MISS LENOVA WALKER IS HOSTESS AT PRETTY PARTY

Miss Lenora Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Walker, was the hostess at a delightfully happy birthday party Saturday afternoon when she observed the attainment of her eighth milestone by sharing the fun of a George Washington celebration with a score of little friends.

The house was decorated with red, white and blue—signs and crepe streamers—extensive enough to delight the heart of the most enthusiastic little patriot, and as the children arrived they were given George Washington caps in red, white and blue to wear through the afternoon. A pretty feature of the decorations were apples hung from the doors and other points of vantage with small flags to form a patriotic sphere. In the dining room the table was centered with a George and Martha Washington piece which proved also a center of attraction for the young Americans. Games and contests, all of a patriotic order, while the afternoon away pleasantly, and several of the children were delighted with prizes.

Refreshments of candy, strawberry ice cream, cake and fruit punch were served, with cunning little red powder-puff—snaps—loaves for the girls and butter flags for the boys.

The children who enjoyed the afternoon and wished Lenora most happy return of the day included: Little Misses Elizabeth Langford, Mildred Miller, Mildred Sherrod, Rose Marie Art, Ona Beale Brittain, Mary Alice Johnson, Theobis Jane Filio, Margaret Stanforth, Mary Ann Walker and Lenora Walker, Messdames Monte Stanforth, Gene Harvey, Virgil Shepherd Jr., Eugene Sherrod Jr., Jimmie Mytinger, Kemp Dean, Arch Greenwood, Bruce Greenwood and Mark Walker Jr.

Mrs. Walker was assisted in entertaining the little folks by Messdames A. D. Anderson and S. H. James.
