SUCCESS OF WELFARE DRIVE NOW CERTAIN TOTAL FRIDAY $39,683

Subscriptions on the last day of the United Welfare drive amounted to $2,500.25, bringing the total amount given and pledged to $39,683.48, according to the reports made at the Business Council luncheon Friday noon. Practically every one of the 11-committees reported that there were still some contributions which will be collected, and the goal of $40,000 is sure to be reached.

Definite report of the amount of collections and pledges can not be made until a careful check, and audit is made. Robert Harrison announced. The committee had hoped that the quota would be over-subscribed several thousand dollars in order to meet the budget, after allowing shrinkage and duplications in pledges which may occur in checking up. It is believed that the total amount subscribed will be well past the $40,000 mark when the final reports are made. The committees were requested to continue their work until the territory was covered.

Conditions for the gala will be numerous, as was evident at the meeting Friday. Each of the captains of the seven teams has received many compliments for his judgment in booking such splendid attractions.

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS PLAN FOR ORGANIZATION

PROGRESSIVES EXPECTED TO FEATURE LARGELY IN PROGRAM.

SIXTY REPRESENTATIVES INVITED TO CONFERENCE

Principal Contest Over Places On House Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—With the Republican and Democratic organization meetings only a day away the Republican progressive bloc and other groups in the senate and house moved forward in their conferences today toward a cleared definition of their lines of action.

Sixty representatives were invited to attend a conference of House progressives this morning to consider a program drafted by the bloc's executive committee. Their action and its effect one way or another on the decisions of the party conference tomorrow are expected to determine the ease or difficulty of the regular Republican group will experience in organizing the house.

British Government Concerned Over Report of Active Military Preparations By the Germans

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The newspapers this morning devoted considerable attention to a news item sent out by Reuters dealing with military preparations in Germany.

The British authorities are concerned over the situation and its bearing on the peace of Europe. The foreign office, in a statement, however, says the information given out should not be attributed to any official authority.

Disturbing information concerning the extent to which Germany is recruiting and re-arming has been received by the British government. "Although the view is taken officially that this information reveals potential rather than imminent danger, the British authorities are frankly concerned over the situation and its bearing on the peace of Europe."

It is known that rapid military training of a large number of men in excess of the Versailles treaty stipulations has been progressing. This, it is declared, is more than ever the case since the allied military control ceased nearly a year ago.

Recruiting has been especially active in Bavaria where the security police have been engaged in maneuvers with the army. The training of students also is in constant progress.

Recent information from British observers in Germany shows that more men than ever are being trained and that the police and military soldiers, the regimental associations are all bigger and stronger. British officials here, however, feel that Germany is not able at present to arm the large number of men she is

could not force an election of a president of the senate without support from the Progressive bloc and some Democrats said they might withhold such a motion until after the joint session to hear the president's message unless it was delayed by a protracted fight over organization of the house.

Negotiations between Republican and Democratic leaders in the house on committee reorganization progressed, it is said, to the point where the minority is thought to be assured of nine members on all committees having a personnel of 21, but agreements with respect to the others have not been reached. It is regarded as unlikely that the Republicans will consent to the placing of 11 Democrats on the ways and means committee, 15 on the appropriations committee and five on the rules committee and indications are that these figures will be reduced by one in each case.

Election of Democratic members to the ways and means committee promises the only fight in their party conference tomorrow night. Representative Martin, of Louisiana, who has announced his intention to fight to retain his seat on the committee, faces determined opposition because of his stand on the tariff.

SHORTAGE OF HOUSES IS DISAPPEARING AND RENTS COMING DOWN

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—The shortage of houses that has prevailed since the war is disappearing with rents tending toward a stabilization at their present level.

training, in the event of mobilization with the necessary artillery, owing to the French being in possession of her principal industrial and munitions areas in the Ruhr. But it is also known that close relations have been cultivated by the Krupp with Russia and Sweden. Whether these relations are concerned with the manufacture and supply of guns it is not yet possible to say.

It also pointed out that up to the time the allied control was relaxed the allies had not succeeded in getting at most more than half the rifles in the country. Little doubt is entertained by British officials that the small arms factories in Thuringia and elsewhere are turning out these and the necessary cartridges on a large scale.

Notwithstanding the official disavowal of government responsibility for the dispatch, it attracted considerable attention, especially in those newspapers which are habitually suspicious of Germany. Some others take the view that it represents an unworthy attack on General Bingham, representative of the inter-allied military control commission in Germany.

Curiously as to who inspired the statements is expressed by several of the papers and the Times makes it the subject of an editorial entitled "A Spurious Sensation."

The British official viewpoint is that although the Germans probably could find sufficient rifles to arm 300,000 reservists in addition to the reichswehr, they do not possess artillery worth mentioning, or the tanks, and other important technical appliances indispensable in modern warfare. War with France now would be equivalent to mass suicide.

At their present level, the National Association of Real Estate Board concludes in its semi-annual survey of the real estate market. "Indications from a number of questionnaires show plainly that a state of equilibrium between demand for and supply of housing and business structures is being reached."

The report said, "There has been a large increase in rentals, both business and residential, but indications would seem to be that a level has been reached at which rents are fairly well established. The shortage of labor in the building trades is not so acute as it was last year nor for the first six months of 1923. Money for investment in real estate is comparatively plentiful with interest rates reasonable."

OKLAHOMA CITY VOTERS BALLOT ON BOND ISSUE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 30.—Oklahoma City voters went to the polls in a special municipal election today to ballot on a proposal for a $1,500,000 bond issue for repairs and improvements on the city water works system made necessary by recent flood damage. Part of the funds would be used to remove other municipal property from further flood danger by the erection of several bridges and viaducts.

CONFERENCES ON BOOZE SMUGGLING HELD IN SECRET

OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—Still cloaked in the secrecy that has shrouded them since their arrival here, the American delegates to the international rum smuggling conference between United States and Canadian officials leave for Washington today after holding a brief meeting this morning.

It is believed each of the plans submitted by the United States representatives to end liquor smuggling across the Canadian border has been thoroughly discussed. The result of these discussions, however, will not be made public until a report to the cabinet council has been submitted and accepted by that body.

The fact that the United States delegates ate an American Thanksgiving dinner last night given by M. Jacques Bureau, minister of customs and excise, was about the only thing newspaper correspondents were sure of.

"The question of smuggling of all kinds across the international frontier was considered and measures which might be adopted to stop the illicit traffic were suggested," said an official statement.

It was believed the United States delegates to the conference will accept their proposals would be adopted by the Canadian government.

BUSINESS IRREGULARITY FEDERAL RESERVE REPORT FOR ST. LOUIS DISTRICT

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30.—Irregularity in most every line of business in the eighth (St. Louis) federal reserve district is noted in the monthly report of the St. Louis federal reserve bank issued here today. The movement of typical winter merchandise with the exception of fuel, has been stimulated by the cooler weather and wholesale merchants report satisfactory results on holiday goods, though the volume is somewhat less than in the past season, the report states. A notable decrease is reported in steel and iron production.

Agricultural products are being marketed on a liberal scale, the report continues, and reports on the winter wheat crop are in the main favorable. About 99 per cent of the rice crop has been harvested in Arkansas.

The employment situation shows no marked changes, the report states. Road building and farm requirements keep up the demand for unskilled labor.

MAN NEAR BEAUMONT IS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED HUNTING THANKSGIVING

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 29.—Mitchell Oldham, 13, son of A. This is the fourth hunting accident proving fatal near here within the past month.

CHARGES EFFORT MADE TO LESSEN COMPETITION IN MEDICAL PROFESSION

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30.—The action of the state board of health in barring from state examination the graduates of the three class C medical colleges of Missouri was characterized by Dean Briggs, dean of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons, one of the three institutions, as "an effort on the part of the American Medical Association to lessen competition in the medical profession."

Competition would be lessened, Dean Briggs declared, in that this action would "debar from the practice of medicine all those financially unable to attend the college of the higher classification."

"The state board of health is entirely controlled by the American Medical Association," Dean Briggs continued, "and the reported action of the state board is a part of the American Medical Association's plan to add to its already potent control of every phase of the medical profession."

PHOTOGRAPH WILL BE WAIVED TO ALL STATES

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 29.—Photographs of physicians whose licenses to practice in Connecticut are revoked will be mailed to the examining boards of every state in the union.

The public health council, it is announced, plans this step in order to prevent the men from resuming practice elsewhere.

An extraordinary grand jury called as the result of revelations that many physicians had been licensed after presenting bogus certificates of study of medicine recommended to the examining board of the Connecticut select Medical Association that the licenses of 13 men be revoked.

A Kiss in the Dark (from "Orange Blossoms") (de Sylva-Harbert)	Amelita Galli-Curci	959	$1.50
Kiss Me Again (from "Milk and Honey") (Blumstein-Harbert)	Amelita Galli-Curci
Letter Song (from "Apple Blossoms") (Finchelle)	Hugo Kreiser	956	1.50
I'm in Love (from "Apple Blossoms")	Hugo Kreiser

These two sprightly numbers for the violoncello are taken from Fritz Kreisler's music to "Apple Blossoms." Fritz Kreisler himself plays the accompaniments at the piano.

Melodious Instrumental

Turkey in the Straw (Felix Danne)	Henry C. Gilliland-A. C. (Eck) Robertson	19149	.75
Ragtime Annie (Felix Danne)	A. C. (Eck) Robertson

Two old-fashioned dance numbers by genuine cowboy fiddlers. Theirs is genuine American, not hybrid, music. You will find such musicians, today, only in out-of-the-way places.

Light Vocal Selections

By the Watermelon Vine (Shannon Quartet)	Shannon Quartet	19142	.75
Louisiana Lou (Shannon Quartet)	Shannon Quartet
I'm Sitting Pretty in a Pretty Little City (Albert Campbell-Henry Burr)	Albert Campbell-Henry Burr	19180	.75
Alabama Blacksheep (Peerless Quartet)	Peerless Quartet
You Can't Make a Fool Out of Me (Henry Burr)	Henry Burr	19181	.75
Pal of My Dreams (Charles Hart)	Charles Hart

Many people like these male quartets in "close-harmonized" Southern style. Both sung with beautiful smoothness and harmonic sense, to the full orchestra.

Dance Records

Sleep—Waltz (Waring's)	Waring's	19172	.75
The West, a Nest, and You—Waltz (Pennsylvania)	Pennsylvania
Remem'ring—Fox Trot (Joe Raymond and His Orchestra)	Joe Raymond and His Orchestra	19178	.75
Salt Your Sugar—Fox Trot (Joe Raymond and His Orchestra)	Joe Raymond and His Orchestra
Moonlight Kisses—Fox Trot (Joe Raymond and His Orchestra)	Joe Raymond and His Orchestra	19179	.75
Music of Love—Fox Trot (International Novelty Orchestra)	International Novelty Orchestra

These numbers have exceedingly romantic titles, but they are wholesome, jolly numbers, free of overstrained sentiment. "Moonlight Kisses" uses a plaintive type of refrain, but elsewhere it is full of life. "Music of Love" is finely scored.

JUNIOR BUSINESS GIRLS MEET THURSDAY EVENING

The Junior Business Girls of the Y. W. C. A. met Thursday evening at the Y and enjoyed a most interesting business, program and social meeting.

During the business session, which was presided over by the president of the club, Miss Ola Thorne, Miss Thorne appointed a service committee with Misses Essie Roberia and Dora Bell Caldwell, and conducted a general discussion of matters of interest to the club. Miss Ruby Pratt, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting.

The program was opened with devotionals by Miss Iva Lee Jones, who read from Twelfth Ecclesiastes. The girls all sang the national Girl Reserve song, "Follow the Gleam," after which Miss Arradell Copeland, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lay and with the violin obligato by Miss Delta Wisdom, sang two pretty songs, "In the Land of the Living Again," and "Lonesome—That's All." Miss Ruby Pratt gave a reading and an anecdote.

The table was prettily decorated for the social hour, when sandwiches, hot tea, cookies and mince were served. A big bowl of yellow chrysanthemums centered the table with little green mint cups and pretty green candles.

The girls present, members of the club, included Misses Dora Bell Caldwell, Ola Thorne, Ruby Pratt, Marie Roberts, Iva Lee Jones, Delta Wisdom, Pauline Wright, Thelma Wisdom and Arradell Copeland. Misses Arradell Copeland, Misses Ficker and Mrs. Austin, of the Y. W. C. A. and the Business Women's Club, Mrs. R. C. Copland and Mrs. Roberts.

WHITMORE-FOX WEDDING AT WRAY HOME THURSDAY

Mrs. Athalia Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wray, 1409 Smarsh street, and K. W. Whitmore Jr., of Dallas, were united in marriage Thursday at 2 o'clock, Rev. C. M. Simpson saying the ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore were guests of honor at the Thanksgiving dinner late in the afternoon, with Mrs. J. A. Wray, Mrs. J. Wray, Mrs. Mabry Wray, Mr. and Mrs. Niles Thompson of Herron City, Harold and Dora Bell Caldwell, Mrs. Thelma Wisdom, Mrs. J. Wray, Mrs. Ficker and Mrs. Austin, of the Y. W. C. A. and the Business Women's Club, Mrs. R. C. Copland and Mrs. Roberts.

The Tangle

Letter from Leslie Prescott to Leslie Prescott, continued:

"Who are you going to do about it all?" asked Ruth in perplexity.

"My dear, I don't know. That is the reason I have told it all to you. I want your advice. It seems to me, Ruth, that the first thing to do is to settle with that man, who, besides you and myself, is the only one on this side of the water at least who knows anything about those pearls."

"I can't make any excuse to get away and the man won't wait, you see."

"Perhaps I can persuade him to wait, Leslie. You will see him for me, dear."

"Why of course I will. Didn't you give me fifteen hundred dollars for that pearl necklace? I know you did, you generous girl. And you were carrying that around in your handbag that day, weren't you? That was the roll of bills I saw. You are either the silliest or the most courageous woman I know."

"I guess I'm the silliest, Ruth, dear. What are you going to say to the man?"

"I'm simply going to tell him that he picked up that pearl in the hotel that night and if he doesn't give it up I'll have him arrested."

"But he will tell you, Ruth, that my husband doesn't know the pearls are real. I wonder by what low cunning he hit upon this."

"Why, that's easy, Leslie. Like all low-minded men, he jumped at the conclusion that if your husband did not know the pearls were real, you were putting something over on him and you had a good reason for keeping it from him."

"How will you get this out of his mind, Ruth?"

"I'll simply say that Jack does know that the pearls are real and that it was the simplest and most natural thing in the world for him to say that they were only beads."

The names and addresses will not be used in each case, and only the Woman's Page editor will know the names. We ask that the readers of this page be only those who have something which will be of real use, write or phone us.

"I would appreciate it so much if any neighbor has a suit or dress, size 44, that they have finished with, and that I could use for work."

—Mrs. D.

"Mrs. D. is a young widow, and a little help would make it much easier for her right now. If anyone has such a suit or dress, will they please phone us?"

"I would be so glad if some neighbor has any underwear that a two-year old child has outgrown. I need it so very badly."

—Mrs. K.

If any mother can help, will she please call? Mrs. K. will be glad to go after the things.

Will Mrs. C. on Fifth street please send to Mrs. Kirby Smith, 701 Taylor street, for the little mattress and bed she needs? We have no way to have it delivered, and Mrs. Smith will be glad for her to have it.

Has anybody any clothing for a little girl 8 years old? We need some very badly for a little girl whose parents were burned out recently.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Doughnuts
Dietetically doughnuts and fried cakes are looked upon more or less askance. But carefully fried doughnuts enjoyed sensibly surely can be a treat. The cheer and good will embodied in these homely and purely American purfables have a psychological effect of almost as much value to the human system on a drear November day as many parodies of "high oad value."

If the reality doughnuts are bits of real bread dough, sweetened and fried in deep hot fat.

Fried cakes are of the nature of a "quick bread" dough fried in deep hot fat.

Some cooks maintain that half beef suet and half lard is preferable to all lard for frying. That there is less trouble about the doughnuts soaking fat when the half-and-half fat is used.

Other cooks prefer a vegetable fat for deep fat frying.

This question each housewife must answer for herself.

The temperature of the fat must be carefully watched and ranged during the whole frying process. This determines the fat "aking" difficulty. The fat should be hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread in 30 seconds. An iron kettle is desirable as the heaviness of the material holds heat and prevents the fat from cooling when the cakes are dropped into it.

Drain doughnuts on heavy brown paper when removed from fat.

Sweet milk fried cakes should come almost immediately to the top of the fat, brown on one side, turn and brown on the other. Turn only once. Hour milk fried cakes can be turned several times while frying. The fat must be kept at an even temperature.

Sweet Milk Fried Cakes
One cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted lard, 2 tablespoons baking powder, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon nutmeg.

Beat eggs until very light with sugar. Add one cup of it and beat until smooth. Add melted lard and beat again. Beat in the sifted baking powder with one cup flour and stir into mixture. Add salt and nutmeg. Add enough more flour to make just a soft dough as it can be handled. Put part of the dough on a well-floured board, pat and roll to one-half inch thick, cut with

If possible procure the yeast from a bakery.

In the evening scald the milk. Let cool to lukewarm and add yeast and sugar, salt and flour to make thin batter. Let rise over night. In the morning add eggs well beaten, softened lard, nutmeg and three cups flour. Mix well and add soda dissolved in a little hot water. Add salt and flour to make a stiff dough. Let rise and if necessary add more flour to handle. Roll on a well floured board, shape and let rise until double their bulk. Fry in deep hot fat and drain on brown paper. A Perfect Skin

No blackheads, no blemishes ever
By Edna Wallace Hopper

My skin is a perfect skin—a skin which young girls envy—at the age of 42. After 40 years as a stage star I look like a girl of 19.

I owe all this to a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world for methods to multiply my beauty and to keep her youth. Those helps made me a famous beauty, and they keep me a beauty still.

Now I have arranged so every girl and woman may have those identical helps. Thus I hope to bring to millions the benefits I got.

My Facial Youth.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. So it cannot grow hair on the face. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin.

It simply cleanses the skin to the depths, penetrates every pore. When I wipe it off, all the dirt and grime, all that clogs the skin comes with it.

Clean the skin in the best other way you know. My Facial Youth will still remove much extra grime and refuse.

I cover my body with Facial Youth before bathing. Then I re-

COOLIDGE MESSAGE WILL SOUND NOTE FOR HIS CAMPAIGN

HIS SUPPORTERS MARKING TIME UNTIL HE SPEAKS TO CONGRESS

LITTLE MOMENTUM TO JOHNSON BOOM

Political Writers Can See Little Chance So Far for Californian

By MARK SULLIVAN

Political Correspondent of the New York Tribune and Wichita Daily Times

Washington, Nov. 29.—The men who are going to try to nominate Coolidge for the presidency will spend the present week marking time. They are deliberately standing everything on Coolidge's address to congress at its meeting early next week. They say that no effective steps in nominate Coolidge can be taken until after that speech has been delivered and the public has had a chance to digest it. Their theory is that the country does not know Coolidge yet, but will know him after Tuesday of next week. They say that no picture of Coolidge is complete or adequate unless it includes knowledge of his attitude on the questions before the country, and they assert that Coolidge will make a clear and unequivocal statement of his attitude on every one of these questions. With this picture of Coolidge and his beliefs before the public, the group of friends who are interesting themselves on his behalf will begin vigorous work immediately. They base their faith not so much on the necessary popularity of Coolidge's position on all the questions, as on the candor and courage with which he will state his position.

They expect the speech to avoid arguing in behalf of the positions he takes, but to confine itself to stating in each case what that position is. Beyond this, the only point of which public surmise has been made about the contents of the speech is Secretary Mellon's tax reduction plan. This, it is asserted confidently, will be approved by Coolidge. Except for this one point, Coolidge's friends are quite willing that the coming week shall be one of suspense and expectation because they hope this will bring about the maximum degree of interest in the speech. Moreover, they are not unaware that the managers of Johnson's campaign have tried to gain a strategic point by booking Johnson for his first keynote speech during the present week, some six days before Coolidge makes his. They are aware of the attempt to gain a strategic advantage in this; and are willing to let Johnson have the audience this week and wait until next week for Coolidge's hearing. Up to date the Republican fight is clearly staged as a tug of war between these two men. They are increasing signs that the fight may go through to the end with these two candidates the only entrants on a nation-wide scale. There will be other favorite son candidates in single states; but the probability of anybody else making a country-wide fight in all the direct primary states has diminished lately.

No Organization for Pinchot The present writer in previous dispatches has said that Governor Gifford Pinchot would be a contender on the same scale as Coolidge and Johnson. That may still happen, but the fact that political organization in behalf of Pinchot has as yet been done outside his own state. While there is plenty of call for Pinchot, there is no organization. There is no one who has toward Pinchot the relation of former organizer and energetic backer which Albert Leask and William Wrigley have toward Johnson. If Pinchot had the equivalent of these two men, or if such organizers should appear, it would cut fully as large a figure as Johnson.

Possibly the answer as to whether Pinchot is to be a contender on a country-wide scale may develop the latter part of this week. Some of the friends of Pinchot expect him to come here about the first of December. When he does come, he will be subjected to very strong pressure to let his friends begin to organize for him. Some of this pressure will come from men who four years ago favored Johnson, but now prefer Pinchot. If Pinchot declines to go into the fight in all the direct primary states, that fact will favor Johnson. It is the great desire of Johnson's backers to confine the fight to a test of strength between himself and Coolidge, uncomplicated by other candidates. All that is said here refers to candidacies on a country-wide basis. There will be many other candidates in single states, and the final outcome in the convention as between Johnson and Coolidge may be decided by the second choice of the voters in the "favorite son" delegations.

Johnson's Chance Slim The time is, of course, too short for Johnson to show what he can do. But the judgment of the most experienced observers is that Johnson's initial momentum has not carried him very far. It is predicted that Johnson cannot get at the outside more than a scant handful of the delegates from New York. As things stand today, fully seven-eighths of New York's ninety-two delegates are expected to be either for Coolidge or for a favorite son like Senator Wadsworth. With even greater confidence it is asserted that Johnson can not get one delegate out of the hundred from New England. It is conceded that he may get a few from New Jersey, and also some from Pennsylvania, depending to some extent on whether Pinchot is a formal and vigorous candidate. In 1920, Indiana was clearly a Johnson state; but competent observers from that state say he has no chance to carry this year. Kansas is a state in which the old progressive sentiment was always strong; but as things stand today, Johnson is not due to get any delegates from that state. All this reflects a present condition which conceivably can be altered by vigorous campaigning on Johnson's part and by energetic organization on the part of his backers. Both these elements undoubtedly will appear in due course. It is anticipated that Johnson will try to make the League of Nations and foreign relations the backbone of his campaign; and it is predicted that Johnson's friends will dig up old utterances and old associations of Coolidge to show that the latter cannot be depended on as a hundred per cent anti-League president. This predicted effort on the part of Johnson to warm over the old League of Nations fight is smiled at both by Coolidge's friends and by many of Johnson's old irreconcilable associates.

They say it is like dragging a corpse out of the graveyard and killing it all over again. Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, who was perhaps the most uncompromising of the irreconcilables, is now contented on as being completely contented with Coolidge. Another of them, Colonel Harvey, is today a guest in the white house. Still another, Senator Borah, who campaigned for Johnson in 1920, has now departed from Johnson, because Borah believes in a world court for international justice and an international economic conference, both of which proposals Johnson includes in the same declaration he has for the League of Nations.

Stamford News STAMFORD, Texas, Nov. 29.—Nearly every business house here will be closed to observe Thanksgiving Thursday. Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Baptist Church at 10 o'clock and it has been announced that H. B. Doak, pastor of St. John Methodist Church, will preach. In the afternoon Floyd's football team will play Stamford High School here and the Legion team, with a large number of Stamfordites are to go to Breckenridge to play the American Legion there.

Sars Piles Heal Up and Disappear Forever Seldom Falls to Give Absolute Relief from All Pains and Suffering. Guaranteed by All Good Druggists. Many sufferers from piles or hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe there was nothing in the world to help them. To these people we say, "Go to your druggist and get an original box of Moyna Suppositories." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, antiseptic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever. Wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments, marvelous results have been obtained. Moyna is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from piles or hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Palace Drug Store and Central Drug Store will supply you. Mail orders accepted.—adv

Decidedly good looking—mechanically perfect

Beautifully engine-turned on jet-black rubber, this New Wahl Pen is the best-looking writing instrument you have ever seen. Couple this beauty with Wahl perfect writing performance, and you have an achievement in fountain pen construction.

Wahl Pen is made by the makers of Eversharp. Naturally, you would expect it to be an outstandingly good pen. And it is.

Wahl Pen has many superior features. One is the Wahl filling device. It fills the pen plumb full of ink every time.

Another is the comb feed. This feed regulates the ink flow so perfectly that the point always writes the instant it touches paper. You never have to shake Wahl Pen. And the ink never floods.

As for the nib, experts say it is the ultimate in nib-making. It is 14-karat gold, tipped with the hardest, finest grade of iridium that can be purchased. This nib suits your hand perfectly the very first time you use it.

The wonderful balance of Wahl Pen makes it the most comfortable of pens to hold. And when in the pocket or purse, Wahl Pen can never leak, for the patented cap construction prevents leaking.

You will find a style and size of Wahl Pen that exactly suits you. Ask to see Wahl Pen at your dealer's. $2.50 up.

COFFIELD FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Mrs. E. T. Coffield, who died suddenly Thursday morning after an illness of a few hours, were held from the residence, 3304 Ninth street, Friday afternoon, with the Rev. C. M. Simpson, of the First Methodist church, officiating. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Tom Roberts, Ed Howard, B. D. Donnell, C. E. Clark, N. H. Martin and Frank Collier.

Many friends of the family of Mrs. Coffield, widow of Dr. E. T. Coffield, Confederate veteran and pioneer resident of Wichita Falls, who died a number of years ago, were deeply grieved to learn of Mrs. Coffield's death Thursday morning.

Although Mrs. Coffield had been in ill health for a number of years, she had improved somewhat during the past few months over her former condition.

Besides her brother, W. A. McCutcheon of Denver, formerly of this city, she is survived by Mrs. P. M. Perkins, Mrs. Joe A. Jones and Misses Cathleen, Annette and Mary Coffield.

Mrs. Coffield, who was born in Louisiana, April 15, 1853, came to Wichita Falls with her husband in 1882. They were among the first families in this section and among the prominent and substantial citizens and builders of this portion of the state.

Stores Offering Many Bargains to Christmas Buyers

Christmas shoppers should find it easy to get bargains this year, with several important stores of Wichita Falls putting on big sales to last for the next few weeks.

The United one-cent-one dollar store opened Friday morning with a big bankrupt sale, offering the entire stock at a remarkable reduction. This sale will last until Christmas. It was stated, but several hundred people were afraid to wait and run the risk of losing a single bargain and the store and walk in front were jammed long before the opening hour. It was necessary to close the door a number of times in order to avoid disagreeable congestion.

Anderson's was opened Friday morning with a big anniversary sale, celebrating the sixth year of this store in business here. This sale will last until Christmas eve and splendid values are offered including every class of merchandise handled.

Richardson Brothers' big bargain sale started Friday morning with a special "bargain balcony" and many attractive bargains in values including the regular stock as well as holiday goods.

The Fisher Dry Goods Company, starting Monday morning, is offering its entire stock on sale, in the form of a "removal sale." It is de-

NEW. H. G. RODGERS OF TENNESSEE PREACHES

An interesting congregation listened to the Rev. H. G. Rodgers of Jackson, Tennessee, as he delivered a Thanksgiving sermon Thursday evening in the church of the Assembly of God. He was preceded by Rev. McCafferty, the pastor, who spoke in a few preliminary remarks on the "Origin of Thanksgiving Day and Its Significance."

Mr. Rodgers based his remarks on Philippians 4: "By prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known unto God." He said that there was much to be learned from this scripture and he offered due thanks to Him who is the Author of all good and that this is true.

"I have not heard one thing about klan endorsement of me, Mr. Roosevelt said. "I can not conceive that it is so, because I came out flat-footed against them in a public speech on Lincoln's birthday last year. The fundamental principle of Americanism is that men should be judged as men and no distinction be made on racial or religious lines."

J. R. Edmonds, district county agent of A. and M. College, was a visitor in the city Friday. He spent several hours in conference with County Agent Guy R. Jones.

GERALDINE FARRAR TO SING AT ATLANTA IN CITY AUDITORIUM

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 30.—Geraldine Farrar will sing in Atlanta tonight in the city auditorium. With the doors of two church auditoriums closed against her appearance until late last night that the diva would be forced to make good her promise to "sing in the streets," in order not to disappoint an Atlanta audience.

The city auditorium had been engaged by Tech. High School for a minstrel program for tonight, but those in charge of the entertainment withdrew in favor of Miss Farrar and postponed the minstrel show to a later date.

Miss Farrar appeared in Atlanta three years ago in "Zaza." Her acting in that performance "made it impossible for a church to permit the use of its facilities for her appearance in concert," according to a formal statement issued by Dr. John W. Ham, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, in which he announced that she would not appear in his church's auditorium.

Dr. W. H. Layprade Jr., presiding elder of the North Atlanta Methodist district, was the first to start proceedings to bar Miss Farrar from a church appearance, having refused her the use of Wesley Memorial Methodist auditorium.

JOHN LEWIS CLAWSON MILLIONAIRE BANKER, MARRIES JANE MILLER

By JOSEPH E. ROGERS,
Universal Service Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A love cauldron is bubbling over tonight because in it was brewed a fortune in rare books, a pinch of stardom, plenty of money, December and May, and a 19 year old son thrown in for good measure.

December is John Lewis Clawson, millionaire Buffalo banker and merchant May is the fetching "Jane" Miller, Broadway star in "The Devil's Disciple," daughter of a former treasurer of Mississippi and a social favorite of the south.

The new Mrs. Clawson, a bride of a day, admitted that she was won as much by her husband's post-aviator son as by the husband himself. Pointing proudly to the picture of H. Phelps Clawson, she said:

"Isn't he just splendid. And just to think I am his mother. He was his father's best man at the wedding. On this day, I certainly have much to be thankful for."

The bridegroom blushed slightly under iron gray hair which almost covered his temples and his wife approved as she insisted that it was a case of love at first sight.

Mrs. Clawson has always had a passion for rare books, especially those of the Elizabethan era. So it was only natural that while she was in Buffalo recently she sought permission to look at Mrs. Clawson's collection, one of the finest in existence.

There followed discussions of Bacon, Shakespeare, Marlow and Johnson with due attention being paid to Romeo and Juliet.

From Buffalo Mrs. Clawson's company went to Canada, whereupon Mr. Clawson decided that sitting on boards of directors was laborious and besides there were several rare books in the dominion which he had been planning to buy for some time.

"It was quite by accident that I met her again in Montreal," said Mr. Clawson.

"Now, dear," he was interrupted. "Well, anyway, after a few weeks the entire company caught the literary fever, as 'Jane' insisted on reading and lending her valuable books. And so they were married."

Tonight Mrs. Clawson received a telegram from Detroit asking her to rejoin the company at once, "as your services are indispensable."

"They will be in a rose covered bungalow for two, I am certain," she replied in effect.

INCREASE STATE RANGER FORCE PROPOSED.

Texas needs 150 more Rangers, says Captain W. L. Aldrich, quarter master of the state Ranger force. Captain Aldrich says there is more lawlessness in the state now than there has been in the nine years he has been a member of the Ranger force. Prohibition laws are violated more than any other he says, though there have been reports of a great deal of gambling.

Captain Aldrich has indicated that the legislature will be asked to greatly increase its appropriation for the Ranger force. There are now fifty members of that organization, most of whom are on the Mexican border.

But Texas will need ten times 150 more Rangers and some of the practice of using them for police duties that ought to be taken care of by cities and counties themselves is continued. There has been a gradual change in the use to which the Ranger force of Texas is being put. Originally they watched the northern and western borders against Indian depredations, the southern border against Mexican raids and the whole state against bands of cattle and horse thieves and highwaymen. Their use for police duty in settled and organized counties was hardly thought of. Now we find them doing work that ought to be done by patrolmen, constables and other local peace officers.

Their use in such capacity is another indication of the decay of the self reliant spirit of the pioneers which was one of the things which made this country great and of the gradual abandonment of local self government. In a measure never imagined twenty-five and fifty years ago we are looking to Austin and to Washington to handle local problems for us that we ought to handle ourselves.

Will the day come when the towns and counties of Texas will be policed by some kind of a state police force directed from Austin?

FARM LAND VALUES.

The value of the farms of the United States increased from $16,000,000,000 in 1890 to $78,000,000,000 in 1922, according to estimates. The rate of increase shown by these figures is more than 450 per cent.

But it is doubtful whether the wealth of the farm owners has increased in anything like this proportion. It is true that in many instances farms have sold for four or five times the prices they would have brought in 1890 but farm land prices have been speculative and inflated. They will bring no adequate return on the higher values.

The period of 1914 to 1920 was one of high prices for most farm products. These high prices brought widespread speculation in farms. Prices for land were raised to a point where farmers could hardly afford to operate, even at the high prices commanded by their products. When the prices of farm products fell in the general deflation many farmers were left with high priced land on which they could not hope to produce enough to pay interest and taxes. That is one of the causes of political unrest in certain sections of the country where the farmers were the hardest hit.

The increase in the value of farm lands has not been an unmixed benefit. In many instances it has brought disaster. There will be distress among the farmers of the country until some of the water is squeezed out of land values. Unfortunately this can be accomplished only at the expense of many farm land owners themselves.

THE MEASURE OF JUSTICE.

Thursday's dispatches reported the action of an Oregon judge in giving a jail sentence to a county judge in that state who had been found guilty of driving an automobile on a public highway while intoxicated. A few days before this a Texas judge had assessed a fine of one dollar and costs for the same offense.

We believe the sentence of the Oregon judge came nearer to justice. The man who, under the influence of intoxicating liquors, attempts to drive an automobile on the public highway not only very seriously endangers his own life but imperils the lives of the occupants of every vehicle he meets or passes, and pedestrians, too.

Driving an automobile while intoxicated is too serious an offense to be passed lightly by any judge or jury before whom an offender is tried.

This is the age of speed. Wouldn't it be great if Christmas came right after Thanksgiving?

LET OTHERS DRAW YOU OUT.

We owe more to others than we ever admit. This thing of imitation, of example, enters our being and our experience and makes us much that we are. Just the minute we meet someone whose likes and desires and ideals and ambitions melt in with ours, a peculiar happiness comes over us, as at the sight of a bubbling, cool spring on a hot day when we are far from habitation.

It is a fact that others draw us out much more than we draw ourselves out. We are influenced by the beauty and strength and unselfishness in others, and that makes us want to be like them.

If you have a mind that likes to explore and run free from the set conventions and cold decorums of the multitude, how splendid to find another mind like yours—that is keyed just a little higher, perhaps.

There is too much "intellectual respectability" in the world. But that doesn't mean that there is any lack of intellectual freedom. And it is this beautiful freedom of thought and sympathetic impulse we find in others that comes to us in our starved states and feeds our minds and hearts and souls.

Let others draw you out. But give them much from yourself so that they may be free to give and help.

For years and years there is much in us all that is dammed up, so that parts of our minds and personalities never give expression.

When we find those in whom we may live, this restricted and pent-up condition is remedied. For the free and happy contact of mind with mind, where so much is found in common, acts to free that which has been imprisoned for so long a time.

Let others draw you out by being willing to let them unlock the flood gates! Copyright, 1933, by George Matthew Adams

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

PLAYTIME.

The people all are playing; I see their autos pass, and wonder who is paying for all the oil and gas. A million auto journeys before my punk abode; the plumber and the attorney are burning up the road; the janitor, the jurist, the jointster and the jay, the ever-present tourist, they all are out at play. They throng the highways sunny, and camp when day expires, and who puts up the money to pay for all the tires? I toll through all the daytime, if gas at all is burned; I can't afford a playtime until the price is earned. I give my lute a lacing that makes it groan in pain, that I may buy a casing or sparking for my wain. I make the language quiver while forcing it to rhyme, that I may drive my flivver and have a bully time. And while I toll my neighbors whis past my poor shebang, if they have any labors, they let the same go hang. They're singing Yankee Doodle, in coach and limousine, and who puts up the boogie to buy the gasoline? They're chugging in the gloaming, they're chugging in the dawn, the hills and vales they're combing, they're camping on the lawn; they tear the road asunder in search of further thrills, and now and then I wonder who settles all the bills. Same Proclamation. A Manager For Crime. Monroe's Doctrine. Home Markets Best.

By ARTHUR BRIDSMAN (Copyright, 1933, The Star Co.)

Date changes, conditions remain; in our little periods of history. Yesterday, Americans led by Mr. Coolidge, in his proclamation were thanking Providence that we are not as Europe is, torn with war and hatred.

In 1796 George Washington wrote the first Thanksgiving proclamation issued by any United States president. It began: "When we review the calamities that afflict so many of our nations, the present condition of the United States affords much matter of consolation and satisfaction."

He specified "our exemption from foreign war, internal tranquillity, unexampled prosperity of all classes of our citizens."

The killing of two bank messengers in New York shows that banditry and murder are becoming systematized. A manager hires professional gunmen, drug fiends that these do anything and kill anybody who gets in their way.

A bank employee "tips off" the manager, Mr. Diamond, described as a "loving father and devoted son," knowing from the tipster, who the bank messengers are and what they are worth with their $18,000 cash, the rest is simple.

The manager stays at a safe distance, his hired dog find hither and thither the victim. The cash is divided, in accordance with the managers' promise.

That sounds like an implausible dime novel, but it is part of police records. Criminals being brazen and "dog" fiends do not care when drugs are kept away from them, the facts come out.

One of the professional killers driven off his drug, weeps, breaks down and tells what he knows. To the extent to which it has increased the drug traffic, prohibition seems to be a doubtful success.

One congressman suggests that beer be licensed and taxed, the proceeds to be used fighting whiskey. This might be a good idea, as apparently if the next generation could be persuaded to take beer instead of drink, they would be saved.

Everybody knows that where alcohol is not used, drugs are used. If they can be got, and being easily hidden, it is quite doubtful if any kind of law enforcement will ever drive them out.

"We owe it, therefore, to candor and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and Europe" to declare that we should regard any attempt on their part to extend the system to any portion of this hemisphere as a dangerous and unjust interference with our peace and safety.

James Monroe, fifth president of the United States wrote that declaration, which embodies the whole and a hundred other places in our history.

That centennial ought not to be ignored, for Monroe's declaration is more important to this country than any other, except the doctrine of independence. It was never more important than now.

Under that same Monroe, Florida was added to the United States territory 1822, by treaty with Spain. That should be gratefully remembered by Indians and gentlemen who buy mid-summer get-togethers in St. Augustine, Miami, Palm Beach and a hundred other places in our beautiful Florida. By the way, the season there begins earlier every year.

J. J. Conroy, of Buffalo, at his own expense and risk, has built an admirable motor road from Miami to the West Coast. See Florida.

George W. Hinman reminds business men that our prosperity depends on home markets and that buying up that trade, worth more to us than all the outside world.

How can that trade be increased? By increasing the number of purchasers here in America, of course, that is, by increasing population. And that can be done by bringing in more people—the right kind, from Europe.

Ten million more people would mean two million more pairs of shoes, hats, houses, sheep, chickens, and all of anything else in proportion, bought, sold, consumed.

We can sell to our own people, getting good money for what we sell, keeping the money, work and wages in the family. Those that are abroad, and the factor there is the right sort of enemy of the country, and pay of its farmers and workmen.

A PUZZLE A DAY

A man was selling oats in various quantities. A half pound was the smallest unit and sixty pounds was the largest. By using five special weights he could weigh any quantity from 1 lb. up to 60 lbs. to the exact half pound. What were the sizes of the weights?

Yesterday's Answer.
"Yes," answered Stane, with a short laugh, "as good a mate as a man could have, a mate that happens to be a lady!"

"A lady?" answered the policeman. "By Jove, you've both got it!"

"Well, you see, Anderson, it's not exactly a matter of choice. We were stranded together, and the cabin happened to offer itself. But, lose your dog, and come and be introduced."

"Right!" replied the policeman. "I'll be with you in two jiffy."

Stane entered the cabin to prepare himself. He had the girl looked up from the stove. "Is he the owner of your palace?"

"No; he is an old Oxford acquaintance of mine, who is now in the Mounted Police."

At that moment a whip-stock hammered at the cabin door, and a second later Trooper Anderson entered. For a moment he was a little taken aback by the girl's appearance, then Stane made the introduction.

"Miss Yarely! Mr. Anderson!"

"Are you Mr. James Yarely's niece, who was lost a few months ago?"

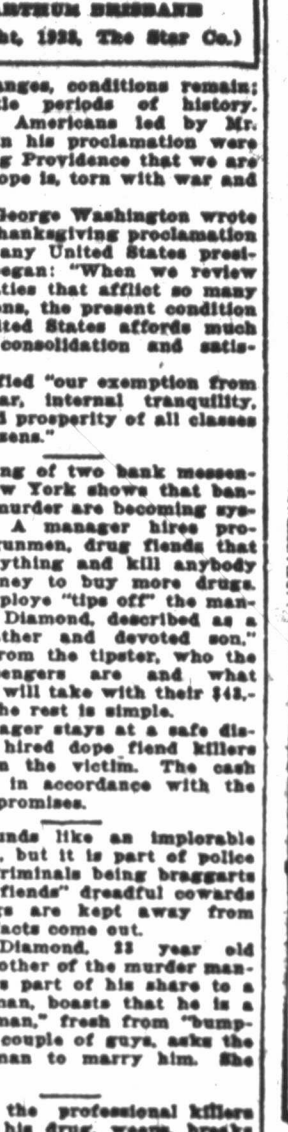

"The very same," answered Stane promptly.

"There's a regard out for you!"

BURGLARY CHARGES FOLLOW ENCOUNTER EARLY HOUR FRIDAY

F. E. Carpenter, residing at Seventh and Denver streets, had an unusual experience Friday morning at 1:30 o'clock, when he grappled with a negro whom he stated was attempting to break into his house by way of the rear door.

He was awakened by his wife, he told officers, when she heard noises at the back door. Creeping to the door of the kitchen, he found a burly negro attempting to break in. The screen door had already been unlatched by the intruder and when Mr. Carpenter opened the door the negro attempted to force his way into the house.

Mr. Carpenter told officers that he finally succeeded in pushing the negro back out on the porch. He latched the screen door, hurriedly locked the door and called the city officers upon their arrival. The negro had disappeared.

A half hour later he said he saw the negro come out from a hiding place in the alley and start walking down the street. Officers were summoned again and they made the arrest.

Friday morning the negro was fined in the city police court and immediately afterward he was served with a warrant charging him with burglary. He gave his name as Paul Jones.

ALEXANDER FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Mrs. Susan Elizabeth Alexander, aged 44 years, who died at her home, 981 Austin street, Wednesday night, were held from the family residence at one o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. C. M. Simpson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, South, officiated at the services. The remains were shipped to Snyder, Texas, former home of the deceased, at 2:45 o'clock Friday afternoon where interment will be made.

Mrs. Alexander had been a resident of this city for the past five years, having moved here from Snyder. Four days ago she contracted pneumonia and never recovered. Four children, all of whom were at her bedside when death came, survive her: Daisy Smith, Lames; Mrs. C. M. Hollingsworth, Long Beach, Calif.; Miss Bertha Alexander, Wichita Falls; and C. B. Alexander of Derman, Texas.

GOOD COLLECTION FOR WELFARE FUND TAKEN AT UNITED SERVICES

Campaign headquarters announced Friday morning that $187.90 was up at the United Thanksgiving services at the First Baptist Church Thursday morning for the Municipal Welfare fund.

The united Thanksgiving Day services were held by the pastors' association at the church, with practically every Protestant congregation participating. Money taken up at the service was given to the welfare fund.

The four cases against A. C. Golden, one against Dr. Gordon Clark, one against J. B. Lonsford and three against Sheriff W. W. Murphy are set for trial for Monday, December 3. The sheriff is charged with false swearing, while the other cases are alleged to be the outgrowth of whipping parties.

OHIO AVENUE MERCHANT ATTACKED NEAR HOME AT MIDNIGHT WEDNESDAY

J. C. Culver, a merchant on Ohio avenue, reported to officers Thursday that he was attacked about midnight Wednesday night near his home on Elizabeth by an unknown man and received a blow over the head with a blunt instrument which made it necessary to take four stitches in the wound.

Mr. Culver told officers that he had just alighted from a street car and started toward his home, when his assailant jumped from behind a tree and assaulted him from the rear. Mr. Culver said he screamed for assistance and was struck over the head. He was stunned by the blow and fell to the sidewalk. His assailant ran and left him lying near the spot where he was attacked. GERMAN NOTE EXPLAINS ARREST FRENCH OFFICER

BERLIN, Nov. 30. (AP)—The German government has sent the French embassy two notes regarding the arrest of Captain Darnont, a French officer, on the German-Swiss frontier. The communications say an investigation has indisputably shown that the arrest was made on German territory, a finding which is said to be confirmed by the Swiss customs officials. The notes also maintain that there is ample evidence of Captain Darnont's complicity in economic and political espionage and serve notice that the public prosecutor is proceeding against him.

BIOLOGICAL SURVEY TELLS ABOUT DUCK SHOT AT IOWA PARK

Following the publication of an article more than a month ago in the Times, to the effect that E. C. Koonce of Iowa Park had killed a wild duck near his home which had a numbered aluminum band on its leg, The Times communicated with W. C. Henderson, acting chief of the United States Bureau of biological survey of the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

Mr. Henderson, in his reply to The Times, stated that the bird was banded February 8, 1922, at Portage Des Sioux, Mo., by John Brooker, who was operating on the survey. By means of the band the government department is attempting an important investigation relative to the migration and life history of the native birds.

The letter received from Mr. Henderson reads as follows: "Replying to your favor of recent date in regard to banded duck No. 292,461 which was killed by Mr. E. C. Koonce, Iowa Park, Texas we may advise you that this bird was banded February 8, 1922, at Portage Des Sioux, Missouri, by Mr. John Brooker, who was operating at that point under the direction of Mr. Harvey M. Sawyer, Missouri. By means of these numbered aluminum bands, the Biological Survey is conducting an important investigation relative to the migration and life histories of our native birds, and notable results are already being secured. The information furnished by you is therefore of value and your interest in the matter is appreciated."

HEAR TESTIMONY REGARDING LEASE NAVY OIL RESERVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—Testimony relating to the personal financial status of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, was given before the senate public lands committee today when it resumed investigation of the lease of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve. It was during Mr. Fall's term as secretary that the lease was signed.

Carl C. Magee, editor of the New Mexico State Tribune, Albuquerque, N. M., described a visit to the Fall ranch at Three Rivers, N. M., in February, 1920, when he said Fall, then a United States senator, declared he was "broke" and intended to resign from the senate to recuperate.

The senator's statement was borne out, the witness said, by the condition of the ranch and the roads leading to it.

Texas Longhorns Register First Score and Also First Victory On Kyle Field, Defeating Aggies

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Nov. 29.—The University of Texas Longhorns registered their first score as well as their first victory at Kyle Field here, when they defeated their annual Thanksgiving Day rivals, the Texas A. & M. Aggies, today.

Soon after the opening of the game, Lane Tynes, captain of the Longhorns, raced down the field and recovered Oscar Eckhardt's 45-yard punt across the goal line. Kicker Robertson kicked the ball into the end zone, and Tynes endeavored to recover the ball on the five-yard line, and Tynes recovered it for the touchdown. Robertson kicked the extra point.

Throughout the game the mud-covered teams battled, the Longhorns succeeding, however, in blocking the offense of the Aggies. The victory gave Texas a clean record of two victories and a tie against Southern conference opponents, ranking it with Southern Methodist University, which closed the season as the only undefeated conference team.

Texas at no time had things its own way in the game. From the time the Texas touchdown was made, the game was a combination of straight football and overhead play. Efforts to break through the line around the ends failed to net the desired or needed ground, first one side then the other would resort to passing or punting. At the end of the first period saw the ball resting on the Aggies' 41-yard line. Texas, as soon as the whistle blew, the ball in the half started cross-country, passing, gaining some ground. Aggies attempted to block the passes, but were not successful. Texas held the ball on the Aggies' 15-yard line. Both bucking and passing the Longhorns carried the ball to the Aggies' 11-yard line, but was unable to put the ball over on the remaining down.

Liberal punting during the fourth quarter enabled Texas to place the ball in A. & M. territory. The last play of the game was a punt to the 15-yard line. Marley making one yard through left tackle as the whistle blew.

Robertson kicked over goal line for Texas. Punt gained two yards over right guard. Wilson punt 43 yards to the 15-yard line. Tynes right end and first down. Tynes fumbled. T. W. Wilson recovered. Wilson punt 40 yards to Robertson. Ball on Texas 10-yard line. Marley ran to left side of line for three yards. Marley no gain. Eckhardt punt 15 yards to Pison. Who fumbled. Ball rolls over goal and is recovered by Tynes. Robertson recovered for a touchdown. Robertson kicked goal.

Tynes receives Ferguson's kickoff on Texas 15-yard line and returned to Texas 31-yard line. Tynes made one yard left tackle. Eckhardt punt 40 yards to center. Robertson kicked 43 yards to the 15-yard line. Tynes right end and first down. Tynes fumbled. T. W. Wilson recovered. Wilson punt 40 yards to Robertson. Ball on Texas 10-yard line. Marley ran to left side of line for three yards. Marley no gain. Eckhardt punt 15 yards to Pison. Who fumbled. Ball rolls over goal and is recovered by Tynes. Robertson recovered for a touchdown. Robertson kicked goal.

LOS ANGELES HAS ROMAN HOLIDAY IN AUTO RACING

By Universal Service. LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30.—Turkey day was a sporting Roman holiday for Los Angeles and when the sun went down upward of 100,000 men, women and children stampeded to get back to town to dine and dance on the Beverly Speedway, leaving there dead two followers of auto racing, and Bennett Hill, victor in this year's annual Thanksgiving motor classic here.

Hill, number five entrant, a "dark horse" and driving a Duesenberg special, did the 250 miles on the dangerous saucer track in the 220 required laps at an average speed of 124.5 miles an hour, and grabbed the laurel for his own against a field of thirteen other starters after he had stuck at the wheel for two hours and thirty minutes.

Death rode upon the rear of the open cars in the race. The toll George L. Wade, millionaire racing enthusiast of Kansas City, while he was instructing to victory Darian Frazier, driving Wade's own entry in the race.

After the millionaire lips had been sealed by death his car, entry number 12, finished fourth in the race, behind Hill and Jimmy Murphy and Eddie Hearne.

Russell Hughes, veteran Los Angeles photographer, who the second man killed, while James Lee, one of the mechanics, sustained a broken leg and severe cuts and bruises.

The fatalities following permission given Harry Hartz, driving a Durant special, to tune up for a lap before the race started and while the entrants were beginning to align themselves for the starting signal.

Striking around the back starting Hartz saw ahead Joe Boyer's car in flames near the line. Trying to dodge the fire Hartz was struck by the entrants were beginning to align themselves for the starting signal.

Record Crowd Expected at Dallas Game As Shown By Early Gathering At Ball Park; Teams Are Confident

Special to The Times. DALLAS, Nov. 30.—The Wichita Falls Coyotes and the Oak Cliff Leopards sharpened their teeth and tested their claws Friday morning in preparation for the championship tilt which was to be staged at the Dallas ball park at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

A record crowd was expected, for shortly before the noon hour the people started gathering and when the gates were thrown open hundreds of people surged in.

Both teams seemed confident at the noon hour. Light lunches was all that the coaches permitted the members of the squads to have.

Neither team has an advantage as to weight. The squads which will meet will average approximately 164 pounds to the man.

Possibly 500 people from Wichita Falls and 500 from Dallas. Many of them arrived in this city Thursday and witnessed the S. M. U. game.

U-Baylor game, while others arrived by train and by automobile Friday morning.

The Oak Cliff High school students will turn out nearly 100 percent strong and students of the other high schools will also be present, the majority of whom will assist in cheering the Oak Cliff warriors.

S. M. U. Line Holds Bears In Turkey Day Classic and Baylor Loses Hard Fought Game 16 to 0

DALLAS, Nov. 30.—Southern Methodist University holds claim to the Southwestern conference championship, by virtue of its triumph Thursday over Baylor University, 14 to 0. Although the University of Texas remains an undefeated claimant, their state is somewhat marred by a tie game with the team that was crushed here today by S. M. U.

The Mustangs' aerial attack mingled with straight football tactics, the Mustangs literally blew off the husky Baylor University Bears off their feet.

Not once during the spectacular game did Baylor threaten the Mustangs' goal.

The attendance was estimated at 17,000.

In the first period with the ball on Baylor's 40-yard line Stollenwerk passed to Stewart for twenty-five yards, who scored the remaining 15 yards for the first touchdown.

In the next two periods the play centered on Baylor territory but the Bears managed to keep their goal safe. It was here that the Mustangs attempted several field goals without success.

The final period with the Mustangs' offensive start with renewed vigor, S. M. U. received the kick and returned to the Baylor 10-yard line. Stolly passed to Brooks who raced to the Baylor 15-yard line and returned the ball five yards.

Electra Hi Team Wins Turkey Day Contest 12 to 9

Special to The Times. ELECTRA, Texas, Nov. 30.—In one of the most sensational and interesting games of the season, the Electra High School Tigers clawed their way to victory here Thursday over A. M. and M. of Arlington by a score of 12 to 9.

Wade the most unusual. The Tigers, three line plunges failed to gain and an attempted forward pass ended in a fumble.

Just before the close of the first half Boucher of the visitors kicked the ball between the goal posts.

Each team scored a touchdown in the last quarter, but both attempts for the extra point failed.

Another pass, Walling to Reiser, netted 14 yards on the Baylor 10-yard line. Walling lost a yard on an attempted left end run.

Another pass, Walling to Reiser, netted 14 yards on the Baylor 10-yard line. Walling lost a yard on an attempted left end run.

Another pass, Walling to Reiser, netted 14 yards on the Baylor 10-yard line. Walling lost a yard on an attempted left end run.

Wichita Falls Is Well Represented On S. M. U. Eleven

Wichita Falls was well and ably represented on the Southern Methodist University team Thanksgiving Day when it took the Baylor Bears to a beating by a tune of 14 to 0.

Lawrence Reiser, a local boy and son of Mrs. H. W. Pyle of 1113 Magolia street played the role of full back for the victors and through the description of the game, play by play, his name appears frequently.

Reiser also starred in the passing game. On four different occasions the Mustang needed big gains and time before they could get into the passing hands of their running mate.

Falling to gain, Reiser kicked to Coffey on Baylor's 15-yard line. Two plunges gained a yard for Baylor and Pittman kicked to Walling on the 10-yard line.

Stolly threw a pass to Stewart to the 20-yard line and he raced 10 yards to the 30-yard line.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Winter Salads.
A salad always adds zest and interest to a meal and should be included just as often as possible, during the winter months.
There are many small economies that can be practiced in this course that do not require any extra time. Nor do they detract from the food value or beauty of the dish.
Unless the salad is a lettuce salad, use lettuce only as a garnish. Outside leaves of head lettuce or lettuce cut in shreds will furnish the necessary green at almost no cost. Or parsley, broken in tiny sprigs and dropped over a fish or meat salad, adds the needed color without any lettuce. Celery tops, carefully looked over and crisp, take the place of lettuce. Or a fruit salad can be served in an apple or orange cup, doing away with any green except a thin slice of green cherry.
A simple vegetable salad served on a plain white plate is a most ideal with pork roast or rich lamb. But a fruit salad swathed in a rich dressing topped with whipped cream is a different matter. This sort of salad should follow a light meat course and is in better taste for the luncheon menu than for the dinner.
The vegetable used in the salad should not appear in some other form in another course of the same meal. The same is true of fruit. If apples are an ingredient of the salad an apple pie should not form the dessert.

Asparagus Salad.
Put canned asparagus in a large flat strainer. Carefully slip into a big pan of cold water. The water must be taken not to break the heads. Drain and arrange in neat piles on salad plates. A sprig of parsley can be used in place of lettuce for the garnish. Cut narrow strips of pimiento and lay across each pile to make a band to hold the stalks together. Mash the heads with mayonnaise or, if used with beef as a dinner salad, pour over French dressing.

Cheese Salad.
One package neufchatel cheese, 2 tablespoons finely chopped nuts, 2 tablespoons minced olives, 2 tablespoons minced pimiento, cream, hearts of lettuce, paprika, French dressing.
Work cheese to a smooth paste with cream. Work in nuts, olives and pimiento, adding cream if necessary. Form into small balls and place in a cold place to chill and become firm. Arrange on hearts of lettuce and sprinkle with paprika. Serve with French dressing.

Lima Bean Salad.
One cup canned lima beans, 2-4 cup diced celery, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon minced green pepper, 2 tablespoons grated cheese, French dressing.
Mix beans, celery, onion and pepper with dressing. Arrange in neat mounds on salad plates. Sprinkle with grated cheese, top with a dash of paprika and garnish with celery tops. A well-colored cheese adds to the attractiveness of the salad.

Grapefruit Salad.
Two green peppers, 1 cup grapefruit pulp, 1-2 cup minced celery, slice of onion, 1 tablespoon nut meats.
Cut peppers in halves lengthwise. Remove seeds and white fiber. Remove pulp from grapefruit and drain. Use the juice in the French dressing instead of lemon juice. Rub the bowl in which the salad is to be mixed with slice of onion. Mix grapefruit, celery and nuts with French dressing. Fill peppers with mixture and serve with or without a bed of lettuce.

For First Aid.
Keep a styptic pencil on the kitchen shelf—it will stop many a small cut from bleeding.

Take No Risks.
Don't risk standing on tables and chairs to dust your walls. Have long-handled mops—they are a much easier to operate and much less hazardous.

Unused Broom.
Always keep your broom standing upside down in the closet. The bristles will last much longer.

Fish Odors.
Always keep salt fish whether they are dry or in brine, well away from all other foods.

Melted Ice Cream.
Melted ice cream, left over from last night's party, may be made up in the blanc mange or custard for next day's lunch.

Stored Onions.
Onions should be kept in a dry storeroom, for if they are stored in a damp place they will give out shoots too early.

Salt Meat.
Do not salt meat except before cooking, as salt is apt to make the meat turn red.

Fat Foods.
Bouillabaisse, French fried potatoes, or any foods that have been fried in deep fat should be placed on clean paper after being removed from the around should be dipped in boiling water and dashed with oxalic acid, putting two tablepoons of the acid to a gallon of water. Then wring them out, dry in the sunshine, and wash as usual.

Fine China.
Never wash fine china with scouring soap, soap powder or with yellow resin soap.

Broken China.
You can mend this china with white of egg and quicklime. Beat the egg stiff, coat the clean edges thickly with it and dust with powdered unslaked lime, then press together at once and fasten firmly.

Dyeing Lace.
If you are dyeing lace tack it to strips of cloth and leave them there until you are through washing and pressing.

Marked Handkerchiefs.
If you starch your handkerchiefs very stiff before marking them with indelible ink the ink will not run and you can make smaller and neater letters.

Potato Water.
Potato water applied on a soft cloth is excellent for cleaning spoons and knives that have become discolored.

Castards.
Warm the milk before adding it

Yellowed Clothes.
Clothes that are yellow from lying

Keeping Cauliflower.
Cauliflower and brussels sprouts will keep for a long time if they are stuck, root down, in dry sand and kept in a dry place.

Painting Furniture.
Before attempting to paint any furniture, remove the knobs and handles or any fancy additions, and you will do a much neater job.

Inset Powder.
Borax sprinkled freely in all cracks and crevices around the sink and the baseboards near it is most satisfactory in keeping out roaches or water bugs.

Washing Linen.
If you are washing linen, wash it in a solution of one part of soda ash to ten parts of water. This will keep it from becoming yellowed.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS NET PROFIT $76,249.85

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 30. (AP)—A net profit of $76,249.85 was made by the 1933 state fair of Texas. It was shown today in a report to directors by Secretary W. H. Stratton. Total revenues were $433,492.99 and total expenditures $417,243.14. Obligations of $13,248.66, partly represented in notes endorsed by the directors provided from which went to pay final indebtedness on the new automobile building in 1933 were paid out of the net profits this year, the report showed.

The 1933 fair was declared to have been the best in history, from all standpoints, and in expressions of appreciation the report pays tribute to the press of Texas, "whose unstinted cooperation contributed most materially to the success of the fair."

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

COTTON MARKET

Local Cotton Receipts. Middling 4 1/2 cents. Receipts nominal.

New York Cotton. NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The cotton market was even more active and excited during today's early trading than it had been on the advance which preceded the holiday.

Realizing continued very heavy and while a continued trade demand was reported, prices not only lost their initial advance, but sold about 30 to 35 points lower.

Offerings increased on moderate early afternoon rallies and the market set back again with December selling off to 36 1/2 and March to 36 3/4 around 3 o'clock.

Dec. 37 1/2 37 1/2 36 1/2 36 1/2 Jan. 37 1/2 37 1/2 36 1/2 36 1/2 Feb. 37 1/2 37 1/2 36 1/2 36 1/2

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30.—Advances of 41 to 43 points were made by cotton in the first half hour of the session today.

Realizing sales became heavier and finally caused something of a reaction, the market late in the morning trading was selling at 41 1/2 to 43 points under the last quotations.

Liverpool Cotton Statistics. LIVERPOOL, Nov. 30.—Weekly cotton statistics: Total forwarded for mills 41,000 bales, of which American 11,000, stock 40,000, American 11,000, imports 32,000, American 11,000, exports 3,000, American 1,000.

Liverpool Cotton. LIVERPOOL, Nov. 30.—Cotton spot, fair demand, prices steady. Good middling 21 1/2, fully middling 21 1/2, low middling 20 1/2.

NEW YORK. Nov. 30.—Cotton seed oil closed easy. Prime summer yellow 11.00@11.10, prime crude 8.71@8.81.

DALLAS. Nov. 30.—Cotton steady. 11 1/2. Houston, 11 1/2. Galveston, 11 1/2.

NEW ORLEANS. Nov. 30.—Spot cotton steady, unchanged. Sales on the spot 1,000 bales, of which low middling 11 1/2, middling 11 1/2, good middling 11 1/2.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE. Local Grain Market. Wheat: Basis No. 1, 1 1/2; basis No. 2, 1 1/4; receipts nominal.

Chicago Grain. CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Further selling out by traders unwilling to accept delivery on December contracts had a bearish effect on the wheat market today.

Wet weather over part of the corn belt gave firmness to prices of corn and oats. After opening unchanged to 1/2 higher, May 74 to 75 1/2, corn sagged a little as a result of profit taking.

Open High Low Close. WHEAT: Dec. 1.01 1.02 1.01 1.02 May 1.04 1.05 1.04 1.05

Chicago Produce. CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Poultry alive, unselected: turkeys 12 1/2 to 13; chickens 11 1/2 to 12; geese 19 to 20; ducks 15 to 16.

only what they are able to do in the hands of the representatives stated.

the cross examination of the witness declared that the system intended to be constructed in the territory in question and that it was not to be developed until the territory was sufficiently advanced to warrant the service of roads.

Mr. Holden re-examined the situation in the western part of the territory and predicted that the line could not survive and another line like that of the Orient.

Mr. Holden stated that the proposed system would be developed into the territory in and give it adequate service. He also stated that the proposed system would be developed into the territory in and give it adequate service.

Dallas more direct access to the territory than now exists and as a part of the future plans, if those already substantially carried out are not impaired, to construct additional mileage between some appropriate point on the Wichita Valley lines and Fort Worth thereby shortening the distance and affording additional territory.

Dependent Upon Extension. "Plans, however, are all dependent upon the extension of the Stamford and Northwestern from Spur into the Plains territory and the protection of the Valley and Denver lines from competition.

"If constructed the Texas, Panhandle and Gulf railway will parallel the Denver to a greater or less degree over its entire line. It would not only interest the Valley at Seymour, but also every other line with which the Denver now enjoys long established traffic interchange relations. The interconnections will divide the flow of traffic.

"The product of the soil and the livestock from Denver and the Plains in an increasing degree may be expected to move to Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and Dallas, Northern Texas and Houston, Galveston and Gulf ports in Southern Texas, and there are few points on the proposed new railroad that are not within reasonable reach of these Texas points. We therefore feel that the construction of the Texas, Panhandle and Gulf project would not only be an unwise use of capital and an unnecessary addition to the general cost of maintaining railroad service in the territory, but it would also impair the stability of investments of railroads already made in the territory.

"The Colorado and Southern and the Rock Island own the Trinity and Brasos valley railway in equal shares. It was built as a connection between the Rock Island and Denver at Fort Worth and Dallas and Houston and Galveston. In spite of the efforts of the parent lines to support the line, they were unable to do so and it went into the hands of the receiver. This line needs all the assistance of the Denver and Valley for its existence and if competition is established in Northern Texas, the life of the Trinity and Brasos Valley will be further impaired. The parent roads hope, with the return of normal and stable business, to reorganize the Trinity and Brasos Valley line and make it an important system in the links of the Denver system.

"Specifically the extension of the Spur line into the Plains territory will afford an increased volume of traffic to the Fort Worth and Denver, Wichita Valley, and the Trinity and Brasos Valley and further strengthen each of these properties. Conditions surrounding the Orient are similar and it is known that the line has been a financial failure since the beginning.

"In concluding, I will say that other witnesses will discuss more in detail the traffic conditions which will have to meet, but I invite the attention of the commission to the apparent close parallel between these two projects. The Orient and the new proposed line, with the query whether the Texas Panhandle and Gulf plan rests upon any sound foundation than that upon which the Orient was constructed."

The hearing was resumed by the railroad commission Friday morning at 8 o'clock and West Texas representatives are scheduled to take the stand.
