What Irvin S. Cobb Thinks about

Intriguing Construction.
SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—Downtown I saw some sort of siege-wall going up. At first I thought it must be a part of the proposed plaza leading from our new terminal. Our new terminal has been under construction almost as long as New York's unfinished Cathedral of St. John. Inch by inch it progresses, giving creeping defiance to those critics who say that what Los Angeles needs is not any additional entrances, but more exits.

Irvin S. Cobb

On second glance I decided the owner of the business property behind this strange rampart probably made the same mistake I did. I saw a picture in the paper and I said, "Pretty late to be printing a photograph of Fifth Avenue showing how it appeared when the World's war heroes got through pranking last month." I looked again and saw it was only a scene in Shanghai after the Japanese finished bombing.

So I figure this forehanded Los Angeleno is just getting ready for next year's convention of the vets out here. When his wall is absolutely impregnable against assault, he'll no doubt paint a big sign on it reading:

"Welcome, American Legion."

Kindness for Reptiles.
UNDER the slogan, "Kindness for reptiles," the National Park service discourages people from destroying every creature they encounter, merely because it wriggles or crawls.

I'm what you might call an occasional snakist, indulging in snakes only in moderation. In other words, I can take my snakes or I can leave them be. But realizing that practically all snakes destroy noxious vermin, I refrain from murdering every passing snake, regardless of his private habits and personal disposition, just for being a snake.

I was raised in a locality where moccasin snakes were so numerous the Republicans used to accuse us of voting them, at county elections. Yet I recall only one instance of a moccasin snake biting anybody, and it must have been, tempted beyond all power of self-control, for the fellow bitten was a pious party who didn't think little children should be suffered to believe in Santa Claus. I regret to state that he recovered. It was the snake that died.

Movie Preferences.
I DON'T like movies about hospitals where an impossible young surgeon performs impossible operations, in four strokes under par, using his irons all the way 'round; and then, while replacing the divots, makes love to an impossible although beautiful nurse. But between operations he washes his hands. Dadgum him, he's always washing his hands! Who does he think he is, Pontius Pilate?

I don't like movies about newspaper offices where the hero is a drunken reporter who behaves in a manner peculiar to newspaper reporters (in the movies); which is so darned peculiar that, in a real newspaper office, somebody'd beat out his brains with a wet towel.

I like movies showing Myrna Loy, when not playing nurse; and Spencer Tracy, when not playing reporter.

Anyhow, nothing could be an absolute failure that has a Walt Disney short separating the ultra-classical or regular feature from the extra-special four-star absolutely unparalleled super-stupendous preview feature.

Gossip About Cobb.
JUST a little effort to trace down gossip now going around:

(I) The claim that I am going to play Scarlett in "Gone With the Wind" is absolutely unfounded. Latest word is that the coveted role will go to Fannie Brice, although the Ritz brothers are being mentioned. If they should be chosen, Scarlett will be played as a three-handed quartette.

(II) Dame Rumor hath it that the Atlantic sperm whale will be re-named the Justice Black sperm whale. Not yet confirmed, but sounds sort of plausible. The Atlantic sperm whale has a hide almost two feet thick.

(III) The statement that Charley McCarthy may join the reorganized brain trust at Washington remains unsettled. Probably without foundation. For while Charley is trained to sit upon his master's knee, he cannot be depended on to keep silent and has too many brains to be trusted.

(IV) Stories to the effect that Representative Ham Fish will be Republican nominee for President in 1940 may be regarded as absolutely authentic so far as Representative Ham Fish is concerned.

Your husband can't possibly know how you feel for the simple reason that he is a man.

EXTRA! WAR IS OVER

PARIS, Nov. 7, 1918, 2 P. M.—The greatest war of all times came to an end at 2 p. m. today. The allies and Germany signed an armistice three hours earlier on the field of battle. Early this morning the German delegation passed thru the allied lines under a white flag and immediately signed the capitulation.

Sedan was captured by the Americans early this morning.

PARIS, Nov. 7—The allies and Germany signed an armistice at 11 o'clock this morning hostilities ceased, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Americans took Sedan before the armistice became effective.

One of the newspaper "extras" which were issued on November 7, 1918, in celebration of the "fake armistice."

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
 © Western Newspaper Union.

ON THE morning of November 7, 1918, Roy W. Howard, president of the United Press, arrived in Brest, France, from Paris, to embark on a ship for America and within a few hours the whole United States was in a delirium of joy. The long-awaited news had come at last! "The war is over! The war is over!" was the thrilling cry that echoed throughout the land.

For Howard had flashed to the United Press office in New York word that the Germans had signed an armistice. Immediately newspapers, served by the U. P., dusted off huge letters of type which had not been used for years. Within a few minutes their presses began pouring out extras whose screaming on that November morning 19 years ago, he found that seaport filled with rumors of an armistice. That afternoon he called upon Admiral Henry B. Wilson, American naval commander at Brest, who showed him a telegram which he had received from Capt. (later rear admiral) Richard H. Jackson, naval attache at the American embassy in Paris. It said "Armistice signed this morning at eleven. All hostilities ceased at 2 p. m."

Chance for a Scoop.

Instantly Howard recognized the importance of the message. It was as though the biggest news scoop in history was in his hands. He immediately asked permission to send a flash to the New York office of the United Press just to make sure his subordinates there would have the news, in case it had not been flashed to them from Paris. He was escorted to the telegraph office by Admiral Wilson's aide and because this apparently gave his message official indorsement, it was not sent to the Inter-Allied censorship bureau in the Bourse in Paris, as would ordinarily have been done with a press dispatch from Brest. Instead it was sent direct to New York.

Had Howard's message been sent to Paris there is no doubt that it would have been held up there, although for a time the rumors of an armistice were believed sufficiently to cause a number of small celebrations in the French capital. Almost immediately after sending his first flash, Howard filed another message to the U. P. office in New York saying that his first message was "unconfirmable."

By one of those queer turns of fate, this message was sent to the censorship bureau at Paris where it was held up by the French censor and did not reach the United States until nearly 24 hours later. The censor also held up all other dispatches bearing on the rumors of an armistice, including one from Fred Ferguson, United Press correspondent in Paris, denying that an armistice had been signed. Because of this delay, the news of an armistice, based upon Howard's first flash, was allowed to spread throughout the United States and cause the premature celebrations already referred to.

When it became apparent that Howard was going to be severely criticized for his part in the affair, Admiral Wilson immediately issued a public statement assuming full responsibility for giving out the news and absolving the United Press president. Howard then sent a dispatch covering Wilson's statement but this was also held up by the censor in Paris. So the public in its first reaction to its disappointment, heaped unmerited censure upon Howard and his organization, and it was not until June, 1933, when the State department in Washington issued "Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States," that he was officially exonerated of all blame.

Still a Mystery.

Meanwhile, the origin of the "fake armistice" message still remained something of a mystery. It was partially cleared up last year with the publication of the book "I Found No Peace" written by Webb Miller, United Press foreign correspondent, and published by Simon and Schuster. One chapter in this book is devoted to Howard's explanation of the origin of the message.

He cites the statement of Col. Edward M. House that it was a "French official who started the rumor." Howard, however, declares that, in his opinion, no "French official" ever phoned the news of an armistice to the American embassy on November 7. Basing that opinion on conversations he has had with American and French intelligence officers, he believes that the bulletin communicated to Ambassador Sharp was phoned by a German secret agent, who had probably, several months earlier, tapped the private wire connecting the embassy and the Quai d'Orsay and waited for an occasion to use it.

Col. E. M. House

That occasion came during the first week in November, when rumors of an impending suspension of hostilities were in the air, and this German secret agent rang up the embassy, announced himself in perfect French as speaking for the foreign office and gave his message, which was later communicated to Admiral Wilson at Brest. That is most likely the real origin of the "fake armistice," according to Howard, who says: "If ever the 'French officer,' who in my belief was in fact a German secret agent working in Paris, tells his story or if his official report to the German war office is ever made public, the secret of the false armistice will be revealed—but not otherwise."

THE REASON HEADACHES ARE RELIEVED SO FAST

THE REASON BAYER ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST
 Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a tumbler of water.
 By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating.
 This speed of disintegration enables genuine BAYER Aspirin tablets to start "taking hold" of headache and similar pain a few minutes after taking.

All people who suffer occasionally from headaches ought to know this way to quick relief.

At the first sign of such pain, take two Bayer Aspirin tablets with a half glass of water. Sometimes if the pain is more severe, another dose is necessary later, according to directions.

If headaches keep coming back we advise you to see your own physician. He will look for the cause in order to correct it.

The price now is only 15¢ for twelve tablets or two full dozen for 25 cents—virtually, only a cent apiece.

HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

There May Be Many Reasons for Making Quilted Chair Pads.

IF ALL the reasons for quilted chair pads were lined up in order of their importance the most intangible reason of all might head the list. Yes, it is quite likely that any decorator, amateur or professional would place atmosphere at the top. But then it is also possible that first rating might be given to the reason that the pressure of slats across the backs of chairs is softened by quilted pads. Then, though it might not be mentioned, it is a known fact that worn out cane seats are sometimes replaced with inexpensive composition seats which may be disguised by gay quilted pads.

Chintz, calico or gingham chair pads are in fact one of the simplest and most inexpensive ways of adding color and charm as well as comfort to a room. Such pads are often used on the backs of chairs and not on the seats, and especially for side chairs, the seat pads used without any back covering. In making such small things as these it is quite easy to do the quilting on the machine. Or, if you wish to take the other point of view about it, the work of quilting them by hand would not consume an unreasonable amount of time. There is no doubt that handwork has a certain quaintness that machine work lacks.

The pads shown here are made with one layer of sheet wadding between the two layers of the chintz. The edge bindings and ties are made of bias tape. Cut the three layers of the pad material exactly the size and shape you want them to be when finished. Place the sheet wadding between the two layers of covering material as shown here at A. Either pin or baste in this position, and then quilt as shown here at B. Make the ties by stitching the lengthwise edges of the bias tape together, and then tack them to the corners of the pad as at C before it is bound. Now, bind the edges, sewing the ties right in with the binding as shown here at D.

Farm Tenant Loans Now Being Taken

First steps for the administration of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, wherein money will be loaned to competent tenants, farm laborers, and share-croppers for the purpose of purchasing family-sized farms, are now being taken.

Details of an order, signed by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, provides that regional offices will be established with the Farm Security regional director as executive head and with one specialist in tenant farm purchase loans.

In Texas, the goat, horse and cows are the usual spreaders of this disease. The germs of undulant fever enter the body through the mouth or skin. Therefore, care should be used in handling animals known to be infected and dairy products from the same sources should be pasteurized.

The true prevention of undulant fever is based upon the detection of the disease in livestock and the elimination of infected stock from the herds. Dairy herds should be tested for Bacillus abortus. This is a task that cannot be accomplished in a short time.

There Seems to Be Several Angles in This Football Game

THIS game called football: Cognomen confusers — Bethel college, McKenzie, Tenn., and Bethel college, Kansas. Bowling Green Teachers' college, Kentucky, and Bowling Green Normal school, Ohio. Dickinson college, Pennsylvania, and Dickinson Teachers' college, North Dakota. Marquette university, Wisconsin, and Marquette Teachers' college, Michigan. Monmouth college, Illinois, and Monmouth Normal school, Oregon.

Twenty-eight Notre Dame graduates coach college teams as compared to seven from Minnesota. Only two alumni of Carlisle, as famed on the gridiron 25 years ago as the Irish and Gophers are now, are coaching. They are William Dietz at Albright and Gus Welch at American U.

Of the 40 or more football players whose last names are the names of colleges only two seem to be competing against their namesakes this year. Dickinson of Delaware played against Dickinson college and Marquette of Villanova bore down against Marquette. None of the athletes seem to be playing on teams bearing their own names. There is, though, a "Furman" at Cornell and a "Cornell" at California.

Coach Jock Sutherland of Pitt started his athletic career as a track and field man at Oberlin academy. At Pitt he played football, tossed the weights, was track captain and filled in his other idle hours with varsity wrestling.

How Irish Were Saved by Hairline Finishes

Hairline finishes—Elmer Layden's Notre Dame team was saved from defeat in the final minutes of play in three games during 1935. The Irish won from Pitt and Ohio State on last minute scores while tying Army in the final second, 6 to 6. That year Notre Dame scored 27 points in the last seven minutes of play in seven games. In the Ohio State game Andy Pilney scored 18 points in the last quarter, 12 of them coming in the last two minutes.

In 1906 Cornell beat Oberlin, Hamilton, Bucknell, Bowdoin, Pitt, Holy Cross and Swarthmore. But was twice defeated by the Penn Frosh. Coaches whose teams meet the coach's alma mammy this season include:

Harvard once had five plays from the Holy Cross one yard line (The extra chance being due to the Crusaders being offside) without scoring the touchdown.

Thomas of Middle Georgia college ran back the opening kickoff for touchdowns in three games one season.

Duke plays teams from five different states in its first five games this season.

In 1936 Byron White of Colorado made four touchdown runs through the snow against Utah. After these jaunts of 39, 28, 89 and 45 yards he threw a 50 yard pass over the goal line for a fifth touchdown.

At least two Olympic contestants are playing college football this season, Hurdlers Forest Towns of Georgia and Fritz Pollard, Jr., of North Dakota. The two, incidentally, ran a 14.2 dead heat in the British Empire games.

In 1936 Guilford college defeated only Bridgewater. Bridgewater defeated only Gallaudet. Gallaudet defeated only Wilson Teachers. Wilson Teachers won none.

NOT IN THE BOX SCORE:

WHEN discussing football prospects Carl Snively, coach of Cornell's high-riding eleven, could spot Gil Dobie six towels and still run away with any crying contest. Jack Dempsey has been a most frequent racetrack visitor recently. Can it be that Jack is taking the sport of kings seriously again after that technical kayo he suffered from his first experience with the gee gees? Owner Ben-swanger of Pittsburgh is quoted as saying he would rather finish sixth with a fighting ball club than third in the manner of the 1937 Pirates. So it has been predicted there will be various trades this winter with Arky Vaughan already on the market. N. Y. U. may not be the hardest luck eleven of the year. But what other team has lost such key-men as Swiadow, Savarese, Williams and Bloom in rapid succession?

Three generations of Whitney owners, William C., Harry Payne and Cornelius V. have cheered while their famous Eton Blue and Brown Cap have been carried to victory in almost every important American stake and an Epsom Derby. The colors, which will be retired from the turf after this season, were obtained in England 50 years or so ago. "Those colors are a jinx," the famous English trainer Jack Lambert told William C. Whitney. "You can buy them for a song." Art Rooney will return in the spring for another crack at the ponies. You can take a short price on that, horse players never quit. For instance there was a celebrated English punter, a higher roller than any Rooney, Gates or Chicago O'Brien. He's dead now but until he ended it all, shortly after being turned down for a fever, he still had been talking of a comeback.

That football return duel between Fordham Tackle Barbartsky and Pitt End Daddio was a honey. Daddio and the other star Panther end, Frank Soucek, play numbers one and two on the Pitt golf team.

Cubs' Loss of Pennant Is Blamed on Wives

Some Chicagoans claim Charley Grimm's Cubs finished second this year because too many wives were interfering in their husbands' business. As usual most of the obit writers were wrong when Princeton's great lineman, Biffy Lea, died. He was not an All-America end for four years as most of them insisted. He was All-America tackle for three years and then, due to an injured shoulder which forced him to play with his arm strapped to his side all season, he moved out to end the next year. Made the All-America as end this time. It is extremely doubtful that the new world record for the mile, set in London last summer by Stan Wooderson, will be allowed by the international federation. There are two reasons, both sufficient under the rules to prevent acceptance of the mark. One is that the race was with club members. The other is that it was a paced race and he was permitted to have the pole all the way.

Umpires Emslie and Byron, once two of the best in the big time, visited the World Series. When they arrived at press headquarters the first guy they asked for was Casey Stengel.

Both the Yankees and Joe McCarthy are to be congratulated on their new contract. Joe has had plenty to work with. Baseball never has known a more efficient organization than the one shrewd Ed Barrow has perfected during his years as business manager. Yet some men squander their own talents as well as the gifts that are offered to them. Joe never has done that. He has made good and full use of every opportunity. Although $35,000 a year probably is beyond the comprehension of most of the fans who pay to make the club richer each season there is no doubt but what cash customers are wholeheartedly glad he is getting it.

Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers rushes from the dressing room to the nearest soda emporium after each bout to fill up on cantaloupe and ice cream. Two home games in Washington drew within $13,000 of what the Redskins took in at seven games in Boston. A British newspaper syndicate paid Tommy Farr $30,000 for his life story after the Joe Louis bout. Bill McKechnie, new manager of the Cincinnati Reds, formerly managed five of the seven rival pilots in the National league. They are Grimm, Frisch, Traynor, Grimes, and Wilson. Dean Cromwell, track coach at Southern California, let out a deep groan when Bob Peoples fractured his wrist in a freshman football game with Stanford, and no wonder. Peoples probably is the best javelin prospect in the United States.

Joe Louis' softball team has been touring California cities, asking a guarantee of only $150 a game. Joe gives all the receipts to the players. A letter addressed "Barney Ross, Somewhere in the U. S. A." was delivered to the welterweight champion in Chicago a few days ago. Dorothy Bundy, who eliminated Alice Marble from this year's national tennis tournament, is en route to Australia with Dorothy Workman.

Almost Satisfied A Swedish farmer who wanted to make his permanent home in this country appeared for his naturalization papers. "Are you satisfied with the general conditions of this country?" he was asked. "Yah, sure," he answered. "And does this government of ours suit you?" "Well, yah, mostly," stammered the man, "only I lak see more rain." —Wall Street Journal.

Home Heating Hints By John Barclay Heating Expert

Building Furnace Fire Is Easy Operation When You Follow Few Simple Rules

IT'S really no trick to build a good furnace fire quickly and easily. Leave a layer of ashes about two inches deep spread on the grates. Spread about two inches of coal over this layer of ashes. Over the coal, place a generous amount of kindling—newspapers and light, dry wood. The turn damper in the smoke pipe and the ashpit damper should be open wide. If the ashpit damper on your furnace is in back, open it and also the ashpit door in front. This assures maximum draft and quick ignition.

When the kindling is burning well, add fresh coal gradually. In this way you get a deep fire in little time—the kindling burning the coal beneath it, and the fire, in turn, igniting the coal above it. From time to time, add additional fuel until you have a solid, deep fire. When this is done, check your dampers and close the ashpit door.

Should the kindling while igniting smoke a bit through the furnace door crevices, it is due to the chimney being cold and not providing enough draft to carry off the smoke. This is easily overcome by wadding a bit of newspaper, lighting it, and inserting it into the check damper. This heats the air, creating a draft in the flue pipe and chimney and carries the smoke away. WNU service.

The quick way to alkalize is this: Take two teaspoons of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after eating and drinking. Or, when among others—take two Phillips' Tablets that come in a small flat tin you carry in purse or vest pocket. —You do it unnoticed. Relief is almost immediate. "Gas," nausea, acid breath and other offensive symptoms leave. —That "stuffed" feeling and pains from "acid indigestion" cease to annoy. You feel great. This is the way, we believe, more doctors use than any other when alkalinizing upset stomach.
