The Panhandle of Texas had a lot to be proud of following the girls' state basketball tournament last weekend in Austin. Three Panhandle teams—Canyon, Spearman and Claude, all brought home state championships, in class A through AAA. Only in class B did the Panhandle area fail to win.

It was also a tribute to the Friona Squaws, who faced all three of the state championship teams in their 26-5 season. The Squaws defeated Claude in their own invitational tournament, and was one of only three teams to defeat the Mustangettes.

The other state championship teams, Canyon and Spearman, accounted for three of Friona's five losses for the season.

Since Friona went to the state tournament three straight years (1963, 1964 and 1965), the Spearman girls have been every year since, and have won state championships three times, including the last two years in a row.

It took quite a come-from-behind performance for the Spearman girls to win this latest championship. The team trailed by seven points (49-42) with 1:14 left to play.

Then with nine seconds left, Leann Shieldknight hit two free throws to pull the Lynettes to within one point, 49-48. Sheila Patterson intercepted Waco Robinson's inbound pass with six seconds left, whipped the ball to teammate Sharalyn Shell, who sank a six-foot jump shot for the win.

Claude also had to stave off a rally, for a 57-55 win in the finals.

The Morton Indians, champions of District 3-AA, romped to the regional title last weekend at Lubbock, and Morton coach Ted Whillock says he thinks his team can "go all the way."

Neighboring Farwell fell in the regional class A finals to Sanford-Fritch, 63-59.

This all adds up to the fact that Friona teams were playing some pretty salty competition on their 1971-72 schedules.

Missouri Beef Packers have just published the company's annual report for the fiscal year of 1971, and it is a nice report, both in terms of looks, and also from what the report contains.

The report is printed in full-color, with some 14 full-color photographs gracing the 28-page document. Included are color pictures of MBP plants at Rock Port, Friona, Plainview, Holton, Kansas (which was leased this past October) and an artist's concept of MBP's proposed new plant at Boise, Idaho.

A map of the United States in the center spread of the report graphically illustrates how the young packing giant has expanded, with plants in three states, and a fourth (Idaho) in the planning stages. MBP currently procures cattle for its plants basically from an eight-state area, and when the Boise plant is completed, the state of Idaho will be added, plus the fringe of six adjoining states.

As to the facts contained in the report, 1971 appears to have been a banner year, with record net sales of $303,997,615. This compares to a figure of $219,948,984, the previous year.

Net income amounted to $1,933,404, which computes to $1.69 per share, an increase of 30 1/2 per cent over 1970.

Melvin Rolf, MBP's board chairman, says in a message to stockholders contained in the report, that with the addition of the Plainview plant in April of 1971, and the subleasing of the plant in Kansas, Missouri Beef now has the capacity to slaughter 31,000 head of cattle and to break and fabricate 11,000 carcasses per week.

"Having the flexibility to break and fabricate a sizeable percentage of our slaughter capacity has improved our earnings potential," Rolf says.

Missouri Beef Packers began in 1966 at Rock Port, and expanded to Friona within two years. For the first five years of the company's history, capital expenditures were approximately $14,000,000, and MBP plans to spend approximately $3,000,000 in 1972.

"We will continue to expand our markets in the major population areas to meet consumers' demands for wholesome, quality beef," Rolf concludes.

No Progress Made In Packers Strike

Missouri Beef Packers officials and representatives of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters union met on Monday in an attempt to resolve the three-week old strike, but made "no progress at all," according to MBP manager Howard McLean.

"The union officials stated their position, and we stated ours. There was simply no progress," McLean reported. Representatives from both sides met with a mediator in an hour-and-one-half meeting.

McLean said that another meeting between plant and union officials was scheduled for Monday, March 13, although once again the door was left open for further meetings before that date.

Slaughter operations continue at the plant, which is still hiring personnel. McLean said company officials hope to restore kill operations at "near normal capacity as soon as we can."

The group representing the union at Monday's session included officials from Lubbock and Dallas, as well as two representatives from the local union P777.

NEXT MONDAY

Kiwanis Club To Hold Charter Night

The Friona Kiwanis Club will hold its charter night banquet next Monday, March 6, at the Friona High School cafeteria, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Robert S. Holt, Dallas, Kiwanis governor for the Texas-Oklahoma district, will be the main speaker, and will present the charter. Also on the program will be Curt Crofford, Amarillo, district lieutenant governor. Crofford will act as master of ceremonies.

Dean Herring of Hereford, chairman of new club building, will make awards to the club. Mal Manchee, president of the Hereford Whiteface Kiwanis Club, will present gifts to the new club.

Two Hereford clubs, the Hereford Kiwanis and the Whiteface Kiwanis, are sponsoring the new club in Friona.

Twenty-eight local men are on the roster to become charter members of the Friona club. Blayne Branum, a former Kiwanian with a 10-year perfect attendance record, has been chosen as the local club's charter president.

Other charter officers are Byron Hardgrove, vice president; J. Lee Witten, secretary and J.G. Wells, treasurer.

Club directors are W. Doyle Elliott, John Blackburn, Walter Carnes, Edwin Livengood, Jr.,

Bob Holt

R.C. Hester and Alton Peak. Other charter members include Frankie Allen, Kenneth Baker, Gilbert Boatman, Dean Darnell, Ray D. Fleming, James P. Fortenberry, Medford Griffin and J.V. (Cotton) Houser.

Also, Kenneth Neill, William Pankratz, Butch Preston, Sam Richards, J.P. Sims, Ray White, Billy Don Wood, Earl F. Graham, Sam Meers and Wayne Balanger.

Branum is general chairman of the charter night banquet. Others on his committee are Blackburn, Peak, Hardgrove and Wells.

PENALTIES LISTED

Harassing, Obscene Calls Carry Penalty

Jerry Kehoe, district manager of General Telephone, said that lately there is continuously some complaint on harassing phone calls in his twelve exchange area which takes in an area from Anton to Friona.

Kehoe said it is surprising, but that many of the harassing calls are women calling other women.

Women who work in public and single and widowed women are most apt to receive obscene or proposition calls from men.

Instead of getting unlisted numbers, Kehoe said the phone company suggests that women list their numbers under initials rather than their first names to keep from attracting attention to their single status.

Five Throw Hats In Race

Five candidates have announced for a position on the Friona School Board as of press time.

Ronald Smiley, Doyle Elliott, Ed Clark and Clarence Monroe join previously announced candidate Wesley Barnett as candidates for the two positions which are expiring. Terms of Richard Callard and W.D. Buske are expiring, and neither is seeking re-election.

Wednesday was the deadline for filing for the race.

Kehoe said the use of a police whistle would stop mental torment calls. He said they know of women who keep a police whistle near their phone.

"After the second call, if they blow the whistle just as loudly as they can," Kehoe said, "the caller will be defamed in one ear for two or three days. It won't permanently damage the ear, but it will certainly put a stop to some of those calls."

Persons who make "mental torment" calls are deterred by the party on the other end of the line hanging up, also. It is the person who over-reacts who gets more than one call, Kehoe said.

Conviction of the use of a telephone to harass or intimidate with vulgar or obscene language, or even what the telephone company calls "breathers," where persons say nothing, is a state offense and carries a penalty of from $100 to $1,000 and/or from one to 12 months in the county jail.

Only last week a 15-year-old Littlefield girl was arrested and jailed after a call to a Littlefield woman was traced to her telephone.

The girl readily admitted to making the calls. When it was learned that she was on probation, she was jailed. She was to go before the Lamb County Court for criminal action.

TOP CITIZENS... Those honored at the 1972 Friona Chamber of Commerce banquet Tuesday night were (from the left), Mrs. J.T. (Lilah Gaye) Gee and Charles Allen, "Man and Woman of the Year," Ronald Smiley (Most Courteous Employee), Mrs. Frank (Carmeleet) Truitt (Teacher of the Year), Sally Kendrick and Bill Bailey, outstanding young citizens. The six award presentations were the highlights of the banquet.

HONORS LISTED

Allen, Mrs. Gee Land Top Chamber Awards

Friona's top citizens were honored Tuesday evening at the annual banquet of the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Charles Allen was chosen as "Man of the Year," Mrs. J.T. Gee was named "Woman of the Year," Mrs. Frank Truitt was picked as "Teacher of the Year," and Ronald Smiley was honored as "Most Courteous Employee."

In new awards instigated this year, Bill Bailey and Sally Kendrick were chosen as the community's outstanding young people. Both are seniors at Friona High School.

Approximately 300 people attended the annual banquet, held at Friona High School cafeteria.

J.H. Gillie of Phillips Petroleum Company told the audience to emphasize the positive side of things. He congratulated Friona on its progress in attaining industry.

"There are over 4,000 communities your size which are actively soliciting new businesses each year. You can't expect to score with something new every year," Gillie pointed out. Gillie challenged his listeners to "look at the other guy's viewpoint. There are always two or three sides to every question," he said.

He cautioned against placing people into categories, perhaps because they come from a particular section of the country. "This is wrong. You need to be a bridge, rather than a barrier," Gillie remarked.

Gillie explained that although there are always those who are seemingly against progress in every respect, that this type of thinking can be overcome.

Allen, a bomber pilot during World War II, has served as president of the Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, and is a former Mayor of Friona. He has worked diligently on such drives as United Fund, hospital drive, Meize Days and other civic projects.

Also a worker in his church, Allen has served First Baptist Church as music director on several occasions covering the past 26 years, and also teaches in the primary department of the church.

Mrs. Gee is active in all community affairs. She takes an active part in Modern Study Club, the Hospital Auxiliary, and Friona Public Library. She also is active in church work, and is serving as secretary of the King's Manor Founders Assn.

Mrs. Truitt has 27 years of teaching experience, most here in Friona. She is a past president of Modern Study Club, and is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma. The Truitts have a son, Larry, who is an honor student at Rice University.

Smiley was cited for his civic interests, which have included

Little League, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Little Dribblers, Punt, Pass and Kick, Friona Firemen, and Noon Lions Club.

Smiley also is active in church, and it was said that "Friona has been made a more friendly place by his being here."

Bailey has been particularly active in sports and vocational agriculture. He was captain of

THURSDAY

Gas Price Hike To Be Meeting Topic

The recent increase in the cost of irrigation gas by Pioneer Natural Gas Co. will be the main topic of discussion Thursday at the annual meeting of the Farmer County Gas Users Association at the Hub Community Center.

The meeting begins at 8 p.m. All irrigation farmers are invited to the meeting.

John D. Aiken, Hereford, attorney for the Plains Gas Users Association, will be the principal speaker at the meeting. Aiken said that the association had lodged a protest with the Federal Price Commission on the increase in gas rates, which is the first since 1961 for farmers.

"Pioneer calls the increase a 12.2 per cent increase. However, the increase amounts to a straight three cents in each of the company's volume brackets, so that the smaller gas users will find their increase much more than the stated 12.2 per cent," Aiken says.

The gas company was able to raise its rates under the recent provision regulating prices that enabled companies with total volumes less than $100,000,000 to put their price increases into effect. The Price Commission reserved the right to review such increases.

In this regard, the Plains Gas Users lodged a protest with the Price Commission, and a representative of the commission told the association that the increase would be reviewed.

While the current increase in gas prices is the first for irrigation farmers in 11 years, or since the formation of the gas users association, area cities have absorbed two substantial increases in that time, plus a minor "adjustment."

In 1967, the gas for cities in this area was increased approximately 11.2 per cent, and then another 12 per cent in 1970, when the company originally asked for a 16 per cent hike. In April of last year, the rate was adjusted by .5 per cent in accordance with the cities' agreement in 1970 for periodic adjustments.

Also on the program Thursday, A.L. Black, area director

Local Servicemen Back From Vietnam

Three Friona servicemen have recently returned home after tours of duty in Vietnam. Two of them, Keith Black and Joe Murphree, have been discharged and the third, Chris Tannahill, has been assigned to Fort Riley, Kansas.

Black, who had been stationed near Plei Ku, had spent 3-1/2 years in Army Security. In December he received a letter of commendation from the Department of Defense for his handling of all tasks required to maintain the Explorer II system in operational status of ten times under difficult and hazardous conditions.

He is a member of the 1965 graduating class of Friona High School and is currently employed by Hi Pro Feeds, Inc. here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Black.

Murphree, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Murphree, has been stationed at Long Ben. He graduated from Friona High School in 1967 and had been in the service two years.

Tannahill, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Tannahill, and a 1965 graduate of Friona High School, spent eleven months in Viet Nam. He is now stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas. He is a helicopter pilot in the medical corps.

Pause and Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

"Beware the Ides of March"
(In ancient Rome the 15th of March)
March has a reputation for either coming or going out as a Lion or a Lamb.
A very fickle lady is March and we West Texans have learned to respect her capricious personality.
April should behave herself but unfortunately she too has been known to kick up her heels and shake a foot of snow from her flowered skirts.
With the arrival of the Merry Month of May we are reminded of two events that must not be ignored: the fourth marks the 64th anniversary of the Prairie Prowler's arrival into this "vale of tears" and secondly the 1972 tornado season is upon us! There is a book in the Friona Public Library that everyone should read.
It is aptly entitled, "Tornado--Texas Demon in the Wind." The author, Dudley Lynch, is a lifelong resident of the southwest and learned to respect tornadoes while working as a newspaper reporter on the High Plains of Texas.
In 1966 he won a Texas Association of Managing Editor's award for a portfolio on the Hale Center tornado of 1965 (by the way--that blow occurred the night before my wife and daughter flew out to Texas--some welcome!).
Mr. Lynch reminds his readers that of the 60 major tornadoes in Texas' history, 25 were during May.
So we have about two months to determine where to hide or what precautions we can take to prevent becoming a statistic this spring.

There is no purpose served (except to antagonize the indolent) in continuing to suggest that we adopt the "Share a Cellar--Save a Life" idea; however for the fourth year here we go again.

Each block in town should have one or more meetings to decide where each resident should go in case of a blow.
Every business place and office should know where employees and customers would be safe.

Schools and churches (most tornadoes happen on Sunday!) should have drills and well defined programs of safety.

Don't say "It can't happen here."
We had a near miss last summer and our sister city of Hereford was not quite so lucky.

Why not contact your city government and the fire department and all get together to form a sensible defense against this killer?

We have been watching the West Virginia flood on T.V. Many years ago this writer visited the towns and went down into the mines in a similar area.

One cannot help but wonder why some precautions not taken to prevent such catastrophes.

We feel much the same about the Californians who build on the slopes where fire and rain can destroy their homes.

What was that old saying about the kettle not being able to call the pot black?

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Bill:
I think you need a new policy, that everyone has to put their name to their words. I don't see how anyone can condemn a community for wanting to see their young in church. I will agree with the writer on dancing as an activity to keep our young folks busy, as long as they don't abuse it.

I would condemn the community, however, on your column two weeks ago that said our police has a "pretend it's not there and it might go away" attitude on drugs. I hope your source of information is wrong, as I would rather see my children in a jail cell than a vegetable in a mental hospital.

The police need our support to keep our children healthy and off drugs.

NEWTON, MISS., RECORD: "A columnist in Life Magazine proposes a fad of silence. Since more of us talk too much and say too little, he suggests a time of silence would have medical as well as psychic benefits. Prolonged silence, he suggests, could reduce the volume of noise, and induce great peace and euphoria. The lesson is that there are times when man doesn't need words for understanding."

From Around The Country

TERRE HAUTE, IND., SPECTATOR: "We're only about HALF as honest as we used to be. Recently, the editors of Liberty magazine conducted a test similar to one run nearly a half century ago. The results were quite illuminating. . . and embarrassing for the current generation. Back in 1924, Liberty sent out 100 letters to people selected at random across the country, explaining that a dollar bill enclosed was 'in adjustment of the error you complained of in your account,' which of course, did not exist. Of the 100 people contacted, 27 returned the dollar, announcing that a mistake had been made, which was in marked contrast to the results in 1971. In this year's test, only 13 of the 100 people returned the money."

BRUNSWICK, GA., THE GLYNN REPORTER: "Mr. President! Let's freeze government too! If you truly intend to control inflation, start with government! No salary increases for department heads! No new agencies or departments! Abolish overlapping or duplicating agencies or departments! Or is your program really just a phony, political device?"

BROOKVILLE, PA., AMERICAN: "We live in a fast-moving world and few are able to retain the simple, fundamental values in dealings with their fellowmen. The dollar is tremendously important. The urge to follow the crowd is often almost irresistible, the urge to deviate from the truth powerful. Yet the great men and women of achievement are usually those who retain simple, basic virtues. They dare disagree with the crowd. They speak the truth when it's unpopular. How about you?"

BELTON, TEXAS, JOURNAL AND BELL COUNTY DEMOCRAT: "The government has all sorts of publications and bulletins telling us how to run our businesses and be financially successful. You may not think this is funny, but coming from the government I think it is hilarious. The government's operation depends on deficit financing, but we individuals have limitations imposed by bankers and creditors."

Texas Farmers Plow Less, Enjoy It More

Texas farmers are plowing less and enjoying it more, thanks to a new conservation measure being pushed by the Soil Conservation Service.

As a result, there may be less dust in the air you breathe this winter and spring. Or less sediment in your city's water supply.

More moisture conservation, higher profits, more free time, and less soil loss are some of the benefits to farmers.

"All this is possible because of a new farming system called minimum tillage," Clyde W. Graham, state conservationist, for SCS, explained. "With minimum tillage, crops are planted without prior land preparation. Weeds are controlled with herbicides. Since the land is not plowed, leaves and stalks from the previous crop are left on the soil surface as a protective cover during the fall, winter and early spring."

The surface cover is highly effective in preventing erosion. It breaks up the erosive effect of falling raindrops, letting them fall harmlessly onto the surface. The residues also protect the soil from windstorms.

Graham pointed out that wind-blown dust is our state's largest source of air pollution. He also stressed that erosion-produced sediment is our biggest water pollutant, muddying streams and filling natural channels and lakes. Reducing water and air pollution from erosion has vast environmental benefits, he said.

"And think what scattered seed and residues left on the surface do for wildlife," Graham said. "In some farming areas, wildlife are almost entirely dependent upon crop residues for food and cover needed for survival during the winter months. Pheasant, dove, quail, geese, songbirds, deer, turkey, antelope and other wildlife benefit from such practices."

"In fact, widespread use of minimum tillage in Texas would be a great boost to our state's wildlife."

Graham pointed out that farming operations destroy surface residues. If farmers can substitute herbicides for cultivation in controlling competition, they can reap the many benefits possible from maintaining crop residues on the soil surface yearlong.

He emphasized that residues keep the soil cooler in the summer, warmer in the winter. They reduce evaporation, saving valuable soil moisture. The residues protect young seedlings. The cover also produces

Of all the conflicting problems confronting the State of Texas today, water and its great scarcity continues to be the most urgent.

Challenges and opportunities of the next few years plan for and provide for the domestic, municipal, industrial and agricultural demand of the growing state and expanding economy are of paramount importance to every citizen of Texas and to every area of the state.

The Texas Water Plan which is being implemented by the Texas Water Development Board is carefully planned and programmed to insure that all existing water resources in the state are developed to the fullest extent while safeguarding the right of the area of origin in protecting the ecological and sociological environment.

In addition to the listed yields of the rivers and streams flowing within the state, great quantities of water are being withdrawn from underground reservoirs which are rapidly declining. Therefore, supplemental water from outside the state must be provided to adequately fill the requirements of future generations.

An integral part of the Texas Water Plan is the proposal to import flood waters from the lower Mississippi River into Texas for delivery to the lower Rio Grande area and across North Texas on to the High Plains of West Texas. The requirements of the remaining problem areas of the state can be satisfied if the water plan is developed for the complete utilization of existing resources and expanding facilities. The High Plains of West Texas is a great agricultural empire that is solely dependent upon a failing underground water supply and which must be maintained as the best source of food and fiber for the increasing population of both Texas and the nation as a whole. This is the area of great decision and the shortest time to act.

A full and complete cooperation from all existing agricultural organizations, state and national, is busy today to continue the investigation, to complete the planning, and to provide the funding for the entire Texas Water Plan and to meet the timed schedule called for, by the urgency of the problem of such great magnitude and complexities.

At Home In Parmer County

Jana Pronger

A man should dress the way he feels. "That's the only rule for men's clothing this spring and summer," suggests a clothing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Clothes express as much about a man as whatever he does while he wears them, so he should dress for whatever he feels like doing.

Textile manufacturers indicate the dressy suit for spring and summer is well-cut, single-breasted with wider lapels, skimmer at the waist and longer at the hips.

A man may choose from a world of suits--safari, knicker, sweater and denim jean suits. He can wear them and feel comfortable wearing them.

"Shirts aren't stuffy anymore." "This year's shirt has good body definition. It may be worn anywhere with or without tie and jacket. Collars will still be long, but with a softer trend. Corners will be rounded."

Slacks introduce the excitingly new. Men will wear jeans for every occasion--jeans in velvet, satin, tpestry, canvas and any non-traditional fabric. Other casual slacks will fit different occasions with different silhouettes--boot pants, lederhosen, short shorts and knickers. Jodhpurs, originally designed for horseback riding, come on strong for casual wear.

Tailored slacks will be demanded in knits. Flare and slim legs are the fashion cuts.

Youth takes on the rugged look of overalls, coveralls and western wear. Underwear-styled knit jersey shirts look well with the work clothes. Bib tops on swimwear and the new short shorts join the overall look.

With such individual choices, men's spring and summer fashions will express the way each individual man feels.

If you find the men's new fashions in knit a bit expensive--why not sew for your husband, son or boyfriend? The knit sewing workshops are still open but enrollment will be limited. The one night session on making men's slacks ($6) will be April 6th, 7 p.m. in the Community Room of the First State Bank in Bovina and the session on men's sport coats ($7) will be April 13th at 7 p.m. also in the Bank--for more information and to sign up call my office in Farwell, 481-3619 or contact Mrs. Wendell Garner (225-4884) in the Bovina area and in the Friona and Rhea area call Mrs. Norman Taylor (295-6622).

Plans are rapidly being completed for the Parmer County 4-H Favorite Food Show to be held March 18th at St. John's Lutheran Church at Lariat. The final plans will be made by the 4-H Council Food Show Committee, Sue Monk, Audrey Magness, Bovina; Susan Mimms, Lazbuddie; Holly Hart, Friona; Deborah Harding and Carrie Haseloff, Farwell. They will be assisted by the Oklahoma Lane Home Demonstration Club who has agreed to sponsor the event.

CONSERVATION PRACTICE. . . Soil Conservation Service Agronomist Allen King is shown checking a stand of corn on a minimum tillage field on the High Plains. Minimum tillage is a good conservation practice for farmland.

Conservation Practices Aid The Environment

Reduced air pollution, better wildlife habitat--these are some of the environmental benefits of a new practice being used by Texas conservation farmers.

The measure, called minimum tillage, also cuts farming costs by reducing tractor trips required to produce a crop.

"With minimum tillage, farmers plant crops without prior land preparation," Herb Evans, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service at Friona, said. "Using a coultter and other special equipment, they plant directly into a mulch of residues left undisturbed from the previous crop. Herbicides are used to control weeds, so costly and time consuming cultural operations are reduced or eliminated."

Stalks, leaves and stems from the previous crop are left on the surface yearlong with minimum tillage. The protective cover is highly effective in preventing wind erosion and air pollution from blowing dust.

Evans said the cover is equally effective in preventing water erosion.

"Scattered seed and cover left on the soil surface by minimum tillage is also extremely valuable to wildlife," Evans said. "Pheasants in the Texas Panhandle are almost entirely dependent on crop residues for survival during the winter months. Quail, geese, turkey, dove, songbirds, deer, antelope, rabbits and other wildlife also benefit from the food and cover."

Evans said SCS has published a new booklet "Minimum Tillage in Texas" which describes the new farming system in detail. To get a free copy, contact the SCS office at Friona, telephone number is 247-2220.

HORSEOWNERS THROUGHOUT Texas are urged to "get the jump" on VEE (Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis), that deadly sleeping sickness of horses. All horses that were not vaccinated last year should be vaccinated as soon as possible.

It was less than a year ago that the disease swept into the state from Mexico, killing hundreds of horses in its path.

The 1972 campaign against VEE calls for vaccination of all equidae (horses, mules and donkeys) not vaccinated last year. In addition to Texas, the vaccination campaign will include the Gulf Coast states and states adjoining Mexico. All these states have been designated "high risk" states by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

There are four categories of horses that should be vaccinated now--(1) unvaccinated horses that have recently moved into the state; (2) foals born since last year's vaccination drive;

Bandy Tops Chiefs' Scoring

Junior Johnny Bandy was the leading scorer for the Friona High School Chiefs for the second straight year, with 456 points scored for the season, an average of 15.2 points per game. Senior Ronnie McPherson was runnerup, scoring 367 points, for a 12.2 per-game average. Bandy and McPherson were the only players averaging in double figures. James Bartlett, another junior, was the third leading scorer with 242 points. He edged out Larry Fallwell, who scored 235 points, and Willie Bailey, who scored 225. Mike Royal was the only other member of the varsity topping 100 points, with 116. Fallwell was the leading field goal shooter, hitting 49.5 per cent of his shots from the field (98 of 198). Bandy was the runnerup here, with 44.8 per cent (169 of 377). Also hitting over 40 per cent of their shots were McPherson (42.9) and Willie Bailey (43.7).

Fallwell also captured the free throw championship on the team, for the second year in a row. The "Bubble-gum Kid" sank 79.6 per cent of his free shots (39 of 49). Bandy was also runnerup in this category with 77.1 per cent (118 of 153). In two varsity years, Fallwell hit a sizzling 80.9 per cent of his free throws. Opponents must have been quick to find out his talent, as he wasn't fouled as often as the other starters.

ment, when the team set a new school scoring record. This year's team is probably the highest-scoring quints in the history of FHS, averaging 71.8 points per game.

The Lonely Heart

ENMU Drama Department Will Present Play Here

Moliere's popular comedy "A Physician In Spite of Himself" will be performed at 9:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 7 in Friona Grade School Auditorium as this year's 18th annual Children's Theatre Tour by the department of theatre at Eastern New Mexico University.

Seven Eastern theatre students will present the play 15 times in a two-week tour of 14 eastern New Mexico and West Texas cities. Last year's production of "The Elves and the Shoemaker" played to over 17,000 public school children.

Dr. R. Lyle Hagan, dean of the school of speech and theatre, will direct Eastern's version of the famous French playwright's comedy. Set designer is Larry M. LaGrave, instructor in speech and theatre. Costume designer is Kay Murdick of Albuquerque.

"A Physician In Spite of Himself" tells the story of wood-cutter Sganarelle, who is mistaken for a physician. Involved in the comedy is an episode where Lucinde, the daughter of Geronte, loses her voice because her father tries to force her to marry someone she does not love. Nosy neighbors and love-stricken young men also complicate the plot.

Heading the veteran cast is Carey Hollis of Hobbs as Sganarelle while Susan McWilliams of Clovis plays his wife, Martine.

Lucinde, the girl who loses her voice to defy her father's wishes, will be played by Carol Blue Smith of Portales and Billy Ray of Carlisbad will play her father, Geronte.

Other cast members are Eddie Smith of Farmington as Geronte's loyal servant Lucas, David Nieman of Gainesville, Texas, as Lucinde's lover Leander, and Kevin Graham of Baltimore, Md., as the nosy neighbor, M. Robert.

Members of the cast perform all technical duties such as set and costume repair, scene changes, loading and unloading scenery, and rigging light and sound equipment in addition to acting in the play.

This production is being sponsored by members of Progressive Study Club, who encourage all who are interested to attend.

The Library Corner

BY MRS. VON EDELMON

With the president so very much in the news now, we would like to call your attention to the books we have on other presidents. "Never Again," and "Eleanor and Franklin," are two about the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"13 Days," by Robert F. Kennedy is about the Cuban missile crisis during the Kennedy Administration.

"The President Steps Down," by George Christian concerns the change over of administration from Lyndon B. Johnson to Richard M. Nixon.

"Hall to the Chiefs, My Life and Times With Six Presidents," by Ruth Montgomery is a very interesting book.

Story Hour continues on Thursday mornings at 10 a.m. at the library for children from three to six. Bring your children and volunteer to read. It takes four readers per week so it only takes simple arithmetic to determine how many adults are needed for each month, so do your thing for the young of the community and read to them on Thursday morning. Call the library if you wish to volunteer.

If fiction is your interest rather than history, thencey some of William Faulkner's books: "Sound The Fury," "The Reivers," "As I Lay Dying," and "Absalom, Absalom!"

What Does The Bible Say?

By what criteria may the church of the New Testament be distinguished from any other religious order?

It was noted last week that the church of the New Testament is distinctive for the place of its beginning, i.e. Jerusalem, and concluded that a church having its beginning in any other place cannot be the New Testament institution. The New Testament church is further distinctive for the time of its beginning.

It manifestly was still future when Jesus said, "Upon this rock I will build my church," (Matt. 16:18). But when the record states, "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved" (Acts 2:47), it clearly had come into being. Acts 2 shows that this was taking place on the first Pentecost following the resurrection of Christ. So any religious order that did not begin until the sixth century A.D. cannot be the church Jesus said he would build, and even less can be said for those orders that can trace their origins no further than the 19th, 18th or even the 17th centuries A.D. (to be continued).

Questions invited. Address "What Does the Bible Say?" Box 515, Friona, Texas.

Quoting from Rays of the Dawn on generosity, Dale Houlette said, "The mark of true love and service in distinction from the mere pretense for show, is that it does not seek praise nor publicity. The individual with the spirit of true service in his heart has no desire for commendation nor does he boast of his good deeds. His reward comes from the knowledge of a deed well done, and the joy he can give others becomes his greatest joy. His whole nature radiates a spirit of love, kindness, and generosity, and his whole nature will grow and expand."
