CORYELL GETS LICENSE MONEY FROM STATE

Increased highway usage in 1940 was seen today by Oscar Burton, president of The Texas Good Roads Association, based on official reports that registration of motor vehicles was running ahead of 1939.

The increase in registrations cannot be estimated accurately at this time, but it was indicated registrations would be up substantially from last year.

A tabulation of motor vehicle tax collection by highway districts shows that the bulk of the funds coming to the highway fund from motor vehicle registration originate in a relatively small number of counties. These are the heavily populated counties. In a majority of the counties the state receives only a negligible sum from sale of duplicate licenses and penalties.

In District No. 9 (including Coryell) the counties retained $568,184.02 in motor vehicle registration and $197,267.81 was allotted to the state highway fund.

The division of the license fees in Coryell county is as follows:

Retained by county, $44,281.25. Amount to State, $42.60. Bell, Bosque, Falls, Hamilton, Hill, Limestone and McLennan are the other counties in this district.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. H. L. DeVaney, pastor
We are all so thankful and happy for the blessings the Lord sent our way during the revival that ran for 8 days. Although two of the night services were rained out having only six night services the Lord added to his church seven, two came for baptism and five by letter and another came by profession of faith in Christ.

We want to thank those who came and helped in any way and those who were unable to attend for remembering us in prayer at the throne of Grace. Our Heavenly Father gave each of us a new desire to want to go out and win the lost and enlist the unenlisted into his service.

We are asking those who will come we are going to have a few nights of Evangelistic services Friday, Saturday and Sunday and Sunday night, April 19, 20 and 21. There is Sunday School each Lord's day, and you are given a special invitation. Remember—"Jesus Never Fails."

These are half sections of the same tire, a 9.00-36 Firestone Ground Grip Tractor Tire with the new dual purpose bead design. The top section is mounted on the new Firestone wide base rim. The lower section is mounted on the conventional narrow base rim. While the new dual purpose bead is equally adaptable to use on either rim, it is readily apparent that the wide base provides many of the advantages of oversize tire equipment at no extra cost.

BETWEEN BOTTLES

By W. MAT JONES JR'S. "GHOST WRITER"

This col'm's entitled "Between Bottles", but guess I am going to have to break the "jinx" because they've got me on some of the "57 varieties".

Mom and Pop too, don't see how I can possibly take it—it positively looks like something awful. However, to an uninitiated taste, particularly, with a "milk hang-over".

My name must be "git and Go" by now. We three got out of here about Friday last, at noon, just as the rain was coming down in little sheets, and went to see Aunt Edith Quick Watson! The Noodles!

That's all right, Watson, you don't need to find a cover for those noodles. Miss Sherlock has located the refrigerator she has been hunting. It's a Frigidaire Cold Wall. They say this is a new refrigerator which won't dry out foods even without covers on the dishes.

via, San Antonio, and other points. I couldn't be bothered with scenery or rain, so I just did a bassinetting. You know, with folks all time waking you up to "play with the baby" it puts circles, dark ones under a feller's eyes. I caught up, on the trip, and come on, ladies, I'm rested. Anyway, we had a grand time down there, and I saw a bunch of folks I'd not seen before, and who only saw men for a short time, postnatally. Pop got us back here Sunday night about 10:30, and we were all fagged out. Left Alice, they said at 10, and had no trouble only Pop thought his pants, or a rug was burning, and found out it was the wiring on the generator armature, whatever that is, and we had it fixed at Beeville. Got to Kennedy just about the time there was no Sun. You know, that was the eclipse day, and the first one I'd seen. Pop's hoping he got a picture of it, taken thru a sun visor, but I doubt it. All along the route there were sungazers, looking thru smoked glasses, pices of glass, and every other contraption. It wasn't dark enough for the chickens to go to roost, but they didn't suffer from the heat for about an hour. Bob Arnold, Jr., or III, I don't know which, threw a party the other day, and Mom and I took it in. We had a swell time, and for a souvenir, I came home with a little red celluloid windmill. Patsy Potts and her Mama came by the shop for me and Mom. I'm really getting to be a tea sipper, only they don't give us "children" (they call us) tea. It's usually milk. Pretty soon, I won't be able to look a cow in the face. Pop can't now. Now I don't want to be a hog with this baloney, and this may get left out, but then—by the way—they just got me the first pair of shoes, I feel like a "city slicker"—course, these ain't walking shoes, but they do look "cute"—even Pop admits that. Now, this windjamming has gone long enough, and another three hours has passed, so it's bottle time.

YELLOWJACKETS TRAMPLE T'VILLE 4-3, FRIDAY: HOLCOMB STARS

"Scaley" Holcomb, Flat High School baseball star, pitched a no-hit game on the Flat diamond Monday afternoon as the Yellowjackets turned back a scrappy Turnersville team by a score of 4-3.

Turnersville scored first in the first half of the fourth after two walks and an error by Holcomb. In the last half of the fourth, Flat scored four runs on two hits and two errors. One of these hits was a hard line drive through third by Love which scored both Holcomb and Ingram. Taylor also scored in this inning.

Brasher of Turnersville pitched a bang-up game for the losers allowing only three hits during the entire game. Holcomb was slightly wild at times but settled down when the game got underway and displayed his usual brilliant style.

State Defeats Pidcoke 7-11

Tuesday afternoon the State Training School baseball team clouted out a 7-11 victory over Coach Sam Anderson's Pidcoke High School nine.

The game was reported to be exceedingly close in the first half of the game with the Pidcoke youngsters holding their own against the experienced State team. Toward the last however, the State team started out on a scoring spree that gave them a four run lead and the victory.

Edmondson and Kindler were in the box for Pidcoke and Ransom pitched for the Training School.

Hornets Preparing For Austin Game

Saturday, April 20, the Gatesville High School Hornets are scheduled to go to Austin where they will tangle with the Austin High School baseball team of that city. On the night of the 20th they will meet the Texas University Freshmen under the lights.

The Hornets have played several games this season and show much promise of developing into a fine club, however the Austin games will be their first real tests of the season.

Flat Lassies Receive Sweaters

The Flat High School basketball girls recently closed a successful season and were awarded their letter sweaters last Monday.

Those receiving sweaters were: Carnell Clawson, Sarah Nell Brazzil, Leola Webb, Wanda Stovall, Lois Hopson, Gladys Wolff, Capola Blanchard, LeVerne Glass, Junior girls and reserves who received gold basketballs were Grace Clawson, Ruby Holcomb, Ann Harper, and Jeanne Clawson.

The High School baseball season has at last got underway but several games have been delayed due to unfavorable weather conditions. In the first round the State Training School nosed out the Pidcoke squad 7-11 and Flat defeated Turnersville by a score of 4-3. Nothing has been heard from the Ireland-Jonesboro game.

No official games are scheduled for this week end but if the weather permits, some of the postponed games will probably be played.

Red White, manager of the Gatesville high school Hornet baseball club is putting the Hornets thru their paces preparatory for the game with Austin High School on April 20. The Hornets have a dandy club and only the actual contest can tell whether or not they have bitten off more than they can chew. While at Austin the locals are also scheduled to meet the freshman team of Texas University under the lights.

The Waco Dons open their season next Sunday afternoon, April 14 at Katy Park, Waco. The game is scheduled to start at 3:00 p. m. and the 7-Up Team of Austin will furnish the competition.

The following players are available for service in the opening game for the Dons. Pitchers: Harry White, Billy Gillum, Buck Woods. Catchers: Frank Malloy, Babe Bryce, Duffy, First base, Ernest Evans, Second base, N. W. Barnhill and Jack Lindsey, short stop, Jimmie Witt, Third base, Bobby Moers, Bobby Stone, Outfield, Gabby Lusk, Dave Alsobrook, Clarence Pfeil, Charlie Haas, Scruggs, Gilmore.

NOTICE TEAM MANAGERS

All managers who have teams, or intend to enter teams in the County Baseball League are asked to have their teams organized and be ready to go as soon as possible. A meeting of the managers will be called in a few days to work out the schedule and other important details before the official opening as each team is asked to be ready.

Mound, Blackfoot, Pidcoke, Topsey, White Hall, and Plainview have definitely entered the league and we are asking the managers of these teams for their cooperation in making the 1940 League a great success.

Turnersville Loses To Hornets, Tues.

The Turnersville High School baseball nine suffered their second defeat of the week Tuesday afternoon when they were turned back by the Gatesville High School Hornets by a score of 5 to 0.

Brasher, Turnersville mound star pitched a brilliant game but couldn't throttle the Hornets batting attack which slapped out enough hits to tally five runs during the fray. Wilkerson, Gatesville pitcher, went the full length of the game and only gave up two clean hits.

McCallister of Turnersville also pitched several innings for the losers. The game was played on the Turnersville diamond starting at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Pidcoke H. S. Team Work Out, Sunday

Sunday afternoon at Pidcoke immediately following the Pidcoke Gatesville game, the Pidcoke High School team took the field in a practice session against the Gatesville High School Hornets.

The Pidcoke youngsters, most of them playing their first season, lost to the locals but they went thru a brisk workout which will be beneficial to them when the going gets tough in the county high school race.

G. M. Little, retired RFD carrier, and father-in-law of J. D. Landers of the CCC Camp, was a visitor here this week from Corpus Christi.

OBITUARY

This community was saddened again by the death of Mr. Bryd Whitt, who passed away Monday. Mr. Whitt had been in poor health for some time but still his death was a shock to his family and many friends. He seemed to be feeling extra well Monday morning walking off into the field looking at the crop. Failing to return when they thought he should, the family and several friends began a search for him finding him dead. Mr. Whitt was a fine man and was loved by everyone that knew him. He will be missed very much in this community. He leaves his wife and five children, one girl and four boys. All live here but one, Arnold, who is living in Port Arthur, Texas. All were present for the funeral.

The family has the deep sympathy of their many friends.

Mr. Whitt was buried Tuesday in the Pearl Cemetery. Dr. Baize of Gatesville and Bro. Allen of Ireland conducted the funeral services.

BIRCH'S PONY ENJOYS AIR TRIP

Princess, the Vanishing Pony will be in Gatesville when she will assist her master, Birch, Master Magician, in entertaining the children of the city, those who are youthful in spirit as well as those who are youthful in age, during the engagement at the City Auditorium, April 26th.

Princess is one actress who enjoys her work and who is never temperamental. She takes life philosophically and displays little or no vanity. She likes children and a crowd of youngsters may always be seen gathered about her as she takes her daily sight-seeing tour thru the city.

The cooler months of the year are working months for Princess, for it is then that she is called upon to make her appearance at each Birch performance, where she is hoisted in mid air, then disappears at the snap of her master's fingers.

It might also be said that Princess is the only living actress of note who has never sought publicity. She has never been known to give an interview to the newspapers, and has never voluntarily been quoted or had her photograph taken. She comes from the Dutch West Indies, is seven years old and weighs one hundred and fifty pounds.

But Princess is only one small portion of the great Birch array of thrilling illusions and demonstrations of the magic art. Included in the production are many tricks which require a veritable menagerie for presentation. Of these may be mentioned the canary that appears in a burning light bulb, the vanishing ducks, the elusive doves and many others.

Children are always made welcome at the Birch show. The magician likes to work with them, and frequently calls them to the stage.

"I like to play to adults, of course, for they can really appreciate to the fullest the beauty and wonder of illusions, but it is really much more fun to work with the kiddies. Their naive enthusiasm and the pure enjoyment which they get from the show is something infinitely precious to me."

Not only will Mr. Birch perform the most sensational feats of magic ever presented on a local platform, but he brings a program varied with pleasing novelties. Miss Mabel Sperry, musical artist extraordinary, will play a musical interlude on her specially built Marimba at the evening performance.

WISCONSIN PRIMARIES

Wisconsin's presidential primaries gave a decided impetus to the candidacy of Dist. Attorney Thomas E. Dewey for the Republican nomination while giving pause to the advocates of a third term for President Roosevelt.

Pitted against Michigan's Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Dewey polled a 2 to 1 vote over his opponent to win the state's 24 delegates to the Republican National Convention, emerging as the outstanding contender for his party's nomination.

Demonstrating his vote getting power in a state far removed from his native New York, the young racket-buster served notice upon the GOP politicians that he must be considered when the balloting begins at Philadelphia to choose the 1940 standard bearer.

The slate of delegates pledged to a third term for President Garner slate by 3 to 1, indicating that the chief executive is still a potent force politically.

But the Republicans substantially increased their vote over 193, when the President polled over 400,000 votes. Combined with the Garner vote of approximately 85, portunity to prove their ability in club work.

The meeting at the L. C. Perryman home March 26, was one of the best of 1940. A most interesting program on flower arrangement was high pointed by the bouquets and container displays made by Mrs. Loy Gene Brown, Mrs. Jim Jones and Mrs. L. C. Perryman.

Mrs. Alvin Kautzsch, the poultry demonstrator, gave an interesting report on the year's plans on poultry improvement. All members were happy to learn that Mrs. Howard Seward was joining the ranks. Fifty-three plants of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Another very important meeting was held on week later, April 2, at the Clovis Belvin home with Mrs. Ed Belvin joint hostess. Miss Jones, our H-D Agent, and Mr. CVraddock, our Hamilton County Agent, gave splendid lectures that made profound impressions on the club members.

The third important event of our H-D club in the past two weeks was our community recreational meeting. About fifty were present, and all enjoyed the entertainment. Mrs. Loy Gene Brown, the director, attributes the success of the meeting to her assistants: Mrs. Eldon Harris and Mrs. Hill Parrish directed the activities of the mature group; Mrs. Fleeta Wright had charge of the children; Miss Rae Seward entertained the young people and she furnished piano music.

Our next club meeting will be with Mrs. Jim Jones April 23.

A bedstead of gold was presented to Queen Victoria of England in 1859 by the Maharajah of Cashmere.

Egypt is encouraging the importation of foreign confectionery.

000—which may be considered strongly anti-third-term the Good Old Party polled a decisive majority of 1000,000 over the new deal force in the Badger Sta.

The figure of a presidential primary should not be interpreted too literally, for the crucial independent vote seldom participates. In Wisconsin, it is likely that most of the Progressives, who number a minimum of 200,000 voted for the Roosevelt delegates.

The fact that the Republicans still are strong in Wisconsin, where they won the governorship and eight congressional seats in the 1938 elections, gives pause to the third termers, for although President Roosevelt won the Democratic delegates, he lacked a substantial margin to win a majority of the votes in the state.

The new dealers realize that renominating Mr. Roosevelt would not necessarily be followed by his re-election.

While reacting positively upon Mr. Dewey's candidacy, the Wisconsin primaries may not seriously impair the chances of Senator Vandenberg. For the Michigan Senator did not actively campaign in Wisconsin, while Mr. Dewey made 20 speeches in various parts of the state.

The Dewey triumph will cause the Republican political bosses, who have been against the New Yorker, to reconsider him as a possible nominee. Undoubtedly the Republicans must nominate a good vote-getter, and at this time Mr. Dewey looks like that man.

The month of April may determine whether Mr. Roosevelt will run for a third term and who the Republican nominee will be. Primaries will be held in April in 4 key states in addition to Wisconsin—Illinois and Nebraska, both on April 9; Pennsylvania, April 23, and Massachusetts, April 30—which will give the Nation a well-balanced cross-section of sentiment.

Vice-President Garner is opposing the President in Illinois while Mr. Dewey is unopposed for the GOP delegates. In Massachusetts, Postmaster General Farley is seeking the state's 34 delegates.

President Roosevelt is unopposed for the 14 Democratic delegates from Nebraska. Mr. Garner and Mr. Farley have conceded Pennsylvania's 72 delegates to the chief executive.

A strong swing toward the Republicans is reported in Nebraska while intra-party squabbling in Pennsylvania has wrecked the Democrats' chances of carrying that state again.

Mr. Farley will win the 34 Massachusetts delegates according to present indications, and Mr. Roosevelt will defeat Mr. Garner in Illinois by a decisive vote.

The vote in these four states will be closely watched for comparative votes for the Democrats and the Republicans, and for indications of "protest" votes for Farley and Garner against the President.

At the end of this month, the presidential picture for both parties should be considerably clarified.

"The future welfare of our club and of our community rests entirely with the training of our young people; therefore, let's endeavor to get every girl and young matron into active services".

These were the words of Mrs. Brown, our president, as she appointed Miss Josephine Parrish, one of our youngest Club members, to fill the responsible position of program chairman during Mrs. Lang's absence.

Miss Parrish showed ability and dispatch as she conducted the entire program hour. The younger women of Liberty are now filling all important positions, and conducting the programs with an interest never before manifest. This "train the young" policy is bringing to light many active workers who have never been given an op-

Missions are of divine origin. God said "Go preach my gospel to every creature." The question is not will they be saved without it, but will we be saved if we do not preach it? "Every man needs Christ; Christ is able to meet every man's need. I owe to every man every thing that Christ is to me. Missions are a necessity if we are to have the power of the Spirit in the church". D. Burghalter. "The main message that any man gives is the man behind the message. The minister must be a man who embodies a Christ, revealing message. When Jesus can reach his pierced hand into my heart and do as he will, then I can accomplish his will". S. D. Gordon.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Dr. C. C. Klingman will preach at the First Christian Church Sunday, April 14. Everybody is invited to attend services.

Bible study starts promptly at ten o'clock every Sunday morning. Preaching service 2nd and 4th Sunday in each month. No evening services.

Topic for the sermon April 14th, will be "What Do You Want?", which is based on Matthew 11:16, 19. The Public is cordially invited to attend.

Please remember that this church is non sectarian as it is humanly possible to be. We have no creed except a practical belief in Jesus as the Christ. We do not bind on God's worshippers anything that Christ has not bound on them. Therefore, we have no man-made tests of fellowship. We practice open-worship and open-communion. Even unbelievers who have never accepted Christ by any personal overt act are eligible to worship God as they see fit within our sanctuary. Being God's children through the laws of nature they are potentially disciples of Christ. To us the Lord's Supper is a spiritual feast of holy remembrance of sweet personal communion with Christ. All sincere worshippers are therefore as eligible to partake of the loaf and cup, which are symbolic of the healing, forgiving, love of Christ as they are to sing our hymns or to pray when we pray. We try to make Christ's basic beliefs as clear as the truths of science, as beautiful as art, as intimate as the home, and as indispensable as the air we breathe. Why do otherwise intelligent people starve their souls when the Bread of Heaven and the Water of Life is so graciously offered to all by our Master, Jesus Christ?

CHAPTER NINE SYNOPSIS:
Federal Bureau of Investigation agents are confident that Steve Eddson, pivotal public enemy, has kidnapped Enid Casserly, daughter of his patron, Mrs. Thornton Casserly, and her fiancé, Bruce Eaton. Big Boy Bradmore and Slim Racky, his pals, are holding the young couple at the mountain lodge of Tyler Craden, crooked lawyer who arranged the release of Eddson and Bradmore from prison on parole. A raked ransom note brings Eddson out into the open and involves Craden as the master mind. With this information, the G-Men take steps to arrest the criminals.

CHAPTER X
TYLER CRADEN, the "brains" behind the kidnaping of Enid Casserly and her fiancé, Bruce Eaton, stopped in surprise when he saw that his mountain cabin was without lights. For here, he knew, Big Boy Bradmore, the parolee, and both of use! He sent in a ransom note for two hundred grand—Britton's voice cut into his sentence.

"Stand where you are and put up your hands!"
Eddson went for his gun. Britton's gun spat. Eddson yelled with pain, grabbed his wounded hand. Craden raised his arms.
"We're Federal officers—you're under arrest!" Britton exclaimed.
"This is all a mistake," Craden faltered. "Bradmore and Eddson used my lodge unknown to me, and I just discovered—"
"Save it, Craden!" Britton ordered, advancing. From the door of another room, Special Agents Waring and Preston brought out Big Boy Bradmore and Slim Racky. Behind them came Enid Casserly and grand jury launched a parole inquiry, Gustav Kalkus, who sold paroles, received a sentence of five years, and Collette Menthe was given a jail sentence.

The final clean-up to the case came, however, with the conviction and sentence of Slim Racky, Steven Eddson and Tyler Craden.
The judge in the United States District Court said:
"Before pronouncing sentence, I want you to know that kidnaping is one of the most vicious crimes with which we deal today."
He looked at Racky, Eddson and Craden, who stood before him, flanked by United States marshals.
"Two of you defendants are paroled prisoners, and the third, a proved corrupter of our parole system who not only defiled his honor-

Britton's voice cut into his sentence. "Stand where you are and put up your hands!"

Slim Racky, another criminal, were supposed to be holding the young couple.
He paused for only an instant. A moment later he was inside the lodge, closing the door behind him and turning on the lights.
"Bradmore! Slim!" he called. He heard no answer. Then he heard the sound of a car coming up the mountainside in second gear. He looked out a window, saw Steve Eddson. He reached the door as Eddson dashed in. Eddson demanded to know what was going on.
"I'm beginning to think Big Boy Bradmore's hi-jacked us," Craden answered.
Eddson grabbed Craden by the tie.
"Dummy up, Craden! I think you're fixing to hand me the business."
Craden pulled away.
"Use your brains! I laid out the Casserly job and took you and Bradmore and Slim in on it. Why would I double-cross you?"
"Say—then Bradmore's crossing

Bruce Eaton. Bradmore suddenly braced himself, dashed across the room and darted through the front door. Britton sprinted after him.
Bradmore jumped into Craden's automobile, stepped on the starter. "For the last time, Bradmore," Britton ordered from the porch, a grim smile on his face, "halt and put up your hands!"
Bradmore paid no attention, swung the car around and started down the winding mountain road.
"Fire your parachute flares!" Britton ordered. Three pairs of G-men, concealed in the brush, fired the flares. The roadway was lighted by the calcium, turned into day. Britton leaped into a government sedan, ordered pursuit. Bradmore, a hundred yards in the lead, realized by this time that his game was up. As his car approached a horseshoe curve he turned, blasted at his pursuers. Britton pressed his trigger in reply. Bradmore crumpled over the wheel. The car shot off the road.
The story of the capture made headlines and others followed. The able profession by aiding and advising criminals, but who played upon the sympathies of an unthinking public."

Mrs. Casserly, in court with the special agents, her daughter, Enid, and Bruce Eaton, hung her head.

"This court has received information," the judge continued, "that the parole system in this state is to be remodeled upon the sensible, humane, efficient lines employed by the federal government. I only wish that such progress could be made everywhere in America."

"Steven Eddson, Edward Racky and Tyler Craden, I sentence you to a federal penitentiary, as directed by the Attorney General, for the remainder of your natural lives. Court adjourned."

Bruce Eaton, Enid, Special Agents Britton, Waring and Hanford and Attorney Porter, left the Federal building in a group. Bruce said to Enid:

"It's across the street."
"Are you sure?" Enid asked.
Mrs. Casserly, hearing this much of the conversation, declared:
"Oh, no dear—it's around the corner—not across the street—"
"The only one in the city is across the street—" Eaton persisted.
"The one I'm talking about is just around the corner," Mrs. Casserly pressed. "I ate there yesterday."

Bruce Eaton laughed.
"Oh—you're talking about lunch!" he exclaimed.
"Aren't you?"
"No," he replied, with a grin. "Were looking for the marriage license bureau."

"And we're getting married," Enid added.
Britton, the other G-men and Porter exchanged amused glances.
"I simply refuse to let you marry on an empty stomach. We'll celebrate the occasion. It's only a few steps from here."

"You don't mean Aunt Lindy's cafe, do you?" Britton asked.
"That's right—where that darling mammy says, 'Now you'all eats some more chicken, honey chile—yo' sho' looks a little peeked.'"
"That's the place!" agreed Britton.

"Then what are we waiting for?" asked Mrs. Casserly.

 "Where Friends Meet to Eat"

Hailed with delight by lovers of stage entertainment is the announcement that "South of the Border" company, presenting the famous play of the same name, will be in Gatesville for one night only, Friday, April 12th, in a brand new water proofed tent theatre. The actors appearing in this production are said to be some of the best in the amusement business, and the vaudeville numbers are said to be second to none. One of the many features carried by this tent show organization is Henry, world famous artist and magician, whose sand paintings are said to rival masterpieces of art. Henry created a sensation last season through Texas while appearing with Harley Sadler's tent theatre as a featured vaudeville attraction. A high class orchestra is carried, under the capable direction of Robert Siler. "South of the Border" is a story of the romantic country across the Rio Grande, has a good love story, an abundance of comedy, with special scenery and lighting effects. Due to the fact that this attraction will be here only one night, a large audience is expected to greet this popular show.

There IS a Difference in Gasolines

AGAIN, Humble's policy of continuous improvement registers a noteworthy gain in quality for Texas motorists. These two great gasolines, now improved, point the way to improved performance for your car. When you try them, you'll agree that there is a difference in gasolines.

Improvement of these gasolines results from our policy of CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT: Humble technical men are constantly experimenting, in the laboratory and on the road, with improved products for your car. This constant research results in continuous improvement of the gasolines, motor oils and other products you get under the Humble sign. The process of improvement is so continuous that specific improvements frequently are made without public announcement. It is only when marked improvements are made, like the improvement in quality of these fine gasolines, that your special attention is called to them.

It all adds up to this: we promise you that you will find Humble products second to none, that you can depend on continuous improvement to keep the quality of Humble products up with, or a little ahead of, the performance built into your car.

To Buyers in the Lower-Price Field

Humble offers you another product of its policy of continuous improvement in Thriftane, a leaded gasoline of specified quality at thrifty price.

We hope more of our farmers and stockmen will become interested in building these traps on their premises. They are not expensive and can be built for about four dollars. Help get rid of the greatest nuisance to the live stock industry, greater losses among the live stock than anything else. Mr. Ernest Turner was a visitor to Ireland from Gatesville Wednesday. Mr. Will Haley and son of Ater have been doing some repair work on windmills the past week. The donkeys, a truck load, and their owner came to town and all landed in the Ireland gymnasium ready to play basketball with their rubber shoes on, all pepped up and ready to go, so were the boys in fine trim, plenty of riders galore. The Aleman boys made a score of 8 while the other side made only 2. I think the decision should have been rendered in favor of the donkeys for it looked as if they were doing all the playing. They had plenty of riders but they didn't make the grade, all were thrown off. The boys enjoyed the fun, so did the audience. The owner and the donkeys will go into winter quarters in Oklahoma, where the donkeys will receive special training, and they will return to Ireland early next year, where we will have two nights of it. The first night the teachers, trustees, business men and patrons will do the riding. The second night the boys will be in better practice to ride with more boys anxious to make the ride. Boys, you can ride 'em and the only way is just keep your seat.

Sunday. Elder Chambers did the preaching. Mrs. Kate Winters of Evant visited in the Ira Upton home Sunday. Several of this community attended the play at Slater last Friday night. Mrs. Ira Upton and children, Ethel and Conrad, sat up with Mrs. E. E. Rhodes last Thursday night. She was very ill for a few days.

CROSELY REFRIGERATORS HAVE SURPRISING GADGETS

Crosley Refrigerators, according to Byron Leaird, local distributor, this year, have a number of surprising gadgets that make them one of the foremost boxes offered to the public this year. Only the Crosley has the Freezorcold and the miniature cold storage plant that stores frozen foods, freezes fresh meats, game, poultry and fish. Too, the Electrosaver is so simple of design and so smooth running and quiet the housewife need not concern herself about it. Change in eating habits, where it is possible to have fresh vegetables and fruits in Winter, make it necessary that this feature be added to the Crosley. This, is the Freezorcold, which was explained above, according to Mr. Leaird.

PARTNERS IN A GREAT TEXAS ENTERPRISE

Oil TEXAS farmers and ranchers received last year from oil men the huge sum of $132,478,000 for leases and royalties as their share in this partnership.

All but seven of Texas' 254 counties now share in this cash return from leases and production on more than 50,000,000 acres of Texas land.

Then, too, the Texas farmers and ranchers sell to oil workers and their families more than $60,000,000 worth of farm and livestock products each year.

Thus the farmers and ranchers of our state receive nearly 200 million dollars a year as their share of oil's total expenditure of 750 million dollars annually in Texas. These 200 million dollars in turn flow into every channel of Texas trade.

The Texas farmer and rancher and the oil man are partners in the development of Texas.
