

TERRIBLE ARRAIGNMENT OF CHAUCEY M. DEPEW

Senator Brackett of New York Demands Resignation

IS UNFIT FOR OFFICE

New York Senate Should Now Blush for Shame at Character of Senators

By Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 16.—The Depew resolution, asking him to resign, was defeated by a vote of 34 to 1, at 2:30 this afternoon. The Democrats did not vote.

By Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 16.—State Senator Brackett spoke today in support of his resolution requesting the resignation of Senator Depew. Senator Brackett declared, in opening the debate, that he had introduced the resolution in obedience to what he believed to be the solemn demand of right thinking people of the state.

He asserted that there was lack of confidence in the senator named, which had been caused by recent disclosures. He denied the assertion that it was not within the province of the senate to pass any resolution on a subject in reference to which it had no authority to enforce action, and cited the resolution on the case of the Tennessee situation and the coal strike several years ago.

He said to say to you and to the people of the state, continued Senator Brackett, "that a resolution of censure of public duty shall prevail, we are without hope for the future, that until the great villain of the state shall stand in the position that he who offends in the performance of his public duty must suffer punishment for his offense we can expect little of the respect for law, little of regard for public honor and virtue, and we have taken the first long steps toward creating a criminal of tomorrow kind."

Senator Brackett declared that although he had voted for Senator Depew, he had been opposed to his reelection because he believed him unfit for office.

After Platt Too He disclaimed the slightest responsibility for Senator Platt's reelection, and said he would support any other senator's resolution requesting him to resign. Senator Brackett insisted that the service performed by Senator Depew for the Equitable Assurance Society during the twenty years of his $20,000 retainer, had been of more value than what he owed as director of the society. The claim that this enormous sum was paid for legal services excited only laughter and contempt.

Honor of the Nation Referring to the so-called "yellow dog funds" of certain insurance companies, he said: "Out of this fund there were paid thousands of dollars in one campaign toward the expenses of one of the political parties, as one says, to save the honor of the nation. The 'honor of the nation,' of which honor these men were so solicitous that they forgot their own; so solicitous of national honor that they were ready to do give away thousands of dollars of their money and mine; of money of poor men, of widows, and orphans, but not one cent of their own."

Have Done With Shame "Let us have done with this shame and pretense of having used stolen funds for honorable or necessary purposes. It is no answer to stealing, confidence in the man who stole, but there is not even this excuse here. It was spent in a way that it was thought would greatly aggrandize the man who directed the spending—and it did. It was spent keeping Depew in the upper house of congress for selfish purposes, and it did."

FIELD LINGERS AT DEATH'S DOOR

Chicago Merchant's Condition Worse at Noon

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—At noon Marshall Field's condition is said to be very much changed for the worse. He is not expected to live until midnight.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—So far as could be learned, there is no noticeable change in the condition of Marshall Field, the millionaire merchant of Chicago, who is critically ill with pneumonia at the Holland house, this morning.

It is said by physicians that there is nothing to add to the assurance given shortly after midnight that the patient exhibited unexpected and renewed strength.

Members of the family and intimate friends who assembled to await the end, retired, convinced that death was but a matter of several hours.

This morning, while they are hoping against hope, the impression remains that Mr. Field cannot survive his present illness.

At 9 o'clock Mr. Field's physicians issued the following bulletin: "Mr. Field's condition is worse than last evening. There appears to be a spreading of the disease. While the case is critical, it is not hopeless."

He declared that he hired a new servant girl from an employment agency on the morning of the loss and that the missing money was left under his pillow. The girl only worked about half an hour, when she complained of a toothache, and said she wanted to go to the drug store for that. Her permission was granted and she had not returned, he reported.

Mr. Hertzog described her as being big and black, but he had not taken the trouble to ask her name or previous residence, or at least did not remember it. A detective was given a description of the woman.

HARNESS MEN HOLD SESSION

Retail Association Opens Annual Meeting

MAYOR GIVES WELCOME

Part Fort Worth Plays in Leather Trades Vividly Portrayed

The opening meeting of the Retail Harness and Saddle Makers' convention was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the city hall. T. R. James of this city presided at the meeting. There were about sixty members of the association present, many of the delegates not arriving on time.

The meeting was opened by Rev. R. R. Hamlin, pastor of the First Christian church, with a short prayer. He also spoke briefly on the importance of the saddlery business and said: "I have been very much impressed and pleased upon seeing the delicate and beautiful work done by your profession with tracing on saddles and other pieces of work."

Mayor T. J. Powell made the opening address of welcome to the association, saying: "It is my pleasure to extend the courtesies of the city to this convention and Fort Worth is glad to give them a genuine welcome. We desire to impress every man that one of its greatest assets is its power and manhood of entertaining those who come here. We are beginning a new year. Last year was a banner year for Fort Worth in all ways, and the year of 1906 will be greater than 1905. Some of our merchants say 1905 was the greatest year in the business world of this city. This coming year, I am sure, when it shall have gone into the past will show a higher watermark, because conditions are better. The value of the crops of the United States in 1904 exceeded those of 1903 by $242,000,000, and 1905 those of 1904 by $255,000,000. Think of what that means when Texas can raise as much crops as the whole United States with its $6,415,000,000 of crops in 1905. Texas is fifth in population and first in railroads and it will only be a few years before Texas will be first in everything. Agricultural business is the basis of all business, and this great lathum canal is going to give an impetus to this state. We invite you to come as we have the coming and wholesaling of the state, in fifteen minutes you can distribute a freight train on every main line of the state."

"In extending you a welcome, I am talking for Fort Worth and for every man who has hope that you will enjoy this visit."

Board of Trade Welcome Captain B. B. Paslack was asked to give a welcome from the Board of Trade.

"I have had no notice of this," he said, "but I never miss an opportunity for doing something for Fort Worth. Fort Worth is working for you and is looking forward to the benefit of every business and citizen of this state and adjoining states and territories. Fort Worth is improving the opportunities for your business. The packing houses stripped the animals of their hides and now we will have a tan yard for converting these hides into leather. Fort Worth is laying the foundation for supplying every leather cutter in the southwest with every article necessary for your business. Time is not far distant when you can't do your business except through Fort Worth. No other city in the country has eleven trunk lines. The Board of Trade extends you a cordial welcome to the city, and hopes that your visit will be pleasant and profitable."

Other Addresses W. H. Diggs extended to the visitors an address of welcome and stated that the mayor had told him the city belongs to the harness makers while he lives.

L. G. Miller, the oldest traveling salesman on the road in the saddlery business and the organizer of the association, made an address on the saddlery trade at large and gave a brief history of the organization. He advised the association to meet the wholesaler half way.

"We wear your tools," he said, "that the jobbers sold to the general stores by not keeping up your stocks."

President H. J. Keyes of Hallettsville made the president's annual address and responded to the addresses of welcome and accepted the invitation in the full sense of the expression. He gave brief advice to the members of the association and spoke also in behalf of his fellow officers, saying they had done splendid work. He then gave a brief history of the year's work.

In closing, the president spoke of the condition of the association, and said that for the first time in the history of the association it was out of debt completely and had a little cash in the treasury besides. He also reported the reports of several committees of the association and spoke also in behalf of his fellow officers, saying they had done splendid work.

After the president's address, Frank Jackson of Chicago, Colonel R. S. Fleming of St. Louis, T. H. Wycarver, C. J. E. Koller and others were called upon for brief remarks. The reports of several committees were also heard at the morning session.

At Newcastle, Ind., a large smoke stack fell on the roof of the Christian church, while the double funeral service of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Shoupe was in progress. Great consternation was created in the church, but no one was hurt.

HOUSTON WANTS POLL TAXES PAID

Active Campaign Begun by Commercial Bodies to Voters

Special to The Telegram. Houston, Texas, Jan. 16.—An active campaign to induce the payment of poll taxes has been inaugurated in Houston. Not content with remaining satisfied with the appeals through the papers to the citizens to pay up and become voters, the Business League and the Cotton Exchange have established a temporary tax collector's office, and are sending out three solicitors, well paid, who are touring the business and manufacturing centers, collecting poll taxes and issuing receipts. The office is open until 10 o'clock at night.

LON BARKLEY TO BE POSTMASTER Private Telegram Announcing Choice Received Here

First definite information regarding Fort Worth's next postmaster was received here this morning, when the following telegram was received from Washington, and shown to a Telegram reporter by a prominent banker in this city: "Reliably informed Lon Barkley will be next postmaster."

The telegram was received from a close relative of the banker in Washington.

Lon Barkley is not in the city at the present time, being absent on a trip to Washington, where he will be for ten days. The term of Postmaster Burroughs will expire Jan. 22 of this year and the new postmaster will have to be appointed within a few days to make the change without extension of the present postmaster's time.

George W. Burroughs was appointed four years ago to succeed Mrs. Ida L. Turner, who was appointed by President Cleveland and was reappointed by President McKinley upon influence brought by a large number of the business men of this city.

No Notice Received Postmaster Burroughs, when seen this morning, said that he had not heard anything about his successor being appointed, either in an official way from the department or from any other source. Before he was found Assistant Postmaster McKee stated that he had heard nothing whatever of the matter.

A large number of Texas postmasters will be appointed by the administration with the few days, and of these the Fort Worth and San Antonio postmasters will be the most important. Nothing definite has been received as to who will get the San Antonio office.

A report from Washington indicates the following appointments for Texas offices: Comanche, J. McCarthy; Baskin, Mrs. Sallie E. Brooks; Albany, Frank K. Sterrett; Abilene, Mrs. Mary Morrow; El Paso, Mrs. Florence Senn; La Grange, August S. Loessin; Leonard, B. C. May.

CUTS RED TAPE AND SAVES TRAIN

Peoria Operator Prevents Wreck by Violating Rules

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Jan. 16.—Signaling another man's name without authority generally results in trouble, but in the case of D. B. McDermott, telegraph operator at Peoria Junction, a violation of the rules proved a stepping stone to promotion.

McDermott attached his superior officer's signature to an important telegram, nervily wired it as O. K., and waited for results. The chief result was that a trainload of people was saved from probable death. And instead of condemnation, which he fully expected, letters and telegrams of praise arrived from superiors on the Great Pennsylvania railroad.

"I am not seeking for glory, I simply did my duty," said McDermott, when asked about it. "A cloudburst just west of Logansport caused a washout and a freight train to stop on the westbound track. While we were all looking after this the operator at Gebhart, the first block station west of Peoria, on the eastbound track, called me and said water was running over the track just east of there. He being a nervous fellow, I wired him to stop No. 40 the eastbound passenger train, and notify them to run slow and look out for the washout."

The operator refused. He said he must have a message before he would stop the train. There was only a moment to decide what I would do. I knew No. 40 was due there, and that the dispatcher was busy on the train wire. So I wired Gebhart the necessary order and signed J. W. C., our superintendent's initials.

"No. 40 got the orders, and about one mile down grade from Gebhart found a washout sixty to ninety feet long and about three feet deep. Had the train struck that place at her usual speed of about fifty miles an hour, nobody can tell what might have happened."

CAUGHT JAPS WHO MADE BAD MONEY Secret Service Men at Seattle Arrest Clever Counterfeiters

Special to The Telegram. SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 16.—Three Japanese counterfeiters have been placed under arrest by secret service officers, and hundreds of dollars' worth of spurious $5 and $10 gold pieces, with paraphernalia used in their manufacture, were also captured.

Captain Bell, head of the northwest division of the secret service, handled the case, and with the arrest of Janichi Futimido in Port Richmond, Cal., he staged the last of the gang has been rounded up.

According to Captain Bell, the case is unique in the annals of the Pacific coast, not only from the wide field of the operations, but from the fact that the batteries and some of the molds used by the colners were made in Japan and shipped to this country.

Ships and Strongholds Have Been Surrendered

GOVERNMENT SUPREME

Commander of Independencia Takes Refuge on American Warship

Special to The Telegram. SANTO DOMINGO, Monday, Jan. 15.—The revolution is ended. All the strongholds of the revolutionists have capitulated to the government forces, the government guaranteeing in most cases to protect the lives and property of the rebels.

Port Montecristi, on the north coast, which has recently been in the hands of the revolutionists, capitulated today to the government forces, these giving a guarantee of safety to lives and property of all concerned in the revolt.

The Dominican gunboat Independencia, which supported General Morales, former President of Santo Domingo, also surrendered to the government forces. Her commander sought refuge on one of the American warships in the harbor.

All is ended; the island is again quiet.

INDIANS USED ON GOVERNMENT LABOR

Reclamation Work in Rio Grande Will Be Done by Poor Lo

Special to The Telegram. EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 16.—Labor is so scarce in this section that Indians are to be used to a large extent on the government reclamation works when they are started in the Rio Grande valley.

Charles E. Dagnett, acting agent of the United States Indian department, in charge of the Indian employment in the southwestern states, is in the city to confer with Chief Engineer Newell and Supervising Engineer Hall in regard to the employment of Indians on the Carlsbad and Hondo irrigation projects and later on the Rio Grande projects.

Albuquerque is Mr. Dagnett's headquarters. His duty is to see that the Indians get a "square deal" when they are employed by contractors. The government stands in a parental relation toward the Indians, and careful supervision is necessary to insure against evil results from the contract employment of the red men.

Mr. Dagnett declares that he has no sympathy with the Indians, in which the Indians are most closely identified, such as blanket weaving or basket making.

"Navajo Indian labor for six weeks on a blanket which he will sell for $6 or $8," he said, "in two days' work on a railroad he would have earned the money to buy a better blanket. It is a significant fact that no Navajo Indian ever wears a Navajo blanket."

AIR SHAFT BURSTS IN BELMONT TUNNEL

Four Workmen Killed in Middle of East River in New York Harbor

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Four men are dead and four are in the Bellevue hospital, half-suffocated, as a result of the bursting of an air pipe in the shaft of the Belmont tunnel, on the Manhattan War reef, in the middle of East river, early this morning.

The sudden collapse of the air pipe let torrents of water down in to the tunnel, where many men were working. The shaft has been carried out from Forty-second street, and has just about passed the middle of East river. The new shaft had been put in possibly a week or so ago, and was not sufficiently strong to endure the tremendous pressure of the water upon it.

The four men killed were caught before they had an opportunity to escape. Of the rest of the workmen, all but four managed to escape. These four were picked up in an unconscious condition, and have been conveyed to the hospital.

The accident will probably retard the continuation of the work for some days.

REVISION OF 28-HOUR LAW

Stevens and Cowan to Appear Before Committee

Special to The Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Congressman Stevens and Samuel Cowan, general counsel for the Cattle Raisers' Association, will appear before the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce Tuesday, Jan. 23, in support of the Stephens bill, which provides for the amendment of the revised statute so as to enable cattlemen to unload and feed cattle en route to market every forty hours, instead of twenty-eight hours, as required by the present law.

Both Representative Stephens and Mr. Cowan take the position that there is nothing gained by the present law, but that instead of producing good results it is harmful in its workings.

Driving Harms Cattle

Driving the cattle out of the car and beating them back into their places, they claim, is harmful to the creature. There is no making them eat or drink when they are gotten out of the cars and the only thing in the end to show for the performance is a charge of about $1 per head, which represents the cost of driving and so-called feeding. It very often takes the very hardest kind of a race for the cattle back into awaiting cars, which means not only labor, but loss of much valuable time.

Law Inconvenient

The railroads, the cattlemen and, in fact, everybody with expert knowledge on the subject is of the opinion that the present law works a great inconvenience on the cattle raisers and railroads and that there is no corresponding gain to show for it.

Stevens After Square Deal

Congressman Russell of Texas, who was recently appointed to the membership of the committee, will take care of the measure and see that the cattle raisers and railroads get the "square deal."

Stevens Bills to Committee

Representative Stephens said that his resolution calling upon the interstate commerce commission for information concerning freight rates on cattle and alleged discrimination against Texas cattle and other products from the Lone Star state, which has been referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, will be taken up shortly by that committee. He hopes to have it out of the way before Jan. 23.

HARNESS MEN HOLD SESSION

If this order is still maintained, the meeting next year will go to San Antonio, but that matter will be disposed of during the coming meeting.

The headquarters of the association during the convention is at the large Waco hotel, and there were a large number of the delegates present at the hotel Monday afternoon and more came in during the evening. Each of the delegates wears a button about an inch and a half across fastened to a bit of blue ribbon. The button bears the inscription of the title of the association with the words, "Fort Worth, January 16, 17 and 18, 1906."

CITY COUNCIL TO AID PLANS

Meeting With Sidewalk Committee Is Approved

NO ADDITIONAL POLICE

Matter Finally Left for Decision by Next City Administration

That hearty co-operation will be given the city council in the sidewalk movement was shown at the regular session of the body held Monday night. Definite action was deferred awaiting the conference to be held tonight between the joint committee of the Board of Trade, the Factory club, the mayor, city attorney and street and finance committees of the council. All expressions favored any improvement the city can consistently make.

Another important matter considered by the body was the application of Chief of Police Maddox for additional men. The matter was finally held over to the next city administration, a substituted motion to this effect being carried.

On report of the finance committee a warrant was drawn for the next interest. Claims were allowed to a total of $13,301.05.

The report of the police committee on the petition of Chief Maddox to be allowed twenty-four additional men was next received. This report favored the granting of eleven new officers. The committee called attention to the fact that while the city has been increasing the size of the police force had not been increased, and declared the need of better protection.

Alderman Waggoner opposed the adoption of the report, and offered as a substitute that the matter be allowed to go over to the next city administration, a substituted motion to this effect being carried.

A discussion lasting nearly an hour followed, in which those opposing the adoption of the report and favoring the substitute, took the position that the cost of the additional men would be too great, and that the taxes already being collected, it was stated that a great part of the remaining two-fifths would not be collected in the coming year, and that the tax collecting season was drawing to a close. Woman Agrees to Go Home if Man With Whom She Has Lived Is Safe

Special to The Telegram.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 12.—"I've been trying to shake that woman for years," these are the words of Harold Carr of this city, spoken in connection with the departure of Mrs. Arnal for the city of Chicago, with A. Arnal, her husband. Carr and Mrs. Arnal were found reading together in Kansas City by Arnal, who is a telegraph employe in Chicago. Carr and Mrs. Arnal after Arnal took a mighty oath that he would not proceed in the prosecution of Carr that the woman agreed to quit Carr and return to her husband's home.

Arnal is a reticent. He is a modest man and unassuming. He dislikes having his words or acts, his wife or other private family concerns being the subject of public discussion. He refused to say but a few words in regard to himself and wife, and he refused to say that he would return at once to their home and that he intends to treat his wife in such a manner that she will remember the blissful days of their honeymoon and forget there was ever such a man on earth as Harold Carr.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 15.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick now sleeps a felon in the Ohio penitentiary and her name is "No. 20,680."

No special preparations were made for her reception at the prison. She will be compelled to sleep on a cot in the corridor of the prison, as the woman's department is filled and every bed occupied.

After she had filed her name with the clerk the following entry was made in the prison book:

"Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, alias Madame De Vere, 10 years; conspiring to wreck a national bank, Cuyahoga county; received Jan. 12, 1906; expires Jan. 12, 1916; good time, November, 1912."

The woman of the prison pointed out that she was "dressed like a gypsy." Her skirt was of garnet cloth and her hair was piled high, while her head was surmounted by an immense black Gainsborough, or plume hat, with three enormous ostrich plumes of jet black feathers, which she wore with fresh air and sunshine, exercise and right food as her principal agencies.

IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS

There was some discussion of the street and sidewalk matter. The question was asked why the last sidewalk and street improvements ordered by the council had not been made. It was stated that a great part of the remaining two-fifths would not be collected in the coming year, and that the tax collecting season was drawing to a close.

SPECIAL BUILDING TAX

Alderman Henderson moved that the city attorney be instructed to draw up an ordinance providing a tax on all buildings projecting the streets further than eighteen inches, including cellars as well as show windows. The motion carried.

An invitation to a smoker to be given by the cigarmakers next Friday night was accepted.

William J. Eady and others asked for lower sewers so they can build cellars.

A deed of dedication from K. M. Van Zandt for a street in Rock Island addition was accepted and the street will be named London.

Appointments of the police department for fill vacancies were confirmed.

Extension of water mains in the Second and Seventh wards was ordered.

TAX CASE REPORT

City Attorney Orrick reported that the case of the city against the Texas Loan and Building Company had been lost in the Forty-eighth district court. He said that he believed the case should be carried to the highest court to decide whether the city is entitled to tax such holdings; and that if not the legislature should be asked for a law to carry the case to the highest court. The assessment be carried on the books and when it becomes delinquent he should be instructed to sue and carry the case to the highest court. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

PLUMBING ORDINANCE

A plumbing ordinance providing for the establishment of a plumbing board, whose duty it should be to examine all plumbers and grant licenses to all passing the examination, was taken up, discussed and finally referred to the committee on sewer committees.

City Physician Barber stated that there is much bad plumbing done in the city, and that it has caused some sickness, but that he did not favor or oppose the ordinance.

SEWER CHANGE ASKED

George W. Armstrong presented a proposition to the city asking that the route of the proposed sewer through the Eleventh ward be changed so that it would cross more of his property and less of the city limits. He stated that the proposed change would be equally as good for the city as the present course, and that he would pay the additional expense involved on his own pocket. He had been informed by the city engineer that the additional expense would be about $300, and he offered to guarantee the additional expense up to $1,000. He stated that he proposed to put his property on the market, and that he would later come into the city and buy water for the park, and that he would also donate a few acres of land to the city for a park. Mr. Armstrong proposed to pay the additional expense, with the understanding that the city would refund it to him when the property came inside the city limits. The further provision was made that his money be returned when the park was dedicated or donated to the city. The proposition was referred to the sewer committee for report.

ORDINANCE AMENDED

A petition containing several hundred names was presented to the council, asking that the ordinance relative to the sale of intoxicating drinks in variety theaters be so amended that the sale would be permitted in adjoining buildings, not over the same roof. The petition called attention to the large amount of money expended by the Standard theater, which was given at $20,000 per year, and to the benefits accruing to the commercial interests. The petition was referred to the police committee without comment.

STREET DEFENDED

There was a petition from south side asking that a property owner be prevented from constructing a curb and sidewalk at the southeast corner of Terrell and Hemphill streets. It was explained that at this point the car line is within three feet of the curb; that when the traction company was granted the right to lay a track this corner was in contest, and General Manager Haines, now deceased, agreed to buy the corner and dedicate a triangular street piece 35x47 feet, to the city for street purposes. The purchase was made. It was declared, and since then the traction company has sold the property to S. L. Mayers. The company reserves the triangle, but releases it to Mayers. It was reported, Mr. Mayers, it was said, is now trying to construct a sidewalk there. The matter was referred to the city engineer and street and alley committee for a conference with Mr. Mayers and the traction company.

TEXAS RANGERS ORDERED OUT

Trial of Double Murderer Begins at Belleville

Special to The Telegram.

BELLEVILLE, Texas, Jan. 16.—Rangers have been ordered out to surround the Austin county court house during the second trial of W. T. Eldridge, a double murderer, which begins today. Excitement runs high, and it is feared that should the verdict be anything but condemnation, trouble may result.

W. T. Eldridge is a wealthy citizen of San Antonio, who was indicted for the murder of William Duvoivat, his business partner, a year or so ago. On the trial Eldridge was acquitted.

Afterwards an attempt was made to assassinate him. He accused W. E. Calhoun, who was a brother-in-law of Duvoivat's, of lying in wait to murder him. Last summer Eldridge saw Calhoun on a train not far from Belleville and shot him to death.

Mrs. Calhoun, widow of the murdered man, has arrived here to attend the trial.

The rangers will remain here until the trial is over.

PERJURY CHARGED IN ENVELOPE CASE

Hotel Clerk Released and Complainant Arrested

Another chapter was added Tuesday to the case of the state against Ed M. Jackson, charged in Justice Terrell's court with the theft by bailment of $18,000 bonds and money from M. C. McGraw, president of the Kennedale Canning and Preserving company.

M. C. McGraw, the complaining witness against Jackson, was arrested on a charge of perjury, made by Jackson's specification being that in the investigation of the Jackson case Monday, McGraw swore that Jackson gave him a receipt for the bonds and $250 cash, which Jackson alleged was not true.

McGraw stated in his testimony Monday that he would have the receipt in court today, but it is charged he did not have it when Jackson's case was called up. The complaint charging perjury was then made and McGraw taken in charge by Constable Cantrell and arraigned on the charge of perjury.

At this point in the proceedings McGraw produced what he said was the receipt given him by Jackson. It was an ordinary newspaper, written in ink and was hardly decipherable. It was inspected by Justice Terrell and it appeared to be as follows:

"Received of M. C. McGraw $18,000 bonds and $250.

"CLERK,"

This was shown Jackson and he said he had never seen it. He was required to write what was on the alleged receipt, and this writing, the alleged receipt, and a receipt given by McGraw to parties in Kennedale was taken in charge by the court.

Monday afternoon Jackson made bond of $250 and was released from jail.

Tuesday morning after further investigating the case, Justice Terrell discharged Jackson and fixed the bond of McGraw, the complaining witness against Jackson, at $1,000, which was given. His examining trial is set for Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

SAM SHREWDER FINED

Sam Shrewder was fined a total of $500 in three cases by Judge Robt. H. Milam of the country court, Monday afternoon, notwithstanding Shrewder plead guilty in each case. The charges against Shrewder were, carrying a pistol, aggravated assault, and opening on Sunday. The fine in the first being $100, in the second $500 and in the third $50.

In addition to these heavy fines Judge Milam assessed against Shrewder one year in the pistol case and three years in the aggravated assault case.

The punishment in the pistol case is the heaviest penalty for such an offense that has been imposed in Tarrant county since the present law against carrying pistols became operative. Both the pistol case and that of aggravated assault grew out of a meeting between Shrewder and Sam Shrewder and a policeman of the police force. The case charging a violation of the Sunday law and others had been pending against Shrewder prior to the attack between him and Captain Blanton. He was arrested by the Territory officers being assault to murder, Captain Blanton. At the trial Monday it was agreed that in the assault case that Shrewder might plead guilty to the lesser of-

AT THE MAJESTIC

An extra added to the program of the Majestic theater Monday night proved the hit of the evening, judging by the applause, William Price, a Fort Worth boy, who has been on the Majestic circuit for some time, being given a hearty reception when he was heard in dialect and songs.

The appearance of Price, who was known to many people in the audience, proved a pleasant surprise, his feast song and Italian description of a ball game being especially good. In a short song opening his turn he showed himself a master of negro dialect.

William Davis and company in Daniel and His Lion presented one of the little masterpieces of drama being offered weekly. His old man part was especially well taken, his support, both his good and his bad, being especially good. This act with Moe, Emma's little fox terrier performing wonderful tricks, proved to be especially entertaining.

Kit Carson appeared in ranch costume performed some of the most difficult shooting ever seen in this city. A shot at a swinging target while swinging himself on a slack wire was loudly applauded. His shots were made Monday night without a miss.

Margaret Shores or was heard in "Don't You Care" with "Annie Laurie" as an encore, and made a favorable impression. The dances of Hawley & Lesch were the top notchers and a baby impersonation good. The opening song might well be omitted.

The Wednesdays in an automobile act made a decided hit. The Gordon Bennett automobile race pictures were a feature of the Kinetograph.

A complimentary violin recital was given in the auditorium of Polytechnic college Monday night by Mr. Jacob Streiner. Mrs. J. M. Groom sang three of Mr. Schreiner's compositions for soprano, with Miss Martha Whitaker as accompanist.

AT THE MAJESTIC

An extra added to the program of the Majestic theater Monday night proved the hit of the evening, judging by the applause, William Price, a Fort Worth boy, who has been on the Majestic circuit for some time, being given a hearty reception when he was heard in dialect and songs.

The appearance of Price, who was known to many people in the audience, proved a pleasant surprise, his feast song and Italian description of a ball game being especially good. In a short song opening his turn he showed himself a master of negro dialect.

William Davis and company in Daniel and His Lion presented one of the little masterpieces of drama being offered weekly. His old man part was especially well taken, his support, both his good and his bad, being especially good. This act with Moe, Emma's little fox terrier performing wonderful tricks, proved to be especially entertaining.

Kit Carson appeared in ranch costume performed some of the most difficult shooting ever seen in this city. A shot at a swinging target while swinging himself on a slack wire was loudly applauded. His shots were made Monday night without a miss.

Margaret Shores or was heard in "Don't You Care" with "Annie Laurie" as an encore, and made a favorable impression. The dances of Hawley & Lesch were the top notchers and a baby impersonation good. The opening song might well be omitted.

The Wednesdays in an automobile act made a decided hit. The Gordon Bennett automobile race pictures were a feature of the Kinetograph.

VIOLIN RECITAL GIVEN

A complimentary violin recital was given in the auditorium of Polytechnic college Monday night by Mr. Jacob Streiner. Mrs. J. M. Groom sang three of Mr. Schreiner's compositions for soprano, with Miss Martha Whitaker as accompanist.

GOOD FOR FORT WORTH. William Cargill, general superintendent of the Armour plant of Fort Worth, has returned from a business trip to Chicago and Kansas City.

Not only good for Fort Worth, but good for all Texas and the Southwest. One of the crying demands of the Fort Worth market since the establishment of the big packing houses here has been a market for the class of stuff known as "canners."

Those who have believed that Mexico was destined to become a great cotton-producing country and rival the southern states in the production of the fleecy staple will have to wait a long time to see their predictions verified.

Polk county comes to the front with a lynching, just to show the balance of the state that southeast Texas can come up with her end of the singletree in such matters.

Practically all Texas has been covered with a warm mantle of snow during the past few days, and it means much for the agricultural and pastoral interests of the state.

Ohio now has a democratic governor, John M. Pattison having been formally inaugurated Monday.

It is believed that the location of these two great canning plants here will cause other big packers to turn in this direction, for it means that Fort Worth is to be a competitor for business with every other packing center in the country.

The Colorado board recognized the position of the stockmen, but has maintained that to raise the limit would be to try to remedy these conditions the wrong way.

As drafted by Whitehead the bill will completely cover this objection raised by the stockmen, and it is claimed by the board, that it will go far beyond that and be of great advantage to stockmen in other ways.

The board has written to the American Humane association explaining its reasons for drafting the bill and asking for support.

The fact that the humane people are taking this new tack seems to indicate that they are fearful the stockmen have succeeded in the fight they are making for the amendment of the existing law.

AMUSEMENTS

To the delight of the audience which filled about two-thirds of Greenwall's opera house Monday night, "Nancy Brown" came to town for the first time and made an impression that will not soon be forgotten. The part of Nancy Brown, which was created by Marie Cahill, was taken by Miss Mary Marble, who was supported by a good company. The original music of "Nancy Brown," which has been whistled all over the country for some years, was lacking, as the managers no doubt considered that newer pieces would take better, and several catchy tunes have been interpolated. It was not until the close that the familiar notes of "Nancy Brown Invited Me to Town" were heard. Although an old comic opera, "Nancy Brown" still draws crowds that compare favorably with the very latest world theater-goers, many of whom have never had an opportunity to see it, now have a chance to see a comic opera that will be included among the best of the season. Mary Marble in the title role plays as she had done before with a success that makes almost imperative the return calls which she is compelled to make after each of her songs. One feature of the show which was not brought out as strongly as many would have liked was a quartet of chorus girls who did the best bit of dancing seen here in many a day. Their work drew forth volumes of applause. The music of the show is decidedly

LETTER TO TELEGRAM READERS R. A. Anderson Guarantees Hyomei to Cure Catarrh or It Costs Nothing Editor of The Telegram: In view of the prevalence of catarrhal troubles at this season of the year, I want to tell you that I have never sold anything that gave more satisfaction than Hyomei, when used in catarrhal troubles. You get immediate relief from the treatment, and consistent use will prove to every sufferer, as it has to many of our customers, the virtue of this preparation, and for it is made and sold on honor, and I do not want your money unless you are benefited and satisfied. There is no stomach dosing in connection with Hyomei. It is a thoroughly local treatment for a local disease, and its soothing, healing medication goes direct to the spot where it is needed. The complete Hyomei outfit consists of a pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei, and the price is only $1, while additional bottles can be obtained for 50 cents. I positively guarantee a cure when Hyomei is used in accordance with directions, or I will refund your money. This certainly shows our faith and belief in the virtues of Hyomei. Yours very truly, R. A. ANDERSON.

It Costs Nothing

To find out for a certainty, whether or not your heart is affected. One person in four has a weak heart; it may be you. If so, you should know it now, and save serious consequences. If you have short breath, fluttering, palpitation, hungry spells, hot flushes; if you cannot lie on left side; if you have fainting or smothering spells, pain around heart, in side and arms, your heart is weak, and perhaps diseased. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will relieve you. Try a bottle, and see how quickly your condition will improve.

"About a year ago I wrote to the Miles Medical Co., asking advice, as I was suffering with heart trouble, and had been for two years. I was in my heart, back and left side, and had drawn a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could lie on my left side without suffering. They advised me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve, which I did with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained ten pounds. I commenced taking it. I took about thirty bottles of the two medicines, and haven't been bothered since." MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, druggist, 1505 Broadway, Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

WEST AND VOKES Those imitable and satirical fun producers, West and Vokes, as Percy Wood called them, are now in an elaborated edition of "A Pair of Pinks," which will be the attraction at Greenwall's opera house Monday and Tuesday nights and Tuesday and Wednesday nights. It is promised that in this new edition all previous offerings have been far exceeded, both as to music, costumes, chorus and scenery.

HOW JAMES BOYS MADE FIRST RAID

Fort Worth Man Tells of Exciting Incident Deputy County Tax Collector Joe Winston is a product of the county in Kentucky where the James band perpetrated their first bank robbery. In 1867, and it so happened that this robbery was in the same county that was the boyhood home of the father of Jesse and Frank James. One of the sufferers from the robbery was a deacon in the church where the elder James worshipped and sometimes preached before he left Kentucky and went to Missouri. The robbery was that of the private banking house of N. Long & Co., located in the Sleepy Hollow, in the little town of Russellville, Mo. It was on Saturday, April 17, 1867. It was attended by more excitement than the little city had ever experienced, and it was the cause of a civil war. It was preceded by some very interesting maneuvers by those who galloped off with over $100,000 of the bank's money. Five men committed the robbery at high noon. They were Jesse James, the leader; G. W. (Jack) Sheppard, Dick Liddell and Bob Younger. Jesse, dressed in a black velvet suit, a plush broadbrimmed hat and high-top boots, was the first to appear, just after the close of the civil war, was the first of the five to make his appearance in the town. He had a fine appearance, stepped at the best both in the city and soon made the acquaintance of young bloods in the town. He was even so far from indulging in a game of poker and base. He was a good loser and took his losses philosophically. He went by the name of Little.

"KILTIES BAND" The Kilties, who come to Greenwall's opera house Thursday matinee and night, Jan. 18, is a world-renowned aggregation of musicians. The band is composed of crack musicians, selected from the leading regiments of the Dominion of Canada, and appears at each concert in the picturesque and unique dress of the Scotch highlanders. The organization numbers forty-five men, and includes, besides the instrumentalists, a fine vocal choir and a number of Scotch dancers and singers. The matinee will doubtless be attended by a large number of children.

"AT THE OLD CROSS ROADS" One of the season's best offerings will be "At the Old Cross Roads," which will be presented by Arthur C. Alston's company at Greenwall's opera house Friday, Jan. 19. Not only has New York city, where the piece was seen by enormous audiences, at the Grand opera house, placed the stamp of approval on this beautiful story of the South, but the other large cities have joined together in bestowing much praise and favorable comment on the play and the excellence of the organization.

GRAND OPERA COMPANY James S. Hutton, Mr. Henry W. Savage's representative in advance of his justly celebrated English Grand Opera Company, is in the city at work on the preliminaries necessary for the inauguration of the brief season of grand opera in English which opens at Greenwall's opera house Saturday, Jan. 20, for matinee and night of the first grand opera. The company, undoubtedly the best ever organized in America for the purpose of rendering grand opera in English, is this year formed on far more important lines than in the past, being a combination of the best forces of the "Paraffin" and English grand opera companies of last season, and which met with so much favor at the hands of music lovers of the entire country. The best voices from each have been retained, not only among the leading artists, but alarm, while Jesse James and Bob Younger robbed the bank of $10,000. While this was going on there was a lively time outside. The shot fired by James and the calls of Long had aroused the people and soon the street was filled with them. Dick Liddell on the bank steps and Cole Younger on the street, and the crowd of people that opened fire on everyone who appeared, shooting two of them. It soon got hot for the robbers, and they made their escape to the hills, notwithstanding there was a hot pursuit of them for a day and a night.

George W. Sheppard was captured about two weeks later by "Yankee" Bligh and J. H. Gallagher, two Louisville detectives, and brought back to Russellville and tried and given four years in the penitentiary. The other four men were never tried for the robbery. This was the first bank robbery ever committed by the James gang, but it was soon followed by the robbery of the bank at Columbia, Ky., where the cashier was shot to death by one of the gang. Joe Winston says the facts of the Russellville robbery were as fresh in his memory as if they had occurred only yesterday. Cole Younger, one of the men engaged in this robbery, was at one time a resident of Dallas county and had the confidence of all the people in the Scyene neighborhood, where he spent a great deal of his time between bank and country train robberies, teaching a class in a country Sunday school.

CITY HALL FOR NORTH FT. WORTH

Municipal Building Will Likely Be Erected North Fort Worth is to have a new city hall, which will be large enough to accommodate all offices of the city. The fire department is to have new quarters, perhaps under the same roof, and a city jail will also be provided in connection with the city building.

The location of the new building will be between the pumping station and Twenty-first street. The city owns four lots of valuable land at this place and will group all public buildings at this site, the meeting point of the four wards.

The water works system has been occupying most of the city council's time for several meetings. But this question will be disposed of within a week or so, and then the council will take up the matter of the new city hall. It is thought that as soon as they do so, the work will be begun.

DOGS UNDERSTAND THREE LANGUAGES

Mme. Emmy Tells How to Train Animals

The art of training dogs to do remarkable things, as exemplified by Mme. Emmy, who is at the Majestic this week, is a rare one. And the attributes of the trainer must be peculiar. First, there must be careful judgment—for, as Mme. Emmy says, "trick dogs are born, not made." Unless the animal has a propensity for tricks, as well as the intelligence that their performance requires, little can be done by the trainer. Then there must be patience—infinite patience. This does not mean that the trainer must blandly allow the dogs to have their own way and never show authority over them; but it does mean a persistence that will overcome all obstacles.

In the troupe of dogs that Mme. Emmy is showing are six fox terrier and one "French poodle setter," as Mme. Emmy calls it. This last is interesting enough for an article all by itself, and as it is only 2 1/2 years old, it will probably receive one in the natural course of its bright dog life. The dogs are trained to obey commands in three languages—English, French and German—the last named being Mme. Emmy's native tongue.

Texas Dog in Troupe "I am constantly adding to my number of dogs," said Mme. Emmy, "for the very apparent reason that I am sometimes grieved by the loss of one, and for the further reason that for new tricks I have to have new dogs. Only last week, in Houston, I bought a new dog which I call Freda, and which is 'understanding' Rosie, my oldest dog—she is 15—in the spectacular trick of racing on top of the illuminated wheel. Freda is 2 years old, very intelligent, and already knows some tricks which can be used in our performance.

"Freda's special training has already begun, she is put on the dais with the other dogs at morning rehearsal, for it is better to teach them together—dogs have much gift for imitation. She will be taught to sit up on the dais, take part in some of the ensemble acts. Later on, when she gains confidence in me, the dais and the show business, I shall put her on the wheel, and see if she can learn to do what Rosie does so well. Pensions Old Dogs "If she 'makes good,' Rosie will be retired—sent back to my home in Germany, and placed on the pension list for the rest of her life. I am afraid that is not very long now; for at 15 a dog is quite a patriarch, and reaching what you might call the 'old age'.

"The dog which naturally attracts most attention is the cute little French poodle setter, Moody, which acts the clown. I got Moody when she was a blind puppy, and she has never known any care but mine. Moody was a 'natural born' trick dog and clown. I began her training as soon as she was able to sit up—when she was about 6 months old. From the first she showed a penchant for doing erratic things—and seemed to glory in them as jokes. She positively enjoyed it as a prank, and if there is such a thing as laughter in a dog's mind, Moody is the one that laughs. She never did anything. She was apt as a pupil, and learned to do all the things that the other dogs can do, and do them as well. But she did her clown act as much better, and she was so well fitted by size and her natural beauty for that work that I put her into the clown work. When you see the clown, you will observe that she can walk on hind or fore legs, leap over the other dogs and do other feats of skill with the best of them—just as the clown in the circus is as good an acrobat or bareback rider as the performers whom he caricatures. But the average spectator is so taken with Moody's comical work that he forgets or maybe does not see her skill.

Dogs All Named "Rosie has been galloping on the top rim of the wheel for several years; Spot, 6 years old, has for the same period been running on the inside of the wheel. Moschen is the name of the little dog that walks on its hind feet up and down the steps while the orchestra sounds the eight notes of an octave. Freddie is the one that carefully climbs, by front and hind feet, up the ladder between the two sets of steps. Queenie is the one that leaps, by her hind legs, over the other dogs, and then, like children, they will be bad. But I never strike them with the whip. When they are naughty, I put them across my lap and spank them."

Men May Live Happily and Usefully for 150 Years.

Is the Welcome Statement of Dr. Lyman Beecher Sperry in His Recent Address on the "Science of Life," Before the Y. M. C. A. of Chicago.

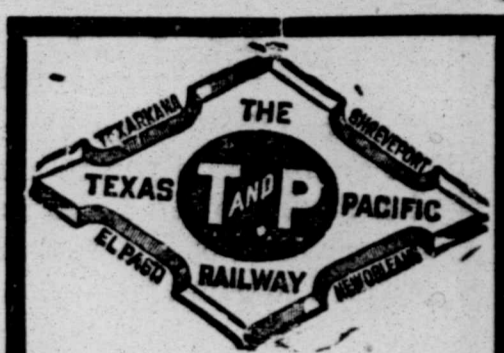

The fact that a person can live to be over a hundred years old has been proven for many years by physicians, scientists, ministers of the Gospel and 4,000 hale and hearty old men and women, all of whom, either by practice or actual use, have become familiar with the life-giving powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

This wonderful tonic-stimulant during the past fifty years has made the matchless record of 20,000 cures. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only positive cure and preventive of consumption, pneumonia, grip, malaria, low fever, coughs, colds, bronchitis, diseases of the throat and lungs, nervous prostration, stomach troubles, and all weakening, wasting conditions due to sickness, worry or old age. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no fusel oil, and is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine.

Following are a few short words of appreciation from thankful men and women who realize the life-giving powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey: Rev. W. N. Dunham, D. D., Chesham, N. J.:—"Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a reliable, effective and agreeable tonic-stimulant." Mrs. William Pratt, Chelsea, Mass., 91 years old:—"It is a wonderful tonic and has been the mainstay of my old age." Rev. A. McLeod, D. D., Greenville, Mich.:—"I thank God there is such a medicine as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey." Samuel Pike, Lisbon, N. H., 90 years old:—"Every man of advanced years should keep it in his house." Captain Frank Myers, Atlanta, Ga.:—"Duffy's has cured me and I heartily recommend it to old men." CAUTION.—Avoid substitutes and dangerous imitations and be sure you get the genuine. In sealed bottles only; never in flask or bulk. You'll know the genuine by the Old Chemist trade-mark on the label. Look for it carefully, and refuse everything else. It will cure you after all other medicines have failed. Price $1 per bottle. Medical booklet free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.
