Meridian Bops Tigers

Meridian Yellowjackets, displaying the power that has carried them to four wins in five outings, and which has firmly established them as district title favorite, all but swept the Hico Tigers out of the stadium last Friday night in the district opener for both teams.

The Jackets racked up two first-period touchdowns, added two more in the second quarter, and ran the second-half kickoff back 88 yards for their 35 points. The Tigers managed their lone tally in the second quarter.

Meridian found the promised land on its first possession, moving 62 yards in three plays, Darrel Sonntag capped the drive with a 53-yard burst, and Don Hennessee kicked his first of five extra points to send the visitors out front 7-0.

A bad snap from center set the Jackets up for their second TD at the Tiger 23 yard line. Four plays were needed to send the Jackets out front 14-0 in the first quarter.

Meridian's Butch Reese accounted for the next TD with a 58-yard punt return.

Hico's only touchdown came after Larry Erick intercepted a jacket pass at the 46. Following two incomplete passes, Jernigan found Erick with a 46-yard heave that netted the 6-pointer. Erick made a circus catch of the ball running full speed and went on in untouched.

Meridian countered with another TD before intermission, when Sonntag ran hard for 11 yards sending the score to 28-6 at half-time.

The back-breaker came on the second-half kickoff when Jimmy Smith hauled in the kick at the 12 and went all the way, ballooning the score to 35-6.

The remainder of the game was played on about even terms, with the Jackets making the most serious threat, moving to the Tiger 11 when time ran out.

Top Defensive Hands Cited.

Top hands, defensively, in last week's game were listed by coaches as follows:

Most tackles: Larry Erick 16; Bill Rutledge 12; Don Jernigan 11. Intercepted passes: Alan Soisbery, Larry Erick, and Charles Erick.

In those days a gin operated only one fan that sucked up the cotton from the wagons into the gin. There was only hand-picked cotton and it was very white, prettier and clean. Everyone saved their own seed cotton to plant next year and it sold for ten cents a bushel. There was no meal or cake as we now have. Cotton sold for five to ten cents per pound or about $25 per bale.

Fuel for power was cord wood that had been cut with a cross-cut saw in the good old cold, plenty of ice, and wintertime. It was stacked and hauled in wagons pulled by mules. This was a summertime job. It took lots of wood hauling to feed the greedy furnaces. Often times cotton seed that could not be sold was burned. They were very large and contained lots of oil, thus making a very hot fire. Later they hauled coal from Hico over roads that were knee deep in ruts and mud, often times a day's job.

They really became modern and progressed to steam for operating power. There was a daily job that someone in the family had to do—trim and clean the chimneys of the kerosene lanterns which was their only light REA did not arrive in these parts until 1936!

In 1917, W. M. Stone and son, A. E. bought the old gin at Sel-

Selden Gin, Last Cog in Former Huge Cotton Empire of Erath-Hamilton Co., Still Operating

JOAN C. JORGENSEN for as long as anyone can remember in a grove of elm, oak trees is one of the old landmarks in Erath County, a gin at Salem and reared his family there. In 1913, A. E. or Austreck meanders on its way country store that belongs to T. W. Hatchett completes store.

first gin was build of wood with a stone grist mill for corn. Tom Arendell, uncle, Mrs. A. A. Schrimsher who live in the community, was and part owner of the gin ever built along with Jim. This around the year of Mr. Arendell owned about acres of land in and around S. E. Darnell, father of Schrimsher, was a gin for some time. The power gin was fired with wood. Years ago the gin changed hands many times, selling to Dick Collier and later Bros., then Ewin who later sold to M. Burks, of Irby Russell who still in the neighborhood, and a grandson. For several years it was not operated, later sold to the Stone family, storage warehouse which belongs to Mrs. Hatchett, is located where a blacksmith shop and operated by A. E. when they bought the gin.

general store was owned by Henry Mosley. Also a post drug store owned by Mrs. Mail was carried in wagons by zig and one horse drivers Gap.

complete the history of this one has to know the Stone who have lived in this area

LAST OF AN EMPIRE—Shown here is one of the few remaining cotton gins in this area still open for business. The gin, located at Selden, is the only one operating in Erath County. See related story.

den, then owned by M. Burks and Mr. Bauldwin. That was a very dry year and the gin did not turn a wheel, 1918 was a good year, plenty of moisture and business flourishing.

The old gin and stone mill was torn down in 1934. They rebuilt it using sheet iron for the build-had bought the McGehee home place in Selden. Thus began a two-year period of repairing, rebuilding and installing all modern machinery. All the old was moved to Newcastle in Young County where Alvin Stone has a gin and also one at Woodson. Some of the machinery now in the Selden gin came from the old father owned, working by his side, one in Hico, and some from Ft. Cobb, Okla.

Lawrence Stone has worked in and around a cotton gin all his life. He worked for H. L. Knight at Woodson for many years, as reginner during the season and repairman in the winter months. Mr. Knight owned 13 gins located at Comanche, Alexander, Clairette, Dublin, Hico, Proctor, Gustine, Tolar, Bluff Dale and Desdemona. He has done service gin repairs all over the state.

The junior partner is Jerry Schrimsher, well-known dairyman. He and his wife and three children live right across the road from the Stones. Lawrence says he could have never gotten along without Jerry—two years of repairs, moving machinery and getting it ready for service, is a long time and it would have been mighty slow go if done alone and with never an encouraging word.

Lawrence described the gin machinery this way: the latest in down packing press, 14 foot burr machine, 480 Murry stand with super feeder or cleaner, 440-inch fan, LeRoy engine with 240 horsepower, V-drive belts and operates on propane. Folks come to this gin from a 40-mile radius, near the Brazos at Mineral Wells, Eastland, Hood, Somervell and Young counties, Lawrence is a gin place in Selden. Lawrence is a gin place in Selden. Lawrence is a gin place in Selden. Lawrence is a gin place in Selden.

He draws you a picture with words of the drastic changes that agriculture has undergone in Erath County and this area in the past 60 years. No longer is cotton the main crop, making over a bale to the acre with corn and oats as secondary crops. Good roads such as FM 913 that goes right by the gin brings cotton for miles around in just a little while. About one-third as much cotton is grown in the county as used to be. There are still three other gins left in this area, one at Granbury and two at Hamilton, both some 30 miles away. The soil bank has done much to change this picture as anything as well as letting the land wash or blow away, insects that plague the farmer, not ternaing the land or putting back into the land a residue.

Note: Most all the history pertaining to the old Selden gin and grist mill and those who owned it down through the years, was supplied by Mrs. J. D. Garner. Others of the community were very nice to help me in any way they could.

Demonstrating new '63 Chevrolet truck features the hard way!

When we came to a river we got wet. This river bed was paved with rocks the size of melons. What a test for new light- and heavy-duty suspension systems this was!

Conventional light-duty units have coil-spring independent front suspension—easier on truck, load and driver.

New engines, suspensions, frames and narrower front ends show their stuff on Mexico's tough Baja Run!

With months of proving-ground tests under their belts, why did new Chevrolet trucks take on the rugged Baja (bah'bah) Peninsula? This is the toughest line of trucks Chevrolet has ever built. Sending them over the most punishing terrain in North America (a road totally unlike the fine highways on the Mexican mainland) was double proof of this fact. Frames, engines, suspension systems were subjected to stresses far greater than trucks normally encounter. You can be sure that trucks that can handle this kind of beating can handle any kind of work.

THE "NEW RELIABLES" FROM CHEVROLET

Quality trucks always cost less

Users of new conventional medium- and heavy-duty units who have to operate in close quarters are going to like the narrower front ends (up to 7 inches).

See the "New Reliables" now at your Chevrolet dealer's!

Who's Who

It seems only proper that the first person I should write about is a 215-pound center on the football team. He is about 5 feet 9 in tall and is adored by everyone. Already this year he has been elected the Powderpuff Sweetheart. We weren't at all sure if he would emerge in one piece after all those girl football players ganged up on him.

Not only is he a wonderful center on our HHS football team but he adds so much morale to the team.

Just lately our subject had to take his car to the mechanic shop because the transmission got "torn up." I wonder how that happened.

In history class, our subject sits there soaking up all that knowledge but sometimes he forgets and talks to J.O. who sits in front of him.

Everyone ought to have known

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE STUDENTS OF HICO HIGH SCHOOL

The year of 1961-62 was a good school year, but the Sophomore class of 1962-63 feel that this will be one of the best years yet.

Already, on our return to old HHS we have found three new teachers whom we all adore. There is no doubt that Mrs. Pratt, Miss Littlejohn and Mr. Morton have added much pleasure to the corridors of Hico High. (Of course, we won't mention the pleasure they add to the classrooms! Right, Sophomores?)

The year of 1962-63 has given us some new classmates, also. One of these new members is Jim (Legs) Grimes. We added this middle name after his magnificent performance at the annual Powderpuff Football Game, where his gorgeous legs were the main attraction of the evening.

To welcome our new students are, of course, the remnants of last year. One such student is Mary Ann McClure. Not much can be said for Mary Ann except that she has a bad habit of forgetting to take off her ??? in PE. Also Mary Ann's face is capable of turning a crimson red!

The new fad around Hico High is to break a bone and have to walk on crutches, wear a sling, or show off a broken finger. The sophomores are very proud of the brave characters in their class who helped start this fad.

James Randals, a natural-born sophomore, was the originator of this craze. His crutches are excellent for Linda Jaggars to use as pole vaults in English Class, and they are also handy for Mr. Barnett to use when illustrating a sword in World History class.

Is it really true that some of the sophomore girls are so crazy about Mickey Mouse that they sing about him in PE class? How about this Laura Pratt? I hear your voice carries as far as Mr. Barnett's office!

Well, that's about all for this week. Sophomores, please try not to be yourselves next week, because your Sophomore Tattlers are always watching!

The Spotlight

After digging around in my closet for about half an hour, I finally found our dear old spotlight completely covered with dust. After a good dusting and spit shine, it looked as good as new. I even got it some new batteries to hunt on these dark nights for our Hico couples.

We were off to a good start because Friday night was certainly a booming night! Those couples we spotted were: Jane A. and Don J.; Joan M. and Larry E.; Alan S. and Linda D.; Janell O. and Shannon; Dixie L. and Montye O.; Anita M. and Marcus G.; Patsy W. and Butch K.; Kay J. and Mike F.; Pat B. and Charles O.; Judy O. and Harry B.; Kay C. and Mike L.; Bonnie W. and Mitchell M.; Barbara P. and Jimmy D.

Saturday night the same old cats were out and a few new ones too. Those I saw were: Jane A. and Don J.; Kay J. and Mike F.; Joan M. and Larry E.; Janell O. and Edwin S.; Montye O. and Dixie L.; Anita M. and Marcu G.; Kay C. and Mike L.; Judy J. and Jerry C.; Bonnie W. and Mitchell M.; Pat B. and Charles O.; Barbara P. and Jimmy D.

Sunday is our day of rest, but not for Janell O, Edwin S, Anita M. and Marcus G. were off bright and early for the State Fair.

Sunday night seemed like stag night but of course some old faithfuls were out like: Jane A. and Don J. and Barbara P. and Jimmy D.

Freshman News

The Freshman Class has been in a constant state of activity since the discovery of our two new glamorous cheerleaders. How do you like being beautiful, C.P. and L.M.?

Who is the girl in Algebra I that seems set on keeping Mr. Cook busy answering questions? Do you have any ideas that might identify her, G.O.?

If you don't have a broken bone you simply aren't in style. If you don't believe me just ask C.P., L.R. and C.H.

noon. Her head is so high in the clouds over a certain chap from Fort Worth that she forgets to take each step at a time.

D.J. wore a new T-shirt to school Monday. We are all so glad to see him with a new one on.

H.B. came back from the State Fair last week sporting a nice place ribbon that his heifer won. He was real worried because "Tammy" wouldn't eat. I just told him that she was probably so excited she couldn't eat.

Speaking of eating, Gary Wooton starts talking about Thursday long before they get here. If any of us has forgotten that Thursday is "chicken day" we soon find out because on Wednesday, he always announces it.

P.Y. started working yesterday in the Polar Bear and last night there were hamburgers coming out both ears and eyes. I think it should become a major item in the HHS band because he sure is swinging.

J.O. had a new hair style Monday. On one side, her hair was pulled back behind her ear and guess this was to be sure she wouldn't miss any of the news.

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We were sorry to learn of the passing of Mr. Jim Hyles, 75, who died Sunday, Oct. 14 in Ft. Worth following a lengthy illness. Mr. Hyles had been making his home with his daughter in Fort Worth. He formerly resided near Hamilton, where his wife, Mrs. Winnie Chumney Hyles passed away Oct. 7, 1932. Funeral services were held at Evant on Monday afternoon with burial made in the Liveoak Cemetery in the Liberty community southeast of Hamilton. Mr. Hyles was a brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parks of Fairy. Our sympathy to extended to those bereaved in his passing.

Mr. and Mrs. Druid Jones of Hico, accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bakley of Fairy left Monday for a few days visit in West Texas with their brother, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elder and other relatives. The Jones have several children living in West Texas, also.

We received about 3 inches of rain early Saturday morning, enough to retard most outdoor activities for the day. The ground is very dry and we would like to see a good rain of several inches. The rain was followed by a norther which brought chilly temperatures Sunday night and early Monday morning, and another norther is on its way according to reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant visited Sunday afternoon in the Boyd Lowry home near Hico. They report Mrs. Lowry's mother better at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bullard spent the past weekend visiting in the home of their cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner of Killeen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike attended the Tarleton homecoming Saturday and went to Waco Saturday night for the Baylor-Texas Tech ball game.

Mrs. Sidney McKandless and son Albert of Granbury visited Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan. Two of Mrs. J. H. Davis' sisters were visiting in her home during the weekend. Sorry we were unable to obtain their names.

Congratulations, Vinita, on your good picture. You had the rest of us skinned a city block. We do not know Mrs. Brown but those who do say her picture did not do her justice. We know the rest didn't. Anyway pictures never turn out as good as the actual picture itself and as for ourself we wasn't expecting much anyway. But all no fault of our editor and we thank him for the page of information regarding the printing of the paper. Yes it's true, only those who have a part in the work realize the effort put forth in getting out the paper. If others did there might be less criticism.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Janice visited awhile Sunday afternoon with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers in Hamilton. While there their son, Jimmy, attended a theatre showing in Hamilton.

Rev. Val Nance of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rachuig were uncheon guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parks Sunday. Glad to learn the baby of Rev. and Mrs. Nance is improved. Mrs. Nance has been unable to accompany her husband here recently due to the illness of their baby.

E. M. Hoover has been ill with an ear infection the past several days, but is now improved and able to be about his work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pearey and Neal had the following visitors from Thursday until Monday: her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cornwell and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burke, all of Sundown.

Miss Annette Gleason and her roommate, Mrs. Nancy Cramer of Electro, students at Texas Woman's University in Denton, were weekend visitors in the B. A. Gleason home.

Miss Merrijo Gouson and her roommate, Miss Judy Castleberry of Kaufman, students at Tarleton State College, also spend the weekend in the B. A. Gleason home.

Mr. Warren Pearey of Sacramento, Calif. is visiting this week in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pearey and Neal.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lam of Flat spent Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blackley.

Mrs. Pedro Jones spent Sunday night in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike.

The Roy Bakleys have had a new room added to their home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover were business visitors in Fort Worth Friday.

The Miller home, better known as the Hutton place, was vacated again during the weekend. A couple had lived there about a month and moved to a ranch where he will be employed. We did not learn their name.

The following lots at the cemetery have been worked the past week: Broyles, Edwards and Wilford, Lester Grisham, Grisham and Lackey, Lee Adams, Joe, John and E. T. Abel, Hobart Proffitt, J. W. Burden, Allison and Rainey, and Bert Wright, Ed Allison, Richardson, Jacobs, W. E. Goynes, Hutton and Tinkle. Others will be worked as needed.

Our sincere thanks to the following for recent donations: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Grisham of Fort Worth, $10 for 2 years care; Mrs. Annie Allison Rhody, Fort Worth $5 for a years care of the Allison and Rainey lot; Mrs. O. E. Whitson of Hico, $5, for a years care of her parents, the George Goynes lot; and $5 by Mrs. Eunice Daniel for a years care of the Jesse A. Massengale lot.

We feel sure most everyone is deeply concerned of world conditions at this time. May we all keep a prayerful heart at all times that such conditions will return to normal and we can stay at peace with all concerned.

IT HAPPENED HERE OR NEAR—
Two Kinds of Pastors

By E. E. DAWSON
There are two kinds of so-called pastors of churches, whatever the denominational affiliation. One is a real pastor, the other spends his time and vital forces sermonizing and delivering his sermons, and in making a church program and keeping it going.

Let's have a look at these two types and see if we can discern which is the most effective in his ministry to his church and the cause of religion. We will take them in the order of our first paragraph reversed.

There is the minister who evidently believes that delivering two sermons on Sunday is the heart and sum total of his ministry. So he devotes himself to sermonizing all the week and on Sunday to delivering his discourses. Surely no sane person would say that delivering sermons is unimportant. It is vastly important. And likewise is making and maintaining a program of church activities. Churches do not fulfill their missions in the world unless they do have a program that emphasizes all features of the Christian program of work.

The mistake this type of minister most often makes is in believing that preaching and organization are the sum of his life's responsibilities. Preaching that is not accompanied by a ministry to individuals and homes loses its meaning and its appeal and its opportunities. People live in their homes all week and spend perhaps as much as four hours a week on an average in church. In their homes and the week's work is where they meet the real problems of life and where they need encouragement and inspiration. Morning and evening services on Sunday are insufficient inspiration for the regular grind of life. They need the touch of a friendly soul who will often be in their homes and peep in on them at their regular work.

The other type of minister is sensitive to the fact that he must preach and maintain organization, but he also remembers his great field of opportunity in the homes of men and women and children. It is in visiting with and knowing intimately his parishioners and their homes and children and associates that gives to him inspiring messages that have the human touch in them. These are the only really effective sermons. Men and housewives and boys and girls of all ages and conditions spell out to such a minister what his sermons should contain. They are social creatures and respond to friendly contact of such interested religious leaders. Here is an all-important field of operation. Neglected, the minister loses life's greatest opportunity. He becomes a mere functionary and has few fruits to show of his life.

A New England pastor got an inspiration early in his career and began to make a diligent search for souls in all areas of his field. Now England has lost much of its former energy and influence by reason of the removal of its former stalwarts in the religious field to other areas of America. At the same time families of foreign births have moved in and having a religion foreign to our Western life, or lacking any religious life at all, religious activity in that area has sagged deplorably. This man of whom we tell looked over the gloomy situation and decided to remedy it to the extent of his ability. The story of his activities is very intriguing if one is really interested in human welfare and religious growth in our modern world.

This minister of whom we speak served in about all the New England states and found religion at a low ebb with a great number of strange foreigners of all kinds of social ideas and ideals. Practically all of them were suspicious of the new world churches, and resented any appeal to attend them and work with them. Our resolute minister went into their homes and into the fields where they worked and got acquainted with Russians, Germans, Poles, Marxists, Communists, extremists, who gave him no welcome at first, but by continued contacts he won a great many and found them to be excellent souls as their prejudices subsided, and they became members of his churches. He has left a trail of revived churches wherever he moved in the states of New England. The explanation of his marvelous success is to be found in his week-day visits into the homes that had been neglected by former so-called pastors who thought that Sunday sermons was the sum of their duties.

For all the years of this present century I have observed things like this time and time again. Men failing because they failed to minister to the people, and many who made monumental successes by reason of their continual remembrance of their duties to homes and individuals of their fields.
