

Next Wednesday is "nose-count" day for 1970--the day the census work begins.

Everyone should make every effort to be counted, since many things depend on the census count.

It's a point of pride that we get everyone counted in Friona, because for the most part, this is the yardstick that will be used to measure our city for the next 10 years.

If you do not receive a census blank, contact the postmaster. If you plan to be gone during the early part of April, try to make sure you are counted.

One thing the crowd of people at the special meeting of City Hall should have noticed Monday night was the fact that Friona's city facilities are needing expanded.

The council meeting room, for instance, was much too small, as it is almost anytime an issue of interest to more than a fraction of the people comes up.

Then, perhaps those attending the meeting noted the cramped quarters for the police department. Had they toured the fire department, visitors would have found four trucks in a space designed for three. A fifth truck is housed at a separate location.

Also, the visitors were given an idea of how much money the city is becoming obliged to spend extending water and sewer lines to new additions. These are just a couple of reasons that the city has called a vote on the one-cent city sales tax for April 4.

If Friona doesn't get the penny tax, the city budget will be hurting before another year passes, according to city budget makers.

The sales tax is the most fair of all, and it is being recommended as the method of raising more operating capital for the city.

ONE CUBIC YARD of trash is deposited on each mile of American road every month, according to a national survey sponsored by Keep America Beautiful, Inc.

Motorists drop an average of 1,304 pieces of litter every month on each mile of Interstate and primary highway in the U.S.--nearly 16,000 pieces of litter per mile per year. Paper goods accounted for 59%; cans, 16%; plastic items, bottles and jars, 6% each.

The remaining 13% included such items as false teeth, hair curlers, ice chests and washing machines. Another survey, this one by Gallup, showed men litter nearly twice as much as women.

Also, people between the ages of 21 and 35 litter twice as much as those between 35 and 49, and three times as much as people over 50. Large families are more likely to litter than small ones, and farmers and residents of small towns litter more than people who live in big cities, the survey said.

FURTHER MEETINGS SET

Commission Delays Annexation Question

In a special meeting of the Friona City Planning and Zoning Commission on Monday, to re-hear arguments pro and con involving recent annexations, the commission decided to look further into the city's comprehensive plan before passing on the two parcels of land up for discussion.

The commission is to meet with the city planner Nathan Kaiser on Friday night, and then re-convene next Monday at 7:30 to re-consider the annexation question.

The additions for discussion were the Hicks Addition, which plans 26 homes in Northeast Friona, and Lakeside Addition, which plans 102 homes to the northwest of Reeve Lake.

Both additions were previously approved by the Planning-Zoning Commission in a meeting of March 4, and subsequently annexed by the City Council on March 9. However, opponents to the annexations caused the special meeting of the commission to be called for the past Monday.

A standing-room crowd at the City Council meeting room heard attorney Bill Sheehan, legal counsel for the opponents, argue for a more comprehensive plan for city development, to keep new additions from hurting evaluations on existing property.

Developer Ed Hicks gave a background of the addition previously passed on by the commission and council, explaining sizes of lots and the type of construction proposed in the addition.

Hicks pointed out that he has helped to build 45 homes in Friona through the Farmers Home Administration program, totaling over $500,000 in building permits.

City Manager A.L. (Jake) Outland detailed the housing projects which have evolved since the beginning of construction at Missouri Beef Packers. He pointed out that the Hicks addition, as proposed, fits into the city's comprehensive plan which is being completed by Kaiser, and recommended favorable action by the commission.

However, after much discussion, a motion was passed to postpone action until the commission could further study the situation and meet with the city planner.

Many interested citizens spoke out during the course of the hearing, which became heated at times.

Census Blanks Go In Mail Saturday

The 1970 census forms will be distributed in the mail on Saturday, according to Friona postmaster Wright Williams.

Williams alerted local mail patrons to be on the lookout for the forms, and expressed concern lest some discard the forms, thinking they were unwanted "box-holders."

One form is to be left for each household, and the forms should be filled out between Saturday and the first day of the national census--Wednesday, April 1. The census forms are not to be mailed back, but are to be kept until the census worker comes by to ask for it.

Every resident is urged to watch for the blank, and they may request one at the post office if they miss theirs in the mail.

EASTER BUNNIES. . . No, it's not the ground hog coming out for a look at the weather, but two baby bunnies, all set for the Easter season. They'll probably deliver no eggs this year, since they are just slightly larger than the eggs shown, but by next Easter, either of the two bunnies shown could no doubt pass for the Easter Bunny. The bunnies shown belong to Johnny Stokes, 1006 Pierce.

ANNUAL PREDICTION

Crim Sees More Rain In 1970

Parmer County farmers will get to rest their irrigation engines a little more in 1970, if the annual weather prediction made this week by J.W. (Indian) Crim comes true.

Crim, who makes his annual prediction on the basis of wind direction, velocity and characteristics at sunrise on March 22, found the "reading" to be the best this year in about ten years.

According to Crim's guidebook, the best wind at the time of the reading is a northeast wind--and that's exactly what he had when he lit his annual bonfire on his farm east of Lazbuddie.

Crim can practically count on one hand the number of times he has caught a northeast wind since he's been making the weather observations. For about the last ten years, the wind at the time of his observation has been from the southwest, or a slight variation.

"Farmers had better plant early, and not wait until the usual time, for they may get caught by rain and cause their crops to be late," Crim says. "They shouldn't have to run those well motors very much this year," he adds.

The only thing Crim noted which would detect from his prediction of more rain than usual was the fact that at the time of his observation the wind was coming fairly strong.

"We may have some clouds with strong wind in them. However, there shouldn't be as much hail as we've had in recent years," the weather prophet said.

This year's windreading was the best that Crim has noted since 1961 and he predicts that crops will be at least as good as they were in 1961 and 1962. "These were pretty fair crop years, but they were not bumper years. The last excellent year we had was 1947," Crim recalls.

Crim performed his ritual this year for the 47th consecutive year on his home place two miles east and two north of Clay's Corner. He and a brother moved to the place in 1923 and farmed it for the first time that year.

There was a small rift of clouds on the eastern horizon at sunrise when Crim made his predictions, so he went by the clock and the scheduled time of sunrise, as he has had to do on other occasions when it was cloudy or overcast.

"I've never been rained out," says Crim, referring to the 47 years he's been making the weather observations near Lazbuddie. "There has been snow on the ground a few times, but mostly the weather has been pretty fair."

Crim's methods are said to have originated with Indians, who build the tee-pee shaped bonfire on March 22 each year as a guide for their seasons. He maintains a pretty fair accuracy index on his predictions regarding moisture.

As usual, a group of friends, relatives and representatives from area news media were on hand for Crim's prediction Sunday morning. And for the first time in a number of years, Parmer County's fabled weatherman saw something good in his "Crystal Ball."

CAROLYN GORE

Friona Girl Wins County Spelling Title

Carolyn Gore, eighth grade student at Friona Junior High School, won the Parmer County Spelling Bee Tuesday at Bovina. It marked the first time in several years for a Friona youngster to win the event.

Runnerup in the countywide event was another Friona girl Beverly Bailey. Miss Gore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gore, and Miss Bailey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.H. Bailey.

In the junior division, for fifth and sixth graders, Mary Schilling, a Friona entry, was runnerup. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schilling. Winner of the junior bee was Tammy Haseloff of Farwell.

In the senior bee, the two Friona girls worked into the finals, where Miss Bailey finally missed the word "epoch." Miss Gore correctly spelled that word, and then correctly spelled "essentialist" to win the county title. Miss Gore is eligible to enter the regional spelling bee, to be held in Amarillo on April 25. Winner of that contest goes to the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D.C.

Friona junior high school had three entries in each of the bee's division. David Hardgrove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hardgrove, was the other senior entry.

Troy Messenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Messenger, and Charles Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fleming, were the other junior entries.

Students from Bovina, Friona and Farwell schools participated in spell-down. Jim Noyes of Bovina is chairman of the Parmer County Spelling Bee.

Springs Return

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spring returned to Friona Sunday from a trip to Hawaii.

CENSUS FORMS. . . Postmaster Wright Williams holds one of the census forms which will be mailed out to every household in the Friona area on Saturday. Williams cautioned postal patrons to be expecting the forms, as residents need to have them filled out when the census taker comes by on April 1.

GOOD SIGN. . . J.W. (Indian) Crim was able to predict some good news for area farmers in the way of moisture for 1970, at his annual weather forecast last Sunday morning. Crim's weather reading predicts the best conditions for crops in over 10 years.

Friona Flashbacks

...from the files of the Friona Star

40 YEARS AGO--MARCH 28, 1930

A test pump was placed on the city well here Monday afternoon and put in operation for about four hours, with the result that more than 200 gallons per minute were produced from the well. Our people are highly elated with the fact that so strong a well has been secured and will provide an abundance of water for the city's supply. (Editor's note: at the current time, the city of Friona has six producing wells for the city water supply).

30 YEARS AGO--MARCH 29, 1940

S.H. Halle, who recently purchased and took charge of the J.L. Riddle hardware store here, has been quite busy since taking the management over, in making decided changes in the arrangements and appearance of the interior of the store. Mr. Halle is also adding a number of new lines of goods to his stock as well as increasing the amount of the regular lines of goods.

25 YEARS AGO--MARCH 30, 1945

Don Edwin Lewis, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis of Friona, has won the Superior rating in the National music Festival for the past two years. The festival was held this year at Hereford, where the young musician entered as a singer.

20 YEARS AGO--MARCH 24, 1950

Friona School District patrons will go to the polls Saturday, March 25, to vote on a $225,000 bond issue. Voting will be at the high school. If the bond issue passes, a new auditorium and a new gymnasium will be constructed. The grade school building will be improved and remodelled, too. An increase in enrollment in the past three years from less than 400 to more than 500 indicated a definite need for a building program.

15 YEARS AGO--MARCH 25, 1955

Whether or not Friona is to expand its paving program, improve its water and sewer system, and whether or not a city hall is to be constructed--these three issues will be decided by vote at the special bond election set for next Tuesday. Total bonds to be voted are $175,000, largest of which is proposition number one, improvements of the waterworks system, $70,000.

10 YEARS AGO--MARCH 24, 1960

Bobby Redwine, 12-year-old Lazbuddie FFA chapter member was a proud boy Saturday afternoon when his Grand Champion Hereford steer brought a record price of $1,071 on a bid of $1.00 per pound from the Sherley Grain Company of Bovina at the sale following the annual Parmer County Junior Livestock Show.

E.C. Wilson of Friona had the grand champion barrow, which was bought by Cummings Farm Store of Friona, for $2.10 per pound.

5 YEARS AGO--MARCH 25, 1965

Some 300 women from the surrounding area are expected to attend the convention activities in Friona Tuesday, for the Caprock District of Federated Clubs. Three local clubs are acting as hosts.

Is it safe for children to eat colored cooked Easter eggs? Yes, says Owendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist for Texas A & M University. A statement that the color is harmless is found on the dye package. She adds that it is best to eat the eggs within a day or two.

The National Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults, with its hundreds of affiliates, is the oldest and largest voluntary agency in serving the physically handicapped. The Texas Easter Seal Society, in its forty-first year of service, is now accepting contributions which finance its work.

AN EDITORIAL

Writer Urges Care In Preservation Effort

The following, a digest from "Trail and Timberline," was written by Ben B. Franklin, an executive with Associated Clubs in Topeka, Kansas. It is easy to see why the words of Mr. Franklin have already been reprinted by many publications. Wouldn't it be nice if all Americans thought of their country in the same way?

It is spring.

Leaves have greened, girls have browned, and I'm yawning from my fitful sleep through cold. Dusty roads once again invite my restless people into the enchantment of mountain forests.

A road is beckoning--plunging downward by the side of a churning stream, stretching onward, around the hillside, climbing upward through the clouds and sky. It is there, slashed into nature by the "march of progress." It is there, carved into my forests by unfeeling construction workers calloused by orders and pay. It is there--in my wilderness.

Flowers push up beside the road... tiny gentian, forget-me-nots. They seem to plead, "Don't forget me in your hurry to build, Mister Man." I am America! Don't forget the beauty of my sunsets, the thirst of my trees, the laughing of my brooks, my drops of dew, my singing deer. Don't kill, don't destroy, Mister Man!

The road rushes past. It has no time for small voices. Can a bulldozer hear the cry of flowers? It says only, "Make way! We're moving, building, growing!"

A sparrow alights on the hard surface. Her searching feet don't find the friendliness she knows from a tree. Something is alien here; can she accept the road in place of the branch?

A porcupine, with slow, careful steps goes to the river. He playfully slides in the water, stroking his needles clean, washing his sleep away. He seems to say: "I am alive and I am grateful for these joys; I like the sun and the sky and the insects and the bubbles of wind and the rustle of pines. Don't let these disappear, Mister Man! Please let me keep them!"

A flower, a sparrow, a porcupine--each is calling for preservation, for love. It's my wilderness, my mountains and lakes and my forests; it's my animals and my prayers which are torn in the rushing savagery of today! I am America! Please hear me, dear God...

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

Easter comes early this year, but not a bit too soon. Not only are we growing weary of old winter's sting; we also need the lift that only Easter can bring to lagging spirits.

Sometimes it seems that our world is beset by insurmountable obstacles.

The majority of us are kept busy in our day-to-day employment trying to stay even with inflation.

Added to these routine burdens are the stark facts of increases in crime, dope addiction, strikes, wars, riots, bombings, and a host of other ills that seem to "confound the wisdom of the wise."

About the only thing we can do is take Elbert Hubbard's advice--"when you get to the end of your rope: tie a knot and hang on!"

To millions of people Easter is that knot in the end of their rope.

Easter! That wonderful, quiet, calm holiday that promises a rebirth of body and spirit.

Christmas, to be sure, is no less a serious Christian festival; but Christmas has become commercialized into a period of rejoicing that sometimes gets out of hand.

Our Fourth of July celebrations are notoriously noisy, and rightly so, since they commemorate as a new nation, bursting onto the world scene.

This exuberance of youth may be the reason we have come to take our national holidays for granted.

As we observe this first Easter of the decade of the seventies we should remember that our founding fathers were, for the most part, men of very serious religious convictions.

The Constitution they adopted, beginning with a promise of freedom of worship has guided our nation through two centuries of progress.

To guarantee our continued success as a free Christian people we must hew close to the line in demanding that the moral values of America be maintained.

Easter, coming as it does in the softness and beauty of Spring, affords us a splendid opportunity to reaffirm our belief that peace and prosperity will come to men of good will.

However, the battle will not be won by playful meditation alone.

Some physical action is also necessary. We are fighting some very real and dangerous foes.

Fortunately, we do not enter the fray alone or unaided, for as St. Paul wrote to his young friend Timothy--"For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and a sound mind." II Timothy: 7

Happy Easter, everyone!

Let's all go to the rock festival--no, not the "rock" music festival in Dickens--the rock and mineral one at the Plainview Armory this Saturday.

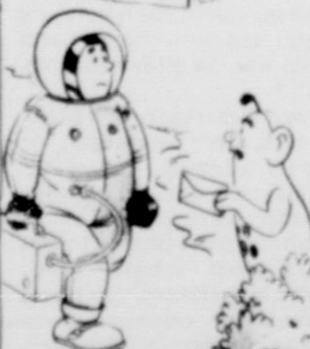

Postal employees are demanding more money before they will return to work--would that be "black-mail"?

Agriculture Is Biggest Business

Agriculture is still the nation's biggest industry. The rate of increase in agricultural productivity over the past 20 years has roughly doubled that of nonfarm industry. Agriculture is a $55 billion customer in the American economy, and exports of farm products alone provide about 1 million nonfarm jobs. Our efficient agriculture is the biggest reason American consumers get an abundance of high quality food for only 16.5% of his disposable, or after taxes, income. That's the world's best food bargain.

"I WONDER IF YOUR MIND DELIVERING A MESSAGE?"

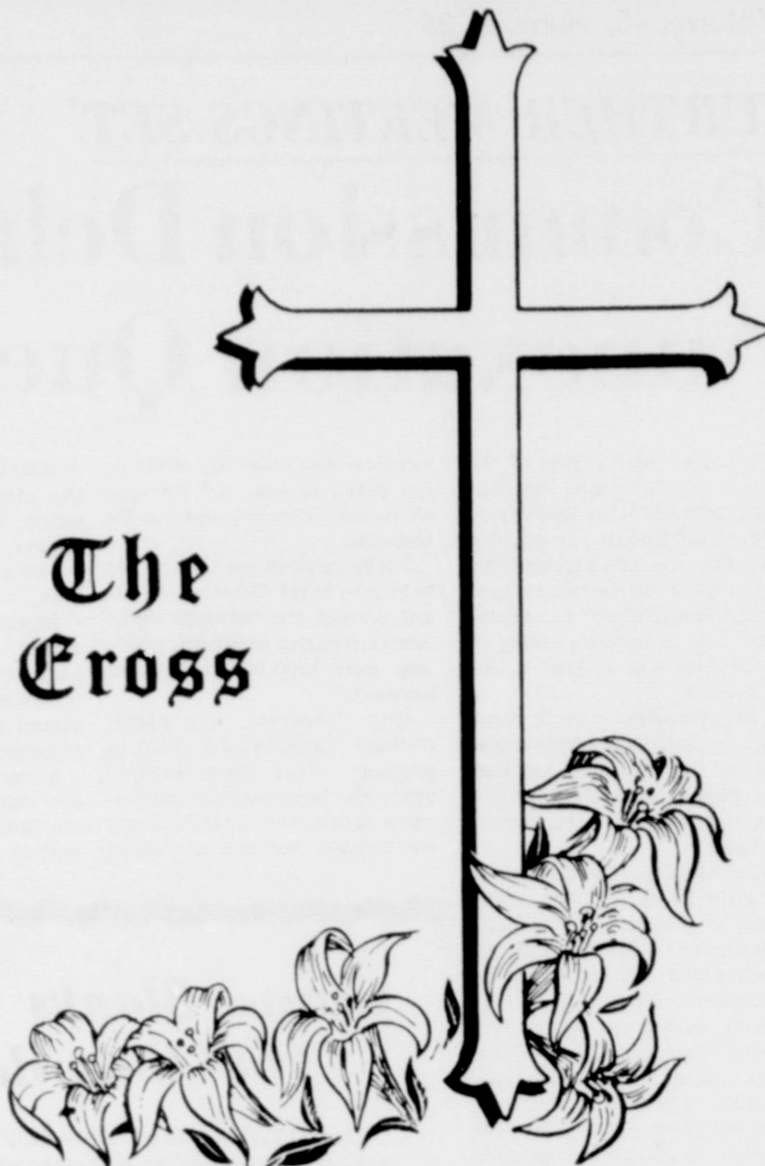

Appearance, the shell color and the size are what counts in selecting eggs for Easter coloring, according to Owendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist for Texas A & M University. Brown shelled eggs color quality as well as white shelled eggs. Brown shells give bright, vivid colors; white shells are best for pastels.

The Easter Seal Societies nationwide have invested more than Seventy Seven million in facilities and services for the physically handicapped, according to a recent report by the organization.

World's largest bookshop is that of W. & G. Foyle, Ltd. of London, which contains over 30 miles of shelving.

"QUIZ" -- This word was deliberately created, in 1780, by a Dublin theater-owner on a bet that he could invent a meaningless word and get people to use it. He and his friends painted the word "quiz" on fences, barns, and pavements all night long -- and soon people were asking what it meant. Quiz became ask -- and spread all over the world.

Dr. Bishop Serving As Interim Pastor

DR. BISHOP

Dr. J. Ivylo Bishop is serving as interim pastor of Friona's First Baptist Church.

The chairman of Wayland Baptist College's Division of Religion and Philosophy, Dr. Bishop began his duties in the local capacity on March 8. He had served the church in a similar capacity in 1967, between the pastorates of Rev. Bill Burton and Rev. Bill Foil.

At Wayland, Dr. Bishop helps coordinate the curriculum designed to prepare students for vocations as ministers, education directors, youth workers and church secretaries.

Having taught at Wayland since 1955, Dr. Bishop holds the Doctor of Religious Education degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Previously, he had earned the Th.

M. degree from Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, and the B.A. from Howard College, Birmingham.

Dr. Bishop has long been interested in youth work and for ten years served as executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Royal Ambassadors activities. He was founder and first editor of the nationally distributed magazine, Ambassador Life.

Both he and Mrs. Bishop have written extensively for the Southern Baptist Convention. They have collaborated at various articles for "Home Life" and other periodicals, and in 1958-59 co-authored "Appointment for Andy," a Foreign Mission study course book.

Their latest joint project was "Missions and Me," for the intermediate age group, published by the Sunday School Board. It will be one of the basic books for Intermediates in The Church Study Course for Teaching and Training. Dr. Bishop is the author of two books: "Guide for Counselors of Royal Ambassadors Chapter," a textbook for Royal Ambassador leaders; and "The March of the Master's Men," Intermediate Vacation Bible School textbook.

Since joining the Wayland faculty, Dr. Bishop has been a popular speaker over the Panhandle Plains Area, as well as throughout the Southern states. He has also served as interim pastor of churches in the area around Plainview.

Chiefs Stymied By Fickle Weather; Have Open Date

The Friona Chieftain track team, cheated out of action by changing weather conditions which eventually proved ideal last weekend, have an open date this week due to the Easter break.

The team had been scheduled to compete in a meet at Hereford last Saturday, but meet officials called the meet off early Saturday, but by afternoon the temperature was in the 60s.

The previous week the team had gotten its top performance of the season from weight specialist Donny Carthel, who ha-ved the discus 160 feet, two inches, to win his event at Abernathy. The toss is in the top ten statewide, against all classes.

Carthel also placed sixth in the shot put, and James Weatherly was third in the discus at 132-8.

Otherwise at Abernathy, Rick Davis placed fifth in the intermediate hurdles, and Wesley Clark and Ronnie McPherson placed third and fourth in the high jump.

Next outing for the Chieftains is April 3-4 at the Amarillo Relays.

Four Wheelers Tour Breaks

Members of Friona Four Wheel Drive Club and their guests made an all day tour of the river breaks in the Canadian area Sunday. A picnic lunch was served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham and Joe, Ronald Dee Clark and children, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dean Baxter and Blain, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark, Teresa and Diana, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGlothlin and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cunningham were the members making the trip.

Guests were Mrs. Gary Hand of Canyon, Sherry Rector, Floyd Noey and Sue Fletcher.

LITTLE DRIBBLERS

Hawks Edge Knicks; Tie For League Lead

The Hawks edged the Knicks, 24-19 in an overtime battle Saturday, knocking the Knicks from the unbeaten list, and gaining a tie for first place in the league standings. After the game, both teams stood 5-1 for the season.

The Knicks had a 14-8 lead going into the final quarter, but the Hawks came back to tie the score as regulation play ended, and outscored the Knicks, 6-1 in the overtime.

Three of the other five games during the week were decided by two points or less. One of the games went into two overtimes before the Celtics finally nosed the Bucks, 31-29. Randy Stevens hit a field goal in the second win of the season.

Bryan Nickels was high point for the Celtics with 11 points. Roy Smith led the Bucks with 12 points.

Other action on Saturday saw the Lakers come from behind to whip the Bullets, 23-21. It also was the second win of the season for the Lakers. Trailing 19-15 entering the final period, the Lakers outscored the Bullets, 6-2, with Loren Martin getting four for the winners. He had 10 to lead his team in scoring. Troy Messenger had 10 for the Bullets.

Earlier in the week, the Bucks had edged the Lakers, 27-26. Roy Smith pumped in 15 points to lead the winners, and Teddy Mac Harper had 10 for the Lakers.

The Hawks coasted past the Celtics in the easiest game of the week, 35-25. Davey Carthel and John Seright each had 10 points to lead their respective teams.

The Knicks had remained unbeaten with a 23-19 win over the Bullets on Thursday, despite having a scoreless third quarter. Knicks had a 17-7 lead at halftime, however.

Two weeks remain in the local Little Dribblers program, after which an all star team will be chosen for the national tournament to be held in Levelland.

SNOWED OUT SATURDAY

Lazbuddie Entered In Andrews Meet Friday

The Lazbuddie Longhorns, snowed out in their scheduled meet at Jayton last Saturday, are entered in the tough Andrews Relays this weekend. "We sure needed the meet last week, since we're behind the pace we should be at this point in the season," said Coach Pat Casey, who added that the Andrews meet should give his squad some much needed seasoning.

He indicated that the Longhorns would compete in the class A & B division in the meet, which draws teams as far away as Eldorado and Junction.

During the past week, senior Larry Hodges was added to the team giving it much-needed depth. Hodges, with two years experience, runs on both relay teams, runs the high hurdles and high jumps.

Showing the "youth trend" on the 'Horn track team this season is the relay team lineup, which reveals one senior, two juniors and a freshman on both teams.

On the sprint relay team, freshman Arthur Graves leads off, followed by junior Charles Lee, senior Larry Hodges and junior Mike Casey. The same foursome make up the mile relay, only in a different order: Lee, Graves, Hodges and Casey.

Adverse weather last week again cheated the team out of valuable workout time. Notable achievement in practice was a 144-foot discus throw by Monte Barnes, who has excelled in the discus and shotinmeets to date.

PAPER MONEY IS AN INVENTION OF THE CHINESE, BELIEVED TO DATE FROM THE T'ANG DYNASTY OF THE 7TH CENTURY A.D.

SERVES ONE. . . Norman Mohr is shown delivering up a serve in a match on Tuesday involving Friona High School tennis teams and those from Hereford. Both boys and girls teams competed. Friona salvaged the girls doubles, played by Randie Kelley and Carleen Greeson.

One Banquet Proposed For All Sports

A meeting of the parents of FHS was held Wednesday, March 18 in the High School Cafeteria. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the possibilities of holding an "All Sports Banquet" for the students as opposed to the usual "Football Banquet".

The proposal met with the approval of the majority present and the banquet will be planned for early spring starting with the 70-71 school year.

The Chieftain Mothers, which is an organization composed of mothers of football players, will be changed to "Chieftain Parents" thus including both parents of all students participating in any sport activity offered by the school.

Church Hosts

Rev. and Mrs. H.C. Lomis of Lubbock will be special guests at the First Assembly of God Church in Friona this Sunday.

Rev. Lomis will speak at both the morning and evening services. Mrs. Lomis will assist with the music.

WINS EVENTS

Girls Track Team Shines In First Season Outing

Friona High School's girls track team finally was able to get some meet action, at Bovina last Thursday, and won four events in the three-way meet, placing second in three others.

Jayn Masstie won the shot put event, as Friona swept the top two places. Jill Riehmayer won the 60-yard dash, and Friona's 880-yard and mile relay teams each won their events.

Members of the 880-yard relay team were Glo Brown, Randie Kelley, Vickie Mingus and Vicki Ulen. On the mile relay are Janice Milner, Vececia We-

Ich, Jill Riehmayer and Karla Patterson.

Placing behind Miss Masstie in the shot put were Glo Brown, second, and Teresa Bingham, fifth.

Karla Patterson was second in the 440-yard dash; and Glo Brown was second in the 220. Vicki Ulen was second in the 80-meter hurdles.

Sharon Crofford was fifth in the discus.

Coach F.C. Crofford apologizes to any placers he may have omitted, as official results had not been mailed to him early this week.

Next outing for the team will be April 4 at Panhandle.

Hightower Is Chairman For Special Deaf Study

Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes today named Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon to serve as chairman of the Texas Legislative Council's committee to study facilities and programs for the deaf. The study was requested by resolution (S.R. 1043) adopted during the regular session of the 61st Legislature, and full membership of the study committee includes, in addition to Hightower, Senator Barbara Jordan of Houston and Representative J.E. Ward of Glen Rose.

Under terms of the resolution the Texas Legislative Council is requested to review an earlier Council study on which a report was presented to the 60th Legislature in 1967. The new study committee will direct the Council staff in updating information in the original study, and a report, including recommendations and drafts of proposed legislation, will be presented to the 62nd Legislature when it convenes in January 1971.

Senator Hightower, an attorney, was a member of the House of Representatives of the 53rd Legislature, and has served in the Senate of the 59th, 60th, and 61st Legislatures. He is serving his third term as a member of the Texas Legislative Council, the research arm of the legislature.

In addition to directing the study committee on facilities and programs on the deaf, Hightower has been named by Barnes to serve on Council study committees, on statutory revision and preparation of a permanent rule book for the legislature. In the Senate he is at present chairman of the standing committee on contingent expense and is vice chairman of the constitutional amendments committee. He holds membership on seven additional Senate standing committees, among them the important committees on finance, oil and gas, state affairs, and youth affairs.

Lieutenant Governor Barnes, in announcing Hightower's appointment as chairman of the deaf study committee, commented that the Vernon senator is highly knowledgeable on the subject, and his previous experience on research projects of the Texas Legislative Council will be a distinct asset both to the committee over which he will preside and the others on which he will serve.

At Home In Parmer County

By Janice Miller
 County HD Agent

This past Saturday Parmer County 4-H members enrolled in Food & Nutrition projects and held their Food Show. It takes a lot of people to make a contest successful—4-H members, junior leaders, adult leaders and judges. Mrs. Mike Potts, Bovina Homemaking teacher and Mrs. Pete Jesko, who has worked as County Home Demonstration Agent, took their time to judge the girls and their entries. This isn't an easy job and I want to "thank you" for taking time from your busy schedule to spend an afternoon helping 4-H in Parmer County.

Easter, 1970 is here. And if you have children young enough to enjoy hunting eggs, here are some tips for you in getting ready for the hunt.

COOKING: Easter eggs will taste and look best if they are hard cooked instead of hard boiled. Cooking eggs at a lower temperature means more tender egg whites, less dark coloring around the yolk and less cracking of shells during cooking. Here's one way to hard cook eggs without boiling: cover eggs with cool water and bring to a boil in a heavy covered saucepan. Set pan off heat and let eggs set for about 20 minutes in hot water. If you must hurry the process simmer (but do not boil) for 10 minutes. Immerse cooked eggs immediately in cold water.

DYEING: Wipe shells thoroughly with a moist cloth, then allow to dry. Eggs that have limey shells will dye with tiny white spots.

Blow eggs out of shells or hard cook eggs before tinting. Eggs dye best when they are hot, and hot water dyes are fastest.

Prepare the dye according to the manufacturer's instructions. Immerse the eggs until they become the shade you want them. Let them dry and then you and the children can use your imagination in decorations.

Local Club Offers Annual Vision Test

Members of the New Horizons Junior Study Club in Friona give parents the following warning: "Don't gamble with your children's eyesight!" Preschool Children, three to six years of age, will be given free vision tests by trained volunteers of the New Horizons Junior Study Club, Saturday, April 4, 1970.

The tests, held in cooperation with the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness, will be at the Friona Grade School Library between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m.

"One of every four school children need some kind of eye care," said Mrs. Jerry Hinkle, Chairman, New Horizons Junior Study Club Preschool Vision Screening Project.

Mrs. Hinkle pointed out that the object of the free eye test to be held is to detect visual defects in children as early as possible. The Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness strongly recommends that a child's eyes should be tested before he reaches the school age so that any vision difficulty can be corrected before he begins his education.

The New Horizons Junior Study Club volunteers will work in teams. They will test the child's vision with an "E" chart. If his performance leads them to suspect a vision difficulty the youngster will then be "referred." This means a notice is given to his parents advising of the need for a medical eye examination. Later there will be a follow-up of each "referred" to make sure each child has had an eye examination.

Many children with eye defects who do not receive treatment early enough will lose their sight; thousands of those with neglected vision problems will be burdened with needless emotional, psychological and educational handicaps.

The vision testing project in Friona is the link in a growing network of such programs being carried out throughout the State in cooperation with the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Since 1955, hundreds of unpaid volunteers have tested the eyesight of more than 170,000 preschool children in Texas. That is why citizens of Friona are urged to take their preschool age children to obtain their free eye test.

The Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness is the only voluntary health agency engaged in the prevention of blindness through a total program of research, service and education in the State.

To dye the egg shell for Easter, and not the white of the egg, start with eggs that do not have cracks, notes Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist at Texas A & M University. Keep the dye water warmer than the egg. If a warm egg is left in cool water, the dye may seep through the pores of the shell.

Sunrise Services Are Slated By Lutherans

Redeemer Lutheran Church in Friona is planning an Easter Sunrise Service at 6 a.m. this Sunday in its building located at 13th and Virginia Streets, according to its pastor, Otto H. Kretzmann.

Sunday School with its Bible Classes for all ages will follow this service starting at 7 a.m. These new starting times will be in effect for Easter Sunday only. On the Sunday after Easter the church will return to its regular Sunday morning schedule.

Pastor Kretzmann reported also that the local Men's organization of the church, the L.L.L., will serve an Easter breakfast following the Service and Sunday School. All those attending the morning activities are invited to the breakfast and fellowship.

Sunrise Services are not new to Redeemer Church, according to Pastor Kretzmann. Last year the local church sponsored an early service on Easter and, because of the success and interest shown, it was decided to hold this type of service again this Easter and, perhaps, make it a tradition at Redeemer Lutheran Church.

"As far as we know," Pastor Kretzmann stated, "this is the only Easter Sunrise Service scheduled in Friona and the public is certainly welcome to attend."

New Church Program Set

The First Assembly of God Church invites the public to hear evangelist C.M. Ward, the "National Voice of the Assemblies of God" over Radio Station KNNN each Sunday at 12:30 noon.

Rev. Ward's voice is heard on many radio stations throughout the country, and Rev. D. W. Calcote, pastor of the local church, says he believes the new program locally will be enjoyed by all who listen.

EASTER GREETINGS TO EVERYONE

It's a season for rejoicing and at this glad occasion we extend our best wishes to each of you for a joyful Happy Easter.

Victory Over The Grave

By DAVID JOHNSON

He is risen. These three words state the biggest fact in Christian history for each person who has had a genuine experience with the living Savior.

The whole history of civilization has been shaped and molded by the impact of the resurrection on the lives of men.

Every year ministers throughout the nation stand before their largest congregations of the year on Easter Sunday morning as church attendance soars—many people attending not to worship a risen Christ but to show off their stylish wardrobes.

But Easter is more than all of this.

The resurrection has several different aspects, according to the place from which one views it.

Darkest Hour

The crucifixion was the world's darkest hour. The disciples watched as Jesus died on the cross. They saw His limp body taken from the cross and placed in the sepulcher.

They grieved at His death, but not one of them ever dreamed that He would come forth alive from the grave. He was dead and dead men stay dead.

Theirs was a double sorrow. They grieved in the tragic rejection and death of their best Friend, whom they really loved. But, more than this, they were bewildered by it all. Their faith was in an eclipse.

The faith of many of those who had known the strong Carpenter from Nazareth had been shattered.

Death had won the victory. The Christian faith had appeared to be a fraud. Christ, Himself, appeared to be a liar. God appeared to have turned His back on the world. The view from the cross was a dark view.

The view from the tomb is quite different. The tomb was empty.

The angel said, "He is not here, for He is risen." And now we see that the resurrection was the shattering of history by the omnipotent act of God.

It set a new example for the universe, a decisive turning point for the human race.

To men held in the grip of fear and futility, to men who see no hope for the future of mankind, the resurrection proclaims the fact there is a power at work in the world which is mightier than all the forces that crucified our Lord.

Victory

From the viewpoint of the early Christians on the day of the crucifixion, it seemed that God had been defeated. But on Sunday, the first day of the week, it was clear that God had won.

As we view the resurrection from where we stand, we recognize that life is different for you and me because Jesus arose. We are confronted with the cross and the resurrection.

Since Christ is risen from the dead, it is possible for the Christian to live every moment of every day in the presence of the living Christ.

It means that the Christian approaches no task alone, bears no sorrow alone, faces no demand alone, attacks no problem alone, endures no temptation alone.

Important victories never come cheap. The supreme victory cost God the agony and death of His most precious possession—His Son, Jesus Christ.

He arose. The victory is achieved.

The Star Staff had an interesting note from Brenda Hawker of Melbourne Australia last week. Brenda spent the school year 1964-65 in Friona. She lived with Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Phipps and family and attended Friona High School. She came back to Friona for a visit since then.

Everyone who had the privilege of knowing Brenda appreciated her very much. She had a wonderful personality and was certainly a good ambassador for her country. Hearing from her was a pleasure.

Having a long Easter vacation is going to be a treat to teachers and students in the local schools. It seems that we've been unusually lucky in the "bad weather" department in that schools have not had to close even one day due to the weather. Of course, we may have a late late blizzard and miss a few days yet, but it will be after the holidays.

Spring vacations are always fun and I'm sure this one will be no exception. College students will be home, all local students will be having a six day holiday, which began Tuesday afternoon and teachers and administrators will be enjoying a break.

Many local residents have expressed regret that we are losing the Charles Howell family. Charles, Ruby, Dennis, Darla, Risa and Kevin have been assets to our community, schools and local organizations and we've learned to appreciate them very much.

Then, too, Kent and April have endeared themselves to many Frionans. The Howells have attended Calvary Baptist Church and will be missed very much in church activities. They are moving to Drumright, Oklahoma.

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Fay Smith, who has completed requirements for a bachelor of arts degree with a major in elementary education. At the present time she is doing her student teaching under direction of Mrs. Wana Brewer, a third grade teacher in the local school system. Mrs. Smith who is a long time employee of Foster's, started her college education a number of years ago.

After having attended West Texas State a year or two, she was married to Ralph Smith and her plans for a degree were pushed into the background. Then, after her four daughters were in school, she began working on it again on a part time basis.

A few years ago she said, "I hope to have my degree by the time Esther, (the youngest daughter) finishes high school." Since Esther is a junior, Fay must have progressed a little faster than she thought she would be able to.

Congratulations, Fay, we're proud of your accomplishment.

How do you account for all the commotion about hemlines? When have the American women ever asked "is it for me?" when a famous name designer came up with a new idea? As far back as I can remember hemlines have gone up and down and more recently it seems that they have gone up up up.

Which length do our local merchants plan to stock this fall? After doing a little checking, I'm thinking Friona clothing merchants will stay with conservative lengths.

I read an ad from Markae Dress Shop in Stratford which I enjoyed very much. The copy was entitled, "This is a hemline," and the story went like this:

"Once upon a time, you knew exactly where it was and that was that. Then suddenly, all that nice comfortable conformity ended and the hemline was all over the place. It went up to mini and down to maxi. And often it wasn't even a hemline at all-it was pants."

A girl had c-h-o-i-c-e. Which while it scared a lot of girls, others found challenging, releasing. Our view? We think the whole development is great. We like individuality. But we think age is basic to the decision-making process.

The skirt can be anywhere from just clearing to three inches above the knee, depending on height and figure personality. As for pants, we think they're absolutely age-less. If you'd like a store that doesn't hem and haw about the whole hemline business, see us. We're not only chic, we're honest." Hope Dave McReynolds doesn't mind having us "borrow" his ads for this column.

The fellow who invented the alarm clock probably did more to arouse the working people than any other man.

Former Resident Dies In Accident

Luciano Alaniz a former Friona resident, was pronounced dead at the scene of an accident in which his pickup turned over and burned last week. The accident occurred on Highway 44 near the intersection of Riley Street in Freer.

Alaniz, who was alone in the pickup at the time of the accident, was a resident of Alice, Texas.
