Tigers Face Stiff Test Tonight In Game With Glen Rose Eleven

Game Time Set For 8:00 O'Clock At Hico Stadium

Tonight, Friday, at 8 o'clock, the Hico Tigers meet their stiffest test of the young season when the Glen Rose Tigers invade Hico Stadium for their annual rivalry. Hico has yet to gain a victory over Glen Rose in several years of play, and from all indications this season will be no exception, as the Somervell County team is reported to be "loaded" with talent.

Coch James Willingham will start a veteran team which only last week spanked Meridian, 13-6. And as most of you know, Meridian is regarded as one of the top contenders for the district crown this year, of which Hico is a member. Most observers are predicting a 3-touchdown victory for the Glen Rose aggregation, coming on the heels of their convincing victory last week.

At mid-week, Coach Porter Willis stated that four of his better boys were on the sick list, but would probably be recovered sufficient by game time. If the team is at full strength, local observers feel that Hico has a good chance of pulling an upset and making a real battle for their third win of the season. Last week the youngsters from Hico High were 21-point underdogs going into the contest with Strawn. The locals took the prediction in stride and walked away with a 12-0 victory over the Palo Pinto school.

Anyway you look at the situation, a good game is in store for local fans tonight at Tiger Stadium. Be on hand and support the team. It helps.

HICO DEFEATS STRAWN.

Last week Hico traveled to Strawn for their annual clash with the Greyhounds of that city, and came home with their second victory in as many starts this year. Despite the fact that they were doped to lose by 21 points, Hico put together two Strawn bobbles for a 12-0 victory. However, the victory cannot be defined as an upset, as Strawn was definitely a weaker ball club than most had expected. Gone were the top boys who carried the Greyhounds to a 54-0 victory over the Tigers last year.

Both teams showed well on defense, but offensively, neither could

Ramages Purchase Farm in Red River Valley, Near Texarkana

Jewel Ramage returned recently from Hooks, Texas, where he purchased a farm in the Red River Valley. The land was purchased by himself, his father, H. H. Ramage, and his brother, Jimmie Ramage.

The place contains 370 acres, 200 of which is under cultivation, and the remainder is in pasture land. The farm is located in Bowie County, 5 miles from Hooks, and 19 miles from Texarkana. Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Ramage and children, Cal, Bart and Ann will move to the place in mid-November, and will have charge of its operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Ramage, Cherry D. and Lee, will remain on the home place in Black Stump Valley and oversee its operation.

The Ramages recently sold a 400-acre farm near Chalk Mountain, to Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Greenway of Valley Mills, formerly of Hico.

Jewel plans to have oats, clover and soy beans for seed production, as the main crop on the new farm, which is subject to irrigation.

Former Students of Iredell Schools Will Meet October 8

"All former students and guests are looking forward to another get-together with old friends and classmates," stated Mr. Ramage.

HOW IS THIS FOR RESULTS?

Lee Autrey called the NR early Monday morning and said to stop his ad he placed in the classified section for two weeks. It appeared once in last Friday's paper, and he immediately sold the item, an electric churn. Mr. Autrey said he had always had that kind of results using the classified section of the News Review.

Hico Takes Lead In BV League Play-Offs, 2-1

By LEON LEWIS

Well, Joe Stasey and the Hico Bombers took another game from Granbury by a score of 13 to 5. This makes two out of three for Hico in the final play-off, which is to be the best three out of five games. Granbury must win the next two games or else, while Hico only has to win one more out of two, and it that should be next Sunday at Hico, Joe Stasey will capture another pennant for Hico. Joe has already won four pennants out of six seasons. Can he win five out of seven? Well, he at Hico Sunday at 2:30 p. m. and see.

These games are drawing larger crowds than any season in the past. Remember it's Granbury at Hico, and this could be the last game should Hico win. See you at the game.

It Happened Here or Near

By E. E. DAWSON

Are you interested in statistics? Just what are "Statistics?" Here is what a reputable dictionary says: "Classified facts respecting any particular class or interest; especially, those facts which can be stated in numbers." Now classified facts about pups born with their eyes open, or of how far fleas can hop, or how many old maids prefer pickles sour rather than sweet, would not interest very many folks. But facts about religion are always of interest to the average person, for the average person is religious. For that matter, perhaps all men and women are religious though some may not acknowledge it. There follows here with some statistics just off the press that concern religion in America, and they do have much interest.

Of the 160 million folks in these United States, 97 million plus of them hold church membership in some religious body. Which means that six persons out of every ten belong to some church, or comparable organization. When you take account of the babies and children too young to hold church membership, you can see there is a considerable bunch of us that have become members. And the proportion of church members to non-members is increasing pretty rapidly. It is an enheartening fact for the average American.

How are all these church members divided as to organizations? Here are the latest figures: Protestants, 57 million plus, with 273,000 plus churches; Roman Catholics, 32 million, with 20,000 plus churches; Jewish, five and a half million, with 4,000 plus churches; Greek Catholics, two million plus and having something more than a thousand churches. Some other very much smaller sects are listed also.

These high totals break down in denominational groups as follows: Baptists 18 million plus in 26 different bodies; Methodists, eleven millions plus in twenty-one bodies; Lutherans six million plus in twenty bodies; Presbyterians, three millions in ten bodies; Protestant Episcopal, two millions plus.

The percentage gains read like this for 1954: Protestants, 2.3 per cent; Catholics 2.9 per cent; Jews 10 per cent.

The churches collect and disburse quite a sum of money according to most recent figures. In 1954 more than two billion dollars was collected, and something

No Contest Seen In County Hospital Bond Election

Numerous talk has been put forth, both pro and con, on the possibility of a contest in the Aug. 27 Hospital Bond Election. The issue, which called for a $200,000 Bond to build and equip a County Hospital, was defeated by a majority of voters, and since that time much checking and re-checking of voters signatures against poll and property tax lists has been made to determine if illegal votes were cast.

Following is reprinted excerpts from a letter, and a signed statement from H. W. Allen, Hamilton attorney, who was retained by the Citizens Committee for Hamilton County Hospital, to do the paper work in an attempt to find enough irregularities in the voting to contest the election:

"The general overall picture as I have it of the situation is that there would not be enough votes subject to challenge to change the result of the election, even if they all voted one way, and I feel safe in assuming that a number of them would offset each other. There would be some votes over the county subject to challenge which were cast in the honest belief that the elector was entitled to a vote. Some people feel that they are entitled to vote if they are sixty years of age or over, whereas under the law, they must have become sixty years of age before January 1, 1954, in order to vote at an election held in 1955. That is, if they were not sixty on January 1, 1954, a poll tax would be assessed against them on that date, which would be the poll tax upon which the 55 voting is done. Of course, there were other incidents too, and as far as I can tell from my survey, if they were all deducted, there would still be a majority against the bond issue.

"I feel that I might have been of some service to the public in this connection, because this is different from a race between two individuals and a question should not be left hanging where faction is arrayed against faction, and group against group.

"After looking over the lists of persons voting in the county, in my opinion a majority of legal votes cast were against the Bond issue and therefore a contest is not advisable. The election officials are to be commended because in such an election where personal feeling becomes involved, theirs is a hard job, and they did it well.

"Hamilton County has always upheld the purity of the ballot, which along with the jury system, is a strong safeguard of democracy. I make this in the form of a written signed statement for the reason that my name has been connected with statements and talk about the conduct of the election before all boxes, and I made no decision or challenged any vote before a thorough check could be made on finishing the job. I believe that it is a good thing for everybody when such a question is raised, to have it settled with a clean bill

Mrs. Myrtle Enger and son, Grady and their daughter and sister, Mrs. Lester Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Rountree and baby, Rodney Lee, all of Brady were supper guests of the writer on Thursday of last week. They were on their return home following a visit at Cranfills Gap with relatives. Mrs. Enger is a sister of the writer. It was the first visit here for seven-week-old little Rodney Lee Rountree, whose father is in the service and stationed in Japan. He has never seen the baby. The mother is the former Marsha Smith.

Her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Anderson of Fort Worth is with her at this writing, but expects to return home Wednesday. Mr. Anderson and the children brought her down Saturday, returning home Sunday afternoon. We sincerely hope Mrs. Driver will soon be much better and able to resume her household duties.

In giving a report of the Elder family reunion in last week's news we failed to mention that Mrs. Electra Moss of Grand Falls showed a beautiful hand-made scarf which was more than one hundred years old. It was made by a relative of one of her sons-in-law. The multicolor silk embroidery on black satin was as perfect as any machine work could have been, and to see the scarf no one would judge by its well preserved appearance to be more than 100 years old. We have also been informed since our report that the family observed their regular Sunday morning worship, with Mrs. Edna Bouldin leading the devotional and Mrs. Clyde Nichols of Waco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elder teaching the class. The children and their families are to be commended on keeping in remembrance of our Lord and Master on such occasions.

Visitors in the Frank Driver home Sunday whose names we received were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson and Gwen, Mrs. Gladys Cox and the writer.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

RESPECT SCHOOL TRAFFIC
Thousands of school children are trooping back to school. Many of them will be transported by school buses. Fortunately most people are careful when approaching a school bus which may be standing beside the road or school to pick up school children or allow them to alight. But, nevertheless, we have had some very bad accidents because a child or a motorist, or both, were careless at that very time.

Most Texans are aware of the law which requires a driver to come to a complete stop when overtaking from the rear a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge school children. After stopping immediately behind the bus, he is then allowed by law to proceed past same at a speed
"which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

What many persons do not realize is that the very same rule applies when MEETING a stopped school bus. While everyone is interested in protecting our children, unthinking violators of this simple safety rule greatly outnumber those who comply. Failure to follow the law in this case can lead to fines up to $200 even when no accident occurs. Following an accident in which some child is injured or killed, the penalties are naturally much more serious.

Although the above rule does not apply when passing a stopped school bus in a business or residential district of a town, the necessity for extreme caution even in those locations is obvious.
When it comes to overtaking and passing moving vehicles, exercise of ordinary common sense will generally keep a driver within the law. For instance, when passing a car it is only common sense to proceed on past it a safe distance before cutting back to the right side of the highway. Also, any driver would realize the danger of increasing his speed while another is attempting to pass him.

In the same category is the prohibition against passing on the right under most ordinary conditions. Of course, you may legally pass on the right in a few specific instances, such as when the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn, or upon a one-way street with two or more lanes, or upon a four-lane highway.

However, our traffic laws state that even when passing on the right is allowed, it shall be done only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. And, in no event should such passing be accomplished by driving off the pavement or main-traveled portion of the roadway.
Familiar to all are the no passing zones designated by dash lines placed to one side of the center stripe on our highways. Not so well known are the restrictions against crossing the center line when approaching within 100 feet of or when traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing.
A driver should never cross the center line of a highway when the left side of the road is not clearly visible and free of oncoming traffic. Generally speaking, when not engaged in passing another vehicle, one should not drive to the left of the center of the roadway.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

There is an election coming up next week—in which the "candidates" are not known.
It is the election of Texas' new Democratic national committeeman
—to replace ousted Wright Morrow.

A nominating committee will make a recommendation on Sept.
21. Its choice will be revealed at a meeting of the State Executive Committee in Fort Worth on Sept.
22.
Discussed for the place have been former Cong. Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr., of McAllen; Cong. Joe Kilgore also of McAllen; Rep. J.
O. Gillham of Brownfield; and James E. Wheat of Woodville.
Wheat is now secretary of the State Executive Committee.

Possibility that State Chairman George W. Sandlin might get the nod also has been discussed.
Gov. Allan Shivers has indicated his desire that the new committeeman be someone who will work with the National Committee.
National Chairman Paul M. Butler said that the new member must have voted for Adlai Stevenson in 1952 and be acceptable to Governor Shivers, House Speaker Sam
Rayburn, and U. S. Sen. Lyndon
B. Johnson.

State Chairman Sandlin will address a meeting of the Democratic Club of Fort Worth on the same date the committee meets. He will reply to the speech made to the same group by Morrow just before the state committee voted Morrow
out. Morrow has severely criticized Sandlin. The invitation to speak was extended Sandlin in order to show that the club, while conservative, was not dominated by the ultra-ultra conservative backers of Morrow.

Candidates Active.
Friends of Agri. Com. John White met in Austin over the week end to encourage his entry into the governor's race. White is one of several under consideration by the Loyalist forces.
Brown Bailey, Midland attorney and leader in the effort, said the group conferring with White was not allied with any political faction. "We simply want White to run," he said.

Reuben Senterfitt of San Saba
is the only announced candidate for governor so far. He's busy building his fences. Active also is State Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, although as yet unannounced. Another possible is James P. Hart, former chancellor of the University of Texas. And Will Wilson, associate justice of the supreme court.

Not to be overlooked is Coke Stevenson, former governor. It appears there may be a build-up urging him to enter. Stevenson has been inactive politically since his 87-vote defeat by Lyndon Johnson in the Senate race seven years ago.
Look for House Speaker Jim Lindsey of Texasarkana—in the attorney general's race. Also being talked for that job, if Hart runs for governor, is Will Wilson. He would not run against Hart.

New Veterans Land Plan.
Texas' veterans land program is off to a fresh start.

Under new laws the board places responsibility for administration squarely on the shoulders of the shoulders of the land commissioner.
Ex-officio members, the governor and attorney general, are charged only with policy-making functions.

Com. J. Earl Rudder said he was ready to accept the responsibility.
Local advisory committees, blue-printed in the 54th Legislature reform laws, are already being formed. These committees, appointed by commissioners courts, will provide a check on findings of state appraisers.

Land purchasers who are delinquent in their payments, have been notified to pay up or forfeit their land. Many delinquencies involve block deals believed to be of questionable nature.
Rudder indicated the board should be able to start considering loan applications again soon. All the original $100,000,000 was exhausted under the administration of his predecessor, Bascom Giles.

Some, however, has been recovered by court action.

Gile has been sentenced to the state penitentiary on charges of accomplice to theft and consenting to accept a bribe.

Representatives Appointed.
Ten appointments to the Texas
Legislative Council, an interim research group have been made by House Speaker Jim Lindsey.

Named were Reps. Ben Glusing of Kingsville, Tom King of Dallas, James W. Yancy of Houston, Joe Burkett Jr. of Kerrville, E.
F. Crim of Henderson, Pearce
Johnson of Austin, Obie Bristow

of Big Spring, Gustin Garrett of Raymondville, W. G. Kirklin of Odessa and William S. Healy of Paducah.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey will select five senators to complete the council. Its duty will be to study pressing legislative needs prior to the next session.

Lindsey also appointed Wade F.
Spillman chairman of the house investigating committee. Its tasks include further land office inquiry.

Other members are Reps. Reagan R. Huffman of Marshall, Jesse M. Osborn of Muleshoe, Jack Welch of Marlin and Scott McDonald of Fort Worth.

Named to the water resources committee were Reps. Stanley Banks Jr. of San Antonio, Leroy

Saul of Kress and Bill Wood of Tyler.

Storm-Warning Net Set.
Largest storm-warning net in the world is being installed in 16
Texas cities.

Radar sets, obsolete for military use, were donated by the U. S.
Air Force. Procedure for use was developed by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Texas Department of Public Safety and the state division of Civil Defense and Disaster Relief.

Installation sites are Austin, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Brown-sville, Victoria, Galveston, Houston, Beaumont, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Midland, San Angelo, and Amarillo. Others may be added soon.

For best performance from your steam iron, use soft water, and keep the iron clean and dry when not in use. To dry the reservoir quickly, empty the tank after each use and plug the iron back into the outlet for a few minutes. If minerals accumulate put a mixture of vinegar and water (half and half) into the reservoir. Heat for about 30 minutes at 300 F (rayon setting.) After the iron cools, flush the reservoir several times with clear water. Soft water, either rain or distilled water, is recommended for filling the iron. Hard water tends to form a lime deposit that gradually cakes the sides of the cavity and may close the steam vents. If hard water must be used, fill the reservoir occasionally with distilled vinegar. Steam for 15 minutes and allow to stand overnight. In the morning, rinse the cavity thoroughly with water.

In its first year of operation, the Special School Milk Program was responsible for school children drinking well over 400 million additional half pints of milk. This year, as schools open, the possibilities for distributing even more milk through the program seem good.

Right storage will increase the life of summer clothing. Here are some suggestions for keeping out-of-season clothing in good condition until next summer:

1. Mend any ripped seams, tears, loose buttons or other damages. A few stitches can save the life of the garment.
2. Wash or dry clean all garments before storing.

3. Store cottons and linens unironed. Make certain all starch is removed. It can cause fabric to deteriorate and may attract silverfish.

4. Dry garments thoroughly and store them in a dry place to prevent mildew.

5. Store in large boxes or trunks to make room in closets for fall clothing.

Prepare soil for bulbs now. Prepare as for growing a garden or a flower bed. If plenty of humus is already in the soil, use one or two cups of commercial fertilizer to each 25 square feet. Spade 6 to 10 inches deep.

Several questions have been asked lately concerning the planting of the Bird of Paradise Shrub. It is easy to grow, and has proven itself a worthy, ornamental shrub during the dry years. It is so well adapted that it is generally classed as a wild plant. The plant endures dry weather better than most flowering shrubs. When native grass and weeds are dead and dry, this plant is green and in full flower. The bad odor of the leaves diminishes its justifiable popularity to some extent. Bird of Paradise seeds are ripening now. This plant should be grown from seed because it is exceedingly difficult to transplant. Most nurserymen grow it in gallon cans and sell it when 2 to 4 feet high. The rate of growth depends upon the soil, moisture, sunlight, and other factors. It is often used in screen plantings and occasionally around the house but winds bruise the leaves and make it unpleasant to some people during summer winds. The seeds have a hard coat on them, but they will come up immediately after being planted, if you plant them before the seed pods are completely brown. If you wait until the coats are hard, you will need to file the seed or soak them for several hours in warm water. It is not good as a cut flower because the foliage dries immediately after cutting.

A MASTER WATER PLAN FOR TEXAS

Fifty years ago, the Texas Legislature foresaw that the rapidly developing state would eventually come face to face with an obstacle that could block further expansion—a water shortage.

That prediction has become a reality after four years of state-wide drought, broken only recently by rains. But the problem is still with us—and the Legislature still has not found a solution.

Part of the blame rests on the fact that opposite political views block attempts to draft a master water plan. Yet, the public, too, must share some of the responsibility for this failure. When financial plans are proposed, people fear burdensome taxes will be imposed in areas which will receive only nominal benefits from such a program.

As it now stands, the problem will never be solved until political factions and the public are willing to assume a rightful share of responsibility—both administrative and financial.

The water problem is two-fold. Our largest supplies lie in underground reservoirs. Most of our municipal and irrigation supplies come from wells. Yet, surface water impounded behind dams will become increasingly important in future years.

A great deal of progress already has been made in conserving underground water supplies. Water districts were created, giving local authorities the power to regulate and control water usage, to a certain extent. This type of conservation has been particularly effective in the High Plains district where board members estimate they have saved farmers some $20 million by regulating the spacing of irrigation wells. This money might otherwise have been wasted by drilling wells too close together, thereby diminishing the effectiveness of water production in the immediate area.

Any future legislation must recognize that underground and surface water supplies constitute two separate problems—each must be treated differently. However, both must be integrated into a master plan which will assure Texas of adequate water in years to come.

HICO FEED & HATCHERY

A total of 2,496 feeder calves were sold in the feeder calf sale at Fort Worth September 9. This was two and one half times the number at the July sale.

The cattle brought consigners a gross of $248,713.64. An average of $98.94 per head. Top prices were $23 paid for the grand champion pen of heifers by the Wade Plantation of Georgia. Top pen of feeder steer calves were exceptionally heavy, weighing 657 pounds, and brought $22. They were bought by Wertheimer Cattle Company, cornbelt cattle dealers.

Most of the choice steer calves and yearlings sold in the $20 to $29.50 bracket, and the better heifers sold mostly around $17.50 to $18. Common kinds sold down to $14 and $15.

Cattle Open Steady

Most classes of cattle and calves drew about steady prices Monday at Fort Worth. Some fed steers were a little stronger, and some sales of butcher calves and stocker calves and yearlings were steady to weak. Top commercially fed steers drew $23.25, and odd prime yearlings drew $23.50 to $25, the latter on a cub steer.

Comparable prices: good and choice steers and yearlings $19-$23.50; common and medium $12-$18; fat cows $10-12; canners and cutters $7-10. Bulls $10-13.50; good and choice slaughter calves $16-18, few baby beef heavies higher; common and medium grades $12-15; culls $9-12. Stocker steer calves $20 down; steer yearlings $18.50 down; stocker cows $8-13, latter on young about 3-year-olds weighing close to 800 pounds.

Big Cattle Runs Reported Monday.

About 157,000 cattle and calves were reported at 12 major markets by the USDA market news office at Fort Worth Monday. Several cornbelt terminals reported the largest runs since last Fall. Fat steers and yearlings were steady to easier there, and most grassy cattle were inclined to ease. Popular prices on feeder cattle ranged around $18 to $20, with some calves and light yearlings to $21 and above sparingly.

Hogs Open Stronger

Good and choice butcher hogs topped at $17 to $17.50 at Fort Worth Monday. Again the top prices were paid for both meat type and lard type hogs, and some butchers weighing up to 160 pounds and above drew up to $17. USDA reported that on a recent week the cut out values of the No. 1, or meat type, averaged 92 cents above the cut out values of the No. 3, or lard type butcher hogs.

Despite this salesmen still have a hard time getting slaughter interests to pay the premium that the meat type obviously deserves.

Sheep and Lambs Open Steady, Feeders Strong.

Sheep and lambs opened fully steady to strong at Fort Worth Monday. Top on fat lambs was $19, and some good feeders sold up to $16.50. Comparative price included: Good and choice slaughter lambs $17-19; cull, common and medium offerings $10-16; Stocker and feeder lambs $14-16.50. Medium to good slaughter yearlings $14-15; cull to medium yearlings $9-13.50; old wethers $8-11; old ewes, $4-5; old bucks around $4.00.

Uranium Sitting Houses Gets Frowns of Health Department

The increasing number of "uranium dirt and sitting houses" in Texas are getting frowns of disapproval from the State Department of Health.

Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle says the healing value of dirt containing minute amounts of uranium "isn't worth the time it takes a man to cover his aching feet."

For the past 6 months the so-called treatment centers have been cropping up at various points until there are now dozens of them. Somehow the idea was started that the alleged radioactivity in the dirt was a cure-all for assorted aches and pains.

"Our industrial hygiene engineers have thoroughly checked 16 samples of supposedly radioactive dirt," Dr. Holle said. "In no case has the concentration been more than that of normal background radiation."

Said Engineer Martin Wukasch: "The granite in the State Capitol is more radioactive than any of the 16 samples. I've taken Gieger counter readings to prove it."

Wukasch demonstrated his point by passing an illuminous dial wrist watch over the Gieger counter probe. The needle of the counter jumped completely off scale. An ash tray, painted with a uranium oxide, had the same result on the needle.

But when the probe was buried deep in the middle of the 16 dirt samples, the needle was barely affected, no more than it would have been had the probe been held in mid air.

Som landowners now in the uranium "healing" business have erected tents in which patrons can sit while absorbing alleged radioactive emanations. Others have soft drink stands where patrons can refresh themselves while awaiting their turn for "treatments."

A check of the Comanche Uranium Health Center in Dallas showed cars from 8 different states in the Center's parking lot. Between 200 and 400 patrons visit the center daily, investigators report.

Patrons are said to pay a fee of from $2 to $3 per hour, and must sign a statement attesting that no healing results have been promised and that their patronage was not solicited.

Dr. Holle said that while patrons are in no actual physical danger, their reliance on "miracle" cures from the dirt might give them temporary psychological relief from serious ailments, thus delaying a visit to a reputable physician.

Wukasch credited improvements in sensitivity of radioactive detection instruments with bringing on the rash of low-grade uranium funds.

"With these super-sensitive instruments it is possible to get a small twitch of the needle practically anywhere," he said. "We are all constantly subject to tiny bombardments of radiation from natural cosmic sources."

Dr. Holle said that since no violation of existing state laws nor any claim of advertised cures had been brought to his attention, "we will just have to depend on the native intelligence of the Texas public to recognize these places as worthless."

RIDE 'EM, COWBOY

With perfect form and balance this outlaw rider maintains his precarious perch in the saddle of the outlaw horse. In The Wildest Show on Earth, with outlaw pitted against outlaw, the 21th Annual Prison Rodeo runs every Sunday in October and promises to be more unusual and outstanding than ever before. The mammoth spectacle, full of dramatic undertones, is held every year at Prison Stadium in Huntsville, Texas.

CLAIRETTE

By Mrs. Lucile Mayfield

Lee Marshall, Jess Pruett, Rufus Christian, O. H. Huckabee, C. K. Sterling and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayfield attended the Greens Creek Watershed Association all-day meeting at Greens Creek Thursday. A good crowd was present for the occasion. A barbecue dinner was served by Hills Catering service of Stephenville. We understand Dublin furnished the food. After lunch several talks were made. Congressman Omar Burleson made the closing talk. We are looking forward to having similar meetings and dams built on the Bosque watershed in the near future. We hope our city cousins will not think we are trying to hog all the water and will see and realize its for their benefit as well as the farmers and ranchers. One speaker at the Green Creek meeting stated that "some of our city cousins thought we were trying to hog all water and did not know there was a hole in the dam."

Saturday night during the wind and rain, lightning and thundering, a couple passing through Clairette stopped at Mrs. Mollie Trammell's to inquire about a hotel or some place they could spend the night. She didn't have room for them so she sent them to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Richbourg, who were kind enough to take the strangers in for the night. They were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Loveless of Lamesa. They were en route to see some people 6 miles beyond Hico out toward Duffau. Not knowing the country they did not know they were so close to the place. Any rate they seemed to be afraid of the cloud and stormy weather and did not want to travel on until morning. The Richbours stated they had a good visit and enjoyed meeting the people.

over a half-billion dollars was used in building enterprises. Clergymen in charge of churches number 213,167.

Now this writer knows more about Baptists than he does about any other religious folks, and being one of them he may be allowed to observe that there are many different sorts of them: Lean and fat, long and short, comely and homely, accomplished and illiterate, liberal and tight-fisted, missionary and some who don't give a hoot, friendly and grouchy, silent and vociferous, white and black, brown and red. Except that the "red" does not mean "Commies." Some of them are Democrats and some vote the ticket straight by voting for the straight man, whatever political group he runs with. Fact is, Baptists are about an average bunch, most of them modest and without any fancy notions about their wisdom or goodness and there is not a pair of wings growing on a single one of them, so far as I know. But I like them in spite of all my faults—my faults mind you. At the same time I respect my faith, just as our American basic principle states. And here's to you, brother, sister, whatever you believe in with respect to denomination, and I hope you undertake to manifest the great principles of your faith.
