NUMBER 32

Time CHATTER

By HELEN OGLE

Beginning to look a lot like Christmas decorations have got to be put up," said Bill Howard, "But when?"

And there was Teen Sutton having problems with Bonnie, the lovely lady who models fashions at Hico Specialty Shop. Seems Bonnie has an awful small foot and that presents a shoe problem.

Just let someone walk up with a giant size turnip (six and a quarter pound size) and it will cause John Rusk to forget all about cutting your hair.

If you need some extra spare-time work, why not contact Odie Petsick. He thinks the windows at the bank are ready to be spruced up for the holidays.

Ray Cheek was doing a hit-and-miss job with the broom, and said it was alright because it would be dirty by the time Lou showed up for work.

I don't know whether Glenn Ross was trying to confuse me or see that I was in the right place at the right time, but nevertheless I sort of met myself enroute.

It may be Christmas shopping for some, but not Lucille Dayton as she selected birthday gifts.

After viewing the CPS office, I don't blame Hester for accepting compliments on the remodeling.

Bess Mingus wasn't lost—just buried in those boxes and boxes of new merchandise that just arrived.

And since moving 'way uptown we are reminded by Wayne Rutledge that Highway 6 still runs the same, and that it wouldn't hurt things a bit if we'd remember to come by their way sometimes.

I'm always on the alert for new ideas to use in our advertising field and this week I learned that Gladys Lynch is in the same boat. Our only trouble was that we neither one could find the lost idea.

And as we go to press—isn't this true? "I love the Christmas, and yet, I notice this each year I live! I always like the gifts I get, but how I love the gifts I give!"

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

Haskell Payne was the Cranfills Gap Methodist Church on Wednesday, Nov. 28, with Rev. Darwin Farquhar, pastor, and Rev. Ivan Haugan, pastor of St. Olaf Lutheran Church officiating. Both spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family and praised the life of Mr. Payne. Several songs were rendered by a mixed quartet of the church, with Mrs. Binos Tindall as pianist. Haskell was a member of the Methodist Church. He leaves many friends who were grieved in his tragic death. He was a hard working man and provided well for his family. His many deeds of kindness administered to others will never be forgotten, and he will be greatly missed. Survivors other than the above named sons and daughters are his bereaved wife; his father, Jess Payne of Tolar; a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Allen also of Tolar; and a number of nieces, nephews and grandchildren to mourn his loss. Pallbearers were Bernt Bertelson, June Blum and Buster Stanford of Cranfills Gap, Claude Gautier of Hamilton, Cecil Pierce of Pancake, and Mr. Davis of Arlington. The beautiful floral offering which enhanced the north portion of the church, and the large number in attendance at the services bore tribute of love and respect for the deceased. Burial was at the IOOF Cemetery in Hamilton. May God bless and comfort the family at this time of deep shock and grief.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel and Bill had as guests last Wednesday her uncle, Bruce Thomas of Gulfport, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. Carson Whitten of Alabama, and Mrs. Abel's sister, Mrs. Raymond Lowrance of Spring Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakley held open house Sunday in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary. A large number attended. The rooms throughout the home bore arrangements of beautiful cut flowers and artificial arrangements of gold and bronze. The serving table was centered with a large candle in antique lamp design, surrounded by a fluted net ruffle in gold with clusters of three tiny white and gold wedding bells arranged at intervals around the fluting and also a repeat of this trim at the center portion of the lamp designed candle. The three-tiered wedding cake in white was centered with a bride and groom and was beautifully decorated. It was baked by Mrs. J. D. Jones of Hico, sister of Mrs. Blakley. Napkins bore the inscription "Myrtle and Roy - 1912-1962." The wedding cake and delicious fruit punch was served to the guests. Many friends and relatives were in attendance. They received many nice and useful gifts. We wish for them many more happy anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith of Houston spent the weekend in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield and Billy Marvin.

The Porterfields also enjoyed having three of her sisters visiting in their home a while Saturday night. There were Mrs. Burl Lewis of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Latham and family of Vigo Park and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edwards and children of the Age community and Dale Hill of Fort Worth.

Mrs. J. L. McCoy received word Monday morning that her brother, Mr. Warren Strait of Terrell had passed away. Funeral arrangements were incomplete at the time the message was received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner of Killen spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner and Bernice and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Jimmie and Janice.

Rev. Val Nance filled an appointment at the Baptist Church

Sunday, and he and his wife and baby were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner and Bernice.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cunningham moved to their new home a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield were hosts for a luncheon Sunday for members of the Church of Christ. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leonard and Melody, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson, Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie, and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Houser. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Porterfield of Waco were visitors in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Halle of Fort Worth visited during the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sils.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brummett are making plans to start on their new home after the first of the year. Workmen are razing the dwelling at the old Wickman place.

Jerry Richardson, who has been ill with rheumatic fever, is doing fine and got a good report from his physician last week.

The writer attended singing at Evergreen Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. Visiting singers were the Weldon Jones Trio of Gatesville, and all enjoyed their singing.

On our return home we stopped awhile in the Haskell Payne home. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Pierce of Pancake and Mr. and Mrs. Eber Vise of the lower Lanham community.

Our sincere thanks to Mrs. Delis Seago of Waco and her sister, Mrs. Edwin Seilheimer of Fort Worth for donations of $2.50 each for a years care of the Ed Allison lot at the Fairy Cemetery.

The writer visited awhile in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Jensen of Cranfills Gap following funeral services for Mr. Payne, and also on our return home we visited a few minutes with Mrs. Goy Blount and Mrs. Ella Shepherds and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel and Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin visited Sunday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Jimmie and Janice.

We had about 3 inches of rain during the weekend. Grain is looking pretty. We fear if we don't have some cold weather soon, fruit trees will be budding out.

The News Review has just received word from the North Pole that Santa Claus wants the local paper to again serve as central receiving point for Christmas "wish letters" from the youngsters in this area.

urged to get their letters in the mail in order that they can be delivered.

All the youngsters need do is address letters to: Santa Claus, c/o The News Review, Hico, Texas, and we'll see that he gets them. The letters will be published between now and Christmas.

GUEST SPEAKER

Monday morning Miss Darlene Elliott, a missionary to Colombia, South America, gave a talk on the customs and conditions in that country.

In her talk she told of bandits who robbed and killed travellers; she also related some marriage customs. Miss Elliott said that the children were so eager to learn they asked to bring their own desks and chairs and sit in a corner when the school was full.

WHOS WHO

My subject this week is a very unusual (as most of the kids in this school are!). He is a Junior, which tends to make a little more unusual, but the poor Juniors just can't help it, I guess.

SENIOR NEWS

Stephenville has always attracted many of our more intellectual Seniors, but now new and different spots have also gained the dumb ones too.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Junior news was turned in too late last week to appear in the paper, but since we practice the old saying "Better late than never," here goes this week's as well as last's.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! Not crazy—just being smart! The dear old sophomore class is getting ready for Christmas early this year.

FRESHMAN NEWS

It seems as though the Freshman class has been hitting it off unusually well this week. Speaking of "hitting it off" few seconds of the game Friday night. "C" you next week if we're still here.

Donna M. whom were you with Friday night after the show?

Glenda O. has started a "true life story." She is changing the names to protect the innocent.

Joy E. must not have a very good sense of balance because she always seems to end up on the study hall floor.

If you want to see a beautiful sight, just wait until you see Mildred P. out in the rain in her Easter bonnet.

Seems Bill R. had two dates a couple of Saturday nights ago, and all the boys wanted to know how you could take two girls to the show the same night.

Overheard Tommy D. say the other day that he wasn't going to have to save money for Christmas because he wasn't going with M.A. W. before then.

Joy E. swears she was out chasing turkeys, but if she was, Doane was helping her.

Barbara R. just can't make Mike F. mind her. Seems she said she'd never go to the drive-in, but guess where they went Saturday night.

All you Juniors start saving your money because we're expecting a nice Christmas gift from all of you.

Seems that Liz E. had a truce with a certain senior boy Saturday. Glad to see them together again.

If you see two sophomore girls running around looking in everyone's purse, don't be alarmed. It's only Margo and Alma looking for chewing gum wrappers so they can finish their love chains.

Speaking of love chains, I hear that Sharon H. and Carol C. are making one. I wonder who for?

James R. can't pick on people anymore since he has had his cast taken off, so he had better watch out whom he picks on from now on.

In history class the other day we heard a certain sophomore girl screaming "quit Edwin." She said he was biting on her pencil, but I really don't think Mr. Barnett believed it.

Oh, yes, Carol, what did your little sister tell Jerry the other night?

Ronnie P. is very generous with his comb everyday. He keeps trying to loan it to people, but I really think he is hinting to certain people to comb their hair.

Seems that a couple of girls got sick on their own cooking in Homemaking the other day. Who wouldn't if you had shrimp, pimentos, celery and Knox gelatine. Remember, these are the future homemakers of America. Ugh!

Sure seems strange that Bonnie W. misses school every Friday. I heard she had to get twelve hours of sleep.

I hear that Alan S. has a new girl and come to find out she is very pretty too. Good luck!

Leona C. had baked a cake for a certain boy and I heard he was sick. Lynn does it have anything to do with the cake?

Good luck Charles on getting honorable mention. We are very proud of our sophomore class.

Well, signing off for this week so keep up the good work sophomores.

IT HAPPENED HERE OR NEAR—

Stanley Walker, Writer Extraordinary, Takes Life

By E. E. DAWSON

The average person always dislikes to hear of tragedy. And when the tragedy involves the death of someone, he breathes a prayer that God's mercy may ease the pain of the event to the loved ones of the victim.

Just who was this Stanley Walker of whom we speak? Well, he was a fellow-Texan, an unusually brilliant newspaper man, a writer in general of numerous books.

Then on that fateful Sunday morning he died. He took his own life. They found his body on the porch of the cabin in which he did his writing.

When Stanley Walker got back to Texas in the forties, he got out a book, "How Come Texas." Having heard of the man first from a fellow-collegian back in the earlier days of this century, who seemed to have a strong enthusiasm for the young man who came from his native county and climbed to a high spot in the newspaper world.

Keep Out." En route to his ranch I stopped to ask one of his neighbors how to get to his house and found that neighbor quite taciturn about Walker.

The book, "How Come Texas," revealed the character of the man. He knew everything, in his own thinking, and others knew nothing. He spoke critically of churches and seemed to abhor religion.

Just who was this Stanley Walker of whom we speak? Well, he was a fellow-Texan, an unusually brilliant newspaper man, a writer in general of numerous books. He was a student at University of Texas in his youth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Black Commended by Orphans Home Superintendent

Freddy Lieba, who last year went to the Cherokee Home for Latin American Children at Cherokee, Texas, spent the summer months with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Black and family of Hico.

The Blacks were sponsors for the boy during the summer months. Mrs. Black spent several years in the Lena Pope Orphans Home in Fort Worth, and can appreciate the problems of orphan children. The Blacks have three boys and three girls of their own.

Superintendent of the Cherokee Home, Lloyd Alexander, said "Our sincere thanks to the Blacks for caring for and training our boy, Freddie Lieba during the summer months."

"Also our thanks go to the Wallace Edwards for keeping Jimmie C. Sanford and training him in mechanics and painting of farm equipment. We feel these boys received valuable experience and training on these jobs," the Superintendent concluded.

Mrs. Hamilton Presents 'Story of Madonna' at Review Club Meeting

The Hico Review Club met November 29th in the home of Mrs. Morse Ross.

The president opened the meeting with a short business session and then introduced the afternoon program by reminding members that the month of November is Fine Arts Month and that study was being concluded of "The Portraits of the Madonna" discussed by Mrs. Paul Hamilton. She said that the World's Greatest Story has inspired the world's greatest art. She told how the Madonna figurine in arrangements are appropriate for use at Christmas time.

Five very lovely Madonna figurine arrangements made by different members of the Garden Club were shown and enjoyed.

Mrs. Hamilton called attention to the face of a Madonna stating "No matter what artist has fashioned her, the same inspiration is there but you must seek and feel it." She suggested that a Madonna be displayed in the home at any time, but especially at Christmas, to feel much closer to the true spirit of Christmas.

Concluding the program the hostess served a delicious dessert plate. The next meeting will be in the home of Miss Mettie Rodgers on December 13.

those who assist with the making out of income tax returns. I'm sure nearly everyone attending will have a question or two they would like to bring up, so why not write down that question before coming so you will be sure to have it and then ask it when the meeting gets underway.

There is another important event taking place Tuesday and that is the referendum on Cotton Marketing Quotas, Ed Bulman, chairman of the Hamilton County ASC Committee advises me that there will be five voting places over the county.

These places are Hamilton, Pottsville, Lanham, Olen and Aleman. The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday, December 11.

According to the State ASC committee, if two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum favor quotas they will be in effect on the 1963 upland cotton crop and marketing penalties will apply to any "excess" cotton produced on a farm and price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments. On the other hand, if more than a third of the voting growers oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1963 upland cotton crop, and price support to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity, as directed by law.

Allotments are not affected by the referendum. They will remain in effect—whether or not quotas are approved—as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1962 are eligible to vote in the referendum, and are urged to do so.
