Chamber Recommends Sales Tax Passage

The Friona Chamber of Commerce unanimously passed a resolution going on record as favoring passage of the one-cent city sales tax at its regular monthly meeting last week.

City Manager Jake Outland appeared before the chamber, and explained to them why the additional funds were needed by the city. Mayor W.L. Edelman also spoke briefly.

Outland explained that it was necessary for the city to transfer some $20,000 annually from the water and sewer fund to take care of other obligations, but it was getting difficult to continue the practice.

In other business, the chamber discussed the fact that it was time to mail statements for 1970 dues. It was explained that chamber memberships are based on multiples of $60, with one vote for each $60 membership.

Individual memberships (for employees) are also available for $36 per year. A membership committee of Ralph Shirley, Marc Houser and Jon Mack Roden was appointed.

The chamber voted to support a fine arts movement in the city, and appointed Mrs. Bob Alexander, Mrs. Steve Messenger and Mrs. Von Edelman as a committee to work with the chamber on the matter.

It has been suggested that the Chamber of Commerce sponsor an art show, perhaps next summer.

The possibility of a tannery locating here was discussed, although nothing concrete came before the group.

It was mentioned that the Chamber office will be used by the Social Security officials for office hours once a month, in place of the City Hall, beginning with the third Tuesday in April.

NEW ADDITION. . . Here is an aerial photo showing the new Lakeside Addition which was annexed by the city on Monday. High Plains Development Co. of Amarillo plans to build 112 homes around Reeve Lake, in the areas indicated. All construction will be new homes, with a minimum of 1,000 feet. Proposed streets shown by solid lines; alleys dotted.

ONE 112-HOME ADDITION

Annexations Total 44 Acres Monday

Annexation of three additions to the city of Friona, totalling roughly 44 acres took up the major portion of the monthly City Council meeting Monday night.

Major annexation was a 28-acre tract of land styled blocks 2 through 7 of Lakeview Addition. This property rings around Reeve Lake, and the six blocks annexed will be developed, containing 112 lots.

Also annexed was a seven-acre tract, Hicks Addition, after much discussion from property owners adjacent across Highway 214 to the East. The property owners objected to the "random location" of these developments, without due regard to affects on adjacent property values.

Also annexed were three blocks, styled the Jones Addition, in the northern part of town.

City Manager Jake Outland was authorized to take steps preparatory to securing the paving of Walnut Street from 11th to 14th Streets, contacting property owners involved. This is to provide access to the new apartments to be constructed

Rock Port Strike Over

Missouri Beef Packers, Inc. announced that the strike at its Rock Port, Missouri, plant had been settled and that the plant was back in full operation as of March 3.

J.C. Walker, Missouri Beef president, said that a new three-year contract, covering all slaughtering, breaking, fabricating and maintenance employees, had been concluded with Local 576 of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America AFL-CIO. The Rock Port strike, which did not affect the company's Friona division, had begun on January 16, 1970, with the expiration of the previous contract.

between 13th and 14th on Walnut.

A contract was extended with H.E. Jordan of Amarillo for installation of city water and sewage system to the apartment project.

An official request was sent to General Telephone Company to conduct a feasibility and cost study on direct dialing between Friona and Bovina.

A motion was passed to send the city manager to city manager's school at Lawrence, Kansas, April 22-24.

SCHOOL BUSINESS

Faculty Re-Elected. Holidays Extended

At the regular meeting of the Friona School Board Monday, all members of the present faculty were re-elected for the 1970-71 school term.

The coaches, principals and counselor Baker Diggins had their contracts extended at the previous month's meeting.

In other business, the board voted to dismiss two days earlier than planned for the Easter Holidays, giving a six-day break (including Saturday and Sunday), unless weather in the meantime causes a day to be missed.

Under the present set-up, school will dismiss Wednesday, March 25 through Monday, March 30. Originally, only Friday and Monday were designated for holidays. Two extra teaching days were included on the calendar which have not been needed as yet.

The board approved the report of the school textbooks committee, for the next two school years.

It was voted to increase the school's insurance on the overall school plants by $135,400 as insurance premiums were due. The school insurance is carried by Ithridge-Spring Agency and Rushing Insurance. The board also voted to place for sale a 1957 Chevrolet and a 1962 Dodge School bus about May 1. Prior to the meeting, board, principals and counselors were guests for dinner in the high school home-making department.

Gen. Ayers Receives High Military Award

Maj. Gen. Ross Ayers, Texas Adjutant General and veteran Texas National Guardsman, last Thursday was presented the nation's second highest non-combat military award by Lt. Gen. Harry H. Critz, Jr., commander of Fourth U.S. Army, Fort Sam Houston.

The Legion of Merit was presented to General Ayers during ceremonies held at Camp Mabry, Austin, State Headquarters for Texas military forces. General Critz flew from San Antonio to Austin to personally make the award.

Ayers, whose home is in Friona but who resides at Camp Mabry in his position as Adjutant General, was cited for exceptionally meritorious service while serving as commanding general of the 36th Infantry Brigade from November 1965 to March 1969.

The West Texan took command of the 36th Brigade when it was organized as a Selected Reserve Force to be manned at full strength and to undergo intensive training to measure up to the high priority assigned by Department of Defense. Ayers saw the brigade come through with flying colors when battalion-level tests were conducted by the Active Army in July 1966.

"He welcomed the challenge and forsaking his civilian occupation devoted his time and talent toward accomplishment of this monumental task," the citation reads, in part. "His outstanding accomplishments reflect great credit upon himself, the National Guard and the United States Army."

General Ayers is no stranger to decorations. As a combat officer of the 36th Infantry Division during World War II he was recipient of the Silver Star Medal, Bronze Star Medal and French Croix de Guerre. He also has received the Lone Star Distinguished Service Medal from Governor Preston Smith.

Ayers was chosen as Texas Adjutant General by the governor in March 1969.

AT HUB MEETING

4-H Clubs To Sponsor Drug Seminar Tuesday

"Narcotics" is the subject of a program scheduled for Tuesday, March 17 at the Hub Community Center. This meeting set for 7:30 p.m. is sponsored by the 4-H Clubs of Parmer County according to Janice Miller, County Home Demonstration Agent and Ronny McNutt, County Agricultural Agent.

Four 4-H members from Amarillo will present this educational program. The mental and physical effects of drug use and the various types of drugs will be discussed. There will also be a display showing the different kinds of drugs.

This program is for youth and their parents; to give a common ground of understanding. "We would like to encourage any interested young people and their parents to attend this program," stated the agents. "The 4-H members are glad to have this opportunity to help inform the citizens of Parmer County of the very real danger of drugs."

ECLIPSE. . . No, it isn't "Moon Over Miami," but it's the sun over Friona at noon last Saturday during the partial eclipse. Many "amateur astronomers" were able to view the eclipse perfectly under ideal conditions.

Last Saturday's eclipse of the sun, while not as dramatic in Friona as in other parts of North America, never-the-less afforded quite a show for several amateur astronomers.

Although only about 60 percent of the sun was covered at the height of the eclipse locally, the weather at least cooperated to the extent that clouds which blanketed the area early in the morning cleared away by mid-morning, and those using special devices to see the eclipse were able to do so.

This was not the case in many places, as you may have seen on television, where much of the East Coast was cloudy.

We were made to wonder the other day if perhaps this cloudy condition on the day of the eclipse was a blessing in disguise. As it was, we heard reports of some people having to be treated for eye damage from watching the eclipse.

Perhaps if the skies had been clear in New York, there would have been more cases of eye injuries.

From our own standpoint, we found it very hard to keep from sneaking a look at the sun, even though we had read (and published) warnings to the contrary.

We didn't get the world's best pictures of the eclipse, but gained a lot of knowledge which we'll attempt to make use of when the next eclipse of this nature happens, somewhere around the year 2024.

Records from the Bureau of the Census indicated that names which were included in our county's first census in 1790 were sometimes colorful and quaint.

Some names on the first census included Joseph Scolds, Thomas Simmers, True Love Sparks, Sermon Coffin, Sarah Simpers, Hannah Cheese, Mercy Pepper, Boozie Still, Over Jordan and William Sorrows.

There were such family names as Pockepine, Drip, Fryover, and Hungertrealer. Just as today, Smith was the most popular name in 1790, followed by Brown, Johnson, Davis, Jones, Clark, Williams, Miller and Wilson.

Family names from 1790 apparently were often derived from common objects, events and experiences. Some were taken from common household objects, such as Fish, Trout, Lamb, Kidney, Ham, Melon, Silk, Feather, Lace and Bonnet.

Some names apparently were derived from nations and places. Included on the census roll were Ireland, Germany, Hungary, Canada, Poland, Spain, Athens, Boston and Paradise.

Human characteristics apparently were a source of names as witness the following: Beeman, Councilman, Short, Shorter, Pilgrim, Goodfellow, Swindle, Bony, Barefoot, Drinker, Old, Witty, Rascal, Cusser, Duncie, Booby, Madsavage, Miserly, Coldbath, Crine and Howls.

Relationship was seen in some family names. These included names like Cousins, Brother, Couples, Neighbors and Daughters.

Nature-type names made up a big group, including Brooks, Rivers, Lake, Meadows, Parks, Mountain, Woodland, Forests, Fountain, Middlebrook, Marsh, Pool and Pond.

Property was indicated as a source of many family names. These would include House, Lot, Marble, Longhouse, Plank, Woodhouse, Pitcher, Curtain, Pickett, Tubs, Hatchet and Mallet.

Some other unusual names included Buttery, Granny, Stable, Barns, Tempenny, Thickpenny and Matze (which would go good in this area today).

Names are interesting. No doubt you've heard several of the above family names before. Many have died out, and others have undergone change.

School Out On Friday

School will dismiss in Friona on Friday for the district teacher's meeting in Amarillo.

AN EDITORIAL

Filth Peddlers Are Finding Obstacles

An interesting dispute is spreading across the United States, which could lead to far-reaching results.

It seems that more and more printers are refusing to reproduce the frequently obscene and hate-America material brought in to them by college "newspaper editors." It is reported that the filthy speech advocates are finding it more and more difficult to get their stuff printed—at any price.

A friend near Washington, D.C. passed on to us a story told him by a local job printer. One day, three baby-faced youths appeared at his shop with copy and "art" for a so-called "underground press" campus paper. The printer, by no means unaware that life has its seamy side, took one look at the material and didn't know whether to blush or turn pale, so vile it was. Rather than get into an argument over the matter, he decided to use an easy and quick way out; he would quote such an outrageous price that the students would go elsewhere. After calculating, on pad and paper, his cost and normal profit margin, he then doubled the price, and announced it to the "editors."

"That's o.k.," said the youths.
"Cash," added the printer.
"That's all right, too."
"In advance."
Whereupon, the printer reported, the youths reached into their pockets and pulled out a roll of bills "large enough to choke a horse."

With his back literally to the wall, the printer finally said: "Nothing doing. I wouldn't touch that stuff with a pair of tongs." Some might ask, "Why not? It was a chance to make some easy money."

Fortunately, the printer displayed more courage than some college boards and university presidents who apparently don't have the moral stamina to stand up to rebellious students and say "No." We are glad to learn that there are other printers like him.

Seems to us we've heard of another craftsman who showed us, by example, how we should live. Wasn't He a carpenter?

Girl Scouts Are Saluted This Week

Girls from the Ghetto. . . Girls from Suburbia. . . join hands and hearts in a program of scouting that enriches all. March 8-14 is being observed nationally as "Girl Scout Week."

"Listen To Us," one scout says. "We see the problems. We realize the challenge. We think we can do the job. We want to try."

Here is what girl scouting is doing. It is reaching out to economically depressed areas. Today, 500,000 girl scouts are from families with below median income. "Scouting gives me a feeling that others want me and need me. . . A belief in myself and respect for others," says this new girl scout. And she, with her sister scouts—More than 3,000,000 strong, speaks out and actively helps those less fortunate than herself.

In migrant worker camps, girl scouts teach English to children. In hospitals, they serve the sick and infirm. In emergencies—hurricanes or riots—Girl scouts are there, taking care of children, serving food to the dispossessed.

Others also work in poverty areas, they help cool the long hot summer by providing day camps, useful activities, for inner-city girls. The New Triennium theme, "Awareness—Action," reflects the deep involvement of girl scouts of the United States of America with the needs of the world.

This is modern girl scouting.

The concept of "non graded schools" isn't really anything new. Instead it is a variation of "something old." Those of us who are old enough to remember one room schools know a great deal about "non graded education."

Master teachers of one room schools, as recently as forty years ago, were artists in individual instruction. Did you ever see a schedule prepared by a teacher, who had from twenty to one hundred pupils in grades one through eight? Every minute had to be scheduled and it was necessary for the teacher to be able to keep at least half a dozen different things going at the same time.

Most pioneer teachers had a minimum of discipline problems and was able to spend most of the time instructing or listening to pupils recite. Students were generally assigned to seats according to age levels and several groups were busy working on assignments as others were reciting.

Then in the middle of a recitation period for eighth grade geography students, a raised hand was acknowledged, a question was answered or a request was granted with almost no interruption.

One problem these teachers almost never faced was the one of what to do with the fast learners in the first grade. Very often those in this category were interested in listening to the older children read from their readers history books or geography books or in watching them solve mathematical problems on a blackboard.

Accuracy in spelling was stressed at all grade levels and the old fashioned Spelling Bees gave everyone from the fourth or fifth grade up an opportunity to display his knowledge of spelling and provided a challenge to the older students to apply themselves enough to keep ahead of the "little kids."

Of course, these schools were not called "nongraded", but the principle was the same. At least one Hereford elementary school is planning some "nongraded" experiments possibly for the next school term. I'm anxious to learn about the outcome.

Before any of us condemn the new concept--or perhaps a new version of an old concept, let's familiarize ourselves with the subject and give it some serious consideration. Maybe the best feature of the "old" and "new" will be combined to make a better educational system.

A special salute this week goes to all the Girl Scouts, leaders, helpers and assistants in Friona. We have so many fine people in all the above categories that it would be impossible to list all of them.

The Girl Scout program means so very much to our town and we are so very glad to have all the Girl Scouts living and working with us.

Congratulations to all of you for a wonderful year of scouting.

ASCS Office Reminds Of March 20 Signup Deadline

Deadline date of March 20 for signing up in the 1970 Feed Grain, Wheat and cotton programs was emphasized again this week by Prentice Mills, office manager of the Farmer County ASCS office, Farwell.

As of March 6, only two weeks prior to the deadline, only 40 per cent of the farms in Farmer County had signed in the programs.

"It looks like the line will get longer as time gets shorter," Mills stated.

In the regular ASCS newsletter, Mills suggested that landowners who were not sure whether their tenants had signed up in the programs, if planned, contact them to make sure they were aware of the approaching March 20 deadline.

Mills also reminded farmers to file a request for measurement service, as an assurance that they will be in compliance with program acreage requirements.

The county ASCS office manager, reminded farmers of other approaching deadlines, as follows:

March 31--last day for 1969 wheat loan; April 30--wheat loans mature. Last day to graze land that will be used for diverted acres. May 1--final day for certifying 1970 wheat acreage. May 31--final day for 1969 grain sorghum loans.

"Time And Eternity" Is Title Of Church Movie

Time--what is it? The relationship between time, space and matter? And, man's place in time? These are some of the thought-provoking concepts considered in "Time and Eternity," a full color motion picture to be shown:

March 15 at 6:15 p.m. at the First Baptist Church Auditorium in Friona.

Produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon, at the Moody Institute of Science in Whittier, California, "Time and Eternity" is one of a series of unique and interesting motion pictures released under the general classification of Sermons from Science.

ence. Time and Eternity and other Sermons from Science films were viewed by more than a million people from all over the world at the New York World's Fair.

Using the time microscope and time compressor (lapsetime camera and high speed camera), Dr. Moon demonstrates some of the basic principles of relativity. The result is not only highly informative but intensely interesting.

"Time And Eternity" presents God as Omnipotent, unrestricted by the limits of time and space. The reality of eternity is seen as a scientific fact.

FIRST WEEK'S ACTION

Knicks, Bucks Top Little Dribblers

The Knicks and Bucks set the pace after the first week's action in Friona's "Little Dribblers" program, with two wins in two outings.

The first week's games found the Knicks downing the Hawks, 24-19, and the Celtics, 17-13. Kent Miller scored nine and 12 points to pace the wins.

The Bucks edged the Celtics, 17-16 on Thursday, and then held off the Bullets, 21-18 on Saturday. David Barnett emerged as his team's top scorer in the two games. Bryan Nickels led the Celtics with 12 points in their two games.

The Hawks came back from their opening game loss to take the measure of the Lakers, 32-19 on Saturday. Davey Carthel, who had 13 points in the Hawks' opening game, scored 17 points on Saturday, for a two-game total of 30.

The loss also evened the Lakers' record at 1-1, since they had opened by edging the Bullets, 17-16 on Thursday. Teddy Mac Harper led the Lakers with 10 points in the opener and six on Saturday.

The Bullets, victims of two close defeats in their first two games, were paced during the opening week by the scoring of Troy Messenger, with 14 points. Action in the program, which has been organized this year for 10 and 11-year-old boys, continues for five weeks, with three games on Thursday evenings and Saturday mornings at the Grade School Gymnasium.

IN OBSERVANCE OF

GIRL SCOUT WEEK

WE SALUTE MRS. RALPH WILSON FOR HER 30 YEARS OF GIRL SCOUT LEADERSHIP.

MRS. LOUISA WILSON IS PICTURED HERE WITH PART OF HER SCOUT TROOP

Sometimes words will quite elude us, heartfelt gratitude to show,
As they do today, Louisa, things we'd like for you to know.
How could we, in only moments, span 'most one score years plus ten?
These Scout troops, but for your efforts, truly might have never been.

Briefly now, in retrospection, back to nineteen-forty-two,
Starting with a meager handful and your daughter, Mamie Lou,
Looking forward, -never backward-with your "hand put to the plow."
Pointing girls to better purpose, all inspiring! then as now.

Ever loyal to that promise to extend a helping hand,
Dutiful to God and Country, quick to see-to understand;
Years the Girl Scouts met for day camp in the blistering summer sun,
Till Louisa, to her husband said, "Ralph, something must be done!"

So their farm became a haven; like a nesting mother hen,
Shady trees spread out a shelter, whispering to the summer wind.
Deed on deed through years that followed, links that formed a golden chain,
Measured like the rays of sunshine, or the drops of April rain.

Time, well used-not spent-invested-in our country's womanhood,
Shining down through years to follow, -Standards! Purposes! -All for good.
Time and tongue restrict the homage we would give-and you are due,
Oh, but what a better world t'would be if there were more like you!

National Award Goes To Deaf Smith REC

James T. Hull, manager of Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, accepted the National Accreditation Committee's certificate of excellence at the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association annual meeting held recently in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Hull was presented the certificate by H.L. Custer, Director of the Retirement, Safety and Insurance Department with the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

The fact that only 62 other rural electric systems out of nearly 1000 total systems have qualified for accreditation makes the award a distinct honor. Only four other cooperatives in Texas have been awarded accreditation.

The aims of the Safety Accreditation program are to instill in directors, managers and employees in rural electric systems an increasing awareness of the importance of safety in their system operations; to increase their de-

WHERE WILL YOU BUY?

If you needed another dress in your wardrobe, how would you decide where to make your purchase? Ask yourself these questions:

--What quality of workmanship and fabric is found in dresses stocked by the store?

--What is the price range of dresses?

--Do I plan to pay cash or charge my purchase?

--How far is my home from the store?

--How much time do I have to shop for the dress?

--Am I acquainted with a saleslady who knows her merchandise and is interested in pleasing me?

--Do I prefer to try on the dress before buying it?

--Is it important to me that the dress might be returned, if I decide it is not just what I wanted or needed?

--Does the store stock merchandise with reliable and informative labels?

Have you noticed some food cans are white on the inside? Researchers have found that some kinds of foods, especially those that are highly colored in the natural state, will keep their attractive appearance better if they are canned in enamel-lined cans. This enamel lining has no other effect on the food.

If acid ingredients like tomatoes, catsup or vinegar are included in a recipe using beans or peas, add them after the vegetables are tender. Acids prevent beans and peas from softening.

resounding reasons why you should buy a new Chevrolet instead of a new something else:

- Higher resale value. Year after year. No other car in Chevrolet's field gives you as much back on your initial investment.
- Deep down value. Exclusives like flush-and-dry rocker panels and an extra set of fenders keep Chevrolet looking good longer.
- Smooth, smooth ride. Because of Chevrolet's computer selected springs, Full Coil suspension and advanced body mounting system.
- Impressive styling. The impression is that it's an expensive car, if you want to make an impression.
- Massive interiors. Result? Room to stretch out or to sit tall. Chevrolet has more front leg room than any other car in its field.
- Side-guard beams. Chevrolet puts more between you and the outside. Steel beams built into every door.
- A finish that lasts. It's unfortunate other cars in Chevy's field don't have a Magic-Mirror finish because it sure keeps its shine.
- Exceptional engines. Chevrolet's standard 350-cubic-inch V8 runs on regular fuel. Plus there are five more engines available.
- Tremendous selection. Of colors. Of accessories. Of engines. Of transmissions. Of fabrics. And of models. There are nine big Chevrolets alone.
- America's favorite. Something a new "something else" can't claim. If actions speak louder than words, doesn't this say something to you?

When God Was On Trial

BY DAVID JOHNSON

It seems incredible that God's own beloved Son, who lived a perfect life, would find Himself on trial for His life.

Jesus Christ was all-divine as well as all-human. Therefore, we view a point in history when mere human beings placed God, Himself, on trial.

Equally incredible is the timing of the trial in the life of Christ — at the prime of life and soon after the beginning of a mighty ministry.

Yet, after only three active years of service, Jesus found Himself facing not one, but a series of trials.

Jesus could have escaped all of this, but He chose to be obedient to the Father. In keeping with the fore-ordained purpose of God, He was subjected to a mocking trial as a basis for condemnation to death.

Determined to Kill

The Jewish religious leaders were determined to kill Jesus and these trials provided legal justification for their designs.

This mockery began at midnight on Thursday and ended at daylight on Friday morning. And so, in a few dark hours, the death sentence fell heavy on the shoulders of an innocent Man.

Many witnesses committed perjury.

The Sanhedrin could have had plenty of evidence, which they did not want. Man after man could have testified, "I was a leper and He cleansed me"; "I was blind and He made me see"; "I was deaf and He made me hear"; "I was lame and He made me walk"; "My life had no meaning and He showed me life full of meaning and eternal."

Jesus was arrested without a formal charge. He was put on oath to condemn Himself. There was no discussion of the charge of blasphemy.

The time of the ecclesiastical trials — before dawn — was illegal. And those who pronounced the death sentence had no authority to do so.

Jesus was then taken before the governor of the province of Judea, Pontius Pilate, who found no fault with Him.

The next trial found Jesus standing before Herod Antipas. This was not a serious trial, but only another step in the disgraceful treatment of an innocent man.

No Fault

Finally, Pilate examined Jesus again and found no fault with Him. He wished to release Him.

At the time of the feast, tradition called for the governor to release a prisoner. Confronted with the choice between Jesus, the Christ, and Barabbas, a murderer, the mob chose Barabbas.

In this choice, the mob chose lawlessness instead of law, violence instead of peace, hatred instead of love.

When Pilate asked, "What, then, shall I do with Him whom ye call King of the Jews," they cried, "Crucify Him."

The entire proceedings constitute one of the most disgraceful legal incidents in all history.

Who was responsible? Pilate, Annas, Caiaphas, the people? Pilate's question is every man's question. Each person faces the question, "What shall I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?" And each person makes a response.

Many respond with hatred and rejection. Others decide by indecision. Many admire Him and put Him off. A few accept Him.

What will you do with Jesus, Who is... led the Christ?

Millions Still Haven't Had Auto Inspected

"With the April 15 motor vehicle inspection deadline five weeks away, only about 50 percent of the registered vehicles have been inspected," stated Captain Alan Johnson, Motor Vehicle Inspection Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety. "Unless there is a rapid increase of inspections, it appears that many vehicles will not be inspected before the April 15 deadline. Any driver operating a vehicle displaying an inspection sticker on the right-hand side of the windshield after April 15 will be operating in violation of the inspection law," Johnson added.
