Social Security Officer Will Make Regular Visits To Hico September 13

If you want to help your Social Security officer pay your claim promptly, you should contact them two or three months before you retire, according to Maurice M. Chastain, district manager of the Temple Social Security Office. This will insure that all details have been taken care of by the time you are ready to draw your benefits.

Chastain stated that the social security office is busier than usual during the first months of the year. He requests those who could apply before the first of the year to make application soon, as this will enable them to get their checks earlier and also help the social security office avoid part of the usual first of the year rush.

Persons applying for benefits should bring necessary papers such as social security card and proof of age. Also if the person was self-employed in 1959, he should bring an extra copy of his 1959 income tax return and the cancelled check or other proof that the social security tax was paid.

A representative of the Temple Social Security Office will be in Hico at the City Hall at 10 a.m., Tuesday, September 13.

Class AA Team Favored Over Locals

The local gridsters will definitely have their work cut out for them this Friday night when they go to Dublin for an 8 p.m. clash with the Class AA Lions.

While Hico was thrashing Tolar last week, the Lions were anything from being idle, whipping a good Early High eleven, a future Tiger opponent, 22-8 at Dublin.

This will be the first encounter of the two teams in several years, and with Dublin's football picture brightening considerably from past years, the Lions will be heavy favorites to make the Tigers their second victim of the year.

Under the tutelage of Head Coach Jimmy Keeling, former Hico assistant, Dublin is gradually coming back into an area gridiron power after floundering in the calendar of their district for the past five or six years. Keeling took over the headman duties last year, and has brought the Lions a long way since then.

James Bassitt, a solid 190-pound fullback leads the Lions offense. He scored all Dublin points in the game with Early, and is reported to be a hard and nifty runner. He has support from a trio of other fine backs, and a solid line up front.

The Tigers will be without the services of starting quarterback Don Jernigan, who suffered a knee injury in last week's game. Mark McElroy, a standout defensive performer, will be hampered by a leg injury, hurt this week in practice.

Coach Barnett has declared other team members ready.

Filling in for Jernigan at the quarterback slot will be Larry Erick, sophomore squadman last year. Erick started last week's game at guard. He logged some playing time at quarterback last year, but failed to letter. Robert Reed, 160-pound junior will take over at Erick's guard spot.

The following lineup will probably start the Dublin game:

LE—Mark McElroy	170
RE—Mitchell Mayfield	185
LT—Gary Brewster	171
RT—Lee Blue	242
LG—Feldon Haley	187
RG—Robert Reed	180
C—Mike Lowe	170
QB—Larry Erick	140
RH—Neil Ellis	167
LH—Harold Hathcock	137
FB—Bobby Boone	188

The remainder of the squad is as follows:

QB—Don Jernigan	137
E—Charles Yell	165
E—Tommy Donley	120
T—Butch Knudson	148
T—Freddie Naul	185
G—Mike Flowers	148
G—Morris Samford	145
C—Harry Brown	140
B—Bill Rutledge	120
B—Dan Reeves	130
B—Jerry Casey	120
B—Frank Phillips	122
B—Tom Pratt	180
B—Lloyd Hyles	96

A large delegation of Hico boosters will make the 20-mile trip to Dublin tonight.

District Members
In games played last week by district members, only Hico and Valley Mills were victorious. No report was received on the Evant game. Valley Mills clobbered Waco Midway 32-12, Axtell pinned the 18th consecutive loss on Cranfills Gap 28-6, and Meridian took it on the chin from Joshua 14-8.

Junior High Team Plays First Game Tuesday

Hico's Junior High Kittens will get the football season started early this year, going to Glen Rose next Tuesday night for a game with the Glen Rose Kittens at 7:30 p.m.

A complete schedule will be given next week.

Mrs. Claytia Martin Injured in Auto Accident Last Thursday Noon

Mrs. Claytia Martin, 50 of Rt. 4, Hico, received bruises and suffered shock as the result of a two-car collision on State Highway 229 five miles north of Hico last Thursday.

Highway Patrolman Mike Watkins of Stephenville, who investigated the accident, said the collision occurred at the intersection of Highway 229 and a country road. Mrs. Martin was driving a 1950 Chevrolet pickup and was attempting to make a left turn. Earl William Horne, 30, of Sacramento, Calif., was driving a 1959 Buick convertible and was attempting to pass Mrs. Martin.

Watkins estimated property damage in the accident at $275. This was the only accident reported for this area during the holiday weekend.

G. E. HOLLADAY HAS HIGH-PRODUCING COW

Brattleboro, Vt.—The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced the completion of an outstanding official production record by a registered Holstein cow in this area.

Glasiie Fobes Pietertje 3919888, owned by G. E. Holladay of Hico, produced 15,984 pounds of milk and 517 pounds of butterfat in 305 days on twice daily milking as a 7-year-old.

Texas A & M College supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the official herd testing programs of the national Holstein organization.

These programs provide continuing lactation and lifetime production records on every cow in more than 2,600 participating registered Holstein herds.

Tigers Topple Tolar For Successful Start

The 1960 edition of the Hico Tiger eleven lifted the lid on the current football season last Friday night by licking a determined but undermanned Tolar team at Tolar.

The game, which opened the campaign for both teams, was full of miscues and mistakes, with the Tigers overshadowing the hosts in that department. From the beginning the Tigers were fighting the referee's whistle, and when the firing was over, the men in the striped shirts had stepped off 80 yards on 10 different charges against the locals.

First-game butterflies were responsible for most of the penalty yardage.

The game, which progressed about as expected scoring wise, revealed several strong points, but a few glaring weaknesses were also evident. The game bore out the fact that the Tigers are equipped with two strong, smart runners in Neil Ellis and Bobby Boone, and foremost of the weaknesses was the lack of sufficient reserves, which was also a well-known fact.

Spectators viewing the game were pleasantly surprised with the spunk and drive of letterman back Harold Hathcock, who scampered for one touchdown, and was on the throwing end of a 48-yard scoring pass to Ellis. Hathcock, the smallest of the starting backs, showed much determination in driving for that "extra yard" each time he carried.

Line play was led by Feldon Haley, who was far the best defensive hand and best offensive blocker on the field. On Hico's third touchdown, scored by Bobby Boone on an 11-yard smash, Haley literally mowed down the defense in leading interference for Boone. It was brute strength which carried Boone into the end zone with Tolar players hanging all over him.

Don Jernigan, sophomore quarterback and defensive end, also played a fine game as did linemen Lee Blue, Mitchell Mayfield, Larry Erick, Mark McElroy, Gary Brewster, Robert Reed and Butch Knudson. Mike Lowe played an exceptional game at his center slot on both offense and defense.

Reed is a newcomer to the Tiger squad having arrived only Wednesday from California. He is residing with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Langham.

Coach Barnett reported one casualty in the Friday game. Don Jernigan received a knee injury which will keep him out of this week's game with Dublin. Barnett expects to move Larry Erick, second team quarterback last year, who started last week at guard, to the quarterback slot, and start Reed at the guard position. Jernigan's injury is the first of the year for the Tigers, and coaches are hopeful that it will be the last.

out at halftime with a slim 8-0 lead.

The Tigers counted once in the first period in the game last week, once in the third, and twice in fourth to gain their margin of victory.

Harold Hathcock had the distinction of marking the first TD of the season, when he swept the right flank on a single reverse play for six yards and the score. The TD came after Hico had been set up in scoring position on the Rattler 28 after a muffed punt attempt. With two penalties, one nullifying a touchdown by Ellis, and nine plays were required to cover the distance to the goal.

The second quarter was scoreless, with neither the Tigers or Rattlers threatening. Hico went cut at halftime with a slim 8-0 lead.

The Tigers' second score climaxed a 70-yard drive after the second half kickoff. Ten plays were required to go the distance, with Ellis scoring from three yards out. Try for extra point was no good and Hico led 14-0.

Bobby Boone got the third Tiger counter on an 11-yard smash. Shear power by Boone and Feldon Haley pushed the ball into the end zone.

The final score of the evening came after the Tiger offense had been stalled temporarily at midfield. Harold Hathcock took a handoff, then hit Ellis with a pass which carried 45 yards and the final score.

Do your children know the answers?

Good study light at home helps them earn good grades at school

The right answers to teacher's questions come only after proper study and preparation. You can help your children earn better grades by providing the right light for home study. In most cases, a good table lamp equipped with a 150-watt bulb will provide ample light for easy seeing. The lamp should be tall enough to spread light evenly over the work area and properly shaded to prevent glare. See your dealer or visit our office soon for study lighting needs.

Coffee Time

CHATTER

By HELEN OGLE

It wasn't the alarm clock that you heard ringing loud and clearly Tuesday morning, but the familiar school bell. Students must have been eagerly awaiting the sound as they arrived at school anxious to get back into the routine.

Most of the attention was centered on the first graders, yet there were a few unhappy children who entered the second grade alone this year, as Mama had to make her presence with little sister or brother who was entering school for the first time. There was a bit of confusion, and a few tears shed by some of those taking their first steps toward an education, and especially when their parents slipped out and left them alone to encounter the situation. Guess that's why those first school days are memorable for all concerned.

Bells should ring more often, for merchants in downtown Hico, at it was like a fire sale in the stores. Parents making last minute purchases for the wardrobe and checking off an itemized school supply list, and restocking the cupboard after the holiday weekend.

Dickie Butler and Gladys Par-tain slipped away from the school activities and enjoyed a cup of coffee.

Betty Walker selecting school supplies and checking to be sure she got two of each item and the right type of bookcase for daughter Stephanie who was excited over joining her sister, Johnette in the school venture.

Hazel Ramage wondering if she should go back and check on her son, Lee, who was among the first graders, and not so happy over being left on his own.

Jane Hafer among the mad rush of people, in a hurry to drop daughter Claudia off at school, then run to the post office and on to enjoy a morning coffee break.

Lou Dell Cheek wondering if it wouldn't have been cheaper for her to select the school supplies for her children, Chuck and Kay, as it seems they got a bit carried away in their selections.

Betty Knudson feeling a bit lost as she entered her daughter, Susan, in school and returned home to an empty, as well as lonesome, house. Good chance to catch up on your work. Or is it?

It was a rather quiet weekend in town and think most people stayed at home and worked on those odd chores, that so easily stack up.

Sim Everett had to spend the holiday hours working in the yard, as he left his gun in the car of his guest dove hunters last week, and so far as he knows the gun is somewhere in Dallas. At least he hopes that it is.

Grace French having all sorts of trouble getting a rum cake baked, as she had to make three trips to the grocery store while in the process.

Some people take time out for a coffee break each day, but Florence Chenault and Ethel Lackey have been enjoying their neighbors, Dora Strong and Vera Bulloch, in a "porch sittin'" visit each day.

Woody Wilson says he's settled for life, and refuses to move under any circumstance unless it can be done by just walking out the door. It seems that he and Irene spent an exhausting weekend moving into their new home in the Hillcrest addition.

Sarah Reeves said she was ready to get back to the office, after two days hard work of cleaning house and checking fall and winter clothes.

Hershel Sherrard says their cabinet stays bare, since it's supposed to be so easy to stock from their grocery store. Guess that's my plight with driving a dirty car all the time, but it's not easy to convince Sandy that it should be cleaned up.

Sharon Howard said she had always wanted to drag down main street in Hico, and from the amount of bandages that she's wearing, she must have done just that.

A note from Mrs. S. F. Crafton of Austin reads as follows: "Sorry to be late with this check. My late husband and I enjoyed hearing about the Hico folks through the weekly news and I still do. Thanks for continuing the paper on past expiration time. Will miss the girls interesting writing now that school has started but please keep here in Hico, and Coffee Time Chatter coming with all the other good writings. Thanks again."

Labor Day weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hawthorne were Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Priddy and sons, Larry and Gary of Odessa, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fenton of Goidbusk.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Sherrard, Sylvia and Roland were in Lubbock this past week end to visit in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aron Dover and Lee. They also visited in New Deal with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Chandler, former Hico residents.

Paddock, Buddy, Carol and Ken, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Presley Herricks, Noah Cason, Cathy Cason, all of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Perry, Judy, Sammy and Ronnie, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Hogan of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schaeffer, Ramona and Barbara of Uvalde; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fincher, Dorris, June and Ross Jr. of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Norris Paddock and Weldon of Benbrook; Mrs. Myrtle Slaughter of San Angelo;

STILL ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT IN DIETS

Diets of farm families in general are improving, recent studies show. However, diets of some families still fall short of the goal recommended as nutritionally desirable.

Nutrients most often in shortest supply are calcium and ascorbic acid. To make up these shortages, special emphasis will be placed on milk and cheese as good sources of calcium and riboflavin, on citrus fruits and tomatoes for ascorbic acid, and dark green and yellow vegetables for vitamin A. To increase the thiamine, there will be emphasis on meat, whole grain and enriched cereals, dry beans and peas.

Overweight is still a nutritional problem. Extension foods and nutrition specialists and county home demonstration agents continue to give information on safe ways to limit calorie intake and still meet individual needs in protective food.

Poor diets can result from a lack of nutritional knowledge, poor eating habits or lack of sufficient income to buy necessary food. Careful meal planning, food buying and preparation will help all of us to eat well for less.

Visit your local county home demonstration agent's office and check the bulletins available for your use.

SEW YOUR OWN FASHIONABLE OUTFITS

Do you have special fitting problems? A slim clothing budget? Do you get real satisfaction from sewing for yourself or others? If the answers are yes, you may want to join the increasing number of women who are making garments for themselves and other family members.

The "homemade look" can be avoided by careful construction and pressing. The custom-made look does take patience and attention to detail of the good pressing, but a job pays off with economy and satisfaction.

If you are a beginner, choose a simple garment first try. A pattern of a dress with simple design and a good quality in solid color are best results.

Bulletins prepared by specialists, give detailed instructions and pictures of different uses used in sewing. You can get copies of clolelins from your local home demonstration agent. Stop by her office and see what is offered.

For those of you who want to attend the upholstery workshop, we will be next week. Have all of your material and supplies and be ready for the workshop in Hamilton held on each Tuesday from 10 to 2:30 p.m. at the Cleaners Building.

March of Dimes Support Urged by Mother Who Lost Birth Defects Baby in 49 Days

(Editor's Note: Mary Strous, young Laurelville, Ohio, mother, tells in her own words the tragic story of what happens in a family when a child is born with a serious birth defect.)

By MARY STROUS

Our baby Laura was born on Mother's Day seven years ago. We lost Laura seven weeks later on Father's Day.

She gave a soft little sigh as she died in my arms. My husband and I buried her with the rattle to which she had clung tightly during her brief life.

But Laura, who died of the terrible birth defects known as open spine and too much fluid on the brain, still lives in the hearts of her father Don and myself. When asked by strangers, we always say we have three daughters (instead of really only two), and I want to explain why.

We feel that each of us, including our tiny Laura, is brought into the world to serve a purpose, even if our stay on earth is as tragically short as 49 days.

For years we were numbed by our baby's passing. But today we recognize that in being asked by The National Foundation to renew our memories of those despairing seven weeks, my husband and I are somehow fulfilling the purpose of Laura's fleeting visit with us.

That purpose is to repeat as forcefully as we can the lessons we have learned:

1. Scientists insist that parents should not be ashamed over the birth of an infant with a congenital malformation; instead, face the situation bravely and seek professional advice. Feelings of guilt aren't justified.

2. There is no medical evidence that birth defects are always hereditary; and

3. There is no evidence that because a couple have had one defective baby, they are likely to have another. Doctors at Columbus, Ohio, near our farm at Laurelville, said our chances of having another malformed baby were something like one in 40,000. (Donna Marguerite, five years old, and Julie Ann, two, who followed Laura after Don and I had reflected deeply and sought advice, could not be healthier or more normal.)

But by no means have Don and I forgotten our hopelessness and indeed our self-loathing during those 49 days and nights when we took turns holding Laura in our arms, or sat hour after hour beside her bassinet, watching life drain from her eyes.

We detested ourselves because of torments that something was wrong with us physically, or that a shameful defect had been inherited from our forebears (later proved untrue), and that we were thus responsible for this cruelty to an innocent baby.

Never will we forget the frantic drive, while our baby was dying, to our church so that she might be baptized before she left us. In some way our congregation had learned of the reason for our headlong visit, and the tears of those sorrowing folks flowed with ours.

Our Laura was one of 250,000 babies born each year in our country with significant birth defects; that tragic total is growing with our increasing population. Our baby was one of 34,000 who in addition die annually from these congenital malformations; and that awful figure is also mounting.

At last, something constructive is being done about birth defects. With March of Dimes contributions, The National Foundation is directing a broad study of this devastating puzzle, just as it fought polio and in time found the Salk vaccine to prevent it.

With a donation in January from each of us, in time there will be many fewer Lauras in our land.

Week-End Farm Movement.

What is happening in the purchase of farm and ranch lands by city dwellers in Texas has been amply demonstrated in a study made not long ago in Dallas.

It is figured that more than 25,000 Dallas County families now own farm and ranch lands adding up to some 3,900,000 acres, and most of this acreage is located outside of Dallas County. The holdings include wheat farms in the Panhandle, irrigated cotton fields out on the South Plains and elsewhere in West Texas, citrus groves in the Rio Grande Valley, pastures and grazing land in all sections of the State.

The vast majority of these landowners are weekend farmers and ranchers, maintaining their homes in Dallas and its suburbs where they make their living. Real estate dealers agree that the growing systems of super-highways and excellent roads out of Dallas have brought about definite changes in the demands of these city-dwelling farmers and ranchers.

It used to be that a radius of about 40 miles outside of the city limits of Dallas was as far as these buyers wanted to go to maintain their rural retreats.

But the vast development of the highway systems has changed all this. The circle has been greatly expanded, moving out to a 100-mile radius and now spreading out still further to 150 and 200 miles.

One Dallas real estate dealer reported that out of 321 farm and ranch sales he has completed since 1951, all except three of the buyers lived in Dallas. All but one of the farms and ranches he sold were located outside of the boundaries of Dallas County.

Aside from the facts reported on weekend farming and ranching, the same survey brought out that agribusiness is one of the most vital concerns of the metropolitan existence of Dallas. It was found that 86,000 individuals in Dallas County—one out of every four workers in the county—earned their livings either directly or indirectly from agribusiness. Their earnings amounted to $410,000,000 in the year under study, with food processing alone accounting for 11,000 workers.

Large Enough to En-Gulf.

Three hundred and seventy may not sound like a large figure to most big-minded Texans, but it's quite a few miles for such a pleasure-packed shoreline.

We're talking about the salt water shoreline on the Gulf of Mexico which affords thousands and thousands of Texans and visitors ideal recreation and vacation facilities each year.

You can travel farther—but you can't have any more fun.

With agriculture turning more and more to machinery and technology in the new decade of the sixties, it can be expected that the flow of agribusiness into Dallas—as well as into the other major centers of Texas—will continue to grow and expand.

To The Busy Housewife . . .

YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER IS A REAL CONVENIENCE!

A wonderful way for a busy young mother to save countless hours is by shopping the ads in her hometown newspaper. By knowing, before she goes to town, which products she wants and where to buy them, she can do an efficient job of marketing. While the housewife spends her time becoming an expert nurse, laundress, cook, playmate, and bookkeeper, the local newspaper is bringing her the shopping news. It tells her about the latest products and services that will help her accomplish her work most efficiently. It tells her where to find the best prices offered on items she needs. It saves her many long hours of "shopping around".

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN—

Gov. Takes 'Hands Off' Attitude on Integration

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

Austin.—A family trying to get all slicked up to make a good impression on important company can't take time out for a domestic squabble.

On this premise, the Texas Industrial Commission, whose job is to lure new industry to Texas, voted to steer clear of political hassles and concentrate on putting the best foot forward.

Vote on this decision was 5 to 1. Voting no was Al H. Chesser, railroad brotherhood representative, who has urged the Commission to sponsor a legislative program including repeal of the state's "right to work" law.

"Our job is to sell Texas," said E. B. Germany, Commission chairman. He said he felt the Commission would be hampered in doing so if it got involved in controversial legislation.

Reviewing two years' progress, Germany reported that 475 new plants had located in Texas since the TIC was formed in March, 1951. Plans have been announced, he said, for 375 others in 99 counties, and 492 plants have expanded in the past two years.

For the future, Walter Dickerson, TIC executive director, said 136 factory managements are considering a move to Texas. A number of these, he said, would make products for which Texans now send $2,500,000,000 out of state.

Hands Off Houston.

As a long believer of local control for local matters, Gov. Price Daniel said he would not intervene in affairs of the Houston Public School system.

For weeks Houston schools have been in a squeeze between a federal court order to begin gradual integration and a state law which says it will lose state aid if it does.

As a last resort, the Houston School Board asked Governor Daniel to "interpose" in its behalf. Under the theory of interposition, the state has, under the Tenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution, the right to interpose against any federal act which it believes the federal government is exceeding its constitutional powers.

Daniel pointed out that this course had been tried without success in other states. Expressing confidence in the Houston board and its attorneys, Daniel said, "The Texas policy of local operation and control of public schools is far better than an attempted control by the governor or state."

Tax Bites Uncle Sam.

It was a sort of man-bites-dog story when the Attorney General's Department ruled the federal government would have to pay a $400,000 state inheritance tax to Texas.

In her will Mrs. Susan Vaughan Clayton made a bequest to "the United States of America, to be used for the retirement of the national debt." Mrs. Clayton was the widow of the late Will Clayton of Anderson, Clayton & Co.

A federal attorney proposed keeping the money in a special account in Texas since bequests to Texas and its citizens are exempt from the inheritance tax.

But the AG ruling said other states would benefit just as much as Texans from national debt retirement. In effect: the federal treasury will have to take the bitter with the sweet.

IT HAPPENED . . .

HERE OR NEAR

By F. E. DAWSON

By F. E. DAWSON

And now something hitherto unheard of. It appears in a speech delivered recently at a State University by a businessman of large affairs. The speaker seems to have traveled a lot, the purpose of his travel to ascertain what he regards as some facts about frog-stools. Of course you understand by "frog stools," mushrooms. In all my childhood years we knew them simply as frog stools and we kids did a lot of speculation about how the frogs used them. Did the big frogs sit atop the big stools and the small frogs on the small stools? Or did they find shelter under the frog stools and carry on all their domestic affairs under the protection of those queer-looking little umbrella-appearing things that seemed to come up most anywhere any time from early spring to late autumn?

The speaker referred to how he had studied mushrooms in Mexico, China, and various quarters of the globe, and then had tested them, as to effects, in his New York home, and that his wife and daughter had also made the tests in their home. The speaker alleges that the effect of eating mushrooms is similar to that of narcotics, and his description makes those effects look much like drunkenness.

The businessman-scientist says that probably St. John the Divine was a mushroom eater and the Book of Revelation the product of his experience in eating frog stools. By inference also Ezekiel and all the visionaries of the Old Testament had their visions as a result of the effects of mushrooms. He said that when he ate the fungus growth, common the world over, he was lifted into a realm where one sees more clearly than with mortal eye and is given understanding far beyond one's average attainments; in a measure the mushroom eater becomes able to associate on equal terms with God and looks on the universe as it appeared fresh from the hands of its maker in the beginning. He thinks all prophets and philosophers were mushroom eaters. His conclusions are based on his personal experience in eating them, and on what he has observed in all parts of the world where he travelled with the purpose of studying the effects of mushroom eating. He coins a new word to express his meaning: "bemushroomed."

No doubt it was interesting to listen to the man as he spoke and related his experiences and observations. Perhaps he is sincere in his judgments. But it will take a lot of additional evidence to convince me that the good Apostle John wrote the Book of Revelation as a result of mushroom consumption. Or that any of the prophets whose writing appear anywhere in the Bible are the results of eating a fungus growth, such as the lowly toad stool. I believe the Bible to be true, and not the fiction of

What's In A Name?

Hottest rivalries between neighboring Texas towns used to center on who would have the courthouse. Nowadays it's usually over who has the best high school football team.

But two Central Texas towns, San Marcos and New Braunfels, are having a lively contest over the naming of a park to be built between the two cities.

State Parks Board, back in July, designated it as "San Marcos State Park." Civic-spirited San Marcos had raised $2,500 for park equipment with the request that it be named after their town.

New Braunfels folk raised a storm. They claimed it would be nearer their town, that their county would have to maintain a road to it, etc.

Recognizing the touchiness of the situation, the State Parks Board says it will re-consider the whole thing at its October meeting. Both sides are to be given a chance to present their views.

Pistol-Totin' Curb Urged.

Legislation to close the loopholes in present state law governing sale and possession of pistols may be offered in the next session.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled that the law requiring the presentation of a certificate of good character before buying a pistol is not enforceable.

In 1952, the opinion pointed out, the Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that this part of the law was unconstitutional because the caption of the bill passed by the Legislature did not sufficiently explain what was in the bill.

Local peace officers were quick to call for corrective legislation. Lawmen feel there should be curbs on who can buy concealable weapons and records of the purchases so the police can check on who made them.

Old Age Roll Dwindles.

Though the number of oldsters in the state is increasing, the number receiving state old age assistance checks is declining and is expected to drop still more.

This conclusion was contained in the report of a subcommittee to the state Conference on Aging.

Drop in the state pension rolls was attributed to more Social Security benefits, more company retirement plans, more oldsters working or receiving other support.

Auto Inspections Begin.

Period for having official auto safety inspections in Texas begins this month.

Deadline for getting a new inspection sticker on your windshield is not until next April 15, but with 4,500,000 vehicles to be checked, lines will be long in the final weeks.

Cost of an inspection is $1 plus any needed repair for motor safety. Average cost to each vehicle owner, including the repairs, was $2 last year.

Short Snorts.

Commission on Higher Education has announced that the 19 state-supported colleges and universities have asked for appropriations running 39 per cent above present spending.

To make the road map reader's job easier, the State Highway Commission has given a single route number to the most direct highway connection between Elunville and Paris. Now named State Highway 19, the route formerly had five different numbers.

Worst plague of army worms in years is blighting the lawns of Texas home owners from Central Texas down to the Coast. State mental conditions induced by drunkenness or any stimulus such as the quoted speaker used in his experimentations. The Bible is too true to the facts of life to doubt it in anywise. It has survived all these centuries and has been proven true by the tests of time and human experience.

Yes sir: I am sticking to the integrity of the Scriptures, no matter what businessmen and travelers and experimenters tell us.

I never ate any mushrooms. I never tried but once. Wife and I had lunch with a good woman, and she is a good woman, and she introduced us to a dish she explained as being mushrooms fixed up in a special way about which she had read in a magazine. She recommended the dish quite highly. I took a spoonful on my plate and took one bite. Then I struggled heroically to keep that bite of mushrooms down so as not to embarrass our good hostess. It was a battle royal for me to keep from hastening outside and disgorging that one awful bite. But I made it. Wife suffered a similar experience, not quite so violent, for she took a smaller experimental bite.
