PRESIDENT BEFORE U. S. CONGRESS

BRITISH PROMISE A FREE STATE TO THE IRISH PEOPLE

By Associated Press. LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Evening Standard says that the government's proposals for an Irish settlement upon which an agreement was reached this morning, provided for an Irish free state, withdrawal of all military forces from Ireland and safeguards which will insure peaceful conditions there.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Dec. 6.—Definite promise of allegiance to the empire by the Irish people is provided in the Irish peace terms, the Central News states. The agreement, it says, is satisfactory to the king in that it involves Ireland's association with the empire.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Dec. 6.—Prime Minister Lloyd George has abandoned his intention to visit Washington owing to the illness of his wife, the Central News states. The agreement, it says, is satisfactory to the king in that it involves Ireland's association with the empire.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Dec. 6.—Premier Sir James Craig of Ulster has before him the further proposals for an Irish free state which he announced last week he must receive by today or declare the peace talks at an end.

An agreement was reached by the British cabinet members and Sinn Fein delegates at an early hour this morning and a copy of the terms, which are subject to the action of the British parliament and the full agreement, was immediately dispatched by Sir James by special messenger.

The agreement after a session which lasted more than three hours came as unexpected news to the feeble hopes expressed last night after a day of conferences during which it was at one time understood that the agreement had definitely broken down and that only questions of continuing the truce in Ireland remained to be considered.

Nothing has thus far been learned as to the exact modifications in the government's terms, but it is believed that some serious questions of allegiance to the crown has been discovered. It is pointed out that the Sinn Fein cabinet refused the government's terms only three days ago and that the modifications must be promising from the Sinn Fein point of view to their parliament.

Whether the question of the unity of Ireland was similarly solved, it was not stated in the statement issued at Premier Lloyd George's residence where the conference was held.

When the conference left the premises residence of the Sinn Fein delegates to talk or even to listen to the reporters' inquiries. The Irish representatives would not give the slightest information and the British ministers declined to say more than to admit that there was an agreement.

The new developments came so late that only three or four editions of the morning newspapers carried the announcement.

The British cabinet at its meeting today unanimously adopted the draft agreement with the Sinn Fein and congratulated Prime Minister Lloyd George and the members of the delegation in the Irish conference on the success of the negotiations.

RELFEST, Dec. 6.—News of the agreement between the British and Sinn Fein delegates in London was published in the late editions of the Belfast morning newspapers.

The Northern Whig says editorially that until it is known whether the agreement is a permanent one or a temporary one, it is difficult to see how the Sinn Fein position has been modified so as to secure their acceptance, judgment should be suspended. The position is not, however, as defined and that in all events will not be damaged. The utmost concession has been made by Ulster and what ever the consequences may be, the province cannot be a party to any further weakening links that bind her to Great Britain.

OBBLIGATED TO RECOMMEND AGREEMENT TO PARLIAMENT By Associated Press. LONDON, Dec. 6.—The agreement reached by the British and Sinn Fein delegates today binds both sides to recommend it to their parliaments. It is a formal, detailed and conclusive document and its terms prevent the necessity of further negotiations.

Should the deal agree to the document—and a disagreement is not looked for, as it meets satisfactorily the points raised by the Sinn Fein—it will be embodied in a bill and submitted to the British parliament which is expected to be called in special session to consider it. The consent of Ulster is not required to make the agreement effective. She is given the option of withdrawal in a month, reverting then to her present status within territory to be decided by a boundary commission from maturing.

Provisional government will be formed in southern Ireland when the British parliament is considering the agreement.

On the question of allegiance a form of words was found which satisfied both the government and the Sinn Fein. The recognition of Ireland as an independent state is said to be clear.

The principle at last adopted by the government is said to have been that of trusting Ireland fully and giving her full power of decision without hampering her by conditions.

It is also understood that an arrangement satisfactory to the Sinn Fein was reached regarding control of Irish ports by the navy. The agreement was signed on behalf of the government by Prime Minister Lloyd George, Austen Chamberlain, Lord Birkenhead and Winston Spencer Churchill, and on behalf of the Sinn Fein by Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and Robert C. Barton.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The British parliament will meet on Wednesday, December 14 for a session limited exclusively to the Irish settlement question, it is announced officially tonight. King George will open the parliament in state.

fein was reached regarding control of Irish ports by the navy. The agreement was signed on behalf of the government by Prime Minister Lloyd George, Austen Chamberlain, Lord Birkenhead and Winston Spencer Churchill, and on behalf of the Sinn Fein by Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and Robert C. Barton.

WILL HEREAFTER BE KNOWN AS 'THE IRISH FREE STATE' BIRMINGHAM, ENG., Dec. 6.—Ireland hereafter will be known officially as 'The Irish Free State' in the agreement reached at last night's London conference, it was announced by Lord Chancellor Birkenhead in a note issued today.

In outlining the general terms of the agreement, the lord chancellor said: "We propose in the first place, that within the area of southern Ireland we shall make those who beyond all question within that area at this moment are entitled to speak for the overwhelming majority of the population, masters in their own house."

Lord Birkenhead said the parliament to be set up would be supreme in its own domain in matters of finance, and that it is given to determine the amount to be assumed by Ireland as her proportion of the national debt and war expenditure.

SAYS IRELAND HAS GIVEN 'PROOF OF WILL FOR PEACE' DUBLIN, Dec. 6.—The Freeman's Journal, commenting on the agreement, says that Ireland needs no assurance that the peace terms are in harmony with the principles for which she stands. Ireland was aware from the first, the newspaper says, that these principles contained no menace to the real interests of Great Britain and that the fact appears at least to be clear to the British statesmen.

Ireland has given the strongest of all proofs of her will for peace in the fact that she has taken to her part in insuring that the opposition of a fanatical minority should no longer prevent a peace with honor.

MUNDAY IS AGAIN DAMAGED BY FIRE; HOTEL DESTROYED

Special to The Times. MUNDAY, TEXAS, Dec. 6.—Another disaster visited Munday this morning at 9:30 o'clock, when a fire was started by some kind of explosion in the mattress factory, completely burning that property and a barber shop in the building owned by W. D. Dye. The flames spread to the building and contents that could not be removed.

J. W. Whitsett, owner of the hotel, has already paid to build a modern brick in an short a time as possible.

The mattress factory building was owned by J. N. Campbell, who suffered a heavy loss in the other fire of November 5.

A mass meeting is to be held tonight to order an election to vote on waterworks.

The damage by fire today is estimated at from $7,000 to $8,000.

TWENTY-THREE ARE REMOVED FROM THE WRECK ON READING

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—Twenty-three victims of the heavy collision yesterday between Philadelphia and Reading passenger trains near Eryn Athyn, Pa., had been accounted for early today. SENATE BILL DIRECTS SUPPLIES BE GIVEN TO RELIEF ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The senate today passed its first bill of the session, a measure directing the secretary of war to turn over to the American relief administration surplus medical and surgical supplies for use in the famine districts in Russia.

Attempts by Senator France, republican, Maryland, to broaden the scope of the measure to include many other supplies and to authorize the sending of a commission to Russia were rejected.

CHINESE DELEGATES DEMAND THE RETURN OF KIAO CHAU LEASE

ALSO INSIST ON PROTECTION OF INTERESTS IN MANCHURIA.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The Chinese delegation to the armament conference in London today has received explicit instructions from the Peking government not to recede from its position for the unconditional return of the Kiao Chau leasehold in Shantung and to protect China's interests in Manchuria.

Many cablegrams are being received daily from various organizations in China to the same effect.

It was said by Chinese spokesmen today that should the Shantung "conversations" result adversely to China's interests, the delegation might have to consider withdrawal.

It was emphasized there was no present intention of doing so.

PARIS NEWSPAPERS FAVOR THE QUADRUPLE ENTENTE

By Associated Press. PARIS, Dec. 6.—The suggestion at the Washington conference of a three or four power agreement to replace the Anglo-Japanese alliance is received favorably by the newspapers, although the details of the plan are awaited before any extended comment is indulged in. The Temps says:

"So far as we French are concerned anything which consolidates and replaces the Anglo-Japanese alliance will be welcome here."

M. Saint Brice, foreign editor of the Journal, expressed the same opinion, and remarks that it would not be an alliance "for offense, but for the neutralization of rivalries."

M. Saint Brice further points out that the plan has numerous precedents, notably the Russo-Japanese and Franco-Japanese understandings which had the same basis as well as the Mediterranean agreement and the Franco-Spanish accord on Morocco. He adds: "America accepts the Pacific pact because such pact is assurance against an Asiatic war."

Both the Temps and Le Journal articles were written before it was ascertained positively that France was included in the plan, but the writers were unanimous in insisting that France should be a party to such an agreement.

FEW DISTURBANCES INCIDENT TO STRIKE OF PACKER WORKERS

LEADERS OF BUTCHER WORKERS CLAIM 40,000 WALK OUT.

MANAGERS OF PLANTS REPORT PLENTY OF MEN

Threaten To Call Out Militia In Kansas To Prevent Alleged Picketing.

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—While reports of minor disturbances and some interruption of work are resulting from the strike of packing house workers came from St. Paul, Kansas City and Denver, and other cities, the first day of the strike passed quietly in Chicago and with apparently little effect on normal operations.

Leaders of the butcher workers' union announced that more than 12,000 workers employed by the "big five" in Chicago had walked out and 9,000 in centers outside of Chicago.

Employers said that less than 1,100 of the more than 28,000 employees in Chicago had failed to report and there were two applications for every vacancy.

A few of the 19 independent plants here who had not adopted the 10 per cent wage reduction, given as the cause of the strike by the union leaders, were not affected but some of them were almost completely tied up.

Representatives of the packers contended the wage issue is not involved in the strike, but it is an effort to destroy their shop representation plan adopted after Federal Judge Alschuler's order as arbitrator expired September 1.

Business men of St. Paul recommended to Adjutant General W. P. Rhinow of Minnesota that national guardsmen be called out to protect the south St. Paul plants following the attack on a load of strikebreakers and their dispersal by a crowd of strike sympathizers.

City officials of south St. Paul, however, announced they did not yet desire the protection of state troops.

Groups of strikers at Kansas City, Kans., were informed by the mayor and chief of police that militia would be called out on request of the Kansas industrial court if the Kansas anti-prohibiting law is violated. Leaders of the strikers then urged the pickets to disperse and stay away from packing plants. Members of the militia were called out to disperse the strikers who were not so disordered no drastic action would be taken against the strikers who had refused to appear before the court before the strike went into effect.

In Denver the packing plants were almost completely tied up by the strike. At Omaha one worked was attacked by a strike sympathizer but no other disorders were reported there.

MESSAGE DEALING WITH BOTH DOMESTIC AND WORLD PROBLEMS DELIVERED TO A JOINT SESSION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Harding informed congress today in his first annual message "that a most gratifying world accomplishment by the arms conference is not improbable." The message was delivered by the president in person in the chamber of the house and in the presence of the delegates to the conference, the most of the diplomats regularly stationed in Washington.

At the outset, the president discussed the conditions existing "a world restoration program" would have to be worked out, "by the nations more directly concerned. The United States help, he said, unselfishly because there is compensation in the consciousness of assisting, selflessly because the commerce and international exchanges in trade which marked our high tide of fortunate advancement are possible only when the nations of the world are in a state of stable order and normal relationship."

Turning to domestic problems the president unreservedly recommended early enactment of the permanent tariff and foreign debt refunding bills. He also announced that later on he would make some recommendations about renewed consideration of the tax program, involving the extension of the expiration of "hindering burdens" he also suggested consideration by congress of an amendment to the constitution to provide that non-taxable bonds may be issued.

With regard to the merchant marine, Mr. Harding said it was the purpose of his message to which "contemplates no greater draft on the public treasury, and which, though yet too crude to offer to the public, is a step in the right direction. It will argue its own approval."

"Proper encouragement" for the co-operative marketing program as a means of assisting in the relief of present conditions in agriculture was suggested by the executive. He said to hold the country together should give its earnest attention to a general policy of transportation of distributed industry and highway construction, and the restoration of the balance between city and country.

Other recommendations included: Plans of confidence, of common council, of mediation, arbitration and judicial determination in controversies between capital and labor.

Federal aid, by way of advances for reclamation of lands, where state and private participation is assured.

An appropriation necessary to supply the American relief administration with the 1,000,000 bushels of corn and 1,000,000 pounds of seed grain.

TEXT OF THE MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT TO CONGRESS WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The text of President Harding's message to congress follows:

Mr. Speaker and members of the congress: It is a very gratifying privilege to come to the congress with the republic at peace with all the nations, and to be able to report that our country is not only free from every impending menace of war, but that the human condition which we have inherited from the past, and which we are now endeavoring to solve, is being solved in a way which we believe to be the best for the world.

It is not my purpose to bring to you a process of world restoration. In the main such a program must be worked out by the nations most directly concerned. They must themselves turn to the heroic remedies for the menacing conditions under which they are struggling, then we can help and we mean to help. We shall do so unselfishly because there is compensation in the consciousness of assisting, selflessly because the commerce and international exchanges in trade, which marked our high tide of fortunate advancement, are possible only when the nations of all continents are restored to stable order and normal relationship.

In the restoration of normality in the world must come through the initiative of the executive branch of the government, but the best considered purposes would fall utterly if the sanction and co-operation in the consciousness of assisting, selflessly because the commerce and international exchanges in trade, which marked our high tide of fortunate advancement, are possible only when the nations of all continents are restored to stable order and normal relationship.

I am very sure we shall have no conflict of opinion about the constitutionality of such a program. During the anxieties of war, when necessity seemed to be compelling, there were excessive grants of authority and the government, but the best considered purposes would fall utterly if the sanction and co-operation in the consciousness of assisting, selflessly because the commerce and international exchanges in trade, which marked our high tide of fortunate advancement, are possible only when the nations of all continents are restored to stable order and normal relationship.

ARMS CONFERENCE DOES NOT AGREE ON SUBMARINE PLANS

HONEST AND INTELLIGENT DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO NUMBER.

QUESTION TO THE FRONT WITH BALFOUR OBJECTION

Obstacles Are Not Thought To Be Insurmountable, Says Colonel House.

By COL EDWARD M. HOUSE. Copyright, 1921, Public Ledger Co. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—There seems to be an honest and intelligent difference of opinion regarding the number of submarines that each of the powers sitting at the Washington conference should be permitted to have in the future. The question of submarines sprang to the fore immediately after Mr. Balfour made his objections to what is known as an unlimited number under the Hughes proposal. Balfour's counterproposal led the French prime minister to disagree sharply with his view, and the submarine for the time being, displaced in public discussion, the importance of the battleship as an instrument of war. Small nations and even larger ones, whose national finances can no longer bear the battleship strain, are looking toward the submarine as a cheap instrument of defense.

It appears to an onlooker that there need be no insuperable obstacles in reaching agreement upon this subject. Great Britain's chief objection to France's having a large submarine fleet is the fear of its use against merchant ships, and perhaps establishments; there will be a food blockade, great Britain can feed herself only about three days out of the seven days of the week, and anything which threatens her food supply threatens the life of the nation. France, because of her proximity to the English shores, and of the numberless harbors and inlets from which she might send forth submarines to attack the commerce of Great Britain, naturally would bring even more menace to that commerce than Germany brought in 1917, when her U-boat fleet sank during the second quarter of that year 2,326,924 gross tons of shipping, the greater part of which was British.

May Revise Laws. A convention can be reached, not only between the two nations, but have taken the controversy most to heart, but also with every other nation, including that other island kingdom, Japan. The way to an agreement lies in a revision of the laws governing the sea.

If submarine activities are confined to defensive operations, and the destruction of ships of war, the way seems clear for any country to have as many submarines as the protection of their shores warrants.

Merchant ships should not be subject to capture and search at sea by submarines, for it is manifestly impossible to do so in a way to insure the safety of passengers and crew. On the other hand, the merchant ships should not be armed. To arm them would be to invite trouble. No submarine commander would dare violate a convention entered into by all nations by which unarmed ships of commerce were immune from attack. To do so would bring upon himself and his country not only the condemnation of all neutrals, but it should involve the death penalty. It would be extremely difficult for a commander to break such a law of the sea without becoming known, and there would be few or none who would dare take the risk. Then, too, there is an esprit de corps among sailors of every land that makes them reluctant to do these hideous things to one another, and it is only by governmental direction or compulsion that they can be brought to execute such orders.

Questions of Contraband. The question of the number of submarines permissible and their use is inseparably bound up with the question of contraband. Sooner or later, these subjects must be discussed and settled; and what better place than Washington and now? The great maritime powers are there in session, and the question of arms is the reason for the convocation.

It is impossible to reach satisfactory conclusions as to the limitation of naval armaments without bringing in for adjustment the rules for procedure at sea during war. They are the very essence of the subject, and there can be no lasting good come of any agreements which do not include such a discussion and settlement. An agreement regarding capture and search at sea and the defining of contraband would make the task of reduction of naval armaments simple. It would clear the atmosphere and there would be no lurking fear of stagnation of commerce on the one side or of starvation on the other. It would be the greatest specific for future peace that could be devised. Submarines could then be, or not be, and the greater ship might be even reduced to a point where no nation could make aggressive war by sea upon another.

The United States always has stood for greater freedom of the sea, and we might well take this propitious occasion to reaffirm a policy which would be a notable step forward in the maintenance of world peace.

Willis, United States marine, for the death of Wylie Clark, announced Monday that if the government wished to handle the case it would be satisfactorily to his department. If the government does not take charge of the case, however, the state authorities here will handle it, the district attorney stated.

Coroner Willis P. Butler, who conducted the inquest, stated that no facts relating to a conversation between Clark and Willis were brought out during his inquiry. The dead youth is a nephew of Dr. A. W. Manser, superintendent of the Louisiana anti-saloon league, who said: "I will do my best to see that this man (Willis) is brought to trial for murder before the Caddo courts and with the permission of the district attorney, I will employ a lawyer to help with the prosecution. From the information I have the shooting seems to have been unjustifiable."

A. F. White, Kansas City Southern station agent at Blanchard, said he witnessed the shooting of Clark. "I was standing about 100 feet from the scene of the shooting," White said. "My attention was attracted by the marine guard pointing his gun from the mail car at Clark and motioning him to get away. When the marine motioned him away he backed about five feet and the marine fired. The first shot caused him to fall. As the boy fell the marine fired again. A brother of Clark started to the boy when he fell and the marine ordered him to stop, remarking that he would shoot him, too, and the brother stopped."

SPECIAL U. S. BANK WOULD PUT EUROPE BACK ON ITS FEET SAYS SENIOR SENATOR OF OKLAHOMA

By ROBERT L. OWEN, United States Senator from Oklahoma.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—International exchange can be corrected. Before the war fluctuation of exchange corrected itself when it reached the gold shipping point. This remedy is not available now because European countries have not gold and their production is below normal.

The balance of trade in our favor which means a commensurate balance, is a very small factor, but the depreciation of European currency is the overwhelming controlling factor.

Europe is perfectly obvious and is made manifest by the published exchange rates.

I can see clearly a remedy for this condition in Europe.

The European people are not bankrupt. Their material, industrial and moral values remain in spite of the embarrassment of European governments and depreciated currency and bonds.

But the European people own these bonds and currency as assets offsetting the government liabilities. Their productive power remains. What they need is a sound currency on which their manufacturers and merchants can predicate their contracts. A sound currency can be given them.

U. S. Bank for Europe.

For example, German currency, at present 100 billions of marks worth 45 of a cent apiece, is worth in gold $150,000,000.

Regardless of the paper money issues of Germany or of any other European government, the federal reserve bank system could be extended by establishing in Europe a federal reserve foreign bank with $100,000,000 gold taken from our surplus idle gold in America and having the federal reserve bank issue federal reserve notes with a gold reserve of 25 per cent, backed with short-time bills endorsed by responsible banks and secured by staple marketable commodities, up to 100 per cent of such notes.

This would provide Europe with a possible $2,000,000,000 of gold currency. The United States could furnish the strength this bank by providing that the European countries should pay the interest on the obligations due the United States into this bank to be used in further financing Europe and supplying this currency.

Real Competition.

These notes could be made redeemable in gold only when redemption in gold was called for by the member banks permitted to transact business with this federal reserve bank.

Graham's law would not apply to this special gold dollar currency because there would be no real competition between this currency and the depreciated pounds, francs, marks and shillings. The manufacturers and merchants of Europe immediately would be given a sound medium of exchange.

European industry would spring into new life to the very great advantage of Europe and America. Europe would be assisted in a rapid restoration of its productive powers and be able to repay America in due season every dollar that Europe owes and without any impairment of the self-respect of European nations.

I think America should be willing to make a lower rate of interest on the amount due by Europe than the high rates at present prevailing. In two years the normal rate of interest on credits will undoubtedly come back to where it was before the war—approximately 3 per cent.

And the United States would be justified in agreeing that the indebtedness of Europe should bear the same rates of interest which sound government securities will carry after such an adjustment exhibits itself.

Europe Would Aid.

The European governments, I believe, would welcome such assistance, would extend every facility and cooperation to make it effective.

An international conference for the purpose of establishing stability in the financial system of Europe ought to be held at once. The Harding administration would do itself great credit by accomplishing this result.

HASKELL COUNTY POULTRY SHOW ATTRACTS MANY FINE EXHIBITS; ANNOUNCE THE PRIZES AWARDED

HASKELL, TEXAS, Dec. 5.—The Haskell County Poultry association closed its third annual show Saturday with a large exhibit of fine fowls. Regardless of the fact that a severe north wind was blowing and the thermometer registered around 22, and now and then dark clouds threatened to cover the earth with sleet or snow, many flocks of thoroughbred birds were represented here. Several flocks had been shown at other shows and had won both ribbons and prizes.

W. W. Ashby with his Brown Leghorns had exhibited in Denton county before he moved here and won both ribbons and money prizes.

J. O. Bowden with his Barred Plymouth Rocks won at the Haskell county poultry show against birds from seven counties.

T. A. Payne with his Silver Laced Wyandottes from Clay county, where they were bred before he moved here, made a splendid record.

J. M. Everheart's Rhode Island Reds won at the Monday show shown at other shows and had won both ribbons and prizes.

Uncle Wesley Applegate of this city, with his famous White Wyandottes that won second prize at the Paris poultry fair last year, almost cleaned up by taking nearly every ribbon for the White Wyandotte family.

Prizes Awarded.

The following prizes were awarded with Col. R. L. Penick of Stamford, Texas, the judge, who rendered every decision without a particle of criticism on the part of any exhibitor and while several flocks and individual birds did not receive a prize or ribbon the owners were easily convinced that they were not in the running and each went away with the full determination that they would get thoroughbred stock and be in the game next year.

Delicious, finely-flavored and filled with healthful juice, Sealdsweet grapefruit and oranges promote cheerfulness and optimism by helping people to keep well.

When eaten freely and regularly, these Florida health fruits make life more enjoyable and help to get the world's work well done. "They tune the meal and tone the system" in a pleasant way.

For Days Filled With Energy, Joy and "Pep"

Eat Sealdsweet grapefruit or drink the juice of Sealdsweet oranges, at breakfast, for luncheon and with dinner. They may be served in so many ways as to give unending variety.

If "between meals" you find your energy slowing down, another half of a Sealdsweet grapefruit or the juice of a Sealdsweet orange will put the "pep" back into your work. Insist on Sealdsweet tree-ripened fruits—your dealer can supply you.

Rich in Food and Health Values

The value of grapefruit and oranges, in calories or fuel units of food, has been amply demonstrated by medical and scientific research. Now science has found these fruits equally rich in vitamins, the food elements essential to the perpetuation of life; vitamins making other food constituents available to the system.

It is the juice of grapefruit and oranges that contains the calories and the vitamins. Sealdsweet Florida fruits are heavy with juice, indicated by weight, hence their usefulness as food and for maintaining health.

"KICK IN" OFFERING AT WICHITA PROVES UNUSUAL THRILLER

A graphic story of "the rats," those easy moving, slim-fingered denizens of the underworld, is given in "Kick In," the big Willard Mack stage success now being produced by the Gene Lewis-Olga Worth stock company at the Wichita theater. The play, in addition to containing many entertaining qualities, gives quite an interesting insight into conditions that actually prevail in the life of a man who "goes straight" after an early life of crime.

As produced by the stock company Monday night, "Kick In" affords some of the most intense situations and gives some of the greatest thrills that any of the Lewis-Worth productions have thus far brought out. Some of the tragedy of "Madame X," some of the comedy of the "Scandal" type and drama of a type all its own, combine to make it gripping and realistic from beginning to end.

In places the story is somewhat illogical and the ending is more altruistic than true to life, their liberation from a hard boiler's police commissioner being obtained by an ex-convict and his wife through the plea of the latter that she is about to become a mother. But this detracts but little from the general merit of the piece.

The treatment accorded the whole production by the Lewis-Worth cast is of the same high order that has characterized their work in all previous plays. Gene Lewis as "Chick," the reformed thief who is going straight, gives a portrayal that leaves nothing to be desired. In the entire second act, wherein the disposition of a dead body is made, he carries his part as only a finished actor could do. The same is true of Miss Worth, who appears as Molly, "Chick's" wife.

Much of the play's comedy is furnished by Miss Pauline Le Roy and Miss Lee Smith, the former as a quick-witted Irishwoman and the latter as her gum-chewing flapper daughter. Their repartee gives to the play that lighter vein necessary to offset the heavier dramatic parts.

Joseph Remington as "Whip" Fogarty, the villainous detective from headquarters, has a role of the regular Judas variety. As a rough neck "law," a double-crosser, he appears in a part that earns the blame of the gallery, but this only redounds to his credit as an actor.

The same is true, in lesser measure, of Kick Ryder, who appears in the current production as the police commissioner attempting to recover a priceless necklace, stolen by a pal of Chick and Molly. Ryder's work has always been an outstanding feature of the Lewis-Worth plays and Monday he added new laurels to his growing collection.

Jack Doty as "The Dope," is called upon for character acting of

College Trained Women Out of Jobs in New York

MRS. WM. FELLOWS MORGAN
By NEA Service
NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—"White-colored women" in New York have been hard hit by industrial depression.

Ten per cent more stenographers are out of work here today than a year ago, and the pawnshops are full of fur coats.

And while everyone is excited about unemployment among men, no one seems to worry about the girls.

At least, no one did until the Young Women's Christian association became aware of the situation and started out to remedy it.

Now Mrs. William Fellows Morgan, president of the metropolitan branch of the Young Women's Christian association has started a movement to find a job for every girl who needs one.

"The clerical and office workers really are suffering," she says. "There is little unemployment among factory and industrial workers. They're holding their jobs and getting the same high wages as during the war. The college-trained and specialized workers unfit for factory work are the ones hit now."

Young Men's Christian association was founded in 1844.

the greatest importance and carries the role perfectly.

"Kick In" will be offered at the Wichita each night this week, with the regular matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

Next week, which will be the last of the eight-week engagement of the stock company in Wichita Falls, will bring "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," one of the greatest of all Broadway comedies.

Constipation Caused By Acid Stomach

CAN ONLY BE CURED BY ELIMINATING THE CAUSE

Most cases of constipation can be traced directly to acid stomach. Overflowing of the gastric juices causes the food in the stomach to ferment; this spoiled food cannot be assimilated and clogs the entire digestive system.

Calomel, salts or purgatives cannot cure this condition—they only aggravate it.

Ferrasol goes right to the source of the trouble. It helps the food to digest by absorbing the excess troubles caused by acid stomach, removing the cause of the trouble while healing the condition.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE CAGED HEART.

I never look into a cage in which a beautiful bird has been placed but what a train of thoughts are started.

I think of the great, wide spaces of nature—where streams run and play, where leaves sway and sing, where flowers sprout, bud and bloom and scatter to the four winds their delicate perfumes. I think of this as the real home of the lovely bird in that cage.

But pitiful and tragic as it is to cage a bird, it is not a circumstance to the tragedy of the caged heart—the heart which can look out and see all that is wonderful and appealing and satisfying, but is unable to leave its wired enclosure.

I recently saw a very worthwhile film picture. The author was Edna Ferber, the short story writer who puts heart and soul into the things she writes, as well as tinting them all the way through with cleverness and brightness.

The story was taken from the author's book, "Fanny Herself," and naturally the character which held you and gripped your feelings all along was Fanny herself.

Fanny has a heart which was about 24 karats fine. But it was caged.

Every minute she had in mind the happiness of others—but she was longing, praying for the sweetness, comfort and cheer which she herself gave away. I was glad that circumstances finally did open the cage door and let Fanny's heart out into the big world. But I was sorry that it had to be kept in for so long.

Each of us has a responsibility that is very great—not to expect to have given to us more than we ourselves are glad to give.

Millions of hearts are kept caged because people—each one of us—do not think of others!

If your heart seems caged, perhaps if you go to somebody else whose heart is also caged, and you open the door there, your heart too will soon feel the soft stimulus of gladness which Fanny's finally found.

Just try it and see!

HURRY!

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

Nine-tenths of the hurry to dress to eat, to work, the hurry to approach work is foolish and altogether unnecessary.

The hurry habit is just one more by-product of civilized life and it is often the promoter of much sickness and ill-health. The man who is always in a hurry, as a rule, bolts his meals, tires his body and strains his nervous system.

Some one has humorously called this the "jazz age" and has pointed out the fact that man's average length of life has been extended by a decade or so ago.

But it is not because of hurry that man's life has lengthened. It is because the general public is becoming more educated to methods of keeping well. Science is triumphing over disease and causing great plagues and great scourges.

The people who are always in a hurry are dragging down the average length of life. The hurry habit causes much fatigue and it is fatigue that is an underlying cause of a great deal of sickness. This is because an exhausted body offers but little resistance to the attacks of any disease germ.

Wealth of Knowledge

By DR. WILLIAM E. BARTON

Now it is told that Diogenes was asked why philosophers followed the rich, but the rich did not follow philosophers.

In general, the rich things he could not be bought with money.

This same Diogenes, when visited by Alexander the Great, received his royal visitor without rising; and when the king asked him, "What can I do for you?" replied, "Stand out of my sunshine."

Alexander is said to have remarked, "Were I not Alexander, I would be Diogenes."

I would not. I would rather be Plato or Aristotle, broad and benign, or Socrates, great and massive and serene in faith, than to be brilliant and cynical like Diogenes. Diogenes was a kind of soured Socrates.

But Diogenes was right about the purchase of money and those of us who are rich in money are poor in wisdom.

YOU AND I

When Robert E. Locke was 20 years old he was a stenographer in Boston, working for a railroad.

Eighteen years have passed. Locke is now president of the American Institute of Banking. He also is head of the Detroit branch of the federal reserve bank of Chicago, boss of a staff of 200 employees.

Young men who are pounding typewriter keys, keeping books and handling notes of the things that seemingly have no future, will, if they look about them, find thousands of inspiring cases like Robert E. Locke.

The great chance or opportunity that you are looking for will not be a matter of chance. It will come, if it comes, from doing the immediate job thoroughly, preparing for a heavier responsibility.

War develops the resourcefulness of nations. Same as rats, whose cunning increases when more cats are around. Necessity is the mother of invention.

The American inventive instinct, stimulated by the war, is being carried along by its own momentum. In the fiscal year 1918, patents were applied for by 12,357 inventors. The figure kept climbing steadily, reaching 107,586 for fiscal year 1921.

Patents actually granted haven't gained much. This shows duplication of ideas. Some one else already had thought of it. But brains are stirred up, thinking and scheming on a bigger scale. Active brain and foresight progress, though immediate results may be small.

More than a million tourists visited American national parks in the 1921 season. Even allowing for duplication, the thinking and scheming of the people is a natural habit to be midway, at least one American in ten.

The endings, "ert," "ard" and "art" in family names, when they are not traceable to the old Teutonic "hard" which is compounded in so many given names, clearly indicate an old Anglo-Saxon word of another meaning "herd". We use it still, but except in such combinations as "shepherd" we have switched its application from the man who had charge of the animals to the animals themselves. In Anglo-Saxon speech the "herd" was the man in charge of the domestic animals.

THE ROAD MONEY.

The action of the county commissioners Monday is blocking the original road program for the county is to be regretted for several reasons. First, it actually reduces the amount of paved mileage that will be obtained, because it applies the money on roads upon which no state or federal aid will be given. Second, it proposes to neglect the main traveled roads for those where there is less traffic. Third, it goes back on the promise that was given to the voters of the county when the bonds were voted. Fourth, it implies that the county commissioners look upon Wichita county, not as something to be considered as a whole, but as merely a bunch of precincts.

POSTPONEMENT OF GERMAN PAYMENTS BEING CONSIDERED

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Dec. 6.—Establishment in Berlin of an allied control commission to supervise budgetary reforms, and armed with powers to bring about other financial changes during a three year cessation in Germany's cash reparations payments is provided in a plan under consideration by the reparations officials of France and Great Britain.

The conversations now proceeding are understood to have smoothed away the principal difficulties between France and Great Britain in regard to reparations and to have solidified the opinion that Germany must be given a breathing spell in which partially to recover her financial and economic strength. Germany, it is understood, cannot under present conditions meet her scheduled payments beyond those due in January and February, but it is pointed out that at the end of a three-year holiday she will have no excuse for refusing to meet her obligations.

The plan meeting with most favor in French circles and which may be presented formally to the reparations commission at its next meeting, calls for an increase in payments in materials. In addition it provides for balancing of the German budget, retention of German capital within the country and flotation of a loan, part of the proceeds of which would go to the reparations commission.

Announcements that rehearsals for "All Aboard," the musical comedy to be presented on December 19 and 20 by the local high school senior class, were progressing rapidly were made Monday by officials in charge of the production. The cast has been selected and much of the preliminary work finished.

The play, which is a story of the sea, is reputed to be the first to be first to last and in the hands of the capable cast selected to portray it, it gives promise of being one of the most enjoyable theatricals ever staged by local talent.

Proceeds from the ticket sale are to go for the benefit of the senior class annual.

There is Strength in Every Tablet

One dose often helps commence to enrich your blood and revitalizes your worn-out exhausted nerves. Hematin Iron is a genuine iron, like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach. It is not a chemical compound, it will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. It is ready for the almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood while some physicians claim metallic iron which people usually take is absorbed at all. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can walk or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Hematin Iron—three times a day, after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all drugstores.

"I Cannot Do Business With A Pale-Faced Man Who Has No Blood in Him"

That is the statement of one of the biggest captains of industry in America.

How effectively he expresses the almost unanimous sentiment of the world with reference to the lack of esteem in which the deficient in physical force are held!

His words are, in effect, a verdict and sentence in one; condemning the weak and debilitated to a life of indifferent treatment, hardship and consequent failure.

For it's true, there's no possibility of consideration for the wan and worn-out; no place in the scheme of life for the pale and languid—only the swift and strong have any chance in the race of human existence.

But the world is constantly paging red-blooded men, those of alert minds and sturdy bodies; ever calling them in clarion tones, yet with pleading inflection, to come and occupy the positions of real power.

Of what great importance, then, is it that everyone, man and woman alike, look well to his health, guarding his strength and endurance and, thereby, keeping keen in mind and vigorous in body. No greater aid to this result can be found than FORCE, the master builder.

FORCE helps to make strong, sturdy men and healthy, beautiful women by keeping the principal organs of the body, especially those of elimination, in perfect working condition. Besides, it feeds the hungry nerves, replenishes the exhausted tissues and enriches the blood.

FORCE is a refreshing appetizer, a ready aid to digestion and a general systemic and reconstructive; being of special value in conditions of debility following excessive physical or mental exertion, worry, anxiety, overindulgence from acute fevers and infectious diseases, and a host of other conditions depending upon or attended by a general "nerve and blood" breakdown.

FORCE is sold by reliable druggists everywhere. Get a bottle TODAY. You'll find it a splendid strength-giving and up-building tonic.

C. OF C. ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD JANUARY 12

WILL PROBABLY BE PRECEDED BY MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN, DIRECTORS DECIDE.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ARRANGE DETAILS

May Bar Smoking—Directors Vote To Help With Annual Poultry Show.

The annual membership meeting of the chamber of commerce will be held Jan. 12, it was decided Tuesday at a meeting of the directors, and the place will be decided later by the committee named to superintend the affair.

The meeting will probably be preceded by a membership campaign. Smoking may be barred at the meeting, several of the directors urging such a rule after recalling the last meeting, when things got considerably fogged up. This, however, will be left to the committee, which consists of G. C. Wood, J. M. McFall, R. C. Harvey, George Keith, Burton Blaxton, R. E. Shepherd and T. P. Duncan.

The need of a new membership campaign was pointed out by several of the directors, who called attention to the fact that a great many new firms and individuals had come here since the last campaign, held early in 1919.

J. D. McMahon, representing the Colorado-to-Gulf highway, appeared before the directors in the interest of that route, explaining that concerted effort was necessary to prevent further diverting of traffic to other routes. It was decided to recommend to the incoming board of directors that this work be supported.

The directors voted an appropriation of $100 for the North Texas Poultry show and expressed regret that the state of the treasury would not permit giving a larger sum. Several of the directors spoke of the importance of co-operating with such movements, and authorized Manager Harrison of the chamber of commerce to give as much of his time as possible to helping the poultry association.

The directors adopted recommendations included in the report of C. H. Clark, chairman of the committee on the united charities campaign for appointment of a municipal board of charities, after passing an amendment which would make the chamber of commerce manager an additional member of the board. Much satisfaction was expressed over the conduct and success of the campaign.

INCORPORATION FAILS TO CARRY IN SOUTH BEND

The election for incorporation of South Bend last Saturday failed by one vote, the result being 19 to 20 against the incorporation. At the same time an election was held for officers to man the city should the election for incorporation carry.

The following officers were elected: J. W. Travers, mayor; Oils Titte and J. C. Mouton, commissioners. Mr. Travers, editor of the South Bend Derrick, and mayor-elect, had worked hard for the incorporation in order that the much needed improvements for the city could be carried forward. South Bend is a new town and many of the people had not lived there long enough to entitle them to a vote. Another election will be held next year when more of the people are qualified voters.

MOTORCYCLE OFFICER HURT IN ACCIDENT LATE MONDAY

Motorcycle Officer J. B. Kenner of the city police force was painfully injured late Monday evening when he was thrown from his machine in a collision with an automobile. The accident took place on Tenth street between Holliday and Grace.

Mrs. J. T. Willis was driving the car with which Kenner collided, according to his reports. The officer received a badly mangled foot and several cuts and bruises about the hands.

What Boots One Boot When Other Foot is Bootless?

Lost, strayed or stolen—one rubber boot.

"Finder please return to central fire station, or else come buy the mate."

The above specimen was handed in at the Times office Tuesday by Smiley Turner, assistant chief, who, since the small fire late Monday night has been minus one of his big rubber boots.

This indispensable part of his fire fighting equipment disappeared from the chemical truck, or "soda cart" firemanly speaking, as it was responding to the Monday alarm.

John Jenkins, relief driver on the truck, was the only one to make the call from the central station, Turner being off for the day, and between driving the machine and keeping the siren blowing he had little time for watching Turner's boots, which are always carried in the chemical truck.

Advice to put both feet in his remaining "shoe" and remarks of a similar nature were in strict order around Number 1 Tuesday. For much so, in fact, that Turner was praying for a speedy return of his missing property.

The boot was lost somewhere on Eighth- or Ninth streets, Jenkins believes, as he followed that route in answering the Kemp boulevard alarm.

A small fire in a dry cleaning plant at 1004 Scott street caused a short run for the central station fire department at 2:50 Monday afternoon. One overcoat was destroyed and a little damage done to the building.

Rube Marshall Sold To Des Moines Club Of Western League

Rube Marshall of the Spuders has been sold to the Des Moines club of the Western league. Word to that effect was received this morning by President R. O. Harvey from Secretary J. Will Gray who is with Manager Walter Salm in Buffalo, attending the annual meeting of the National association. This sale is one of several that is expected to be made by the Spuders before the skipper leaves the Bison City.

Gray's telegram also stated, in substance, that practically every club owner or manager who is attending the meeting is anxious to buy material and will pay the price for the right man. Hence, there are many who are in the same boat with Salm. Owing to the press of business, Gray indicated that trades would be made until the last day of the season. Barney Dreyfuss, Pittsburgh mogul, was due in Buffalo today and something is expected to develop when he and Walter get their heads together.

The sale of Marshall will not elicit much surprise among local fans as it has been predicted for some time that the big fellow would be among the first to be disposed of. Rube is a good hurler when the spirit moves him and if he makes up his mind to pitch the opposition always has plenty of trouble. But Rube did not take baseball seriously enough here. He preferred comedy to pitching and was never dependable. He came to Wichita Falls last spring with George Bischoff in a deal which never went through as originally intended. Red Johnson was sent to Memphis in exchange for the two men, but refused to report and the local management was forced to pay cash for both men. The amount involved in the deal with Des Moines was not mentioned.

He was credited with 17 victories and 14 losses last season but worked in only 18 full games.

Judge Landis Speaks
The long-looked-for decision has been handed down. Babe and his two partners in "crime" have been nicked for their shares in the world's series spoils and will not take any active part in a contest until May 20 or thereafter. It will be interesting to note the views expressed by the sport writers throughout the country on the decision which the supreme commissioner has decreed fit.

Some will say the punishment does not fit the crime, others will say it is too great, but we think the majority will agree that the judge acted wisely and only after due deliberation.

Major Leagues Bid For Player Who Has Failed Twice

John McGraw of the New York Giants is generally considered one of the greatest managers in the history of the game.

McGraw is supposed to be an excellent judge of ball players. One need only glance at his record in the majors for proof of that.

However, the greatest managers very often make mistakes. They often turn some players adrift who later develop into a star.

The case of Arnold Stutz, who was the sensation of the Pacific Coast League, is an excellent example of that truth.

Stutz was a star at Holy Cross four or five years back. Jesso Burkett was coaching Holy Cross at the time. Burkett and McGraw are pals.

The fact that Burkett believed Stutz had a fine chance to make good in the majors, caused McGraw to pay the collegian a fancy salary to join the Giants.

McGraw is a manager who takes snap action. Stutz is a very small fellow. McGraw usually likes big fellows. He soon decided Stutz wasn't a big league possibility.

Walters were asked on him. His fame was best known to the Boston Americans, since Holy Cross is located at Worcester, Mass., about fifty miles from Boston.

Stutz received a short trial in the American League and pronounced lacking. He was sent to the Pacific Coast League. He was the sensation of that circuit last year. Now a number of major league clubs are bidding for his services.

BADLEY BURCH OWNER OF THE OMAHA CLUB

BARNEY'S A WHOLE BALL CLUB IN MINNAPOLIS

OMAHA, Dec. 6.—"Barney" Burch is the owner of the Omaha club in the Western League. But wait a minute—you haven't heard anything yet.

Not only does Mr. Burch own the club but he also manages it. His club finished second last year, so he must have done a pretty good job.

Aside from managing the club, Burch also plays regularly. He might be called the general utility man of the team.

Burch is a pitcher and took his regular turn in the box. When not pitching he filled in at other positions when the occasion demanded. When Jack Leivelt, his star first sacker, was injured Burch played the initial sack, and did it well.

When Cy Linego, his first string catcher, was forced out of the game because of injuries he substituted Burch at the bat.

Usually when a team's regular catcher is out of the game, the club slumps, but Omaha kept on winning with the manager, pitcher, first baseman back of the bat.

Several times during the season one of his outfielders was unable to play, and once again Burch was "Jerry on the job." He played 11 games in the outfield.

In 18 trips to the plate as a pinch hitter, he hit safely 16 times. His batting average for the season was .311. His percentage .326.

Now that the season is over, Burch is remodeling his ball park and taking an active part in it. Every day since the close of the season he has worked as one of the carpenters on the job.

His slogan is a pennant for Omaha in 1922 and a big league park by 1923.

TWENTY-SIX MINOR LOOPS IN SESSION

Gathering is One of Largest in History of The Association.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Twenty-six minor league circuits embracing 170 clubs, were represented at the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues here today. It was said to be one of the largest gatherings in the history of the association. The annual address of President Michael Sexton, the report of Secretary John H. M. Farrell of Auburn, the election of officers and amendments to the constitution were on the program.

The possible return of the draft whereby the majors can draw on the minors for new playing material continued to be one of the chief topics of discussion. Among the three big AA minor leagues opposition to any change to the arrangement entered into a year ago seemed to be strong. A considerable number of delegates from A, B and C leagues were inclined to lend encouragement to the draft advocates.

BRAND OF BALL IN MAJORS SLOWING UP

Movement On Foot To Raise The Player Limit To Fifty.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Baseball in the majors has been retrograding in the past few years. That is the opinion of the owners, public and press. The magnates are naturally all fussed up about it.

The game isn't as snappy. The pitching has been on a decline. The standard of ball has been considerably below former years.

The managers are of the opinion that the players are not being developed rapidly enough. They seek more leeway in this feature of the game.

It is said there has been a quiet agitation going on since the close of the season for a decided raise in the player limit. They want it placed at 50 men. Also they desire a draft rule that will meet with the favor of the minors of higher classification.

The present limit is 40 men with the right to hold only eight under option. This is not believed to be high enough in order to keep up the standard of the game.

UNIV. OF PENN. TEAM UNABLE TO MEET AGGIES

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5.—The University of Pennsylvania today declined an invitation from the state fair association of Texas to send a football team to compete against the Texas Aggies in the new Dallas stadium on January 12, 1922.

E. R. Hushell, graduate manager of the athletes at Pennsylvania, informed the fair association that the team had been disbanded for the year and that such a trip was out of the question. He added that if even it had been possible to assemble an eleven, Dean Penniman, acting head of the university, had refused his consent to the proposal on the ground that the journey would take too much time from studies.

LANDIS TO ADDRESS JOINT MEETING OF MAJORS AND MINORS

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Club owners of the American and National leagues will meet in joint session in New York on December 13, at which time Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, will address them regarding the 1922 season. Judge Landis sent out the call for the meeting today.

The annual meeting of the American league will be held in New York December 14, a day previous to the joint meeting.

TODAY'S Sport Angle

Is it possible for one man to make or break a ball club? The idea that one man can make a ball club is often scouted. However, there is no denying that the loss of one man can very often break a ball club. I have in mind the case of Joe Gedeon and the St. Louis Browns of last summer.

Gedeon was one of those players who did his work without much show. Therefore he never received the praise really due him. Praise that would have been showered on a flashy infielder. I had always rated Joe Gedeon second to Eddie Collins when considering valuable second-sackers.

Had Joe Gedeon been with the St. Louis club last summer, the Browns might have won the pennant. In the early spring at least 15 games were lost out of the proposal on the lack of a finished, experienced second baseman.

Failure to play properly for certain hitters allowed many ground balls to go astray that would have been easy outs. Inability to complete double plays often enabled a team to put over the winning runs after the side should have been retired. Likewise, the master mind of Gedeon, who was constantly directing the play of the team, was sadly missed.

Yes, they laugh at you when you say that a certain player is just about the whole team. It is usually argued that a club can get along without this or that player no matter how valuable he may be. That is true, but while the club is getting squared away the loss of that certain athlete plays havoc with the team's chances. No better example than the case of Joe Gedeon could be offered.—R. E.

WHIRLWIND FINISH WINS FOR OAK CLIFF HIGH

TEMPLE, Dec. 6.—Oak Cliff High school won the inter-sectional football championship from Temple Monday afternoon in a game witnessed by 3,000 people. The final score standing 24 to 17. Four touchdowns, two of which came in the last quarter, gave the visitors the victory. Temple had the game its own way in the first half, but the Oak Cliff squad kept hammering ceaselessly and the tide was finally turned in their favor in the last quarter. Turner of Oak Cliff executed a beautiful forward pass, Graham running 50 yards for a touchdown. The pass is said to be the longest on record in any inter-sectional game this season.

Oak Cliff scored its fourth and last touchdown in the final quarter when Player Kicked after Weakley advanced the ball. Player kicked off all goals for the visitors. While Jones did the same for Temple.

BILLY EVANS TELLS A FEW INCIDENTS THAT HAPPEN ON GRID UNKNOWN TO FANS

By BILLY EVANS

Repertoire isn't confined entirely to the ball field.

A lot of interesting clashes come up on the gridiron. Often people say to me after a ball game, "I would have liked to have heard what the players were saying to you about that close decision."

In baseball any clash between player and umpire, or between the players of the two teams, is apparent to the spectators.

Here is a story that was told me by one of the Princeton players, with Keck, the star tackle, as the "goat." Chicago was playing at Princeton, Michigan.

WEGE'S KICK P.

After an unusually fierce scrimmage Crisler, the Chicago end, and Keck were at the bottom of the pile when the others entangled themselves. Crisler was on top, and getting to his feet, he grabbed Keck by the shoulders and assisting him to his feet, remarked:

"You big stiff, you better start showing something or Hoper will put you out and put Keck in your place."

It was a sarcastic slap that cut deep. This being a family newspaper it is not possible to quote Keck. But he showed 'em!

Coach Otten Sarcastic.

Until Illinois beat Ohio State, it had failed to win a single conference game. Naturally Coach Zuppke, who always has his team in quit, the better for you.

The quarterback carried the ball on the first play, was tackled hard and carried off the field. He had dugged it once more. His team was badly beaten without him to direct the play.

Oh, yes, the collegians do say things to one another. Just the same as the professionals.

MEUSEL TO FIGHT FOR SERIES MONEY

Lawyer Tells Him Man's Wages Cannot Be Taken Away.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—Bob Meusel, New York American outfielder, last night declared the fines imposed on himself, Babe Ruth and William Perry for infraction of the major league rule prohibiting "barnstorming" tours for players who participated in the world series of that year could not be made to stick.

"I have talked with attorneys and they tell me that a man's wages cannot be taken away from him," Meusel said. "I earned my world series money and Judge Landis has no right to take it away from me. Whether I will take the matter into the courts will be decided after I get in touch with Perry and Ruth. I earned the world series money. It is mine by every right and I intend to have it."

LEONARD CERTAIN TITLE WILL STAY IN FAMILY

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Benny Leonard, champion lightweight of the world, figures the title is certain in the Leonard family for some time.

Don't think the impression that Benny makes he will be able to keep on holding the title. He has a younger brother in mind.

Benny has unquestionably outgrown the lightweight class. It is a certainty that he can no longer make the weight. Probably that is the real reason for calling off his bout with Yender.

Of his brother Billie, Benny says: "He is a better fighter than I ever was. He will be ready to hold the lightweight title when I am ready to graduate into the welterweight class."

VANDY-TEXAS GAME NEXT YEAR OCT. 24

NASHVILLE, Dec. 5.—A practically complete football schedule for Vanderbilt university as announced today, shows that the local eleven will engage in at least two inter-sectional games next fall. The games arranged include October 11, Texas at Dallas.

Famous Runner Dies

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Charles H. Kilpatrick, famous amateur middle distance runner of 30 years ago, died suddenly on a train bringing him from his home in Fordham to his Kilpatrick established the amateur record of one minute, 53.5 seconds for the half mile run in 1895 and it stood until 1918.

W. S. C. WILL NOT PLAY CENTRE AT SAN DIEGO

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—University of Southern California athletic officials early today reversed a decision reached last night and announced that the football team of that institution would not play Centre college at San Diego, Calif., December 26.

Let it be recorded that Mr. Zuppke is a sarcastic mentor, and would be to the athlete who fails to come up to expectations. In one of the conference games a player by the name of Riechle, who was expected to be a big help to Illinois had gunned up several plays and was finally taken out.

The Monday following this game, Zuppke assembled his squad for a conference. He started the doings by requesting that all the fellows

PRESIDENT BEFORE CONGRESS OF U. S.

Much has been said about the protective policy for ourselves making it impossible for our debtors to discharge their obligations to us. This is a contention not now bearing for decision. If we must choose between a people in idleness pressing for the payment of indebtedness or a people resuming the normal ways of employment and carrying the credit, let us choose the latter.

Sometimes we appraise largest the human ill most vivid in our minds. We have been giving, and are giving now, of our influence and appeals to minimize the likelihood of war and to throw off the crushing burden of armament. It is all very earnest, with a national soul imploring that people unemployed and gaunt with hunger, face a situation quite as disheartening as war, and our greater obligation today is to the government's part toward resuming productivity and promoting fortunate and remunerative employment.

Something more than tariff protection is required by American agriculture. To the farm has come the earlier and the heavier burdens of readjustment. There is actual depression in our agricultural industry, while agricultural prosperity is absolutely essential to the general prosperity of the country. Congress has sought very earnestly to provide relief. It has promptly given such temporary relief as has been possible, but the call is insistent for the permanent solution. It is inevitable that large crops lower the prices and short crops advance them. No legislation can cure the fundamental disease there must be some economic solution for the excessive variation in returns for agricultural production.

"Shocking" Conditions.

It is rather shocking to be told and to have the statement strongly supported, that 9,000,000 bales of cotton raised on American plantations in a given year will actually be worth more to the producers than 1,000,000 bales would have been. Equally shocking is the statement that 700,000,000 bushels of wheat raised by American farmers would bring them more money than a billion bushels. Yet these are not exaggerated statements. In a world where there are tens of millions who need food and clothing, which they cannot get, such a condition is sure to inflict the social system which makes it possible.

In the main the remedy lies in distribution and marketing. Every proper encouragement should be given to the co-operative marketing programs. These have proved very helpful to the co-operating communities in Europe. In Russia the co-operative community has become the recognized bulwark of law and order and saved individualism from engulfment in social paralysis. Ultimately they will be accredited with the salvation of the Russian state.

There is the appeal for this experiment. Why not try it? No one challenges the right of the farmer to a larger share of the consumer's pay for his product, no one can dispute that we cannot live without the farmer. He is justified in his rebellion against the transportation cost. Given a fair return for his labor, he will have less occasion to appeal for financial aid; and given assurance that his efforts shall not be in vain, we demand that all the people of a production sufficient to meet our national requirements and guard against disaster.

Drift of Population.

The base of the pyramid of civilization which rests upon the soil is shrinking through the drift of population from farm to city. For a generation we have been expressing more or less concern about this tendency. Economists have warned and statesmen have deplored. We thought for a time that modern conveniences and the more intimate contact would halt the movement, but it has gone steadily on. Perhaps only grim necessity will correct it, but we ought to find a less drastic remedy.

The existing scheme of adjusting freight rates has been favoring the leading ports until industries are repelled from them. A great volume of uneconomic and wasteful transportation has attended and the cost increased accordingly. The grain milling and meat packing industries afford ample illustration, and the attending concentration is readily apparent. The measure in question is not limited to the retarding influences on agriculture. Manifestly, the conditions and terms of railway transportation ought not be permitted to increase the undesirable tendency. We have a just pride in our great cities but the nation which has a large distribution of its population in the country where comparatively self-sufficient smaller communities may blend agricultural and manufacturing interests in harmonious helpfulness and enhanced good fortune. Such a movement contemplates no destruction of things wrought, of investments made, or wealth involved. It only looks to a general policy of railway transportation which will encourage the spread of our population and restore the proper balance between city and country. The problem may well have your earnest attention.

It has been perhaps the proud claim of our American civilization that in dealing with human relationships it has constantly moved toward such justice in distributing the product of human energy that it has improved continuously the economic stand of the mass of the people. There has been a highly productive social organization. On the way up from the elemental stages of society we have eliminated slavery and serfdom and are now far on the way to the elimination of poverty.

Through the eradication of illiteracy and the diffusion of education, mankind has reached a stage where we may fairly say that in the United States equality of opportunity has been attained through all are now prepared to embrace it. There is, indeed, a great divergence between the economic conditions of the most and the least favored classes in the community. But even that divergence has not come to a point where we bracket the very poor and the very rich together as the least fortunate classes. Our efforts may well be directed to improving the status of both.

While this set of problems is commonly comprehended under the general phrase "capital and labor" it is really vastly broader. It is a question of social and economic organization. Labor has become a large contributor, through its savings, to the stock of capital; while the people who own the largest individual aggregates of capital are themselves often hard and earnest laborers. Very often it is extremely difficult to draw the line of demarcation between the two groups; to determine whether a particular individual is entitled to be set down as laborer or as capitalist. In a very large proportion of cases he is both and when he is both, he is the most useful citizen.

Labor Has Right to Organize

The right of labor to organize is just as fundamental and necessary as is the right of capital to organize. The right of labor to negotiate, to deal with and solve its particular problems in an organized way, through its chosen agents is just as essential as is the right of capital to organize, to maintain corporations, to limit the liabilities of stockholders.

Indeed we have come to recognize that the limited liability of the citizen as a stockholder in a corporation for profit. Along this line of organization closely parallels the limitation of liability of the citizen as a stockholder in a corporation for profit. Along this line of organization closely parallels the limitation of liability of the citizen as a stockholder in a corporation for profit.

There is yet unreservedly approximately 200,000,000 acres in the public domain, 2,000,000 acres of which should be made susceptible of reclamation and made fit for homes. The government has been assisting in the development of its reclamation service. It is recognized that increase in land values in the irrigated sections is fully $500,000,000 and the crops of 1920 alone on these lands are estimated to exceed $100,000,000.

Under the law authorizing these expenditures for development, the advances are to be returned, and it would be good business for the government to provide for the reclamation of the remaining 20,000,000 acres in addition to expediting the completing of projects long under way.

Under what is known as the coal and gas lease law, applicable also to deposits of phosphate and other minerals on the public domain, leases are now being made on the royalty basis and are producing a large remainder to the government. Under this legislation ten per centum of all royalties is to be paid directly to the federal treasury and the remainder to the states in which the operations are located, to be used by them for school and road purposes.

These resources are so vast and the development is affording a reliable basis of estimate, that the interior department expresses the belief that ultimately the present law will add in royalties and payments to the treasury of the federal government and the state containing these public lands, a total of $1,000,000,000.

The government, of course, an added wealth of many times that sum. These prospects seem to afford every justification of government aid in reclamation and irrigation.

Mrs. Ponzi Loyal to Wizard

MRS. CHARLES PONZI.

By NEA Service.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—If you were the wife of a multimillionaire finance wizard—

And he lost his last penny—

And was thrown into prison—

Would you stay loyal to him and defend him while the whole world condemned him?

Would you leave his mansion and live in a five-room flat with his mother, awaiting his release?

Would you get back your old job as a stenographer to earn bread for yourself and his mother?

But—

Charlie was honest," Mrs. Ponzi steadfastly maintained. "He meant to do right by all. Why, he could have kept some of the $5,000,000 he gave back to investors if he hadn't been square."

"He could have buried a million and no one would have known the difference. But he didn't!"

"I've had several offers to enter the movies but I just can't capitalize Charlie's misery. It's all too tragic."

"Of course, it's lonely for us without Charlie—he was so kind and considerate. And—let me tell you this—a man who's kind to his mother and wife can't be had at heart toward the rest of the world."

A wistful look came into Mrs. Ponzi's eyes.

"Christmas—I do hope they parole Charlie before next Christmas. That's all I'm looking forward to!"

have on the inevitable refunding of our vast national debt. Now it will operate on the necessary refunding of state and municipal debt, how the advantages of nation over state and municipality or the contrary may be avoided. Clearly the states would not ratify to their own apparent disadvantage. I suggest the consideration because the drift of wealth into non-taxable securities is hindering the flow of large capital to our industries, manufacturing, agriculture and carrying, until we are discouraging the very activities which make up our wealth.

Agreeable to your expressed desire and in complete accord with the purposes of the legislative branch of the government, there is in Washington as you happily know, an international conference now most earnestly at work on plans for the limitation of armament, a naval holiday, and the just settlement of problems which might develop into causes of international disagreement.

It is easy to believe a world hope is centered on this capital city. A most gratifying accomplishment is not improbable.

“No More European Women For Me”

Says Kapurthala

The Maharajah of Kapurthala Just Before He Went Back East.

The Divorced Maharanee of Kapurthala, a Former Spanish Cabaret Singer.

Immensely Rich Indian Potentate, with a $5,000,000 Alimony Lesson in Divorce, Goes Back to Harem He Abandoned!

TIME was when His Highness the Maharajah of Kapurthala thought he had plumbed the mysteries of the western mind. And if somebody had pressed him he would have claimed, no doubt, that he understood women—including the Spanish dancer he married. The Maharajah thinks differently now. When last seen he was making his way by rapid stages in the direction of his native Punjab and his coffee-colored harem. He didn't have as much baggage along as usual. He was lighter by one wife and five million dollars. The wife—the same Spanish dancer—had divorced him, and the five million was her alimony.

The Maharajah will hardly miss the money. The revenues from his eight thousand acres in India will more than take care of that. The wife is a different matter. Certainly her absence will be missed. Whether the void her leaving creates will make for ultimate pleasure or pain in the Maharajah's life is a question that time alone can satisfactorily answer. But whether for good or for evil, the Maharajah has made a vow which expressed in his own clear-cut English is this: "I am through with European women."

Fifteen years of married life with the dancing girl of Malaga taught him a restraint he wouldn't have thought possible before he acquired his European wife. For one thing it taught him to like America, because his wife was more cordially received here than anywhere else in the world. For another thing it taught him to forswear his harem.

The story of this Indian Prince and the Dancing Girl might have been lifted bodily from the Arabian Nights. Her name was Anita Delgado and she sold chestnuts at five for a penny in front of a Madrid cafe. The proprietor of the cafe heard her singing one day and hired her and her sister Maria to do a turn for his patrons one night.

That same night it happened that the Maharajah of Kapurthala, who was then visiting his friend, King Alfonso of Spain, was dining at this cafe with several attaches of the Spanish court. The girl's fervor and her warm beauty lit his fancy. He made advances. Papa Delgado interfered at this juncture.

The Maharajah, however, smothered the father's scruples with $30,000, whereupon the old man moved to Malaga, took his daughter with him and opened up a wine-shop of his own. The Maharajah followed her. Later he won her over, carried her to Paris, surrounded her with tutors and companions and at the end of a year married her.

Needless to say, his fellow-countrymen warned the Maharajah against this match. Their objections were based largely on the unwisdom of taking a woman, not of his own race and religion, into his palace.

The Maharajah, though, felt he could handle the situation. Already there were five women in his harem at Kapurthala—two wives of the first rank and three odalisques or slaves.

"I would not have you put them aside," his wife told him. "But you must not add to their number. Furthermore, it must be understood that their position is inferior."

The Maharajah more than made good on this demand. He never visited those other wives save under the most perfunctory circumstances.

The Maharajah, after meritorious service in the war, took up quarters in Paris with his wife. He was frequently seen with gay beauties. When the Deauville season opened he was among the most joyous of those happy sojourners at this resort. His name began to be coupled with this woman and that one. He gave a pearl necklace to one stage star, he pinned a diamond the size of a pigeon egg on the filmy bodice of a certain comely member of the demi-mondaine. In short, he became a typical boulevardier.

And then came the divorce suit. Now the Maharajah is through with European women for life.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Shipping, oil and motor specialties were conspicuously strong at the opening of the stock market. British exchange made no visible response to the reported settlement of the Irish situation, but German marks strengthened decidedly and Swiss francs rose to par, their highest quotation in almost two years.

COTTON MARKET.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 24 to 25 points. There was Liverpool and some trade buying on the opening advance to 17.45 for January, but the bulk met scattered selling and there was also a little southern selling which led to irregularity and slight reactions after the call.

The early demand appeared to have been pretty well supplied on the advance to 17.50 for January contracts and trading later was quiet with prices working off to about 17.35 for January, or within 20 points of last night's close.

Trading remained quiet during the middle of the afternoon with prices holding fairly steady around 17.44 for January or about 30 points above last night's closing quotation. The market closed barely steady.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—Rumors that spinning returns to the first of December, a jack pot was yesterday's market gossip indicated, combined with a much higher Liverpool than but out the price of cotton 29 to 31 points higher in the first half hour of business today.

All of the more active months reached advances of 21 points, the private bureau report of 7,520,000 bales given to the first of this month followed by an estimated demand of 7,880,000 bales. Dulness in the spot market of the south prevented any sustained demand and the market sagged off, standing at noon at advances of 25 to 28 points, with January at 16.75.

The market closed steady at a net advance of 10 to 15 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Wheat prices showed firmness today in the early dealings. Opening quotations, which varied from 1/2 off to 3/4 advance, with May 11.15 to 11.16 and July 11.05 to 11.07, were followed by slight further gains and then a moderate reaction.

Later the market under went a material decline owing largely to reports of poor demand for cash wheat and flour at Minneapolis. Prices closed heavy, 11 to 30 net lower, with May 11.15 to 11.16 and July 11.05 to 11.07.

Corn after opening unchanged to 3/4 lower, May 52 to 54, contained a weak.

Oats started unchanged to a shade higher, May 31, and then hardening a little more.

Higher bids strengthened provisions. Prices closed steady 1/2 to 1 1/2 net lower, with May 54, contained a weak.

OBJECTION RAISED TO PLAN DIVIDING 2ND CLASS FUNDS

An objection is being voiced against the action taken Monday by the commissioners court in dividing the second class funds used for district road purposes. It is stated that one of the members of the court will ask for a reconsideration of the question at the next session of the court.

A deficit of $14,000 was incurred during the year by Precinct No. 4. In fact, this precinct began the fiscal year with a deficit caused by the question of three bridges that were washed out during a flood the year before.

According to the plan adopted by the court Monday, a jack pot was created with the balance on hand in the other three districts and the money available from this year's tax collection and an even division of the money made.

In view of the fact that Precincts 1 and 2 were the only ones that had any balances remaining, the burden of paying for the bridges of which residents of Precinct 4 receive the benefit falls on Precincts 1 and 2.

The plan suggested is to divide the $14,000 deficit equally among the four precincts and then divide the money to be received during the coming year equally.

GRISWOLD COMPANY HAS 250 - BARRELER ON BURNETT TRACT

Swabbing and flowing at the rate of 250 barrels the No. 13 well of the Griswold Oil company on the Burnett tract in the South Eleventh pool, came in late Monday night from the new 1600 foot sand. The top of the sand was encountered at 1039 feet and was drilled to 1625 when the well blew itself in with a considerable show of gas. This well formerly produced from 1400 foot sand, but was drilled deeper.

The same company has at present three more wells drilling on this tract, Nos. 14, 15 and 16, and on the Waggoner tract, in section 34, is putting down a deep test which has reached 500 feet.

On the Zink tract in the Iowa Park district the Griswold has completed No. 23 and it is making around 30 barrels from the 700 foot or shallow sand.

TOKIO.—I. Funada, Japanese lumber king, will marry Miss N. Oki, Chinese slave girl. He rescued her from a band of wandering minstrels.

Firemen from the Buchanan and Holiday street stations were called to the home of Henry Hobbs, Tenth and Kemp, at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening, when neighbors became alarmed at dense clouds of smoke pouring from a chimney of the house. Negro servants had started a fire in the furnace, this giving rise to the belief that the building was ablaze.

Here are two Rings
They both shine—both are the same size—both are adornment—but one is a diamond—the other paste— which would you buy?

We hope we are putting it strong enough—the situation needs it. Gold bricks and golden bargains in men's suits and coats are looking alike this winter and the only way to separate the sheep from the goats is in the open field of comparison.

Before you buy a single dollar's worth of clothing—try on these Fashion Park garments.

STATE ENGINEER WILL BE INVITED TO GIVE OPINION

ACTION OUSTING CITY FROM FURTHER GOOD ROADS CREATES STIR.

"PROPOSED PROGRAM WILL COST COUNTY $200,000"

Judge Jones And Commissioner Jackson Plan to Offset Monday's Order.

In order to secure certain data pertaining to the paving of highways in the county, the state highway engineer will be brought to Wichita Falls, in an effort, on the part of Commissioner J. F. Jackson and County Judge J. P. Jones, to offset the action taken by the court Monday in the road program after the completion of the Burk Burnett road.

Both the county judge and the commissioner of precinct No. 1 are of the belief that when the action was taken Monday not to pave the Henrietta road and the Seymour road that the county signed away approximately $200,000 state and federal aid.

The Henrietta road and the Seymour road are federal projects upon which the state and federal government will give monetary aid. These two roads were shovelled into the cold Monday when Commissioner Prescott, Kuntz, Haynes secured the adoption of an order through the court that after the completion of the Burk Burnett project, that the mileage remaining should be equally divided between the three precincts they represent.

The roads to be benefited, should the order finally be carried out, are the Burk Burnett-Clara road, which is six miles in length; the Iowa Park-Clara road of approximately 12 miles; and the Electric road north to the Oklahoma state line, a distance of about 11 miles.

The last road named is the only one of the three which is a federal project and is the only one upon which aid could be secured.

T. H. SHELBY HERE TO ASSIST SCHOOL SURVEY IN COUNTY

T. H. Shelby, director of Extension of the University of Texas, arrived in the city Monday to assist E. E. Davis in the school survey of the county.

Monday evening Mr. Shelby, Mr. Davis and Superintendent Burl Bryant held a mass meeting at Clara in which the survey work was outlined. Much interest was manifested in the meeting and as to the survey which will bring out facts as to the possibilities of the rural schools of the county.

Mr. Shelby stated that the visit to the Clara district Monday showed him conclusively that there existed here the beginning of a splendid system of schools. He commented most favorably on the attitude of school officials and school patrons towards the survey.

Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, a meeting of the board of education will be held in the county superintendent's office. The board is composed of D. E. Hooks, S. D. Thames, J. P. Holder, W. W. Cook and E. A. Dale. Both Mr. Shelby and Mr. Davis will speak at this gathering.

Mr. Shelby was formerly first assistant state superintendent of public instruction of Texas and president of the Texas State Teachers' association. He has had experience in all types of schools in Texas, having taught in the rural schools and the city schools. He was superintendent of schools in Tyler, Texas, and was also for some time head of the education department of one of the leading state normals in the state.

Last spring Mr. Shelby in co-operation with the leading educators of the county assisted in a state-wide survey of the rural schools of New York state.

In speaking about the survey work now being conducted among the schools of this county, Mr. Shelby said that in his judgment the greatest need, in his opinion, of the school system but of the state, is a knowledge of the facts as they exist. For this reason the bureau is undertaking this district county survey in the state this year.

A new time table, prepared by the M. K. & T. will go into effect Dec. 11, but the change does not affect any passenger trains in and out of Wichita Falls. The new time table, however, calls for new schedules on through freights.

The wind direction, Tuesday morning, in Wichita Falls was from the south.

LATE COMPLETION IN SOUTH ELECTRA ESTIMATED AT 350

The No. 7 well of Bridwell-Heydrick on the Waggoner tract in the South Electric field, Monday, reached the top of the sand at 1,747 feet, and promises to be as good a well as No. 5, which was completed some time ago in this sand with an initial flow of around 250 barrels.

The well is being reamed to set the casing, No. 8 which was finished in the 900-foot sand early last week, is making around 40 barrels. Another gusher was added to the Pacific Coal company's No. 4 on the Ellenville lease three miles south of Ellenville late Sunday evening blew out at 2,200 feet.

This well is an offset to the Simms-Johnson No. 1 and is located on the north line of the lease, the company is making locations for No. 5, which is an offset to Mid-Kansas company's No. 3 Adams; No. 10 is an offset to the Cedar Creek Oil company's No. 3 on the Milan tract.

The Kentucky Oil company's No. 5, Milan is reported to be flowing around 800 barrels, the top of the lime was encountered at 2,270 feet and was drilled to 3,200 with the above results. As in the other wells in this locality, a considerable amount of gas accompanied the oil.

DENVER PETITIONS REMOVAL OF TRAIN NUMBERS 3 AND 4

According to the new tentative time table of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad company, Trains No. 3 and 4 will be discontinued, and the railroad commission has been petitioned to grant this request.

Train No. 3 operates between Fort Worth and Childress and on its way back to Fort Worth from Childress is known as Train 4. Train No. 3 leaves Wichita Falls, north, at 1:15 p. m. and No. 4 departs for Fort Worth at 1:20 p. m.

If the commission grants this request, it is highly probable that the time schedule of Trains No. 1 and 2 will be changed in order that suitable accommodations can be provided for passengers who formerly rode Train 3 and 4.

A new time table, prepared by the M. K. & T. will go into effect Dec. 11, but the change does not affect any passenger trains in and out of Wichita Falls. The new time table, however, calls for new schedules on through freights.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pap's Diapsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief. This harmless antacid helps digest anything you eat and overcomes a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach in five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your druggist a six-cent box of Pap's Diapsin. There will be no sour feelings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no gas or heartburn, no fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, headache or intestinal griping. Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop the food fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or indigestion. (Adv.)
