kemp and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill and Barbara Anne Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Trammell and two sons, Pidcoke; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Trammell and family, Jonesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Trammell and family, Lampasas; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Littleton, Pidcoke.

Visitors were as follows: Mrs. Annie Rister and son, Miss Waldine White, Ray Dyer, J. F. Colvin, Mr. and Mrs. John Waddill, Carter Edmiston, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Elms, Miss Hattie Collett, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Sallie Edwards, Mrs. Estell Jackson, and children, Mrs. E. P. Jackson and family, Loyd Whalley.

An interesting feature of this gathering was the presence of five generations, an occasion we have anticipated a long time. Their names are as follows:

Mrs. S. E. Morrow, 87, Mrs. G. T. Brashear, 64, Mrs. Emma Gilbert, 46, Mrs. La Rues Trammell, 27, Little Jo Trammell, age five years.

The day was spent in talking, swimming and making pictures. At midday a delicious lunch was spread under the trees in the park and as one little boy expressed it looking hungrily over one end of the table, "and it looks good all the way thru."

After talking the matter over it was decided to change our place of meeting next year to Fautleroy's Crossing, Gatesville. —One Present.

Passengers in the smoking compartment on my train were arguing about why railroad business is picking up.

A factory owner said it was because of this new Free pick-up-and-delivery of less than carload freight. This is door-to-door service with no extra charge added to the freight bill.

A traveling salesman said it was because so many passenger and freight trains now run on faster schedules.

There was a school principal in the group and he said it was because train travel is so much cheaper for passengers. He said passenger fares are at the lowest point in history, with substantial reductions if you buy a round-trip ticket—and no more surcharge for riding in sleeping cars.

One man, a farmer, said he liked something he could depend on, that's why he was traveling by train.

Another man, a newspaper reporter, said people were in favor of railroad travel because it is by far the safest. He quoted a lot of statistics from a book called, "Live and Let Live."

A banker we all know by name said railroad tax payments mean a lot in this state.

We are proud of railroad achievements, appreciate the public's good will and increased patronage, and pledge continued progress.

GOODYEAR CO. TO BROADCAST FORECAST ON THE PRESIDENTIAL POLL

P. W. Litchfield, President of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., announced today that the company has just completed arrangements to broadcast three times a week for nine weeks the results of the Literary Digest's Presidential poll. This will be the first time the Digest's copyrighted figures, which have a record of forecasting elections with unusual accuracy, will be made available regularly over the air under dual sponsorship. Goodyear has arranged with the editors of the Digest to make the returns public on a nation-wide network of NBC stations beginning Wednesday night, September 2, and continuing every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening thereafter until the day before election. The final results will be given on Monday, November 2.

"Goodyear, of course, is not in politics," Mr. Litchfield states. "It occurred to me, however, that owing to the exceptionally intense interest this year in the Presidential campaign, people throughout the country would be even more interested in getting information as to the progress of the poll more frequently than it has been available heretofore. It is the duty, as well as the privilege, of every citizen to vote, and in the light of this year's extraordinary interest, these broadcast result in getting more people than usually vote to do so, I think we shall be doing a practical public service as well as providing an interesting program of commercial value to the Company.

"So far as the results themselves are concerned, the broadcast will be based entirely on the Digest's own tabulations of its returns. John B. Kennedy, noted author and commentator, will announce the results and officiate as editor of the program. Goodyear has obtained the right to broadcast on Wednesday the weekly results compiled by the Digest for its own publication and also to broadcast on Mondays and Fridays additional results as the returns are compiled.

"Neither the Goodyear people nor the National Broadcasting Company will participate in any way in the distribution of ballots by the Literary Digest or in the compilation of the returns. All the mechanics of the poll will be handled exclusively by the Literary Digest in the same manner in which it has conducted polls on presidential elections and other topics of public interest since it first undertook this work in the 1920 campaign.

"The poll will be broadcast over 64 stations of the National Broadcasting Company, together with several additional stations including WLW of Cincinnati and WTAM of Cleveland to insure national coverage. On Wednesday nights, the broadcast will consist of cumulative results from the poll giving nation-wide figures, while on Monday and Friday nights returns from the poll will cover certain important and pivotal sections of the country, states, cities and other subdivisions.

"So that all the stations selected may present the program at a convenient time for listeners, the results will be broadcast three times each night: at 7:15, Eastern Daylight Saving Time, for the East; at 7:45 Eastern Daylight Saving Time for the special broadcast to Cleveland; and at 11:15, Eastern Daylight Saving Time, to the Western States.

"The Literary Digest is now mailing the 10,000,000 ballots to all parts of the country. These ballots are sent to lists of names especially compiled for this purpose. The lists are built up from official lists of registered voters, telephone users, licensed automobile owners, lawyers, physicians, clergymen, dentists, architects, farmers, labor-union members, business men, executives and others.

"Neither Goodyear nor the Literary Digest has any knowledge of the political affiliations or of the financial or social standing of the people on the lists. However, the lists and methods have produced an unusually accurate forecast in previous campaigns.

"In 1932, for example, the Literary Digest figures forecast the Roosevelt-Hoover result with less than one per cent error. In the 1924 contest, the Digest poll indicated the result of the Calvin Coolidge-John W. Davis Robert M. LaFollette race with an error of only 3 electoral votes. Again in 1928, the victory of Herbert Hoover over Alfred E. Smith was forecast with an accuracy of 95.5 per cent in popular vote and 95.7 per cent in electoral vote. Equally accurate results were obtained in polls on prohibition, the New York mayoralty race in 1933, and the California gubernatorial election in 1934."

PREPARING THE SOIL FOR THE FALL GARDEN

Timely hints for fall gardens are given by J. F. Rosborough, Extension Horticulturist. "Fall gardening is a waste of time and effort unless the soil is thoroughly prepared. In turning under a growth of careless weeds and dried up spring vegetation is where most of us go wrong. By cutting the weeds down and throwing them over the garden fence before plowing is begun, you have taken the first step toward a successful garden. The turned under weeds heat and dry out the soil above preventing thorough cultivation. In most barn lots at this time of the year you will find a layer several inches thick of tropped manure that has dried out, losing the acids that burn plants. (This material is largely a mass of vegetable fiber.) After the garden soil has been plowed, spread a coating of this "summer manure" over the surface, then rebreak the ground or disc and harrow until it is well mixed into the soil. This "spongy" material will greatly increase the water holding capacity of the soil and prevent it from packing. When fall rains come, the garden handled in this way will be ready for planting."

FALL GARDEN VEGETABLES

Attractive, nutritious meals are assured as long as the garden is "in." Let's continue to have these garden products by fall planting. Salads and fresh vegetables provide necessary food elements for the family, so consider the following vegetables in planting a variety this fall. Endive may be substituted for lettuce in salads. It is a hardy winter vegetable, withstands light freezes and may be planted from the last of August on.

Onion sets may be planted now. Throughout the winter they will furnish green onions for the table and the crop will be ready for harvest next May. Icicle and China Winter Rose are tasteful varieties.

Carrots will withstand cooler weather than turnips and will be available for use throughout the spring and early summer months. Denvers Half Long is a recommended variety to plant.

Beets also will stand the cold weather. Detroit Dark Reds is a fine variety to plant. When beets are three or four inches high, thin them out and leave three or four inches space between the plants. This will hasten the time required before you will have beets for table use.

Swiss Chard compares favorably with spinach for table use. Cold weather will have little effect upon it. When preparing it for the table, use only the tender leaves rather than the thick stems.

In purchasing seed, it is wise to allow for the poorer germination at this season and get one-fourth more seed than for spring planting.

GETTING FALL POTATOES TO COME UP

First of all, potatoes should have six to eight weeks of "rest" before attempting to plant them. To encourage them to sprout two things can be done: Place in a shady location and cover with damp straw or treat the potatoes with a solution of ethylene chlorhydrin, (1 pint to 4 gallons water). This solution will treat 5 bushels of potatoes. In treating, cut the seed in the usual way eight hours before planting. Dip the pieces into the solution, place them in a barrel or tight box and cover for eight hours. Remove from barrel and plant immediately.

Having decreed that automobile horns shall be sounded only in case of unusual danger, the police of Hamburg, Germany, are investigating every horn-blowing, and if one is found to have been necessary through inattention of a pedestrian, the walker is arrested.

The Ireland Home Demonstration Club will sponsor the appearance of Bob Shelton and his "Sunshine Boys" on the evening of August 26, at the Ireland school building.

This group have radio fame, and frequently broadcast over station WFAA, Dallas. A small admission fee will be charged.

Mrs. G. C. Waldrop of Forks, Washington, is expected soon for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Patterson of the Ross community south of Oglesby.

Nelson W. Gage of Delanson, N.Y., says he has a herd of pure bred red-and-white Holstein cattle because he is "the only man in the United States who was darn fool enough to do it."

Coryell County Farmers Attended Goat Show Johnson City 18-19th

A party of sixteen or more people from Coryell County attended the Texas Angora Goat Show and Sale at Johnson City this week. The Coryell County men bought their share of the goats. Although in every case they did not obtain the animal they were anxious to buy, more than one hundred registered goats will be brought into the county.

The high bidding and most buying was on the heavy shearing, heavy oiled type of goats which in the most part were B-type (flat-lock) goats. All the talk around the pens was for more pounds of mohair per goat. Those attending this sale returned home more appreciative of high quality goats, and realizing that the highest quality goats sell for attractive prices.

The goat men of the southwest part of the state do not hesitate to pay from $100 to $150 for the billies they use, and because of having used these heavy shearing billies for several years it seems rather prevalent for a large number of nannies to shear 10 or 12 pounds of mohair per year.

Buyers attended this sale from many states, from all over Texas, and two men from Russia were in attendance representing the Russian government and were buying goats and Rambouillet sheep to be used in Russia.

Among those attending from Coryell County and in the interest of this county were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Powell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Elms, Cecil Dixon, Fred Rodway and Mr. Potter of Pidecke; Bill Huff and son, Bee House; the Donnelly brothers, who have recently purchased a ranch at Ireland, bought 100 head of goats with which to stock their ranch; Reed Compton of Waco who owns a ranch near Oglesby attended.

COLUMNIST OF WACO VISITS OFFICE; SEES JUDGE AND UNDERTAKER

Fred B. Robinson, editor of the column, "With the Texas Press" in the daily News-Tribune, Waco, was an interested and interesting visitor at the News office Wednesday, and while here asked for Judge Floyd Zeigler and Morton Scott. Mr. Robinson was also interested in Frank E. Sommons, author of the "History of Coryell County" and spoke very highly of Mr. Sommons' work.

Mr. Robinson in his editorial duties is mainly interested in county and small town weeklies and semi weekly newspapers, quoting articles from them and making constructive comments, and when he will, witty whacks at some of the things he observes.

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY CAST ABSENTEE VOTES FOR RUN-OFF PRIMARY

Late reports from the office of County Clerk Chas. P. Mounce indicate a good vote in the run-off election Saturday, there being some 180 votes cast by absentee voters, and mailed out by the County Clerk.

Checking the records, there were something over 200 votes cast by absentees in the first primary, and this is only 20 short of that, showing considerable interest in the "second chance" election.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING IS CALLED FOR TODAY AT 1:30 P. M.

Members of the County School Board will meet at the Courthouse today to take care of unfinished routine matters relative to the schools of the county. Those having problems to be settled are requested to contact the board at this meeting.

Go to the polls Saturday and help nominate the best men for the several offices.

VISITING OFFICIAL WELCOMED

When Gatesville and Coryell County folk converged on Dallas, nearly 1,000 strong, for Coryell County Day at the Texas Centennial Exposition, they were received by officials of the Exposition. W. H. Kittrell Jr., assistant to the general manager, is shown here extending the welcome of the exposition to Mayor C. E. Gandy as they met at the turn stiles of the World's Fair of 1936.

Criminal Cases Consume Court's Consideration Continuance, Certainly

District court continues with "crime, the monster," as the focal point of interest this week the following cases being disposed of since Tuesday of this week.

The State of Texas vs. J. C. Lowrey; failure to stop and render aid after collision; verdict of guilty and assessed two years in penitentiary, but jury recommended suspended sentence.

The State of Texas vs. Clyde Gardner; charged with possession of a forged instrument with intent to pass the same as true, two cases, and both dismissed on motion of the District Attorney, evidence being insufficient.

The State of Texas vs. Hunter Williams; charge theft of cattle; jury waived and tried before court; plea of guilty and given sentence of three years to run concurrently with sentence from McLennan county.

The State of Texas vs. Guy Williams; charge theft of cattle; jury waived and plea of guilty before the court; punishment assessed at two years to run concurrently with other sentences now being served.

The State of Texas vs. W. D. McElroy; charged with removal of mortgaged property from county with intent to defraud; motion to quash indictment heard and sustained.

The State of Texas vs. Frank Kellum; charge theft of cattle; dismissed on motion of District Attorney, evidence insufficient.

The State of Texas vs. Rachael Smith; charged with robbery with firearms, jury waived, plea of guilty before court and punishment assessed at five years to run concurrently with other sentences being served.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO FARMERS

Since the rulings on the eradication of Johnson grass were very late in getting into the field the State Committee has extended the time for making application to September 1st.

Eradication practices are to be carried out in August, September, and October.

Producers who wish to use this practice must make application to the County Committee on special forms obtained in the County Agent's office. The only grasses included are Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, bind weed, and nut grass.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

Grain sorghum and sweet sorghum are soil depleting, if headed in any way.

These grain sorghums and sweet sorghums are soil conserving only when seeded between January 1 and July 31 of this year.

Only sudan grass, alfalfa and cow peas can be harvested and qualify a farmer for the soil conserving payment.

BAPTIST WOMEN PLAN SPECIAL PROGRAM TUESDAY

The ladies of the First Baptist Church have planned a special Program to be given at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the church.

The subject of the meeting is: "A Summer Cruise Through Home Mission Fields," and will be dramatized by the Missions Committee.

LUKER FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Luker and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Weiser and families were hosts to forty-nine members of the family at the A. F. Luker home near Copperas Cove Sunday.

Guests attended Sunday School and services at the local Lutheran Church, then returned to the Luker home where a fine barbecue which had been prepared by Ernest Schneider, was served with other delicious dishes, spread on tables under the shade trees.

After an address of welcome by H. A. Weiser, the A. F. Luker family sang the reunion song, officially dedicated to the occasion; another reunion song was sung by the Martin Luker family of Wichita Falls.

Rev. Henry Luker then led the group in singing grace, after which everyone heartily partook of the food. During the meal speeches were made by brothers and sisters recalling fond memories of by-gone days, and paying tribute to their sainted parents.

Words of sympathy was also expressed concerning a sister, Mrs. A. C. Knippa of Austin, who was unable to be present, due to illness in the family.

A highly honored guest at this reunion was Uncle Fred Fahrenkamp of El Paso, who is a veteran railroad engineer on the T. P. railway and who has seen 50 years of active service.

Various forms of entertainment, such as songs, speeches, jokes and etc., helped to create a spirit of true happiness. Uncle Fred's monkey and the old "Leirkasten" produced merriment and a hearty laugh.

In the evening everyone was again privileged to partake of another tasty meal. After this, some said farewell, while others stayed to enjoy the activities planned for the remaining days; such as horseback riding, swimming, fishing and picnicking.

'Twas a "swell reunion" in an ideal place. A reunion that was happy as well as serious. A reunion that will be remembered for a long time. A reunion that tightened the bonds of brotherly love in a true Christian atmosphere.

Following is a list of those present: M. W. Fahrenkamp, of El Paso; Mrs. K. G. Monz and daughters, Austin; Rev. Henry Luker and family, Augusta, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Luker and family of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Luker and family of Austin; Miss Louise Shoemaker, Lampasas; Miss Louise Lehman, Lampasas; J. E. Lehman, Dallas; A. F. Lehman, Port Arthur; Walter Luker, of Wilson; Miss Gertrude Luker, Temple; Mrs. Marie Lehman, A. F. Luker and family, H. A. Weiser and family, Copperas Cove.

Summer Health Hints

By SHIRLEY W. WYNNE
M.D., Dr. P.H.
Former Health Commissioner
New York, N. Y.

SUMMERTIME is playtime — for adults as well as children. Sunshine and fresh air contribute to making this one of the most enjoyable seasons of the year.

Because of our more frequent exposure to dust and germs, the problem of disease prevention remains an especially important one during the hot weather. Medical authorities today are stressing the vital role of soap in protecting health not only because of its cleansing qualities but because of its germicidal value in addition to washing away dirt which may result in infection, and incidentally washing away many germs at the same time, soap itself possesses valuable anti-septic properties.

The purity of soap is extremely important as regards its germicidal value when used on the skin. The addition of most medicaments to a soap does nothing more than impart an odor—it does not improve its germicidal properties. A pure, mild, white soap is safer and just as effective.

For summer health, then, be clean. Bathe frequently. Use plenty of soap and water. A shower bath morning and evening should be the minimum. Bathe after work or exercise.

Wash your hands thoroughly and frequently. Use plenty of good soap and a hand brush.

Clothing for hot weather should be light and porous and should be changed frequently.

Cleanliness in the home is quite as important as personal cleanliness and this is primarily the responsibility of the housewife. Keep the home clean inside and out.

The great protection against illness the year round, but especially during Summer, is cleanliness—real, thorough cleanliness, that is achieved through the plentiful use of pure soap and water.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

Week of Aug. 16.

1715. On August 22, as a result of St. Denis' visit to the Mexican capital, the Spanish authorities decided to reestablish the Tejas missions and to guard the frontier with a garrison and colony. This was done to keep the Indians from killing the missionaries.

1776. David Crockett was born August 17 in Green County, Tennessee.

1842. The Constituent Congress of Coahuila and Texas enacted a general or national colonization law which was passed

J. Manley Head

Candidate for State Senator

J. Manley Head has run a clean race for State Senator. This indicates the kind of man he is in private life. In spite of last minute attacks by unfair circulars he led his nearest opponent in this district by a plurality of 1362 votes in the first primary. Because of closing hour attacks in the last primary, the voters are warned that another such attack may be expected, however, J. Manley Head will remain clean to the finish and will run on his own merits. He has stated his position squarely and has incurred the wrath of a mighty lobby because of his militant fight against the sales tax and because of his unswerving fight for utility regulation and a fair tax on natural resources.

—Consider again his platform:
HE IS FOR:
Paying Old Age Pension with increased taxes on Oil, Natural Gas, Sulphur and other Natural Resources.
HE IS AGAINST:
Any form of Sales Tax.
A One-House Legislature.
HIS RECORD:
Serving Second Term as Member of the House of Representatives from Erath and Hood Co.
Author of the Chain Store Tax Bill.
Co-Sponsor of the Brazos Project.
Co-Author of stringent regulation bill for the Utilities.

His record of achievement justifies your most careful consideration. His experience, training, and unhesitating stand on major issues indicates his strength of character.
Ask the man who knows him because "the Senate needs a Head."

AMERICAN BOY OFFERS WORLD OF ADVENTURE

During the coming year the American Boy stories will take readers into thundering transport plains, into Annapolis and through the Carribean with the Navy, into the soundless tangles of Georgia's Okfenokee swamp, and even into an imaginary future of space ships, strange machnes and science. All are swift moving, instructive and gripping.

There'll be stories of the true adventures of David Irwin, the young man who, for four years, alone, wandered ocross the arctic barriers by dog team, going months without seein a human being and eating only frozen fish. And there'll be Roscoe Turner's inside story of the famous London-to-Melbourne air race.

There'll be advice on hobbies, sports tips from famous coaches and players, suggestions on money earning and low-cost travel, and articles on dog training, nature's outlines and tomorrow's airplanes.

There'll be stories about the favorite characters of a million boys—Bonehead Tieney, detective; Square Jaw Davis, engineer; Hide-rack, the red-gold collie; Alan Kane, scientist; and Lee, midshipman.

The American Boy costs only $1 a year, or $2 for three years, foreign subscriptions 50 cents a year extra. Send your name, address and remittance to The American Boy, 7430 Second Bld., Detroit, Mich. Service will start with the issue you specify. On newsstands, 10 cents a copy.

TWEEDY MAKES THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT

I wish to state to my friends that in the race for State Senate between W. A. (Son) Shofner of Bell County, and J. Manley Head of Erath County, I am supporting Son Shofner of Bell County, as I have traveled with these two candidates for two months in campaigning I am thoroughly convinced, that Son Shofner is the only candidate that represents the masses of the people, as they both stand against a Sales Tax, and that is not any longer an issue, as Shoffner and Head have both stated in speeches in Bell County that they are opposed to a Sales Tax. Me. Shoffner noes believe in a natural resouce tax to pay the old age penson.

I do not believe Mr. Head is interested in correcting the weak places in the old age pension law.

I am further convinced that many of our old people will be dead with snow on their graves before they receive their pension if it is left to Mr. Head.

If we do not get these taxes from the natural resources and tax the sulphur inerests, the money must come from other sources, if the old age pensions are to be paid.

I wish to correct the statement that was published stating that Head carried four counties in the first primary election when he only carried three.

I am asking my friends to vote for Son Shoffner and elect a State Senator who will represent the masses.

E. A. Tweedy.

FARMERS RECEIVE THEIR SIDY PAYMENTS FOR 1935 COTTON

The amount of . . . 54,040.87 has been received to date by Coryell County farmers as subsidy payments on cotton produced in 1935. This is known by most people as the 12c cotton payment.

In an effort to make it possible for producers to receive 12c per pound for their 7-8-in. staple midling basis 1935 cotton crop, the government offered to pay to each producer who made application for the subsidy payment the difference be-

SOCIETY

No-Host Picnic In Raby Park.

A group of the younger set met at the home of Miss Jane Thomson, 1416 East Leon, where dancing furnished the entertainer, after which a picnic supper was enjoyed in Raby Park.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Thomson were chaperons for the affair.

Mrs. Otha Thomas Honors Daughter on Birthday.

Mrs. Otha Thomas entertained Thursday afternoon with a party in Raby Park, honoring her small daughter, Helen Joyce, who observed her third birthday.

Miscellaneous games furnished the entertainment for the afternoon.

The chief attraction was the birthday cake, iced in white, which held three tiny pink candles.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to approximately forty guests, and vari-colored lollipops were given for favors.

Goodfellowship Club

The Goodfellowship Club held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Thompson. Final arrangements were made for the penny Carnival which is to be held Wednesday night, August 26, at the Carden school house.

Coconut cake and lemonade were served the following club members: Mesdames Willis Jones, J. M. Clemons, Pete Powell, W. A. Melton, George Bamberg, Homer Clemons, Kate Veasey, Bobbie Clemons, Misses Rebeca Clemons, Margaret Melton, Lucille Newson, Mrs. Neil Ward was a guest.

Miss Lindsay Belle Dickie Hostess to Club.

The Wednesday Contract Club was entertained at the home of Miss Lindsay Belle Dickie on North 7th street.

Summer flowers were used as decorations for the party rooms. High awards went to Mrs. Floyd Zeigler and Miss Vernell Myers.

Peppermint, ice cream and Boston chocolate square were served to Misses Ruth Raoy Franks, Grace Richards, Dorothy Culberson, Mary Jane Colgin, Dolly Farmer, Mamie Sue Halbrook, Jacquelyn West, Elaine Cross, Jewel Witcher, Vernell Myers, and Nona Pickard, of Dallas; Mesdames L. K. Thomson Jr., E. W. Jones Jr., Charlea Powell, Fred Mika, Billy Nesbitt, Clark Jenson, Johnnie Washburn, Peyton Morgan, and Floyd Zeigler.

Honors Daughter With Birthday Party.

Mrs. Weldon Gilchrest entertained with a party Tuesday afternoon at her home on North 7th street in honor of her small daughter, Belva Jean, who celebrated her birthday.

Iced punch and cake and watermelon were served for refreshments and bright colored lollipops were given for favors to the following: Betty Joyce Brazzil, Gary Leon Clark, Billy Wayne and Pete Gilchrest, Truett Spence, Joan Voss, Mildred and Louvine Brazzil, John Wayne Brazzil; Mesdames Louie Gilchrest, Adolph Brazzil, Inch Brazzil, Harvey Gilchrest, Hubert Clark, Austin Spence, Carmert Voss, and Jack Bankhead.

Mrs. E. L. Stewart Hostess To Thursday Club.

Mrs. E. L. Stewart entertained members and guests of the Thursday Bridge Club Thursday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Tom Carlton, 1006 East Main.

Bowls of jink roses were arranged throughout the party rooms. Mesdames D. D. McCoy and R. W. Ward were recipients of high and second high score awards, respectively, and a guest prize was given Mrs. J. A. Hallman at the conclusion of games. A salad plate was served to the following members and guests: Mesdames R. L. Saunders, D. D. McCoy, C. E. Gandy, Stewart Williams, J. A. Hallman, A. L. Spivey, Lonnie Wharton, E. C. Stone, B. K. Cooper, Clyde Sherwood of Childress, R. B. Cross, D. R. Boone, C. W. McConnaughey, Ayres Compton of Dallas, R. G. CHURCHES

First Baptist Church

Sunday school begins Sunday at 9:45 a. m.

Baptist Training Union meets Sunday evening at 6:45, with Deacon Cyril Hudson, Mr. Weldon Rogers and Miss Ira Lee Rutherford in charge.

Wednesday night service begins at 8 o'clock with services in charge of the Sunday School Superintendent J. M. Witcher.

Welcome to all of the services of our church.

Clarence A. Morton, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church

We wish to take this opportunity to acknowledge the presence of our friends of the Baptist church, and to express our appreciation of their attendance of our worship during the absence of their pastor.

We do need cheering up at this time. It is always hard to say "Good-bye." The Presbyterian congregation has had to say just this to two of our most faithful families, the R. B. Currys and the C. R. Byroms. Their absence will leave a large vacancy with us in many ways. We wish them God's blessing in their new homes, and especially to the young people who are entering S.M.U. and Texas University. The rest of us will have to exert a greater effort in all our endeavors.

All summer we have been trying to repair and renovate our place of worship. We have had a new roof and a fresh coat of paint on the outside. The windows have been refinished, and at the present time, new paper is being hung on the walls. Because of this interior work, it will be impossible to have preaching services in our building on next Sunday. There will be Sunday School as usual. But we are not taking a holiday.

Sunday morning we will speak at the Baptist Church, and Sunday night in the Methodist Church. We consider it an honor to be invited into our sister churches, and we count it a privilege to speak for them in the absence of their pastors. It is hoped that the Presbyterians will be well represented.

We extend a cordial welcome to the public to worship with us in our refinished church in the near future.

James Boswell's private papers have been given to the Library Company of Philadelphia by William deKraft of Pine Valley, N. J.

VOTE FOR Ernest O. Thompson FOR Railroad Commissioner

(Second term)

Thompson in first primary received 447,229 votes. Morris received only 168,585.

Thompson in 1917 enlisted as a Private for the World War and came out as the youngest Lieutenant Colonel in the American Army. While Thompson was in the front lines, Morris was County Attorney in his home county.

Thompson was self-educated and worked for all he has and is. Morris was the son of a banker, and worked in his father's bank, then became a lawyer, and has been County Attorney and District Attorney.

Thompson was appointed by President Wilson as an official mourner of the burial of the Unknown Soldier. Served as Representative to the Allied Veteran's World Congress. Appointed by Governor of Texas as regent of the Texas Technological College. Elected Mayor of Amarillo twice. Appointed Railroad Commissioner, then elected by the people of Texas as Railroad Commissioner.

Thompson as Mayor of Amarillo reduced taxes, gas, light and water rates for the people and as Railroad Commissioner, has ordered reduced the gas rates of utility companies in 159 towns and cities. A friend, he is, to our citizens as against unfair prices to our citizens.

Thompson has increased our school funds $2,000,000 by taxation on oil, a part of which goes to every school in Coryell County. He has helped the farmers by ordering freight rates on cotton and other farm products reduced.

Thompson during the height of the depression, gave jobs to thousands of unemployed men in our oil fields. He did not stop to figure whether the needy man was the best qualified for a simple job in such hard times; but gave many jobs which did not require technical knowledge to the applicant that needed it. Is it fair of Mr. Morris and his friends to now say, that Thompson has employed unqualified men. Would it have been Morris' policy had he been Railroad Commissioner during the depression to have said to the many unemployed farmers, laborers, clerks and other unemployed men, "You and your family are hungry, but since you are not an expert on counting cars on the highways, checking whether a motor coach is clean or dirty, checking speed of cars on highways and such simple matter, the Railroad Commission will not employ you!" If such would be Morris' answer to a hungry man—is he worthy of being Railroad Commissioner?

98 per cent of the independent small oil companies have endorsed Thompson, as well as the Legislative Committee of Railroad Brotherhoods, Secretary of Texas Federation of Labor and the Oil Field & Refinery Workers Union. Does this not show that the "little fellow and the actual worker in the oil fields and on the railroads are for him? Thompson's opponent endeavors to lead the public into believing Thompson is for the big corporations. If this be so, why are all the little fellows supporting Thompson? Don't forget that old Governor Jim Hogg was a good friend as the common people ever had; and Hogg's son, Mike Hogg, is actively supporting Thompson. Among labor, Mr. Morris does have the endorsement of several clerk and yardmen railroad associations, but it must not be forgotten that Mr. Morris' wife is the daughter of one such yardman and as such Mr. Morris is entitled to the endorsement of his father-in-law and his associates.

Thompson's opponents would have you believe that Thompson is for and not against the "hot oil racket gang, and would have you believe that the Legislative Committee investigating such matters so found. This is not true and here you have the statement of the Legislative Committee itself. The statement is:

"We, the undersigned members of the 'Hot Oil Investigating Committee' of the 44th Legislature, believing that it was the intention of the membership of the House of Representatives that the work of this Committee should not become involved in politics, but unqualifiedly standing for justice and fair play, we feel it incumbent upon us to make the following unanimous statement to the citizenship of Texas.

For selfish reasons and in an effort to mislead the public, certain gentlemen, aided and abetted by sinister interests and individuals notoriously connected with the 'Hot Oil Racket' and known as flagrant violators of the Conservation Statutes and Regulations of the Railroad Commission of Texas, have made a contemptible, unwarranted and false attack upon the integrity and honesty of Colonel Ernest O. Thompson, Chairman of the Railroad Commission of Texas, by the circulation of printed matter that does not give the true facts and by a whispering campaign of the lowest order.

The same individuals have sought to use the records of this Committee for these same sinister purposes, and consequently we feel called upon to give the public the true and correct facts as we have found them to be from our extensive investigation running over a period of approximately ten months.

We made a most careful and complete examination of all records and details pertaining to Colonel Thompson's personal and official business affairs and acts. In this work the Committee was assisted by trained investigators.

Furthermore, it was known to this Committee that investigators of the Department of the Interior of the U. S. Government had conducted a most searching investigation of Colonel Thompson's affairs, and through the courtesy of the Secretary of the Interior, this Committee was given access to those records and the Government files. In addition, we were recorded the assistance of a Government agent.

Every rumor or statement that came to us was investigated and run down to a finality.

As a result of this work and these complete investigations we did not find the slightest evidence that would reflect in any manner upon the integrity and honesty of Colonel Thompson, either in his personal business or official acts.

These traducers have charged that the mortgages against Colonel Thompson's hotels have been paid. We know of our own knowledge that these mortgages have not been paid, and we have found other statements about Colonel Thompson's affairs to be equally false and unjustified.

Furthermore, Colonel Thompson co-operated with this Committee to the fullest extent. He dealt frankly and openly with this Committee at all times. He gave us full and complete access to all records and all employees of the Railroad Commission were instructed by him to give this Committee their entire cooperation.

In addition, Colonel Thompson gave this Committee splendid assistance in seeking to bring about co-ordinated effort between the Railroad Commission of Texas, the Attorney General's Department and the State Comptroller's Department for the purpose of:

- (1) Better enforcing of the Conservation Statutes of Texas, apprehending and prosecuting violators;
- (2) Preventing evasion of Gross Production taxes and Gasoline taxes, one fourth of which goes to our School Fund;
- (3) Insuring production control on a basis calculated to realize the maximum recovery from the oil fields within this State and insure the maximum benefit to our State Government and our citizens.

OF BELL COUNTY

Candidate For

State Senator

Deserves the support of every one in the 21st Senatorial District who is interested in bringing predatory interests to an honest accounting.

His relentless fight for his constituency has brought down the ire and wrath of the corporate interests upon his head.

Despite vicious attacks upon him by a utility owned and controlled newspaper in Bell County, he led his home county by 3,800 votes over his nearest opponent.

Don't be misled by propoganda. Cast your vote in behalf of honest, efficient government.

Softball

Monday night's games did nothing much but prove that it is merely a guess as to who has the best team in the league at this time. After last week's play we had the idea that we knew exactly how the teams would end up, but Monday's results left us in a very bewildered state of mind. The two teams we had picked to win, went down to defeat in somewhat easy fashion.

In the first game the Camp boys plastered the Merchants with an 8-0 loss. Errors, both mental and physical, cost the Merchants most of their opponent's runs while dumb base running cost them runs on their own behalf. The Camp boys always on the alert were never better than Monday night, never missing an opportunity to take advantage of slips made by the losers. In one of the final innings with a nice rally underway the Merchants found the said rally suddenly ended by a triple play the result of their bad base running and the alert play of the Camp.

The second game was a comedy of base hits and errors with the Firemen being less comical and thereby coming off with the long end of a 15-11 score. Doc's, the other member of the aforementioned comedy team, scored in the first inning when Baker was safe on an error and scored on Frank's triple. In the second frame the Firemen put together 3 hits, 2 bases on balls and an error to score five runs, and again in the third inning they tallied 5 more on one hit, 3 bases on balls, and 2 errors. In both innings they had one hit that failed to figure in the scoring.

In the fifth inning Doc's played 50-50 with the winners when they scored 4 runs on as many hits and an error. Then in the sixth the sandwich crew tied up the ball game by scoring five more runs on six hits, one a long home-run by Jones, first man up.

The Firemen then got their third cluster of five runs on one hit, a base on balls, and five errors.

The losers scored their eleventh run in the last inning, when Wiggins first up got a hit and completed the circuit when the ball was misplayed in the outfield. The game ended with two easy chances on the part of the losers with two men on the sacks.

If nothing else, the game produced a novelty in the fact that the game was only interrupted once for arguments, something out of the ordinary for these two rivals.

The result of the night's play left the Camp in a very commanding position to win the second half honors while the hopes of the Merchants were given a rude setback to say nothing of the ambitions of Doc's to win this half and avoid a play-off for the full season's play.

Monday's Schedule

Fireboys vs. CCC Camp.
Doc's vs. Merchants.

TEAM STANDINGS

	won	lost	per.
CCC Camp	6	3	.666
Doc's	5	4	.555
Merchants	4	5	.444
Firemen	3	6	.333

Centennial Opening Grid Game to Present Many Of the Games Stars

The Texas Centennial as well as the Southwest's first major grid football game will see in action some the nation's best known grid stars. Some of the names were smeared across the sports pages several years ago, while some of them were on the tongues of fans no later than the past season.

The Chicago Bears, the most spectacular of the pro-grid teams, have in their lineup such stars as Bronko Nagurski, former all-American full back and one of the game's best, Beattie Feathers, elusive all-American half back from Tennessee, Bill Hewitt, all-American end from the Big 10, and one of the greatest linemen in the game and big George Musso, 260 pound tackle.

In the all-American lineup, made up mostly of stars from the Southwest, is to be found such stars as Truman Spain, Bobby Wilson, "Iron Man" Wetzel, all of the Southern Methodist; Westmueller, Bob Reynolds, and Lutz all of Southern California; John McCauley of Rice Instituted and Ike Poole and Jimmie Howell of Arkansas.

What fan could ask for a better football show than this and the smallest thing about the entire set-up is the admission price. Tickets for this and other games to be played in the Cotton Bowl went on sale August 15 and may be secured thru the mail by writing the Centennial Exposition Ticket Department. Reserved seats will sell for $2.20.

MRS. EMMA BOWMER BURIED HERE THURSDAY

Mrs. Emma Bowmer, who had been in ill health for several years, passed away Wednesday, August 12, at her home at the State Training School, where she had lived for the past nine years. Funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church of this city at 4:00 o'clock, on Thursday afternoon, with Rev. A. Loper, chaplain of the State Training School, officiating.

Mrs. Bowmer was born Feb. 22, 1872, in Alabama and came to Texas when she was four years old. She and her husband formerly resided in Killeen, but for the past nine years has made Gatesville their home. She was a true Christian woman and a member of the Baptist church.

Decease is survived by her husband and a niece, Miss Nettie McClure.

Full bearers were Messrs. M. H. Richards, Henry Doffins, Eric Sharp, Rufus Burleson, Ross Woodall, and Jack Orr.

WORLD COMMENT

By JOE BURNS

Your analyst of world affairs promises later and more complete reports in this column in the weeks to follow. All-day news reports from the leading news services, Associated Press, United Press, Universal Service and North American News Alliance are now available to the write. Latest reports on all major developments will be at hand when this column is written and rushed by limited, exclusively to the Coryell County News.

Londoners from 1914 to 1917 tasted the bitter horror of aerial bombardment from German Zeppelins but less than 100 were killed and the property damage was negligible. Tommies and Doughboys were submitted to the indescribable torture of suffocation by mustard gas but the number who succumbed failed to turn the tide in favor of the Kaiser's hosts.

The brutal ferocity of the fighting in Spain bears out the prediction of numerous periodicals and writers that the warfare of the future will be mechanized and will deal havoc not only among the combatants but also among the civil population. Merciless bombardments of rebel positions by the Government troops has destroyed such cities as Granada and Cordova, the heritage of all Spaniards of 1,000 years of history.

Untold numbers of civilians have been blasted to another world by 1,000-pound bombs which dig holes in the ground big enough to burp the Alhambra. The Popular Front Government is making use of its enormous poison gas reserves and the rebels are expected to retaliate with weapons just as deadly.

So does Spaniard kill Spaniard as American has fought American and Frenchman fought Frenchman in the years gone by. "Everything goes from now on," a Spanish Popular Front official has said. "It is war to the end."

Two weeks ago the nations of the world, including the United States, were little concerned with the fighting in Spain other than to evacuate their nationals in safety. The State Department refused to worry, resting secure in the belief the conflict would not spread north of the Pyrenees Mountains.

Now the chief concern of the chancelleries of Europe and of the State Department is to keep that conflict from engulfing the nations of the world in another catastrophic conflict that would retard the progress of the world by a century. It must be remembered that the spark which set off the 1914 conflict originated in an obscure Balkan province of the Austrian Empire scarcely known by the American newspaper reader. Just as easily could Germany and Italy and Russia fight again as exponents of their respective plans for the globe's salvation fight it out in far-away Iberia.

Earlier reports that the Italian air fleet was ready to go to the aid of the Spanish revolutionists were vigorously denied by a foreign office spokesman, the United Press reports, and assurances were given to the British foreign office that Italy had not attempted, and cherished no ambition, to conclude any arrangement with the insurgents.

Italian war maneuvers start next Tuesday; British secret naval maneuvers will start off Malta, opposite Italy, three days later, with Sir Samuel Hoare,

First Lord of the Admiralty, personally attending; France will hold maneuvers in the Spanish and Italian frontier areas the first week in September, and one day later Russia has its gigantic maneuvers. These maneuvers on the parade grounds and in the foreign affairs, are but steps in the dark taken by the European Powers, eager to avert war, helpless as to the method. What will the next month bring?

As many as 750,000 Texas voters may take the trouble to go to the polls tomorrow to vote on the shortest runoff ballot in a decade.

Although there are two second primary contests for State office, more attention has been centered on the Seventeenth District Congressional race between Representative Thomas L. Blanton and Eastland's County Judge Clyde L. Garrett. Political prognosticators expect the Ablest Congressman to be turned down for the first time in the twenty years he has been serving in the lower house. First primary totals gave Blanton 20,088 votes to 24,495 for Garrett and 7,544 for Fred O. Jaye of De Leon, former candidate for District Attorney of this district who was defeated by Tom L. Robinson in 1932. Col. Ernest O. Thompson was forced into a runoff by his Dallas opponent, Frank S. Morris, although he lacked only 19,677 votes of having a majority over four opponents. Thompson received 461,413 votes and Morris 172,561. Morris has the support of Carl C. Hardin of Stephenville and H. O. Johnson of Houston, defeated candidates who ran third and fourth respectively. Hardin carried Coryell County with Thompson second. Local leaders predict Thompson will lead Morris in the county by a wide majority.

Only four local races are receiving attention. Manley Head and W. A. Shoffner are believed to be running close here with Head having the edge, having led in the first primary. The other races are between Earl Huddleston and John E. Miller for State Representative; Carl McClendon for District Clerk and Hazel McDonald and O. L. Brazzil for County Treasurer.

HUBBARD NEWS

A fairly good feed crop has already been made but there are worms in the young cotton and the old cotton needs moisture to make the bolls mature. Mr. and Mrs. Harve Shelton and family spent several days in west Texas visiting relatives near Anson in Jones county.

Horace Shelton of Anson spent a week on the creek visiting relatives there, and then went to Bell county to visit his children.

Paul Galloway of Remolerville and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ballard of Port Lavaca visited home folks here recently.

J. B. Burgess had visitors in his home over the week end; his sister and children, Mrs. Roymond Stovall of Beaumont and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. French of south Texas.

Visitors in the Tom Shelton home the past week end were Mrs. Shelton's daughters, Mrs. Riley of Gatesville and Mrs. Ingram of Ewing.

Callers in Joe Galloway home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Coryell Valley, and Walter Galloway and family of Coryell City. Beulah Fay Galloway remained to spend the week.

The Working Circle met with Mrs. Joe Galloway Thursday, August 13, and the afternoon was spent piecing quilts. The club meets August 27 with Mrs. R. A. Dixon Jr. On Friday nite, August 21, the club will have a social at the tabernacle. Every member is urged to be present. All musicians and candidates are invited.

Bro. Raymond Sims will preach at Hubbard on the fourth Sunday in August.

Bro. Walter Galloway will preach here the fifth Sunday. The Coryell Valley Sunday School is planning on being with us on that date in a Bible Study. Their scripture will be I King 7th chapter, and St. Mark 14th chapter. Our lesson will be Matthew chapter 11. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy this Bible Study.

The Council will meet in joint session with the club August 21. There is some important business to be discussed at this time. If you are a council member be present.

BARBARA STANWICK'S LOVE COMEDY DEBUT IN THE "BRIDE WALKS OUT"

Coming to the screen in a new kind of role into which she ably dovetails her extensive range of talents, Barbara Stanwick is starred in "The Bride Walks Out," a gay and breezy romantic comedy, in which she is seen with two the screen's foremost leading men, Gene Raymond and Robert Young.

Miss Stanwick's bow in a comedy of the type of "The Bride Walks Out," is furthered by the appearance of Ned Sparks and Helen Broderick, who contribute pungent humor.

This quintet is involved in a romantic entanglement which makes for some of the screen's gayest comedy, according to the preview critics. A moment after Raymond and Miss Stanwick are married, the bride-groom is arrested for violating the peace and the bride is pursued by a millionaire man-about-town, Robert Young, who can provide the luxuries of life the lady cannot extract from her husband's thirty-five per week.

Young's intervention comes to a head, with Barbara planning to get a divorce. Raymond undertakes a hazardous surveying position in South America, of which Miss Broderick learns through her husband, Sparks, who is Raymond's business buddy.

A mad and merry in-the-nick of time pursuit from Young's swank Long Island estate to the steamer pier from which Raymond's boat is departing satisfactorily ends this devil-may-care comedy.

The Regal Theatre announces that "The Bride Walks Out" will be its new tenant for three days beginning this Saturday night at 10:30. Added attractions include the pick of shorts.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends who have been so faithful during the illness and death of our dear mother and grandmother. May God bless each one of you.

(Signed) L. M. Robertson, Bula Robertson, Opal and Glenn Blacklock, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hanes and Son, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Braziel, Wilber and Virgie Collins, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Collins and children.
