REHABILITATION LOANS NOW BEING MADE, BUT ON RESTRICTED BASIS

Rehabilitation loans for the new crop year are now being authorized by the Resettlement Administration, but lack of funds requires the number and amount to be more restricted than during the past year, it was announced today by H. E. Welborn, county supervisor.

"New borrowers in drought or flood areas will receive what we term emergency loans, for purchase of seed, feed and supplies for human subsistence," the supervisor said. "We are not authorized to make and new 'standard rehabilitation' loans, which are for purchase of teams and equipment, as well as supplies. We made such standard loans last winter to 144 farmers of Coryell County, a large number of whom were thereby enabled to buy teams and equipment and to continue farming operations, or to resume operations. Where these previous borrowers now require supplementary loans, we are authorized to make them, for the purchase of necessary supplies."

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Why a Fire Prevention Week? WHY NOT? Fires cause most of the damage to any community, barring a scattering of floods, car accidents and other smaller items.

Fire Prevention Week is designed to bring to the minds of people, organizations, civil authorities and others the dire necessity of clearing up fire hazards, premises, testing fire equipment and other items with the view of lessening the fire losses in the United States. This is a National Fire Prevention Week, and is supported by the National Fire Protection Association, all fire departments, civic authorities and business men.

Citizens locally are urged by the Mayor to clean their fire hazards up, remove all trash, check flues for soot and also for leaks and faults, so that winter fires will not increase the fire damage.

Observe Fire Prevention Week!

NATIONAL FURNITURE WEEK

Also, a good thing! Furniture, not necessarily fine furniture, carries with it sentiment, love, incidents and memories of the lives of most of us. Someone's high chair, someone's little bed, some favorite chair of some intimate member of the family. Much of the furniture in our homes is personalized, or glorified by numerous remembrances and memories caused by its presence.

Of course new furniture can have none of these memories, but new furniture, in time, will collect a raft of these selfsame memories, and National Furniture Week is observed so that the furnishing of the home may be put before the people so they may furnish properly the part of their homes which are most dear to them, and which will continue these memories.

First Grade

The first grade pupils in Miss Holmes' class have learned the colors and making charts about their pets.

Phil Gene Jensen was water bound at Clifton, therefore she was unable to be at school two days last week. Other first grade pupils who have been absent are Marvin Bramblett, Caroline Stewart and Jamie McClean.—Martha Lou Phillips.

Third Grade

Members of the three X class were very busy at the Bruceville-Eddy football game last Friday selling pillows which they had made. From all indications this class is rich with salesmanship talent. The money made will be used to buy books for the home room.

The three Y class has been working on Wiggly scrapbooks for their library. In art, the pupils are making some attractive booklets with block printing sets. The members of the class who have had the mumps are back in school again.—June Marie Chamlee.

Junior Football

The junior football team under the direction of Mr. Pruitt promises to be good this season. Work-outs are being held every afternoon from four until five. No first team has been chosen, but the team will probably include Duncan Kirkpatrick, Dick Anderson, Bill Lasseter, Jimmy Dick Thomas, and David Henson.—Dorothy Chamlee.

Assembly

Janet Sadler, Pauline Martin, and Lonelle Brooks, students of Mrs. Crist, were presented, in an assembly for the first four grades last Thursday morning. Mrs. Crist also taught the pupils some songs of Scotland and told them two fairy stories. Everyone enjoyed the program thoroughly.—Mary Margaret Holmes.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade, a class of sixty pupils, has been interested in learning some new songs and reading a book. Everyone eagerly looks forward to Wednesdays and Thursdays when they can enjoy a period in the home room.

Members of the sixth grade who attended the circus last week were Aaron Gordon, Camille Lester, and Norma Joy Pollard.—Gerry Davis.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade enjoyed a program presented by members of the class in the home room Thursday, October 2. Mable Marion Brown, Mary Jane Stone, and Bessie Lee Roberts related some interesting news items. Ben Owen Crow told some jokes and Margaret Zeigler read a story. Members of the class are looking forward to more program of that type.—Gene Stinnett.

Science Club

Hulon Thompson was elected president of the Science Club at their last meeting. Ralph Bailey was elected vice-president. Bill Oldham is the secretary. manager; Billy Jo Hinson, cartoonist; Sara Frances Graham, society editor; June Marie Chamlee, joke editor, and David Hinson sports editor.

The club is making plans to issue a school paper once each month. Everyone is looking forward to the first edition of the paper.—Gerry Davis.

An aerial map recently made by the Brazos River basin disclosed that one farmer had 140 acres of land that he didn't know he had. The farmer had been paying taxes on a section of land, or 640 acres, but the aerial map showed that his land holdings totalled 780 acres. This incident leads the Texas Planning Board to believe the exact area of Texas will not be known until an accurate aerial map is made of the State.

About 200,000 new houses will be built if 60 per cent of the over crowded families in England and Wales are to be accommodated properly, a ministry of health shows.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK—OCT. 4 to 10

THEY LOST EVERYTHING!

Every minute of the hour, every day of the year, there is a home burning somewhere in the United States. These fires are causing heavy losses both in property and life. Mothers fathers and even entire families have been wiped out by this great menace—fire.

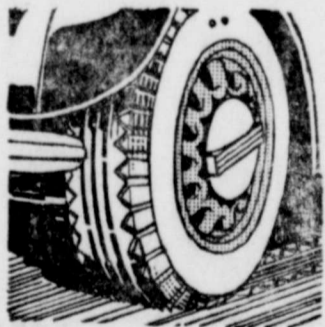

Homes, schools, churches and autos are lost every year because of fire. Over 75 per cent of these fires are preventable, but preventable or not, you'll want to be fully protected. You may think everything is fire-proof around your home, but remember the 25 per cent that was unpreventable. DON'T TAKE THE CHANCE AND LOSE EVERYTHING. HAVE FIRE INSURANCE! IT COSTS SO LITTLE, BUT MEANS SO MUCH.

Byrom, halfback; Joe Baker, halfback; Joe Satterfield, halfback; Joe Ned Brown, halfback; Zack Fore, halfback; and Douglas White, fullback.

Gatesville-Valley Mills Game

The Gatesville Hornets, after tucking a 27-6 victory over Bruceville-Eddy, are going to Valley Mills and play a conference game with the Valley Mills Eagles. The game will be staged at the Valley Mills home gridiron Friday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. It is thought that if the Hornets win this game, they will have a good chance at the district title. This will be the first game away from home and also the first conference game.

Our prediction for the game Friday afternoon will be 13-7 in favor of Gatesville.

Annual Editorial

For the past three years the Senior classes have been vainly endeavoring to edit an annual. Many factors have contributed to the failure of this movement but the greatest dissension came from the lukewarmness of the faculty who were never wholeheartedly in cooperation with this plan.

What is an annual?—A high school annual is a memorandum compiled by a chosen staff. Every student realizes that some of the most enjoyable and pleasant days are spent in school. So why not keep a memorable of these days?

The Senior class of '37 is striving to publish an annual. With a new administration in school which will probably give attention to the matter, the editing of this doesn't seem impossible. The failure of the preceding classes have given the class of this year determination to be successful in their efforts. So we say: "An Annual for '37."

Campus Lowdown

Author Unknown

Last week's column inspired one of our dear readers to call us names (they weren't nice), but our conscience is clear since we only printed the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so 'elp us. Coincidence—the Holland Hornets defeated the Rogers Eagles 27-6 last Friday afternoon, and that night, the Gatesville Hornets plucked the feathers of the Bruceville Eagles by the same score. Book of the week—"How I Cured Athlete's feet" by Badger Hinesly. We'll take two. One for Carrot-top Fore and one for Lester Williams. Supt. Brooks inhabits the same shack that former Superintendent Williams occupied. Martha Moore's ex is Joe Reese Robinson. Is the coppery-haired Phillips lass anxious for a scrap of paper from Weatherford. The wimmen don't chase Gooch McDonald any more—he chase them. (Now, take it easy, Ed.) In English the other a. m., some lines were scribbled on the board by Bacon with the author's handie scribbled after the quotation, and Bob (anythingforajoke) Thomas added "and eggs". Pauline Turner is still being squire! by the ever faithful Doug White. Billy Williams is the Casonova of the Fish class this semester. Our weekly (weakly) simile: As inseperatable as Louise Mayes and Bilyl Simpson. Claud Henderson Wallace, stellar Hornet linesman, shed his chestnut locks because of Coach Schwarz's ribbing. An expression tutor in the town thinks Edwin McDonald and Helon Chamlee are an ideal couple—if she only knew! Cub Poston is always telling the girls to keep their chin up because it is easier that way. The Scotch are buying boomerang hats so that when the wind blows them off they will come back to them. Mr. Briggs has a car built for two. Orchids to Skeeter Shepherd's drumming. Did you know that the Senior class is going to edit an annual.

Senior Class

On October 6, the Senior class met for the first time and elected these officers; Jack Hestilow, president; John Rufus Colgin, vice-president; Frances McCoy, secretary. The sponsors of the Senior class are Mrs. Reesing and Miss Durham. The Seniors have planned a party for the follow-week. As to what kind, they have not decided, yet. The Senior class this year reaches a total of ninety.

Sophomore Class

Junior Class

At the meeting of the Junior class in activity period Tuesday, the officers for the 1936-37 school term were elected. C. H. Wallace, a very capable boy, was elected president and Joe Satterfield was also unanimously elected vice president. Harry Voss was elected secretary and treasurer. Jack Hearn was elected reporter. It appears that the male sex completely carried the election. All of the officers are football players. The class this year is the largest class in school, having a total number of 115.

Dramatic Club Organizes

The Dramatic Club, with Miss Durham as sponsor, met September 31.

The following officers were elected; Jack Hestilow, president Frances McCoy, secretary; Patsy Olsen, vice-president and Jack Straw, reporter.

Four committees with Eloise Cook, M. H. Shepherd, Ruth Hamilton and Joe Baker as chairmen, were appointed, to have exchange of the programs at each meeting.

The Dramatic plans to give a one act play soon.

Latin Club

The Latin Club was organized at a class period and the following officers were elected; president, Jack Reesing; vice-president, Alma Blanchard; secretary, Martha Moore; and reporter, Gladys Marie Phillips. It was decided that the club study mythology for the first six weeks, and it may be used until mid-term.

The club really had the first regular meeting of the year on Friday, October 2. Each member answered roll call with the name of some god or goddess, identifying them. Following that a very interesting program was given concerning the origin of the myths, the relation of myths to art and literature, and some of the most interesting myths, especially about the creation, were discussed.

New Stadium

The "unnamed" stadium is one of the largest and best lighted stadiums in central Texas. It cost the City of Gatesville $12,000 and is being lighted by thirty two lights. There are four of these powerful lights to each pole. The stadium will hold somewhere around thirty - five hundred people. The stadium has been about half way filled on two occasions. If we do not win a conference, it will not be because we did not have a good field.

Basketball and Volleyball

There are thirty girls out for basketball and volleyball this year. As basketball practice does not start until next week, the girls have three days of gym work a week. Four players that were on last year's squad are Blanche Clemons, Sarah Hinson, Treva Davis and Utence Sellers. Blanche will not be eligible after Christmas. There are some good players coming from Plainview, Flat, Belton, Purlmela and Ireland. Miss Lois Grantham is to be their coach. She says that she expects to have a good ball club this year.

Conveyance for Valley Mills Game

Today the Gatesville Hornets will play the Valley Mills Eagles. The game is called for 3:30 o'clock, and information from the office says that one bus will be loaded with football boys. All the pep squad girls able to go will probably fill one other bus, perhaps two.

Hornets Humble Bruceville-Eddy

Last Friday night at 8:15 under the arcs, the hustling Hornets tucked another scalp under their belts as they plucked the feathers of the Bruceville-Eddy Eagles 27-6. The Hornets scored early in the second quarter after the end sweeps of Byrom had placed the pigskin in enemy territory. Byrom waded over for the first marker. Hinesly's kick for point was good making the score 7-0. The Worley men scored just before the half whistle (Continued on last page)

The LAST of the MOHICANS

The JAMES FENIMORE COOPER Classic

RANDOLPH SCOTT • BINNIE BARNES • HENRY WILCOX

A RELIANCE PICTURE • Released thru UNITED ARTISTS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE: It is the year 1757. Cora and Alice Munro are on their way to Fort William Henry, to join their father who is stationed there. They are accompanied by a British officer, Major Heyward, in love with Alice, Magua, their Indian guide, betrays them, and they are captured by the Hurons, but Hawkeye, an American hunter, saves them with the aid of his Mohican friends, Chingachgook and Uncas, father and son. The Hurons pursue them, and Hawkeye splits the party in two groups, the better to elude them.

Chapter V
RE-UNITED

The canoe assigned to Heyward was the larger one already carrying Cora, Chingachgook and Uncas. Alice had been unceremoniously dumped into the smaller canoe with Hawkeye at the paddle. As the two canoes shoved off from the bank, a shot rang out. The wounded sentry had managed to crawl to where his carbine was leaning against the log. With a final convulsive effort, he had watched the Huron canoes race past. Alice breathed heavily. "A bit close, that—" she said. "We're not out of it yet," said Hawkeye grimly. He reflected for a moment. "There's a settlement ahead where we can get shelter until sundown." But this refuge was denied them. When they reached the settlement, Alice cried out in horror. Before them, the blackened ashes of a log cabin. In front of it a pile of charred bodies. Alice turned her head away, her face contorted. "What happened?" she cried. "They've had their hair cut by the Huron barbers," Hawkeye said grimly. Alice was shocked by his words. "How can you speak so unfeelingly?" "Unfeeling?" said Hawkeye. "I blazed the trail that brought them here. This is how my parents die—fire and scalping knife!" "I'm sorry," said Alice. "This won't be all," Hawkeye continued. "With the men at Fort William Henry no settlement is safe." Alice now for the first time understood the reluctance of the Colonials to leave. "I wish father could see this," she said in a low voice. Hawkeye shook his head. "Won't pulled the trigger, warning the other Hurons. The sound of the shot caused Hawkeye and the others to paddle more furiously. There was need for haste. Magua and his band had pushed to the sound of the shot and discovered two of their canoes missing. Unencumbered by passengers, they were able to drive their canoes forward at terrific speed and soon were able to see the fugitives at a distance. Hawkeye, astern of the larger canoe, saw his pursuers at the same time. He stopped paddling, waited until they approached within distance and then calmly fired. The Huron steering the foremost pursuing canoe toppled into the water. There was momentary confusion among the pursuers. Heyward likewise took aim. His shot struck a Huron on the shoulder. Uncas frowned. "No good," he grunted. "Shoot through the head like Hawkeye." The pursuers were firing too. A second shot from Hawkeye's carbine found its mark, and a Huron marksman toppled into the water. Heyward seeing the result of Hawkeye's unerring marksmanship took more deliberate aim for his second shot. It struck a Huron on the arm. Heyward shook his head in annoyance. Hawkeye's canoe drew up alongside. "Take the right fork," he yelled to Uncas and meet me at the falls. I'll lead them off!" The bullets splashed about them as both canoes took to the paddles. At the fork of the stream, they separated—Uncas taking the right, Hawkeye lingering behind long enough to be sighted by the pursuers, and then swinging to the left. As he had hoped, the Hurons followed him. A bullet fired by Magua struck Hawkeye's canoe just at the waterline, and water began to gush in. Despite Alice's bailing with her cupped hands, it began to fill. Fortunately a bend in the stream hid them momentarily from the sight of their pursuers. Hawkeye hastily drove the canoe to the shore and, dragging it after him, disappeared into the sheltering foliage. From their concealment, they make any difference; he has his own duty." "Will you forgive me," Alice asked. Hawkeye smiled, and held out his hand. Meanwhile, the larger canoe, bearing Uncas, Chingachgook, Heyward and Cora, had been beached near a cave along the river bank, where the party took refuge. Heyward fretted over the separation. "That fool!" he said venomously, "separating our party like this." Chingachgook grunted. "Two party alive—good. One party dead—no good." He suddenly put his head to the ground. Heyward, who had heard no sound, was puzzled. "What on earth are you listening to?" "Beaver," the Mohican grunted. "Downstream. Indian sentry. When canoe come, beaver flap tail." Cora, seated near Uncas was equally worried over the absence of her sister. Uncas reassured her. "Hawkeye find way." Cora permitted herself to believe him. She pointed to a tortoise-shaped mark on his chest. Uncas smiled. "That means Mohican chief." "Are you taking us to your people?" Uncas grew mournful. "My people all gone. Killed in Huron wars." "You're alone," Cora said sympathetically. She smiled sadly. "So am I. My warrior died at sea." Uncas grew even more sad. He proffered her a chunk of pemican from the pouch slung over his shoulder. "You eat," he said. Chingachgook scowled. "Mohican Chiefs no wait on squaws," he said fiercely. The sound of canoe paddles now was audible even to Heyward. Hawkeye beached the canoe. The two parties were united. Cora flung herself sobbing into Alice's arms. "Thank Heaven, you're safe."

"These were my people"

A swimming pool has been proposed for the estimated 50 dogs of the Fort Oglethorpe army post at Chattanooga, Tenn. Law students at Stettin, Germany, are being given a course in driving street cars to acquaint them with traffic conditions. The guillotine is still used in France as a mean of execution. BROWN'S CREEK

We have been having lots of rainy weather lately, which has been keeping the people from picking cotton. Misses Edith Mae and Pearl York spent Monday nite last week with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Keener and daughters. The school will open Monday, October 12. All pupils should get their lunch baskets, paper and pencils and start in a big way. The Browns Creek school has had several improvements. Hulon Brookshire and son, H. P. and Rev. and Mrs. Keener were Burnet visitors last week. Bumpers of automobiles striking pedestrians used to cause fractures at the knee or just below it, says a physician, but now that bumpers are lower the injury is apt to be lower on the leg.

HORNETS' NEST—

blew, but the try for the point failed making the score 13-0. Coming back in the second half, the Hornet line, green from tip to tip, opened up opened up large gaps which the flashy backs easily found and they soon rang up the third touchdown. The try for the point was good making the score 20-0. The Eagles unleashed a devastating aerial attack that resulted in their lone tally late in the third period. Kincannon's remarkable heaves and punting kept the Eagles in the game and he was a thorn in the side of the Hornets all evening. Late in the fourth period, Colgin, whose scintillating performance was a standout of the game, weaved, twisted and slashed his way to the fourth counter of the fray. The Hornets piled up 28 first downs to 11 for the Eagles. No serious injuries were reported from the Hornet camp. They will be ready for the crack Valley Mills crew there Friday afternoon which will be the first tilt on foreign soil for the Hornets, and also their first conference game.

TURNERSVILLE FOOD SHOW GOT WELL UNDERWAY LAST NIGHT

Turnersville Methodist Ladies' Pure Food Show opened last night for a three-day run, featuring a program of interest, with exhibits from merchants of Waco, Valley Mills, Clifton and Gatesville.

Drawings are to be held each night, as well as auctions, besides many other features.

JACK HEARN ENTERTAINS LIONS CLUB LUNCHEON

At the regular mid-week meeting of the Lions Club, Jack Hearne, popular Gatesville high school student, entertained the club by singing several selections. Attorney C. E. Alvis gave a very interesting talk on fire prevention which was in keeping with the observance of Fire Prevention this week.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday night, Oct. 12, at the high school gymnasium and is designated as "Ladies Night."

Prof. R. H. Williams of Pat Neff CCC Camp near McGregor was a guest.

BLACK'S NEW GROCERY ON WEST LEON TO HAVE OPENING SATURDAY

E. R. Black, grocer and produce man, opens his new store on west Leon street with a more or less "open house" Saturday of this week.

Mr. Black has one of the most up-to-date businesses in the city, and the public is invited to be with them for their opening on Saturday.

Formerly located further west on Leon street, Mr. Black has enlarged his quarters, and is one block from the square, with a new concrete building, with parking space all around.

FIRE TRUCK ABANDONED? NO FIRE PREVENTION WEEK REMINDER!

Citizens yesterday saw the fire truck parked at an important and very noticeable point on the square. It had not been abandoned to the "strip artists," but was left there to impress on citizens the fact that October 4 to 10 is Fire Prevention Week.

PROTESTANT PREACHERS TO MEET IN WACO OCT. 13

According to Rev. Marcos M. Chunn, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, there will be a meeting of all Central Texas Protestant preachers Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Roosevelt Hotel, Waco.

This meeting is very important and every preacher in the Central Conference is urged to be present and learn more of the preaching mission.

CONTRACT LET ON STORM SEWER PRESAGING NEW P. O. BUILDING

Under proposed agreement with the United States Government at the time the site was selected for the construction of a new Post Office building here, contract has been let for the construction of a storm sewer from 8th and Leon streets to 5th and Bridge. Percie Witt was awarded the contract.

Work will commence immediately, according to Elland Lovejoy, City Secretary.

It is presumed that after completion of the sewer, work will then commence on the new post office, since the completion of this sewer is the purported agreement.

COHEN RITCHESON'S RED R. I. BANTAMS TAKE FIRST AND SECOND

Bantams put Coryell County on the map this time! Cohen Ritcheson, proud (and rightly so) owner of Red Rhode Island Bantams placed two pullets in the Texas Centennial Poultry Show last week.

What the prizes were we did not hear, but at least Cohen came away with ribbons for First and Second places in the pullet class.

Other chicken fanciers are planning to enter their fowls in the Dallas, Fort Worth, and Waco shows. Premium lists for the Dallas and Waco (Brazos Valley Free Fair) shows may be seen at the News office.

NEW OIL STATION ON NEW HIGHWAY 7 IS BEING BUILT

Evidently the belief that new Highway 7 will sometime be completed has prompted Troy Jones, local oil agent, to build a new station and upstairs apartment for John Hodges opposite the old Hodges Conoco station in Torbett Town.

We call this the "beau geste" in confidence in the State Highway Department. The station will be some 20 plus feet square, the upper part being an apartment for living quarters, the lower a grocery and filling station.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. DORA HALE AT ATER CEMETERY

Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Whisenhunt Hale of Hood Springs passed away very suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. McCoy, Wednesday, and funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the Ater Cemetery with Rev. Clarence A. Morton conducting the services.

Mrs. Hale was born May 7, 1869, in Sievier County, Arkansas, and came to Texas at an early age, took residence in Coryell County, and has been one of its most respected citizens. She was a member of the Christian Church.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. L. McCoy of Hood Springs and Mrs. A. O. Fletcher of Weatherford, and five sons, Frank Hale of Rankin, Harve and Holly Hale of Ames, and Robert Hale of Pearl.

Lt. Hyman Margolis is in Dallas this week giving medical examination to enrollees of Civilian Conservation Corps there.

Miss Thedra Mounce and Harry Jones attended the Louisiana State University-University of Texas football game in Austin, Saturday.

TEN SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY "IF;" MANY REPORTED OPEN BEFORE

Ten schools—Topsey, Hubbard, The Grove, Brown's Creek, Levita, Friendship, Longview, Eagle Springs, Dunn, and Spring Hill—are due to open Monday, according to information from the office of County Superintendent Witcher.

Most of the schools were billed to be open before this date, but due to rains, which prevented finishing up the major portion of the farm work, their opening has been postponed.

COTTON PRICE IS UP DESPITE BIG ESTIMATE

Prices of cotton jumped from $1.00 to $1.50 a bale from the lows of the day after a forecast of 11,609,000 bales had been given out in the government's crop report for October 1, and increase in the estimated production of nearly half million bales.

WACO NEWS TRIBUNE KINDLY FURNISHES FLOOD AND EXPLOSION PICTURES

During the last two weeks, we have been fortunate to secure from the Waco News-Tribune pictures of the two recent disasters that have befallen that neighboring city.

Metropolitan dailies are equipped for quick work in pictureizing the news, a rather expensive process, which is unusual with country newspapers.

Courtesies like these are not soon forgotten by the "country" presses.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gray were Waco visitors Sunday.

Miss Thedra Mounce was a business visitor at Hamilton Tuesday.

Rev. Vernon Perry of Georgetown spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Perry.

Miss Bertha Lillian Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart, has been confined to her bed this week on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom L. Robinson and son visited Tom L. Jr., a student in Baylor, Waco, Tuesday. J. W. Clark accompanied them and visited his mother, Mrs. J. W. Clark.

Mrs. Kelly Brooks, Joe Hanna, and Bud Rivers were in Dallas Tuesday buying for the Joe Hanna Store.

Mrs. Ramsey Searcy of Comanche spent the first part of this week visiting friends and relatives here.

Prof. R. H. Williams, of the Neff Park CCC Camp, was a business visitor in Gatesville Wednesday.

Miss Maggie Ricketts of Killen is spending this week in Gatesville visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ricketts.

Misses Sidney Gale Gibson, Voncille Turner, and J. B. Roach were Waco visitors Sunday.

Dayton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown Jr., returned Monday from a Tebple hospital where he had been for medical treatment for the past two and a half months.

GATESVILLE VALLEY MILLS GAME TO BE PLAYED IN VALLEY MILLS

Gatesville Hornets, probably the Pep Squad, the Band will make the trip to Valley Mills Friday, today, when the local high school swings its first conference game.

Efforts had been made, and some flattering offers had been made in order to get the game changed to Gatesville, but according to announcement yesterday morning in chapel, the game will be played in Valley Mills.

PIONEER CITIZEN IS BURIED AT FLINT CREEK MON.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Flint Creek cemetery for J. M. Webb, age 84, of the Flat community, who passed away at his home Sunday afternoon. Rev. Ollie Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church of that place, conducted the services and Judge R. B. Cross, a life long friend of the family, gave a short talk.

Mr. Webb was born June 11, 1852, in Clay County, Georgia, and came to Texas with his parents when only a child. On June 12, 1871 he was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Dunn and to this union nine children were born. Two of the children died in infancy. Mrs. Webb preceded her husband in death on May 8, 1934, and a daughter, Mrs. Ida Reynolds departed 1934.

Deceased is survived by the following children: Mrs. Ora Hamilton, Flat; Mrs. Lena Stephens, Post City; John L. Webb, Gatesville; ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Webb became a member of the Baptist Church in Clay County at the age of 19 and during all his life time believed in the higher things that make this world better. He had been a citizen of Coryell County for 65 years.

Pall bearers were his grandsons, Roy and Tom Hamilton, Hershell Clawson, Wesley Stephens, John H. Clawson and Emmett Clawson. His granddaughters were flower girls.

E. L. Turner and daughter, Pauline, were San Antonio visitors over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McMordie, Mrs. B. F. Battle and Mrs. M. J. McWilliams spent Thursday in Marlin where Mr. McMordie was transacting business.

Leonard Darden of Houston, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. A. L. Chollar for the past three weeks, returned to his home the first part of this week.

Master Carl McClendon Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McClendon, who has been a guest of his aunt, Mrs. C. E. Jones, of Dallas for the past week, returned home Sunday.

Of interest to may here is the fact that N. A. Hammack of Dallas, who is a son of Mrs. W. W. Hammack of this city has been in a Dallas hospital for several weeks following an operation but is now at his home and improving steadily.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodges and Louis. Mrs. Walter Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George Hodges attended the funeral services of a relative Mrs. John Shepperd in Goldthwaite Wednesday. Deceased was a former resident of this city.

FEDERATION OF P O CLERKS BEGINS SERIES OF BROADCASTS

Starting September 15, the National Federation of Post Office Clerks will broadcast "Postal Oddities," over radio station WACO, from 7 to 7:15 p. m. This feature will be in the nature of odd and almost unbelievable facts and incidents in the history of the postal service, according to W. S. Liles first vice president of the Texas Federation of Post Office Clerks.

This broadcast is peculiar in the fact that it is non-commercial and is paid for by the national federation. Each program is in dialogue form and contains comedy, tragedy and facts.

REV. J. H. BALDRIDGE ATTENDED MEETING FT. WORTH MON.

Rev. J. H. Baldrige, presiding elder of the Gatesville District of the Methodist Church, and resident of this city, attended a meeting of the Methodist Conference Council of Field Workers in Christian Education in Ft. Worth Monday at the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Baldrige's picture, with Rev. W. W. Ward of Waco, former pastor here, Rev. J. A. Steeloff, Ft. Worth, and Bishop H. A. Boaz, Ft. Worth, of the Central Texas Conference, appeared in the Tuesday issue of the Ft. Worth Star Telegram.

MRS. J. R. MARTIN, AUTO CRASH VICTIM BURIED TUESDAY AFTERNOON

People of Gatesville and Coryell County were shocked last Monday at the sudden death of Mrs. J. R. Martin of Pecan Grove. On last Sunday she and her husband had attended all services at the First Baptist Church, Monday meeting death in a tragic accident near Waco.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. Clarence A. Morton, in charge. He read the 21st Chapter of Revelation and delivered a message concerning her faithfulness and devotion to her church and the hope she placed in Christ. Her seat in the choir was covered with a wreath of lilies and the choir sang her favorite hymn. A male quartette sang "In the Land Where We Never Grow Old." She was laid to rest in the Blackfoot Cemetery near the old Martin homestead.

Mrs. Martin prior to her marriage was Miss Bertha Boyer, born in Boleria, Mo., Dec. 15, 1881, and at the age of 15 came to Texas with her family, settling on the old James Coryell survey.

On July 22, 1902, she was married to Joe R. Martin and they moved the next year to their present home at Pecan Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin were among the oldest and most well established families in Coryell County, as attested by the many who attended the services from every section of the county and the adjoining counties.

She is survived by her husband and three sons, Martene, Joe and Weldon, and two brothers, J. S. Boyer of Gatesville, and P. F. Boyer of Waco and one sister, Mrs. Ed Davidson of Mound.

Misses Annie B. and Laura Mae Hinson visited friends in Meridan over the week end.

WORLD COMMENT

By JOE BURNS

The New York Times adds its august voice to that small journalistic fraternity supporting reelection of Pres. Roosevelt. The Times, in a front page editorial declares for Roosevelt in the belief that the tide of radicalism will be stemmed by the chief executive in his second term and that many of the emergency policies will be discontinued.

Welcome to Democratic National headquarters was The Times contribution, sorely needed both in New York State and in the nation. Many dailies surpass The Times in circulation and advertising lineage but few can boast of the prestige and dignity of the New York periodical.

The Democratic nominee is confronted by an almost unitedly hostile press in all parts of the nation, with the exception of the traditionally regular Southern states. In such metropolises as Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Chicago, and Philadelphia, the press is exclusively in the hands of the Republicans and is staunchly backing Landon.

In New York City the line-up is better for the Democrats than in any other city of consequential size. Here, in addition to The Times, Scripps-Howard's World-Telegram and the Daily News, boasting the largest circulation in the U. S., are for Roosevelt. In the Republican and pro-Landon column are Hearst's American, Journal, and Mirror, and the Herald-Tribune. The Sun is independent.

Senator William Edgar Borah of Idaho, enigmatic figure of American politics for four decades, strikes a blow at the man who defeated him at the Cleveland Republican Convention, Gov. Alfred M. Landon, announcing he will not support the G. O. P. nominee.

Whether the Republican G. H. Q. will feel keen disappointment at the Borah declaration is problematical, as following the Cleveland convention it was intimated that Chairman Hamilton would be glad for Borah to retire to his Idaho hills for the duration of the campaign.

Whatever the effect nationally upon the Western agricultural states where he is supposed to be a power, it is known that Borah is pursuing his attitude toward the Grand Old Party's nominee solely for the purpose of garnering Democratic votes in his home balliwick of Idaho where he is being hard pressed in his campaign for reelection by that State's cowboy governor, Ben Ross.

Ross is an ardent New Dealer and is running as an unqualified supporter of President Roosevelt. Many experts believe Idaho will go Democratic in November and that Ross will be swept into office upon the tide of Roosevelt popularity enhanced by his own rough-and-tumble campaign methods. Borah is using strategy, that is all, seeking to capitalize upon the evident popularity of Roosevelt in Idaho while retaining his own loyal group of G. O. P. followers.

Four powers will be affected by the announcement that Russia has and is building a navy comparable to any the world over. Pravda, the official Moscow newspaper, carries the startling headline, "The Soviet is Now a Sea Power" and reveals that the U. S. S. R. has made long strides towards building a fleet strong enough to compete with Germany and Japan.

World Comment—

fer adequate excuse for continued war-time appropriations for the military and naval branches of Nippon's defense. To the Japanese taxpayer, it prophecies continued tension between Japan and Russia, probably warfare in the future, and a continuation of the present crushing tax burden under which the Imperial army, navy and air force are maintained

Britain and Italy will both have reason for concern in the building of a Soviet Black Sea fleet. Such a naval concentration will offer another threat to the jealously guarded "lifeline to the East," the defense of which threatened to draw Britain into war with Italy during the latter's Ethiopian venture last year. Under the treaty of alliance between Turkey and the Soviet, the latter may send battleships into the Mediterranean Sea through the Dardanelles from the Black Sea but other powers (Britain and Italy) may not send ships into the Black Sea. With a huge naval concentration in the Black Sea, Moscow could flood the Mediterranean with bombers which could threaten either Italy or the British naval stronghold of Malta and Gibraltar.

Germany's revived naval fleet has been built largely to insure control of the Baltic over the Soviet should war ensue between the two powers. But the Soviet declaration indicates that the Communists are not willing to accede Baltic supremacy to the Germans and thus lively naval rivalry between Berlin and Moscow may be forecast for the future.

Highlighting the social calendar, is the approaching marriage of Miss Raye Virginia Rayford to Woodland Meador of Stephenville, which will take place Wednesday, October 14, at the First Baptist Church of this city. # HORNETS FACE VALLEY MILLS EAGLES TODAY

Gatesville Scheduled to Drop First Conference Game in Bitter Contest

Gatesville High goes onto the gridiron Friday afternoon as the decided underdog. Advance reports from Valley Mills state that the Eagles outclass the Hornets in every respect. A heavier line, a faster backfield, and a super-super quarterback are counted upon to hand the Hornets their first defeat of the season. To add calamity upon disaster the Eagles are keyed up to the highest fighting pitch for this game, their most important encounter to date.

Which remains to be seen. The Hornets have also been pointing for this game and are grimly determined to come out of it victorious. Much comment has been made on this game as deciding the district championship. It is just a little too early in the season for such a decision to hang on one game. Granted, that Valley Mills has a very strong team, Mart, Clifton, and McGregor are not to be counted out of the running yet.

The Mart Panthers are something of a mystery team. All of the pre-season dope given out concerning them placed Mart as having one of the weakest teams in its history. Yet, they have accounted only too well for themselves so far in beating Teague and Groesbeck, always strong contenders. Pardon us while we cross our fingers when they meet the Hornets.

To begin with we concede Valley Mills one touchdown by virtue of playing on their home field. The old adage is that any team possesses such an advantage, makes it a cinch for at least one tally. In a game as evenly matched as this one is, such a psychological advantage may easily decide the score. Yet football teams have a way of upsetting the dope bucket that make sports writers look ill. Perhaps it will be so in this particular case.

From a Hornet fan who has seen the Eagles play, comes the information that Valley Mills has a faster backfield than Gatesville's. Which means that they must be chained lightning in their running attack, for the Hornet ball luggers are as fast an aggregation as yours truly has ever witnessed. During practice this week fifty yard sprints were run with all the regular backs finishing within two yards of each other. This is rather unusual in finding five or six boys who are plenty fast and all about the same speed. If Valley Mills can beat that I will give up this typewriter and go back to pitching nickels at cracks.

The main trouble with the Hornets is inexperience. No matter how great prospects are, experience is still the largest factor in actual combat.

Moody and Bruceville-Eddy furnished good opposition for the warm-up games that they were, but so far Gatesville has had no taste of a team that is as fast and tough as themselves.

The Hornets possess the actual physical ability to defeat any club in the league. This year more individual talent has been gathered than since 1931, and the district title seems closer than it has in years. As the season develops, however, it seems that several other teams are in the same position. Mart, Valley Mills, and Clifton are all well blessed with good teams, while McGregor, as usual, is getting better with every game. The district is wide open this year, and anything will go.

Valley Mills has no exceptional record so far. They have defeated Rosebud 6 to 0, and Cranfills Gap 54 to 0, which is not anything to shout about. Rosebud usually has a fair team, but may be weak this year, while Cranfills Gap has a team comparable to Copperas Cove. The main reason for Valley Mills' jubilation is that their prospects are so good. The same can be said for the Gatesville High Hornets, so pick your winner on a hunch, you have nothing much better to go on.

Gatesville has enough reserve to win on power alone. That is, of course, unless Valley Mills has a team of "iron men," and very few schools have such.

The Hornets boast of two good lines and two good backfields, which is decidedly in their favor this afternoon.

The Eagles have not put out much dope about their team, except that they are "plenty good." An idle rumor has it that they only have about 19 men out for the squad. A team weak in reserves is always handicapped.

The Hornet line averages 156 pounds from end to end, while the backfield averages 147 pounds. Not bad at all for a Class B team, and almost an ideal weight combination.

Win, lose, or draw this afternoon—neither team will yet be out of the district running. The season has only begun and there will probably be many an upset before the final whistle is blown on Turkey Day.

"RADIO TALK"

"My Man Godfrey" is a brilliant modern romantic comedy, madder and merrier than a million dancing mice running riot on a merry go round. This Universal picture, starring William

Powell and Carole Lombard, opens at the Regal Theatre on Saturday night at 10:00 and shows Sunday and Monday. The situations mount rapidly to a pitch of gay humor, which keeps climbing the scale until the contagious fun has reached an epidemic of laughter. The most earthbound pessimist after seeing My Man Godfrey will be a mirthbound optimist.

William Powell portrays the role of a butler who does his best to buttle, in spite of bottles and battle axes, for the nuttiest family in America, Carole Lombard, playing the part of the younger daughter, falls in love with him and proposes marriage. She just won't take "No" for an answer. Her sister is the sort of girls who would stick pins in puppies just to hear them howl.

But wait until you meet the rest of the family. The mother of the menage is a bit balmy and the father is slightly dizzy from trying to straighten out all the members of his household. However, they're all very nice people. You must come over and see them in "My Man Godfrey."

Besides the stars, there are Alice Brady, Gail Patrick, Jean Dixon, Eugene Pallette, Alan Mowbray, Mischa Auer and Robert Light. The picture was made by Gregory La Cava.

"My Man Godfrey" is taken from the novel of the same name by Eric Hatch. This well-known modern humorist wrote the screen play with Morris Ryskind noted writer of numerous screen hits, and co-author of the stage play "Of Thee I Sing."

See the laugh pictures of the year, "My Man Godfrey" at the Regal Theatre starting Saturday night at 10:30.
