HOBBY WINS BY BIG MAJORITY

German Retreat North of the Marne

RIGHT BANK OF RIVER IS CLEARED OF ENEMY BY ADVANCING ALLIES

(By Associated Press.)
The Germans are in retreat along the entire front north of the Marne. This part of the front in the Aisne-Marne salient is about twenty miles across and the advance of the French and Allied troops on the arc constituting the bottom of the sack has averaged between two and three miles beyond the line officially reported a day or two ago.

This means that the German crown prince and his generals are extricating their troops from dangerous positions as best they may. Reports from French headquarters have indicated that the Germans were carrying out extensive preparations for the evacuation of the territory between the Marne and the Oureq, and it is undoubted that the Allies will endeavor with all their resources to drive in on the enemy flanks.

Brucy, which lies a little more than three miles to the northeast of Armentieres, is at one end of the new Allied positions, and Chaumy, southwest of Rheims wood, lies at the other. Here the new line unites with the old.

Chateau Thierry, which was once a pivotal point of the German advance in the recent offensive is now ten miles or more to the south of the Allied front. All this territory, running northward from Chateau Thierry, as well as to the east and west has been re-taken largely by the French and American troops by fighting of the sternest nature during the last week.

The battle between Soissons and Rheims, which has been the principal theatre of the war on the western front, seems to have been fought with such ferocity that both sides are, for the moment, apparently exhausted.

Since the French and Americans struck the German line from Fenny to Bellard, a week ago last Thursday, the Germans have been forced to re-form their lines and pour into the salient south of the Vesle River many divisions of fresh troops which probably intended for use elsewhere along the front. The principal fighting of the past few days has taken place along the Oulchy-le-Chateau, Villenotte, and the Bouilly sectors. At Villenotte the Allies succeeded in pushing ahead slightly and near Oulchy Thursday began an attack that promised well but it was stopped and the British were driven back slightly from their advanced positions.

The position at Oulchy-le-Chateau and the southeast through the wood country has been steady and the Germans have been compelled to give ground, but it has been a slow process that the Allies have carried on.

Franco-Americans Continue Advance

(By Associated Press.)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON the Aisne-Marne Front, July 27.—The French and Americans have continued their rapid advance to the northeast and the forest of Fere was cleared of the enemy this afternoon. The Allied forces are losing contact with the Germans.

Aerial operations were again of less importance on account of the weather. It was cloudy all day and there were numerous showers making it impracticable to keep up the observation balloons. Occasionally both the Allies and the enemy attempted to use planes but these in most cases were forced to a descent on account of the rain.

There is a growing belief that the enemy will make no effort to stand on the Ardre river. Fere-en-Tardenois and Ville-en-Tardenois, in the east, are already under heavy fire on the flanks and the south line, making the roads as well as the temporary railroads virtually useless for transport purposes. These positions must be almost untenable.

The Germans are doing their utmost to hold the high ground south-east of Soissons for a continuation of their line either along the Ardre or further north along the Vesle.

The flanks of the French, British and other armies are withstanding every effort of the Germans who appear to be making a most determined effort south of Soissons. The line remains much the same as it had been for the past two or three days, the only changes being slight advances. The battle line now totals approximately fifty miles, although there is not actual fighting along every mile of it, and is a more broken one, made so by the character of the enemy's withdrawal, especially on the south side.

The effect has been the presentation of a highly dangerous, spongy front into which any part of the advancing Allied line might fall. Were it not for the hunting down of the enemy and cleaning out of points of obstruction, some parts of the line could be far in advance of where they are.

The Germans have left officers who know how to maneuver skillfully partially deserted units so that at times it appears almost ironical to refer to their defense as a rear guard action. It is just that, however, although by any standard except those established in this war, the almost half-daily and really minor encounters would be styled big battles.

Prisoners brought to one of the American division headquarters today were men of the landwehr who confirmed former statements of prisoners that the armies engaged in the retirement are leaving only enough men to resist efforts to hurry them. Like other prisoners they professed weariness of the war and said this feeling was general but supposed they must go on, since the men in a high command so will.

PROGRESS SATISFACTORY TO ALLIED COMMANDERS

(By Associated Press.)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON the Aisne-Marne Front, July 27.—The progress made by the Franco-American troops on the Aisne-Marne front is considered eminently satisfactory by the commanders, and the failure of the Germans to employ artillery effectively has tended to confirm the belief that their heavy guns on the greater part of the field have been moved far back, perhaps to a position which may mark a new line.

While steady pressure is being maintained on the arc forming the bottom of the sack the Allies are determinedly hammering the flanks where Von Boehm and Von Eben concentrated their armies returning blow for blow in the hope that they can hold out until the main body of the Germans can be withdrawn with a minimum loss.

ENEMY ARTILLERY ACTIVE NORTHEAST OF AMIENS

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 27.—The German artillery was active last night in the angle between the Somme and Aisne rivers northeast of Amiens, today's war office report shows. Both the British and the enemy artillery displayed activity further north in the sector of Labasse canal.

TRAINED COMBAT AMERICAN TROOPS ARRIVE IN ITALY

NEITHER THE NUMBER OR PLACE IS ANNOUNCED BY GENERAL MARCH.

ADDITIONAL ARMY CORPS

Fourth and Fifth Have Been Organized in France According to Statement.

(By Associated Press.)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON the Italian Front, July 27.—American fighting troops are now on the Italian front. They began arriving this morning. They are being billeted with the Italians.

Hitherto the only combatant troops were aviators, and the appearance of this large body of fighting men from the United States at the present moment has created the greatest satisfaction.

Major General Eben Swift of the American military mission to Italy, was the first to greet the newly arrived Americans. He had already made arrangements for their comfort. The Italians greeted them with enthusiasm and rejoiced at the splendid physical condition which the American soldiers showed. The Italians appeared greatly astonished when the general announced that they were going to be used as the spearhead of the fighting force and then started off.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Trained combat American troops from France have begun to arrive in Italy for the march announced today at his recent conference with newspaper men. Neither the number nor the place where they are to be used has been communicated to the war department, the general said.

Two additional American army corps have been organized in France. General March announced the formation of the fourth and fifth commanded by Brigadier General Frank L. Winn and Major General Omar Bundy, respectively.

In announcing the formation of two more corps General March explained that divisions comprising them and other corps are assigned before leaving this country, to be mobilized as they are needed. With this understanding he said the eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh national army (Brigadier General Edward A. Morten), the sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth national army (Major General C. C. Ballou), have been assigned to the fourth corps.

General March announced the temporary commands of the five corps as follows:

First corps, Major General Hunter Liggett.

Second corps, Major General Robert L. Bullard.

Third corps, Major General William M. Wright.

Fourth corps, Brigadier General Frank L. Winn.

Fifth corps, Major General Omar Bundy.

The fifth army corps includes the sixth regular division (Major General Robert L. Bullard), seventh national army (Major General Joseph E. Kuhn), eighth national army (Major General C. W. Ketchum), ninth national army (Brigadier General Frederick S. Foltz, temporarily in command), and seventh sixth national army (Major General Henry C. Hodges).

Major General John Ruckman, recently commander of the southern department, has been assigned to command the north Atlantic coast artillery district. General March announced.

In answer to a question General March said the 32nd national guard division, composed principally of Michigan troops commanded by Major General Haan is now in the Vosges.

General March announced the composition of the first regular army division, the first to be sent to France. They followed:

First division: Sixteenth, eighth, twentieth, twenty sixth and twenty eighth infantry; fifth, sixth and seventh field artillery.

Second division:

Fifth and sixth marine regiments, ninth and twenty third infantry, twelfth, fifteenth and seventeenth field artillery.

Third division:

Fourth, seventh, thirteenth and thirty eighth infantry; tenth, eighteenth, twenty sixth field artillery.

Fourth division:

Thirteenth, eighth, sixth and seventh infantry and 13th, 16th 77th field artillery.

In connection with the recent order for organizing six new divisions, the chief of staff said it would be the policy of the department to send as those in this country are sent abroad.

SPENCER NO COUNTY MAJORITY RACES ARE PARRISH FOR IN DOUBT CONGRESS EARLY TODAY

HEAVY PLURALITIES IN EASTERN COUNTIES OVER-COME PARRISH SWEEP IN THE WEST.

Incomplete returns early this morning indicate that Judge Charles F. Spencer of Denton is leading Lucian W. Parrish by a substantial majority for congress in the thirteenth congressional district. Edgar P. Haney is finishing a poor third.

Judge Spencer has carried Denton county by about 800 votes, Montague county by probably 1500 votes, Wise county, by probably 1000 votes, and Cook county by probably 2500.

Parrish has carried Clay county by about three to one over Judge Spencer; he has carried Archer county by more than two to one, Baylor county three to one, Wilbarger county by two to one and Wichita county by between 200 and 300 plurality. He has also carried Jack county by a substantial plurality.

Haney was third in all of the counties reporting except Wichita county where he had a narrow lead over Judge Spencer in the early count.

No word whatever had been heard from Throckmorton county, which is counted for Parrish.

It is apparent that while Judge Spencer has a plurality, that he does not have a majority and that a run-off will be required.

MAJORITY MAY REACH 400,000

(By Associated Press.)
DALLAS, Tex., July 27.—With one fifth of the precincts of the state heard from, Governor William P. Hobby had run far ahead of former Governor James E. Ferguson, his chief opponent in the race for the democratic nomination for governor. His vote at that stage was 102,056 as compared with 39,219 for Ferguson. Political writers on the Dallas News and the Houston Post, two papers which had supported Hobby throughout the campaign, claim his nomination by majorities of between 300,000 and 400,000.

The vote was record breaking in size. With women voting for the first time, and the men voters aroused to a high pitch of excitement by the keenness with which the campaign had been waged for three months, the totals ran far ahead of what had been expected. It was estimated that more than 740,000 votes had been cast.

Much interest centered in the congressional contests. In the seventeenth district at midnight Congressman Thomas L. Blanton declared he had been nominated by a safe majority over Joseph Adkins of Brady, Tex., William G. Blackman and Oscar Callaway. Close races were reported elsewhere. In the second district J. C. Box of Jacksonville was in the lead, but so few ballots had been counted that his plurality over V. A. Collins of Beaumont was in constant danger.

In the sixth district E. A. Dechard was running slightly ahead of Congressman Rufus Hardy. In the seventh W. L. Hill of Huntsville had a lead over Clay Stone Briggs of Galveston, with Jeff McLenore, now congressman at large running behind. Congressman Eagle and Daniel Garrett, now congressman at large were running about even in the eighth district. A. P. Barrett of San Antonio had a slight lead over Carlos Bee in the fourteenth district. Zach Lamar Cobb was ahead of Claude B. Hudspeath in the sixteenth. In the fourth district Congressman Sam Rayburn of Bonham was running far ahead of R. E. Lovelace. While the ballots counted in the congressional races were scattering and probably representative, so few had been counted at midnight that the results in any district could easily be changed.

Miss Annie Webb Blanton, of Denton, the only woman candidate on the state ticket apparently received the generous support of the women voters for the early count showed her running far ahead of W. F. Doughty, incumbent, for the nomination for superintendent of public instruction.

Whereas, the candidates who got beat can attribute their defeat to women's votes.

Now that we have selected the officers who will serve us, we can all redouble our efforts to help win the war.

THE PAWN!

Kings and queens, knight and castles have always played the pawn to their own selfish ends. Oft has the pawn been used as a bait. Times beyond the numbering has the pawn been "thrown away" with the "don't count spirit."

The pawn has been, through the years, the used piece. To be "put" and to stay "put"; to be pushed aside, or to be jumped are pawn traits, traits that in the minds of the privileged putters and placers, pushers and jumpers, constitute the sole rights of the lowly pawn.

In the Fool's Gambit the insignificant pawn is sacrificed for position. The pawn's position is not to reason why, but just to stand and die! To mix figures—the pawn has turned! Belgium the Pawn refused to stay put, and he jumped. The Pawn among the nations blocked the German's game in 1914, and judging the future by the past, this year, and next the lowly Belgium Pawn will continue to block this German war game that knows no right but might.

Chancellor von Hertling will for ever rue the day when he fell from his false lips these words that will well reveal the genius of German Kultur. "We have no intention to keep Belgium in any form whatever." This damning sentence the Thief among the Nations qualified with these never-dying words, "Germany will use Belgium as a pawn for future negotiations."

Germany! Stand up and face the Tribunal of the Nations, and hear the awful charges that ordain your doom. You have ruthlessly raped the country of the Pawn among the Nations; the plain, common people of the Pawn you have robbed and murdered; their treasurers you have wantonly filched. All of this you have done without one act of hostility or semblance of insult upon the part of the Pawn.

Common justice, simple honor and self-respect dictate that the Pawn shall be treated "on the square," the white square of the chess board of life. For this Belgium must be restored and repaid so far as men and means can repay for death and destruction. Then, and only then can the nations have any conscience worthy of the name when the day of peace shall dawn. The Thief among the Nations must restore to its first place on the white square, the Pawn among the Nations. Until then no nation can even begin to believe the Thief!

The dawn of the day of the Pawn is at hand.

"SPREADING"

The infection of a fine idea is a wonderful thing to behold. The contagion of moral health is just as true as the contagion of disease. If people feared the spreading of sin as much as the spreading of smallpox we would have Heaven on Earth. Men fear the seen things, which are of the day, and fear not the unseen things, which are of eternity. A great idea takes and spreads. We are largely ruled by ideas and ideals. They go up and down the land making and breaking the sons and daughters of men.

The idea "Give a moment to God" for our men "across the seas," that victory and peace may come in righteousness, is spreading. May all of us "catch it," and thank God!

The following resolution has been passed by the United States Senate: Joint resolution (S. J. Res. 164) requesting the President to commend by proclamation to the people of the United States observance of the practice of prayer at noon each day for victory in the war. Whereas, What is called the Angelus, the practice of prayer for one minute at noon each day for the success of our country in the existing war, is being observed by the District of Columbia, and some other parts of the United States; and Whereas, It is the desire of some good citizens that it be observed generally throughout the country to the end of the war; and Whereas, The sentiment is in accord with the traditional spirit and sentiment of this country and recognizes the overruling power of the Almighty; therefore be it here Resolved: That the President is requested to commend by proclamation to the people of the United States observance in their homes and elsewhere, until the end of the war, of the practice of prayer to God for at least one minute at noon each day for victory for our cause in the existing war.

We are glad that Wichita Falls is getting in line with this mighty idea of prayer to God. Yet we add this word: President and Mayor may commend to all the people by proclamations the best of ideas, but not until all of us—each one of us—make the idea our own is there any lasting progress. Let every citizen measure up to this noble call that Our Country may be worthy of a righteous victory, and so be enabled to dictate the terms of immortal peace. Let us pray today and every day. "Give a minute to God!"

"America Goes Forth to Slay."

America goes forth to slay—The giant Greed, the harlot Pride; The Will that dares to override The peopled earth with fire and sword; That there may be one mighty lord.

America goes forth to slay—The force that lurks within herself; The love of gold, the lust of power; The self-content that could ignore The slaughter on the Belgian shore!

America goes forth to bleed—That Love may be earth's final creed; That Mercy may in every land Subdue the brutal Iron Hand.

America goes forth to die—For Faith, for Love, for Liberty! Thomas Curtis Clark

A GOOD MOVE.

Three candidates for county commissioner in this district adopted a plan yesterday which is recommended to all other candidates in future elections. About ten o'clock Saturday morning all of them suggested that all of them throw their cards away and go home and permit the voters to choose between them without molestation. The suggestion was adopted, and the quagmire of candidates through which the voters had to pass was shortened that much.

With each succeeding election the throng of candidates and their friends and workers in front of the voting places and the streets leading to them increases, and it is doubtful whether these last minute appeals influence very many voters.

The Times suggests that the candidates in the next primary get together and agree not to solicit voters on their way to the polls.

SEND THE RIGHT KIND DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION.

Editor The Times: This word of warning is sent out to call attention to the vital fact that state-wide prohibition is hanging in the balance.

The higher courts now have under consideration the case testing the constitutionality of the state-wide law. It is exceedingly important that prohibitionists in every county see to it that the right sort of men are sent as delegates to the Democratic State Convention at Waco. Furthermore, be sure and have the delegates instructed to vote in the convention for the plank in the platform calling upon the next legislature to submit to a vote of the people an amendment to the state constitution providing for state-wide prohibition.

In the primaries two years ago the people voted instructing the legislature to submit to the people such an amendment and such instructions are still binding, however, it seems imperative that the state convention representing the Democracy of Texas, demand that the legislature obey the voice of the people and to that end be loyal Democrats by a plank.

M. H. WOLFE, Chairman State-wide Prohibition Committee.

GERMANS CLAIM TWENTY SUBS ON ATLANTIC COAST

By Associated Press. GENEVA, July 27.—A dispatch received at Basel, Switzerland, today from Hamburg says: "More than twenty large submarines are now operating off the Atlantic coast. The number of submarines in the Atlantic has been increased by thirty per cent in the last seven months."

No German denial, official or unofficial, has been made concerning the recent statement of a Swiss engineer, who returned to Geneva from Kiel, that the harbor there is full of damaged submarines and that it is difficult to find crews for the German U-boat service.

BELIEVE SUBMARINE STILL ON THE COAST By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary Daniels said today that the navy department had reports which led to the belief that a German submarine still is off the Atlantic coast. He said that the harbor there is full of damaged submarines and that reports of attacks on vessels had been received.

OUR TABLOID SERMON

REV. PERCY G. CROSS

"THE WINNING G'S"

To win is the ambition of all normal beings. There are well founded principles obeyed and practiced that assure a real winning. To know what to do, and then to do it, constitutes the life-course of man. You can't buy victory as you would a suit of clothes. No doting parent can give his son success as he would a quarter. There is no royal road along which the privileged ones lightly wend their way to the blissful state of triumph. The same way with its weights—hard and heavy; its waits—long and colorless; with work that makes or breaks the will to work is the common way for all who would win. Old Hessed writing of "Works and Days of Mortal Men," says, "And with him gods and men are indignant who lives a shugard's life, like in temper to the stingless drone, which lazily consume the labor of bees by devouring it; but to thee let it be a pleasure to set in order seemly works, that so thy garner may be full of seasonable substances." The food that the other man eats gives no strength to your body. Quit your whining and go to work and here's the way to win. The first winning G is GRACE. What a noble little word it is and how little it is understood in the rush of these mad hours! Take a good square look at it—GRACE. Say it aloud and think as you say it. Grace means favor; it is the exercise of love, of kindness, of mercy. Grace carries with it the idea of beauty and nobility in thought and conduct. Grace in the heart means graciousness in the life. Grace makes the gentleman, and Christ was the first Christian gentleman.

Where grace is hate cannot be. Let grace in and self goes out. When grace reigns the right of might is unfamed. Grace goes the second mile. The second winning G is GRIT. The advice of Paul the aged to Timothy the abie-bodied was to "endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." To endure the hard knocks in the campaign of life demands grit—much grit. Once a man came to Jesus and said would have followed in His train. The Master put this word to him. "No man having put his hand to the plow and looking back is fit for the Kingdom of God." The backward look is a losing look. The forward look is the winning look. To look forward in the face of the stinging storm be they of sand, snow or sapping defeat, means grit. Believe it or not, in the game of life you are going to be hit and hit hard. Will you whine like a whipped cur, or will you "take your medicine like a man?" When you were a little tad someone held your nose, and the dose went down! Ugh! But now the medicine is to be taken with a smile and that sure requires grit. Progress demands service, and service demands sacrifice, and sacrifice means "slay self," and that means GRIT!

The third winning G is GUMPTION. You may have all the education books can give, and lack gumption and you will simply be an educated turnip! You may have grace to the Nth degree, and not have gumption and you will be a slumping simple! You may have grit, and not have gumption and you will go through life a blundering brute. Gumption? That's some word! Gumption is the fine art of applied wisdom in daily doings. Gumption is the science of "horse sense" in the high places, as well as the low. For lack of gumption many a preacher, and philosopher has gushed—OUT! By the same token, some business men have gone out the same way. "Is yo' gwine to let dat mewed do as he please?" cried Uncle Eph the gentleman, and Christ was the first Christian gentleman. "Ma will power's all right," bawled Uncle Eph. "Yo' jes want ter come out hear an' measure dis yere mewed's WON'T power." Will power and won't power alike need gumption to win.

The last winning G is GIT! The winning G's are grace, grit and gumption, these three and the greatest of these is GIT!

The Daily German Lie

No. 21. German propagandists in this country are busily denouncing as "British lies" various authentic reports that the authorities in Germany are encouraging polygamy as a means to restore the falling birth rate among the German people. The Committee on Public Information has obtained from the Military Intelligence Section of the War Department a revealing proof of the truth of these reports.

It consists of a letter from the "Head Office for the Increase of the Defense Power of Germany" to one Herr Bruno, Schneider, of Hamburg. Translated it reads:

"Since, as a result of the war, the greatest part of the manhood of the country capable of bearing arms has been called to the colors, it is the duty of the male population, in the interests of the fatherland, to take to themselves in loving manner the young women who have been left behind with the object of doubling or trebling the birth rate."

"We believe that in you we have found the right man, and that you, in this difficult time, will fulfill this honorable and responsible duty in a conscientious manner."

"The duty with which you have been entrusted is of a public nature, and by refusal you will incur severe penalties under the statutes of war."

"You will be informed upon visiting this office as to the district allotted to you and the addresses of the women to be visited by you."

"You may use this communication as a voucher."

This letter was taken from a German prisoner captured on April 1st by the Third Army of the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

No. 22. In an attempt to hamper the work of the Food Administration, stories are being circulated, particularly in rural localities, to the effect that while our people are being asked to save wheat the German prisoners in our internment camps are being lavishly fed on white bread, pastries and cakes made wholly of wheat that food is being purposely wasted by the prisoners; and that none of the Food Administration's rules of conservation are being obeyed.

These stories are all untrue. All civilian German prisoners are being compelled to assist in the conservation of our food supplies. They are allowed only 1 1/2 pounds of wheat per person each week. No waste is permitted. Their rations are rationed to keep them well fed and healthy, and they are not subjected to any hardships, but neither are they indulged in any extravagances.

In accordance with the provisions of the Hague convention, our prisoners of war receive the regular garrison ration of the United States army no more and no less. This is the established practice of all civilized nations.

No. 23. Word comes from New Haven, Conn., of a common report that any Irishman who takes out naturalization papers in this country will not be allowed to enter Ireland after the war, even to visit relatives.

This is one of the many anti-English lies with which the Kaiserites in this country are trying to embitter our Irish citizens against our British allies. It need hardly be said that any Irishman who takes out naturalization papers becomes an American citizen and will be protected in his rights as an American citizen wherever he goes.

No. 24. Several western newspapers have been reprinting a sensational article called "Profit in Shoes," over the signature of Mr. George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information. The article is fraudulently attributed to Mr. Creel, who never wrote it nor anything like it. An attempt to trace it to its source has been unsuccessful.

A number of unpleasant anecdotes concerning Mr. Creel's adventures in the Philippines have been similarly circulating in the western press. They are slanderous inventions. Mr. Creel, who is fed on white bread, pastries and cakes made wholly of wheat that food is being purposely wasted by the prisoners; and that none of the Food Administration's rules of conservation are being obeyed.

regularly marked for attack by pro-German propagandists, because the committee since its inception has been fighting them with every sort of publicity. The newspapers are requested not to print articles such as "Profit in Shoes" without first making a reasonable attempt to verify their authorship. These misrepresentations of the views and the career of the chairman of the committee are obviously designed to weaken public faith in the necessary war work for a governmental organization.

FIGHTING IS ACTIVE ON FLANDERS FRONT

By Associated Press. BERLIN, via London, July 27.—Fighting activity was greatly revived last night on the battle front in Flanders and especially on both sides of the River Scarpe, the German war office announced today. In the Soissons Rheims sector, the statement added, there was a marked decrease in the violence of the battle.

Twelve Months of Alternating Hope and Concern From Events of Historic and Fateful Import Events big with the fate of nations have marked the fourth year of the war which now comes to a close. It has been a twelve months of alternate hope and concern for the Powers of the Entente Alliance.

It was on July 28, 1914, that Austria declared war on Serbia, beginning the great struggle. During the past twelve months there have been occurrences that in some aspects have been of even greater import in their influence upon the world than those in the preceding period. Russia's crushing defeat last Autumn, the German drives of the Germans against the Allied armies and the western defensive operations that have again and again checked the enemy. Even success for him seemed near at hand have held the world breathless. But, transcending the significance of any even in actualities of the war, America's full participation in the conflict, involving the transportation overseas of more than a million men to engage in it must stand for all time the great outstanding feature of the fourth year of the struggle. It is upon America that the Entente is relying for the men and resources to turn the tide.

A year ago the number of American troops going to Europe had not begun to assume large proportions. A few regulars and some National Guardsmen had been sent to France. But most of the big military training camps were still being built and the men selected for the first contingent to be called to the colors were still in citizens' clothes. Until the first day of August of 1917 the total number of American soldiers taken overseas was 25,567.

Soon after that date the movement of troops was accelerated. Thousands were dispatched across the Atlantic during the winter months, but it was not until the great German offensive was started late in March of 1918 that the movement began to assume really noteworthy proportions. The figures for the months from August 1, 1917, to July 1, 1918, follow:

August, 18,223; September, 32,323; October, 38,259; November, 23,016; December, 48,840; January, 46,776; February, 48,027; March, 83,811; April, 117,212; May, 244,345; June, 276,382. On July 1, 1918, there were 14,644 American marines in France, bringing the total number of American troops in that country and Italy up to 2,019,115.

During the recent fighting in France the work of the American soldiers has compared favorably with that of other fighting men in the world. They have held sectors here and there along the front. They are in Alsace and northward in the Lorraine sector. The famous St. Mihiel sector is held by Americans, who are posted also on the high along the heights of the Meuse. East of Rheims they took part in the fighting during the last phase of the German offensive, while in the Chateau-Thierry sector they held their line in a vital region against the utmost fury of the Teutonic onslaught. North of Chateau-Thierry, Americans helped to stop the drive of the Germans in the early days of June; and in the Somme sector, at Cantigny the Grivons they have given proof of their soldierly qualities.

The Allies have been called upon to face two great offensives during the past year. The first of these came last October in Italy and the second in France, began on Magh. The German drives in France, while separated by periods of from a few days to several weeks, have been considered as different phases of the same offensive. The abortive Austrian attack against Italy in June also is looked upon as merely another attack against the western front and not as a distinct military operation.

But these offensives perhaps never would have been begun had it not been for the collapse of Russia during the past winter. German and Austrian troops, released from the Russian front, were taken to France and Italy to swell the masses of men hurled against the Allies in the Western theater of operations. As long as Russia remained in the fight she held great numbers of Teutonic troops in the East, and her withdrawal from the war exercised a fundamental influence on the course of its development.

Situation a Year Ago.

The year opened with the fortunes of war apparently favoring the Entente. The British had forced back the Germans to the famous Hindenburg line. The French had established themselves firmly along the Chemin des Dames, north of the Aisne. The echoes of Verdun were still ringing the knell of German hopes in that sector of the battle arena. The Italians were holding their lines along the Isonzo

The rejuvenated Russian "regiment of July First" had carried the war far into the Austrian defenses in Bukovina and Galicia.

Through August and September, 1917, there came rumors that Russia was exhausted by the war, and quiet settled down along the lines from the gates of the Carpathians to the Baltic. Slavia were heard of fraternization of German and Russian troops, but assurances came from Petrograd that Russia would stand true to her allies.

Fall Offensive in Italy.
The German and Austrian High Commands had no illusions as to further Russian belligerency. Therefore to the Allies reports that the Central Empires were taking the pick of their force from the Russian front and concentrating them for a drive against some part of the line in the western theater. Then came intimations that the blow was aimed against Italy.

The storm broke at Caporetto on Oct. 26 and almost immediately the whole Italian line was thrown into disorder. Pouring through the passes, where in some instances disaffected Italian troops held positions, the Germans and Austrians made progress which from the first was alarming. By wise generalship, the Italian line was withdrawn from the Isonzo. It paused at the Tagliamento and then retired further until it rested on the Piave, almost within sight of the domes of Venice. Here the Italian army reformed its columns, consolidated its positions by withdrawing from the Raetian mountains to the Asiago plateau and, assisted by the French reinforcements, brought to that battle front, stood at bay.

Russian Collapse.
Events in the meanwhile had been moving swiftly in Russia. On November 1, while the offensive against Italy was under way, Alexander F. Kerensky, then the Russian premier, announced that Russia was worn out by the war and that the Allies must shoulder the burden thenceforward. Seven days later Kerensky was deposed by the Bolsheviks. The fall and flight of Kerensky was the signal for Germany and Austria to enter into peace negotiations with Russia. On November 30 the Bolsheviks announced that Russia was out of the war and proposed that all the Allies join in negotiations for an armistice.

Russian and German representatives met at Brest-Litovsk on December 22, and terms of peace were exchanged. No progress was made with the negotiations, and the conference was broken up on January 11. In the meantime, a new republic had sprung from the side of Russia. It was Ukraine, a territory extending along the Rumanian and Galician frontier from the Black Sea northward to Cholm, in ancient Poland. With this republic, the Central Empires made peace late in January.

The failure of the Bolshevik authorities to reach any agreement with the Germans resulted in the renewal of hostilities on February 18, and the German armies moved forward once more.

Brest-Litovsk Treaty.
This brought about a renewal of the peace negotiations, and at Brest-Litovsk the Bolsheviks were given to understand that Germany would recognize the kingdom of Poland, the republic of Ukraine, the independence of Finland, and the separate government of Lithuania, Esthonia and Livonia. Turkey, as an ally of the Central Powers, was given a great area to the east of the Black sea, including the region of Batum, Kars and Erivan.

With the announcement of the final signing of the treaty between the Bolsheviks and Germany, the Allies gave up hope that Russia would remain in the conflict, and at once they began to strengthen their lines against the coming of the great German offensive by which Berlin and Vienna hoped to force the Entente nations to make peace.

Rumania Capitulates.
With the greater part of her territory occupied by the Germans, Austrians and Bulgarians, with her government driven from Bucharest to Jassy and with the Russian Bolsheviks openly hostile toward her, Rumania found herself in a critical situation. Rumanian troops during February and March advanced into Besarabia, a part of the new Republic of Ukraine, but they were hemmed in by the enemy forces and obliged to withdraw. At last, on May 6, Rumania signed a treaty of peace with the Central Powers.

By this treaty Rumania lost the province of Dobruja, on the south side of the Danube, which she had received after the Balkan war, and agreed to a rectification of her western frontier. Economic concessions also were under pressure from the Teutonic Alliance.

Peace Tentative.
The period between December 1, 1917, and March 1, 1918, may be called the period of peace tentatives. It is true that before the end of the summer Pope Benedict made an appeal to the warring nations to enter into peace negotiations, the basis for negotiations being the restoration of Belgium and Serbia and the return to Germany of her lost colonies. This appeal, made on August 13, was answered by President Wilson on August 29, when the President announced that the German government as constituted could not be believed and that the United States was ready to enter into negotiations when the German people showed they desired peace and when they spoke through authority which would be representative of them.

The German answer to the Pope's appeal reached the Vatican on September 21. It expressed hope that further warfare could be averted through the good offices of the Pope, but declined to enter into any engagement to meet what the Allies had declared to be their minimum war aims.

THE NATURAL WAY TO HEALTH—

CHIROPRACTIC!

By Properly Adjusting Your Spine the Chiropractor Corrects the Cause of Sickness. Then Your Nerves Do Their Work and Thus Health is Restored.

Chiropractic—Is the Science and Philosophy, that has been thoroughly tested and proved that disease is caused by the interruption of mental impulses as they pass through the nerves, at the intervertebral foramina wherever the vertebrae, SPINAL BONES, are not in perfect alignment with each other. Pain and disease are warnings of spinal subluxations or irregularities. Throw off an electric switch and you shut off the current—subluxate a spinal bone and you pinch the nerve and shut off the life current which passes from the brain through the spinal column to the parts affected.

Chiropractors, by correctly adjusting the spine, are very successfully eliminating the cause of stomach troubles, bowel, kidney and liver troubles, rheumatism, troubles of head, throat or lungs, appendicitis, gall stones, typhoid fever, hay fever, sugar diabetes, infantile paralysis, sexual diseases, heart trouble and other dis-eases. Acute and chronic cases yield readily to Chiropractic.

DO NOT STAND IN YOUR OWN LIGHT, AS CHIROPRACTIC OVERCOMES PREJUDICE EVERY DAY.

You owe it to yourself, your family and your friends to know how this great science governs your health.

The rapidity with which recovery often occurs as a result of expert Chiropractic Adjustments, seems to those without experience, almost incredible. The time is coming when everybody will have their Spine Adjusted, thereby adding years to their lives and life to their years. If you will call at our office we will be glad to make an analysis of your Spine, stating conditions as we find them and give you our opinion as to the results you might expect from Chiropractic Adjustments.

The Human Body in Every Function is Controlled by the Nerves

The main line—the trunk line of the great nerve system—is the spinal cord, which, beginning in the brain, draws its nerves together like a great telephone cable, carries the cable down through the center of the spinal column, from which the nerves radiate and send their local wires to every part of the body.

There are openings in and between each of the segments or vertebrae of the spinal column, through which the branch nerves pass as they leave the main stem—the spinal cord.

How Dis-ease Is Caused.
It is vital to health that there be no congestion, no stoppage, no diminution of the supply of nerve force from the brain to any organ of the body.

For instance: Stomach troubles, indigestion and constipation are caused by a decreased supply of nerve force to the stomach and intestines, which causes various glands, such as the liver and pancreas, to fail in delivering the proper amount of digestive fluid, or, in the case of constipation, to fail in securing the proper lubrication of muscular movement of the bowels.

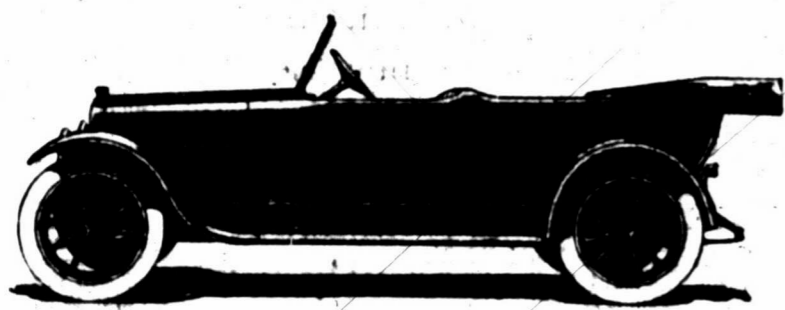

Remember that the cause is lack of proper supply of nerve force—the symptoms are pains in the stomach and bowels, gases, headaches, nausea, vomiting, pains in the back, indigestion, constipation, etc.

Do not think that because you have no pain in the back, your spine is in perfect alignment and needs no adjusting. Many people have this impression, but they should go to a Chiropractor, who will show them how the cause of pain and sickness is in the spine.

In most cases Chiropractic declares and proves the reduction of nerve force is caused by pinching of pressure at the point where the nerves leave the spinal column. One or more of the bones have become slightly misplaced (called "subluxated"), the opening has become narrowed—the bones press against the nerves—the supply of nerve force is cut off or reduced—and until this condition is removed the trouble will continue.

The very large increase in the demand for Chiropractic adjustments has made necessary the service of an additional Chiropractor, and to supply this demand Dr. C. W. Harper, of El Campo, Texas, has become associated with us. Dr. Harper is a graduate of medicine and a licensed practicing physician with a number of years experience. Later he took up Chiropractic, since which time he has been giving Chiropractic adjustments exclusively. His services will be of very much service in diagnosis and examination, and will be free to all who desire such examination. The wonderful results obtained by Chiropractic justifies us in the determination to continue the practice of this science exclusively. If you are suffering in any form from any physical ailment we invite you to come to us for examination and to try out for yourself the aid that Chiropractic can give.

If You Want Super-Six, Get It Now

There Is No Certainty How Long Prompt Delivery Can Be Made

You have read in the newspapers how automobile production has been reduced. And you know how further curtailment is planned for the future.

Increased uses for cars, because of reduced railroad facilities and other needs, keep up a demand that it will not be possible to fulfill much longer. Prices of some cars have already been advanced for the second time within the past six months.

It is likely that buyers will soon be offering premiums for prompt delivery of Super-Sixes.

This is the situation of the Super-Six.
For two years it has been the most popular fine car. More than 50,000 have been sold.

No dealer has been able to accumulate stock during the past winter and the present demand exceeds the output.

Hundreds of cars are being driven overland to points of sale because freight is so uncertain and buyers want prompt delivery.

Today we can let you drive away in certain models. We might not be so fortunate tomorrow.

We have been told our allotment for the coming months is to be much less than we had planned for.

It is needless to tell you anything about Super-Six reliability. That quality is an accepted fact with all motorists.

There are ten different model types—There is one standard of reliability. If you get a Super-Six it will serve you well throughout the period now before us, in which it may be impossible to get new, reliable cars.

Minor Operations. Among the year's operations of comparatively lesser importance were the British drives in Palestine and Mesopotamia; the Turkish advance in the Caucasus; the French and Italian offensive in Albania; and the fight ing in the German African colonies. Jerusalem was captured by the British on December 10, and shortly afterward the fall of Jericho was announced. The British forces in Palestine have not been active on the offensive.

General Maude led the British troops into Bagdad on March 11, and shortly afterward died from cholera. His forces pushed further up the Tigris until the intense heat of summer terminated operations. The Turks after the collapse of Russia, took advantage of the demoralized condition of the Russian forces to advance through the Caucasus and obtain possession of the regions subsequently ceded them by the treaty of Brest-Litovsk.

The French and Italian drive in Albania began on July 6 and is still in progress. During the year British forces in Africa drove German forces before them in German East Africa and in German Southwest Africa and finally converted virtually the whole North Sea into an area closed against U-boat activities.

The harbors of Zebrugge and Ostend, from which German submarines had been operated against Entente shipping, were either sealed entirely or made virtually valueless as submarine bases by daring naval and air raids by the British in May.

German submarines visited American waters in June and sank at least ten ships, the field of the U-boat operations being from the North New Jersey coast south to the Virginia Capes and easterly half way to the Bermudas.

The only United States transport lost while carrying troops to Europe was the Tuscania, which was torpedoed off the north coast of Ireland on February 5 with a loss of 212 men.

During the year eleven hospital ships have been sunk by submarines, the latest and most flagrant case of this violation of the Geneva convention being the destruction of the British steamer Llandoverly Castle, carrying Canadian nurses and doctors. This took place on June 27, only twenty-four of the 258 persons on board being rescued.

The total shipping reported, sunk since August 1, 1917, is more than 4,250,000 tons. Against this destruction of shipping the Allies have combined their shipbuilding capacity. The actual number of tons of shipping launched and put into service has not been published. Official announcements have been made in the recent past however to the effect that more ships are being built than are being sunk. On July 4, ninety vessels were launched at American shipyards.

Losses in Battle. The year's fighting has entailed great losses for most of the belligerents. During the drive into Italy last October and November the Teutonic armies claimed the capture of more than 180,000 Italians. In the German offensives in France this year about 180,000 French, British, American and Portuguese were reported to have been taken prisoners.

Added to these losses are the casualties in killed and wounded. No definite figures have been issued by Germany and Austria but it has been reported on what appears to be good authority that in the fighting from March 21 till June 14 the Germans lost more than 500,000 men. The French and British losses were considerably smaller as they Allies were fighting from entrenched positions.

Financial Aspects. The United States has floated three great Liberty Loans. The proceeds of these loans have aggregated $10,788,541,900. The total war cost to the United States according to latest available figures is $13,800,000,000. Since the nation entered the war it has extended credits to the Allies aggregating $6,091,590,000.

The total cost of the war to England up to December 15, 1917, was placed at $24,200,000,000, while French votes of credit aggregated what smaller. At latest reports the total of the German war loans approximated $31,000,000,000.

Internal Disorders. There have been numerous reports of disorders in countries engaged in the war. Riots and bloodshed have been reported from Germany and Austria many times during the past spring and summer and there is little doubt that the Slavic races of Austria are seething with discontent. Ireland came to the center of the stage in this connection early in May, when a pro-German plot was detected and suppressed in the bud, with the arrest of seventy-eight leaders of the Sinn Fein.

Recently disaffection was reported against the British in South Africa, but it has apparently been stamped out.

One Monarch Died. During the year one ruler of a belated country died. The death of the Sultan of Turkey was announced in June, subsequent reports intimating he had been murdered.

Assistance for Russia. Since the collapse of Russia, the Allied nations have sought to find a way to assist the people who are being exploited by the Germans, French, British and American forces have been landed on the Murman or Kola peninsula, on the north coast. They have not actively intervened, however, being there only to protect Allied property which had been landed at the port of Kola before Russia withdrew from the Entente Alliance.

In Siberia there is a well defined anti-Bolshevik movement which has been built up around Czech-Slovak prisoners of war who armed themselves and inflicted defeats on the Bolshevik. A new government has been set up there under General Horvath, president of the Chinese Eastern railroad. Japanese, British and American marines have been in the city of Vladivostok for months.

Neutrals. Countries which are not engaged in the war have suffered during the twelve months. Switzerland and Holland, being adjacent to Germany, have been threatened by the Central Powers a number of times in matters relative to economic concessions. Holland, especially, has been beset with difficulties, and at present the Allies are protesting against her exporting supplies to Germany.

Norway has signed an agreement with the United States by which commercial relations may be carried on. Sweden has been dealing openly with Germany and has been threatened with a virtual boycott by Great Britain. Both nations have lost severely through the depredations of German submarines.

Denmark is in a serious plight also and it has been reported that there is great suffering among the people of that country.

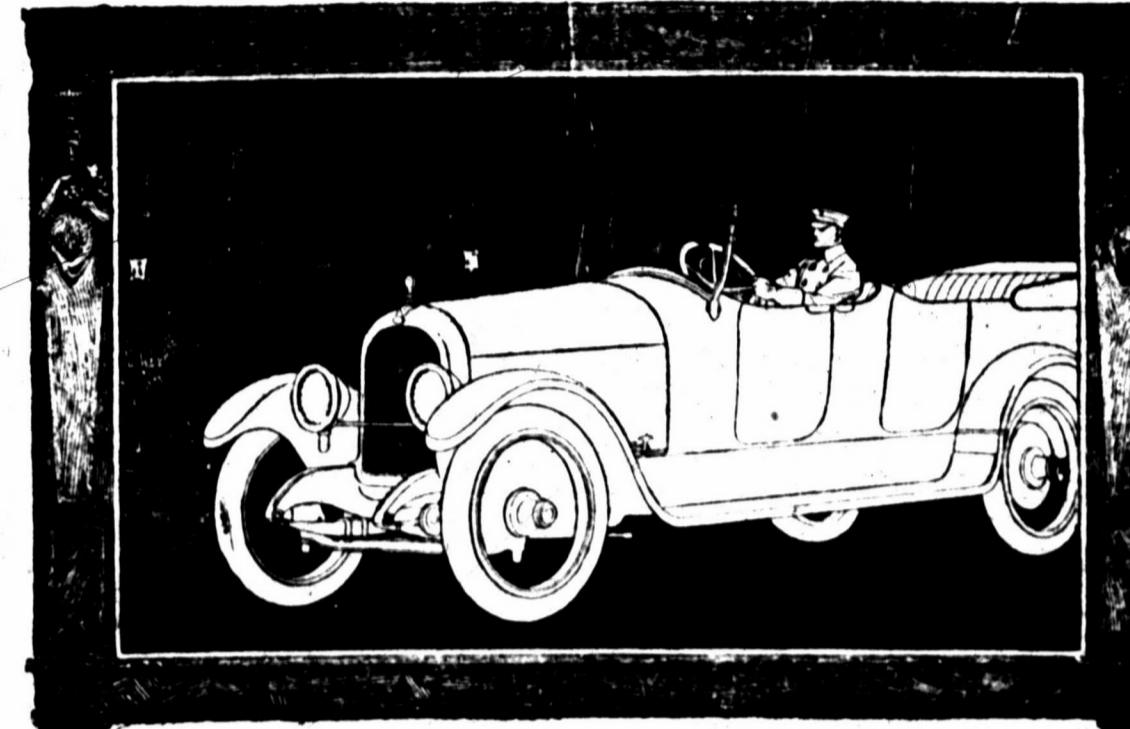

New Belligerents. Three new countries have declared war on Germany during the year. They are Costa Rica, Guatemala and Haiti. The Argentine, although near a break because of the machinations of von Louborg, the German ambassador at Buenos Ayres, has taken no step in that direction. Mexico has remained neutral.

MARMON 34

The New Series—Stabilized Design

It seems a contradiction, but it is no less a fact, that the new series Marmon 34, while bringing no radical changes—no fundamental innovations—does establish a most noteworthy fundamental in motor car construction—namely, Stabilized Design.

WHEN the Marmon 34 was introduced at the New York Automobile Show two years ago, it differed entirely in principle and design from all other cars. For one thing, it was 1100 pounds lighter. For another, it eliminated more than 511 parts. Aluminum was extensively used in the motor and body. The frame, running-boards and fenders were a rigid unit construction.

Today there are numbers of cars which border on the Marmon idea. There are more at this show than there were the year before, and there will be more, in all likelihood, next season than there are this.

It is not the Marmon that is changing; it is the practices of the motor car industry. More and more are they conforming to the principles first exemplified in Marmon construction.

The Marmon has not changed because it has not had to. Because it has proved itself correct. Great engineering genius, actively engaged for the past two years in trying to improve this car, has not been able to better it except in the matter of a few mechanical refinements. So today the distinguishing differences between the New Series Marmon 34 and the old are the slanting wind-shield and the wider seats and the deeper sides.

As far as men know, the Marmon represents the final type. It has put a stop to the annual metamorphosis of models—it has stabilized not only construction, but the buyer's investment.

This means that the owners of the Marmon of this year, last year or the year before, are not put to the extremity of buying a new car each season to be up to date.

And yet, the Marmon continues to attract the whole-hearted admiration of those who view it either on the road, or, as at present, at the automobile show. The new Show Models are indeed a fresh inspiration.

In lighter vein we find the famous little "Lees," Jane and Katherine, featured in "We Should Worry," at the Empress on Thursday; Peggy Highland in "Peg o' Pirates" and Tom Mix in "Western Blood" at the same theater on Wednesday and Friday, respectively.

At the Majestic Monday, Viola Dana stars in "Opportunity," a picture of Edgar Franklyn's charming story recently published in the "All Story Weekly," and "Thursday at the Empress," a new production of "The Best" as the vehicle for Harry Carey's results in handling western productions. IBSEN'S MASTERPIECE AT EMPRESS THIS WEEK

Elsie Ferguson is the doll wife in Arcturion's production of Henrik Ibsen's "A Doll's House," offered at the Empress on Monday and Tuesday. In a recent interview Miss Ferguson in discussing her new role, said: "The chief role in 'A Doll's House' is that of Nora Helmer, a young married woman, who is a doll and absolutely without initiative. She has been reared by an indulgent father who regarded her as a little doll, and she never had an idea of her own, so that she was badly equipped to meet and master the serious problems of life. She commits a forgery through love for her husband, in order to provide funds to save his life when he is attacked by serious illness. But she finally becomes a strong character. The effectiveness of the play lies in the proper portrayal of this character, showing the various degrees by which she attained the high plane she finally reaches. The display of too much strength in the early stages of her life, or an indication of weakness in the latter part of the story would absolutely ruin the part.

"I have always been a great believer in the axiom that clothes indicate character, and the first thought that occurs to me when I am to portray a new role is, how would such a woman dress? Mr. Tourneur, my director, indorses these ideas, and we work in entire harmony, with the result that the acting, costumes and settings all add to the dramatic value of the picture. These elements are happily combined in 'A Doll's House.'"

LEE KIDDIES AT THE EMPRESS THIS WEEK

"We Should Worry," a William Fox comedy drama with the world-famous Jane and Katherine Lee as stars, will be the attraction at the Empress Theatre Thursday. Supported by a specially selected cast of adults, the naïveté of the child actresses will appear in a romantic photoplay with a mingling of humor that is guaranteed to make everybody laugh.

When the action opens Jane and Katherine are living with their aunt, a wealthy young girl. Of her many suitors, the precocious youngsters have chosen one, but their aunt is uncertain that she loves him and upon the arrival of a smooth visitor from New York she is dazzled by his finery and easy manners. The children, however, suspect the stranger and every time he attempts to make love to their aunt the little imps appear and torment the would-be suitor in some of the most ludicrous situations ever screened. He is not the only one to suffer, however, for they play their amusing tricks on all the other suitors—the banker, the hotel keeper, even the minister is not immune.

The children's intuition with regard to the suitor from New York is justified for he is a bank burglar who has come from the city for the purpose of robbing the town bank. Amusing and dramatic complications result.

WALTHALL IN HIS ROBE OF HONOR

Henry B. Walthall, the celebrated screen star, will appear at the Majestic Theatre Tuesday in his first Paralta Play, "His Robe of Honor." This production, which was adapted from the book by Ethel and James Dorrance, has a vital, fascinating story, and it is told most convincingly, with novel treatment throughout. The picture asks the question: "Can a disreputable lawyer be redeemed and become an upright judge?" and their answers like question with breathless intensity, thrilling situations, romantic moments and situations of smashing force.

Miss Mary Charleson who won a host of friends while appearing with Mr. Walthall in many of his former achievements, has been engaged as a member of the Paralta forces and will be seen playing opposite him in this production in the role of Roxana Frisbee, an adventuress, who assists the shy lawyer, in his underhand methods until his conscience is awakened by the noble nature of Laura Nelson, a girl of high instincts, which part will be interpreted by Lois Wilson. The remainder of the cast includes such well-known artists as Noah Berry, J. J. Dowling, Ray Laidlow, Fred Montague, Eugene Palette and others.

The production, which was made under the direction of Rex Ingram, is considered by critics the most beautiful and finished production in which Henry B. Walthall has appeared.

VIOLA DANA AT MAJESTIC MONDAY

Viola Dana in her latest Metro play, "Opportunity," a highly entertaining picture of Edgar Franklyn's story of the same name that ran in the All-Story Weekly, at the Majestic Theatre Monday. Miss Dana's new vehicle, which was scenarized and directed by John H. Collins abounds in funny situations and replete with a very original sort, and gives the winsome little star many fine opportunities to reveal her celebrated comedy talents at their best.

As Mary Willard, the mischievous boyden who yearns to witness a prize fight, that she may learn some new tricks for her own boxing bouts, Miss Dana has one of the most captivating and diverting roles she has ever played on the stage or screen. Her genius for whimsical comedy and pathos is unrivalled and easily equaled her work in serious and powerful drama. The complications which ensue from her visit to the prize fight in her brother's clothes demand the cleverest sort of comedy acting and Miss Dana never fails to take full advantage of every amusing situation. Only an actress of her gifts and experience could meet such demands.

Hale Hamilton of "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" fame and Edward Aheles, who created "Brexsters' Millions," Frank Currier, and Sully Crute are the principal members of Miss Dana's company. As an attraction, "Opportunity," with Miss Dana, is excellent, packed as it is with good, wholesome fun, adventure, mystery and romance.

GOOD COMPANY AT PLAZA THIS WEEK

The following clipping from a recent Kansas City paper, introduces the Flora Dora Girls, billed for the Plaza this week.

The Flora Dora Girls Company opened a week's engagement at the Strand last night at a well-filled house. The opening play, "Cupid's Mixup," was well received and thoroughly enjoyed. The company is composed of sixteen people and each one is a capable performer. The vaudeville features were exceptionally strong, the company having real novelties in that line.

Madame Dorva brought down the house with a spirited singing of the Marsellaise. The quartette is above the average and is well named "The Four Harmony Boys." Dolly Davis, the little whirlwind soubrette, was a big hit in her singing and dancing, and she puts her songs over with a pep and life that creates a desire for more. Another gem, satire with the company is Little Bert Davis, one five-year-old singer and entertainer, and when he sang "Somewhere in France is Daddy," he won the hearts of all. The youngster's father is in France fighting for the U. S. at this time. The audience showered the boy with nickles, dimes and pennies.

Frank M. Christie is a capable character actor and as a cranky old general in last night's bill was a scream. The audience showered the boy with nickles, dimes and pennies.

Alfred's Shadow, Advert to Eat. "My son-in-law was so bad from to almost a shadow and was afraid to eat anything, as all food caused bloating or gas which pressed against his heart, worrying him very much. Our druggist persuaded him to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and in two months he looked fine, can eat anything with special scenery and effects. This show is clean, classy

"THE CLAWS OF THE HUN"

It is a patriotic story, telling of a young man who meant to serve his country despite objection of his family.

It has to do with German plots, German spies and German propaganda in this land of ours.

It played to capacity house for full week at the big Rialto Theatre in New York City.

It was given high praise by reviewers of the Metropolitan papers and the decided approval of the public.

Though a War play with a big punch it shows no war scenes of actual battles or anything of the harrowing side of war.

It stars Charles Ray in a Thomas H. Ince Paramount production written by Ella Stuart Carson, a noted magazine writer.

It treats of some of the most vital problems that present themselves to American people at this time—should mothers prevent their sons from enlisting in the service of our country?—Would a patriotic man bribe a doctor to exempt his son from military duty?—Should a boy obey his father and mother who seek to make the boy a slacker?—What would you think of a mother that told her son that he would be her murderer if he went to war?

GERMANS UNABLE TO RESIST STRONG ALLIED PRESSURE

CAPTURE OF OULCHY LE CHATEAU FURNISHES PROOF, SAYS PARIS PAPERS.

ARE FORCED TO YIELD

Enemy Thrown into Confusion by Success of the Franco-American Offensive.

By Associated Press. PARIS, July 27.—Paris newspapers today point to the capture of Oulchy Le Chateau as proof of the inability of the Germans to resist the Allied pressure at a point where the Germans had evidently no intention of yielding unless forced to do so. "This is," says the Echo De Paris, "one of those progressive gains which enable us to verify our view of the confusion into which the enemy has been thrown by our offensive. The Germans are prevented from using the railroads and are moving with the greatest difficulty over roads swept by our heavy artillery and bombed by our aviators."

The Matin thinks that the Marne Rhelms front will soon become box-like in shape and points out that the crown prince, if he accepts a general engagement, will have to go into it under unfavorable conditions. Three new aerial victories for Lieutenant Fonck, bringing his total to 59 are reported. The newspapers say that Adjutant Ehrlich has won ten aerial victories in exactly 25 days.

CAPTURE THIRTY THOUSAND HUNS DURING DRIVE

By Associated Press. PARIS, July 27.—The number of German prisoners captured by the Allies since the beginning of the counter offensive is placed at 30,000 by the Havas Agency. American troops have discovered at Brezy north of Chateau Thierry emplacements of German super-cannons which bombarded towns behind the front and, perhaps, Paris.

FRENCH SCORE A FURTHER ADVANCE NORTH OF MARNE

By Associated Press. PARIS, July 27.—Further advances were scored by the French last night in the region immediately to the north of the Marne in the district where the Germans have been clinging to the river. The war office announced today that the French lines were advanced to the north of Port-A-Binson.

On the Champagne front the French carried out a local operation in the region south of the mountain without a name and advanced one kilometer over a front of three kilometers. Two hundred prisoners, of whom seven were officers, fell into the hands of the French.

GERMANS BEING DRIVEN FROM WOODED AREA

By Associated Press. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON the Aisne-Marne Front, July 27, (8:30 a. m.)—The Franco-American forces on the front northeast of Chateau Thierry have driven the Germans almost entirely out of the wooded area which they have been so stubbornly defending. The Allied pressure is being constantly maintained and early today the punishment of the enemy by artillery fire was resumed with added vigor. Under the cover of the guns the Franco-American troops again began crawling forward.

The advance is bringing the Allies still nearer to the important road junction of Fere-En-Tardenois. It is being carried out through the remainder of the dense woods in this region and the rain soaked fields and hills on their outskirts. Slowly retreating the Germans are fighting stubbornly as they retire. Persistent as was the German rear guard defense however, the enemy's most intense efforts to hold his lines are still being put forth on his flanks in the Rhelms and Soissons regions.

The aviation service is being rapidly expanded. It was stated today, and in accordance with the general policy of the marine corps, enlisted men get the first chance to qualify as aviators.

INDIANAPOLIS PAPER IS SUED FOR LIBEL

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 27.—A suit asking $150,000 damages from Delavan Smith, publisher of the Indianapolis News, was filed by Charles L. Hotelinson, a real estate dealer of Indianapolis, in the United States district court today. Alleged libel growing out of the investigation of the mayoralty election of 1917 is the basis of the action.

TROOP MOVEMENT SATISFACTORY SAYS SECRETARY BAKER

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND TRANSPORTED DURING JULY.

AIRPLANES SENT FRANCE

Over Four Hundred of Haviland Type Have Been Forwarded to General Pershing.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 27.—With 50,000 troops sent last week the number of American soldiers transported overseas during July is expected to reach a record of 300,000. Secretary Baker and General March, chief of staff, today told members of the Senate military committee. With the shipment of men last week, the total number of American troops embarked for France was 1,250,000. Secretary Baker told the Senators that he did not believe the torpedoes of the giant liner Justicia would interfere with the transporting of American troops. Secretary Baker said so far 753 of the Haviland airplanes have been completed in this country and more than 400 shipped to France. The last shipment from General Pershing and sixty-seven had been received but he had made no report regarding the number actually now in use on the American front.

Secretary Baker said General Pershing had criticised some of the Haviland machines, suggesting structural changes. Five thousand heavy Browning machine guns, Secretary Baker said, have been completed but have not yet been sent to General Pershing.

DEMPSEY KNOCKS FULTON OUT IN THE FIRST ROUND

By Associated Press.
HARRISON PARK, NEWARK, N. J., July 27.—Jack Dempsey of Salt Lake City knocked out Fred Fulton, claimant of the heavyweight championship with a right hook to the jaw in the first round here tonight.

Both men stripped looked to be in the pink of condition. Fulton's weight was given as 208 pounds and Dempsey's as 188 pounds.

Fulton did not land a blow on his opponent, who confidently asserted before he went into the ring that he would knock out the big plasterer from Rochester, Minn., in short order.

Dempsey rushing from his corner, landed a right swing under Fred Fulton's heart, following up with a left knock to the body in the first round of their scheduled eight round fight here today. Fulton seemed to be lost as that what to do against the sudden onslaught and Dempsey kept boring in and at those quarters Fulton's long arm went wildly over Dempsey's head. Dempsey stepped back about a foot and quickly hooked his left to the head and crossed his right to the jaw sending Fulton down helplessly to the floor of the ring with his head hanging over the low ropes. Fulton tried to raise himself on his right arm but his head fell over the lower rope and he was counted out in this position. The official time of the actual fighting was 23 seconds.

Fulton towered over his opponent when Referee John P. Eckhardt of Atlantic City was giving them final instructions. Fulton's face wore a cynical grin while Dempsey scowled, his bit but looked the more confident of the pair. The moment the bell called the men from their corners, Dempsey rushed at Fulton and took the fellow by surprise, landing a hard right swing under the heart and hooking his left to the stomach. These blows made Fulton wince, and the bigger man was unable to defend himself with Dempsey at such close quarters. Fulton's long arm swung helplessly over Dempsey's head but Dempsey sent in two short arm body blows. Then he stepped back about a foot and hooked his left to the right side of Fulton's head. The big man tottered and fell sideways to the floor of the ring, his head resting on his right arm which pinned down the lower rope of the three which encircled the ring. There was scarcely a sound from the big crowd of spectators when the referee began counting the seconds over the prostrate man. Fulton tried ineffectually to raise his head and body with his right arm as a lever but as the count progressed his head fell back again almost over the side of the ring floor. There he lay until Eckhardt tolled the ten seconds, after which Fulton's seconds actually dragged his man to his corner.

Dempsey in the meantime was easily the most composed man in the ring or arena. He walked over to Fulton's corner and took the big fellow by the hand but Fulton was too dazed to talk coherently and seemingly was unable to realize what had happened in such a brief space of time.

The actual time that the one-sided fight lasted was 23 seconds and Dempsey had won the right to the world's heavyweight title in case Jess Willard relinquishes claim to it in exactly 23 seconds.

Dempsey turned the scales at 188 pounds and Fulton was twenty pounds heavier. Dempsey says he is going next week to resume his trade at ship building and will not fight in the ring again until the war is ended.

Moving pictures of the contest were taken and they will be presented to the government for the

WILLARD IS ANXIOUS TO FIGHT DEMPSEY

By Associated Press.
LAWRENCE, KANS., July 17.—"I'd like to fight Dempsey," was the first comment of Jess Willard, heavyweight champion, when he learned the outcome of the Dempsey-Fulton fight at Newark tonight.

"I am not surprised at the outcome," he continued, "for all you have got to do is to hit Fulton to have him down." Willard declared his belief there would be no more major boxing events until after the war.

"Dempsey has a rough road between him and the championship," asserted Willard. "He is not going to win the championship in twenty-three seconds. No, not in an hour and twenty-three seconds."

"Just as soon as the war is over I am going to take on Dempsey, or any other claimant. I have not retired from the ring, and I have no intention of doing anything of the sort."

Tener also expressed the opinion that major leagues would not continue after September 1. The players affected by the work or fight rule, he said, would likely begin at once to seek useful occupations before that date.

Market Report

New York Stocks

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 27.—A six point break in General Motors and a 2 1/2 point break in Canadian Motors were the chief features of today's stagnant stock market. Changes otherwise ranged from 1 to 3 points advance in specialties such as American Tobacco, General Cigars, Distillers, Virginia, Carolina Chemical, U. S. Rubber and Wilson Packing, while Sumatra Tobacco, American Telephone, Western Union and New Haven were heavy. U. S. Steel moved within restricted limits, shading slightly at the end. The closing was irregular. Shares sold approximately 120,000. Liberty 3 1/2's sold at 99.82 to 99.88, 4's at 95.60 to 94.46 and 4 1/2's at 95.34 to 95.46.

The week end session of the stock exchange opened with gains in special issues while leaders showed little change. Early features included General Cigars and Virginia, Carolina Chemical gains of 1 to 2 points, while Steels and associated equipments were fractionally higher. Sumatra Tobacco, American Telephone and General Motors were heavy, the latter losing five points and causing a general cancellation of initial gains. Liberty Bonds eased slightly.

Grain Market

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 27.—Hot weather in southwest led to free buying of corn today and made prices advance from 1/4 to 3/4 higher with August 1.53 1/2 to 1.53 3/4 and September 1.54 1/2 to 1.54 3/4, followed by a decided additional uptick.

Oats rose with corn. After opening 1/2 to 3/4 higher with August 70 1/2 to 70 3/4 the market continued to harden.

Chattanooga offerings hoisted provisions.

Later the market continued to strengthen as a result of assertions that the corn crop as a whole showed a sharp loss in condition and that the prospective yield had been reduced 140,000,000 bushels from last month's government estimate. The close was unsettled 1 1/2 to 2 1/2, net higher with August 1.55 to 1.55 1/2, and September 1.56 1/2 to 1.56 3/4.

No important reaction took place in the later part of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodale Injured When Auto Ran Off Culvert

Caught under their automobile when it went off a culvert on the Lake road, about 9:45 Friday night, both Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Goodale sustained severe bruises and scratches, but fortunately escaped more serious injury. Both were pinned under the car in the ditch.

The accident occurred about 300 yards from the railroad crossing at the road leading to the aviation camp, the car going off the culvert at the curve of the road. According to Mr. Goodale the presto tank on his car had given out and Mrs. Goodale was holding a flashlight so that he could see how to run the car. He was running only about 4 or 5 miles an hour when the accident occurred and to his fact he ascribes the escape from serious injury, as the plunge over the embankment would have been worse had the rate of speed been greater.

Passersby lifted the car up from Mrs. Goodale, her husband having been able to scramble out from under, and carried the couple to their home, 1105 Brook. Saturday they were resting very well, though a complete rest in bed was prescribed for Mrs. Goodale by physicians, as her bruises were especially severe. Mr. Goodale will probably be crippled for several days, as a result of the accident, one of his legs being badly swollen.

GERMAN PRINCE TO SIT UPON THRONE OF POOR FINLAND

By Associated Press.
PARIS, July 27.—The crown of Finland has been offered to Duke Adolph Friedrich of Mecklenburg-Schwerin and he has accepted, says a Zurich dispatch to Le Journal.

The coronation, the dispatch adds, will take place within a few weeks.

Duke Adolph Friedrich was born in Schwerin in 1872. He is a colonel in the Prussian guard and served for a time as governor of Togoland. The duke is an uncle of the reigning grand duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin and is unmarried.

FOOD SITUATION IN GERMANY AT SERIOUS STAGE

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 27.—The food situation between Germany and Russia has reached an acute stage, according to advices received today at the state department. There is not enough for both countries and the question as to who will get what provisions there are has reached a critical stage.

High handed methods have been adopted by the Germans it was said. Soldiers with threshing machines are sent into the grain countries and the grain confiscated. The Russian peasants are allowed only such amounts as the soldiers decide they need.

The Germans also were said to be requisitioning cattle and horses in Poland and Lithuania.

For next 30 days will give beautiful picture with each $5.00 cash purchase of wall paper. W. S. Robertson Paint Company, 813 Ohio. 65-11c

The Westcott Six

SERIES 18
 ANTICIPATES THE REQUIREMENTS OF COMING YEARS

ONE by one the builders of high-grade motor cars are substituting oil cups for grease cups in chassis lubrication. The Westcott Six is the first car with chassis perfectly lubricated by oil cups exclusively.

The "self-acting" top is bound to supersede the one-man top on touring cars and roadsters. Westcott is the first to use it as standard equipment on all open models.

Engineers unanimously agree that motor temperature must be uniform under all conditions to secure maximum efficiency at minimum consumption of fuel. Uniform temperature can be maintained only by automatic regulation. The Westcott is equipped with a thermostat, the only device known that automatically and unflinchingly accomplishes this result.

Every Westcott Car is road tested before leaving the hands of the Westcott engineers. Every car of the Eighteen Series comes to us only after having demonstrated its masterful performance on hills and in traffic. It will come to you, the proven master over all cars of its class.

Another Handsome Residence to Be Built in Floral Heights

Another handsome home is to be added to the restricted district of Floral Heights in the R. W. Rammings residence, ground for which was broken this past week. Voeleker and Dixon drew up the plans and the contract was let to Taylor Bros. The residence is to cost $25,000.

This home is to be an example of true Colonial architecture. Mr. Voeleker, of the architectural firm, says, and the grounds have been arranged with the view of providing a fit setting for the quaint red brick structure, which will be a replica of the aristocratic mansions of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. The design is from the pen of Jesse E. Dixon, who has come here quite recently from Houston and Dallas, where he was with Russell Brown, "Builder of Homes." Those familiar with the handsome homes in the exclusive residence sections of Houston and Dallas will appreciate what this means, as Russell Brown is one of the foremost architects of those cities, and in his work while connected with him, Mr. Dixon designed some of the handsome homes in the State.

In adapting the Colonial designs to the surroundings the architects have arranged for a double terrace for the grounds of the flaming home, with an old-fashioned brick walk, in Colonial design, to lead from the house to the street. A brick terrace surrounds the house in the front, and to the south where there is a pergola, which opens into a pergola, the pergola will be the center of an old-fashioned rose garden. Following the true Colonial design there is a portico in keeping with the period design. There is a high gable roof, finished with tile shingles, which are a dark green in color, as are the shutters.

A curved driveway leading from the street to the garage, which is also Colonial in type, passes a portico on the north side. The house and garage are of red brick, with white joinings, and the trimmings are in white and green, making a decidedly handsome exterior. The interior plans call for a continuation of the Colonial design, with absolutely no deviation in decoration of furnishings from the chosen type. The large reception hall contains the curved stairway, finished in mahogany with balusters in ivory, and the shining many paneled French doors will call to mind a delightful old Southern mansion of ante bellum days. All the doors are of glass on the lower floor, and the sun room, which is off the long drawing room on the south side, is glass enclosed, with double French doors opening into the pergola and rose garden. The breakfast room, which opens off the reception hall, has for its southern wall an octagonal paneled window. Butlers pantries are between the breakfast room and the kitchen, which is on the north side of the house, opening off the reception hall.

There are four large bed rooms on the second floor, the owners' bed room which extends along the whole south side of the house being especially spacious. The ivory decorations will prevail for the upstairs rooms. There is a sleeping porch, of course, and the plans include two large bathrooms with showers and all sorts of other modern conveniences. The third floor will contain a large billiard room.

Construction of this home will occupy several months, its owing to the detail of decoration and interior finishing there will remain much to do after the construction work is over. Mr. and Mrs. Rammings have been making Wichita Falls their home for several years. They went to El Paso last year and remained there several months, but are now permanent residents of this city. The family formerly resided at Burk Burnett, where Mr. Rammings has extensive oil holdings. Mrs. Rammings was formerly Miss Staley, member of one of the most prominent families of the county.

NEIGHBORHOOD QUARREL COURT AIDED IN POLICE COURT
Trouble among two families residing in the same house resulted in the two women of the household being arraigned before Police Judge Ogle this morning for disturbing the peace. During the trial, when a witness who was a neighbor of the troubled ones, was on the stand the city attorney asked if the witness knew the aggressor.

"Yes, sir," she replied, "I know her. We all call her the kaiser, because she's always making trouble." The "female kaiser" was fined $5.

FIRE DAMAGES HINES UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT

Fire starting from an unknown source in the trimming room and morgue of the Hines Undertaking establishment, 302 Scott, Saturday morning, caused damage to the extent of about $350. The two rooms to which the fire was confined were badly burned, and some stock was also totally destroyed, or damaged so as to be useless.

When the fire was discovered both Mr. and Mrs. Hines were at the court house voting and there was no one at home except the oldest daughter, who was upstairs. She first discovered the fire when smoke began pouring into her room, and on running to the stairway she found the smoke so thick she was unable to get by, so made her egress through a window, jumping off the back porch.

CHANDLER SIX $1795

Supplying The Kind of Transportation You Need

ABOUT one-half the capacity of the Chandler Motor Car Company plant is devoted to work which will help win the war on the battlefields of France.

The other half is still devoted to the production of necessary transportation facilities for the men and women who are doing things here at home—to the production of the famous Chandler Six.

For certainty of motor car service, which can come only from mechanical excellence, you cannot choose with greater assurance than to choose the Chandler.

Choose the Chandler for its marvelous motor, now in its sixth year without radical changes but with constant refinement throughout that period. Choose it for its power and life and endurance and for the economy of its operation and maintenance.

Let us show you how the Chandler checks with high-priced cars, not with cars that sell at prices similar to Chandler prices. Let us show you how the Chandler performs with high-priced cars.

Don't Send Your Printing Out of Wichita

The printing offices here, considering the size of the city, are as well equipped as any in the state

By buying your printing requirements here you help to keep Wichita Falls money here in Wichita Falls
Prices Are No Higher Here Than Elsewhere

Because of the fact that the Commercial Printers of Wichita Falls have been forced to raise their prices somewhat in the past few months a few of our business men have seen fit to send their printing out of the city. This is hardly fair to the home printers, all of whom are trying to do their share in carrying the war burden.

THE INCREASE IS DUE SOLELY TO THE HIGH COST OF PAPER, SCARCITY OF PRINTERS AND INCREASE IN SALARIES

Since the war began the price of printing papers has increased more than one hundred per cent. In some instances it has been as high as two hundred per cent. The cost of ink, which is no small item in a job printing office, has also increased from one hundred to four hundred per cent, and to keep competent help at a wage that they could live on we have been forced to increase their salaries all along the line.

THE PRICE OF PRINTING HAS NOT INCREASED AS MUCH AS ANY OTHER ARTICLE ON THE MARKET

There is not an item of household use or actual necessity that has not been increased in price to say nothing of the increase in all other lines, and not a merchant or manufacturer in Wichita Falls but has raised the price of his commodity. It would appear therefore as very poor business policy for printers to attempt to turn out work at the old prices, and manifestly unfair for business concerns of Wichita Falls to send their work out of the city because we have been forced to raise.

So far as we have been able to learn there is not a single dollar on deposit in any of our local banks which has been deposited there by outside printers; neither do they buy a dime's worth of merchandise from local merchants. Remember, Mr. Business Man, before patronizing outside printing concerns that YOUR LOCAL PRINTER can do as good if not better work than you get elsewhere.
