

Someone has suggested that the government should come up with a short, simple tax form which would have only three lines to fill out:

(1) How much money did you earn? (2) How much money did you spend? (3) How much money was left after subtracting #2 from #1? Whatever it was, send it to the Government.

The idea may have its faults, but it would prevent IRS from taking your shirt after it had already taken your money, too.

The Apollo 13 moon mission which ended last Friday served to remind us all that the achievements of the United States' space program have not come automatically, and that anything involving man is subject to error.

If nothing else, the mission made us appreciate even more the still unbelievable feats accomplished by Apollo 11 and 12—that of landing men on the moon and bringing them back safely.

It was truly a blessing that the latest voyagers were able to return safely, after the near-disastrous explosion almost caused the mission to end in tragedy.

We thought it quite appropriate that the chaplain of the rescue ship Two Jims was called on to lead a prayer when the three astronauts were safely on board.

Also, in spite of what Madelyn Murry O'Hair must have thought, we commend our national leaders for calling on Americans to pray for the astronauts' safe return, and for declaring the past Sunday as a day of Thanksgiving for their return.

One thing we would have preferred, however, after the astronauts had boarded the carrier ship. We'd have had the band play the Star Spangled Banner, instead of "The Age of Aquarius."

According to an article in the April issue of "Nation's Agriculture," vocational agriculture programs, after more than 50 years of enviable achievement in equipping young people for meaningful careers in agriculture, is facing its most serious challenge.

The challenge, according to the magazine, stems from an apparently deliberate effort on the part of policymakers in the U.S. Office of Education to de-emphasize vocational agriculture.

The basis of this downgrading is the Vocational Education Act of 1968, the article points out. The act, which authorized funds for vocational education, doesn't even mention vocational agriculture, as has previous implementing legislation.

The USOE simply allocated "vocational education" funds to the various states in a lump sum—to be used for training or retraining of people, either in or out of high school.

Consequently, several states are reorganizing vo-ag into overall training programs known as career education. The inevitable result, the magazine suggests, is less money and time going into the vo-ag training.

The efforts to de-emphasize vo-ag have not gone unchallenged, but apparently more objections need to be raised from agricultural areas.

Our representatives need to be asked to work for the re-establishment of the identity of vocational agriculture in the U.S. Office of Education and in the states.

Also, they need to push for adequate staffing in USOE and in the state departments to conduct effective agricultural educational and FFA programs.

We can't imagine a program such as vo-ag being de-emphasized: but perhaps there are those with power from the east who likewise can't imagine any emphasis at all being placed on agriculture. It's up to sections such as ours to let our voices be heard.

The 61st Annual Convention of the Panhandle Press Association is being held in Amarillo on Friday and Saturday, April 24 and 25th. Friday also marks the 266th anniversary of the weekly newspaper in the United States.

ONE KILLED

Tornado Rakes Lazbuddie Area

The Lazbuddie community was still cleaning up early this week from a destructive tornado which struck homes in the area last Friday killing one person, Mrs. Alton Morris.

The late Friday storm, which spawned tornadoes over a wide section of the Texas Panhandle, caused thousands of dollars of damage in the Lazbuddie area alone, in addition to the loss of life.

The Morris home, which is located about 1.5 miles east of Lazbuddie on Farm Road 145, was completely destroyed by the funnel. Also destroyed was a small house immediately behind the Morris' brick home, in which Morris' mother lived, as well as barns, trucks and farm equipment.

Large evergreen trees in the Morris yard were uprooted. The small house was twisted off its foundation, but the elder Mrs. Mears was not hurt.

The Morrises were trapped in the wreckage of their house, having apparently been attempting to leave for the cellar. Morris and his daughter, Jeanne were treated for injuries at the West Plains Memorial Hospital in Muleshoe. Mrs. Morris was dead on arrival at the hospital.

The storm hit at around 10:30. A neighbor of the Morrises, Bobby Broyles, said he heard what sounded like an explosion. Trees at the Broyles residence were "pruned," but his place escaped major damage.

Another neighbor, E.A. Parham, had a barn destroyed, and lost some windows, but the house escaped the onslaught suffered by the Morris home. Parham's residence is directly south across the highway from the Morris place.

The tornado traveled north-eastward, where it also struck near the Wayne Clark home, ruining two automobiles, a stock trailer and windows in the homes there.

Also hit was the Clayton Graef place, located on the Parmer-Castro county line.

Debris from the various farms was scattered along the path of the storm.

A highway department official said the storm was first pinpointed in Parmer County at the W.F. Lancaster place southwest of Lazbuddie. The twister was tracked by the highway department for 20 miles within the county.

The funnel traversed Running Water Draw between the Morris and Clark farms. A separate funnel caused millions of dollars worth of damage at Plainview, also located farther down the draw.

Chamber Mailing Dues Statements

Letters are being mailed out this week to members and prospective members of the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, soliciting dues payments for 1970.

There are two basic types of memberships in the Friona Chamber, it was pointed out by Steve Messenger, president. One is the business membership, which also includes farmer-businessmen. Memberships for businesses are sold in multiples of $60. Businesses are entitled to one vote for each $60 membership they hold.

Then, there is the individual membership, for those employed by a business, but are not self-employed. These types of memberships cost $36 a year.

Letters to businessmen indicate their suggested dues for 1970. It is pointed out that those who prefer a monthly draft should call the chamber office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., weekdays and the secretary will be happy to furnish a bank authorization.

Speaker Named For Teacher Appreciation

Dr. Harry Vanderpool will be the featured speaker at the Parent-Teachers "Appreciation Night" program Monday, April 27.

The event will be held at Friona High School Auditorium, beginning at 8:30 Central Daylight Time. Dr. Vanderpool will speak on the subject of "Do You Have Your Ducks All Lined Up?"

All teachers, parents and grandparents are invited to attend the program.

Teachers in the school system who have served multiple years are invited to attend special recognition.

Dr. Vanderpool attended the University of Texas in El Paso, the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque and graduated Cum Laude from Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas. He did graduate work at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, attended Garrett Theological Seminary and received his Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Southern Methodist University, Dallas, and his Doctor of Divinity from McMurry College, Abilene, Texas.

He held membership in Alpha Chi, was a member of Pi Gamma Mu, National Social Science Honorary Society, and was also a member of Phi Delta Theta.

He was on active duty with the U.S. Naval Reserve from 1940 to 1945. He has served

Dr. Harry Vanderpool pastorates at Annona, Texas; Dallas, Littlefield, Snyder, Pampa, and is presently pastor of Polk Street Methodist Church in Amarillo.

More Needed For Baseball

As of Tuesday noon, a total of 130 players had signed up for the summer baseball program, and league officials said they could use a few more in each league, if anyone cared to sign up.

Officials could especially use more players for the older league, for 14 and 15 year-old boys.

Prospective players can secure blanks from Junior High Principal, Tom Jarboe, or contact Clarence Monroe.

STORM FURY. . . This series of photographs, all taken on the Alton Morris place east of Lazbuddie, graphically illustrates the destruction brought about by the tornado which struck last Friday night. The Morris' brick home was demolished, killing Mrs. Morris. Another house and a steel barn were also wrecked along with trucks and farm implements.

AN EDITORIAL

Hey, "Unc" - Have You Heard Of Inflation?

It was thirty-one years ago this year that Uncle Sam very confidently set a price tag on our kids. Uncle said $600, and since 1939 that has been the figure established by the Internal Revenue Code. That is what the government allows us for each dependent child, as a deduction on our income tax.

There are across this land several million man and wife taxpayers who were not yet born in 1939. Yet they are feeding, clothing, and educating children under that ridiculous and antiquated $600 deduction per dependent.

When Uncle Sam installed programs more modern than the income tax he chose to be infinitely more generous. Aid to Dependent Children subscribes upwards of $800 per year for the upkeep of an illegitimate child. Refugees from Cuba are allowed a minimum of $1,200 a year, and generous Uncle budgets an additional $1,000 a year for each Cuban refugee child enrolled in school. Job Corps personnel cost the government upwards of $7,000 a year. And Congressmen gratefully accepted an 88% percent increase in salary over the last six years.

We poor taxpayers haven't had an increase in the standard deduction in 31 years. How about us?

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

Mr. History is an unpredictable character. On occasion he dons seven league boots and only the most dedicated scholar can hope to keep pace with him. Again he will slip on a pair of moccasins and, like the Arabs, silently steal away.

Let us assume that 157 years ago he had on his walking shoes and as far as the settlement of Texas was concerned he was making some progress, but the permanency of his conquests was still a matter of doubt.

Measured in terms of newcomers from the "Old States" of the East, Texas was taking giant strides toward progress; however the Mexican government was at a loss as to the best means of controlling this brush up-start on its northern border. Among the irritants encountered were regular publications that the Americans called "newspapers."

Unless research proves otherwise; the town of Nacogdoches may claim the first newspaper in any of the 17 states of the Old West.

"El Gaceta de Texas" and "El Mejicano" were both published there in 1813.

These were revolutionary publications and their life span was short; however they fed the fires of independence that led eventually to the Alamo and San Jacinto.

Speaking of the Alamo--it's a long jump from this ancient shrine to a bottle of Elmer's glue; yet one Texas publisher was closely associated with both.

When Santa Anna's forces invaded Texas the crisis brought forth one of the Lone Star State's most courageous journals--The Telegraph and Texas Register.

The fiery editor of this 1835 sheet was Gail Borden, who years later became a wealthy industrialist due to his unique process for condensing milk.

From his press in San Felipe he gave out the first news of the massacre at the old mission and his headline of that day has become a familiar phrase of today--"Remember the Alamo!"

Due to man's penchant for recording his life and actions, the students of modern history finds newspapers to be an invaluable source of information.

Perhaps the earliest "newspapers" were small handbills that the Roman emperors permitted certain citizens to read.

After centuries of experimenting with paper, ink, type and machinery, crude forms of expresses, journals, pamphlets and single sheets began to appear in Europe proper and later in England.

The first publication that we moderns would term a newspaper appeared in Boston, Massachusetts in 1690.

The name, "Publick Occurrences" must have proved to be "bad press" for the Royal Politicians because the Governor of the area speedily suppressed circulation.

How's that for censorship? Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin, not to mention several Orientals, have gained and retained power by the same methods.

Of course they did not have a bunch of American patriots and a handful of Texans to deal with!

Massachusetts, before the "Reign of Kennedy's," must have been a veritable hot-bed of independent, democratic thought and principle.

In 1704, Mr. John Campbell assailed the Boston public with his "Newsletter"; thereby establishing the first regularly published weekly newspaper in America.

Our old friend Ben Franklin brought forth the "Pennsylvania Gazette" in 1729 and after merging with the "North American" was destined to influence the affairs of the entire nation for 150 years.

Sample Employment Survey Being Taken This Week

The Bureau of the Census is conducting a sample survey of employment and unemployment in the Denver area during the week of April 19, Mr. Wal-

Gathered by the Prairie Prowler

Last week we asked for facts relating to the early days of Parmer County.

The response has been splendid, if you readers will keep the cards, letters, and phone calls coming we will wind up with a real fine history book.

Bovina, originally Bull Town, got its name from the Latin, "bovine" pertaining to cattle.

Farwell was named for the two Farwell brothers; wealthy Chicago merchants who spent a fortune establishing and operating the old XIT Ranch.

What about Friona? What does it mean and who named the town?

ter A. Freeman, Jr., Director of the Bureau's regional office in Denver announced today.

Laura Hart of Friona will visit households in this area. This is not to be confused with the federal decennial census, which also is underway.

The households to be interviewed here are part of a scientifically designed sample of the entire U.S. population. The employment and unemployment statistics are collected monthly by the Census Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor to provide a continuing measurement of the economic health of the Nation as a whole and of its major regions.

Questions similar to those in the survey also are included in the 1970 decennial census. Census Bureau officials point out, however, that the monthly survey is essential as the source of current national employment data that can be obtained quickly.

As in the decennial census, facts about the individual and the family collected in this survey are kept completely confidential and the results are used only to complete statistical totals.

Former Resident Buried Tuesday

Funeral services for G.E. Campbell, long time farmer and stockman in the Archer City, Bowie, Olney, area, were conducted there last Tuesday. He died Sunday, April 12, apparently from a heart attack.

Campbell, who was born June 1, 1887, in Cook County, Texas, moved to Archer County in 1908 and had lived there since that time, except for two periods of time when he lived west of Friona. His wife preceded him in death in 1965.

Survivors include one son, Graham Campbell, Archer City; three daughters, Mrs. Roscoe Ivie, Friona; Mrs. Delvin Bratt, Archer City, and Mrs. George Murchison, LaFayette, Louisiana.

Also one brother, Aure Campbell, Olney; and two sisters Bonnie and Ruby Campbell, Olney; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Burial was in the Archer City cemetery.

WINGS FOR MERCY

Ringed in by the Nigerian civil war's blockade, famine-stricken women and children in blockaded Biafra rely heavily on the food and medicines airlifted from Sao Tome island off West Africa by Joint Church Aid. Last year, Catholic Relief Services, a member of the international humanitarian airlift, consigned over $4 million worth of food and medicines to the besieged Biafrans.

Texas deserves a full-time Land Commissioner

elect BOB ARMSTRONG

Leading newspapers put it this way: "Bob Armstrong's candidacy for commissioner of the General Land Office of Texas is so clearly the best in the field that Texans can make that decision early and surely."

"Armstrong has a well-defined career that shows a keen sense of responsibility, well-motivated desire for public service, strong evidence of leadership ability, and a sound background of experience."

"The Land Office . . . deserves far better administration than it has had in a long time."

SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS

"The people of Texas have the chance this election year to get back their land commissioner's office, and this is what we think they should do."

Seeking as a Democratic primary candidate is State Rep. Bob Armstrong of Austin—sharp, personable and with considerable legislative experience in matters with which the land office deals.

We think Representative Armstrong can furnish the awareness and the leadership the office needs."

FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM

Bob Armstrong's announcement that he will be a candidate for commissioner of the General Land Office . . . offers the public the first real choice for that office since 1960. It is the choice between a fresh, open, energetic, progressive approach to the office and the musty, secrecy-ridden approach of the incumbent."

CORPUS CHRISTI CALLER-TIMES

"Critical of the secrecy that has surrounded the operations of the General Land Office, Armstrong will operate this important office openly if elected. He has pledged to devote full time to the job and to keep the press and public informed as to the handling of millions of dollars in funds.

Armstrong's record of public service and his views as to the operation of the General Land Office are sound. They contrast with those of the present holder of this position who has not conducted himself with the dignity which Texans have a right to expect of state officials."

DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

Longhorns Add Track Title To Trophy List

The Lazbuddie Longhorns made off with the district track championship Monday at Level-land, edging Anton, 114-109 for the title. Amherst made it a three-way race with 107 points.

The Longhorns thus completed a sweep of team championships in district and bi-district football title last fall, and then added the basketball title to their collection.

It was a real team effort that brought the district track title to the Parmer County school, as the track squad had been hampered by injuries.

Needing at least a fourth in the mile relay race, the Longhorns, with a substitute for injured quarter-miler Mike Casey, came in third, to clinch the meet title with 114 points.

In winning the championship Lazbuddie qualified six individuals and its 440-yard relay team for the regional meet this weekend at Lubbock, where Coach Pat Casey thinks the team has an outside chance to win another trophy.

Winners Monday included Larry Hodges, who tied for first in the high jump; Charles Lee, who tied for first in the high hurdles; and Dan Dawson, who won the intermediate hurdles.

Other qualifiers were Dawson, second in the long jump; Monte Barnes, second in the shot; Jimmy Noland, second in the discus, and the sprint relay team (Lee, Arthur Graves, Hodges and Dawson), which placed second.

Also scoring points for the Longhorns were Graves, sixth in the 100; Hodges, third in the high hurdles and Rick Seaton, fifth; and Pablo Mendoza, sixth in the 220.

Also, Seaton, fourth in the intermediate hurdles; George Wilson third in the shot put and Jimmy Noland, sixth; Barnes, third in the discus; Lee, fifth in the high jump; Mark Barnes, fourth in the pole vault and Dawson sixth.

The third-place mile relay team was composed of Lee, Graves, Hodges and Dawson. Dawson, in scoring 26 points, emerged as the meet's high point individual.

"We got 12 points from four freshmen members of the team, and it took that to win the meet," Coach Casey said. Rick Seaton scored six points, Mark Barnes four, and Arthur Graves and Pablo Mendoza one each.

Schlenkers Chosen For Host Family

The Carl Schlenker family has been approved for an exchange student for Friona High School for the 1970-71 school term, according to word received this week by Superintendent Alton Farr from the American Field Service.

"The Schlenkers have requested a girl student, and if one is available, it appears that Friona will have a student for the 1970-71 term," Superintendent Farr stated.

The last exchange student was Souvanh, a native of Laos, who made his home with the Bill Teel family. That was in 1968-69. The school had no exchange student this term.

The other family which had applied for a student in the program was the E.C. Phipps family, which hosted Brenda Hawker of Australia in 1964-65.

Dr. John Shipley and Dr. Allen Wiese, respectively Assistant Professor of Agricultural Economics and Professor of Agronomy, USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland, recently completed a study of the economics of weed control in grain sorghum. A report from this study has been completed and establishes guidelines that can be used in making weed-control decisions for specific weed problems in irrigated grain sorghum.

Listed below is a table from this study showing the amount of grain yield sacrificed by permitting specified populations of pigweed to grow in irrigated grain sorghum.

No. of weeds per Ft. of row	Estimated Yield Loss	Estimated loss in lbs./acre from 6,000 lb. yield potential
1 in 128 ft.	5	300
1 in 64 ft.	7	420
1 in 16 ft.	14	840
1 in 8 ft.	20	1200
1 in 4 ft.	27	1620
1 in 2 ft.	36	2880
1 in 1 ft.	48	3660

In this study the reductions in grain yield per acre were expressed as "Opportunity Costs," which represent the value of grain sacrificed by permitting specified populations of weeds to grow.

Farmers interested in maximizing profits during a particular crop year can compare the cost of weed control per acre with the opportunity cost associated with their specific weed problems. When the "cost of weed control per acre" is equal to or less than the opportunity cost, weed control is justified and will increase profits.

Opportunity cost in irrigated grain sorghum as determined by this study is given below when sorghum is yielding 6,000 lbs. and selling for $1.75 per cwt.

Price of Grain Sorghum per cwt.	No. of weeds per Ft. of row	6000 lb. yield Dollar value of grain Sacrificed/acre
$1.75	1 per 128 feet	$5.25
	1 per 64 feet	7.35
	1 per 32 feet	10.50
	1 per 16 feet	14.70
	1 per 8 feet	21.00
	1 per 4 feet	28.35
	1 per 2 feet	37.80

Thus, if it is assumed that the total cost of a particular weed control measure to be $5.00 per acre, it would be profitable to control pigweeds where the population was no more than 1 weed in 128 feet of row. In this particular example there would be a twenty-five cent per acre savings when sorghum is selling for $1.75.

GREENBUGS

According to the weekly Texas Cooperative Economic Insect Report some counties in the Panhandle are experiencing some high infestations of greenbugs in small grain fields.

Producers in Parmer County are urged to carefully watch small grains for increased activity. Farmers may use the following information as a guide in determining the need for treatment in small grains.

Plant height (inches)	Number greenbugs per linear ft.
4-8	200-400
6-13	300-800

As the daily temperatures become warmer, small grain producers should keep a close check on greenbug populations. Plants that are growing well and have plenty of moisture can withstand larger populations of greenbugs than plants not growing well and suffering from lack of moisture.

Natural enemies of the greenbug reproduce slowly at temperatures of 65 degrees F. or below. Thus with the possibilities of somewhat warmer days following the period of cooler weather we have experienced, greenbugs may increase to large numbers while their natural enemies multiply rather slowly. During this period chemical control measures are most effective.

Insecticides recommended by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for control of greenbugs in small grains are as follows: (1) D-D-Syston, (2) Malathion, (3) Methyl Parathion, (4) Parathion and (5) Phosphamidon.

D-D-Syston must be applied at least 45 days before harvest and can not be grazed. Phosphamidon must be applied at least 30 days before harvest.

WINTER GRAIN MITES

This insect may cause damage to small grains. This mite ranges in size from 1/32 to 1/16 inch in length. The adult has four pairs of reddish-orange legs and body is dark brown with a bluish cast. This pest feeds primarily at night remaining around the base of the plant during the day. They cause the tips of leaves to brown and plants become stunted.

Insecticides recommended for control are the same as those recommended for control of the greenbug on small grains.

HOSPITAL HELPERS. . . Members of Friona's Future Nurses chapter turned a hand to the outside appearance of the hospital last Saturday afternoon, as they are shown here washing hospital on the west side of the building.

MORA, MINN., TIMES: "If and when we get out of Viet Nam, Congress would do well to see that we enter into treaties that concern us directly and that we mean to uphold. This nation has neither the will nor the means to fight conventional wars around the globe for every troubled nation. It's time our foreign policy really puts this nation's interest ahead of all others. That's what all the other nations do and we could well follow suit."

Boy Scout Program Is Moving Forward Here

Friona's Boy Scout programs are in the growing stages, having been recently re-organized with V.R. Wilcox, as scoutmaster. At the present time, there are 46 boys enrolled, and Wilcox is currently attempting to build up the troop's camping equipment, with summer camps coming up.

Anyone having equipment belonging to the troop, or something they'd like to donate is requested to contact Wilcox, or any member of the local scout committee.

Members of the Scout committee are Ray Campbell, chairman, Porter Roberts, Dan Ehrbridge, Robert Zetsche and Kenneth Gabehart.

The troop is making plans to attend Camp Don Harrington later this spring. This would be a week-long camping outing for all troop members who can go. In order to make the trip, the troop is in need of additional tents, and some cooking equipment.

In addition, other one-night camp-outs are being planned. With Roger Fields working as assistant Scoutmaster, Wilcox now has five patrols organized, with six to nine members in each patrol.

The patrols and their leaders are as follows:
Bob White Patrol--Darrel Roth, leader; Chuck Rector, assistant; Wolf Patrol--Darrell Mason, leader; Danny Campbell, assistant; Flaming Arrow Patrol--Waymon Lee, leader; Jimmy Pena, assistant; Rat Patrol--Brad Beene, leader; Joe Cunningham, assistant; Eagle Patrol--Bobbie Zetsche, leader; Kenny Gabehart, assistant.

Senior patrol leader is Mickey Harrelson. Chuck Rector is troop scribe and Clay Cudd is librarian.

The troop meets on Tuesdays at the American Legion basement.

Recent projects have gone to assist the Boy Scout treasury. The Scouts had the concession stand at an exhibition basketball game involving the TV-10 Tigers.

The Friona Lions Club purchased 20 folding chairs for the scouts' meeting place, and proceeds of their part of the recent broom sale were given to the troop.

PATROL LEADERS... Scoutmaster V.R. Wilcox and the patrol leaders for Boy Scout Troop 56 are shown having a meeting of patrol leaders recently.

Ministers To Be SCD Guests

Preparation for Soil Stewardship Week will be the theme of a luncheon to be held at the Bovina Restaurant on Tuesday, April 28, at 12:00 noon. "All Parmer County ministers are invited to attend," announced Leon Grissom this week.

The luncheon, which is being sponsored by the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District, will assist ministers in getting ready for the observance of Soil Stewardship Week, which is May 3-10 this year.

Church bulletins and other information will be available to ministers who attend the luncheon, Grissom said.

'Tail-gating' Dangerous

"Tail-gating" can set off a violent chain reaction that nobody wants, reminds the Texas Safety Association.

At least one car length for each 10 miles per hour of speed is recommended and TSA says a driver will need every inch of that space to avoid trouble.

Do you put a higher price on an Olds than we do?

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Olds costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with so-called low-priced cars. See your Olds dealer. He'll prove that you're closer to Olds than you think.

Kindergarten To Hold Open House

Miss Mary Knight, director and teacher for the ABC School, a private kindergarten has announced this week that she will hold "Kindergarten Day" on Friday, May 1, to coincide with "Pre-School Day" at Friona Public School.

All parents who are interested in sending their children to this kindergarten next year are asked to bring them to the school at 717 Pierce Avenue from 9 to 11 on that day. They will be pre-enrolled and will be toured through the kindergarten facilities and will be shown some of the work they will be doing when the school re-opens in September.

Children must be five years of age before September 1, 1970 to be eligible.

"Kindergarten Day" will be free of charge, but tuition is required during the regular semesters, as this is a privately-owned school.

CONTINENTAL GRAIN

Tom Sawyer, a representative from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge was in the Friona area last weekend. He had heard many nice things about Mary Rando, local winner of the George Washington Medal of Honor for her public speaking, and he was anxious to meet and talk with her. He phoned her sponsor, Mrs. Aubrey Rhodes, and Mary happened to be visiting at the Rhodes home at the time, so the group got together and had dinner in Hereford.

Friona is very proud of Mary Rando and her many accomplishments. And a word of praise also goes to Mrs. Rhodes, who is a devoted teacher and citizen and is also a winner of Freedom Foundation's Teachers Medal Award.

After finding the Friona State Bank closed Tuesday, April 21, we were wondering what they were celebrating. We checked the calendar and it listed several items. Among them were San Jacinto Day, Lenin's Birthday and Jewish Passover. So take your pick!

An out of town firm came up with something different recently to get recipients of unsolicited advertising to look at what it had to offer. How many of us can go into the post office and pick up a window envelope, which we can plainly see contains a hand written statement and toss it in the wastebasket unopened?

My first thoughts ran about like this: "Why is this firm sending us a bill? I'm sure we do not owe them anything." As I opened the envelope, I soon learned it was a new way to get unsolicited advertising before the public. I did not respond to the plea to look at the merchandise, but I did see the advertising and wondered, "what next?"

A few years ago one large firm hired young ladies who did neat handwriting to address delicately colored and scented envelopes which contained long past due bills.

I never did figure out whether this gag was aimed at the men or their wives. Regardless of the person to whom it was directed, I feel sure that not many of these envelopes were thrown away without first being looked at.

GOOD ADVICE WHEN YOU ARE ANGRY.....

It doesn't do to do much talking
When you're mad enough to choke
For the word that hits the hardest
Is the word that's never spoke!

Let the other fellow do the talking
Till the storm has rolled away,
Then, he'll do a lot of thinking
'Bout the things you did not say!

Spring graduation isn't very far away. Our graduation issue is one we always look forward to and enjoy working on. Of course, like any other issue, we always need assistance from our readers.

As usual, we would like to have recent pictures and information concerning all our college and trade school people and the earlier we are able to get this information, the more likely we are to do a good job putting it together.
