U. S. FILES BRIEF IN RIVER CASE

45,000 EMPLOYEES OF PACKERS WILL STRIKE MONDAY

INDEPENDENT CRUDE DEALERS CHARGED WITH PRICE FIXING

CHARGE CONTAINED IN REPORT ON CONDITIONS IN CALIFORNIA.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OFFICE KEPT IN TOUCH

Age That Sales Managers and Local Representatives Frequently Confered.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Members of the Independent Petroleum Marketers association were charged by the federal trade commission today with having agreed among themselves to maintain the prices and selling practices established in the state of California by the Standard Oil company of California.

The charges of the commission were contained in its report to the senate on price and competitive conditions in the California oil industry.

The commission in its letter of submission declared that Los Angeles officials of the Standard Oil company were notified "promptly" by a member of the Marketers' association of understandings and agreements relative to price maintenance within that association, thereby placing the Standard in a better position to know when a new price advance would be followed.

The commission also stated that records since 1911 disclosed that the Standard's prices in California have been followed generally by all members of the Marketers' association. It declared that the association had prepared a list of peddlers and other retailers who refused to sell at the agreed prices and held the distributors responsible for seeing that this class of trade would not receive supplies unless the retailers maintained the "list prices."

Since the fall of 1915, the commission continued, "certain sales managers and local representatives of large marketing companies, particularly of the Standard Oil company and the Union Oil company, frequently conferred an usually arrived at a standard price for the differentials in the prices to be charged individual customers and the various classes of purchasers."

President of the Standard and the Associated Oil company deny that these practices were either consented to or approved by the officials of their respective companies.

SENATE LOOMS BIG IN BACK GROUND AT ARMS CONFERENCE

CONSTANT THREAT OF IT HOVERING OVER SCENE, SAYS COLONEL HOUSE.

MEMORY OF THE PAST IS INFLUENCING THE PRESENT

Situation Recalls The Statement of Senator Penrose Last Winter.

By COL. EDWARD M. HOUSE. (Copyright, 1921 by Public Ledger Company)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 2.—Last winter Senator Penrose with blunt directness said that it did not much matter who became secretary of state for the senate would direct the foreign policies of the United States.

Whether this was a prophetic forecast or a warning is debatable, after the disarmament conference has finished its labors. Meanwhile, the consideration being given the senate impression the observer can make of the outstanding features of the conference. No one can remain in Washington for any length of time without being conscious that in the minds of both the foreign and American delegates the senate looms large in the background and there is a constant threat of its hovering over the scene.

This feeling is not caused by any action which the senate has taken, or by anything which recently has been said by any of the members other than Mr. Borah, but it is the memory of what that body has done in the past that is having its influence today.

What the president and the American delegates would like to do, and what they actually will try to do are two different things. No one knows the temper of the senate better than the president. He has been interested to see how a former senator will act after assuming the duties of the executive.

The treaty-making powers of the president are so wide that it is difficult for him always to keep in mind the limitations set by the legislature. He has the right to make any kind of treaty, and in any way that seems to him best.

The situation is changed in the case of the senate's right to reject his work after it is presented to the senators for their consideration. It is an agreement which the executive may send to them and unanimously pass it in the senate.

The executive can pigeon-hole the document and not enforce it. But the fact that the senate has the prerogative to accept or reject the executive's action is a constant reminder to the president to keep in mind the circumstances of the situation.

It is not always with the president in a controversy with the senate. In 1919, for instance, our public relations were in a state of confusion. Mr. Hopkins, state attorney general, today filed a complaint in the Kansas court of industrial relations against the packers and unions and asked the industrial court to take immediate action in an effort to prevent members of the meat cutters' union from striking in America from joining the strike ordered for next Monday.

PROTEST RATE ON GRAIN AND ON GRAIN PRODUCTS, HAVE FILED EXCEPTIONS

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—The proposed raising of rates on grain and grain products from Oklahoma, Texas and other states to a level comparable to rates between Texas points is the basis of exceptions and briefs filed with the interstate commerce commission today by the transportation department of the Texas grain dealers' association.

The exceptions and brief cover 19 printed pages and are concurred in by the Texas Grain Dealers' association, the Fort Worth freight bureau and the west Texas chamber of commerce.

The exception is taken to proposed finding by the examiner who heard the case that there is a substantial production of wheat throughout all of north central Texas where the haul to flour mills is very short. The case was brought by the corporation commission of Oklahoma and the Texas chamber of commerce intervened at the hearing which was held in Oklahoma City last April.

The complainants will have an opportunity to reply to the exceptions taken by the Texas organization to the proposed report, which the commission will issue a final decision in the case.

Threaten Death to Fatty and Attorney If He Is Acquitted

VIENNA PRESENTS APPEARANCE OF CITY STRUCK BY TORNADO

HOTELS, RESTAURANTS AND SHOPS WRECKED; STREETS FULL OF DEBRIS.

MANY AMERICANS ARE ATTACKED BY RIOTERS

Large Number Injured By Mobs In Their Orgy Of Plunder And Destruction.

By Associated Press

VIENNA, Dec. 2.—The inner city of Vienna looked as though it had been struck by a tornado as the result of yesterday's widespread rioting, the worst since the downfall of the monarchy. All the leading hotels and restaurants and many of the shops dealing in luxuries were wrecked and the streets are cluttered with debris.

No deaths have been reported, but a police official said that many had been injured by the mobs in their orgies of plunder and destruction. The police stood idly by while the mobs wreaked their will, some even expressing sympathy with the rioters.

The trouble started in a demonstration before the parliament building by strikers from Floridsdorf, a suburb. They sent to Chancellor Schober demands for abolition of the stock exchange, confiscation of foreign securities and more effective food control. His answer was regarded as unsatisfactory and the rioting began shortly afterwards spreading to all parts of the inner city.

The empty stock exchange was stormed, the "bolsheviks" partially demolished and beaten, and well-dressed pedestrians in the shopping streets were attacked and robbed of their money. Many Americans were among those attacked.

AMERICANS ATTACKED AND RECEIVE ROUGH TREATMENT

VIENNA, Dec. 2.—In the widespread rioting which took place in Vienna yesterday many Americans staying at the hotels were attacked and some of them were subjected to rough treatment.

Mrs. Hand, the wife of a colonel of the United States army, and her children were attacked while they were in the street. Mrs. Hand, who was wearing a fur coat and carrying a bag, was hit on the head by a stone and her bag was torn.

Inquiries at the hotels disclosed that many guests were robbed of their money and jewelry. In some instances the jewelry being torn from the ears.

"We are tired of shooting and being shot. These people are hungry and desperate; so are many of us," said a police official.

The disturbances were the most serious since the downfall of the monarchy. They spread throughout the inner city and practically every street was filled with debris.

All the famous restaurants and hotels frequented by foreign visitors were entered, looted and partly wrecked, and the luxury shops were looted. The disturbances were described as purely economic, due to the growing scarcity and cost of necessities of life.

Vienna is now a woeful sight. All the cafes are closed and the streets are in darkness.

CONTENTS THAT TITLE TO BED DID NOT PASS TO OKLAHOMA WHEN ADMITTED AS A STATE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The government filed today in the supreme court its brief in the boundary dispute between Oklahoma and Texas.

The brief does not discuss the location of the boundary line on the south bank of the Red river as fixed by the treaty with Spain, but deals with the question of title to the river bed, claiming for the Indians part of the land in dispute and the remainder for itself.

The government contends that Red river for many years prior to the admission of Oklahoma was not navigable, and that the title to the river bed is not affected by them.

The application of local laws to the issues is discussed at length, the government asserting that the title to the river bed is not affected by them.

Riparian rights do not attach to the property on the south bank of the river, the government insists, and on the north shore it attaches only to the "middle of the main channel" which it contends is marked by the medial line located by Livingston in 1819 and which it asks the court to make the boundary of such proper.

The government states that the 430,000 acres of pasture lands reserved to the Indians are not under state control, but remained the tribal lands until allotted to individual Indians or sold to purchasers, that the south boundary of the Red river was along "mid-channel" where riparian rights of the owners ended; that the government reserves and now holds the Red river between mid-stream and the south shore; that lands of Pearson and others had no riparian rights in the Indians' pasture lands described in the patent granted to them; that the operation of the mineral laws was entirely excluded from Oklahoma except as to two tracts to which they were expressly extended, neither including land in the south half of the river, and that the government does not apply to Oklahoma lands.

PREACHER OPPOSES MODERN 'HIFALUTIN' SINGING CAMPAIGNS

Lattimore in a plea for aid for the University Baptist church in Austin, told he felt the church was more than $15,000 in debt and offered a resolution that a special collection be taken up in every Baptist church in Texas the first Sunday in January to help wipe out this debt. Judge Lattimore said that there were more than 100 young men in the University Baptist faith attending the university and that the need of the church was evident. He pointed out that the Catholic, Presbyterian and Methodist had churches right at the university to take care of the spiritual needs of the students of those denominations.

REPARATIONS AND WAR DEBTS TOPICS FOR NEW PARLEYS

VAST ECONOMIC PROBLEMS MUST BE SETTLED, SAYS SULLIVAN.

WORK NECESSARY BEFORE THE WORLD CAN SURVIVE

England and France Called On To Fix German Obligations At Reasonable Figures.

By MARK SULLIVAN

National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times. (Copyright 1921 by New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—When people speak of a conference to take up "economic matters," they have in mind three things: German reparations, the international debts and the stability of exchange. These three are intimately related, but from the point of view of America they are separated and distinguished by different degrees of responsibility on our part.

The magnitude of persons have wanted the present conference to consider these economic subjects. Some of the advocates are foreign statesmen, some are American business men, some are economic theorists, and some are idealists. The motives vary from the purest sort of altruism to the purest sort of avarice. All these appeals have been firmly resisted by the men who are dominant in the conference, and will continue to be resisted. But that sooner or later a new conference must and will take up these economic subjects there can be little doubt.

The world cannot get on the track and under way again until these subjects are disposed of. Europe is the chief sufferer from failure to take action, but America is so deeply involved that our interest in settling the question of reparations way cannot be doubted. The most competent judges believe it to be as sure as the rising of the sun that America will not prosper until reparations are settled, international debts put on a permanent basis, and exchange stabilized. They say that the present economic crisis in America is due chiefly to the lowering interest rates and that the lowering interest rates are a sign, not of business prosperity, but rather of business stagnation. These judges say that business in America, especially as respects the export of farm products, cannot go forward in any effective way until these economic matters are cleared up.

From the point of view of the United States, the largest problem is in what degree we should take the initiative. Europe would very much like to see us take the initiative. They want us to take the initiative because they think that we, as the richest nation in the world, should bear the larger part of the cost of the cure. From their point of view this is true enough; but it is also a fact that the original economic sin was committed not by the United States but by France and Great Britain and chiefly by Great Britain.

Reparations at Impossible Figure. The original trouble began with the fixing of the German reparations at a sum which such conditions as are impossible for Germany to live up to. The British and French statesmen who did this knew at the time that they were placing an impossible burden on Germany, and that some time or other the thing would have to be revised. Some of the British public men who participated have admitted this publicly. The motive on the part of the British was political. Lloyd George and his lieutenants held an election in December, 1921. In the election they promised the British public that Germany should be made to pay the entire cost of the war, including pensions and separation allowances they knew at the time that there was not enough wealth in Germany to pay this much. But they made the promise in order to win the election. When the post-conference came, they camouflaged the discrepancy between their promise and the possibility of fulfillment by leaving the amount of the reparations indeterminate.

In a business sense this is the open wound of the economic world. Until it is cured, business cannot revive. Germany cannot be saved from chaos and bankruptcy. France

WARN NEGROES TO LEAVE OKLAHOMA

Notes Are Slipped Under The Doors of Cabins, It is Reported.

VERNON, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—Mild excitement prevails in Oklahoma, eight miles east of Vernon on the Wichita Falls highway, since several negro families in that community received mysterious warnings to wind up their affairs and "clear out." The message, written in long hand, were slipped under the doors of the cabins when the inmates refused to come outside at the command of the liding bearers who came in three or four cars. No signatures were appended to the commands which stated that those to whom they were delivered had lived a long time in the vicinity without having been molested, and the time had come when it was necessary for them to wind up their affairs and depart. One notice was mailed to the negro church which stands about one-half mile west of Oklahoma.

It is reported that several negro families have left the neighborhood, and others are preparing to do. Citizens of the community have been aroused by the warnings, and a mass meeting was held last night to consider means of apprehending those who are responsible for the notices. A resolution, stating that the citizens will protect all law-abiding negroes in the community, was passed at the meeting.

Officers are at work in an attempt to identify the authors of the messages. They are said to be in possession of some clearcut evidence. Spanks 'Em in Court

JUDGE E. A. PORTERFIELD, KANSAS CITY, Dec. 2.—"Share the rod and spoil the child. That isn't original, but it's true." That's how Judge E. A. Porterfield explains the "public execution" that took place in his court when he spanked four boys for truancy. Spanking is forbidden in Kansas City schools. And the boys' parents wouldn't spank them for "playing hooky."

So they were haled into Judge Porterfield's court, sending them to a reform farm was the only light punishment open to him. At the threat of that the boys smiled, anticipating a long vacation. So the judge took off one of his oxfords and applied it deftly to each boy. "Now are you going to school?" he asked. "We are," the four chorused. And they did.

Light Shower of Rain is Reported at Haskell

HASKELL, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—A light shower, the first since the first days of September, fell here Thursday morning, settling the dust and clearing up the atmosphere. The rain was followed with a brisk west wind.

The country is badly in need of rains to save the wheat crop and provide stock water as many pastures are now idle from the fact that there is no stock water and therefore owners cannot use the much needed range.

Light Shower of Rain is Reported at Haskell

HASKELL, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—A light shower, the first since the first days of September, fell here Thursday morning, settling the dust and clearing up the atmosphere. The rain was followed with a brisk west wind.

The country is badly in need of rains to save the wheat crop and provide stock water as many pastures are now idle from the fact that there is no stock water and therefore owners cannot use the much needed range.

Spanks 'Em in Court

JUDGE E. A. PORTERFIELD, KANSAS CITY, Dec. 2.—"Share the rod and spoil the child. That isn't original, but it's true." That's how Judge E. A. Porterfield explains the "public execution" that took place in his court when he spanked four boys for truancy. Spanking is forbidden in Kansas City schools. And the boys' parents wouldn't spank them for "playing hooky."

So they were haled into Judge Porterfield's court, sending them to a reform farm was the only light punishment open to him. At the threat of that the boys smiled, anticipating a long vacation. So the judge took off one of his oxfords and applied it deftly to each boy. "Now are you going to school?" he asked. "We are," the four chorused. And they did.

MEANS OF CONTROLLING PINK BOLL WORMS BEING CONSIDERED AT DALLAS

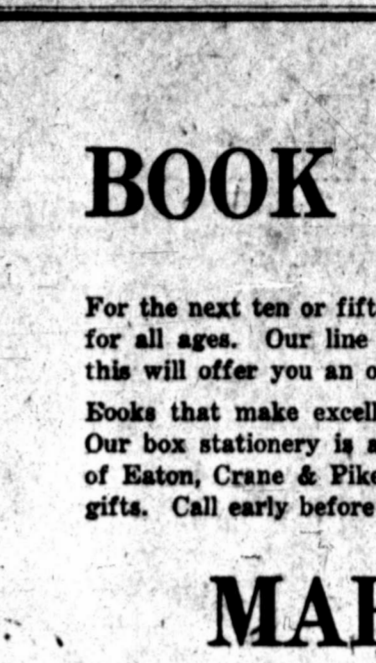

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—Means of controlling the pink boll worm in Mexico, Louisiana and especially in Texas was considered at a conference here today under the chairmanship of Dr. Charles L. Mariast of the federal horticultural board at Washington. The Texas department of agriculture and various organizations interested in the cotton industry were represented.

"Without the treacherous help of cathartics"

A simple food which gradually replaces laxatives

HE who can control chronic constipation without the treacherous help of cathartics makes a 'booster' of his patient."

This quotation from a doctor's essay on constipation carries a message of great significance to thousands of men and women.

It is now recognized that cathartics never remove the causes of constipation. Indeed, one physician states that the indiscriminate use of cathartics is probably one of the most frequent causes of constipation.

For many years there has been pressing need for some simple food that would help restore normal conditions. And now scientists have discovered it in the familiar little cake of Fleischmann's Yeast.

First came the startling discovery that Fleischmann's Yeast in itself is a wonderful food, rich in the mysterious water-soluble vitamin. Then it was found that Fleischmann's Yeast builds up the body tissues, keeps the body resistant to disease.

In addition, because of its freshness (you get it fresh daily) Fleischmann's Yeast helps the intestines in their elimination of waste matter. Fleischmann's Yeast was tested for this purpose in leading medical institutions. Chronic cases of constipation, some even of years' duration, responded.

Fleischmann's Yeast is by its very nature better suited to the stomach and intestines than the ordinary laxatives, and being a food it cannot form a habit.

Get 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast a day. Have it on the table at home and on your desk at the office. Eat it plain, spread on bread, or dissolved in milk or fruit juice. You will like its fresh, distinctive flavor and the clean wholesome taste it leaves in your mouth. It is contained just like any other food. Only one precaution: If troubled with gas, dissolve yeast first in boiling water. This does not affect the efficacy of the yeast. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast and get it fresh daily.

Send 4 cents in stamps for the interesting booklet, "The New Importance of Yeast in Diet." Address: THE FLEISCHMANN COMPANY, 701 Washington St., New York, N. Y.

The need for scientifically tested yeast

Fresh yeast has been proved by recent scientific tests to be a valuable food for correcting nervous conditions, constipation, indigestion and certain skin disorders. These original tests were all made with Fleischmann's Yeast. Several of our yeast-vitamin preparations that contain drugs or other mixtures. Fleischmann's Yeast (Fresh) is a pure food, rich in vitamins, in which it measures up to the high standards set by scientists and hospitals. The familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label is the only form in which Fleischmann's Yeast for Health is sold.

If you can sew, or paint, or string beads; if you can embroider, or dress a doll; if you can stencil, or make a lampshade, or use hammer and saw; if you can make a pie or bake a cake—then the December Home Journal will help you to a joyous and inexpensive Christmas. Listen to a few of the gift-filled titles:

- Nineteen Christmas Gifts from Paris
- Gifts to Please a Harmless Vanity
- Easy to Make and Nice to Have
- Homemade Christmas Cards
- The New Girdle Makes a Smart Gift
- Dainty Gifts for her Own Room
- Christmas Bags for Work and Play
- Made-at-home Dolls and Other Things for the Christmas Stocking
- Gifts to Gladden the Housewife's Heart
- As Practical as They are Pretty
- Gifts of Things to Wear—for the children

There are 101 suggestions—and every present can be made at home. Make your own Christmas cards from the designs on page 58.

Ye Greate Astonishments, by Eleanor Hollowell Abbott, is the best Christmas story I have ever read.

*Blaise Pascal, Curator,
Editor of The Ladies' Home Journal*

It is a novelette—the story of a want-ad guest and the quest for a Christmas crinkle.

"Christmas Light," by Ethel Calvert Phillips, is a beautiful story of the first miracle as it was performed by the Baby Jesus in the manger.

And "There was a Boy who Lived on Pudding Lane," by Sarah Addington, is the true account—if only you believe it—of the life and ways of Santa, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Claus. Grown-ups and youngsters will love this biography.

Also Zane Grey's serial, "The Call of the Cañon," stories by Albert Payson Terhune and Herbert Quick, and three beautiful Christmas pictures in full color.

On page 118 there are the jolliest Christmas cakes you ever saw—gingerbread postcards, snowballs, a jack-in-the-box, funny Noah's ark animals, and Santa himself with his reindeer on a glassy lake.

Did you ever think of giving little pies? Then page 124 will suggest something new to you.

Everybody wants lots and lots of candy for Christmas—to eat and to give away. The recipes on page 127 are unusual because they make really enough.

And nuts prepared as described on page 121 will give variety to the holiday table.

The women's club or ladies' aid society that wants to raise money for Christmas charities will find a splendid bazaar in Claire Wallis' "Brite and Fair," and the money may be happily spent as described by Edith Barnard Delano's "Christmas in our Town."

FIRST CHURCH WESLEY GIRLS PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR DECEMBER 20

CLASS PLANS INTERESTING DEBATE FOR SUNDAY LESSON

Members of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church will discuss a very interesting question at their Sunday morning meeting this coming Sunday. The question is: "Resolved: That it requires greater faith, moral strength and will power to surmount adversities than it does to overcome the temptations that go with what is ordinarily called financial success."

Mrs. Oral Jones will be leader of the affirmative and Mrs. J. L. Fox of the negative, sides, and each has appointed speakers. ## TO MAKE HOME IN CORSICANA

DR. AND MRS. M. W. HOOVER.

Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Hoover left Thursday morning for Corsicana, where they will make their future home.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Hoover have made many friends in Wichita Falls who are sorry that the young people decided on a change of residence. Dr. Hoover has been here for the past two years, a member of the First church Wesleyan church, and has been active in club and civic work. He was first president of the Kiwanis, organized this year, and prominently connected with several of the young people's clubs, among them the Cyprus club.

Mrs. Hoover, whom he met while she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Calmes in this city, was Miss Elgie Herzing of Oklahoma City, and became his bride in September in New York City. Both have been popularly identified with the social life of Wichita Falls since their return from their honeymoon in that month.

SHELLS PEAS FOR FIFTY YEARS

Mary O'Connor Tidal on the Job.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Says the champion pea-sheller of the world: "I've been shelling peas every spring and summer for 50 years. I've shelled 'em for the grand-mother and father of King George, for all the finest people, for all the big hotels, for all the smart restaurants of London. But—never been out of London! I've never been out in God's open country where peas grow. I've never seen peas on the vine before they were picked."

Fifty years ago the mother of Mary O'Connor brought her little girl to the Bailey Market in Covent Garden, where shelled peas are a specialty. She announced the girl to a famous pea sheller. And Mary's been shelling peas ever since. Meanwhile she was married to a market employe named Tindall and a family of nine. She saw her

Real Rest Depends Largely Upon the Depth of Your Sleep

A warning to "light" or "poor" sleepers

The deeper and sounder you sleep the better you feel. Five hours sound refreshing sleep does you more actual good than ten hours restless, disturbed sleep.

This is because the final conversion of food into vital tissue and nerve cells goes on more rapidly when the physical and mental forces are at rest.

You can't get sound, refreshing sleep if your nerves are agitated with tea or coffee. Both these drinks contain caffeine, which is sometimes very irritating to the brain and nervous system.

If you want to know the joy, vigor and stamina that comes to the person who gets sound, healthful sleep, why not stop taking tea or coffee for a while, and drink delicious, invigorating Postum instead.

Thousands of people everywhere have found that this was the only thing they needed in order to bring about these very happy results.

Order Postum from your grocer today. Drink this delightful cereal beverage of coffee-like flavor, for a week. Perhaps, like thousands of others, you'll never be willing to go back to tea or coffee.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Register-Elect Has Five Rules For Women Voters

By NEA Service.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Anne Mathews is the successful proprietor of a New York dressmaking establishment.

And before the passage of the 19th amendment she was one of the city's leading suffrage workers.

Such a good one that now she holds the office of register-elect of New York City. That pays $12,000 a year, the fourth highest municipal salary.

Miss Mathews had compiled five rules from her experience to guide women voters—and men, too. Here they are:

One—Join some party and make your influence felt.

Two—Work for better ideas of government in that party.

Three—Take an interest in men who do political work and see that the right kind of men are chosen.

Four—Contribute to finances according to your ability. Political workers must be paid and if you don't pay them some one else will.

Five—Insist that public officials be properly reimbursed.

Miss Mathews was granted the vote many seemed to expect a miracle. Miss Mathews says, "But I didn't feel that way."

"I've never seen any miracles except those brought about by hard work. The only way to bring about reform is to join some party and work."

Stars' Salaries and Film Rentals Too High—Fans Pay

By JAMES W. DEAN.
 NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—There is a slump in the movie industry, many within the industry thought that it would end with the passing of summer. The past summer was the worst season the business has known.
 Business has picked up some since amusement parks and outdoor attractions have been closed, but it is not yet up to the standard of previous autumns and winters.
 Movie houses in all parts of the country are closing.
 This condition results from high admission prices to motion picture theaters, that and nothing else.
 When the admission price is lowered more people will attend the picture theaters. The total receipts will be higher. The industry will be more prosperous.
 There is evidence plenty that too much is being charged for admission to movies. In some places in the southwest patrons of theaters are given charge accounts. They go to see a movie and pay when they get the money.
 Business slumped at a $300,000 theater in Brooklyn. The manager brought the price down to ten cents. Then he charged one cent for the second admission. In other words two for eleven cents.
 Why are movie admissions high? Exhibitors are little to blame. Many of them are conducting business at a loss.
 The main factor in keeping movie admissions at the present level is the high salaries being paid to stars. In some cases rentals of films are not in proportion to the cost of production.
 This writer has information at first hand that one film actor who has been featured in only a few films and received $100 a week for one of his recent pictures, asked five times that amount for his next picture.
 Much of the blame for high rentals of pictures also rests upon the shoulders of the producers and distributors. Some of the foreign films prove that they were bought for a song, comparing their cost to the cost of pictures made in this country.
 Were rentals for those pictures lowered? Were admission prices to see them lowered? Not by a jug full!
 In some cases the prices to see foreign films were advanced beyond the usual admission prices!
 The day of the nickelodeon and the ten-cent picture undoubtedly is past. The public demands better pictures than can profitably be shown at those prices.
 However, pictures are not five to ten times better than they were when admissions were one-tenth to one-fifth of what they now are.
 The motion picture industry will continue to be in a chaotic state until it is run on the same basis as other industries, a certain percentage of profit on the capital invested with a sane scale of salaries to players who make the pictures.

 Harry Myers plays opposite Doris May in "Boy Crazy."
 Conrad Nagel is to play opposite Alice Lake in "Hate."
 Betty Blithe is to have a prominent part in Rex Beach's next film.
 A heavy drama of revenge—that's how they describe "Hate." Alice Lake's next picture.
 Caroline Rankin is to be Max Linder's leading woman in his burlesque on "The Three Musketeers."
 Lillian Walker, an English actress who appears in "Love's Boomerang," has changed her name to Lillian Douglas to avoid confusion with our own Lillian Walker.

Catarrhal Deafness May Be Overcome

If you have catarrhal deafness or head and ear noises or are growing hard of hearing go over to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.
 This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—(Adv.)

CURETON SWORN IN AS CHIEF JUSTICE; KEELING QUALIFIES

FORMER SUCCEEDS PHILLIPS AS MEMBER OF THE SUPREME COURT.

W. A. KEELING BECOMES STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL

New Chief Justice Presented With Gold Watch By Assistants And Employees.

AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—At 10 o'clock this morning, C. M. Cureton took the oath of office as chief justice of the supreme court of Texas, to which position he was appointed recently by Governor Neff to succeed Chief Justice Nelson Phillips.

Three minutes later, Chief Justice Cureton administered the oath of office to W. A. Keeling, an attorney general. General Keeling was appointed to succeed Chief Justice Cureton.

The oath of office to Chief Justice Cureton was administered by Judge E. B. Greenwood, senior associate justice of the supreme court.

The ceremonies attending the administering of the oaths were impressively dignified. All officials of the state, including Governor Neff, judges of the various courts and department heads were present. Governor Neff was first to congratulate Chief Justice Cureton and General Keeling.

Just prior to taking the oath Chief Justice Cureton was presented with a gold watch by his assistants and office employees. The presentation was made by General Keeling, then first assistant, who, in a short talk explained that it was given as a mark of respect and esteem in which the departing attorney general was held by the assistants and employees.

FOUR GRAND GOBLINS OF KLAN DISCHARGED

Institute Proceedings to Recover Property Held by Grand Goblin at Washington.

ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 2.—Discharge of four grand goblins of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was announced here last night in a statement by Edward Y. Clarke, imperial klanter of the order, following the institution of proceedings by him to recover property of the organization held by Harry B. Terrell, grand goblin of the "capitol domain," Washington, D. C.

Mr. Clarke charged the four officials had come to Atlanta seeking to have him ousted from office, but asserted he had been upheld by the high officials of the Ku Klux. His statement did not name the other three grand goblins, but Terrell issued a statement saying they had simply laid the situation before William J. Simmons, head of the order, and naming the other men as Lloyd P. Hood, representing New York state; F. W. Atkins, representing four states, and A. J. Padon, representing New England.

REPULSE ATTACK ON LONDONDERRY JAIL

Two Policemen Killed and Several Of the Attackers Were Captured.

By Associated Press. BELFAST, Dec. 2.—An attack on the jail at Londonderry with the object of releasing the prisoners there was repulsed by the police guards today. Two policemen were killed and several of the attackers captured.

The party gained entrance to the jail undetected and their presence was not discovered until a policeman saw a rope ladder hanging over the wall and gave the alarm. The military guard inside had noticed nothing unusual, but upon investigation they found the two constables who guarded the stairway lying dead in the corridor. They had been drugged and strangled.

The republican rescue party had forced the doors of ten cells when the guards surprised them at their work. The military opened fire, the republicans replying with revolvers. Pandemonium prevailed for some time, but the guards finally gained the upper hand without losing any of the prisoners, at the same time capturing three young Londonderry men who made a final attempt to release the prisoners.

Maccabees Notice. Wichita Tent No. 8 will hold a smoker and entertainment on Friday evening, December 2, in the Labor Temple hall at 7:30 p. m. Deputy Supreme Commanders Geo. A. Degenhardt and H. D. ### LATEST OF BRITISH PROPOSALS BEFORE THE DAIL EIREANN

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The British government's latest proposals for settlement of the Irish question will be considered by the cabinet of the dail eireann in Dublin tomorrow.

The new terms, which were handed to the Sinn Fein delegates in written form, show some advances over the government's previous proposals and the delegates felt the necessity of giving them fullest consideration at a cabinet session.

The terms, it is said, concede from the beginning the Sinn Fein's claim for the unity of Ireland. Ulster must be included within the scheme from the start, according to the plan as it now appears to have been framed, and must remain for six months. After that period and before the end of a year, Ulster is to be given the option to withdraw and if she goes there must be a boundary commission to determine the exact area which is fairly entitled to go with her.

If Ulster goes under this plan, she would preserve only her present powers and not obtain the financial freedom that would be left with south Ireland.

The Sinn Fein has neither accepted nor rejected these proposals, but has promised to consider them finally tomorrow.

The question of allegiance is still the crux of the situation, but efforts are being made to devise some form of declaring allegiance which it is hoped by the government the Sinn Fein will accept.

FILIPINOS HAVE A LONG ROAD AHEAD IS WOOD'S REPORT

NEED OF FURTHER NATIONAL IMPROVEMENT DECLARED NECESSARY.

DEPARTMENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT TOP HEAVY

Declare People As a Whole Do Not Want Independence At This Time.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Despite extraordinary progress in the past 23 years, the Filipino people have a long road to travel before they will be ready to take over their own government, according to the report made by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, governor general of the islands, and W. Cameron Forbes, former governor general. The complete report was issued today by the war department as a supplement to the recent publication of specific recommendations made by the two investigators.

Need of further national improvement is pointed out by the report, which declares, however, that the administrative mistakes of the Filipinos have not been sufficient to counterbalance the steadily rising progress barometers.

"Generally speaking," the report says, "administrative departments of the government are top-heavy in personnel and enmeshed in red tape. There is a vast amount of paper work. The methods of the administration are purely autocratic. There is a lack of supervision and personal contact."

Discussing the policy pursued during the administration of Governor General Harrison for 1914 to 1921, the report declared:

"The orderly process of promotion on proved efficiency in the government service was changed to a 'hurried Filipinization' and added: "While there has been retrogression in the efficiency of most departments of the government during the past few years, we do not feel that the responsibility for this rests largely upon the Filipinos as the ultimate responsibility for the selection of responsible officers and for the exercise of proper supervision was in the hands of the American governor-general, whose duty it was to appoint competent men at the heads of departments and bureaus and above all, to exercise proper supervision over them."

Public Service Inefficient.
It is the general opinion among Filipinos, Americans and foreigners that the public services are now in many particulars relatively inefficient, that there has occurred a slowing down in the dispatch of business and a distinct relaxation toward the standards and administrative habits of former days," the report adds. "This is due in part to bad example, incompetent direction, to political infection of the services and above all, to lack of competent supervision and inspection."

This is used car week at Nolen-Stringer Company's. 203-110

pine people as a whole do not want independence, while many who favor severance of American ties do not comprehend the responsibilities of self government.

"The people as a whole," says the report, "are appreciative of the peace and order which prevail throughout the islands. Many do not understand what independence means or its responsibilities. They are living under the best conditions they have ever known. It is not generally realized that the American government cannot be expected to assume responsibility for the results of internal disorders, particularly as they affect the nationals of other powers, the treatment of foreign capital and external political relations unless the United States retains a certain amount of control."

The majority of the Christian Filipinos are reported as favoring independence under protection of the United States, while a smaller number of them desire immediate and complete independence. The Moros are a unit against independence and ask that the portion of the islands belonging to them be retained as American territory in the event independence ever is granted, the report says, while the rest of the population, constituting about 10 per cent of the population, are for continued American control and the Americans in opposition to independence.

Economic Conditions.
Economic conditions are favorably commented upon and evidence is submitted indicating progressive development. The report recites the story of the Philippine bargeing as one of the most unfortunate and darkest pages in Philippine history. Losses sustained by the bank are estimated at $22,500,000 and are said to have been caused by mismanagement on the part of some of those who have been at its head and in charge of branch offices. Criminal charges have been preferred against the managers of each of the four branches in which examinations have been completed, the report adds, adding that they were in each instance in charge of untrained Filipinos.

The mission reports that "inspectors of election" required under the laws to prepare ballots for illiterate voters supply a "fruitful source of frauds." The election machinery is practically in the hands of the dominant parties and the inspectors of elections are too often their tools, the report says.

PRESIDENT OBREGON HAS ACCEPTED RESIGNATION OF GENERAL VILLAREAL

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 2.—The resignation of General Antonio Villareal as secretary of agriculture was accepted yesterday by President Obregon, who appointed General Enrique Estrada, secretary of war, to succeed him. General Francisco Serrano, under secretary of war, was made temporary head of the war department.

President Obregon made no comment in announcing the changes, stating that the text of his reply to Secretary Villareal's message of resignation would be published later. The president's action was taken over the energetic protests of the national agrarian party, of which General Villareal is the leader. The latter announced that he will devote his time to the publication of an agricultural newspaper.

$500,000 ROAD BOND ELECTION PLANNED IN BAYLOR COUNTY

CIRCULATING PETITIONS AND PLANNING 75 MILES OF HIGHWAY.

ROAD TO DAMSITE IS INCLUDED IN PROJECT

Two Roads in County Recently Designated As Official Federal Highways.

Petitions for a $500,000 bond issue for good roads are now being circulated in Baylor county and will be submitted to the county commissioners at their next meeting, according to R. E. Baskin, Seymour banker, who was in Wichita Falls Friday.

It is hoped to construct 75 miles of hard-surfaced roads with this money, Mr. Baskin said, the plan being to build tarvated highways or something of a similar nature. Recently a committee of Seymour citizens went before the state highway commission at Austin and succeeded in getting the main north-south and east-west highways designated as federal routes. The north-south line, known in Wichita Falls as the Seymour road, is designated as the Ozard trail, one of the federal highways, while the P. E. F. road, from Fort Worth to Parwell, N. M., is the other.

It is planned to include the road from Seymour to the irrigation dam site in the improvement program. Should the bonds carry, and Mr. Baskin believes they will, it will give, when Wichita county's highway building is finished, a paved road from Wichita Falls to Seymour with the exception of 16 miles in Archer county between Mankins and Fulda.

A jury of view has been named for the road from Seymour to the damsite and will report to the county commissioners next week. Mr. Baskin said, Mr. Baskin said that Seymour is keenly awake to what the irrigation project will mean to that community, and intends to take full advantage of it, co-operating with the district in every way. This attitude on the part of Baylor county citizens is expected to prove of substantial value to the district.

SEEK A PLAN TO REFUND MEXICAN NATIONAL DEBT

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 2.—The Mexican government is taking the keenest interest in the efforts of Gomez Morin, Mexican financial agent, to reach an agreement with bankers in New York on a plan for refunding the Mexican national debt. It was unofficially stated last night that should the negotiations fall, the secretary of the treasury, Adolfo de la Huerta, will go to the United States seeking to float a loan for the purpose.

STORMY SESSION OF FRENCH CHAMBER IS AWAITING PREMIER

FORECAST IS MADE ON HIS RETURN BY LEADING OPPONENTS.

ARRIVES AT HAVRE AFTER FIVE WEEKS IN AMERICA

Enthusiastic Welcome is Extended By Members of Cabinet And Others.

By Associated Press.
HAVRE, Dec. 2.—Premier Briand returned to France today after five weeks' absence in which he presented to the Washington conference France's position on armament limitation. As he landed he was greeted with deference but without enthusiasm.

Premier Briand landed at 10:30 a. m., being brought here on a destroyer to which he was transferred from the liner Paris. The entire French cabinet with the exception of Minister of Justice Bonnevay and the acting premier, War Minister Barthou, met the Paris ten miles at sea on the tug Athlete. In a northwesterly wind which was blowing half a gale, threatening to send the tug crashing against the plates of the huge Paris. M. Briand, "sailor of Saint Nazaire," boarded the Athlete. A heavy sea was running, but the premier's opponents made no pretense of hiding their opinion that it was badly as compared with the storm M. Briand will have to face in the chamber of deputies next Tuesday when he gives an account of his Washington mission. The premier and his cabinet members then were transferred to the destroyer Admiral Sene, a former German craft, on which he held an informal reception. He chatted in turn with Minister of Devoasted Regions Loucheur, Minister of Marine Guisthau, Minister of Public Works Le Troquer and Minister of Interior Marraud, who informed him of the political gossip and other developments since his departure.

M. Briand was informed that coincident with his return lists were being circulated in the chamber of deputies and the senate purporting to give the composition of a cabinet which the opposition expects will succeed the Briand ministry should the latter fall as a result of non-payment by Germany of its reparations quota due January 15.

Although M. Poincare has refrained from attacking the present cabinet, the former president delivered an address at Bordeaux last week which has been characterized as a "program speech" and M. Briand's adversaries are rallying behind him. The cabinet members with whom the correspondent talked today, feel positive that Briand will weather the storm in the chamber of deputies as easily as he did the choppy sea this morning in Havre roads and will be accorded a vote of confidence by a large majority.

M. Loucheur told the correspondent that the cabinet's position in regard to France's foreign policy was unconquerable.

The mark 1, is used in Argentina, Brazil, British Guinea, Honduras and a number of other South American and Central American countries.

FIELD OFFICERS TO MEET TO ORGANIZE THE TEXAS GUARD

AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—Approximately 25 field officers of the 26th division, national guard of Texas, will meet here tomorrow for the purpose of completing arrangements for final organization of the division. Adjutant General Barton announced today. The officers attending will be officers of the old 26th division who saw service overseas during the world war.

General Beaumont R. Buck, who has charge of the reorganization of the 26th division, and General John A. Hutten, commander of the new 26th division, will attend the meeting. The meeting will last but one day, concluding with a banquet tomorrow night at which Governor Neff will make an address.

NO ARRESTS MADE IN DENISON CASE INVOLVING NEGROES

DENISON, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—No arrests have been made and officers say they have no evidence regarding the flogging of three negroes here Tuesday night by a band of white hooded and robed men, who declared, according to the story the negroes told the police, that they were members of the Denison Klan of the Ku Klux Klan. County officers deny that the negroes were taken from a justice of the peace courtroom while they were being quizzed regarding certain alleged conditions in the negro section. The justice of the peace says that the negroes were sent down a back stairway of the courtroom to prevent any demonstration, and that the negroes were seized there.

GAINS REPORTED BY BUSINESS MAN

Resident of Salt Lake City Adds Ten Pounds While Wife Gains 28 Pounds In Weight

Don J. Perry, 279 Quince street, well-known Salt Lake City, Utah, business man, in reporting remarkable gains in weight both by himself and his wife, says:

"My wife gained 28 pounds and I gained 10 pounds in a few weeks by taking Taniac. The change in Mrs. Perry is all the more remarkable, as she had been going down hill steadily for four or five years. She got no nourishment from her food and I don't believe she averaged three hours' sleep out of the 24."

"While my condition was not as serious as hers, I had been under the weather for some time, had no appetite and was bothered a good deal by indigestion. Taniac has certainly proved all and more than is claimed for it with us."

Taniac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller drug store; in Electra by Tarleton Drug store; West End Drug company, Burkburnett, and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

RAILROADS KILLING FEWER PEOPLE.

The "Safety First" campaign that has been conducted by the railroads for several years is bearing good fruit. There were fewer people killed by the railroads in 1920 than in any year since 1912.

Statistics show that in 1920 the railroads killed 6,958 persons, injured 168,308 and in that period carried 411,151,320,758 freight tons, that is, the equivalent of that many tons one mile.

The peak of railroad slaughter was reached in 1913 when 10,964 persons were killed, 200,308 injured, while carrying 306,558,334,000 freight tons.

The year 1920 also was marked by the smallest number of passengers killed relatively to passengers carried. Only five times in the 53 years covered by the statistics were fewer such accidents reported.

The year in which railway revenues of $6,250,000,000 failed to cover expenses, taxes and rents, the roads carried 47,276,131,157 passengers one mile with only seventy-six fatalities to passengers in train accidents.

That is, 623,954,357 passengers were carried one mile to one killed.

As a part of this achievement the bureau has the record of 293 roads which operated almost half the railway mileage of the United States in 1920 without a single passenger killed in a train accident.

The fatalities to passengers were practically the same in 1920 as in 1918, although passenger traffic had increased 254 per cent. The fatalities to employees increased less than 32 per cent, although the number employed increased 160 per cent.

The decrease in railway fatalities to trespassers and other persons may be attributed to the elevation of tracks, the abolition of grade crossings and the campaign against the common use of railway right of way by pedestrians.

The foregoing figures are highly gratifying insofar as they show a saving in human life. A large number of these lives have been saved at no cost to anybody except that of observing reasonable precautions and rules for safety.

There is still much progress to be made in this direction. The railroads are on the right track in this matter. The next ten years can be expected to show a still further decrease in the number killed and injured by the railroads.

The railroads are setting an example that all other industries can follow with profit and with an increasing appropriation of the value of human life.

YOU, HE AND SHE.

The shifting of American women, from the home into business, has reached the point where there is one woman to every four men "earning their own living."

This is shown by an analysis of the latest reports covering the census taken in 1920.

With a total population of 106,706,771 men, women and children, the United States has 41,909,192 "gainfully employed." Of these, 8,469,307 are women.

Housewives—the hardest workers of all—are not included among those "gainfully employed." Probably this is because most of them work without gain for love.

One of these days, housewives will be on salaries, with laws compelling husbands to give their wives a proper percentage of their earnings.

Early settlers of America made their living with ax, spade, hoe and gun. Time and a complex civilization has turned human economics into such an intricate machine that the majority of us have no clear conception of our relation to the whole works.

The cog knows that it must click so many times a day. It doesn't see all the wheels. The face of the watch, with its moving hands, is the combined result of all the wheels. None of us gets a good idea of what the hands are registering. It takes the perspective of centuries to determine just how much the watch is deviating from correct time.

Our system of economics is intricate, yet simple. Think of it in terms of 106 people instead of nearly 106,000,000, and it works like this, in rough figures:

Thirteen working in manufacturing industries. Eleven growing food and forests. Four acting as salesmen. Three doing special "personal service."

Three keeping the records. Three providing transportation. Two serving as doctors, dentists, lawyers, etc. One mining and preparing minerals. One in public service.

That accounts for 41, "gainfully employed." The rest of the 106 are keeping house, going to school, idling, or segregated under lock and key.

Multiply the above figures by 1,000,000 and you have, roughly, figures for our whole population.

MARSHAL FOCH.
"Why do they cheer for Marshal Foch?"
A small boy asked his dad.

"Why do they wave their hats and shout? Why is the town so glad?"

"Why are all the flags flung out for him? Why is the music played? Why do the people clap their hands And soldiers all parade?"

"He looks to me like men I know, Like you and Uncle Jim, Or Mr. Smith who lives next door— Why do they cheer for him?"

And the father said: "He kept the faith When dangers great arose, He served the truth through bitter days And conquered freedom's foes."

"Men cheer because he kept the faith And if you're faithful, too, And serve your country to the end, The throngs will cheer for you." (Copyright, 1921, by Edgar A. Guest.)

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

TIRED OUT. It is the sitting room of an average home. A large tapestried chair, with half wings, holds a man. In his lap is a little child.

She is asleep. Curling about her delicate ears and dropping in sympathetic beauty about her lovely face. On the forehead is one of them lying in wait to catch the first flashing spark from her eyes when they open.

The arms, dropped to her sides, are bare almost to the shoulders and look like marble, so exquisitely formed and delicate they are. The white dress has been pulled over her dimpled knees as she slipped into sleep in the lap of him who holds her.

Black patent leather pumps with straps about the ankles have received the little feet, with rolled white socks which have lost their place.

Just a short way from the chair a toy horse stands. A tin doll rests against a pile of blocks nearby. There are many trinkets scattered about, with a silent ball in their midst.

The one who holds this lapful of treasure is a man with white hair. His left arm is curled about the tired little player. He seems to be thinking whole volumes as he looks into the closed eyes of the sleeper.

The day is almost done. The room is dark but for the twinkling rays of the setting sun at play amongst its various pearls and rubies and opals.

Outside, a distant world—but in there, a small corner of heaven!

Soon the white haired man will lift the dreaming little body and carry it tenderly to its bed. Then a mother will come and tuck it in and put a kiss among the golden curls—and then she will tip-toe out of the room, leaving a patch of love-stars to watch above till morning comes.

And then—coming down the stairs will come the restless little player again, to take up the blocks and dolly and horse—and all!

Current Comment

SERVING FOLLIES OF THE LAW. (Houston Chronicle.) It is very surprising that in this day of progress and advancement in every sphere of activity and achievement the law and legal procedure should lag so noticeably—or may be by preference would be a better term—in the rear.

Hamlet could find a text upon which to bewail the law's delays just as well now as he did four hundred years ago; but the delay is not the worst of it.

England has thrown into the legal ditch all the ancient forms and senseless technicalities and metaphysical distinctions which in the long ago bound her courts and judges in almost unbreakable bonds; but here we have now just as much folderol and nonsense as we ever had.

Something like forty years ago, more or less, the legislature enacted what was called a "common sense indictment act," which provided in substance that it should be sufficient to charge that a man stole a horse, or slandered his neighbor, or embezzled so much money, or killed the deceased, but the court of criminal appeals in the first case which came before it after the law was enacted held, that the term "indictment" as used in the constitution meant what it did under the ancient law, hence the "common sense" act was invalid.

Rather strange to say an indictment for murder is the shortest, simplest, easiest drawn indictment that can be presented in court. Common sense prevails in its drafting.

A leading magazine of a recent date sets forth form of an indictment for murder in England as follows: The King vs. Albert Brown. Albert Brown is charged with the following offense:

Statement of offense: Murder. Particulars of offense: Albert Brown on the 13th day of October, 1921, in the county of Essex, murdered Caroline Smith.

That is the whole indictment. In the same character of case in Texas the indictment would be obliged to begin: "In the name and by the authority of the state of Texas, and conclude with "against the peace and dignity of the state." If it did not and a defendant had been convicted of murdering his mother the conviction would be reversed, however clear the proof.

If any reader of The Chronicle doubts the truth of the statement, he can find in the Texas reports where, about 40 years ago, three men who had been convicted of cold-blooded murder escaped the penalty because the last word of the indictment read "statute" instead of "state."

Between the opening and closing lines of every indictment in Texas is a lot of absolutely unnecessary, high-sounding verbiage, about the grand jury being duly impaneled and sworn, to inquire and present, and that they do present, etc., and in some character of case perjury, for instance, it takes a lawyer of good ability to draw an indictment that will stand the assaults of ingenious counsel, and the hair-splitting acuteness of technical judges.

If a man who has been dead a hundred years once had a deed to a piece of ground as big as a saddle blanket, and the records show conveyance out of him by a deed, in taking the acknowledgment to which some ignorant notary failed to fill a blank or cross a t or dot an i, a suit must be brought to "clear the title," and the petition is often half as long as the courtroom, and all the title must be plead and published, and an attorney appointed to represent the heirs, or supposed or possible heirs—all at great expense to the owner—all of which could be prevented by simple statute.

If a suit is brought to divide an estate, and a defendant is a babe at its mother's breast, the sheriff must lay a copy of the action in its little hand; when a simple statute providing that in such a case the court or the clerk should be authorized to name a guardian ad litem to receive service would save perpetration of such senseless folly.

A man is killed by negligence, and his family recovers justly a verdict for compensatory damages, but the trial court makes an error of such nature in his charge that it is not discoverable except by the best trained judicial mind, and the case is reversed, and perhaps the family never recovers a penny.

Every man knows that the result would have been exactly the same if the charge had been meticulously correct in every line and letter.

It is time that the law and legal procedure were catching up with the procession.

The supreme court of Texas has placed its approval upon the statement in its opinion that "when the justice of a case has been reached litigation should end," a statement which meets the approval of all just and fair-minded men.

Perhaps the Kansas janitor who burned $5000 in radium was trying to save on the coal bill.

Why must one be a foreigner to get a job calling trains?

The reported krant shortage shows good luck has come at last.

MIDNIGHT SUPPERS

By DR. R. H. BISSON

We can attribute many ills among the well-to-do classes to the foolish habits of too many midnight suppers.

An occasional meal before retiring is likely to do little harm, and especially little harm if the meal is easily digestible. But the trouble lies in the fact that such meals become more or less of a habit to some people. They think they can sleep better if they have a bite to eat before retiring. It is usually considerably more than a bite, however.

The truth is that one's best sleep is obtained with the stomach empty. It is true that food puts one to sleep at first, but it disturbs the blood from the head, but it disturbs sleep later. Water, unless it induces bladder action during the night, or even fruit, may be taken before retiring. If one goes to bed with an empty stomach he can often get along with six or seven hours' sleep, but if he goes to bed soon after a hearty meal, he usually needs from eight to ten hours' sleep.

Then, too, the habit of eating a little midnight meal results in chronic indigestion. The appetite becomes sluggish just as the organs of digestion and assimilation slow up because of overwork.

The man or woman who makes a habit of midnight suppers usually requires not simple, good foods, but choice delicacies and highly flavored foods that are hard to digest.

Any one who has ever partaken of lobster or shrimp salads before retiring knows just what is meant when I say that sleep and digestion are greatly disturbed by such foods. It is difficult for the business man or the active woman to be at their best when sleep and digestion have been impaired. The man who wishes to give the best that is in him to his business would do well not to make a habit of midnight meals.

On the other hand, such habits are even more harmful to people of sedentary habits, those who lead more or less inactive lives from day to day.

They are very likely to take on an excess of fat and become peculiarly liable to heart disease, kidney troubles, Bright's disease and various other serious ailments that flesh in an excessive quantity—is heir to.

Personal hygiene can protect the individual against disease and death by periodic examinations of the body. Yearly Examinations.

The proper course is easy. Have your body examined at least once a year by a physician who is in tune with modern ideals in medicine. Have your jaws X-rayed, your organs tested, your blood pressure measured, and your work of your kidneys tested for sugar and albumin, and for their actual efficiency.

Let the doctor make an annual inventory of your physical condition. Learn the simple fundamental rules of exercise and hygiene. Don't be afraid of the words "calorie," "protein" and "vitamin" in relation to your body, any more than you are afraid of the words "magnetic," "transmission" and "carburetor" in relation to an automobile.

Take your body to a "service station" occasionally, as a prudent man does his automobile, just to have it looked over. For this is the road which leads not only to a long life but to a longer period in which man can experience the full and exuberant health of youth.

Remember that there is no "law of mortality." Bear in mind that the length of man's life is largely in his own hands, and that the great extinct company of the dinosaur and dodo bird is waiting for the genus homo if he fails to make good his own health of youth.

Your body and your race are on trial. See that they get a fair chance.

(This is the last of four articles on prolongation of life, written by Dr. Fisk for The Times.)

YOU AND I

Are Lucky to Have Escaped King Chephren, Who Ruled in Egypt 5,000 Years Ago.

Digging into Egyptian tombs 6,000 years old, American scientists found nine heads, carved out of stone. The heads are such like the real heads of King Chephren and his family, who ruled Egypt 5,000 years ago.

Ancient Egyptians wanted to show up in the Great Beyond, just as they looked in life. If their skulls turned to dust or got lost in the perils of a journey into the hereafter, the stone heads were supposed magically to serve as substitutes.

To keep the souls of ancient ruling Egyptians from becoming lonesome, hundreds of subject people were buried alive with the bodies of their rulers.

Kings had unpleasant customs and the human brain strange ideas about democracy, education and Christianity got on the job.

Even the jewels are feeling hard times. Impure diamonds and other precious stones this year will not be much more than $27,000,000. That compares with $195,372,444 in 1915.

Diamonds make up over two-thirds of the value of imported gems. Figures on diamond importations show a decline from 1919 to 1920. Engagement rings are feeling the pinch of depression. Brides of 1919 were favored by the psychological moment.

LIFE In the 15th century, the average life was only 15 years, according to Red Cross experts. This rose to 28 years in the 18th century, to 35 years in the 19th and 38 years in 1920. The steady rise has been due to health education, the real elixir of life.

In the year 2070, Red Cross experts predict, the average life will be 100 years. Consoling? Trouble is, few of us will be here to enjoy it. Like telling a hungry man that porthouse steaks will grow on trees a few centuries hence.

CONSERVATIVES Fear is always the ruling emotion during a business slump. Fear creates caution—conservation. Hence, people are less inclined to invest in their own hands, and in recent months has been toward conservatism in everything, away from radical experiments.

Who's conservatism? Ralph Waldo Emerson, greatest American philosopher, wrote: "All conservatism is such a thing that men have had to be exterminated in position or nature, born halt and blind, through luxury of their parents, and their like invalids, act on the defensive."

If that is conservatism, it is a poor leader.

STARVING By Christmas, the American relief administration will be feeding at least 1,000,000 starving Russian children. The number already has passed the 700,000 mark.

Aside from the humanitarian aspect, which cannot be figured in money, the war has a selfish gain in this, though it is sought unselfishly.

The gain? We are making, for the benefit of our enemies, of at least 1,000,000 Russian families. Work like that is a powerful agent of peace.

The ancient walls surrounding the city of Canton, China, have been repaired during the past two years, notwithstanding the strong objection of many of the older citizens.

Well, if he was in jail his associations would be rather limited anyway, sed pop.

Who is this Jesse James, wat did he do to you? sed pop, and ma sed, He's a autcheoner, the contemptable robber, I saw a red flag outside a house he held it up and he bid 15 dollars was going to be auctioned off by order of somebody or other for some reason or other, and I went in with without curiosity that day, my real interest, and people were bidding on a bed spread and it certainly looked bewittill the way the man held it up and I bid 15 dollars more out of excitement than because I really wanted it, and everybody stood around like a pack of fools without saying anything else, and the auctioneer sed Sold for 15 dollars. And after I paid for it I noticed it was all three bare in spots and wasn't worth 8 dollars much less 15 and I made quite a soke but the auctioneer wouldn't take it back, the cheat, but anyway I told him what I thought of him for not saying it was three bare before he sold it. Its positively enuff to make a person lose their faith in human experiance.

O well, you had your lesson and maybe the experience was cheap at 15 dollars, sed pop, and ma sed, Well, as it happened, it didn't cost me that much after all because I sold it to Mrs. Hews for 20 dollars, luckily for me.

Help, water, I feel faint, give me air, sed pop. And he got up and went out to take a wawk for some.

THE HISTORY OF YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS LOWLAN

STERLING. Variations—Eastman. Naetal Origin—English. Source—Geographical.

The origin of the family name of Sterling is bound up with that of our word sterling, as applied to silver, and in its various acquired meanings.

In the early middle ages, before England had become much of a seafaring nation, the most intrepid traders were those who hailed from the various "free cities" along what is now the German seacoast. These cities, owing fealty to no king, or at most but nominal fealty for temporary periods, were league together in the establishment of trading colonies, and for mutual military defense. They had their agencies, which were virtually forts, in all the principal countries of Europe. One of their stations, with great walls in warehouses, was in London. These traders were known to the English as "Sterlings"; that is, men of the East, or Easterners. They settled their transactions in pure silver, and the English coin of the day was much adulterated, the "pound Eastering" came to be the standard of absolute value. In common usage the initial letters soon were dropped, leaving the word "sterling."

The family names Sterling and Eastman originally, were preceded by "de"; thus, "Sigmund le Eastering"; and later more simply, as "Sigmund Sterling" or "Geoffroy Eastman."

LIONS TOLD ABOUT BOUNDARY SUIT BY JUDGE CARRIGAN

A vigorous indictment of testimony offered by the United States supreme court by "legitimate eyed promoters" consisted in the Red river boundary dispute and a condemnation, equally vitriolic, of disloyal "knockers" of the present national administration, given Friday noon by Judge A. H. Carrigan when he addressed the weekly Lions club meeting.

Judge Carrigan, who represents Texas patent landowners in the famous boundary controversy, has but recently returned from Washington where he appeared before the supreme court.

Evidence calculated by the Oklahoma litigants to establish the river's south boundary, and which the speaker to be largely "fabricated," this being especially true of the sworn affidavits submitted by technical experts from a leading university.

These statements, he declared, regarded the age of vegetation found in the river valley and were in direct conflict with testimony of old settlers who "had seen with their own eyes" and who knew what they were talking about.

In concluding this phase of his talk Judge Carrigan reiterated statements that have been attributed to him on previous occasions, namely, that "the supreme court will decide that the south bank and not the north bluff of the river is the south bank," he said. "I will be the final verdict of the court."

In scoring the administration "knockers," the judge declared that every patriotic American citizen, regardless of party affiliations, should uphold the hands of the nation's chief executive in his work in behalf of the country.

URGES GREAT BRITAIN ADOPT COMMON POLICY WITH FRENCH REPUBLIC

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Times in commenting on the reported plans for a revision of the war reparations and a possible moratorium for Germany, this morning urges that Great Britain adopt a common policy with France in this regard. It points out that the friendly relations with the United States are greatly to be desired, Great Britain is indispensable to the life of the continent and the latter is dependent on its solidarity as a safeguard against aggression in Europe.

"Friendship and understanding with America," it says, "cannot be themselves insure us against sudden danger in the old world," says the Times. They (the United States) would not be in time. Much would be determined to our prejudice and all might be compromised, and even lost, before her armed assistance could become effective were she ever so eager to offer it."

PERMISSION GRANTED TO THE ORIENT RAILROAD TO ISSUE CERTIFICATES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Permission was given the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad by the interstate commerce commission for the issue of receivers' certificates for $2,500,000 to be given to the treasury department as security for a loan. The property now is being operated under court supervision, and the money was advanced by the railroad administration.

WILL INVESTIGATE THE DEATH OF DELL THAMES

GATESVILLE, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—The death of Dell Thames, 18-year-old Beaumont boy, who died at the state juvenile training school here Sept. 25, will be investigated by the Corry county grand jury in early January. It was announced here following the granting of $4,000 bond yesterday to H. G. Teyman, former military trainer of the school, who has been held in connection with the incident. Bail was set by District Judge J. R. McClellan at habeas corpus hearings.

Teyman was arrested on formal complaint a few days after the death of Thames, caused, it was alleged, by cruel treatment at the hands of the then military instructor.

DESIGNATE STANDARDS FOR THE HANDLING OF PRODUCE

AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—Standards prescribing the cubical contents and dimensions of containers for fruits and vegetables, grades of the products and tolerances to be allowed for errors incident to the use of the standards in Texas were promulgated today by George B. Terrell, state commissioner of agriculture.

The standards prescribe the cubical contents of containers for the following: six basket crates, folding one-half crate, orange box, berry box and hamper and round stove-basket. Tolerances permissible for errors in manufacturing and grades on practically all fruits and vegetables grown in Texas were decreed.

JUDGMENT FOR $20,000 AGAINST KATY RAILROAD

WACO, Dec. 2.—Judgment for $20,000 was given by a jury in the 19th district court here today against the Katy railroad in favor of Mrs. Bernah Riddleberger, who sued for $20,000 damages for the death of her husband, W. T. Riddleberger, who was killed at Granger, Aug. 4, 1920.

"ONE CROP TAKES YOU THERE, FOUR BRING YOU BACK"

Large colored display posters distributed by M. Bruce Oates, agricultural agent for the North Worth & Denver City railroad, show the value of diversified farming, and one of these posters illustrated by representative farms' states, "one crop will take you there, but it takes four sources of income to bring you back."

Mr. Oates recommends each farmer to have at least five milk cows, five meat hogs, one brood sow and 125 hens and to grow a half acre of garden in order to be successful. The poster states that by following this recommendation the result will be a money crop.

Experience has taught that the farmer who finds himself in a "hole" takes to diversified farming and in practically all instances it proves to lead to the results sought.

The extreme northern portion of the railroad district surrounding Forgan and Woodward reported partly clouded skies, while other places reported clear skies and calm weather.

"THE MISLEADING LADY" IS PROVING POPULAR PRODUCTION

"The Misleading Lady," current offering of the Gene Lewis-Olga Worth stock company, now playing at the Wichita theater, is proving to be one of the most popular plays that this city has seen in a long time.

Crowded houses have witnessed all the offerings thus far and the general opinion of the theater-going public seems to be that this week's production is the most enjoyable of the six that the Lewis-Olga company have presented.

"Kick In," a famous crook play with a long record of successes behind it, will be the offering next week.

The stock company is to remain in Wichita Falls only two more weeks.

OVER $200 GIVEN BY LOCAL SCHOOLS IN CHARITY DRIVE

Wichita Falls students have contributed $248.88 to the United Charities drive of the city, according to figures announced Friday from the office of Superintendent Clark. Complete returns were not in at the time the figures were released, but it was not considered likely that the total would reach more than a few dollars over that given out.

The Austin school led all others in the amount of cash turned in, its total being $68.93, but it also numbers several hundred more pupils on the mass rolls than any other school in the city.

The real leader, figuring on a basis of enrollment, was the Junior High school, which with approximately 400 pupils, turned in $49.55, or an average of considerably more than 10 cents per person.

Contributions by schools were given out as follows: High school, $27.33; Junior High, $49.55; Austin, $68.93; Alamo, $23.13; San Jacinto, $21.90; Sam Houston, $11.97; Bowie, $4.50; Pannin, $5; Harwar, $4.61; and Travis, $9.

NEXT DOSE CALOMEL MAY SALIVATE YOU

It is Mercury, Quicksilver, sheen, Liver and Attacks Your Bones.

Calomel salivation is horrible. It swells the tongue, loosens the teeth and starts rheumatism. There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Calomel is a dangerous drug, besides it may make you feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic asks better than treacherous calomel your money is waiting for you. (Adv.)

ALL THE NEWS OF ALL THE SPORTS ALL THE TIME

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT MAY BE HELD HERE FEBRUARY 9, 10, 11

IF LEGION HALL IS AVAILABLE BASKET SHOOTERS WILL SHOW HERE.

DATES SET FOR VARIOUS INTERSCHOLASTIC MEETS

Important Meeting of High School Officials To Be Held Here Tomorrow.

If the American Legion hall is declared fit for basketball and the Legion authorities grant permission to the high school authorities to use it, as was once indicated, the district tournament will in all probability be held here Feb. 9, 10 and 11. At a meeting of county officials in Iowa Park last night Wichita Falls was selected as the most desirable location, providing an indoor court could be obtained.

The interscholastic basketball league, comprising high school quintets throughout the state, will be run on the same plan as the football league this season which proved such a tremendous success. A county tournament will first be held on Feb. 2 and 3. An indoor court is present under construction in Iowa Park and if completed in time will draw the county tournament. Otherwise, the tournament will be held in Electric. Quintets from Wichita Falls, Electric, Iowa Park, Burkburnett and Clara will participate. Other county tournaments will be going on at the same time and a district elimination contest will be next in order.

The winners of the county tournaments will take part in this meet which Wichita Falls hopes to land. Another meeting of the county and district officials will be held here tomorrow at the high school to arrange future dates and determine whether or not the Legion hall is fit.

The county interscholastic meet, including athletics, declamation contests, etc., will be held March 24 and 25 at a date to be decided upon at tomorrow's meeting. The dates for the district interscholastic meet will be held April 14 and 15 and the location for that meet will also be made tomorrow.

The grand finale in basketball and everything else will be held in Austin at a date to be decided upon later.

A tentative county schedule has been arranged, but the locations of all games except one will not be made until tomorrow. The schedule follows:

Jan. 7.—Wichita Falls vs. Iowa Park and Electric vs. Burkburnett; Jan. 14, Wichita Falls vs. Electric in Electric; Dec. 10, Iowa Park vs. Clara; Dec. 17, Electric vs. Iowa Park; Jan. 21, Electric vs. Clara; Jan. 28, Wichita Falls vs. Clara. A game between Wichita Falls and Electric to be played here is still pending.

Story of Johnny Buff's Only Kay O Has Queer Angle

Has Johnny Buff, present holder of flyweight and mount honors, ever been knocked out?

Yes, like most of the champions, Johnny at one time in his career was found to take the knockout.

There is a very interesting story in connection with that knockout, if you will take the word of Johnny's manager for the particular.

Incidentally, that knockout proved a most costly one, as Buff had been selected as the first opponent for the English champion, Jimmy Wilde, when he toured this country.

Anxious to give Buff a stiff workout for the proposed bout, he was matched with Mickey Delmont, who was figured soft picking.

Buff fought with a rubber mouthpiece to protect his gums, just as Charley White, Jack Britton and a number of others do.

In the second round Delmont slipped a tight across to Buff's jaw. It jarred the mouthpiece and Johnny's teeth clacked together. In so doing, he bit the rubber in two, and proceeded to swallow one of the halves.

Only Three Westerners On Billy Evans' 1921 All-American Eleven

FIRST TEAM	POSITION	SECOND TEAM
Macomber, Harvard	End	Swanson, Nebraska
Slater, Iowa	Tackle	McGuire, Chicago
Brown, Harvard	Guard	H. Anderson, Notre Dame
Stein, Pittsboro	Center	Wittmer, Princeton
Carney, Annapolis	Guard	Crutshank, Yale
Keck, Princeton	Tackle	Huffman, Ohio State
Kilgip, Notre Dame	End	E. Anderson, Notre Dame
Devine, Iowa	Quarterback	McMillin, Centre
Killinger, Penn State	Halfback	Kaw, Cornell
Aldrich, Yale	Halfback	Toomey, California
Owen, Harvard	Fullback	Davis, Pittsburgh

Picking an All-American football team is purely a matter of personal opinion.

Often there are three or four players so nearly equal, that it is practically impossible to determine which player is the best.

Some striking qualification of a certain player may cause a great many to pick him, on the other hand, another player may appear just as strongly as many others, for playing who quarrel.

In selecting an All-American team the most difficult thing for me was to reach a decision between Devine of Penn State, Devine of Iowa and McMillin of Centre for the position of quarterback.

Seldom has any season produced three such great field generals, all of them skilled in every department of the game.

Devine of Iowa stands out as one of the greatest players the game has ever produced, east or west.

McMillin of Centre, the former Yale star, says of Devine: "I would be willing to go back 29 years to see any All-American team and place Devine at quarter back."

Coach Williams of Minnesota says: "Devine is the greatest quarterback the cream of the east, his rating is higher than any Johnny McGovern or Walter Eckersall."

Killinger is unquestionably the cream of the west, his rating is higher than any Johnny McGovern or Walter Eckersall.

My first thought was to place Devine at quarter and use Killinger as one half and McMillin at the other. In modern football there is only a very slight difference between the quarterback and halfback position.

That combination would have given me a great quarterback in Devine. Since Killinger had always played halfback until this year, he would be perfectly at home.

That would have given me the greatest running back of the year, McMillin, who is rated as the best defensive quarter, would have supplied me with a fine defensive back. In addition McMillin is as good on the offensive.

Only the great work of Captain Aldrich of Yale caused me to shift my plans. Aldrich has been the leading halfback of the east. He is a most remarkable player, and there is really no way of keeping him off the team. That fact alone causes me to shift McMillin to my second team.

Some critics might have objected to the use of three quarterbacks in the backfield. In order to have had some authority for such a radical change, I discussed the possibility with Coach Rockne of Notre Dame, one of the greatest football mentors. Here is how he viewed the suggestion: "I think it is entirely proper to call them 'em right."

Will Rogers' newest joke: "I quit the movies with the same wife I started with."

Here is some more bad news for Harvard. Moran is going to coach Centre next year.

FIVE TEAMS REMAIN IN SCHOLASTIC RACE

More Than 300 Schools Expected To Participate in Eliminations Next Year.

By ROY B. HENDERSON.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—The state championship football race, as conducted by the University of Texas interscholastic league for high schools is progressing smoothly.

The beautiful Lansdowne-Barritt trophy, an eighteen-inch silver loving cup, appropriately inscribed, is now on display at the league headquarters and will be awarded to the winning team from among the following five, which are the only survivors of the 273 that participated.

Arlene, Austin, Bryan, Dallas (Oak Cliff) and Temple. Every winner should have as his ambition constantly to better his game, and with this end in view he is urged to go into it thoroughly, and "start in tight" by going to some good professional regularly to receive tutoring in the game.

The golfer should then adopt the stance and the grip which seem the most comfortable and with which he gets the best results. Having once satisfied himself as to the one which is best suited to him he should stick to it, unless after a more thorough tryout it proves absolutely unsatisfactory.

After having learned something about his stance, grip, wrists and swing, the student of golf has got to the stage where he hears, "Keep your head down," and "Keep your eye on the ball," but he should not get tired of these slogans, for he is going to hear them repeatedly all his life.

Now that he is now confronted with the use of his driver or brassie. From the first he should bear in mind the facility of pressing. He should strike with accuracy and not distance, for with experience he will gain distance, and if he is the type who is destined to be incapable of reaching the green, he must content himself with getting as much distance as he can, and specializing on accuracy.

One of the chief differences between wooden and iron club play is in the swing. The three-quarter swing with the wooden club is equivalent to the full swing with the iron club. Another point of importance in considering iron clubs is that the club with which we choose to play should be capable of taking care of the distance which we strive to get.

In approaching the player should strive for accuracy, and he should try the putting approach of reaching the green. Perhaps on the particular course where he learns the game, the pitch, and run ways are considered advisable on practice.

After the player has mastered the game so that he is out of the dub class he must still give up hours of friendly companionship on the links for solitary practice. One is never satisfied with one's self in golf, probably that is why it is so worth while. Taken all in all we are glad to see golf coming out of the old man's class and becoming a game which the youth of the island consider worth while. It shows that it is worthy of becoming one of the real American sports.

Don't forget the Electric Range demonstration at the Wichita Falls Electric company, 211 Indiana avenue on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This was in Miss Veda Craig of Chicago.

TODAY'S Sport Angle

In doping out the possible winners in a running race, the experts base their predictions largely on the form that the horses have shown in previous starts, under certain conditions.

In baseball form amounts to little or nothing, as far as the individual schools of the state represented, the certain teams often stand out as the class of the league. These teams figure to win a majority of games played of the kind of opposition and usually do.

In figuring a team's chances to win, the pitching selection must always be given some consideration. Very often pitchers considered the class of the league, invariably find it difficult to beat some tall-end team.

For example, we will take the case of Dick Kerr of Chicago. Pitted against the New York club, winner of the American League pennant, Kerr was a bear. The Yankees were beaten almost as soon as he stepped into the box.

Washington club wasn't nearly as hard a hitting aggregation as the Yankees, yet Kerr always had his troubles against the Nationals. As a matter of fact, Dick was lucky to finish a game.

HOW TO PLAY GOLF

By JESSE F. GUILFORD Amateur Golf Champion of the United States.

The Game as a Whole.

In this series of articles I have attempted to lay down what I consider the main points in the learning of the game of golf, and in this last article I would like to go over them briefly, pointing out what I think is of the utmost importance.

In the first place the golfer who is about to take up golf (and especially is this true of those who take it up after they have grown up) should realize that the golf is a science, and that the better one plays the game the more enjoyment there is in it, not only for himself but for those with whom he plays.

Every golfer should have as his ambition constantly to better his game, and with this end in view he is urged to go into it thoroughly, and "start in tight" by going to some good professional regularly to receive tutoring in the game.

The golfer should then adopt the stance and the grip which seem the most comfortable and with which he gets the best results. Having once satisfied himself as to the one which is best suited to him he should stick to it, unless after a more thorough tryout it proves absolutely unsatisfactory.

After having learned something about his stance, grip, wrists and swing, the student of golf has got to the stage where he hears, "Keep your head down," and "Keep your eye on the ball," but he should not get tired of these slogans, for he is going to hear them repeatedly all his life.

Now that he is now confronted with the use of his driver or brassie. From the first he should bear in mind the facility of pressing. He should strike with accuracy and not distance, for with experience he will gain distance, and if he is the type who is destined to be incapable of reaching the green, he must content himself with getting as much distance as he can, and specializing on accuracy.

One of the chief differences between wooden and iron club play is in the swing. The three-quarter swing with the wooden club is equivalent to the full swing with the iron club. Another point of importance in considering iron clubs is that the club with which we choose to play should be capable of taking care of the distance which we strive to get.

In approaching the player should strive for accuracy, and he should try the putting approach of reaching the green. Perhaps on the particular course where he learns the game, the pitch, and run ways are considered advisable on practice.

After the player has mastered the game so that he is out of the dub class he must still give up hours of friendly companionship on the links for solitary practice. One is never satisfied with one's self in golf, probably that is why it is so worth while. Taken all in all we are glad to see golf coming out of the old man's class and becoming a game which the youth of the island consider worth while. It shows that it is worthy of becoming one of the real American sports.

Coaches Differ as To Proper System To Be Employed

Which is the best system in football, the one employed by Harvard, or the one used by Penn State?

These two teams played a 21 to 21 tie, so there is no chance to reach a decision, when considering the score of that game alone.

Harvard's system is to use the quarterback as a field general almost exclusively. It is his duty to select the plays, but have some one else execute most of them.

The quarterback is unquestionably the thinker on a football team. The Harvard system is that no quarterback can be tackled, hammered, and constantly battered, and have the old brain function properly.

Harvard depends on the quarterback for strategy. For that reason the Crimmon's field generals are kept out of the scrimmage as much as possible.

In the games between the so-called "Big Three" this year, O'Hara of Yale and Lourie of Princeton, made mistakes of judgment, probably because they had to do a great amount of offensive work. Bull of Harvard on the other hand had no such trouble, as he was seldom in the scrimmage.

At Penn State, Killinger, who directed the play, stood out as the greatest running back of the year. He was constantly used on the offensive. Both elevens did pretty well.

SPORT SPLINTERS

Duffy Lewis, who is to manage the Salt-Lake team next year, has finally realized his ambition. Lewis when with the New York Yankees always hankered after a managerial job.

When Huggins was selected as the leader, Lewis was given considerable thought.

Now that it is a certainty that Heinie Groh will not be with Cincinnati next year, Pat Moran of the Salt-Lake team has been selected as the leader. Lewis was given considerable thought.

Charley Riegler, National League umpire, is a bug on the golf game. Riegler is perfecting his play, with the thought that he might become a golfer.

Manager Griffith of the Washington club has squelched all the rumors that his team was in the field for a new third baseman. Howard Shanks will play that bag for the Nationals. Griff figures there are few better men in the league.

A number of major league clubs have their eyes on Johnny Stuart of Ohio State, who is regarded as a big league possibility. If Stuart plays baseball as well as football, he has a great chance to make good.

GOLF WITHOUT EXPENSE

"Golf for the common folk," is the slogan of Ernest M. Marland of Ponca City, Okla.

Mr. Marland is an oil magnate. That means he has plenty of money. Likewise he is a bug on golf.

It so happens that Mr. Marland is not one of the oil magnates who keeps all the good things in life for himself.

He believes in sharing the joy of life with the men who work for him. His employees for years have received dividends, based on the amount of salary they are paid.

There isn't a single expense for those who desire to play. The maintenance of the grounds is cared for by Mr. Marland, who refused a suggestion from the city that it be allowed to assist in the upkeep.

COMPANY B TEXAS RANGERS TO MOVE HERE NEXT MONDAY

CAPTAIN TOM R. HICKMAN IN LETTER TO SGT. McCORMICK TELLS OF MOVE.

WILL COME FROM FORT WORTH IN AUTOMOBILES

Headquarters of Company Will Be Located in Building At Call Field.

Company B, Texas state rangers, in charge of Captain Tom R. Hickman, now stationed at Fort Worth, will move to Wichita Falls next Monday, according to word received Friday by Sergeant J. W. McCormick, who has been on duty here for nearly a year.

Headquarters of the company of state rangers will be established in one of the buildings at Call Field. Captain Tom Hickman, who is well known here, having been in charge for a while last year during the crime wave period in this county, will be in active charge and the state officers will receive their orders from this city.

Company B at present is composed of ten men, Sergeant McCormick and the captain. The move of the headquarters of the company had been under consideration for several months, but the announcement of the move for Monday came as a surprise.

The men now stationed with the headquarters detachment with all the equipment of the company and the men will be moved here by automobiles.

NEXT TUESDAY WILL BE KIWANIANS "KEMP DAY," DATE ADVANCED A WEEK

"Kemp Day," originally scheduled for Dec. 12, has been moved up one week and will be held next Monday according to a decision reached Thursday afternoon by officials of the local Kiwanis club, which is planning a special program in honor of J. A. Kemp. The new date was decided in order to insure the presence of Mr. Kemp at the meeting.

A special program of music and speeches, including an address by Mayor W. D. Cline, has been arranged by a special committee appointed for that purpose.

Monday promises to be a busy day for the Kiwanians, the election of officers for 1922 also being carried to take place. This will be held at 11:45 in the morning and will be followed 30 minutes later by the regular program.

Officers of the club are requesting that all members report at the Kemp half an hour early in order to be in on the election.

TO START SERVICE ON NEW CAR LINES NEXT MONDAY NOON

Street car service over part of the new lines will start next Monday, probably at noon, General Manager L. L. Albritton of the traction company said Friday.

The Southland line will be operated as at present until December 28, and the new line out Thirtieth will be operated separately as far as space. On December 28, when the concrete at Collins and Clark has hardened, the Southland line will be via Thirtieth, Clark and Collins, and the old Southland line will operate only to Clark street.

While the traction company has tentative plans for the old Southland line, nothing can be done until adverse property owners are reconciled.

The line down Ninth street is expected to prove a great benefit to the traction company and will, the company believes, result in increased patronage.

While no decision has been reached as to the company's next project, it is quite likely that the line to the Riverside cemetery district will be the next undertaking. The proposed North Wichita line would connect with this route.

THREE MEN CHARGED BY INDICTMENT WITH MURDER ARE RELEASED ON BOND

GALVESTON, Dec. 2.—Perry McFadden, Hayden Ross and J. E. Hayes, charged by grand jury indictment with the murder at League City on July 28 last of Marcus Benson, a prominent citizen of this county, were today admitted to bail in the sum of $20,000 each.

The bonds were fixed by Judge Robert G. Street of the 86th district court at the conclusion of habeas corpus proceedings begun early in the week. Previous to their indictment they had been at liberty under bond of the same amounts for their appearance before the grand jury.

UNIQUE CHATEL MORTGAGE

IS FILED HERE RECENTLY. A chattel mortgage on "1600 feet of sucker rod and one Jersey cow" was placed on file recently in the county clerk's office, and caused some merriment among those who noted it.

It was explained that the sucker rod and the Jersey cow had no special relation to each other, except that the same man borrowed $50 from an Iowa Park bank on them.

BOND FOR H. G. TWYMAN

IS PLACED AT $4,000. GATESVILLE, TEXAS, Dec. 2.—Bond for H. G. Twyman, formerly military instructor at the juvenile training school here, charged with causing the death of Dell Thamen, was fixed at $4,000 at the conclusion of his habeas corpus hearing yesterday. Reports November 30 from Waco that he had been remanded without bail being fixed in the habeas corpus case were incorrect.

FORTY PETIT AND 30 GRAND JURORS TO REPORT DEC. 12

Forty petit and thirty grand jurors have been ordered to report to Judge Grubb of the United States district court in this city on December 12. The names of the jurors, have been drawn from the jury wheel and the lists sent to the marshal's office at Dallas.

The Wichita Falls division of the northwestern district of Texas will have but two weeks of federal court this term, and will adjourn on Christmas eve. Both the civil and criminal dockets are heavy and it will be impossible to dispose of all the matters pending.

Seventeen applications for naturalization of foreign born residents will come before the court for consideration. A part of this number are residents of Clay county who were refused final papers at the last term of court for inability to answer questions directed to them by the court on the constitution of the United States and the state government.
