NO SPECIAL SESSION UNTIL THE SUMMER

Governor So Advises Legislature That Members May Arrange Business Accordingly.

AUSTIN, March 5.—Governor Neff informed the members of the legislature in a message today that the special session of the thirty-seventh legislature will not be called until some time during the summer months. The governor did not even mention an exact date but merely said that it would be called during the summer and he notified the legislators so that they might arrange their personal business interests and be ready to return then.

The failure of the legislature to pass the general appropriation bill to provide for the running expenses of the state government and institutions for the next two years necessitates calling the special session during the summer. The message was applauded when read in the house.

The senate passed finally the bill by Senator Wood of Tulsa, amended by Senator Witt of McLennan, which provides for the purchase of 175 acres of land adjacent to the present University of Texas site and for the appropriation of $1,500,000 for purchasing the property. The bill is intended to allow for the expansion program of the board of regents of the university.

The senate passed finally today the bill by Murphy of Dallas, which provides for the purchase of 175 acres of land adjacent to the present University of Texas site and for the appropriation of $1,500,000 for purchasing the property. The bill is intended to allow for the expansion program of the board of regents of the university.

RIGA, March 5.—The soviet government has proclaimed a state of seige in Petrograd, according to advices received here today. Bolshevik dispatches admitted that the soviet leaders in Petrograd have been imprisoned.

HELSINGFORS, March 5.—Russian rebels have seized the Baltic fleet and land fortifications, reports from Reval said today. Sailors in Petrograd were reported flocking to the White standard. The developments indicated a great gain in strength for white forces which apparently were in command at Kronstadt, headquarters for the Baltic fleet and the naval training establishments.

LONDON, March 5.—News reaching London on the internal situation in Russia continues to be conflicting, but the reports of uprisings were reiterated today and enlarged upon. This evening's newspapers print dispatches from Helsinki which declare the anti-soviet outbreak has not been suppressed but on the contrary is spreading. The message asserts that both Moscow and Petrograd are in the hands of the revolutionists.

These reports follow denials in official Moscow wireless messages recently that there were any disturbances in either of the cities named and carrying an statement that the revolutionists in the soviet foreign minister, denouncing recent news of Russian disorders circulated through Latvia as "a campaign of lies."

On the other hand, Riga messages have quoted the official Moscow papers as printing resolutions adopted by communistic laborers showing the existence of strikes and disturbances, and also what was declared to have been an official declaration signed by Premier Lenin and War Minister Trotsky last March 2, warning the revolutionists and ordered that the city of Petrograd and the immediate district had been placed in a state of seige, with all authority given to the military and a committee of defense. This quoted declaration added that former General Kozlovski and other officers, backed by socialists, had mutinied on March 2 and arrested several of the Petrograd soviet administrators.

Other reports from Scandinavian sources received Friday declared conditions in both Moscow and Petrograd were serious, some of the reports stating that there was a pronounced movement among the troops against the revolutionists in dealing with the revolutionaries.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Harding's first day in the White House set a fast record of presidential activity and covered about the whole range of experience to which chief executives ordinarily fall heir. Besides dispatching his first diplomatic note, he found time to inquire into the condition of all government departments, to discuss the situation in congress, consider reorganization of the national political machinery of the party, dictate many letters, shake hands with several of his cabinet members, and receive a number of his fellow citizens, install a new White House man and attend the theatre.

While he was at work an order he issued yesterday, opening the White House gates to the public, gave a new touch of life to the executive offices and grounds. Visitors flocked in hundreds to the White House doors and into the receiving room of the president's office in striking contrast to the quietude of the closing of the Wilson administration. Before 3 o'clock President Harding was at his desk and after an hour's dictation began a succession of conferences with his cabinet officers, which kept to an unbroken schedule until midnight.

In the afternoon he and Mrs. Harding held their first reception in the east room. Tonight the new president and first lady of the land went to a musical comedy, making their first public appearance since the inauguration. Cabinet members with whom Mr. Harding conferred longest were Secretary of State Hughes, secretary of the navy, and the assistant secretary of the navy, asking for information about any problem that seemed likely to become troublesome. The canvass netted him several pages of closely written memoranda.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The transfer of administrative authority from democratic to republican hands was completed today with the signing in of members of President Harding's cabinet. Ceremonies took place in the various executive departments in the presence of retiring members of the Wilson cabinet, bureau chiefs and invited guests. Charles Evans Hughes, secretary of state, was the first to be sworn in.

Appointments of the assistants to two of the cabinet officers were announced. E. B. Hall of Iowa was named assistant secretary of agriculture, and Edward J. Henning of San Diego, Cal., was selected as assistant secretary of labor.

Announcement was also made that Major General March would continue temporarily as chief of staff of the army, and that the rank of major general Williams of the war department would be continued for the present in that capacity.

Secretary Denby, after a conference with the president, announced that Major General Lejeune would continue as commander of the marine corps, and that the rank of major general would be recommended for the former commandant, George Barnett, who reverted to his regular rank of brigadier general when he was relieved last summer of command.

LOVING CUP PRESENTED.

Vice-President Marshall with the loving cup presented to him by the members of the United States senate as a going away gift. The cup, suitably inscribed, is more than two feet high. In accepting the gift, Vice-President Marshall said: "Some of the people of Indiana will call this a loving cup. They may think it is a memorial of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution. I suppose that to some of them it will be a source of sincere regret that you did not fill it."

HARDING'S FIRST DAY IN THE WHITE HOUSE SET A SWIFT RECORD

MIAMI, Fla., March 5.—Work of connecting the Western Union Miami-Barbados cable in today was abruptly halted this morning when the U. S. submarine chaser 154 appeared and opened fire on the cable-ship Robert C. Clowery and placed the entire crew under arrest.

The action took place on the high seas about four miles off the coast of Miami beach, near the buoy that had been attached to the end of the cable when it was laid from the three mile limit of the United States to Barbados by the British cable ship Colonia, last summer.

The Robert C. Clowery arrived off Miami today from Jacksonville, to start work connecting the cable, and had picked up the loose end when the sub-chaser arrived on the scene. Signals hoisted by the cable-ship, it was said, were disregarded by the cable ship after which a shot was fired by the sub-chaser across the bow of the Clowery, which promptly dove to the surface.

Today's clash between the navy and the Western Union telegraph company was the second that has occurred in efforts of the government to prevent landing of the Barbados cable in Miami. An attempt to run the cable across the channel on the west side of the causeway last summer was prevented by armed forces of the navy.

President Wilson instructed the navy department to prevent landing of the cable here and at the time the British cable ship Colonia was sent here to start work of laying the cable, four destroyers were ordered to Miami to prevent the wire from being brought ashore.

The Colonia tied an end of the cable to a buoy of concrete blocks, and with three-mile limit, and proceeded with cable laying operations on the high seas.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The navy department was without advice tonight concerning action of the submarine chaser 154, which was ordered to Miami, Fla., late today, but was vaporizing to get into wireless communication with naval authorities there tonight.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The joint resolution of congress providing for the return from France of the body of an unknown soldier and his burial in Arlington national cemetery, one of the chief executive orders of President Wilson, was transmitted to the war department today where arrangements will be made for return of the body to this country.

A companion act signed by President Wilson in the closing hours of his administration provides for bestowal of the Congressional Medal of Honor upon the unknown British and French soldiers buried in Westminster Abbey and the Arc de Triomphe, respectively.

NOTES TO PANAMA AND COSTA RICA CONVEY THE IMPRESSION THAT THIS COUNTRY WILL FORCE SETTLEMENT

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Cessation of hostilities between Costa Rica and Panama is demanded in identical notes which it was learned tonight the state department had dispatched today to the government of those two countries by Charles Evans Hughes, the new secretary of state.

This action was the first of the Harding administration in the realm of foreign affairs and was said to have been based on the grounds of broad expediency as the dispute between the Central American republics involved American interests in the Panama canal zone.

A peaceful solution of the dispute over the territory of Coto on the basis of the White award is understood to have been suggested. The notes do not suggest mediation by the United States but were understood to have conveyed the impression that this country stood ready to enforce if necessary a peaceful solution.

Despatch of the notes followed extended conferences between President Harding, Secretary Hughes, and John Weeks and Edwin Denby, the new secretaries of war and navy. Mr. Hughes took up the subject of the dispute with Under-Secretary Davis immediately after his induction into office and later spent nearly two hours with Mr. Harding.

Secretary Weeks was called and presented latest dispatches as to the situation. Mr. Denby discussed the question later with the president.

Replies from Panama and Costa Rica to the notes dispatched several days ago were received today at the state department. From Panama was said to have expressed a willingness to accept the offer of the good offices of the United States in attempting to settle the dispute. News from Costa Rica was described as unsatisfactory. It was received contemporaneously with reports that the government still was sending troops into disputed territory.

It was said that the American government had no official information that either Panama or Costa Rica intend to submit the dispute to the League of Nations, as reported in press dispatches. Today's action of the state department was said to be anxious without reference to such reports.

President Harding and his advisers were said to have given their approval to the steps already taken to protect American interests in the zone of hostilities and indicated that unless the two American warships now on the way south prove adequate to accompany that purpose a large force might follow them. President Harding has taken a keen personal interest in the situation and has been seen in the state department every day since he took office, doing everything possible to restore peace. Because of his recent visit to Panama and the Canal Zone, it was said, he feels he might be taken in a peculiar position to re-establish concord.

ELIASVILLE SEARCH DOES NOT GIVE ANY TRACE OF HAGGARD

CAVES NEAR OIL TOWN BEING EXPLORED BY OFFICIALS AND DETECTIVES.

MISSING MAN HAD LEFT GRAHAM AT NOON FRIDAY

No One Remembers Seeing Him in Eliasville—Wichita County Officers On Scene.

(Staff Special to The Times.) ELIASVILLE, TEXAS, March 5.—Early Saturday night no trace had been discovered of H. H. Haggard, Wichita Falls oil operator whose body, according to a note left on his clothing, was to be found in a cave north of Eliasville.

Officers and detectives late Saturday had searched several of the caves in the hills north of Eliasville, without result. There are a number of caves in that vicinity, and some hours will be required to explore them all. Officers from Wichita county reached here about 4 p. m. in their car, and at once joined in the hunt.

It is learned here that Haggard left Graham Friday at noon for Eliasville, to show a quantity of pipe to a possible purchaser. No one remembers seeing him in Eliasville, however. A possible clue to the matter has been found, as the result of the theft of a large quantity of pipe near here Friday night. Eight men were arrested following the theft, and one of them made his escape in a Dodge car. This slender and doubtful clue is the only tangible thing the officers have to work on.

BELIEVE STEERING WHEEL STAYS OTHER THAN BLOOD

Little additional light was shed upon the disappearance of H. H. Haggard by developments in Wichita Falls Saturday afternoon, and word from the officers early in the afternoon, but was able to give little information to aid the officers.

Officers who examined the Dodge car, in which the clothes were found Saturday morning in front of the Haggard home, were inclined to doubt that the stains on the steering wheel were blood stains, and a chemical analysis will be made to determine.

Haggard's clothing was taken to Eliasville by the local officers. Clear examination of the clothing revealed two more bullet holes in the coat, near the front part of the waist line. There was a hole in the overcoat which did not seem to exactly correspond with any of the holes in the coat. Officers expressed the belief that the holes were made with a weapon of small caliber, on the theory that a .45 or .38 would have caused the cloth to tear in the manner of the overcoat.

That men who had committed a capital crime would drive a Dodge car, which oil field roads to restore a car and some clothing to their victim's family is a feature of the case considered unprecedented in crime annals.

SUPREME COURT DENIES APPLICATION IN CASE OF COMMISSIONER OF POLICE

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., March 5.—The Missouri supreme court late today denied an application for a writ of mandamus by police commissioner Matthew Foster in Kansas City, to compel Judge William F. Hall of Independence, to re-open the mayoralty contest proceedings by Foster against Mayor James A. Cowgill of Kansas City.

The court upheld ruling by Judge Hall that Foster in accepting an appointment as member of the board of police commissioners in Kansas City, has no further right to carry on the contest.

FRANK HAMON DIVORCED FROM HIS SECOND WIFE

PHOENIX, ARIZ., March 5.—Frank L. Hamon, nephew of the late Jake L. Hamon, Ardmore, Okla., and former husband of Clara Smith Hamon, who is charged with having killed Jake Hamon, was granted divorce from his second wife, Gertie Walker Hamon, in superior court here today.

QUESTION HOBBY REGARDING STATE PRISON AFFAIRS

BELIEVES MORE EFFICIENT SYSTEM SHOULD BE ESTABLISHED.

SUGGESTS ONE MAN SUPERVISION AS BEST

Former Governor Declares That He Opposed The Purchase of Fort Bend Cotton Mill.

AUSTIN, March 5.—Ex-Governor Hobby appeared before the joint penitentiary investigating committee today and was questioned by the committee members regarding affairs of the penitentiary system during his administration and as to his views on bettering the system. The ex-governor was the only witness examined today.

In answering questions propounded to him by the committee, Mr. Hobby said he believed the penitentiary system could be handled more efficiently under the supervision of one man than under the direction of three commissioners as it now is. He cited that centralization in administration would result and said the responsibility would be on one commissioner.

Representative Teer asked Mr. Hobby if he thought the reforming of county should come before the point of "making money out of them." "By all means," replied Mr. Hobby, "reforming the men and women of these institutions so that they will be better persons when they leave should be the first aim of the commission."

When asked if he thought the present system should be abolished and another more efficient method established Mr. Hobby replied emphatically: "I do."

Questioned in regard to the purchase by the commission of the Fort Bend cotton mill last year Governor Hobby said that he had opposed the purchase from the first and that he protested to Commissioner Loy against such a purchase.

The committee will submit a report to the legislature next week. It was announced by members today.

Europe Looks to The Substance of Harding Proposal

LONDON, March 5.—The Westminster Gazette, commenting today on the inaugural address of President Harding says:

"Let us not be dismayed because President Harding says in set phrase that America will not do certain things which Wilson asked her to do. If she will not do these she will do certain other things of which we may say at least that they do not all conflict with our aims or which are undertaken as the general aims of the Wilsonian policy."

Referring to Mr. Harding's program of international co-operation the newspaper says:

"President Harding may be assured the sensible people of Europe will not stand on word or forms but will look solely to the substance of his proposals."

FLORENCE QUIET UNDER MILITARY OCCUPATION

FLORENCE, ITALY, March 4.—This city, recently the scene of serious disorders which resulted in several deaths, was quiet today under military occupation. Local outbreaks by communists in the country districts still are occurring, but it is believed the worst of the disorders are over.

One royal guard was killed in Spain and several wounded. A land owner was clubbed to death in Savignano. A military lorry proceeding from Leghorn to Florence was attacked Wednesday at Empoli, eight soldiers being killed and several wounded.

MINERS UNION TO ACCEPT REDUCED WAGES AND HOURS

OVIEDO, SPAIN, March 4.—The miners union of the Asturias has decided to reduce wages and increase hours of work throughout the mine field beginning March 10, in order to compete with American and English coal.

The mine owners have petitioned the government to introduce a heavy customs duty on foreign coal and at the same time abolish the tonnage tax payable to the government.

CRITICISE JAPANESE MILITARY REPRESSION IN SIBERIA

TOKIO, Feb. 24.—Strong criticisms of Japanese military repression in Siberia is voiced in an article in the Tribune, organ of the Chita, Siberia, government, submitted to the Japanese foreign office today by the Japanese consul at Vladivostok.

TEN-COMMANDMENTS FOR "HEALTH WEEK"

Are Suggested By Dr. Manton M. Carrick, State Health Officer.

AUSTIN, March 5.—Dr. Manton M. Carrick, state health officer, has devised a modern "Ten Commandments" for health work. They are as follows:

I. Remember thy garbage can to keep it covered; every day shalt thou fill it and then shall the scavenger empty it, lest thy garbage become a stench in the nostrils of thy neighbor.

II. Thou shalt cut the weeds on thy vacant lot lest it become a hiding place for flies, cans, papers and divers sorts of trash.

III. Thou shalt plant many trees, for the sun will smite thee if thou sittest not in the shade; thou shalt also plant flowers and shrubs that thy habitation may be lovely in the eyes of men.

IV. Thou shalt clean out the habitation of thy horse and thy cow frequently, lest the stable fly flourish and spread infantile paralysis and other death-dealing diseases.

V. Thou shalt starve the fly in the spring, that thy children unto the third and fourth generation shall not smite him later.

VI. Thou shalt build a sidewalk up on the ground before thy house that thy man servant, the stranger and the book agent bog not in the mud thereof.

VII. Thou shalt not harm thy neighbor's garden, thoe, nor thy dog, nor thy cat, nor thy hen that is without thy gate.

VIII. Look thou not upon the milk when it cometh from an unclean dairy, for the doctor will not hold thee guiltless if thy infant sickeneth therefrom.

IX. Verily, verily, thou shalt clean thy house thoroughly, wisely and often that germ-breeding dust shall not accumulate to afflict thee and thy husband and thy child and the stranger that liveth in the next block.

X. Verily thou shalt vote for men who have the health of thy city at heart and who will pass laws amply providing for thy city's sanitation, to insure thy health and thy children's health and the health of the stranger thou knowest not; for verily if the stranger within thy city's boundaries is afflicted with greivous disease because of thy carelessness, the files and other vermin will visit thee and his affliction shall become thy children's and thine own.

But if thou wilt do thy duty and clean thy premises and compel thy neighbor to clean his premises, then shalt thou live long and happily in thy city and thy children with thee.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES LIKELY TO ACT ON VACCINATION SOON

Action on the compulsory vaccination question will probably be taken early this week by the school board, it was learned Saturday. Efforts to hold a meeting of the board last week were unsuccessful owing to some members being out of the city.

Two protests against the proposed rule have been made to Judge Carrigan, one on religious, the other on medical grounds. Similar protests have been made to Mayor Cline. The rule which is proposed for adoption would bar from the schools all children who can not show satisfactory evidence of vaccination against smallpox.

JUBILEE SINGERS FROM DICKSON ORPHANAGE HERE FOR THEIR ANNUAL VISIT

V. L. Dickson, head of the Dickson orphanage for negro children, located at Gilmer, Texas, arrived in Wichita Falls Saturday with nine of his celebrated "jubilee singers," and will spend several days in this city, it being the regular annual visit of "Dickson and the young singers."

The children will sing at the men's Bible class meeting of the M. E. church south at 9:45 a. m., at the regular morning service at 11 a. m., and at the First Baptist church tonight. Old-time plantation spirituals will feature the song program.

Dickson hopes that Wichita Falls will give him $5,000 of the $70,000 he is trying to raise for the orphanage this year. Last year $66,000 was given by citizens throughout the state, and of this $23,000 was spent for additional land. The orphanage has an enrollment of 135 at present, and it is intended to provide accommodations for 1,000, all of whom, Dickson says, are being trained in such ways as will make them most useful.

The orphanage is managed by a board of directors, from over the state, and includes J. A. Kemp, J. C. Hunt, J. W. Culbertson and G. C. Wood of this city.

FIRST ACT OF VIOLENCE OF MEXICO RAILWAY STRIKE

LAREDO, TEXAS, March 5.—What is believed to be the first act of violence of Mexico railway strike was the burning of a small bridge between Saltillo and San Luis Potosi, according to reports reaching here. Delay of trains was the only result, the bridge being quickly repaired. Traffic is still blocked here and there seems to be no improvement in the situation.

FORTY-SEVEN WITNESSES WILL TESTIFY IN CASE OF CLARA SMITH HANON

ARDMORE, OKLA., March 5.—Forty-seven witnesses will testify for the state in the case of the State of Oklahoma vs. Clara Smith Hannon, charged with the murder of Jake Hannon, millionaire oil man and "empire builder," which will begin in district court next week. The list will include Mrs. Jake Hannon, widow of the slain man, who is on her way here from Washington, where she attended the inauguration of President Harding.

DR. SIMONS WILL ATTEMPT TO REFUTE ALLIED ARGUMENT

STATEMENT TO BE READ AT THE MEETING OF CONFERENCE MONDAY.

WILL BE FOLLOWED BY COUNTER PROPOSALS

Most Optimistic Of German Delegates Do Not Expect Acceptance.

PARIS, March 5.—The chamber of deputies by a large majority late last night adopted the government proposal to call the class of 1921 to the colors in view of the German reparations situation.

LONDON, March 5.—Unless new instructions are received from Berlin, Dr. Simons, the German foreign secretary and head of the German delegation on reparations, will on Monday read a long statement designed to refute the argument made by Premier Lloyd George before the conference on Thursday.

In such event, the reparations conference will break up, the German delegates will return home and the penalties outlined by Mr. Lloyd George be enforced.

Dr. Simons and his colleagues, in collaboration with the Berlin cabinet, with which the foreign minister is in continual touch by wireless, have spent the greater part of the time since the delivery of the ultimatum in drawing up a reply. The foreign minister will present figures in an endeavor to prove that Mr. Lloyd George's statement respecting German taxation was inaccurate, and will ask the allies to suggest means whereby Germany can meet their economic demands.

The amount the Germans assert has already been paid on account of reparations will be restated, and Dr. Simons hopes that he will be allowed to repeat his arguments made at the opening of the conference, that large sums are due to Germany on account of state property seized in German colonies and other territories of which she has been deprived and which has not been taken into account by the allies.

The French premier, M. Briand, is credited with the assertion that Germans have been remiss in their efforts to accept or reject terms of the allies as laid down at Paris, with modifications mentioned in Mr. Lloyd George's speech.

The Germans, through Dr. St. Hauer, the German ambassador at London, and Lord D'Abernon, British ambassador to Germany, have made efforts to get in touch with the allies for private conversations, with some measure of success. There was a conference this morning between the premier, Lloyd George and Briand and Dr. Simons.

PREPARE TO COUNTERACT ANY ECONOMIC COERCION

THE HAGUE, March 5.—German correspondents of Dutch newspapers declared today that the business and political interests of Germany, in agreement that it would be better to accept any consequences than yield to the demand of the allies, already are taking steps to counteract any economic coercion.

The Rotterdamische Courant says the Hamburg commerce chamber has sent out a questionnaire to the mercantile and shipping interests, asking, first, whether it would be advisable to conclude any new contracts in allied countries; second, whether they would be obliged to carry out orders if they only received part of the purchase price, and, third, if it would not be advisable to withdraw all German deposits in allied banks.

According to the Fatherland, the labor unions in Essen, the Rhine district and Westphalia, representing 480,000 workers, have resolved to urge the government firmly to oppose any concessions to the allies.

CABINET DOES NOT PROPOSE TO INTERFERE WITH SIMONS

BERLIN, March 5.—Chancellor Fehrenbach informed the reichstag today that the cabinet did not propose to interfere with Dr. Simons, the German foreign secretary, and his fellow delegates to the London reparations conference. He declared that the cabinet was confident that the foreign secretary would make every effort to negotiate within the limits set.

The chancellor made his announcement in course of a carefully formed statement upon the re-assembling of the reichstag.

"In accordance with the directions approved by the reichstag," he said, Dr. Simons was authorized to withhold his signature from any obligation which the German people would be unable to fulfill. These instructions have been and will not be changed. The cabinet is confident Dr. Simons will utilize every opportunity to conclude negotiations within the limit set."

Her Fehrenbach declared he was convinced the German people would acknowledge the signature of their agent in London if it covered an obligation which, after a careful investigation, proved it did not go beyond the limit of possible achievement, but that the German people would be equally firm in supporting their envoys if they refused to sign a document which expected fulfillment of an impossible demand.

ATTACKS DR. SIMONS FOR 'CLUMSY PROCEDURE'

BERLIN, March 5.—Die Freiheit in today's edition attacks Dr. Simons for what it calls "clumsy procedure" at London, and, together with Vorwarts, agrees that the utmost should be done to prevent a rupture of negotiations on Monday. Both papers assert that the reichstag is entitled to a voice in the decisions.

INMATES OF JAIL GLAD OFFICERS HAVE BIRTHDAYS

Sheriff Fred Smith and Jailor Cass Tarver can borrow all the money they want from their "guests" at the county jail. Furthermore they are the two most popular adjuncts of the Wichita county official faculty at the present time, and are sold from the ground up with all their charges.

This excessive popularity has been occasioned by the big chicken dinner served to the prisoners Saturday noon as a sort of celebration for the birthdays of the sheriff and jailor. Sheriff Smith reached his forty-third year Saturday, while Mr. Tarver will celebrate one week from today. The two went into their own pockets and provided a real feast for their charges, with chicken, dressing and all the other trimmings.

A letter of thanks was delivered to the sheriff Saturday evening which ran in part: "Please accept our congratulations on this your forty-third birthday, and may your future years be many and filled with success. And may you always be surrounded by men like Mr. Cass Tarver and Mr. Jimmie Robinson, who we have reason to know are real men."

After commenting on their appreciation of the dinner, the writer concludes with "this action on your part should prove to every one that although you do your duty, you think of us, who are unfortunate, with a kindly consideration, which is an attribute of a real man. We would like to have the people of Wichita county know that we really do appreciate the treatment you accord us."

REVIVAL SERVICES AT EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Revival services, conducted nightly by Rev. E. P. Brundage of Toledo, Ohio, are being held at the Evangelical church, Broad and Fifteenth, and according to Rev. George L. Trabandt, pastor of the church, are proving of immense value in promoting Christianity.

"I am sure every Christian in the city will profit by hearing the splendid sermons by Rev. Brundage," says Rev. Trabandt, "and we plead with the people of this city to hear this great man who has power with God. We are expecting a great day Sunday, regular Sunday school at 10 a. m. in charge of Superintendent R. E. McIver. Brother Brundage has a great message for us at 11 a. m. and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the junior league will meet. Y. P. A. at 6:45, followed by another message from our evangelist. The meetings will continue for several weeks yet, according to Rev. Trabandt."

BUSY COMMITTEEMEN HOPE FOR GOOD WEATHER

Merchants Rapidly Completing Their Preparations For Ornate And Extensive Displays.

With every important detail covered, committees in charge of plans for next Friday's spring style show felt Saturday that the success of that occasion was up to two parties—the weather man and the public; the former, for sunshine and clear skies and balmy breezes; the latter, for whole-hearted participation.

No material changes have been made in the program as previously announced. The schedule of events for the day follows:

10 a. m.—Automobile show opens at 10 Scott, to continue two days.
2 p. m.—Automobile parade, $300 in prizes for best decorated individual, organization and out-of-town cars.
3 p. m.—First baseball game of season at Spudder Park, Wichita Falls vs. Minneapolis.

7 p. m.—Opening of Style Show. Turning on of new street lighting system. Burial of Old Man Gloom at the corner of Eighth and Scott.
8 p. m.—Open air vaudeville at Eighth and Scott. Street dance. Dance at Kemp Hotel.

Amid parades, burial ceremonies, street lighting festivities, dances and such, not much has been said so far of the real heart of the occasion, the display of spring styles by Wichita Falls merchants; these have for weeks been busy with their preparations for elaborate, metropolitan displays of the season's finery.

Big Out-of-Town Crowd. Advance indication of a big out-of-town crowd was given Saturday when reservations were made at local hotels from a number of neighboring points. Detailed accounts of the plans for

AWARD CONTRACT FOR REPAIRS TO RESERVOIR DAM ON SALT CREEK

GRAHAM, TEXAS, March 5.—The city commission at a meeting last night awarded to Moore & Sons of Graham the contract for repairing the present reservoir dam on Salt Creek. The dam will be raised about 20 inches and will otherwise be strengthened to care for a larger amount of water.

City Engineer Nicolett was instructed to order additional equipment with which to double the present filtration capacity. Such a large amount of water is now being used in the city that it is not properly filtered. About 175,000 gallons of water is being consumed each day in Graham, according to City Secretary Wallace.

An additional reservoir dam will be built on Salt Creek as soon as the bond election is held.

NATION'S CAPITAL PAYS ITS TRIBUTE TO CHAMP CLARK

TEARS COME TO EYES OF MANY AS THE FUNERAL SERVICE PROCEEDS.

HOW FIRM A FOUNDATION IS RENDERED BY QUARTET

Senator Reed Eulogizes Dead Friend And Colleague, "The Best Beloved Of Americans."

By CLARENCE DUBOIS, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The nation's capital today with a voice of sorrow paid its final tribute to the memory of Champ Clark.

Twenty-eight years ago Champ Clark came to the house, a young fighting congressman. Today his body reposed in state in the same hall, while official Washington, republicans and democrats alike sought to honor the memory of the stalwart and picturesque Missourian.

Stands of flowers surrounded the casket—silent tributes from many national leaders of their love and respect for Clark. Tears came to the eyes of many hardened political leaders as the funeral service proceeded.

President Harding and ex-President Wilson were unable to attend but both sent large bouquets of lilies.

Mr. James Thompson, formerly Miss Genevieve Clark, was unable to attend the ceremonies because of illness. Her condition is now serious but she is recovering from the shock of her father's death.

Representative James R. Mann, struck the prevailing sentiment of the services when he declared that "to know Mr. Clark was to love him."

The ceremonies were simple. There was no funeral march. A quartette sang a hymn. It was "How Firm A Foundation."

In a voice choked with sorrow the former blind chaplain of the house, the Rev. Harry N. Cowden, sought to pay his tribute to Clark's memory. Cowden served while Clark was speaker and tears streamed down his face as he concluded.

Senator Reed, Missouri, was greatly affected by emotion when he eulogized his dead friend and colleague in congress.

"The man who sleeps today bears with him to the tomb a legacy so rare even envy is compelled to pay the tribute of admiration," said the senator. "His long life was devoted to the service of the public welfare. Upon his country's altar he placed the whole wealth of his magnificent talent, the soul of youth, the energy of middle life, the wisdom of old age.

"He was the best beloved of Americans. Many a battle was fought out in the house by Clark and Representative Mann, for years republican leader. Mann and Clark were the closest friends and the republican leader spoke with great feeling and emotion when he eulogized his friend. Mann said: "Those who had known him loved him most, and yet, there are millions who never saw his countenance, who never heard his magnetic voice, who never in times of peril turned to him for counsel of friendly aid—they too loved him."

SEDITIONOUS MOVEMENT IN SALVADOR COMES TO END

SAN SALVADOR, REPUBLIC OF Salvador, March 5.—A sedition movement which broke out in this city February 18 has been put down by the police after several casualties on both sides. As a result of the plot, the national congress met and decreed martial law.

The movement is understood to have been of a purely local character. The catalyst party, which is in power, has repudiated the movement and it is believed to have been a form of protest against the government's participation in the recently formed union of Central American republics.

The Gazette says that certain elements took advantage of the liberties accorded the people and made mischievous propaganda which temporarily inflamed some of the people against the government.

RED CROSS TRAINS BEING USED TO CHECK SPREAD OF TYPHUS IN POLAND

NEW YORK, March 5.—Five American Red Cross hospital trains of ten cars are being used to check the spread of typhus in Poland. It was announced at Red Cross headquarters today.

The announcement said that the trains were carrying on relief work abandoned during the belshivist drive last year.

The trains are being operated throughout the isolated districts of eastern Poland.

RETIRING CABINET MEMBERS PAY TRIBUTE TO THEIR FORMER CHIEF; NO ILL EFFECTS FROM HIS RIDE

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Word came today from the home of Woodrow Wilson that the former president apparently had suffered no ill effects from his trip yesterday to the capital. Mr. Wilson was up at the usual hour this morning and headed himself about his new home, directing the hanging of pictures and arrangement of furniture.

Mr. Wilson received a letter from the retiring members of his cabinet, telling him how great a place he occupied in their honor, love and esteem.

"The final moments of the cabinet on Tuesday," said the letter, "found us quite unable to express the poignant feelings with which we realized that the hour of leave taking and official departure had arrived.

ADMINISTRATION HAS FORMALLY ASSUMED GOVERNMENT BURDEN

CABINET IS INDUCTED INTO SERVICE AND IS READY FOR BUSINESS.

GREATEST OF PROBLEMS CONFRONT MR. HUGHES

Must Formulate Plans For The Proposed New Association Of Nations.

By A. L. BRADFORD, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The Harding administration today formally shouldered the burden of government. The Harding cabinet was inducted into service today, each member taking oath of office at the department of which he is head in the presence of the retiring cabinet members.

The most formidable task facing the new administration must be handled by Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Navy Edwin Denby and Secretary of War John W. Weeks.

Hughes must execute policy in definite future international relations, or plans for a new association of nations. Harding in his inaugural address turned his back on the League of Nations. Peace with Germany is to be made by passage of the Knox resolution, according to the assumption here, with immediate withdrawal of the American troops from Germany.

Mandate Controversy. Hughes also must take up the mandate controversy with allied powers, involving the American contention for the "open door" in former enemy territories. Hughes now has on his desk replies from the League of Nations council and the British government to the American protests against the Japanese mandate over Tap, and the Franco-British oil agreement in Mesopotamia. Hughes' two next important tasks are settlement of the Japanese protest against the California anti-Japanese land laws and adjustment of the situation in Mexico.

To Mellon falls the task of settling the question of the allied debts of $18,900,000,000 and executing the new revenue policy to be framed by congress.

Denby must accommodate the navy's policy toward disarmament and decide the superiority of the battleship and the airplane.

Secretary of War Weeks' problems are expected to be mostly internal ones of army reorganization.

TWO MURDER CASES ARE TRIED AT ROBY

Alice Cook Is Given Five Years And F. W. Anderson Gets Six-Year Term.

Special to The Times.

ROBY, TEXAS, March 5.—Judge Walter Chapman adjourned district court here this afternoon, after the jury in the case of F. W. Anderson, transferred here from Jones county on a second trial, made its report. The jury report gave the defendant six years in the state prison. Court was in session for three weeks, during which time there were two murder and two civil jury cases tried. In addition to quite a number of minor non-jury cases.

In the case of the state of Texas against Alice Cook from Kent county for murder, the defendant was given five years.

The case of Dave Chapman of Houston, for murder, was set for a special term of court for March 14, but on account of illness of the defendant, the special term was not called.

The grand jury was in session for seven days, returning 24 true bills, 24 of which were felony cases.

HERR CLETT IS EXPELLED FROM OCCUPIED AREA

COBLENZ, March 5.—The inter-allied high commission in the Rhineland has ordered the removal from office and expulsion from the region of Herr Clett, president of the commission in charge of the German government's property in the Rhineland, and three other high officials.

The high commission issued the order because Herr Clett gave and the other officials executed orders contrary to the interior allied regulations and also reinstated two officials convicted by allied military courts.

IMMIGRANTS ADMITTED INFESTED WITH VERMIN

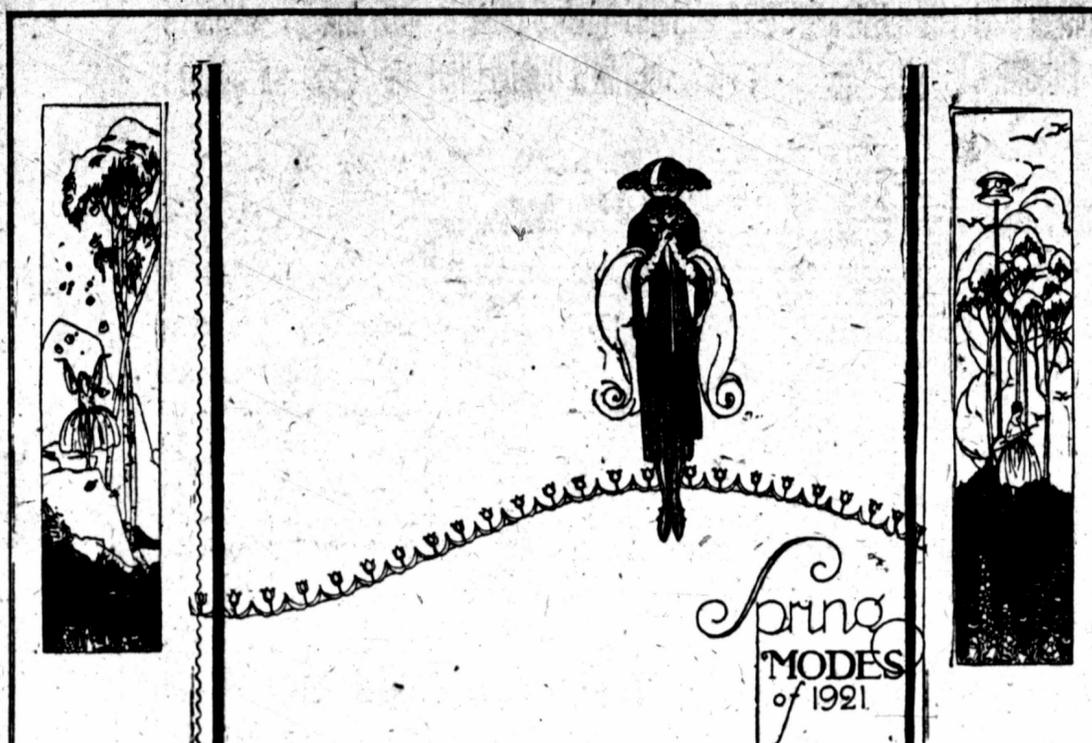

NEW YORK, March 5.—Seven immigrants admitted to this country at Providence, R. I., yesterday were found to be infested with vermin when they arrived here today.

Examinations of 1,207 other immigrants here disclosed 20 persons similarly afflicted. Thirteen school children, who recently came from Europe, were found to be infested with vermin, the health department reported.

complaints arise. We have seen you uncomplainingly toll under the heavy and unrelenting burden of the presidency. We have had the inestimable privilege of sharing some of your labors. At all times you have been to us our ideal of a courageous, high minded, modest gentleman, a patriotic public servant, an intense and passionate lover of your country.

"You have displayed toward us a trust and confidence that has touched us all, supporting and defending us when under partisan attack with staunch and sterling loyalty, and placing at our command, always in the most considerate way, the wisdom of your counsel. History will acclaim your great qualities. We who have known you intimately bear witness to them now.

"We fervently wish you, dear Mr. President, long life and the happiness that you so richly deserve and have so abundantly earned."

MODERN STYLE SHOW

Living Models to Exhibit the Latest Fashions in

READY-TO-WEAR, JEWELRY AND FINE FOOTWEAR

—AT THE—

OLYMPIC THEATRE

Wednesday and Thursday
At 8 o'Clock P. M.

THE undersigned merchants have completed arrangements for holding a Spring Style Show at the Olympic Theater Wednesday and Thursday, March 9th and 10th, at 8:15 p. m. The services of experienced models from abroad, with the assistance of a bevy of Wichita Falls' prettiest girls, have been arranged for, to properly display the smart gowns, jewelry and shoes in the exhibit.

Each merchant represented will endeavor to show the advance styles for Spring and Summer in his line—to give to the public a correct idea of the fads and fancies that have met with popular favor with the arbiters of fashion—the very latest creations of the eminent designers of this country and Europe.

We can promise the women of Wichita Falls an interesting event and extend to them a courteous invitation to be present on both nights of the Style Show.

CONTEST FOR CITY OFFICES PROMISES TO BECOME VIGOROUS

TOTAL OF EIGHT CANDIDATES FOR THREE COUNCIL POSITIONS TO BE VOTED ON.

ORGANIZING OPPOSITION TO ADMINISTRATION TICKET

Numerous Indications Of Active Campaign Ahead—Last Petitions Filed Saturday.

Wichita Falls voters will have eight candidates from which to fill the three positions to be voted on at the city election of April 5, Saturday, the last day on which candidates' petitions might be filed. Eight petitions turned in at the office of City Clerk Thorburn. The ballot will be as follows:

For alderman, position No. 1—W. G. Bralley, George Hodgins, R. L. Yates and William E. Smith.

For alderman, position No. 2—Dr. J. F. Reed, J. E. Hatchitt.

For alderman, position No. 3—R. E. Shepherd, Elmer Howard.

Three other Wichitans, in whose behalf petitions had been circulated, withdrew from the contest, these being C. J. Arrington for place No. 1, M. Overton McDowell for place No. 2, and N. H. Clifford for place No. 3.

Unmistakable signs of a vigorous campaign during the 20 days before election have been in evidence within the past few days. Opposition to candidates who have the supposed endorsement of the present administration is being led by J. E. Marlow, former mayor.

Mr. Marlow said Saturday that whatever part he was playing in the campaign was due not to any personal feelings on his part, but in response to numerous requests from Wichitans who felt that some changes should be made in the administration. Mr. Marlow indicated that the citizens who want these changes would wage decidedly more than a half-way fight, and he expressed the belief that dissatisfaction with municipal affairs was widespread among the voters.

Alleged inefficiency in expenditure of sewer bond money, the permitting of increased gas rates and the appointment of new-comers to positions on the police force are the matters principally complained of by those opposing the so-called administration. This ticket, which includes W. G. Bralley and R. E. Shepherd, incumbents, and J. E. Hatchitt, will be in the fight actively enough when the time comes, it was made known Saturday.

Men's Social Club Organized by the North Side Folks

The north side folks had another big meeting Friday night, March 4, at which a Men's Social club was organized, in order to permit the north side menfolk to keep pace with the Young people.

M. J. Marshall was elected president of the new club, and T. W. White, principal of Fannin school, D. F. Crow and J. H. Jones were appointed a social committee.

There was some fun at the expense of the members from the Ford and Scott grocery company, who came late, and they were fined a box of cigars which are to be turned over to the A. W. Entertainment was furnished by "Fiddler" Owen Ashby, well known in the city, and Mrs. Ashby, a former music teacher. Mr. Ashby delighted the audience with a happy selection of old-time tunes.

Trop 14 of the Boy Scouts put on some good stunts, which they have learned under Mr. White's leadership. It was announced during the meeting that the Campfire Girls recently organized by Miss Hood of the Y. W. C. A. are to meet with Mrs. N. O. Monroe Thursday afternoon of this week.

C. A. Retman, of the factory, was present and presented a formal challenge to the north side Sunday school to enter a contest, ending in a spring-time festival picnic, the losers to be dishwashers on that day.

Refreshments of ice cream, coffee, home-made cake and sandwiches were served by the Fannin Mothers club, Mrs. Mack, president, and Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. White and Mrs. Webb, social committee.

"Take the Times and go to church at the factory Sunday" the Men's club advised its members. Miss Ada Gullat was elected social reporter for the club.

SHOWS MISFORTUNE CAN BE TAKEN PHILOSOPHICALLY

GRAHAM, TEXAS, March 5.—That misfortune can be taken philosophically was demonstrated last Thursday when W. B. Box, owner of the National theatre at Breckenridge, received word that the theatre had been destroyed by fire. Mr. Box read the telegram and the next minute was going up the street looking for a contractor to replace the building. Later he looked up Milton McConnell, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and presented him with a check for $50 as a donation toward the upkeep of the South Bend road. The loss on the theatre and equipment was about $25,000.

Card of Thanks. No tongue or pen can express our appreciation for the assistance and kindness and for the flowers given us in those sad hours of bereavement in the loss of wife, mother and sister.

SUIT THAT INVOLVES OIL LAND VALUED AT $200,000 IS FLIED

A trespass to try title suit, involving 1,127 acres in the South Bend district of Young county, the land being valued at $200,000, was filed in federal court here late Saturday. Mrs. Sarah B. Tompkins and Mrs. Elsie Burton of Mobile, Alabama, and Mrs. C. T. McCord of Los Angeles, the latter two joined by their husbands, are plaintiffs in the suit, and the defendants include the Sun company, the Standard Petroleum company, C. F. Colcord and company, and a large number of individual residents of Young county.

VOLUNTARY REDUCTION BY SHEET METAL WORKERS

Since January 1, wages of sheet metal workers in this city have been $10 per day instead of $12, the former figure, this cut being the first voluntary reduction on the part of local unions. It was stated to The Times by a contractor Saturday. Attention of The Times was called to the matter in connection with the recent publication of items about prospective wage reductions here.

RURAL SCHOOLS OF COUNTY HAVE TOTAL OF 2236 ENROLLED

There are 2,236 children enrolled in the rural schools of Wichita county, this being a substantial gain over last year, according to a report made Saturday by Burl Bryant, county school superintendent. The report was made to the county school board, which met in regular session at the court house.

New schools which have been opened at Kemp City, Bridgetown, Newtown, Bradley's Corners and in the Humboldt and Texas county camps near Clara are being largely attended, and account for a considerable part of the increase. These six schools make a total of 35 in the county; this does not include schools in Wichita Falls, Electra, Iowa Park or Burkburnett.

KEMP PLEASED WITH OUTLOOK ON BONDS; RETURNS SATURDAY

J. A. Kemp returned home Saturday afternoon from northern points, where he had gone on several business matters, among them being the sale of the water improvement district bonds. Mr. Kemp had nothing definite to report on the water bonds, but said that he felt entirely satisfied with the situation and was hopeful of early action.

Mr. Kemp had learned before reaching here of the issuance of the permit for the Wichita Falls and Southern extension, and was much gratified at the news.

An O. HENRY Story

Jimmy Hayes and Murial

By O. HENRY.

SUPPER was over, and there had fallen upon the camp the silence that accompanies the rolling of corn-husk cigarettes.

A well-known sound—the fluttering and scraping of chaparral against wooden stirrups—came from the thick brush above the camp.

"Brace up, Murial, old girl, we're 'most there now! Been a long ride for ye, ain't it, ye old antediluvian handful of animated carpet-tacks?"

"Two minutes of waiting brought a tired 'paint' pony single-footing into camp. A gangling youth of twenty lolled in the saddle.

"Hi, fellows!" shouted the rider cheerfully. "This here's a letter for Lieutenant Manning."

He dismounted, unseated, dropped the coils of his stake-ropes, and got his hobbles from the saddle-horn.

"Boys," said the lieutenant, waving his hand to the rangers, "this is Mr. James Hayes. He's a new member of the company. Captain McClure sends him down from El Paso. The boys will see that you have some supper, Hayes, as soon as you get your pony hobbled."

After a hearty supper Hayes joined the smokers about the fire.

The boy had gone down upholding the honor of the company.

They saw simply a loose, lank youth with tow-colored, sun-burned hair and a berry-brown, ingenious snar that was a quizzical, good-natured smile.

"Fellows," said the new ranger, "I'm goin' to introduce to you a lady friend of mine. Ain't ever heard anybody call her beauty, but you'll all admit she's got some fine points about her. Come along, Murial!"

He held open the front of his blue flannel shirt. Out of it crawled a horned frog. A bright red ribbon was tied around its neck.

"Look at that blame insect!" said one of the rangers with a grin. "I've seen plenty of them horny frogs, but I never knew anybody to have one for a side-partner. Does the blame thing know you from anybody else?"

"Well, dang my hide!" said the other ranger. "The little cuss knows you. Never thought them insects had that much sense!"

Jimmy was a humorist of a type that prevails in the rural South and West. Unskilled in originating methods of amusing or in witty conceits, he had hit upon a comical idea and clung to it reverently. It had seemed to Jimmy a very funny thing to have about his person, with which to amuse his friends, a tame horned frog with a red ribbon around its neck.

The sentiments existing between Jimmy and the frog cannot be exactly determined. The capability of the horned frog for lasting affection is a subject upon which we have had no symposium. It is easier to guess Jimmy's feelings. Murial was his chief devotee of wit, and as such he cherished her. He caught flies for her, and shielded her from sudden nothings. Yet his care was half selfish, and when the time came she repaid him a thousandfold.

Not at once did Jimmy Hayes attain full brotherhood with his comrades. They loved him for his simplicity and drollness, but there hung above him a great sword of suspended judgment. To make merry in camp is not all of a ranger's life.

For two months the border was quiet. The rangers lolled, listless, in camp. And then—bringing joy to the rusting guardians of the frontier—Sebastian Saldar, an eminent Mexican desperado and cattle-thief, crossed the Rio Grande with his gang and began to lay waste the Texas side.

One evening, about sundown, the rangers halted for supper after a long ride. Their horses stood patiently, with their saddles on. The men were trying bacon and boiling coffee. Suddenly, out of the brush, Sebastian Saldar and his gang dashed upon them with blazing six-shooters and high-voiced yells.

"Then it was discovered that Jimmy Hayes was missing. Some one remembered having seen him run for his pony when the attack began, but no one could find him since.

This gave the rangers time to nurse a soreness they had. As has been said, the pride and honor of the company is the individual bravery of its members.

Nearly a year afterward—after many camping grounds and many hundreds of miles guarded and defended—Lieutenant Manning, with almost the same detachment of men, was sent to a point only a few miles below their old camp on the river to look after some smuggling there.

In a big hog-wallow lay the skeletons of three Mexicans. Their clothing alone served to identify them. The largest of the figures had once been Sebastian Saldar.

The rangers rode in that direction for fifty yards. There, in a little depression of the ground, with his rifle still bearing upon the three, lay another skeleton. It had been a battle of extermination. There was nothing to identify the solitary defender.

"Some cow-puncher," said Manning, "that they caught out alone. Good boy! He put up a dandy scrap before they got him. So that's why we didn't hear from Don Sebastian any more!"

And then, from the beneath the weather-beaten rags of the dead man, there wriggled out a horned frog with a faded red ribbon around its neck, and sat upon the shoulder of its long quiet master. Mutely it told the story of the untired youth and the swift 'paint' pony—how they had girted up all their comrades that day in the pursuit of the Mexican raiders, and how the boy had gone down upholding the honor of the company.

A simultaneous wild yell arose from the rangers. The outlaw was at once a dirge, an apology, an epitaph, and a psalm of triumph. A strange requiem, you may say, over the body of a fallen comrade; but if Jimmy Hayes could have heard it he would have understood.

Something To Think About Wasting Other People's Time.

By F. A. WALKER

THERE is one thing that you cannot buy from the greatest merchant in the world. A minute of time. One second is as unpurchasable as the whole of eternity.

Yet thousands of men and women go through life wasteful not only of their own precious moments, but wholly regardless of the value of other people's time.

To a busy man the loss of fifteen minutes may upset the plan for a whole day's work. Delay in the keeping of an appointment may disarrange hours of scheduled efforts.

You would never think of putting your hand into the pocket of a man and taking out even the smallest coin, but you may make totally valueless for him a period of time worth more than all the money he had in all his pockets.

The great trouble with too many is that they put no value at all on time. They watch the hands of the clock go round with as little regard for the fleeing hour as for a passing wind.

For a spent dollar another may be earned to take its place. For the lost minute that is wasted, there is no supplying a substitute, no replacement. It is gone forever.

It was TIME, not guns nor generals, that won and lost at Waterloo. Napoleon was not alone among the great generals who were defeated by the clock.

"Give us time," said a great scientist, "and we can solve every problem the world offers us."

We can heap up wealth. We cannot store away one moment. We can gain power and assemble armies. We cannot go one second back or forward from the present.

Yesterday is as if it never existed. Tomorrow is as useless today as if it were a century away.

Frederick the Great had a maxim which he borrowed from the wisdom of Soeca: "Time is the only treasure of which it is proper to be avaricious."

Every man and woman should be stingy of every moment. And they should recognize the value of every other person's time.

Life is composed of only two things. Time and effort. One is useless without the other. Both should be as nearly 100 per cent productive as we are able to make them.

Try as best we may, the end of life will find us with many things undone.

No man ever wholly completed the task allotted to him. There is a reasonable excuse if into our use of time no waste creeps.

For the man who wastes his own time or steals another's there is neither excuse nor valid reason. He has wantonly destroyed what neither man nor the Creator Himself can restore or replace.

Put a value on every minute. Be as anxious and as certain to get that value as you are to gain the worth of your dimes and your dollars. Remember that once a minute has passed by it is gone FOREVER.

TWO QUESTIONS ARE PRESSING PRESIDENT FOR EARLY SOLUTION

WILL BE TAKEN UP BY CABINET UNDER PRESSURE OF IMMEDIATE EMERGENCY.

LONDON CONFERENCE IS ONE IMPORTANT PROBLEM

State of The Treasury Is More Acute Than The Public Generally Realizes.

By MARK SULLIVAN. (National Public Correspondent of The New York Evening Post.) (Copyright, 1921, by the New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The two questions which President Harding and his cabinet are going to take up, under the pressure of immediate urgency and without the breathing spell of a day, are the effect on us of the London conference, now sitting, and the state of the treasury, which is more acute than the public realizes.

I have been at pains to consult nearly all the men in America who have authoritative information on what is likely to be the outcome of the London conference, and while the opinion of some is sensationally alarmist, that constitutes the crisis for America. It is not primarily for the purpose of collecting money that the invasion of Germany is wished for by many of the French leaders and probably the bulk of the French people.

Every economist and business man knows that as a matter of dollars and cents the invasion would cost two dollars for every dollar the invaders can collect. What moves France primarily is the wish to make Germany helpless. As it was explained to me by one of the most thoughtful American authorities on the subject, the idea is that France no longer has security against a revived Germany, and until she has it she will not be inclined to let Germany begin to re-construct.

Heart of the situation. That, and not money, is the heart of the situation. The same American went on to say: "In the long run, in sympathy with France, England and the United States should guarantee France against future assault. If Britain and the United States succeed in making the French, I think, will take immediate military action."

This last, of course, raises the broader and more permanent question of a League of Nations or association of nations. But the thing of immediate concern is the consequences to the United States and to the world of an invasion of Germany by the French. The effect on American business of an action designed not to let Germany begin to re-construct is obvious.

Those of the American authorities whom I have consulted whose connections are military take place and will be initiated as early in the spring as the roads are good enough for action.

Pay the Country's Debt. The other question that has the quality of an emergency demand on the energies of the new administration is the plain business of paying the country's bills. Thoughtful persons in contact with this branch of the government's business are of the belief that the 1921 tax returns for last year are in, it will become apparent that the country's revenues will be but little over two-thirds of what they were last year, and will be about the same fraction short of enough to pay the current bills of this year.

It is expected that the returns from the excess profits tax will fall sensationally below what they were last year. Some go so far as to predict that the returns from the excess profits tax will fall close to zero. The corporations have the privilege of deducting from their profits all of that enormous depreciation in the value of their stock on hand which took place just before the end of the tax year. The same authorities believe that for the same reason other taxes will be cut, and tax returns will be seriously curtailed.

These are the two outstanding problems which the new administration will have to take up at the opening of business tomorrow morning. The list of other problems, which are of enormous importance but of less pressing emergency, of course, extremely large.

MAJOR GENERAL LE JUNE WILL BE RENOMINATED FOR COMMANDANT OF MARINES

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Major General Le June, commandant of the marine corps, will be renominated for that position by President Harding and permanent rank of major general in the corps will be urged for Brigadier General Barnett, former commandant. It was learned today following the conference between the president and Edwin Denby, who was to take office as secretary of the navy later in the day.

Ranger Gonzalles Gives a "Masher" A Good Thrasing

An alleged professional "masher" learned late Saturday night that second married ladies on the street was a dangerous proposition, for his undue familiarity with Mrs. M. T. Gonzales, wife of the Texas ranger, resulted in his receiving a good thrashing from Mr. Gonzales, and of his being locked up in the city jail to await trial for disturbing the peace.

According to the stories of Mr. Gonzales and his wife, the man had attempted to force his attentions on the lady several times. Saturday night, it is said, he followed Mrs. Gonzales for several blocks through the business district and is also said to have used ungentlemanly remarks in addressing her.

At the Kemp hotel corner Mr. Gonzales appeared and on being told by his wife that the man was following her, the ranger demanded an explanation. The accused is alleged to have struck at Gonzales, who promptly knocked his adversary down, handcuffed him and commiserated a serv-

PENDING TREATIES TO BE CONSIDERED

Arrangements Made For Senate Action Of Several Early In The Week.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Arrangements for senate action next week on several pending treaties were made today by republican leaders, minor treaties are to be taken up at first and the question of considering the Colombian treaty was still unsettled.

That the administration has agreed to take no action on the "three-power" treaty, negotiated by former President Wilson, guaranteeing France against aggression, was indicated today by republican leaders.

ENTIRE REARRANGEMENT OF SEATS IN THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The senate of the sixty-seventh congress, which convened in extraordinary session yesterday, rearranged again today, but in a transformed chamber. An entire rearrangement of seats had been made necessary by the swelling of the republican membership to 45.

Many desks were moved from the democratic to the republican side, but there was not enough room to accommodate all the republicans and a "cherokee strip" for seven republican senators was established at the extreme right on the democratic side.

The senate recessed to attend the funeral of Champ Clark and there were no communications from the white house, when the senate returned. Adjournment was taken until Monday noon.

Spudder Juveniles Indulge In Brief Workouts; Miller Puts in First Appearance

The campaign of Walter Salm to bring a Texas league pennant to Wichita Falls will be officially on tomorrow when a score of young hopefuls are expected to report and cavort in the balmy weather, halting now and then when Walter will issue a sharp warning to "look out for that arm."

Yesterday the same handful of rookies that were out Friday went through two tame workouts under the skipper's watchful eye, and last night the boys felt the usual effects of the activity after months of less strenuous living. It was the old story of the rookie engaged in his preliminary work of the spring. A warm sun beamed on the Spudder juveniles, but a strong wind carried an abundance of dust that made things rather disagreeable. The dust to cut loose was strong and some of the boys were inclined to answer it. The wiser ones needed no warning and took things as they came.

Miller Arrives.
There was a new arrival yesterday in the person of Jake Miller, the well-known and highly respected Spudder outfielder. Jake traveled all the way from his home in Baltimore without stopping, and was somewhat weary after his long ride. He arrived at the park. He didn't mix it up with the rest of the squad, but ran around the field a few times to get his wind in shape. Jake says he has had a good deal of himself this winter, but would hate to jump into the fray right away.

ONLY ONE BEAR NOW OUTSIDE THE FOLD

Bill Fincher Hasn't Signed 1921 Contract Yet But All Others Have Come to Terms.

SAN ANTONIO, March 5.—Although two days of rain kept the New York Giants, the Detroit Tigers and the San Antonio Bears in their rooms playing lotto and authors during the early part of last week, the sun came out Wednesday evening and the fans had a chance to grow dizzy trying to identify more than 100 ball players who were packed League Park and made even more noticeable in the spacious three-berthed grandstand, where the Tigers are training.

The Bears, from the standpoint of material on hand, look no worse from the standpoint of getting "on" than they do early, they look great. Only pitcher Bill Fincher, 1920 mainstay, has not signed his contract for the 1921 season. The San Antonio baseball association in the eyes of the law as yet.

Frank Fuller, the other holdout of a week ago, has come to terms. Fred Henry, left-handed first baseman, made a good impression in the few days he has been working out. He seems to be a certain since he has experienced no opposition since Leo Cotter's coming here proved all a mistake. Leo decided he didn't want to play.

The Bears have a couple of dozen pitching trouts but most of them are youngsters. The men who have been showing heads are Baldridge, Deason and Tunches.

The Bears and the Giants are meeting Sunday. If the weather permits, the boys back in the city. The Giants and the Tigers are due to clash. Week-day exhibitions will be arranged among the big and little leaguers and local army and semi-pro teams.

INTER-LEAGUE EXHIBITION GAMES WILL START SOON

NEW YORK, March 5.—Inter-league spring exhibition games between the clubs of the major circuits will be in full swing within the next few days, giving baseball fans their first opportunity to compare the relative strength of the ten permanent combinations. The development of this feature of the southern training expeditions has made marked advance during recent seasons. The schedules show that a big percentage of the 13 clubs, composing the National and American leagues, will play such contests prior to the opening of the 1921 pennant races.

A study of the ante-season dates of the major leagues indicates a list of more than 70 such games scheduled during March and the early part of April. Fully two-thirds of these contests will probably be played. A large majority are carded for the south and southwest, although several of the clubs will complete their spring training with a series of home games just before the opening of the regular season.

The exhibition schedule opened with a contest between the Philadelphia Americans and the St. Louis Nationals at Houston, Texas today and for the next five weeks, one or more such events are scheduled for decision each day. Two city series are involved for the St. Louis and the Philadelphia clubs will each figure in games on their home grounds just before the opening of the pennant chases.

ROBERTSON RECEIVES FIRST SUSPENSION OF SEASON

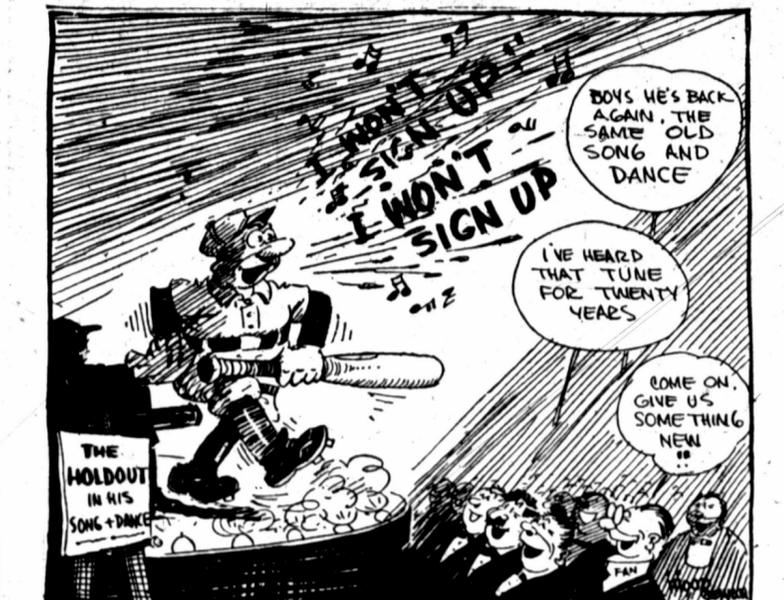

CHICAGO, March 5.—Dave Robertson, outfielder of the Chicago National league team, has been indefinitely suspended for failure to report for spring training, according to an announcement of President Veeck today. It was said this was the first suspension announced for the 1921 season.

AMATEUR TRACK AND FIELD EVENTS AT HARVARD FIELD

Court to Stage Final Act in White Sox Baseball Drama Next Week Hard Fight is Expected at Trial

CHICAGO, March 5.—The investigation into alleged gambling, bribery and game throwing in major league baseball was opened officially in September, 1920, when Judge Charles A. McDonald, chief justice of the criminal court, charged the Cook county grand jury with investigating reports which had come to his attention concerning "fixed" games.

The grand jury investigation which followed, brought league president, club owners and star athletes to the witness stand. It finally resulted in the indictment of eight members of the world champion Chicago White Sox team, two former major league players and two alleged gamblers and a former world-champion pugilist on charges of not reporting to the grand jury the Sox team to deliberately lose games in the 1919 world series with the Cincinnati Reds. It also charged that certain Sox players had accepted bribes ranging as high as $10,000 to throw games.

Through the investigation, a world champion team was wrecked and conditions were shadowed and every effort made to obtain convicting evidence, but without result. Presidents R. B. Johnson and John Heydler of the American league, who had been indicted as "fixers" in the investigation, testified and told of private investigations they had made.

Testimony was given that Hal Chase had been "fixed" by the Sox team. The pitcher denied the charges, but gradually the circumstantial evidence became stronger and stronger.

Finally Billy Maharg, former prize fighter, in an interview with a Philadelphia newspaper, named Cioetto, Atwell Jackson and others as taking part in the alleged deal. This, seemingly, was the final straw, for a few days later Cioetto confessed to Mr. Comiskey.

Players Suspended.
Comiskey immediately suspended the seven players then with the club, telling them he would drive them out of baseball forever. If the charges were found true, Cioetto was taken to the grand jury and the indictments followed.

On February 14 last, Williams, Weaver and Jackson filed demand with Judge William E. Dever for a bill of particulars in the case. In affidavits accompanying the demand, the three players swore they never conspired to throw games and never actually attempted to throw games. Williams and Jackson, however, did not deny that they confessed to receiving bribes. Nor did Williams deny meeting Brown and selling in Cioetto's room, but said he did not know whether they were the same Brown and Sullivan that were indicted. The players also deny knowledge of Charles C. Kemmerer.

The grand jury also indicted several baseball pool makers and heard testimony indicating that various players had conspired to throw games in the big league series from the world series. The trial will begin Monday, March 14.

CLOSE DEAL FOR REPAIRS TO SOUTH BEND ROAD

GRAHAM, TEXAS, March 5.—The board of directors and the good roads committee of the chamber of commerce at a meeting Friday morning closed a deal with C. C. Kerr to take charge of the repair work on the South Bend road. Mr. Kerr is a man of wide experience in road construction work, having helped to build the Bankhead highway.

Through co-operation of the county commissioners and the people who use the road it is hoped to keep the highway in first class condition for the heavy traffic.

games. Jackson, Williams and Cioetto were the only indicted players to go before the grand jury. Williams said the eight White Sox players met with Brown and Sullivan in Cioetto's room in a small southside hotel and there discussed throwing games. The players made individual deals concerning the amounts they were to receive, he said, after first being offered and refusing $5,000 each.

Near the end of the investigation all of the indictments were revoked for technical reasons. Brown and Sullivan being indicted as "fixers" and Joseph J. Sullivan, gamblers of New York and Boston.

The confession of Cioetto, which resulted in the indictments, came only after days of investigation made more sure by unconfirmed reports linking Cioetto and others with the case. President Charles A. Comiskey and Manager "Kid" Gleason of the White Sox told the jury they had conducted a secret investigation for several months. Certain players were shadowed and every effort made to obtain convicting evidence, but without result.

Testimony was given that Hal Chase had been "fixed" by the Sox team. The pitcher denied the charges, but gradually the circumstantial evidence became stronger and stronger.

Finally Billy Maharg, former prize fighter, in an interview with a Philadelphia newspaper, named Cioetto, Atwell Jackson and others as taking part in the alleged deal. This, seemingly, was the final straw, for a few days later Cioetto confessed to Mr. Comiskey.

Shore Was Regarded As Better Than Ruth Only Few Years Ago

The passing of Ernie Shore's from New York to the Vernon Pacific Coast league club recalls the fact that Shore made his entry into the major league along with Babe Ruth, the king of clouters. It is also interesting to note that of the two, Shore was regarded as the more promising when they broke in. Ruth was then a pitcher. Jack Dunn of Baltimore sold them to Boston in the fall of 1914. They reached Boston in time to work in a few games that year.

Manager Bill Carrigan shipped them both to Providence early in 1915, where they proceeded to pitch their club on a pennant just as they had won the championship for Baltimore the previous year. Shore was the first of the pair to be recalled. Ruth soon followed. In 1916 Shore was given the heavy assignments by Manager Carrigan in preference to Ruth and in the world series it was Shore who was the favorite over Babe Ruth until the season of 1918, the abbreviated season due to the war, did Ruth really begin to assume the position he now holds. Shore was at that time in the service, but he had begun the descent before he took on the national uniform.

His arm went askew in 1918 and never came back. Boston traded him to New York, but he proved a white elephant on Miller Huggins' hands. I took Huggins the better part of two years to realize that Shore was through before he finally cut him adrift.

The Hooper Deal.
Evidently we can be prepared for surprises in the way of baseball deals right up to opening day. We were certainly handed one when we learned that Harry Hooper would change the color of his Sox. For the first time in many moons it looks as if the Red Sox had got at least an even break in a deal. While Hooper was easily the star of the Red Sox outfit, with few possible exceptions at Everett, he would not have been of much use to them this season. Harry was far from satisfied with his surroundings and to date had refused to report.

Harry Came High.
Harry will greatly strengthen Comiskey's shattered crew, but he gave up a couple of good ball players for him. John Collins and Nemo Liebold are an addition to any club and the Red Sox can use them to great advantage. Their present outfield is nothing to brag about, and "Shono" and Nemo should fit in nicely. There's hardly a chance for Collins to work at first base as long as the reliable "Stuffy" is on the job, and he will undoubtedly be used to plug a hole in the outfield.

Babe Under Handicap.
Every item concerning Ruth's physical condition is eagerly scrutinized by writers. Joe White, Gotham sport scribe, "Yankee fans have been told, and to relate, that the Home Run King will pound the ball for 75 circuits this year. This kind of stuff puts Babe under a handicap before he is able to swing a bat. Making 54 home runs last year was a tremendous feat and the Babe probably doesn't believe that he can break that record. But enthusiastic and well-meaning prophets have created the impression that Tarzan will reach the 75 mark without the slightest difficulty."

Among the Notables.
"Who's the bird out there with the new glove? He sure has handled a baseball before. What's he out for?" We were asked these questions yesterday at Athletic park. Few, if any, realized that they were pointing at Billy Maloney, the feet-footed outfielder who was a member of that famous Cub machine fifteen years ago. Tinker, Evans, Chance, Steinfield, Sheppard et al. were all members of the same club. Billy isn't exactly young in years now as he was then, but he's just as young in spirit.

"Good—Not Natural."
While Billy was changing from his scouting togs into a uniform he was asked if it felt natural. "Well, I can't say that it feels natural," Billy replied, "but it certainly does feel regular. It's been some time since I donned a regular outfit, but I'll be out here every day. It's natural and the extra mile I do me good." Billy was accompanied by J. A. Gardner, general agent of the Gulf Production company. The latter's hand was a bit sore after his brief session the last couple of days, but he and Billy stuck to it until they were winded.

City Leaguers Out.
Balm's hopefuls were not the only players getting into trim yesterday. After they had relinquished the diamond at Athletic park, Kubacka and a few First National City leaguers were out tossing the ball around on the different lots in the city. The Telephone boys put in an order for their suits yesterday, but will loosen up their joints before they arrive.

New Taps For Spudders.
While on the subject of "suits" we might mention the fact that the Spudders will have new outfits this year. The home uniforms will be practically the same as those of last year with a new insignia. In place of the blue "W. F." which adorned the front of their shirts last season the letters will be placed in combination on a red background. The road uniforms will be gray instead of blue with white stripes. The new road uniforms are very similar to those of the Cincinnati Reds. By the way, if Salm adheres to his present plan the fans can tell the rookies from the vets during the "prepping" stages. The vets will wear last year's road uniforms while the newcomers will wear the white suits.

BEAUMONT PLAYERS GETTING IN TRIM

Pat Newman Expected To Start Wielding His Axe In Near Future.

BEAUMONT, March 5.—Wim, vigor and vitality" marked the opening of the spring training season here this past week. "Bancoups" rookies featured the opening, and three classes are comprised in the lot, viz: good, bad and indifferent. However, indications are that it is not going to take Manager Pat Newman very long to rid himself of the bad and indifferent aspirants. Weeding out process is expected to start immediately.

One of the most important events of the first week of training was the appearance of Jack Johnston, former Oiler outfielder, who last year failed to join the spiked boots. Johnston came in last week, and affixed Big John Hancock to the document that makes him the property of the Exporters. In 1919, Johnston's last season in baseball, he clouted the pellet at .306 clip, and ranked fifth in the league's average.

Among last year's veterans who have reported are Bill James, Bill Bailey, Walter Alexander and Ludlow Kelly. Others who have reported and are trading out are: Fitchers; Stanley Turner; George Scott; Dick Humphries; catcher Pat Rusche; Steve Ball; infielders Brownie Watson, J. L. Scott, Joe Brewster, J. W. Hilliard, I. B. Chachere, Martin, Dalton Hillitt; outfielders, Carl Wilson, F. J. Hawkins, Bill Edwards, Cedric Durst, A. L. Byrnes.

Pat Newman is working out regularly with the performers, and if one thinks Newman is labeled for the has-been class then one is surely mistaken. Pat is as young as the youngest, and he's as fast as the fastest. President Joe Mathes is also limbering up, and Newman declares he's going to sign the president for an infield position.

Cedric Durst, Austin lad, who is seeking a position in the outfield is the sweetest looking youngster that has been seen in these diggins for some time. Durst comes here highly recommended, and Pat Newman declares he's the best looking boy since the days of Ross Young.

The first exhibition game of the season takes place here Monday when the Cardinals meet the Athletics.

YALE SWIMMERS BREAK WORLD'S RECORD IN RELAY

PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—The Yale University relay swimming team made a new world's record today when it defeated the University of Pennsylvania quartet in the 500-foot relay race, negotiating the distance in two minutes and 22 seconds. The former record of 2:24.5 seconds also was held by Yale.

Chicago Outlanders Field.
NEW YORK, March 5.—Chicago school boy skaters outlasted the representative of the New York schools in eight of the nine events which made up the program of the inter-city contests at the Brooklyn ice palace today.

Gulf Boys at Sea.
The Gulf boys don't know how to turn at the present writing. They've got a couple of hundred slicks on gathered together for uniforms, etc., but are waiting to see if the City League executive board will not reconsider the matter. The Gulf boys are at next Tuesday night's meeting. Here's hoping that the board will reconsider and allow them to combine with the Texas company, which is a move which will be regretted. However, if such a thing should come to pass that the board stands pat, we might suggest that the Gulf use the two hundred to start a fund for abused sport writers.

ILLINI TRACK STARS SHOW WAY TO OTHERS

Four Records Smashed And Two Are Tied At Big Relay Carnival.

URBANA, Ill., March 5.—Athletic stars of the University of Illinois carried off the lion's share of honor in the fourth renewal of the relay carnival staged under the auspices of the university here tonight. Four carnival records were smashed and two were tied. The carnival drew a record breaking list of entries. There were 149 athletes from 43 universities and colleges in the competition.

The first record to be equalled was in the two mile university relay which Illinois won in 8:44.4. Ames tied the carnival record for the 100 yard relay, equalling the record of 8:24 established by Georgetown last year.

Deering, University of Nebraska, fiver, won the 100 yard dash in a blanket finish with Bradley of Kansas, and Gallagher of the Kansas Aggies. Six sprinters were sent off to a perfect start, but Deering was the fastest in the last five yards, winning by six inches. The time of eight seconds was two-fifths of a second slower than the record for the same distance.

EDDIE BROWN HELPS GIANTS DEFEAT HIS FORMER MATES

SAN ANTONIO, March 5.—Fifteen hundred hungry baseball fans saw the New York Giants, in training here, trim the San Antonio Bears of the Texas League in the first practice game of the season today, the score being 5 to 2. The batting of Eddie Brown of McGraw's squad was a feature of the game, the centerfielder hitting perfectly in three times at bat. Recruit Ewell Cross, who played with the San Antonio club last season, showed up well in his initial performance at shortstop with the Giants.

ARCHER CITY QUINTET WINS FROM SEYMOUR

Will Represent Third District in Austin Next Week—Wichita Hit Second Win.

By virtue of their 21 to 13 victory over Seymour High yesterday the Archer City basketball team will represent this section at the intercollegiate games in Austin March 11 and 12. Archer City had already eliminated the other teams in the fourth district and Seymour had defeated all comers in the third. Sixteen teams will start the elimination series in Austin March 11, schools from practically every section of the state being represented.

The Seymour quintet gave their opponents a battle in the first half and were only two points behind when the whistle blew, but an attack led by Lea in the last half quickly put the Archer City boys in a comfortable lead, which was maintained until the end.

The men most likely to go to Austin to represent Archer City will be Lea, Cowan and Alexander, forwards; Powell, center; Graham and Arnold, backs.

BUFFALO BOWLER SETS UP NEW SINGLE SCORE RECORD

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 5.—Joseph Galligan of Buffalo established a high single score record of 298 pins in the American bowling congress tournament today, his high game following scores of 128 and 170, which gave him a total of 682 pins and first place in the individual event. He chalked up eleven successive strikes. His score of 298 is the second highest in an A. B. C. tournament, but it is not an A. B. C. record. William J. Knox of Philadelphia shot 309 in 1913 at Toledo.

The Minneapolis vanguard has arrived in Oklahoma City, and Manager Cantillon will lose no time in starting the wedding out process. His game here Friday will be the first for the Millers this year as it will be for the Soudders. Included in the Minneapolis roster are the following ex-big leaguers: Bill James, "Rube" Schauer, Grover Lowdermille, pitchers; Bill McKeechin, infielder; Henri Rondau, outfielders; Clarence Schalk, Ray's younger brother, will also be on hand.

GIANT TEAMS BUILT AT SMALL EXPENSE

McGraw Not a Great Spender As Few Of Present Team Cost Owners Much Money.

The charge that John J. McGraw's managerial success is due to the giant's ability to pay top prices for star major league players isn't sustained when you look over the present makeup of his team. Money has figured in just four deals with other National League clubs. Bancroft was obtained from the Phillies for Fletcher, Rawlings and $75,000, it is said. Neft was purchased from the Braves for $25,000, and the Cardinals received $25,000, according to report, to release Snyder and Gonzalez to the Giants, writes Joe Vila in answering the old charge that McGraw is ever trying to buy pennants.

—BECAUSE THE RAILROAD WRECK SALE STORE has the reputation of giving real live bargains to the buying public—because a large stock, brand new, at less than wholesale cost must sell, and sell quick.

A STATEMENT

DEAR PUBLIC.—I am up against it; I need money, and I need it bad. The banks will not let me have any. It is up to you to take advantage of my hard luck. Whenever I am hard up for cash, I get reckless and I do not care how cheap I sell my merchandise.

Are you wise? Do you know how to grasp an opportunity when it is presented to you?

Remember, my stock is brand new and up to date. The best at less than you can buy elsewhere. Look over these prices, then come to my store, where live, bona fide bargains reign supreme.

(Signed) M. HARRIS, Manager.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

New York Stocks—Grain and Provisions—Cotton—Livestock

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton. NEW YORK, March 5.—The cotton market was comparatively quiet and showed irregularity after yesterday's advance. Uncertainty regarding the outcome of the war reparations conference in London on Monday probably increased a disposition to even up commitments for war, the week-end, and led to scattering liquidation. The general market closed barely steady, but 10 points lower to 2 higher. The market opened steady at a decline of 7 points to an advance of 3 points but very soon weakened owing to unfavorable trade accounts from Manchester and reports of increasing domestic mill curtailment. There was selling by recent buyers who were said to be disappointed by failure of demand to broaden more importantly, following the inaugural address. Before the end of the first hour active positions sold 15 to 23 points net lower. Reports of improved demand for lower grades in the southwest led to scattered covering at those figures and there were rallies, but they were not fully maintained and old crop positions showed a general decline of 7 to 10 points at the close. Less favorable late reports as to the German situation had an unsettling influence. Manchester advice stated that the proposal to shut down for the Easter holidays had not been adopted but that Lancashire spinners would continue on the short time schedule. Sales of print cloths at Fall River for the week were estimated at $2,000,000, a decrease of $1,000,000 from the week ending at $3,000,000.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, March 5.—General leveling up for over Sunday resulted in a low range of grain values today. The forecast for unsettled weather in the southwest also was a factor in the wheat market. At the finish wheat was down 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 with March $1.71 and May $1.62 to $1.63. Corn was off 1/2 to 1/4, oats showed a loss of 1/4 to 1/2, and provisions were unchanged to 20 cents lower. Foreign demand for wheat was slow with the only business reported being 14,000 barrels of flour. The British commission, it was said, was in the market, but did about 5 cents below cost. There was some selling upon news that allied terms had been rejected by Germany. Coarser grains were dominated by action of wheat and ranged lower. Trade was not large and mainly of a local character with the finish at moderate net losses. Provisions were lower in sympathy with grains and hogs.

FOREIGN SILVER IS QUOTED LOWEST IN NEARLY SIX YEARS

NEW YORK, March 5.—Quotations for foreign silver in the local market today fell to 52 1/2 cents an ounce, the lowest price in nearly six years. The decline here was precipitated by another drop in the price of the metal abroad. London reported a further reaction of 1 penny to 308 pence, the minimum figure there since August, 1916. Today's exchange price on Shanghai of 50 1/2 cents showed a loss of 1/2 cents since the first of the week. Silver mining in the United States as well as the entire western hemisphere, is said to be at its lowest ebb. In the Far East where silver has always served as a medium of exchange, the depreciation is partly attributed to the financial embarrassment of a

Seeds of Profit—Seeds of Plenty

BACK to nature is indeed a healthy and profitable pastime. And there is no practice quite as pleasurable as nurturing soil with quality seeds of productivity. An hour a day will insure you a plentiful garden—enough to furnish your own table with fresh vegetables and enough left over to pay considerably more than your time and labor would cost. When you come here, you're certain to get quality seeds—the kind that is certain to bring you the crops you expect.

 Domestic science talk and demonstration on the value of dessert and pastries.

Mrs. Florence Austin Chase of Chicago, home management, food and cooking expert, who is to be in charge of the Times Household and Cooking School in the basement of the First Baptist church this week, arrives in Wichita Falls Sunday evening.

Mrs. Chase, who completed one of the biggest and most successful cooking schools ever held in the state in San Antonio Saturday evening, will include in her week's program of lectures, instructions and demonstrations, every department of practical home management and menu planning dear to the heart of the true housekeeper. The school will comprise a five-day course, and will be absolutely free to the women of Wichita Falls. Mrs. Chase is brought here under the auspices of the Times Publishing company, which company pays her expenses; there will be no admission or collection of any sort, and Mrs. Chase has nothing to sell or advertise.

The Monday session of the Times school will open promptly at 2:00 o'clock in the basement of the church. It is hoped that all of those who expect to attend will plan to be on time so that they will not lose any part of the lecture or discussion. The household lectures are planned in more or less logical sequence, beginning with the background of the home, but each is complete in itself.

The colors are harmonious and pleasing.

Must Be Well Planned.

"A well planned home has ample room for books, flowers and music, for no home is complete without good books for instruction, music for diversion and flowers for cheerfulness.

"The furnishings that enter into the home are of as much importance as the building which provides the walls and rooms of the home. They must reflect utility and comfort, which make for the happiness which a perfect home means in the last analysis.

"Of prime importance and perhaps outstanding, if any one thing is to be given the place of 'most important,' is the food and its preparation and serving in the home.

"Food furnishes the motor power, mental and physical, for that home. It must be chosen and planned that it will give the greatest happiness units daily. And that should be the chosen duty of the housewife and is the housewife's job of the true housewife, if she knows that loving care in the selection and preparation of the foods, she will give the same loving attention to the other things that are necessary in the perfect home.

"Something different should be the general idea. Forever banish that everlasting 'sameness' which will clog the wheels of the most mechanically perfect home. The girl who marries without knowing her kitchen and her dining room is usually the one who pays the penalty for her ignorance. Many brides have cried because of the failure of their meals.

"Butlet biscuits, leather steaks and the like have and will be the jokes for the vaudeville stage but they are not jokes for the young bride in her home. They are about the most tragic incidents that the young bride is called upon to solve. It does not take her long to realize how inadequate is her knowledge for the life duty which confronts her. Oft times she secretly upbraids the mother who bore her for neglecting her education along this line and forcing upon her those useless drawing room accomplishments that might fit her for social diversion.

"It is of the utmost importance to know what to buy, how to buy it and then how to prepare it and serve it."

Mrs. Chase's lectures and demonstrations might aptly be termed "First aids for the family." Women of Wichita Falls are going to have an opportunity to qualify in the most dignified and honorable profession in the world—that of perfect home making. Mrs. Chase will be the physician and the women of Wichita Falls the students of the daily clinic. Mrs. Chase will tell the women of Wichita Falls many practical things; she will give many valuable suggestions and show the way to "better homes."

In her opening talks Monday she will advise on the preparation of salads and salad dressings, and the value of fruits and vegetables in the dietary.

Mrs. Chase believes in the "balanced ration" and her lectures during the week will develop the importance of the proteins, carbohydrates, mineral salts and water in food selection and preparation.

"Make the meals simple as possible," urges Mrs. Chase, "and do not attempt to prepare a banquet."

ECZEMA!

THIS isn't one of those fake free treatment offers you have seen so many times. We don't offer to give you something for nothing—but we do guarantee that you can try this wonderful treatment, entirely at our risk, and this guarantee is backed by your local druggist.

This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon, because the druggist with whom you have been trading would not stand behind the guarantee if he did not know it to be an honest and legitimate one.

HUNT'S GUARANTEED SKIN DISEASE REMEDIES (Hunt's Salve and Soap) has been sold under absolute money back guarantee for more than thirty years. They are especially compounded for the treatment of Eczema, Itch, Ring Worm, Tetter, and other itching skin diseases.

Thousands of letters testify to their curative properties. M. Timberlin, a reputable dry goods dealer in Durant, Oklahoma, says: "I suffered with Eczema for ten years, and spent $1,000.00 for doctors' treatments, without result. One box of Hunt's Cure entirely cured me."

Don't fail to give HUNT'S GUARANTEED SKIN DISEASE REMEDIES (Hunt's Salve and Soap) a trial. All druggists have.

SPRING STYLES

IN WOMEN'S WEAR TO BE SHOWN AT THE COOKING SCHOOL AND HOME EXHIBITION

GOOD taste in the choosing of Women's Wearing Apparel and good judgment in the selection of materials form one of the important phases of domestic science that will be covered by Mrs. Florence Austin Chase in her lectures at the Cooking School this week.

In our booth at the cooking school we will show, from day to day, representative models of the prevailing fashions of the season, in Spring Suits, Evening Gowns and Street Dresses. These garments are from the foremost designers of the world, and are models that have met with marked favor in the eastern fashion centers.

The women who attend the cooking school are urged to visit our booth before and after the lectures, when an attendant will be on hand to give any information desired.

"Home League" of Salvation Army Doing Big Work

The "Home League" of the Salvation Army, a social organization in the Army revived a few weeks ago, made a splendid report of work accomplished during the past week at its meeting for the week recently.

The league reported 45 visits made to those ill or in trouble. Eighteen of the visits were made in the homes, and the visiting members did whatever was necessary to be done. Houses were cleaned, dishes washed, children cared for, meals prepared, sewing done, the sick attended and little comforts arranged where desirable.

The league is an organization in the membership of the Army congregation, and its object is to serve, spiritually and materially, in homes where it is necessary, mothers are taught to sew and cook, and no service that one human can do for another is counted beneath the dignity of the leaguers. It is, literally, a "Help One Another" organization, with a "stop at nothing" motto. The membership at present is 27.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS TO BE GUESTS OF MRS. JOHN CRAIG TUESDAY

WICHITA BAR ASSOCIATION BANQUETS TUESDAY, MARCH 15

The Wichita County Bar association will meet for its annual banquet Tuesday evening, March 15, it was announced Saturday.

Miss Lillian Livingstone of Okla. City is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Covanes of 1310 Ninth street.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF GRAND PRAIRIE VISITOR

Mrs. J. D. Robertson entertained the members of her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church at her home, 1214 Filmore street, with a delightful party Friday evening, specially honoring her niece, Miss Thelma Robertson, who is her house guest from Grand Prairie.

The young people spent the evening playing progressive "hearts," in which game Miss Beulah Sanford and John Harris were high score winners. They were presented remembrances by the hostess. Another interesting diversion was the cracking of walnuts for fortunes, the reading of which occasioned a lot of fun.

Daily refreshments were served late in the evening to the following: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Robertson, and Mrs. Paul King, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Robertson; Misses Maxine Ritchie, Jewel Derryberry, Beulah Sanford and Maude Soule; Robert Friszel, Melvin Hobbs, Albert Bachar and John Harris.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS OF FATHER AND MOTHER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spitzer of 1512 Collins avenue was the scene of a very pretty party Friday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Spitzer entertained in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Spitzer's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, of Battle Creek, Mich., here on a visit.

The home was prettily decorated in keeping with the St. Patrick season and a large company of friends and new acquaintances gathered to wish the honor guests many more happy returns of the day. Many attractive gifts were presented Mr. and Mrs. Smith, also.

The evening was spent with music and other entertainment, and refreshments were served at a late hour, the favors being of St. Patrick design with the birthdate inscribed on each. Mr. and Mrs. Smith leave for Michigan soon.

BOWIE SCHOOL PATRONS TO CAMPAIGN FOR NEW SCHOOL

The Bowie school patrons, under the organization of the Parent-Teacher association, are campaigning for a new schoolhouse and better school environment for the Bowie school children.

The school is at present held in a little church building which was recently freed from debt, but was only intended as a temporary housing. The children of the fifth grade have to cross several tracks of a large freight yard, and the street is the only playground under present conditions.

The matter of a new school was discussed at last week's meeting of the Parent-Teacher association. It was brought out that the children of employees of the Wichita Brick and Tile factory constitute a large part of the school, and the company has offered reduced rates on building material for a new building. Part of the east side district is a fine, irrigated gardening section, owners of which are strong supporters of the new school project. Grounds are available, it is stated, for a beautiful building site.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S AUXILIARY MEETS

The Women's Auxiliary of the Central Presbyterian church will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church.

Election of officers for the year will be an important feature of the business session, and all members of the auxiliary are requested to be present. Following the business a Bible study hour will be conducted by Mrs. E. S. Goodner.

LADIES' AID, SEVENTH AND LAMAR METHODIST, MEETING

The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist church, Seventh and Lamar streets, will hold a business meeting Monday afternoon at the church, opening at 3 o'clock.

The society will hold an apron, bonnet and food bazaar on Saturday, March 12, at the 'Nash auto sales' rooms at 712 Ninth street. All who are making articles for the apron and bonnet sale are asked to have them at the home of Mrs. Corkhill by Thursday.

The Woman's Mission society of the First Christian church will meet Monday at 8:30 at the church. Mrs. J. L. Downing's division will have charge of the program.

DALLAS FIRESTONE MANAGER GUEST OF FRANK QUEISSER

J. H. McDonough, manager of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of Dallas, accompanied by Mrs. McDonough, spent the week-end as the guest of Frank Queisser of the Motor Supply Co., and Mrs. Queisser.

Mr. McDonough has just completed a trip over the hazy weather and good roads incident thereto has brought large numbers of pleasure cars to the highways, many cross-country trips are being made and there is a general picking up not only in the sale of new cars but in the tire and accessory business everywhere, he says.

MISS LILLIAN HALEY VOTED POPULAR JUNIOR HIGH GIRL

Miss Lillian Haley was voted the most popular girl in Junior High in the popularity contest which closed Friday afternoon at that school, and will be represented in a full page photo in the High school annual, the Coyote.

Miss Haley outdistanced her two competitors for the honor, Misses Ina Myrtle Robinson and Eunice Hisea, both of the high eighth grade. Miss Haley is a low eighth student. The voting closed at 4:30 Friday afternoon, and the pennies, paid for, each vote, were counted immediately. Champions of the winner had paid $100 of the little red men to the cause of their candidate. The money will help defray expenses of the Coyote.

The City National Bank of Commerce plays and has played an important part in the development of the Wichita Falls district. By its large resources, complete equipment and facilities and efficient, experienced organization, it helps to keep the wheels of industry turning. 294-11c

HE IS LOOKING 'EM OVER AGAIN

"Eight years of stomach and liver trouble reduced me to a walking skeleton. My skin was dried up and as yellow as a twenty-dollar gold piece. I was filled with gas and had severe pains in my right side. I could not think and had lost all ambition to do anything. Doctors' medicine did not touch me. My cousin advised May's Wonderful Remedy, which snatched me from the grave. I have gained sixty pounds, eat like a hired man and am looking 'em over again." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. How do you die?
Oh, yes you do. Every little while. The fact known to medical science that the body renews itself completely every seven years or so isn't a bit truer than the fact that you are having to enter some part of your spiritual self in some kind of graveyard or other every now and then. A well known writer of verse made the saying, "It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts, but how did you die?" famous several years ago. His "dead" however, referred to the decease of the whole body; the common final portion.

But death means a lot of things beside physical decease, and as we are all subject thereto, in the manner in which we accept the different extinguishments may represent our chief fault—or virtue.

Just as it was said of Theodore Roosevelt on one or two occasions that he was "sinking in his tent," so has it been whispered on occasion a bit of the last of the three greatest American presidents that he accepted this or that defeat ungraciously. Whether or not the whisper was true, we know that even the highest type of greatness is not immune from the fault.

A few days ago there was something that I KNEW. (Once in a while we all know something beyond peradventure of a doubt.) As I connected it with something else that came up for adjustment, I suggested the adjustment on the premise of the thing I knew. But it was voted down, and another adjustment was suggested.

There are big and little occasions like this scattered all through everyday life, and sometimes the case with others is just as it was with me. I knew, and knowing that I knew, I also knew that the adjustment arranged would not work out. So, in spite of the fact that the matter was irrevocably past, and my own idea among the candidates for decease, it was hard to conduct a decent death. I couldn't help the matter, or change things any, by remaining alive, but I wanted to kick about a bit. Instead of taking the dead thing quietly behind the house, putting it in a grave and leaving it there, and then forgetting it, my impulse was to wash my hands of the affair as far as the others were concerned and carry the remains around awhile. And then a gossip saw story declared that the president was maintaining an attitude of aloofness over a certain defeat, and had made certain cryptic remarks concerning the whole matter. So I had to straighten the president out, and the straightening led straight back to myself.

It's the hardest thing in the world to know what is exactly the right attitude under such circumstances, and even harder than that to preserve it. And yet, it is fairly easy to see a clean-swept path when the eye is unprejudiced by the presence of an active difficulty. Fight to the last ditch, and then, if defeat comes, make a visit to the family vault and return without the evidences of mourning. People are going to be right and wrong as long as the world continues, and whatever is worth a fight, modest partisan demands that we refrain from any conduct that would suggest a claim of superiority for our own ideas, when those ideas have lost with the majority.

And the refraining has to be a thoroughbred affair. It can't have any frayed edges and get by, because the public, even in our most intimate and intimate circle of acquaintance, keeps its eye peeled for the frazzles on our character stunts. There is inherent belief in thorough decency or conduct.

The next time you have a death in order, stand off somewhere and watch yourself die. Observe, in other words, with what gracefulness you conduct an interment!

SANS SOUCI CLUB MET AT MRS. MORTON'S THURSDAY

The Sans Souci club met with Mesdames R. B. Morton and G. W. Parker Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Morton's home. A pretty color scheme of pink and yellow was carried out in the floral and other house decorations, pink carnations and jonquils furnishing the flower notes, with tally cards suggesting the same motif.

In the games, Mrs. Clarence Moore won high score, and was presented with a cut glass nappy. Mrs. A. J. Lester was consoling with a lemon squeezer for low.

The hostess served refreshments to the following members and guests: Mesdames A. G. Deatherage, M. F. Hamric, Howard Knowles, A. J. Lester, Clarence Moore, F. N. McClure, Eugene Nicholson, Felix White, Claude Williams, Lee Wilson, R. B. Morton and G. Q. Parker and Mesdames J. T. Abbott, H. G. Goodloe, C. E. Crowson and C. C. Glover.

The club meets this week with Mrs. Felix White at 1402 Fillmore.

JUNIOR HIGH MOTHERS WILL BUY BOYS BASEBALL SUITS

The Junior High Mothers Club will buy baseball outfits for the boys on the Junior High ball team, according to a decision reached by the mothers in session Friday afternoon. A petition from the members of the team was presented, with sufficient reasons advanced for the making of the request.

To raise the money for the outfit, the Mothers' Club has planned a silver tea for Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. F. Riggs, 1815 Tenth street. An interesting program is to be arranged, and of the friends of the school are invited.

Of 3,800 Singers Only 22 Sing Pure Notes—Edison

In a recent interview Thomas A. Edison had the following to say regarding the imperfections of the human voice:

"I have collected, through my agents in Europe and America, phonographic voice trials by approximately 3800 singers. Of these, there are but 22 who sing pure notes, without extraneous sounds and the almost universal tremolo effect. A singer's trill is quite a different thing from a tremolo. A trill can be and is controlled by the brain, but a tremolo is not within brain control and, so far, there has been no means found for correcting it. Most singers cannot sustain a note without breaking it up into a series of chattering, or tremolos. The number of waves varies from two per second to as high as twelve. When at the latter rate, the chatter can just be heard and is not particularly objectionable. When at a slower rate, it is very objectionable.

"The object of an inventor, attempting to produce a phonograph, should achieve the highest possible degree of realism. That has constantly been my goal, and, as is now well known, we have succeeded to such a point where our phonograph reproduces, or recreates the human voice and other forms of music, with such fidelity to the original that the most sensitive ears are unable to distinguish any difference. Our success in registering and emitting every quality of the human voice has revealed some remarkable facts."

The realism of the NEW EDISON is so perfect that this wonderful instrument brings the full benefits of music into every home.

Girls' Friendly Club Will Sell Carnival Stuff

In order to replenish the Girls' Friendly loan fund, $500 of which has been lent to business and employed girls in temporary financial difficulties within the past few months, the club voted Friday evening to plan for an extensive sale of carnival stuff on the evening of the Wichita Falls style show March 11.

The young women will sell carnival hats, balloons, whistle balloons, rackets, snappers and joy makers of various descriptions. The sale will be conducted from four booths located in different parts of the downtown district and presided over by girls from the club, and by salesgirls on the streets during the evening. The booths will be decorated and marked with the Girls' Friendly club sign.

The carnival hats and joy makers have been ordered through a local dealer, and a big sale is expected. The club has hopes to raise several hundred dollars, and expects to issue a general invitation, through the news columns, and to announce the sale to the general public to visit their booths and patronize their salesgirls Friday night at the show.

The carnival hats, which will be in different colors and styles, will be made a feature of the style show, and every attendant at the show will be invited to buy and wear them during the joy-making evening. The club is placing a big order Monday, and may arrange for an advance sale for Friday afternoon for those who wish to be supplied.

The Girls' Friendly loan fund, for which the money is being raised, slipped down to "rockbottom" a few weeks ago, when the last case was investigated and money lent. The club is the only girls' club in the state, so far as is known, maintaining such a loan fund, and the idea was originated particularly because of the situation among the business girls in Wichita Falls, who are under more than ordinarily heavy expenses and slip more readily into financial difficulty. There has never been a failure to pay the money back among those to whom it has been lent, the custodian of the fund stated Saturday.

The Housewife's Economy Calendar

SO MANY THINGS.

A YOUNG housewife the other day suddenly conceived the idea that the modern household is burdened with altogether too many things. It is this mania for having innumerable things, separate, distinct objects all with different uses and different requirements that makes the housewife's brain weary at night. At least this young housewife so decided. Then she reflected on the probable number of things that a pioneer housewife, in Colonial times, had.

She was really interested in this proposition, so she decided to count the number of different things, in an average middle-class household and she selected her own for the count. She started in the bath room. She simply the sorts of towels. Then there were such other articles as soap, nail brush, toothbrush, soap dish, water glass—she always had an opaque white glass of a different sort than the sort used in the dining-room. And so on. She made a separate count for everything or sort of thing that had a special use or name of its own.

She didn't keep her count up for very long. She had counted four hundred and thirty different objects and she hadn't gone below stairs.

Then she tried to think how she could eliminate some of these. There were instances where this was possible. She found that certain types of things had survived their usefulness or had really never been useful enough to justify their existence. But most of the things were too useful to be eliminated. She discovered that with the training and experience she had had, it would really make housekeeping more complicated to try to get along without most of these things than to get along with them.

ALAMO HOME AND SCHOOL CLUB MAKES GOOD REPORT

The Alamo Home and School club made a splendid report of work accomplished and funds raised at the meeting Friday afternoon at Alamo school.

Curles, chairman of the tree planting committee, reported that fifty large trees had been set out around the campus, completing the border originally planned at a cost of $100, and that the money to meet the expense was raised quietly by the committee, with no call on the fund originally appropriated from the treasury.

The playground equipment committee reported that two basketball courts had been completed and balls purchased. A large supply of playground balls have been bought, and all children are to be given a chance to take part in the playground activities, which are thoroughly organized and under the supervision of faculty members.

The treasurer reported nearly $2,000 raised and expended during the past two years on school improvement with a small balance on hand to close the year. Also that the liberty bonds purchased were still on hand.

Mrs. Hamilton of Gainsville made an interesting informal talk on the mothers' club work in that city, making several suggestions.

Mrs. L. R. Buchanan presided during the business meeting, and Mrs. S. M. Black led the devotions. A short program preceding the session included readings by Lloyd Bland, a solo by Margaret Goodner, a reading by Mary Jane Black, and a talk, "Proper Food for Growing Children," by Miss Martineau of the faculty.

LIGHTING CIRCUITS GIVEN FIRST TEST, READY FOR THURSDAY

The new street lights will be all ready to burn when Mayor Cline makes the necessary motions next Friday night. Friday afternoon the Ohio avenue circuit was tested by P. A. Rogers, City Electrician Montgomery and others, and found O. K. save where some of the globes had been broken. The Indiana avenue circuit, however, failed to so much as flicker, as first, and it was found that the cable had been broken at a point where some careless excavating for a gasoline tank had been done; the break was promptly repaired. Transformers for the remainder of the circuit, including those on Lamer and Travis, are due to arrive tomorrow, and will be immediately installed, so that all parts of the new system can be ready for Thursday night's festivities.

Distillery Wants Protection From Alcohol Thieves

NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—The Kentucky Distillery company, located on the Mississippi river front near New Orleans, today appealed to the state of Louisiana for protection from alcohol thieves. The latest raid netted masked bandits 45 drums of alcohol with a legitimate valuation of $30,000 and estimated to be worth at illicit basis $144,000. Governor Parker, in a reply to officials of the company, offered any possible assistance but suggested the government was particularly interested in protective measures. Bandits yesterday overpowered watchmen, rolled 15 drums to a barge and departed down the river. Efforts to locate the barge so far have been unavailing.

M. Perkins, remains to be decided. Large numbers of former soldiers, sailors and marines have already been enrolled. Neither captain was willing to say Saturday just how many his side had obtained, as to do so would be to furnish valuable information to the enemy. The membership drive which the Legion is staging will probably end next Saturday night.

NORTH DAKOTA LEGISLATURE BREAKS UP IN A TURMOIL

BISMARCK, N. D., March 5.—Featured in its closing hours by fist fights in the corridors among spectators and bitter oral clashes by its members, the seventeenth legislative session in North Dakota came to an end with dawn today. Efforts of the senate to force J. F. Sullivan and Francis Murphy, attorneys for the house committee that investigated state-owned industries, to testify before the upper body, ended unsuccessfully with the jailing of Sullivan, who later was released on a writ of habeas corpus. The house was controlled throughout the session by the independent faction, while in the senate the non-partisans had a one vote margin.

Children in Camps Are Dying at Rate Of Forty per Day

ATHENS, March 2.—The condition of some 45,000 Greek and Russian refugees quartered in tents, barracks and packing cases at Saloniki was called to the attention of the Greek government today by Colonel Robert Olds of the American Red Cross. Colonel Olds offered on behalf of the American people to save the 5,000 children in the camps who were reported dying at the rate of forty a day, providing the Greek government would help supply food. Minister of War Gounaris said he would take immediate steps to assist.

MRS. HARDING MAKES HER FIRST ROUNDS OF OFFICES

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Mrs. Harding made her first round of the executive offices of the white house today, shaking hands with all of the secretarial and clerical force there and greeting newspaper men in the press room. She said she hoped to be as frequent a visitor in that and of the White House as she was in her husband's headquarters in Marion throughout the campaign.

LAKE WICHITA HAS AMPLE WATER FOR NEEDS OF SUMMER

Ample water for all reasonable needs will be available for Wichitans this spring and summer. Lake Wichita is at an unusually high level at present, with the water only an inch or two below the top of the spillway dam. Water was going over the spillway up to a few days ago. Although Wichita Falls now need such a large quantity of water that a prolonged dry spell would occasion a shortage, the present condition of the lake is such that a shortage may be considered a very remote possibility.

Entire Detective Force to Be Fired; Can't Get Results

NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—Armed with permission from the city commission council, Guy L. Molony, superintendent of police, today was making plans to remove the entire city detective force March 15, because he "can get no results from them." Members of the present detective force will be put into uniform and the more proficient patrolmen will be promoted to plain clothes.

CONSTANTINE ADDED TO THOSE QUITTING FIFTY-FIFTY RULE

The Constantin Refining company has notified the operators in Texas that, effective February 16, 1921, their 50 per cent storage order of December 17, 1920 is cancelled and all oil for which they have contracts for will be run in full and paid for as well as that which has been placed in storage, according to the order of December 27, will also be paid for at the market price prevailing at the time it was accepted by them for storage.

CHICKEN STEALING COST LONG PRISON SENTENCE

PARIS, ILL., March 5.—Chicken stealing cost Glen Johnson, 24, a prison sentence of one to 14 years today. "Chicken stealing is one of the most contemptible crimes a grown man can commit," said Judge Augustus Partlow when he ordered Johnson sent to the Chester penitentiary.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT DELIVERS AIRSHIP ROMA

ROME, March 4.—Officials of the Italian government today handed over to Major John G. Thornell of the American air service the airship Roma, which was recently purchased from the Italian government by the United States. Major Thornell proposes making a long test flight in the Roma before dismantling the airship for shipment to the United States.

Victor Talking Machine

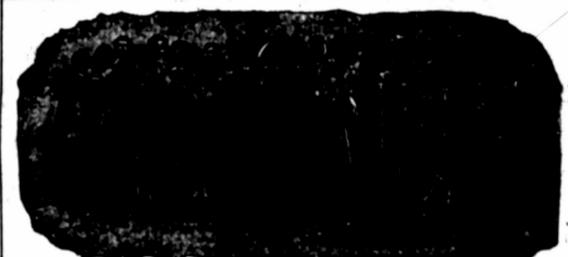

To Give Choice Selections Each Day During Cooking School Week

We have secured booth space in the basement of the Baptist Church for the Cooking School Week and will have on display a model of the new Victor Talking Machine. Before and after each performance and in the intermissions the great Victor artists can be heard, and anyone wishing to hear her favorite selection will please ask the attendant.

We also will have on display a beautiful assortment of Floor Lamps, Table Lamps, Boudoir Lamps, Electric Grills and Cleaners.

Many of the selections sung by the eight Victor artists, who recently appeared at the Palace Theater, will be given during the intermissions.

Our booth will be attractive and we extend a cordial invitation to those who attend the Cooking School to visit us and ask our attendant for information.

You can have a concert of your own with the world's greatest artists to sing for you

That's what you can do with a Victrola in your home. All that is best in music is ever at your instant command. You have only to select the kind of music you wish to hear, and it is rendered for you by the greatest artists—as true-to-life on the Victrola as though you were hearing the artists on the concert or operatic stage.

Stop in and get acquainted with the Victrola. We'll gladly play your favorite music for you.

Victrolas $15 to $250. Victors $10 to $100. Terms to suit your convenience.

FIRST PRIZE IN RAT STORY CONTEST

We believe the wisest rat of all boards at our house. Some folks might think a rat so smart ought to remain to enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, but we are still after this one.

We set out one of the wire basket traps in the back yard near the garage, baiting it with cheese. Next morning when we went to look we found a neat little tunnel, starting in the ground about a foot from the trap and coming up, through the floor of the trap; a hole was gnawed in the floor and the underside of the bait was eaten away. The rat had not only been too wary to try to reach the bait through the door of the trap, but he had, in his mining operations, very accurately gauged the exact place at which to come up, right under the cheese. If rats ever get amused, this one must have been laughing heartily as he crawled back through his tunnel with his stomach full of our cheese. —Mrs. J. C. McNeese, 1413 Elizabeth.

A number of Wichitans have been sending communications to the Rat Editor of The Times. In response to the prize offer in The Times of last Sunday; the first prize award is shown above, and the second and fourth prize stories are published below.

Many thousands of rats have been slain since the extermination campaign began, and while it is difficult to make any accurate estimate, it is thought that the rodent population of the city has been reduced to $5,000.

Danger is Realized. One purpose of the campaign has undoubtedly been achieved: Wichitans no longer consider that mice and rats have to be put up with. It has been the intention in the drive to impress upon all that rats are dangerous, expensive things to have about the place.

and that they can, in time and with the proper means, be gotten rid of. Not only have thousands of rats been killed, but breeding places have been destroyed, many buildings have been rat-proof, and the amount of harm that the rat can work in the future has been greatly reduced.

About 1500 rats were killed by one group of workers on the North Side alone, according to W. G. White, who was in command of the work in that part of the city. Many members of the community entered wholeheartedly into the work of extermination. G. D. Fox of the factory district reports that one boy in that part of the city accounted for 153 rats, and that several thousand more were killed by various groups. The factory district, which was almost overrun with rats a few weeks ago, is said now to be more nearly free of them than any other part of the city.

By using large quantities of poison, many rats were killed around the slough between the railroad tracks and the ball park. Scores of dead rats were found around the slough long after the poison had been put out.

The second and fourth prize winners in the Rat Story contest are shown below. The manuscript of the third prize winner was lost after reaching The Times office, and as it contained the name of the author, that award cannot be announced. If the lady who wrote about the rat that nearly made a wreck of her kitchen and her husband will identify herself, the check for it will be forwarded at once.

Second Prize Story. A colored woman was washing one day recently in the back yard of a Tenth street residence, well down on the way toward town. She first noticed the demure looks of a large gray cat, sitting near a chicken coop in which a solitary chicken was confined. At noon the lady of the house brought the chicken a dinner of scraps, which was no sooner placed in the coop than a large gray rat put in his appearance. Just at once prepared for an offensive, but had no sooner done so until an ominous sound caused her to turn and look behind her. What was her astonishment to find in the way of rat number one, a whole horde of rats, big, little, old and young, 20 or 30 in number, who attacked that dinner of chicken scraps, making it disappear as if by magic, defying chicken, wash-woman and poor Puss, who, in her astonishment sat as if rooted to the spot for one moment, then with wild rush fled, to be seen no more that day. —Mrs. J. W. Akin, 1205 Barnett street.

Fourth Prize Story. On February 22, we declared war on rats. We used several different kinds of weapons, but our "big gun" was Bulger, dog. He wanted the honor of catching them all. In moving a building, we let him have first chance at them and he killed 41, not letting one get away, in about 45 minutes. In three days our casualty list was 238, the dog getting most of them. But the most interesting scene of the campaign was the first rat our four-year old boy killed, the "war-whoop" he gave could have been heard a mile. Our six-year-old girl has 18 to her credit and she is mighty proud of it.

There was one "black sheep" a real coal black. In the bunch and he was some wise rat; he led us a merry chase before he was added to the list. Considering that $5 is saved for every rat killed, our three day's work would be valued at $175 and as we are very much interested in chicken raising, it is worth a great deal more to us; for oh, how rats do love chickens. —S. L. Mansard, Rural Route No. 4.

INCOME TAX COLLECTIONS ARE COMING IN HEAVILY, TIME IS GETTING SHORT

Income tax collections throughout Wichita county, are exceptionally heavy, according to Henry Wampler, deputy collector, who returned late last week from a tour of the towns under his jurisdiction. The local office has been literally swamped with taxpayers seeking aid in the filling out of their returns, and the same has been true in Burkburnett, Electric, Iowa Park and Vernon. A warning is issued to those who have not as yet made the reports for last year that but seven more days are left in which returns can be made without being rendered delinquent.

"What's In a Name?"

Facts About Your Name; Its History; Its Meaning; Whence It Was Derived; Its Significance; Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel.

By MILDRED MARSHALL ZOL.

ONE of the oldest feminine names in the history of etymology is Zoe, signifying "life." It had frequent usage in Biblical records and was a favorite in ancient Greece, but its vogue diminished during the Middle Ages, and it has been revived only comparatively recently. It is regarded as being as old as Eve and is generally translated as "the mother of all living." The Alexandrian Jews first used the name of Zoe when they translated the history of the first woman and gave her the title of Zoe instead of Eve, in order to show the connection of the name with the prophecy. It continued in vogue among the Greeks and came into fashion again in England with the revival of classic names.

Just why it has become a favorite in recent years is impossible to determine, unless its significance and the ancient associations, as well as the shortness and undoubtedly pleasing sound may be taken as sufficient reason.

Jade, the Chinese emblem of life, is a fitting talisman for Zoe. It is believed to bring her health, wealth and happiness. Particularly will it protect her from contagion and death by accident. Tuesday is her lucky day and 3 her lucky number.

KIWANIANS TO HAVE FIRST LUNCHEON AT NOON NEXT THURSDAY

The first luncheon meeting of the newly organized Kiwanis club will be held next Thursday at the William-Mann hotel. It was announced Saturday following a meeting of the temporary board of directors.

The club now has a membership of 76, and additions are being made almost daily. Two representatives of each business and profession are admitted, applications being made upon invitation of the board of directors, and it is expected to build up one of the strongest organizations in the city. Nationally, Kiwanis has 410 clubs and a membership of 42,900. In the last issue of the International Magazine, J. Mercer Barnett, the International president, gives the following summary of Kiwanis principles and beliefs:

"The recognition of the worthiness and dignity of all legitimate occupations as an opportunity to serve society.

"The building of high ethical standards in business and professional life.

"The building of the efficiency of each member by the exchange of business ideas and methods and the dignity of all legitimate occupations as an opportunity to serve society.

"The building of a foundation of friendship on which can be erected a superstructure of usefulness and success.

"Building up the interest of each member in the public welfare and teaching him the need of co-operation in civic development.

"A Kiwanis club is a cross section cut from the business and professional life of a city with reference to religion, politics or creed—to make that city a better place in which to live.

"While a Kiwanis club is a business organization yet there is no obligation either written or implied that Kiwanians shall deal with each other. Any organization which seeks to stimulate legitimate competition is doomed to failure.

"While a Kiwanis club is not devoted to city enterprises, yet it stands ready to assist all movements for the benefit of public welfare.

"No Kiwanis club is a political club, yet it takes pains to inform itself on all parties, personalities and policies affecting the public welfare.

"The Kiwanis club is not a religious club, yet it encourages correct morals and the enforcement of business integrity.

"The Kiwanis motto is 'We build,' and as builders of friendship, business uprightiness, efficiency and civic morality, these clubs have benefitted every city on the continent in which they exist."

Authoritative Modes for Spring

THE first of early spring modes will be seen at the Times' Cooking School and Hose Exhibition in the basement of the First Baptist Church at the opening session Monday at 2 o'clock.

In our booth near the entrance to the auditorium we will display a representative garment from each department of our ready-to-wear stock, to give the ladies who attend the sessions an idea of the best of the prevailing styles and an insight into the very conservative prices we have put upon them.

A Selection From Our MILLINERY DEPARTMENT will also be shown as a sample of the favored shapes, colors and trimmings. The Hats shown will be wholly representative of the assortment in our store and we invite every woman in attendance to call on the attendant for any information she may desire.

Shoes Also Will Be Featured in the Display and the fact that prices on the finest of footwear is far and away below the prices of former seasons, together with the fact that the high standard of excellence has been maintained, should make this feature of the exhibit peculiarly interesting.

Every Buyer in Our Employ Has Searched the Market for Bargains in Quality Merchandise for This Event—High Prices Are Ancient History in This Store

Months ago when the markets were at their lowest we instructed the buyers for every department to assemble the best values in the most desirable merchandise for this event. Many wholesalers and manufacturers were willing to sacrifice merchandise for spot cash and we bought many lines of merchandise much lower than the already lowest prices. We want you to visit the store on the first day of this spring campaign but if impossible to do so you will find that we have replenished stocks that have sold out with other values equally as good. Our buyers spent three weeks in New York working with our New York buyer in buying new Spring stocks. This merchandise is now placed on display and sale and this campaign marks the beginning of this new merchandising event.

KUPPENHEIMER SUITS ARE BETTER

We have been asked numbers of times what is the comparative price of Kuppenheimer clothing with last season. The price range for these best suits last season was from $60.00 to $110.00. The price range this season is from $45.00 to $75.00, making a difference of from $25.00 to $35.00 lower price this season.

There is economy in buying Kuppenheimer suits as they wear longer and look better all the time they are being worn. A man will discard a suit on account of its appearance before it is worn out. Kuppenheimer suits look good and hold their shape until they are worn out. Prices range on Kuppenheimer suits from $40.00 to $70.00.

Styleplus suits are sold exclusively in this store and they are the best popular priced suits. Styleplus suits this season range in price from $36.00 to $50.00.

Spring Frocks Refreshingly Individual

After Winter the crispness of a new taffeta frock, the soft, rippling folds of a Canton crepe, or the verve of a Slavic embroidered cloth model, inspire feminine interest in frocks in general. Styles are widely divergent, varying from the Spanish silhouette of snug bodice and voluminous skirts to the graceful slim lines of long waisted moyen age styles. The Directoire influence is being felt also. There is great use of gray, Copenhagen, red and rust tones on navy and the effect in both embroidery and appliques is strikingly effective. Prices range on Betty Wales and other recognized standard lines of dresses is from $25.00 to $125.00

Introducing the Latest in Spring Suits

This year that great American institution—the Spring Suit—bobs up in many interesting guises. Exposition week discloses trim tailored styles, so well suited for general purposes; bloused models, Estons, Directoire adaptations, the longer box coats and mandarin coats, are but a few of the distinctive modes featured. Pique twill, twill cord, piquette and tricotine in navy, beige and gray are favored shades chosen for this most important member of the Spring wardrobe. Embroidery, braiding and buttons are prominent in the field of trimmings.

Palmer and other of America's best suit makers have contributed their best styles to our showing of Spring Suits for the season of 1921. The prices are very reasonable this season. Suits are from $25.00 to $125.00

AZOTOS TEMPLE OF DOKEYS WILL VISIT ELECTRA MARCH 12

WILL CONFER THE WORK ON A LARGE CLASS OF CANDIDATES.

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE PROVIDED

City Will Be Gaily Decorated And Nothing Will Be Omitted To Add To Enjoyment.

By H. A. STROUD. ELECTRA, TEXAS, March 5.—ELECTRA is planning for the biggest event in the history of the city, for March 12, when the Azotos temple of the Dokeys will be here from Fort Worth to confer the work on one of the biggest classes in the history of the state.

The citizens of the town are joining forces with the Dokey club to provide for the entertainment of the visitors and the chamber of commerce will furnish automobiles for the trip through the oil fields in the forenoon of the day. The city will be decked in holiday garb with thousands of pennants and streamers bedecking the buildings and the day will be devoted to entertaining the visitors and staging the ceremonial.

One hundred and fifty candidates are expected to trod the hot sands with Khorassan's desert band, which will be one of the largest ever initiated into the order in this state. Over one hundred visitors are expected to accompany the Azotos' team out of Fort Worth in the special Pullmans that have been reserved. West Texas towns for miles around have been in correspondence with the local club and all are planning to have a big representation at the meet.

Electra is planning to make a lasting reputation as entertainers. No visiting Dokey or Tyro will be permitted to turn loose any of his hard earned kais within our city for meals, beds, cold drinks or cigars. It's all on Electra.

Committees have been working for weeks on the program, banquet, parade and ceremonial, and every detail will be attended to before the date to insure the day's success. A Pathé camera man will be here to get moving pictures of the parade which will be hung on weekly news reels and shown all over the United States.

ELECTRA PLANNING FOR DEVELOPMENT OF FARMS

ELECTRA, TEXAS, March 5.—Farmers and business men held a luncheon here to lay out plans for more up to date farming facilities in Wichita county. Long staple cotton, boys' pig clubs and a county farm demonstrator were the subjects discussed.

Letters from A. and M. were read showing the advantages of growing long staple cotton and pointing out the fact that by growing the short staple our farmers are forced to compete with India farmers, where labor conditions are such as to give that country a great advantage. The long staple cotton, it is learned, commands from three to six cents a pound better than the short staple and is produced with the same expense. Committees were appointed to organize pig clubs among the boys in the rural section and local bankers have agreed to finance the purchase of brood sows and allow the boys to pay for them out of the profits derived from the hog. Committees were also appointed to circulate petitions to be presented to the county commissioners requesting the appointment of a county farm demonstrator.

SALT WATER SAID TO BE GIVING SOME TROUBLE IN FIELD

REACHES ALARMING STAGE AND CAUSES OPERATORS MUCH CONCERN.

RAILROAD COMMISSION MAN ON THE GROUND

Believe System Has Been Devised To Restore Rock Pressure Above Normal.

By HARRY A. STROUD. ELECTRA, TEXAS, March 5.—Infiltration of salt water into the gas sands in the Texhoma district is causing the operators great concern and has reached an alarming stage. The influx of water has been great enough to cause several of the wells to fail in production and one or two have gone dead entirely. Representatives of the Texas railroad commission have been on the ground for several weeks and reports indicate that a system has been devised to combat the salt water as a result of a number of experiments.

It is found that when salt water breaks into a gas well and rises toward the top it forms a hydrostatic pressure which holds back the flow of gas and reduces the rock pressure. In order to get rid of the water it is found necessary to reset the casing and recement the seat. Often the intrusion of water is not due to faulty conditions of the well itself, but to neighboring wells in which the casing has not been set properly or where the seat has given away.

New Experiment.

A new experiment has been introduced in the Texhoma field by the railroad commission which has been successful in restoring the rock pressure in a number of the wells and greatly increasing the flow of others. This is known as the syphon system and works similar to the well known syphon with which water is removed from a barrel, the only difference being that the rock pressure furnishes the motive power in this instance in the place of gravity. The work is accomplished by lowering a three-quarter inch galvanized pipe into the well. The top of the casing is made tight around the pipe to create a vacuum and the pipe is then gradually lowered into the fluid. It is found that the gas soon forces the water up the small pipe and reduces its volume and in this manner removes the hydrostatic pressure. The gas then rises around the pipe and is carried into the lines, while the water continues to make its escape through the smaller opening.

The result of this experiment shows it to be one of the most practical schemes introduced in a number of years. By its use Camp No. 2, which had gone dead, was reclaimed and its production restored. It was also used on Odell No. 1, which had failed a few days ago and as soon as the syphon was installed was brought back shortly to its former production.

The old method of working off the salt water was with tubing and sucker rods which created a substantial overhead expense and failed to produce near the results found in the syphon system.

Attempts have also been made to blow the salt water out of the wells but this has been discouraged by the railroad commission on the grounds that the suction causes a wear on the casing seat that will ultimately result in giving way and the loss of the well.

SQUIRE ARRINGTON ASKS HIS FRIENDS TO SUPPORT HODGINS IN CITY CONTEST

In a formal statement to the press, announcing his withdrawal from the race for alderman, C. J. Arrington, former justice of the peace, urges his friends to support George Hodgins for the position. Mr. Arrington's statement follows:

"I desire to state to the press and to my friends and supporters my reason for withdrawing from the race for commissioner of police and take this opportunity to express my appreciation for work and encouragement of my friends during my candidacy. I entered this race upon the solicitation of friends and citizens of Wichita Falls, and made publicly through the press my platform and politics that would govern me in the duties of police commissioner. I wish to reiterate that I believe that the citizens of Wichita Falls, who are legal and qualified voters of this county and city and who pay taxes here should receive first consideration in all appointive offices in the police department. I also believe that Wichita Falls should have as much consideration in these matters as Fort Worth, Waco and other Texas cities.

"Mr. George Hodgins, who has entered the race after I announced my intentions of making the race, stands for the platform and politics announced by me and in order that we may unite all friends of Wichita Falls, and those who desire that Wichita Falls have fair play in home positions, I in withdrawing from this race, urge all my friends to support Mr. Hodgins as the true representative of this city and one who will give Wichita Falls equal consideration in all matters connected with his department."

Elzie Lee Broncushio will teach expression in her home at 1311 Park street, Phone 2351. 295-210

Liberal Awards To Be Made To Best Decorated Machines—Line Of March Agreed Upon.

A telegram sent by the chamber of commerce to the Bridgeport, Conn., winter quarters of the Barnum & Bailey circus asking the press agent of that world-famous organization to write some copy descriptive of the coming spring style show and street lighting celebration to be held in Wichita Falls March 11th brought a hurried and emphatic refusal by wire Saturday morning.

"I can't do it," the press agent telegraphed. "I have never attempted to describe matters of more than national prominence, and I am convinced Wichita Falls will have a parade that will displace one of the seven wonders of the world, and the most glittering and glorious spectacles in the history of the universe. P. T. Barnum has been dead a long time, and no man save Barnum ever possessed sufficient imagination to do descriptive justice to your celebration."

Well, perhaps the circus p. a. is right. It deserves, therefore, upon the publicity manager of the chamber of commerce and C. C. Randle, chairman of the parade committee, to attempt a picture of what is to be.

According to present plans, the parade will form somewhere in the neighborhood of Fort Worth on the evening of March 11, and the last car in the parade will pass the judges' stand in Wichita Falls some time during the afternoon of March 13. The auto dealers of this city have mailed letters to every car owner in Wichita Falls urging each man and woman to enter a car, and 2,400 similar letters have been sent to the members of the chamber of commerce. The response already has been generous, but the chairman declares he won't be happy until he is assured that every automobile owned in Wichita Falls is entered.

"Society is coming in on masses (French)," he stated Saturday, "and will be dolled up in all those pretty fixings that make a man hunt for an accompanist and start singing that old song, 'Another Good Man's Done Gone Wrong'."

"Don't miss being in the parade. Decorate the good old bus, and get ready for a good time. If you don't feel like doling up your gasoline buggy fill it full of beautiful ladies and horn right into the parade anyway."

With cash prizes ranging from 100 berries down to 10 smacks for the best decorated pleasure cars and commercial automobiles, interest in the parade is running high. There will be more than a little laughter, and a glorious opportunity for the merry wags on the sidelines to poke fun at their friends and their friends' cars, inasmuch as all the city cars will be formed in the parade according to the makes. It is expected that Henry Ford's section of the parade will use up a couple of hours in filing past the judges' stand.

Please keep your car carefully locked between now and March 11, as the president of the Wichita County Automobile Thieves Association, Inc., is in a bitter mood now that the so-called Austin have barred auto thieves from the privileges of the suspended sentence law. President Tough Guys declared Saturday his intention of getting even: "Me and my gang," he said, "will get away with half the cars in Wichita Falls between now and March 11th. We'll show youse birds that youse can't use the legislature to wreck a good live business."

J. A. Kemp, N. H. Martin and C. W. Reid will be the judges of the best decorated cars. They were named particularly because of their youthfulness and courage—as the judges will be old and feeble by the time the last car has passed the stand in a parade that will include all the cars in the city formed in the following order: Pierce Arrow, Locomobile, Packard, McFarland, Winton, Marmon, Premier, Lincoln, Apperson, Cadillac, Cole, Peerless, Haynes, Franklin, King, Eight, Jordan, Case, Hudson, Stephens, Willis, Knight, Sayer, Chandler, Buick, Paige, Chalmers, Studebaker, Columbia, Nash, Hupmobile, Essex, Cleveland, Vaux, Oldsmobile, Oakland, Dodge, Gardner, Maxwell, Overland, Chevrolet—and the greatest, most glorious, glittering galaxy of Fords ever seen since Henry first borrowed the money from that Chicago attorney to start in business manufacturing 'em.

"Get in," says C. C. Randle, "and help make the line of your make of automobile the longest and the best looking."

The parade will form on Scott avenue south of Tenth street; will proceed via Tenth to Ohio, thence north to Seventh, on Seventh to Indiana, Indiana to Tenth, Tenth to Scott, along Scott to Seventh and there at the automobile show the parade will disband, most of the car owners heading directly for the ball game. The judges' stand will be at Eighth and Scott—and for Pete's sake don't have engine trouble in front of the stand!

A couple of train loads of city officials will head the monster parade. The committee may even permit the candidates for the city council at the April elections to ride—you can't tell what that committee will do. Then there'll be the entire fire department, a blaze of red and a roar of siren whistles. Likewise Old Man Gloom, laid away in a hearse and cue for burial at Eighth and Scott at 7:30 p. m., will be in the parade, and a big band, an 80 car load of Texas League and American Association ball players, and cars belonging to civic organizations, and commercial cars and trucks, and out-of-town cars—and 'erything.

All you need is a car and a sense of civic pride, and knowledge of the fact that C. C. Randle's telephone number is 6285. Call up C. C. the first thing Monday morning, and let him know you'll be in the biggest parade ever planned in this section of West Texas.

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends indigestion, gases, Sourness, Acidity

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you must injure it with drastic drugs.

When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gases, acids or raise sour, undigested food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache from acidity, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin and the stomach distress is gone.

Millions of people know the magic of Pape's Diapepsin as an antacid. They know that indigestion and disordered stomach are so needless. The relief comes quickly, no disappointment, and they cost so little too.—Adv.

NOBLE WELL SHOWS A QUANTITY OF GAS

Occasion For Recent Rumor That Willbarger County Test Had Been Brought In.

VERNON, TEXAS, March 5.—Good gas showings at the Noble well on the Judd farm near Vernon have been responsible of late for the rumors about town concerning the "coming in," according to one of the officials of the company. Only about 25 feet additional past the 2,500 foot mark have been drilled since the company again commenced active operations. The bit is now in lime. Water in the hole was shut off Thursday morning for the first time since last July. The latter has been in use of late and it is reported that a lighted match held above the receptacle when it is brought to the surface will cause a slight explosion. There has been considerable oil on the water in the slush pits, also. The Pyramid well is still an uncertain quantity. Officials say they are plugging up part of the hole, and will drill out again at an angle from the pipe. Severe water difficulties have been encountered and rumors have been spread that the well has been ruined. This is denied at the local office. B. Churchill, north of town, has suspended operations due to machinery trouble. More finances are also being raised by the company officials.

L. CREESEY INJURED IN A SMASH-UP SATURDAY; COLLIDES WITH AUTO

A traffic accident in which L. Creesy was painfully injured took place at 1:30 Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Tenth and Burnett streets. Creesy, who was mounted on a motorcycle, was driving west on Tenth and ran into an inbound automobile. According to stories told Motorcycle Officer Newton, neither Creesy nor the driver of the car were seriously injured in the smashup. The police were unable to learn the name of the cyclist. The injured man sustained a wrenched knee and minor bruises about the limbs. He was taken to the Wichita General hospital in an ambulance and given medical attention. His machine was badly smashed up, but no damage, according to reports, was sustained by the automobile.

ARGENTINA IS PLEASED WITH VETO OF TARIFF

BUENOS AIRES, March 5.—Reports that the Fordney emergency tariff bill had been vetoed by President Wilson were received with relief by newspapers and importers here. It was said that this veto signified a continuance of the growing business relations between Argentina and the United States, which would have been seriously embarrassed by the Fordney measure.

CLASS NEW CABINET DECIDEDLY STRONGER THAN ANY OF OTHERS

SUCH IS OPINION OF UNPREJUDICED PERSONS, SAYS MARK SULLIVAN.

CAN ONLY BE APPRAISED
BY MAKING COMPARISONS

Greatest Criticism Is Being Directed at Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty.

By MARK SULLIVAN
(National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post)
(Copyright 1921 by the New York Evening Post)

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The only practical standard by which to appraise Mr. Harding's cabinet is that of previous cabinets. Most of the public comment ignores the fact that the cabinet of the present is based on a comparison of a vague picture of an ideal cabinet, which arose loosely out of Mr. Harding's use of the phrase "the best minds of the country."

It was not merely, nor even primarily, of his cabinet that Mr. Harding used this phrase. In fact, he meant it more broadly to express the idea that he would follow the practice of going outside his official and personal relations. That as respects everything that may come up from time to time, he will, in an unofficial and informal way, supplement the advice of his official family by consultation with "the best minds of the country."

Also, much of the comment on the new cabinet is prejudiced by the fact that it comes from persons who had set their hearts on the inclusion of two men—General Wood and Elihu Root—who were omitted. Another considerable number had set their minds against one man who was taken in—Harry Daugherty. A judgment which makes too much of the omission or inclusion of certain individuals is obviously not well founded. The fact is that several unprejudiced persons who have a careful comparison of Mr. Harding's cabinet, man for man, with every other cabinet within the present generation, have come to the judgment that Mr. Harding's cabinet is, on the whole, decidedly stronger than any of the others.

position on the league of nations, on this point alone unbiased persons must prefer Hughes for the precise reason that his mind is more open and not antagonistic to any one section of feeling. And there are other reasons why Hughes need not fear comparison with Knox.

Comparison with Root, however, is a different matter. Those who continue to wish that Root had been the choice have at least reasonable ground for their position. While the superiority of Root's experience is undeniable, it is also true that the number who regard his superiority as "the only test" is comparatively small. Hughes as a man who has been a candidate for president, who has campaigned the country for himself and others, and has been a member of the most exalted group of men in our national government, the Supreme Court, carries to thousands of persons to whom he is better known than Root the conviction of high character and very great ability.

People Know Hughes.
I suspect it may be just this greater quantity of public knowledge of Hughes, the wider geographic distribution of those who had seen him, or knew of him and had confidence in him, that helped cause Mr. Harding's preference for Hughes. The smaller world that knows something about our foreign relations preferred Root because of his experience, but is equally ready to concede that Hughes' equipment, omitting experience to be quickly acquired, is adequate.

In a popular sense as well as in the sense of careful judgment, the inclusion of Hoover carries an amount of favorable conviction quite as great as, or even greater than, Hughes'. It will be hard to make the public believe that a cabinet which includes Hoover is ever on the side of anything that idealists regard as indefensible. Moreover, Hays has a prevailing sympathy with that portion of the republic-post of secretary of commerce has anything even faintly approaching either the ability or the public confidence that Hoover has.

Weeks, as secretary of war, carries as much conviction as or more than any other man who has filled that post as far back as the time when Elihu Root held it. In his home state of Massachusetts Weeks obviously has aroused an amount of disapproval sufficient to retire him from the senate. In Washington, however, Weeks stands high for ability and diligence. In his committee work in the house and senate he acquired complete mastery of three important branches of the government business—the post office, banking and currency, and military affairs. He has an accurate mind and he has a quality which, while not spectacular, will carry a man a long way—the quality of industry, the will to work.

Identity Is Complete.
While Weeks' identity with the standpoint of the republican party is complete, it is also a fact that he is progressive in a cautious way. He gave some aid and comfort to Senator Kenyon in the latter's advocacy of the bill to regulate the packers, and throughout the recent cabinet discussions was one who steadily advocated the inclusion of Hoover.

Will Hays has been commonly described as a political appointment. But so also was Burleson. And, before Burleson, Hitecock. That the public should regard Hays' selection as merely political is easily explained. The only knowledge the public has had of Hays has been as a party official. Those who follow these things closely, however, know that Hays has unremitting industry and genius for organization. It is a fair prediction that Hays' administration of the post office department will be memorable for efficiency. Moreover, Hays has a prevailing sympathy with that portion of the republic-tion party that leans toward idealism and progressive measures.

Denby is a man of the highest character, in his home community he has that completely favorable opinion that can come only from unqualified high character. He has an imagination, which, while not bold, will be both distinguishable and adequate in his new duties. It is said by those who know best that the thing the navy now needs most is that good feeling among officers and men which is called morale. For several reasons Denby is as good as could possibly have been chosen for the particular purpose of supplying morale. The fact that at nearly fifty years of age he joined the marine corps as a private helps in this regard. The mere fact of Denby's appointment creates generous confidence and good will throughout the department.

Daugherty Most Criticized.
The new attorney general is, of course, the man against whom most public criticism has been directed. Of the men who have been attorney general during the past quarter of a century, five have been promoted to the supreme court. Not even Daugherty's friends will contend that such a promotion would be justified by his position as a lawyer. But it is also to be said that a president who went to such lengths in resisting opposition as Mr. Harding had to in appointing Hughes and Hoover is entitled to lenient judgment for including one man on a personal basis. Furthermore, the useful thing now is to admit a statute of limitations as to Daugherty's political past and judge him wholly by his future performance.

One other appointment which, in some circles has been received with doubt is that of Fall to the interior department. The secretary of the interior is the custodian and trustee of vast amounts of public property against which assaults are constantly being made by private interests seeking advantage. Many feel that in this conflict Fall will not stand as uniformly implacable against private interests as had been demanded in recent years by the friends of what has come to be known as conservation.

God Help the Indian.
It can hardly be hoped that Fall will take as high a position on conservation as has been endorsed by public opinion upon the interior department secretaries of recent administrations. One angle of the criticism of Fall expresses itself more crudely and literally than is really intended by the phrase, "God help the poor Indian." And one humanitarian agency charged with the protection of the Indian rights has gone formally on record in protest against Fall's selection.

Few will deny in the matter of professional experience that Mellon is more highly equipped for secretary of the treasury than Houston Glass, or McAdoo of Mr. Wilson's administration, or McVeh of Taft's or Cortelyou of Roosevelt's or Leslie M. Shaw, also of Roosevelt's cabinet. Criticism directed against Mellon has not dealt with his experience or with his professional equipment otherwise. It has dealt rather with his long identity with big corporations. It expresses the sus-icion that in any conflict of interest between organized business and the public Mellon by reason of his long association may lean toward the latter.

Whether that suspicion is well grounded can only be judged by performance. Meantime the one safe assurance we have is that work of the United States is going to be directed by a very great business man. That this is a public need is apparent now, and will be even more apparent in a few weeks, when the income tax returns will be in, and we shall all know what the best informed now expect, namely, that the government this year is likely to have considerable less than enough money to pay its bills.

The City National Bank of Commerce plays and has played an important part in the development of the Wichita Falls district. By its large resources, complete equipment and facilities and efficient, experienced organization, it helps to keep the wheels of industry turning.

The classes should have 100 per cent present and be on time—try it. Visitors and strangers will find a hearty welcome at all the services. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. T. S. PITTINGER, Pastor.

First Christian Church. Tenth and Travel street. Bible school, 9:30 a. m. Morning worship with sermon, 10:30 a. m. Young People's Christian Endeavor, 6:15 p. m. Evening worship with sermon, 7:30 p. m. Special music will be featured at both morning and evening preaching services. Sunday morning Mrs. W. L. Parker will sing "Send Out Their Light" (by Gousoud), also chorus singing. The chorus choir will sing "The King of Love My Shepherd" at the evening services. Rev. J. Lem Keenill will preach a special sermon on "The Witness of the Spirit, or Heartfelt Religion." All visitors of the city cordially invited to attend. Everybody invited. Come.

Seventh Day Adventists. Meet at Floral Heights Presbyterian church, Kemp boulevard and Avenue G. Bible study on Saturday at 2 p. m. topic, "Christ Our Savior." Preaching at 2 o'clock, subject, "Upholding the Principles of Religious Liberty." Preaching on Sunday night at 7:30, subject, "The Millennium: Its Events and Their Order." All are cordially invited. GEORGE W. SPIES, Pastor.

Cumberbund Presbyterians. Floral Heights Presbyterian church, Kemp boulevard and Avenue G. Preaching at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Subject, "Christ Our Righteousness." International Bible Students. International Bible Students Association will meet at Labor temple, 702 Travis, room 19, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock for Sunday school, 10 a. m. to study "The second atonement—day sacrifice—the Lord's gift." Again at 2 p. m. to study "Who only hath immortality." From 6:15-8. All are welcome to study with us. Please bring your Bibles.

Lamar Avenue Baptist Church. Corner of Lamar and Fourth. Mr. George J. Mason, who is general missionary of this district, will be with us Sunday and will speak both at the morning and evening services. Brother Mason is a layman. He has a message that is worth hearing. Come and hear him. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Sunbeams at 2 p. m. Senior B. Y. P. U. at 8:15 p. m. A. J. HOLT, Pastor.

Christian Science Society. Jewish synagogue, corner Burnett and Eleventh streets. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Lesson sermon, 11 a. m. Subject, "Man." Testimonial meeting, 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend these services. Pupils up to the age of 20 years are welcome to the Sunday school.

First Baptist Church. Sunday School 10 a. m. We have a very interesting subject for study: "Jesus Among His Friends." Time Tuesday of crucifixion week. Place: Jerusalem. Bethany. Mount of Olives. The heart of the lesson: (1) The best was contrasted. The King was the Father's attitude toward Jesus. "Theointment" expressed the attitude of Mary to the Bethany home. (2) The best was prepared. Mary's perfume was worth a laborer's wages for nearly a year. It was the most valuable thing in the house, and was secured on purpose. (3) The best was prepared. Nothing else would satisfy Mary.

Would anything else satisfy Christ? (4) The best was prepared. Let the task be broken, the precious ointment be poured over the head, and the room filled with the odor. (5) The best was prepared. How Judas wished he could handle the funds that flask would bring. Greed and envy are yet in the earth. (6) The best was prepared. Hear the bitter words roll off the tongue of the cynic. Judas cared not for wounding Mary, disturbing the company, or detracting from Christ. (7) The best was prepared. When Jesus speaks for us, we are hardly sorry that Judas spoke against us. (8) The best was prepared. Jesus knows what it costs us to give Him our best. (9) The best was prepared. Sometimes our good is evil-spoken of, as Mary learned. But how her good work glows under the interpretation of Jesus. (10) The best was prepared. The memorial of Mary goes along with the gospel in its world-girdling work. Thus shines a good deed in a darkened world. The officers, teachers and pupils of the junior and intermediate departments are expected to be in their class rooms promptly at 9:45 for a fire drill before the opening of the Sunday school. Our building is practically fireproof, but there is a possibility of danger in case of fire, and it is against the possibility we want to prepare for, by having every officer, teacher and pupil know just what to do in case of fire. This is an exceedingly important matter and I hope every parent will co-operate and have their children here for this 15-minute fire drill. W. C. Ashford, Gen. Supt. Junior Dept. Subject: "The Secret of the Lord." Evening service at 7:30. Subject: "The Man Someone Has Stepped On." We will have special music at both of these services. Mr. R. Vaughn will sing at the morning hour, and Mrs. H. M. Young at the evening hour. You are cordially invited to come worship with us. Sunday school at the Walnut Street mission, 3:30 o'clock. Judge E. M. Harber superintendent. If you live in the vicinity of this school we will cordially welcome you or anyone else to join us.

Central Presbyterian Church. Eleventh and Bluff. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. We have an organized school with a class for all ages. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Subject of the morning sermon: "A Man to Keep; in the evening we will present a series of introductions to Jesus, the Christ of the Gospels. Junior Endeavor will meet at 2 p. m. and Senior Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Be our guest at any of these services, or make this your church home. GUY DAVIS, Pastor.

Floral Heights Baptist Church. Corner Tenth street and Kemp boulevard. Preaching by the pastor at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Chas. H. Snoot, Supt. Sunbeams 4:00 p. m. If you are not participating elsewhere, come and be with us at any and all of these services. J. W. LOVING, Pastor.

Floral Heights B. Y. P. U. Corner Tenth street and Kemp boulevard. Regular meeting at the church at 6:30 p. m. Subject for March 6: "Does God Want My Life for Special Service." Leader, Miss Jean Stangel. We will enjoy your being with us in our service.

One of the most distressing and common of complaints at this season of the year is "cold." Cold is usually due to the closing of the pores of the skin by chilling, cutting off the processes of elimination. "Cold" then being an auto-intoxication should be treated by a remedy that stimulates the secretions and opens the system. Get on any shiping, elsewhere, come and get a box of Wilford's "Red-Heads" and take one or two tonight; tomorrow you will feel different.—adv.

APPLIANCES THAT MAKE YOUR BODY EFFICIENT

The truss, the health belt and the shoulder brace are designed, each for a separate purpose, but all are meant to add to the bodily efficiency of those who need them. The discomfort of wearing them—and you get used to it surprisingly soon—isn't nearly as great as the discomfort of doing without them if you really need them.

Not merely because our stock is large and of the very best manufacture, but because of the fitting service we give, insuring maximum service and comfort, we invite you to come and have your need supplied.

Floral Heights Epworth League. The Epworth League of the Floral Heights Methodist church meets at the tabernacle, Tenth and Denver, at 6:30 Sunday evening. A good program is to be rendered and you are cordially invited to attend. There are good musical numbers on the program and some splendid short talks.

First Presbyterian Church. The spirit of worship demands an atmosphere of reverence, rest and quiet. You will find it at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Vaile will sing a solo in the morning and the choir will sing an anthem at night. The subject of the morning sermon will be: "Blue Laws." At night: "How to Grow Tall." An opportunity for church membership will be given at the morning hour. N. F. GRAPTON, Pastor.

Church of the Good Shepherd. (Episcopal). Holy communion, 8 a. m. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Splendid classes for young and old. Mr. Carter McGregor will greet you with his genial smile and find the right place for you. Litany and Holy Communion, 11:30. Bishop H. T. Moore will be present.

Accessory Dealers.

The following accessory dealers will have exhibits on the first floor, positions for which have not yet been drawn:

1. Automotive Accessory Company
2. Wichita Falls Battery Company.
3. H. H. Gilman Company.
4. Auto Tire Company of West Texas.
5. Anderson & Huzan
6. Southern Tire & Vulcanizing Company.
7. Exide Battery Company.
8. Hill Auto Tire Company.
9. C. Randall Company.
10. Sanders Haird.

With but four days remaining in which to complete all arrangements, Wichita Falls auto and accessory dealers are planning to work over time in order to assure the city of the biggest and best automobile show that it is possible to present.

That the show is to be a success from start to finish was evidenced Friday night in a meeting of the Automotive Dealers Association, at which time detailed plans were discussed and specific announcements made of what might be expected. The report of the show committee plainly proved that no time and work was being spared in efforts to provide an auto display which will in every respect up to the high standards which the public could wish.

In calling attention of the association to the plans as now formulated by the committee, chairman W. J. Daugherty outlined briefly the method of decorating that is to be used. A contract has been closed with the Buchanan Floral company whereby the second and third floors of the Thom building, Seventh and Scott, are to be lavishly draped with southern holly, palms, ferns, American flags, and other articles which will combine in a pleasing and artistic display. Pillars, seats and walls are to be festooned by the floral company, while the decoration of individual booths, what little there will be, is left in the hands of the dealer themselves.

Uniform Color Scheme.

A uniform color scheme will be carried out in the floral decorations and also in the advertising by the individual firms whose exhibits are on display. Place cards, bearing the name of the auto-dealer and the machines which he handles are being printed in accordance with strict rules laid down by the committee, and nothing will be left undone that will tend to enhance the general attractiveness of the various displays.

All machines, three cars may be entered by each dealer, are to be in place not later than 8 o'clock Thursday evening, and the committee has decreed that no automobiles or displays of any kind are to be removed before 8 o'clock the following Sunday morning. Exhibitors have also been enjoined to disconnect all auto horns and other appliances which would make a racket, and no motors are to be operated at any time during the show.

There is a possibility, according to Chairman Daugherty, that a spring style show will be given in the very midst of the auto exhibits, for the proprietor of a local ladies shop is angling for the privilege of presenting living models, garbed in the latest costume, at various intervals throughout the two evenings and the committee has intimated that this feature will be added.

Music to Be Furnished.

Music in some form will be furnished at all hours while the cars are on display.

But while the show itself will of course be the most important feature in automotive circles it will by no means be the only one. Great preparations are being made by the committee in charge of the afternoon street parade, and it is their opinion that this event will be one of the most talked of parts of the whole business. Just how many machines will be in line for the grand procession is not known, but each dealer in the city is being urged to have as many of his machines in line as it is possible to secure, and from advance reports, this number will not be composed of the smallest digits in the mathematical alphabet.

Letters have been sent out by the chamber of commerce in which local citizens are urged to participate in so far as it is possible, and similar notes sent to surrounding communities are expected to bring a large number of visitors from suburban fields. A prize of $100 in good hard cash will be given the out of town visitor who displays the most tastefully decorated machine, while prizes of $50, $25, $15 and $10 will go to the winners of first, second, third and fourth places among local residents. The territory to be covered by the parade will include all the principal business sections.

A special meeting of the Auto Dealers Association will be held Wednesday evening in order that any details which

PRESIDENT HARDING AND PRINCE OF WALES BUY WILLYS-KNIGHT

Observant citizens of Wichita Falls who have noticed a chronic swelling just below the "pully-horns" of W. J. Daugherty of the Overland Motors Co. will be delighted to learn that it is self-inflicted, wholly harmless and that aside from giving him more of the stuff euphemistically called "pep" will have no effect whatever.

"Things are coming our way, that's all," said Daugherty. "I guess that when the president of these United States and H. R. H. the Prince of Wales find the Willys-Knight about the right thing I ought to be pleased. I've been telling these folks all along about the W-K, and selling 'em right along and it's quite satisfying to know that Warren G. approves."

President Harding rides to his work in a Willys-Knight sedan, according to photographs recently appearing in the Eastern press, and while on his recent visit to the United States the Prince of Wales fell for the lure of this popular American car and had one shipped to that dear H'England.

WITH THE AUTO DEALERS

J. R. Kirk, salesman for the Nolen-Stringer Co., local distributors of the Lincoln and Haynes cars, is now making his headquarters at Graham where he already has a number of likely prospects.

The Gaines Motor company are making efforts to get a Gardner roadster up to Wichita Falls from Dallas in order to have it ready for exhibition at the show. No roadsters of this type have ever been seen in this city, and according to Ed Gaines no one knows what a real car is like until they see his pet.

Sales of a Haynes touring car was reported by the Nolen-Stringer company during the past week. Business prospects continue to be encouraging, according to officials of the company.

Packard business was lively during the past week, according to the Williams-Thompson concern, local agents for this famous make. Three new machines, all single seats, were sold to local purchasers.

The sale of a Hudson machine to Jeff Ward was the only startling piece of news emanating from the Lloyd Weaver camp recently.

D. H. Rubsam, manager of the Marshall Huff Motor company is going to display a ninety horse-power McFarland sedan at the auto festivities next Friday and Saturday. Incidentally he will have about as varied an exhibit as any of the local dealers. A Jordan Playboy and an Oakland Sensible Six touring car will also adorn the Huff booths.

There is a very heavy demand for good used cars, according to the officials of the Deane Motor company, dealers in second hand machines, Fords especially being sought. Mr. Deane has some exceptional values at his shop and last week reported the sale of a Dodge, Ford and Apperson.

Two Studebakers were delivered last week by the Excelsior Motor Co., 282-14ceto local purchasers.

GOOD AUTO SALES YEAR NOW ASSURED FOR 1921

Expert Makes Survey and Predicts One of Most Successful Years in History

By H. E. LESAN, in "Pep."

A coast-to-coast survey of the automobile situation made recently disclosed a frank recognition in all quarters that the automobile business is fundamentally sound. The automobile has become a transportation necessity and its position in the country's economics is beyond question. An interesting feature of the survey is the fact that many sections reported a more favorable attitude on the part of the banks toward the automobile business.

Good Year Ahead.

That the industry has a good year ahead of it is firmly believed—a conviction based upon this investigation, recently completed in fifty of the leading automobile selling centers throughout the United States and Canada, and strengthened by the interest manifested by the public at the recent automobile show in New York.

There is only one condition attached to this forecast. The day of the seller's market has passed for good. The function of the automobile salesman is no longer to explain that the car you crave cannot be delivered in less than four months. He has to wake himself up all over and employ every last ounce of energy and ability he has to sell cars, and he will need all the support he can get from his company's advertising.

Dealers Should Advertise.

The 1921 selling season is upon us. Quick and effective advertising campaigns are necessary to crystallize the present automobile market and enable the individual dealer to get his share of the sales.

The wise automobile dealer is going to look to the future with confidence and is going to advertise consistently and insistently. And he is going to make a personal, honest-to-gosh solicitation of every prospect in his territory. Those who work during 1921 will reap rewards. The fellows who sleep will wake up and find their more active competitors in charge of the business the sleepers should have had.

Champion Aviator Now Selling Cars, Abandons Flying

Yielding to the persuasions of his mother, Roland Rohlf, world-famous aviator, who not long ago climbed to the altitude of 14,119 feet at Garden City—thus setting a new world's record—has given up flying for good and has embarked in the less romantic but safer pursuit of selling automobiles. Rohlf, who is now a member of the sales force of the Ostendorf Motor Car Corporation of Buffalo, N. Y., distributors of the Franklin car, has spent the past ten years in the flying game.

The decision to renounce flying means that Rohlf has abandoned his remarkable plan of scaling Mount Everest in the Himalayas. Rohlf's imaginative scheme was to fly over the world's highest mountain and to bring his plane to a standstill in the air by regulating his speed to that of the tremendous winds which blow atop the gigantic peak. He asserts that by heading into the wind at precisely the same speed at which the wind is blowing, an airplane can be held over a specific spot. Rohlf devised the startling plan of dropping a man onto the crest of Mount Everest by a rope ladder. A flag then would be planted, the plane would etchle about and moving pictures would be taken to offer proof to the world.

"I didn't expect to do this daring stunt," said Rohlf. "I merely devised the plan for it. Of course, if somebody comes along with a million dollars and wants it done, why I might be persuaded to undertake it. I think it is the only way Mount Everest ever will be scaled."

Rohlf is the son of Anna Katherine Green, famous writer of mystery stories.

ESSEX BREAKS ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS

Makes Trip From New York To Frisco In Four Days, 14 Hours And 43 Minutes.

There is an interesting comparison to be drawn between the Essex record-making transcontinental trip from New York to San Francisco and the pre-war service recently restored by several railroads running through trains between Chicago and the Pacific coast.

The Essex made the journey of 2,347 miles from New York City to the Golden Gate in just 4 days, 14 hours and 43 minutes, carrying United States mail across America for the first time by motor car. Four Essex cars made the trip, two each way, and all broke all previous records. Every car finished with no changes except minor adjustments that would naturally occur to any car on such a long trip. Stops at points where drivers were changed were made just long enough to take on the necessary gas and oil. In all probably, 25 different drivers took the wheel on the trip.

But if a passenger train starts from New York on the fastest present day passenger train, by the time his train reaches Chicago he will have been pulled by seven different locomotives and as many different engine crews. Then when he boards his Pacific train at Chicago, a fresh engine and crew will start the journey, and by the time his train rolls into its western terminal 14 more engines will have taken over the train, each one fresh and groomed for its short portion of the trip. In all, a total of 21 engines will have hauled him from coast to coast.

Unlike the airplane, with its uncrowded atmospheric roadbed, or the locomotive with its miles of shiny track well laid and ballasted, the Essex traversed every type of road, climbed mountain ranges, and crossed wide deserts and passed through countless numbers of large and small towns. Every second a different condition faced the drivers—weather, roads, traffic, all had to be considered by the man at the wheel.

And Now Anybody Believing It May Subscribe for Times

E. V. Leslie, manager of the Auto Tire Co., doesn't claim to be a direct descendant of Little Gen. W.'s hatchet, but he does claim that Anania is in no danger of having his reputation smothered.

During the last few days of the open season on quail Mr. Leslie and four friends went hunting. Leslie came back to the city that faith built and declared in open meeting that he and his party had officiated at the demise of no less than one hundred and ninety-four birds, each and every one of them shot on the wing. Strange to say, nobody believed him, although his previous record was that not even his hair would lie. To prove his claim Leslie showed the doubters the very gun with which he killed the birds, and even called in the dogs as evidence. He went further and pointed out on the map the exact spot where the execution took place, and then he simply tried to forget it, but his friends wouldn't let him. And now, in self defense, he asks the Times to give space to a detailed account of the carnage and back up his assertions.

NEW PACKARD TRIUMPH IN ECONOMY, DECLARES A LOCAL DISTRIBUTOR

Three of the new 1921 model single six Packards which were received by the Williams-Thompson Motor Co., local distributor, last week were sold to local citizens Thursday, and throughout the week the company's salesrooms were crowded with visitors, according to Mr. Thompson of the company.

"The single six has a number of improvements over former Packard models," said Mr. Thompson. "Its controls, steering gear and power transmission are so easily and smoothly operated as to give added pleasure to driving. Engine vibration has been reduced to the vanishing point.

"In every particular the utmost pains have been taken to make a car that will require the fewest possible repairs and adjustments. In addition, the parts are so designed and arranged that if trouble does arise every working part can be reached with the greatest ease, and without disturbing other assemblies. The car is also a triumph in economy, with an average gasoline consumption of one gallon to seventeen miles, the ability to run 2,400 miles on a single gallon of oil, and a tire mileage running from fifteen to twenty-five thousand miles."

The safest way to thaw out a frozen carburetor is to use a hot iron.

The crank shaft develops just twice the speed of the cam shaft.

In going down a hill, utilize your motor as a brake by retarding the spark and closing the throttle.

Don't allow your car to stand at night without a light on the left side.

A clogged muffler will generally cause a loss of power and should be taken apart and cleaned when in this condition.

Dirt and lack of lubrication in front-end gears are largely responsible for rapid wear and noisy operation.

Oil on the surface of a cone clutch will cause slipping and loss of driving power.

A little care taken in folding the top when putting it down not only lengthens the life of the top, but keeps it in better condition.

Tires should always be stored in a place where there is no light and the temperature at about 50 degrees.

The cylinders, because of the great heat generated in the combustion chambers, are the parts of a motor most difficult to oil.

An application of butter or oleomargarine will soften tar stains on the body of a car and allow removal without injury to the varnish.

A nickel's worth of camphor, a nickel's worth of turpentine and a piece of paraffine about as big as a marble all mixed up in a bottle, will, if applied to a rag and lightly rubbed over the windshield, keep the glass clear in even the mist or a driving rain.

Squeaking in a wire wheel is generally caused by looseness in the fitting of the wheel over its false hub.

If it is necessary to add water to your battery in the winter, always charge the battery immediately by running the car. If this is not done, the water, which is lighter than the battery acid, will remain on the top and freeze.

The coating of the wires at and around the terminals with cup grease will effectively protect the copper from the acid fumes which cause corrosion.

An excellent tool for cleaning carbon out of piston grooves may be made by grinding down a piece of broken piston ring to the proper size so that it has a cutting edge, such as a chisel has. This tool fits exactly in the groove and cleans it out perfectly.

Excessive sparking at the brushes of a lighting or starting dynamo may arise from a variety of causes. Before giving up hope of effecting a cure it is well to try a set of graphite brushes, which, because of their self-lubricating qualities and the fact that the lubricant itself is a conductor, effect a more perfect commutation.

STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX RECENTLY BREAKS RECORD FOR SPEED ON COAST

In two sensational dashes a Studebaker Light-Six recently broke all records for speed between San Francisco and Los Angeles, setting a new mark for the round trip, lowering the coast route record by 3 hours, 12 minutes, 39 seconds, beating the best time ever made over the valley route and leaving "The Lark," most famous of the fast coast express trains, 3 hours, 47 minutes and 39 seconds in the rear.

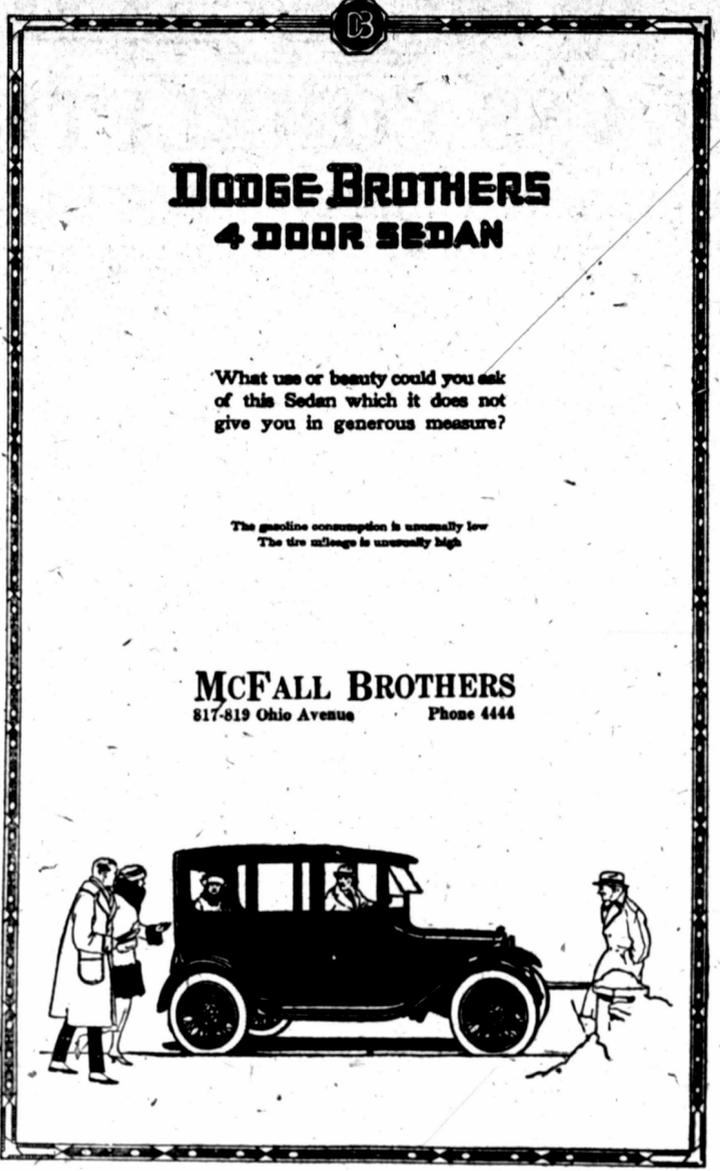

On the first trip the driver, Hart L. Weaver who, by the way, is a very close friend of F. D. Keim, local Studebaker distributor, and James C. Gurley, carried U. TELLS OF EXTREME CARE IN DESIGNING CADILLACS

"The dependability that is built into the Cadillac does not get there by chance; it is drafted into the design of the car," said R. H. Ambel, chief engineer of the Cadillac Motor Car Company.

"Conferences among the engineers, designers and draftsmen have been continuous over a long period of years. It begins anew each morning with the one unchanging thought of bringing the car to a higher degree of dependability.

"There is not so much as a nut or a bolt in its construction that has not passed under rigid scrutiny times without number.

"Every Cadillac which leaves production is like every other in the application of these principles excepting that the process of improvement is continuous.

"A new principle of construction or a new style of design must have more than mere novelty to recommend it before it is adopted by Cadillac. No feature is ever introduced into the car merely because it is an innovation. Freshness is taboo.

"Each new improvement must first pass through the most exhaustive trials in our experimental research laboratories and is then submitted to the most severe tests over thousands of miles in our experimental cars with a view of determining whether it will add to Cadillac dependability.

"Dependability, first, last and all the time is the slogan of the engineering department, as well as of all other departments of the Cadillac Motor Car Company."

New Plant Where Dodges Are Made One of Wonders

Huge New Power Plant Built by Dodge Brothers in Five Example Of Engineering Skill.

The man who goes shivering to his cellar morning after morning to "dig on a few shovels of coal and shake the grate" will look with envious eyes on the immense new power plant now being completed by Dodge Brothers, Detroit motor car manufacturers. Tons and tons of coal will be consumed there beneath eight huge boilers, but not one shovel will be in sight. It is to be a "shovel-less" plant from beginning to end. No coal will be shoveled in and no ashes will be shoveled out. Everything is to be automatic. A car dumps its fuel cargo into a hopper and passes on. Soon another car comes and receives a load of ashes—and no human hand will have touched the coal in the entire process of transformation.

There are other equally remarkable features of this up-to-date plant which make a strong appeal to any one interested in seeing how manufacturers today are solving problems which would have been put aside as impossible less than a generation ago.

The power plant is designed for an installed capacity of 46,000 K. W. and it requires approximately 25,000 gallons of water a minute for each 16,000 K. W. unit. There is no natural water supply within miles of the factory. To take water from the city mains and then waste it after passing once through the condenser, would be out of the question. Not only would the cost be prohibitive—it would be about 70 cents a thousand cubic feet or $50 an hour—but the drain of the city's supply would be far too heavy. In other instances where similar problems presented themselves the solution has been found in a cooling pond, a large reservoir where the water was stored and used over and over again. In this case, however, so large a quantity was not available. Not only are property prices extremely high, but there was danger that the spray rising from such a pond would damage newly manufactured cars and parts. So this plan also was abandoned.

From this problem of condensation of problems grew the plans for what has now become the largest cooling tower in the world—a structure 145 feet long, 32 feet wide and 104 feet high. It is capable of cooling 14,000 gallons of water a minute from a temperature of 105 to 85 degrees when the outside temperature is 75 degrees and the relative humidity is 85 per cent. With other atmospheric conditions, the water will be cooled to within 25 degrees of the existing dew point with a minimum temperature of 45 degrees. This tower effectively disposes of the problem which confronted Dodge Brothers construction engineers. It makes possible the repeated use of the same supply of water, with a loss of only 5 per cent due to evaporation. The tower is of the most substantial type, capable of withstanding a wind pressure of 80 miles an hour.

Four immense smoke stacks each 270 feet high and 13 feet in diameter, are being erected. They will be among the largest in the country. Although the power house was not started until May 18, 1920, it is now practically ready for operation. The first fire was started February 1. Many of the factory executives were present to observe the ceremonies. Built at a cost of $1,500,000, the power plant is significant in the connection to observe that the entire plant was built by Dodge Brothers construction department. With this plant in operation, the factory is safeguarded against any future emergencies such as the breakdown of the central power plant, on which many of Detroit's largest industries are dependent.

NEW SERVICE WRINKLE FOR AUTOMOBILE OWNERS OF CITY FAITH BUILT

A new wrinkle in automobile service has been installed by the Overland Motors Co. local Willys-Knight and Overland distributors. It has been named the "Keep-Going Plan" and entails the supplying of a car to the owner while his own car is in the company's service station for repairs.

"We have given the matter a great deal of thought," said W. J. Dougherty, of the Overland Motors Co., "and our experience so far has been that it is a service that is greatly appreciated by the owners of Wichita Falls. The average man is lost without his car, and under the old method we were often forced to rush through repair jobs for customers when much better work could have been done if we had had a bit more time at our disposal. While the cost to us is somewhat greater, at the same time we believe it will meet a long-felt need of the motorist. If it does that we are more than satisfied."

ESSEX

It Now Holds This Price Advantage

Essex quality quite naturally creates an expectancy of high price. Compared on every hand to costly cars it would be strange if many did not fall into that error.

Thus actual price comparisons give Essex true value in sharp relief.

How many of the cars in the Essex price range do you ever embrace in the same thought with it in regard to fineness, ability and distinction?

And do not the cars that you consider in the Essex quality class invariably cost hundreds of dollars more?

In reaching a standard by which to understand Essex values you must consider such price contrasts, as well as facts bearing on ability and dependence. Such examination will convince you also of the unusual value the Essex represents.

UP-TO-MINUTE NEWS OF AUTOMOBILE PROGRESS

(Compiled The Southern Motor Manufacturing Association, Ltd.)

Motor driven, a new farm implement first takes the hay together and then elevates it high enough for stacking.

A resident of Zion City, Ill., was placed in jail on a charge of violating the anti-Sunday labor regulations of that place, when he attempted to fix his automobile on the Sabbath. He was discharged Monday morning after a severe lecture.

To give increased and better service to owners of automobiles without additional cost to the latter, the New Orleans Automobile Dealers association has opened a clearing house for car mechanics, repair men and chauffeurs. All workmen are registered and their records for at least two years previous investigated.

A company has been formed in Australia to manufacture the motor fuel known as naltite. From this plant and trees have been found that yield 73 gallons of alcohol per ton.

Two inventors of Sistrerville, West Va., have perfected a transmission system for motors, which is said to be especially well adapted for automobiles. It is claimed the new invention will enable the gearing automatically to pick up a load on the drive shaft, and that it will tend to prevent slipping of the gearing by virtue of the wedge action set up.

FEW PRISONERS ARE OF IRISH REPUBLICAN PARTY

DUBLIN.—(By mail).—Of the 1,000 prisoners confined in internment camps in Ireland, the vast majority, according to spokesmen of the Sinn Fein, are non-combatants, many middle aged and some quite elderly. Few, it is asserted, are the much-couraged members of the Irish republican army.

The prisoners include men in every walk of life, only a limited number of whom, it is said, took an active part in the republican government. Among them are many whose principal offense, it is stated, was the interest they displayed in the Gaelic league, an organization which for many years has sought to revive the Irish language.

A statement regarding the death of the two Irish prisoners, Joseph Torney and Patrick Smeets, at Ballykinlar camp, County Down, recently has been given out by the Sinn Fein publicity bureau here. It says that the official report that the two men were shot for disobeying the orders of a sentry was incorrect; that the sentry fired without provocation while the men were standing in the line and that by official notification to the prisoners, was not out of bounds.

FACTS ABOUT COTTON.

Production of cotton in Russia is confined almost exclusively to the Asiatic provinces of Turkestan and Transcaspia.

Since the outbreak of the great war in 1914, production of cotton in Russia has averaged about 750,000 bales annually.

World carry-over at July 31, 1920 of cotton grown outside of the United States was 2,100,000 bales greater than it was at the end of the previous year.

World carry-over at July 31, 1920, of cotton grown outside of the United States, according to Heister, was 6,054,000 bales.

During the year 1919 the proportion of the world's mill supply of cotton contributed by each country was as follows: United States, 54.7 per cent; British India, 22.4 per cent; Egypt, 5.9 per cent; China, 5.7 per cent; Brazil, 2.5 per cent; Russia, 2.5 per cent; all other, 4.3 per cent.

World production of cotton destined for factory consumption in 1919 is indicated by U. S. census figures to have been 12,240,000 bales, not including 182,000 bales of linters in the United States.

World production for factory consumption in 1919 was 1,100,000 bales greater than the amount consumed.

World consumption of American cotton is running 25 per cent below what it did last year, but the estimated production, government figures, is 1,448,000 bales greater.

There is now enough cotton in the world, unspun, to last nearly two years.

Cotton is produced extensively in many sections of China. Most of it is spun by hand in the homes of the people. In reliable estimates place the quantity of Chinese cotton from the crop of 1919, which reached commercial channels, at 1,100,000 bales.

During the years 1892 and 1893 total production in the United States averaged less than 375,000 bales of cotton annually. The world managed to get along.

First cotton seed were planted in Virginia at Jamestown in 1607. Cotton was introduced into all the southern colonies by the first settlers.

The Spanish invader in 1519 found cotton clothing in common use in Mexico, and Cortes received gifts of fine cotton fabrics from the hand of the great Montezuma.

Statements to the effect that Egyptian mummies were wrapped in cotton have, been disproved.

In the first chapter of Esther, definite reference is made to the use of cotton "hanging" at the feast which King Ahasuerus gave, about 419 B. C.

World carry-over of American cotton at July 31, 1920, U. S. census figures on the domestic supply and chartered cargoes on stocks held abroad was 4,145,000 bales.

DISILLUSIONED MEXICAN LABORERS RETURNING TO MEXICO IN LARGE NUMBERS

EL PASO, TEXAS, March 5.—Disillusionment of their dreams of high wages and immediate wealth in the United States, Mexican laborers are pouring back into Mexico, more than 100 a day passing through the port of Juarez alone.

This exodus of labor back into the country has created such a national problem that the Mexican government has instructed immigration officers along the border to furnish them free transportation to their homes in the different parts of the republic.

The returned workmen present a sorry spectacle at the office of Antonio Corona, Mexican immigration chief, where they stand in line for hours waiting for their transportation orders.

The majority are in rags and without money. Many have traveled for days without any food, except a piece of dry bread, sleeping as best they could in the day coaches of the trains.

Their homes are in every part of the republic, some as far south as Manzanillo, Colima. Most of the men are in the poor class and are miserably poor.

Women and children have followed the men to the United States, hoping to build homes in the promising border of the north, but on the failure of their husbands and fathers to find work, or on being thrown out of the job after it had been found, these hopes fell and they started south.

Having sold their homes and belongings in order to get the necessary money to make the trip to the United States, many of the poor face a desperate situation on their return. With their goods and huts in other hands, and a surplus of labor throughout the republic, many fear absolute starvation.

The government is trying to solve the unemployment question by engaging in an extensive building program. Juarez has a problem in taking care of the laborers while they are in the city. According to A. Larra, secretary of the city council, the city is feeding more than 400 of them a day at the civic hospital and housing a limited number at night.

The remainder sleep at the city hall, in the plaza and in the quarters formerly occupied by the federal troops. It takes some days to arrange for their transportation back home and having no money, they have to live on the generosity of the city.

Juarez also has a second group of unwelcome guests, coming up from the interior with the expectation of finding work in the border towns or in the United States. As soon as they arrive in the city they find that no jobs are available and are usually stranded until the government sends them home.

Other towns in Mexico, especially border cities, are faced with similar problems. Mayor Francisco G. Rogriguez of Juarez has recently addressed an appeal to the mayors of the Mexican cities, asking them to warn their people against coming north and expecting to find work.

SACK OF ROLLING STOCK HITS SOUTHEAST EUROPE

LONDON, March 5.—Lack of locomotives and freight cars to transport food and other supplies is one of the worst features of the distressing situation which prevails in Eastern and Southern Europe, says M. Motovec, the Czechoslovak minister for foreign trade, who has been visiting in London.

The minister said that there were tens of thousands of freight cars in those parts of Europe which were in need of repairs but could not be restored to use because of lack of necessary material and technical experts to do the work.

He asserted that the peace treaty had laid down the proposition that the reparations commission would distribute all railway rolling stock and locomotives which had belonged to Austria-Hungary and those which were surrendered by Germany, but that virtually nothing had been done in this direction, although more than three years had elapsed since the treaty. M. Motovec declared that this was the cause of non-development of trade and the consequent food prices in Central Europe.
